RE: Request for Meeting

Dear Mr. Avery:

As you know, I was formerly the District Attorney of Calumet County, and served as lead prosecutor in your criminal case between 2005 and 2007. I no longer am an elected DA, and in fact am not affiliated with the State of Wisconsin in any way. I am in private law practice.

I have determined that your criminal appeal process is concluded, and therefore you are not currently represented by counsel. If I am mistaken, please disregard this correspondence.

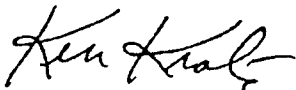

I am also aware that there is no present civil case where you and I are parties to the action, and I do not believe there is any further prohibition in my contacting you, or in you agreeing to speak with me.

I would like to meet with you personally, at your facility, to discuss your case. It is for my own personal use, and not in connection with any state action or investigation. You will be given nothing of value if you agree to meet with me, other than having the chance to talk to me directly and ask any questions you may wish.

I will be honest with you in our meeting, and obviously have questions I would like to ask you.

If you agree, please write to me at my law firm, and tell me how I can secure a visit with you. If you are not interested, either throw this letter away, or write to me, telling me that you are not interested. It's obviously all up to you.

Sincerely yours,

RE: Follow-up to Your Request for Meeting

Dear Mr. Avery:

Please recall that in the spring of 2013, you had requested that I come visit you at the Wisconsin State Program Facility in Boscobel, Wisconsin. You neglected to add me to your visitor list, and after we had arranged a visit, the prison cancelled the visit, stating that the visit would be contrary to your programming there...they didn't want me talking to you.

Now that you have been transferred to Waupun Correctional Institution, and we are not dealing with the same staff or program problems, I am writing to inquire whether you still want me to come visit you?

If you do, please write to me, and ADD ME to your visitor list. I had indicated previously that the Department of Corrections probably does not want you to tell your story to me, but it is my belief that they can't tell you who you can tell your story to, and that it is YOUR DECISION if you want to talk to me or not.

You no longer have any pending litigation, including appeals, and therefore there is NO conflict which exists to you speaking with me. I am willing to visit with you if you want me to.

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth R. Kratz

RE: I'm Sorry That You Are Not Interested

Dear Mr. Avery:

I got your letter dated August 28, 2015, wherein you tell me that your visitor list is full, and ask if I checked out other fingerprints found on Teresa Halbach's car, telling me that these people could have "set you up" for this.

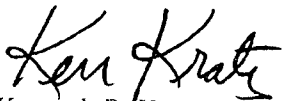

I apologize for misunderstanding your letters from a couple years ago, as I thought you were interested in being honest about what happened and finally telling the whole story to someone. Since I'm the person who probably knows more about your case than anyone else, I hoped that you would choose me to tell your story to.

Unfortunately, you only want to continue your nonsense about being set up. That's too bad, because you had ONE opportunity to finally tell all the details, but now that will never happen.

By the way, the difference between you and famous convicted murderers from the past is they told their whole truthful story to someone, who then wrote a book about what actually happened and people got to understand both sides. I was willing to do that for you...but if you are going to continue to lie about what happened between you and Ms. Halbach, I am not interested.

If you change your mind, and want to tell your honest story someday, please contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth R. Kratz
