Narrative begins on the following page.

On Thursday, November 10, 2005, at approximately 5:41 PM, S/A Lisa A. Wilson and Calumet County Sheriff's Office Investigator Wendy Baldwin served a search warrant on the person of Bryan T. Dassey, M/W, DOB: 07/15/1985, in an examination room at the Aurora Medical Center, 5000 Memorial Drive, Two Rivers, WI. Investigator Baldwin had called Bryan earlier in the day to coordinate this with him.

S/A Wilson and Investigator Baldwin met with Bryan and his girlfriend Emily Walker, later identified verbally as Emily A. Walker, DOB: 06/02/1987, in the reception area of the medical center. S/A Wilson, Investigator Baldwin, and Bryan were escorted to an examination room by the receptionist. Upon entering the examination room, Bryan asked if he was a suspect in the investigation. Investigator Baldwin explained to Bryan that DNA was needed from each person living on the property and that DNA could serve to either eliminate or implicate him as a suspect. S/A Wilson then interjected and said that she wanted to activate the recorder as there was a pending new state law regarding recording. Bryan appeared to be receptive and agreeable to this and did not voice any objection. S/A Wilson activated the recorder and explained to Bryan that we had a search warrant to obtain a sample of his DNA. S/A Wilson temporarily stopped the recorder to access the exact language of the search warrant regarding what items would be collected and what he'd be searched for. S/A Wilson then activated the recorder and read this portion of the search warrant to Bryan.

At 5:43 PM, S/A Wilson told Bryan that she would read him Miranda Rights. It was explained to Bryan that he was not under arrest; however, he was not free to leave as he required to comply with the search warrant. S/A Wilson explained to Bryan that she would first read the Miranda rights to him, and then provide him the form to read. S/A Wilson told Bryan that if he was agreeable to talking with us, he should sign the form to indicate so. S/A Wilson read each Miranda right to Bryan. After reading each Miranda right, S/A Wilson asked Bryan if he understood it. Bryan answered affirmatively that he did understand each right. S/A Wilson read Bryan the two waiver questions, asking after each question if he understood. Again Bryan answered affirmatively that he did. S/A Wilson indicated her reading of the rights and questions, and Bryan's affirmations after each, with a check mark on the form. S/A Wilson then provided the form to Bryan and asked him to read each right and question and indicate that he understood them by putting his initials by each. Bryan read the form and put his initials, "BD", by each bullet point on the form. Bryan then signed the form, agreeing to talk with us, and S/A Wilson and Investigator Baldwin signed the form as witnesses.

S/A Wilson then explained to Bryan that she would be reading the search warrant to him and told him that he would be provided with that copy. S/A Wilson then read the search warrant to Bryan. S/A Wilson finished and asked Bryan if he had any questions. Bryan said he didn't and S/A Wilson provided Bryan with the search warrant she had just read to him and allowed him time to read it for himself.

After Bryan was done reading the search warrant, S/A Wilson confirmed with Bryan that he had already spoken with another agent, S/A Debra K. Strauss. Bryan said he had. S/A Wilson explained that she and Investigator Baldwin had a few more questions for him regarding his activities and recollections from Monday, October 31, 2005 (Halloween), and asked if he was willing to talk with us. Bryan said he was, however, before we could start, Aurora Medical Center RN Fay L. Fritsch entered the examination room. RN Fritsch explained the procedure to Bryan, telling him that a DNA sample would be collected and that his body would be completely inspected for wounds. Two Rivers Police Department Officer Michael Jeanquart was there for the examination and to photograph any wounds if necessary. S/A Wilson turned off the recorder at approximately 5:53 PM, and she and Investigator Baldwin exited the examination room and waited outside.

At approximately 6:10 PM, RN Fritsch exited the examination room, sealed the buccal swabs into an envelope, and provided them to S/A Wilson. RN Fritsch said she didn't see any wounds on Bryan. S/A Wilson filled out DCI property receipt D7709-1 for the swabs and had RN Fritsch sign the receipt.

At approximately 6:14 PM, S/A Wilson entered the room and activated the recorder. S/A Wilson explained to Bryan that it would be necessary to go to the Two Rivers Police Department to complete the requirements of the search warrant, namely, to obtain his fingerprints and palm prints. S/A Wilson told Bryan that he could follow us there. S/A Wilson then turned off the recorder at 6:15 PM and exited the hospital for the police department.

At approximately 6:26 PM, S/A Wilson activated the recorder in an interview room at the police department. S/A Wilson reminded Bryan of his Miranda Rights and asked him if he was still willing to speak with us. Bryan said he was. S/A Wilson and Investigator Baldwin interviewed Bryan. That interview was documented on a separate report.

At approximately 6:55 PM, the interview was concluded and S/A Wilson turned off the recorder. S/A Wilson told Bryan that she'd be interviewing his girlfriend Emily while his prints were being collected. Investigator Baldwin accompanied Bryan while Officer Jeanquart took his fingerprints and palm prints. S/A Wilson interviewed Emily A. Walker and that interview was documented on a separate report.

At approximately 7:07 PM, Bryan entered the lobby accompanied by Investigator Baldwin, who indicated that the printing was done, thereby concluding the search warrant. Bryan and Emily left the police department.

S/A Wilson filled out DCI property receipt D7710-1 for the prints taken from Bryan by Officer Jeanquart. There was one fingerprint card, and one sheet for each palm, with a full palm print and a side palm print on each. S/A Wilson had Officer Jeanquart sign the receipt and had Investigator Baldwin sign as a witness. S/A Wilson placed these into an envelope and sealed it.

S/A Wilson and Investigator Baldwin returned to the Avery property. At approximately 8:45 PM, S/A Wilson signed Bryan's buccal swabs (D7709-1) and prints (D7710-1) over to S/A James Holmes for transport to the Wisconsin State Crime Laboratory. S/A Holmes signed each property receipt to indicate the transfer of evidence.

On Friday morning, November 11, 2005, S/A Wilson filled out a search warrant return and provided the return, search warrant, and affidavit to Calumet County Investigator Mark Wiegert. S/A Wilson also retained a duplicate of the search warrant return for her report.

Note that S/A Wilson later reviewed the microcassette tape used to record the search warrant and interview with Bryan. There were two separate occasions where the recorder failed. Once was after activating it just prior to reading Miranda rights and the search warrant to Bryan at the hospital. The other was after the cassette tape was flipped to side B and activated during the interview with Bryan at the police department. S/A Wilson retained custody of the microcassette tape, knocking out its tabs to prevent it being recorded over. S/A Wilson entered this microcassette tape on DCI property receipt D7711-1 and labeled it accordingly.
