Narrative begins on the following page.

On 11/15/2005, S/A Kevin assisted with the Teresa Marie Halbach investigation. S/A Heimerl was assigned to interview Inmate [REDACTED] at Redgranite Correctional Institution, located at 1006 CTH EE, Redgranite, WI 54970-0900, in regards to information potentially related to the investigation. Inmate [REDACTED] former home address was [REDACTED], [REDACTED].

On 11/15/2005, S/A Heimerl was assigned to respond to Redgranite Correction Institution, located in Waushara County, WI, and to conduct an interview with Inmate [REDACTED] M/W, DOB [REDACTED] DOC inmate # [REDACTED] S/A Heimerl was advised that Inmate [REDACTED] had contacted authorities indicating that he had previously had contact with Steven Avery while incarcerated in the Wisconsin Department of Corrections and that Steven Avery had previously spoken of burning things or burning bodies.

On 11/15/2005, at approximately 1:30 p.m., S/A Heimerl met personally with Inmate [REDACTED] in a private interview room at Redgranite Correctional Institution. After meeting with Inmate [REDACTED] S/A Heimerl identified himself to Inmate [REDACTED] by displaying his credentials. S/A Heimerl explained to Inmate [REDACTED] that he was present to speak with [REDACTED] concerning the Avery investigation. S/A Heimerl explained to Inmate [REDACTED] that he would be reading Inmate [REDACTED] his Constitutional Rights prior to the interview. At that point, Inmate [REDACTED] stated if S/A Heimerl was going to read him his rights, he didn't want to talk to S/A Heimerl. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he was tired of having his rights read to him. S/A Heimerl explained to [REDACTED] that if [REDACTED] wished to speak with S/A Heimerl then S/A Heimerl would need to read him his Constitutional Rights under Miranda. S/A Heimerl explained to [REDACTED] that even though he was not a suspect or target of any type of investigation, because [REDACTED] was incarcerated, S/A Heimerl was required to read him his Constitutional Rights. [REDACTED] then stated that he would speak with S/A Heimerl. S/A Heimerl read [REDACTED] his Constitutional Rights from a DJ-DCI-300 Constitutional Rights document. S/A Heimerl read this document verbatim to Inmate [REDACTED] and presented the document to [REDACTED] Inmate [REDACTED] then read the two statements under the waiver heading and entered the answers, "yes" to both of these statements. Inmate [REDACTED] also placed his initials at each of the five individual rights statements. Inmate [REDACTED] signed the document at 1:42 p.m., and S/A Heimerl signed as a witness.

Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he has been incarcerated at Redgranite Correctional Institution (RGCI) for three months. Inmate [REDACTED] has been in and out of the Wisconsin prison system since 1990. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he has been incarcerated on approximately seven separate occasions. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that his previous convictions included Prescription Fraud, Retail Theft, and Impersonating a Police Officer. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he has not been convicted of any violent crimes in the past. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he currently has one case pending, which he identified as a misdemeanor shoplifting case from Waukesha County.

[REDACTED]

Inmate [REDACTED] went on to explain that he has been attempting to contact [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] since Tuesday, of the previous week, 11/08/2005. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that this was prompted by Steven Avery being on the news. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he does have a television in his prison cell. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he made numerous attempts to try and contact [REDACTED]. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he was making telephone calls attempting to get either of those subjects to accept the collect call from the prison. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he was trying to leave brief messages on either individual's voicemail indicating a need to speak with either of those individuals. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he eventually called his mother, [REDACTED] at phone number [REDACTED], and his mother completed a three-way call to [REDACTED]. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he received [REDACTED] voicemail and left a message indicating that he was trying to reach [REDACTED] regarding the Avery case.

S/A Heimerl then asked Inmate [REDACTED] what information he had that was relevant to this investigation. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he has met Steven Avery in the past. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he believed he met Steven Avery while they were both incarcerated at Fox Lake Correctional Institution in approximately 2000. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that this meeting may have been sooner than the year 2000, because Inmate [REDACTED] has been at Fox Lake Correctional Institution on more than one occasion. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he has been to all of the medium security institutions in the state except for Stanley Correctional Institution. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he has been to Redgranite Correctional, Fox Lake Correctional, Kettle Moraine Correctional, Racine Correctional, Oshkosh Correctional, Jackson Correctional, Columbia Correctional and Waupun Correctional Institutions in the past. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he has never shared a cell with Steven Avery in the past.

Inmate [REDACTED] went on to explain that while he was at the same institution as Steven Avery, another inmate pointed Steven Avery out to Inmate [REDACTED] and identified Avery as the inmate who said that he was innocent. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that after this, he began speaking with Steven Avery. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that through these conversations with Steven Avery, [REDACTED] learned that Avery had property near Crivitz. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that his parents lived in Crivitz prior to his father's death. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he spoke with Steven Avery and asked about their common association to the Crivitz, WI, area. Inmate [REDACTED] went on to explain that he has also been to Avery's Salvage Yard in the past. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that his uncle owns [REDACTED] in the Milwaukee area. [REDACTED]. Inmate [REDACTED] also stated that this was also a topic of conversation between he and Steven Avery. Inmate [REDACTED] went on to explain that because he is a "shoplifter", he traveled extensively through numerous counties within the State of Wisconsin committing shoplifting offenses. Inmate [REDACTED] stated on one occasion, he was in Washington County when his water pump went out on his car. Inmate [REDACTED] stated as a result of that, his vehicle was towed from the Germantown area to Milwaukee. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that subsequent to this, he was in the Manitowoc County area, because as he stated, "I'm a shoplifter and would travel around." Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he drove through the Manitowoc County area and saw the sign for Avery's Salvage Yard. Inmate [REDACTED] stated at that point, he realized that this was the same salvage yard owned by Steven Avery's family. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he believed that it was around the month of April, when he stopped in at Avery's Salvage Yard, however, he could not recall which year it was. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he believed he went into the salvage yard office and inquired about a water pump for his vehicle, however, the salvage yard did not have one and he explained that the salvage yard does not do that type of business in selling new parts for vehicles.

S/A Heimerl inquired if Inmate [REDACTED] had ever spoken to Steven Avery on the telephone while Inmate [REDACTED] was in prison and he stated that he had not. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he last saw Steven Avery when he was in prison with Steven Avery. Inmate [REDACTED] also stated that he believed he may have been at the same prison as Steven Avery on a couple of different occasions.

Inmate [REDACTED] stated that when he learned that Steven Avery was released from prison, he was shocked because of the way Steven Avery acted. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that when he knew and spoke with Steven Avery, he thought that Steven Avery acted like he had actually done the crime he was exonerated for.

S/A Heimerl then asked Inmate [REDACTED] what information he had which he felt was relevant to the investigation. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he heard Steven Avery say on one occasion in the past, something to the effect of "the way to get rid of a body was to burn them or burn a body." S/A Heimerl asked Inmate [REDACTED] if he had any other information or recalled any statements made by Steven Avery regarding this topic and he stated that he did not. S/A Heimerl asked Inmate [REDACTED] if Steven Avery made any statements concerning any special means or ways to burn the body and Inmate [REDACTED] responded, "I'm sure he did but I don't remember." S/A Heimerl asked if there were any other inmates present when Steven Avery talked about burning bodies and Inmate [REDACTED] responded, "there might have been;" and then stated, "no there wasn't." S/A Heimerl asked Inmate [REDACTED] if he recalled what type of conversation was occurring between he and Steven Avery, which may have precipitated Avery making the comment about burning a body and Inmate [REDACTED] could not recall what type of conversation was taking place. S/A Heimerl asked Inmate [REDACTED] if Steven Avery ever spoke about any other crimes and Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he had not.

Inmate [REDACTED] went on to explain that he and other inmates thought of Steven Avery as a "pedophile" and stated that they thought of him as a pedophile because, that's the way he portrayed himself." S/A Heimerl asked Inmate [REDACTED] if he felt Steven Avery would remember him from the prison system and Inmate [REDACTED] stated that Avery might remember him but he could not say for sure. S/A Heimerl asked Inmate [REDACTED] who he had called recently on the telephone from prison in an attempt to get this information to authorities. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he called his mother, his sister, and [REDACTED]. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he last spoke with [REDACTED] approximately one month previously. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he would normally use the attorney telephone within the prison to make these calls. Inmate [REDACTED] also stated that he ultimately contacted the Calumet County District Attorney's office to pass on this information as he had been unsuccessful in reaching anyone else.

S/A Heimerl asked Inmate [REDACTED] if he would testify in court as to the information he provided S/A Heimerl. Inmate [REDACTED] replied, "Probably not." Inmate [REDACTED] then stated that S/A Heimerl probably wanted to know what Inmate [REDACTED] wanted as a result of this information. Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he did not want anything from law enforcement as law enforcement had nothing to help him.

The interview with Inmate [REDACTED] was completed at approximately 2:30 p.m.

On 11/16/2005, at approximately 2:45 p.m., S/A Heimerl made telephone contact with [REDACTED]. S/A Heimerl explained to [REDACTED] that he had recently had contact with Inmate [REDACTED] who had provided [REDACTED] name. [REDACTED] stated that he is very familiar with Inmate [REDACTED] [REDACTED] stated that he was away from the office during the course of the previous week. [REDACTED] stated that he was aware that Inmate [REDACTED] had attempted to contact him multiple times during the previous week. [REDACTED] stated that after he returned to work, he did receive a telephone call from Inmate [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated during the telephone call, Inmate [REDACTED] explained to [REDACTED] that Inmate [REDACTED] had met with S/A Heimerl and that Inmate [REDACTED] had recalled additional information that he did not share with S/A Heimerl. [REDACTED] stated that he asked Inmate [REDACTED] what additional information he did not share with S/A Heimerl and Inmate [REDACTED] explained that when he was incarcerated with Steven Avery, Inmate [REDACTED] believed that Steven Avery actually did commit the first sexual assault he was ultimately exonerated of and that Steven Avery "got away with it." [REDACTED] stated that he asked Inmate [REDACTED] why he did not share this information with S/A Heimerl and Inmate [REDACTED] stated that he did not trust S/A Heimerl.

S/A Heimerl utilized the Wisconsin Department of Corrections Locator Website to obtain incarceration records for Steven Avery while incarcerated in the Wisconsin Department of Corrections and for Inmate [REDACTED]. S/A Heimerl examined these incarceration records to attempt to determine if Steven Avery and Inmate [REDACTED] had ever been incarcerated at the same institution at the same time. S/A Heimerl determined that Steven Avery was incarcerated in Fox Lake Correctional Institution from April 19, 1994, through October 19, 1998. S/A Heimerl also determined that Inmate [REDACTED] was incarcerated at Fox Lake Correctional Institution from December 15, 1994, through January 4, 1995. Steven Avery and [REDACTED] were both incarcerated at Fox Lake Correctional Institution at the same time for a period of approximately 2½ weeks.

On 11/16/2005, S/A Heimerl made telephone contact with Redgranite Correctional Institution Security Director Scott Eckstein. S/A Heimerl requested Security Director Eckstein to provide S/A Heimerl with telephone log records related to Inmate [REDACTED]. S/A Heimerl requested a log of all telephone calls placed by Inmate [REDACTED] out of Redgranite Correctional Institution during a time period of October 31, 2005, through November 15, 2005. S/A Heimerl received an 11 page fax from Security Director Eckstein containing the requested records. S/A Heimerl examined these records to determine the earliest occasion when Inmate [REDACTED] may have attempted to contact [REDACTED]. S/A Heimerl noted that the call records are grouped by number called or similar numbers called. S/A Heimerl noted that a large block of calls were placed to initially [REDACTED] telephone number of [REDACTED], with additional calls surrounding these calls being placed to similar numbers differing by only the last digit. It appears as though Inmate [REDACTED] was possibly attempting to reach another extension through [REDACTED] in his attempts to reach [REDACTED]. The records indicated that the first call placed to [REDACTED] occurred on 11/10/2005, at 2:14 p.m. Five additional calls occurred on 11/10/2005, to [REDACTED] telephone number. Additional telephone calls were placed to [REDACTED] telephone number continuing on 11/11/2005, 11/14/2005, and on 11/15/2005.

S/A Heimerl also located a telephone call placed to telephone number 920-849-1438, which was identified as the telephone number for the Calumet County District Attorney's office. This call occurred on 11/11/2005, at 2:16 p.m. Additionally, surrounding this telephone call are a series of other telephone calls being placed to similar extensions, all occurring on 11/11/2005.

The telephone records received from Redgranite Correctional Institution are electronically attached to this report and will be submitted to DCIR.
