Narrative begins on the following page.

On Monday, January 9, 2006, S/A Thomas J. Fassbender received from S/A Joseph Kapitany evidence described as a Maxell VHS videotape T-120, designated under Property Receipt No. D-2602-1. S/A Kapitany removed said videotape from the Appleton DCI evidence room and transferred it to S/A Fassbender, per S/A Fassbender's request. The videotape contained a recording of the in-custody interview of Steven Avery on 11/09/2005.

On Tuesday, January 10, 2006, S/A Fassbender transferred the videotape to Electronics Technician Larry Flessert, at the Madison DCI office. S/A Fassbender asked that E/T Flessert transfer the content of the videotape to a DVD, while also attempting to enhance the audio portion of the videotape. S/A Fassbender also asked for four copies of the DVD.

Upon receipt of the videotape from S/A Kapitany, S/A Fassbender signed a property release/disposal receipt indicating receipt of the videotape. S/A Fassbender also signed Property Receipt D-2602 indicating receipt of the videotape. Upon release of the videotape to E/T Flessert, S/A Fassbender and E/T Flessert signed the property receipt indicating the transfer of the videotape. S/A Fassbender also noted the transfer on the property release/disposal receipt and both S/A Fassbender and E/T Flessert initialed next to that entry.

Property Receipt D-2602 and the property release/disposal receipt will be placed in the case file.
