Narrative begins on the following page.

On Friday, 11/11/2005, at approximately 11:46 a.m., S/A Lisa A. Wilson and Calumet County Investigator Wendy Baldwin interviewed Carmen K. Wiensch, F/W, DOB: 08/16/1961, at her residence, 3214 Maplewood Road, Two Rivers, WI, 920-794-2268(h), 920-901-6501(c).

S/A Wilson explained to Wiensch that it was S/A Wilson's understanding that she had been at the Avery property on Monday, October 31, 2005, Halloween. Wiensch said that Blaine A. Dassey, M/W, DOB: 12/03/1988, was going trick-or-treating with her son Jason (Kresco) that evening as they were going to chaperone Jason's two younger brothers. Wiensch said Blaine had called about one-half hour after getting home from school and told her that he needed a ride from his place to her place for trick-or-treating. Wiensch said she picked Blaine up at the end of Avery Road between 5:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. where the Chevy Blazer was for sale. Wiensch said she would not drive down the driveway to Blaine's residence as it was bumpy and rutted. Wiensch said Blaine was dressed in an outfit for Halloween. S/A Wilson asked Wiensch if she recalled seeing any smoke or fire as she was coming down Avery Road to pick up Blaine. Wiensch said she did not recall seeing any smoke or fire but added that she was in a hurry as she felt they may be late for trick-or-treating. S/A Wilson asked Wiensch how Blaine seemed once she picked him up. Wiensch said Blaine seemed happy to get away on a school night as he usually was not allowed to do things on school nights.

S/A Wilson asked Wiensch if she also dropped Blaine off. Wiensch said Blaine was supposed to arrange his own ride home, however, at approximately 8:00 p.m., he told her that he couldn't find a ride home. Wiensch said she gave Blaine a ride home as well. Wiensch said she dropped Blaine off where she had picked him up at approximately 8:15 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. Wiensch said she recalled seeing a gas truck at the work station nearby Avery Road. S/A Wilson asked Wiensch if she recalled seeing any smoke or fire when she dropped Blaine off. Wiensch said she did not. Wiensch added that she does not like driving at night so she was in a hurry to drop him off and get out of there and get home.

S/A Wilson asked Wiensch if she saw Blaine any other time during that Halloween week. Wiensch said Blaine stayed at her residence on that Friday, November 4, 2005. Wiensch said Blaine was at her house after school on that Friday, dropped off around supper time by one of his brothers, who Wiensch thought was Bobby. Wiensch said Blaine stayed over night.

Wiensch said on Saturday morning, Blaine was picked up by his boss, Mike Kornely. Wiensch said that on Saturday afternoon, Blaine had called from Kornely's cellular telephone and said that he couldn't get on to his property and asked to stay at her residence. Wiensch said Kornely brought Blaine back to her residence and Blaine stayed there until Sunday night. Wiensch said that sometime between 8 p.m. and 9 p.m., Kornely picked Blaine up. Wiensch said Blaine had a conversation with his mother, Barb Janda, that night while he was at her house and Barb had told Blaine to go with Kornely.

S/A Wilson asked Wiensch if it was unusual for Blaine to come over to her house on a school night, in this case, Halloween. Wiensch said she thought it was as Blaine was not usually allowed to go anywhere on school nights.

S/A Wilson asked Wiensch about Blaine's friendship with her son Jason. Wiensch said Blaine and Jason were great friends. Wiensch said Blaine always looked out for Jason with his various health issues. Wiensch said Blaine was good about looking after Jason at school when people picked on him as well. Wiensch said Blaine was well-behaved and that he did a lot of housework at home.

The interview with Wiensch was concluded at approximately 12:06 p.m.
