

Steven Avery that she had informed Bryan Dassey, prior to her leaving on vacation, that she would pay him the $50 for the Pioneer CD player upon her return from Florida. Littersky informed Steven Avery that she would like Steven Avery to inform Bryan that she did not appreciate the text message. Littersky indicated that after her conversation with Avery, she ended the conversation, informing Avery that she was wasting her cell minutes being that her phone was roaming. Littersky indicated at that point in time she ended her conversation with Steven Avery.

Littersky then indicated that a short time thereafter she received an incoming telephone call from the aforementioned cell number. Littersky indicated she answered the telephone and learned that Steven Avery was the caller. Littersky indicated during the course of this conversation Steven Avery asked her "would you like to come over and have a little fun" Littersky indicated the next sentence of that conversation consisted of "we can have the bed hit the wall real hard." Littersky informed Steven Avery that she would not come over to his house, that Avery's family no longer liked her, and that she was again wasting her cell minutes and hung up the phone. S/A Lewis questioned Littersky, why Avery's family no longer liked her. Littersky stated that she believed that the Avery family or the Dassey family no longer liked her because she had broken up with Bryan Dassey.

S/A Lewis then questioned Littersky when she first heard about Teresa Halbach listed as a missing person. Littersky indicated that on possibly Friday night (11/04/2005) her mother informed her that Halbach was, in fact, listed as a missing person and that she (Halbach) had been allegedly on the Avery property.

Littersky indicated that on Saturday, 11/05/2005, at approximately 11:32 a.m., she decided to call Bryan Dassey at his cellular number, 920-973-1130. Littersky indicated she dialed the number and no one answered the cellular telephone. Littersky then indicated that she called Barbara Janda, identified as Bryan's mother. Littersky indicated she had called Janda inquiring if Janda knew where Bryan had purchased the Pioneer CD player. Barbara Janda informed Littersky that she believed Bryan had purchased the Pioneer CD player at Rex's, in the City of Manitowoc, WI.

S/A Lewis questioned Littersky why she wanted to know where the Pioneer CD player had been purchased. Littersky informed S/A Lewis that she had questions regarding the Pioneer CD player and wanted to know who to contact regarding those questions.

On Sunday, 11/06/2005, at approximately 5:00 p.m., Littersky indicated she contacted Bryan Dassey at his aforementioned cell number. Littersky indicated she called Dassey from the front desk of her employer, identified as Fox Hills Resort. Littersky indicated that the purpose of the phone call was to ask Bryan questions reference the wiring of a stereo into her vehicle. Littersky indicated that she was installing a different stereo/CD player into her vehicle because the faceplate of the Pioneer CD player had been stolen. Littersky indicated that she believed Bryan Dassey did not want to speak with her during this conversation, however, did, in fact, answer her questions regarding the wiring of the new stereo into her vehicle. Littersky indicated that, after her conversation with Bryan regarding the wiring of the new CD player into her vehicle, the conversation ended.

S/A Lewis questioned Littersky when she had last visited the Avery and/or Dassey property. Littersky stated that on Tuesday, 11/01/2005, around 5:15 p.m. to 5:30 p.m., Littersky stated that she, along with her friend, identified as Crystal Rolston, drove over to Bryan Dassey's residence. Littersky indicated that during this visit to Bryan's residence, she paid Bryan the $50 for the Pioneer CD player. Littersky stated that Bryan was located in the garage of his mother's residence working on an engine of a green Pontiac Grand Am. Littersky indicated that Barbara Janda's residence appeared to be dark and that no one was believed to be inside the residence. Littersky indicated that during her visit with Bryan Dassey, Steven Avery arrived at the Janda residence driving a black or dark blue pick up truck. Littersky indicated that Steven Avery exited from the vehicle and walked directly into Barbara Janda's residence. Littersky indicated a short time thereafter, Crystal Rolston and herself then left the Avery property. Littersky stated that she had no conversation with Steven Avery during this visit to the Dassey property.

Littersky stated that at approximately 5:40 p.m., on Tuesday, 11/01/2005, she received a telephone call from Bryan's cellular telephone. Littersky indicated that Steven Avery was on the phone and asked Littersky "why didn't you stay and say hi?" Littersky informed Steven Avery that she didn't say hi because she didn't have time and that she was currently moving. Littersky indicated that Steven Avery replied "you can move into my house and it would be free." Littersky replied to Avery's statement by indicating that where she was moving would be fine. Littersky then informed Steven Avery that she was wasting her minutes and that she would have to let him go and hung up.

S/A Lewis then questioned Littersky regarding her relationship with Bryan Dassey. Littersky indicated that she had dated Bryan from 11/17/2004 to 07/07/2005. S/A Lewis questioned Littersky in regards to why their relationship ended. Littersky indicated that they argued a lot and that Bryan Dassey was extremely possessive. Littersky indicated that Dassey did not like her leaving his residence, nor did he like her hanging out with her friends. S/A Lewis questioned Littersky in regards to if Bryan Dassey ever hit her or was violent to her. Littersky indicated that Bryan Dassey had never hit her, they were just involved in heated arguments on a frequent basis.

S/A Lewis then questioned Littersky in regards to who resided at Bryan's residence. Littersky indicated that Barbara Janda and her husband, whom Littersky believed to be identified as Thomas Janda, resided at the residence. Littersky also indicated that Bryan had three other brothers residing with him at the residence. Littersky identified Bryan's brothers as Bobby Dassey, believed to be approximately 19 years of age; Blaine Dassey, believed to be approximately 16 years of age; and Brendan Dassey, who was believed to be 15 years of age; who all resided at the residence.

S/A Lewis questioned Littersky in regards to if there were any unusual activities or comments made while she was present at Bryan's residence. Littersky indicated that on a number of occasions Bryan's stepfather, identified as Thomas Janda, made sexual comments regarding what Littersky was wearing. Littersky indicated that on one occasion Bryan informed her that his stepfather, Thomas Janda, was always checking her out. Littersky informed S/A Lewis that the residence was constantly dirty, with things never being picked up, nor were dishes ever being cleaned. Littersky indicated that when the house picked up it was a result of either Littersky or her boyfriend, Bryan, cleaning up and/or washing the dishes at the residence.

S/A Lewis then questioned Littersky in regards to if she was aware of any type of burn barrels or burn pits located on the Avery property. Littersky indicated that she believed Barbara Janda had a burn barrel located behind her residence, along with a possible burn pit located directly behind her residence. Littersky indicated she believed Steven Avery had a burn barrel located in front of his residence or trailer. S/A Lewis questioned Littersky in regards to if Steven Avery would use Barbara's burn pit and/or burn barrel. Littersky indicated that, as far as she was aware of, Barbara and/or her family used their burn barrel and Steven Avery used his burn barrel.

Littersky informed S/A Lewis that, during the timeframe in which she resided at Bryan's house, which Littersky described as being the majority of the time they dated, Bryan had a job where he had to leave the property at approximately 5:30 a.m. Littersky informed S/A Lewis that when Bryan left for work at 5:30 a.m., she always had to accompany him or follow him out of the Avery property because Bryan had informed her on a number of occasions that he was concerned that, if she remained at the property when he was not home, that Steven Avery may do something to her. Littersky indicated that she, in fact, would leave the Avery property when Bryan left for work and that Steven Avery was always making off-the-wall sexual comments to her and that the comments stated previously in this interview were just common occurrences or statements made from Avery to Littersky.

S/A Lewis then questioned Littersky in regards to Steven Avery's residence, which is a mobile home located in close proximity to Barbara's residence. Littersky indicated that she believed Steven Avery's daughter, identified as Jennifer Avery, believed to be in her mid 20's, resided at the Avery mobile home, along with Steven Avery's fiancée, identified as Jodi. Littersky indicated she was not aware of Jodi's last name. Littersky indicated that Jodi moved into Steven Avery's mobile home after she was released from jail. Littersky indicated that she believed Jodi was in jail relating to a drunk driving arrest.

S/A Lewis questioned Littersky in regards to the general appearance and upkeep of the Steven Avery residence. Littersky indicated that Steven Avery's residence was kept very clean. Littersky indicated she believed that Steven Avery maintained the house and was the one that did the majority of cleaning inside the residence. Littersky indicated that Steven Avery was generally very dirty as a result of him working on vehicles during the week.

S/A Lewis questioned Littersky in regards to her knowledge of Steven Avery and Jodi's relationship. Littersky indicated that on a number of occasions she was present when Steven Avery and Jodi would argue. Littersky informed S/A Lewis that Steven Avery had an extremely bad temper, and on one occasion he had purchased a new computer desk which she believed was constructed out of wood. Littersky indicated a few days after Steven Avery purchased the computer desk, she observed it in the burn barrel outside of his residence. Littersky informed S/A Lewis that, after observing the broken computer desk located in the burn barrel, she had asked Steven Avery what had happened to the computer desk. Littersky stated that Steven Avery informed Littersky that he had gotten mad and had broken it.

S/A Lewis then questioned Litersky in regards to hobbies and/or activities that she observed Steven Avery to conduct on a regular basis. Litersky indicated that Steven Avery spent most of his time working on the cars that were located in the "pit." S/A Lewis questioned Litersky in regards to what she referred to as the "pit." Litersky indicated that the "pit" was the location where all the vehicles were located on the Avery property. Litersky stated that the "pit" was considered out-of-bounds, being that the Avery family didn't want people walking around that area. Litersky also informed S/A Lewis that hunting and fishing were two of Steven Avery's favorite hobbies. S/A Lewis questioned Litersky in regards to where Steven Avery would conduct most of his hunting and ice fishing activities. Litersky indicated that Steve's father and brother, Earl, owned a number of acres located somewhere in Crivitz, WI. Litersky indicated that she believed Steve's father and Earl Avery had possibly 80 acres because they always referred to the property as the front or the back 40 acre area. Litersky indicated that there was at least one cabin on the Avery property located in Crivitz, WI.

S/A Lewis then questioned Litersky in regards to who Steven Avery's best friends or acquaintances were. Litersky indicated she did not know of any close friends that Steven Avery had except for his family or his fiancé. S/A Lewis questioned Litersky in regards to who Steven Avery's closest family member was, in particular, a person that Steven Avery could confide in. Litersky indicated that she believed Steve's sister, identified as Barbara, would be the person that he would speak with regarding confidential matters. Litersky indicated on possibly three occasions she overheard conversations between Barbara and Steven Avery, where Avery would inform Barbara that he had sexual encounters with females that he had met in the local taverns. Litersky indicated that she did not pay attention to those conversations and couldn't provide any further details. Litersky indicated that Steve and Earl were the two closest brothers in the family.

S/A Lewis questioned Litersky if Steven Avery was a big alcohol drinker. Litersky indicated she did not believe Steven Avery was a big drinker, and that Steven Avery had made a comment to her in the past that he didn't like the person that he became after he drank.

S/A Lewis questioned Litersky in regards to if any cameras or surveillance was conducted on the Avery property, in particular, the business portion of the property. Litersky indicated she was not aware of any working cameras on the property, however, had overheard conversations regarding Steven Avery's father that he was going to purchase cameras. Litersky indicated she was aware of one camera on the property, however, indicated it did not work and was a fake camera.

S/A Lewis questioned Litersky in regards to if Steven Avery was in possession of pornography or any other similar items that may be located inside the Avery residence. Litersky indicated she believed there were at least 10 to 12 DVDs of pornography that were located on top of the t.v. or by the entertainment center of Steven Avery's property.

S/A Lewis questioned Litersky in regards to if there was common for Steven Avery to borrow a cell phone, for example Bryan Dassey's cellular telephone. Litersky indicated that Steven Avery always had his cellular telephone attached to his belt at all times, and during the duration of her dating Bryan Dassey, on possibly 2 to 3 occasions, he had borrowed Bryan Dassey's cellular telephone. Littersky indicated that Steven Avery had used Bryan Dassey's cellular telephone during the aforementioned timeframe because Steven Avery had broken his cellular telephone and needed to borrow Bryan Dassey's cellular telephone. Littersky indicated on or about December, 2004 was when Steven Avery had broken his phone as a result of throwing it against a wall.

S/A Lewis questioned Littersky in regards to what type of cellular telephones Steven Avery and Bryan Dassey owned. Littersky indicated that Steven Avery's telephone was believed to be a silver LG cellular telephone and Bryan Dassey's cellular telephone was described as a blue LG cellular telephone.

S/A Lewis questioned Littersky in regards to if Barbara Janda had a cellular telephone. Littersky indicated that Barbara did have a cellular telephone, and listed the number as 920-973-1740, and was not aware of what type of cellular telephone that may have been.

S/A Lewis then questioned Littersky in regards to if Steven Avery was ever observed to be violent, not so much verbally but physically. Littersky indicated that she had never observed Steven Avery physically assault anybody, however, on occasion had observed bruises on Jodi and believed that the bruises were a result of physical altercations that Jodi and Steven Avery had encountered.

Littersky drew a sketch of the Avery property, a copy of which will be electronically attached to this report and the original forwarded to DCIR. S/A Lewis depicted the location of the burn barrel and fire pit as described by Littersky near the Dassey residence; along with the burn barrel located near the Steven Avery residence. S/A Lewis wrote the word "Avery" on the road depicting Avery Road as described by Littersky.