Narrative begins on the following page.

On Monday, January 30, 2006, at approximately 7:10 p.m., S/A Thomas J. Fassbender telephoned Larry F. Klein, DOB 08/12/1953, at his residence, 7415 Tannery Rd., Two Rivers, WI, 920-794-8873. Klein's name had been provided to S/A Fassbender by perimeter security officers during the processing of the Avery Salvage Yard scene. S/A Fassbender had requested the officers to obtain identifying information from individuals traveling through the area or doing business in the area. The notes provided to S/A Fassbender indicated that Klein had been contacted at 7:15 a.m., and was a delivery person for Ferrell Gas.

Upon contacting Klein by telephone, S/A Fassbender identified himself and told Klein that he was doing follow up investigation on the Steven Avery case and S/A Fassbender wanted to ask Klein some questions. Klein agreed and provided the following information:

Klein provided his address and DOB and advised that he was a delivery person for Ferrell Gas. Klein initially advised that he was not out in the vicinity of the Avery Salvage Yard on October 31, 2005, and that he had not been out there all week. Klein advised he works right across the street from the salvage yard or from where Avery Road starts and goes in toward the salvage yard. Klein indicated he fills up his truck at that location.

Klein advised he was out at the Avery's about one month ago. Klein advised he saw Steven Avery's mother at that time, but they did not talk about Steven Avery's case. Klein advised the last time he was at the Avery's prior to that was probably March of 2005.

Klein advised that he has seen Steven Avery in the Avery's flatbed truck when he has been in there. Klein said he has never talked to Steven Avery.

Klein advised that he used to fill the Avery tanks about five to seven years ago. Klein advised that he does fill the tank for the trailer that Steven Avery lives at, but there is some guy that lives in Sheboygan that maintains that building and orders the gas. Klein also advised there's another individual by the name of Johnson who is associated with that trailer. S/A Fassbender asked if it was Rollie Johnson and Klein advised yes. Klein advised that one of the guys, possibly Johnson, is in Florida. Klein advised that he could not remember which one is which and exactly which one does the ordering for the gas. Klein believed it was the individual from Sheboygan. Klein advised that individual drives a station wagon and is possibly related to the Avery's.

S/A Fassbender asked Klein if he was sure that he was not by the Avery's on October 31, 2005, or that week. Klein started talking about having been out of town around then and then consulted with someone that was present with him at his residence, believed to be his wife. After consulting with her, Klein advised that he was there and had filled up his truck on October 31, 2005. Klein advised he should have been out there that entire week then. Klein advised that he normally starts at about 7:00 a.m., and fills up. Klein advised that he usually stops back between 11:00 a.m., and 12:00 p.m., to fill up again and then at around 3:00 p.m., to top it off.

S/A Fassbender asked Klein if he was familiar with the news coverage when Halbach was missing and the vehicle that she drove. Klein advised yes that he had seen the coverage and knew that she had been driving a Rav 4. Klein advised he did not see her vehicle on October 31, 2005.

Klein advised he did not recall seeing a fire or what could have been smoke from a fire by Steven Avery's trailer on that day or week. Klein added, however, that his refueling spot is about a quarter mile from Steven Avery's trailer.

Klein advised he did not hear anything like gun shots that week.

S/A Fassbender provided Klein with his office telephone number and asked Klein to contact S/A Fassbender if he thought of anything else.

The interview was concluded at 7:24 p.m.
