Dear Judge Hazelwood,

I am writing you this letter in the concerns of myself (Candy Avery) and my children, hoping you will give my husband, Earl Avery, less time in jail. Why? My children miss him and so do I. I really don't think it's a very proper place for my children to go see him there. Judge, what I am asking you is that you let my husband come home, and if you won't can you put him on a monitor. We don't have the extra money to pay for the jail costs for him to sleep there. I need his help on the little farm we have. Also my girls are really too young to understand why their Dad can't come home by them. I would really like to hear a response from you in this matter. You could either write me or call at [REDACTED] Thank you.

Sincerely,

Candy S. Avery

Candy S. Avery

P.S. You are probably thinking Earl told me to write this, but he doesn't know anything about this.
