1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery, Case No. 05 CF
3 381. We're here this morning for the second day of 4 individual voir dire. Will the parties state their
5 appearances for the record, please.

6 ATTORNEY KRATZ: State by Ken Kratz and Tom
7 Fallon, Judge.

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: Steven Avery in person;
9 Jerome Buting and Dean Strang representing.

10 THE COURT: All right. Counsel, I
11 understand you have some matters you wish to take up
12 before we begin with the first juror today.

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, I have one thing.
14 I provided Mr. Strang and Buting with a 15 correspondence which includes four images that the 16 State intends to use in its opening. The Court may 17 recall that on January 18th I provided the Court
18 with images that we intended to use.

19 Some of those images were updated, are 20 changed and I replaced a couple of them with 21 photos rather than diagrams. I don't know that 22 Mr. Buting and Strang are going to object; at 23 some point we need to be heard about this, but I
24 wanted to alert the Court. I will provide your 25 Clerk with those four new images. And Mr. Strang

1 and Mr. Buting have a copy.

2 And sometime before the openings, Judge,
3 we'll have to discuss whether or not there is an 4 objection. I just wanted to note that the 5 replacement or the exchange of those I'm
6 proposing today, but we can bring that up
7 sometime before the openings. Thank you, that's 8 all I have.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: I acknowledge receipt of 11 the latter. There won't, I don't expect, be any 12 objection to the substitution of new images one and 13 two. Images three and four raise -- they are from 14 the Tim Austin animation and I'm in agreement that 15 before openings we probably need to have the 16 evidentiary hearing on that entire exhibit, so that 17 Mr. Kratz knows whether he can use it or not in his 18 opening statement. I understand Trooper Austin, we 19 think, is back in the country. I shouldn't speak
20 for Mr. Kratz on that, but that was the sense I had 21 in speaking with him.

22 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I told Mr. Strang I would 23 find out at the break, Judge, so I can alert the 24 Court.

25 THE COURT: Very well. All right.

1 Anything else before we bring in the first juror?

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, Judge. Counsel and
3 I have had an opportunity late last night and again
4 this morning to discuss the potential of agreeing on 5 additional jurors to be struck for cause. I would
6 indicate, I think we have agreement on three. There
7 may well be a fourth, but the State did want to hear
8 from the prospective juror before we made a final 9 decision on that.

10 In terms of those that we have agreed to 11 strike for cause, we have agreed that Juror No.
12 44 would be struck for cause. Upon review of his 13 questionnaire, I think the Court will note that 14 this prospective juror has had discussions with a
15 witness in the case and has some information,
16 thus, that would be available to him, not from 17 the courtroom proceedings. And the parties
18 believe that it would be better not to take a
19 risk relative to that juror.

20 The other two jurors, the parties have
21 agreed, there is some question as to either side,
22 but the parties have agreed that Juror No. 37 and 23 Juror 39 would be excused. We have a question as 24 to whether Juror 37, we have received some 25 information that she may not have been following

1 the Court's directive regarding media coverage in
2 the past 7 to 10 days since receiving her notice.
3 And there's also a question of objective bias for 4 that witness.

5 With respect to No. 39, we're agreeing
6 with the defense request. There may be a
7 subjective bias issue on No. 39, but there's 8 also, looks like a child care hardship issue, if
9 the Court looks. This woman, a grandmother,
10 apparently has care of a 7 year old. And the 7
11 year old would be lacking in supervision if this 12 woman were selected as a juror. So for those 13 reasons, we would ask that Jurors 37 and 39 be 14 struck for cause as well.

15 ATTORNEY STRANG: I -- I agree as to all
16 three. And I -- I simply will add that, as to Juror
17 No. 44, there's clearly a pretty firmly held opinion
18 on the merits of the case, in addition to the 19 comments that Mr. Fallon made.

20 THE COURT: All right. I will review those 21 questionnaires later. But I understand I will 22 review them with the understanding both parties are 23 requesting that those jurors be left out for cause.

24 With respect to the order today, we're 25 going to begin with Juror 19. I think he was the

1 last person here yesterday, who asked to be first
2 today since he sat around yesterday.

3 And then Juror 25 requested to be called
4 earlier because she has to work this afternoon.
5 So after 19, we'll go to 25, then go back in
6 order. Anything else before we begin?

7 Oh, one other thing I did want to
8 mention. I gave to defense counsel -- and I
9 think they were going to pass on a copy to the 10 prosecution -- a draft of the substantive
11 instruction that the Court was going to include
12 in the preliminary instructions to the jurors. I
13 under -- I will be providing the parties and take 14 comment before we begin a complete set of 15 preliminary instructions, which I believe I'm
16 required to do. But I wanted to pass on a copy
17 of the proposed substantive instructions, first,
18 since those are often the -- can be the source of 19 comments from the parties.

20 If there's nothing else, we will bring
21 in Mr. Nelesen at this time. All right.
22 Mr. Nelesen, at this time the clerk will 23 administer the oath to you.

24 THE CLERK: Will you raise your right hand,

(Juror sworn.)

THE CLERK: Please be seated.

THE COURT: Mr. Nelesen, you have already completed a jury questionnaire in this case. This morning we're moving on to the next phase of jury selection which is individual voir dire. In a minute the attorneys for each of the parties will be able to ask you some follow up questions to the information that you included in your questionnaire.

I will let you know that the jurors selected to hear this case will not be sequestered during the jury; that is, you will be permitted to return home at the end of every court session. And we're able to do that because of a requirement that the jurors not learn anything during the course of the trial from the news media regarding this case.

So the instruction that the jurors are not to read any newspapers, watch any television accounts, listen to the radio, or read anything on the internet, or talk to anyone else about the case will continue throughout the trial.

I also want you to know that although the court proceedings today are open to the public, no cameras are permitted in the courtroom

1 during voir dire and members of the news media
2 are not permitted to identify the jurors by name
3 at any time.

4 In addition, should you be selected to
5 serve as a juror, you should know that during the 6 course of the trial the cameras in the courtroom
7 are not permitted to show the faces of the jurors
8 or show anything that would identify the jurors
9 in any way, to any viewers.

10 In the event you remain as a juror
11 following questioning today, you will get a
12 telephone call within the next few days letting 13 you know when to report back to court.

14 At this time, then, Mr. Fallon, you may 15 begin your questioning.

16 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

17 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

18 Q. Good morning, Mr. Nelesen.

19 A. Good morning.

20 Q. My name is Tom Fallon and I'm an Assistant
21 Attorney General for the State of Wisconsin and 22 I'm one of the prosecutors in this case. To my 23 left is Mr. Kratz, the lead prosecutor and he's 24 the Calumet County District Attorney. Thank you
25 for coming this morning. Sorry we kept you late

1 last night.

2 A. That's all right.

3 Q. We'll do our best to get you in and out of here
4 this morning. I wanted to start with a few
5 questions from the information you provided in
6 your questionnaire. And, first of all, ask you a
7 couple of questions regarding your employment.
8 And I see you are a mechanic at the transport
9 company?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. How long have you been employed there as a 12 mechanic?

13 A. Almost two years.

14 Q. Two years?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Prior to that, any other employment?

17 A. Yeah, I worked as a mechanic in Appleton for a
18 year. And previously I worked at the same
19 company I do now, for about a little under four 20 years.

21 Q. Okay. The reason I ask is, if you were to be 22 selected as a jury -- as a juror, excuse me, for 23 the jury, the case may very well take six weeks
24 or so to try, which means you may very well be 25 not reporting to work for six weeks. And I just

1 wanted to make sure.

2 On the last question of the
3 questionnaire, you expressed that you didn't
4 think that would be any particular hardship for 5 you. So we wanted to make sure that was the 6 case, that if you were selected as a juror, this 7 wouldn't be any kind of economic hardship. Is 8 that still the case?

9 A. Well, I think for anybody with -- going without 10 wages for, you know, that period of time, I think 11 that would pose some type of a problem, I would 12 think. You know, my savings account would 13 probably be drained, but I don't think I would --
14 I don't think I would die because of it. I don't 15 think I would starve to death because of it.

16 Q. All right. But do you -- you do have a concern
17 as to whether or not you would have sufficient
18 income to meet your expenses?

19 A. Oh, definitely, yeah, I would say so. I have 20 bills like anyone else, loan payments that I do
21 have to make, just like anyone else.

22 Q. All right.

23 A. And I would, like I said, I would think,
24 hopefully, that I would have enough in my savings
25 to, you know, be able to make those payments for

1 that amount of time. But I probably wouldn't
2 have anything left, you know, for some other
3 bills, I wouldn't think.

4 Q. Have you conferred with your employer as to 5 whether there would be any compensation
6 forthcoming at all if you were?

7 A. He hasn't got back to me as of yet.

8 Q. All right. So it's still somewhat of an open
9 question?

10 A. Yeah. I would think so, yeah.

11 Q. All right. If per chance in the next couple of 12 days, if you hear anything more on that, would
13 you be so kind as to advise the court personnel
14 of that and we'll certainly take that into 15 consideration.

16 A. Okay. Sure, I can do that.

17 Q. Thank you. The next bit of information that you
18 provided of some interest for the parties here is 19 the fact that you are at least somewhat familiar
20 with the Avery Salvage Yard?

21 A. Yeah, a little bit. I have purchased a couple of 22 car parts from there in the past.

23 Q. All right. How often would you say you have 24 frequented the yard?

25 A. I think I was probably there maybe three times.

1 Q. During these occasions that you were at the 2 salvage yard, did you wander through the yard and
3 the property at all or were you just basically --
4 A. No, I wasn't allowed to.
5 Q. You weren't allowed to. You were just at the
6 office --
7 A. Just went in the front office there, you know,
8 asked for the part that I needed, and they got it
9 and ...
10 Q. All right.
11 A. I just bought it and left.
12 Q. When was the most recent or the last time you 13 were there conducting some business at the 14 salvage yard?
15 A. I would say probably five or six years ago.
16 Q. All right. Do you recall meeting any of the 17 people there or recognize any of the names?
18 A. No, I don't recognize any of the names.
19 Q. All right. On each of the occasions, your 20 business was limited to the office area?
21 A. Yes.
22 Q. Okay. With respect to your news sources, could 23 you tell us where you -- if you were to -- you
24 checked a number of potential news sources from 25 radio, to television, newspapers, neighbors and

1 things of that sort. If you were to think about
2 it now, what would you say is the medium in which
3 you get most of your information?

4 A. I would probably say the newspaper.

5 Q. The newspaper. Okay. Do you regularly read the 6 paper?

7 A. Not regularly, no. I would say two to three
8 times a week.

9 Q. Okay. Have you been following the -- this 10 particular case with any interest in the 11 newspaper or television?

12 A. I have read about it, but I haven't really 13 followed it with any interest.

14 Q. All right. Have you watched any of the 15 television coverage of the case?

16 A. Yeah, I have seen a little bit of it in the past,
17 you know, just what they had on the news and what 18 not.

19 Q. On the news?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. Have you watched any of the actual courtroom
22 proceedings on television or through the 23 internet?

24 A. No, I have not.

25 Q. Okay. Now, in the question as to whether you

1 have formed any opinions based on the information
2 that's been available in the media and elsewhere;
3 you would say, well, from what I have read I
4 would think that he was guilty, but I'm sure that
5 there is more to the case that I don't know
6 about.

7 A. That is correct.

8 Q. All right. Is that your heartfelt opinion as you
9 sit here today?

10 A. I would say from what I have read, I think any 11 --any -- any person would, you know, tend to, you
12 know, think -- think that he were guilty through 13 the information provided in newspapers and what 14 not where I got my information. I think anyone
15 would probably think that.

16 Q. All right. Now, the next question that was asked
17 in the questionnaire, and I think the one that 18 the Court and the parties are most interested in,
19 is whether any of those opinions that you have 20 formed as a result of information obtained in the 21 media could be set aside, if you were selected as 22 a juror, and you could decide this case just on 23 what information is presented in court?

24 A. I would like to think that I could. But I
25 would -- I wouldn't guarantee that I could

1 actually do that.

2 Q. All right. All right. That's a perfectly
3 understandable and honest response, I think. The 4 question then becomes is, although you are not
5 100 percent sure is what you wrote here, are you
6 certainly willing to listen to the instructions
7 of the Judge?

8 A. Oh, definitely.

9 Q. Excuse me. And if you were instructed that your 10 duty as a juror, as it were, is to decide the 11 case based solely on the information contained or 12 presented at trial, you would make your best
13 effort to do that?

14 A. Yes, I would.

15 Q. All right. Is there any other reason, you know,
16 personal philosophy, conscience, religious 17 reason, any other reason that you are aware of 18 that, you know, causes you to doubt whether you 19 could give us your best effort and follow the 20 instruction?

21 A. I would say a little bit of conscience.

22 Q. Okay. Let's talk a little bit about that; what 23 is -- what concern do you have there?

24 A. Well, it's a big decision to make.

25 Q. All right.

1 A. And it's nothing that I would take lightly and
2 it's a very difficult decision.

3 Q. All right.

4 A. It's not the fact that -- I wouldn't say it would
5 be that I would be very nervous about it, but
6 it's -- it's just not anything taken lightly.
7 It's not -- somebody didn't just, you know, steal
8 a candy bar from the gas station or anything;
9 that would be taken lightly. This is a serious
10 issue.

11 Q. All right.

12 A. And I think anyone would, you know, have a little 13 conscience about it.

14 Q. All right. So could I infer or could the Court
15 and the parties infer, that because this is a
16 matter of grave importance, a very weighty
17 matter, that you would give us your best effort
18 in following the instructions that were given to 19 you?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. All right. You indicated that you do have a
22 friend who is a police officer; is that correct?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. All right. And who would that be?

25 A. Officer David Flemal.

1 Q. David?

2 A. Flemal.

3 Q. Okay.

4 ATTORNEY BUTING: I'm sorry, Fleming?

5 MR. NELESEN: Flemal.

6 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ All right. And how do you
7 know Officer Flemal?

8 A. He lives down the street from me.

9 Q. All right. Do you regularly get together with 10 him and discuss the world's events as it were or 11 just --

12 A. No, not really. We pretty much just talk motor 13 sports.

14 Q. About what, sports?

15 A. Motor sports and stuff like that.

16 Q. Motor sports. Yes, I see you are a stock car
17 fan; is he as well?

18 A. I used to race motocross and he is into 19 motocross.

20 Q. Motocross?

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. All right.

23 A. So we talk about that a lot.

24 Q. All right. How often do you get together with 25 Officer Flemal?

1 A. I would say I talk to him every three weeks to a
2 month.

3 Q. Okay. Do your conversations ever get to the more
4 serious matters such as a case like this or
5 criminal justice issues in general or anything
6 like --

7 A. No, that's just his job. We just -- We're just 8 -- We just talk on a friends personal level.

9 Q. Okay. So do you think that your acquaintance
10 with Officer Flemal would in any way impact your 11 ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

12 A. No, that wouldn't affect it.

13 Q. What?

14 A. No, that wouldn't affect it.

15 Q. Okay. Thank you. Do you have any close friends 16 or relatives that are currently working in the 17 news industry?

18 A. Not that I'm aware of, no.

19 Q. Okay. Do you own a computer?

20 A. Yes, I do.

21 Q. All right. Do you occasionally surf the
22 internet?

23 A. Yeah, I look for race car stuff on the internet.

24 Q. All right. Do you ever use the internet to get 25 some more information regarding news stories or

1 events that are current events?

2 A. No.

3 Q. All right. Have you looked at any of the 4 coverage or information regarding this case on 5 the internet?

6 A. No, I have not.

7 Q. All right. In terms of this case, can you recall
8 for us, as best you can, what you do remember or 9 think you know about the case from the media
10 coverage, at least as it pertains to Mr. Avery?

11 A. Um, I can't remember a whole lot. Just let me
12 think about this for a second. Can you be a 13 little more descriptive as to what you are 14 asking?

15 Q. Well, let's see, do you -- do you remember any 16 press conferences or original arrest reports
17 involving Mr. Avery or any other person's 18 association with?

19 A. I don't remember any arrest reports or anything 20 like that. I didn't really read that much into 21 it.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. Pretty much just looked at it on the front page,
24 read a little bit of it, wasn't really interested
25 in it --

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. -- went on to the next thing.

3 Q. Would it be fair to say you don't really have any
4 strong opinions about the guilt or innocence?

5 A. I have my opinions.

6 Q. Okay. Well, tell us, let's talk about that.
7 What -- what are your opinions?

8 A. Like I stated in the questionnaire, my opinions,
9 from what I have gotten, from what I have read,
10 would -- I think would tend to -- for anyone to 11 think that he was guilty.

12 Q. All right.

13 A. I think that's pretty much just human nature, but 14 that's all that they read.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. Or all that I read, I should say.

17 Q. All right.

18 A. I read a little bit up on it as far as, you know,
19 what had actually happened. A little bit of the 20 information about the vehicle and blood found in 21 the vehicle, I had read some about that.

22 Q. All right.

23 A. And that he had weapons in his house, things like
24 that.

25 Q. All right. Any other particular details that

1 stand out in your mind at the moment?

2 A. No, not really that stand out in my mind.

3 Q. All right. And are you familiar at all with the 4 circumstances regarding the arrest of a fellow by 5 the name of Dassey?

6 A. Yeah, I have heard a little bit about him.

7 Q. All right. And what do you recall about that?

8 A. I recall that he was questioned and admitted that 9 he was involved with it and had contributed in 10 the crime as well.

11 Q. All right. Do you remember any particular
12 details regarding statements that he made?

13 A. Um, not -- not any real details.

14 Q. All right.

15 A. Just that he was pretty much just involved.

16 Q. All right. Okay. I note from your questionnaire
17 that you don't have any prior jury service, but I
18 did want to ask, is there anything as you sit
19 here today and think about your own philosophy,
20 or conscience, or personal beliefs, or any
21 religious beliefs; is there anything in that area
22 that you think might give you a problem or make 23 it difficult for you to be a juror in this case?

24 A. I would say for anyone it would be a difficult
25 thing. Just, as I stated before, it's not a

1 matter to be taken lightly.

2 Q. All right.

3 A. And I think it's a very big decision and it
4 would -- it would bother me, yeah.

5 Q. All right. I think I probably did not artfully
6 ask that question. I understand it would be 7 difficult. I guess what I'm driving at is, is 8 there any firm, personal beliefs that you hold
9 that, for instance, you could not sit in judgment
10 of another person and assess their guilt or 11 innocence based on the information provided?

12 A. No, I think I could do that.

13 Q. Okay. In your profession as a mechanic, have you
14 ever been called upon to participate in writing
15 any safety guidelines or enforcing any safety
16 standards for work as a mechanic?

17 A. Sure, I have. I have to do a lot of safety
18 stuff, make sure people are doing their job in a
19 correct manner and not doing something that's,
20 you know, going to get them or someone else hurt.

21 Q. All right. Do you enjoy that work?

22 A. Sure, yes.

23 Q. And why is that?

24 A. I enjoy being a mechanic and I enjoy working with 25 others and I enjoy helping people out when they,

1 you know, need help with something.

2 Q. Is there any type of satisfaction that you derive
3 from ensuring that you have a safe work
4 environment for yourself and others?

5 A. Yeah, I would say so.

6 Q. Okay. How long have you been a resident of 7 Manitowoc County?

8 A. All my life.

9 Q. All right. How would you rate the job that the 10 Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department is doing in 11 your community in terms of dealing with crime or 12 servicing the public in other ways; good, bad,
13 fair, excellent?

14 A. I would say they do a good job.

15 Q. Okay. Any particular experiences that you have 16 had or anything in particular that helps you
17 reach that opinion?

18 A. No, I don't really have any reasons why I reached
19 that opinion I just think --

20 Q. I'm sorry, I couldn't --

21 A. I don't really have any reasons. I would think 22 that they do a fairly good job.

23 Q. That's your perception of things?

24 A. Yeah.

25 Q. Okay. Since you are a mechanic and interested in

1 automobiles, have you ever used a publication
2 such as Auto Trader, to buy or sell a car?
3 A. I used CarSoup to try to sell a car, but it
4 didn't sell. so.
5 Q. You used what?
6 A. CarSoup, carsoup.com.
7 Q. Okay.
8 A. I used that to try to sell a car, but it didn't
9 sell so, other than that, nothing, no.
10 Q. Didn't have much luck?
11 A. No.
12 Q. Are you familiar with the publication Auto
13 Trader?
14 A. Yeah, I have seen it.
15 Q. Okay. In terms of your approach to making a
16 decision or, for instance, writing your safety
17 guidelines, or making such policy decisions like
18 that; would you consider yourself a detail
19 oriented person or a big picture person or?
20 A. I would say I get into some detail, yeah.
21 Q. All right. And are you a movie goer?
22 A. I would say no.
23 Q. All right. Have you ever seen or heard about a
24 movie called The Thin Blue Line?
25 A. No, I haven't.

1 Q. Okay.

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all I have. Thank
3 you.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

6 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

7 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

8 Q. Okay. Sir, you have seen us all stand up
9 awkwardly in front of a group, a room full of 10 people, but I'm Dean Strang; this is Jerome
11 Buting; and Steve Avery. We're the defense
12 lawyers.

13 A. Okay.

14 Q. How do I pronounce your last name?

15 A. Nelesen. Nelesen.

16 Q. Nelesen?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Thanks. The place you are living now, you
19 have been in about seven months?

20 A. What was that?

21 Q. The place you are living now, you have been in 22 that house about seven months?

23 A. Yeah, I would say, yes.

24 Q. Do you rent or own?

25 A. Actually, I live with my parents.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. Right now.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And had you been in a place of your own before
6 that?

7 A. Yeah, I lived with my girlfriend.

8 Q. And are you -- I don't need to know reasons or 9 anything, but are you looking to move back into a
10 place of your own soon or?

11 A. Yes, yes. This is -- Where I'm living right now
12 is a temporary.

13 Q. Okay. So does that -- where I'm going with that 14 is, really, does this contribute to your concern
15 about building up a savings account a little bit
16 or getting, you know, having --

17 A. Yeah, I'm in the process of trying to purchase a
18 house right now.

19 Q. Okay. All right. So let's sort of go from 0 to 20 100 in about 6 seconds here. It's not just that 21 the trial may last -- well may last six weeks,
22 okay, but at the end of the trial, and we can 23 more or less guess how long the evidence and 24 arguments might go, but at the end of the trial,
25 the people left on the jury have to deliberate?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And there's no way to know how long that will go?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Only those 12 people, you know, and they don't
5 know, because it's a matter of you are not done
6 until you -- ideally, until you all 12 agree on 7 the verdicts for however many charges you are 8 considering.

9 A. Okay.

10 Q. So we have no -- none of us have any way of 11 predicting how long that would go. And my 12 concern, since that comes at the very end, is 13 that, you know, would the deliberations and 14 sticking it through and working through the 15 evidence as long as it took, be something you
16 could do when you are already at the end of five 17 or six weeks of being out of work? You see what 18 I'm worried about?

19 A. I didn't really take that into consideration. I
20 wasn't aware that it was going to be that much of 21 an added time. I had heard and I was told that 22 it would probably take -- it could take up to a
23 month, but I didn't really consider that there
24 was added time at the end of it.

25 Q. And I have no way of knowing.

1 A. That makes -- Yeah, that makes matters a little
2 bit different, yeah.

3 Q. Okay. I'm not trying to suggest that that would,
4 you know, go on indefinitely?

5 A. It could take a week or six months is what you
6 are saying.

7 Q. Or 10 minutes, I mean. But, you know, none of us
8 have, and you don't have, any way of knowing.

9 A. Right.

10 Q. Because it's, you know, deliberation is about 12
11 people trying to agree on things that, you know,
12 involve looking back over four or five, six weeks
13 of evidence. And I -- You know, you are very -- 14 I have noticed that you are very empathetic in 15 the sense of, you know, that the problems you see
16 you say everybody would have. I mean anybody
17 would feel this is a tough decision and all that.

18 A. Right.

19 Q. But right now it is sort of about you and 20 whether, you know, whether you really would be 21 putting yourself in a hole by getting into this?

22 A. I would, definitely. But if that's what I'm 23 asked to do, then I guess that's what I'm asked
24 to do.

25 Q. Okay. I wanted to hear a little more about what

1 you -- what you really like about being a
2 mechanic; what lights you up about it? I mean
3 your hobby ties into that pretty closely with 4 stock car racing?

5 A. Oh, definitely. And that's one thing that would
6 go down the tubes too, so that's another
7 consideration of mine.

8 Q. What do you mean by go down the tubes, I'm sorry,
9 Mr. Nelesen?

10 A. Stock car racing is pretty expensive.

11 Q. Oh, okay.

12 A. And I have worked pretty hard to be able to 13 afford it.

14 Q. Right.

15 A. And it takes a good percentage of my money to do
16 that.

17 Q. You actually race?

18 A. Yes, I do.

19 Q. Okay. Are you the driver?

20 A. Yes, I am.

21 Q. Okay. And, you know, up here, I mean -- meaning
22 up here in the northern part of the country?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. I associate that with being a seasonal sort of a
25 sport, but do you travel around to places where

1 it's warmer?

2 A. No, I don't. It -- Pretty much just regional.

3 Q. Okay. And how, in terms of the season for that,
4 how -- how much of the expense is coming up in 5 February, March?

6 A. A great deal of the expense.

7 Q. Tell me about that.

8 A. Well, as far as -- to give you an example, in the 9 class that I race, I'm looking at coming up
10 with -- trying to come up with 6 to $8,000 for 11 just one engine. So that's a great deal of money
12 for someone, for me, to come up with. And I have 13 been saving up for it for quite a long time.
14 Probably half way through last year and all
15 winter I have been saving up for that.

16 Q. Is this the time of year where you are in the 17 garage at night?

18 A. All the time.

19 Q. Getting the car ready for May?

20 A. Yeah, exactly.

21 Q. Okay. So you are spending the money now?

22 A. Oh, yeah, faster than it's coming in, yeah.

23 Q. And any purse or any winnings you might get --

24 A. That all goes right back into the operation.

25 Q. And those wouldn't come until the warmer weather?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. Okay. So back to what -- what -- what lights you
3 up about being a mechanic?

4 A. I just like to work with my hands. It's just
5 something about cars, something about engines
6 that just. I think each person has something
7 that they can just get into, get involved with 8 and forget about all the stress in their lives.
9 And when I'm working on things like that, my 10 stress just goes away.

11 Q. It goes away?

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. And yet you also like working with people?

14 A. Yeah, I get along with -- I like to talk a lot.

15 Q. Mm-hmm.

16 A. And I --

17 Q. Me to.

18 A. And, yeah, I just like to talk a lot and I like 19 to get along with people. Meet different people.

20 Q. Mm-hmm.

21 A. It's just -- I don't know if it's right or wrong,
22 it's just part of my personality.

23 Q. Why would it be right or wrong?

24 A. I don't know that's --

25 Q. Yeah.

1 A. It's just part of my personality.

2 Q. Okay. So is -- I mean, is it the actual physical
3 labor, having your hands in the, you know --

4 A. Oh, definitely.

5 Q. -- that you like, as opposed to, you know, the 6 math of --

7 A. Oh, no.

8 Q. -- adjusting a carburetor or whatever?

9 A. No, I'm terrible at Math.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. But it's just getting in there and trial and 12 error and doing those things. It's a challenge,
13 to see if I can do what needs to be done to go
14 faster. That's pretty much all it is, is a 15 challenge.

16 Q. Is -- Is this something where sort of cutting and 17 scraping your hands up is a regular part of life
18 for you?

19 A. Oh, yeah. Definitely, yeah.

20 Q. You have got bandaids around?

21 A. Well, I usually don't wear bandaids, just dirt
22 gets in there and I just leave it, keep working.
23 I have pretty much done it my whole life, so I'm 24 used to that.

25 Q. Okay. The three times you have been out to Avery

1 Auto Salvage --

2 A. Mm-hmm.

3 Q. -- that was just looking for parts for cars you
4 were working on?

5 A. Yeah, just -- just street driven cars that I had 6 at the time.

7 Q. And are there -- are there other auto salvage
8 yards in the area you have snooped around, you
9 know, shopped at?

10 A. Sure. Sure, definitely.

11 Q. Poked around?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Pretty much all of them in the area, or is it
14 unusual?

15 A. Yeah, I would say probably 75 percent of them in 16 the area.

17 Q. How about Norb's in Denmark?

18 A. No, not that far away. I haven't gone that far
19 away.

20 Q. But in like the immediate Manitowoc --

21 A. Yeah, the immediate Manitowoc area.

22 Q. And you, I gathered from what you said to 23 Mr. Fallon, that you don't have any memory of who 24 it was you dealt with at the Avery yard?

25 A. No, I don't. I don't know who it was.

1 Q. Or even --

2 A. Just somebody that worked there. I don't know.

3 I just came in and picked up a part --

4 Q. Yeah.

5 A. -- and left.

6 Q. Okay. Or even if it was the same guy the three

7 times you have been there?

8 A. No, I couldn't really tell you that.

9 Q. Okay. Tell me what you know -- and I don't want

10 to do that to you. Tell me what you -- what you

11 have read, or what you have learned, what you may

12 know about Brendan Dassey, from the newspaper or

13 the TV.

14 A. For the most part, just that he was involved --

15 involved in the crime. I didn't really read a

16 whole lot on it. I pretty much just go through

17 the sports section and stuff like that. But, you

18 know, I read over, you know, read a paragraph or

19 so. Then just, like I said, turn the page with 20 just a loss of interest. But I would say just 21 mostly that he was just involved --

22 Q. Mm-hmm.

23 A. -- in the entire thing.

24 Q. Did you get -- did you get a sense of any of the 25 gruesome details?

1 A. Not a lot, no.

2 Q. Okay. And what is -- What does Dassey have to do
3 with Steven Avery's case, in your mind? What's 4 the connection if any?

5 A. Well, if he was -- I would say if he was involved
6 in the crime, I would say he would have
7 everything to do with it.

8 Q. If he, who he?

9 A. I would say -- what is his name, Dassey?

10 Q. Yeah.

11 A. Yeah, I'm not sure -- I'm not sure what his first 12 name was.

13 Q. Brendan.

14 A. Brendan, yeah. I would say if -- well, if from 15 what I have read in the newspaper that he was 16 involved, I would say he would be involved with 17 the entire crime, from what I have known.

18 Q. Yeah. No, I know. I mean, I understand you are 19 getting this from the papers and the TV. I-- I
20 got that. And -- but do I hear you saying that,
21 based on what has been reported to you about
22 Brendan, that it's more likely that Steven Avery
23 is guilty?

24 A. I would say one would tend to believe that, yes.

25 Q. And why -- why would you tend to believe that?

1 A. Because I would say that's pretty much what they
2 had said in the newspaper.

3 Q. Mm-hmm.

4 A. That's what they had -- how can I say this -- he
5 admitted to participating in the crime and that
6 they were both involved in it.

7 Q. Do you have a sense that, you know, a 16 or 17
8 year old like Brendan Dassey would not have
9 admitted to the crime if he didn't do it?

10 A. I wouldn't see why he would admit to it if he 11 didn't do it.

12 Q. If -- if you heard evidence about, or -- or, you
13 know, the lawyers made arguments about why
14 someone might confess to something he didn't do;
15 is that something you would be able to listen to 16 fairly, consider?

17 A. I would say I could listen to it fairly, yes.

18 Q. But it sort of strikes you as ...

19 A. It strikes me as odd.

20 Q. Odd, yeah.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Sure. What do you make of the fact that Steven 23 Avery is here, you know, that he is sitting in 24 the defendant's chair?

25 A. He was asked to be here. I don't really make

1 anything of it, I would expect him to be here.

2 Q. Does it suggest he probably did something wrong?

3 A. I would say people think that he did something
4 wrong. I wouldn't want to go and say that he
5 did, that is not really my decision and shouldn't 6 be my opinion right now. But I would say he is 7 here for a reason.

8 Q. Yeah. And, I mean, it is sort of your opinion
9 that we're after now. And it's -- the good thing
10 about this is -- I mean, you are being really 11 candid about that and that's helpful. And the --
12 you will -- you would be told, if you were a
13 juror, that Steven Avery is presumed innocent.

14 A. Exactly.

15 Q. Starts presumed innocent and he remains presumed 16 innocent unless and until the State could prove
17 him guilty?

18 A. And that's a very difficult thing to do, yes.

19 Q. Yeah, it is. It is a hard thing to do. And 20 given, you know, what you have read and thought
21 about the case, you are not 100 percent sure that 22 you could do that, but you would try?

23 A. I would say that would be, yes. I would say that 24 would be the case, yes.

25 Q. And I feel like I'm putting words in your mouth

1 so I want to stop doing that, but.

2 A. No, that's all right.

3 Q. Okay. Have you seen or heard anything really 4 recently in the paper or on the --

5 A. No, I haven't.

6 Q. -- the TV about this?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Why?

9 A. I was told to not read the newspaper, not watch 10 the news if it pertained to that.

11 Q. Okay. And before you were told that, were you
12 still tuning in?

13 A. If something was on, I probably watched a couple
14 minutes of it, but not to my knowledge I haven't
15 really gone out and ran to the TV to watch it or 16 anything like that.

17 Q. Rented a TV.

18 A. Yeah. I haven't really followed it strongly.

19 Q. Yeah.

20 A. It's just something that was on.

21 Q. And since you were told not to, you have obeyed
22 that?

23 A. Since I was told not to, I didn't have any -- 24 didn't read the newspaper or anything like that 25 or didn't watch the news.

1 Q. Mm-hmm. Let me get a feel for when -- you know,
2 when it is you stopped. You -- have you heard
3 anything about a blood vial?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And that's got some role?

6 A. Yeah, something about the -- it was planted and 7 this and that. I forgot all about that.

8 Q. Okay. But that --

9 A. That did strike -- did jog my memory, yeah.

10 Q. Okay. A related topic on whether -- you know,
11 whether you really can presume Steven Avery
12 innocent, would be the choice whether he
13 testifies or not. And, I mean, is it -- do you
14 think, basically, most fair people want to hear
15 both sides of a story?

16 A. Definitely they want to hear both sides.

17 Q. And how about you?

18 A. Yes, I would definitely want to hear both sides.

19 Q. Okay. Do you -- Do you understand that in 20 America, if you are charged with a crime, you can 21 do either of two things; you could choose to 22 testify and then you would sort of be like any 23 other witness?

24 A. Mm-hmm.

25 Q. We do have a right to testify when we're accused

1 of a crime in this country, even though we're the
2 person who's got to, you know --

3 A. Okay.

4 Q. -- might want to be saving our own skin. And 5 then also, you have a right not to testify. And 6 the jurors get told that they can't consider that
7 in any way in deciding whether the State's proved
8 the person guilty, beyond a reasonable doubt.
9 Were you familiar with those two basic notions?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Okay. If the Judge were to tell you at the end
12 of the case, you know, and I don't know what
13 words he would use, but if he were to tell you
14 that you may not consider the fact that Mr. Avery
15 did not testify, as any evidence of guilt or in 16 deciding the case; is that an instruction you
17 could follow?

18 A. I would do what he asked me to do, yes.

19 Q. And would you do it happily or willingly as 20 opposed to, you know, well, I have to?

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm going to object to 22 that question.

23 THE COURT: I'm going to allow it.

24 MR. NELESEN: Could you repeat that?

25 Q. Sure. Would you do that, you know, willingly and

1 without reluctance, or would you do it because,
2 I'm doing it because this is my duty to do it?

3 A. I would say there would be some reluctance.

4 Q. Okay. Do you think if -- Do you think it would
5 be an easy decision for a person accused to make,
6 whether to testify or not in his own behalf?

7 A. I don't think so.

8 Q. Why not?

9 A. I'm not exactly sure. I just don't think it
10 would be a difficult.

11 Q. You don't think it would be difficult, or you
12 don't think it would be easy?

13 A. I don't think it would be difficult, but I don't
14 really understand what would all be involved.

15 Q. Mm-hmm. Do you figure that Mr. Buting and I 16 might have some input on that? Opinions that we 17 would offer him?

18 A. I would say, yeah, that's your job.

19 Q. Right. And let me see if you would agree with 20 this, you know, if you are the defendant and you
21 take the witness stand, some people on the jury
22 may be saying, well, of course he's denying it,
23 he doesn't -- you know, he doesn't want to get 24 convicted. He's the one with everything at 25 stake. And on the other hand, if you don't take

1 the witness stand, jurors might be saying, well,
2 if he didn't do anything wrong, why doesn't he
3 just get up and tell us, you know, an innocent
4 guy would have nothing to hide. Do you see the 5 sort of dilemma --

6 A. Exactly.

7 Q. -- there? And in the end, you know, because you
8 are not going to be able to get into his head or 9 my head in that decision making process --

10 A. Mm-hmm.

11 Q. -- I would need to be comfortable that you really
12 would and could live with the Judge's instruction
13 that; if he testifies, he's like any other
14 witness; if he doesn't testify, you can't
15 consider that as any evidence of his guilt?

16 A. I would say I could do that, yes.

17 Q. You told us in your jury questionnaire that -- I
18 forget exactly how you put it, but it was pretty 19 good, that -- oh, I'm terrible at math?

20 A. Yeah, I am.

21 Q. That's exactly how you put it. This case, on 22 both sides, may involve a certain amount of 23 scientific evidence and testimony about 24 scientific evidence, you know, collection of 25 evidence, testing of evidence in certain ways.

1 A. Mm-hmm.

2 Q. People who do that for a living and have some
3 expertise in, you know, whatever, ballistics, or 4 DNA, or whatever it might be.

5 A. Mm-hmm.

6 Q. And I don't mean to suggest that that would 7 require a jury full of mathematicians, but is 8 that sort of testimony something that you
9 anticipate as finding boring, or interesting, or 10 what do you think?

11 A. I would say it would be interesting.

12 Q. Why?

13 A. Probably for the fact that it's something that I
14 don't know about and I like to learn new things.

15 Q. Mm-hmm.

16 A. Whether I'm good at them or not, I like to learn
17 new things and I think it would be interesting.

18 Q. And what if there were, let's say, two or more
19 experts and they weren't in complete agreement,
20 or they were even in disagreement about the 21 meaning of certain things, or what certain 22 findings were; how would you sort that out if 23 this is all new to you?

24 A. I would say that each person has there own
25 opinion, their own views, of how it would be.

1 And I can't really answer how I would actually
2 sort that out.

3 Q. But you would listen to both?

4 A. Oh, definitely, yes.

5 Q. And then weigh them and --

6 A. And make a decision, I guess, yes.

7 Q. Mm-hmm. Okay. Let me just check with Mr. Buting
8 and see if he thinks I have missed anything?

9 A. Okay.

10 Q. I did miss something.

11 A. Okay.

12 Q. I realize David Flemal is just your friend --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. -- down the street, but I want to explore police
15 officers a little bit more with you. There will 16 be a number of police officers or law enforcement
17 officers who testify in this case from different
18 agencies and departments?

19 A. Mm-hmm.

20 Q. And there was a question on the questionnaire
21 about this: You will probably be told that a law
22 enforcement officer who testifies is considered
23 like any other witness.

24 A. Right.

25 Q. And do you -- do you think in your experience and

1 in your belief, is a police officer less likely
2 to lie under oath than other people might be?

3 A. I would say, yeah.

4 Q. Why?

5 A. I would say they are more involved with the law
6 and I think they probably would take it more
7 seriously than an average person.

8 Q. Okay. And that said, setting aside robo cop
9 movies, do you agree that law enforcement
10 officers are human, like the rest of us?

11 A. Definitely, yes.

12 Q. Imperfect, I guess, like the rest of us?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Make mistakes like the rest of us?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Have personal motives or wants and wishes, just 17 like the rest of us?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. So, I don't hear you saying that a police officer
20 never could lie under oath, you just think it's 21 probably less likely than comparing him or her to 22 the average joe on the street?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Would you at least consider the possibility, be
25 open to and listening for the possibility, that a

1 police officer, a law enforcement officer, might
2 have a reason to shade the truth or not remember
3 something accurately?

4 A. If that's what I was asked to do, then that would
5 be what I would have to do.

6 Q. Okay. There would be some resistance to that 7 idea or ...

8 A. I would say yes.

9 Q. And in putting together all the evidence that you
10 would hear, since Mr. Avery is saying he is not
11 guilty --

12 A. Mm-hmm.

13 Q. -- do you think that he, or we for that matter,
14 ought to have to show you who did kill Teresa
15 Halbach?

16 A. I would think that would be a good thing, yeah.

17 Q. Okay. Sure it would be a good thing. Do we have 18 to do that in order to convince you that Steven 19 Avery didn't?

20 A. I would say yes.

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: All right. I think I'm 22 done, thank you, very much.

23 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

24 BY THE COURT:

25 Q. Mr. Nelesen, I have got some follow-up questions

1 for you. I take it from a number of your answers
2 that you don't come into court today being
3 familiar with many of the rules that apply in a
4 criminal case.

5 A. No, I don't.

6 Q. I want to follow up, for example, on Mr. Strang's
7 last series of questions?

8 A. Mm-hmm.

9 Q. For one thing, in a criminal case, the defendant
10 is not obligated to prove his guilt or his 11 innocence, the State has to prove that he is 12 guilty before a jury can return a guilty verdict?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Do you understand that?

15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. That means that a defendant that -- does not have 17 to convince the jury who might have done it, if 18 it wasn't the defendant; the State has to prove 19 that the defendant did it and prove that, beyond
20 a reasonable doubt?

21 A. Now I understand, yes.

22 Q. Likewise, I think you testified that you had read
23 some things about this case and based on what you
24 had read, you thought it appeared the defendant
25 was guilty, but that if the Court instructed you

1 that you had to put those feelings aside, you
2 could follow that instruction?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And that, in fact, is -- would be the Court's
5 instruction. Over the course of a six week
6 trial, the jury is going to hear a lot more about
7 this case than has been in the news media.
8 Sometimes information in the news media isn't
9 accurate.

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. But in any event, the jury that is selected will 12 have to agree to base the decision only on the 13 evidence in court and ignore anything else. If 14 you're selected as a juror, do you feel you can
15 do that?

16 A. I would like to think that I could do that. Yes
17 or no answer, that's tough. I would say yes.

18 Q. Is there something specific that gives you pause
19 in answering that question?

20 A. Definitely, everything that I have read.

21 Q. And when you say everything that you have read,
22 you will probably hear some of the things that
23 you have read in court, but you are going to hear
24 a number of those items disputed as well.

25 A. That's true.

1 Q. Will you be able to evaluate the evidence as it
2 comes into court, as it is introduced at the
3 trial, in making your decision?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And will you be able to base your decision only 6 on that evidence and not on anything you might 7 have read before?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. You feel if I instruct you to do that you can do
10 that?

11 A. Yes.

12 THE COURT: All right. At this time we'll
13 have the Clerk escort you from the courtroom.

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: May I ask --

15 THE COURT: All right. Just a second. Go
16 ahead.

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: I don't know if counsel
18 has a follow up, but I do have one.

19 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

20 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

21 Q. Putting it altogether, do you want to be on this
22 jury?

23 A. Do I want to be? No.

24 Q. Why?

25 A. It's a very big decision. Whatever the decision

1 would be, is a lot for a person to live with.
2 That, in fact, financial issues is a difficult
3 situation to deal with as well. So to answer
4 your question, do I want to be, no.

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon, do you have
7 anything else?

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: (No verbal response.)

9 THE COURT: Very well. Linda, you may
10 escort Mr. Nelesen from the courtroom.

11 (Wherein the juror is excused.)

12 THE COURT: Counsel, does either party have 13 any motion? Mr. Fallon?

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, the State
15 does not; I think the juror is acceptable.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: I really hate to do this
18 and I don't expect that we'll have to do it again,
19 or at least not often, but I think we need three 20 minutes to talk. I really do, about this one.
21 Just, I mean, Mr. Buting and I and Mr. Avery.

22 THE COURT: All right. I will give you
23 exactly three minutes and then we'll come back out.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you, very much.
The defense is not making a motion to strike.

THE COURT: Very well. The Court will accept this juror. And bring the next one in and that will be Nicole Knier. Ms Knier, if you can remain standing the Clerk will administer the oath.

THE CLERK: Raise your right hand.

THE CLERK: Please be seated.

THE COURT: Ms Knier, you have already completed a jury questionnaire in this case. This morning we're moving on to the next phase of jury selection which is known as individual voir dire. Each of the attorneys, or the attorneys for each of the parties will have an opportunity to ask you some questions that relate to your qualifications as a juror and follow up questions to the information on the questionnaire.

I did want you to know that should you be selected as a juror in this case, the jurors will not be sequestered; that means that at the end of the trial every day you will be able to go home and then come back to court the next day.

I also want you to know that although

1 today's proceedings are open to the public,
2 during individual voir dire we do not permit
3 cameras in the courtroom and the news media is 4 not permitted to give the names of the jurors to 5 the public. Also, during the trial itself the 6 cameras are not permitted to show the jurors in 7 any way such that any of the individual jurors
8 can be identified.

9 After today's proceedings, if you are
10 still deemed to be a member of the jury panel,
11 you will get a phone call in the next day or two 12 telling you when to report. It will be sometime
13 this week.

14 With that background, Mr. Fallon, you
15 may begin.

17 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

18 Q. Good morning. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an 19 Assistant Attorney General for the State of 20 Wisconsin. I'm one of the prosecutors in this
21 case. To my left is Mr. Ken Kratz, the lead
22 prosecutor and he is the District Attorney in 23 Calumet County. We're helping out Manitowoc
24 County. Let me first ask, are we pronouncing
25 your last name correctly; it's Knier?

1 A. Yeah.

2 Q. Okay. Very good. One of the first questions
3 that I would like to ask is your employment
4 situation, as it relates to the possibility of 5 your being selected as a juror. All right. In 6 your questionnaire, you told us that you are
7 presently employed by a Jim Skarda, a linebacker?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Tell us what kind of --

10 A. It's a bar.

11 Q. Okay. And so you are a bartender by trade?

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. All right. And how long have you worked at that 14 location?

15 A. About six years.

16 Q. All right. And I understand you are also a
17 student?

18 A. Yup.

19 Q. And where do you attend school?

20 A. I'm going to Blue Sky; it's in Green Bay; it's a
21 massage school.

22 Q. All right. And how often or when is school held?

23 A. It is held one day a week, every Thursday.

24 Q. Every Thursday?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And where are you in relation to the curriculum
2 as it were; is this like a regular semester
3 schedule?

4 A. We are set to graduate March 8th, but they are 5 making special circumstances so I could be
6 home-schooled for the rest of it.

7 Q. All right. So it wouldn't -- if you were 8 selected as a juror, it wouldn't mess up your --

9 A. No.

10 Q. -- your massage training?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. I'm far enough along.

14 Q. I'm sorry?

15 A. I said I'm far enough along.

16 Q. Okay. Very good. How about your job as a 17 bartender and your ability to support yourself in 18 the interim; is that okay?

19 A. Yeah, it should be.

20 Q. All right. So you are not too concerned for any 21 economic hardship if you were selected?

22 A. Not overly.

23 Q. Okay. You also indicated in your questionnaire
24 that you have at least some information or some 25 knowledge in the field of medicine. Could you

1 tell us a little bit about that. Is that the 2 massage training?

3 A. Yeah, with the massage training, it's actually
4 medical massage and medical terminology is what 5 I'm good at.

6 Q. Well, tell us a little bit about that.

7 A. Just from watching different programs and stuff,
8 I can pick out what they are not saying
9 correctly; what they are saying correctly; that 10 sort of a thing.

11 Q. Okay. And how long have you been at least 12 studying the medical angle as it relates to the 13 massage therapy business?

14 A. For about a year. I started last March. And 15 before that I was also a certified nurses
16 assistant.

17 Q. All right. And where were you a certified
18 nursing assistant?

19 A. Different nursing homes in the area.

20 Q. All right. And how long did you do that work?

21 A. About two years.

22 Q. All right. I take it that work brought you in 23 contact with RNs and physicians?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. All right. Would you consider yourself the

1 curious type as it were and would ask questions
2 about medical --

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. -- procedures and things?

5 A. Mm-hmm. Yes, I like to know things.

6 Q. All right. Occasionally I have got to make a few 7 notes.

8 A. That's okay.

9 Q. All right. Now, you indicated that you knew a
10 few people of interest, I think, to the Court and 11 the parties here. So I wanted to ask you a
12 little bit about your familiarity with them. You
13 indicated you are familiar with a Debbie Knox,
14 and you believe that Debbie Knox to be a junior
15 high principal; is that correct?

16 A. She was, while I was in junior high.

17 Q. She was the principal when you were there?

18 A. Well, assistant principal but, yeah.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. She was my neighbor growing up as well.

21 Q. She was your neighbor growing up. Okay. How 22 well do you know her?

23 A. I guess pretty well, I went to school with one of 24 her sons too. I graduated with him.

25 Q. And how long ago was that?

1 A. I graduated in 2001, so five years ago.

2 Q. You said that she was a neighbor; literally the
3 person next door or just down the street?

4 A. Just down the street.

5 Q. All right. Since you lived on the same street,
6 did you, other than the school setting, did you
7 have much opportunity to interact with each other
8 or just with her son?

9 A. No, just more acquaintances.

10 Q. Just acquaintances. Okay. Have you ever been to 11 her house or anything for gatherings or anything?

12 A. No.

13 Q. All right. Are you still friendly with her son?

14 A. No, I believe he's going to school somewhere.

15 Q. Okay. When you -- I take it she was the 16 assistant principal at the high school?

17 A. Junior High.

18 Q. Junior High. When you were a student, did you
19 have any occasion to have any discussions or 20 contacts with her during your time as a junior
21 high student?

22 A. I tried not too.

23 Q. Okay. Was she kind of the disciplinarian?

24 A. Yeah.

25 Q. All right. So you were successful in not having

1 any run-ins, as it were?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. All right. So, I mean other than that occasion
4 or for that reason, you really didn't have any
5 contact with her at the school?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Okay. Well, I would like to talk a little bit
8 about the news business and a little bit about
9 the coverage of this case. Where would you say
10 that you get most of your news from; the 11 newspapers, radio, television, internet?

12 A. Usually like the TV and newspapers, if I get a
13 chance to read them.

14 Q. All right. And how often do you watch the news
15 coverage on TV?

16 A. Not very often.

17 Q. Not very often.

18 A. I have a two year old son; I don't get a chance
19 to watch TV.

20 Q. All right. How about when you are tending bar;
21 is it --

22 A. No, it's mostly ESPN or something like that.

23 Q. All right. So it's a sports bar that you are 24 working at?

25 A. Right.

1 Q. So there's not a lot of news coverage there other
2 than sports coverage?

3 A. A lot of people talking about it but ...

4 Q. All right. Well, I noticed that you did mention
5 that, that you sometimes -- things of word of 6 mouth or you might have talked to people, patrons
7 of the tavern. Was there any extensive
8 discussion on your part of these proceedings or 9 the case, or just casual stuff that you overhear
10 from the public?

11 A. Just casual. I'm doing a job. I'm not there to 12 really get into in depth conversations with 13 people.

14 Q. All right. Have you followed the coverage of 15 this case much at all?

16 A. I try not to.

17 Q. All right. Any particular reason why you try not 18 to?

19 A. I try not to listen to the bad things I guess.

20 Q. To bad things. Okay. Do you recall, as you sit 21 here today, any of the coverage or any of the 22 details of what Mr. Avery is supposed to have 23 done?

24 A. Yeah.

25 Q. Well, tell us about what you remember hearing.

1 A. Just what, I guess, Fox 11 is the only station
2 that they have ever watched at the bar, if they
3 do watch a newscast. And that's about it.

4 Q. All right.

5 A. I guess when the accusations or whatever you want
6 to call them, when they were first on the news,
7 that was the first time that I really watched
8 anything about it.

9 Q. All right. So if you have seen any news coverage
10 is when you were tending bar, not at home?

11 A. Not really.

12 Q. All right.

13 A. I usually watch PBS or something.

14 Q. Okay. Now, you kind of gestured toward 15 Mr. Kratz; do you remember seeing him on 16 television?

17 A. Yeah.

18 Q. All right. And that was several months ago?

19 A. Mm-hmm.

20 Q. That's a yes?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. You have to --

23 A. Sorry.

24 Q. Okay. What do you remember about his appearance
25 on television?

1 A. Just what he was -- I guess when he was saying
2 what happened.

3 Q. Okay. Do you recall any of the details that --
4 that he may have provided?

5 A. Yeah, because they were pretty graphic.

6 Q. All right. And was this coverage in relationship
7 to a fellow by the name of Brendan Dassey?

8 A. It was both.

9 Q. Both. All right.

10 A. Both parties, I believe. I can't remember, it
11 was a couple months ago.

12 Q. All right. Now, you said it was pretty graphic,
13 do you recall any particular details regarding?

14 A. Just what they said that had happened.

15 Q. All right.

16 A. That is public knowledge, I guess.

17 Q. Okay. Well, if you could tell us, I know it may 18 not be easy for you, but we want to make sure
19 that we have an understanding of what you think
20 you may know about the case and that will help
21 Mr. Strang and I.

22 A. I guess just what they said had happened to 23 Teresa, the series of events that had been 24 published in the news, like with her being tied 25 up and that sort of a thing.

1 Q. Okay. What else do you remember that is supposed
2 to have happened to her?

3 A. Yeah. That she had gotten burned in a burn
4 barrel or something like that.

5 Q. All right.

6 A. Like I said, I don't remember exact quotes so.

7 Q. Okay. All right. Now -- Now, I don't mean to 8 put words in your mouth so tell me if I'm wrong,
9 but I'm getting this feeling that, because it was 10 somewhat graphic in terms of how she is supposed
11 to have died; is that one of the reasons why you
12 haven't paid much attention, or not?

13 A. No, I just don't watch the news.

14 Q. You just don't watch the news, okay.

15 A. Too many bad things happening in the world to 16 worry about.

17 Q. All right. As a result of your, you know,
18 tending bar and seeing some of the news coverage,
19 including some of the coverage of Mr. Kratz, have 20 you formed any opinions at all as to whether 21 Mr. Gave -- Mr. Avery is guilty or innocent of 22 this?

23 A. I think it could go either way.

24 Q. All right. And that -- So --

25 A. To me, you have to prove it either way.

1 Q. All right. In other words, the State has to
2 prove he's guilty?

3 A. Yup.

4 Q. All right. Now, do you think the defense has to 5 prove anything?

6 A. In a way, yeah.

7 Q. Why do you feel that?

8 A. Because if -- why would someone just make
9 something up, I guess.

10 Q. You mean, why would the State make something up?

11 A. Yeah.

12 Q. All right. But if the Court were to instruct you
13 that Mr. Avery and his lawyers, and they will 14 talk with you at some length about this, but if 15 the Court were to tell you that, you know, they 16 don't have to prove anything --

17 A. Mm-hmm.

18 Q. -- not one blessed thing. They don't have to 19 call one witness, put in one piece of evidence,
20 not a thing. They can sit there like bumps on a
21 log. And unless the State has proved to you,
22 beyond a reasonable doubt, that he is guilty, you
23 would have to find him not the guilty; do you
24 understand that?

25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. Do you think you could do that?

2 A. Yeah, but you would like to think that they would
3 have to find holes in here, in theories. Because 4 I can't just believe everything out of your mouth
5 is true either.

6 ATTORNEY STRANG: I didn't catch the 7 answer, I'm sorry.

8 ATTORNEY BUTING: Could you read it back.

9 THE COURT: We'll have the reporter read it
10 back.

11 (Last answer read back.)

12 Q. Well, what if the only effort, or you could say
13 evidence, presented by the defense, came in the 14 cross-examination of the witnesses that Mr. Kratz
15 and I called to the stand and they vigorously
16 challenged the assertions of those witnesses.
17 Under some circumstances, do you think that would 18 be enough to raise a doubt in your mind, a
19 reasonable doubt in your mind of his guilt?

20 A. Yeah, but not beyond all other things that could 21 be brought up.

22 Q. All right. Well, if the Court were to tell you
23 that the burden of proof here is beyond a 24 reasonable doubt, not all doubt; you would be 25 able to accept that?

1 A. Yeah.

2 Q. Okay. And if the Court were to tell you that the
3 State is the only one with the burden of proof
4 and Mr. Avery, as he sits here today, is presumed 5 innocent, can you accept that?

6 A. Mm-hmm.

7 Q. That's a yes?

8 A. Like I -- Yeah. Like I said, it can -- it could 9 go either way.

10 Q. Okay. I'm not quite sure. We're having a little
11 confusion as to when you say it could go either
12 way. If you could kind of explain that a little 13 bit more for us.

14 A. I guess if your -- your thought process is good
15 enough that it's beyond a reasonable doubt, then
16 I'm going to go with you. But if their thought
17 process is it's beyond a reasonable doubt, then
18 it's not.

19 Q. In other words, if their process raises a doubt,
20 you would find him not guilty?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Raises a reasonable doubt?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. All right.

25 A. And if yours does I would find him.

1 Q. All right.

2 A. Yeah.

3 Q. Okay. Now, just so that I'm clear, you answered
4 that you yourself have not formed any opinions at 5 all?

6 A. No.

7 Q. All right. And do you think that you would be 8 able to make a decision as to his guilt or 9 innocence solely on the evidence which is 10 presented during the course of the trial?

11 A. Yeah. Yes.

12 Q. Is there any question in your mind about that?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Okay. You also had some interesting comments
15 regarding television shows like CSI and Bones,
16 having medical terminology courses, some of the 17 words they used do not make sense to what is 18 going on in the scene?

19 A. Yeah.

20 Q. Tell us about that.

21 A. Like if you watch shows, even ER, some of the 22 medical terminology is just crazy. It's not even 23 relevant to what is happening. Like they will be 24 talking about someone's, like, PSA levels and 25 that's a prostate thing, when they are working on

1 their lungs. They just use it to sound like they
2 are smart, I guess.

3 Q. All right. And that opinion comes from your 4 experience as a certified nursing assistant and
5 now in the massage therapy?

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. All right. As part of your massage therapy, are 8 you taking any physical therapy courses?

9 A. It's, well, all of massage therapy is kind of 10 physical I guess, but it's not -- it's not the 11 stretching and stuff --

12 Q. All right.

13 A. -- that a physical therapist would do.

14 Q. But it's not the same curriculum as you would 15 have as -- if you were to go to school for a
16 physical therapist --

17 A. No.

18 Q. -- you would agree? Okay. You also indicated
19 that you are at least familiar with a member of 20 the Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Kelli Tice?

23 A. Yup.

24 Q. How do you know Kelli Tice?

25 A. She is my boyfriend's aunt.

1 Q. All right. How well do you know her?

2 A. Fairly well, we go over to her house often.

3 Q. All right. In your visits to her, do you discuss

4 the events of the news and things of that sort?

5 A. The news, yes, but she's very -- she knows what

6 she does as a job; she takes it as being

7 important and she doesn't say anything.

8 Q. All right. In other words, she doesn't discuss

9 her work with you at all?

10 A. No, she's very adamant on that.

11 Q. Okay. Does -- Has this case ever come up in

12 discussion?

13 A. It's come up, but not to any extent.

14 Q. All right. Tell us about that?

15 A. Just, what have you heard on the news today.

16 This is what I have heard on the news. That sort

17 of thing.

18 Q. All right. And so whatever is discussed is just 19 whatever happened to be the headline of the day?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. All right. And she hasn't discussed any inside

22 information that she may have or anything?

23 A. No.

24 Q. No. She doesn't do that?

25 A. No. She's a sergeant in the jail. So she

1 doesn't see a lot of this side of it I guess --

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. -- or she hasn't at least discussed it with me.

4 Q. All right. You also indicated that you did know
5 someone who was killed and that there was a
6 prosecution. Can you tell us a little bit about
7 that?

8 A. It was two of my friends, actually. One of 9 them -- They both had left the party at the same
10 time and one had gone the opposite way down the 11 road and they collided. And one of them was 12 killed and the other one was a person who ran 13 into them.

14 Q. Okay. So both of them were at the same party and 15 they --

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. They left and went different directions but then
18 somehow --

19 A. Yup, it's a circle drive and --

20 Q. I see.

21 A. -- and one had gone out and T-boned --

22 Q. All right.

23 A. -- the other one.

24 Q. Okay. And there was a prosecution. Was there
25 alcohol related in this?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. Is there anything about that experience
3 that makes you wonder whether you could be fair
4 and impartial as a juror in -- on a case like
5 this?

6 A. No, they are completely unrelated.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. It was a vehicle accident.

9 Q. Okay. What do you like to do for your hobbies in 10 your spare time?

11 A. Go horseback riding, that sort of thing, go
12 four-wheeling.

13 Q. Horseback riding and four-wheeling?

14 A. Mm-hmm.

15 Q. Do you -- any other pursuits? Do you like to --
16 well, work -- read books, work on puzzles,
17 boardgames, or play cards or any of those things?

18 A. We usually play cards, but I would like -- I
19 would like to do puzzles but, like I said, I have 20 a two year old and it's just not possible.

21 Q. All right. Does the two year old just take your
22 time --

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. -- or just take over the puzzle?

25 A. Both.

1 Q. All right. If you were selected as a juror, is
2 there any concerns for the care of your two year
3 old if you are here for eight or nine hours a
4 day?

5 A. My boyfriend is laid off of work right now.

6 Q. All right.

7 A. And so -- he -- and he lives with -- we live
8 together.

9 Q. All right. So he's comfortable being the dad for 10 a while?

11 A. Not happy about it but, yeah.

12 Q. All right. Are you worried about it, though?

13 A. Not really.

14 Q. Okay. Do you own a computer?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Do you use the internet frequently?

17 A. Mm-hmm. Yes. Sorry.

18 Q. Okay. Do you use the internet to read up on 19 information, or stories, or anything that's of 20 particular interest to you?

21 A. No, I use it to pay my bills and do my banking.

22 Q. All right. So you are a very practical user of
23 that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Business only and not that much entertainment

1 from the computer?

2 A. No, don't have time.

3 Q. Okay.

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all I have for
5 this witness.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

8 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

9 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

10 Q. So, I'm Dean Strang and this is Jerome Buting and 11 Steven Avery. We stood up in front of you, I'm 12 sure, last week, but. Mr. Buting and I are 13 defending Mr. Avery. And sort of in deciding 14 what to make of you here, I want to hear more
15 about your work hours at Linebackers?

16 A. It varies every week. I'm not on a set schedule.
17 It's pretty much my only job so he puts me on 18 whenever -- whenever he feels like it, I guess.

19 Q. Is it always evening hours?

20 A. For the most part. There are some days that I
21 work, too.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. They are willing to work around it, I guess.
24 They are willing to work around my hours here, I
25 guess.

1 Q. Okay. So you're -- What, you would continue to
2 work at Linebackers?

3 A. I would like to.

4 Q. Are they open until bar time?

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. And do you -- When you work the evening, do you
7 go to bar time?

8 A. Yes, for the most part, if there's not people
9 there, you close early.

10 Q. Okay. Sure. But for the most part, they would 11 be open until last call?

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. And is that a full-time job? I mean, usually 14 when you are not sitting on juries and doing
15 things like that?

16 A. It's about, I don't know, I would say 15 to 20
17 hours a week.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. Which is full -- I guess full-time for me but --
20 or full-time for a bartending job, too, I guess.

21 Q. And you have got -- You are going to school
22 obviously and you have also got a job at Family
23 Video?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. What do you do there?

1 A. Just customer service, just checking people out I
2 guess.

3 Q. Video rental --

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. -- store? How many hours a week is that usually.

6 A. Maybe five. It's just whenever they need
7 someone.

8 Q. Okay. Are you going to continue to do that if 9 you are on the jury?

10 A. They don't have me on the schedule right now
11 because they are waiting to see what's going on.

12 Q. Okay. And the school, they made arrangements for 13 you to finish up at home?

14 A. Yeah, because I told them of the possibility of 15 this and I didn't want to miss out, I guess, on 16 graduation.

17 Q. Right. And -- But are there some course
18 requirements that you will have to show them that 19 you have completed at home?

20 A. Yeah. We are done with the majority of our 21 classes. We have had final exams. It's pretty
22 much you just finish up what we've been doing.
23 And we're starting one new class and that's what 24 they're kind of worried about. Because they 25 don't know how I'm going to get that class in.

1 But if worse comes to worse, they told me I can
2 take an extension and graduate with the August
3 class.

4 Q. Okay. Would they be checking up with you at home
5 to make sure you are doing the class?

6 A. No. I don't know how it would work, but they had 7 just said that, don't worry about it, we'll take 8 care of it. I'm a straight A student there, they 9 are not worried about me failing anything.

10 Q. Okay. Do you think that you would try to keep 11 your hours at Linebackers from being cut back
12 during the trial?

13 A. I don't think that's possible because, like I
14 said, I work maybe one or two days a week. And 15 like during the day, and that I would just have 16 to give them up, I guess.

17 Q. Okay. How long has your boyfriend been laid off?

18 A. He's been laid off since the beginning of 19 January.

20 Q. So what sort of -- I mean, how bad is the 21 financial hit going to be?

22 A. Not very, we just got our tax returns.

23 Q. Okay. So you can kind of coast on that for -- if 24 you have to?

25 A. I would not like to, but I have to.

1 Q. And he would take care of your son during the
2 day?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Would that leave you enough time with your son if
5 you were busy five days a week in trial?

6 A. Yeah, I don't have to spend every second with 7 him, I guess.

8 Q. Mm-hmm.

9 A. And he usually stays up to 11:00 at night anyway.

10 Q. Okay. Do you want to be on the jury?

11 A. It doesn't matter to me.

12 Q. Why doesn't it matter to you?

13 A. Because, in a way it makes me nervous, I guess.
14 And in a way, it would be kind of interesting, I
15 don't know.

16 Q. Tell me what -- Let's start, first things first,
17 you said in a way it makes you nervous; tell me
18 why it makes you nervous.

19 A. Because it's intimidating. It's a big trial.
20 You know, you are deciding the fate of someone's
21 life; it's not something to be taken lightly.

22 Q. And what would be interesting about it?

23 A. Just to actually hear it first hand instead of 24 hearing it through patrons or through, like,
25 newscasts or something and to be able to form

1 your own opinion instead of listening to the 2 media.

3 Q. So, let's say you end up on the jury and then you
4 are tending bar and you are working eight to 5 close one night during the week; TV is on over
6 the bar?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And is this -- This is a sports bar?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And now you have got regulars at Linebackers?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. I mean, it's not like next to a Holiday
13 Inn or something?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Okay. So it's mostly a regular crowd?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. These guys are going to know you are on the jury, 18 aren't they?

19 A. More than likely.

20 Q. Okay. Bar talk being bar talk, how in the world
21 would you insulate yourself from everybody
22 talking about what the TV is playing?

23 A. The same way that I have done it this far; just 24 -- I don't listen to them. You serve their 25 drinks and you walk away, or you don't

1 participate in the conversation. That's just
2 like talking about politics, you never
3 participate in it.

4 Q. But don't you have to -- I mean, don't you have
5 to chat people up a little bit to get decent
6 tips?

7 A. Make different conversation. Happened last
8 night, we just started talking about ATV-ing
9 instead.

10 Q. Okay. Somebody brought up this trial with you --

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. -- last night? What did they -- What were they 13 saying?

14 A. Just, they were starting to talk about the jury
15 thing and I'm like, I already know, you don't
16 have to tell me and I don't want to talk about it
17 and we brought up a different subject.

18 Q. And -- But they knew you were on the panel here?

19 A. I don't know if they knew. I just said I didn't 20 want to talk about it. That's how I am about 21 most things. If there's like a murder in a
22 different county or, whatever, I usually -- I
23 don't like to talk about it.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. Most of the talk is about the stock market or the

1 war in Iraq anyway, so it's not like -- I'm sure
2 it will change now that it's actually going to 3 trial, but.

4 Q. Fox 11 is the channel that's -- I'm assuming ESPN
5 and stuff --

6 A. Mm-hmm.

7 Q. -- like that is on, but Fox 11 is the news
8 channel on at the bar?

9 A. It tends to be, like if a customer wants to 10 watch -- It usually happens about 5:00 in the 11 afternoon, someone wants to watch the news, just 12 to see the weather.

13 Q. Sure.

14 A. Either that or we'll have the weather channel on.

15 Q. Did you -- Did you happen to see a two part 16 series last May that FOX 11 did; it included the 17 Manitowoc County sheriff at the time?

18 A. No, I don't think I did.

19 Q. Okay. It was about the Steven Avery case or 20 about him?

21 A. No.

22 Q. That doesn't ring a bell?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Okay. I think you said the news conferences that 25 Mr. Kratz had, those two, you watched that?

1 A. Yeah.

2 Q. Were you at work --

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. -- during those?

5 A. Mm-hmm.

6 Q. Okay. And what do you -- how did you react to, I

7 think you called them graphic details, how did

8 you react to that, hearing those?

9 A. Well, if it happened or not, I guess it's 10 horrible that someone would do that.

11 Q. Mm-hmm.

12 A. That's how I reacted to it and you just kind of 13 (witness made sound) and walk away.

14 Q. Yeah, I mean, it's one of these --

15 A. Yeah, that's just like when you hear moms --

16 Q. -- bone chilling things?

17 A. -- that stab their kids, it makes you sick.

18 Q. Mm-hmm.

19 A. But it's not your direct life, so you move on.

20 Q. Right. Okay. But -- I mean, it's one of 21 these -- I mean no murder is good, but this is

22 one of these that made you particularly sick?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. Is that -- Are those details something you have

25 ever been able to put out of your mind?

1 A. Yeah, it's not something I think of every day.
2 It doesn't govern my life.

3 Q. No. No. And I'm not -- I'm not suggesting it
4 does, but you, for example, you remembered here
5 today the image of Teresa Halbach being tied up?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. And her body being burned?

8 A. Mm-hmm.

9 Q. What other images have stuck with you?

10 A. Like the fly by of the house. I don't know.

11 (Court reporter couldn't hear.)

12 A. The fly by, like the helicopter or whatever it
13 was that was over the top of their house.

14 Q. Mm-hmm.

15 A. That sort of a thing.

16 Q. And were you -- Are you aware that Brendan
17 Dassey's statements have a lot to do with --

18 A. Yeah, that was part of the news conference that I
19 listened to.

20 Q. Okay. What do you think of those statements?
21 Did you believe them; did you not believe them;
22 what did you think?

23 A. I don't know, if they are true, I guess that puts 24 a complete hole in your case.

25 Q. In my case?

1 A. Yeah.

2 Q. You know, I don't represent Brendan Dassey?

3 A. I know. I'm just saying, if his testimony --

4 Q. Sure.

5 A. -- is the absolute, honest to God truth, well,

6 then, that's the case right there, I guess.

7 Q. What would you do if the State did not call

8 Brendan Dassey in this case?

9 A. I think that would be stupid. They would have a

10 reason to call him, I guess. I don't know.

11 There's a lot of ifs.

12 Q. Yeah, in other words, you heard all this terrible

13 stuff, but do you still expect to hear it here?

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. I mean, the Judge, I think, will tell you that 16 the only thing you can consider is --

17 A. What's --

18 Q. -- the evidence you hear in the courtroom?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. But how would you -- How would you put that image

21 of this tied up young woman out of your mind?

22 A. I don't think about it. It's like when my friend

23 got killed I didn't -- after I went to the 24 funeral and stuff, you don't -- you don't tend to

25 think of bad things because then it just puts you

1 in depression. That's why half the world is on 2 Prozac.

3 Q. Let me chase -- Let me -- Prozac reminded me
4 of -- of massage, which is a good way to deal
5 with stress and depression, I assume, right?

6 A. Mm-hmm.

7 Q. How -- You may have said this and I just zoned
8 out, didn't catch it. But how -- how long -- If 9 you go straight through massage school, how long 10 does it take?

11 A. It's a year course.

12 Q. And that's if you are a full-time student, so to 13 speak?

14 A. Yeah. It's one 12 hour day --

15 Q. A week?

16 A. -- which is considered full-time to them.

17 Q. Right. And is one of the things you learn about,
18 in the massage therapy program, the human 19 skeleton?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. What kind of detail do you learn about the human
22 skeleton?

23 A. We had to learn and memorize every bone, every 24 muscle, origins, insertions, that sort of a
25 thing.

1 Q. Mm-hmm. And so are you familiar with looking at 2 skeletons, or models of skeletons?

3 A. Yes. And we went to a cadaver lab up at NWTTC.

4 Q. To see the muscle and the connection to bone
5 or --

6 A. Yup, to see what a person looks like when they
7 are dissected, I guess.

8 Q. Mm-hmm. Okay. Was that helpful in learning
9 massage technique?

10 A. Yes and no. I mean, you kind of figure out how 11 big muscles are. It's easy to see a picture of 12 it, but when you see it in real life, you learn
13 how it actually looks.

14 Q. How big -- how big it actually is. Okay. And do
15 you -- Do you think that you know a great deal
16 more about the human skeleton than the average
17 person on the street?

18 A. I would like to think that, but I know from 19 doctors, I don't know more than them.

20 Q. No, but the -- a doctor isn't the average person
21 on the street, right?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. Most streets anyway. How about the -- you
24 obviously had some schooling to be a certified
25 nursing assistant, too?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. How long was that?

3 A. I think like eight weeks. It wasn't very much.

4 Q. Okay. Also some training there about the human
5 skeleton?

6 A. Yes and no. It was more about like different
7 pathologies and stuff you would come in contact
8 with in the actual field.

9 Q. Okay. So most of your training about the 10 skeletal system has been in the massage --

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. -- school? I'm going to go -- I'm going to go
13 back now to the news conferences following
14 Brendan Dassey's arrest. That was about -- give 15 or take, about 11 months ago now, I guess. And 16 so after 11 months of that, do you have an 17 opinion today about whether Mr. Avery probably is 18 guilty, might be guilty?

19 A. Yes and no. I guess, I don't -- like I said, I
20 would like to believe that someone can prove,
21 beyond a reasonable doubt, either way.

22 Q. Mm-hmm.

23 A. I would like, you know, if they can prove it,
24 well then it's proven, you know. Nothing is fact
25 until it is proven.

1 Q. Right. And if I understood your answers before,
2 the same would apply to us?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. We would have to prove, beyond a reasonable
5 doubt, that he did not do it?

6 A. Well, I'm not -- Yes, I guess that's the best way
7 of saying it. I understand that it's not your 8 job to prove that he's innocent, but it's your 9 job to prove that he is not guilty.

10 Q. Okay. And would that include proving, to your 11 satisfaction, who did do it if Mr. Avery didn't?

12 A. No. It's -- It's -- It's his case; it's not 13 anyone else's case.

14 Q. Okay. And would it include Mr. Avery testifying 15 in his own behalf?

16 A. That's your job; I don't know.

17 Q. That's my job?

18 A. Yeah.

19 Q. Okay. Do you think that someone who really 20 didn't do a crime he was charged with would
21 testify?

22 A. I don't know. It depends on if it's to his 23 benefit or not, if he can bring something to the 24 case that is going to get him off I guess, then 25 why wouldn't you. If you're worried about

1 tripping up, then you wouldn't go on the stand
2 either.

3 Q. Mm-hmm. And if you're worried about tripping up,
4 does that mean you are guilty, or there are other
5 reasons you might be worried about tripping up?

6 A. Either way, you could, you know -- You could just 7 get nervous and say the wrong thing.

8 Q. Mm-hmm. Do you think if you (sic) took the 9 witness stand, some people on the jury might be
10 saying, well, of course he's denying it, you
11 know, he wants to save his skin?

12 A. Yeah, but then if he's denying it and they can 13 prove that he's lying, well, then, they have to 14 prove it.

15 Q. Right. Okay. In the end, I think the Judge
16 would tell you -- If Mr. Avery testified, I think 17 the Court would tell you that you weigh his 18 testimony just like you would weigh any other
19 witness, consider whether you believe it or not,
20 in the same way you make that decision as to any 21 other witness?

22 A. Mm-hmm.

23 Q. Can you follow that?

24 A. Yeah, that would just be like if Brendan would 25 testify, then, it would be the same, you wouldn't

1 weigh his testimony over anyone else's.

2 Q. Mm-hmm. Okay. And if Mr. Avery decided not to 3 testify or if we, with him, decided that, I think
4 the Court would tell you, in so many words, that
5 a defendant has an absolute right not to testify
6 and that you may not consider that in any way as 7 evidence of guilt, or consider it at all in
8 deciding whether the State has proven Mr. Avery
9 guilty beyond a reasonable doubt?

10 A. I understand that.

11 Q. Is that an instruction --

12 A. It makes sense.

13 Q. It would make sense to you?

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. Why?

16 A. Because why -- Just because, like, if I didn't 17 want to go out and talk to you today, doesn't
18 mean that I have anything wrong with the case;
19 it's just that I don't want to talk.

20 Q. Gosh, even if this is the time to talk, now or 21 never, it's your trial?

22 A. I don't know. It depends on, does he have 23 something to hide. Is that --

24 Q. Well, and that's the question, would you be 25 sitting there wondering, after the trial was over

1 and you were trying to decide on your verdict,
2 gosh, does he have something to hide, is that why
3 he didn't testify; is that something you would be 4 wondering?

5 A. It's something in the back of everyone's mind, I
6 guess.

7 Q. In addition to the, you know, the publicity about
8 Brendan Dassey and Steven Avery back in early
9 March last year, have you heard anything else
10 about Mr. Avery's background?

11 A. Well, it's public knowledge. It was published
12 how many years ago and it was published when he 13 got out of prison.

14 Q. What?

15 A. Well, when he got out of prison, they said, you
16 know, the reason he was in prison and whatever.
17 And now when they convicted him, of course, you
18 know, that's the first thing they bring up, is 19 all these other convictions that he had, that 20 have nothing to do with the case. I don't 21 understand why. That's just like if you get 22 pulled over for drunk driving they bring up all,
23 like your drug paraphernalia and stuff that
24 doesn't have anything to do with it.

25 Q. Okay. And I guess what I'm -- one of the things

1 I'm interested in is, have you heard that
2 Mr. Avery was let out of prison because some DNA
3 tests showed that someone else, not him,
4 committed that crime?

5 A. Yeah, it was big news. I don't think there's 6 really anyone that hasn't heard it.

7 Q. Uh-huh. And do you have any doubt about that?

8 A. No. If they proved it with DNA evidence, that's 9 kind of scientific, that's your proof right
10 there.

11 Q. Mm-hmm. Okay. And do you think -- Do you think 12 that experience that he had, being convicted of 13 something he didn't do and then getting out of 14 prison later, do you think that has any bearing
15 on this case?

16 A. It's completely different events.

17 Q. So no bearing one way or the other, or what do
18 you think?

19 A. I don't know. I guess there's -- there is some 20 bearing I guess, because you have to consider the 21 mind state that you are in when you get done with 22 prison. You have to consider that now he's going 23 after the county for however many dollars or 24 whatever. There's different ways to look at it.

25 Q. You say going after the county, you are talking

1 about this lawsuit?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. What have you heard about the lawsuit?

4 A. Just that he's -- a wrongful conviction lawsuit
5 or something, I think it is.

6 Q. And you heard of that on the TV?

7 A. Yeah. Well, when he was let out, they had said
8 shortly thereafter that he was going to be doing
9 that. Probably do the same thing, you can't 10 blame him.

11 Q. Right. Okay. What have you heard recently about
12 this case --

13 A. Nothing really.

14 Q. -- on the news?

15 A. Just because it said however many -- or two 16 months ago or whatever when we got that 17 questionnaire, not to watch anything, so I have 18 actually tried to stick by that.

19 Q. Okay. Have you heard anything about a vial of 20 blood?

21 A. No, not really. I maybe heard something about it
22 with people talking in the bar, but not really
23 anything I paid attention to.

24 Q. What did you hear?

25 A. Just that there's a vial of blood that was opened

1 and it was his blood. I don't know. That was
2 about it.

3 Q. Where was the vial of blood?

4 A. I have no idea.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. I didn't pay attention. I don't like to.

7 Q. Okay. But I mean, so you know a little bit about 8 that, not too much?

9 A. Mm-hmm.

10 Q. Anything else at all that you can remember
11 hearing, bar talk or on the TV?

12 A. No. People say a lot of things in the bar; it
13 doesn't mean they are true.

14 Q. People do say a lot of things in a bar. Your -- 15 Kelli Tice is both a friend of yours, according 16 to your questionnaire?

17 A. Basically.

18 Q. And your boyfriend's aunt?

19 A. Yeah.

20 Q. Right. You guys are over there a lot you said.

21 And I'm wondering --

22 A. Well, we go over there for birthday parties. And 23 we used to go over there once or twice a week and 24 just hang out, watch American Idol, whatever.

25 Q. Yeah, just hang out. Your boyfriend is close to

1 his aunt --

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. -- in other words? Do you still see her once a
4 week or something like that?

5 A. I haven't seen her much lately. Her son just got 6 out of the hospital for a brain tumor.

7 Q. Okay. So she's pretty --

8 A. Yeah. So she's pretty --

9 Q. Tied up.

10 A. -- pre-occupied.

11 Q. Yeah. And when -- when he is better and she's 12 back in the swing of things, do you expect you
13 will continue to see a lot of her?

14 A. Well, she's relation, you can't exactly just not 15 go see her.

16 Q. Yeah. No, I know. I mean, I'm just -- This is a
17 bad period she's going through, but you guys --

18 A. Yeah.

19 Q. -- will be spending time together again?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. Okay. And I'm -- I have no idea whether she 22 would be a witness here. I have no reason to 23 think she will or won't. But, in general, if we 24 just step away from Kelli; do you have any view
25 on whether law enforcement folks, you know,

1 police officers, deputy sheriffs, those kind of
2 people, are more likely or less likely to tell
3 the truth under oath, than Joe Blow, the man on 4 the street?

5 A. You would hope so.

6 Q. Why?

7 A. Because anyone can lie to you at any point in 8 time; it doesn't mean anything if they are a
9 police officer or not.

10 Q. So why -- so why do you say you would hope so?

11 A. You would hope that if you take an oath you
12 actually mean it.

13 Q. Oh, everyone?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Whether you are a police officer or not?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. And so, I guess if I understand you, you 18 would hope everybody would tell the truth under
19 oath?

20 A. Yeah, that's kind of like why I didn't lie on my 21 thing. There's no point in me lying; I don't 22 want to be thrown in jail.

23 Q. That's sensible. And you are just, if I
24 understand you, you are saying a police officer
25 is no more or less likely, because of his or her

1 job, to tell the truth or not tell the truth,
2 than anyone else?

3 A. No, like I said, everyone should tell the truth.
4 If not, then that just -- I don't know. I guess
5 I like to be pleasantly naive that everyone tells 6 the truth when they are under oath.

7 Q. Okay. What if you have to make tough decisions,
8 though, because one person is saying one thing
9 under oath and another person is saying the 10 opposite, let's say under oath, what do you do?

11 A. You take whoever has the most backing behind
12 them. Like if you are saying one thing and I'm 13 saying the other, if there's more people that are
14 saying the same thing that I am, well, then, you
15 would almost have to think that I would be 16 telling the truth versus you.

17 Q. If the State, here in this trial, called more
18 witnesses than the defense called, you know, just 19 by counting noses if the State called more
20 witnesses than the defense, would that suggest by 21 itself to you that the State had more proof?

22 A. Not necessarily. They all could be up here
23 saying different things. Like if you have a
24 police officer versus one of his family members
25 or something, they are going to say different

1 things.

2 If you pull every member up in his
3 family, they are all going to say -- they'll all
4 have different views on the story. They are not
5 all going to be -- they didn't -- they weren't
6 all there? I don't know.

7 Q. I'm -- and who's the family, whose family?

8 A. Steven's family. If you -- Like, let's say they 9 would call up every member of his family, not all
10 of them were sitting in the same place at the 11 same time. They all have different views on it.
12 They are all going to say something different.

13 Q. Okay. Same with police officers?

14 A. Yeah, like if you pull a police -- two police
15 officers up here, one of them is going to say,
16 like, if they were here two different days, one
17 of them is going to say one thing and the other 18 one is going to say basically the same thing, but 19 in a different way.

20 ATTORNEY STRANG: I'm all done with you.

21 Thank you.

22 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

23 BY THE COURT:

24 Q. Ms Knier, I have a few follow-up questions to ask
25 you about some of the answers that you gave. One

1 of the disadvantages of voir dire is we put the
2 jurors in your situation before they have heard
3 the instructions from the Court. And I just want
4 to make sure that -- that you are in a position
5 to follow those instructions if you're selected
6 as a juror.

7 One of your statements was, and I
8 believe it was based on the press conference that 9 you recalled, that you would expect the State to 10 call Mr. Dassey to the stand because your 11 recollection of the press conferences, he would
12 have useful information for them.

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. One of the instructions the Court will give you
15 is that you have to base your decision only on 16 the evidence that's introduced at the trial.
17 Mr. Dassey may or may not testify at the trial,
18 for a variety of reasons.

19 And examples of why we don't allow
20 jurors to base their decision on things outside
21 the courtroom is, if Mr. Dassey testified, the 22 jury won't know whether maybe he didn't make the 23 statements that were reported; maybe the State
24 decided the statements weren't true and decided 25 not to call him; maybe the State decides not to

1 call him for some other reason.

2 If he doesn't testify, the jurors won't
3 know, but the jury will be instructed and have to
4 agree to make their decision only on the evidence
5 that comes in at the trial. Will you be able to 6 do that if you are selected as a juror?

7 A. Yeah, that's what I'm saying. It's to their 8 advantage to pull him up here, if what he's 9 saying is correct. And I don't know what he's 10 all said, but if he has all this knowledge or 11 whatever, it would be to their advantage.

12 Q. All right. But if they don't call him to the 13 stand, you have to base your decision --

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. -- on what you do hear at trial? You can't 16 speculate on what he might have said?

17 A. Yeah.

18 Q. You can --

19 A. Yeah, I understand that.

20 Q. -- agree to do that? Okay. Finally, I know you
21 indicated in answer to a burden of proof
22 question, that as a juror, correct me if I'm 23 wrong here, I think you were hoping that one
24 side's case or the other would be proved, beyond
25 a reasonable doubt, so that would make your

1 decision easier to make?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. One of the instructions you will get is that it's 4 the State's burden to show that Mr. Avery is
5 guilty of any particular charge, beyond a
6 reasonable doubt, before you find him guilty. If
7 you find that the State's met its burden, beyond
8 a reasonable doubt, then you can vote guilty.
9 And, likewise, if you're convinced after hearing
10 the evidence, that you are convinced beyond a
11 reasonable doubt he is not guilty, then it's 12 easy, you vote him not guilty.

13 But there's other things that could
14 happen in between. You might hear the evidence 15 as a juror and think, well, you know, based on 16 the evidence, I think there's a chance he is 17 guilty; it's not proof beyond a reasonable doubt
18 that he's innocent, but I don't think, beyond a 19 reasonable doubt, that the proof shows he is 20 guilty either. And if you wind up feeling like
21 that, you have to vote not guilty. Do you
22 understand that?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. Is that something you can do if you're selected
25 as a juror?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. The Court will also instruct the jurors at the
3 end of the trial -- and at this point we don't
4 know if Mr. Avery will testify or not, but let's
5 say that he doesn't testify -- if he doesn't 6 testify, the jury will be instructed that he is 7 not obligated to testify and the jury can't hold
8 that against the defense. That means, as I said
9 before, the jury will have to make its decision
10 just based on the evidence that did come in.

11 And you can't be speculating about
12 saying, well, you know, I don't think the State
13 proved their case, but I sure would have liked to 14 have heard from the defendant, so I don't know.
15 If he -- If he doesn't testify, you can only base
16 your decision on what you did hear; can you do
17 that if you are selected as a juror?

18 A. Yeah, that makes sense.

19 Q. Okay. And the last thing is, and this related to 20 some questions that I believe were asked later
21 pertaining to the credibility of witnesses. And 22 I think I understood you correctly, but I want to 23 make sure that I did.

24 There will be another instruction that 25 will say, that in evaluating the credibility of

1 the witnesses and who you believe, that you can't
2 base it solely on the number of witnesses that
3 each side puts on the witness stand. Because, as 4 the juror, you have the right, if you wish, to
5 say, I find this witness or that witness more
6 credible than even four or five witnesses from 7 the other side. And if you believe that that's 8 the case, then you should follow your own
9 conclusions. Can you do that if you are selected
10 as a juror?

11 A. Mm-hmm. Yes. I'm sorry.

12 THE COURT: All right. We're going to have 13 the Clerk escort you from the courtroom at this
14 time.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: Excuse me, your Honor, I
16 have a couple follow-ups --

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: -- if I may.

19 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Fallon.

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

21 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

22 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

23 Q. Ms Knier, I wanted to follow up on something that 24 Mr. Strang and Judge Willis asked you, if I may.
25 If Mr. Dassey does not appear as a witness, then

1 you seem to have an opinion that he would be more
2 favorable to the State than to the defense.

3 So let me ask this, if he did not appear
4 as a witness in the case, for whatever reason,
5 would you hold that against the State in
6 evaluating the rest of the case --

7 A. No.

8 Q. -- in determining whether there was a proof
9 beyond a reasonable doubt?

10 A. No, you base that on what you hear in court.

11 Q. All right. So the fact that he -- So we 12 wouldn't, then, be stupid, as it were, for not 13 calling them.

14 A. Well, the reason I said that is, if you have all
15 that evidence, then why wouldn't you present it.
16 But that's your own business; I'm not a lawyer.

17 Q. All right.

18 A. But you said that you have to base it on what you
19 hear in court and that's what you base it on.

20 Q. Right. So whether -- If we don't call him or the 21 defense doesn't call Mr. Dassey as a witness, you
22 are not going to hold it against either side if 23 he does not appear --

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: I object to that. I
25 object to that suggestion.

1 THE COURT: I will sustain the objection.

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Then I'll -- It's another
3 way of asking the general question.

4 Q. If he doesn't appear as a witness, you are not
5 going to hold it against --

6 A. No, I just said that.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: All right. That's fine.

8 THE COURT: All right. The Clerk will
9 escort you out of the courtroom.

10 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

11 THE COURT: Counsel, any motion from either
12 party? Mr. Fallon.

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: I think we both are
14 agreeing that the juror should be struck for cause.

15 THE COURT: Should be struck for cause?

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

17 THE COURT: All right. I will hear both of
18 you.

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: I'm in agreement. I
20 think she knows too much from out of court.
21 She's -- Her exposure, at least to the March 1,
22 March 2 news conferences, or one or the other at 23 least, was fairly intense. We got confusing and 24 somewhat conflicting responses on basic questions
25 here.

1 And, although, I don't think any of us
2 were trying to put words in her mouth, she was
3 very ready to agree with the drift of the 4 question from all of us. But when we -- when we 5 got more open-ended answers, I think they
6 invariably suggested at least cause to strike for 7 an inability to understand and live with the 8 presumption of innocence, the burden of proof,
9 deciding a case only on the evidence presented.

10 Beyond that, as a practical matter, too,
11 I will add that I have real concern about a juror
12 here who would be burning the candle at both 13 ends, as this woman clearly would with 14 employment; in addition, employment in a place
15 where she's going to be barraged with discussion
16 about the trial.

17 Now, I'm not saying a bartender or
18 anybody else here by profession in this instance
19 falls into statutory bias, or even objective
20 bias, but the reality here, with this young
21 woman, is that in the aggregate there are just a
22 great number of risk factors and I think more
23 than adequate to add up to cause to strike.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes. My concern is a

1 little more specific dealing with the interjection
2 of the Dassey issue. I was not comfortable with the 3 witness' responses both orally and in demeanor wise.

4 I was also concerned by the fact that in
5 terms of the reasons why Mr. Dassey may or may 6 not appear as a witness. Chief among them is the 7 fact that he stands accused of this crime and he
8 has a Fifth Amendment right not to testify.

9 The question or the suggestion that
10 whether the State believes his testimony or not 11 or whether the defense believes his testimony or 12 not, the fact that he is listed on both witness
13 lists; I'm not comfortable at all with the manner
14 in which that issue was dealt with and more
15 importantly and more to the point, with her
16 responses on that. And for that reason, we would 17 ask that she be struck for cause.

18 THE COURT: All right. Based on the
19 concerns regarding the juror's familiarity with the 20 factual background, I'm going to strike her for 21 cause, based on the recommendation of both parties.
22 You know, I would indicate, as far as burden of 23 proof and those types of questions, we're bringing 24 jurors in here who haven't been instructed yet. I
25 didn't find fault with her in that area.

1 ATTORNEY FALLON: No. And I'm glad you
2 brought that up, I was just wondering and I hadn't
3 had a chance to mention this to counsel and I'm 4 beginning to wonder if, before we start our 5 questioning of the jury, as to whether or not we 6 might want to tell them what the general rules are 7 before we do this. It's just an idea. That may 8 speed the process or at least eliminate some 9 potential confusion.

10 It is rather interesting, after all
11 these years, and perhaps I have just been in the 12 practice of law too long and take much too much
13 for granted, but it's quite clear that many of 14 our jurors, hard working, decent, law abiding
15 citizens, unfortunately, don't really have a very 16 good command of the principles in this.

17 And you know, I'm wondering if the 18 manner in which we're going about this is -- is 19 creating more confusion than resolving confusion.
20 So I just throw a suggestion out there. Maybe we 21 might want to tell them what some of these
22 general principles are before we start.

23 THE COURT: All right. I'm not -- To this
24 point, we're in individual voir dire. I'm not going
25 to go through lengthy instructions before each

1 juror. I would suggest that counsel can assist in
2 this regard by not kind of deliberately leading them
3 down a wrong path or an open path, or leading them
4 to believe that they have the right to use other
5 rules to decide the case.

6 But I think it's, you know, to have --
7 to get a prospective juror who isn't familiar
8 with the rules that they have to follow, to start
9 saying, well, yeah, I would like to hear from the 10 defendant. Well, that's not unusual for someone 11 who's not familiar with the rules of court.

12 In many cases, the jurors have to be 13 instructed that the defendant doesn't have to 14 testify and they are not permitted to draw an 15 adverse inference from that. And I'm not sure
16 how productive it is to ask them a bunch of 17 questions about it before they know what the rule
18 is.

19 It's important that they understand the
20 rule to be sure, but I'm not sure that it
21 necessarily raises significant red flags to have 22 them, when they are unfamiliar with the rule, to 23 start out feeling otherwise.

24 At any rate, let's take our morning
25 break at this time and we'll come back and start

1 with the next juror.

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: When do you want us back?

3 THE COURT: Let's say 10 minutes after 11.

4 We'll have a 13 minute break.

5 (Recess taken.)

6 THE COURT: All right. At this time we'll
7 bring the next juror, Gerald Shedal, into the 8 courtroom. Go ahead, Linda. Please raise your 9 right hand and we'll have the Clerk administer the 10 oath.

11 (Juror sworn.)

12 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

13 THE COURT: All right. Is it Mr. Shedal?

14 MR. SHEDAL: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Shedal, you have already
16 completed a jury questionnaire in this case. Today
17 we're moving on to the next phase of jury selection
18 which is the individual voir dire process. The 19 attorneys for each of the parties will have a
20 chance, this morning, to ask some follow-up
21 questions to the questions that are on the
22 questionnaire.

23 I can tell you that should you be 24 selected as a juror in this case, the jurors will 25 not be sequestered during the trial; that means

1 you will be able to return home every evening
2 after the proceedings are done for the day. We
3 will continue to require the jurors not gain any 4 information about the case through any of the 5 news media; that is, newspaper, radio,
6 television, or the internet; and that jurors not
7 talk to anyone about the case.

8 I can also tell you, that although the
9 proceedings today are open to the public, we do
10 not allow cameras in the courtroom during the 11 voir dire process. And the news media is 12 prohibited from disclosing the names of jurors
13 during the course of the trial.

14 In addition, I can tell you that the 15 jurors who are selected to hear this case will 16 not be on camera at any point during the trial
17 itself.

18 If you are still part of the jury panel
19 after the questioning today, you will get a
20 telephone notice as to when to report back to 21 court, later this week. Mr. Fallon, you may 22 begin.

24 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

25 Q. Good morning, Mr. Shedal.

1 A. Good morning.

2 Q. My name is Tom Fallon, I'm an Assistant Attorney
3 General with the Wisconsin Department of Justice
4 and I'm one of the prosecutors on this case. To 5 my left is Mr. Ken Kratz, the District Attorney
6 from Calumet County and lead prosecutor here.
7 Good morning and thank you for coming.

8 There were a couple of things in your
9 questionnaire that has peaked the interest of 10 Court and counsel and we would like to talk with 11 you about them, to assist us in selecting a jury
12 today. I guess the matter of primary interest,
13 at least for the moment, is that you have
14 expressed that you are at least somewhat familiar 15 with several members of Mr. Avery's family; is 16 that correct?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. All right. And you work at a place called 19 Federal Mogul here in Manitowoc?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Forgive me, but I'm not familiar with that 22 business, can you tell me what it is?

23 A. Sure. It's a factory that we make piston rings
24 for the automotive market.

25 Q. You make what?

1 A. Piston rings for the automotive market.

2 Q. Oh, piston rings. Okay. So is your association
3 with members of his family because of they are in 4 the salvage business and you are in the 5 automotive parts; is that the connection?

6 A. No, that is not. There's members of his family
7 that work by us.

8 Q. That work with you. Okay. And which members of 9 his family work with Federal Mogul?

10 A. There's Marie Avery. She used to work for me,
11 but now she just moved to the weekend, to the 12 second shift. And then there's Bobby Dassey.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. He works the weekend shift there. He was working 15 for me in the past. And then there is one other
16 one, sorry, I can't remember her name. She works
17 at the other plant down the road.

18 Q. The other plant is -- you say you couldn't 19 remember the name. Carla?

20 A. Carla. Right.

21 Q. All right. Did you at some time work with her
22 directly?

23 A. No, I did not.

24 Q. All right. Do you work with, I think you said
25 Marie it was?

1 A. Right.

2 Q. And with Bobby?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. All right. And you have worked directly with
5 them?

6 A. Yes, I have.

7 Q. Do you know them fairly well?

8 A. No, no, not really.

9 Q. All right.

10 A. They got hired. They put in their -- like their 11 probationary period on my shift and then they 12 went -- they moved on to the next shift that they 13 got hired for.

14 (Loud noise.)

15 THE COURT: We have got a battery. That's 16 what happens when the battery goes in the 17 microphone. Don't be alarmed.

18 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ As a result of your
19 familiarity with these three family members --
20 Well, let me ask a couple of first preliminary
21 questions. Have you had any discussions at all
22 regarding this case, with them?

23 A. No, I have not and they never talked about it. I
24 just kind of put two and two together.

25 Q. All right. And meaning that you figured out that

1 they were actually related to him; is that what
2 you are saying?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. Well, the one -- the one I didn't know he was 6 related to until I filled out that questionnaire.
7 Marie, I didn't know if she was related for sure
8 or not until I filled that out, then I seen her
9 name on there, then I knew it was.

10 Q. All right. And now you actually worked with 11 Marie and Bobby; is that correct?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. Now, during the -- How long did you work with
14 them?

15 A. Well, I'm a supervisor there and throughout the 16 day, I would say maybe 15 minutes a day.

17 Q. All right.

18 A. Not a real lot but, yes, I did.

19 Q. Did you get to know them fairly well?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Did you have any personal conversations with them
22 other than, you know, beyond the point of the 23 business, as it was?

24 A. No.

25 Q. All right. All right. Now, in answer to

1 question -- toward the end of the questionnaire,
2 you were asked: Is there anything or any reason
3 at all, however personal or private, that makes
4 you feel you should not serve as a juror on this
5 case, or that if selected to serve you could not
6 be fair and impartial? And you first said, no,
7 you crossed that out and answered yes. And you
8 added, I work with Steven's relatives and then
9 you said the number three, presumably that means
10 that's the three relatives you work with?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. All right. Tell us why, is that your opinion,
13 your feeling today?

14 A. Yeah, pretty much.

15 Q. All right. Let's talk a little bit about that.
16 Why would that make you uncomfortable --

17 A. Well --

18 Q. -- what concerns does it raise?

19 A. Well, I don't know -- I don't know what to --
20 Just say if it would, whatever way it went, I
21 don't know how they would take it toward me.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. I guess that's about the only reason.

24 Q. Well, you think that they might feel -- some 25 animosity for you --

1 A. Right.

2 Q. -- some anger?

3 A. That's pretty much what I'm saying right now.

4 Q. All right. I mean, do you have any fears of any 5 type of family retribution?

6 A. No, no.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. Not at all.

9 Q. All right. Do you work with them regularly?

10 A. No, they are -- they no longer work for me.

11 Q. All right. So they are entirely in different
12 shifts with different projects and things?

13 A. Correct. Right.

14 Q. All right. Now, if any of them were to appear as 15 witnesses in this case, would that create some 16 problems for you?

17 A. Uh-uh, I don't feel it would.

18 Q. All right. Why would that not create any 19 problems?

20 A. I guess I don't know how to answer that. I don't 21 know.

22 Q. All right. But if you were to -- So, it's not so
23 much that you know them from work, that if you
24 feel you could evaluate their testimony the same
25 as you would any other witness?

1 A. Sure.

2 Q. All right. So your sole concern here is you are
3 a little bit worried about how they may feel
4 about you should, for instance, you were to enter
5 a verdict of guilty?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. Do you have that feeling if you were to enter a
8 verdict of not guilty?

9 A. Yeah, I would have to say the same.

10 Q. All right.

11 A. Both ways.

12 Q. Could you kind of tell us a little bit why you
13 have that feeling?

14 A. Well, I have been -- I just heard this through 15 the grapevine at work, that other people, that 16 someone else did talk to Bobby in the past and 17 they -- they filled me in on a couple of things.
18 And ...

19 Q. All right. I want to make sure that I can follow
20 you here. You are saying that someone you know
21 has spoken to Bobby Dassey?

22 A. Mm-hmm.

23 Q. Presumably about something related to the case?

24 A. Right. And then I heard --

25 Q. And then --

1 A. -- from that person.

2 Q. And it was passed on to you?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. Do you recall today what that was?

5 A. Geez, basically that -- that -- that his brother,
6 Brendan --

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. -- wasn't involved.

9 Q. Was or was not?

10 A. Was not.

11 Q. All right. And anything else that this person
12 otherwise had informed you of?

13 A. No, I don't think.

14 Q. All right.

15 A. Uh-uh.

16 Q. One second.

17 (Discussion between attorneys.)

18 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ Is there any -- any other
19 information that you have from an outside source 20 regarding what may or may not have happened in 21 this case involving either Steven Avery or 22 Brendan Dassey?

23 A. No. I don't know of anything else, no.

24 Q. All right. So what you are suggesting, then, is 25 that you had this one conversation with, I take

1 it a fellow employee?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. Who supposedly talked to Bobby Dassey, at least
4 about some aspect of this case. And the one bit
5 of information that you recall coming to your
6 attention was what you have told us?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. All right. Anything else at all, any other bit 9 of information?

10 A. Uh-uh, nothing.

11 Q. Nothing. All right. Okay. How long have you
12 worked at Federal Mogul?

13 A. Twenty-four years.

14 Q. And I see that you are a supervisor of 15 approximately 30 employees?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. How long have you been in a supervisory role?

18 A. Eighteen, nineteen years.

19 Q. Okay. And I take it you are a -- Are you a life
20 long resident of Manitowoc?

21 A. Well, I actually live in Newton.

22 Q. I mean, Manitowoc County.

23 A. Manitowoc County, yes, I am.

24 Q. Yeah, okay. Okay. Have you -- Let me first ask,
25 you checked your news sources as radio,

1 television and newspapers as your primary sources
2 of information. Of those three, where do you get
3 most of your news?

4 A. I would have to say probably the TV.

5 Q. All right. And any particular news channels that 6 you watch?

7 A. Channel 5.

8 Q. You watch Channel 5. All right. Have you
9 watched the coverage of this case on Channel 5?

10 A. Bits and pieces of it. The majority of the time
11 when I do get a chance to watch it is usually 12 like on a Friday morning.

13 Q. All right.

14 A. Other than that, not really, only because I'm at 15 work at that time. I start work at 4:30 in the 16 morning.

17 Q. I was just going to ask, what are your hours?

18 A. I work from 4:30 to 4:00, 12 and a half hours.

19 Q. Okay. And how many days a week?

20 A. Four days a week, Monday through Thursday.

21 Q. Okay. When -- Do you watch the evening news at 22 all after you get home?

23 A. No, most of the time when I get home I hit the 24 couch and I take a nap.

25 Q. All right. Have you followed any of the news

1 coverage, any of the newspaper coverage of the 2 case, Sunday papers maybe or ...

3 A. Yeah, here and there I pick up bits and pieces of 4 it, yes.

5 Q. All right. When was the last time you recall
6 either reading something in the newspaper or 7 listening to a news broadcast involving the case?

8 A. This morning I looked at the Herald-Times
9 Reporter. I seen the headlines from yesterday.

10 Q. All right.

11 A. That's what I seen.

12 Q. You saw the headlines. Did you read any of the 13 article?

14 A. Yeah, that -- basically that it's in the process
15 of -- probably about within the first paragraph.

16 Q. All right.

17 A. Yup.

18 Q. And did you read anything more than the 19 paragraph?

20 A. No.

21 Q. All right. Have you listened to anything on the 22 television recently about the case?

23 A. No.

24 Q. What was the last thing -- Other than what you
25 saw from the headline in that first paragraph

1 this morning; what was the last thing you recall
2 hearing about the case or reading about the case
3 before this morning?

4 A. I would have to say it goes back to last week,
5 Tuesday, after the jury selection has been
6 started.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. I did read that.

9 Q. You mean after you came in and filled out the 10 questionnaire?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. So the next morning you read the paper or 13 listened to the news broadcast?

14 A. No, I did read the paper.

15 Q. You did read the paper on that Tuesday about the 16 selection process?

17 A. Yeah.

18 THE COURT: Excuse me, Mr. Fallon.
19 Counsel, can you approach.

20 ATTORNEY STRANG: Sure.

21 (Side bar taken.)

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, I don't have 23 any more questions.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Shedal, at this time the 25 Clerk will escort you out.

MR. SHEDAL: Okay.

THE COURT: I will indicate for the record at this time I did not ask Mr. Strang if he had any questions because when I called counsel to the bench I was informed that the parties would be jointly requesting to excuse this juror.

And based on the answers given, both the failure to follow the Court's admonition about not reading anything further about this case and the answers concerning the defendant's contacts with members of the defendant's family at work, plus hearing things about this case, I believe there's more than an adequate basis for excusing the juror. And I believe that's the joint recommendation of the parties as well. Correct, counsel?

ATTORNEY FALLON: That's correct, Judge, from the State.

ATTORNEY BUTING: That's correct.

ATTORNEY FALLON: We wanted to flush that out.

THE COURT: Very well, the Court will order this juror excused and we will move on to Nathan Klein.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: Judge, just so you know,
2 the way we're doing it here is I do two, he does
3 two, I do two, he does two. So he's got the next
4 two.

5 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Klein, please
6 remain standing and the Clerk will administer the 7 oath to you.

8 THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand.
9 (Juror sworn.)

10 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Klein, you have previously
12 completed a juror questionnaire in this case. This 13 morning we're moving on to the next phase of the 14 jury selection process which is known as voir dire.
15 The attorneys will have a chance to individually ask
16 you some follow-up questions to the information on 17 the questionnaire.

18 I can tell you that the jurors selected
19 to hear this case will not be sequestered; that 20 means the jurors will be permitted to return home
21 each day and spend the rest of the day at home.
22 We're doing that because of the order to the 23 jurors not to follow any news media accounts
24 concerning this case and not to discuss it with 25 anyone during the course of the trial.

1 I can also inform you that although the
2 voir dire proceedings today are open, no cameras
3 are permitted in the courtroom today and the news
4 media is prohibited from disclosing the names of 5 the jurors in news media accounts of this matter.

6 Finally, should you be selected to serve
7 as a juror in this case, the cameras are not
8 permitted to take shots that identify who the 9 jurors are at the trial itself.

10 If you are continued for jury duty after 11 this morning's proceedings, you will receive a
12 telephone call later this week letting you know
13 when to report back to Court. Mr. Fallon, at 14 this time you may begin.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you, your Honor.

16 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

17 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

18 Q. Good morning, Mr. Klein.

19 A. Good morning.

20 Q. My name is Tom Fallon and I'm an Assistant
21 Attorney General with the Wisconsin Department of
22 Justice. I'm one of the prosecutors in this
23 case. To my immediate left is Mr. Ken Kratz, the 24 District Attorney from Calumet County and the 25 lead prosecutor in this case. Good morning and

1 thanks for coming.

2 We would like to ask a few follow-up
3 questions about some of the information you
4 provided last week in the questionnaire. And 5 after I'm done, Mr. Buting will ask a few
6 questions of you and then perhaps the Court.

7 I would like to begin a little bit, I
8 think first off, with your employment. I see
9 that you are currently employed at the Burger
10 Boat Company?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. All right. And you are a carpenter?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. All right. And how long have you been a
15 carpenter?

16 A. Two years at Burger Boat.

17 Q. I'm sorry?

18 A. Two years at Burger Boat.

19 Q. Two years. And so would you say your vocation as 20 it were is woodworking then?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And how long have you been involved in that 23 pursuit?

24 A. Since high school.

25 Q. All right. And how long would that be, 7, 8

1 years?

2 A. Yeah.

3 Q. Now, am I correct, I wanted to follow up with one
4 of your other activities, some may call it
5 employment, some may call it volunteer work. But
6 I see that there's a notation here that you do
7 some volunteer firefighting?

8 A. That is correct.

9 Q. With the Two -- Town of Two Rivers?

10 A. Yup.

11 Q. How long have you been involved in that?

12 A. The past four years.

13 Q. Four years. And have you actually had occasion
14 to go out and use those skills and fight some 15 fires?

16 A. Yes, many, and accidents.

17 Q. All right. And what other duties as a volunteer
18 fireman are you occasionally called upon to do,
19 other than fight fires or respond to accidents?

20 A. Sometimes helping out with the community with 21 searches such as this case.

22 Q. Right.

23 A. Do volunteering for Salvation Army to ring the 24 bells at local establishments.

25 Q. Okay.

1 A. That's about it.

2 Q. All right. Do you enjoy that work?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. All right. The reason I ask is, the question you
5 gave and as you have just indicated now,
6 volunteer searches much like were employed in 7 this case. So let me ask you a little bit about 8 that. You indicated in your questionnaire that 9 you had planned on assisting in the search for 10 Teresa Halbach since apparently other members of 11 your department did participate?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. All right. And if I may, what happened that 14 resulted in your not participating?

15 A. It happened to fall on a weekday, the day that we 16 were gathering to go and I was not able to. You
17 have enough vacation to use to go out and do the 18 search.

19 Q. So you had your other work responsibilities?

20 A. Correct, for Burger Boat Company.

21 Q. At the Burger Boat, is that ...

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Since you missed out on that opportunity,
24 if you -- if it had fallen on let's say a
25 vacation day or a holiday of sorts; would you

1 have participated then?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Did you have any discussions or -- with any of 4 those of your colleagues who did participate in 5 the search?

6 A. Briefly, yes, as to what, at this time I don't 7 really recall.

8 Q. Okay. You don't recall any discussion or 9 anything you had with them regarding what they 10 may have seen, or done, or heard, or any of that?

11 A. Just one story of a possum or some type of animal
12 that was inside a vehicle that one of the guys
13 stirred up and got startled by it, but.

14 Q. All right. So --

15 A. More or less small talk and nothing of, you know,
16 major.

17 Q. Small talk and humorous anecdotes?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. And not much substance?

20 A. Correct. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And how many of those conversations do you
22 think you had?

23 A. A few, less than five I will say.

24 Q. Less than five?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And when was the last time you would have talked
2 with any of your colleagues about that search or
3 about their role in the search for Teresa
4 Halbach?

5 A. Talking was probably done a week after it
6 happened.

7 Q. All right.

8 A. Everything settled down at that time.

9 Q. You haven't had any recent discussions with any 10 of those colleagues about the case?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Okay. Was there anything about the -- even the 13 humor part of it, was there anything about that 14 that makes you wonder or doubt in your mind
15 whether you could be fair and impartial in this 16 case, if you were selected as a juror?

17 A. Not necessarily, no.

18 Q. I'm sorry, not necessarily?

19 A. No. No.

20 Q. Okay. All right. Well, I would like to talk a
21 little bit about the media coverage of this case
22 and your familiarity with it. Where would you
23 say you get most of your news from; radio,
24 television?

25 A. Radio.

1 Q. Radio?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And why would that be?

4 A. Radio is played all day at work, every day.

5 Q. And what hours do you normally work?

6 A. 7 till 3:30.

7 Q. And is that a five day a week job?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Monday through Friday?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Okay. When you get home from work, do you watch

12 television, or do you do chores, or have some

13 fun, or what do you do in your off hours?

14 A. I do chores.

15 Q. All right. And while the chores are being done,

16 do you listen to the radio or listen to the 17 television while you are doing things or not?

18 A. Usually the television is on, yes.

19 Q. All right. Is it on news channel, sports channel

20 or what generally is on in the background as it

21 were?

22 A. Cops, actually.

23 Q. Cops.

24 A. Yeah.

25 Q. Okay. All right. What can you recall now about

1 the coverage of this case? Is there any
2 particular information, particular story or fact
3 that kind of, you know, sits in your mind right
4 now.

5 A. Burning barrel.

6 Q. The burning barrel?

7 A. Yup.

8 Q. All right. What else sticks in your mind?

9 A. The camera, the burning barrel, the vehicle, the 10 nephew.

11 Q. Okay. What fact or what information about the 12 nephew sticks in your -- in your memory right
13 now?

14 A. The -- His admittance to part of this.

15 Q. All right. Are you -- Can you recall any of the 16 details or any of the information that he -- that 17 is attributed to him?

18 A. Meaning as what he admitted to?

19 Q. Right.

20 A. The cutting of hair, taking part of the actions.

21 Q. Okay. Do you remember what he supposedly had 22 done?

23 A. I believe I remember him saying that he had cut
24 portions of her hair.

25 Q. Okay.

1 A. Would you like me to go into more detail.

2 Q. Well, it would be helpful for us, we're trying to
3 have an idea as to how familiar are you may or 4 may not be with some of the facts in the case.

5 A. Taking part in the rape of her.

6 Q. Okay. Anything else that you recall?

7 A. Them are the ones that stand out the most to me.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. Oh, and the school bus driver seeing her after 10 3:30.

11 Q. Okay. And is the TV the primary source of that 12 information, or is that the radio, or is it fuzzy
13 in your head?

14 A. I couldn't tell you exactly which was for what.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. But I would say 75 percent radio, 25 percent
17 television.

18 Q. Okay. Now, as a result of that information, you
19 were asked some questions in the questionnaire as 20 to whether or not you formed any opinion based on 21 the information that was available in the media.
22 And you answered: It's hard to say, the news is 23 so one-sided. One should hear both sides. And 24 the nephew's confession doesn't help him.

25 When you say, it doesn't help him, are

1 you referring to Mr. Dassey or Mr. Avery?

2 A. Mr. Avery.

3 Q. All right.

4 (Court reporter asked him to repeat.)

5 A. Mr. Avery.

6 Q. Now, can you elaborate on that, when you say the 7 news is so one-sided, what do you mean by that?

8 A. A lot of times when the news would start, you
9 would see the picture of Steven Avery with the 10 black and white striped jail suit.

11 Q. Right.

12 A. Almost implying that he's guilty already, before
13 the Court has done their thing.

14 Q. Okay. So what did you think about that, is that 15 fair or unfair?

16 A. Very unfair, I believe.

17 Q. Okay. Well, tell us about that, why is that 18 unfair?

19 A. Because it's giving the public the presumption
20 that he is already guilty.

21 Q. All right. And he's entitled to the presumption
22 of innocence, correct?

23 A. Right. Entitled to a fair trial.

24 Q. Right. And he remains innocent until the State
25 proves him guilty, beyond a reasonable doubt; is

1 that right?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. All right. And if you were selected as a jury
4 person in this case, would you be able to accept
5 that principle and apply it as the Judge
6 instructed you?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right. Now, do you expect Mr. Avery to prove 9 anything in this case?

10 A. Yes. Yeah, I would.

11 Q. All right. And what would that be? What do you
12 think he needs to prove?

13 A. To prove that he is not the guilty one of this as 14 to --

15 Q. Okay. If the Court were to tell you and I would 16 imagine, in fact, I'm quite confident the Court
17 will tell you that Mr. Avery doesn't have to 18 prove anything and that only the State, the only 19 party with a burden of proof is the State. And 20 the only thing that has to be proved is whether
21 he is guilty, beyond a reasonable doubt. Do you
22 understand that?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. All right. And if, for instance, Mr. Avery chose 25 not to present any evidence and just simply

1 picked apart the State's case, if you were not
2 satisfied, beyond a reasonable doubt, of his
3 guilt, would you vote for not guilty? Even if he 4 did not put on any case, he just criticized the 5 State's case.

6 A. It would be difficult to not hear his side of the 7 story if he was --

8 Q. All right.

9 A. -- not to.

10 Q. And if the Court instructed you that they don't 11 have to present any evidence, that they may just 12 simply criticize the State's case and that would 13 be it; would you still be able to follow that 14 direction?

15 A. As long as the solid evidence is brought forward
16 and can be proven.

17 Q. All right. So in other words, if the State does
18 prove to you, beyond a reasonable doubt, you
19 would vote that he was guilty?

20 A. I guess, yes. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. In answer to a question regarding 22 scientific evidence, do you have any special
23 interest in any type of scientific analysis such 24 as fingerprint, hair, or DNA; you indicated yes.
25 And then in your description, you said not to

1 pursue it, but in court it is very dependable.

2 Can you tell us what you mean by that?

3 A. It's factual. It's 100 percent correct. If you
4 can scientifically prove it as to what it is,
5 where it is, when it happened, that's cold, hard
6 evidence. In my opinion, that can make or break
7 a case. It will tell you whether you are guilty
8 or not.

9 Q. All right. So are you suggesting that as someone 10 who would be asked to evaluate and weigh the 11 evidence, you would give greater weight to the 12 scientific evidence because you think it's more
13 accurate than say testimony from witnesses?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. What about the people who are presenting 16 the evidence, the scientific evidence; do you
17 find them more believable than someone say who is 18 not a scientist or a doctor?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Why would that be?

21 A. More credible. They have more at risk.

22 Q. And is that because they have more information
23 regarding the topic they are talking about or 24 just because they are a scientist?

25 A. Because they know more about it in general, as a

1 whole. I mean, it's -- it's what they do.

2 Q. All right. Well, what would happen, in your
3 mind, if you had two scientists who disagreed?
4 They'd run the same test and one scientist says,
5 well, I think it's A and the other guy says, no,
6 I think it's B; what do you do with that?

7 A. Get some more scientists.

8 Q. I'm sorry.

9 A. Get some more scientists.

10 Q. Get some more scientists. Well, that's a good
11 answer, but let's assume for the sake of our 12 discussion that resources are limited and we 13 can't just run out and get another scientist, so
14 how would you evaluate their testimony?

15 A. I guess you would have to go to the next best
16 thing, a step below --

17 Q. Okay. And what do you think?

18 A. -- go from there.

19 Q. What would that be?

20 A. Any other type of evidence or eyewitness,
21 whatever the case may be, I mean, the next best.

22 Q. Well, I guess what I'm driving at here is, would 23 you be able to evaluate the scientist's testimony
24 the same way you evaluate the testimony of the 25 lay witnesses to make a determination as to who

1 is more credible or whose theory carries the day?

2 A. Yes. I mean, one will obviously make more sense
3 to one person than another.

4 Q. All right. You indicated also in your
5 questionnaire that on one occasion you witnessed
6 a hit-and-run accident and filed a report; is
7 that correct?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Are you aware as to how that may or may not have 10 turned out?

11 A. No.

12 Q. All right. You never received any more
13 information or any feed back on your ...

14 A. Nope.

15 Q. Okay. How did you feel about that?

16 A. Kind of hurt in a way, actually, that a citizen
17 takes time out of his day to pursue a suspect
18 that struck a school bus and kept going.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. And I followed the individual to their residence
21 or wherever they ended up parking and the police
22 did come and I filed a report with them and that 23 was the last I ever heard of it.

24 Q. All right. So you don't know if the particular 25 person was ever prosecuted and convicted, or

1 whatever?

2 A. Nope, I have no idea.

3 Q. Well, since you don't know the outcome, let me
4 ask this; the fact that no one advised you as to 5 what was happening or what occurred as a result
6 of your report, does that create some concern for 7 you in terms of dealing with law enforcement or 8 other witnesses that may appear in this case?

9 A. No, I don't believe it has any bearing on this.

10 Q. All right. Now, you indicated you have a cousin
11 who's a law enforcement officer?

12 A. Yeah, Allouez or Green Bay or ...

13 Q. I'm sorry?

14 A. In Green Bay, Brown County.

15 Q. Brown County?

16 A. Something like that.

17 Q. You gave us his name here, is he a Brown County 18 sheriff or is he a police officer in one of the 19 municipalities?

20 A. I think he is a sheriff. I'm not 100 percent on
21 it.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. I don't have regular contact with him.

24 Q. All right. So he wouldn't necessarily -- He is 25 not family, or is he?

1 A. He's -- he's a cousin of mine.

2 Q. A cousin.

3 A. But we're not, you know, real close that we see
4 each other, anything like that.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. Once a year.

7 Q. Special holidays you might run into him?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. Okay. So you don't have occasion to talk with 10 him about his work?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Okay. Now, you also expressed some familiarity
13 with a case involving a co-worker who apparently 14 was convicted of involuntary manslaughter?

15 A. Yes. Yes.

16 Q. How long ago did that happen?

17 A. I worked with this individual probably six, seven
18 years ago. And I'm sure this case happened well
19 before that, probably when he was younger.

20 Q. Oh.

21 A. It's nothing that was recent, but that's the 22 closest thing I could think of to this question.

23 Q. Okay. So it was not like that it happened when 24 you were working together and he had to serve
25 some time?

1 A. No.

2 Q. This was something he told you about after the 3 fact?

4 A. Yes. Yes.

5 Q. All right. Did that have any particular lasting
6 impression on you in terms of the justice system
7 at all?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Did he think he was treated fairly?

10 A. I never really asked him --

11 Q. All right.

12 A. -- or nor was it spoke of too much, you know.

13 Q. All right. Did you have any impression from him
14 as to what -- how he might feel about that 15 experience, based on the discussion you had with 16 him?

17 A. Like I say, I felt sorry for him more than 18 anything.

19 Q. All right. Any chance in your mind that that 20 experience, as related to you by the co-worker,
21 would have any affect on your ability to be a
22 juror in this case?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Do you have any friends, or relatives, or anybody
25 that works in the news business?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Okay. Do you own a computer?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. All right. Do you use the internet for a news
5 source for you?

6 A. No. No.

7 Q. All right. And what do you use your computer
8 for?

9 A. Searching for items, information and email.

10 Q. Okay. Do you ever use it to buy and sell
11 anything?

12 A. No. No.

13 Q. Pay bills or anything?

14 A. Rarely.

15 Q. Okay. Have you ever heard of a publication
16 called the Auto Trader Magazine?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Do you read it or use it from time to time?

19 A. Yes --

20 Q. You do?

21 A. Yes --

22 Q. I'm sorry, I don't mean to --

23 A. Yes, from time to time.

24 Q. All right. Have you ever purchased a vehicle, or 25 sold a vehicle, or anything with the use of Auto

1 Trader?

2 A. I don't believe so.

3 Q. All right. Have you used it to find, perhaps, a
4 vehicle that might be of interest to you?

5 A. Yes and compare prices and milage.

6 Q. Okay. Do you know any of the people that work
7 for that magazine by any chance?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Okay. As a carpenter and a woodworker at the 10 company, I would imagine that shop safety and 11 equipment safety might be important
12 considerations for you?

13 A. On a daily basis, yes.

14 Q. All right. In your capacity as a carpenter have 15 you ever participated in writing up any safety
16 standards or guidelines, or things of that sort,
17 to help manage the production of products?

18 A. No, never to write up anything or put into 19 effect.

20 Q. All right. Have your opinions ever been sought
21 by anyone who was putting together some kind of 22 safety guideline or policy for say the use of a
23 piece of equipment, or the creation of a
24 particular product?

25 A. Yes, yes. I'm on the safety committee at Burger

1 Boat Company.

2 Q. You are.

3 A. We meet monthly and always discussion on what we
4 can do better or how to make things safer.

5 Q. Do you enjoy participating in that type of work?

6 A. Yes, it reflects of my volunteer firefighting and 7 first responder training.

8 Q. Okay. Do you watch movies at all in your spare
9 time or?

10 A. Not many.

11 Q. Not many, okay. Do you consider yourself a 12 detail oriented guy or more of a big picture
13 person?

14 A. Very detail oriented.

15 Q. Okay. Any particular examples you can give us?

16 A. My job.

17 Q. All right. Are you -- Let's talk about that, are 18 you a rough carpenter or a finish carpenter?

19 A. Finish carpenter.

20 Q. Okay. And your carpentry work has been primarily 21 as a finish carpenter?

22 A. Yes. I had rough carpentry experience.

23 Q. Sure.

24 A. Plenty of that, yes, but ...

25 Q. Okay. And the carpentry work that you are doing,

1 is it -- can you give us some examples of the 2 types of work you do?

3 A. I'm a level three carpenter at Burger Boat, top
4 level. And right now I am running the pilot
5 house on one of the boats that we're putting out.
6 It's kind of a one person room where the boat is
7 controlled from. So I'm in the process of doing
8 that entire room by myself.

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. Which is a --

11 Q. It's a big project?

12 A. I have a big responsibility.

13 Q. Sure. Now, do you occasionally supervise other
14 help or is this pretty much your show?

15 A. I supervise other help, yes.

16 Q. You do.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Do you enjoy the supervisory role?

19 A. Yes, makes me feel good that I'm teaching
20 somebody else something.

21 Q. All right. So you like that instructor aspect of
22 it?

23 A. To a point, yes.

24 Q. A little frustrating I imagine from time to time?

25 A. It can be, yes.

1 Q. Do you have a tendency to exact the same
2 standards of professionalism from those you
3 supervise as you do from yourself?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. All right. As I recall, you do not have any 6 prior jury experience; is that correct?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. All right. Is there anything about the jury
9 process or being a juror who's asked to 10 deliberate on guilt or innocence of another
11 person, is there anything about that process you
12 think might be a problem for you, that you might 13 not be able to perform that duty?

14 A. That duty in itself, if I were to be selected, it
15 wouldn't be a problem.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. I mean, I would step up and do it but, overall, I
18 prefer not to.

19 Q. Not to have to do it?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. But if you were called upon to perform the 22 service, you would be able to do it?

23 A. Yes, I would.

24 Q. Okay. That's fair enough.

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: I will pass the juror.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

2 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

3 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

4 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

5 Q. Mr. Klein, I'm Jerome Buting. This is Attorney
6 Dean Strang. And we're representing Mr. Avery.
7 Okay. You probably saw us last week briefly, but 8 this is our first chance to talk. I see you have 9 got a six week old little girl?

10 A. Yes, that's correct, seven now.

11 Q. Are you getting any sleep?

12 A. A couple hours a night, yes.

13 Q. She's still keeping you up quite a bit?

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. Would that be a problem if you were selected on 16 the jury, do you think?

17 A. It could be for my wife's sake more, without me
18 there being able to help as much or throughout
19 the day.

20 Q. But do you think you would be able to at least 21 get a night's sleep?

22 A. I could get enough sleep to function, yes, I
23 would not be sleeping --

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. -- during the day.

1 Q. A lot of us have been through that and it's 2 sometimes very difficult to get enough sleep to
3 be functioning during the day, but you think you
4 could do that?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. Let me ask you, I'm going to go over a
7 number of things that Mr. Fallon already did, but
8 I have some others as well. The information that 9 you have learned from the media, radio or
10 whatever, you also mentioned, though, that you
11 have learned information -- you get news from 12 co-workers?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. What kind of information about this case have you
15 gotten from them, do you think?

16 A. Nothing, you know, greater than what was 17 expressed on the news the day before, just small 18 talk at work, the next day, after the news was 19 published.

20 Q. Do people sort of speculate about various 21 theories of what happened?

22 A. Yes. There's speculation of guilty and not 23 guilty. Kind of depends on the day or what was 24 last broadcast on the news.

25 Q. Right. And have you been exposed to people who

1 have got theories that he is guilty, and if so,
2 what are those? What are you hearing?

3 A. Just like I said, yeah, some people say he is 4 guilty and some don't. What more are you looking 5 for?

6 Q. Is it more 50/50 or is it more people thinking he
7 is guilty than not guilty, or I mean are you
8 hearing both equally?

9 A. It depends on the day.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. What was last on the news.

12 Q. Okay. Speaking of what was last on the news, how 13 much -- how recent have you heard anything on the 14 news or heard co-workers talking about anything
15 on the news?

16 A. At work, it's hard, you can't get away from a
17 radio at work. You try to stay away from it, but 18 you can't, there's radios everywhere and they are 19 on constantly. So it would have been Monday
20 morning.

21 Q. This week?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Did you try and avoid listening to?

24 A. Yes. Yes, been to different areas, and sometimes
25 you come across it. But I have tried to avoid

1 the radio, but have not been able to the entire
2 time.

3 Q. Okay. Did you hear information, some discussion
4 in the news about a blood vial?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Did you -- What, can you give me a summary of 7 what you heard about that?

8 A. They were going to test it for the chemical in 9 the blood, to see if it was in fact blood from 10 the vial that was stored in the Manitowoc
11 Courthouse.

12 Q. Okay. And so you learned it was stored -- I
13 mean, you heard that whole story, basically?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. So you have heard information about some of what 16 the defense is as well?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Have you formed any opinions about that, that 19 this is a crazy defense or it's a possible
20 defense?

21 A. It's very possible.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. The tests will -- should tell us.

24 Q. Okay. What if the tests can't tell you? What if 25 in this instance science won't be able to prove,

1 one way or the other, the source?

2 A. It's on to the next.

3 Q. Then you look at something else.

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. You also mentioned that you had heard really
6 quite a bit about Brendan Dassey's statements?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Initial statements, right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Have you also heard of other reports where he 11 recanted that statement?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Where he's denied it and said that it was false
14 and all of that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And have you heard information about how evidence
17 may or may not support or corroborate that?

18 A. Not in detail, by any means. And I can't really
19 say if I have ever heard that or not.

20 Q. Okay. That's fair. You do -- you put quite a
21 bit of faith in science, I understand, right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And you like it -- is that because you'd like -- 24 it's cut and dried, or you hope that it's cut and 25 dried?

1 A. I would hope that it's cut and dried, yes.

2 Q. What about if there's a lack of science, lack of 3 evidence that can be scientifically proved where 4 you might think there should be?

5 A. I would think we could do more to obtain it. I
6 would think that there are ways of getting it,
7 unless there would be a time restriction upon it.

8 Q. Okay. Well, what if -- you expect science to be 9 able to help corroborate what someone says?

10 A. Yes, I would hope that it can, to put more faith
11 in what that person has said.

12 Q. Okay. And if in fact it seems to disprove it or 13 doesn't corroborate what someone says; does that 14 -- what effect does that have?

15 A. That would lead me to believe that that person
16 has got the wrong information that they are 17 telling us.

18 Q. Okay. Either inaccurate or just false?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Okay. You said that you -- I forgot how you put 21 it, people presenting the evidence, whether they
22 are actual scientists or perhaps technicians, you
23 would tend to think or view as more credible?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. Because they have more at risk; what did you mean

1 by that?

2 A. It's -- It's their life. It's their livelihood.

3 It's -- It's their job. It's what they depend

4 on. It's what they do everyday.

5 Q. Do you think that they can make mistakes?

6 A. Everybody makes mistakes, yes.

7 Q. Okay. And that sometimes the results, the 8 science they produce, might be mistaken because

9 they make mistakes?

10 A. Yes, it can be.

11 Q. And are you capable of looking at the whole

12 picture to see whether or not -- have you ever

13 heard the phrase "garbage in garbage out"?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. So you have to look very carefully and

16 listen to the witnesses very carefully to

17 understand if the results are the kind of science

18 that you hope it would be?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. Now, given what you have heard, all you

21 have heard about this nephew's story, in the news

22 media; what if you didn't hear any of that at the 23 trial, would you be able to put all that aside?

24 A. It would be difficult but -- to put it aside --

25 it can be done.

1 Q. So what if the State didn't call Brendan Dassey
2 at all and you never heard from him?

3 A. I guess we would have to go on to the next and 4 try to prove it in another way. But it seemed 5 like it was major, major information that could
6 be used one way or another.

7 Q. And would you -- would you hold that against the 8 State, that somehow, well, if they are not
9 putting on that evidence they must not, you know,
10 they are hiding something or they don't have --
11 maybe it's not true, or would you be speculating
12 about that?

13 A. I don't know if I would hold it against them
14 either way, if they put him on or if they took 15 him off. I just know that this information
16 probably would be critical to the case.

17 Q. Okay. But if the Judge instructed you that you
18 have to really put aside all of that and forget
19 all of that and really decide this case just on 20 the evidence that comes into court and that you
21 can consider maybe lack of evidence that comes 22 in, but not focusing and speculating about other
23 things you have heard; would you be able to 24 follow that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. Did you -- If you have heard about how
2 Brendan Dassey has recanted at some point, have 3 you ever encountered or heard of people who have 4 confessed falsely?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Can you think of any reasons why someone would 7 confess to something they didn't do when they are 8 being talked to by the police?

9 A. No, I can't possibly think why somebody would 10 confess to something that they have not done.

11 Q. Have you ever -- You have never heard of any 12 situations where people have actually falsely
13 confessed and then turns out not to be true?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Okay. So that would be a completely new 16 experience for you?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Do you think it's impossible that someone would 19 do that or could do that?

20 A. I'm sure there are people that do it, but like I
21 said, I don't see why anybody would, or for what 22 reason.

23 Q. Okay. Do you think it's possible that sometimes
24 people feel pressured by the police to say things
25 that they didn't -- they wouldn't otherwise?

1 A. I could never see myself doing it, you know. I
2 guess there may be a possibility and I'm sure
3 there is a possibility because I'm sure people
4 have done it, but I don't see any reason why or 5 to what pressure the police could put on you to 6 make you confess to something.

7 Q. So -- But would you be able to listen to 8 witnesses that talk about -- not how you or what 9 you would do, not evaluate it in terms of whether 10 you would do something --

11 A. Right.

12 Q. -- but whether or not someone else would falsely
13 confess?

14 A. I would be able to listen to it, yes.

15 Q. Okay. Now, your cousin is a deputy sheriff, you 16 believe?

17 A. Yeah.

18 Q. And you work in -- As a volunteer fireman, you
19 probably work with some law enforcement --

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. -- officers as well?

22 A. Yup.

23 Q. Do you ever work with Manitowoc County sheriffs?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Which ones?

1 A. Specific names?

2 Q. Do you know?

3 A. I don't know the specific name, but there is
4 usually a certain police officer individual
5 that's kind of in our territory, that usually 6 gets to the same accident calls that we're at, or 7 blocks down roads for house fires, but I don't
8 know his name, no.

9 Q. Okay. So it's not -- is it not -- is it
10 necessarily the same person every time?

11 A. No, not every time, but a lot of the time he is 12 the same one, usually there.

13 Q. And is your only encounter with that deputy when 14 you are at, like, the scene of an accident or 15 something like that?

16 A. Yes. Yes.

17 Q. Traffic control or whatever?

18 A. Yup.

19 Q. So, you don't really discuss his or her work?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Do you think that police officers who would come
22 into court and take the oath and testify are 23 necessarily more truthful than the ordinary
24 average witness?

25 A. Yeah, I would say they are a little more

1 truthful, yes.

2 Q. Okay. Why?

3 A. They have a higher job and a higher duty to 4 withhold and stand up for.

5 Q. Okay. Do you think that -- So you think, then,
6 the police are less likely to lie about something
7 under oath than the ordinary person?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Do you think that they would -- Does that mean
10 that they would not ever?

11 A. No, everybody -- anybody can lie. I'm not saying
12 a police officer does not lie.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. So.

15 Q. Do you think sometimes police get personally
16 involved in an investigation and convince 17 themselves that --

18 A. Yes, yeah.

19 Q. -- convince themselves that this person is guilty
20 and they got to make sure that he's convicted?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Do you think sometimes police would cross the 23 line in order to try and make sure that -- that 24 they think the right person is?

25 A. I would hope that's not how it works but, yeah,

1 it can happen.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. It could happen.

4 Q. All right. The -- Let me go back for just one
5 minute. Your wife, is she off work, I assume, on 6 maternity leave?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Would you be financially -- have financial 9 hardship if you were selected for the jury, then?

10 A. It would make things extremely tight. I'm aware
11 now that we're eligible for unemployment, but it
12 is not up to what I currently make. There 13 wouldn't be a lot of extra things going on at my 14 household.

15 Q. But you think you could get by for six weeks?

16 A. Prefer not to but, yes, it could be done.

17 Q. If it's your duty and you are selected you could 18 do it?

19 A. Yes, I would step up.

20 Q. Okay. I appreciate that. You work with your 21 hands?

22 A. Yup.

23 Q. And I know you try to follow safety procedures,
24 right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. But do you find you often get little cuts and
2 things on your hands, when you are working with 3 your hands?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. All right. Mr. Fallon talked about some things
6 or asked you about whether you would expect to 7 hear or would like to hear Mr. Avery's side of 8 the case; do you recall that?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And that brings up a quandary for any defense
11 attorney because you have already -- you have got 12 this sort of catch-22, when you are trying to 13 advise your client, should you testify or not
14 testify.

15 If the defendant takes the stand, some 16 people will maybe think he's just trying to save
17 his own skin, he is self-interested, why should 18 we believe what he says. And yet he's a witness,
19 or she's a witness in the case, whatever it is;
20 would you be able to judge Mr. Avery as a
21 witness, if he testifies, just like any other
22 witness?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And not discount what he says just because he's a
25 defendant and has an interest in the case?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. If the Judge instructed you, could you follow
3 that kind of an instruction?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And, then, on the other hand, if he didn't
6 testify, that's the other fear that defense
7 attorneys sometimes have, well, is the jury going
8 to think he has something to hide, you know, why
9 doesn't he testify. A lot of people want to hear
10 both sides.

11 A. I would want to hear both sides as well.

12 Q. And can you think of reasons, though, why
13 sometimes a defendant may not testify, that has 14 nothing to with whether they are guilty or have 15 anything to hide?

16 A. I could not think of a reason why one would not 17 want to testify for himself or herself.

18 Q. Well, can you conceive of people who maybe are --
19 don't speak well in public, or aren't articulate,
20 get confused, things like that that they are 21 concerned about?

22 A. I don't think that would be something that should 23 prevent one from doing that.

24 Q. And what about, you know, what if -- what if 25 their attorney says I don't think you should

1 testify, I mean, that's a factor if you have to
2 consider?

3 A. Yes. Repeat what you are asking.

4 Q. Well, let me ask you this. If Mr. Avery didn't
5 testify, would that affect you and your ability
6 to be fair and render a proper verdict?

7 A. I would continue with getting to the verdict. I
8 guess it would have some bearing on it, that he
9 would not speak for his own defense.

10 Q. Okay. But now, you will hear, or you may hear
11 the Judge instruct you, if that would occur, that 12 every person has a constitutional right not to 13 testify and part of that because it's not the 14 defendant's burden to prove that he's innocent,
15 right?

16 A. Okay.

17 Q. And if the Judge instructs you that you have to 18 look at the State's case and the defendant
19 doesn't have to take -- to testify and assume any 20 kind of burden of proof and that you have to,
21 therefore, not consider or speculate why he did
22 or didn't testify; would you be able to follow
23 that kind of an instruction?

24 A. Yes, if that were the instruction from the Judge
25 and that's what we had to follow and that's what

1 we had to do, that's where we would go from it.

2 Q. Okay. Now, in this case, though, you know, I'm
3 concerned because of all the theories that people
4 talk about, that you have heard. And I'm
5 concerned that you may say, well, if Mr. Avery
6 didn't do this, who did?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. I mean, that's only natural, right?

9 A. That's exactly what I would think.

10 Q. But you understand that, if the Judge instructs
11 you that you can't require Mr. Avery to prove 12 anything, are you still going to say, hey, you
13 know, unless he can prove to me who actually did
14 this crime, I can't find him not guilty?

15 A. I would have that feeling, but I would still make 16 up my decision for the Court at the time. I
17 would still be wondering that after the case has 18 been settled, yes.

19 Q. And I can tell, because of your interest in 20 the -- how certain science can be, that you like 21 to have something cut and dried, you like an 22 answer?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. But you have to understand that if you're 2 selected on this jury, the question you are not
3 going to be told -- Well, I take that back.

4 You may find yourself in a situation
5 where you have heard all the evidence from the 6 State and you are just not convinced, beyond a
7 reasonable doubt, that Mr. Avery did it, but you
8 also won't know, necessarily, who did if --
9 commit this crime if not him; is that going to 10 trouble you or will you be able to render a
11 verdict of not guilty if you really have 12 reasonable doubt that he did it?

13 A. I will be able to render a verdict one way or the 14 other, you know, at the time.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. And then I would definitely look forward to 17 hearing more in the future as to where the case
18 has gone from there.

19 Q. Okay. So after hearing all of this, do you think 20 this is a case that you want to be a jury on?

21 A. No --

22 Q. Juror on?

23 A. -- I do not want to be a juror on.

24 Q. But you would do so if it's your duty?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. And you wouldn't have regrets and would you be
2 willing to stick it out and do whatever it takes,
3 no matter how long it requires deliberating,
4 after the case is over?

5 A. It's my duty and that's what I would do. I would
6 have regrets of lost time and lost wages and so
7 on and so forth of that sort and hope that it
8 wouldn't drag out beyond the estimated six weeks.
9 But, yeah, there could be regrets of things that
10 I missed, the money that I missed out on, but I
11 could step up and do it, yes.

12 Q. All right.

13 A. Not top on my list of things to do.

14 Q. I don't think it's on top of most people's list,
15 but it is a civic duty and we appreciate you
16 coming here today even and taking time out. So,
17 thank you, sir.

18 A. Thank you.

19 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

20 BY THE COURT:

21 Q. Mr. Klein, I have just one follow up. The -- One
22 disadvantage of the jurors in your position is 23 you haven't heard the instructions yet, so you
24 don't know what the rules are that the Court is 25 going to give you. But I can tell you that one

1 of them is, that if you're selected as a juror,
2 that the jurors have to base their decision only
3 on the evidence that they hear.

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. You have indicated both that you have some 6 familiarity with Mr. Dassey's confession and also
7 the recantation of that. We have a trial, you
8 may or may not hear any testimony about that for 9 a variety of reasons, that may or may not have 10 anything to do with the credibility or
11 believability of anything Mr. Dassey has said.

12 If no evidence comes in, will you be
13 able to base your decision only on the evidence
14 that comes in at the trial and not speculate
15 about what other evidence might have been?

16 A. I would do my best, but not to say that that 17 wouldn't still be in the back of my mind, whether 18 it would make -- make me lean one way or the 19 other at the final verdict, I really can't say.
20 I would hope that it wouldn't under your
21 advisory. But I would definitely do my best
22 and ...

23 Q. Do you believe, as you sit here today, that you
24 can do that?

25 A. Ninety percent, yes. And there's still a little

1 bit of me that I would hope I would be able to.

2 Q. Well, if something doesn't come in, you really
3 don't know what you are missing, right? You
4 don't know how it would cut?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. Can I ask you, what is it that gives you -- what
7 gives you concern? Why do you feel you -- why
8 are you only at 90 percent?

9 A. Due to the media and then the drastic -- drastic
10 events that were brought up, you know. I guess
11 that doesn't necessarily give me an opinion, but 12 it gives me faith that there can be some closure
13 to this.

14 Q. Well, if you are a juror you are going to hear a 15 lot more evidence --

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. -- than there's been --

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. -- in the press? And I will instruct you at the 20 end of the trial, if you're selected as a juror,
21 that you can only base your decision on the 22 evidence that you hear. Can you do that?

23 A. Yes. Yes, I would put everything else aside and
24 do that.

25 THE COURT: All right. I will have the

1 clerk escort you from the courtroom.

2 (Juror not present).

3 THE COURT: Counsel, is there any motion
4 from either party?

5 ATTORNEY FALLON: None from the State.

6 ATTORNEY BUTING: Could we have a couple
7 minutes to confer on this one, too, your Honor,
8 please?

9 THE COURT: Yes, you may. I will be back
10 in two minutes.

11 (Brief recess.)

12 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, we would move to 13 strike this juror for cause. I'm concerned that 14 he's unable to really commit to follow the Court's
15 instructions. He's obviously been exposed to great 16 detail about Mr. Dassey's confession, which may or 17 may not come in. And he seemed to have -- although 18 he said some positive things too and I think he was 19 being very honest, trying to tell us how he feels.
20 Overall, I don't think he's really committed to set
21 aside his prior knowledge and decide it only on the 22 evidence in this court.

23 There is the other issue I frankly meant
24 to follow up with him and forgot, which is the 25 Court's instruction not to listen or hear

1 anything about the case. And he's, even just
2 yesterday, already been hearing things on the
3 radio. And I don't think deliberately, but as he
4 described it, it seems like it's almost
5 impossible for him not to be exposed to media
6 reports about what's going on in the case.

7 And probably as this case develops and
8 as there may be significant, even sensational
9 developments, who knows, it's going to be all
10 over his work place. He says he tries to avoid 11 it. He goes here, he goes there and the radio is 12 on everywhere. His co-workers are going to be 13 talking to him. It's almost --

14 THE COURT: Wait a minute. If he is on the 15 jury, how is he going to hear these things?

16 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, if he's --

17 THE COURT: He's not going to be at work,
18 is he?

19 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, he -- I guess it
20 wasn't clear. He did say he was working first 21 shift, didn't he? So maybe that's true, maybe while 22 the case is going on he won't. But he has 23 already -- Despite the Court's instruction, he has 24 already been exposed and listened to radio. And 25 whether it was intentional or not, I think it's --

1 you know, it's indicative of problems he may well
2 have.

3 But the biggest problem is -- is that
4 he's just honestly saying that he doesn't
5 think -- he is not committing to the Court that
6 he really can set aside whatever prior
7 information he's learned and decide this only on 8 the evidence in the court. So I think he should 9 be struck for cause.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you, Judge. This
12 is one where we would disagree with the defense. I
13 think that Mr. Klein did his level best to answer
14 the questions as best he could.

15 I take him at his word when he says -- I
16 think his last answer was probably the most 17 telling in his -- and capsulizes his summary of 18 his presentation today. And that is simply this,
19 that while he may not want to do something or he 20 may not fully embrace everything here, he is 21 willing to, as he said, step up, meet his civic
22 duty. He is willing to follow the instructions
23 of the Court. He indicated he would do his best
24 to do so.

25 And the fact that he may only be

1 90 percent certain that he can follow the
2 instructions is, quite frankly, right there.
3 That's what you would expect. I think if you
4 would ask anybody in this room, are you
5 100 percent sure you could put this out of your
6 mind, are you 100 percent sure you can do this
7 and that, and I would venture to guess that most
8 people in this room wouldn't tell you I'm
9 100 percent sure of anything in this world.

10 And I think, as an example, there is a
11 case, it's not directly on point, but when you
12 get these somewhat equivocal answers, not 13 100 percent certainty that they can follow the 14 instruction or not 100 percent sure of that, the 15 courts have held that any witness who expresses 16 that level of understanding, that level of 17 commitment, should be deemed an adequate juror.

18 You might want to take a look at State
19 vs. Erickson, for instance, a particular juror in 20 there was talking about the victimization that
21 she may have experienced herself. She was a
22 sexual abuse victim many years earlier. And in 23 responding to a couple of questions she said,
24 well, no, I don't think so. When the court asked
25 her if she could be fair and impartial, she said

1 I think so.

2 I mean, those are equivocal responses
3 but, you know what, they are honest responses
4 from the heart and I think that's what Mr. Klein
5 gave us. He indicated he would be willing to 6 give us his level best. And I think that his 7 presentation is, quite frankly, what you would 8 expect.

9 THE COURT: All right. The --

10 ATTORNEY BUTING: Just a brief response.

11 THE COURT: Go ahead.

12 ATTORNEY BUTING: The -- I don't think that 13 these are -- I don't think that these answers were 14 equivocal, but convincing that he could still set 15 everything aside. I think he was being honest and 16 in that regard he was trying to do his best.

17 But it's not enough for a juror just to 18 say I'll try. They don't have to say I'm 19 100 percent but they have got to make some sort
20 of a commitment. And he was very clear, even 21 with the Court's efforts to talk with him, that 22 he says it's in the back of his mind, he can't -- 23 he doesn't really think he's going to be able to 24 put all this aside. So, for those reasons, I
25 think he should be stricken.

1 THE COURT: All right. This is a situation
2 where the Court understands the objection to be that
3 the juror is subjectively biased; that is, that he
4 is unable, based on his exposure to this pre-trial
5 publicity, to put it behind him.

6 This is also a situation where the
7 Court's observation of the juror; that is, his 8 demeanor as he was giving his answers comes into 9 play. Yesterday, I struck a juror based on the 10 fact that he gave answers that were -- seemed to 11 be acceptable, but his demeanor didn't strike me
12 as indicating that -- that I could just take his 13 answers at face value.

14 In this case, the Court's observations
15 of the demeanor of this witness, I believe that 16 he is very aware of his duty and very conscious
17 of the need to follow that duty. And he is 18 aware -- well, he's been aware of publicity
19 relating to an alleged inculpatory statement that 20 Mr. Dassey gave, but is also aware that
21 Mr. Dassey has recanted it. And he is also -- so
22 he knows there's some dispute. And I believe,
23 based on his answer, that he is committed to 24 putting that behind him, if no evidence is 25 introduced on that issue at trial.

1 I believe also, based on his demeanor,
2 that he has the commitment and the willingness to
3 do so. And his 90 percent, if you will, argument
4 or statement before he finally said just yes at 5 the end, is based on the fact that he recognizes
6 that he's human and he believes he could put it
7 behind him, but like anyone else, nobody can say
8 for sure until the time actually comes.

9 I'm satisfied, based on my observations
10 of this juror, that he could be a fair juror in 11 this case. And, therefore, the Court is not 12 going to strike him for cause.

13 Counsel, we'll take our noon break at 14 this time and resume at 10 after one, because 15 we're going to have to make a little better
16 headway than we have been making thus far. So I
17 will see you at 10 after 1.

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: Could we make that just
19 1:15, your Honor, an extra five minutes.

20 THE COURT: All right. I will make it
21 1:15, but I have to say, I was hoping not to go
22 later today, but we may have to. I will see you at 23 1:15.

24 (Noon recess taken.)

25 THE COURT: At this time we're back on the

1 record. Counsel, before we bring in the next juror,
2 I did, in my explanation on Mr. Klein, forgot to 3 address on the record the radio issue. My 4 recollection of his statement was that he -- because
5 of the radio being on at his place of employment,
6 that it was impossible to completely avoid it, but 7 that he has, since he received the instruction from 8 the Court, attempted to avoid listening to reports
9 on the radio and left the area, or I forgot exactly
10 what his words were. But it appeared to the Court
11 from whatever his exact words were, that he was 12 attempting to comply with the Court order and had 13 not been exposed to any meaningful publicity since
14 he has been instructed to avoid publicity. For that 15 reason, I did not choose to excuse him on that 16 basis.

17 All right. At this point, we'll bring
18 in Mr. Saari, who is I believe Juror 26, the next
19 juror on the list. Mr. Saari, at this time the 20 Clerk will administer the oath to you.

21 THE CLERK: Raise your right hand.

22 (Juror sworn.)

23 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Saari, you have already 25 completed a written questionnaire in this case. And

1 today we're moving on to the next phase of the jury
2 selection process which is individual voir dire.
3 The attorneys for each of the parties will have an 4 opportunity to ask you some follow-up questions to 5 the answers you gave in your questionnaire.

6 Before we begin with those questions, I
7 want to make sure that you know that the jurors
8 who are selected to serve in this case will not 9 be sequestered. That means that at the end of 10 the court proceedings every day the jurors will 11 be brought back here to Manitowoc and permitted
12 to go home.

13 The Court will continue throughout these
14 proceedings to require that the jurors not be 15 exposed to any news media accounts concerning
16 this case; that is, radio, television, newspaper
17 or the internet.

18 And I also want to let you know that 19 although these proceedings are open today, the 20 Court does not allow cameras in the courtroom
21 during jury voir dire and the media is prohibited
22 from disclosing the names of the jurors during 23 the course of the trial.

24 And, finally, if you are selected to
25 serve on a jury -- on the jury in this case, you

1 should know that the cameras are not permitted to
2 show the faces or any other identifying
3 characteristics of the jurors during the trial.

4 After the questioning today, if you
5 remain on the panel, you will get a phone call in 6 a day or two telling you when to report back,
7 sometime later this week.

8 At this time, Mr. Fallon, you may begin
9 questioning for the State.

10 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

11 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

12 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Saari.

13 A. Good afternoon.

14 Q. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
15 General with the Wisconsin Department of Justice.
16 And I'm one of the prosecutors in this case. To 17 my left here is Mr. Ken Kratz. He's the lead
18 prosecutor in this case and he's the District
19 Attorney in Calumet County. Good afternoon and 20 thanks for being here.

21 The Court and counsel here would like to 22 follow up with some questions of you, based on 23 the information you provided last week in the 24 questionnaire. So I would like to begin with a
25 little bit about your employment. If you can

1 tell me how long you have worked for the company.

2 A. Two years.

3 Q. And have you performed -- What is a material

4 handler?

5 A. Forklift driver, operate a forklift.

6 Q. All right. And have you been employed doing that

7 particular duty for the two year period?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. All right. Have you performed any other

10 functions for Northern Labs?

11 A. I worked in the office for a little while.

12 Q. You will have to speak up just a little bit.

13 A. I worked in the office for a little while doing

14 computer work.

15 Q. Doing computer work.

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. For like a month.

19 Q. What kind of computer work did you do?

20 A. Data entry.

21 Q. All right. Do you consider yourself fairly

22 proficient in the use of the computer?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. All right.

25 A. I would think so.

1 Q. And do you have one at home?

2 A. Yeah.

3 Q. And do you use it frequently?

4 A. Mainly for playing games.

5 Q. For playing games.

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. Do you get any news or any information from the 8 internet that way?

9 A. Not really.

10 Q. Okay. How long did you do the data entry work at 11 Northern Labs?

12 A. For like a week.

13 Q. What kind of material or what kind of product do
14 you work with at Northern Labs?

15 A. Car waxes, car soaps. What else do they do?
16 Kaboom, mostly Orange Glo products.

17 Q. I'm sorry, mostly?

18 A. Orange Glo. Orange Glo.

19 Q. Okay. And do you work with any industrial 20 solvents or cleaners, or things of that sort?

21 A. No, I'm in distribution warehouse. Everything
22 that's hazardous is in the other warehouse.

23 Q. Okay. So you are just in the actual usable
24 product division as it were?

25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. Finished goods.

3 Q. All right. Forgive me, but I was -- I was unsure
4 as to how to read your -- or interpret an answer
5 that you gave. So let me kind of read it back to 6 you, if you can kind of explain it to me. In the 7 question: Please list all groups or
8 organizations in which you participate or are a
9 member; and you write --

10 A. DCI.

11 Q. Right. What is that?

12 A. Doesn't have a name any more, but just like a
13 card tournament for playing cards.

14 Q. Oh, okay.

15 A. For a card game.

16 Q. Is it kind of like a club?

17 A. Yeah, like a social group.

18 Q. Okay. What kind of card games do you like to 19 play?

20 A. It's Magic Gathering. It's like a Pokémon game
21 kind of, but more challenging.

22 Q. Like Pokémon, you said?

23 A. Yeah, kind of like that, but more challenging.

24 Q. Forgive me, but age has caught up with me I'm 25 afraid. Can you tell me a little bit about the

1 type of game. I mean, what kind of game is it?
2 Is it a game of skill, chance, or what kind of 3 game?

4 A. Everything like skill, chance, strategy. Your 5 mental ability to watch everything.

6 Q. All right. In terms of something perhaps that
7 I'm a little more familiar with, is it anything
8 like poker or anything like Texas Hold 'em, or 9 bridge, or penuchle, or ... Is it anything like 10 any of those games?

11 A. I would say it's kind of like poker; you have got 12 to have the poker face kind of when you are 13 playing.

14 Q. All right. So it's as much as playing the cards
15 as it is the person who is holding the cards?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. Okay. Is there a fair amount of bluffing
18 associated with that game?

19 A. Yeah, I would think so.

20 Q. What is it about the game that you find
21 interesting or appealing?

22 A. The amount of people that show up at, like,
23 tournaments when you have it.

24 Q. All right.

25 A. Last one I went to was in Illinois. There was

1 like 3,000 people --

2 Q. Really?

3 A. -- 2,000 people.

4 Q. All right. How often do you travel for the 5 tournaments?

6 A. Maybe three times a year.

7 Q. All right. And the last one was in Illinois;

8 when was that?

9 A. About two weeks ago.

10 Q. And where, Chicago area?

11 A. Yeah, outskirts of Chicago. I can't remember

12 what the name of the city was.

13 Q. And -- Well, I have got to ask; how did you do?

14 A. Not very good.

15 Q. No?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Did you make it through the first couple of cuts

18 or?

19 A. They do like a bunch of mini tournaments. I got 20 like 4th in one of them.

21 Q. All right.

22 A. There was like 35 people in it so.

23 Q. All right. Now, are there prizes or is this

24 money or ...

25 A. First, second and third place get prizes.

1 Q. They get prizes.

2 A. They get cards.

3 Q. Okay. And do the cards have a value?

4 A. Yeah, each card -- There's cards that came out
5 when the game started and it's -- they can go up
6 to like $2,000, $10,000. It can be expensive.

7 Q. All right. Is there an entry fee associated with 8 the tournament?

9 A. Yeah, it's usually like each pack of cards costs
10 between 3 and $4. And you get 3 packs to build a 11 deck.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. And then you play with that. So it's like -- I
14 think they charge $20 and then they use the 15 remaining money to give out prizes.

16 Q. Okay. And so the last tournament had as many as 17 3,000 participants?

18 A. Yeah, throughout the whole day.

19 Q. All right. In terms of sources for your news,
20 you checked the newspapers and television; which 21 one of those would you say you get most of your 22 news from?

23 A. I would say television.

24 Q. All right. And what kind of -- or -- Well, first
25 of all, what time of day would you ordinarily

1 listen to television newscasts?

2 A. In the mornings, usually before I go to work --

3 Q. All right.

4 A. -- around 5:00.

5 Q. All right. And what are your hours?

6 A. For work?

7 Q. Yup.

8 A. Six to two.

9 Q. Six to two. So what do you do when you get home

10 from work?

11 A. Depends on what I have planned. Usually either

12 watch TV, make something to eat, go to the Y, go

13 down to the card shop, play cards. That's

14 basically it.

15 Q. All right. And newspapers, how often do you read

16 the newspapers?

17 A. I usually get the Sunday paper.

18 Q. All right. And maybe, what, one other day of the 19 week maybe, or just Sunday?

20 A. Just the Sunday paper.

21 Q. All right. Considering the television and the

22 Sunday papers, have you followed this particular

23 case at all through the media?

24 A. I haven't really seen it in the paper. No, I

25 would say I haven't followed it.

1 Q. Okay. When do you recall last seeing an article
2 in the paper or last hearing a television
3 broadcast regarding the events of this case?

4 A. I can't say that I have.

5 Q. Anything -- Well, let's just -- anything in the 6 last month for instance?

7 A. I usually don't look at the front page. I
8 usually just look at classifieds.

9 Q. Okay. While we're there, anything in particular
10 that you're looking for in the classified
11 section?

12 A. Apartments.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. Anything for sale in the classifieds like
15 couches, dressers.

16 Q. Okay. Are you living at home now?

17 A. No, I live in an apartment.

18 Q. In an apartment. So you're thinking of moving
19 up, as it were, a better apartment?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. All right. How long have you been living on your 22 own?

23 A. Like five years.

24 Q. Okay. All right. What, if anything, can you
25 tell us that you remember hearing or reading

1 about this case in either the television, news,
2 or the Sunday paper?

3 A. I remember somebody talking about at work that 4 there was a box of blood that was tampered with 5 or something.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. Something like that.

8 Q. And when do you recall hearing that?

9 A. That was maybe -- I can't remember when I heard
10 that. I just remember it at work, somebody
11 talking about it.

12 Q. Would that have been fairly recently or was that 13 some time ago?

14 A. I would say it was pretty recent.

15 Q. Okay. So that was not from the media, but just 16 one of your co-workers.

17 A. Yeah, just somebody talking about it.

18 Q. All right. Were they talking directly to you or 19 were they talking, you know, in a conversation
20 with somebody else and you just happened to be 21 standing by or nearby?

22 A. They were talking between each other and I walked
23 past them.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. I heard about it.

1 Q. Okay. Did you participate or join in in the 2 conversation at all?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Did you continue on your way or did you stop and 5 listen to some of the conversation or ...

6 A. I was talking to the other two that were next to
7 him.

8 Q. Okay. So you were talking to two other people --

9 A. While they were talking about something.

10 Q. -- in close proximity to these two having a
11 discussion?

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. And do you recall any more of the conversation
14 that the other two were having regarding this box
15 of blood?

16 A. That's basically all they were talking about was 17 that it was either tampered with or somebody put 18 it there. I don't remember.

19 Q. I'm sorry, I couldn't quite hear you.

20 A. They said it was tampered with or somebody placed
21 it somewhere. I can't remember what they were --
22 I wasn't really listening to what they were 23 saying.

24 Q. Okay. So you remember hearing those words --

25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. -- but you don't have a context in which to place
2 them?

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. What else, if anything, do you remember hearing
5 about the case, not necessarily from that 6 conversation, but any other conversation or any
7 other news coverage of it?

8 A. I can't say that I -- That's the only thing I
9 have really heard.

10 Q. All right. Do you ever remember reading or 11 hearing anything about a fellow by the name of 12 Dassey?

13 A. Dassey, Dassey. There was a guy at work that 14 talked about Dassey.

15 Q. Okay. What do you recall hearing about that 16 fellow?

17 A. Um, that he -- What did he do? Um, something
18 about him getting off a school bus and -- What 19 was he doing? I just remember him -- that he was 20 getting off a school bus and he was going --
21 Where was he going? I can't remember where he 22 was going.

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. But ...

25 Q. Anything else stick in your mind about after he

1 got off the school bus as to what might have
2 happened or what he might have said happened?

3 A. That he was -- I'm trying to think.

4 Q. If you can't remember, that's fine. We're just 5 trying to see what might be up in your head
6 there. That's all.

7 A. I just -- It was hearsay. I don't know what they
8 were -- They talked about that one a lot at work.
9 And I just don't really -- I didn't really pay
10 attention too much to them.

11 Q. Okay. They talk about it a lot at work but you 12 apparently have not been interested in the 13 discussion?

14 A. I usually talk with -- There's two people that 15 are usually talking about it and I don't really
16 talk to them too much.

17 Q. Okay. Do you have any opinion at all regarding
18 Mr. Avery's guilt or innocence, based on anything
19 that you heard from the news or anything that 20 anybody at work has been saying or talking?

21 A. I really don't know, either way.

22 Q. Okay. Do you watch much TV, I mean, regular 23 television shows?

24 A. Regular television, yeah.

25 Q. Now, you indicated that in your way of thinking

1 that shows like Crime Scene Investigation and
2 Bones are not very realistic. Can you tell us a
3 little bit why you think that.

4 A. Most of them aren't really based off of true
5 stories or ...

6 Q. Do you watch those shows frequently?

7 A. I watch -- what is it -- crime scene special
8 victim's unit I think it's called, maybe twice a
9 week.

10 Q. Okay. So even though you don't find it very 11 realistic, is there a particular reason why you
12 watch it once or twice a week?

13 A. It's interesting. My girlfriend likes watching
14 it.

15 Q. All right. All right. Now, you said you had a
16 couple of interesting experiences, I just wanted
17 to ask you about. You said at one time your dad
18 was accused or arrested for spanking your younger
19 brothers, but the case never went anywhere. Can 20 you tell us a little bit about that experience.

21 A. Yeah, he was -- What happened was, my two little
22 brothers, they -- there was flies in our bedroom
23 from because it's hot out in the summer. They 24 had took everything out from underneath the 25 cupboard, bleach, Drano, and just put it all over

1 our floor in our bedroom.

2 So my dad spanked them because they
3 weren't supposed to go underneath there. My mom
4 took them to the hospital, and she told them they
5 had bruises. The police came to my dad's work
6 and took my dad.

7 And after I think it was a month or two,
8 it got thrown out for -- I don't remember. It
9 was something with the judge. I don't remember
10 what it was.

11 Q. How old were your little brothers at the time?

12 A. I want to say five and seven.

13 Q. Okay. So, as I -- as I understand it, they were 14 trying to get some cleaning materials and in 15 their youthful exuberance kind of made a mess of 16 things in the bedroom?

17 A. Yeah. A really big mess. There was a thick goop
18 on the floor.

19 Q. I'm sorry?

20 A. There was a thick goop on the floor.

21 Q. All right. So in their effort to clean things up
22 they kind of made things worse?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. All right. So that did not set well with your 25 dad?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Okay. So he spanked them and your mom took them
3 in for some medical treatment?

4 A. Yeah, to see if they had poisoning from anything
5 that was under the sink.

6 Q. Oh, from all the chemicals that they were playing
7 with?

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. And then they had to explain how they got the 10 bruises?

11 A. Yeah.

12 Q. Okay. Did that experience -- Does that, or would 13 that have any affect on your ability to be a
14 juror in this case, your encounter? I assume 15 that the police were involved in that?

16 A. Yeah, there was two police officers.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. I don't know, they seemed -- they seemed okay.
19 Didn't seem to -- They just came in and asked us
20 questions, like, if he ever did anything to us.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. But it was -- it was a bad experience, but it
23 wasn't a bad experience with the police officers.

24 Q. Okay. Just kind of embarrassing for the family
25 in other words?

1 A. Right.

2 Q. In terms of how law enforcement handled
3 themselves, you were not -- it was not a bad
4 experience from that perspective?

5 A. I think if they would have, you know, took into 6 consideration what was going on, it wouldn't have 7 even went that far, but ...

8 Q. So, in other words, you might disagree with their
9 judgment to make an arrest?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. But in terms of, otherwise, how they dealt with 12 you and your mom they seemed fair otherwise?

13 A. Yeah, I would say so.

14 Q. Okay. Now, you also had an experience with law
15 enforcement. If you can tell us a little bit
16 about that. You said you were with -- in your 17 friend's car and looks like you were involved in 18 an accident of some sort. Tell us about that 19 experience.

20 A. We were driving down Dewey Street by Wal-Mart.
21 And there was a car that was stopped, but he 22 didn't have his blinker on. And then he turned 23 his blinker on and then we hit the back of him.
24 And we slid a little bit. And then when we got 25 out of the car, the police -- there was a lady

1 police officer, woman police officer, and then
2 later on a guy showed up. And then the woman was 3 trying to question me and she just walked away,
4 basically.

5 Q. Okay. Were you the driver of the car?

6 A. No, I was sitting in the back seat. I was trying 7 to explain to her. You know, she asked me what
8 happened and then she kind of just walked away.

9 Q. Okay. That is the -- And that was a Manitowoc
10 Police Department?

11 A. I think so. That was right by Wal-Mart. I think
12 she was a Manitowoc police.

13 Q. Well, did she have a blue law enforcement outfit
14 or a brown one?

15 A. God, that was -- I think it was a brown one.

16 Q. Brown?

17 A. Yeah, I think so.

18 Q. Okay. Have you had any other encounters with law
19 enforcement?

20 A. Not that I can think of --

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. -- off the top of my head.

23 Q. Did your friend get a ticket out of that
24 incident?

25 A. He got a ticket but then he went to the

1 courthouse and he got it cut in half, I think it
2 was.

3 Q. So he got a reduced fine?

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. Okay. How did that experience with the police
6 officer -- how did that sit with you?

7 A. Not very well.

8 Q. Okay. Well, tell us why. Tell us about that.

9 A. She didn't listen to what I had to say.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. That's -- That's about it.

12 Q. Did she take some time to interview your friend
13 who was driving and get his version of what 14 happened?

15 A. The other officer took me and my -- the other guy
16 who was in the car, took him to school and took 17 me home.

18 Q. Okay. Took him to school and took you home. How 19 long ago was this?

20 A. I would say two years, maybe a little longer.

21 Q. Well, the reason I ask these questions is there
22 will probably be a fair amount of testimony from 23 law enforcement officers, some police officers,
24 some sheriffs officers, some state agents, maybe
25 some state patrol individuals. So is there

1 anything about your two encounters with law
2 enforcement that makes you doubt whether you can
3 evaluate their testimony the same way you would
4 any other witness?

5 A. I don't know. It -- I guess it would depend on 6 how they answer questions or --

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. -- how they act. I don't know.

9 Q. All right. Depending on how they answer the 10 questions or how they act; that's a good answer.
11 Anything in particular you might be looking for 12 in terms of giving their testimony a fair shake?

13 A. I don't know. I ...

14 Q. Okay. Well, if the Court instructs you that you
15 are to evaluate their credibility, their
16 believability, their honesty, the same way you
17 would any other witness, would you be able to 18 follow that instruction, even though you have had 19 these two other experiences in your youth?

20 A. I think I could.

21 Q. All right. You would give it your best shot?

22 A. Yeah.

23 Q. Okay. And in that regard, in the terms of 24 evaluating the evidence in this case, if you were 25 selected as a juror, do you think you could

1 decide the guilt or innocence of Mr. Avery, based 2 solely on the evidence that is presented in
3 court?

4 A. I think so, yeah.

5 Q. All right. Is there anything about your previous 6 experiences with law enforcement that really
7 makes you wonder, or really have a doubt in the 8 back of your head whether you could do that?

9 A. Personally, I think it was just that one lady,
10 she seemed like she was having a bad day.

11 Q. Okay. And we all have bad days, don't we?

12 A. Yeah.

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: All right. That's all I
14 have for this witness. Thank you.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

16 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

17 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

18 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

19 Q. Good afternoon. My name is Jerome Buting. And 20 I, along with Dean Strang here, are the attorneys
21 for Steven Avery. I assume you understand that.

22 A. Mm-hmm.

23 Q. I have some follow-up questions and a few others
24 for you, sir. You say that you play computer
25 games?

1 A. Yeah.

2 Q. Do you also have Xbox?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Or play stations?

5 A. I have a game cube that my friend gave me that I
6 never play.

7 Q. Okay. Do you ever play games like Grand Theft
8 Auto?

9 A. I played it once.

10 Q. Okay. That game and maybe some other games you
11 have had the opportunity to play; do they involve
12 games where people can sort of -- fantasy games
13 where people can pretend to do things they 14 couldn't really do?

15 A. Yeah, I would say so.

16 Q. And in Grand Theft Auto they are actually 17 pretending to do crimes?

18 A. Yeah.

19 Q. Some of them pretty bloody crimes, right?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. Including sexual assaults, shootings?

22 A. I think you can do shootings in Grand Theft Auto,
23 but I don't know about sexual assaults.

24 Q. Okay. Any of these other games that you have 25 seen that you play that people can do those kinds

1 of things?

2 A. Just the Grand Theft Auto, I think.

3 Q. Do you know some people who just seem to be -- I
4 don't know if obsessed is the word, but they play
5 so many of these games that it's almost like
6 their life; do you know people like that?

7 A. I know one kid like that, yeah.

8 Q. Yeah. Okay. The name of this tournament, did
9 you call it Magic Gathering or Magic --

10 A. Magic, The Gathering.

11 Q. Magic, The Gathering.

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. And is that probably your, like, number one hobby
14 would you say, or number one outside interest?

15 A. Yeah, it used to be. I kind of slowed down a
16 little bit with it since I started working.

17 Q. How long have you been involved with that 18 particular thing?

19 A. Oh, probably like seven years, I would say.

20 Q. Oh, okay, so it's -- Are people still doing
21 Pokémon or has that kind of died out?

22 A. That's kind of died out.

23 Q. This has -- but this has had longer staying power
24 it sounds like?

25 A. Yeah, this has been since I think 1990, I think

1 or -- no.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. Around there somewhere.

4 Q. Somewhere like that.

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. And these -- these cards have acquired, like,
7 collector's value, particularly the early ones
8 that come out?

9 A. Yeah.

10 Q. These prior incidents that you have had with 11 police, so your father was actually charged with 12 a crime for simply trying to discipline his 13 children, right?

14 A. It's been a while, I think so, yeah, I'm pretty 15 sure.

16 Q. He came to court?

17 A. I wasn't at court, so I don't ...

18 Q. Okay. But as far as you know he had to -- he had 19 to -- did he have to get a lawyer?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. I think so.

23 Q. And the case proceeded for a couple of months you
24 said?

25 A. Yeah, it was. Yeah.

1 Q. And eventually a judge or somebody threw the case
2 out?

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. So your father got lucky, basically, right?

5 A. Well, I don't know if it was lucky. I think it
6 was just something that -- I don't know how to 7 explain that.

8 Q. Well, okay. I understand. Were you surprised it
9 even went that far before it finally got dropped?

10 A. Yeah, I was kind of surprised I would say.

11 Q. In fact, I think you said that -- I mean, that 12 was a serious charge, right?

13 A. Yeah.

14 Q. Some sort of felony child abuse probably, right?

15 A. I think it was child abuse that he was charged
16 with.

17 Q. Okay. And you said that you thought if -- maybe
18 if the police, at the very beginning, had maybe
19 taken into consideration all the circumstances,
20 it never would have gone that far, right?

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. And then you had another incident with apparently 23 a Manitowoc County sheriff deputy. If she was 24 wearing brown; was it in Manitowoc County?

25 A. Yeah, it was in Manitowoc. It was right by

1 Wal-Mart where it happened.

2 Q. Okay. Where you were concerned, again, that
3 officer wasn't listening to your side and wasn't
4 listening to all of the circumstances, right?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. So if you had a couple of experience then where
7 you noticed that officers can sometimes, you
8 know, almost have tunnel vision and just focus on 9 one aspect of what's going on and ignore some 10 other things that are going on around the 11 outside?

12 A. Um, that would -- yeah, that would kind of seem 13 like what it was.

14 Q. Okay. In fact, in your case where the officer
15 didn't even want to hear another witness who was 16 sitting right there, right?

17 A. Yeah.

18 Q. Do you think that that's -- you said that that 19 officer was just maybe having a bad day you
20 thought?

21 A. That's what it seemed like, I don't know.

22 Q. Okay. On the other hand, your father experienced
23 something similar, right?

24 A. Yeah, that was in Michigan, I think it was.

25 Q. Okay. But do you think that -- that police

1 officers can -- can do that, that they can
2 sometimes get too focused on one part of the case
3 or one part of their investigation and just kind
4 of, you know, full speed ahead down this road and 5 that's it?

6 A. It seems like it, yeah, with the two that I
7 encountered.

8 Q. Okay. Is that the only two times that you have 9 encountered police?

10 A. That I can -- that I can remember, yeah.

11 Q. Okay. Now, do you think that police officers if 12 they come -- actually come into court and testify
13 and take an oath to swear the truth; do you think 14 that they are more or less likely to tell the 15 truth than the ordinary citizen who comes into 16 court and takes the very same oath? Or the same?

17 (Court reporter couldn't hear.)

18 Q. Or the same, in other words, are they more
19 likely, less likely, or the same likely?

20 A. I would say the same.

21 Q. Okay. So there's -- You don't think there's 22 anything about officers that makes them more
23 believable or more trustworthy when they take the 24 oath than an ordinary citizen, right?

25 A. Yeah, I would say that's right.

1 Q. Okay. Do you think it's possible a police
2 officer could lie under oath?

3 A. Yeah, I think it's possible.

4 Q. Just like anyone else?

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. All right. Do you think it's possible that 7 police officers would get so invested in their 8 case that they want to get somebody they think is 9 guilty and maybe cross the line in doing so?

10 A. I don't know.

11 Q. Have you ever heard of that happening?

12 A. I have heard of that like on TV, but I don't know 13 if ...

14 Q. Okay. So you have seen it on TV where sometimes 15 police officers cross the line, right?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. The CSI shows and, you know, they get real 18 personally involved. And of course in those 19 shows there's usually no doubt about who the 20 guilty person is, right?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. And the officers are usually portrayed as heroes
23 because they are going after the guilty guy and 24 really getting him, right?

25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. But you can -- Can you see that if that happens
2 in real life and they happen to be focused on the
3 wrong person, that that could be a serious
4 problem?

5 A. Yeah, that would be a problem.

6 Q. Okay. And if you're selected as a juror in this 7 case, will you be able to evaluate all the 8 evidence and consider the possibility that maybe
9 they have focused on the wrong guy?

10 A. If that's part of the evidence ... Yeah, I would 11 think so, if it's part of what I have to look at.

12 Q. All right. What do you know about Mr. Avery's
13 background?

14 A. Runs or owns a junkyard.

15 Q. Okay. Do you know anything about a situation
16 where he spent a long time in prison and was 17 exonerated by DNA?

18 A. Um, yeah, I heard about that. He was -- That's 19 basically all I heard, that he was in prison and 20 that he was left out because of DNA.

21 Q. That he was wrongly convicted actually, right?

22 A. Yeah.

23 Q. And you heard that from media, or from your 24 co-workers, or what?

25 A. He was -- My dad was talking about it.

1 Q. And was your dad -- There was no doubt in your
2 mind or your dad's mind that Mr. Avery was, in
3 fact, wrongly convicted and spent all that time
4 in prison, right?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. So, as he sits here today, given what you have
7 heard from your co-workers and what little 8 information you have had, can you presume that he
9 is innocent of these charges?

10 A. I haven't really heard too much. I don't really 11 know what's ...

12 Q. Well, do you think the fact that he is here today
13 and that this case has progressed as far as it
14 has, right up to a trial here; do you think that 15 that means that he must have done something
16 wrong?

17 A. Yeah, must mean, yeah, he done something wrong.
18 I don't know.

19 Q. Why would you think that?

20 A. Because he is charged for -- is it the murder of 21 Teresa, I think it was.

22 Q. Okay. Well, your father was also charged?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. And you know Mr. Avery was also charged and 25 convicted once, wrongly, right?

1 A. Mm-hmm.

2 Q. Correct?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Did you know that that case went all the way to a
5 trial as well?

6 A. I didn't know that, no.

7 Q. Okay. So do you think, then, the mere fact that
8 someone, not just Mr. Avery, the mere fact that 9 someone gets this far in the process and has to 10 have a jury to decide, means that it's more
11 likely than not that they have done something
12 wrong or they wouldn't have gotten as far --
13 gotten themselves in this situation, or they 14 wouldn't have found themselves in this situation
15 in the first place?

16 A. Um ...

17 Q. You're not sure about that?

18 A. Yeah, I don't know.

19 Q. Is that because you are having a hard time seeing 20 how somebody could be innocent and be sitting
21 here?

22 A. Well, my dad was kind of in the same situation
23 so, or in that situation where he was innocent
24 and he was still sitting there.

25 Q. Mm-hmm.

1 A. So I could see how an innocent person could still
2 be.

3 Q. Okay. I appreciate that. And so, I mean, given
4 that knowledge and the Judge will instruct you
5 that you will have to presume Mr. Avery innocent.

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. And -- But I want to be sure that that's not just 8 something that you are going to mouth back or 9 parrot back, yes, I can do that. Do you really
10 believe that you can do that, that you can 11 presume Steven Avery innocent and unless and 12 until, or if the State can prove otherwise,
13 beyond a reasonable doubt?

14 A. Yeah, I think -- I'm positive I can do that, that 15 he's innocent before.

16 Q. Okay. Now, along with that there's sort of a
17 complicated quandary that any defendant finds
18 himself in and that is the question of whether or 19 not the defendant should testify at the trial.

20 A. Okay.

21 Q. Do you know that a defendant has a constitutional
22 right not to testify?

23 A. Yeah, I know that.

24 Q. You have learned that, right?

25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. Okay. On the other hand, a defendant may choose
2 to testify and Mr. Avery may choose to testify,
3 but that some people might tend to discount
4 whatever he says because he's the defendant, he's
5 in trouble, he will say whatever he needs to say
6 and not listen to him like any other witness; can
7 you see that problem?

8 A. Yeah, I can see that problem.

9 Q. So, when Mr. Strang and I are talking amongst
10 each other, trying to decide whether Mr. Avery
11 should take the stand, we have to know if you can
12 promise that you won't -- that you will follow
13 the Judge's instruction, that if he doesn't
14 testify, you can't use that against him, can't 15 consider it in fact in any way, or if he does
16 testify, you have to consider him like any other
17 witness; can you promise to do that?

18 A. Yeah, I can promise to do that.

19 Q. Do you think, though, that if he doesn't testify
20 that he's hiding something?

21 A. I couldn't really say. I don't know if -- I
22 don't think he would be hiding anything if he
23 doesn't testify, I don't know.

24 Q. Why, because there's other reasons that somebody
25 might not testify besides the fact that they are

1 actually guilty; I mean, they could be completely
2 innocent and choose not to? Do you think that?

3 A. Yeah, they could. I don't know. I couldn't -- I
4 don't know why, but I think -- I think they
5 could. I don't know.

6 Q. You are going to hear a lot of testimony, or a
7 lot of evidence about a crime. And if -- if
8 Mr. Avery says he didn't do it, you may wonder,
9 well, then who did, right?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. Human nature. Are you going to expect that 12 Mr. Avery is going to have to convince you who 13 did it, if he didn't?

14 A. Depends, I don't know if he was there when it
15 happened or when.

16 Q. Well, if -- in other words, if -- are you going 17 to say, look, if -- if the defendant -- if the 18 defense can't tell us who really did kill this 19 woman, then it must be him and I'm going to find
20 him guilty?

21 A. So you are, like, saying if he didn't do it
22 somebody else did, but nobody knows who, right?

23 Q. Yeah, that may well be the way the evidence comes
24 in. And if you -- Go ahead.

25 A. I just drew a blank right when you started

1 talking.

2 Q. Okay. If you -- I guess what I'm asking then is,
3 if the State puts on its case and you have a
4 reasonable doubt that Mr. Avery may not have 5 committed this crime, but you start thinking and
6 you're talking among other jurors and you say,
7 well, yeah, but if he didn't do it then who did.
8 Come on, I mean, somebody did it. It's got to be 9 him, we haven't heard anything else. We don't 10 know anybody else.

11 But if you still have a doubt, from the 12 State's case, that Mr. Avery did it, will that be 13 enough for you to render a verdict of not guilty,
14 or will you be still searching and holding the 15 defendant out to some burden of convincing you
16 who really did this crime?

17 A. I would be instructed to go by the evidence, so I
18 would have to, you know, whatever is shown, I
19 don't know.

20 Q. You have to what?

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm sorry --

22 A. Go by whatever is -- I don't know how to put
23 that.

24 Q. Let me put it this way, do you think that -- do
25 you understand that Mr. Avery does not have any

1 burden of proof at all in this case?

2 A. No. No, I didn't know that.

3 Q. Oh, you didn't know that. Okay. Well, the Judge
4 will tell you that the State has the entire
5 burden of proof in any criminal case. And that
6 the defendant can just sit here, in fact, and do
7 nothing. And if the State doesn't present a
8 strong enough case, you have to find not guilty?

9 A. Oh, okay.

10 Q. Or the defendant could, you know, progressively
11 challenge, cross-examine all the State's
12 witnesses and not choose to put on any of his own
13 witnesses or her own witnesses. And if -- if the 14 State didn't convince you, beyond a reasonable
15 doubt, you would have to find not guilty, okay?

16 A. Okay.

17 Q. So I just want to be sure that if the Judge tells 18 you that Mr. Avery does not have to prove his 19 innocence, that he is presumed innocence --
20 innocent, that you are going to be able to follow
21 that instruction and not fall back on what's kind
22 of human nature, which is, hey, well, who did it
23 if he didn't?

24 A. Yeah.

25 Q. You will follow the instructions?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. All right. What about if you -- if you felt that
3 way, that is, if you felt that the State had not
4 convinced you, beyond a reasonable doubt, and 5 thought about, therefore, voting for a verdict of 6 not guilty; would you be concerned about what
7 your family or friends might think about you?

8 A. Yeah. A little bit, yeah, I would say I would.

9 Q. Because most of your family, or friends, or 10 circle of people you know have strong opinions
11 already?

12 A. The people at work, most of them have strong
13 opinions.

14 Q. And that opinion is what?

15 A. They both -- they go either way. Some say he is 16 guilty, some say he is innocent.

17 Q. Okay. So if you became convinced that a not 18 guilty verdict was the appropriate one, you would 19 still have some fear --

20 A. Yeah, there would still be a -- what would you
21 call it -- there would still be people who would 22 probably be upset or whatever.

23 Q. And would that bother you? Sounds like it would 24 bother you a little bit?

25 A. Yeah, I would say it would bother me a little bit

1 that they would be upset, but ...

2 Q. Do you think you would be -- that concern that
3 you would have would be enough that it might
4 change your mind and cause you not to vote not
5 guilty?

6 A. It could go either way so that, you know, because 7 there's people there that think he's innocent, or 8 he is guilty, or so it could go either way.

9 Q. So if it came back guilty, there would be people
10 upset too?

11 A. Yeah.

12 Q. So what I'm asking, then, is aware of the fact
13 that you may get some sort of a reaction either
14 way, would you be able to put that aside when you 15 are in the jury room and deliberating on what the 16 proper verdict should be?

17 A. Yeah, I believe I could.

18 Q. Well, having heard everything you had today, let 19 me just ask you one last question. Do you -- Do
20 you feel like you want to be on this jury?

21 A. Not really.

22 Q. Is it something you would feel like you would do,
23 though, if it was your civic duty, if you had to?

24 A. Yeah.

25 Q. All right. Thank you, very much.

1 A. Thank you.

2 THE COURT: All right. At this time the
3 clerk will -- Mr. Fallon.

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: There is one matter that
5 I just noticed, neither counsel followed up on and 6 it was a question related to possible hardship that
7 was not answered on the questionnaire. Do we want
8 to ask about that, Question 76 went unanswered?

9 THE COURT: I will ask it.

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: Okay.

11 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

12 BY THE COURT:

13 Q. Mr. Saari, there was a question on the 14 questionnaire that asked, because the trial could 15 take approximately six weeks, whether or not that 16 would pose any type of hardship for you if you're 17 selected to serve on the jury. You did not
18 answer that question; does that mean that it
19 would not be a hardship for you to serve?

20 A. There wasn't anything going on.

21 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you.
22 At this time the Clerk will escort you from the
23 courtroom.

24 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

25 THE COURT: Is there a motion from either

1 party regarding this juror?

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Not from the State.

3 ATTORNEY BUTING: Not from the defense,
4 Judge.

5 THE COURT: All right. Very well,
6 Mr. Saari is in.

7 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, I do have a
8 further comment, though, on the last juror,
9 Mr. Klein.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 ATTORNEY BUTING: Based on -- Following up
12 with the Court's comments right after lunch that you
13 thought that although he had -- there was some 14 question about his exposure to information and media
15 after he was told not to, the Court said that it
16 didn't seem like he had been exposed to anything
17 significant. But, in fact, I think he has.

18 He testified that he specifically knew
19 about an order to test this blood vial that would 20 supposedly show one way or another whether it was 21 a source of planting. Now, that decision was 22 made by this Court in this court at 3:30 p.m. on 23 Friday, a full five days after the jurors had 24 come in here and were told to avoid any publicity
25 or anything significant. And that evidence may

1 not even be admissible, even if it is tested,
2 this Court has said.

3 So now we've got somebody who has been
4 exposed to significant information that may not
5 be admissible and contrary to what the Court had
6 ordered. And that's right, probably not at work
7 because he got off work at 3:30, so he wouldn't 8 have heard about that decision at work. It must 9 have been some time after that, perhaps on the 10 weekend, or on the radio there, or somehow he had 11 been exposed to that information, which wasn't
12 ruled on by this Court until 3:30 Friday
13 afternoon.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: Well, I see counsel's
16 point, but I'm not sure that it's all that perfectly
17 clear that that is the case. Because the issue of 18 the blood vial and whether there should be an 19 adjournment, whether it should be tested, whether it
20 should be excluded, has been the object of quite a
21 bit of litigation since January 4th.

22 And there are a number of people that 23 when you talk to who think they may have
24 understood the news correctly and have not, you
25 know, understood the news correctly. In fact,

1 just a personal anecdote, I had people ask me, so
2 the Judge has decided to keep the vial out. And
3 at that point in the proceeding the only thing
4 that had been filed was the motion to exclude it.
5 So the people have heard something.

6 But I'm not entirely sure that Mr. Klein
7 was of that -- in other words, that what he 8 thought he heard about the blood vial must have 9 come after 3:30 on Friday afternoon, I'm not
10 convinced the record reveals that at all. And I
11 defer to the Court's original ruling. I think
12 you had it right, he is doing his absolute level
13 best to avoid any of that. He just happened to 14 hear something about a blood vial on the radio
15 and testing it.

16 THE COURT: All right. Well, I will try to 17 take a look this evening at that part of the 18 transcript again, but I didn't -- I suppose there
19 are a number of possible explanations for any 20 comment he would have made regarding the blood vial.
21 It has been in the news. The motions regarding the 22 blood vial have been pending and have been heard for 23 the last month and a half or so.

24 I just -- My primary impression from him
25 was that he had attempted to avoid being exposed

1 to publicity, but recognized that because of the 2 place where he works it was impossible to
3 completely avoid exposure because of the fact
4 that the radio is on at his place of employment.

5 But I will take Mr. Buting's comments
6 into consideration, take another look at the 7 transcript and address it again tomorrow if I
8 feel there is a need for the Court to reconsider
9 its decision.

10 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, your Honor.

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: I would also offer,
12 there's nothing that says we couldn't bring him back
13 and clarify that point either if absolutely
14 necessary, if there's any doubt in the transcript.

15 THE COURT: All right. At this point,
16 then, we'll move on to Mr. Stonebraker. Mr. Saari
17 is in.

18 Okay. Mr. Stonebraker, please just
19 stand there a minute.

20 THE COURT: All right. At this time,
21 Mr. Stonebraker, the Clerk will administer the oath.

22 THE CLERK: Raise your right hand, please.

23 (Juror sworn.)

24 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Stonebraker, you have

1 already completed a written questionnaire in this
2 case. Today we're moving on to the next phase of
3 juror selection which is the individual voir dire
4 process. The attorneys for the parties will have a
5 chance this afternoon to ask some follow-up
6 questions to you concerning answers that you gave in
7 your questionnaire.

8 Before they begin, I want to make sure
9 that you understand that the jurors who are
10 selected in this case will not be sequestered;
11 that is, at the end of trial each day they will 12 be permitted to go home. And with respect to 13 today's proceedings; although these are open to 14 the public, during the voir dire process we do
15 not permit cameras in the courtroom and members
16 of the media are prohibited from disclosing your 17 name in any media reports of these proceedings.

18 In addition, should you be selected to
19 serve on the jury, cameras will not be permitted
20 to take any shots at the trial that disclose the 21 identity of the jurors.

22 In the event you are still on the panel
23 after today's questioning, you will get a phone
24 call in the next day or two letting you know when 25 you have to report back to court.

1 Mr. Fallon, at this time you may begin
2 your questioning.

3 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

4 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

5 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Stonebraker. My name is Tom
6 Fallon, I'm an Assistant Attorney General with
7 the Wisconsin Department of Justice. I'm one of 8 the prosecutors in this case. And to my left is 9 Mr. Kratz, the Calumet County District Attorney
10 and lead prosecutor in this case. Good afternoon
11 and thanks for returning to help us out this 12 week.

13 I would like to first begin with you
14 telling us a little bit about your duties and 15 responsibilities at we energies, at the power
16 plant. If you would, tell us a little bit about 17 what you do there.

18 A. I'm an instrument control technician, which is 19 part of the maintenance department. We service
20 the instrumentation of the plant, the automatic
21 control systems, and we do what they call
22 surveillance tests, which is on the reactor, and 23 make sure everything is working right and all the 24 safety systems are operating correctly.

25 Q. All right. And how long have you been employed

1 at the plant doing that type of work?

2 A. In May, it will be 18 years.

3 Q. Have you done any other duties or have you had 4 any other responsibilities at the plant other
5 than the control technician?

6 A. Yeah, the first two years I was there I was an
7 auxiliary operator. Which that's the guys
8 that -- they run the plant, out in the plant
9 itself, not the ones in the control room.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. Although a lot of that time was in training; it
12 takes awhile to train for that.

13 Q. I'm at a loss because I'm not very familiar with 14 nuclear stuff; what -- what is an auxiliary
15 operator?

16 A. They would be the guys that go out and turn
17 valves, take logs on equipment.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. That kind of thing.

20 Q. All right. So you did that for two years and 21 then for the past, what, 16 or 18 you --

22 A. Sixteen.

23 Q. Sixteen, an instrument control tech -- control
24 technician?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Okay. And prior to that, you served in the
2 United States Navy?

3 A. Yeah, I did have a job in between, the 4 questionnaire said three years, though, so.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. But, yes, I was in the Navy.

7 Q. Sure. What did you do in between then?

8 A. I was a Rad Con Technician at Maryland Naval 9 Shipyard, which I believe is closed now.

10 Q. All right.

11 A. That was in Vallejo, California, near San 12 Francisco.

13 Q. Oh, sure. What kind of work did you do there?

14 A. I was a Radiation Control Technician. We -- We 15 did surveys to make sure that there wasn't
16 radiation getting outside of the -- It was a
17 shipyard.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. So we're just making sure we do radiation surveys
20 and contamination surveys. Make sure all the 21 radiation and contamination was where it was 22 supposed to be.

23 Q. And what type of duties did you have in the 24 United States Navy?

25 A. I was an Electronics Technician for the nuclear

1 field, which meant that I worked -- I was on the
2 USS Enterprise. And I worked in the engineering
3 spaces where the reactors were, propulsion
4 reactors.

5 And I was an electronics technician. We 6 were the -- We would operate the plant. They
7 have a control panel and we would do that. There
8 was some other watch stations too where you would 9 just monitor the equipment. And, you know, we 10 did maintenance and stuff too.

11 Q. Okay. And how long did you -- Well, let's see, I
12 see you were six years in the Navy?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. All right. Were you based primarily here in the 15 United States or did you get to travel a bit?

16 A. We were based in the United States, but we 17 traveled. I did two oversea deployments.

18 Q. Okay. Where did you go?

19 A. Philippines, Hong Kong, Singapore, Pakistan,
20 Australia, France and Italy.

21 Q. All right. That's moving around pretty good.
22 How much time in Australia?

23 A. About a week.

24 Q. On your questionnaire, you indicated you consider 25 yourself at least somewhat knowledgable in the 1 area of chemistry?

2 A. We had -- Yeah, I wouldn't consider myself an
3 expert at all, but we had a fair amount of 4 training on chemistry.

5 Q. All right. And is that training something that 6 you rely upon today to assist you in performing
7 the duties as a instrument control technician?

8 A. No.

9 Q. All right. Have you -- Have you used any of that 10 chemistry background training in your current 11 responsibility at all?

12 A. No, the chemistry training I got was in the Navy.
13 And it was just part of a well-rounded background
14 for being a nuclear operator.

15 Q. All right. In terms of nuclear reactors and the 16 science behind them, were you called upon to 17 learn how they actually work and --

18 A. Absolutely.

19 Q. -- and -- All right. And how much science would 20 you say you had been exposed to; in other words,
21 classroom type of work or ...

22 A. Depends on how you want me to quantify it. We 23 had quite a bit. It would be somewhat equivalent
24 to a college degree.

25 Q. All right. Was that -- That was in -- training

1 that was mandated for the type of work you were
2 doing --

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. -- in other words?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. And so you had a fair amount of it, a couple
7 years worth of training; on-the-job training, I
8 would I imagine.

9 A. There was -- Well, first I had training in 10 electronics because I was going to be an 11 electronics technician. And then I went to 12 nuclear power school, which was all classroom.
13 And, then, after that there was prototype
14 training I went to in Idaho and that was hands
15 on. And each of those was about six months.

16 Q. Okay. All right. So how do you like being a
17 manager of a softball team?

18 A. Oh, it's -- I like softball a lot. I play on two 19 different teams. It's fun. And I forgot to put 20 on there I'm on the Manitowoc County -- or 21 Manitowoc Rec Department Softball Commission.

22 Q. All right.

23 A. So, I like softball a lot; I enjoy it.

24 Q. What do you do for the Rec Commission; what kind
25 of responsibilities or --

1 A. Well --

2 Q. -- what's your level of participation?

3 A. Yeah, we haven't had any meetings for a while so

4 I'm not sure what's going on with that, but when

5 we did have meetings we would talk about ways to

6 improve the diamonds in Manitowoc, in the city.

7 Q. All right.

8 A. Like we had discussions about, some of the fields

9 needed new benches. We would talk about rules,

10 improvements, you know, things like that. Bat --

11 We had things for checking bats to make sure

12 people weren't using illegal bats, things like

13 that.

14 Q. All right. No cork bats?

15 A. Right. Well, the equivalent in softball would be 16 a titanium bat so.

17 Q. All right. Do you like managing people?

18 A. I don't really do it that much. I don't mind it.

19 I mean, a little, sure.

20 Q. All right. Did you have supervisory

21 responsibilities when you were in the Navy?

22 A. No. Um, some people, the rank I was at did, but 23 I didn't.

24 Q. All right. Were you -- Did you work mostly alone

25 or were you on, like, a team of technicians; how

1 did you ...

2 A. In the Navy?

3 Q. Yeah.

4 A. We -- The Enterprise had four different plants.
5 They had two reactors each and they would assign
6 us to one particular plant.

7 Q. Right.

8 A. So -- And then it would be divided by jobs, you
9 know, like the mechanic or electrician types,
10 they would be different. So we had -- it's been
11 a long time but, we had 12 or so guys that I
12 would work directly with.

13 Q. All right. Do you work with a team right now or 14 are you pretty much on your own as an instrument
15 control technician?

16 A. We have a shop of about 20 guys, not counting
17 supervisors.

18 Q. All right. You are not one of the supervisors?

19 A. No.

20 Q. All right. In your role as an instrument control
21 technician, have you been involved in writing of 22 safety guidelines or setting up or enforcing
23 safety standards for working with the reactors
24 and other technical equipment at the plant.

25 A. We have procedures for virtually everything we do

1 and I have -- I did spend some time doing
2 procedure writing, so, yes.

3 Q. All right. Did you enjoy having a hand in that?

4 A. It was interesting. It's nice to do something a
5 little different every once in a while. The deal
6 was that I was just temporarily assigned to it
7 for a couple years. You know, they kind of 8 rotate people through.

9 Q. Right.

10 A. So.

11 Q. All right. Very good. Well, I would like to 12 talk to you a little bit now about some of the 13 information or what you think you may know about 14 our particular case. And I would like to begin
15 with the news media and coverage of the case.
16 You indicate you get most of your news from the 17 radio and the internet?

18 A. Yeah, mostly the internet.

19 Q. All right. You are not much of a television guy,
20 then?

21 A. I never watch, or almost never watch, the local 22 news. And I don't care to watch the national 23 news all that much either.

24 Q. Okay. What kind of radio or what radio stations
25 do you regularly listen to?

1 A. Either a Christian radio stations or like talk
2 radio.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. And sports, sports talk also.

5 Q. Okay. What type of talk radio, any particular 6 station or --

7 A. Well --

8 Q. -- broadcaster that you find interesting?

9 A. Yeah, I live so close to where I work and the 10 only time I ever listen to it is when I'm in the 11 car for my 12 minute drive in. But when I -- the 12 little bit I hear is, like, sometimes I will hear
13 the end of Rush Limbaugh or Mark Belling out of 14 Milwaukee.

15 Q. Okay. But then these are, as you say, short 16 listens as it were?

17 A. Very short. And if I -- if I go home and I drive
18 into Manitowoc to do a shopping trip or
19 something, I might listen to it too. But I --
20 If, like, if you were to ask me my total time in 21 a week, I would say a couple hours, maybe.

22 Q. Okay. Of all the time that you are in the car?

23 A. Right. And even then, sometimes I will listen to 24 a CD or sports --

25 Q. Right.

1 A. -- radio, whatever, so.

2 Q. What kind of workweek do you have at the plant, I
3 mean, is it regular 40 hour week, or less, more?

4 A. Normally, we work five 8 hour days. Then for 5 refueling outages we work six 12 hour days.

6 Q. I'm sorry, during what?

7 A. Six 12 hour days, that's starting a refueling
8 outage.

9 Q. Oh.

10 A. Each unit, we have one of those every 18 months.
11 It's a two unit plant.

12 Q. Gotcha. All right. In terms of your internet
13 experience, what kinds of things do you use the 14 internet for; do you get your news there, or any 15 other purpose, or ...

16 A. Well, I don't generally go to a news site like
17 cnn.com or abc.com, or any of that kind of stuff.
18 I mostly read blogs and columns.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. And then I'll -- There's a few TV shows I watch.
21 And I like to read on, you know, shows -- sites
22 that talk about those. For a couple of them, not 23 all of them, but ...

24 Q. Right. All right. Given that background, in 25 terms of your exposure to coverage of this

1 particular case, where would you say you have
2 heard or experienced most of the news from; the 3 radio, the internet, or some other source?

4 A. I haven't read anything on the internet. The 5 radio, a lot of times when I'm driving it will
6 be -- if its on the hour I will hear the six or 7 seven minute newscast they have.

8 Q. Right.

9 A. And a couple times I heard something about it.
10 When the first -- When it first happened I did
11 see some stuff, they put up a TV in our shop to 12 show the -- I can't even remember exactly which 13 event it was. I think it was when they announced
14 they were filing charges. And we watched that 15 for like 10 minutes. And really hasn't been that 16 much.

17 Q. So you only remember that one time, seeing a
18 televised newscast?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. Did you say anything about newspapers; I can't 22 remember?

23 Q. That's coming up.

24 A. Okay.

25 Q. We're still on the internet and the radio and the

1 one television newscast?

2 A. Okay.

3 Q. So the radio, you might have, if it's the top of 4 the hour --

5 A. Right.

6 Q. -- you catch whatever they throw at you?

7 A. A little blurb, yeah.

8 Q. Right. And nothing on the internet; you don't 9 use that to read up on the case, for instance?

10 A. Right. Right. I don't go, like, to the 11 heraldtimesreporter.com. I have gone there a few
12 times.

13 Q. Mm-hmm.

14 A. Never for that case.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. It would always be something specific I might 17 have an interest in.

18 Q. All right.

19 A. You know.

20 Q. Do you recall, then, seeing any newspaper
21 articles on the case?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Anything in the last month?

24 A. Well, my in-laws, my wife's parents, live with us
25 and they subscribe to the Herald-Times Reporter.

1 I never read it cover to cover because it just
2 doesn't interest me that much. Typically, what I
3 will do is I will scan the cover, see any big
4 goings on that I didn't hear about. And so I did
5 see an article recently about charges being 6 dropped.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. Which I sort of knew any way.

9 Q. Right.

10 A. But I didn't read it.

11 Q. You didn't read it?

12 A. No.

13 Q. So you just looked at the headline and moved on?

14 A. Right. Oh, there was another article right next 15 to it that talked about jury selection and 16 because I was in the process, I was kind of 17 interested. And I started reading it and it -- I
18 saw that it didn't pertain to the facts of the 19 case so I went ahead and read that article.

20 Q. You did or did not?

21 A. I did.

22 Q. Okay. And that just talked about this process
23 you are involved in now?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. Okay. Did you read any other articles or any

1 other coverage of the case, or any discussion of
2 what might or might not be evidence in the case?

3 A. The only things I ever read in the newspaper,
4 other than what I just mentioned, was when it
5 first happened, I remember reading an article and
6 I would read part of it and then they would start
7 talking about things that I didn't really care
8 about or didn't care to read about, so I, you
9 know, just basically enough to get a general idea
10 what was going on. I wasn't interested in the 11 particular details.

12 Q. Okay. And that was many months ago, maybe more
13 than a year?

14 A. Yeah, whatever it was. Yeah.

15 Q. All right. Well, based on what you have seen and 16 read and heard on the radio, have you formed any 17 opinion as to whether Mr. Avery is guilty or 18 innocent of the offenses for which he is charged?

19 A. Well, I know that, judging by what I do hear, the 20 little bit I hear and by what people talk about,
21 they all seem to think he's guilty.

22 Q. Right. But on the questionnaire, when asked
23 specifically if you formed any opinions based on 24 the information from any source --

25 A. Right.

1 Q. -- you said you had no opinion yourself?

2 A. Yeah, I really haven't followed it close enough.

3 I mean --

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. -- you know, I know what other people think. If 6 you backed me into a corner and threatened me and 7 made me say one way or the other, I would
8 probably go with what everybody else seems to 9 think, but I don't know that much about it.

10 Q. Right. You haven't followed it really enough to 11 form -- make an informed --

12 A. No, I don't follow that kind of news.

13 Q. Okay. You also said that whatever information
14 you do have you would be able to set aside and 15 decide this case solely on whatever the evidence
16 is presented, if you were selected from a jury?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. As a juror. Do you think you can still do that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. All right. Is there any -- anything that you
21 have experienced that really raises a question in 22 your mind as to whether you could follow the 23 Court's instruction and simply decide this case
24 based on what the evidence is in the courtroom
25 and not on any of this other stuff?

1 A. Not that I'm aware of.

2 Q. All right. Okay. I just have one last couple
3 questions I wanted to ask you about. I see from 4 some of the information in your questionnaire
5 that either you, or someone very close to you,
6 was a victim of a robbery many years ago?

7 A. I was.

8 Q. You were. All right. And as far as you know,
9 the suspects were never located?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Were you still in the Navy at that time or was it
12 just --

13 A. It was when I was in high school.

14 Q. Oh.

15 A. I worked at a fast food place in Fresno,
16 California and that's when it happened.

17 Q. All right. So that's not anywhere -- that was in 18 California?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. I forgot to check, are you -- you are from the 21 San Francisco area?

22 A. I was born there. I lived in California until 23 1989 when I moved here to work at Point Beach.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. Not counting Navy time.

1 Q. Right. So is there anything about that
2 experience, having been a victim 26 years ago,
3 that makes you question whether or not you could
4 be fair and impartial in this case?

5 A. No.

6 Q. All right. Were -- Did you have an opportunity
7 to interact with the police in --

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. All right.

10 A. They took me downtown to the police station and I
11 looked through mug shot books and never saw the 12 people so. And that was the last I ever heard of
13 it.

14 Q. All right. Very good. Thank you, sir.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

16 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

17 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

18 Q. You probably saw us all stand up briefly and 19 awkwardly last week, but --

20 A. Oh, yes.

21 Q. I'm Dean Strang and Jerome Buting and Steven 22 Avery. The two of us are defending Mr. Avery.

23 A. Right.

24 Q. Some -- Some simple questions initially just 25 about the 18 years you have had at Point Beach.

1 A. Sure.

2 Q. During your time there, have you met a woman
3 named Lori Dassey?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Have you met a guy named Jason Rezash?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Okay. How did you meet Lori Dassey?

8 A. Oh, let's see, about 10 years ago, 10 or 11 years
9 ago, like I mentioned, with the procedure or 10 anything, occasionally you would get temporarily
11 assigned to another area and I was assigned to 12 corrective actions for awhile and she was one of 13 the clerks there.

14 Q. And how long were you in that area, in corrective 15 actions?

16 A. It's been a long time, but six to nine months.

17 Q. So you worked with her during that period of
18 time?

19 A. She was in the area; I didn't work closely with 20 her. As a matter of fact, she wasn't even in 21 corrective actions. She -- Her cubical was in --
22 nearby. So I didn't really directly work with 23 her.

24 Q. And is this -- is this a large enough staff at 25 this place that if you're not assigned to

1 somebody's area you just don't --

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. -- see them?

4 A. There's -- There's a lot of people there that I
5 see their face and I know who they are and a lot
6 -- so many times when I would get introduced to 7 somebody and, oh, you know, I have heard of that
8 person, but I had no idea the name and the face
9 kind of thing.

10 Q. So how do you remember Lori's name?

11 A. One reason is because there was somebody at my 12 church that had the same last name. And then, I
13 talked to her a few times, you know, and just as 14 a courtesy, like, if I were to meet her
15 somewhere, like run into her at Wal-Mart or 16 something and I would say hi, might talk for 20
17 seconds, how are the kids kind of thing. But 18 other than that --

19 Q. Mm-hmm.

20 A. -- you know, never -- sort of was never friends
21 with her, never did anything with her outside
22 work or even at work, other than, you know,
23 professional duty kind of thing.

24 Q. What's her connection to this case?

25 A. Somebody told me that she used to be married to

1 the defendant, but I didn't even know that at the
2 time.

3 Q. Okay. And when is the last time you have spoken
4 to Ms Dassey?

5 A. I ran into her at Wal-Mart about a month ago,
6 like I said, I had talked to her like 30 seconds,
7 you know, hi, how's it going kind of thing.

8 Q. Mm-hmm. Okay. Do you know anything about Steven 9 Avery through her?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Or by people talking about her?

12 A. That's kind of how I found out she had been 13 married to him was just by, you know, gossip kind
14 of thing.

15 Q. Right. And what did they tell you other than 16 she --

17 A. They just told me that she was, like, his 18 ex-wife, you know. That's all I remember them
19 ever saying.

20 Q. Not anything more?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Kids together or?

23 A. No idea.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. And I didn't put that on the questionnaire

1 because it was just a few days ago that I even
2 found this out so.

3 Q. That's fine. No. That's fine. Because you are
4 at Point Beach I thought --

5 A. Right. Right.

6 Q. -- I would ask. Actually, I have several
7 questions about Point Beach?

8 A. Sure.

9 Q. And no particular order, Mr. Stonebraker, but are 10 you -- are you -- I understand you are a member,
11 but are you active in the International
12 Brotherhood of Electrical Workers?

13 A. Oh, the union?

14 Q. Yeah.

15 A. No, I'm kind of a middle-of-the-road guy on 16 unions.

17 Q. What does that mean?

18 A. I tend to be more conservative politically,
19 but -- and unions are very left wing, but I'm
20 glad we have a union. I will say it that way,
21 because I have seen the company do things that I
22 wouldn't agree with. And I'm glad the union
23 keeps them from doing it. There's, like,
24 management people that aren't in the union.

25 Q. Right.

1 A. But on the other hand, I think unions sometimes
2 have too much power. So, you know, it's -- I
3 think it's good that they exist, but I don't
4 think they should have too much power.

5 Q. Yeah. And when you say too much power, over the 6 individual member or over the --

7 A. No, I mean --

8 Q. -- operation?

9 A. No, over the company.

10 Q. The company. Okay. Is it a closed shop, were 11 you required to join?

12 A. Yes. Yes.

13 Q. Or a union shop I should say?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Okay. And is -- I don't know the answer to this,
16 but is Point Beach one of the nuclear plants in 17 this nation that, since sometime shortly after 18 September 11, 2001, I think, everybody has been 19 issued a red card, or no?

20 A. I don't have a red card.

21 Q. Everybody is empowered to shut the place down if 22 there are unsafe conditions?

23 A. If anybody has a safety concern, they would --
24 they are encouraged to bring it up, yeah.

25 Q. Mm-hmm. Okay. But there's no specific mechanism

1 for that?

2 A. Well, there's -- It's a little like the military,
3 there's -- it's similar to a chain of command,
4 you know. We bring up the concerns, they would
5 investigate it first, obviously, you know, so
6 they don't just always shut the plant down --

7 Q. Right.

8 A. -- and find out, well, that was dumb.

9 Q. Right.

10 A. So, yeah.

11 Q. Okay. While you were in the Navy, let's see,
12 you -- obviously you volunteered probably close
13 to right out of high school?

14 A. That's correct, I got out of high school in June
15 and I went in the Navy in September. But I
16 was -- I don't remember what they call it any 17 more. I signed up, like, in January of that 18 year, I believe.

19 Q. Mm-hmm. And had the summer off and then went 20 in --

21 A. Yeah, I purposely waited. I figured I wanted to 22 have one more summer off before I went in.

23 Q. Right. And at that point you were still out in 24 the Fresno area?

25 A. That's correct, yes.

1 Q. Was the USS Enterprise your only shipboard
2 assignment?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. So you were land based for the rest of your two
5 tours, or whatever?

6 A. It's only one tour to be in the nuclear program,
7 because of so much training, we were required to 8 sign up for six years.

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. So I was in the Navy for two years and four 11 months before I even made it to the ship.

12 Q. And how long were you on the Enterprise?

13 A. That would have been three years and about eight
14 months.

15 Q. So really the balance of --

16 A. Oh, that's correct, yes.

17 Q. -- of your tour?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And did you -- I think, essentially, you have 20 answered this next question, that you were never 21 submarine based?

22 A. No, I volunteered, but they had too many
23 volunteers, so I ended up on a carrier.

24 Q. Okay. Did the volunteering to be submarine based 25 involve anything more than simply volunteering?

1 Was there a battery of tests or ...

2 A. No. No, they encouraged you because -- I guess
3 because a lot of times they -- they were short of 4 people for submarines, so we were kind of
5 encouraged. And there was a monetary --

6 Q. Incentive?

7 A. -- like one hundred dollars a month. It wasn't 8 really all that much, but on the money you are 9 making in the Navy it was a good amount. And 10 plus that was 25 years ago.

11 Q. Right. And were you particularly interested in 12 serving on a submarine, or it was just a money
13 thing?

14 A. All the people that I was in contact, like the 15 recruiters and stuff -- not -- well, not all the 16 recruiters are nuclear, obviously. I'm guessing
17 that maybe they had some -- I don't know. They 18 just kind of encouraged me the whole way along.

19 It sounded interesting. I remember
20 thinking that the last thing I wanted to do was 21 be on a carrier. And then that's what I ended up
22 on; although I was glad in retrospect, but ...

23 Q. Why?

24 A. Well, I get motion sickness. And submarines,
25 once they get under water and down a ways they

1 don't have any trouble. But when they are near
2 the surface, modern submarines are designed to be
3 under water not on the surface. Where as in 4 World War II it was the other way around. So
5 they rock and roll a lot on the surface and I
6 would have been miserable.

7 Q. Me too. You obviously got to travel the world a
8 bit, thanks to the U.S. Navy. And one thing that 9 stood out on your questionnaire here is an 10 interest in geopolitics. Could you tell us just 11 a little bit more --

12 A. Sure.

13 Q. -- about that?

14 A. That relates to something I forgot to put on 15 hobbies, which would be I like war games,
16 basically historical games.

17 Q. Mm-hmm.

18 A. And my interest in geopolitics kind of grew out
19 of that. I'm very interested in World War II and 20 all the interactions between the countries and 21 stuff that went on and also in the modern world.
22 I just find it fascinating, the interaction
23 between countries and why they do this and that.

24 Q. And at the same time you -- I think the words you
25 used were, I don't care to listen much to the

1 national news, at least on TV?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. What's -- Where's the cleft there or the 4 distinction that you draw between this area of 5 great interest and then not caring to watch the 6 national news on TV?

7 A. You're just saying because they would cover that
8 kind of thing?

9 Q. Well, I don't know that they cover it very well,
10 but I'm just curious --

11 A. Well --

12 Q. -- where the shift in the interest is?

13 A. Well, I don't -- I don't think they -- First of 14 all, I don't think the people that cover it on TV
15 that you can understand it very well. And I
16 don't -- I don't think they give accurate
17 information, partly due to ignorance, but also 18 they -- I guess if you are talking about foreign
19 policy, I would be what you might call a hawk.
20 I -- I wouldn't say an extreme hawk, but I -- I
21 -- I strongly believe this country should stand
22 up for itself. And the news media tend to not
23 feel that way.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. So that would be, I guess, be the main thing.

1 Q. The interest in war games, this would not be so
2 much of the reenactment variety, I'm taking, you
3 know, civil war or revolutionary war
4 reenactment --

5 A. No.

6 Q. But rather the --

7 A. Board games --

8 Q. -- geopolitics --

9 A. Or computer.

10 Q. Okay. And that's right, you mentioned that you
11 subscribe to Games For Windows Magazine?

12 A. Yeah, actually, they send it to me. I used to be 13 a subscriber. I let it run out and they have 14 been sending it to me for like seven years. It
15 says it expires in '09 and I never paid for that 16 but they -- I don't know why but ...

17 Q. But in any event, you are interested in board
18 games or computer based --

19 A. Yeah --

20 Q. -- games?

21 A. I like strategy games. I don't really get into 22 the first person shooters.

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. Like Doom, that kind of games. They are very 25 violent. And I don't want my kids to play those

1 kind of games. And also I get motion sick, so
2 even if I liked them, it would just make me sick
3 to play them so.

4 Q. But the strategy?

5 A. Yeah, I really like strategy games, yeah.

6 Q. And you mentioned an interest in blogs and 7 getting -- getting, I guess, some news, if you
8 will, from blogs. Are you drawn to more
9 specialized blogs with people with a deeper
10 expertise in these areas.

11 A. There's only one blog I read regularly that would
12 be that kind of thing. There was some others I
13 used to read that were about TV shows, you know,
14 like --

15 Q. What are the blogs you read --

16 A. Um --

17 Q. --regularly or semi --

18 A. Well, the --

19 Q. -- regularly?

20 A. -- main one I read that is not a TV base -- or 21 talking about TV is called voxx populi.

22 Q. Voxx Populi?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. Mm-hmm.

25 A. And it's -- I don't really think the guy is

1 really a nice guy, if you know what I mean. And
2 I don't -- I just read him quite a bit, but he is
3 pretty sharp and in general I tend to agree with 4 his views. And I don't know, I don't even
5 remember how I found it. I think it was linked
6 from something else. Oh, I know what it is, he 7 has a column on worldnetdaily.com. And I was 8 reading his column once and it said they have a
9 blog so I checked it out and I have been reading
10 it for a couple years.

11 Q. Mm-hmm. And what other blogs?

12 A. One is -- I don't know if it's exactly a blog,
13 it's about the TV show Lost. There's one about 14 the TV show Battlestar Galactica. Occasionally
15 the Voxx one will have a link to a different one
16 and I will check it out, but it's nothing I have 17 kept reading regularly.

18 Q. Do you read Lakeshore Laments here in --

19 A. Never heard of it.

20 Q. -- you know, the Manitowoc area. It's a 21 Manitowoc area blog. Okay. And moving to the 22 radio, for the 12 minutes in the car, to and from 23 work.

24 A. Okay.

25 Q. Sounds like given your work hours you kind of

1 catch the end of Limbaugh sometimes, some of Mark
2 Belling --

3 A. Right.

4 Q. -- maybe? Out of what, WISN?

5 A. WISN, yes.

6 Q. And are you someone who ever calls into these 7 shows?

8 A. I called into Belling's show once or twice, but 9 that's when I first started listening. That 10 would be like in 1993 time frame.

11 Q. Mm-hmm.

12 A. And it wasn't a pleasant experience; he's kind of 13 a jerk. So, no, typically I'm not.

14 Q. Okay. Is he a jerk when you agree with him?

15 A. You don't have to be a nice guy to be smart about
16 things.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. In fact, my wife hates his show because of how he 19 is, so.

20 Q. I wanted to go to your wife just in the financial 21 context here. She's -- You have listed her as a
22 homemaker.

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And I counted eight children --

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. -- you have been blessed with? If you end up in 2 this jury, you know, for five, six weeks, or 3 whatever it turns out to be; is this going to 4 create a, I mean, a serious --

5 A. Not at all.

6 Q. -- financial hardship?

7 A. Because we energies will pay me.

8 Q. So you are covered --

9 A. Right.

10 Q. -- financially. How about otherwise, in terms of 11 family hardship?

12 A. From what I can gather, since it's not going to 13 be sequestered, at least from what I hear, I
14 don't think I would be gone a whole lot longer
15 than I am normally. I don't know for sure
16 exactly but, you know, they don't run court until 17 8:00 at night, as far as I know.

18 Q. I hope not.

19 THE COURT: Not when the jury is here, but 20 we may today.

21 Q. And the specific comment you made, I wanted to 22 follow up on from Mr. Fallon's questions. You
23 described somebody, management or somebody
24 setting up a TV in the shop?

25 A. Oh, yeah. Every big news event that's happened

1 since I worked there, when we -- in the first
2 Gulf War they set up a TV; for the OJ trial they
3 set up a TV; for 911 they set up a TV. So for 4 this, like I said, I think it was the
5 announcement of the filing of charges, they set
6 it up.

7 Q. Who's they?

8 A. Just guys at the shop. We have a TV if, like, if 9 we have a safety meeting, they will have a video
10 we watch. So just wheel the TV out. And, you
11 know, being electronics kind of guys and stuff,
12 they have rigged up an antenna going into the 13 shop. You know, management tolerates it for big 14 news events, but it's not a normal thing.

15 Q. I got it. And I just want to nail down, if at 16 all possible, you said it was, you think when it
17 was first charged. And there were two possible
18 first charged sort of events here. One would be 19 November of 2005, when Steven Avery was first
20 charged. And the other would be, probably March
21 of 2006, when Brendan Dassey was first charged.

22 A. Is it that long ago? I didn't realize it was 23 that long ago. I believe it was Mr. Avery.

24 Q. The first of those, way back?

25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. Okay. Do you remember any news conferences when
2 Brendan Dassey was charged, later?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Okay. And the TV, was that up one day or was 5 that a series of days?

6 A. One day for, oh, it was probably a couple hours
7 because, we turned it on and they said, oh,
8 coming, you know, coming right up, we're going to 9 have this news conference, you know, an hour
10 later they finally get started so.

11 Q. What do you remember of the news conference?

12 A. Not much. I remember -- the main thing I
13 remember was they -- that was interesting, was 14 that the, I believe it was Calumet County was 15 heavily involved in it. But I -- I don't know.
16 I couldn't give you a whole lot of details. They 17 were announcing, you know, murder charges, that 18 kind of thing, but ... And the, you know, the 19 victim's name, that kind of thing.

20 Q. Sure. Later, in March of 2006, do you recall
21 anything about what Brendan Dassey supposedly
22 said?

23 A. I have heard some stuff here and there about him;
24 nothing I can remember concretely. Something
25 about, I thought -- well, I don't know if I even

1 heard what he said. My knowledge about him is
2 that, I guess, he might have helped supposedly in
3 the commission of the crime but, I don't know
4 that much about him.

5 Q. Okay. And where that goes is, you know, you
6 heard, I guess in a news conference or something,
7 when Steven Avery was charged, you know, a little
8 bit about Brendan supposedly being involved --

9 A. Right.

10 Q. -- in the event. And you were a little surprised
11 to hear that much time had passed. So, here we 12 are, a trial starting, as you look across the 13 room at the guy two seats over from me, in your 14 mind do you presume him innocent? Do you think
15 he's probably guilty? Do you have no opinion?
16 What's your sense of it?

17 A. Well, like I said before, I mean, if you -- if I
18 had to guess one way or the other, I would say
19 guilty. But I don't know enough of the facts to,
20 you know, if you wanted a solid opinion I would
21 say, well, show me some stuff, you know, I mean.

22 Q. Which is a natural reaction. And let me ask you,
23 though, first, when the Judge instructs you that
24 you are to presume Mr. Avery innocent --

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. -- is that an instruction you can and will
2 follow?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Willingly?

5 A. Sure.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. I think he should get a fair trial. I mean, I
8 would never want to send a guilty man to prison.
9 And I would, you know --

10 Q. An innocent man to prison?

11 A. I'm sorry, yeah. Sorry.

12 Q. That's okay. That's all right. I think I knew
13 what you meant, I think.

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. And as a matter of a fair trial and proving 16 stuff, are you aware of the rule in America that 17 in a criminal case the government, the State,
18 whoever the sovereign is, alone, bears the burden
19 of proving someone guilty, beyond a reasonable
20 doubt?

21 A. Yes, I am.

22 Q. Which is to say, and I think you will hear this
23 from the Court, that the defendant has no burden
24 of proving anything?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. Does that make sense to you?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Why should one side not have to do anything and 4 the other side carry all the load?

5 A. That would be because, if you have committed a
6 crime, they should have to prove that you did it.
7 You shouldn't have to prove that you didn't. You
8 shouldn't have to prove that you didn't do it.
9 Just because that's a lot harder I think than 10 proving that you --

11 Q. Proving a negative?

12 A. Right. Exactly.

13 Q. And in the same vein, I guess, if we're not able,
14 in the end, to prove who did kill Teresa Halbach,
15 if Steven Avery didn't; will you hold that 16 against us or, again, is this something where, if 17 you are not satisfied the State proves Steven
18 Avery guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, and you
19 would love to know who did kill Teresa Halbach,
20 but you are not satisfied it was him, are you
21 willing to return a not guilty verdict?

22 A. Yes, if that's what the evidence shows.

23 Q. Without requiring us to prove who did kill her,
24 if he didn't?

25 A. That's irrelevant.

1 Q. And, you know, I'm not -- I'm not saying that I'm
2 necessarily, or Mr. Buting, or for that matter
3 Mr. Avery, are going to sit here like a bump on a
4 log throughout the trial, although we could,
5 under the law, and just rely on the State having
6 the burden of proof. But one of the decisions
7 that ultimately we will have to make at this
8 table is whether Mr. Avery takes the witness
9 stand and testifies. Do you want to hear from 10 him, if you are a juror?

11 A. I would say yes.

12 Q. And can you accept and live with and respect and 13 honor a system that says he does not have to 14 testify if he chooses not to?

15 A. Absolutely.

16 Q. And, indeed, if he doesn't testify, that's no
17 evidence of guilt and can't be considered, I
18 think the Court will tell you.

19 A. Right, I understand that.

20 Q. And can you follow that?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. By the same token, if at this table we should 23 decide that he does testify, the law, as I think
24 the Judge will tell you, is that he is entitled
25 to have his testimony considered like any other

1 witness. All the same considerations in deciding
2 what weight to give to a witness' testimony apply
3 to the accused, if he testifies. Is that also a
4 rule you can live with?

5 A. Yeah, I don't see anything unreasonable about it
6 at all. I'm not even sure why you are asking,
7 actually, I mean --

8 Q. Well --

9 A. -- what else would you do?

10 Q. You know, because we're asking people to be 11 honest and some people have a problem with the --

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. -- with the rule?

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. You know, it's -- I understand it's human nature
16 to want to hear both sides?

17 A. Right.

18 Q. You may not hear all of one side here. You may 19 just have to live with that and -- and be asked
20 to return a not guilty verdict all the same. And 21 so it's important to know whether, you know,
22 whether you can do that?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. Have you heard anything recently about a blood
25 vial?

1 A. Only hearsay at work.

2 Q. What?

3 A. One of the guys at the shop said something one
4 time about it, but I couldn't tell you any 5 specifics.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. Especially since I got a notice I, you know, they 8 start talking about it, I just go away.

9 Q. Sure. Okay.

10 A. And even if I knew details, what I hear from one
11 of the guys in the shop doesn't mean anything.
12 I'm smart enough to know that.

13 Q. Depends on who, probably, in the shop, right?

14 A. Um, no, not when it comes to if I'm going to 15 decide if he's guilty or not.

16 Q. Sure, on something big, I understand. Last sort
17 of question, or two, or three I have for you.
18 Are you -- Are you a very active member at 19 Lighthouse Assembly of God?

20 A. What do you mean by active? We go there every 21 Sunday, if that's what you want to know.

22 Q. Are you involved? Are you a deacon, or on the 23 church --

24 A. No, I'm not on the board or anything.

25 (Court reporter couldn't hear.)

1 A. I'm not on the board.

2 Q. I'm sorry, we're probably talking over each
3 other. That's my fault, not yours; I'm supposed
4 to know better.

5 Did your church do anything with respect
6 to the disappearance or death of Teresa Halbach?

7 A. Not that I know of. I -- I highly doubt it. I
8 was -- I was going there at the time and I don't
9 remember anything.

10 Q. Okay. Good.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: That's what I have got
12 for you. Thank you.

13 THE COURT: All right. The Clerk will
14 escort you out of the courtroom at this time.

15 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

16 THE COURT: Any motion from either party?

17 ATTORNEY FALLON: Not from the State.

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: I do. Without being
19 punctilious about, you know, the Court's order on 20 avoiding the media, this is someone who, I guess,
21 took his in-laws' newspaper, they live with him so
22 the paper comes to the house, and read part of one
23 and all of a second article well after he was told
24 to avoid exactly that kind of thing on -- on this 25 case. Probably the next day.

1 In some cases I wouldn't raise that. In
2 this one, with the pervasive pre-trial publicity
3 we have and this juror, of course, saw some of it
4 apparently in November, 2005, where this at some 5 level got equated in terms of bringing a TV into
6 the shop with September 11 and other really, you
7 know, very significant events.

8 I-- I think we have to be very tight
9 about enforcing the Court's order on avoiding the 10 publicity, so I move to strike for cause. I 11 don't have a broader reason than that as to 12 Mr. Stonebraker.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: I can appreciate the 15 concern for following court rules and guides, but as 16 Mr. Stonebraker indicated, the only thing he looked 17 at was information regarding the jury selection
18 process. And on balance, based upon all of his 19 other responses, and I think counterbalanced by the 20 fact of all the other, I think, relatively, I don't 21 want to say extraordinary, but relatively 22 comprehensive efforts on his part to avoid
23 discussions at work, to avoid other ancillary forms
24 of information or sources of information, I don't
25 think there is a basis to strike him at all.

1 THE COURT: All right. If there was a
2 violation of the Court's order here, I think it was
3 very minimal. He seemed to be aware of it at the 4 time he picked up the paper. He stopped reading the 5 other article about the case, indicated he did read
6 the jury selection article.

7 My impression was that because he felt
8 that particular article not dealing with the 9 facts of the case, but just jury selection, with 10 which he was already involved, wasn't encompassed
11 by the Court's order.

12 At this stage of the game, the Court
13 hasn't fully had the opportunity to directly
14 address the jurors in detail about the Court's
15 restriction. They have been told on somewhat
16 cursory terms about avoiding the media. And I
17 think in his other answers he indicated he 18 recognized that and avoided any discussions at 19 work where discussions had taken place before.

20 So I think it was a di minimus
21 violation, if any at all. And based on all his 22 other answers, I'm more than satisfied that he 23 can be fair and impartial. So the Court is going
24 to deny the motion to strike this juror for cause
25 and keep him on the panel.

1 We're going to take our afternoon break
2 at this time. I did want to say something to the 3 attorneys. I have been giving the attorneys some 4 latitude in the time limit that I set originally.
5 But I want to let both parties know that if
6 there's too much questioning on things like
7 Pokémon like games that have no real direct
8 relevance to the selection of the jury, I'm going
9 to interpose my own objection.

10 I don't like to do that because I
11 realize it can be somewhat embarrassing to the 12 attorneys, but I think we have to stick on track
13 a little bit if we're going to make some headway
14 here. Stick to more directly relevant questions.
15 So I will see you at 3:25.

16 (Recess taken.)

17 THE COURT: Counsel, I'm informed that
18 Juror 33, Ms Abendroth, although she was going to 19 come here at one, has been here since this morning.
20 So we're going to take her out of order.

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: She's someone we -- She's 22 someone we have a motion to strike on.

23 THE COURT: We do?

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: I do. I don't think the 25 State joins it, but ...

1 THE COURT: Prior to voir dire?

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: I think we should.

3 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Strang, I will
4 hear your motion then at this time.

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: The Court may want to
6 pull the questionnaire.

7 THE COURT: I have it in front of me.

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: The -- I think the main
9 issue arises in the answer to No. 74 -- Question
10 No. 74.

11 THE COURT: I'm going to take a look.

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: And then we have also --
13 I mean, she has got a specific connection; she -- 14 she works at a credit union, I gather at which the 15 Avery family banks, and is concerned about facing 16 them in an employment context where presumably she 17 would feel, you know, that she had an employment
18 duty not to avoid the contact.

19 Further the answers to Questions 40, 41
20 and 42, well, especially --

21 (Court reporter couldn't hear.)

22 ATTORNEY STRANG: Questions 40 and 42, you
23 know, explain the manner in which she's pre-judged
24 the case. And although she says in Question 43 that 25 she can set that aside, she appears to have both a

1 pretty well-formed prior opinion about the case and
2 an understandable concern about social stigma or
3 consequences. And I think there's probably more
4 than adequate reason to strike for cause.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: I can see counsel's
7 concern. We briefly talked about it before. But as
8 I indicated, I thought at least we should hear her
9 out and get an idea as to really whether there is a
10 heartfelt or deepfelt fear, or just a reasoned
11 concern, or what have you.

12 As noted, with respect to Question 43,
13 she believes she could set aside whatever
14 opinions she may have as a result of media
15 coverage, the question -- or the answer, I don't
16 think, as framed, is really no different than, I
17 think that he might be guilty, based on the 18 coverage.

19 I don't see any distinction between that
20 and the guilt issue, unless one wants to say,
21 well, it's more directly related to a defense of 22 the case. But the bottom line is, it goes to 23 guilt. I don't see any difference there. And 24 she goes on to say, I can set that opinion aside.

25 So in terms of just on the paper, it

1 seems to me we ought to at least hear the woman
2 out. And it may turn out that she would be an --
3 unsuitable for jury service. If counsel wants,
4 they can go first if they think they can get to 5 that point faster, that's fine. Seems to me on 6 the paper, we ought to hear her out.

7 THE COURT: All right. Here's what I'm
8 going to do. I'm going to bring the juror in, I'm 9 going to ask questions first relating to question
10 No. 74. If I feel, based on those answers, that I'm 11 going to grant the defense's motion, I'm going to 12 simply excuse the juror.

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's fine.

14 THE COURT: If not, I will turn her over to 15 the parties.

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's fine.

17 THE COURT: Ms Abendroth, please raise your 18 right hand and the Clerk will administer the oath to
19 you.

20 (Juror sworn.)

21 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

22 THE COURT: Ms Abendroth, you have already
23 completed a written questionnaire in this case.
24 Today we're moving on to the next phase of jury
25 selection, which is voir dire. We're going to ask

1 you some questions relating to your qualifications
2 as a juror.

3 I will notify you that the jury in this
4 case will not be sequestered, that is, the jurors
5 will be permitted to return home after each day
6 of trial. The jurors will continually be
7 instructed not to listen to any news media
8 accounts of this case, or read anything in the 9 newspaper, watch anything on television, or from 10 any other source.

11 Today's proceedings are open to the
12 public, but the Court does not permit cameras in 13 the courtroom during voir dire proceedings and 14 the media is not permitted to disclose the names
15 of the jurors in the media reports of today's 16 proceedings.

17 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

18 BY THE COURT:

19 Q. I do have a question for you at the outset
20 relating to your answer to Question 74 in the 21 questionnaire. To refresh your memory, the 22 question was: Is there anything, or any reason
23 at all, however personal or private, that makes
24 you feel you should not serve as a juror in this
25 case, or that if selected to serve, you could not

1 be a fair and impartial juror?

2 You answered yes and indicated I would
3 be uncomfortable returning to work after the
4 trial knowing that many of his family members
5 that I wait on would have been in the courtroom
6 and recognized me from the jury.

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: Your Honor, I'm sorry to 8 interrupt, but maybe we could approach, sidebar,
9 just very briefly. I apologize.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 (Side bar taken.)

12 Q. (By The Court)~ Couple things. You did indicate
13 that, later on your questionnaire, that this was 14 something you wished to address in private. The 15 Court is somewhat limited in personal matters
16 that it can address in that fashion. The law
17 does not permit me to address this particular one 18 in private. You are employed where?

19 A. Shoreline Credit Union.

20 Q. Okay. And do I understand from your answer that 21 members of the defendant's family are customers
22 at that credit union?

23 A. That's correct.

24 Q. Okay. And I think I understand your answer, but 25 can you explain in a little more detail what you

1 mean.

2 A. Um, I don't know if I can.

3 Q. Do I take it from your answer that you -- your 4 concern is that if you were a juror and if the 5 jury reached a guilty verdict, that you would
6 feel very uncomfortable after returning to work
7 because of the situation you would be in.

8 A. I think, yeah, that's what I was getting at.

9 Q. And just to confirm what I think is my reading of 10 your answer, you feel that, that subliminally or 11 not, it could have an affect on your ability to 12 be fair and impartial.

13 A. Yes, that's correct.

14 Q. Do you still feel that way today?

15 A. Yes, I do.

16 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to have
17 the Clerk escort you from the courtroom at this
18 time.

19 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

20 THE COURT: All right. Counsel, the Court
21 is satisfied, based on the elaboration from the 22 answer in the questionnaire and from my own
23 observation of the demeanor of the juror, that
24 objectively she would have a rational basis for her
25 concern and I believe her concern is sincere. So

1 I'm going to grant the defense motion to excuse this
2 juror for cause.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: We have no objection.

4 THE COURT: The next juror we'll hear from 5 then will be John Lawrence. All right. You are 6 Mr. Lawrence?

7 MR. LAWRENCE: Yup.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Lawrence, please raise your
9 right hand and I'm going to have the Clerk
10 administer the juror's oath to you.

11 (Juror sworn.)

12 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Lawrence, you have already
14 completed a written questionnaire in this case.
15 Today we're moving on to the next phase of the jury
16 selection process which is individual voir dire.

17 The attorneys for each of the parties
18 will have an opportunity this afternoon to ask
19 you some questions that relate to your
20 qualifications as a juror.

21 Before I have them begin those
22 questions, I want to make sure you understand
23 that the jury in this case will not be 24 sequestered. That means that after each day of 25 trial the jurors will be able to go home and

1 spend the time at home until the next day of the 2 trial.

3 The jurors will continue to be
4 instructed, as they already have, that the jurors
5 are not to watch any news media accounts of this 6 case, either on television, listen to anything on 7 the radio, read anything in the newspapers or the 8 internet, or communicate in any way with anyone
9 else about the case, outside the courtroom.

10 I also want to make sure you understand
11 that while these are court proceedings today,
12 meaning they are open to the public, the Court
13 does not permit cameras in the courtroom during 14 voir dire proceedings and members of the press
15 are not permitted to use your name in any news
16 accounts of today's proceedings.

17 In addition, should you be selected to
18 serve on the jury, the camera operators are not 19 permitted to show the jury during the trial, in 20 any fashion, that allows anyone to identify who 21 the jurors are.

22 If you remain on the jury panel after
23 questioning today, you will get a phone call in 24 the next day or two that will tell you when to 25 come back for the next step in the jury selection

1 process. Mr. Fallon, you may begin your
2 questions at this time.

3 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

4 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

5 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Lawrence.

6 A. Good afternoon.

7 Q. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
8 General with the Wisconsin Department of Justice
9 and one of the prosecutors in the case. To my
10 immediate left is Mr. Ken Kratz, the Calumet
11 County District Attorney and the lead prosecutor
12 in this matter. Thanks for coming back this 13 afternoon. We have just a few questions for you
14 to follow up on some of the information provided
15 by you in last week's questionnaire.

16 I see from your questionnaire you are 20
17 years of age?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. All right. And you are currently employed at the 20 Piggly Wiggly Store here in Manitowoc?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And how long have you worked for them?

23 A. For three years.

24 Q. For three years. All right. So I take it you
25 worked for them while you were still in school?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. All right. And you graduated from Manitowoc
3 Lutheran High School?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. That was just a year or so ago?

6 A. Yup.

7 Q. All right. All right. At this time are you
8 still living at home or are you on your own?

9 A. I'm living at home.

10 Q. All right. The reason I ask is I wanted to 11 inquire as to, if you were to be asked to serve
12 as a juror in this case, we may tie up six weeks
13 or perhaps a little bit more of your time; would 14 that cause a problem for you with your employment
15 for instance?

16 A. No.

17 Q. All right. As far as you know, you would still 18 have a job when you returned?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. You have taken care of that or at least explored
21 that with your employer?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Very good. All right. I see that you
24 also list music and computers as one of your 25 hobbies. What do you do with computers or what

1 do you like to do with them?

2 A. Just surf the internet.

3 Q. All right. Is there any particular types of 4 things that you look for when you surf the 5 internet; news, entertainment, sports, whatever?

6 A. Usually music related material.

7 Q. All right. Any particular type of music that you

8 are interested in?

9 A. Everything, basically.

10 Q. All right. Do you download a fair amount of 11 music?

12 A. Once in a while.

13 Q. All right. Do you use your computer, then, to 14 play the music for you? Is that --

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. All right. How much time do you spend of your

17 free time listening to music?

18 A. Whenever I'm free, there's music always playing.

19 Q. All right. Do you ever use your computer or the 20 internet to assist in getting you news?

21 A. Not really.

22 Q. All right. Where do you get most of your news

23 from?

24 A. Word of mouth.

25 Q. Word of mouth. Do you listen to radio at all?

1 A. Not really.

2 Q. All right. How about television?

3 A. Like, I watch -- What do you mean?

4 Q. Do you regularly watch, for instance, Fox news or 5 Channel 5 news out of Green Bay or, like --

6 A. I don't really watch the news too much.

7 Q. No. Do you read the local paper?

8 A. Occasionally.

9 Q. Once a week, less than that?

10 A. Less than that.

11 Q. If you do read a paper, is it the Sunday paper
12 for instance or ...

13 A. Probably the Sunday paper.

14 Q. Probably the Sunday paper. All right. You
15 indicated you get some news by word of mouth.
16 And from whom, then, would that be? Is that 17 friends, or people at work, or what?

18 A. Just whoever, usually my mother.

19 Q. Okay. Within that framework, what can you tell
20 us about this particular case that you remember
21 hearing either from your mom, or from television,
22 or any other source? What do you know of the
23 case?

24 A. I have actually requested my mother not to say
25 anything.

1 Q. All right. And why did you make that request?

2 A. Because I'm supposed to.

3 Q. That's from the letter from the Court?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. All right. So you have honored that request?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. All right. And how long ago did you receive that
8 request from the Court?

9 A. I'm not too sure exactly, maybe a month or so
10 ago.

11 Q. All right. Let me ask you a little bit about 12 what you may remember or what you may have been 13 exposed to prior to receiving the directive from 14 the Court. Do you have any particular
15 recollection of any newscasts, or press
16 conferences, or any information regarding the 17 circumstances of Mr. Avery's arrest and charging?

18 A. I never really followed it much.

19 Q. All right. What about a fellow by the name of 20 Brendan Dassey, have you ever followed the events
21 regarding his arrest?

22 A. I have never heard of him.

23 Q. Never heard of him. All right. As you sit here
24 today, can you recall any information that you
25 learned from either the television, the radio, or

1 some other source?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Not a thing?

4 A. I never followed it really.

5 Q. I'm sorry?

6 A. I never really followed it.

7 Q. All right. Okay. So is it fair to say, then,
8 you really have formed no opinion regarding the 9 circumstances --

10 A. That's right.

11 Q. -- here. That would be correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. All right. I see here that you have never served
14 as a juror before?

15 A. No.

16 Q. All right. Is there any reason you can think 17 now, you know, your own personal philosophy, or 18 maybe some directive from your conscience, or 19 some religious belief, perhaps, that makes you
20 question whether you could follow the rules of 21 the Court and actually be a juror in this case?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Would you like to be a juror in this case?

24 A. It doesn't bother me either way.

25 Q. Doesn't bother you either way. If you were

1 selected as a juror, do you think you would find
2 it interesting?

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. All right. Can you -- Any idea why you think it
5 might be interesting?

6 A. A new experience.

7 Q. All right. Any other reason?

8 A. Not really.

9 Q. Is there anything about the case or what you
10 think the issues might be which you find
11 interesting?

12 A. Not really.

13 Q. I'm a little bit at a loss. Is there any reason
14 why you -- if you don't really know anything
15 about it, is there -- why you would find it
16 interesting?

17 A. I have never been involved with something like 18 this before, so I thought it would be
19 interesting.

20 Q. Okay. Meaning the court process itself?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. Now, it doesn't appear from the 23 information provided on your questionnaire, but I
24 thought I would ask anyways; have you had any 25 encounters with the police?

1 A. Myself?

2 Q. Yes.

3 A. No.

4 Q. All right. Anyone in your family have any
5 encounters with the police?

6 A. I'm pretty sure my father has, but I haven't
7 really heard much about it before.

8 Q. Okay. Has he ever discussed those -- that 9 encounter or those circumstances with you?

10 A. Not at all.

11 Q. Do you have any -- either you or he, have any 12 particular opinions as to, you know, how good or 13 how bad a job the local police department is 14 doing?

15 A. Not at all.

16 Q. How about the sheriff's department?

17 A. Not at all.

18 Q. No discussion?

19 A. No.

20 Q. No. All right. Now, I see that you have a 21 friend or family member who is a police officer;
22 you have an aunt?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. In Chicago?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And is she with the Chicago Police Department?

2 A. I believe so, yeah.

3 Q. All right. Do you know what she does for them?

4 A. I'm not too sure.

5 Q. All right. You don't know if she works patrol,
6 or is in investigations, or ...

7 A. I'm not sure at all.

8 Q. You don't know. You don't see her very often?

9 A. Not too often.

10 Q. Okay. Have you ever discussed her job with her
11 when you saw her?

12 A. No.

13 Q. All right. One of the questions you answered yes
14 to and I wanted to follow up a little bit on your 15 thinking as to how you arrived at that answer.
16 And this case will involve, pretty likely, quite 17 a few police officers or law enforcement officers
18 who would testify in court. All right.

19 And the question was that the jurors
20 would be instructed that you are not to give any 21 more weight or less weight to the credibility of 22 the police officer's testimony than you would to 23 any other witness. And you thought that you
24 could follow that instruction and you would find
25 that to be true; is that correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Tell me about that. Do you think a police
3 officer is more or less likely to lie on the 4 stand than any other person would be, or would
5 they be the same as any other person?

6 A. They would be the same to me.

7 Q. Okay. And why would that be?

8 A. I don't see a difference really --

9 Q. All right.

10 A. -- about people.

11 Q. There's no difference by virtue of their oath of 12 office or their duty as police?

13 A. Yeah.

14 Q. All right. And to you they are just regular folk
15 who are doing a job?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And so they have all the same strengths and 18 weaknesses as anyone else?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. Do you have any familiarity with the 21 criminal justice system at all?

22 A. Not really.

23 Q. All right. Did you study it when you were in 24 high school at all?

25 A. Yeah, a little bit. Law, politics.

1 Q. All right. Are you aware that as Mr. Avery sits
2 here today he's presumed innocent?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. All right. And you -- Therefore, if you were
5 to -- in order to find, for instance, him guilty
6 of this offense, the State would have to prove,
7 beyond a reasonable doubt, that he was involved
8 in the crime for which he is charged?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. You understand that?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. And he doesn't have to do anything;
13 you understand that?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. All right. Would you expect him to have to prove 16 something in court?

17 A. No.

18 Q. All right. And why not?

19 A. Because the evidence has to be proved beyond a
20 reasonable doubt.

21 Q. All right. All right. Does the law require him
22 to do anything?

23 A. No.

24 Q. All right. And you think you can follow those 25 rules?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. All right.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: I will pass the juror.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you. I'm having a
6 little bit of trouble hearing because of the 7 background noise. So maybe, Mr. Lawrence, if you --
8 if you could just try to speak up a little bit.

9 MR. LAWRENCE: All right.

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: That would help. Thank
11 you.

12 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

13 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

14 Q. So, I'm Dean Strang, Jerome Buting, Steven Avery.
15 You probably saw us stand up last Monday in 16 court. Mr. Buting and I are defending Mr. Avery,
17 so we're the defense lawyers. And I wanted to 18 pick up at the very beginning for you, okay. You
19 told us that you were born in Illinois?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. How long did you live in Illinois?

22 A. A little less than a year.

23 Q. And then where to?

24 A. To Manitowoc.

25 Q. So, by the time you were just a little bitty --

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. -- kid you were up here? And when you say
3 Manitowoc, you mean the City of Manitowoc?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. So you spent, basically, your whole life --

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. -- here? How often do you see your aunt or 8 other -- other relatives, if there are any, in 9 Chicago?

10 A. I saw them maybe once every six years. I barely
11 see them.

12 Q. Okay. And were you born in Chicago, or near 13 there, or some --

14 A. In Evanston, Illinois.

15 Q. -- other place in Illinois? In Evanston,
16 Illinois. Okay. And what, I mean sort of just 17 moving up through your life, what were you --
18 what were you good at or interested in at 19 Manitowoc Lutheran?

20 A. Well, could you rephrase that question.

21 Q. What were your favorite subjects or what did you
22 -- what did you like about --

23 A. Music class, I enjoyed, religion class.

24 Q. Mm-hmm. Did you pick up an instrument? Do you
25 play one or more instruments?

1 A. I picked up the guitar a little bit.

2 Q. When?

3 A. I would say maybe six years ago.

4 Q. Mm-hmm. So that would have been, like, beginning
5 of high school?

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. Do you still play?

8 A. From time to time.

9 Q. And anything else?

10 A. Not really.

11 Q. So the interest in music, listening, singing,
12 playing?

13 A. Everything.

14 Q. All of it?

15 A. I enjoy it, yes.

16 Q. And are you a good singer?

17 A. I'm okay.

18 Q. In other words, were you in choir, or chorus, or 19 that kind of thing?

20 A. No, I never did that.

21 Q. Okay. At high school at least?

22 A. Yeah.

23 Q. How about academic subjects, what lifted you up
24 and what didn't?

25 A. I enjoy sciences.

1 Q. Biology, physics?

2 A. Yeah, biology.

3 Q. Okay. What about biology attracted you?

4 A. I don't know. I just enjoyed the teacher and the 5 way he taught it. I enjoyed it.

6 Q. And did you start at Piggly Wiggly while you were 7 still in high school?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. As a stocker?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And do you do that full-time now?

12 A. No, I'm just part-time.

13 Q. What do you do with the rest of your time?

14 A. Um, listen to music. I don't know. Go to 15 concerts, hang out with my friends.

16 Q. What sort of concerts?

17 A. Everything. I listen to every type of music.

18 Q. Or what's the last one you recall going to?

19 A. Spud Monkey in Milwaukee.

20 (Court reporter asked him to repeat the name.)

21 A. Spud Monkey, S-p-u-d.

22 Q. At the place on Farwell?

23 A. In Milwaukee?

24 Q. Yeah.

25 A. It was at the Miramar Theater.

1 Q. At the Miramar, okay. And what -- what -- I'm
2 sorry. What does part-time mean at Piggly
3 Wiggly; how many hours?

4 A. Well, they usually have me like 40 hours because
5 I work pretty hard.

6 Q. But they are still treating you as a part-timer?

7 A. Yeah, because I don't want to work there all my
8 life. I'm trying to get into welding.

9 Q. Oh, okay. At LTC?

10 A. Yeah, I took a class at LTC.

11 Q. And what sort of welding?

12 A. Every type of welding, tag, wire welding.

13 Q. When you say you are trying get into that, how 14 are you going about trying to get into welding?

15 A. I help out on my friend's farm once in a while 16 with their -- I weld random things.

17 Q. Mm-hmm. And then would you be looking to catch
18 on with a company here in --

19 A. Probably work with my friend. He is thinking
20 about starting a business in a couple years.

21 Q. Okay. What shift do you tend to work at Piggly
22 Wiggly, or does it --

23 A. Morning.

24 Q. -- change around? Morning?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Which means what?

2 A. Eight to five.

3 Q. Monday through Friday or do you get weekend hours

4 too?

5 A. It varies.

6 Q. They will hold your job, but would you have any

7 income coming in if you were on this jury?

8 A. They said whatever days I'm free I can just call

9 and go in. They said they would pretty much work

10 around me.

11 Q. Okay. But they are not intending to pay you --

12 A. No.

13 Q. -- as if you were working while you are on jury

14 duty?

15 A. No.

16 Q. And can you take the financial hit?

17 A. I think I could handle it.

18 Q. When you say you think you could handle it, do

19 you have some --

20 A. Well, I have bills to pay.

21 Q. -- reservation about that? You have bills to 22 pay?

23 A. Yeah, insurance.

24 Q. Sure. But do you have an idea about how you can

25 manage that?

1 A. Yeah, I have a good amount of money saved up.

2 Q. Okay. The issue on that is really -- just so you
3 know, the issue is we all think the trial may go
4 six weeks, but at the end of the trial, whenever 5 that is, whether that's five or six weeks, or 6 whatever, at the end of trial the jury gets the 7 case to deliberate and try to reach a verdict.

8 And there's no way for you or any of us
9 to know how long that process will take because 10 it's just until 12 people can agree, if they can 11 agree, they try to. So there's no way to know
12 how long that is. And I want to make sure that 13 you are not going to be in deciding Steven
14 Avery's fate and worried instead about, you know,
15 boy, I got bills due that I can't pay.

16 A. I'm not really worried at all.

17 Q. Okay. And, I mean, we're -- I know this is 18 awkward to be discussing with a stranger, but are 19 we clear on that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. You said a few minutes ago that the name
22 Brendan Dassey did not ring a bell with you?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Okay. Have you heard about anybody supposedly 25 confessing in this case?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Heard anything at all about who's been arrested
3 or when?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Okay. But there's only one guy sitting here in 6 the defendant's chair, right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Why would you come in presuming him innocent if 9 he is here and he's the guy on trial?

10 A. Because we have to prove that it's beyond a 11 reasonable doubt that he is guilty, so he is 12 innocent right now.

13 Q. And who's got to prove that?

14 A. Prove that he is guilty?

15 Q. Right.

16 A. These guys.

17 Q. That's true. What do I have to prove?

18 A. That he is innocent or remain -- I don't know.

19 Q. No, you're doing fine.

20 A. He is still innocent; you have to defend that.

21 Q. Yeah, I'm defending him. And, actually, I think
22 the Judge will tell you that the defense, in a
23 criminal case, doesn't have to prove anything.
24 There is no, you know, what lawyers and judges
25 call burden of proof, on the defendant in a

1 criminal case. So I'm sure we will take an
2 active role in the trial, but we wouldn't have 3 to, technically.

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. We could just rely on, as you say, these guys
6 have to prove it. Can you -- Can you honor and 7 respect and follow the rules in the system that 8 says only one side has to prove anything and the 9 other side gets to --

10 A. Oh, yeah.

11 Q. -- sit there?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Why shouldn't we have to prove him innocent?

14 A. Because he is innocent until he is proven guilty.

15 Q. How about, you know, the issue -- one of the 16 issues at this table is, should Mr. Avery
17 testify? And that's tough because if he takes 18 the stand and he testifies, you know, people may 19 be saying, well, he's the one person in this room
20 who's got everything at stake, so of course he's 21 going to get up and say he did not do it. But if 22 he doesn't get up and testify, people may be 23 saying, well, what's he got to hide. If he's 24 innocent, why not just get up and tell us he's 25 innocent. So you see the problem?

1 A. Yeah.

2 Q. And the way that American courts deal with that
3 is to say the defendant has a right to testify if 4 he wants to. And if he testifies, he gets 5 treated like every other witness; the juror is 6 supposed to consider him just like everyone else,
7 you know, weigh and decide whether they believe
8 him or not.

9 And if he decides not to testify, that's
10 his absolute constitutional right. And in that 11 case, American judges tell juries everywhere in 12 this country, that the defendant's decision not 13 to testify is his right and that there's --
14 that's no evidence of guilt. And, in fact, it
15 can't even be considered by the jury in deciding 16 what verdicts to bring back. Are those rules you
17 can follow?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Do they make sense to you?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. You talked -- You talked a little bit a few
22 minutes ago, too, about saying, look -- and I'm,
23 you know, I'm just -- as I heard it, you correct
24 me if I'm wrong, cops are human like everybody
25 else. Police officers, you hope they don't lie

1 under oath, but you hope everybody doesn't lie
2 under oath and police aren't more or less likely
3 to violate that oath than anyone else; did I
4 understand you --

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. -- right? Are there things, though, just like a
7 defendant has a stake in a criminal case, can you
8 see how the police officers who spend weeks or 9 months investigating the case, might also develop
10 a stake in the outcome of that case?

11 A. Depends on their personality. I can't really 12 tell.

13 Q. Yeah, that's actually a good answer. I mean, is 14 it just a job or how intense are they; is that 15 where you are going with that?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. But would you at least be open to looking at,
18 gee, what motivations might a police officer have 19 to shade his testimony? Even if he doesn't know
20 he's doing it, you know, just bias kind of 21 creeping in. Are you open to considering that 22 kind of ...

23 A. Yeah, I suppose. But I would hope I wouldn't 24 have to. I would hope I could take him for his 25 word.

1 Q. Right. I mean, we all hope we can take a witness
2 for their word, but are you willing to dig a
3 little deeper if you have to --

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. -- with any witness?

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. I don't mean just police officers; I mean any
8 witness. Are you willing to dig a little bit --

9 A. Yeah.

10 Q. -- to see what -- what might make this witness
11 tick, what sort of biases they might have?

12 A. Sure.

13 Q. At least consider that?

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. Do you think there are circumstances where some 16 law enforcement officers might find themselves
17 doing something they otherwise never would do in 18 terms of, you know, planting evidence, or
19 misstating what they found, or where they found
20 it, or -- I don't know, I mean, just sort of 21 crossing over a line?

22 A. Could you restate that.

23 Q. Are there circumstances where a police officer,
24 like anyone else, might be tempted to do that
25 kind of thing?

1 A. Yeah, I'm sure.

2 Q. And I don't know whether you will decide they did
3 or didn't or you will even hear evidence one way
4 or the other of that, but if you do, are you open
5 to considering it?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. In the end, I guess the question is, are you
8 willing to consider all the evidence that you
9 hear, weigh all of it, decide what you believe
10 and make up your mind, based on the evidence?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And I guess, you know, we're all lucky, you
13 included, that you come into this not knowing a
14 lot about this case, right?

15 A. Yup.

16 Q. Is there anything at all you do know about this 17 case that bothers you or that just causes you to 18 say, eh?

19 A. Nothing at all.

20 Q. And you said if you wind up on the jury that 21 would be okay with you, as I heard you?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Because it will be interesting, be something new.
24 And at the end of the case, though, in addition
25 to being interesting and new and a learning

1 experience, you would be asked to do about the
2 most serious thing we ask citizens to do and
3 that's decide whether someone is guilty or not
4 guilty of some very serious accusations.

5 The accusation here starts with a young
6 woman being murdered. And I don't know that it's
7 interesting to make that decision. How do you
8 think you would deal, at age 20, or 21, whenever 9 your next birthday is, with that kind of 10 responsibility?

11 A. I suppose it would be a little tough, but it's my 12 duty, I guess; I will stick it through.

13 Q. Have you ever known of someone or, you know, read
14 of someone, heard of someone, confessing to a
15 crime that he actually did not commit?

16 A. What do you mean?

17 Q. Well --

18 A. Who --

19 Q. Hmm?

20 A. Could you restate that.

21 Q. Have you ever heard of that, of someone doing
22 that, confessing to a crime that he really didn't
23 do?

24 A. Not really.

25 Q. Can you think of any reason someone might do

1 that, admit a crime he didn't commit?

2 A. I don't know why you would do that. I don't
3 know.

4 Q. Someone who's very young, impressionable and
5 could be lead around, for example, promised
6 something or, you know, kind of ...

7 A. I don't know. I don't understand why anyone
8 would do that.

9 Q. How about someone who was trying to protect 10 someone else, taking the fall himself?

11 A. I still don't see a way -- a reason why he would
12 do that.

13 Q. How about -- and I'm not suggesting this -- that 14 it would be here, but how about someone who's 15 just flat out crazy, mentally ill?

16 A. Then, I suppose, I guess.

17 Q. If you hear testimony about why human beings
18 occasionally do confess to something they didn't
19 do, will you -- will you hear that testimony,
20 will you consider it?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Just like all the other evidence?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You liked biology in school and science in 25 general; if you sit on this jury, are you going

1 to be looking for scientific evidence?

2 A. Depends what it is, probably, maybe.

3 Q. And why would you want scientific evidence as
4 opposed to, you know, an eyewitness, or a police
5 officer, or other kinds of evidence?

6 A. I'm looking for every evidence and it's just not
7 scientific alone.

8 Q. Is there anything special about scientific 9 evidence that --

10 A. No.

11 Q. -- really, you think, makes it especially 12 valuable?

13 A. No.

14 Q. If there's -- If there turns out not to be 15 scientific evidence on certain things that you
16 would expect, how are you going to react to that?

17 A. Well, depends. I would have to actually be 18 through it and see what happens.

19 Q. Come at it with an open mind --

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. -- and decide that? Okay.

22 ATTORNEY STRANG: I think that's it for me.
23 Thank you.

24 MR. LAWRENCE: You're welcome.

25 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Lawrence, the

1 Clerk will escort you from the courtroom at this
2 time. Excuse me, Mr. Lawrence -- you are right
3 that's the easiest way to get out.

4 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

5 THE COURT: Any motion from either party?

6 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, not on Mr. Lawrence.
7 I think -- Are we approaching, next, one of the 8 jurors the parties had agreed --

9 THE COURT: The next one I have got listed
10 is Juror 35, August Schuette.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: Oh, okay, then we're one
12 away.

13 THE COURT: So we'll have Mr. Schuette come
14 in and Mr. Lawrence is in.

15 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Just to alert you,
16 Judge, I will be questioning Mr. Schuette.

17 THE COURT: Very well.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: How many jurors do we
19 have left back there?

20 THE COURT: Um -- Mr. Schuette, please
21 raise your right hand and the clerk will administer
22 the oath to you.

23 (Juror sworn.)

24 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Schuette, you have already

1 completed a written questionnaire in this case.

2 MR. SCHUETTE: Right.

3 THE COURT: This afternoon we're moving on 4 to the next phase of the jury selection which is the 5 voir dire part of the process. In a minute the 6 attorneys will each be given an opportunity to ask
7 you some questions that are follow-ups to the 8 information you provided in your questionnaire.

9 Before we get to that, I can inform you
10 that the jurors selected to hear this case will 11 not be sequestered; that is, at the end of trial
12 each day the jurors will be brought back to 13 Manitowoc and permitted to go home.

14 The rule that the Court has already
15 imposed, prohibiting the jurors from having any 16 exposure to any news media accounts of this case,
17 will continue. And the jurors are also 18 prohibited from discussing the case with anyone
19 until the case is over.

20 Although today's proceedings are open to 21 the public, during voir dire we do not permit
22 cameras in the courtroom and the members of the 23 media are prohibited from identifying any of the 24 jurors by name in their news reports.

25 You should also be aware, that in the

1 event you are selected to serve on the jury,
2 cameras are not permitted to identify the jurors
3 in any way during the course of the trial.

4 If you are selected to remain on the
5 jury panel after today's questioning, you will
6 receive a telephone call in the next day or two
7 letting you know when to report back to court.

8 At this time, then, I will permit the 9 attorneys to ask their questions. Mr. Kratz, you
10 may proceed.

11 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Thank you, Judge.

12 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

13 BY ATTORNEY KRATZ:

14 Q. Mr. Schuette, good afternoon. My name is Ken
15 Kratz, I'm the Calumet County District Attorney.
16 I'm serving as a Special Prosecutor in this case.
17 Joining me this afternoon is Tom Fallon.
18 Mr. Fallon is an Assistant Attorney General. He 19 is also a Special Prosecutor on this case. And 20 we will not only be asking you questions this
21 afternoon, but we'll be presenting the case
22 together, if you are selected to serve on that.

23 This part of the jury selection process
24 is meant to follow up individually with questions
25 that you have answered on a questionnaire. Let

1 me assure you that it's not meant to
2 unnecessarily pry into your personal life or to
3 embarrass you. We're simply trying to get the 4 most impartial jury that we can and so there are 5 a couple follow-up questions that we do need to 6 ask of you.

7 Let me first start, Mr. Schuette, with
8 your prior employment. I understand that you are 9 a retired gentleman, but had served and had 10 worked, what looks like most of your life, in the 11 retail store business; is that correct?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. You were president and manager of a department
14 store; was that here in Manitowoc?

15 A. Yes, it was, sir.

16 Q. Could you describe the nature of that store,
17 please; what kind of goods was it that you sold?

18 A. It was a general department store, established as 19 a family department store, established in 1849, a
20 long time. And our family ran it for about 145
21 years. And it sold just a general classification
22 of merchandise: Men's and women's wear, home
23 furnishings, appliances and, at one time,
24 groceries.

25 Q. When was it, sir, that you retired from that

1 business?

2 A. 1992.

3 Q. And upon your retirement, was the business sold
4 or was it carried on by other family members or 5 other concerns?

6 A. The business was acquired by my stepson-in-law,
7 Peter Burbach, and he ran it for two years and 8 then he closed it in 1994.

9 Q. I understand also from your questionnaire that 10 you have some higher education including college
11 and graduate school; is that correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. The area of graduate studies, was that in 14 business and management or was that in some other
15 kind of area?

16 A. It was a work study course at the City College in 17 New York. I worked in a department store and 18 went to classes.

19 Q. All right. So what would now be called an 20 internship or something like that --

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. -- but you also received some kind of educational
23 credit for that; is that right?

24 A. Correct. Work and educational credit.

25 Q. All right. Also indicates in your questionnaire

1 that you served in our armed forces; is that
2 right?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. You served in Germany at least through 1946 and
5 attained, as I understand it, the rank of 6 sergeant?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. As a sergeant, I believe you were stationed in 9 Germany at the time?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. Did that require you to have supervisory
12 responsibility over other soldiers?

13 A. Yes, I obtained the rank of sergeant and I had, I
14 think, six under men -- six other men that worked
15 with me. We were in charge of some of the arm --
16 armors, some of the weapons and ammunition and 17 that type of thing and several ammunition dumps
18 in Berlin.

19 Q. As a member of the armed services, Mr. Schuette,
20 did you ever have the situation of being involved
21 in any investigative proceedings or court martial
22 proceedings or anything where you may have either
23 been called upon as a witness or some other
24 manner participated in those kind of proceedings?

25 A. No, I did not.

1 Q. Have you ever been a witness in a case before in
2 a criminal or a civil case in court?

3 A. I have not.

4 Q. I note from your questionnaire that you are
5 pretty active in obtaining information. Let me
6 ask you, Mr. Schuette, where do you think you
7 obtain most of your news from; would it be the 8 newspaper, or television, or the internet, or 9 some combination?

10 A. Newspaper, primarily, and television news
11 reports. I also -- we also follow that.

12 Q. Do you subscribe to the local newspaper here?

13 A. Correct, I do.

14 Q. And are you a regular reader of that?

15 A. I feel I am, yes.

16 Q. And do you watch your television, at least the 17 news portion of television, regularly?

18 A. Generally, yes, I do.

19 Q. With that having been said, have you some 20 background information of this case that is the 21 reason that you have been called in today?

22 A. Well, I think anybody who does read the 23 newspapers, local papers, and watches the 24 television stations certainly has to have some 25 feeling about news in general coming out of this

1 community.

2 Q. Right.

3 A. So I certainly have -- I wouldn't say I have
4 intently watched or read about this case, but I
5 certainly have done some. I have some awareness
6 of it.

7 Q. Let me go back about 15 months, to November of 8 2005; do you remember some of the early reports
9 of a young photographer, a young woman, Ms
10 Halbach, being missing, that there was a search
11 for her and some law enforcement efforts to find
12 her? Do you remember those stories?

13 A. Yes. I was aware of some of them, yes.

14 Q. Were you also made aware, sometime thereafter, of 15 Mr. Steven Avery's involvement and eventually his 16 arrest or being implicated in Ms Halbach's
17 disappearance?

18 A. Yes, I would have been aware of that.

19 Q. Let me ask you, Mr. Schuette, after being aware
20 early on in this case, at any time, did you form
21 an opinion as to Mr. Avery's guilt or innocence,
22 or are you the kind of person, generally and
23 specifically in this case, did you reserve
24 judgment on that to wait to hear more about the
25 case?

1 A. I would be inclined to want to hear more about
2 it.

3 Q. Now, I asked kind of a two part question; I
4 apologize for that. Is that generally your
5 philosophy; that is, about things that you read
6 in not only the newspaper or hear on television,
7 but any information that you might glean from 8 some source, you are the kind of person that will
9 want to check into the details yourself before
10 forming an opinion about them?

11 A. I would feel I would. I think in my business
12 career I was not quick to jump to conclusion. I
13 think I liked to -- I'm not an impulsive type
14 person, so I think I'm inclined to try and get 15 all the facts in business or in other news.

16 Q. Now, running a business for, I think you said 45
17 years, if I'm --

18 A. Worked there 45, ran it 35.

19 Q. If I'm reading this correctly, that required, I
20 suspect, a great deal of not only hard work in 21 the amount of hours, but also attention to 22 detail. Would that be a fair assumption on my 23 part?

24 A. Correct, yes.

25 Q. How many employees, at any given time, did you

1 have under you?

2 A. Oh, full and part time, 40, approximately 40, 30
3 or 40.

4 Q. And I suspect by the nature of the retail
5 business, some of those individuals came and
6 went; in other words, it wasn't the same 40
7 people, there were --

8 A. No, it wasn't.

9 Q. -- there were individuals in retail sales that 10 would move on to other employment --

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. -- is that right? I note in your questionnaire
13 that you are familiar with the internet. Let me
14 ask you if you're an active user of the internet
15 and how often and what kinds of purposes you
16 might use the computer for?

17 A. I'm really not too active in the internet. I do
18 have a computer. I do have availability to the 19 internet. Seems though I use my computer mainly 20 for word processing, spread sheets, email. I
21 really don't delve into the internet too much
22 except maybe for informational purposes.

23 Q. All right.

24 A. Not news necessarily. Not news but ...

25 Q. I have to ask, Mr. Schuette, the spread sheets,

1 data basis or things like that, are you still
2 employed now or what -- what is it that you are
3 making data basis of at this point?

4 A. Data spread sheets and letter writing, that type
5 of thing.

6 Q. All right.

7 A. And I use it mainly for tax information,
8 checkbook information, that type of thing.

9 Q. I understand. All right.

10 A. I don't really --

11 Q. So you keep some of your more detailed records on 12 the computer.

13 A. Sorry.

14 Q. I note from your response that you have many 15 children, all of which, if I read correctly, have 16 either college or advanced degrees. One of them,
17 it looks like is in the radio or media business;
18 am I reading that correctly?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. Can you tell me what that child does and where 21 they're -- where they're employed?

22 A. Yes, he is a stepson. I have a second marriage.
23 My wife was a widow and I was a widower. We have 24 been married for 26 years. Her oldest child,
25 David Kollath (phonetic) is a general manager of

1 a public radio station in Kenosha, Wisconsin.

2 Q. All right. Have you and your stepson either
3 discussed this case, specifically, or do you
4 discuss the media business, generally, with him?

5 A. No, we really don't. I don't recall that we have
6 discussed this case. I know we have not recently
7 and I don't even recall if he might have casually
8 mentioned it a year, year and a half ago. And we 9 don't see David that often, so we don't discuss
10 the radio business.

11 Q. All right. I understand. Being a very long time
12 member of the Manitowoc community, have you
13 formed an opinion about the Sheriff's Department
14 and what kind of job you feel that the Sheriff's 15 Department here in Manitowoc is doing? I guess, 16 generally, in fighting crime or just in their 17 day-to-day operations; have you formed such an 18 opinion?

19 A. Well, my opinion would be positive. As far as I
20 know, I think they are doing a commendable job.
21 I'm not aware that they are doing anything but 22 that, so it would be positive.

23 Q. You may, in fact, if you are called to testify
24 (sic) in this case, you will hear from law
25 enforcement officers who will be asked to

1 testify. Let me ask you, Mr. Schuette, since law
2 enforcement officers are people like -- like
3 anybody else and subjected to the same biases or 4 prejudices as anybody else; are you able, despite
5 your positive general reaction towards officers,
6 to consider a law enforcement officer's testimony
7 like that of any other witness?

8 A. Like what?

9 Q. Like that of any other witness that might 10 testify. Are you able to consider their 11 testimony and not give them more credit or less
12 credit just because they are a police officer?

13 A. Well, I think I would accept whatever they say in 14 a general mode. I respect the police officers.
15 I think that they should be thorough and 16 investigate things well, so I would certainly 17 respect what they have to say.

18 Q. Is there anything that you have learned from this
19 case, specifically, that you have a question
20 either about the nature of the investigation, the 21 thoroughness of it, or anything that's come to 22 light, that as you sit here today you think that 23 we should know going into this case?

24 A. No, I don't.

25 Q. Mr. Schuette, have you ever used or are you aware

1 of a publication known as Auto Trader Magazine?

2 A. No, I'm not.

3 Q. Have you ever heard of a project in the State of 4 Wisconsin which is called Project Innocence, a
5 project which is -- or has at least as it's 6 primary goal, the exoneration of those
7 individuals who have been wrongfully accused or
8 convicted?

9 A. Yes, I am aware of that program.

10 Q. Do you believe that is a positive, that is a good
11 program?

12 A. I would think that would be positive, yes.

13 Q. Are you aware of Mr. Avery's past connection with 14 Project Innocence?

15 A. Correct, I am.

16 Q. Can you tell me what you recall of Mr. Avery --
17 and not just the Project Innocence, but what you
18 may know of his past, generally, that may help us
19 in some of our future questions?

20 A. Well, I'm aware of his conviction and a prior
21 offense. I'm aware of the fact that he served a
22 substantial amount of time in prison. And I'm 23 aware that Project Innocence pursued this and he 24 was released from prison; it was determined
25 another person committed the crime for which

1 Steven Avery was convicted.

2 Q. And he was exonerated, that is, he was freed as a
3 result of --

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. -- of that project?

6 A. I'm aware of that, yes.

7 Q. Were you aware of the nature of the exoneration;
8 that is, it was based upon DNA or scientific
9 evidence?

10 A. Yes, I think I was aware of that. That was the 11 way in which he was exonerated.

12 Q. I'm going to ask you just generally,
13 Mr. Schuette, are you a believer in the sciences,
14 specifically in DNA evidence, and from what you
15 have heard or read, do you believe that to be an 16 accurate form of identification, especially in
17 criminal cases?

18 A. From what I understand, yes. I am aware of that 19 and seems -- seems as though it is -- is a true
20 scientific project.

21 Q. The last question I have of you, Mr. Schuette, is 22 as you have thought about sitting on this case,
23 as you have thought about one of the 12 members
24 of your community that may have to sit in 25 judgment of Mr. Avery; do you believe that would

1 be a positive experience for you, individually,
2 or is that something that you would not be
3 looking forward to?

4 A. I'm sure it would be a positive experience. I
5 can't honestly say I would look forward to it,
6 but in the event that I would be chosen. I think
7 I could render a fair and carefully deliberate
8 reasoning to arrive at whatever result would be 9 arrived at.

10 Q. And you would be willing to follow whatever
11 instructions the Judge may have on the law in 12 this case?

13 A. Yes, I would.

14 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's all the questions I
15 have of this prospective juror. Thank you, Judge.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

17 MR. BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

18 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

19 BY MR. BUTING:

20 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Schuette. My name is Jerome
21 Buting. This is Dean Strang. And this is,
22 obviously, Steven Avery. And you recognize that 23 we are representing him today?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. Okay. I have some questions about some things

1 that Mr. Kratz hasn't talked about. And I also
2 have some follow-up on some things that he has.
3 Okay.

4 You have obviously been a member of this
5 community a long time. And as president of a
6 department store -- I apologize, but I'm not from 7 here, so I'm not familiar with the store -- but
8 as a result of that position in the community,
9 were you on leadership councils or Chambers of 10 Commerce, or things of that nature?

11 A. Yes. I was involved with a number of 12 organizations, yes.

13 Q. Could you just tell me what those were, in 14 leadership positions?

15 A. Well, the Chamber of Commerce, I was on the Board
16 of Directors; Junior Chamber of Commerce, I was 17 on the Board of Directors. There's a foundation
18 called the West Foundation of which I was the 19 vice president. I was involved in the Manitowoc
20 County Historical Society on the Board of 21 Directors.

22 I'm trying to think if there were any
23 more, but ... I have been a downtown
24 Manitowoc -- Retail Trade Commission of Downtown
25 Manitowoc, Chamber of Commerce. I've just been

1 pretty much involved with a lot of the community
2 affairs. I'm on the Rotary Club right now.

3 Q. You are on the Rotary Club?

4 A. I'm a Rotarian, correct.

5 Q. And do you attend regularly, what, once a month?

6 A. Well, hopefully, weekly.

7 Q. Once a week, okay.

8 A. It's a weekly meeting, yes.

9 Q. Okay. And in that context, do you -- do you ever
10 hear people talking about this case?

11 A. On occasion but, you know, I don't hear a lot of 12 it. I suppose there will be more now. But, no,
13 I do not hear a lot of that discussed.

14 Q. Okay. You still play tennis?

15 A. I still play tennis.

16 Q. Good for you. And you mention volunteer work;
17 what kind of volunteer work do you do?

18 A. I do Meals-on-Wheels --

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. -- too. And I volunteer at the Historical 21 Society in their building. And they have a very 22 nice historical village out in the country.

23 I help transport some people who need
24 some help, some stroke victims, mainly stroke
25 victims, who need to get to an exercise place.

1 I used to help an elderly gentleman with
2 most of his grocery shopping and doctors and that
3 type of thing. He is no longer with us. But I
4 do that -- that type of volunteer work.

5 Q. So it sounds like you keep pretty busy?

6 A. I keep quite busy.

7 Q. And do you also travel out of town for long
8 periods of time or are you primarily here year
9 round?

10 A. We have a small place up in Door County so
11 summers, long weekends we spend up there.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. We no longer make long travel trips out of the 14 state or out of the country. We did at one time,
15 but not too much any more. We kind of stick
16 around home.

17 Q. Okay. You don't try and go some place warmer in 18 the winter?

19 A. Oh, I love Manitowoc. I love blowing snow.

20 Q. Okay. Now, you have six children or step 21 children?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Grandchildren?

24 A. Ten.

25 Q. Ten, okay. And granddaughters? All boys or

1 girls?

2 A. Let's see, I should know. Two granddaughters
3 and -- no, three granddaughters. So would be 4 seven grandsons.

5 Q. Okay. And what's the range of ages from the --
6 of all your grandchildren?

7 A. The oldest is -- must be 24 and the youngest is 8 seven.

9 Q. Okay. And what age are your granddaughters?

10 A. 16, 14, and 12.

11 Q. Okay. So not in the middle 20's, not close to --

12 A. No.

13 Q. -- Teresa Halbach's age or anything of that sort?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Okay. Did -- When you heard about this case, did
16 you identify it with your granddaughters at all,
17 what would it be like if this happened to my 18 granddaughters, anything of that nature?

19 A. No, I did not.

20 Q. In your questionnaire, you mention -- Well, let 21 me get to that in a second. Sounds like you keep 22 pretty current on all the news from a number of 23 different sources, right?

24 A. I try to.

25 Q. Do you have an opinion about how accurate the

1 media is in reporting on, particularly, criminal
2 cases?

3 A. Sometimes I feel that they don't get the whole
4 story. I'm sure they aren't really complete in 5 all of the facts. I feel -- I think they do the 6 best they can and sometimes the facts aren't
7 really easily available and maybe they shortcut
8 some of them.

9 Q. Do you find yourself watching the local news more
10 than the cable, like CNN or Fox news outlets, or 11 do you watch those too?

12 A. We watch those also. We pretty much watch the 13 local news, Channel 2, or 5. You know, the 5
14 clock news, or 6 o'clock news, or whatever fits
15 our time schedule.

16 Q. Do you tend to watch a particular programs in the 17 evening like, you know, the Bill O'Reilly show,
18 or Larry King, or any of those kinds of things?

19 A. We watch some of those, Reilly or Larry king.

20 Q. Anyone that's a particular favorite?

21 A. Not really. I think as far as Larry King is 22 concerned, depends on who he's having on.
23 Sometimes it's interesting information, sometimes
24 it's pretty boring, so we skip around.

25 Q. And how about radio news; do you listen to the

1 radio much?

2 A. Probably WOMT, the local news station, maybe at 3 the early -- the early broadcast, the 7 a.m.
4 broadcast.

5 Q. Now, does that -- that station does have some 6 call in shows, doesn't it?

7 A. Sure.

8 Q. Do you -- Have you ever called into any of the 9 radio stations?

10 A. No, I have not. I don't listen to those too
11 much.

12 Q. Now, you have been in this community for ...

13 A. All my life.

14 Q. All your life.

15 A. Right.

16 Q. And you have never had jury duty before?

17 A. I have not, no.

18 Q. You ever talk to the jury clerk about that?

19 A. No, I have not.

20 Q. How that ever happened?

21 A. No, my wife has been called four times.

22 Q. Has she really?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. Okay. Has she ever served?

25 A. On one case, I believe.

1 Q. Speaking of your wife, you mention her, that's
2 Shirley, right?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Okay. That -- One of the questions we ask,
5 No. 41, was whether you have talked with any 6 people, at length, about this particular case and 7 you said, yes, your spouse.

8 A. Mm-hmm.

9 Q. What sort of things have you talked about or what 10 have you talked with her about?

11 A. Well, I think just a general opinion about the 12 whole situation. And I would think it's pretty
13 hard for anybody who keeps a little bit abreast
14 of the news here to overlook this whole case. I
15 would think --

16 Q. Sure.

17 A. -- it would have to be. And so just, you know, 18 maybe what -- what happened today or when the 19 news comes on, we might casually discuss it.

20 Q. Mm-hmm. And I don't mean to imply there's 21 anything at all wrong with talking to your spouse
22 about it.

23 A. No, I'm sure it's pretty normal for --

24 Q. Sure.

25 A. It would be a little hard for somebody not to

1 talk.

2 Q. Sure. Especially something like this.

3 A. Sure.

4 Q. But, obviously, I assume you probably respect
5 your spouse's opinion on things as well, right?

6 A. In most cases, yes.

7 Q. Not necessarily all, but ...

8 A. Correct, not all.

9 Q. Does she have a particular opinion about whether
10 or not Mr. Avery is guilty or innocent?

11 A. Well, for some reason she kind of questions his 12 guilt.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. She just ...

15 Q. And does she -- Have you talked with her further
16 about that to see if you agree or disagree with 17 those doubts that she still has?

18 A. No, not really. This is her opinion. She just 19 doesn't feel that she's convinced that this is a
20 guilty situation.

21 Q. Okay. And what about you, do you have any?

22 A. I don't -- I don't strong -- At this point, I
23 think as I mentioned, I don't strongly disagree
24 with her. I think there are probably a lot of 25 questions to be answered. And so I'm not totally

1 convinced that the case has been presented
2 totally. And I think if I served on the jury I
3 would like to see -- and I'm sure both sides
4 would be presented.

5 Q. Mm-hmm. And you --

6 A. So I'm not adamant as to what -- what the guilt
7 or not, innocence is.

8 Q. So you understand that at this point Mr. Avery is 9 presumed innocent, though, right?

10 A. Absolutely.

11 Q. And despite all the -- Would it be fair to say
12 that the media presentation that you have seen,
13 you have seen a lot of it, has skewed more
14 towards making him look guilty?

15 A. Probably, yes.

16 Q. Okay. And despite all of that, do you think that 17 you can still presume him innocent?

18 A. I feel I could, yes.

19 Q. Is that because you realize they are probably not 20 giving you the whole story?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. Okay. And I recognize that -- Well, what's the 23 most recent thing you can recall hearing reported
24 on the news about this particular case?

25 A. I really haven't been following it much in the

1 last two or three weeks as requested by the
2 Judge. But very frankly, it's pretty hard to 3 avoid headlines.

4 Q. Sure.

5 A. Sunday's Herald-Times had a very big section
6 about the whole case and chronological dates. I
7 did not read it, but I did not miss the headline.

8 Q. Some -- I have discovered some restrooms that you
9 go into, you're standing there and you can't miss
10 it, it's posted on the wall.

11 A. That could be, that's right. It's pretty hard,
12 or the 5 o'clock news on Channel 2, it's our lead
13 story is and the name Avery comes up. And 14 generally I will either leave the room or turn it
15 off or something. And I'm not a purist, but I'm 16 trying to at least follow the Judge's
17 recommendations. I'm trying to think what the 18 most recent thing would be. Last month.

19 Q. Do you recall discussions about a blood vial?

20 A. Yes. Yes. There was something about that, I
21 didn't pursue the whole thing. It was something
22 about DNA evidence and there was a blood vial
23 some place. It was used -- Well, I think it was 24 used to exonerate him from his original
25 conviction.

1 Q. And that it was located in the Clerk's Office?

2 A. Yeah, I'm not sure quite how that whole thing

3 happened, how they found it.

4 Q. Now, I'm going to get back to something on that

5 in a minute. But before I forget, I want to ask

6 you, you mentioned your awareness that Mr. Avery

7 was wrongly convicted --

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. -- and spent a substantial period of time in 10 prison?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And, in fact, it was determined that another

13 person had committed that crime?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And do you have any doubts of your own about

16 whether or not that's true, that he really was

17 wrongly committed?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Convicted?

20 A. I did not have any doubt about that.

21 Q. And how do you feel about -- or how did you feel

22 when you learned that somebody from your

23 community in Manitowoc, where you have grown up

24 all your life, had been wrongly convicted?

25 A. It's a tragedy. It's a shame. What else can you

1 say.

2 Q. Sure.

3 A. A man's -- A young man's -- 20 years of his life
4 was wasted.

5 Q. Do you -- You are also aware a civil lawsuit was 6 filed?

7 A. Yes, I am.

8 Q. Are you aware of the individuals that were 9 directly accused in the lawsuit of misconduct
10 leading to his wrongful conviction?

11 A. Not all of them. I remember the sheriff, Tom 12 Kocourek, I think was involved in that. I'm not 13 sure, I don't know who the district attorney was 14 at that time, so I suppose he was.

15 Q. Well, I noticed in your questionnaire you
16 mentioned when we asked about people that -- long
17 list of names that you might know, you mentioned
18 Thomas Kocourek.

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And how do you know him?

21 A. Very casually.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. The business I was in we met -- maybe I sold Tom
24 a pair of socks or a suit or something sometime.
25 So I have known him on a very casual basis, a

1 name recognition and --

2 Q. Okay. I see.

3 A. -- that's about all.

4 Q. So no personal knowledge of him?

5 A. Not at all. No.

6 Q. Did you ever talk to him about the Steven Avery
7 wrongful conviction?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Nothing of that sort?

10 A. No, not at all.

11 Q. And you also mentioned Curt Drumm.

12 A. Mm-hmm.

13 Q. How do you know him?

14 A. He's been a friend of the family. I think he's 15 my daughter's age. I have known him since 16 kindergarten and I have known his father and 17 mother for a long time.

18 Q. Now, if he were to testify -- and I don't know
19 that he will -- You recognize a lot of these 20 people on this list are not necessarily all going 21 to testify, thankfully, but would you be able to 22 be objective and judge what he would testify
23 about?

24 A. You mean Curt Drumm?

25 Q. Yes.

1 A. Yes, I certainly could accept his forthrightness
2 and honesty, yes.

3 Q. Well, could you also judge him like any other
4 witness, or would you -- would you be maybe too
5 sympathetic towards him because it's somebody you
6 know, that you would assume he is not going to 7 lie, I won't go beyond that?

8 A. No, I don't think I would have any personal
9 interest in his testimony or consider him
10 differently than any other witness.

11 Q. Okay. And I assume that applies to Thomas
12 Kocourek too?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Now, one of the things Mr. Kratz asked you about 15 was police officers and whether you would be
16 willing to consider their testimony as witnesses
17 like any other witness; do you recall that?

18 A. Yes, I do.

19 Q. Do you think, though, that because police
20 officers are, you know, they -- they are sworn to 21 serve and protect, enforce the law, that if they
22 were to take the witness stand and take the oath
23 that they, therefore, would be more likely to 24 tell the truth than an ordinary citizen, or would 25 it be the same?

1 A. Hmm. Well, I would hope more likely. I would
2 hope.

3 Q. Okay. But, now, if the Judge gave you an
4 instruction that said, despite what you may hope,
5 they are the same as any other witness and they 6 are human beings, that you must judge their 7 credibility, their truthfulness or
8 non-truthfulness the same as any other witness,
9 would you be able to do that?

10 A. Oh, sure.

11 Q. Okay. You did say, I think -- and maybe I just 12 misunderstood you -- you said, I think I would 13 respect what they have to say. But if you got 14 that kind of an instruction from the Judge, I
15 assume you would be able to also question what 16 they say, just as any other witness; is that 17 right or not? Or would you just respect and 18 accept what they say, unquestionably?

19 A. Well, I suppose if what they respond, their 20 response seems to be logical, I would accept it
21 as being truthful. But, no, I would certainly -- 22 I don't know if I would give a police officer any 23 more credibility than another witness.

24 Q. Okay. Because as a juror, if you're selected,
25 you will have to do that, you will have to -- you

1 may hear -- I'm not saying necessarily police
2 officers, but you may hear different things from
3 different witnesses. And you may have to judge,
4 which one am I going to believe. And it could be
5 police officers, it may not be, but that's a task
6 you may find yourself having to do.

7 A. I would understand that, yes.

8 Q. Okay. You also said that you expected police to 9 be thorough, right?

10 A. In general, I would expect them to, yes.

11 Q. Okay. And if you hear evidence that questions or 12 challenges that, challenges whether or not the 13 police were very thorough in this case in looking 14 at all of the evidence and all of the options and 15 possibilities, would you be able to consider
16 that?

17 A. Sure. Yes.

18 Q. Do you think the police sometimes get so engaged,
19 personally, in an investigation that they may 20 tend to go down one tunnel and, you know, focus
21 on one area rather than being as objective as 22 possible and covering all the bases? Do you
23 think that's possible?

24 A. I think if I would get contrary information that 25 seems logical I would have to weigh this and

1 accept it, if that would be the case.

2 Q. Okay. I appreciate that. And if you also heard
3 evidence or reason to think that maybe the police
4 went even farther in this case and crossed the 5 line and, you know, were doing things that were 6 improper and possibly even illegal; would you be 7 able to consider that?

8 A. I would be able to, if the evidence so indicates,
9 yes.

10 Q. Now, since you -- I don't remember if -- No, I
11 don't think Mr. Kratz did ask you about this.
12 You talked about the initial sort of flood of 13 information when Teresa Halbach was missing and 14 then Mr. Avery was arrested; do you also, though,
15 recall the whole Brendan Dassey aspect of the
16 case?

17 A. I'm aware of some of the media coverage of him,
18 yes.

19 Q. Okay. Did you see the -- any of the press
20 conferences when those charges were brought --

21 A. No, I did not.

22 Q. -- back in March? Okay.

23 A. No.

24 Q. Can you just tell us what you recall hearing
25 about Brendan Dassey's involvement in the matter?

1 A. My understanding is that Brendan Dassey is Steven
2 Avery's nephew. And it must have been October
3 31st, or November 1st, or something, he
4 approached Steven Avery's cabin, home, whatever
5 it was, and came into the property. And Teresa
6 Halbach was there. And his uncle -- I did not
7 get all the details, but for some reason I think
8 there was a sexual assault that took place. And 9 after that she was murdered. This is all the 10 information that I understand. And the body
11 disposed of.

12 Q. Okay. And did you also hear -- Well, let me ask
13 you this, what if -- I assume that you would 14 consider that pretty damning evidence for 15 Mr. Avery, right? Against Mr. Avery?

16 A. If this in fact happened, yes, I certainly would 17 have to.

18 Q. Well, what if the State never called Brendan
19 Dassey to the trial and you never heard that 20 story from him, would you be able to put that out
21 of your mind and focus just on what evidence they 22 do present?

23 A. I think I would. As I understand, if we are 24 instructed to be objective in our observation and 25 observe and use only the evidence presented, I

1 think that's what would have to be decided.

2 Q. So you wouldn't assume necessarily that maybe
3 that there is other evidence out there and maybe
4 that is what happened but they just are not
5 telling me; you wouldn't -- you wouldn't look at 6 it that way?

7 A. I think as a jury you have to base your 8 conclusions on the evidence presented.

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. And I think I would do that.

11 Q. Okay. Hard as it may be, you think you could?

12 A. Yes, I think I could.

13 Q. Okay. Did -- Do you also recall, then, that -- 14 that Brendan Dassey later recanted that 15 confession, that is, took it back?

16 A. Yes, I'm aware of that, correct.

17 Q. And were you aware of any -- Well, strike that.
18 Can you think of any reasons why somebody would 19 falsely confess, confess to something -- admit
20 that they did something like this when they 21 really didn't?

22 A. I can't think of any reason, but it seems as 23 though I understand that there are some rather 24 severe interrogation procedures sometimes done by 25 investigators. I don't know if a person could be

1 coerced into something like this or not.

2 Q. Okay. That's something that you would be open to
3 considering, though, if it -- if you did hear
4 from Mr. Dassey, or young Brendan Dassey; is that
5 right?

6 A. I think I could be open to do that, sure.

7 Q. Would you also consider whether or not any other
8 evidence corroborated a story like that, physical 9 evidence, or lack of physical evidence; is that 10 something you would consider?

11 A. The story of Brendan Dassey's involvement?

12 Q. Yes.

13 A. If there was other evidence, I would certainly
14 consider it.

15 Q. And if there wasn't evidence that would 16 corroborate it, in fact would tend not to?

17 A. That has to be considered, I would assume, yes.

18 Q. Yes. Well, if you have never been to a trial
19 before -- I know you have never been on a jury,
20 but have you ever sat through a trial before --

21 A. No, I have not.

22 Q. -- as a spectator? Do you ever watch Court TV?

23 A. No, I don't.

24 Q. Well, you may or may not know, but a defendant
25 has a constitutional right not to testify in

1 their own case.

2 A. I'm aware of that, yes.

3 Q. Okay. And a defense attorney always has sort of 4 a difficult decision to make, which is whether or
5 not they should call the defendant in the trial,
6 whether they should testify or not testify.
7 Because there's always a concern that if a
8 defendant does testify and takes the witness
9 stand, that a jury may not believe him anyway
10 because they will think, well, he's the person
11 with the most at stake, why should we believe
12 him, right?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. On the other hand, if they -- if he doesn't
15 testify, then there's concern that some jurors
16 may think, well, what's he hiding; why doesn't he 17 tell his side of the story; we want to hear both 18 sides. What about you; do you -- would you have 19 any concerns like that?

20 A. I don't think so. I guess I could understand
21 where, as you pointed out, a defendant would have 22 a hard time being very forthright about the 23 situation. I would think it would be difficult
24 in these cases for them to testify.

25 Q. By forthright, you mean convincing?

1 A. Or honest, truthful.

2 Q. You think a defendant would have a hard time
3 being truthful or just being believably truthful?

4 A. Either one.

5 Q. Well, see, that's one of the concerns is that,
6 you know, if a defendant does testify and the 7 jury just thinks, well --

8 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, I'm going to
9 interpose an objection. I don't know if Mr. Buting
10 is asking a question here or giving his closing
11 argument. He can ask the question, Judge. He's 12 gotten an answer and now it's speech time. And I'm 13 interposing an objection, telling this witness (sic)
14 what the next problem is with his answer.

15 THE COURT: Well, the subject matter is 16 legitimate, why don't you rephrase the question,
17 Mr. Buting.

18 MR. BUTING: Okay.

19 Q. (By Mr. Buting)~ Would you -- Would you be 20 able -- If Mr. Avery did, with our advice, if we 21 suggested that he take the witness stand and he 22 testified in this case, would you tend not to 23 believe him just because he's the defendant in a
24 case?

25 A. I suppose it would depend on the evidence

1 presented prior to his testimony. And -- All
2 right. Frankly if -- and I'm sure he would not
3 admit to the crime, if there's other evidence
4 that would indicate -- and I don't know what it
5 could be -- that it did happen and he was guilty
6 of it, then I suppose a person would be a little
7 inclined to doubt his denial.

8 Q. Okay. But my question is, looking at his 9 testimony alone first, with the mere fact that 10 because he is charged in this case and decides to 11 testify, would you hold that against him and 12 not -- not -- I mean, let's say another -- any 13 other witness testifies and the evidence that you
14 are talking about that comes in earlier tends to 15 contradict that witness, I assume you would have 16 that same concern, right?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. So, can you give Mr. Avery -- if he does testify,
19 can you give him the same benefit and the same
20 consideration of it as any other witness who 21 would testify; that is, consideration of whatever
22 his motives would be to falsify, the consistency,
23 or -- you would get a jury instruction for any 24 witness, to judge the credibility, and you would 25 have to apply it the same for the defendant.

1 Could you do that?

2 A. Yes, I think I could. Yes.

3 Q. And, on the other hand, if Mr. Avery didn't
4 testify, would you be sitting there thinking,
5 aha, well, you know why not, he must be guilty,
6 or what's he hiding?

7 A. No, I don't think I would. I don't think that
8 would make that much difference.

9 Q. Okay. And, in fact, the Judge would instruct you
10 that you are not to consider it in any way --

11 A. Right.

12 Q. -- and you would be okay with that?

13 A. Mm-hmm.

14 Q. You have to say yes or no.

15 A. Yes, I think I could. Yes.

16 MR. BUTING: All right. Well, thank you,
17 very much, sir.

18 MR. SCHUETTE: You're welcome.

19 MR. BUTING: I appreciate it.

20 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

21 BY THE COURT:

22 Q. Mr. Schuette, I just want to clear up a couple
23 things because I think some of the later
24 questions were pretty long. And I want to make 25 sure I understand the answer.

1 As Mr. Buting indicated, one thing the
2 Court will instruct the jury in this case is that
3 if the defendant should choose not to testify,
4 the jury cannot draw any adverse inference from
5 that, that that somehow indicates the defendant's
6 guilt. If the defendant doesn't testify, the 7 burden is still on the State to prove his guilt,
8 beyond a reasonable doubt, and you would have to 9 base your decision on the other evidence that 10 came in. Could you follow that instruction?

11 A. Yes, I could.

12 Q. And by the same token, if the defendant does
13 testify, there's another instruction that I
14 cannot remember verbatim but, essentially, you
15 have to treat him like any other witness and base
16 your decision on his credibility, on the same
17 factors you use for other witnesses, taking all
18 the other evidence into account and other
19 considerations and decide whether you think he's 20 telling the truth, just like any other witness.
21 Can you do that?

22 A. Yes, I could.

23 THE COURT: Thank you. The Clerk will
24 escort you from the courtroom.

25 MR. SCHUETTE: Thank you.

(Wherein the juror was excused.)

THE COURT: Counsel, does either party have a motion with respect to this juror?

ATTORNEY KRATZ: Not by the State, your Honor.

MR. BUTING: Not by the defense, your Honor.

THE COURT: Very well, Mr. Schuette is in. I can -- I can inform the court at this time that there had been four remaining jurors back there. I had the clerk send two of them home. So I think we're left with Marian Flint and Daniel Petermann as the next two on the list. It would be my inclination, to keep my court reporter from falling over, to take a break at this time. But I would like to get those last two jurors in.

MR. BUTING: What happened with No. 36?

ATTORNEY FALLON: We agreed to that already.

THE COURT: Yes, I had previously been informed that that was --

MR. BUTING: That's a cause, okay.

THE COURT: Right.

ATTORNEY STRANG: And we still have the other three that we jointly proposed for cause, I

1 think that the Court has not ruled on?

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: I think he did.

3 THE COURT: I will -- I'm going to talk to
4 the Clerk before we start tomorrow morning and go
5 back and make sure anybody I haven't excused for 6 cause is addressed. We'll take a break at this
7 time.

8 MR. BUTING: I'm sorry, what were the two
9 -- what were the two, Flint and --

10 THE COURT: The two remaining are No. 41,
11 Marian Flint and No. 45, Daniel Petermann.

12 MR. BUTING: All right. Thank you.

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, when would you like
14 us back, I'm sorry, 5, 10 minutes?

15 THE COURT: You make the call, Diane. How 16 much time do you want?

17 COURT REPORTER: If we're doing two
18 more, I would say 15 minutes.

19 THE COURT: Fifteen?

20 COURT REPORTER: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Okay, 15 minutes, 5:20.

22 (Recess taken.)

23 THE COURT: At this time we're back on the 24 record. And the next juror is Marian Flint.

25 Ms Flint, please raise your right hand

1 and the Clerk will administer the oath.

2 (Juror sworn.)

3 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

4 THE COURT: Ms Flint, you have already
5 submitted a written questionnaire in this case. At 6 this point we're going on to the next phase of juror
7 selection which is individual voir dire. The 8 attorneys for each of the parties will have a chance
9 to ask you some questions to follow up on the 10 answers that you gave in your questionnaire.

11 Before that, I can tell you that the 12 juror that is selected in this case will not be 13 sequestered. That means at the end of each court
14 day you will be able to go back home.

15 I can also tell you that although the
16 proceedings today are open to the public. There
17 are no cameras allowed in the courtroom during 18 individual voir dire and the media is not allowed 19 to disclose the names of the jurors in their 20 reports to the public.

21 In addition, if you are selected to
22 serve on the jury in this case, the cameras will 23 not be permitted to show the jurors at the trial.

24 Even after today, I will remind you if 25 you are still on the jury panel, that you are to

1 continue not reading anything about this case,
2 watching anything on television, listening to
3 anything on the radio, or discussing the case in 4 any manner with anyone.

5 Mr. Fallon, are you going to be handling
6 this one? You may begin.

7 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

8 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

9 Q. Good afternoon, Mrs. Flint, my name is Tom 10 Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney General with
11 the Wisconsin Department of Justice. And I'm one
12 of the prosecutors in the case. To my left is 13 Mr. Ken Kratz, the Calumet County District
14 Attorney. And Mr. Kratz here is the lead
15 prosecutor of this case involving Mr. Avery.
16 Good afternoon. Thank you, very much, for your 17 patience. I know it's a long wait as we 18 long-winded lawyers chat out here with some of 19 your peers.

20 I wanted to follow up with a few
21 questions regarding some of the information you
22 provided last week in your questionnaire to help
23 us in selecting a jury for this case. Let me
24 first begin, I note that for your principal
25 occupation you note homemaker, but somewhere I

1 have this feeling that perhaps you might have had
2 some experience as a teacher, or a teachers aide,
3 or --

4 A. My daughter is a teacher's aide.

5 Q. Your daughter is?

6 A. Mm-hmm. And my son is a teacher.

7 Q. All right. Did you have some teacher training?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. I see. Okay. But chose to raise a family
10 instead?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. Okay. Very well. Have you ever worked outside
13 of your home?

14 A. No, I haven't.

15 Q. Okay. And by the way, I looked at your 16 questionnaire and, please, accept all of our 17 condolences for the passing of your father.

18 A. Thank you.

19 Q. I understand that took a fair amount of your
20 time.

21 A. Yes, it did.

22 Q. Well, now that that has passed, what do you think
23 you might like to do with some of your extra time
24 there?

25 A. I think I would probably donate some of my time,

1 volunteer at the facility where my dad was for
2 the last seven years.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. Because they were really good to him.

5 Q. All right.

6 A. They can always use an extra hand.

7 Q. I bet that's true. Do you like to read or travel
8 or what do you like do?

9 A. I love to read.

10 Q. You do.

11 A. I've tried traveling in the past 15 years; and 12 I'm not much of a traveler.

13 Q. Not much of a traveler. So, like fine wine, you
14 don't travel very well?

15 A. No.

16 Q. All right. What kind of books or things do you
17 like to read?

18 A. Well, I like romance novels.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. I like a good mystery. I like Nicholas Sparks
21 books.

22 Q. Okay. What is it about his books that you like?

23 A. Well, they're easy to read. He sounds like a
24 very loving husband and father.

25 Q. Okay. And is there a general theme or part of

1 his books that you find particularly attractive
2 that brings you back to his writing?

3 A. Well, Message In a Bottle was one to speak of. I
4 like Clive Cussler's books too. As a matter of 5 fact, I'm going to start reading one of those.

6 Q. All right. I note you have done some other
7 volunteer work. Can you tell us something about
8 your volunteer work, the Order of the Eastern
9 Star Shrine Auxiliary, St. James Church. Tell us
10 about some of your volunteer work.

11 A. Order of Eastern Star, I was a Star Point. We 12 raised a lot of money for charity. Shrine
13 Auxiliary, I was the treasurer for that group.
14 And there, again, we raised a lot of money for 15 the Children's Hospitals.

16 Q. Right. How long were you associated with the 17 Shrine group?

18 A. I would say about four or five years and then it
19 folded.

20 Q. I see. Were you the treasurer during that time
21 frame?

22 A. Yes. Mm-hmm.

23 Q. So, with you managing the purse strings, you did
24 well?

25 A. I hope so.

1 Q. Very good. And how about Memorial Hospital?

2 A. I was working for the auxiliary there, patient
3 service, mail, guiding patients around.

4 Q. All right. And senior ice skating, tell us about
5 that.

6 A. Yes, I did ice skate for six years with the 7 senior group at Expo. We brought our own music,
8 our kind of music, and had camaraderie in the 9 group. Was fun.

10 Q. Do you still skate?

11 A. No, two years ago I thought my balance wasn't 12 quite right and I didn't think it was best if I
13 break an arm.

14 Q. All right. So you passed on it?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. How long did you skate?

17 A. Six years.

18 Q. All right.

19 A. With the seniors.

20 Q. Now, interesting, did you take up skating in your 21 senior years or did you skate when you were 22 younger?

23 A. I skated as a child; my dad taught all three of 24 us kids to skate.

25 Q. All right. And this is figure skating, dance?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Excellent. All right. Well, I would like to
3 talk to you a little bit about, first of all,
4 some of the people that may appear during the 5 course of this case and I see one of the 6 individuals you identified as Mr. Drumm.

7 A. If it's the Curtis Drumm that's a pilot, that
8 would be the one; I know his mother.

9 Q. He's the one. If -- We're not really sure
10 whether he will be a witness in this case or not,
11 but if he were, do you think you could evaluate 12 his testimony the same way you would evaluate 13 anyone else's, even though you know his mom
14 pretty well?

15 A. Oh, sure, I think so, yes.

16 Q. In other words, you wouldn't give his testimony
17 any more weight or any less weight than anybody
18 else?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Okay. All right. One of the things of great 21 interest to all of us here is a lot of the 22 publicity that's attended to this particular
23 case. And I wanted to ask you a few questions
24 about that. In terms of the news that you get 25 for day-to-day, you -- you seem to be of --

1 somewhat of an avid reader and somewhat informed;
2 radio, newspapers, television and magazines.
3 If -- Looking at those, where would you say the 4 greatest source of your news comes from?
5 A. Probably the radio, early in the morning.
6 Q. All right. What kind of radio do you listen to,
7 stations or ...
8 A. Basically WOMT.
9 Q. The local station?
10 A. Yes.
11 Q. Okay. All right. And how often do read the 12 newspapers?
13 A. Well, I don't get a newspaper, but my brother
14 saves them for me and so I may read a paper three
15 times a week.
16 Q. Okay. All right. And television, how often do
17 you watch television?
18 A. I would say every evening, watching Jeopardy, lot
19 of public TV. I like the programming on public
20 TV.
21 Q. Okay. Do you watch much of the newscast on the 22 local public television stations?
23 A. Well, I used to, but I haven't ever since I got 24 the notice that I was going to be on a jury. And 25 I received that letter back in June of 2006. And

1 I thought there was a possibility that maybe I
2 would be called so, therefore, I was extremely
3 careful not to watch things.

4 Q. Okay. And so you think that was at least -- so
5 you stopped listening to the news coverage last
6 summer?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. I watched the national news.

10 Q. Sure.

11 A. You know, with Tom Brokaw, when he was on, and 12 his replacement Brian Williams. Those I do
13 watch.

14 Q. Okay. In terms of local media coverage, you
15 haven't followed any of the recent events
16 regarding the case?

17 A. Nothing recent, no.

18 Q. Okay. Based on up to that point of time where 19 you had -- I assume you at least followed the 20 case somewhat?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. All right. And in your questionnaire you
23 indicated you haven't really formed any opinions
24 about this case?

25 A. No. No, I haven't.

1 Q. And would that be because you just don't have any
2 information upon which to form an opinion or just
3 hasn't been all that interesting?

4 A. I think that there's always two sides to every
5 story.

6 Q. Okay. All right. Well, one of the questions
7 that the -- that's set forth in the questionnaire
8 is, would you be able to decide this case solely 9 on the information which is presented during the 10 trial and not on any of the information that you
11 may have gotten from the media or any other
12 opinions that you may have had?

13 A. That's right. Just from the information we get
14 here.

15 Q. Right. And you are pretty comfortable you can --
16 and confident you can follow that directive?

17 A. Oh, yes.

18 Q. All right. You have never served as a juror
19 before?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Ever been called to jury duty?

22 A. No.

23 Q. So just a little bit of a surprise?

24 A. Yes. Yes.

25 Q. All right. Just your luck, right?

1 A. Well, it's a good learning experience.

2 Q. All right. Do you think that based on any of 3 your background, any -- anything that you have,
4 any philosophy, or conscience, or any religious
5 beliefs that makes you doubt whether you could 6 sit and determine the guilt or innocence of 7 someone, based on the evidence which is presented
8 in court?

9 A. I'm sorry, I didn't understand that.

10 Q. Yeah, is there anything -- Do you have any 11 personal philosophy, personal beliefs, or 12 conscience, or any other reason you think you
13 would not be able to sit and be a juror to 14 determine guilt or innocence?

15 A. No, I don't.

16 Q. Okay.

17 ATTORNEY FALLON: I don't have any more for 18 this witness.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

21 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

22 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

23 Q. Good evening.

24 A. Good evening.

25 Q. May I call you Mrs. Flint, is that what ...

1 A. Sure.

2 Q. Okay. My name is Jerome Buting. And myself,
3 along with Dean Strang, are defending Steven
4 Avery. I assume you understand that.

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And I have some, a few follow-up questions from 7 your questionnaire and then some of my own that
8 maybe you haven't thought much about yet.
9 Because you -- you said you used to watch quite a
10 bit of news until like the past summer?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. So I assume you saw the news when Mr. Avery was 13 first arrested?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Did you see the news conferences that Mr. Kratz
16 was involved in?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. That would have been in November, when he was 19 first announcing an arrest?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And did you also learn later that -- First
22 of all, do you know the name Brendan Dassey?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Mr. Avery's nephew?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. And you, did you also see the news
2 conferences for that?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And did you assume that, therefore, the case was 5 solved and we now know what happened?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Why not?

8 A. As I said, there's always two sides to a story.
9 And I'm not always sure that when the news media
10 is saying things, that they are saying them
11 right.

12 Q. Sure. But now, in this instance, you actually 13 saw a news conference, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Which went on for a half hour or something like
16 that, right?

17 A. Mm-hmm.

18 Q. So, you actually heard Mr. Kratz, sitting over 19 here, describing what -- what he now believed --

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. -- the evidence would show?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. After hearing a prosecutor, a special prosecutor
24 make those kinds of statements, wouldn't you then
25 be inclined to say, okay, I guess I believe this

1 is -- this is really what happened?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Why not?

4 A. Well, I know he saw it that way, but that doesn't
5 mean that I have to see it that way.

6 Q. Okay. Very good. So you recognize that lawyers
7 are advocates for their position?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And that maybe they might be presenting something
10 in one way that supports their position, but 11 maybe you might see it different?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. But now when you -- when you heard the 14 story of -- that Brendan Dassey allegedly gave,
15 or said, or was -- supposedly said, what -- what
16 did that make you feel about this case?

17 A. Sad, shocked.

18 Q. Mm-hmm. The details were pretty graphic?

19 A. Very.

20 Q. Kind of make your hair curl?

21 A. Very. As a mother, when you have children.

22 Q. Yes.

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. I can imagine. What I'm wondering, though, is 25 after hearing that and having that reaction,

1 which is perfectly natural and okay, I'm not
2 criticizing that, and then you see my client,
3 Mr. Avery, right here; how can you look at him
4 and say I -- at this time I presume him innocent?
5 A. He hasn't been proved guilty, though, at this
6 point. He has to be proven guilty and I don't
7 have those details.
8 Q. Well, is that just a matter of a mere formality,
9 you know, we have just got to go through the 10 trial and then -- and then it will be all over,
11 or do you think there's more to it?
12 A. There could be more to it.
13 Q. Did you -- So looking at him, you are telling me
14 that despite what you heard on that day at that 15 press conference, you don't think that you have
16 been so affected by it that you can't be a fair
17 jury -- juror in this trial?
18 A. No, I don't.
19 Q. And why?
20 A. I think I have to have more proof.
21 Q. Okay. Now, did you also learn in the news media
22 that this young man, Brendan Dassey, 16 year old,
23 has since recanted that confession?
24 A. No, I didn't hear that.
25 Q. You didn't.

1 A. No.

2 Q. Did you hear that there was -- that there were 3 different stories that he was giving, changing
4 things?

5 A. No, I didn't hear that either.

6 Q. Didn't hear any of that?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Okay. Can you think of any reason why someone
9 would confess to something that they didn't do?

10 A. That's a tough one. No, I really can't.

11 Q. Do you think -- Have you ever heard of people
12 that have falsely confessed to something and then
13 obviously been proven that they didn't do it?

14 A. Not offhand, no.

15 Q. Okay. If you heard from -- If you heard any 16 evidence or testimony about why that might
17 happen, why people might be inclined or coerced
18 even to say things that aren't true, is that 19 something you could consider?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Do you think it's possible that that could 22 happen?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And if you heard testimony about certain 25 techniques that police investigators and

1 detectives use when they question people, that
2 might -- might risk the possibility that people
3 would do something like say something that isn't
4 true that they didn't do; is that something you
5 would consider?

6 A. Yes, it's possible.

7 Q. Now, when you said that you want to hear more
8 proof in this case before you make up your
9 mind -- By the way, let me go back for a second
10 about what you might have heard. Have you heard
11 anything, any kind of news reports in the paper
12 or anything about a blood vial?

13 A. Yes, I did.

14 Q. You did hear that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. What did you hear about that?

17 A. I just heard it was found in the Clerk of Court's
18 Office.

19 Q. Okay. And did you hear anything else that you
20 recall about it, or why that matters or doesn't 21 matter, or ...

22 A. I really don't know.

23 Q. Okay. All right. That's fine. Now, do you know
24 where you would have heard that from, if you
25 haven't been watching the news?

1 A. I probably heard it on the radio.

2 Q. Okay. So you have heard some things about the
3 case since June, but it's been more on the radio,
4 not the TV?

5 A. And I haven't been sitting down and studying it.

6 Q. Right. Right. And I know in your questionnaire
7 you said that you are in a widow's group?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. What is that exactly?

10 A. Actually, it came out of a bereavement class.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. And we enjoyed each other's company so much that
13 we started going out to dinner once a month, to a
14 different restaurant every Friday night.

15 Q. Okay. And you mentioned that you think you might 16 have talked about this case?

17 A. With some of the gals, yeah.

18 Q. With some of the gals?

19 A. Mm-hmm.

20 Q. Do you know what was said or what kind of 21 opinions were expressed?

22 A. No, not opinions. I think they were just 23 expressing what they had or what we all had heard
24 either on the radio or on TV.

25 Q. Did anything about their discussions influence

1 your opinion about --

2 A. Not at all.

3 Q. -- the case or what you thought?

4 A. Not at all.

5 Q. Okay. Now, I assume -- It doesn't seem like you
6 have had much contact with the police over your
7 life?

8 A. No, never.

9 Q. Do you watch police shows, cop shows, crime
10 shows?

11 A. Not really, that's not my favorite.

12 Q. Okay. But you have seen them over the years?

13 A. Not to watch them for a whole hour, though.

14 Q. Okay. Do you think that police officers, simply 15 because they are police officers and they have a
16 badge and they swear an oath to protect and obey
17 the law and enforce the law, do you think that 18 when they come into court and testify on the 19 witness stand, if they do, and take the oath,
20 that -- that they necessarily are more believable
21 than the ordinary witness who comes in and takes 22 that oath?

23 A. Well, I think for somebody my age, we were taught
24 to respect the police and definitely believe what 25 they said.

1 Q. Sure. And so do you think that because of that
2 teaching and that belief, that it would be hard
3 for you to judge them differently, I mean, to 4 question whether or not what they are telling is 5 really the truth?

6 A. No, I don't think so.

7 Q. You don't. Okay. Why not? If you have been 8 taught to believe the police; why not?

9 A. I just believe that they would get up there and 10 tell the truth; if they are sworn to tell the 11 truth, they would tell the truth.

12 Q. Okay. So -- So what I'm asking you then is,
13 because of that, you don't think -- I mean it
14 would be difficult for you to question whether 15 they were telling the truth or not, you would 16 just assume that they are; is that right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. All right. Well, what if the Judge -- if the 19 Judge instructed you, though, that you really
20 can't do that, that police officers are just like 21 any other witness and they are human beings and 22 they have the same failings, the same motives or 23 biases as anybody else and that you have to judge
24 their credibility the same way that you would any 25 other witness?

1 A. I think I would be able to do that.

2 Q. Okay. Why, if you believe what you said a few
3 minutes ago, why would you be able to do that?

4 A. You got me there. I'm not sure how to answer
5 that. I'm assuming somebody is on the witness
6 stand and they are -- they were at the scene and 7 investigating early and wouldn't they -- to my 8 mind, they would not put anything false in their
9 report. I would think they would be honest
10 enough to write down exactly what they saw and 11 found.

12 Q. Okay. We would hope so. But my question is,
13 if -- if you hear evidence and questions that are 14 put to the police officers that maybe challenges
15 that belief and maybe makes you question, look a
16 little deeper and think, maybe they weren't being 17 quite as honest as you thought.

18 A. That is possible.

19 Q. And if the Judge instructed you that you -- you
20 have to look beyond just their badge and their 21 role and look at them as human beings who are the 22 same as any other witness who might have reasons
23 to lie --

24 A. Okay. Yeah. All right.

25 Q. -- do you think you could do that?

1 A. I think so.

2 Q. It seems like it would be tough?

3 A. I think every instance is a little different too,
4 it depends on what they would be talking about.

5 Q. Sure, I understand that. And I don't mean to 6 just put you on the spot with some hypotheticals,
7 but do you think sometimes that police officers
8 might get, you know, personally invested in their 9 job or in their investigation such that they --
10 well, let's say, perhaps, even to think that the 11 person is guilty and they want to make sure that 12 the person is convicted because they think he's 13 guilty?

14 A. Well, I would hope not.

15 Q. You don't think so?

16 A. I would hope not.

17 Q. Okay. Well, we would all hope not, but if you're 18 sitting on this jury you are going to have to 19 make some decisions about which witnesses to 20 believe and whether they are really telling the 21 truth, the whole truth.

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And some of those witnesses may very well be 24 police officers?

25 A. Okay.

1 Q. And so, you know, as Mr. Avery's lawyer, I need
2 to know whether you can promise the Court that
3 you will be able to do that in this case or 4 whether this -- this case is maybe just too hard
5 for you to do that in, to really be able to look
6 at the police officers the same as anybody else,
7 use the -- follow the Court's instruction and 8 apply that instruction to them and not just 9 assume, because when you hope that they wouldn't 10 be dishonest that, therefore, they couldn't be.
11 Do you think you could do that?

12 A. Well, if -- How do I want to say this. If an 13 officer was out there and he wasn't telling the 14 truth, I'm assuming somebody was going to say
15 something else, perhaps one of you two gentleman,
16 that would make it look like he wasn't telling 17 the truth. So I think you would have to be in 18 that instance to be able to question --

19 Q. Sure.

20 A. -- was that testimony true or was it false.

21 Q. And if -- And if you are in that situation and if 22 those questions were put --

23 A. I would think about that.

24 Q. You would think about that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. You would seriously give consideration to the 2 possibility that, despite what you hope, maybe
3 that officer has not been telling the truth?

4 A. Sure. Yes.

5 Q. And would that go so far as to even believe the 6 possibility that the police were doing more than 7 just coming in and not telling the truth, but
8 maybe even crossing the line and changing words
9 in reports of what witnesses said, or even 10 planting evidence against somebody because they 11 wanted to make sure that that person was 12 convicted?

13 A. That is also possible.

14 Q. Okay. Well, I understand you haven't heard any 15 evidence right now, so I'm not trying to put you
16 on the spot that way.

17 A. No.

18 Q. All I want to know, is if you are open to 19 consider all of the evidence, including evidence
20 that might look that way --

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. -- despite your upbringing and your hopes and 23 everyone's hopes?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. That's fair. Thank you. Do you think

1 that if you did hear all the evidence in this
2 case and you really had a reasonable doubt that
3 the State had proven one or more of these
4 charges, beyond a reasonable doubt, in other
5 words, you really had reasonable doubt about 6 whether Mr. Avery was guilty, you would be able
7 to come back to your community and your widow's
8 group and say, I voted not guilty?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And they would be okay with that?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. You would be okay with it?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. So there wouldn't be any -- any fear of 15 retribution that you might get?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Okay. I didn't think --

18 A. I'm counting on the other people too, this isn't
19 just my decision. It would be their decision --
20 the other jurors' decision as well as mine.

21 Q. Sure. There's 12 people, right.

22 A. Yup.

23 Q. And we talked a little bit about presumption of 24 innocence. You recognize, also, that the State
25 is the one that has the entire burden of proof?

1 A. Yes. Mm-hmm.

2 Q. And that they have to convince you, beyond a
3 reasonable doubt?

4 A. Yes. That's what the Judge told us last week,
5 Monday.

6 Q. Okay. I wonder, though, in this particular case,
7 you know, people -- might be perfectly
8 understandable for you to think, well, you know,
9 if Mr. Avery is not guilty of this, if he didn't
10 kill that poor young woman, then who did? Right?
11 I mean --

12 A. Yes, I have thought of that.

13 Q. Okay. Would you expect -- In order to be able to 14 come back with a verdict of not guilty in this 15 case, would you expect that Mr. Avery would have 16 to convince you who really did kill her?

17 A. From the little information that I have right
18 now, I don't think I can answer that.

19 Q. Well --

20 A. I don't know enough about Mr. Dassey.

21 Q. I'm not asking you to answer who else would have?

22 A. Okay.

23 Q. I'm not asking that. Maybe that's what you
24 think?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. What I'm asking is, would you expect that
2 Mr. Avery would have to convince you not only
3 that he didn't do it but here's the name of 4 person who did?
5 A. He might not know.
6 Q. That's right, he might not know.
7 A. No.
8 Q. And so, therefore, how could he, right?
9 A. Right.
10 Q. So it's -- If I understand you, then, if he's 11 unable to present evidence in court that 12 convinces you that somebody else is guilty of 13 this crime, you are not going to say, well,
14 therefore, he has to be guilty --
15 A. No.
16 Q. -- and it must be him? You will look at the 17 State's case and their burden, right, because Mr.
18 Avery doesn't have to prove himself innocent; is
19 that right?
20 A. He is innocent until he is proven guilty.
21 Q. Okay. And if he -- if he is not -- He also 22 isn't -- doesn't have to prove his own innocence
23 either, right?
24 A. Oh, yes, he does.
25 Q. He does?

1 A. I think so.

2 Q. Why?

3 A. Well, if he knows something that he is not
4 saying, that would make somebody else guilty, he 5 has to share that too.

6 Q. Well, what if he doesn't know, how could he?

7 A. Well, then he couldn't.

8 Q. You see what I'm saying, though?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. You know, I have to know whether or not you are 11 going to say, look, I think it's terrible that 12 this poor young woman was killed and somebody has 13 to pay for that. And since I don't know who 14 else, I'm going to have to say that Mr. Avery is 15 the one who's guilty.

16 A. No.

17 Q. You won't do that, will you?

18 A. No.

19 Q. And along those lines, you just said something
20 about, well, if he knows something, he should 21 tell us. There's -- There's always the question
22 in any criminal case, for a defense attorney,
23 which is whether or not the defendant should 24 testify, or not testify.

25 A. I understand that, yes.

1 Q. And would you think that in order for you to find
2 him, Mr. Avery, not guilty, that you would want
3 to hear from him first?

4 A. Not necessarily.

5 Q. Why not?

6 A. Well, I think if he wanted to say something, I
7 think he would tell you.

8 Q. Okay. And you understand that we, Mr. Strang and 9 I, have, you know, input here and would advise
10 him whether or not to testify, right?

11 A. Right, yes.

12 Q. Well, the Judge will give you an instruction that 13 a criminal defendant, it's one of the rights we 14 have in our constitution, not only do they not
15 have to prove their innocence, but they also do
16 not -- they have a right not to testify, if 17 that's what they choose to do?

18 A. Okay.

19 Q. And that you can't -- If Mr. Avery does choose 20 not to testify, you can't consider that in any 21 way against him?

22 A. No.

23 Q. You can't hold that against him?

24 A. I understand that.

25 Q. On the other hand, if Mr. Avery does choose to

1 testify, do you think you would be able to listen
2 to his testimony just like any other witness?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And consider it?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. You wouldn't think just because he's a defendant,
7 you know, I just can't believe anything he says?

8 A. No.

9 Q. You're sure of that?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay. All right. Just one last question, do you
12 think you want to be on this jury?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. Why?

15 A. I think it's a good learning experience. If he
16 would be guilty, for the family of Teresa
17 Halbach, he should be found guilty beyond that 18 reasonable doubt. And if he is not guilty, he 19 won't be found guilty.

20 Q. And you want to be one of the 12 people who make 21 that kind of decision?

22 A. That's a tough call. I realize that's a big 23 responsibility. And I told the people out in the 24 outer room, that when I came in here last Monday
25 I told God, I can't do this on my own. But I

1 know that he will know and he will help me do
2 this.

3 Q. So you -- you realize what a serious, serious
4 responsibility --

5 A. Absolutely.

6 Q. -- this is?

7 A. Very much so.

8 Q. But you think you could be fair and undertake
9 that responsibility?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Okay.

12 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, very much,
13 ma'am. I appreciate it.

14 MRS. FLINT: You're welcome.

15 THE COURT: I just wanted to ask a couple
16 follow-up questions.

17 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

18 BY THE COURT:

19 Q. I think that it was clarified at the end, but the 20 question of police officers as witnesses --

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. -- I think you indicated at the beginning that 23 you would expect them to tell the truth because 24 that's part of their duty as a police officer?

25 A. Right.

1 Q. And that is true. But as Mr. Buting indicated
2 and there was a question on the questionnaire
3 about this, actually. And the question read as 4 follows: Some of the witnesses in this case will
5 be members of law enforcement. The law requires
6 jurors to evaluate their credibility just as that 7 of any other witness; that is, the jurors are 8 prohibited from giving any more or less
9 credibility to the testimony of a law officer
10 simply because the witness is a law officer.

11 A. Okay.

12 Q. Do you believe that you can follow such an 13 instruction?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. There will be another instruction at the trial
16 given to the jurors that sets out the factors
17 that the jurors are to consider in evaluating the 18 credibility; that is, the believability of each
19 witness. And they are the same whether the 20 witness is a police officer or not.

21 They include whether the witness has an 22 interest or lack of interest in the result of the 23 trial; the conduct, appearance and demeanor of 24 the witness on the witness stand; the clearness
25 or lack of clearness of the witness'

1 recollections; the reasonableness of the witness'
2 testimony; and bias or prejudice, if any has been 3 shown.

4 Those are among the things you are to
5 consider. And if you are a juror you will have
6 to assess the credibility of all witnesses,
7 including police officers, on that basis. That
8 means you have to look at each of them and make a
9 determination whether they are telling the truth
10 or not. Do you think you can do that if you're a
11 juror?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And can you apply the same standards to police
14 officer witnesses as you do to other witnesses?

15 A. Yes.

16 THE COURT: Okay. All right. The Clerk
17 will take you and escort you from the courtroom at 18 this time.

19 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

20 THE COURT: Counsel, any motion from either
21 party?

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: None from the State.

23 ATTORNEY BUTING: No, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Very well, Ms Flint will be in 25 the jury pool.

1 ATTORNEY FALLON: Judge, counsel pointed
2 out, I thought you had made a ruling on Nos. 37 and
3 39, that we had asked to be excused for cause; did
4 you make that ruling or ...

5 THE COURT: I think I indicated earlier,
6 actually I'm not sure those are the only two for 7 which I have not made a ruling yet. I was going to 8 have the Clerk inventory the jurors before we start
9 tomorrow morning and go over all of those.

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: Oh. All right. Very
11 good.

12 THE COURT: So we have got one juror left
13 today and I believe it is Mr. Petermann. All right.
14 Mr. Petermann, if you will please raise your right
15 hand, the Clerk will administer the oath.

16 (Juror sworn.)

17 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Petermann, first let me
19 apologize. By luck of the draw, you have the honor
20 of being the last juror we're going to be 21 questioning today. You may recall you already
22 filled out a written questionnaire in this case.

23 MR. PETERMANN: Correct.

24 THE COURT: Today we're proceeding to the 25 next step of the jury selection process which is

1 voir dire. It gives the attorneys an opportunity to
2 ask you some follow-up questions to information that
3 you provided on your questionnaire.

4 Before we begin with the attorney's
5 questioning, I wanted to notify you of a few
6 things. First of all, the jury in this case will 7 not be sequestered. That means that if you are 8 selected to the juror -- jury, you will be able 9 to -- you will be permitted to return home each
10 day at the end of the proceedings for that day.

11 The jurors will continue to be governed
12 by the Court's order on not paying any attention
13 to any news media accounts of this case whether 14 on radio, television, the newspaper, or talking
15 with anyone else.

16 These voir dire proceedings today are
17 held in open court, but the Court does not allow 18 cameras in the court during voir dire
19 proceedings. And you should also know that 20 members of the news media, while they are 21 permitted to be here, cannot use your name in any 22 news reports as a juror.

23 And in addition, if you are selected to 24 serve on the jury, the camera will not be able to 25 identify you in anyway during the trial itself.

1 In the event you remain on the jury
2 panel after we conclude today, you will be given
3 a telephone call in the next few days letting you
4 know when to report back to court.

5 Mr. Fallon, you may begin.

6 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

7 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

8 Q. Good evening, Mr. Petermann, my name is Tom 9 Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney General for 10 the Wisconsin Department of Justice. I'm one of 11 the prosecutors in this case. I wanted to ask
12 you a few questions about the information you
13 provided last week and perhaps a few other odds
14 and ends questions as well. Thank you for being 15 so patient with us as we attempt to go through 16 this process.

17 I guess I would like to begin with a
18 little bit about your work at the Brillion Iron
19 Works. How long have you worked for them?

20 A. Thirty-five years.

21 Q. Thirty-five years. And what type of work do you
22 do for them?

23 A. General laborer, pour iron, shake out, run a
24 machine, kind of everything really.

25 Q. Okay. What kind of machine is it, a press or ...

1 A. It's a molding machine.

2 Q. Molding.

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. All right. All right. Enjoy your work?

5 A. It pays pretty good. Yeah, it's a good job.

6 Q. That raises an interesting question. If you are

7 selected as a juror in this case, I think you

8 have been advised that the case may go on for

9 approximately six weeks or so and then followed

10 by some deliberation time. We don't know how

11 long that would be. Would the selection of 12 yourself as a juror, would that create any

13 economic hardship on you at all in terms of your

14 work or anything?

15 A. No, I'm not really.

16 Q. Okay. So you will -- you would be paid or you

17 will be --

18 A. Yeah, we get jury pay.

19 Q. Okay. Very good. I see from your questionnaire

20 you have hunting and racing as your -- some of 21 your hobbies or pastime activities; what kind of 22 hunting do you like to do?

23 A. Mostly deer.

24 Q. Deer. All right. And what kind of racing?

25 A. Stock car.

1 Q. Stock car?

2 A. Yeah.

3 Q. Now, do you actually race a bit yourself or are 4 you just a fan of the racers?

5 A. No, I race myself.

6 Q. Do you? Very good. What kind of car do you
7 race?

8 A. '99 Monte Carlo.

9 Q. All right. Let's see. How long have you been 10 involved in the racing business?

11 A. Since 1981 -- 1980, actually. I didn't race in 12 '80, but I helped another guy out.

13 Q. And how often do you race each year?

14 A. Um, this year, I think we're scheduled for 16
15 events.

16 Q. Sixteen events. Now, is this a bit of a costly
17 expenditure for you or just a --

18 A. It can be.

19 Q. -- casual hobby?

20 A. It can be. You can spend whatever you want,
21 really, but for me, I don't really do that.

22 Q. You don't spend a great deal of money?

23 A. No. And nobody gives me a lot either so.

24 Q. All right. When does the season start up for
25 you?

1 A. The second last Thursday in May, I think, is when
2 we're starting this year.

3 Q. All right. So have -- are you in the preparation
4 time frame now for racing?

5 A. Yeah. Oh, yeah. Yeah.

6 Q. Do you do all your own work on your car?

7 A. Most of it, yeah.

8 Q. All right. Any modifications or is this just 9 your basic stock 99?

10 A. No, it's pretty much a race car.

11 Q. It is.

12 A. Yeah. Oh, yeah.

13 Q. Are you pretty much a solo operator or do you
14 have like a team or a couple guys that help you
15 out?

16 A. My sister helps me out and there's another guy
17 helps me out. But really, the work on the car, I
18 mostly do it myself.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. It's mostly on race days when they come help me.

21 Q. Okay. And what kind of work does your sister
22 help you with?

23 A. Changing tires.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. So she's pretty handy?

2 A. Yeah, just more somebody around, you know.

3 Q. All right. Okay. Okay. I see you belong to a
4 couple -- a hunting club and this Fox River
5 Racing; is that the club that you belong to --

6 A. Right.

7 Q. -- for stock car racing?

8 A. Mm-hmm.

9 Q. And Holy Family Church. Do you have any -- How 10 long have you been involved with the hunting
11 club?

12 A. Oh, 25 years probably.

13 Q. Longer than your racing or about the same?

14 A. No, I think it was longer with that.

15 Q. Okay. And I take it you are somewhat active in 16 your church?

17 A. I usher a little bit and my son helps me with
18 that.

19 Q. Very good. Now, I note from your questionnaire
20 you circled one name, a person that you might 21 know, a William Brandes, but you had a question
22 mark. The William Brandes that you know, what 23 does he do for a living?

24 A. He works at Manitowoc here, the foundry, the 25 Aluminum Foundry.

1 Q. The foundry?

2 A. Yeah. And he is from Brillion.

3 Q. He is from Brillion.

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. Do you know if he's a volunteer firefighter?

6 A. Not really.

7 Q. Okay. It's hard to say whether -- Let me ask

8 this, it's a better way of asking. Have you

9 followed this particular case much in the media?

10 A. I usually watch the news, you know, 6:00 news or

11 5:00 news --

12 Q. All right.

13 A. -- in the evening, but ...

14 Q. All right. Have you watched the news recently?

15 A. No, not too much.

16 Q. All right. Did you get a notice from the Court

17 about watching any news coverage of this case?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. All right. And have you been able to follow that 20 directive?

21 A. It's hard but, yeah, kind of walk away on it,

22 yeah.

23 Q. Okay. Where do you get most of your news from,

24 the television or newspaper?

25 A. More television.

1 Q. All right. Would you consider yourself a regular
2 watcher of the TV news?

3 A. Yeah, I would.

4 Q. Any particular channels you watch or you watch
5 them all about the same?

6 A. When I'm out in the shop I maybe have 11 on, but 7 in the house, I probably have Channel 2 on but.

8 Q. All right. So you occasionally have the 9 opportunity of seeing television at the shop?

10 A. Yeah.

11 Q. All right. Is that frequently that that happens
12 or is that just on occasion?

13 A. That's more on occasion out there.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. Usually if I'm working out there, I can't even 16 pay attention to it.

17 Q. Sure. Are you -- You don't regularly read the 18 newspaper I take it?

19 A. No, I used to get it, but I don't no more.

20 Q. Okay. What, if anything, do you remember hearing
21 about this case from the television or radio
22 broadcast?

23 A. The search, when they were searching.

24 Q. Searching when she was a missing person?

25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. All right. Anything else?

2 A. Um ...

3 Q. Anything about his arrest or being charged?

4 A. Well, yeah. Um, yeah, it's mostly that. You
5 know, it's general -- generally what was on TV,
6 really.

7 Q. All right. Do you recall hearing about a fellow
8 by the name of Brendan Dassey at all?

9 A. Yeah.

10 Q. All right. Did you watch any of the coverage
11 regarding his arrest?

12 A. Just that he was arrested, you know, and that was 13 about it, really.

14 Q. Do you remember any of the details that were 15 surrounding his arrest? Did you watch any press
16 conferences or any particular media coverage on 17 the details of his arrest, of what he might have 18 said or didn't say?

19 A. Just that there was a rape involved and stuff.
20 They disposed of the body, I guess.

21 Q. All right. Was there any connection in your mind
22 between Mr. Dassey's arrest and that of
23 Mr. Avery?

24 A. I suppose it could be, yeah.

25 Q. Could be, but you don't have any clear connection

1 in your head?

2 A. Well, it seems that way, but it's, you know, is
3 that the way it is, I don't know.

4 Q. All right. In any event, based on the 5 information that you have, have you formed any 6 opinions at all regarding this particular case?

7 A. Not really, no.

8 Q. All right. You answered no on the questionnaire.
9 I wanted to make sure that that's still your view
10 at this time. Is there any recent media coverage
11 that may have changed your opinion, that you are 12 aware of?

13 A. No.

14 Q. All right. As you sit here today, do you have 15 any opinion at all as to whether Mr. Avery is 16 guilty or not guilty of the offenses charged?

17 A. No.

18 Q. You don't have any opinion at all?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Is there any question in your mind that you could 21 set aside this outside information that you have 22 received from the television and radio broadcast
23 and decide Mr. Avery's guilt or innocence solely 24 on the evidence which is presented during the 25 trial, if you are selected as a juror?

1 A. I believe I could.

2 Q. All right. Are you a lifelong resident of
3 Manitowoc County?

4 A. No, I lived in Calumet County for about five or 5 six years.

6 Q. Calumet County for a few years.

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. And I see you were born in Brown County?

9 A. Yeah, that was just the birth place.

10 Q. Just the birth place?

11 A. Yeah.

12 Q. Hospital?

13 A. Yeah.

14 Q. When did you live in Calumet County, sir?

15 A. Probably about like '87 to '92, somewhere around
16 there.

17 Q. All right. And then you moved to your current 18 address in Brillion?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. All right. And was that for work purposes or 21 just a better house deal?

22 A. Well, we bought a house.

23 Q. Okay. Good. During your time in Calumet County,
24 did you ever have occasion to meet with, or talk
25 to, or interact with any Calumet County Sheriff's

1 officers or police officers?

2 A. I knew Larry Pagel.

3 Q. You knew Sheriff Pagel?

4 A. Larry Pagel, not Sheriff Pagel.

5 Q. Oh, Larry Pagel.

6 A. Yeah, he was an investigator I think.

7 Q. He was an investigator.

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. All right. Anyone else that you had any contact
10 with?

11 A. There was Yoder, I can't remember his first name
12 but ...

13 Q. All right. Okay. Were they just friends, 14 acquaintances or ...

15 A. Um, I don't remember how I got to know Yoder, but 16 Pagel, he had a cottage down by my dad's land, he 17 rented.

18 Q. Oh, I see.

19 A. And that's kind of how I knew him. He was in 20 sportsmen's club too.

21 Q. Okay. All right. Would you say you were good
22 friends or just casual acquaintances?

23 A. Casual acquaintance.

24 Q. All right. Wouldn't see him that often?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Okay. Now how about here, since you moved to
2 Manitowoc County, have you had occasion to have
3 any law enforcement contacts or become friendly
4 with any of the officers or anything like that?

5 A. No, not really.

6 Q. Any of the firefighters in your area?

7 A. I know some of the firefighters from Brillion.

8 Q. Who do you know?

9 A. Police chief. There's Dale Gailoff (phonetic).

10 Q. Mm-hmm.

11 A. There's really a bunch of them. There's a couple
12 Behnkes.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. Some of -- most of them I work with, you know.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. That I know so.

17 Q. Now, because you work with some of those who have 18 connection to law enforcement, do you think if 19 you were selected as a juror that you could
20 evaluate the testimony of a law enforcement
21 officer the same as you would evaluate the 22 testimony of any other witness who appeared in 23 the case?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. So just because they are a law

1 enforcement officer and because you happen to
2 know a few law enforcement officers, you wouldn't
3 weigh their testimony more credibly than you
4 would someone else's?

5 A. No.

6 Q. All right. You feel pretty comfortable and 7 confident that you could do that?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. Now, there was one last couple questions I had 10 for you here. Apparently you had a sister who 11 was killed in an automobile accident?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. All right. Was that a long time ago or recently?

14 A. No, 1967.

15 Q. Oh, quite a while ago.

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. All right. Was it simply just an accident or was 18 there some, you know, perhaps some criminal
19 malfeasance there?

20 A. I remember my folks going to court in with it,
21 but I don't remember what the outcome, I didn't
22 really get nothing out of it I don't think.

23 Q. Okay. You don't remember whether there was just 24 a civil suit or a criminal case about how she --

25 A. I thought -- I think it was civil.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. Okay.

3 Q. All right. Okay. Do you -- Did you have any 4 personal experience in that in terms of --

5 A. No.

6 Q. -- being a witness or talking to any --

7 A. No.

8 Q. -- body?

9 A. I went to school. We never went to court
10 proceedings, nothing.

11 Q. Okay. All right. So you were just a teenager at 12 the time then?

13 A. 15.

14 Q. Right.

15 A. Yeah.

16 Q. Okay. Anything about that experience that makes 17 you wonder whether it would be a good idea or a
18 bad idea for you to be a juror in this case?

19 A. From that, no.

20 Q. Okay.

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: All right. That's all I
22 have.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

24 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

25 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

1 Q. Hi, Dean Strang, Jerome Buting, Steven Avery.
2 You probably saw us last week, briefly. Where --
3 Where did you live in Calumet County when you
4 were there from '87 to '92.
5 A. Just a little bit north of Brillion.
6 Q. A little north of Brillion?
7 A. Yeah, it was on W580 Harvestor Road was the 8 actual address.
9 Q. And the mailing address?
10 A. W580 Harvestor Road.
11 Q. No, no. I mean -- I'm sorry, the post office,
12 the town?
13 A. Oh, Brillion.
14 Q. Brillion?
15 A. Yeah.
16 Q. Yeah. And, actually, part of Brillion lies in 17 Manitowoc County and part in Calumet, I think,
18 right?
19 A. The city?
20 Q. Or is that not so?
21 A. Not the city.
22 Q. The city is all in Manitowoc?
23 A. No, in Calumet.
24 Q. Oh. Okay.
25 A. Okay. But if you seen, my address is Brillion

1 too.

2 Q. Mm-hmm.

3 A. But that's in Manitowoc.

4 Q. You are on the Manitowoc side?

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. Okay. So you really didn't move very far?

7 A. Mm, I think it's about 6 miles.

8 Q. Yeah. And you told -- One of the things you told
9 us in the questionnaire is that you're acquainted
10 with Teresa Halbach's brother?

11 A. Just slightly.

12 Q. Which one?

13 A. I'm not even sure of his first name. My mother
14 had died like a year and a half ago.

15 Q. Mm-hmm.

16 A. And now my dad is transferring some land and we 17 went to this attorney to try to take care of 18 this.

19 Q. Mm-hmm.

20 A. And my dad signed the land over to me and my 21 siblings and we put it into a LLC.

22 Q. Mm-hmm.

23 A. And Mr. Halbach, I think he dotted the i's and 24 the t's for that paper.

25 Q. Sure.

1 A. And he also did a lease agreement because some of
2 the land is rental and he drew those papers up on
3 that.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. But when I was there, I didn't -- I didn't know
6 it was him. I knew it like a day later, my
7 sister told me. I think they only used like
8 first name, but like I say, I don't remember.

9 Q. Sure. Tim?

10 A. That could be it.

11 Q. Tim Halbach. Okay. And about how long ago was 12 this?

13 A. I think it was the 25th; it was a Thursday, in 14 January.

15 Q. Oh. Like --

16 A. Just briefly.

17 Q. -- a month ago?

18 A. Yeah.

19 Q. So it -- Was it your siblings who set up this 20 LLC?

21 A. Yeah, me and my siblings. Yeah.

22 Q. And, then, the LLC is the technical owner of the 23 land that your dad sold?

24 A. Right. Right.

25 Q. Okay.

1 A. Yeah, he gave it to us. He transferred it,
2 really.

3 Q. Yeah. And, then, is it a -- is it a working farm
4 or it has a business purpose, commercial purpose?

5 A. It's farm and it's, like, lake property rental.

6 Q. Mm-hmm.

7 A. Okay. And there's cottages there that rent. And 8 the lawyer wanted us to actually have a signed
9 lease, because my dad never did before.

10 Q. Laurie wanted? Oh, the lawyer.

11 A. Yeah.

12 Q. The lawyer did. Okay. And so this is -- How 13 many siblings do you have?

14 A. Besides me?

15 Q. Yeah.

16 A. Four.

17 Q. All five of you went in on this?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. Okay. And the five of you, or the LLC, are 20 paying the lawyer?

21 A. We didn't pay nobody yet. I think my dad is 22 going to take care of it.

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. But I didn't pay nothing yet.

25 Q. And do you know, did the lawyer set up the LLC?

1 A. I don't really know.

2 (Changing battery in the microphone.)

3 Q. That's what happens when the battery dies.

4 THE COURT: She just shuts that off. As
5 soon as they put a battery in, everything will be
6 fine.

7 Q. (By Attorney Strang)~ All right. So are you and 8 your siblings, or at least some of the five of 9 you, officers of this LLC?

10 A. My sister is.

11 Q. And directors, that kind of thing?

12 A. We just, actually just set it up.

13 Q. Right.

14 A. And my sister is the head of it. My sister is 15 the head of it. She's taking care of it.

16 Q. Okay. And then the LLC will rent out these 17 cabins or cottages?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. Like a summer vacation sort of --

20 A. That's what it is, yeah.

21 Q. And do you all plan to continue running the LLC
22 and getting some income out of it?

23 A. For the near future, yeah.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. And then the lawyer, this Mr. Halbach --

2 A. Well, I don't know if he's a lawyer. It was

3 Twohig somebody and Schneider.

4 Q. Right, Twohig, Rietbrock, da, da, da, in downtown

5 Chilton?

6 A. Yeah.

7 Q. But you met Mr. Halbach there?

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. Doing legal work for the LLC?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. And he's the one who set up the LLC?

12 A. I believe so, because he explained it to us.

13 Q. Right.

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. Okay. And then do you plan to have him involved

16 in the tax documents and the annual report that

17 the LLC will file?

18 A. I have no idea.

19 Q. Okay. All right. What you know is you are not

20 doing that, I assume, right?

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. Okay. You -- You mentioned that you had stopped

23 getting the newspaper and I wanted to pick up on 24 that. Why did you cancel your newspaper?

25 A. Um, racing takes a lot of time and I just found I

1 was -- wasn't keeping up, you know, reading so it
2 didn't feel like it paid to get it anymore.

3 Q. Okay. It wasn't that you got ticked off?

4 A. No. No.

5 Q. Okay. Let's go back to the, you know, the 6 details you know about this case or at least the 7 publicity you heard about the case and let's sort
8 of explore that a little bit more. What did you
9 think about, you know, when you heard that a
10 young woman went missing and turns up dead and 11 maybe her body has been burned? What did you
12 think about all that?

13 A. Yeah, it's, you know, it's tragic. You know, you
14 wonder who would do something like that, you
15 know, but ...

16 Q. Not exactly what you want happening in your 17 neighbor.

18 A. No, I have two daughters, too.

19 Q. Yeah. Did you -- Did you -- Did that occur to 20 you when you first heard about this, the ages
21 aren't all that different, actually?

22 A. No. Yeah, you worry about that, you know. I
23 think any father would.

24 Q. So do I. And that's why I'm wondering why you
25 don't have an opinion about it. Because I do

1 think any father would worry about that.

2 A. You mean, when I wrote the paper? When I wrote
3 on that paper, you mean?

4 Q. Yeah. Yeah. Or you said -- How can you not have 5 an opinion about this?

6 A. I -- Yeah, I guess you would really.

7 Q. I mean, I'm not trying to set you up.

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. I'm defending Steven Avery, but I really need to 10 know, you know, sort of what we're up against,
11 and get at that. I mean, it's -- you are human,
12 I want to know what the opinion is.

13 A. Yeah, I do, you know, worry about her. I'm 14 worried about my kids.

15 Q. Yeah, and this is the guy they charged?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. So, is he probably guilty, probably done
18 something really horrible?

19 A. The Court has to prove that, I guess.

20 Q. Actually, they have to prove it.

21 A. Well, yeah, I'm sorry. Yeah.

22 Q. Yeah, right. I mean, it comes out in court and 23 that's all good, you know, that's all good
24 American civics stuff. But I want to get at, you
25 know, where I'm starting with you.

1 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, could counsel
2 approach the bench?

3 THE COURT: Sure.

4 (Side bar taken.)

5 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Petermann, at 6 this time I'm going to allow you to leave the 7 courtroom with the Clerk.

8 MR. PETERMANN: Okay.

9 THE COURT: I will let you know,
10 Mr. Petermann, because of the -- and this has 11 nothing to do with anything wrong you did, but 12 because of your relationship to the --

13 MR PETERMANN: Okay.

14 THE COURT: -- the legal --

15 MR. PETERMANN: That's fine.

16 THE COURT: -- the legal relationship to 17 the brother of the victim and the fact that he is an 18 attorney for your organization, that makes you
19 disqualified as a juror.

20 MR. PETERMANN: That's fine.

21 THE COURT: So the Clerk will escort you
22 from the courtroom.

23 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

24 THE COURT: Counsel, for the record, it's 25 my understanding that both parties are jointly

1 requesting that this juror be excused for cause?

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: We certainly have no
3 objection to it.

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: I will make the motion.
5 I think we have to. I realize that there is a
6 question here as to whether or not there's been 7 developed a solid objective bias case under the 8 standards. But even in other cases, most notably 9 the Lindell case. There's an opportunity that -- In 10 fact, the language is as follows: We caution and 11 encourage a circuit court to strike prospective
12 jurors for cause when the circuit courts reasonably
13 suspect that juror bias exists.

14 They go on to say: To err on the side
15 of striking prospective jurors who appear to be 16 biased, even if perhaps the appellate court would 17 not reverse their determination of an
18 impartiality. And, again, I'm not 100 percent
19 convinced, based on his limited involvement in 20 the family's LLC; nonetheless, I think in 21 fairness, there is that appearance and that he 22 should be struck for cause.

23 ATTORNEY STRANG: I'm convinced. We will
24 join the motion.

25 THE COURT: All right. The Court will

1 grant the parties joint motion and strike that juror
2 for cause.

3 We're going to resume at 8:30 tomorrow.
4 Couple of things before we leave. I allowed
5 members of the news media to have laptops in 6 these proceedings, but that was done with the 7 understanding that they wouldn't be making
8 noises. I believe they are equipped with 9 features to keep them from beeping. So please
10 address that before anyone returns tomorrow. And 11 I believe that's all I have got today, so counsel
12 I will see you at 8:30 tomorrow.

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery, Case No. 05 CF
3 381. We're here this morning to begin the third day
4 of individual voir dire. Will the parties state
5 their appearances for the record, please.

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: Good morning, your Honor,
7 may it please the Court. The State appears by 8 Assistant Attorney General Tom Fallon and special
9 prosecutor, along with special prosecutor Ken Kratz.

10 ATTORNEY BUTING: Steven Avery is here in 11 person; Jerome Buting represents him, as does Dean
12 Strang.

13 THE COURT: All right. There's a few
14 matters we have to clear up from yesterday before we 15 call out the first juror. First, at this time I had 16 a chance to look at the jury questionnaires; there
17 were three jurors yesterday that the parties jointly 18 recommended be stricken for cause and I believe the 19 Clerk has the names and numbers.

20 THE CLERK: It was Juror No. 44, Kevin
21 Cayemberg; Juror No. 37, Mary Lukes; and Juror
22 No. 39, Betsy Roedig.

23 THE COURT: Does that square with the 24 party's recollection?

25 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes.

ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, that's correct,
Judge.

THE COURT: All right. I have reviewed the questionnaires in those cases and I agree with the party's recommendations; those three jurors will be stricken for cause. I also indicated to the parties before we began today that -- Well, first of all, at the outset, the Court had indicated it wished to place a 15 minute limit on each party for individual
voir dire of the jurors.

The parties were both heard on the record and felt that time would be too short. I indicated, I believe, that I would monitor the situation and somewhat loosely apply the limit.

Having heard the voir dire of the jurors
who have been questioned to date, the Court believes that if unnecessary visiting with the juror questions are eliminated and repetitive questions are eliminated, I'm not sure that I have heard any juror for which 20 minutes per side would not have been sufficient. So I'm going to impose a 20 minute limit on each side
for questioning any particular juror.

I do have a timer here that I will be using. The way it's set up, and I don't think I

1 can overrule it, but perhaps it's helpful. It
2 gives a short little beep at every five minute
3 interval. So the beep you hear today will not be 4 the laptops of the media, but will be coming from 5 the timer.

6 And when the last one goes off, if the
7 parties wish, I will give you just a brief
8 warning that you have got five minutes left. I
9 won't give it, if the parties don't wish me to,
10 but if you find it of assistance, I will.

11 Counsel.

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: I understand the Court's
13 reasoning and we'll do our best to abide by the time
14 limit and see how it goes. But as I think about the 15 last couple of days, quite frankly, notwithstanding
16 media perception, I don't think we're doing all that 17 badly or going all that slowly.

18 Actually, it feels almost about right, a
19 little tedious yesterday. But our concern is 20 having adequate time to explore the issues. And 21 like I said, the State will do its best to abide 22 by the 20 minute time limit.

23 But as I think about it, I don't think
24 on average we have spent more than 40 to 45
25 minutes on average per juror. And as the Court

1 is aware, the parties have agreed to strike for
2 cause somewhere in the vicinity of 50 jurors.
3 Thereby saving a great deal of time. But in 4 terms of right now, we'll see how it goes and we
5 may renew our request for extended time depending 6 on how it goes.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: I do object to the time
9 limit for a number of reasons, acknowledging that
10 the Court has broad discretion in controlling voir
11 dire and superintending the process of jury
12 selection. But the overriding concern here as the 13 Court itself acknowledges -- and I know the Court
14 understands this -- is that we're trying a case in 15 which a man -- the rest of his life hangs in the 16 balance.

17 And for the other side of the courtroom
18 in which the public has an enormous and 19 legitimate interest and one family in particular
20 has a very deep personal interest, picking 16
21 fair jurors who come to this case after 15 months
22 of publicity that has been unusual in its 23 pervasiveness and in its consistency, without 24 ascribing or characterizing it further, there's 25 been an enormous amount of publicity in this

1 case.

2 And it is not at all unreasonable here
3 for the parties to explore in voir dire well
4 beyond the bases for cause in striking a juror,
5 but explore further the information that will
6 allow each side intelligently to exercise the few
7 peremptory strikes the Wisconsin law allows each
8 side.

9 In two long days of voir dire I -- I and 10 Mr. Buting collectively have made exactly one
11 objection to a question posed by the State. And 12 as this Court knows, I'm not shy about making
13 objections and neither is Mr. Buting. So we made
14 one objection because we thought there was one
15 objectionable question in two days.

16 We have not posed a single question
17 between the two of us that we thought
18 objectionable. We don't intend discourtesy to 19 the Court and we don't intend to do improper
20 things.

21 The State has made a few, several,
22 although not a great number of objections to our
23 questions, some of which the Court has sustained
24 and some of which it has overruled. But in the 25 main, I expect that counsel at the next table

1 would join me in agreeing that neither side has
2 wandered off into inappropriate material.

3 Now, when the Court times each side, on 4 each juror, and a little chime is going off,
5 we're chilling not just the lawyers, but more
6 importantly, the person who is trying to open up
7 in an alien environment and give us some 8 information that's very personal to a bunch of 9 strangers, about themselves, about their 10 attitudes and about their deepest held
11 convictions.

12 And with a chime going off every five
13 minutes, I don't expect the same level of candor
14 from jurors who are already uncomfortable and in 15 an alien environment surrounded by strangers who 16 do very different things with their working lives
17 than they do.

18 So if -- if the Court is of a mind to
19 set some time limits and I certainly understand,
20 I share the desire to be out of here before 6 or 21 6:30 at night, because of all the work we have to 22 do after we leave court. But if the Court was 23 going to do that, I would ask the Court, instead,
24 to set something like a three and a half hour a
25 day limit on each side and let us apportion that

1 time as we will.

2 Because it is -- One of the other
3 problems with a 20 minute limit per side per 4 juror is that not all potential jurors are
5 created equal. Some of them -- some of them can
6 be accepted, or for that matter excused, in five
7 or 10 minutes total.

8 Some of them are well worth an hours
9 total exploration. And if that happens to be 40
10 minutes by the State and 20 minutes by the 11 defense on one juror and, you know, 30 minutes by 12 each side on the next; that's just the way it is,
13 in my view. Each one of these people is 14 individual and presents individual issues for the 15 respective sides in this lawsuit.

16 So, we're in an area of the Court's
17 discretion; I understand and respect that. I'm 18 asking the Court to exercise it a little bit
19 differently in hope here of flushing out, not 20 just cause to excuse a juror, but all the 21 information we reasonably can hope to have so
22 that we might exercise, intelligently, our 23 peremptory strikes when there's everything at 24 stake at the defense table and enormous
25 legitimate interests at stake at the State table.

1 THE COURT: All right. I want to -- in
2 light of those comments I want to make a few
3 additional ones of my own to make sure that the 4 Court's ruling here is not misconstrued. First of 5 all, I will state for the record that the Court is 6 very appreciative of the efforts that counsel for 7 both sides in this case have made to thoroughly
8 review the written questionnaires that were used and 9 agree to strike, before individual voir dire, those 10 jurors whose answers demonstrate that they would 11 have a great difficulty meeting the qualifications
12 of a jury in this case.

13 I am not imposing the time limit as a
14 punishment for the conduct of the parties. I
15 believe that the attorneys have been very
16 responsible. When it comes to whether questions
17 on voir dire are objectionable, it's often more
18 of an art than a science.

19 It's not so much that a particular
20 question is or is not objectionable and certainly 21 in this case the Court recognizes that a
22 legitimate area of inquiry from both parties on 23 voir dire is the extent to which jurors have been 24 exposed to pre-trial publicity and the effect
25 that that might -- that that publicity might have

1 on their actions as a juror. And if it appears
2 that any particular juror has been so exposed
3 that 20 minutes is simply not enough, I'm not
4 saying the Court would not entertain a request
5 for longer time.

6 However, there are some other questions
7 that have been asked, many of which is, you know,
8 taking the first five minutes to ask the juror
9 something about their background, whether it be 10 employment, or hobbies, or whatever, that isn't 11 particularly germane to the qualifications of the 12 juror. And I'm looking with the time limit to 13 get the parties past that and into the meat of 14 voir dire a little bit quicker.

15 If I felt that by imposing a 20 minute
16 limit either party would be prejudiced to the 17 point that they couldn't get the information that 18 they need to evaluate jurors, I wouldn't set the 19 time limit. I'm setting it based on my 20 observations of what's happened so far. And 21 while it's not the primary consideration, I'm 22 also trying to give a little consideration to the 23 jurors who are waiting to be called out here.

24 So, with that background, before we
25 begin, then, there was also a question -- and I

1 will stick the timer on the floor in order to
2 muffle, to the extent possible, the noise it
3 makes. I think you will find it's not as loud as 4 what we were hearing from some of the laptops
5 yesterday.

6 There was one other remaining issue from
7 yesterday relating to the juror, Nathan Klein,
8 and his -- the answers he gave to questions
9 relating to his exposure to radio at work and the 10 fact that he heard something within the last
11 week, I believe it was on Monday, about blood
12 vial evidence. I have reviewed -- and have the 13 parties received this page and a half?

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: No.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: No.

16 THE COURT: Why don't you come up and take 17 a look at it now. My review of the answers that he 18 gave to the questions was consistent with my 19 recollection at the time; that is, he indicated he's 20 at work; the radio is always on at work; he did hear
21 news last Monday about the blood vial and the 22 State's request to test it.

23 He was candid in describing that he had 24 heard that; although, he indicated he tries to 25 avoid listening to the radio while at work, but

1 had -- did admit that he heard this particular
2 story. He indicated that he thought that -- that
3 the planting of the blood vial evidence was a
4 possible defense in this case. He was hoping
5 that there would be some results from the tests,
6 but if there weren't, he said that, then, he
7 would look at something else.

8 First of all, I would note, I believe
9 he -- based on the answers he gave, he has 10 attempted to comply with the court order as best
11 he can. Obviously, should he be selected as a
12 juror in this case, he won't have to worry about 13 being exposed to the radio at work because he 14 won't be at work.

15 Secondly, I would note that, in the
16 scheme of things, the danger that pre-trial
17 publicity would prejudice a juror in this case is 18 far greater with respect, for example, to what
19 they heard or remember about Mr. Dassey's
20 statements, which may or may not come in at 21 trial.

22 I think that this is not such a major
23 item that it could be expected to have a dominant
24 effect or foreclose him from indicating as he
25 did, that he could put his exposure to pre-trial

1 publicity behind him and become a fair juror and
2 base his decision only on the evidence introduced
3 at trial. So I don't believe there is a basis
4 for excusing Mr. Klein and he will remain as part
5 of the jury panel in this case.

6 ATTORNEY STRANG: Just a couple things to 7 make the record clear on that, your Honor. The 8 transcript excerpt the Court invited us to look at 9 when we approached the sidebar were pages 139 and 10 140 of the February 6, 2007 transcript of 11 proceedings. (Court reporter note: Those page 12 numbers may not match after the transcript is 13 completely transcribed.)

14 And I think the ruling concerning
15 scientific testing to which the juror -- or 16 Mr. Klein, the prospective juror, referred 17 concerned the Court's February 2, 2007 ruling on 18 allowing testing; although, the Court already has 19 ruled or previously has ruled that the results of 20 such tests at present are inadmissible and may 21 not -- and the possibility of doing EDTA testing
22 may not be mentioned by either side.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon, is that a fair
24 summary from your perspective?

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: Not quite. It is with

1 respect to a ruling the Court issued I believe in
2 January relative to the presence or absence of EDTA;
3 however, it does not encompass other potential
4 scientific testing.

5 Secondly, if not -- and it hasn't been
6 directly or -- filed or stated in court, but 7 that, I think, decision is subject to review and
8 a motion to reconsider since that determination
9 was held without evidentiary hearing, without 10 facts, without argument and was based upon, to my 11 recollection and knowledge, an unpublished
12 Federal District Court opinion out of California
13 dealing with a post-conviction motion. So with 14 those caveats, I accept counsel's representation.
15 But the State's position is that the ruling
16 relative to Juror Klein is appropriate.

17 THE COURT: All right. Well, what the 18 Court did rule is the Court was going to allow, and 19 has allowed, the State to conduct tests on the blood
20 vial from the Clerk's Office. I have also provided 21 that sufficient sample be set aside to allow the 22 defense to do the same. And I specifically reserved
23 ruling on the admissibility of any test results
24 should any test results be obtained. Otherwise, I
25 believe Mr. Strang's summary of things is accurate.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: Okay. Am I correct that
2 the current state of rulings of the law of the case
3 is that EDTA testing is not admissible and as things
4 stand that that was the Court's January something
5 order and that neither side may mention the 6 possibility of doing EDTA testing to the jury?

7 THE COURT: Well, those are two different
8 things. First of all, the Court did not rule that 9 EDTA test results are not admissible. The Court
10 ruled, in essence, if I can summarize my ruling,
11 that they have not been proven to be of such 12 reliability that they justified an adjournment of 13 the trial in this case to await the results of such 14 testing.

15 And I did that based on the information
16 that the parties provided me, which both parties
17 represented was the best information on the 18 state-of-the-art of such testing; namely, the 19 California decision to which Mr. Fallon referred.
20 I do not believe I was asked to rule on the 21 admissibility of EDTA test results, I have not 22 done so at this time. There are no EDTA test
23 results.

24 As to whether either party could mention
25 them in an opening statement or otherwise, I

1 think the rule would be the same as it is with
2 other evidence. I don't recall being asked to 3 make any such ruling, nor do I recall that I made
4 such a ruling.

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: We probably both should
6 go back and look at the written ruling, then,
7 because maybe my recollection is faulty.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, if I may make
10 one comment on the voir dire process, just to clear
11 up the record and to make a point. We accept the 12 Court's ruling, but I would like the record to 13 reflect that what many perceive as five minutes of 14 chit chat questions by the State, or the defense for 15 that matter, as they begin there voir dire process,
16 while we agree that it does not go directly to the 17 potential of a strike for cause, it has two very 18 valid purposes.

19 One, information obtained during that
20 introductory questioning is quite valuable in 21 determining how one would exercise their
22 peremptory challenges.

23 And secondly, picking up on a point that
24 Mr. Strang made earlier, it's incredibly
25 difficult to start a conversation with somebody

1 in saying, well, good morning, sir, I understand
2 you were a victim of a crime and how do you feel
3 about that.

4 It seems to me that there ought to be at
5 least some time for a person to walk into a
6 courtroom such as this, with all these people
7 looking at them where they are clearly the fish
8 in the bowl, and make some human effort to relax
9 them and engage them such that -- so that they
10 can honestly answer the questions.

11 So that's the reason for that question,
12 for those types of questions. And I just want
13 the record to be clear about it. It's not like
14 we're wasting time or trying to be buddy-buddy
15 with jurors.

16 THE COURT: Well, that's one of the reasons
17 I'm setting a time limit rather than objecting to 18 when the Court may believe that the number of 19 visiting questions is excessive. I think the best
20 way to police it is to simply set a time limit.

21 All right. If there's nothing else,
22 we'll bring in Jean Koch.

23 Ms Koch, if you will raise your right
24 hand, the Clerk will administer an oath to you.

25 (Juror sworn.)

1 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

2 THE COURT: I know that people with the
3 spelling of your last name sometimes pronounce it
4 differently; how do you pronounce it?

5 MS KOCH: Koch.

6 THE COURT: Ms Koch. All right. You have
7 already filled out a written questionnaire in this
8 case. This morning we're moving on to the next step
9 of the jury selection process which is individual
10 voir dire. Each of the attorneys will have a chance
11 to ask you some questions and for the most part as a
12 follow-up to answers that you gave on your written
13 questionnaire.

14 Before they begin, I can tell you that
15 at this time the jurors who are selected to serve
16 on the jury in this case will not be sequestered;
17 that is, they will be permitted to return home at 18 the end of court proceedings each day, before
19 reporting back to court the following day.

20 We're doing this with the understanding
21 that the jurors will not attempt to learn
22 anything about this case and not be exposed to 23 any media coverage of it, either in the 24 newspapers, television, radio, or the internet
25 and that the jurors will not discuss the case

1 with anyone, including other jurors or family
2 members, until the case is concluded.

3 I can also tell you, that although the
4 proceedings today are open to the public, we do
5 not permit cameras in the courtroom during jury
6 voir dire. And members of the media are not 7 permitted to disclose the names of the jurors in 8 their reports.

9 In addition, you should know that should 10 you be selected as a juror in this case, any 11 cameras that cover the trial are not permitted to 12 show the jury in any way that would identify 13 individual members of the juror -- of the jury.

14 Finally, if you are still on the panel
15 after today's proceedings, you will receive a
16 telephone call in the next day or two letting you
17 know when to report back to court for the next
18 part of the process.

19 Mr. Fallon, you may begin.

20 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

21 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

22 Q. Good morning, Ms Koch.

23 A. Good morning.

24 Q. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
25 General with the Wisconsin Department of Justice.

1 I'm one of the prosecutors in this case. To my
2 immediate left is Mr. Ken Kratz, the lead
3 prosecutor. He is currently the Calumet County
4 District Attorney. Again, good morning and
5 thanks for coming in this morning.

6 We have a few questions, both myself and
7 the defense, Mr. Strang I believe, of you
8 regarding some of the information you provided
9 last week to help us in selecting a jury.

10 First, I'm sorry, I'm not from the area,
11 but what kind of business is Two Rivers
12 Improvement; is it home improvement?

13 A. Twin Rivers Improvement, it's a home improvement
14 business. We do residential and commercial
15 buildings, windows, doors, siding, roofing,
16 remodeling.

17 Q. Okay. How long have you been actively engaged in 18 that business?

19 A. Since 1988.

20 Q. All right. Very good. Thank you. I also 21 noticed from your questionnaire, that you are 22 familiar with our Clerk of Court?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Janet. All right. Your familiarity with her,
25 does that raise any question in your mind as to

1 your ability to be a fair and impartial juror in
2 this case?

3 A. No. I don't know if it's the same Janet.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. Because I do know one, but it might be somebody
6 else.

7 Q. Do you know this young lady?

8 A. No. So is it -- I know a different Janet.

9 Q. All right. Very good. That solves one mystery.
10 Thank you. The next area I would like to ask you
11 about is some of the pre-trial publicity that's 12 attended to this case. And you indicated you are 13 at least familiar with some of that publicity.
14 And in your questionnaire you indicated you get 15 your news sources from radio, television and the 16 internet. So if we could start there. If you
17 could tell me a little bit; of those three, where 18 do you get the majority of your news?

19 A. From TV.

20 Q. From the television?

21 A. Mm-hmm.

22 Q. And is it the regular evening newscasts or ...

23 A. Yeah, the regular evening newscasts, yeah.

24 Q. Do you watch any special news programs at all or 25 just the regular news?

1 A. I watch a lot of Court TV.

2 Q. Court TV?

3 A. Yeah.

4 Q. All right. Okay. In terms of the radio, how 5 much news do you get from the radio sources?

6 A. Just in the mornings when I'm getting ready for 7 work; I will have the radio on. And that's all I
8 hear, is just the morning news.

9 Q. All right. And in terms of your business
10 practice, I mean, generally, what hours do you
11 keep?

12 A. I usually work from like 8 until 1 or 2 in the 13 afternoon.

14 Q. All right.

15 A. It depends on how busy we are, otherwise if 16 someone is at the office, then they will sit in 17 for me and then I just answer the business phone
18 at home.

19 Q. I see. All right. When you are at home, do you
20 have the TV or radio on in the background, or 21 not?

22 A. I have Court TV on.

23 Q. You have Court TV on. All right. Very good. In 24 terms of the internet, how much news or what kind
25 of news do you obtain from the internet?

1 A. Not much.

2 Q. Not much?

3 A. No. No.

4 Q. That's more for --

5 A. I just check the Herald-Times Reporter on the 6 internet --

7 Q. Right.

8 A. -- once in a while, but I really don't go into it
9 that much.

10 Q. So it's not a major news source?

11 A. No. No.

12 Q. Have you watched any of the proceedings
13 associated with this case on the internet, for 14 instance?

15 A. No.

16 Q. All right. Have you watched any of the 17 proceedings as reported on television?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. All right. And tell us a little bit about that;
20 how much would you say you have observed?

21 A. Well, in the evening news, I usually watch what's 22 coming up, or what's going to be going on in the 23 next week or so. I had seen a couple weeks ago,
24 it was in regards to the Dassey --

25 Q. Right.

1 A. -- trial. But I really don't watch that much of
2 it, you know. If it's on, I will listen to it,
3 but otherwise it's --

4 Q. Mm-hmm.

5 A. It's been on the news for so long that, you know,
6 it just -- I don't know.

7 Q. All right. Did you receive an advisory from the 8 Court asking that you refrain from watching any 9 of the newscasts?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. All right. And have you been able to abide by 12 that request?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. All right. With respect to the information you
15 have, you did offer an opinion; have you formed
16 any personal opinions about this case, based on 17 the publicity? And you used the phrase, I know
18 he's guilty.

19 But then, specifically, with respect to 20 the question: Have you yourself formed any 21 opinion, based on the information from any
22 source, as to his guilt or innocence, you said
23 no. So I wanted to talk to you a little bit
24 about that.

25 Based on the information that you have

1 in your head, right now, do you have an opinion,
2 do you think you know enough, do you have an
3 opinion as to whether he is guilty or not?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. And what is your opinion?

6 A. Right now I would say he is guilty.

7 Q. All right. And that is based on the information
8 that you received from the media?

9 A. Right.

10 Q. All right. And you realize you have not received
11 any other information, either from the State
12 directly or perhaps from the defense? Is that
13 correct?

14 A. Right, yes.

15 Q. All right. Now, if the Court were to instruct 16 you, and the Judge will in fact instruct you if 17 you were selected as a juror, that you would be 18 required to set that information aside and be 19 asked to decide Mr. Avery's guilt or innocence
20 strictly on the evidence presented in the 21 courtroom?

22 A. Mm-hmm.

23 Q. In other words, you would have more access to 24 more information as a juror than you would
25 listening to the media. Do you think that you

1 could set aside the information that you have and
2 decide this case strictly on the evidence?

3 A. Oh, yes, just listening to both sides I would --
4 I would need a lot more detail into, you know ...

5 Q. All right.

6 A. So I would --

7 Q. Go ahead, I'm sorry.

8 A. So I would love to hear both sides, you know,
9 their ...

10 Q. All right. Well, let's talk a little bit about 11 that. You understand that the State is the only 12 one that has something to prove in the case; in 13 other words, we have to prove his guilt, beyond a
14 reasonable doubt, otherwise you must find him not 15 guilty; do you understand that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And could you accept that ruling --

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. -- that principle from the Court?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. All right. And do you understand that Mr. Avery
22 and his attorneys, they don't have to present any 23 evidence at all? Do you understand that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. And as a matter of fact, if they

1 chose not to do anything but just sit there --

2 A. Mm-hmm.

3 Q. -- you may have to decide this case solely on
4 information provided by the State. And if it
5 does not reach -- if it does not convince you,
6 beyond a reasonable doubt, you must acquit him;
7 do you understand that?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. You -- Could you follow those instructions, if 10 that's what the Judge instructed you --

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. -- to do?

13 A. Yes, I could.

14 Q. Is there any question in your mind that you could 15 follow those instructions?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Let's talk a little bit about that. Why? You
18 seem pretty confident in your ability to do that 19 even though you have all this exposure to the 20 media coverage.

21 A. Mm-hmm.

22 Q. Why do you think that you would be able to honor
23 the Judge's request and decide this strictly on 24 what's presented in court?

25 A. Um, I don't know how to answer that.

1 Q. Okay. Well, take your time and if you can think
2 about it, please tell us why you feel so
3 confident. There may be lots of reasons. You
4 may be one who has a belief in our system. You
5 may find instructions from the Court something
6 that is your duty. There could be lots of 7 reasons. I'm just wondering, what seems to 8 strike a chord in the back of your head saying,
9 you know, I could do that. Any thoughts?

10 A. I just don't know what to say. I'm nervous. I'm 11 very nervous.

12 Q. I see that. And I don't mean to really put you
13 on the spot that much. But, it's -- Because it's 14 a matter of grave importance to both the State
15 and the defense as to whether or not you would be 16 able to do that and that's why we ask. All
17 right.

18 Another question that follows up on 19 that, on that presumption of innocence, is this
20 question: You would be instructed, if you were a
21 juror, that Mr. Avery is presumed to be innocent
22 throughout the trial and he cannot be found
23 guilty of any offense, unless and until the State
24 has proven each element of that offense, beyond a
25 reasonable doubt. Should you be selected as a

1 juror, would you be able to follow the
2 instruction in reaching a verdict?

3 And you didn't answer yes or no, but you
4 did go on to write: I feel right now that he is
5 guilty. I know we just kind of touched upon
6 that, but as the Court will instruct you, he is 7 presumed innocent as he sits here today.

8 A. Mm-hmm.

9 Q. Do you have any problem with that principle?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Do you accept that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. All right. And do you feel that you could honor
14 that presumption if the Court instructed you?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Is there any other reason, as you think about
17 this particular case? I see you have not been a 18 juror before; is there anything about the 19 process, or the prospect of being a juror, that 20 makes you wonder whether you could fulfill that 21 role, whether you could honor these principles?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Another point, and counsel will ask a great deal
24 about it, but I wanted to touch upon it as well.
25 You seem to have no problem with the fact that

1 Mr. Avery does not have to testify in this case
2 if he doesn't want to. And if, as a juror, you
3 could not and must not hold that against him.

4 And you indicated you could follow that
5 principle?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. You accept that as --

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. -- a basic tenet of our law?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. All right. And -- But what if he did testify,
12 would you be able to evaluate his believability,
13 his credibility, his honesty, the same way you
14 would any other witness?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. All right.

17 A. Yeah.

18 Q. And the fact that he happens to be accused of a 19 pretty serious crime, you wouldn't weigh his 20 testimony any more or any less than anyone
21 else's?

22 A. No. No.

23 Q. All right. You feel pretty comfortable with
24 that?

25 A. Mm-hmm. Yes.

1 Q. That you could follow that instruction?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. And one last point, you did -- you
4 did feel that there was so much evidence provided
5 against Mr. Avery in the media that it would be
6 difficult to set aside your opinions. Do you
7 feel that -- still feel that way, or do you think
8 that you would be able to set those opinions
9 aside?

10 A. I would probably be able to set them aside.

11 Q. All right. In other words, you would give it
12 your best effort?

13 A. Right, I would, to listen to what everybody has 14 to say.

15 Q. And -- Because it's most important to us that you
16 be able to decide this case strictly on the 17 evidence that's presented in court?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And you can do that?

20 A. Yes.

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: Pass the juror.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

23 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

24 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

25 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

1 Q. Dean Strang, Jerome Buting, Steven Avery. We're
2 the two lawyers defending Steven, in case you
3 missed us when we stood up and sat down last
4 Monday. Look, I'm a little nervous too, so.

5 A. Good. I'm more nervous than you.

6 Q. You probably are. I mean, I'm probably more used
7 to sitting in courtrooms. But this is
8 nerve-racking for everyone. And beyond that, you
9 know, it -- it takes a lot of candor and a
10 certain amount of courage on your part to answer
11 questions honestly and say, look, I have an 12 opinion, whether it's about guilt or innocence.
13 And I -- You know, the questionnaire you filled
14 out was signed under penalty of perjury. You did
15 your best --

16 A. Mm-hmm.

17 Q. -- I'm sure, to be honest on that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And you wrote in response to Question No. 40: I
20 know he -- I think you mean, I know he's guilty?

21 A. Mm-hmm.

22 Q. Is that yes?

23 A. Yes. I'm sorry.

24 Q. No. No. The court reporter will get on me --

25 A. Okay.

1 Q. -- if I don't remind you about that.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And then in response to Question 43, you wrote:
4 There's so much evidence against him that it
5 would be difficult to change my mind. You wrote
6 that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Was that -- That was true at the time?

9 A. Yes, it was.

10 Q. Still true today?

11 A. It's -- It would be difficult to change my mind.

12 Q. Do you still know he's guilty?

13 A. Do I still know he's guilty?

14 Q. As you did last Monday?

15 A. Ah, yes.

16 Q. Do you still feel right now that he is guilty, as 17 you wrote in response to Question 69?

18 A. Yes.

19 THE COURT: Counsel, I think I'm going to 20 stop your questioning at this time. Ms Koch, at 21 this time the Clerk will escort you from the
22 courtroom.

23 MS KOCH: Okay.

24 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

25 THE COURT: You may be seated. Without

1 argument, Mr. Strang, does the defense have a motion
2 at this time?

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: I move to strike the
4 juror for cause.

5 THE COURT: Any response from the State?

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: No.

7 THE COURT: All right. I think this is a
8 juror who would try her best to follow the 9 instructions for the Court, but based on her candid
10 answers on the questionnaire and what she reiterated
11 today, I think she would have too much difficulty in 12 doing so and, therefore, I believe there is basis to 13 strike her for cause and the order will -- the Court
14 will order that she be stricken for cause. The next
15 juror is James Diedrich.

16 Mr. Diedrich, would you raise your right
17 hand, please, and the Clerk will administer your
18 oath.

19 (Juror sworn.)

20 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Diedrich, you have already 22 completed a questionnaire in this case, which the 23 attorneys have had a chance to review. This morning
24 we're moving on to the next phase of the jury
25 selection process which is known as voir dire. The

1 attorneys will have an opportunity to ask you some
2 follow-up questions to the information that you
3 provided on your questionnaire.

4 Before we proceed with their questions,
5 I want to make sure you understand that the 6 jurors in this case will not be sequestered.
7 That means the jurors will be permitted to return
8 home each day after the court proceedings. And 9 we're doing that based on the obligation of the 10 jurors not to be exposed to any news media
11 accounts of this case during the trial, whether 12 it be through television, radio, the newspaper,
13 the internet, or any other source. The jurors
14 will also be prohibited from discussing the case
15 with anyone, including other jurors or family
16 members, during the course of the trial.

17 You should know, also, that although
18 these proceedings are open to the public today,
19 the Court does not permit cameras in the 20 courtroom during the voir dire process and 21 members of the media are not allowed to identify 22 you by name when reporting on today's
23 proceedings.

24 In addition, the jurors who are selected
25 to serve in this case, will not be on camera at

1 any time during the trial itself. In the event
2 that you continue to be a member of the jury
3 panel after today, you will get a phone call in 4 the next day or two, letting you know when to 5 report back to court.

6 Mr. Fallon, you may begin at this time.

7 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

8 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

9 Q. Good morning, Mr. Diedrich.

10 A. Good morning.

11 Q. My name is Tom Fallon. And I'm an Assistant
12 Attorney General and -- with the Wisconsin
13 Department of Justice. I'm one of the
14 prosecutors in this case. To my immediate left
15 is Mr. Ken Kratz, the Calumet County District
16 Attorney and lead special prosecutor.

17 We wanted to follow up with a few
18 questions from the information from your 19 questionnaire. Then there is one area that's of 20 great importance to us and I suspect to you as 21 well. And what I wanted to do is start with your 22 employment situation. I see that you are a
23 plumber by trade.

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Do you work for a company or are you on your own?

1 A. I work for a company.

2 Q. All right. And how long have you worked for
3 them?

4 A. This company, eight years.

5 Q. All right. Now, the matter that we wanted to 6 explore with you was the answer to the very last
7 question in the questionnaire that you provided.
8 This may very well be a six week trial. And as a
9 result of which, you would be here probably nine
10 hours a day and not at your employment, your work
11 situation.

12 Now, if you were selected as a juror,
13 would that present a hardship to you? And you
14 seem to indicate that it would. Wanted to talk
15 to you a little bit about that. Tell us, if you
16 were selected, would you have income still coming
17 in?

18 A. My employer will not reimburse me --

19 Q. He will not.

20 A. -- for the time off.

21 Q. All right. And -- And I take it from the rest of 22 the information provided you're -- you are the 23 main bread winner in your family?

24 A. My wife is also employed.

25 Q. She's employed, but I take it that it would be

1 extremely difficult for your family to continue
2 if you did not have income coming in?

3 A. It would be difficult. I wouldn't say extremely 4 difficult.

5 Q. All right.

6 A. It would present problems.

7 Q. All right. Well, that's what we're trying to 8 figure out on the hardship, just how much of a 9 hardship it would be. I mean, if it's going to 10 really severely impact your ability to provide 11 for your family, then, you know, you will be 12 excused. But if you think you can manage through 13 this, then we'll continue, but. Tell us,
14 honestly, if you think this is going to put you
15 in such a financial hole, then ...

16 A. I don't believe it will put us in such a
17 financial hold as, like, we would be living on 18 the street or ... I think we could get through
19 it.

20 Q. All right. Then, my last question on this area
21 is, do you think that you will be worried more
22 about making ends meet at home without a paycheck
23 coming in, than you would about listening to the 24 evidence in the case?

25 A. No. I'm under the assumption that we can collect

1 unemployment during that period also.

2 Q. All right. Then, will you have a job when you --
3 If you were selected, would you have a job when 4 the case -- when your jury duty was over? Would
5 you be able to go back to the same plumbing
6 company?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right. And you have assurances of that?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. All right. The -- This probably is a good
11 way to introduce the topic of publicity and 12 impact. There was one other question that you
13 answered that was of somewhat of a concern for 14 you. And the question was that you as a juror
15 would be instructed not to read, watch, or listen
16 to any news accounts of this trial, whatsoever,
17 until it was over and not to talk with anyone
18 about the case, not even to one another, until 19 you retire to deliberate on its verdict. And the 20 Court said this rule would be strictly enforced.
21 And you said would you find it difficult to 22 follow such an instruction. And you said you
23 would find it difficult. Can you tell us about
24 that?

25 A. I think I was more, between when we filled the

1 questionnaire out till this point, just because
2 of the nature of my work, I listen to the radio
3 all day and you are just going to pick things up
4 from people talking or.

5 Q. Sure. Well, if you were selected as a juror, you
6 understand that you would be here and not at 7 work?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. So your radio time --

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. -- would be eliminated from that perspective?
12 But the question is aimed at, you know, when you
13 are not here as a juror and you head home and,
14 you know, perhaps on the weekends you might be 15 out to dinner with your wife or something and,
16 you know, somebody may recognize or know that you
17 are one of the jurors and they might want to talk
18 to you; do you think you could be able to say,
19 I'm sorry, I can't talk about it?

20 A. I would be able to say that.

21 Q. Right.

22 A. I still feel you are going to be able to pick up
23 people talking.

24 Q. Right.

25 A. You are not going to be able to shut it out

1 totally.

2 Q. All right. Would you be able to just walk away,
3 then, from those situations?

4 A. I believe I could.

5 Q. All right. And -- So the question is, we
6 understand it might be difficult, the question
7 is: Would you do your absolute level best to 8 follow that directive from the Court?

9 A. I believe I could, yes.

10 Q. All right. And on that note, with respect to 11 publicity, let's talk a little bit about the 12 publicity that you have been exposed to. I take 13 it almost from our discussion here that most of 14 the news you get might very well come from the 15 radio?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. All right. As I surmise, that's because it's 18 always on, whether you are in the truck or at the 19 shop, you are listening to the radio --

20 A. Exactly.

21 Q. -- most of the time? All right. Before we hit
22 to the radio, do you -- you do say you get some 23 of your news from the television?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. All right. And how much of your news do you get

1 from the television?

2 A. Um, about 25 percent, 30 percent.

3 Q. All right. And so am I guessing here that you
4 might just turn on the evening news before you go
5 to bed?

6 A. After work.

7 Q. After work. All right. And in terms of the 8 publicity which is attended to this case, is most 9 of the publicity that -- related to this case,
10 come from the radio or the television for you?

11 A. More from the television.

12 Q. All right. And, specifically, what do you
13 recall -- Well, before I even get to that 14 point -- When you originally were notified that 15 you could or might possibly be a juror in this
16 case, I believe the Court sent you a letter
17 asking that you refrain from, as best you could,
18 media coverage of this case; did you get that 19 correspondence?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. All right. And have you made it a conscious
22 effort to refrain from being exposed to the ...

23 A. As best as I could.

24 Q. All right. Could you tell us a little bit about 25 what you have heard recently about the

1 proceedings, if anything?

2 A. I heard some charges were dropped.

3 Q. All right.

4 A. And that the neph -- Dassey will not be giving

5 any testimony in this case.

6 Q. Will not or may not?

7 A. May not.

8 Q. Okay. And what else do you recall?

9 A. That's about it.

10 Q. Anything else?

11 A. Not that I can recall.

12 Q. All right. Now, thinking back, going back a

13 couple of months, many months ago, do you recall

14 watching any news coverage of Mr. Dassey's arrest

15 or involvement?

16 A. I recall some of it.

17 Q. All right. What do you recall?

18 A. That he admitted to doing the crime.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. With Steven Avery.

21 Q. All right. Any details stick out in your head?

22 A. Not any particular details.

23 Q. All right. Now, if for instance Mr. Dassey did

24 not appear in this trial, did not testify, for

25 who knows what reason, do you think that if you

1 were selected as a juror you could decide this
2 case solely on the evidence which is introduced
3 in the trial of Mr. Avery and not on what you
4 heard in the media?

5 A. I would think that in my mind it would always be
6 there.

7 Q. All right.

8 A. I don't know if I could totally block it out.

9 Q. All right. If the Court were to instruct you
10 that as a juror that would be your duty, to make
11 any and all reasonable possible effort to block
12 it out and decide this case solely on the 13 information presented, do you think you could do
14 that?

15 A. Being honest, I always think that that would be 16 in the back of my mind.

17 Q. All right. So you don't think that you would be 18 able to follow that directive and decide this 19 case because of the pre-trial publicity?

20 A. I don't think I could.

21 Q. All right.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: I don't have any more
23 questions.

24 THE COURT: The defense have any questions?
25 Let me ask this, is there going to be a joint

1 recommendation to the Court here?

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: I think so, if I
3 understand --

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: Probably.

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: -- eyes and winks.

6 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Diedrich, we're
7 going to have the Clerk escort you from the
8 courtroom at this time.

9 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

10 THE COURT: Counsel.

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: I think we have to 12 concede the obvious here, Judge. It appears that 13 he's been quite frank and doesn't think he can set
14 that information aside and to me it's probably too
15 much of a risk.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yeah, I agree. One of 18 the ironies of picking a jury is, I think this was,
19 on my honesty scale, probably the most forthcoming
20 person we have had walk in here, or at least among 21 them, but I think we have got to let him go for 22 cause.

23 THE COURT: All right. The Court agrees,
24 Mr. Diedrich will be stricken for cause. Next we'll 25 hear from Mr. Brotski.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: Could I have a minute to
2 make a motion before that?

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: Only in part, I mean in
5 part, but only in part, because of the 20 minute
6 time limitation the Court has imposed this morning,
7 I'm going to move to strike, prospectively here,
8 every -- every juror who's heard a news conference
9 about Brendan Dassey or Steven Avery from March 2
10 back.

11 I mean nothing -- I'm not worried about
12 anything after March 2, but from March 2 back,
13 you know, if they have heard those news
14 conferences and remember them, for all of the 15 reasons I have argued in this case from the 16 motion for sanctions that I filed last spring or 17 summer up through the motion to dismiss a couple
18 of the counts and the request for curative steps
19 by the Court.

20 And in light of the limitations now on 21 the time to explore and possibly rehabilitate
22 someone who has got that kind of gripping
23 information about Mr. Dassey or Mr. Avery, I'm 24 just going to move to strike for cause all of 25 them who saw that -- those news conferences

1 through March 2 or any of them.

2 I realize that we have got a number of
3 people in the qualified group of 16 who did see
4 that, but there comes a point where there's a
5 tipping point. And the Court, so far, has not
6 taken the curative steps that we have requested.
7 This -- This is an alternative curative measure
8 that I'm suggesting. And, again, the urgency for 9 it went up a bit this morning with the time
10 limitations on voir dire.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: Well, I take it, Counsel,
13 you are asking for those who saw conferences from 14 November 9th through March 2nd; is that the time
15 frame or is it from March 2nd to now?

16 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, no, no. November 5
17 to March --

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: November --

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: -- 2005, through March 2,
20 2006. I'm not worried about anything after that.
21 And I'm not going back and moving to strike any of 22 the 16 we have already qualified.

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: I guess my take on that,
24 Judge, is for obvious reasons we would object to 25 that. First and foremost, the first thing that

1 comes to my mind is that that's a premature and it's
2 an insufficient record upon which to make a class
3 action objection, based on perceived or anticipated
4 bias.

5 Secondly, it seems to me that much of 6 those concerns have already been addressed as 7 best we could by this Court and the steps that we 8 have taken in this case since May. And those 9 include an adjournment of the trial from 10 beginning of September to, then, the middle of 11 October, until now. So it is 15 months since the 12 date of the crime and 11 months since any news
13 conference at all, from the State, relative to 14 the events of the crime.

15 Secondly, we have engaged in a jury
16 questionnaire process, which I think was directly 17 aimed at flushing out those who may have too much
18 of a bias or at least think they have too much of 19 a bias based on the pre-trial publicity.

20 And we have expected a fair process and
21 we have expected that we would have to exclude a
22 fair number, a large number of jurors. In fact,
23 we have 50 or so more. Not all of them for 24 subjective bias, some for economic hardship. But 25 I think the process that we are engaged in is

1 working.

2 And third, I guess I would note that it
3 is the defendant's constitutional right. He had
4 the opportunity to waive that right and ask for a
5 jury from another county, but instead wanted to,
6 for a lack of a better term, take his chances
7 with the juror -- jury of his peers here in 8 Manitowoc. That is his right that is his choice.

9 As a result, we're obviously going to do
10 a lot more sifting and winnowing from the 11 prospective jurors, those who do not have such a
12 bias, to participate in the case. So I think we 13 have a take, as counsel eloquently argued about 14 an hour ago, each juror is different. Each one
15 takes more time. Each one has a different set of 16 issues, a different set of perspectives,
17 interests and biases which need to be explored.

18 And I don't think that we can sit here
19 and just simply say, because you have seen two 20 news conferences, you are out. I think that's 21 unfair to them. It's unfair to the State. And 22 quite frankly, oddly enough, I think it's unfair
23 to Mr. Avery, so we would oppose the request.

24 THE COURT: All right. Well, the Court is 25 going to deny the motion to, on a wholesale basis,

1 disqualify any juror who may have seen these news
2 conferences. The Court believes that while a juror
3 who has seen the news conferences certainly raises
4 some concerns about the juror's ability to be fair
5 and impartial if selected in this case. The 6 questioning to date has proved that there are some 7 people who are capable of doing that and both
8 parties have agreed about that.

9 There are a number of mitigating factors
10 in terms of causing prejudice to the jurors. The 11 news conferences took place nearly a year ago. A 12 number of the jurors were aware that, since the 13 initial news conferences, Mr. Dassey has recanted
14 at least parts of his earlier statements.

15 In some cases the jurors have been
16 exposed to information about blood being planted
17 and -- and the jurors are aware of defenses as 18 well as the initial reports from the State.

19 Finally, there are a number of jurors
20 who are capable of setting aside that
21 information. They have been asked questions by 22 the defense to suggest that there may be -- if 23 the Dassey confession evidence comes in, there
24 may be witnesses who explain why, even a
25 confession, if it was made, may not be true.

1 The Court has allowed a variety of
2 questions and I think that it's just simply
3 unfair to say that any juror who saw the news
4 conferences cannot possibly be fair and
5 impartial. A number of them were, a number of 6 them have been stricken, but some of them
7 weren't. And I think the process to this point
8 has worked fairly and I don't see a reason to 9 believe it won't continue to do so.

10 All right. At this point --

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: Um --

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: Should we just -- should 14 we just take up one other matter in the hope of 15 speeding it up while we're pausing. The next juror
16 is Kevin Brotski and I don't know of any advance
17 issue about him. But the one after that is David
18 Holschbach, No. 51. This was one that I had asked
19 counsel to look at and I -- I don't think it's even 20 going to be a close call to be honest.

21 He knows Lieutenant James Lenk. He not 22 only knows former Sheriff Kenneth Peterson, but 23 he appears to be a fairly good friend of the 24 Peterson's. And his answers to Questions 42 and 25 74 make me think he's just got firmly held

1 opinions that we're not going to put aside
2 entirely. I'm not sure it's time well spent to 3 bring him in.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

5 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm aware of counsel's
6 concerns. I had check marked this prospective juror
7 as one, for lack of better terms, on the bubble.
8 But my reason for not immediately agreeing to a
9 stipulation for cause is the juror's answer to 10 Question 43 was, yes, that whatever opinions he had 11 he could set aside.

12 He does know, apparently, the retired
13 sheriff. It seems to me that there were some 14 things that were worth exploring here. Now, if 15 the Court wants to review the questionnaire and 16 thinks that there's, on balance, too much and 17 it's not worth the effort at all, then that's 18 fine. If you want to dismiss him for cause,
19 that's fine.

20 But my way of thinking is, if a juror --
21 taking the man at their word thinks that, at 22 least based on what they knew at the time they 23 filled out the questionnaire, that they could be 24 fair, notwithstanding that they know some of the 25 potential witnesses; although, I look at these

1 and I don't know how many of them are really
2 significant witnesses, other than Mr. Lenk.

3 We don't know how he knows Lieutenant
4 Lenk or what level of friendship, if any, they
5 have. And that's my reason for saying, well,
6 maybe we should just talk to him and see, you
7 know, what the situation is. And if it turns out
8 that he's intimately acquainted with these 9 gentlemen then, of course, we will probably have 10 to excuse him.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: I respect that
12 prerogative and I'm willing to talk to anyone. But 13 the problem questions here are 42, 59, 60, 71 and 14 74. And the acquaintance with -- it's not just Lenk
15 and Peterson, there's a number of other potential
16 witnesses who I view as less significant. This just 17 seems cumulatively like someone who is not on the 18 bubble, but -- but likely to be stricken for cause.

19 If the State and the Court want to spend
20 some time with him, I understand that.

21 THE COURT: I --

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Maybe the Court might
23 want to ask a couple of questions of that
24 prospective juror.

25 THE COURT: Well, if it was just an

1 acquaintance with Mr. Lenk and Mr. Peterson and -- I
2 might be inclined to do it, but when I couple that
3 with the answer to Question 74, any other
4 information, it's getting difficult for me to 5 perceive what answers this juror is going to give 6 that are going to make him qualify to be a juror.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: All right.

8 THE COURT: So, does the State have any
9 objection to the Court striking him for cause?

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: I don't have any
11 objection.

12 THE COURT: All right. The Court will
13 order, then, that Mr. Holschbach be stricken for 14 cause. And we'll bring in Mr. Brotski at this time.

15 Mr. Brotski, will you raise your right
16 hand, please, and the Clerk will administer an 17 oath to you.

18 (Juror sworn.)

19 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Brotski, you have already
21 completed a questionnaire in this case. This 22 morning we're proceeding to the next step of voir
23 dire which is allowing the parties to ask you some 24 questions as a follow-up to the information you gave 25 on your questionnaire.

1 You should know that the jurors in this
2 case will not be sequestered during the trial;
3 that is, they will be permitted to return home
4 each day. And we're doing that because the 5 jurors are being ordered not to learn anything
6 about the case further through the news media,
7 whether it be newspaper, television, radio,
8 internet or anything else. The jurors will also 9 be prohibited from discussing the case with 10 anyone, including any family members or other
11 jurors, until the case is concluded.

12 Today's proceedings are open to the
13 public; however, the Court does not permit
14 cameras in the courtroom during voir dire. And 15 the media is not allowed to identify individual
16 jurors by name in any news reports.

17 In addition, the jurors who are selected
18 to serve in this case will not be on camera
19 during the trial.

20 If you are permitted to continue as a
21 juror in this case, you will receive notice as to 22 when to report back to court again.

23 Mr. Fallon, at this you may begin.

24 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

25 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

1 Q. Good morning, Mr. Brotski.

2 A. Good morning.

3 Q. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
4 General with the Wisconsin Department of Justice,
5 one of the prosecutors in this case. To my
6 immediate left is Mr. Ken Kratz, the Calumet
7 County District Attorney and lead special
8 prosecutor for this matter. Good morning and 9 thanks for coming in.

10 We wanted to begin with asking you some 11 questions, some follow-up questions regarding 12 your questionnaire in terms of determining your 13 suitability for jury service in this case. First
14 and foremost, I see you are a mason. How long
15 have you been engaged in that practice?

16 A. Nine years.

17 Q. All right. And have you spent all that time with 18 the same company?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. All right. And do you hold any particular levels
21 of mason certification or -- like a master --

22 A. No.

23 Q. All right. If you were selected as a juror in 24 this case, you understand that this case may very 25 well last six weeks or so?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And as a result of which, you would be here and
3 not doing some mason work. Just want to make 4 sure that that would not cause you any economic 5 hardship, either directly or maintaining your
6 family and things of that sort?

7 A. No.

8 Q. All right. So you are comfortable that you will 9 have either income and/or a job waiting for you
10 when you are done with your jury service?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. Very well. I take it from the information
13 provided that you are not one who follows the 14 news regularly?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. All right. And where do you get your news from 17 primarily; radio, television?

18 A. Primarily magazines.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. I like watching ABC World News.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. I like watching the bigger news.

23 Q. All right. So you don't pay that close attention
24 to the local news, but you do pay more attention
25 to the national or world news?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. Do you read the local newspapers at all?

3 A. No, I do not get it.

4 Q. All right. Do you own a computer?

5 A. No.

6 Q. All right. So you don't use the internet at all?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Not even at work?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Okay. In terms of the radio, do you listen to 11 the radio when you are at work?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. All right. With respect to the radio, is it on 14 constantly or is it just at certain times of the 15 day that you have time to listen to the radio?

16 A. Certain times.

17 Q. All right. And do you catch many newscasts?

18 A. No.

19 Q. You do not?

20 A. No, not really.

21 Q. All right. Then, I guess my question for you,
22 sir, is, in terms of the publicity associated 23 with this case, are you familiar with much of it,
24 or any of it, or ...

25 A. A little bit of it.

1 Q. All right. Can you tell us a little bit what
2 you -- what you know about the case from the
3 information you have heard in the media or the 4 guy next door?

5 A. I know Steven Avery is charged with murder.

6 Q. Okay. Any -- any of the details in your head as 7 to, you know, the circumstances surrounding the 8 crime or anything like that?

9 A. No, not really.

10 Q. All right.

11 A. I just know he is charged with murder and that's 12 really about it.

13 Q. Okay. How about a fellow by the name of Brendan
14 Dassey; have you heard anything about him?

15 A. I have heard of his name before.

16 Q. All right.

17 A. He's his cousin, or nephew, or uncle, or 18 something like that.

19 Q. Okay. Do you know any of the circumstances 20 regarding his arrest or his potential
21 involvement?

22 A. No, I do not.

23 Q. All right. You haven't seen or listened to any 24 media or news conferences regarding that?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Okay. Just so I'm clear, you didn't answer one
2 particular question but -- and it may be because
3 you haven't formed any opinion, but I just wanted
4 to clarify this for us. If you were selected to 5 serve as a juror in this case, do you think you
6 could decide this case solely, simply, on the 7 information that you hear in the courtroom and 8 not from what you may hear at work, or the guy on 9 the street, or anywhere else?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. All right. Is there any -- any doubt in your 12 mind about that?

13 A. No, no doubt.

14 Q. All right. Okay. The other area of -- that I
15 wanted to talk with you about, is the fact that 16 there will be a fair number of police officers
17 and police testimony in this case. And it's -- I
18 take it from your questionnaire that you haven't
19 had any police contacts in your life?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Never had any -- never filed a complaint or been 22 in any, you know, jams where you were ticketed,
23 or arrested, or anything?

24 A. I have had a speeding ticket.

25 Q. Okay. But nothing else?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Okay. And how did that encounter -- was that a
3 local police officer, like a Manitowoc police
4 officer, or county sheriff, or ...

5 A. County sheriff.

6 Q. All right. And was there anything about that
7 experience -- Well, first of all, let me ask you
8 this; do you feel you were treated fairly?

9 A. Yeah. Yes.

10 Q. So you don't have any complaints about how you
11 were treated by the sheriff or -- regarding the 12 matter?

13 A. No, I was speeding and I got a ticket.

14 Q. All right. And you paid your fine and that was
15 it?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. Okay. Do you think, then -- I just wanted to 18 make sure, you answered the question yes, but I
19 wanted to talk a little bit about it with you
20 that in terms of evaluating police officer
21 testimony in this case, you would be required to 22 evaluate their believability, their honesty,
23 their credibility, the same way you would
24 evaluate the testimony of any other witness; do
25 you think you could do that?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. All right. Very good. Last group of questions I
3 had for you is, you realize that -- and you seem 4 to have a good command of this in your
5 questionnaire -- but I wanted to make sure
6 that -- that we're all on the same page here,
7 that Mr. Avery is presumed innocent as he sits
8 here today?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And that he remains innocent unless and until we 11 can convince you, as a juror, of his guilt,
12 beyond a reasonable doubt?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Do you understand that?

15 A. Yes, I do.

16 Q. And you accept that principle?

17 A. Yes, I do.

18 Q. And you can follow that?

19 A. Yes, I can.

20 Q. All right. And you realize that if we fail to 21 convince you, beyond a reasonable doubt, that you
22 would have to acquit Mr. Avery, you would have to 23 find him not guilty?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. Even if perhaps there is some

1 question as to whether the real murderer is ever
2 located; do you understand that?

3 A. Yes, I do.

4 Q. All right. And you understand that he has a
5 right not to present a defense at all? In other
6 words, they may do nothing and the only evidence
7 that's presented is that presented by the State,
8 and if we fail to convince you, you still must 9 acquit: do you understand that?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. All right. And do you think you might have any 12 problem following that instruction?

13 A. No, I don't.

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: All right. Pass -- Hold
15 on.

16 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ My colleague here reminded 17 me of one last question I forgot to ask. Do you
18 have an interest in serving on this jury?

19 A. No. If I'm chosen, that's my right, or if I'm 20 not. That's my duty, you know, that's ...

21 Q. So it doesn't matter to you whether you are 22 selected as a juror or not but -- so in other
23 words, if selected you will serve, if not, you
24 won't?

25 A. Right.

1 Q. Okay. Thank you.

2 A. Yup. You're welcome.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

4 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes, thank you, Judge.

5 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

6 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

7 Q. Good morning, sir.

8 A. Good morning.

9 Q. My name is Jerome Buting, this is Dean Strang and 10 we are defending Steven Avery. I would like to 11 follow up on just a few issues and then touch on 12 some others that we haven't talked about. Your 13 mason experience, are you -- do you belong to a 14 union?

15 A. No, I do not.

16 Q. No. Do you belong to any organizations at all?

17 A. No, I don't.

18 Q. Do you like attend a church or belong to a church
19 or anything like that where you -- you -- Do you
20 go to any meetings with groups of people?

21 A. No.

22 Q. What do you do for -- for spare time when you get
23 home?

24 A. Play with my children. I have a two year old and 25 a five year old. That's really about it.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. Pretty boring.

3 Q. Well, that's takes up a lot of time, I know.

4 That takes up a lot of time. Your wife is --

5 Does your wife work outside the home, I think you
6 said she did?

7 A. Yes, she's a nurse at Aurora.

8 Q. Oh, okay. And does she have -- Does she work
9 everyday or just part time?

10 A. Weekends.

11 Q. Weekends.

12 A. Weekend nights.

13 Q. Okay. Do you, you know, between taking care of 14 the kids and job duties and all that, do you talk
15 to your wife about current events or things that 16 are in the news?

17 A. Well, yeah.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Does -- Has she ever talked to you at all about
21 what she's heard or watched on TV or anything
22 about the Steven Avery case?

23 A. Well, I was told in the first letter that we got 24 that I wasn't supposed to discuss it with anyone,
25 so we haven't been talking about anything that

1 she might know or that I might know.

2 Q. Okay. And when did you get that letter?

3 A. That was the first letter to come to the 29th, or 4 come for the questionnaire.

5 Q. So that was, like, you got that sometime in 6 December or November; do you recall?

7 A. I don't recall.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. I'm sorry.

10 Q. Up to that point, though, had you -- You know,
11 there's a lot of publicity about the case in the 12 early stages, particularly last November -- or 13 not last November, November of '05 up through 14 March, April, in that time period; did you -- did
15 the two of you talk about it at that time?

16 A. No, not really.

17 Q. She didn't express any opinions to you all about 18 what she thought?

19 A. Not that I can recall.

20 Q. Okay. And co-workers?

21 A. No, we just -- we get to work and we work.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. We have got our own jobs.

24 Q. Okay. So, even -- even highly publicized local 25 crimes don't really interest you at all?

1 A. Not really.

2 Q. Much more focused, you did say you like world
3 news?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. You have a more global view, is that it --

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. -- or national?

8 A. National.

9 Q. Okay. All right. Now, you mentioned that you
10 had heard of Brendan Dassey, you knew the name?

11 A. Yeah, I know the name.

12 Q. And you knew that he was somehow connected with 13 Mr. Avery at least in the media portrayals?

14 A. I know he's his uncle or cousin.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. Cousin, I believe.

17 Q. And beyond that, what is -- why is he newsworthy?

18 A. Just that he is in -- I know he's somebody -- he 19 has something to do with this, that the name is 20 really familiar to me.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. He's connected with some -- some of this or ...

23 Q. Allegedly, right?

24 A. Yeah, or something.

25 Q. Do you know whether -- Do you recall any

1 information about whether he has given any
2 statements or admissions, or denials, or anything
3 of that sort?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Okay. And in the last week, after you came and 6 filled out the questionnaires, did you, even
7 inadvertently, hear anything about the case,
8 anything that was going on or coming up, anything
9 of that sort?

10 A. No, I haven't been watching the news.

11 Q. Do your friends and co-workers know that you have 12 been summoned as a potential juror?

13 A. Yes, they know, my boss does.

14 Q. He does?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And have they talked to you about the case?

17 A. No, I'm -- I'm laid off right now.

18 Q. Oh, you are?

19 A. It's a seasonal job.

20 Q. I see.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. I was going to ask you, if you work in the cold
23 like this it must be ...

24 A. No. No, I'm laid off right now.

25 Q. Okay. Do you work on, what, residential or

1 commercial buildings?

2 A. Residential.

3 Q. Residential. So it's just kind of a slow time

4 for that anyway?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. So you work with your hands every day?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Get dirty, get your hands dirty, cut your hands?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Pretty frequent part of the occupation?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. But you can deal with it, you just -- you

13 just live that way, live with your hands always

14 kind of beat up; is that it?

15 A. Right, yes.

16 Q. Okay. Do you know any police officers?

17 A. My dad is an ex-police officer.

18 Q. Oh, he is?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Where did he work?

21 A. Two Rivers.

22 Q. Okay. Did he -- Is he retired or did he take a

23 different job?

24 A. Retired.

25 Q. Retired. How long was he an officer there?

1 A. About 10 years or maybe 15.

2 Q. Okay. Do you know what his rank was when he 3 retired?

4 A. A lieutenant.

5 Q. He was a lieutenant, okay.

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. So did he talk about his work at all?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Did he like being a police officer?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Well, I imagine that, with that experience, with 12 your dad being a police officer, a lieutenant
13 even, you learned to respect police, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Natural, I mean we're all taught to respect
16 authority of police officers, right?

17 A. Yes, right.

18 Q. How long ago did he actually retire?

19 A. Has to be four or five years now.

20 Q. Okay. So not too long ago?

21 A. No, not too long ago.

22 Q. But you were out of the house then, right, or 23 were you still living at home?

24 A. No, I was out of the house.

25 Q. You have been married how long?

1 A. Four years.

2 Q. Okay. Now, I wonder if a police officer comes
3 into court and testifies and you will hear from a
4 number of them, this is a criminal case,
5 obviously police are involved, right?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. Do you think that because they are police
8 officers and, you know, sworn, with badges and,
9 you know, to serve and protect and uphold the 10 law, that they are less likely to lie under oath
11 than the ordinary person?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Why not?

14 A. That they will lie or won't? Sorry, I don't 15 understand the question.

16 Q. Let me rephrase it so you do.

17 A. Sorry.

18 Q. Do you think that because police officers are who 19 they are and they are a sworn occupation, that 20 just because of that they are necessarily less
21 likely to lie under oath than the ordinary
22 person?

23 A. A police officer is human, anyone can lie, you
24 know.

25 Q. Okay. And do you think that people, humans, are

1 capable of lying under oath?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. That just because they take the witness stand and 4 take the oath you can't necessarily assume
5 everything coming out of there mouth is going to 6 be the truth?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. So would you be able to judge a police
9 officer's testimony, just the same way, then, as 10 an ordinary person's testimony, to decide whether 11 that officer is really telling the truth or not?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Do you think that if you sat on this jury and 14 listened to the evidence and had a reasonable
15 doubt that Mr. Avery was guilty and, therefore,
16 found him not guilty, do you think you would get 17 any flak from your father or that, you know, any 18 -- any other family or friends would think less
19 of you, how could you do that?

20 A. I don't think so.

21 Q. Why not?

22 A. Because I just don't, I don't think that that 23 would happen.

24 Q. What if in the course of the testimony you also 25 came to the opinion that there was at least a

1 reasonable suspicion that police officers really
2 did some bad things here, maybe even planted
3 evidence, would you be concerned about, you know,
4 what your father might think, you know, how could
5 you -- how could you think that about officers
6 like I was? Wouldn't it be hard?

7 A. No, he wouldn't, my father is not like that.

8 Q. Your father would --

9 A. He would understand and -- how I feel and he 10 respects my opinions.

11 Q. Do you think that that's -- that's possible in 12 life, that police officers could do such a thing?

13 A. Sure, anyone can do such a thing, I feel.

14 Q. Now, was your dad a detective at times too?

15 A. No, I don't think so. He didn't talk much about 16 his work.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. I just knew his rank and he was a police officer.

19 Q. Okay. Do you think sometimes that officers,
20 because they are human, they get, you know,
21 personally involved in their case and their work,
22 maybe even to the point where they form an
23 opinion about somebody and they think that person
24 is guilty and they work towards that -- with that 25 in mind?

1 A. I don't understand the question.

2 Q. Okay. Do you think that police officers may,
3 sometimes because they get personally involved in 4 a case, they may come to a conclusion that this
5 person is guilty and maybe shade things a little 6 bit in order to try and ensure that -- that they
7 get the guy?

8 A. It's happened before --

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. -- I'm sure.

11 Q. Okay. And you would be open to consider all the 12 possibilities that that may have happened in this
13 case?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Do you know anyone who has ever been arrested by 16 the police; friends, or co-workers, or anything?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Do you watch any cop shows on TV?

19 A. No.

20 Q. None. Do you ever -- Maybe in movies, have you
21 ever seen any depictions of the way police
22 officers can interrogate, particularly 23 detectives, interrogate witnesses or suspects to 24 try and get them to talk?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Do you think that sometimes people may actually
2 confess to something that's not true?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Why?

5 A. Pressure.

6 Q. Okay. From the police?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And how do you go about judging whether or not 9 something somebody says is true or not.

10 A. I don't understand, again.

11 Q. How would you -- If you heard witnesses testify
12 about something, how would you go about judging
13 whether what they were saying was the truth?

14 Would you listen to -- Would you look at their 15 demeanor while they are saying it?

16 A. I would listen to what they have to say and judge
17 by that.

18 Q. Okay. And look to see if there's any other
19 corroboration for what they say?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. What do you think of -- What do you think of 22 scientific evidence?

23 A. I don't know much about it.

24 Q. Okay. Don't know much about DNA, for instance?
25 Have you heard much about it?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Okay. Do you -- Will you be interested in 3 listening to witnesses who are just describing
4 technical scientific type of things?

5 A. I think it would be interesting.

6 Q. Okay. Would you listen to witnesses who come in 7 and do that, expert witnesses, in fact, who are 8 specialists in that area, and judge their -- what
9 they say, the same as any other witness?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Or would you just assume, well, they know more
12 than I do, they must be right?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Okay. Now, you do know from the questionnaire
15 and probably just from civics courses and all
16 that, that the -- that a defendant has no burden
17 of proof; is that right?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. So that Mr. Avery doesn't have to prove that he 20 is innocent of this crime?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. But do you really feel that way? Do you really
23 think that, in your heart-of-hearts, you are not
24 going to require Mr. Avery, if he is not guilty
25 of this crime, are you going to think, well,

1 then, who did? If he can't show me who else did,
2 then it must be him?

3 A. I don't understand, again.

4 Q. Well --

5 A. I feel every man is innocent until they can prove 6 to me otherwise.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. That's how I feel.

9 Q. All right. Well --

10 A. If that's the question you are asking.

11 Q. That's not exactly, but I appreciate that. In 12 this case, though, you are going to -- I think it
13 will be natural human nature to wonder who really
14 did do this crime if it's not Mr. Avery. Okay?
15 I mean, somebody did and that will be a given.
16 You are nodding yes; are you following me?

17 A. Yes, I'm following you.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. Yeah.

20 Q. Okay. And what I'm wondering is, if you will be 21 able to put aside the natural feeling that, well,
22 you know, we haven't heard who else could have 23 done it, I mean it must be him because we don't 24 know who else. I want you to be clear that you
25 can do that -- that you won't do that, I should

1 say, that you won't ask us to prove to you who
2 did this crime; can you do that?

3 A. Yes, I can.

4 Q. It's their job to do that; do you understand?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And if you decide that they haven't proved,
7 beyond a reasonable doubt, that Mr. Avery is 8 guilty of this crime, then you can't worry about 9 who did, other than hope that they follow up and 10 do some further investigation and get the right
11 person, right?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. And you are confident that you are going to be 14 able to do that; you are not going to put any 15 burden on him?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Well, along those lines, how would you feel if he 18 didn't testify?

19 A. That's his right.

20 Q. Okay. And that goes along with his right and his 21 constitutional right not to have to prove his 22 case, right?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. Prove his innocence. On the other hand, this is 25 something that defense attorneys have to struggle

1 with, deciding whether to put their witness --
2 their client on the witness stand. What if he
3 does testify, are you going to think, just
4 because he's a defendant that, you know, I can't 5 really believe what he's going to say, he's 6 trying to save his own skin?

7 A. No.

8 Q. You will be able to judge him just like any other
9 witness?

10 A. Yes, I will.

11 Q. And if he doesn't testify, you are not going to 12 hold that against him, you will be able to follow
13 the judge's instruction?

14 A. Yes, I will.

15 Q. Okay. As part of what you have heard, just 16 generally, about the case, have you heard
17 anything about a vial of blood?

18 A. I heard something about it. I know a vial is 19 going to be introduced or something.

20 Q. Okay. And that -- Have you heard anything about 21 the defense, of why that's important to the 22 defense, what it may or may not mean?

23 A. (No verbal response.)

24 Q. Okay.

25 ATTORNEY STRANG: You better get an answer.

1 Q. You have to say yes or no?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Okay. The court reporter has to take down the 4 answers.

5 ATTORNEY BUTING: That's all I have. Thank
6 you, sir.

7 MR. BROTSKI: Thank you.

8 THE COURT: All right. The Clerk will
9 escort you from the courtroom at this time,
10 Mr. Brotski.

11 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

12 THE COURT: Any motion from either party?

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: None.

14 ATTORNEY BUTING: No, Judge.

15 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Brotski is in.
16 All right. Just a minute. All right. Let's take a 17 break at this time. We'll resume at 20 minutes to 18 11.

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: I wonder if you could --
20 It was the reason for the exchange of a note. Can 21 you tell us when you sent that letter to the jurors
22 asking them to refrain. I'm not sure we got a copy
23 and right now that date escapes me.

24 THE COURT: Okay. I will find that out.

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: Okay.

1 THE COURT: I know there was one juror who
2 referred back to a letter like in June of last year;
3 that was a letter -- and I think I informed counsel
4 of this off the record -- that was sent to the 5 members of the panel, but did not indicate what the 6 case was. And I think in the juror's answer she
7 said, kind of read into it -- I don't remember if it
8 was a he or a she -- Well, I figured it was this
9 case, so I stopped paying attention, but that letter
10 did not mention the case or say anything about 11 publicity; it was only the later letter. And I will 12 find out when that was sent.

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: All right. Thank you.

14 (Recess taken.)

15 THE COURT: Counsel, in response to your 16 question just before we went on the break, the 17 letters are dated January 17th and they went out
18 either that day or perhaps the following day.

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you, Judge.

20 THE COURT: Let's see. I think the next
21 juror we have up is Mr. Mahler.

22 THE CLERK: Yes.

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Very well. Mr. Mahler, if you
25 can raise your right hand, the Clerk will administer

1 the oath to you.

2 (Juror sworn.)

3 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Mahler, you have already
5 filled out a written questionnaire in this case.
6 Today we're moving on to the next phase of jury
7 selection which is voir dire. The attorneys will
8 have a chance, in a few minutes, to ask you some
9 follow-up questions to the information that you
10 provided in your questionnaire.

11 Before we get to that I want to make
12 sure you know that if you are selected as a juror
13 in this case the jurors will not be sequestered;
14 that means the jurors will be permitted to return
15 home at the end of court proceedings each day.

16 The rule that the jurors are to learn
17 nothing about this case from the news media or 18 anyone else will continue, so that means you have 19 to avoid any reporting of the case on the radio,
20 television, the newspaper, the internet, anywhere
21 else and not discuss the case with anyone,
22 including other jurors or even members of your 23 own family.

24 In addition, I can tell you that,
25 although today's proceedings are open to the

1 public, the Court does not permit cameras in the 2 courtroom during voir dire proceedings and
3 members of the news media are not permitted to
4 identify jurors by name in their news reports.

5 If you are selected to serve as a juror
6 in this case, you should know that the cameras
7 that cover the trial will not be permitted to 8 show the jurors in the manner which identifies 9 them as well.

10 If you are permitted to stay on the
11 jury, after this part of the proceedings, you
12 will be given a notice in the next few days, by 13 telephone, as to when to report back to court.

14 Mr. Fallon, you may begin.

15 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

16 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

17 Q. Good morning. Is it Mahler or Mahler?

18 A. It's Mahler.

19 Q. Mahler. Good morning, sir. My name is Tom
20 Fallon, I'm an Assistant Attorney General with
21 the Wisconsin Department of Justice. I'm one of 22 the prosecutors in this case. To my immediate 23 left is Mr. Ken Kratz, Calumet County District
24 Attorney and lead special prosecutor. Thanks for 25 coming in this morning and thank you for your

1 patience.

2 Both sides have some questions we would
3 like to ask you regarding some of the information
4 contained in your questionnaire and perhaps cover
5 a few areas not covered by the questionnaire. I
6 think a matter of great interest, and you might 7 detect a bit of envy on our part, but I note from 8 your questionnaire that you manage to be retired
9 at what appears to be a rather young age. What 10 did you do before retiring?

11 A. Um, I was in the cleaning business. And I have 12 been a musician, as a hobby.

13 Q. And how long were you in the cleaning business?

14 A. Ten years.

15 Q. Ten years.

16 A. Twelve years.

17 Q. Now, you were an employee or did you own or run a
18 business?

19 A. I worked with the gentleman who owned the 20 business for about eight years and then he was 21 dying of stomach cancer and I ...

22 Q. -- took over the business?

23 A. My wife purchased the business from him.

24 Q. Okay. All right. And do you still keep your 25 hand in that business?

1 A. Yeah, something to keep busy. I work like six
2 hours a week --

3 Q. All right.

4 A. -- on my time.

5 Q. Okay. Tell me about the music business. How 6 long have you been involved in music?

7 A. Thirty-two years.

8 Q. All right.

9 A. Or 23 years, I'm sorry.

10 Q. Twenty-three years.

11 A. Twenty-three years, right.

12 Q. All right.

13 A. Since I was 16.

14 Q. And is it a business that's more of a hobby or do
15 you actually use it to earn income?

16 A. Well, I do earn income from it.

17 Q. All right.

18 A. Not very much. I mean, if you weigh out what you
19 spend on the equipment and all the other stuff, I
20 don't make any money at it.

21 Q. All right. What type of music are you involved
22 with?

23 A. A variety.

24 Q. All right.

25 A. I do variety. I'm the lead singer and bass

1 player, used to be a guitar player.

2 Q. Lead singer and you play base and lead guitar.

3 A. Rhythm guitar. Rhythm.

4 Q. Okay. This -- excuse me -- this group you are 5 involved with, how many are involved in that?

6 A. It was five, now it's just me, my wife and lead
7 guitar player, until we can find a drummer.

8 Q. And how many gigs a month do you normally do?

9 A. It varies.

10 Q. Okay. All right. I see, also, from your 11 hobbies, that you like computers?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. What particular tasks or how do you use the 14 computer, for what purpose?

15 A. My mixing down music, recording music, writing
16 out lyrics, typing out lyrics, that kind of 17 stuff.

18 Q. Do you use the computer at all for information
19 purposes or to get news?

20 A. No, I don't.

21 Q. All right. In that regard, I would like to talk
22 a little bit about your familiarity or lack there
23 of of media coverage with respect to this case.
24 And let me first ask you, you indicated you get
25 your news from three sources; radio, television

1 and newspaper?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. Of those three, where would you say you get the 4 lion's share of your news information?

5 A. Usually the Sheboygan Press.

6 Q. Sheboygan Press?

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. All right. So you are a regular reader of that?

9 A. Yeah, pretty much so.

10 Q. How about television and radio?

11 A. I'm not much into television because there's

12 nothing really on there I care to see.

13 Q. All right.

14 A. And radio, I listen to the music, that's about

15 it.

16 Q. Okay. So you don't listen to any news shows or 17 talk radio? It's just for the music?

18 A. No, I don't really care for it.

19 Q. I'm sorry?

20 A. I don't really care for news.

21 Q. All right. Just haven't shown an interest in it?

22 A. No, I'm more into the music and stuff like that.

23 Q. All right. If you could do us a favor and maybe

24 lean forward a little bit and talk into that

25 microphone?

1 A. I can't move the chair so.

2 Q. I understand, it's a little difficult, but --

3 A. All right.

4 Q. -- we do need to hear your responses. Thanks.

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. In terms of the media coverage attended to this
7 case, have you seen any of the newscasts or media
8 coverage of this case at all?

9 A. No. At the beginning of -- I mean, I remember my 10 wife saying something about -- that Teresa was 11 missing. I remember that part. And then she 12 told me something later about some fire pit or 13 something, but that's about all I know.

14 Q. All right. Excuse me, you haven't followed any 15 of the newscasts, then, or any of the information
16 that's been developed other than the original
17 breaking of the story?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. All right. You have listened or heard nothing on 20 the radio recently or nothing on the television
21 recently?

22 A. No, I haven't really listened to the radio at
23 all.

24 Q. All right. And from the information you provided
25 in your questionnaire you indicated you haven't

1 formed any opinions based on the small amount of 2 information you currently have?

3 A. No, I have no opinion.

4 Q. All right.

5 A. Because I don't know -- I don't know any of the 6 evidence or anything.

7 Q. Okay. Well, then, let me just conclude this 8 aspect of the questioning with this question, if 9 you were selected as a juror in this case, do you
10 think that you would be able to decide the guilt
11 or innocence of Mr. Avery solely on what you hear
12 in the courtroom; in other words, the evidence
13 which is presented and on no other source?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. All right. You have no problem with that?

16 A. No.

17 Q. All right. Since you are into music and those 18 types of endeavors, I thought I would ask, do you
19 watch old movies or are you a movie guy?

20 A. I like the old Jerry Lewis, Dean Martin movies.

21 Q. All right. Do you ever watch any documentaries,
22 anything on law enforcement, or anything like
23 that?

24 A. I think one of my favorite shows I watched on TV
25 was Law and Order, but that's --

1 Q. All right.

2 A. -- probably the only thing that I see that was
3 worth watching on television.

4 Q. Okay. Did you ever see a documentary called the 5 Thin Blue Line?

6 A. I have heard of the name, but I have never.

7 Q. You have never seen it?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Okay. The next area of inquiry that I have for 10 you is any encounters that you or your family may 11 or may not have had with the local police
12 department or the sheriff's department. Have you
13 yourself had any reason to call upon them for 14 services or had any interaction with them?

15 A. Not at all.

16 Q. All right. Any other members of your family have 17 any encounters with the police or law
18 enforcement?

19 A. My son -- my stepson, I mean.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. This was about a year ago, he wrote out
22 prescriptions for himself, which was kind of --

23 Q. Okay. Any --

24 A. -- dumb on his part.

25 Q. -- and he didn't have any -- and he shouldn't

1 have been doing that, right?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. All right. And was he arrested for that?

4 A. Yes, he was.

5 Q. Okay. Based on your experience for that, or with 6 that, did you have any direct contact with the 7 police or the sheriff's department in that
8 incident?

9 A. No, since he's not my son, my wife --

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. -- you know, I stay out of it.

12 Q. Sure.

13 A. It's better if I stay out of it.

14 Q. All right. Well, let me ask you this, then, I
15 imagine you might have had at least some 16 discussion of that happening, with your wife?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. She doesn't like me getting involved in --

20 Q. -- in the family business?

21 A. It's like get out of here, stay out--

22 Q. All right.

23 A. -- it's none of your business.

24 Q. So you didn't have any discussions as to the 25 appropriateness of the law enforcement activity

1 or involvement in that.

2 A. No.

3 Q. Okay. So you don't have any particular opinion
4 regarding how the case was handled or anything
5 like that?

6 A. No, I don't know anything about it.

7 Q. Okay. Fair enough. In terms of how you go about 8 approaching solving a problem, or even in your 9 interacting with other people, in discussing and 10 formulating opinions, would you consider yourself
11 a detail oriented type of guy or are you more of 12 a big picture perspective, bottom line approach
13 to things?

14 A. I try to piece together things.

15 Q. Okay. So, do I interpret that to mean you do
16 kind of look at the details?

17 A. Right. I'm articulate --

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. -- when it comes to things like that.

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: I'm sorry, I couldn't 21 hear that.

22 A. I'm articulate when it comes to, you know, like 23 my music, picking things apart and trying to put 24 it all together.

25 Q. All right. So the nature of your -- your

1 interest, your hobby in music, makes you tend to
2 be more of a detail oriented approach in terms of
3 putting together music, or scoring it, or writing
4 it?

5 A. Right. To get it to where it's just ...

6 Q. So the words fit the music?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. And the feeling is there and everything comes
10 together.

11 Q. Okay. All right.

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all I have.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

14 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

15 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

16 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

17 Q. Good morning.

18 A. Good morning.

19 Q. My name is Jerome Buting. This is Dean Strang
20 another Jerry -- Dean and Jerry combination, but 21 not like the movies that you have seen. We 22 represent Steven Avery. And I want to follow up
23 on a few things that -- that Mr. Fallon has asked
24 you, but also get into some different issues that 25 maybe will come up and you are going to have to

1 consider. All right?

2 A. Okay.

3 Q. First, just in more general background, your
4 name -- it may be just a coincidence, but are you
5 related in any way to the Peter Mahler that has a
6 cleaning -- office cleaning business in the 7 Milwaukee area?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. Okay. Just a coincidence, I guess. You have 10 two -- you list two female children at age 17;
11 are those twins or are they from different
12 marriages?

13 A. My daughter was from my first marriage, one of 14 them, and she's living with her mother. And the 15 other one is living with us and she's my 16 stepdaughter.

17 Q. I see. Okay. I thought maybe she was a
18 stepdaughter, but you didn't mention your stepson
19 in here so maybe that's --

20 A. Yeah, he's in -- He's like 23 or something like
21 that.

22 Q. So he's out on his own?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. Okay. And your wife is retired also?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Well, when you say retired, it wasn't clear to
2 me, you have -- you still have the cleaning
3 business?

4 A. I do it to keep busy.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. My wife has a trust fund out of Milwaukee.

7 Q. Your wife has what?

8 A. A trust fund out of Milwaukee; she gets dividends
9 every month.

10 Q. Oh, I see. Okay. So that's your primary source
11 of income and you don't have to worry so much
12 about the cleaning business?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. But is your wife, your current wife -- how 15 long have you been married to your current wife?

16 A. Ten years.

17 Q. Okay. And she's in the band too?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. What does she do?

20 A. She plays the piano.

21 Q. Okay. And you play around Manitowoc County,
22 Sheboygan, what's your area?

23 A. Manitowoc, Sheboygan, Plymouth, tri-county pretty 24 much.

25 Q. Okay. And you mentioned you have actually sung

1 the National Anthem at Road America?

2 A. Right, for all the races I do.

3 Q. Okay. That's something you have done for quite a 4 while?

5 A. The past seven years.

6 Q. Well, okay. Are you interested in racing too
7 or ...

8 A. Yeah, I said if my voice ever went, I would get 9 into racing.

10 Q. So, do you work on cars yourself?

11 A. No, I just have a love for the racing thing.

12 Q. So you have a love for the racing, but you are 13 not -- you are not really mechanically inclined
14 or ...

15 A. No, I never really got totally into it. I just 16 like watching --

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. -- especially the motorcycle races.

19 Q. You would like to be the driver and not the one
20 who -- not the mechanic?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. Okay. Now, in terms of knowledge that you gained 23 about this case, it sounds like your wife is 24 really the one that was the source of any 25 information?

1 A. Yeah, she -- I guess she's been keeping up on it,
2 watching the news on it.

3 Q. Okay. So she does. She shows an interest in it?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. And she likes to talk with you about it on 6 occasion apparently, right?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. Sometimes it's hard to remember when someone
9 says, you know, tell us what it is you remember
10 about -- remember hearing. And sometimes you
11 don't -- doesn't come to mind, certain things,
12 but you actually really did hear them, you just 13 don't recall at this moment. So, I just want to 14 maybe explore that a little bit, okay?

15 A. Okay.

16 Q. For instance, Brendan Dassey, have you heard of
17 him?

18 A. I have never, no.

19 Q. Have you heard anything about a nephew of
20 Mr. Avery?

21 A. I have heard about the nephew, but I don't 22 remember names or anything.

23 Q. Didn't connect the name. Okay. What have you
24 heard about the nephew as has been reported?

25 A. I don't recall.

1 Q. Okay. Do you recall any -- anything either you
2 heard on the news or that you talked about with 3 your wife about the nephew that involved his
4 alleged confession or admission to certain
5 things?

6 A. No, she never discussed anything about the 7 nephew.

8 Q. Or anything about his later recanting of those 9 confessions and --

10 A. No.

11 Q. -- denying it?

12 A. I did not hear anything about that.

13 Q. Okay. Did you -- In talking with your wife, did
14 you ever hear anything about, you know, what it
15 is that Mr. Avery was supposedly supposed to have 16 done here?

17 A. I remember that Teresa was missing. And that's 18 about all I remember of it. And supposedly he 19 was accused of her disappearance, but that's 20 about what I know.

21 Q. Okay. And when you say, Teresa, did you know her
22 at all?

23 A. No, just by my wife and some of the things I have 24 seen in the paper.

25 Q. And what kind of things do you recall having seen

1 about her or learned about her?

2 A. I know she was from -- I don't even remember
3 where she lived.

4 Q. Do you know what she did, you know, how and why
5 she was missing or involved in this at all?

6 A. I have no clue.

7 Q. Okay. Other than your stepson, which you
8 probably wisely stayed out of, have you had
9 any -- ever had any exposure to the police
10 yourself?

11 A. Eleven, twelve years ago, a Manitowoc Sheriff
12 picked me up because of a computer mistake in 13 Sheboygan with Child Support.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. Said I was behind on my child support, but I
16 wasn't.

17 Q. And when you say picked you up, did they actually 18 take you down and book you and all that?

19 A. Yeah, and brought me to Manitowoc County Jail.

20 Q. And how long did you sit in jail?

21 A. I was -- I think in Manitowoc for one day and 22 then I was transferred to Sheboygan until Monday
23 morning, because they picked me up on a Friday
24 which was kind of weird. Then I sat for the 25 weekend because there was nothing they could do.

1 So Monday morning my wife came in, paid a little
2 bit on my child support, just to get me out and
3 take care of that situation. But, you know, I
4 never missed a payment, but it was a computer
5 glitch that --

6 Q. Mm-hmm.

7 A. -- happened.

8 Q. So -- So you had to spend a whole weekend in jail
9 for something really that was just a mistake?

10 You didn't --

11 A. Right.

12 Q. Wasn't your fault.

13 A. That is correct.

14 Q. Well, how did you feel about the system when that
15 happened?

16 A. I mean, mistakes happen. You know, there was 17 nothing I could do about it, so I just -- I
18 accepted it.

19 Q. Okay. What do you know about Mr. Avery's
20 background?

21 A. I know he owned some kind of business out here
22 somewhere.

23 Q. Do you know anything about the -- all the 24 information about how he was wrongly imprisoned
25 for many years and was later exonerated when DNA

1 tests proved he didn't do the crime?

2 A. Yeah, I seen one news report when he got out, you
3 know, out of jail the first time.

4 Q. Yeah, I have seen that many times; he looks --
5 looks quite a bit different today, doesn't he?

6 A. Yeah, a little shorter in person.

7 Q. That beard that he had was quite a bit different
8 too. But, you know, in that environment you have 9 to adjust, I suppose. Did you also read anything
10 or hear anything about how he had a lawsuit
11 against Manitowoc County ...

12 A. I might have heard bits and pieces about it, but 13 I don't know much about it.

14 Q. ... because of that whole experience? Did you --
15 Do you have any opinion about whether or not it
16 was -- that was a good idea or a bad thing for 17 him to try and sue because of his wrongful
18 conviction?

19 A. I don't have any opinion on that.

20 Q. Okay. Other than that one encounter with -- that 21 was a Manitowoc County sheriff you said?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. Any other contacts with the police even when you
24 were growing up as a teenager or, you know, out
25 after curfew, any kind of -- not arrest but times

1 when you have encountered the police?

2 A. Yes, speeding tickets, things like that.

3 Q. Do you think that the police officers, because 4 they take an oath, get a badge, you know, that 5 they are supposed to serve and protect, that --
6 that somehow if they come into court and testify,
7 that -- that they are always going to tell the 8 truth?

9 A. I think they would.

10 Q. Well, you think they would or you'd hope they 11 would?

12 A. Well, as their, you know, oath, if they took the 13 oath, I feel they should.

14 Q. Okay. That's fine. But do you think that simply 15 because of that, because of their position and,
16 you know, we're taught to respect police
17 officers, of course?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. That if you heard testimony from them, that you
20 might give that greater weight and think that 21 they are more reliable and trustworthy than other
22 ordinary citizens you may hear from?

23 (Cellphone rang.)

24 A. No. Okay. That distracted me. Okay. Could you
25 repeat the question.

1 Q. Sure, I'm sorry about that. Do you think that --
2 that because police are police, that if they come
3 into court and testify, that what they say, that 4 you will look at that as being more reliable and
5 more trustworthy than maybe you would something
6 that you hear from the witness stand that comes 7 from an ordinary citizen?

8 A. No, I don't, because the police are just telling 9 their side of the story, just like all the other
10 witnesses.

11 Q. And that they are human too, right?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. And that -- Do you think it's possible, then,
14 that police may also be mistaken about things?

15 A. Well, you know, just because it's coming from an 16 officer doesn't mean it's the facts and totally 17 the facts on the case.

18 Q. Okay. Do you think it's possible that police
19 get, you know, personally involved in a case
20 where they are invested and they really care
21 about the outcome, they are not just sort of,
22 just the facts, ma'am, that kind of thing?

23 A. Well, I think they are just, you know, like I
24 said, they are just telling what they discovered
25 from the case, you know. And it's -- I have --

1 you know, it has to be all weighed out.

2 Q. If you heard evidence that might indicate that
3 they -- that police officers in this case maybe
4 were a little more personally involved in things
5 related to Mr. Avery, would you be able to 6 consider whether those -- that kind of 7 involvement or motive might affect what they are 8 saying on the witness stand?

9 A. What do you mean by "personally involved"?

10 Q. Well, I don't want to get into all the evidence
11 here. I mean, if you're selected, you will hear
12 some of it, but ...

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. But the Judge will give you an instruction that 15 police officers are to be judged as witnesses
16 just the same as any other witness; that is, that 17 they have no special aura about them that makes 18 them more honest or trustworthy than any other
19 witness.

20 You have to judge their demeanor, what
21 they say, what the facts are, if there's any 22 corroboration or conflicting information. And 23 what I want to understand is if you can do that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And can you do it even if it means more than just

1 that maybe the police are shading or -- or even
2 lying about something. Can you do that and
3 consider whether or not the police crossed the 4 line in this case and went -- went way beyond
5 what simple investigating is?

6 A. Well, I judge their evidence just as I would any 7 other witness, the same, you know. They don't 8 have -- You know, they are just telling what they 9 know and the other people are testifying -- are 10 telling what they know. And there's no
11 difference between an officer and somebody else
12 who is testifying.

13 Q. All right. Well, you say they are just telling
14 what they know, but do you understand that 15 sometimes witnesses come into court and even 16 under oath, that they tell lies?

17 A. Right. I do.

18 Q. And if you are selected on this jury, you are 19 going to have make those kinds of judgments and 20 judgment calls as to whether a person is really 21 telling the truth or not?

22 A. Yes, I understand that.

23 Q. Okay. And you can do that for police officers
24 just as the same as others?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. Now, you may also -- You have a lot of -- Well, I
2 don't know if you have or not. Did you have
3 musical training or did you kind of teach
4 yourself?

5 A. I took a half a year of lessons and then I got 6 tired of lessons so I learned on my own and 7 pretty much play by ear. I mean, I know the 8 chords and stuff, but I play by ear.

9 Q. Did you ever take any music theory or learn about 10 any music theory?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Okay. So, in terms of your knowledge of science,
13 do you have any particular background of that or 14 mathematics?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Well, you may hear some scientific evidence in 17 this case that will come from expert witnesses
18 and will you be able to listen to their testimony
19 and judge what they say with the same kind of 20 standards as any other witness?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. In other words, just because they --

23 A. -- are professionals.

24 Q. -- are experts in their field, what they say may 25 or may not be completely accurate; you have to

1 listen to all -- all of what they say.

2 A. Right.

3 Q. Okay. Let me go back for just one minute. The 4 -- In terms of what you have heard maybe from 5 your wife or just picked up; have you heard
6 anything at all about a blood vial?

7 A. Um, no, I haven't heard anything about that.

8 Q. Nothing about a blood vial.

9 A. No.

10 Q. Okay. Now, you like to -- Well, let me ask you
11 this, one of the questions talked about, a
12 defendant's right not to testify. And I think 13 you understood that in your questionnaire, at 14 least you answered, yes, you could follow that.

15 A. Right.

16 Q. But do you think that if you didn't hear directly 17 from Mr. Avery testifying at this trial that that 18 would be a problem for you?

19 A. Not at all.

20 Q. You wouldn't be concerned about why he didn't
21 testify, why haven't I heard his side?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Why not?

24 A. Because, you know, I would listen to every, you
25 know, everybody's input on what they had to say

1 about the case and I would make my decision on
2 that.

3 Q. Well, on the other hand, if he did take the 4 witness stand and testify, would you think that,
5 well, you know, I'm not going to really believe
6 much of what he says because he's the defendant
7 in the case, he has got everything at stake?

8 A. No, I would listen to his side of the story also.

9 Q. You could treat him the same as any other witness
10 you are saying?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. So, either way, you are not going to hold it
13 against him or us, his attorneys obviously will 14 be talking with him about that decision. You 15 will be able to make sure that doesn't affect 16 your decision in the case?

17 A. That's correct, either way.

18 Q. And if at the end of this case you believe that a
19 crime was committed, a very serious crime was 20 committed, but you have a reasonable doubt
21 whether Mr. Avery did the crime, will you be able 22 to return a verdict of not guilty even if he, or 23 we, are unable to show who is, in fact, the 24 guilty party?

25 A. I don't understand the question.

1 Q. Well, if you hear the evidence and you decide
2 that, yes, in fact, a very serious crime, a
3 murder, occurred here; it's maybe human nature to 4 think, well, if Mr. Avery didn't do it, then who
5 did, right? I mean, can you -- do you -- Can you
6 see that?

7 A. Yeah, I can understand that.

8 Q. But, what you have to understand is that the 9 defense doesn't have a burden of proof. And 10 that -- What I want to know is whether you are 11 going to be thinking, hey, you know, somebody did
12 this and we have got to convict somebody of this
13 crime, and if it's not Avery, he hasn't shown us
14 who it is, who did do it, so we're just going to 15 go ahead and find him guilty?

16 A. No, I wouldn't.

17 Q. Why not?

18 A. Because it would be wrong.

19 Q. Okay. So you really will look at the State's 20 case to see whether the State's proven to you,
21 beyond a reasonable doubt, that Mr. Avery is the 22 guilty party?

23 A. That's correct, I will look at both sides.

24 Q. And even if coming out of that you say, well,
25 this is really sad, I wish -- Somebody did this.

1 I know somebody did this. And the defense hasn't
2 proven to me who did, but the State also hasn't
3 proven, beyond a reasonable doubt, that Mr. Avery
4 did, you will be able to return a not guilty
5 verdict?

6 A. That's correct.

7 Q. Okay.

8 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, sir.

9 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Mahler, the
10 Clerk will escort you from the courtroom at this
11 time.

12 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

13 THE COURT: Any motion from either party?

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: None from the State.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: No, Judge.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Buting, you must have good
17 timing in your head, you concluded exactly on --

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: I heard that. And I
19 thought --

20 THE COURT: You beat the clock, though.

21 ATTORNEY BUTING: I didn't know if that was 22 the extra five minutes over or not.

23 THE COURT: All right. We'll bring in Ms
24 Gosz at this point.

25 Ms Gosz, if you can raise your right

1 hand, the Clerk will administer the oath to you.

2 (Juror sworn.)

3 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

4 THE COURT: Ms Gosz, you have already
5 completed a written questionnaire in this matter.
6 Today we're moving on to the next step in the jury
7 selection process which is known as voir dire. The 8 attorneys for each of the parties will have an 9 opportunity to ask you some questions today that 10 relate to your qualifications as a juror.

11 Before they begin, I can tell you that 12 if you are selected as a juror in this case, the 13 jury will not be sequestered. That means the 14 jurors will be permitted to go home each day at 15 the end of the court's proceedings for that day.

16 The jurors will continue to be required
17 not to obtain any information about the case from 18 any news media; that would be radio, television,
19 newspaper, the internet, or anything else. And 20 the jurors will also continue to be prohibited
21 from talking to anyone about the case, including
22 family members or other members of the jury.

23 The proceedings today are held in open
24 court, but during the voir dire process the Court
25 does not allow cameras in the court. And the

1 news media is not permitted to identify the
2 jurors by name in any news reports of today's
3 proceedings.

4 In addition, if you are selected to
5 serve on the jury, you should know that at the 6 trial itself, the cameras which may be present
7 are not permitted to focus on the jurors or 8 identify them in any way.

9 If you are to remain on the jury panel
10 after today's questioning, you will be notified
11 in the next day or two when to report back to
12 court.

13 I believe Mr. Kratz is going to be
14 questioning you now on behalf of the State.

15 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Thank you, Judge.

16 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

17 BY ATTORNEY KRATZ:

18 Q. Ms Gosz, good morning. My name is Ken Kratz, I'm 19 the Calumet County D.A., and special prosecutor
20 in this case, lead counsel in this case. Mr. Tom 21 Fallon who is with me is an Assistant Attorney
22 General. He will be assisting in the prosecution
23 as well.

24 As the Judge told you, this is the time
25 for some follow-up questions. We all received

1 your written responses in your questionnaire.
2 This process is not mean -- is not meant to
3 embarrass you or to pry into your personal life,
4 at least unnecessarily. We're trying to get the 5 most impartial jury --

6 A. Okay.

7 Q. -- that we can.

8 A. I understand.

9 Q. And that's why we're doing this. Your employment
10 with Natural Ovens Bakery as a packaging
11 supervisor, you described that as packaging
12 bakery items; is that the whole gambit of bakery
13 items or is this just bread or something?

14 A. Bread, buns, bagels, muffins, cookies.

15 Q. All the good stuff, right?

16 A. All the good stuff, yeah.

17 Q. All right. Ms Gosz, interestingly you noted that 18 you don't watch TV or the news very much. You
19 don't read the newspapers.

20 A. No.

21 Q. You don't gather news from any other source
22 except I think you mentioned your neighbors. I
23 was interested in that response; what does that
24 mean?

25 A. Well, I pretty much get up in the morning, get

1 the kids off to school. Then I get to work. And
2 being in charge of the department, I never know
3 what time I'm going to get done. Sometimes I'm
4 lucky enough where it's 8 hours, but more times
5 than not it's usually 9 or 10.

6 So that means I don't usually get home
7 until 6. Then I'm trying to get the kids some 8 supper, homework. And I don't really -- I don't
9 get the newspaper. I just -- I know my friends
10 laugh at me because I really never know what's 11 going on, but my life pretty much revolves around
12 my job and my family and that's about it.

13 Q. I understand. The information that you do
14 receive from your neighbors, did any of that 15 include the case for which you have been called?

16 A. No, there's a lady that lives across the street
17 that every once in a while if I go out and get 18 the mail or whatever, you know, will stop and 19 talk and, oh, did you hear this, did you hear
20 that. I will be, like, not in regard to this,
21 but just general stuff, and I'll be like, no.
22 And she always laughs at me, you know, but, so,
23 yeah, I'm pretty boring I guess.

24 Q. Let me ask you just directly, Ms Gosz; do you
25 know anything about the Steven Avery prosecution?

1 A. I mean, truthfully, I have heard his name, her
2 name, and -- and any more full details, not
3 really, because I really don't pay attention to.

4 Q. By her name, who are you talking about?

5 A. Teresa.

6 Q. Teresa Halbach?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. Did you know what Mr. Avery has been 9 charged with?

10 A. Mm-hmm.

11 Q. And did you receive that, again, just by kind of 12 hearing things around town or around your
13 community?

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. You mentioned in your questionnaire that you have 16 not formed an opinion as to Mr. Avery's guilt or 17 innocence. I assume that remains today; is that
18 correct?

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And if the Judge was to instruct you that you
21 should decide the case only on what you heard in 22 the courtroom; that is, by witnesses or exhibits,
23 or other kinds of evidence, will you be able to 24 do that?

25 A. Definitely.

1 Q. Now, the State has the burden of proof. It's
2 beyond a reasonable doubt. But the defendant
3 doesn't have to prove anything in this case. I
4 think you understood that in your
5 questionnaire --

6 A. Mm-hmm.

7 Q. -- are you willing, then, to presume, as 8 Mr. Avery sits here today, that he's innocent and 9 that will remain until and unless the State can 10 prove, beyond a reasonable doubt?

11 A. Yup.

12 Q. You are willing to do that?

13 A. Definitely.

14 Q. And that's something, not just generally, but 15 specifically in this case, that you are able to 16 do?

17 A. That's what I believe.

18 Q. Have you yourself, Ms Gosz, had the misfortune of 19 having contact with law enforcement officials
20 ever in your life?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Are you familiar at all with the Manitowoc County
23 law enforcement community? Or let me ask you
24 this question, because this is something that you
25 might have an opinion on. Do you have an opinion

1 as to how the Manitowoc County Sheriff's
2 Department is generally doing regarding crime
3 prevention, or how they handle criminal
4 investigations?

5 A. I really don't know one way or another. I mean,
6 I don't have an opinion one way or the other,
7 because I have never really had any personal
8 things to do with the law, I guess.

9 Q. All right. Have any family, or friends, or 10 anything like that ever had run-ins with the law
11 or have complained about the Sheriff's Department
12 or anything else in our law enforcement community
13 here?

14 A. No. No, actually, you know what, I did call one
15 time, just to question. And this is probably, I
16 don't know if it's even worth saying, but my 17 daughter had stayed overnight by a friend's
18 house. And my sister works second shift and was 19 coming home from work and saw her out with her
20 friends at like quarter to 12 at night. And I'm,
21 like, I thought we had some kind of --

22 Q. Curfew.

23 A. Curfew. So I just called inquiring about that 24 and they're, like, yeah, it's midnight. And I'm,
25 like, it was 10 to, these are, like, 15 year old

1 girls, why didn't they at least stop and question
2 them and they said, because they weren't breaking
3 the law. And I'm, like, okay, makes sense.

4 Q. Until after midnight.

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. So I just took care of it myself.

8 Q. Other than taking care of your children and 9 working and I understand that you are a married
10 lady; is that right?

11 A. Mm-hmm.

12 Q. And I suspect your husband takes some of your 13 time as well?

14 A. Yup.

15 Q. Other than that, what do you do for fun or for 16 hobbies?

17 A. Scrap booking is basically the thing I do a lot
18 of.

19 Q. All right. Do you enjoy puzzles or anything like
20 that?

21 A. Uh-uh.

22 Q. Have you ever?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Or you just don't now?

25 A. Not particularly.

1 Q. You are a high school graduate, I note, and was
2 wondering if in high school you had any interest
3 in any particular subjects?

4 A. Not really.

5 Q. You have no educational background after high
6 school; is that right?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. You ever watch any shows on TV that deal with 9 science, either scientific evidence or the 10 sciences generally?

11 A. Well, I watch Law and Order occasionally.
12 Sometimes forensic files is on either before or 13 after, I'm not quite sure.

14 Q. Those shows typically deal with a area of science
15 that's called DNA analysis.

16 A. Yup.

17 Q. Are you familiar with that at all?

18 A. Yup.

19 Q. Do you generally accept that as a accurate way to 20 make identifications, at least from a forensic
21 stand --

22 A. I believe so.

23 Q. -- or aspect? What I'm getting at, Ms Gosz, is 24 there isn't anything that you have heard or read
25 or in your history that brings DNA analysis into

1 question for you or anything like that?

2 A. Uh-uh.

3 Q. All right.

4 THE COURT: Ms Gosz, if you can answer yes
5 or no to the questions --

6 MS GOSZ: I'm sorry.

7 THE COURT: -- it will make life easier for
8 the court reporter. Thank you.

9 MS GOSZ: It's easier to spell yes than 10 mm-hmm. Okay.

11 ATTORNEY KRATZ: It is.

12 MS GOSZ: Sorry.

13 Q. (By Attorney Kratz)~ Are you aware of Mr. Avery's
14 history or a project in Wisconsin called Project
15 Innocence?

16 A. No.

17 Q. All right. Ms Gosz, I understand that you at 18 least provide some income to your home; your 19 husband is employed as well?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Would being on a jury for what is estimated to be 22 about six weeks; would that create a financial 23 hardship for you?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Can you tell me why?

1 A. Because Natural Ovens supports the community on
2 the basis that if do you have to report for jury
3 duty, they will supplement my income.

4 Q. That's nice. That's good.

5 A. Mm-hmm.

6 Q. You have had to, at least since you got the 7 notice about this case, thought of the 8 possibility of being a juror on the Steven Avery
9 case?

10 A. Mm-hmm. I'm sorry. Yes.

11 Q. Yes. Is that something that you believe would be 12 interesting? Is that something that you would 13 look forward to doing or, quite honestly, would 14 prefer not to do?

15 A. I don't know if look forward is the appropriate
16 way to say, but I definitely believe that being a
17 juror is part of your civic duty and I certainly 18 would be there to do that if you guys called upon
19 me to be there.

20 Q. You would agree to serve and if called by the 21 Court or by the attorneys to be one of those 22 jurors asked for this very important
23 responsibility, you would step up and do that; is 24 that right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. The last area of inquiry I have and the
2 Judge has told you that you will be able to go
3 home at night after each day of jury service.
4 But it looks like you are involved, in some
5 respects, with your son's Cub Scouts --

6 A. Mm-hmm.

7 Q. -- is that right? Do you have any contact with 8 any of their parents? Are you a den mother or 9 something --

10 A. No.

11 Q. -- like that?

12 A. No, I just take him to the meetings because my 13 husband works second shift so that makes me the 14 Cub Scout parent.

15 Q. All right. Kind of like a soccer mom, just with 16 -- with Cub Scouts, right?

17 A. Yeah.

18 Q. You would be able, then, to avoid contact with 19 other citizens and avoid contacting --

20 A. Mm-hmm.

21 Q. -- other people and talking about this case; is
22 that right?

23 A. Definitely.

24 Q. If I could have just a moment.

25 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I think that's all we

1 have, Judge. Thank you.

2 THE COURT: All right Mr. Strang.

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

4 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

5 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

6 Q. Good morning.

7 A. Good morning.

8 Q. I'm Dean Strang and this is Jerry, or Jerome,
9 Buting and Steven Avery. We're the two lawyers
10 defending Mr. Avery. Let's start with your 11 husband a little bit, if I may.

12 A. Mm-hmm.

13 Q. Roman is a sanitation supervisor?

14 A. Mm-hmm.

15 Q. Is that with a municipality or is it with a
16 private company?

17 A. No, it's -- Natural Ovens has their own
18 sanitation crew, that's on Natural Oven's
19 payroll.

20 Q. Okay. So he's actually at Natural Ovens --

21 A. Yup.

22 Q. --too?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. All right. And he works second shift?

25 A. Mm-hmm.

1 Q. Which means 4 to midnight or ...

2 A. He works 1:30 to 9:30.

3 Q. All right. Are his hours consistent or does

4 he --

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. -- get called in for snow plowing or ...

7 A. No. No. It's very consistent.

8 Q. Okay. So, if you -- if you were tied up in a

9 jury trial for let's just say six weeks

10 approximately and having to go to Chilton every

11 morning and come back every evening --

12 A. Mm-hmm.

13 Q. -- so adding on to the day at both ends; someone

14 is able to get the kids off to school or ...

15 A. Yeah, see, right now a neighbor takes my daughter

16 because he's got a daughter that's the same age

17 that goes to the same school and he's on his way

18 to work anyway.

19 Q. Mm-hmm.

20 A. And my son, I drop off by that same neighbor

21 because they have kids that are his age, also,

22 that takes him to school. And that same

23 individual picks both my kids up from school, so

24 I'm not responsible for any of that at this

25 point.

1 Q. You are covered --

2 A. Yup.

3 Q. -- and I suppose your daughter is old enough to

4 sort of keep an eye on your son?

5 A. Yeah, she's basically the babysitter until I get

6 home. So she does that every day now for me.

7 Q. Okay. Has your husband talked about this case at 8 all?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Have any opinions on it?

11 A. No.

12 Q. When you first heard that Teresa Halbach --

13 Halbach went missing and, you know, they decided

14 she had been killed --

15 A. Mm-hmm.

16 Q. -- what was your reaction to that?

17 A. Well, you have concern because if it can happen

18 to her it can happen to anybody.

19 Q. Including your daughter?

20 A. Yeah.

21 Q. I mean, did you react as a mom?

22 A. Probably.

23 Q. When you say probably, I mean, do you --

24 A. Well, that's probably the way -- that's probably

25 the thinking I had because I'm very strict with

1 my daughter and always wanting to know where she
2 is.

3 Q. I picked up on that.

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. Were you meaning to call the police on her or you
6 were just checking?

7 A. Well, I wanted to inquire about the curfew
8 because I just thought that it was kind of weird
9 that there would be a police -- and I guess the 10 reason I called, I didn't state that before is,
11 my sister had stated to me that there was a
12 patrol officer, like, in the vicinity.

13 Q. Mm-hmm.

14 A. So I just was kind of curious why they
15 wouldn't -- and, no, the curfew wasn't in effect
16 as far as they weren't breaking any laws in 17 essence, but still, three 15 year old girls out
18 at that time of night, I just thought that maybe
19 he would at least question, say, hey, you know,
20 it's getting close to that time, do you guys
21 think you should head home? Do you need a ride?
22 You know, so I guess I was just inquiring on that 23 nature.

24 Q. Okay. Sure. So you're protective, you reacted
25 to this as something horrible and if it could

1 happen to her, it could happen to anyone.

2 A. Mm-hmm.

3 Q. Were you glad to hear that they caught the guy?

4 A. I guess, in my opinion, it remains to be seen if 5 they have really caught the person.

6 Q. Okay. And that's sort of where I'm going. I
7 mean, are you concerned that they have not caught
8 the guy?

9 A. I guess I have really drawn no conclusion yet
10 because I don't really listen to what is said,
11 one way or another.

12 Q. Mm-hmm. And I -- We all would need to know but,
13 you know, let's -- let's be honest about it, at 14 this table, we have got a real immediate interest
15 in knowing that, if you sit on Mr. Avery's jury,
16 you can come into this presuming him innocent.

17 A. Definitely.

18 Q. You know, and I was glad to hear, I don't know
19 that they have the guy.

20 A. I mean, that's truly what this is all about 21 right, to make sure that the right person is 22 given the punishment needed for the crime that's 23 been committed. But the fact remains that it's 24 the right person and that's what everybody's job
25 here is to prove or not prove.

1 Q. Okay. And let's pick up on that. I want to pick
2 up on that because you say everybody's job here
3 is to prove or not prove. You know, to get -- to 4 get past sort of legal jargon --

5 A. Mm-hmm.

6 Q. -- it's not everybody's job here to prove that.
7 It's not the Judge's job to prove that and it's 8 actually not our job at all to prove that.

9 A. And I probably shouldn't generalize in saying
10 everybody. It's just everybody has their part in 11 the trial.

12 Q. Right.

13 A. You know what I'm saying?

14 Q. And I'm not picking on you.

15 A. Okay.

16 Q. Okay. I don't mean to pick on you, it's just --
17 that's why I'm trying to, you know, let's get 18 into a discussion about this.

19 A. I understand.

20 Q. The job to prove guilt lies with the State and 21 the State here happens to be represented by the 22 two gentleman, the two lawyers to my left.

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And then our job is to defend Mr. Avery, but 25 those are very different jobs; do you understand

1 that?

2 A. Oh, definitely.

3 Q. In the sense that we don't have to prove
4 anything --

5 A. Right.

6 Q. -- to you?

7 A. I understand.

8 Q. Doesn't mean we're going to sit here like a bump
9 on a log. I mean, I'm talking to you now --

10 A. Mm-hmm.

11 Q. -- which technically Mr. Avery doesn't have to 12 have a lawyer do.

13 A. Right.

14 Q. But in the end, we don't have to prove anything
15 to you or convince you of anything; do you accept
16 that?

17 A. I understand that, yes.

18 Q. Can you -- Can you follow the rules in the system
19 that works like that?

20 A. I believe so.

21 Q. I mean, because I guess at some level it's 22 natural, obviously, to say there are two sides to 23 every story and I would like to hear both
24 sides --

25 A. Mm-hmm.

1 Q. -- before I make a decision?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. Do you react that way too?

4 A. I think so.

5 Q. I mean, just in everyday life?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. But when it comes to law in America and burdens
8 of proof, these folks do have the only burden.

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. They have to prove it, beyond a reasonable doubt.
11 If -- if he were to decide anyway to testify in 12 his own behalf, I think the Court would tell you,
13 the Judge would tell you, that you would weigh
14 his testimony just like any other witness.

15 A. Mm-hmm.

16 Q. Yes?

17 A. Yes. Sorry.

18 Q. Okay. And, you know, just decide like you would
19 any other witness, whether I believe it, or I
20 don't believe it, or how much of it I believe, or 21 how much weight I give it?

22 A. Right.

23 Q. Okay. Can you do that?

24 A. I believe I can.

25 Q. Even knowing that he's the one person in the 1 courtroom with sort of everything at stake?

2 A. I think so.

3 Q. He also -- The flip side of this is that he has a
4 right under the American constitution and
5 Wisconsin constitution, for that matter, to say
6 I'm not going to testify. I'm not -- I'm not
7 going to testify. I'm going to keep my silence.

8 A. Right.

9 Q. What are some of the reasons somebody might do
10 that if he was accused of a crime?

11 A. I'm not really sure.

12 Q. Advice from lawyers?

13 A. I guess could be a possibility.

14 Q. A sense that he could get tripped up by lawyers
15 on the other side?

16 A. I suppose that could also be a possibility.

17 Q. Fear the jurors might not believe him because he 18 does have a lot at stake?

19 A. I suppose there's a lot of outstanding
20 circumstances that could make someone want to or 21 not want too. I guess it's up to the individual.

22 Q. Right. And the point of all that, I mean, you
23 are exactly right I think. And the point is,
24 that's why in the end, if a defendant does not 25 testify, a Court will tell you you can't even

1 consider it.

2 A. Mm-hmm.

3 Q. It's not evidence of guilt. It cannot be
4 considered by you. And the question is always
5 did the State prove the case beyond a reasonable
6 doubt?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. Precisely so people aren't engaging in guessing
9 about why he didn't testify if he does not.

10 A. Right.

11 Q. Is that a rule you can follow?

12 A. I believe so.

13 Q. When you say you believe so, talk to me about --
14 you're qualifying it just a little bit. I want
15 to hear about that.

16 A. I guess I understand that each person has 17 different feelings on, you know, how they say
18 things or the body language they use that maybe
19 they decide that they don't want to say something
20 because they don't want something to be misread.

21 I mean, I know for a fact, being a
22 supervisor where I work, I have been training a
23 new person to assist me and people say, well, I
24 don't like the body language she uses. And she 25 means totally nothing by it, but they interpret

1 it the wrong way.

2 Q. Right.

3 A. So I have to go back and clarify that with them
4 in saying, you know, she totally didn't mean
5 anything by that, that's just her personality,
6 that's just the way she expresses herself. And 7 once you get to know her, you will understand
8 that that's how she is. And then they get past
9 that.

10 Q. Right.

11 A. It can be interpreted the wrong way.

12 Q. Sure. And courtrooms are actually very, very 13 tough places to get to know someone.

14 A. Exactly.

15 Q. It's pretty formal and --

16 A. Mm-hmm.

17 Q. Yeah, so that's -- I mean, that's very helpful to 18 hear. And so, you said I believe so, that I can 19 follow that rule; and are you -- have you sort of 20 finished explaining to me why you think the rule
21 does make sense --

22 A. Right.

23 Q. -- and you would follow it if the Judge gave it
24 to you?

25 A. Right, because some things could be

1 misinterpreted.

2 Q. Okay. And you'll follow it if the Judge --

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. -- tells you that? Okay.

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. So understanding how you reacted and how you
7 felt, how pretty much everybody felt, when the 8 announcement came out about Teresa Halbach's
9 death and someone being arrested for it; what was 10 your reaction a few months later when you heard
11 that Brendan Dassey, a 16 year old boy, had also 12 been arrested?

13 A. I guess I really don't -- I really didn't hear.
14 That was probably even less than the previous 15 things. I really didn't hear anything about it.
16 Again, maybe in passing somebody mentioned that a
17 relative had also been arrested, but that's 18 basically all I heard.

19 Q. So --

20 A. And I didn't inquire any more. You know, I just 21 -- I just do my thing and I just really don't pay
22 attention to those things.

23 Q. Sure. Tell me about -- Tell me about work in 24 that respect. How many people are you
25 supervising?

1 A. About 30.

2 Q. Really? Okay. And are they on a line or are
3 they moving around?

4 A. We're all basically -- Well, I shouldn't say all.
5 Basically two different rooms depending on if 6 it's packaging or at the end of the day when
7 we're loading the semis. I interact with a
8 handful of them, basically working on a line next
9 to them, depending on the day. Like today, if I
10 had been at work I had meetings all day. So then 11 that really limits the amount of people that I'm 12 with.

13 Q. Right.

14 A. Usually if I have meetings all day today, that 15 means tomorrow I have got tons of paperwork to do
16 in my office. So then I really don't see a lot
17 of people in regards. That's where I have my 18 assistants to help me out running the floor.

19 Q. And I was going to ask you about that. Are 20 there -- Among these 30 people you supervise, are 21 there team leaders --

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. -- or foremen?

24 A. Yeah, I have an assistant supervisor that assists
25 me. I have a lead person that runs the floor

1 when I need to call her off on other duties. And
2 then I have another supervisor that works our
3 morning shift because we have a shift that starts
4 at 2 a.m. in the morning. And then I have 5 another supervisor that runs basically our 6 loading crew in the afternoon and she has an 7 assistant as well.

8 Q. And all those people report to you?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. So you have an office away from --

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. -- the two rooms?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. But also spend some time out in the room?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And are many of the 30 people you supervise folks
17 you actually worked shoulder to shoulder with 18 before you were promoted?

19 A. I would say a handful of them because in the last 20 few years we have had some turn over.

21 Q. Mm-hmm. Is -- Is -- Is there a packing machine
22 running --

23 A. Oh, yes.

24 Q. -- in one of those rooms?

25 A. Yes. It's loud in our room.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. Oh, yeah. The inspector actually just came in
3 and we have to mandate ear plugs now because it's 4 too loud in there.

5 Q. Okay. So chitty chat is difficult for --

6 A. Oh, yeah.

7 Q. -- a number of reasons?

8 A. Me giving out directions a lot of times is 9 difficult, you have got to scream because they
10 can't hear you or I have to walk across the room,
11 or if somebody is heading that way, hey, do me a
12 favor -- tell so and so, you know --

13 Q. Tap them on the shoulder?

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. That kind of thing?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. And then so, likewise, in that work place, radios
18 aren't something people can do to help pass time?

19 A. They want them on, but you can't hear them
20 anyway. Like on Sundays, when the football is 21 on, let's turn the game on, it's like all you can 22 hear is, oi, oi, oi. It's just more annoying to 23 me than anything so I'm just like I would rather 24 we didn't.

25 Q. Okay. Yeah, and where I was going was just, I

1 want to get a better feel for why, you know,
2 there's not water cooler talk, so to speak --

3 A. Oh.

4 Q. -- about this case --

5 A. Yeah, no.

6 Q. -- where you work?

7 A. No. And we do have a lunchroom that employees
8 can go in for their breaks, but my husband
9 doesn't drive, so I usually go and pick him up
10 for work. So my lunchtime is spent driving to go
11 get him and coming back. So I don't have the 12 off -- you know, like on break interaction with 13 my employees that most people do.

14 Q. Mm-hmm. Okay. You may -- You may, if you sit on 15 this jury, hear something about a confession or,
16 you know, statements that Brendan Dassey made, or 17 you may not. But if you do, there will be an 18 issue about whether, you know, he made those 19 statements and then took them back --

20 A. Mm-hmm.

21 Q. -- later. And there will be an issue about which 22 is it. Did he really do it like he said at one
23 time or did he really not do like he said at 24 other times. And so the question for lawyers is,
25 you know, the false confession, the possibility

1 of a false confession?

2 A. Mm-hmm.

3 Q. And I'm wondering whether anything in your
4 experience has opened you up to the possibility
5 that sometimes people, for any number of reasons,
6 admit doing something they really didn't do?

7 A. I guess I don't have any particular incident
8 that's happened to me personally, in regards to
9 that.

10 Q. When you are in there, when you have got your 11 disciplinary hat on --

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. -- or, you know, work rule enforcement hat on as 14 a supervisor --

15 A. Uh-huh.

16 Q. -- have you ever had one employee take the fall
17 for another one?

18 A. Not that I'm aware of.

19 Q. Okay. Do you watch out for that?

20 A. I guess it's something that's never really 21 happened, so I guess I really can't say I do.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. Usually, we'll hear both sides, you know, and 24 usually it's one saying one way. And usually the 25 person at fault will come around and say, hey, I

1 made a mistake. And, you know, because the end
2 result is hopefully getting them back on a level
3 where they have to work with each other for 8
4 hours or more so, you know, a day.

5 Q. Right.

6 A. So at least get them civil.

7 Q. Right. Yeah, exactly. And if you hear evidence
8 here in this case about what factors, what things
9 might cause people under the right circumstances
10 to admit something they didn't do, will you be 11 open to hearing that sort of testimony?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You mentioned girlfriends, neighbors. And I
14 think you said girlfriends, or maybe you just 15 said friends. I don't know. But do you have a
16 group of friends who you tend to see regularly?

17 A. Not really.

18 Q. You mentioned this when you were saying people
19 always tease you because you don't know what's 20 going on.

21 A. Oh, co-workers.

22 Q. Oh, okay.

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. Just about not knowing what's going on?

25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. If you sat on this jury, at the end, you and 11
2 other people are going to have a huge
3 responsibility, which is what?

4 A. To decide if he's guilty or innocent.

5 Q. That's right. Guilty or not guilty, in any
6 event. And big decision either way it goes,
7 right?

8 A. Definitely.

9 Q. Regardless of what you do, are you worried at all 10 about the next workday when you come back after 11 this long trial is over and having everybody, you
12 know, all your co-workers who do know what's 13 going on, saying why did you find him guilty, or 14 why did you find him not guilty?

15 A. Am I worried about it, no. Are they going to do
16 it, probably. Because they're already, oh, did
17 you get selected, did you get selected. And I'm,
18 like, don't know any more than you do. And if it
19 happens it happens, if it doesn't, it doesn't.
20 You know, you just play it one day at a time.

21 Q. Mm-hmm. Can you stand up to that?

22 A. Oh, definitely, because people have already at 23 work, you know, if -- now that they know that I
24 potentially could be a juror, they're like, well,
25 da, da. I'll be like, no, I don't want to hear

1 your opinion. The Judge has instructed that I'm
2 not to listen to anything and that includes you.
3 Well, it's just my opinion. I said, but he said
4 I still can't take your opinion. Granted, what 5 it means to me is probably nothing more than 6 their opinion, but it was still something that 7 was told we're not supposed to do.

8 Q. Do you want to be on this jury?

9 A. I have always wanted to be a juror, maybe not 10 necessarily for a trial of this magnitude but,
11 yeah, I have always wanted to do it.

12 Q. Why?

13 A. Because I find the whole court process to be 14 intriguing. It's -- It would be interesting.
15 Basically that's what, you know, the country is 16 founded on. You know, it's just, I guess, in 17 that degree.

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: Okay. Thank you.

19 MS GOSZ: You're welcome.

20 THE COURT: All right. At this time, Ms
21 Gosz, we'll have the Clerk escort you from the
22 courtroom.

23 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

24 THE COURT: Any motion from either party?

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: No.

ATTORNEY STRANG: No.

THE COURT: All right. This juror is in. At this time we're going to take our lunch break. We'll report back at quarter to one. I would like to see counsel for just 30 seconds in my chambers before you leave.

(Noon recess taken.)

THE COURT: At this time we will go back -- oh -- I will go back on the record. Will the parties state their appearances for the record, please.

ATTORNEY FALLON: Good afternoon, your Honor, the State continues in its appearance by Assistant Attorney General Tom Fallon and Ken Kratz, special prosecutors.

ATTORNEY STRANG: Good afternoon. Steven Avery in person; Jerome Buting and Dean Strang on his behalf. And we have some further joint motions if the Court wishes to entertain those now.

THE COURT: That would be fine.

ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, the parties had a chance to more closely inspect the questionnaires of four additional jurors. I think we have reached agreement that these four jurors could likewise be struck for cause; most of them

1 subjective bias primary reason, although I think
2 No. 73 could be both subjective and objective bias,
3 perhaps even a statutory bias argument could be
4 made.

5 But in any event Jurors 61, 63, 70, I
6 think we're in agreement should be struck for 7 subjective bias reasons. And No. 73, I think an 8 argument could be made touching upon all three of 9 the forms of bias, statutory, objective and 10 subjective. And in any event, I believe there is 11 a joint motion to excuse those jurors.

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: That is a joint motion
13 for the reasons that Mr. Fallon has explained.

14 THE COURT: All right. The Court then will 15 excuse -- let's see -- it's Dean Schneider, James 16 Wagner, Andrew Wimmer and Jesse Gibas.

17 ATTORNEY FALLON: Gibas, right.

18 THE COURT: The Court will order, then,
19 that those jurors be excused. Counsel, I think the 20 next juror that's up is William Mohr.

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's correct, Judge. I
22 wanted to address one other matter and just for 23 convenience purposes or expediency, I'm not sure
24 which is the best terminology here, but the Court
25 asked us to look at No. 74.

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Ordinarily I'm not sure
3 that we would get to that juror today on our list,
4 but if need be we could. I have shared our copy of 5 the questionnaire with the defense. And on paper,
6 he looks fine. There's only one matter that is of 7 some importance that would require an inquiry. So I
8 don't know, you said he was already here, even 9 though we may not get to him, so I don't know how 10 you wanted to deal with him.

11 THE COURT: All right. Well, we'll simply 12 leave him here today then.

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: I think he's going to 14 wind up going, but I tend -- I tend to agree with 15 Mr. Fallon in the sense, if it's just on paper; I
16 don't know that cause appears --

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: -- on the face of the
19 paper.

20 THE COURT: I would agree with that.

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: I think we're going to 22 lose him but ...

23 THE COURT: I will also let you know, and I
24 don't know that this appears on paper either, but 25 the next juror, William Mohr, his spouse, Alice

1 Mohr, is a recently retired employee of the Clerk of
2 Court's Office who is, during the pendency of this
3 trial, back working at the Clerk of Court's Office
4 to help fill in for the staff shortage down there
5 during the trial. That may speed things along for 6 your questioning. And -- But I did want to make the 7 parties aware of that fact.

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: Could we have a moment
9 just to --

10 THE COURT: Go ahead.

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: -- contemplate the 12 meaning of all that?

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: We'll proceed.

15 THE COURT: Then we'll bring William Mohr
16 out as the next juror.

17 Mr. Mohr, please raise your right hand
18 and the Clerk will administer the oath.

19 (Juror sworn.)

20 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Mohr, you have already
22 completed a written questionnaire in this case.
23 This afternoon we're moving on to the next phase of 24 jury selection which is voir dire.

25 The attorneys for each of the parties,

1 in a few minutes, will have a chance to ask you
2 some questions relating to your qualifications as
3 a juror. You should know that if you are 4 selected to serve as a juror in this case, that
5 the jury will not be sequestered. That means you
6 will be able to report home each day after the 7 trial proceedings are completed for that day.

8 The jurors will continue to be
9 prohibited from learning anything about this case
10 through the media; be it radio, television,
11 newspaper, the internet, or any other source.
12 And the jurors will be prohibited from discussing
13 the case, either among themselves, or with anyone
14 else, including members of their family.

15 The proceedings today are open, but
16 during voir dire we do not allow cameras in the 17 courtroom and the members of the media are not
18 permitted to disclose the names of potential
19 jurors or jurors in their news accounts of these 20 proceedings. In addition, if you're selected to 21 serve as a juror, the cameras will not be
22 permitted to show the jury during the trial.

23 At this time we will proceed to voir
24 dire questioning. Mr. Fallon.

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

1 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

2 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

3 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Mohr.

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. My name is Tom Fallon and I'm an Assistant
6 Attorney General with the Wisconsin Department of
7 Justice. I'm one of the prosecutors in this
8 case. To my immediate left is Mr. Ken Kratz.
9 He's a Calumet County District Attorney and 10 special prosecutor as well.

11 Thank you for coming in this afternoon.
12 The point of the afternoon session here is to 13 follow up on some of the information that you
14 provided in your questionnaire last Monday. And 15 that's where we'll begin.

16 Seems to me you have a few relationships
17 with which are of interest to the parties here.
18 And the Court has just advised us, we're under 19 the impression that your wife is an employee of 20 the Clerk of Court's Office?

21 A. Yes, a temporary employee.

22 Q. All right. And temporary at the current time as 23 I understand?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. And she previously worked at the 1 Clerk of Court's Office?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. Has she officially retired and is 4 just coming back to help out?

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. All right. Could you tell us when she retired?

7 A. Um, June of '05, I believe.

8 Q. June of '05. All right.

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. And how long did she work in the office;
11 do you recall?

12 A. 13 or 14 years.

13 Q. All right. Had she had other county employment
14 before she was in the Clerk's Office?

15 A. No.

16 Q. All right. And her current duties in the Clerk's 17 Office, if you know, are what?

18 A. Just the Clerk of Court.

19 Q. All right. Very good. And you said temporary,
20 is it for a period of time longer than the 21 expected length of this trial or is it ...

22 A. No, just about the six week period.

23 Q. Just to help out for the overload as a result of 24 the trial?

25 A. Right.

1 Q. Okay. More to the point, how well do you know
2 any of your wife's co-workers?

3 A. That was one of the questions I wanted to ask
4 about.

5 Q. All right.

6 A. I believe the question stated, do you personally
7 know, and then they went quite a lengthy list of 8 names.

9 Q. Right.

10 A. And that the word personally was, the more I
11 thought about it after I filled this out, I
12 wondered what they meant by personally.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. I have been to parties with one or two
15 individuals on that list, like a graduation
16 party, a Christmas party, things of that nature.

17 Q. All right. Well, let's -- let's change the 18 adjective from personally or the -- and go to, of 19 the individuals in the office say, for instance,
20 do you know the woman here, Janet Bonin?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. All right. Would you say that you are a friend,
23 a close friend, close acquaintance, casual
24 acquaintance; how would you describe your 25 knowledge of her?

1 A. Casual acquaintance.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. By that I mean, once a year maybe I see her --

4 Q. All right.

5 A. -- out.

6 Q. In a setting other than the courthouse?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. All right. Who else in the office would you say

9 is in that category, casual acquaintance,

10 somebody that you would know?

11 A. Probably Mary Jo Murray.

12 Q. Mary Jo Murray?

13 A. Murray.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. And under the same casual acquaintance.

16 Q. Sure. All right. Do you know the Clerk of 17 Court, Lynn Zigmunt?

18 A. About the same.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. Acquaintance.

21 Q. Anyone else that you can think of that you have 22 at least some kind of casual relationship with?

23 A. Probably Brenda, she's been ... Brenda Smith.

24 Q. All right.

25 A. Actually, several of them, I mean they have all

1 been to the same Christmas party --

2 Q. Right.

3 A. -- or birthday or graduation party.

4 Q. Parties, right.

5 A. So, Nicole. I don't remember a lot of the other

6 names.

7 Q. All right. Are any of them -- Would you consider

8 any of them close friends, you know, somebody

9 that you see more often, more socially, than

10 these traditional Christmas gatherings or special

11 occasion events?

12 A. Brenda, we had a -- what you call a -- AA

13 meetings, alcohol --

14 Q. Right. Sure.

15 A. We used to gather, but we don't even do that any

16 more.

17 Q. All right.

18 A. That was like a once a month thing and we just 19 did that --

20 Q. Sure.

21 A. -- over the winter.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. And we haven't done that this winter --

24 Q. All right.

25 A. So --

1 Q. Okay. Well, the reason we ask is, there's a
2 possibility that some of those individuals may
3 show up as witness in this case; it's still yet
4 to be determined if that occurs. And so the 5 question is, since your wife has worked in that
6 office for a number of years and is now
7 temporarily filling in, if that were to occur
8 would you have a problem, would you be 9 uncomfortable as a juror trying to assess the 10 credibility of these witnesses?

11 A. No.

12 Q. All right. You feel that you could evaluate 13 their testimony the same as you would any other
14 witness that might appear in the case?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. All right. You feel pretty confident about that.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Even though your wife is now back working in the 19 office as a temporary clerk and should you be 20 selected as a juror in this case; do you have any 21 worries or concerns about the affect or any 22 feedback you would get from a verdict you reach,
23 whether it's a guilty verdict or a not guilty
24 verdict? Do you think that might cause some 25 problems at home, or any other issues for you and

1 your wife?

2 A. No, certainly not.

3 Q. All right. Okay. Now, there was one other
4 relationship that I wanted to clarify. In answer
5 to the question, do you know or are you
6 acquainted with any member of Steven Avery's
7 family or any of his relatives, you answered yes.
8 I think you said my wife's brother's wife is a
9 cousin. Would that be your sister-in-law is a 10 cousin of Mr. Avery?

11 A. My wife's sister-in-law.

12 Q. Your wife's sister --

13 A. Through marriage this is.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. And it would be a distant cousin, like a third or 16 possibly a fourth --

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. -- cousin.

19 Q. You are sure that it's third or fourth degree
20 cousin?

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. Okay. Not anything closer than that?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Do you have occasion at all to see the 25 sister-in-law at all?

1 A. Once a year maybe --

2 Q. All right.

3 A. -- Christmas time --

4 Q. All right.

5 A. -- possibly.

6 Q. Have you had any contact with her or any member
7 of her family since this case has grabbed the 8 headlines, as it were?

9 A. No.

10 Q. All right. The fact that you have this 11 relationship, does that make it uncomfortable for 12 you to be a juror in this case and to have to 13 render a verdict of either guilty or not guilty,
14 based on the evidence?

15 A. No.

16 Q. All right. You feel pretty confident that you
17 would be able to decide this case solely on the 18 evidence that's presented in the trial and 19 without deference to any association through 20 the -- your -- through marriage or through your 21 wife's work?

22 A. Yeah, that wouldn't have any impact on it.

23 Q. All right. And you are pretty confident of that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. Okay. There's been a, as you are

1 probably aware, a fair amount of publicity about
2 this case, so I want to start with that. And
3 there's several questions of interest to both
4 parties, relative to the publicity. Now, when 5 you were asked the question in your
6 questionnaire, you indicated you haven't formed
7 any opinions based on the publicity; is that
8 correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. All right. And you say, have you discussed this
11 case at length with any other persons, you
12 answered yes. And in your explanation, you said
13 you have maintained that Mr. Avery could be 14 innocent; is that correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. With whom would you have had that discussion?

17 A. Oh, my brothers and sisters and also on my wife's
18 side, her brothers and sisters.

19 Q. Okay. All right. So you have had some family
20 discussion regarding this particular case?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. All right. In terms of that discussion, during 23 the course of it, was any of the expected or 24 anticipated evidence in this case part of the 25 discussion, the arguments, or the give and take?

1 A. What do you mean by expected?

2 Q. Well, for instance, when you discussed the case
3 with your brothers and sisters and your wife's
4 brothers and sisters, I would imagine, you know,
5 there would be some, well, I think he's guilty
6 because of X, Y and Z; somebody else say, well,
7 you know, I'm not so sure about that because of 8 A, B and C. I mean is that the kind of 9 discussion that you are having?

10 A. Mm-hmm.

11 Q. All right. So my question, then, to you, sir, is 12 what information do you have or that was 13 presented to you during the course of these 14 discussions; what kind of information did the 15 media provide you that was fueling the discussion
16 as it were?

17 A. That the evidence was found at the salvage yard,
18 the body, and it was in the burn barrel; there
19 was keys found in the trailer, that belonged to 20 the car, her car.

21 Q. Right. Any discussion regarding a fellow by the 22 name of Brendan Dassey and what he may or may not
23 have said as part of the family discussion?

24 A. Yes, his name was brought up. And it was just 25 kind of, yes, he could have been there; no, he

1 couldn't have been there. Just, nothing
2 definite. Nothing definitive. It was just ...

3 Q. All right. Was there any discussion from any of 4 the family members regarding the details of what
5 Mr. Dassey is reported to have described
6 happened?

7 A. If I remember right, just something said about,
8 he was physically there at the time it happened.

9 Q. All right. Do you recall any other details that 10 are attributed to Mr. Dassey's description of the 11 events?

12 A. None.

13 Q. All right. In terms of the coverage of this 14 case, did you recently receive a letter from 15 Judge Willis asking you to refrain from reading
16 and watching the news relative to this case?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. All right. And have you been able to abide by
19 that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. What's the last thing you remember seeing, or in 22 the news -- or hearing about in the news,
23 regarding this case, before you stopped paying
24 attention altogether?

25 A. Just that the trial was going to take place this

1 week --

2 Q. All right.

3 A. -- as soon as they had the jurors picked.

4 Q. All right. So you haven't paid attention to any
5 of the recent news articles or any of the issues
6 that the lawyers have been arguing in court about 7 or any of that?

8 A. No.

9 Q. All right. And you are not familiar with any 10 discussion of any blood, or blood evidence, or 11 anything like that?

12 A. There was some vial, or blood vial found.

13 Q. Okay. What do you recall or remember about that?

14 A. It was supposedly tampered with.

15 Q. All right.

16 A. It was unsecured or in an unsecured area.

17 Q. All right. And do you have any recollection as 18 to where that area would be or any other details
19 about that?

20 A. I believe it was in the Clerk of Court Office.

21 Q. Okay. All right. And the fact that there's the 22 possibility of some evidence that's associated 23 with the police, where your wife works; is that
24 going to present any problems for you?

25 A. No.

1 Q. All right.

2 A. No, I believe that happened while she was not
3 employed there.

4 Q. All right. And what -- what do you believe
5 happened while she was not employed there?

6 A. I -- I don't know.

7 Q. Okay. I was just curious as to your choice of 8 words, when you said -- why you chose that choice
9 of words, in terms of whatever happened, or you
10 believe it happened when she wasn't employed
11 there. So I'm thinking that you must have 12 something in your head that something must have 13 happened?

14 A. Well, they said that blood had been tampered
15 with.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. And I'm saying that must have happened sometime
18 prior to her going back there as a temporary.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. That's all.

21 Q. Now, why do you say that?

22 A. I believe that evidence came out about -- it was 23 before she started there as a temporary. That 24 evidence must be a couple weeks old, for sure.

25 Q. All right.

1 A. And she just started working there this last
2 Monday.

3 Q. All right. Well, if it came to pass that the 4 evidence was in the possession of the Clerk's
5 Office for 10 years, would that change your 6 opinion and make it perhaps difficult for you to 7 sit on this case?

8 A. No.

9 Q. It would not?

10 A. It would not make it.

11 Q. All right. And why wouldn't it?

12 A. She didn't have accessibility to the sample.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. So I feel it didn't affect her.

15 Q. All right. And how would you know that?

16 A. She told me that.

17 Q. All right.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: Could I have a moment,
19 your Honor.

20 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ Just a couple more
21 questions. So I take it there's been at least 22 some discussion in your family, with your wife,
23 about this blood vial?

24 A. That was the only discussion --

25 Q. All right.

1 A. -- that she did not have accessibility to the 2 sample.

3 Q. Okay. Any other discussion as to who may have 4 had access to the blood vial?

5 A. I don't believe so.

6 Q. Are you reasonably sure or just nothing that
7 comes to your mind right now?

8 A. Nothing comes to my mind now.

9 Q. All right. Now, you indicated that -- that in 10 the discussions with the family members you
11 maintain that it's possible that Mr. Avery could 12 be innocent; is that correct?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. All right. And what was your thinking or how did
15 that come to pass?

16 A. Well, I believe every person is innocent until 17 proven guilty. And I will look at the evidence
18 presented and come up with the -- hopefully a
19 fair and just judgment on this.

20 Q. Okay. You feel pretty confident in your ability 21 to do that?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Also, I note from your questionnaire that 24 it looks like you had an encounter with an 25 individual who was not all that pleasant and was

1 attempting to fight with you; is that correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. And you made a complaint to the police
4 department?

5 A. Well, we were both taken into custody that
6 evening.

7 Q. All right.

8 A. And I never saw this person before in my life.
9 And in fact I tried avoiding him and when I
10 turned my back on him, he jumped me and that's 11 when the police showed up. It was right at the 12 intersection of Washington and 8th Street. So it
13 was a pretty prominent intersection in town.

14 Q. Sure.

15 A. And good thing they came along when they did
16 because they pulled him off of me and they kept
17 asking him what I done to make him want to fight
18 with me. And they asked -- they asked him that 19 three times and I wondered, does -- is there a 20 relationship there; why would they put it that 21 way.

22 Q. Mm-hmm.

23 A. And they asked me, do you know this person and 24 why do you want to fight with him. And I says, I
25 told you already, I don't want to fight with him.

1 I refused to fight. And when I turned my back,
2 that's when he jumped me --

3 Q. Mm-hmm.

4 A. -- and that's when you people showed up.

5 Q. Okay. So it was just happenstance that they
6 showed up right at that moment?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. Okay. And did you know the guy?

9 A. No, never saw him in my life.

10 Q. Never saw him before?

11 A. No.

12 Q. All right. So it was a mystery to everyone as to 13 why he decided to pick a fight with you?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. And apparently there was no follow-up
16 report filed, or no charges filed, or any of that 17 sort?

18 A. No, the police said they would, after they 19 released us the next morning --

20 Q. Right.

21 A. -- they said that they would call to find out, or
22 to let us know if they are going to press charges
23 or not. And they never called.

24 Q. All right. Now, was that -- Did -- That other
25 guy had -- can you think of any reason, I mean,

1 did he have too much to drink? I mean, did he
2 mistake you for somebody else? Did -- Any idea?

3 A. I think he maybe thought my car should have been 4 going faster than what it was, because he was 5 right on my bumper.

6 Q. I see.

7 A. I had a '68 Camaro Rally Sport. It was a nice
8 looking vehicle.

9 Q. All right.

10 A. And he stayed right on my bumper. And it was 11 foolish of me to pull into the Pizza Garden
12 parking lot. I should have went right to the 13 police station.

14 Q. I see. So he was a traffic vigilante as we say.
15 All right.

16 A. Yeah, I couldn't shake him. I tried a couple --
17 going from north of town to the Pizza Garden,
18 which was right downtown. I tried a couple of 19 side streets and I couldn't shake him. I thought
20 I was in his way, you know.

21 Q. All right.

22 A. But he just kept right on me.

23 Q. Okay. Well, how did you feel about the fact that
24 the police didn't ask the D.A. to press charges?

25 A. I felt, at the time, that they didn't do their

1 job. But thinking back on it, I thought, well,
2 it was his word against my word and they just
3 came upon two people fighting, so I suppose I
4 could see their side of it too.

5 Q. All right. In retrospect, do you think it was 6 handled fairly or unfairly?

7 A. I would have to say fairly --

8 Q. All right.

9 A. -- just going by their evidence and what -- what
10 I told hem.

11 Q. All right. So, with the passage of time, you
12 have had the ability to reflect on it and have a
13 somewhat, I suspect, different perspective than 14 you had that night when it happened?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. Okay. All right. Well, the reason that's of 17 some importance to all of us here is that there's 18 going to be fair amount of testimony from law
19 enforcement officers of all sizes and shapes and 20 departments and what have you, police and sheriff
21 and the like. And one of the things as a juror
22 you will be asked to do is to evaluate the 23 credibility of witnesses.

24 And the Court will be instructing you
25 that you should evaluate the credibility, the

1 honesty, the believability of all of the 2 witnesses the same. In other words, just because
3 they are a police officer, or an expert witness,
4 or even a defendant, for that matter, you should
5 evaluate their testimony the same as you would
6 anyone else. Do you think you could follow that
7 instruction?

8 A. Yes, I do.

9 Q. All right. Is there any doubt in your mind,
10 based on this, you know, encounter with this 11 crazy guy that, you know, although you might have 12 wanted to see charges pressed years ago; is there
13 any way that would affect your ability to 14 evaluate the testimony of the officers the same
15 as you would any other witness?

16 A. No, that wouldn't affect it.

17 Q. All right. Now, apparently you have also had, I
18 take it, some good experiences with the Manitowoc
19 Sheriff's Department. You mentioned some work
20 they do with the fire department?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Have you an association with the fire department
23 at all?

24 A. No, I'm a volunteer fireman.

25 Q. Oh, you are a volunteer, that was what I was

1 getting at.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. So tell me about your encounters
4 working with the Sheriff's Department as a
5 volunteer fireman?

6 A. On certain accident scenes out in the country, we 7 would need traffic control. And at times they 8 would block intersections or block off parts of 9 the road, whatever we needed, when they had 10 personnel available to do that. But, now, most 11 of the time, it's just the fire departments
12 themselves that are doing the traffic control.

13 Q. I see. So when you -- So, did you have any 14 direct contact with members of the sheriff's 15 department for traffic control or firefighting
16 duties, as a volunteer.

17 A. I would have to say no.

18 Q. Okay. All right. But -- So your opinion or your 19 impression then comes from just your volunteering
20 and being on the scene. And it -- I take it, it
21 generally seemed to you that everything was 22 working smoothly and people were doing what they 23 were supposed to and getting along?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. Okay. Now, as a volunteer fireman, have you ever

1 participated, for instance, in any missing person
2 searches or anything like that?

3 A. A number of years ago there was a search in the 4 Town of Two Creeks, where I am a volunteer in, of 5 a missing person.

6 Q. In the town of -- I'm sorry?

7 A. Two Creeks.

8 Q. Two Creeks, okay. And what kind of role did you
9 have assisting in that?

10 A. We walked down the road, Highway 42, looking in 11 culverts for a possible body.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. And places where a body could be dumped.

14 Q. Sure. Was there any -- was the person located at 15 all?

16 A. No.

17 Q. All right. How long were you involved in the 18 search?

19 A. Oh, part of an afternoon, I will say two, three 20 hours.

21 Q. All right. Were you part of a -- an overall team
22 or organized plan of searching, or were you just 23 more or less on your own?

24 A. Yes. It was through the fire department. It was 25 -- most of the department was involved.

1 Q. Okay. Who was coordinating the search, by the 2 way, overall; the sheriff or a local police, or
3 who was helping orchestrate the search, or was it
4 just some private citizens?

5 A. I believe it was under direction of the county
6 traffic department.

7 Q. County traffic department, okay.

8 A. They are the ones who page us out for any fire
9 calls or anything, so, I'm thinking that
10 direction would have had to come through them.

11 Q. Okay. Did you find that -- How did you like that 12 experience of participating in a missing person
13 search, only to find no person?

14 A. I was glad it turned out that way.

15 Q. All right. And why was that, almost afraid that 16 you would find somebody deceased?

17 A. Yeah. And wondered what the -- what the 18 condition would be --

19 Q. Right.

20 A. -- of that body.

21 Q. Now, in terms of the big picture perspective
22 here, was that person ever located, to your 23 knowledge?

24 A. I don't remember. That's quite a number of years
25 ago.

1 Q. Okay. Now, since this case, you might, if
2 selected as a juror, hear evidence that's how
3 this case started. The fact that you have 4 participated in one of those searches, does that
5 raise any question in your mind as to whether you
6 would be able to listen to the evidence in this
7 case and decide this strictly on what's presented
8 in this case?

9 A. That wouldn't bother me.

10 Q. Okay.

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: One moment.

12 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ I just have a couple last 13 questions. I see you served on a jury once
14 before.

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Was that a -- a civil case or a criminal case?
17 And the reason I ask is you checked civil, but 18 you said you found a verdict of guilty, so I'm -- 19 what kind of -- if you could tell us a little bit
20 about the case?

21 A. Yeah, I'm confused as far as civil or criminal,
22 it was a drunken driving charge.

23 Q. Oh, I see. Okay. All right. Well, that could 24 be either one. All right. So how long did the 25 trial last?

1 A. It was just one day.

2 Q. All right. And were you asked to make a
3 determination, based on reasonable doubt, or was 4 the burden for the prosecutor clear and
5 convincing evidence?

6 A. It was beyond a reasonable doubt.

7 Q. Okay. How long did the deliberations go? An 8 hour, two hours, three?

9 A. I'm going to say an hour.

10 Q. All right. Were you the foreperson?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Okay. Was there anything about the experience of 13 working with your peers, other community members,
14 in evaluating the evidence and debating the pros
15 and cons of each side's arguments; was there
16 anything about that experience that causes or --
17 any question in your mind as to whether you could 18 perform that role again, even in this case, where 19 the stakes are much higher?

20 A. No, that wouldn't bother me.

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: All right. I will pass
22 the juror for now.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

25 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

1 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

2 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Mohr.

3 A. Yes, good afternoon.

4 Q. I'm Dean Strang and this is Jerome Buting and
5 Steven Avery. We're the defense lawyers
6 defending Mr. Avery. Let me go to this incident
7 where the fellow jumped on you?

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. That was, I think you said that was right here;
10 it wound up at the corner of 8th and Washington?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Was it the Manitowoc Police Department who 13 happened on you?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. It had nothing to do with the sheriff's
16 department?

17 A. Right.

18 Q. And if I under -- if I understood you correctly,
19 you come here today presuming Mr. Avery innocent?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. And you haven't made any further decision or 22 opinion about the case other than he, like anyone
23 charged with a crime, is presumed innocent?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. What I -- What I need to know is that, then, if

1 you are asked in the end to be one of the people
2 who actually serve on the jury, that you would
3 consider any evidence that we offer just as you
4 would consider any evidence the State offers?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. That you would be willing to consider both sides?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. If we offer evidence?

9 A. Yeah.

10 Q. All right. You understand, first of all, that we 11 don't have any burden of proof, the accused in 12 this country has no burden to prove himself
13 innocent; rather the State or the government has 14 the burden to prove him guilty, beyond a
15 reasonable doubt?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And that's a rule you can follow?

18 A. Yup.

19 Q. However, if we would call witnesses for the 20 defense, maybe, for example, a witness to explain
21 why someone might confess to something he really
22 didn't do, if that became an issue in the case,
23 would you listen to that sort of testimony from 24 the defense, just as you would listen to the 25 State's testimony?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. If we offered evidence tending to suggest that
3 law enforcement officers had a bias in the case,
4 or reasons to get out of line, cross a line,
5 would you at least listen to that evidence with 6 an open mind?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. One of the things that's difficult in any 9 criminal case, both for the man or woman accused
10 and for the defense lawyers is to decide whether 11 the accused should testify in his own defense or 12 not testify. Do you understand that in this 13 country, a person accused of a crime has the 14 right to choose to do either; that is, to testify
15 or to decline to testify?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Is that a rule that you can live with if the 18 Court instructs you on it?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. You can follow that?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And if Mr. Avery, with our advice, were to decide
23 to take the stand and testify, could you consider
24 his testimony just as that of any other witness?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. You, of course, don't know, you can't know,
2 whether you would believe him or not believe him,
3 just like you couldn't know whether you would
4 believe or not believe any other witness?

5 A. That's correct.

6 Q. But you would hear him and consider the same
7 factors in deciding whether to believe him or 8 not?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Same with a police officer; regardless whether we 11 called the police officer or the State called
12 him?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. What if Mr. Avery, again, on our advice, decided 15 not to testify, would you be able and willing,
16 you know, really to follow and embrace the rule
17 from the Court that the defendant's decision not 18 to testify is something you cannot consider as 19 any evidence of guilt and, in fact, cannot 20 consider at all in deciding whether the State has 21 proven him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt;
22 could you follow that rule?

23 A. Could you explain that again.

24 Q. It got long, I'm sorry. If he decides not to
25 testify --

1 A. Okay.

2 Q. -- in this trial, he does not take the witness
3 stand --

4 A. I wouldn't have a problem with that.

5 Q. -- could you follow a rule that says you can't
6 even consider it, cannot even consider that fact
7 in weighing the evidence and deciding your
8 verdict?

9 A. Yes, I could.

10 Q. Can you see, or do you agree, I guess I will ask
11 you, that the defendant faces the risk, if he 12 does testify, that people will think he's up
13 there going to say anything to try to save his 14 skin? Can you see how that might be a concern if 15 you are the defendant?

16 A. Yes, but I wouldn't -- that thought wouldn't have 17 entered my mind.

18 Q. Okay. Your mind, but you can see how it might 19 enter the accused's mind?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. And at the same time, can you see how the accused
22 might say, boy, if I don't testify, will the 23 jurors think I'm hiding something, or that I must 24 be guilty, otherwise I would get up and say I was 25 innocent? Can you see how he might -- he might

1 feel that way?

2 A. Mm-hmm.

3 Q. Yes, no?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. But in the end, you are willing to live by 6 rules that say you can't speculate on those 7 reasons, you are just here to consider the 8 evidence and decide whether the State has proved
9 the case, beyond a reasonable doubt?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. Suppose that, at the end of all the evidence from 12 either side or both, you were left with the sense
13 that the defendant could be guilty, but that you
14 were not convinced of it, beyond a reasonable
15 doubt, and yet you didn't know who did kill this 16 young woman, if he didn't. Could you vote not 17 guilty if you just were not convinced, beyond a 18 reasonable doubt, that Mr. Avery was the one who 19 killed Teresa Halbach?

20 A. Yes, I could.

21 Q. And live with the uncertainty about who did it?

22 A. Yes.

23 ATTORNEY STRANG: That's all I have. Thank 24 you very much.

25 THE COURT: Anything else? If not, Mr.

1 Mohr, we'll have the Clerk escort you from the
2 courtroom at this time.

3 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

4 THE COURT: Counsel, is there a motion from
5 either party?

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: From the State there will
7 be, your Honor. I didn't move right away, I wanted
8 to hear Mr. Mohr's response to the rest of my 9 questions and to Mr. Strang's as well and think
10 about this. And I have come to the conclusion that 11 we believe that Mr. Mohr should be struck for cause
12 and would so move.

13 My concern is wholly related to the
14 potential that witnesses from the Clerk's Office
15 will be called to the stand in this case. I am 16 concerned by the fact that if he were selected as 17 a juror, he would have knowledge about the 18 workings of the office which may extend beyond
19 that which is introduced as evidence.

20 He's already had a discussion with his 21 wife regarding what she knows or does not know of 22 the existence of this vial of blood and whether 23 she had access to it. And based on what the 24 parties know, in terms of the circumstances of 25 the evidence, I'm not sure that he has all the

1 information.

2 Nonetheless, I think that what we have
3 here is an individual that -- I'm not sure if
4 it's best articulated as an objective bias or a
5 statutory bias, most likely objective bias for 6 his -- by his association with potential
7 witnesses. Admittedly, they are casual
8 acquaintances, but then again, his wife worked in 9 that office during much of the time in which that 10 vial of blood was part of a previous proceeding
11 and he's had those discussions. And quite 12 frankly, I think the possibility of -- of -- of 13 information extraneous to what is introduced is 14 too high to take that chance. And we move that 15 he be struck for cause.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you, your Honor.
18 There is not cause to strike Mr. Mohr. Let's go
19 back, for starters, to the case that Mr. Fallon
20 cited yesterday arising out of District 1, District
21 1 Court of Appeals, in which someone who actually 22 was an employee of the District Attorney's Office of 23 Milwaukee County, albeit in the Juvenile Section,
24 not downtown, herself served on a juror (sic).

25 And the law of Wisconsin was that that

1 was not cause for a strike, where she said that,
2 although employed by the same agency that was
3 prosecuting the criminal case, she could be fair
4 in the case. This is at least two steps removed 5 from that situation.

6 One, the Manitowoc County Clerk's Office
7 is not involved in this case, either as a
8 prosecuting party, a defending party, or an 9 investigating party.

10 Second, there is no claim by the 11 defense, certainly no claim by the State, of 12 which I'm aware, of any wrong doing by anyone in 13 the Clerk's Office to the extent that some member
14 of the Clerk's Office may be a witness in the 15 case. It would not be where his or her own
16 conduct is at issue at all. It would be to 17 establish a physical location of a box or a file
18 and what was known about it's condition if
19 anything.

20 So the casual acquaintance with Janet
21 Bonin, for example, who I think we have all
22 agreed we aren't going to call as a witness so
23 that she can continue to serve as the Clerk,
24 really would have no bearing at all on any claim,
25 defense, prosecution theory being offered in the

1 case.

2 And the familiarity with, let's say,
3 Lynn Zigmunt, who conceivably could be a witness,
4 a casual acquaintance, one time a year, maybe at
5 the Christmas party or the graduation party,
6 sounds to me ever so much like Jacqueline
7 Ungrodt's acquaintance with Mr. Kratz, the woman
8 who is married to the former Corporation Counsel
9 of Calumet County and sees Mr. Kratz annually at 10 the bar dinner, the bench bar dinner, whatever it
11 is.

12 Indeed, that sounds like a longer
13 standing annual renewal and more recently sharing
14 the same table over dinner during the pendency of 15 this case. It sounded like a closer connection
16 and that was not cause to strike Mrs. Ungrodt, in 17 the Court's view. So we're removed from that, I
18 think, considerably here with Mr. Mohr.

19 And I can't -- I can't think of any
20 other reason, nor have I heard one, that would be 21 offered to strike him for cause. So --

22 THE COURT: Let me help focus the 23 argument --

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: Sure.

25 THE COURT: -- for the parties a bit here.

1 Neither party is arguing, and I agree in terms of
2 subjective bias, it appears this would be a very
3 good juror. He seems to have a concept of what a
4 juror's duty is and be willing to fill it. And in
5 terms of familiarity with members of the Clerk's
6 Office, I'm not sure that that alone would give the 7 Court too much concern; although, I don't know what
8 evidence the parties intend to introduce.

9 What bothers me a bit is that because --
10 he mentioned in one answer that he spoke to his 11 wife and learned that she would not have access
12 to the -- to the disputed evidence, the blood
13 vial, that in the course of deliberations he may 14 know something about the operation of the Clerk's
15 Office that wasn't brought in in evidence, by 16 virtue of his wife having worked there. And 17 the -- if some juror asks a question, in the 18 course of their deliberations, the difficulty he 19 may have in disclosing, discussing, or taking
20 into consideration, just for his own
21 deliberations, knowledge about the operations of 22 that office that were not part of the evidence in 23 this case. That I view as a concern.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: And here is why I think
25 it's not a concern. This Court was very clear in

1 it's written ruling on the admissibility of evidence
2 concerning the vial of blood that the only period of
3 time we're allowed to talk about is November 3,
4 November 4 and November 5, 2005.

5 Now, that's clearly a period of time
6 when his wife was not employed at the Clerk's
7 Office, either as a full-time person, because she 8 had retired some months earlier, or in the 9 temporary position that apparently she assumed
10 just -- I wasn't clear whether it was Monday,
11 February 5 or Monday, January 29, when he said
12 last Monday. But I took it as one or the other,
13 that she began her temporary employment here in 14 2007.

15 So given the limitation that the Court
16 has placed on evidence concerning possible access
17 to the blood vial, he just would not be in a
18 position to know anything from his wife.

19 THE COURT: Well, I understand that, but 20 what about the questions about how difficult it is 21 to get into the office, where those files are 22 typically kept, that type of thing. I mean, she 23 could have some background information that isn't 24 necessarily date specific that could --

25 And, again, I'm operating at a

1 disadvantage here; I don't know what evidence you
2 folks are going to be introducing. But it seems
3 to me that, my biggest concern, as I evaluate his 4 qualifications as a juror are, would be
5 information that he may possess that may be 6 difficult to point a finger to now, because
7 nobody knows the significance of it.

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, that's right. And,
9 you know, the record we have, none of that was 10 brought out, but beyond that, you know, we had a
11 young woman yesterday whose boyfriend's aunt is 12 Kelli Tice with the sheriff's department. Now,
13 might she know something about the operation of the 14 Manitowoc Sheriff's Department that would cause her
15 to be considering that information in weighing 16 testimony about the operation of that department,
17 sure, but, you know, this is --

18 THE COURT: This is a little closer than 19 that, though, he's said he's already talked to her
20 about it, his wife, and she said that she didn't
21 have access to it.

22 ATTORNEY STRANG: She said that she had no
23 access to it, as I understood him, that's correct.

24 THE COURT: Yeah.

25 ATTORNEY STRANG: And I'm not saying it's a

1 perfect match. I'm just saying that we're going to
2 have these connections and we're going to have to
3 rely, in the end, on the instruction the Court will
4 give the jurors that they are to decide the case
5 only on the evidence before them.

6 I mean, goodness knows, we have been
7 concerned about that and up to this point the 8 Court hasn't been willing to do anything curative
9 beyond that. So I -- And, you know, I don't
10 think anything more would be necessary here.
11 This is someone who, at least I took him to be 12 comfortable following the rules, so to speak, as 13 the Court gives them.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you. Just for the 16 record, the case to which I referred to the other
17 day and to which counsel refers again today is State
18 vs. Dale Smith, common spelling, 2006, Wisconsin
19 Opinion No. 74. It's a Supreme Court opinion.

20 I think I do see a difference between
21 the Smith case and the judicial -- or excuse me,
22 the administrative assistant who worked for the 23 District Attorney's Office out in juvenile court
24 who was then seated as a juror for a felony court
25 case downtown.

1 And the distinction is that she had no
2 other connection whatsoever with the case that
3 she sat as a juror on, other than through the 4 ranks, she worked for the same person as the 5 prosecutor, downtown. And the prosecutor, in 6 fact, if I recall correctly, did not know this
7 person well, if at all.

8 In the case at hand, we have a possible
9 juror here who knows several people in the 10 office. He has, again, as I said, asked
11 questions of his wife regarding this vial of 12 blood, which may or may not be introduced and may 13 or may not be a big factor or central focus of 14 the case. Its future remains to be seen.

15 But having said that, the Court made the 16 comments that I would make now, and that is,
17 there are other bits of information and that 18 includes access to the Clerk's Office who had --
19 who may or may not have had keys, who may or may 20 not have access to the cipher lock to get through 21 the second security door and the like.

22 And there's a variety of possible bits
23 of evidence which could be introduced, or for 24 whatever reason are omitted by the parties. And 25 that evidence, it may be omitted by error because

1 we overlooked it or there may be an intentional--
2 well, I don't want to ask that question.

3 And the possibility that that juror may
4 know the answer or could find out the answer,
5 raises a question relative to the possibility of 6 objective bias existing and/or developing during
7 the course of the trial. And that's why I think
8 it is different. And if we take the general
9 proviso of the Lindell case, I think the 10 appearance or the prospect of bias occurring is 11 at least real enough to justify an excuse for 12 cause. Thanks.

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, although, by my eye
14 on the clock, Mr. Fallon's voir dire went well over 15 the 20 minutes the Court had described, the juror is 16 still here; I mean, we can -- we can ask these 17 questions. There's just nothing here suggesting
18 that he's got any extra knowledge of the procedures
19 of that office or any way to know what the access 20 was or what the procedures were --

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 ATTORNEY STRANG: -- during the period of
23 time.

24 THE COURT: I think that's a valid
25 suggestion. I will note the defense that time

1 didn't come close to using their 20 minutes, so
2 that's a fair suggestion. Let's bring the juror
3 back in. I will give both parties an opportunity.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: Does the Court want to 5 start.

6 THE COURT: I will let you start.

7 You may be seated Mr. Mohr. The parties
8 have a few more questions they would like to 9 address to you. I will let -- Mr. Strang, you
10 may continue.

11 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

12 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

13 Q. Lucky you. Was your wife, Alice Mohr, employed
14 in any fashion at the Clerk of Court's Office
15 between November 3 and November 5, 2005?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. I -- I'm sorry, I -- I understood you to say she 18 retired in June of 2005 was I wrong about that.

19 A. Maybe, Janet -- Can you help me with that, Janet?
20 I thought it was June 2005.

21 THE CLERK: I know the answer.

22 THE COURT: I'm told the Clerk knows the 23 answer. I don't know if the parties want that -- I
24 mean the juror --

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: I don't have any problem

1 with her providing the answer. We're just trying to 2 figure out the parameters of where we are.

3 THE COURT: It's not a question of a
4 witness at a trial so.

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, let's get the answer.

6 THE CLERK: No, she wasn't.

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: Okay. All right.

8 Q. (By The Court)~ Is that good enough for you?

9 A. Sure.

10 Q. Okay. Have you ever -- In connection with this 11 case, have you ever discussed with your wife the 12 specifics of who had access to what areas of the 13 Clerk's Office.

14 A. No.

15 Q. Was the discussion with her more simply that she 16 did not have access to whatever this file was 17 with the vial of blood?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Did she tell you anything at all about whether it
20 was possible or not possible for someone outside
21 the Clerk's Office to have obtained access to the 22 vial of blood between November 3 and November 5,
23 2005?

24 A. I don't remember if she did or not, if it was. I
25 don't know if it's possible.

1 Q. But in any event, I guess she wasn't working
2 there during those three days?

3 A. Which three days?

4 Q. November 3 to November 5, 2005.

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And if -- if the Court instructs you, in the end,
7 if you serve on the jury, the Court instructs you
8 to decide this case only on the evidence you hear
9 in the courtroom, not anything you may know or 10 think you know from the media, or from your wife,
11 or from a neighbor, or any other source than 12 outside this courtroom; can you follow the 13 instruction scrupulously to decide this case only 14 on the evidence you heard in court?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Including if that evidence were to conflict with 17 something you think your wife might say if you
18 asked her; can you follow the Court's rule to 19 decide the case, only on the evidence you
20 actually hear in this courtroom?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Any question at all about that?

23 A. I wouldn't be asking my wife because if I would 24 be on the jury, I would be prohibited to talk to 25 her about it.

1 Q. And would you live with that rule too?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Thank you.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

5 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

6 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

7 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

8 Q. Mr. Mohr, when did you have the discussion with 9 your wife regarding the possibility of her having 10 access or not having access to the vial of blood?
11 When did that occur?

12 A. I'm not real good on dates here.

13 Q. Within the last month?

14 A. I would say yes.

15 Q. All right. Was there anyone else present other
16 than just the two of you?

17 A. No.

18 Q. As best you can, can you tell us what was 19 discussed. What did she tell you, everything
20 that you can recall of that conversation?

21 A. Just that the vial was in the office and that it
22 was in an unsecure area -- or maybe I picked that 23 up off the TV, I'm not sure now.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. But that's all I remember.

1 Q. Okay. Did she describe to you how it was not
2 possible for her, or how she could not have had
3 access to the vial?

4 A. No.

5 Q. She just said, Bill, I didn't have any access to 6 it. Did you ask the question or did she 7 volunteer it to you?

8 A. She volunteered it to me.

9 Q. Okay. Any particular reason how that came up in 10 the conversation?

11 A. Probably since we heard it on the news.

12 Q. Okay. Do you recall what you heard on the news?

13 A. Just basically that, that it was a vial of blood,
14 old -- old sample of blood.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. And that it had been tampered with. And I
17 believe the TV showed a security tape or 18 something that you could see was ripped or 19 something off of that sample.

20 Q. And how do you know -- Do you know if it's been 21 tampered with or is that just an impression you
22 have, or where does that come from?

23 A. Just took the media's word for it.

24 Q. Okay. Why would you take the media's word for
25 that?

1 A. That's the only source. And don't get me wrong,
2 I take everything that the media says with a
3 grain of salt.

4 Q. All right.

5 A. I don't necessarily believe it or not believe it.

6 Q. All right. So do you have an opinion right now
7 as to whether that sample was tampered?

8 A. No.

9 Q. All right. So you are just using that phrase
10 because that's how it was portrayed by the media?

11 A. Right.

12 Q. All right. So, it's your recollection that your 13 wife just volunteered that information?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. One second. Where did your wife tell you
16 the vial was located, such that she did not have 17 access to it?

18 A. She just -- If I recall the words, it was in a
19 file. That's all she said.

20 Q. In a file.

21 A. In a file.

22 Q. So you don't know if it was in a secured or 23 unsecured area?

24 A. No, I don't.

25 Q. And if it's in an unsecure area, she would have

1 had access to it?

2 A. I suppose if she would have known that it was
3 there, maybe she didn't even know it was there.

4 I have no idea.

5 Q. All right. So you are just taking her at her
6 word when she says, I didn't have access to it?

7 A. Correct. Yeah. I don't know the office myself.
8 I don't know the layout, so I wouldn't even know
9 where it's stored. It was a surprise to me to 10 find out that something like that would be stored
11 in that office.

12 Q. Right.

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all.

14 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

15 BY THE COURT:

16 Q. Mr. Mohr, do you recall getting the letter from 17 the Court a month or so ago notifying you about 18 your service in this trial and asking you not to 19 talk to anybody about it or watch any more news
20 media coverage?

21 A. Yes, I do.

22 Q. The letter?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Do you know if -- Did this discussion with your 25 wife; do you know if it happened before or after

1 you got the letter?

2 A. I really can't say for sure.

3 Q. Have you had any other discussions about this
4 case with your wife other than on that one
5 occasion.

6 A. No.

7 Q. And this question may have been asked already,
8 but just to clarify, did you, other than 9 remembering your wife's statement that she didn't
10 have access to this file, was there any other 11 discussion you had with her about this case and 12 the evidence in the Clerk's Office?

13 A. No.

14 THE COURT: All right. The Clerk will
15 escort you from the courtroom at this time.

16 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

17 THE COURT: Any further brief argument from
18 either party?

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: Quite frankly, I think
20 the responses helped the State both on this argument
21 and in -- with respect to the potential evidence of 22 this case. I think the information obtained --
23 possessed by Mr. Mohr is very helpful to the State
24 and it would be great to have him on the jury, quite 25 frankly. But I don't want to take a chance that

1 this conviction is reversed as a result of
2 information that he has that no other juror may
3 have.

4 And can you just possibly imagine the
5 discussion, let's just say, for instance, the 6 vial of blood was a central aspect of the case,
7 because we still don't know if it is. But let's
8 assume that it is. And let's assume there was a
9 question about who had access, or who would have 10 known where it was.

11 Can you imagine the discussion, I mean
12 after the arguments of counsel, and Mr. Mohr were 13 to say, well, geez, my wife works there and she 14 didn't even know where it was, how can we expect 15 one of these officers to perhaps have snuck in 16 there and gotten it.

17 I mean, it's powerful, great stuff,
18 helps us, but I don't want to take a chance of 19 this conviction being reversed because of a juror
20 has knowledge of the internal workings and the 21 viable possibilities or impossibilities of access
22 to that office. And as further evidence, he 23 can't separate right now whether it's in a secure
24 or unsecure area and he doesn't even know if he 25 got that from his wife or the media. In

1 fairness, this person should not sit as a juror.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: I disagree. I mean
4 there's no risk of the conviction being reversed on 5 this; we're the ones who are opposing the motion to 6 strike him for cause. And by the time -- Just if 7 the Court's rulings remain as they are and are not
8 reconsidered in any way, the jury in the end will 9 know a lot more from the evidence about where this 10 vial was, who may have had access to it, than 11 Mr. Mohr presently knows from the TV. And that,
12 what he knows from the television or the media,
13 sounds to me like more than he knows from Mrs. Mohr.

14 THE COURT: All right. The Court's
15 impression from Mr. Mohr when he came back is that 16 he does not remember -- well, he doesn't remember
17 much detail about what he was told. He doesn't 18 really remember whether the information he does
19 have, limited as it may be, came from his wife or 20 from the news media.

21 I -- I don't -- I don't believe he 22 claims or would claim to possess any specific
23 enough information that would impact this case
24 one way or another. He only had one discussion
25 with his wife and it appears to relate to just

1 her feelings, whether she had access to the
2 evidence.

3 And it does not appear to have been in
4 great detail, nor do I believe that it happened
5 after the Court's letter went out. It appears
6 to -- because it doesn't mention any testing of 7 the blood, but rather the existence of the blood
8 evidence, I believe that relates back to the 9 December hearing over in Chilton. So, I'm going
10 to accept Mr. Mohr as a juror in this case.

11 Counsel, because of the fact that we
12 were concerned about running short on jurors this 13 morning, they called some in slightly out of 14 order. I think these are jurors who would be 15 called in any event, so I'm looking at No. 66 as 16 the next juror to call, if you have got that 17 questionnaire ready. Because of the length of 18 time the jurors have been waiting.

19 ATTORNEY BUTING: So the other ones coming
20 up are not here yet?

21 THE COURT: No, they are here, but they got
22 here later than these. As a courtesy to the jurors.

23 The other thing I would note is, at the 24 break, I would like to address Juror 74, because 25 he falls into the same category, been here since

1 this morning; actually, I think it was earlier.
2 But let's take Juror 66, Mr. Pederson at this
3 time.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: Let me -- Let me just
5 give the Court a heads up. We only grabbed the 6 questionnaires through No. 72, thinking we were safe
7 because only 12 were coming here.

8 THE COURT: Okay. We'll -- I will give you
9 a copy to look at at the break.

10 ATTORNEY BUTING: We have looked at 74
11 already, though.

12 THE COURT: You have?

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: Right, but --

14 ATTORNEY BUTING: We're ready for that one.

15 ATTORNEY STRANG: But in terms of being 16 ready, we --

17 THE COURT: I hope that's the last one.
18 But we'll take Juror 66 at this time.

19 Mr. Keehan, please raise your right hand
20 and the clerk will swear you in.

21 (Juror sworn.)

22 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Keehan, you have already 24 filled out a questionnaire in this case, today we're 25 moving on to the next phase of jury selection which

1 is voir dire. The attorneys for the parties will
2 have a chance in a few minutes to ask you some
3 questions regarding the case.

4 Before we get to that, I want to let you
5 know that the jurors in this case will not be 6 sequestered. That means at the conclusion of 7 court proceedings each day the jurors will be
8 permitted to return home.

9 We're able to do that because of the 10 requirement that the jurors not learn anything
11 about this case from the media during the course
12 of the trial; either radio, television,
13 newspaper, internet, or anything else. And that 14 the jurors continue to be prohibited from 15 discussing the case with anyone, including other 16 jurors and members of their families during the 17 course of the trial.

18 Although the proceedings today are open,
19 no cameras are allowed in the courtroom during 20 voir dire and the media is prohibited from 21 disclosing the identity of jurors in reports of 22 these proceedings.

23 In addition, should you be selected to
24 serve as a juror, the cameras are not permitted
25 to show the jurors during the trial. In the

1 event you continue on in this case, you will be
2 notified in a day or two when you are to return
3 to court.

4 At this time, Mr. Fallon will ask you
5 some questions.

6 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

7 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

8 Q. Good afternoon, sir.

9 A. Good afternoon.

10 Q. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
11 General with the Wisconsin Department of Justice.
12 I'm one of the prosecutors in this case. To my
13 immediate left is Mr. Ken Kratz, Calumet County
14 District Attorney and lead prosecutor in this 15 matter. Good afternoon and thank you for coming
16 back this afternoon.

17 Court and counsel, we have some 18 questions for you to follow up on some of the 19 information you provided in your questionnaire to 20 assist us in selecting a jury in this case.

21 I guess I would like to begin with, just 22 briefly, a little bit about your employment. How 23 long have you worked at your current paper
24 company?

25 A. 15 years.

1 Q. All right. And what duties have you performed
2 for the company?

3 A. I have been driving roll clamp truck for the last
4 11 years and then I was, like, general helping
5 between different jobs --

6 Q. Right.

7 A. -- wherever they needed me, until I took this job
8 that I'm on now.

9 Q. All right. All right. And one of the primary
10 purposes for inquiring about your work situation
11 is, as you have probably figured out from the 12 questionnaire and perhaps other sources, this may 13 be a rather lengthy trial.

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. Might run six weeks?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. Is there any concern in your mind as to whether 18 you would be able to have sufficient income to 19 support yourself and your family if you were 20 selected as a jury -- juror during this time?

21 A. I don't think so. The only thing that would be 22 is because I run a small part-time business. We 23 would have weekends off, right?

24 Q. Right.

25 A. Okay. No, I wouldn't have no problem. My

1 company does pick up part of the -- of the money
2 for jury duty, so ...

3 Q. Okay. What kind of part time business do you run
4 on the weekends?

5 A. I chain saw carve part-time -- or everyday, I
6 should say. That's what I was doing this morning
7 when they called me.

8 Q. All right. I saw that from your questionnaire.
9 What kind of carvings do you do?

10 A. Basically everything you can think of. We have 11 done from bears, eagles, gnomes. The nativity
12 scene in Two Rivers by the park across from the 13 courthouse --

14 Q. Right.

15 A. -- I have done that.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. The only other one would be along Memorial Drive,
18 that big bear by the Honey Pot and then the sign
19 I carved.

20 Q. All right. So you are pretty active with that
21 business?

22 A. Yeah, it's -- it's -- right now it's starting to 23 pick up again for spring and then into summer.
24 Fall, mostly is my busiest time.

25 Q. All right. Now is that the business that your

1 wife is involved in as well?

2 A. Yeah, she does most of the staining or painting
3 on it.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. Any other employees that might be dependent upon
7 you and your wife for that work, that you might 8 be letting down?

9 A. No, we just go by, basically by orders. People
10 call me. It's by word of mouth. No advertising,
11 no web pages or nothing like that, so ...

12 Q. Okay. Very well. Next thing I wanted to talk
13 about is your familiarity with some of the 14 potential witnesses in this particular case.
15 Apparently you recognize the names of Brendan and 16 Brian Dassey?

17 A. Yes. My -- I had noted on there too, that my son
18 went to school -- grade school at Reedsville.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. I don't know the exact date when it was. It was 21 -- God, I would have to say maybe third, second
22 grade, somewhere in that area.

23 Q. All right. And your son went to school with 24 which one?

25 A. Brandan (sic), actually, is the same age as my

1 son.

2 Q. Okay. All right. And how about Brian Dassey?

3 A. I wasn't quite sure on the age differences. I
4 know both boys did go to Reedsville at one time,
5 many, many years back. I -- Like I said, I don't
6 know for sure what year. I was thinking maybe it
7 was 15, 20, 17 years ago, something like that.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. No, it would have to be less. It would have to 10 be maybe 10, maybe 12 years ago. I don't know
11 the exact date. I would have to ask my son. He 12 would know for sure, but I know it was grade
13 school.

14 Q. All right. Did you yourself have any 15 interactions with either Brendan or Brian?

16 A. No, never knew the kids.

17 Q. All right. Were they close friends of your son,
18 do you think?

19 A. No, no, he had them in maybe a class and that was
20 it.

21 Q. All right.

22 A. Like I said, he only knew him for maybe a year or 23 two and that was it.

24 Q. So, they weren't, like, close friends --

25 A. No.

1 Q. -- or acquaintances --

2 A. No.

3 Q. -- they just happened to be in the same
4 classroom?

5 A. Yeah, same class.

6 Q. All right. Well, since you happen to know them
7 and there's a possibility that one or both of 8 them may appear, it's still a very open question
9 as to that; the fact that they may appear as 10 witnesses in this particular case, would that 11 cause you any concern as to whether you could be 12 a juror in this case?

13 A. No.

14 Q. All right. Do you think you could evaluate their 15 testimony, their credibility, their
16 believability, their honesty, the same as you
17 would any other witness?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. All right. As you are no doubt aware and from 20 some of the comments that you made in your 21 questionnaire, this case has received a pretty
22 fair amount of publicity?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. All right. So we want to talk a little bit about 25 that, if we could. You indicated that you get

1 your news from a variety of sources; radio,
2 television, newspapers, neighbors, etcetera.
3 Given those sources, which one would you say
4 provides you with the greatest information
5 regarding this?

6 A. I would have to say the morning news. It's 7 basically I watch it for about an hour in the 8 morning until I get back outside; 6:30 get my kid
9 up for school, my son. And then it's probably 10 until about 7:30 when I flip it off, so ... And 11 then it's sporadic. It's when I'm here, while 12 I'm getting my son ready for school and getting 13 my stuff going for the day, so...

14 Q. So, it's on as background noise as it were --

15 A. Yeah, more or less. Yeah.

16 Q. -- for that first hour in the morning while 17 everybody is getting ready?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. Do you read the newspapers regularly?

20 A. No, very seldom. It's maybe once or twice a 21 week. And if it is, it's at work and it's 22 usually a day late paper that we get --

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. -- that somebody just tosses on the table, so...

25 Q. Okay. So that's not a regular source of news for

1 you?

2 A. No. No. Usually weekend paper and that's about
3 it.

4 Q. All right. Weekend, Sunday paper?

5 A. Yeah, Sentinel, Press Gazette.

6 Q. Okay. Sentinel, meaning the Milwaukee Sentinel?

7 A. Yes, I'm sorry, yes, Milwaukee sentinel.

8 Q. And the Green Bay Press Gazette?

9 A. Yeah.

10 Q. Okay. Now, you also mentioned radio as a
11 possible source for your news. Tell us a little 12 bit about that, how much of that?

13 A. APL, I listen to, so it's very seldom. They have 14 a news thing in the morning, maybe five minutes.
15 And that's about it. And they really don't talk
16 a lot about it.

17 Q. So it's just a real encapsulated --

18 A. Yeah. Yeah.

19 Q. -- headline news for the day.

20 A. Yeah. I try to listen to more music than news,
21 so ...

22 Q. Okay. All right. All right. Given that -- And 23 how about your neighbors?

24 A. No, I don't. We live about a quarter mile off
25 the highway where I live now and our nearest

1 neighbor is about two miles away --

2 Q. All right.

3 A. So, there's -- And it's just an elderly women --
4 woman that we -- that is our neighbor, so ...

5 Q. And with this weather, I'm sure it's a long walk
6 up that driveway?

7 A. Oh, yeah. Just a little bit.

8 Q. All right. Based on that -- those sources of 9 information, what do you recall hearing about
10 this case? I mean, we're interested in knowing
11 how much you have heard about it.

12 What's your first -- Well, we'll start
13 with your first recollection of the case?

14 A. I knew two of the guys that were on the 15 Kellnersville Fire Department that were in the 16 search. But I really didn't talk to them. My 17 son goes to school with their kids. They had 18 said a few things about it.

19 Then, mostly from the newspaper,
20 television. When we would go out you talk to 21 people, people talked about it --

22 Q. Right.

23 A. -- stuff like that.

24 Q. So that's kind of the word of mouth source?

25 A. Yeah, it's -- that's basically the way it is.

1 Like at work, it's a lot of guys that work second
2 shift. We don't see a lot of news because
3 everybody is doing things in the morning before
4 you get to work. And then that's how, you sit 5 around the lunch table and a few people talk and 6 that's about it.

7 Q. All right.

8 A. So ...

9 Q. Have there ever been any extensive discussions
10 regarding the media coverage or the information
11 provided by the media?

12 A. No, just bits and pieces as people talk about it,
13 but that's about it.

14 Q. All right.

15 A. You know, other than, just general stuff, yeah.

16 Q. I'm sorry?

17 A. Just general stuff.

18 Q. All right.

19 A. Yeah.

20 Q. What's the next thing you remember after the 21 initial search and all that; what's the next
22 media bit of information you recall?

23 A. Just the arrest and stuff that, they had found
24 the body --

25 Q. Okay.

1 A. -- and things like of that nature.

2 Q. Okay. Any details stick out in your mind from 3 that earlier coverage?

4 A. No, not really. I really don't, anything on, you
5 know, top off my head, no, I can't think of 6 anything. Like I said, the way the finding and
7 then the arrest and stuff like that. But I
8 really didn't pay much attention to it. I'm just 9 finishing up building a log home, so I'm working 10 on that besides my other stuff, so, that's what 11 we've been doing.

12 Q. Just a little busy.

13 A. Yeah, I really don't pay a lot of attention to 14 the news --

15 Q. All right.

16 A. -- or politics, or the last election that's been,
17 so ...

18 Q. All right.

19 A. Try to turn it off so I don't have to listen to
20 it.

21 Q. All right. That's fair enough. There is one
22 thing that's of some interest, since your son
23 went to school with one or both of the Dassey
24 boys; did you pay any more attention to the case
25 when Mr. Dassey was arrested?

1 A. No, actually, I didn't even know about it until 2 my son had said that he had knew Brendan from 3 school. And we didn't even know he was at 4 Reedsville at that time.

5 Well, then close friends of ours that do
6 live in Reedsville, their -- would be his brother
7 -- friend of ours brother was on the school board
8 and then they were talking about it. And that 9 was the only thing that I knew about it. So I
10 never even knew that they were living in the area
11 at that time. So that was the only time that was 12 ever brought up.

13 Q. So you have -- you did not watch any of the media
14 coverage or -- regarding his arrest or any of his 15 involvement in the case?

16 A. No, just what people talk about at work. So I
17 did not -- I saw a little bit of it, but I really
18 didn't pay much attention to it.

19 Q. Okay. In terms of what people talked about at 20 work, can you recall any of that conversation at 21 this time?

22 A. No, just basically what they had heard on the 23 news, you know, like I said, when the arrest was 24 made and the other stuff that they had found, the 25 search that was going on. But that was about it,

1 the normal stuff people would usually talk about,
2 you know, when it's going on.

3 I mean, they are still talking about it
4 now, but like I said, I don't pay a lot of 5 attention to it. Because we take breaks at 6 different times. It's when you get a break or 7 when you can, that's when you go. And sometimes
8 there may be one person or there may be five in 9 there and there might be nobody in there at all,
10 so ...

11 Q. In the break room you are talking about?

12 A. Yes, in the break room, I'm sorry.

13 Q. Sure. Are there any details at all that stick in 14 your head from any of that break room
15 conversation?

16 A. When they had found the body I believe -- I know
17 there was a number of people that were talking
18 about it.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. And then how they had found it. And then I know
21 a guy had said that he had talked to a friend or 22 a brother of his that was in the search and then
23 that, you know, that they were checking the cars
24 and stuff like that, but that was about it.

25 Q. All right. No other details as to how she died,

1 or what happened, or any of the those details,
2 none of that sticks in your head?

3 A. No, nothing. I know they had said something
4 about there was a rape, I believe.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. But that was, you know ...

7 Q. That's only from what you heard in the break
8 room --

9 A. Yeah, that's only from what I heard, yeah, from 10 other guys talking and people, but nothing. I
11 don't remember reading anything about it. I know
12 I heard it on the TV. I know Channel 11 was 13 broadcasting it, but that was -- that was about
14 it.

15 Q. So it's all pretty fuzzy?

16 A. It's not fuzzy. I mean, I know what had happened
17 or what they had reported on TV.

18 Q. Well, that's what I'm trying to get at, if you
19 could tell us what you remember there?

20 A. I know they were searching for the body because 21 it's -- or searching for her. Then it went to 22 what I remember next is that they had found her
23 at the junkyard. And then the coverage on TV, I
24 know they had showed it from an aerial view,
25 roped off, where they found -- they thought they

1 found the body.

2 Q. Mm-hmm.

3 A. And then how they were coming up with some of the 4 evidence and stuff like that, so ... Like I
5 said, it was bits and pieces. It's not that I
6 was paying attention to it the whole time so ...

7 Q. Okay. All right. Well, we would like to ask you
8 some questions about, you know, as a result of 9 these various sources of information. You know
10 the break room chatter and some of the coverage
11 you saw on TV and the like. Right now, I mean,
12 as Mr. Avery sits here, do you have any opinion
13 as to whether you think he's guilty or not?

14 A. Yes, I do.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. All right. What is your opinion?

18 A. That he is probably guilty, yes.

19 Q. Probably?

20 A. Yeah, probably guilty. But like I said, we were 21 told by the Judge before and then in the letters,
22 that we have to keep an open mind and, you know,
23 until the evidence is brought in front --

24 Q. Right.

25 A. -- so...

1 Q. So that's just an impression you have based on
2 the break room chatter --

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. -- and what the media coverage is?

5 A. Yes. Yes.

6 Q. All right. Now, you -- Are you saying that's --
7 you have a real strong opinion on that, or that's 8 just the impression that is held by you or the 9 community?

10 A. Yeah, held by the community, the impression the 11 way people are talking.

12 Q. Right.

13 A. For me personally, I have no opinion right now, 14 you know.

15 Q. You don't know?

16 A. I don't know. I don't know the whole -- the 17 whole story. Like I said, I haven't been really
18 keeping up with everything. I do have other
19 things besides the TV, newspapers, so ...

20 Q. Right. So, in terms of whatever that information
21 -- or not whatever, but the information that you
22 have been exposed to; do you feel pretty
23 confident you can set that aside and follow the 24 Judge's advice and --

25 A. Yeah, I think so.

1 Q. -- if you were selected as a juror, you could
2 decide this case just based on what you hear in 3 the courtroom?

4 A. I think so, yes.

5 Q. All right. Now, you realize that Mr. Avery is 6 presumed innocent?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right. And that he remains innocent unless 9 and until we can convince you with solid evidence
10 that he is guilty, beyond a reasonable doubt?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. And you accept that --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. -- that he doesn't have to do anything?

15 A. No.

16 Q. All right.

17 A. Right.

18 Q. And that the only one with a burden of proof or 19 responsibility in this courtroom is the State?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. All right. Okay.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: I will pass the juror.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

25 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

1 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

2 Q. And thank you. I want to start by asking you how
3 to pronounce your last name.

4 A. Keehan.

5 Q. Keehan?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Okay. And I'm Dean Strang, Jerome Buting, Steven
8 Avery. Jerry Buting and I are defending
9 Mr. Avery. Did I -- Did I catch, and I'm not 10 sure I did, but did I -- did I understand you
11 correctly that you work second shift at 12 Weyerhaeuser?

13 A. Yes, I do.

14 Q. So when does that shift run.

15 A. From 2 until 10. And usually by the time I get
16 home, it's 10:30. And then from 10:30, I have a
17 shop, so I work outside either on carvings or I'm 18 working on a Jeep right now, so ...

19 Q. You're not carving a jeep, presumably?

20 A. No, no, I'm doing fabrication work on it.

21 Q. Okay. You -- You asked a question about whether 22 we were going to go weekends?

23 A. Yeah.

24 Q. And I'm not so sure the lawyers really can answer
25 that.

1 A. Okay.

2 Q. It would be for the Court to answer, but let me
3 ask you a little bit about whether weekends would
4 change the balance for you on the hardship
5 question?

6 A. No, just that it would give me more time to do my
7 sideline job, Saturday it would be. I mean, I do
8 carve Saturdays now, because I work second. But 9 usually mornings is when I do carving to keep up
10 with my orders.

11 Q. Right. It was pretty clear, correct me if I'm 12 wrong --

13 A. Yeah.

14 Q. -- it was pretty clear to me that you produce
15 some income from these carvings.

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. It's not just pure hobby.

18 A. No. No. Actually, there was a meeting I had 19 gone to -- well, we were supposed to go to two 20 weeks ago in Wisconsin Dells. I do most of the 21 Chapters of Wisconsin Water Fowl. I don't know
22 if you're familiar with that. And then I sell
23 them at cost, carvings, and then they auction
24 them off at their banquets for --

25 Q. Sure.

1 A. -- money itself. And then I have a few churches
2 I have to do, Roncalli High School, I have an
3 order to do for their auction coming up, so ...

4 Q. So these are orders with firm delivery deadlines?

5 A. Yeah, I have April, March, I believe, is where I
6 have a few that I have. I have some stuff
7 already done and built up for inventory, so to 8 speak.

9 Q. Mm-hmm.

10 A. So ...

11 Q. Okay. I think this is going to be okay, but you
12 are the guy that has to say. And certainly at 13 the end of the case there would -- when all the 14 evidence is in and the lawyers, we have all had 15 our say, the jury gets the case to decide,
16 obviously?

17 A. Yeah.

18 Q. And at that point, it's entirely possible that,
19 you know, that it would not be an 8:30 to 5 kind
20 of --

21 A. Yeah, I understand that. Yeah.

22 Q. For however long the jury deliberations went on.

23 A. Right.

24 Q. Which none of us can control and you can't even 25 predict because that's up to the 12.

1 A. Yeah, I understand that. I'm just saying if
2 there wouldn't be working weekends kind of a --
3 So ...

4 Q. Okay. I mean --

5 A. Yeah.

6 Q. Look, there's no shame in saying this is a
7 problem.

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. We just need to know now --

10 A. No, no.

11 Q. If it will --

12 A. It will not be a problem.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. I will make it work. It is not a problem.

15 Q. All right. What high school does your son go to?

16 A. Reedsville.

17 Q. And you -- The connection to Brendan and Brian
18 Dassey is really just through your son?

19 A. Yes. And then, like I said, friends of ours that 20 do live in Reedsville and his brother was on the 21 school board at that time, they had mentioned it
22 a few times.

23 But like I said, I have never known
24 Brendan and never met Brendan or his brother.
25 Like I said, the only time I knew they were there

1 is when my son had said that Brendan had gone to
2 school with him, or he was in the same class.
3 And I don't know what grade it was, I really
4 didn't ask him, so ...

5 Q. What else did your son tell you about Brendan?

6 A. He was in the slow part of classes. He wasn't in 7 their class, but he had his own teacher --

8 Q. Mm-hmm.

9 A. -- with a few others kids so that -- He wasn't --
10 I don't know how to explain there. How do you
11 say that, not handicapped, but he was just a slow
12 learner.

14 A. So that was all that he had said about it. He 15 didn't know Brendan -- He knew Brendan, but he 16 didn't hang around with him. He wasn't friends
17 with him, so ...

18 Q. Okay. I mean, so did your son tell you that 19 Brendan was in some of our regular classes with 20 us --

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. -- and some of them he would be taken out --

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. -- with a small --

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. -- group of --

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. -- other kids?

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. Just to help the slower learner?

6 A. Yes. Like I think it was Math class and -- I

7 don't what their class room was, but their was

8 two classes that he was in a different class for,

9 or with them, so ...

10 Q. Okay. All right. Anything else at all that he

11 told you about -- about, you know, more recent

12 stuff --

13 A. No.

14 Q. -- or what he thought about the allegations?

15 A. No, nothing.

16 Q. Okay. And in answering Mr. Fallon on something

17 when he was asking you about publicity after

18 Brendan got charged, you may remember that Steven

19 was charged back --

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. -- in November of 2005?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And then Brendan Dassey gets charged in -- right

24 at the beginning of March, 2006.

25 A. Yeah. I kind of remember a little bit on the TV

1 about it. But that was -- his involvement, I
2 really don't remember what was said about -- I
3 just know that he was arrested. My son had
4 brought it up and said that he went to school
5 with him, but that was basically about it.

6 Q. Okay. And you said you saw a little bit and I
7 understand you don't remember, necessarily, all
8 the details of that. But do you remember, was it
9 a news conference you saw, or a 6 o'clock news
10 report, or a court proceeding, since some of 11 those have been televised? Do you remember kind
12 of what it was you saw?

13 A. If it was anything, probably be in the morning
14 during the news at 6:30, 7:00. Just that they
15 were bringing him in to -- I remember seeing him
16 on TV, he was in handcuffs and then a jumper suit
17 and that they were taking him here at the 18 courthouse or the jail and then they were 19 transferring him to Sheboygan, I believe.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. So that was about it and then that they were 22 charging him with helping out with the murder,
23 something to that affect.

24 Q. So probably more like a news report?

25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. Not so much a news conference?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Did you see Mr. Kratz, the gentleman closest to 4 you, in any, you know, news appearances or news
5 conferences?

6 A. No, seen his face on TV, but that was about it.

7 Q. Okay. All right. WAPL, that's your station so
8 to speak?

9 A. Yeah, I've listened to that and sometimes the 10 Razor on 94.

11 Q. Out of Milwaukee?

12 A. I believe so. I don't know for sure. It's 13 occasionally, my son flips my channels on me all 14 of the time so it's kind of whatever, if it gets 15 too head bang music, I have got to turn it off.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. So ...

18 Q. And that was where I was going is WAPL is sort of 19 a classic rock --

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. -- or '70s rock --

22 A. Yeah.

23 Q. -- format?

24 A. Yeah, it's -- And that's occasionally I listen to 25 it in the morning.

1 Q. Are you a talk radio guy at all?

2 A. No, no, I really don't listen to any.

3 Q. Or call in?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Any of that?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Did your -- When your son told you this little
8 bit about Brendan, did he, that is your son, did
9 he, you know, sort of characterize this in any 10 way for you, like that he was surprised, or he 11 wasn't surprised, or he didn't think Brendan
12 could do something like this, or he could see 13 just how he could do it, any of that kind of 14 subjective stuff, if you know what I mean?

15 A. No, the only thing he had said, that he was 16 surprised that he seen Brendan on the TV and that 17 the kids at school were talking about it.

18 Q. Mm-hmm.

19 A. As to anything else, no he never said nothing.

20 Q. Are you -- You are, obviously, a member of the 21 paper workers, which is an AFL-CIO affiliate?

22 A. Yeah, we just joined steel workers through the 23 AFL-CIO.

24 Q. Okay. And you're in a union shop where you had 25 to join the union?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Okay. And are you active in the union?

3 A. No, I'm not. Just a member, because where I

4 work, I have to be a member of the union.

5 Q. Right.

6 A. So that's -- that's ...

7 Q. You pay your dues?

8 A. That's right, yeah.

9 Q. Okay. Is that -- Is that something that you are

10 happy about, or sticks in your craw, or a little

11 of both depending on --

12 A. No, the union is good in some ways, and some ways

13 not, but the only thing is they just upped our

14 dues again, so, I'm not real happy about that.

15 Q. Okay. And you are no longer a foreman, but you

16 were for a time a foreman on the second shift?

17 A. Yes, that was at Valders' Stone and Marble when I

18 used to work there. I was there for nine and a

19 half years and I was a shift general foreman on 20 second, so ...

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. I didn't know if that pertained to anything so I

23 just wrote it down.

24 Q. Sure, that's good. And I'm not going to go

25 deeply into this, I have a specific reason for

1 asking this; I don't know what a clamp truck is?

2 A. In the paper mill I work it's -- we make
3 cardboard boxes, mostly tissue boxes, like you
4 see your Viva --

5 Q. Sure.

6 A. -- or stuff like that. And what I do is I bring 7 in 8,000 pound rolls of paper and it's a huge
8 forklift with a V-6 Chevy engine in it. And it
9 clamps the paper. And I bring it in, I lay it on 10 the floor, they run one off the roll and then I
11 take it back out.

12 Q. Okay. But it's an open cab --

13 A. Yes, yeah.

14 Q. -- and not something with a radio in it?

15 A. No, no. It's in the plant.

16 Q. Got it. I was -- I ended up a little bit
17 confused, which is probably me not you. But 18 on -- on opinions of Mr. Avery's guilt, or 19 possible, probable guilt, is this something that 20 you tend to think at this moment he's guilty or 21 your sense is that other people tend to think he
22 is guilty?

23 A. No. I kind of think he is, yes.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. And a lot of people, I believe they do think he

1 is.

2 Q. And do you hear -- I mean, of the folks you are
3 hanging around with, do you hear anybody taking
4 the contrary position sort of saying, oh, you
5 know, I think -- I think he didn't do it or ...

6 A. Nothing -- nobody that I work with. My wife had 7 said that there were a few people she works with 8 in Green Bay that had talked about that they 9 figured he was set up in a way, so ...

10 Q. Where does Lois work?

11 A. De Leers Millwork in Green Bay. She's a cabinet
12 maker.

13 Q. Okay. So she's getting some chitty chat about 14 this too?

15 A. Yeah. Yeah. Yeah.

16 Q. And then you and she talk about it some.

17 A. Not too often, usually when I talk to her it's at 18 night, usually on my break I will call her from 19 the cell phone and then I talk to her. Because 20 by the time I get home, she's already in bed.

21 She's up at 4 to be at work at 5.

22 Q. She's a first shift?

23 A. Yeah, so we -- the only time we talk during the 24 week is on the phone or write a note.

25 Q. Okay. So where she's at, she tells you that

1 maybe there's some split opinion, where the
2 people you're around, they all think he is
3 guilty?

4 A. Yeah, pretty much. Yeah, Green Bay, they are 5 kind of different talk.

6 Q. Okay. Or apparently, that's your wife's
7 experience.

8 A. Yeah.

9 Q. And, you know, it looks like you don't have a
10 daughter or anything?

11 A. Yeah, she's -- actually goes to school in Fox
12 Valley and she works and lives in Fox -- in the 13 Fox Valley -- in Appleton I should say. She's 14 19.

15 Q. Oh, okay, so you do have --

16 A. Yeah, I have an older daughter and then my son is 17 17.

18 Q. Okay. I'm sorry, you didn't list the daughter,
19 is that just because she's out of the house?

20 A. Yeah, I didn't know if it pertained because she's 21 over 18, so I didn't know and she's pretty much
22 on her own.

23 Q. Sure. Sure. And I'm sorry, she's in the Fox
24 Valley somewhere?

25 A. Yeah, she goes to Fox Valley Tech. She lives in

1 Appleton, on the east side, so ...

2 Q. Right. She's a full-time student or something?

3 A. Full-time student and then she works part-time?

4 Q. And not married?

5 A. No, not yet, I hope.

6 Q. Well, I mean, so she's not that much younger than

7 Teresa Halbach was. And when this -- when this

8 all broke, so to speak, or came out, was this

9 part of your reaction as a dad?

10 A. More when she went missing, yeah, you know, it

11 kind of puts it in the back of your head, I would

12 believe, but, yeah, a little bit.

13 Q. Sure.

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. Okay. So, I mean, I can ask this a number of 16 ways, but why would you not think Steven Avery is

17 guilty, given what everybody around you is saying

18 and the media and, you know, your daughter.

19 A. Why wouldn't I not think he is not guilty?

20 Q. Yeah, why would you not think he is guilty?

21 A. Yeah, I mean, automatically, it was the first

22 thought, but until I was given the letter by the

23 Judge that we should consider this a different

24 way, well, then it was, you know, trying to think

25 of it that way, so ...

1 Q. Right, I mean --

2 A. You know.

3 Q. -- everybody -- everybody gets to have their
4 opinion, but I guess if you are a juror, then you
5 have to take on a different role?

6 A. Yes, that's the way I had taken it. Yeah, and 7 then so trying to think of it as a different way,
8 I believe, so ...

9 Q. Yeah, and -- and I really -- I really do
10 appreciate that. I think that's -- that's right.
11 And by the same token, I need your -- I really 12 need your honesty in telling me whether you have 13 any questions about your ability to set aside,
14 you know, the perfectly understandable opinions
15 you have formed over a period of time, as you
16 come into the prospect, at least, of serving on 17 this jury. If you have any doubts about that,
18 you should tell us about those now.

19 A. If I have doubts of being on the jury or ...

20 Q. Your ability to set aside those opinions
21 entirely.

22 A. No, I think I can. Like I said, since before I
23 had not really thought about it until now, when 24 I'm actually -- I have to think about it. And I
25 have been thinking about it. And it's -- it's a

1 lot -- a lot of pressure, so to speak. But I
2 think I can if I was selected as a jury (sic).
3 So ...

4 Q. And where do you feel the pressure; what is 5 exactly the pressure you are feeling on that?

6 A. God, I don't know. It's more, if I'm going to be 7 on the jury and then having to -- if I have to,
8 can put somebody behind bars or, you know,
9 that -- that way, I guess.

10 Q. Sure.

11 A. I mean, in talking to people at work that have 12 found out that I am being selected for this,
13 telling me that, you know, we should be doing the 14 right thing. It's like, you know, I'm not 15 listening to what you guys are telling me, so
16 it's pretty much trying to keep an open mind --

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. -- is what I'm saying.

19 Q. Okay. But you are getting some pressure, in 20 other words --

21 A. Oh, yeah.

22 Q. -- from people saying --

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. -- convict him, do the right thing?

25 A. Oh, yeah. Oh yeah.

1 Q. Yeah.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. So that's one kind of pressure you could be
4 feeling. Are you also feeling pressure about,
5 you know, stuffing down or quieting down the
6 little voice in your own head that says, gee, I
7 think -- I think he probably is guilty?

8 A. Yeah. Oh, yeah. Yeah.

9 Q. Okay. And I think I heard you say that in any 10 really serious case, you would probably feel a
11 lot of pressure about actually making a decision
12 that's a thumbs up or a thumbs down. It has a
13 huge impact on people.

14 A. Yeah, probably somewhat, yeah. Like I said, I
15 told them that it would be, as the evidence was 16 brought forth, I think then I could keep an open
17 mind on that, you know.

18 Q. Okay. So let's say you serve on the jury and you
19 go all the way through and, you know, you just 20 are not convinced, based on the evidence, that 21 the State has proven this, beyond a reasonable
22 doubt.

23 And I'm going to make it harder on you.
24 I'm going to ask you to assume that you say, you
25 know, he might have done it. Strang and Buting,

1 they didn't convince me that he didn't do it. He
2 might have done it, but I'm just not convinced,
3 beyond a reasonable doubt, that he did it. So,
4 under the law, I have to vote not guilty.

5 If you came to that, I don't know if you
6 will or won't, but if you did come to that, can
7 you take what you are going to get the next
8 morning or the next afternoon at work?

9 A. Yeah, I think so.

10 Q. Why?

11 A. It's something I would have to live with, not
12 them. So, I mean, whatever they say it's -- I
13 mean, I only work with these guys for eight
14 hours. It's not like I have to live with them,
15 so ... Yeah, I ...

16 Q. Well, they are going to make -- they might make
17 you feel like they have to live with it, if you
18 hear comments like, oh, you let him back out on 19 the street.

20 A. Mm-hmm.

21 Q. Can you do that?

22 A. Yeah, I don't see why not. Yeah. Yeah, I have 23 no problem with that.

24 Q. One thing that we'll have to decide at this 25 table, the three of us, is whether Mr. Avery

1 would testify in his own defense. And that's a
2 tough call because, you know, on the one hand, if
3 the defendant testifies, somebody could say,
4 well, of course he's going to get up and deny it,
5 you know, he's trying to save his skin. If he
6 decides not to testify, then people may say,
7 what's he got to hide.

8 (Loud noise.)

9 THE COURT: That's our signal that the 10 battery is going on the microphone. So, we'll take 11 a short break. It's very subtle.

12 Mr. Strang, you may continue.

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

14 Q. (By Attorney Strang)~ If you -- So, if he doesn't
15 testify, you know, has he -- has he got something
16 to hide or, you know, geez, if I was charged and 17 I didn't do it, I would get up and say that I
18 didn't do it. Are you likely to have either one
19 of those feelings or both?

20 A. I don't think so. Isn't it basically on what the 21 evidence you guys bring to us, that we have to 22 decide.

23 Q. What those guys bring.

24 A. I'm sorry, what they have to.

25 Q. Yeah. Now, that's not to say that we won't

1 cross-examine people or we may even call
2 witnesses. But the real bottom line on it is the
3 Judge, the Judge's instructions, which will be, I
4 think, to this effect: One, if Mr. Avery
5 testifies, you have to consider him like any
6 other witness. Consider the same things you
7 would in deciding whether you believe anyone
8 else.

9 A. Mm-hmm. Okay.

10 Q. Okay. He is just another witness. Or, two, I
11 think the Judge will tell you, in effect, if 12 Mr. Avery does not testify, you can't even 13 consider that. You can't speculate on why he 14 didn't. You can't consider it evidence of guilt.
15 You can't consider it at all in deciding whether 16 the State proved him guilty, beyond a reasonable
17 doubt. Can you follow those instructions?

18 A. Yes, I think I could.

19 Q. You may hear -- While we're talking about 20 witnesses, you may hear evidence tending to 21 suggest that police officers are not telling the 22 truth, one or more police officers are not
23 telling the truth in reports or on the witness
24 stand.

25 That can be a hard pill for people to

1 swallow. The police officers are sworn to uphold
2 the law. They generally do. They are people we
3 look up to often. But in the end, you have to 4 consider them as any other witness, too, and
5 weigh, do I believe this? What are the reasons?
6 Does this testimony make sense or not make sense
7 to me? Can you do that?

8 A. I think, so.

9 Q. Can you envision a circumstance in which a police
10 officer might lie under oath?

11 A. No, I don't.

12 Q. Can you envision a circumstance where any witness
13 might lie under oath?

14 A. Possibly, I don't know, it's ...

15 Q. Okay. And that's where I'm going at?

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. Do you think the oath is so important to people
18 that no one ever violates an oath?

19 A. I would hope so. I would hope so, that it would 20 be.

21 Q. Well, we all hope so.

22 A. Yeah, but is it, I don't know.

23 Q. Okay. And other than if you have seen a robo cop
24 movie, have you ever met a police officer who 25 wasn't human?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Okay. So if the question really is, can you let 3 them be human too and weigh their testimony just 4 like you would weigh the testimony of any other
5 witness?

6 A. Yeah, I suppose I could.

7 Q. It sounded like -- If you have questions about
8 that, please just say so. There's no wrong
9 answer here.

10 A. No, I don't have any questions about that.
11 I'm -- I mean, if they swear the oath, then I'm 12 hoping that they are telling the truth.

13 Q. So am I.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. But in the end, if testimony conflicts and you
16 have to make a choice ...

17 A. Can I make that choice?

18 Q. Yeah.

19 A. I think I can.

20 Q. You will probably hear a good deal of scientific
21 evidence in this case as well. And then you may 22 hear evidence about the absence of scientific 23 evidence. Is scientific evidence something that 24 you think you can pay attention to?

25 A. I think so, yes.

1 Q. How do you think it rates as compared to other
2 types of evidence, eyewitness testimony or other
3 witnesses?

4 A. I really can't answer that, I don't know the 5 difference. You mean, if somebody is telling me,
6 or if they are showing me on a slide show, is 7 that what you are saying?

8 Q. Yeah, it's a clumsy question. Do you put any 9 special stock in science as being especially 10 certain or one hundred percent black/white kind
11 of thing or no?

12 A. You mean like as in DNA evidence or stuff like
13 that?

14 Q. Sure.

15 A. I would think so, yes, it should be.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. That is, if the science is good?

19 A. Yes. I would, yeah.

20 Q. But even if it's -- even if it's an expert who's 21 testifying to some specialized scientific
22 knowledge; do you understand that witness you
23 also have to weigh as just another witness?

24 A. Yes. Are you asking me to -- if I could
25 understand it, I would think so, yes.

1 Q. Okay. What do you know, if anything, about
2 Mr. Avery's background with being let out of
3 prison because of DNA showed that someone else
4 committed the crime he was convicted for?
5 A. It's what I know or what I heard?
6 Q. Heard.
7 A. What I heard. Basically a group of college
8 students had found something with the DNA, that's 9 about it. And that he was released after 18
10 years, I believe, or 13.
11 Q. Long time?
12 A. Yeah, it was a long time.
13 Q. Yes. Do you have any questions about whether he 14 really was innocent of that, it was a mistaken
15 conviction?
16 A. No, I have no questions about that.
17 Q. My last question, although I may ask you why, but 18 really my last question is, do you want to be on 19 this jury?
20 A. Kind of teetering, yes and no.
21 Q. So tell me why?
22 A. I don't know. It more is the length of the 23 trial, I believe, would be one of them. But I
24 don't know. I have never done it before, so I --
25 I'm kind of -- I'm kind of not sure if I want to

1 be. So ... It's hard to explain.

2 Q. Yeah, but you are doing all right. I mean, you
3 have never done it before, is that a pro or a
4 con?

5 A. Yeah. Yeah, I guess it would be a pro.

6 Q. Like a learning experience?

7 A. Yes. Yeah. People I have talked to that have
8 been on jury duty and said they were the same
9 way, but once they did it, it was -- it was a
10 good experience.

11 Q. Okay. And the length of the trial is something
12 new that I'm sort of hearing from you, I think.
13 That sounded like a minus.

14 A. No, just that it's -- I mean, I can do it. It's 15 not a problem, it's just that, you know, the 16 length of it, being off of work and stuff like 17 that, so, I mean, but it's not a problem. It's 18 -- If I have to, I have to; if I don't, I don't.
19 It's not ...

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. So, yeah, I don't know how else to explain it.
22 You know, it's just ...

23 Q. Nobody wants to be drafted?

24 A. Yeah. That's it, yeah, there you go. Yeah.

25 Q. Okay. Thanks.

1
2 BY THE COURT:

3 Q. Mr. Keehan, just a follow-up. I think I
4 understood most of your answers, but you
5 indicated that, based on what you have heard and 6 read so far in the media and from other people,
7 you think the defendant is guilty?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Based on what you --

10 A. Based on what I have heard and seen, yeah.

11 Q. But you also indicated that if you were selected
12 for the jury you could follow the Court's 13 instructions and base your decision only on the 14 evidence?

15 A. I believe I could, yes.

16 Q. You understand, if you're on the jury and we go
17 to trial, everybody starts from zero.

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. That's essentially what it means. Nothing's
20 proven, except the evidence that comes in at 21 trial, the State starts from scratch. You can 22 only base your decision on the evidence that 23 comes in. Even in light of what you heard before
24 today, do you feel that you can base your 25 decision on the evidence at trial if you're

1 selected to serve?

2 A. I think I could, yes.

3 THE COURT: All right. The Clerk will
4 escort you from the courtroom at this time.

5 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

6 THE COURT: Counsel, any motion from either
7 party?

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: None from the State.

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: I do. I do, and I
10 realize this is a tough one because it's -- so much
11 of it is -- is demeanor and a sense of ambivalence
12 of this gentleman. And I think you -- I would have 13 to cast it as subjective bias. I mean, he was 14 candid about telling us the opinion he is coming
15 into with. And I also took him at his word when he 16 said he, you know, he really would try to follow the 17 rules and set that aside.

18 So, you know, this is tough, because I
19 don't get to make the demeanor and the 20 credibility call, the Court does. But I -- I'm 21 left with a real sense of unease about the 22 understandable bias that he comes into.

23 And one thing that was -- that really
24 sort of crystalized this for me was his -- his 25 volunteered comment that he's getting some

1 pressure from co-workers saying, you got to do
2 the right thing here and convict this guy. I
3 mean, those weren't his exactly his words, but
4 that was -- that's what he -- he said in his own
5 words.

6 So this is one of these tough ones. I
7 understand that it's close and so much of it
8 turns on things that won't appear in black and 9 white on the paper. But I think there's cause to 10 let him go and we're hearing that with the 11 reluctance about the length of the trial and 12 weekends and feeling pressure in different ways.
13 So I'm going to move to strike him and I
14 understand why the State is not and not joining
15 that, but that's my motion.

16 THE COURT: All right. I also agree this
17 is a situation, as in many cases, where the Court's
18 decision is based on the demeanor of the witness.
19 However, I come to a different conclusion than the 20 defense did. I did ask a follow-up question or two 21 because I was concerned, based on the witness'
22 statement -- or the juror's statements, which I
23 believe were quite honest and forthright.

24 He frankly admitted, based on what he's 25 read and heard so far, essentially, if he had to

1 say something today, he would say, based on what
2 he knows, that the defendant is guilty. But he
3 also seemed to express a clear understanding of 4 the fact that if selected as a juror he would
5 have to set those opinions aside. I believe he 6 can.

7 He did not go into extensive detail of
8 any reasons why I think he could not set his 9 opinions aside; that is, he hasn't been following
10 the case so closely that his -- his mind is made
11 up. I also sat back and took notice when he gave 12 the answer to the question about, well, I, you
13 know, get pressure from my co-workers and they 14 are telling me to do the right thing.

15 But I was more impressed with his answer
16 where he said that, yes, if I didn't think the 17 State met its burden I would vote not guilty and 18 that's because I have to live with myself more
19 than I'm concerned about living with them.

20 That showed me that this is a juror who 21 I believe has the courage of his convictions and 22 I believe him when he says he can set his
23 opinions aside and follow the evidence at trial.
24 So I'm going to retain him as a juror in this
25 case.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: Maybe the Court solved
2 the problem, but the Court was cutting in and out on 3 the microphone and it may have gotten better after
4 the Court adjusted the mike.

5 THE COURT: Yeah, I'm not sure, since I'm
6 not battery powered I'm not sure where the problem
7 is coming from. But I may have to take a look at
8 it.

9 At any rate, let's take our break at 10 this time. Counsel, what I would like you to do
11 is take a break and stop in at chambers at 3:15.
12 We still have a significant number of jurors back
13 there. I would like to cut some of them loose.
14 So we'll be talking about how far we're going to 15 go today.

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

17 (Recess taken.)

18 THE COURT: All right. At this time we're
19 back on the record, outside the presence of any 20 members of the jury panel. Mr. Strang, you
21 indicated you had a matter you wished to bring up.

22 ATTORNEY STRANG: I do, very briefly. I
23 wanted to clarify my comments about the demeanor of 24 Patrick Keehan, the last juror we spoke with. Just 25 out of fairness to him and -- and so that I really

1 am clear, it was a demeanor issue, but it was not
2 dishonesty I was hearing. It was discomfort that I
3 was hearing with him. I didn't have any honesty
4 issue at all. I just -- The ambivalence and the 5 discomfort was the demeanor point that I was 6 raising.

7 THE COURT: Okay. That's the way I
8 understood it as well.

9 We're dealing here with information from
10 jurors, rather than testimony. And I don't know
11 quite how to approach this, but I feel compelled 12 to tell the parties that there was a reference in 13 the statements from one of the jurors to AA
14 meetings and I only wish to point out to the 15 parties that AA doesn't always mean the first
16 thing that necessarily comes to your mind.

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: Oh, we need to know that.
18 Do we know what it does mean?

19 THE COURT: Well, Janet Bonin, the Clerk,
20 is the one that brought it to my attention. As we 21 know, I think some questions were asked of her
22 because she knew the juror. Janet, go ahead.

23 THE CLERK: They call them attitude
24 adjustment meetings, that's what the AA means.

25 ATTORNEY STRANG: Okay. That's great,

1 because we did jump to the -- not about Janet or
2 anybody else but ...

3 THE COURT: I don't think any questions
4 were asked that referred to Alcoholics Anonymous,
5 which is perhaps the most common usage. And so I
6 don't know at this point what to make of it or not
7 make of it, but it's also the type of information
8 that many times jurors would be asked to be kept
9 confidential.

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: Right.

11 THE COURT: And I don't want anybody to 12 draw any inferences from just the fact that letters
13 were used without any information about what it was 14 the juror was talking about. Obviously, at this 15 point, the juror is no longer here so there's 16 nothing further we can do about it.

17 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, speaking of
18 confidentiality, you realize that this next juror,
19 Question No. 75, he did answer yes. I don't know
20 that it's the kind of material or subject that you
21 would want or think should be discussed privately,
22 but he did ask.

23 THE COURT: All right. This is 24 Mr. Pederson.

25 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Let me briefly review that. I
2 think I can probably address his concern in my
3 opening comments as part of it. Thank you for 4 pointing that out to the Court, however.

5 All right. At this point we're going to 6 take one juror out of order who has been here
7 quite a while today. That is, Mr. Pederson,
8 Juror 66. So we will have him come in at this
9 time.

10 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I'll be examining him,
11 Judge.

12 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Pederson, please
13 raise your right hand and the Clerk will administer
14 the oath to you.

15 (Juror sworn.)

16 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Pederson, you pronounce
18 your name that way?

19 MR. PEDERSON: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Pederson, you have already
21 filled out a written questionnaire in this case.
22 Today we're moving on to the next phase of the jury
23 selection process which is known as voir dire.

24 During this portion of the process, the 25 attorneys for the parties can ask you questions

1 in order to follow up on some of your answers in
2 your questionnaire that address your
3 qualifications to serve as a juror in this case.

4 Before we get to those questions, I have
5 some information to pass on to you. First of 6 all, the jurors selected in this case will not be 7 sequestered. That means that at the end of the 8 court proceedings every day the jurors will be 9 permitted to return home. The prohibition on any 10 exposure to news media accounts of the case will 11 continue.

12 That means that the jurors will not be
13 permitted to obtain information about the case
14 from any newspaper, television, radio, or 15 internet sources and the jurors will continue to 16 be required not to discuss the matter, including 17 with any other jurors or with any family members
18 during the course of the trial.

19 I can also tell you that although the
20 proceedings today are open to the public, during 21 voir dire we do not allow cameras in the 22 courtroom and the jurors are not permitted to be 23 photographed.

24 I can also tell you that the law does
25 not allow the media to identify jurors in news

1 reports of these matters. And also, should you
2 be selected as a juror in this case, cameras are
3 not permitted to show the faces of the jurors,
4 such that any individual jurors can be
5 identified.

6 If you are retained on the jury panel
7 after questioning today, you will receive a
8 telephone call in the next day or two notifying
9 you when to report back to court.

10 I note, before I allow Mr. Kratz to 11 begin questioning, in your answer to Question 75
12 of the questionnaire, you indicated matters that 13 you regarded as personal and I think they related
14 to your possible identification as a juror. I
15 hope I have identified your concerns.

16 MR. PEDERSON: Yes, you have.

17 THE COURT: Thank you. All right.

18 Mr. Kratz, you may proceed.

19 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Thank you.

20 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

21 BY ATTORNEY KRATZ:

22 Q. Mr. Pederson, as the Judge has eluded, my name is 23 Ken Kratz. I'm the Calumet County D.A. and the 24 special prosecutor in this case, lead counsel.
25 Seated with me this afternoon is Tom Fallon. He

1 is an Assistant Attorney General who will be
2 helping not only in this process, but through the
3 presentation of the case. I would like to 4 welcome you for this part of the process.

5 Mr. Pederson, you have filled out a
6 lengthy questionnaire and we do have some
7 follow-up questions on that questionnaire. I
8 understand, based upon your response, that you
9 have learned quite a bit about this case through
10 various sources. Let me ask you first, would you
11 say that most of your news comes from radio, or 12 internet, or TV, or what source?

13 A. Yeah, I haven't followed it very closely. I have 14 seen headlines in some newspapers and there was 15 one article I skimmed in a newspaper. And I have 16 seen some headlines on TV and I have heard a few
17 things on the radio.

18 Q. When you say you haven't followed it very 19 closely; do you mean lately you haven't or even 20 back from when this case first started?

21 A. Even back. I can tell you the facts I know or -- 22 well, shouldn't be considered facts at this
23 point, but I can tell you what I think I know.

24 Q. At least the news reports, what it is that you
25 have heard from news reports, why don't you go

1 ahead and start there and we'll have some
2 follow-ups.

3 A. Well, what I heard reported was that the body was 4 found on Mr. Avery's property. And I read some 5 comments Mr. Avery made about his nephew. And 6 there was a headline or something to the effect
7 of -- well, there was something about a vial of 8 blood and that's about what I know.

9 Q. All right.

10 A. So ...

11 Q. Mr. Pederson, based upon those news reports, your 12 questionnaire indicates that you may have formed
13 an opinion, or at least the media reports may 14 have directed you one way or another regarding 15 the guilt or innocence of Mr. Avery; is that
16 correct?

17 A. Yes, at this time I do have an opinion.

18 Q. And I think your opinion is that Mr. Avery may in 19 fact be guilty of the charges for which he faces;
20 is that correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. You also indicate, however, in your 23 questionnaire, that if instructed by the Court to 24 set aside those opinions, which the Court
25 undoubtedly would do, that you believe that you

1 would be able to do that; is that still your
2 opinion today?

3 A. I believe I would be able do that.

4 Q. All right. Why don't we start there since that
5 is a extremely important topic. If the Judge
6 instructs you that that's what you have to do; in 7 other words, if the defendant sits in this
8 courtroom presumed innocent --

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. -- would you be able to follow that instruction?

11 A. I believe so.

12 Q. If the Judge instructs you that the only decision
13 that he wants any juror to make is based upon 14 information that comes from evidence, that is,
15 from witnesses, or documents, or other admitted
16 evidence in the case; would you be able to base
17 your decision solely upon that evidence and set
18 aside, perhaps, what you may have read, or what 19 you may have heard, or what you may have thought
20 that you knew coming into the case?

21 A. I believe so.

22 Q. All right. If the Judge instructs that you must 23 do that, Mr. Pederson, can you give us your 24 assurance that that is in fact what you will do
25 as a juror?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. All right. You understand, I suspect, that the 3 difference between news reports, that is, what
4 the news may report some people may have said or 5 what may have been found and what actually might
6 be introduced in evidence of a case?

7 A. Correct, I do.

8 Q. Are you familiar with Mr. Avery himself, or his 9 history, or his connection with something called 10 the Project Innocence in Wisconsin?

11 A. Well, I understand that he had been previously,
12 apparently, falsely accused and convicted. And 13 based on DNA evidence, he was exonerated
14 eventually.

15 Q. All right.

16 A. So -- And I understand also that -- that there
17 was a civil case that he won against the County
18 of Manitowoc.

19 Q. All right. Would knowledge of those facts or, at 20 least what you think you know of Mr. Avery's
21 past, would that affect your decision making in 22 this case, or would you be able, again, to set
23 that aside and base your decision solely on the 24 evidence in this case?

25 A. I could set that aside.

1 Q. In your questionnaire, you mentioned that you
2 have some background in DNA evidence, at least
3 some general knowledge of it, and more
4 specifically in the area of chemistry; is that
5 right?

6 A. Well, yeah, I would say, perhaps some very 7 general knowledge. I have some knowledge of 8 chemistry. I'm by no means an expert, but I do
9 have some general knowledge.

10 Q. Let me ask you this, Mr. Pederson, do you hold an 11 opinion, at least generally, that DNA evidence is 12 reliable in what you have heard or what you have
13 come to understand about DNA analysis, that it
14 provide courts or provides other investigators a
15 good basis for making positive identifications?

16 A. Yes, I believe it's reliable. I understand it
17 is.

18 Q. In your questionnaire, you mention that you had 19 some knowledge of a woman by the name of Lori
20 Dassey. Can you tell me about that, please.

21 A. Well, I understand that she was the wife of 22 Mr. Avery and that's about all I know. And I
23 work with her.

24 Q. Do you work with her on a daily basis?

25 A. No.

1 Q. How well do you know Ms Dassey?

2 A. Just at a professional level. I have never
3 discussed anything about --

4 Q. Do you work in the same department or the same
5 area?

6 A. No, we work in separate buildings and in 7 different departments.

8 Q. Do you ever have occasion to speak with her
9 either about personal matters or anything other
10 than work related topics?

11 A. Not to date.

12 Q. Has Ms Dassey ever had an occasion to talk to you
13 either about Steven Avery, about her marriage, or 14 about any part of this case?

15 A. Not to date.

16 Q. If instructed by the Court, which I'm sure it
17 would occur if you were a juror in this case,
18 could you assure us that you would have no such 19 conversations with Ms Dassey, or anybody for that 20 matter, regarding the facts and circumstances
21 surrounding this case?

22 A. Yes, I could.

23 Q. Mr. Pederson, you appear to be the primary bread
24 winner within your home, would working for --
25 excuse me -- would serving for a six week trial

1 create a financial hardship for you or your
2 family?

3 A. No, it would not.

4 Q. Is there a reason for that?

5 A. Well, the policy at my place of employment, I
6 understand, is they would continue paying me my
7 nominal salary through the course of a jury
8 trial.

9 Q. All right. Have you had any contacts at all with 10 Manitowoc County law enforcement? I notice that 11 you mentioned there was a vandalism case that you
12 had reported. But did you -- have you had any 13 other more specific contacts with law enforcement
14 agencies?

15 A. There's one I forgot to mention on there, I have 16 a neighbor who is a police officer and I don't 17 know his name.

18 Q. Is he a Manitowoc County sheriff's deputy or work
19 for some municipality?

20 A. I believe he works for the Manitowoc City Police,
21 I believe.

22 Q. All right. Have you had any discussions with 23 your neighbor about this case or about the facts
24 or circumstances surrounding this case?

25 A. No, I have not.

1 Q. You say that you have an overall positive opinion
2 of the job that the Manitowoc County law
3 enforcement community is doing?

4 A. Yes, I do. I have no reason to not have that, I
5 guess.

6 Q. Mr. Pederson, is there any reason that I may not
7 have asked you that you believe disqualifies you
8 to sit on this case, or anything that we haven't
9 asked either in writing or from me orally today,
10 that you believe we should know that would
11 disqualify you as a potential juror?

12 A. None that I can think of.

13 Q. All right.

14 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's all the questions I
15 have of this particular juror, Judge. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Buting.

17 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes, thank you, Judge.

18 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

19 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

20 Q. Good afternoon.

21 A. Good afternoon.

22 Q. My name is Jerome Buting and I, along with Dean
23 Strang, are defending Steven Avery here today.

24 A. Mm-hmm.

25 Q. Okay. I have, first, some background questions,

1 if you don't mind. Do you have a degree in
2 engineering?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. What kind of engineering?

5 A. Well, I have a degree in electrical engineering
6 and also a degree in physics.

7 Q. Okay. And both of those are from the University
8 of North Dakota?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And you have four children?

11 A. Yup.

12 Q. And your wife is not employed outside the home?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And you are not originally from this area; is
15 that right?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. You are from Missouri?

18 A. Well, I was born in Missouri and then I also 19 lived there during high school for two years.

20 Q. Your father move around; your family move around?

21 A. No, I moved to Missouri and lived with my 22 grandparents for -- there's family issues, so I
23 lived with my grandparents for two years --

24 Q. I see.

25 A. -- during high school.

1 Q. During high school?

2 A. Yup.

3 Q. And where were you before that?

4 A. Before that, I was in North Dakota.

5 Q. Okay. So you were born in Missouri, then grew up
6 mostly in North Dakota?

7 A. Born in Missouri and I understand about six
8 months of age we moved to Connecticut and then
9 when I was probably second grade, moved to North
10 Dakota.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. So ...

13 Q. Missouri kind of has the nickname of the "show me
14 state", right?

15 A. Yeah.

16 Q. Did you live there long enough to adopt that 17 yourself, that motto?

18 A. I don't think so.

19 Q. Well, in this case, you are going to have to, if 20 you're a juror. You are going to have to adopt
21 that motto that the State has to show you.

22 A. Okay. I understand what you are saying.

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. They have the -- They -- The burden is upon them
25 to present the evidence is what you are saying.

1 Q. Right. Now, as long as we're talking about that,
2 the defense may or may not present any evidence.
3 You know, in any criminal trial, we could just 4 sit here and do nothing and let them fail to 5 convince you, beyond a reasonable doubt. We're
6 not going to do that here. I will let you know;
7 we're not going to just sit here. We will
8 cross-examine their witnesses and we'll probably 9 put on some of our own.

10 A. Okay.

11 Q. Maybe, maybe not.

12 A. Mm-hmm.

13 Q. But if we do that, if we do put on any witnesses
14 and do put on a defense, are you going to say to 15 us, show me that Mr. Avery is innocent?

16 A. No, that's -- Yeah, I can see where you are 17 going, that can be -- I can see where that could 18 be a tough distinction to draw.

19 Q. It is. It is kind of unnatural for jurors
20 because --

21 A. Right.

22 Q. And sometimes, you know, they teach defense 23 attorneys, sometimes the best defense is to put 24 on no defense, because it forces the jury to look
25 at the State's evidence and the State's evidence

1 only. And if they --

2 A. Mm-hmm.

3 Q. -- are unable to convince you, then that's it,
4 you don't do any weighing. Now, on the other
5 hand, when the defendant puts on any evidence,
6 the natural tendency is, you kind of weigh one
7 side against the other.

8 A. Right.

9 Q. And you say, well, which one is more believable,
10 or which one is more credible and that tends to 11 get jurors away from their real function which is 12 to first decide, has the State convinced me,
13 beyond a reasonable doubt. That's what you would 14 have to do here. And it's really, I think, kind 15 of an unnatural way of doing things and probably 16 for a scientist it's very unnatural. But do you
17 think you could do that?

18 A. I believe so.

19 Q. Along those lines -- might as well deal with this 20 right now --

21 A. Uh-huh.

22 Q. -- is the question of whether or not a defendant
23 testifies at a trial. And for some of the same
24 reasons attorneys -- defense attorneys may advise
25 their clients not to take the stand, because they

1 are concerned maybe that the jurors are going to
2 start thinking, well, has he convinced me that
3 he's innocent.

4 And that's a real risk. And so
5 sometimes, that's one reason maybe defense
6 attorneys say, don't put the client on. There's 7 other reasons, the concern that if a defendant
8 does testify that jurors may not listen to what 9 he says, they may not believe him or her because 10 after all, they are the defendant.

11 A. Mm-hmm.

12 Q. They got everything -- They have got reasons and 13 motives to lie, right? Can you understand that 14 concern?

15 A. Yes, I can, yup.

16 Q. But if you're selected for this jury, the Judge
17 will, I'm sure, instruct you that if the 18 defendant testifies, you have to take his 19 testimony just like any other witness. You have 20 to weigh his testimony the same way as anybody
21 else. You can't just discount his testimony
22 by -- because of his status as a defendant. Can 23 you do that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And on the other hand, if he -- if he does not

1 testify, the Judge will also instruct you that
2 you cannot consider that in any way. You can't
3 speculate on why he didn't testify. You can't 4 hold it against him. You can't think he must
5 have had something to hide, or whatever. You
6 really have to put that completely out of your 7 mind.

8 A. I understand.

9 Q. Will that be hard for you to do? I mean, are you
10 the kind of person that likes to hear both sides?

11 A. Well, generally, I think I am the kind of person
12 that likes to hear both sides.

13 Q. I think most people are.

14 A. So ... Yup.

15 Q. So, again, it's kind of an unnatural thing that 16 we ask jurors to do.

17 A. Right.

18 Q. But it's based on hundreds of years of law and 19 practice. And there are very, very good reasons
20 for it. And if you are selected for the jury,
21 you have to promise -- you have to promise the 22 Court and the attorneys and everybody that you
23 really will follow that instruction; do you think 24 you can?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. I think I can. It's a -- Yup.

3 Q. It's something you really have to just keep in 4 your mind and, you know, whenever those other
5 thoughts come in, you have got to say, wait a
6 minute, I have to -- I'm not supposed to do that.
7 Okay?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. Now, as a scientist, I mean, you are familiar
10 with the scientific method, right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Which is, among other things, involves testing, 13 replicating those tests, having a peer review of 14 those tests?

15 A. Yup.

16 Q. And that until somebody is able to do that, just 17 because someone may -- Well, strike that. Let me
18 ask it this way. Have you ever heard of junk
19 science?

20 A. Oh, yeah.

21 Q. Do you think there is a lot of that out there?

22 A. There is.

23 Q. What is -- In your mind, what is that?

24 A. Well, people posit theories and -- and they --
25 they may, you know, back it up with evidence, but

1 they really haven't tested it and it's not
2 repeatable. And, typically, when they do that,
3 the facts, or supposed facts, sometimes they are
4 facts and true, but you don't see the whole
5 picture.

6 So they are telling you facts and
7 framing them in a way that supports a theory.
8 And they are not showing you other things that 9 aren't consistent with that.

10 Q. Okay. And -- So when -- when a -- sometimes 11 actual scientists with degrees come forward and 12 have those opinions and express those --

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. -- opinions. And -- But you, as a scientist, can 15 recognize that they are not always true?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. They are theories. They may be true, but until 18 they have been replicated and studied by others
19 and reported on, they may not be, right?

20 A. Mm-hmm.

21 Q. You have to say yes or no for the court reporter.

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Now, forensic science is a little bit in a
24 world of its own when it comes to that. And I
25 wonder how much knowledge you have about forensic

1 science and how much has been tested and
2 replicated and how much is not. Do you have any 3 knowledge about that?

4 A. Very little.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. I don't think I have much knowledge of that.

7 Q. Okay. Well, in this case, you may or may not
8 hear some challenges to the basis of opinions
9 that are presented. That is, not -- not 10 necessarily the underlying science, but maybe the 11 -- the interpretations, the conclusions that you
12 can draw from things. Okay? Is that something
13 you would be able to listen to and discriminate
14 and consider?

15 A. I believe so.

16 Q. If -- So if an expert testifies here in this 17 trial and expresses an opinion, because that 18 person is an expert or scientist at some level,
19 are you going to just accept it more than you
20 would any other opinion?

21 A. Not necessarily. Even in junk science, in the 22 press, there's experts with sometimes widely
23 differing opinions, even in real science for that
24 matter.

25 Q. Okay. And even in -- in forensic science, crime

1 labs, have you heard of problems where crime labs
2 have been shown not to be reliable results -- or
3 not to have reliable results?

4 A. I haven't heard of that, but I can imagine that 5 happening.

6 Q. Have you heard even the FBI lab was examined in a
7 number of instances because of problems that they
8 were having with reliability with their results?
9 Had you heard that?

10 A. I hadn't heard that.

11 Q. You hadn't, okay. You mentioned that DNA, you
12 believe DNA is -- is reliable, right?

13 A. Yeah, generally. Yup.

14 Q. Is it infallible?

15 A. No, it is not infallible.

16 Q. Okay. And more importantly, do you look beyond
17 just the result, or will you look beyond just the 18 result to find out how the result was obtained in 19 the scientific process?

20 A. Yeah. That's what you -- Yes.

21 Q. Okay. And you have probably heard garbage in 22 garbage out?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And you are familiar with that?

25 A. Yup.

1 Q. And so, for instance, if evidence is not
2 collected properly and it's contaminated right
3 then and there --

4 A. Mm-hmm.

5 Q. -- no matter what the result is later, it's
6 garbage in, it's going to be garbage out?

7 A. Yeah. Typically, yeah, that's the way it is.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. So ...

10 Q. Do you follow protocols in your ...

11 A. Yes, I do.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. In my place of employment --

14 Q. Yes.

15 A. -- I think you're ...

16 Q. Yes.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Scientific protocols that are set out for testing
19 or whatever?

20 A. Yeah, I think it would be fair to call them
21 scientific, yeah.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. You could look at it that way.

24 Q. Well, are you familiar -- I mean, in general,
25 with laboratory or scientific tests, certain

1 protocols are followed, are designed to, you
2 know, through the process.

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Yes. Okay. And if someone doesn't follow that 5 protocol, deviates from that protocol; is that 6 something you would consider in terms of whether
7 to accept the reliability of the results?

8 A. It is a reason to question the reliability of the 9 results, yes.

10 Q. Okay. Do you ever watch CSI shows, those kinds
11 of things?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Cold Case, or any of those?

14 A. Uh-uh. I have seen -- I don't know if I have 15 even seen a whole episode, but I have seen them
16 on -- seen them on television. I don't even know
17 if I have sat through a whole episode, but ...

18 Q. Okay. All right. Let me switch here for a
19 minute, topics entirely, and go back to something
20 that Mr. Kratz asked you. Your contact with Lori
21 Dassey, sounds like you haven't really talked
22 personally with her about her marriage or her
23 relationship with Mr. Avery?

24 A. No, I haven't.

25 Q. Have you heard talk around the plant or, you

1 know, of other people maybe who have?

2 A. Yes, I have.

3 Q. And have you heard any negative things about that
4 relationship or about Mr. Avery?

5 A. Yes, I have.

6 Q. Could you please tell us what kinds of things you
7 have heard.

8 A. Well, I heard that she was divorced from him
9 because -- well, the words I heard were to the 10 effect that he wasn't a very nice individual.
11 That's what I remember hearing.

12 Q. Do you remember any details about what
13 allegations perhaps were made?

14 A. Yeah, actually there was -- recently I was 15 walking by a cubicle at my office and they were 16 chatting about the case. There's a number of 17 people who were up for jury duty where I work, or 18 potential jurors.

19 Q. Yeah, we have noticed that, seems to be a
20 productive pool, but go ahead.

21 A. Anyway, but -- but one thing I did overhear was 22 that he had sent some kind of threats or 23 something when he was incarcerated or something
24 to that affect.

25 Q. Were those other people who were -- who had also

1 gotten, you know, a summons like you and were
2 going to be in the pool?

3 A. No, they weren't. As far as I know, they weren't
4 people who had gotten summons.

5 Q. You -- You know people who have gone through 6 messy divorces?

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. Do you know sometimes a lot of negative,
9 bitter --

10 A. Yeah.

11 Q. -- talk goes on?

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. And can you imagine that someone who is wrongly
14 convicted and imprisoned and then also taken away
15 from his wife and kids and has his visitation cut
16 off might have some pretty strong feelings?

17 A. I can.

18 Q. Might even say some pretty nasty things.

19 A. Yeah, I can understand that.

20 Q. Would you be able to put -- put -- set aside any 21 of those -- any information you may have heard
22 outside of court about whatever bitterness or,
23 you know, nasty things there might have been in 24 that relationship?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And not let it influence your verdict at all
2 here?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. And did anybody at the place where you
5 work, do they know that you were also one of the 6 ones who had gotten the summons?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And did anybody come up to you and talk to you
9 about it or ask you any questions?

10 A. Yeah, they have -- they have -- they have asked
11 me questions and mostly with regard to where they 12 are at in the jury selection process. Mostly
13 about that.

14 Q. Has anybody tried to talk to you about the case
15 or the facts?

16 A. Um, yeah, people have kind of ribbed me about it.
17 And I walked away a few times when I felt like it
18 was getting -- you know, things were being said
19 that I shouldn't hear.

20 Q. Sure.

21 A. Because I'm --

22 Q. When --

23 A. A potential juror.

24 Q. -- you say ribbed you, that's kind of like ...

25 A. Rib. Ribbed.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. Like prod me, joke around kind of.

3 Q. What kind of things were they saying?

4 A. Well, some people would, you know, joke around
5 and say I'm going to let him off. Other people
6 would say go in there and tell them you're going
7 to hang him and you will get off the jury pool
8 and things like this, so ...

9 Q. So, you're getting some advice on how to get out
10 of this --

11 A. Ha, ha, ha, yeah.

12 Q. -- responsibility. Did any -- Did you take any 13 of that to heart?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Any concerns that no matter which way your 16 verdict is that maybe when you come back that you
17 might be -- you might get more ribbing or 18 something more serious, that people will be angry
19 at you if you voted one way as opposed to 20 another?

21 A. Well, that's crossed my mind. It's crossed my 22 mind. I haven't been terribly concerned about it
23 but, you know, I mean, it's a potential
24 ramification for a juror.

25 Q. Sure, in a high publicity case like this

1 especially, right?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. And do you think that you would be more likely to 4 get those kinds of comments if you returned a not
5 guilty verdict, than if you returned a guilty
6 verdict?

7 A. I think if I return a not guilty verdict, I may 8 be more likely to get those comments; that's my 9 opinion.

10 Q. And how does that make you feel, then, in terms
11 of whether you can really be a fair and honest
12 jury -- juror in this case?

13 A. Well, I believe I can be an honest juror in this 14 case. If I return a not guilty verdict and get 15 flak, then, I'd probably get kind of upset. But,
16 I mean, I -- I don't think it will influence my 17 decision.

18 Q. Can you ensure us, not just that you don't think;
19 can you say, I promise it's not going to 20 influence?

21 A. Yes, I can. I promise.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. It won't influence my decision.

24 Q. Because you will have to live with it one way or 25 the other, they won't.

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. Okay. You also mentioned some knowledge about
3 Mr. Avery's wrongful conviction. I think you
4 used the word, apparently he was wrongly
5 convicted; was there any doubt in your mind that 6 he was --

7 A. Well, based on what was said in the press, it's 8 pretty obvious he was wrongfully convicted.

9 Q. Right.

10 A. And that based on DNA evidence.

11 Q. Right.

12 A. I mean, that's the big thing there.

13 Q. And that it also matched someone else who was 14 actually a suspect all along?

15 A. Oh, I hadn't heard that part of it.

16 Q. You hadn't heard that part of it?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. But that's good that that -- anyway --

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. -- whatever. It's immaterial, I guess, in this 22 case, but ...

23 Q. It's immaterial unless there's some harboring --
24 unless you harbored some doubts like maybe he 25 somehow --

1 A. Okay.

2 Q. -- got off on a technicality or something like
3 that. If you had any doubts like that, then I
4 would like to know that.

5 A. Well, in my mind if the DNA evidence didn't match
6 Mr. Avery, then it's pretty certain that he
7 wasn't the perpetrator of the crime, so ...

8 Q. Okay.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Buting, you are going to 10 have to wrap it up.

11 Q. Well, I -- I really appreciate your candor, sir,
12 but there is something that is a little bit
13 concerning and that's mainly that you -- what you
14 wrote in your questionnaire, that at this time I
15 believe he's guilty, but I don't know this beyond
16 a reasonable doubt; is that still the way you
17 feel?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You see, if you're selected as a juror here,
20 you've got to -- you've got to change that
21 opinion. You can't have that opinion because you
22 have to presume that he is innocent --

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. -- right now?

25 A. I understand that.

1 Q. And that's different than saying I think he's
2 guilty, but I'm just not at a reasonable doubt
3 yet. You can't start off that way?

4 A. I understand, presumed innocent.

5 Q. And do you really think -- And, you know, I
6 really appreciate your honesty and the Court and
7 counsel does too. Do you really think that you
8 can put aside those feelings, because it's hard 9 for anybody to, and really give Mr. Avery the 10 benefit of the presumption of innocence, if you
11 are selected as a juror?

12 A. Yes.

13 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Pederson, at 14 this time I'm going to have the Clerk escort you
15 from the courtroom.

16 MR. PEDERSON: Okay. Thank you.

17 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

18 THE COURT: Are there any motions from
19 either party?

20 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Not from the State, your
21 Honor.

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: No motion, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Mr. Pederson
24 will be in the jury panel. Next is Mr. Dao.

25 Please raise your right hand, Mr. Dao.

THE CLERK: Please be seated.

THE COURT: Mr. Dao, you are welcome to keep your jacket on if you wish, but if you want to take it off, you can as well.

Mr. Dao, you have already completed a written questionnaire in this case. Today we're moving on to the next phase of jury selection which is the voir dire process.

Each of the attorneys will have an opportunity to ask you some questions, most of them will probably be follow-ups to information that you gave on your written questionnaire.

Before we get to that point, I want you to be aware of a few things. First of all, the jury in this case will not be sequestered during the trial. That means that at the end of the trial proceedings each day, the jurors will be permitted to return home for the evening and then report back the next day for jury service.

The Court will continue the prohibition on learning anything about the case through the news media. That means that jurors cannot listen to reports on the radio, read things in the newspaper, watch television, check the internet,

1 or do anything like that to get information about
2 the case during the trial. And the jurors are 3 also not allowed to talk about the case with my 4 one, including other jurors or members of their 5 families.

6 The proceedings today are open to the 7 public, but we do not allow cameras in the 8 courtroom during voir dire, so the news media is 9 not here to film you. In addition, members of 10 the media cannot use your name in their reports
11 of the proceedings in this case. And, finally,
12 if you are selected as a juror, the cameras in 13 the courtroom at that time will not be permitted
14 to show the faces of the jurors.

15 If you are retained as a juror after the 16 questioning today, you will be given a telephone
17 call in the next day or two to let you know when
18 to report back to court.

19 Will it be Mr. Kratz or Mr. Fallon? Mr.
20 Fallon, you may proceed.

21 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

22 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

23 Q. Good afternoon, sir. How are you?

24 A. Good afternoon.

25 Q. Could do you pronounce your name for us?

1 A. Hoang.

2 Q. And you're -- Very good. Mr. Hoang?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Very good. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an
5 Assistant Attorney General. I work for the State
6 of Wisconsin in Madison. And I'm one of 7 prosecutors, that's one of the persons attempting
8 to prove this gentleman's guilt, Mr. Avery.

9 Working with me, right to my left, is 10 Mr. Kratz. He's the District Attorney in the 11 nearby county, Calumet County. And he is also 12 the lead special prosecutor in this matter. So,
13 again, good afternoon and welcome.

14 This is part of our jury selection
15 process and the attorneys, myself and Mr. Kratz
16 and Mr. Strang and Mr. Buting have a few
17 questions to follow up on some of the information
18 you provided in the questionnaire.

19 I guess I would like to begin with your 20 questionnaire and ask you a question about your
21 comfort in participating in the process, since I
22 guess English is not your first language,
23 correct?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. All right. Let me just first say that I -- I --

1 I thought your responses to the questions were --
2 were accurate. They made sense, so. We -- I
3 just wanted to explore your answer as to how
4 comfortable you are with English. All right?

5 A. Okay.

6 Q. How long have you been in our country?

7 A. Um, in May will be 13.

8 Q. 13 years?

9 A. Wait, hold on. Let me think, let's see. I came 10 in U.S. May 22, 1992, so, actually, going on 15
11 years.

12 Q. Fifteen years. All right. So you would have 13 been about 10 years old at the time.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. All right. So your education has been here in 16 America?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. All right. And how long have you been speaking
19 English pretty comfortably?

20 A. I would say starting, probably, junior high --

21 Q. All right.

22 A. -- and high school years.

23 Q. And how far, again, did you go in school, sir?

24 A. I went to LTC for a year I was going to finish
25 it, but I guess work kind of interfered with my

1 education, so I kind of stop awhile.

2 Q. All right. So you take a little break from 3 education to make some money to work?

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. All right. What were you studying at Lake (sic)?

6 A. I study accounting.

7 Q. Anything else in particular that struck you as
8 interesting?

9 A. Mostically (phonetic) just business, computer,
10 technology, things like that.

11 Q. Very good. Were you doing good in school?

12 A. I would say somewhat.

13 Q. Very good. Now, at any point in the proceedings
14 this afternoon, if I ask a question, or the 15 Judge, or either of Mr. Strang or Mr. Buting, if 16 whoever asks a question and you are not real sure
17 what we're asking, you know, please, tell us, you
18 know.

19 A. Okay.

20 Q. And believe me, it's more likely going to be our 21 fault than yours, the way the question is asked,
22 it could be just us lawyers goofing it up, so
23 bear with us. All right?

24 A. Okay.

25 Q. Okay. One of the important questions that we

1 wanted to ask you about is, this case has
2 received a great deal of publicity. Lots of news
3 coverage about it. And we just wanted to ask you
4 a few questions about what you may have seen on 5 the television, or heard on the radio, or read in 6 the newspaper. All right?

7 A. (No verbal answer.)

8 Q. I see you don't spend a lot of time watching the 9 news on television; is that...

10 A. No.

11 Q. All right. And would it be fair to say that you
12 get most of your information from the newspaper?

13 A. I would say somewhat --

14 Q. All right.

15 A. -- newspaper.

16 Q. Okay. And where else do you get, you know, some 17 news as to what's going on?

18 A. Sometime I run into, like, article on internet --

19 Q. All right.

20 A. -- if I got free time to search the web.

21 Q. Okay. So you do use -- you have a computer at
22 home?

23 A. No, I use the computer at work --

24 Q. All right.

25 A. -- or else library sometime.

1 Q. Okay. And what are some of the things that you
2 like to read up on, using the computer?

3 A. Honestly, anything, I guess.

4 Q. All right. Well, it could be sports; it might be
5 something about accounting or bookkeeping; it
6 might be news; world events; maybe what's going 7 on back in your home country; any of those
8 things?

9 A. I read, somewhat, sports, little bit news.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. On how the world is going.

12 Q. Okay. Do you remember reading, for instance,
13 we'll start with the internet. Do you remember
14 reading anything about this case on the internet?

15 A. No, I haven't.

16 Q. All right. Have you seen anything on the 17 television at all about this case?

18 A. No.

19 Q. No, not any of the newscasts or anything?

20 A. Starting last week, we came here to do the 21 questionnaires. I did later, I went by my 22 girlfriend's workplace. And I accidentally saw,
23 like, you know, a title of article there, but I
24 didn't actually read it.

25 Q. Okay.

1 A. So other than that I have no idea.

2 Q. Okay. So you are not really familiar with any of 3 the facts about this case?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Okay. All right. Good. There's one other
6 question that I wanted to just touch base with 7 you on and that was toward the end of the 8 questionnaire. And then I will finish up with 9 some general principles of how our system works
10 to make sure that you understand those.

11 But one of the things that you did say
12 in the back of your questionnaire, in response to 13 the question, do you hold any religious or 14 philosophical beliefs that forbid you from 15 rendering judgment or, you know, basically
16 determining guilt or innocence; determining 17 whether somebody actually committed a crime or
18 not.

19 And you answered yes. And I was
20 wondering if you could explain a little bit
21 further your Buddhism and how that may impact
22 your ability to be a juror for us.

23 A. Well, in my family, we have very strong belief in 24 Buddhism.

25 Q. Okay.

1 A. And part of that is, like, we not supposed to
2 judge other people, or any objects, or person.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. Also, it's always believe that if somebody done
5 something, we give them another chance to make it
6 right.

7 Q. Mm-hmm. Okay. Well, let me ask about that
8 judgment. Now, is that a judgment in the sense
9 of a spiritual judgment, or -- or does it also 10 include trying to decide whether something
11 happened or not, or whether somebody did
12 something or did not do something? Can you tell
13 me a little bit more about the judgment which is 14 contemplated in that Buddhist tenet.

15 A. From what I known and learned, mostically from 16 what we seen and what is appearing, somewhat
17 spiritual, but mostically, just, don't judge
18 anybody and until, you know, knowed all the 19 facts.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. But majority of it, just -- just that we don't 22 judge anybody, no either they did something right
23 or wrong.

24 Q. Okay. Well, one of the purposes for a trial like
25 this in the United States is to try to determine

1 whether somebody actually committed a crime, did
2 something wrong. And that determination is
3 usually left to 12 people like yourself; 12
4 citizens who sit in the jury box and they listen
5 to all the evidence, as much facts as the 6 lawyers, that's lawyers here and at that table,
7 choose to present to the jurors. And they put
8 all that information in there and then the jury
9 decides whether the person committed the crime or 10 not?

11 A. Okay.

12 Q. Do you understand that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. Now, given that process, is this something
15 that you could do with your religious belief, or 16 do you think your Buddhism would say, you know,
17 that's not something we should do?

18 A. Honestly, from my point of view, I would think
19 it's more like probably not be able to do it.

20 Q. You don't think you would be able to do it?

21 A. No.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Okay. I'm going to stop
23 there.

24 THE COURT: Any questions from the defense?

25 ATTORNEY STRANG: I do.

1 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

2 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

3 Q. I'm sorry. Mr. Hoang, my name is Dean Strang and 4 this is Jerome Buting and Steven Avery. We're 5 the defense. And let me just pick up where 6 Mr. Fallon left off with you, if that's all
7 right.

8 In your country, here in your country,
9 jurors are finders of facts. The Judge is the 10 finder of law, jurors are finders of facts, I
11 think you will learn. And 12 people in the end
12 will determine here what the facts are, at least
13 whether the State has proven, beyond a reasonable
14 doubt, the facts as it alleges. Is the process
15 of deciding facts something that you do in your 16 everyday life?

17 A. I will say, yes.

18 Q. I mean, in some sense, I suppose we all have to 19 decide facts, is the price on a gallon of orange
20 juice at Pick and Save lower than the price on 21 the orange juice at Copps, or something. But, of 22 course, the facts here are more serious than 23 that, but in the end, that's what you will be 24 asked to do, is to find facts and to apply a
25 burden of proof. And you understand that in your

1 country here, the burden of proof, to prove the
2 accused person guilty, beyond a reasonable doubt,
3 lies with the State, not with the defense?

4 A. I'm sorry.

5 Q. Sure, let me try it again. Mr. Avery is charged 6 with some crimes?

7 A. Okay.

8 Q. Right. Here, in America, in the country you and 9 I share, the government has the burden of proving 10 its accusations, beyond a reasonable doubt. They 11 have to prove him guilty under the facts and the 12 law. He does not have to prove himself innocent.
13 Is that something you understand and can accept?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. If the Judge instructs you that the State has the 16 burden to prove guilt, beyond a reasonable doubt,
17 could you follow that instruction?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. If the Court instructs you that, here in your 20 country, a person accused of a crime is presumed 21 to be innocent, unless and until the State can
22 prove him guilty, beyond a reasonable doubt;
23 could you follow that instruction?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. In collaboration with 11 other jurors, if you

1 serve on this jury, do you think you can try to
2 reach a consensus about the facts and whether the 3 accusations here are proven, beyond a reasonable
4 doubt, or not?

5 A. I think I can.

6 Q. Can you follow the Judge's instruction on the law
7 of the United States of America and the State of 8 Wisconsin in doing that?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. As he sits here now, do you have any opinion at 11 all about whether Mr. Avery is guilty or not 12 guilty of the charges he faces? Can you hold on 13 to that neutrality, that evenness, not having an 14 opinion one way or the other, until you have 15 heard all of the evidence in this case and have a
16 chance to decide the facts?

17 A. I think I can.

18 Q. Would you listen to any witnesses the State
19 called and give their testimony your fair and 20 honest attention?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And when one of the two defense lawyers asks
23 questions of those witnesses on 24 cross-examination, will you also listen to that 25 testimony and give it your fair and honest

1 consideration?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. If we decide to present witnesses, and we don't
4 have to do that, but if we did decide to present
5 witnesses, would you listen to our witnesses and
6 give them the same fair and honest consideration
7 that you would give the State's witnesses?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Including when the prosecutors are asking
10 questions of our witnesses?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. If Mr. Avery decides to testify, could you
13 consider him in the same way you would consider
14 every other witness in deciding the facts?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. What if he decides not to testify, knowing that 17 he does not have to prove himself innocent and he
18 simply, with our advice, decides not to testify;
19 could you follow the Court's instruction that you
20 may not consider that as a mark against
21 Mr. Avery, or as any evidence of his guilt,
22 indeed, you may not consider that at all in 23 deciding the facts or whether the State has 24 proven guilt, beyond a reasonable doubt?

25 A. I guess I can do that.

1 Q. If this was asked, I apologize, and just stop me,
2 because I missed it if it was asked. But if you
3 had the privilege and the duty of serving on this
4 jury, which could go six weeks or something like
5 that, would it cause you or your family any
6 financial hardship so extreme that the Court
7 ought to consider that?

8 A. Honestly, at this time, yes, it would be.

9 Q. And tell me a little bit about that Mr. Hoang, if 10 you would?

11 A. Well, as of a year ago, I did had problem with 12 credit cards, so I filed bankruptcy and that.
13 And I still be able to keep my car and my truck
14 and continue payments on that. And plus, right
15 now, I been working at this one company for a 16 year.

17 Q. Yes.

18 A. Mostly all my earning incomes go toward the cars,
19 the insurance, somewhat toward the food and 20 rents. Right now I stay with my girlfriends.

21 Q. Mm-hmm.

22 A. And in household, she got three kids, so mostly 23 we're trying to help each other out.

24 Q. Right. And you work at Great Lakes Technical?

25 A. Technology.

1 Q. Technology. Do you know whether they will
2 continue to pay your salary if you are on jury
3 duty or not?

4 A. I did speak to the human resource about couple
5 days ago and notified them that I might be
6 selected for this. And according to the handbook
7 is only saying that it will pay up to eight hours
8 a day, or the max is 10 days. So that's why I
9 ask them, what happen if this trial take, you
10 know, six weeks or more. And I didn't hear any 11 answer back yet, according to that.

12 Q. Okay. They are checking on that or do you expect 13 an answer back on that?

14 A. Yeah, I expect an answer back from that.

15 Q. But you don't have it yet?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Okay. And it looks like you don't have a second
18 part-time job?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Okay.

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: Just one moment, if I
22 may, Mr. Hoang and your Honor.

23 Q. (By Attorney Strang)~ Do you have any way of 24 knowing when you may have an answer from your 25 employer on whether they would continue to pay

1 your -- your salary, beyond 10 days?

2 A. Honestly, I don't know, because the headquarters
3 in Plymouth, that's where everything is down
4 there. And here -- We have HR here, but 5 everything that I go to her, she have to confirm
6 with the owners down there.

7 Q. Okay. So, you don't know when --

8 A. So, honestly I don't know when.

9 Q. -- you'll have an answer. Okay. I think -- I
10 think those are all the questions I have. Thank
11 you.

12 A. Okay.

13 THE COURT: I have got a couple.

14 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

15 BY THE COURT:

16 Q. I want to refer back to your answers about how 17 your religion might affect your ability to serve
18 as a juror in this case.

19 A. Okay.

20 Q. If you are selected for the jury, you and the 21 other 11 jurors will have to determine whether
22 the State has proven, by facts beyond a
23 reasonable doubt, that the defendant is guilty of 24 this charge. And if the jury finds the State has 25 met its burden, then they are instructed to find

1 the defendant guilty. But if the jurors find
2 that the State has not met the burden, then they
3 find the defendant not guilty. Will your
4 religious beliefs affect your ability to make
5 that decision?

6 A. I would say no.

7 Q. That they won't affect it?

8 A. From what I learned, you know, we not supposed to 9 do it, but since I have been here long enough and
10 I did kind of understand somewhat the law, so I
11 would say I can put somewhat aside and make that 12 decision myself.

13 THE COURT: Okay. I just -- The legal 14 system doesn't make people give up their religious 15 beliefs in order to be jurors.

16 A. Okay.

17 Q. That's what I want to make sure of. I don't want
18 to be -- I want to make sure that the legal 19 system isn't putting pressure on you to do
20 something that you don't want to do. We -- The 21 legal system wants to honor your conscience and 22 let you exercise it as you wish.

23 Do you feel that in some way you would 24 have to sacrifice your beliefs, or do you just 25 feel comfortable that you could -- you could

1 serve as a juror and it wouldn't force you to
2 compromise your religious beliefs in any way?

3 A. Honestly, right now, I would say half and half.

4 Q. I can only ask you to give an honest answer. If 5 that's the most honest answer you have, I will
6 accept that answer. That's the way you feel?

7 A. Honestly, I don't think I should be able to do it
8 due to what I somewhat have very strong belief
9 in.

10 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Thank you.
11 The Clerk will escort you from the courtroom at this
12 time.

13 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

14 THE COURT: Is there a motion from either
15 party?

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: I think, reluctantly,
17 otherwise, I think the juror is suitable, although
18 the economic hardship issue developed by Mr. Strang
19 at the end is also a consideration. But there's 20 something about his approach that suggests to me he 21 really wants to participate in that process since 22 he's now in this country and wants to be part of the 23 system.

24 But I guess I was not entirely convinced
25 that he is comfortable with that, given his

1 religious upbringing. And I think we ought to
2 honor that. And even if he has some doubt and is
3 half and half, I just don't think we should put 4 him in that situation.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

6 ATTORNEY STRANG: This is a very, very
7 tough call. The Court's questions were appropriate.
8 And I understand the possible financial hardship
9 issue. And I understand the conscience issue. And 10 where civic duty collides with conscience, as people
11 express that through obligations to family, or 12 obligations to faith, it gets very tough.

13 And what I -- what I really would like
14 to do here and propose, is that the Court give 15 him an instruction that we want to hear, by 16 tomorrow night or by Friday morning, what the 17 employer's position is, if he's heard, he can't 18 force it, but if he's heard, on the wage
19 replacement issue.

20 If he has no assurance that he will be
21 paid beyond 10 days, or he's been told he won't
22 be, then I equally, reluctantly, would join the 23 motion and acknowledge he has to be struck for 24 cause. If the wage issue goes away, the hardship
25 issue goes away, I think it's worth asking him

1 there whether that affects the half and half
2 answer he gave on this conflict between duty and
3 privilege as a naturalized citizen of this
4 country to participate in the institutions of his
5 new country and honoring his faith. And so, in a
6 sense, I'm asking the Court to hold the motion in
7 abeyance; I may have to join it in the end.

8 THE COURT: I agree that if the only
9 outstanding issue were the financial issue I would
10 be inclined to consider the defense recommendation
11 here. But my primary concern and this is another
12 one of those demeanor cases, when Mr. Fallon
13 finished his questions the -- I got the impression
14 that the juror just felt uncomfortable and following
15 up what he wrote in his written questionnaire did
16 not feel he would be able to serve in this case.

17 When Mr. Strang asked a number of 18 questions specifically related to the duty of a
19 juror, he was giving answers that indicated he 20 could serve. And because of that ambiguity, I
21 asked him a few follow-up questions which I tried
22 to tailor as specifically I could to recognize 23 the balance between a juror who's interested in 24 serving with getting the opportunity to do so and 25 yet not asking a juror to sacrifice his religious

1 beliefs in order to be a juror.

2 I believe that the juror understood the
3 nature of the questions and my observation of his
4 demeanor suggested that he held, I guess, a
5 wrestling match in his own conscience with 6 whether or not he felt he could reconcile his 7 religious beliefs with the duties that would be
8 imposed upon a juror. And based on the last
9 answers that he gave, I felt that he genuinely
10 felt that his service as a juror would compromise
11 his religious beliefs.

12 He indicated he holds those near and
13 dear to him. And that serving as a juror could 14 well compromise those beliefs. And I think while 15 we ask a lot of jurors in terms of time, in terms
16 of attention and in terms of sacrifice, one thing
17 we don't ask them to do is give up religious 18 beliefs to serve as a juror. And for that 19 reason, I'm going to excuse this juror.

20 THE COURT: The next juror is Mr. Lafond.

21 All right. Mr. Lafond, please raise
22 your right hand and the clerk will administer the 23 oath.

24 (Juror sworn.)

25 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Lafond, you have already
2 completed a written jury questionnaire in this case.
3 Today we're moving on to the next phase of jury
4 selection which is the voir dire process.

5 In a few minutes the attorneys will have
6 an opportunity to ask you some questions that
7 relate to your qualifications as a juror. Many 8 of them will follow up on answers that you gave 9 in your questionnaire.

10 Before we get to that, I can inform you
11 that the jury in this case will not be
12 sequestered. That means that members of the jury
13 will be permitted to return home each day after 14 court and then come back the next morning.

15 Because of that fact, we will continue
16 the requirement that the jurors not be exposed to 17 any information about this case from any news
18 media including newspapers, television, radio and 19 the internet. And that the jurors not converse
20 about the case with anyone including members of 21 their families or other jurors until it's time to 22 deliberate at the close of the case.

23 These proceedings today are open to the 24 public, but we do not permit cameras in the 25 courtroom during the voir dire process. And the

1 media is not allowed to disclose the names of
2 jurors in news reporting of this case.

3 In addition, if you are selected to
4 serve on the jury, cameras are not permitted to 5 film the jurors during the trial process itself.

6 If you remain as a juror after
7 questioning today, you will get telephone
8 instructions within the next day or two letting 9 you know when it's time to return to court.

10 Mr. Fallon.

11 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

12 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

13 Q. Good afternoon. Is it Mr. Lafond?

14 A. Lafond, yes.

15 Q. Very good. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an
16 Assistant Attorney General with the Wisconsin
17 Department of Justice. I'm a prosecutor in this 18 particular case. I'm working with Mr. Ken Kratz.
19 He is the gentleman to my left, the District
20 Attorney in Calumet County. And he's the lead
21 prosecutor in this prosecution.

22 We're here this afternoon to follow up
23 and ask some additional questions of you, based 24 on your responses that you provided in the 25 questionnaire last Monday. I wanted to begin

1 briefly, rather quickly, with a few questions
2 regarding your employment. I see by trade you
3 are a tool and die maker?

4 A. I was until Paragon Electric moved out of town.

5 Q. All right.

6 A. I have been a machinist for the last seven years.

7 Q. Okay. And you are currently with HMF
8 Innovations?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. If you would help me out, I'm not from the area,
11 so what kind of business is that?

12 A. We make specialty machinery for people all over
13 the country, a lot of house testing equipment, a 14 lot of jobs for Caterpillar, a lot of jobs for 15 right around town here.

16 Q. Okay. So is it heavy equipment that you are 17 involved in producing?

18 A. It can be anything from real tiny stuff up to 19 machinery that's 100 and 150 feet long.

20 Q. All right. Very good. And how long have you
21 been with the new company here?

22 A. Seven years.

23 Q. Seven years, I see, okay. All right. Now, the 24 other thing I wanted to verify with you is a
25 response that you gave us to the very last

1 question in the questionnaire.

2 Recognizing the fact that this case may
3 very well go six weeks, in which case from most
4 likely Monday through Friday, for about nine
5 hours a day or so, you will be tied up involved
6 in the court proceedings if you are selected as a
7 juror. Would that cause any financial hardship
8 on you and/or your family if you were away from 9 work that long?

10 A. No.

11 Q. All right. So you have, I take it, some 12 assurances that you will be able to at least have 13 sufficient income during this period if you were
14 selected as a juror?

15 A. My company will pay for it, he said.

16 Q. All right. Very good. Okay. I see for some of 17 the civic groups that you are involved in you are 18 involved with the Knights of Columbus at your 19 local church?

20 A. Mm-hmm, yes.

21 Q. All right. And chairman of the spaghetti dinner
22 and the church bingo and the Men's Club and those 23 are all associated with your church?

24 A. Basically, yes, mm-hmm.

25 Q. And is -- The church that you belong to is St.

1 Peter, the Fisherman?

2 A. Yes, it is.

3 Q. Okay. Very good. All right. Have you been a
4 long time member of those various organizations?

5 A. Pretty much all my life, 25, 30 years, yeah.

6 Q. All right. Are you -- I take it, then, you are a
7 life long resident of this area, Manitowoc
8 County?

9 A. Yes. Yes, mm-hmm.

10 Q. Okay. All right. Well, a matter of concern to 11 all of us in selecting the jurors for this case
12 is how much they may have heard about the case in 13 the media and whether that's led to any really 14 strongly held or felt opinions about the case and 15 things of that sort. So that's what I would like 16 to talk about at this moment. All right?

17 A. Sure.

18 Q. First, it looks like you get your news sources
19 from a variety of sources, or radio, television,
20 and the newspapers and that you do read the 21 newspaper daily; is that correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. And you also apparently watch, fairly regularly,
24 the news broadcasts?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. Now, do you get your news from any other
2 source, like say the internet perhaps; do you
3 have a computer at home that you might use,
4 or ...

5 A. We have got a computer, but I don't -- I don't
6 use it for news.

7 Q. Okay. Okay. Did you receive a directive from 8 the Court, oh, about three weeks or so ago,
9 asking that since you might be a juror in this 10 particular case that you would -- it would be 11 appreciated if you would refrain from reviewing
12 or listening to any of the news commentary
13 regarding this case? Did you get that?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 Q. All right. And have you been able to honor that
16 request?

17 A. Not totally, the newspaper is the easy part, but
18 the place that I'm employed at is a small machine
19 shop and we have radios playing all day long in 20 every corner. The news is on all day long and so
21 I have heard some of it at work, you know --

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. -- different things. Mostly about jury selection
24 has been this week.

25 Q. All right. Well, let me ask you, then, just

1 figuring in the last three weeks, we'll work with
2 that bit of information. What do you recall
3 hearing either on the radio or from any other
4 news source about the case?

5 A. Well, I remember something last Friday about some 6 blood that's going to be tested, whether or not
7 it's got this preservative in or something.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. That's the only thing that really pops into my
10 mind.

11 Q. Okay. What about anything involving the charges
12 in the case, or anything involving a fellow by 13 the name of Brendan Dassey, any of that ring a
14 chord with you?

15 A. Well, yeah, I wasn't real sure if it was in the 16 last three weeks, but I believe he's -- he had 17 confessed to helping out and now he's recanted
18 that story --

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. -- and taken it back.

21 Q. All right. Anything else that you recall now,
22 just from that in the last three weeks, that
23 you ...

24 A. No.

25 Q. All right. How about when the case first broke,

1 when the news story first broke about this woman,
2 Teresa Halbach's disappearance and within the
3 week, the arrest of the defendant here,
4 Mr. Avery. Did you follow those telecasts?
5 A. Very closely.
6 Q. You did?
7 A. Mm-hmm. Yes.
8 Q. All right. And did you follow the media coverage
9 with respect to the arrest of Mr. Dassey and --
10 and his statements regarding his involvement from 11 about 11 --
12 A. Yes.
13 Q. -- 11 months ago?
14 A. Sure. Yes, I did.
15 Q. All right. And do you recall any of the details
16 from either one of those media coverage?
17 A. Of his arrest, or of the reasons for his arrest?
18 Q. Yeah, whatever you can tell us that you recall.
19 A. Well, just that he was arrested. And then I
20 remember seeing pictures of a red house trailer.
21 And they had pictures of a burn pit and stuff,
22 where supposedly her body had been burned. And 23 they had found bone fragments. I'm sure -- I
24 can't think of a lot of things right now. I'm 25 sure if you jog my memory, there will be a lot

1 more things.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. But I watched pretty much all of it.

4 Q. All right.

5 A. We were pretty much glued to the TV.

6 Q. Okay. So it would be fair to say that you
7 followed the case fairly closely up until you got
8 the directive from the Court?

9 A. Yes, mm-hmm.

10 Q. All right. Well, here's the reason we ask these 11 questions. And in the questionnaire, in response
12 to one question you said, have you formed any 13 personal opinions based on the publicity. And 14 you said, yes, based on the publicity, that he 15 may be guilty.

16 And then the next question was -- or the 17 two questions later, you were asked, have you
18 formed any opinion yourself, based on the 19 information that you had from any source, of his 20 guilt or innocence. And you said, yes and you
21 said, again, he may be guilty.

22 You followed that up with an answer to a
23 question that the Court will advise you that, if 24 you are selected as a juror, you would be
25 required to set aside that information that you

1 heard in the media and decide this case only on
2 the evidence which is presented during the trial.

3 And you answered that case -- or that
4 question yes. Do you feel -- still feel you
5 would be able to do that, or do you feel that 6 your opinion is pretty well set, based on all the 7 information that you have from following the case
8 so closely?

9 A. I guess I would have to say that my opinion is 10 pretty well set but, you know, if there was earth
11 shaking type evidence that would change my mind,
12 sure. But whether or not that happens, I don't 13 know, but my mind is pretty well -- pretty well
14 made up, sure.

15 Q. Yeah. So in other words, you know -- so your 16 answer to the question might be different, then,
17 today from last week; in other words, you don't 18 think you would be able to set aside that
19 information?

20 A. Like I said, if it was something that was -- that 21 really changed my mind, yeah. I mean, it would 22 have to be something really substantial that 23 everything that I have heard right now in through
24 the media, I formed an opinion that is fairly
25 strong and it would not be easy to change it,

1 but ...

2 Q. All right. Even though Mr. Avery is presumed
3 innocent?

4 A. Even though.

5 Q. Okay. One second, please.

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: We don't have any more
7 questions for the witness.

8 THE COURT: All right. The Clerk will
9 escort you from the courtroom at this time.

10 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

11 THE COURT: Counsel, do you have a joint 12 motion to make?

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: I think it's quite
14 apparent the witness is -- or excuse me, the juror
15 is fairly well set in his ways; although his 16 questionnaire didn't seem to read that way, I think
17 we have to take his comments at his word. And I
18 would just as soon see if there's -- I think there's 19 one last juror there we might be able to talk to,
20 but it didn't seem that this would be all that 21 productive. No, I think he would need to be struck
22 for cause.

23 THE COURT: Does the defense agree?

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: On this one, I have to 25 agree.

1 THE COURT: The Court agrees as well. We
2 will -- The Court will order the juror stricken for
3 cause and we'll take Tim Holsen as the last juror
4 today.

5 Mr. Holsen, please raise your right hand
6 and the Clerk will swear you in.

7 (Juror sworn.)

8 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

9 MR. HOLSEN: Thank you.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Holsen, you have already 11 completed a written questionnaire in this case. At 12 this time we're moving on to the next stage of voir
13 dire -- or the next stage of the jury selection
14 process which is known as voir dire.

15 The attorneys have a chance to ask you
16 some questions as follow-up to the information
17 you provided on your questionnaire.

18 Before we get to that, I have got a few
19 pieces of information to pass on to you. First 20 of all, the jury in this case will not be 21 sequestered. That means that the jurors will be 22 permitted to return home each day after the trial
23 and return the next morning.

24 The prohibition on learning anything
25 from the news media will continue throughout the

1 trial; that is, the jurors cannot consult the
2 television, radio, newspapers, the internet, or
3 anything else to learn anything about the case,
4 other than the evidence presented in court. And 5 the jurors are prohibited from discussing the 6 case with anyone, including family members and 7 other jurors until it's time to deliberate.

8 Although the proceedings today are open,
9 the Court does not allow cameras in the courtroom
10 during voir dire proceedings. And the news media
11 is not permitted to disclose the names of jurors.

12 In addition, if you are selected to
13 serve on the jury, any cameras at the trial will 14 not be permitted to show the jurors in anyway
15 that identifies who they are.

16 If you are continued as a juror after
17 proceedings today, you will receive telephone
18 instructions in the next day or two letting you
19 know when to return to court.

20 Mr. Fallon, will you be asking questions
21 for the State?

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, thank you.

23 THE COURT: Very well.

24 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

25 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

1 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Holsen, my name is Tom
2 Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney General with
3 the Wisconsin Department of Justice and I'm one
4 of the prosecutors in this case. I'm based in 5 Madison, helping out here. To my immediate left
6 is Mr. Ken Kratz, the District Attorney for 7 Calumet County. He's also a special prosecutor
8 and the lead prosecutor in this matter.

9 This is our opportunity, as attorneys,
10 to follow up and ask a few additional questions
11 of you, based on some of the information you
12 provided last week, to help us in selecting a
13 jury for this case.

14 First, had a couple of general questions
15 regarding your employment. As I understand it,
16 you are currently with the Kohler Company?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. And what do you do for them? You are into 19 supervising but ...

20 A. I'm a supervisor of materials, management,
21 shipping; actually about four departments.

22 Q. Okay. And how long have you been with that
23 company?

24 A. Twenty-two years.

25 Q. Just wanted to verify, one of the responses you

1 gave is a consideration for all of us here. On
2 the very last question of the questionnaire,
3 there is -- or there was a question regarding if 4 this case were, in fact, to take six weeks, as to
5 whether that would cause some particular hardship
6 for you.

7 And there's -- kind of looks like there
8 might be two angles here for us to explore. So
9 let me, first, take the obvious one. Would you
10 be allowed to take leave of absence, as it were,
11 from the Kohler Company to sit as a juror if you
12 were selected?

13 A. Yes, I would.

14 Q. Okay. So you would be able to have sufficient 15 income coming in?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. And the second part of it is, one of the 18 things that was mentioned on page three of your 19 questionnaire and again at the end, and you're 20 involved in some online schooling?

21 A. Yes, I'm going to UW Stout for my Bachelor's 22 Degree, online. So I'm taking classes currently.

23 Q. All right. And this is all distance learning, I
24 guess --

25 A. Right.

1 Q. -- as they say?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. How much time does that take of your day to 4 participate in that?

5 A. Twelve hours a week. Approximately twelve hours
6 a week.

7 Q. Twelve hours a week. And is that something where 8 you are actually participating in a class that's 9 live online, or is it something that's -- you
10 download the course assignments, for instance,
11 work on them and then complete them? How does it
12 work.

13 A. Correct. There's quizzes online and then papers
14 due online.

15 Q. All right.

16 A. So online time is probably, you know, three to 17 four hours a week; the rest is all study.

18 Q. Study, okay.

19 A. Correct.

20 Q. And when do you normally do that work?

21 A. Usually on weekends.

22 Q. Okay. All right. So, if -- Technically
23 speaking, then, if the Court were not in session
24 on the weekends and you got home at say 6 o'clock
25 every night, would you still be able to continue

1 with the online work?

2 A. I think so, yeah.

3 Q. Okay. All right. Well, the other matter of 4 concern to us is the -- any opinions or thoughts
5 you may have about the case as a result of quite
6 a bit of publicity. And it seems that at least
7 you are familiar with some of that publicity.
8 You get news from both radio and television; is
9 that right?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. Of the two, which one would you say you get most 12 of your news from?

13 A. Probably the television.

14 Q. All right. And let's start there. How often do
15 you watch the local TV news?

16 A. Nightly.

17 Q. Nightly?

18 A. Mm-hmm.

19 Q. Okay. So my next question, then, is have you at 20 all been following this case since it's 21 inception?

22 A. Since it's inception, pretty much, yeah. See,
23 it's close to home. I live real close to 24 Mishicot, so it's close to home. Yes, I have 25 been following it.

1 Q. All right. And have you lived in Mishicot for a
2 substantial period of time?

3 A. Yes, since 2000.

4 Q. Since 2000. So you have been there the last
5 seven years and you were born in Manitowoc, in --

6 A. Right.

7 Q. -- the city here?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Did you live in the city before you moved to 10 Mishicot?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. So, you have got a little bit of a commute
13 down to Kohler?

14 A. Yeah.

15 Q. Okay. All right. I will get back to the 16 television in just a second. I also see that you
17 read the newspapers fairly regularly?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Which papers do you read?

20 A. Mostly online, Herald-Times, Sheboygan Press and 21 sometimes the Green Bay Press Gazette.

22 Q. All right. Do you read all three papers pretty
23 regularly or is it one week you might read one
24 and the next week --

25 A. Yeah, it's intermittently --

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. -- during the week, yeah.

3 Q. Whatever seems to strike your interest?

4 A. Following sports a little bit and business.

5 Q. Would it be fair to say if one paper has a story
6 that kind of strikes your interest you might
7 follow that story in the paper for a couple
8 days --

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. -- and then switch back to one of the other
11 papers?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Okay. All right. Now, with respect to this 14 particular case, what coverage do you remember --
15 Well, first of all, I'm going to do this in 16 reverse order. A couple weeks ago, I believe you
17 may have received or should have received a
18 letter from the Court advising you that the 19 possibility of being a juror was rather imminent?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And that you were asked not to watch or pay
22 attention to any more media whenever you could 23 avoid it?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. All right. And did you receive the letter?

1 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. Okay. Have you been able to follow the Court's
3 advice?

4 A. For the most part. I mean, it's still on just
5 about every news channel every time you turn it
6 on. But I make an effort to leave the room when 7 it comes on, so.

8 Q. Okay. All right. In terms of any coverage of 9 the case, in say the last three weeks or four 10 weeks, within the last month; what, if anything,
11 or what do you remember seeing or hearing about
12 the coverage of the case during that period?

13 A. Basically, just some of the charges that were 14 brought against Mr. Avery.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. That was a big thing. And, then, of course, a
17 little bit about the jury selection, until I
18 received that letter.

19 Q. All right. Any particular details of any of the 20 court proceedings in the last three or four 21 weeks? Anything strike your fancy, or catch your 22 interest, or do you happen to overhear at work,
23 or anything?

24 A. You know, it's pretty hard, everybody talks about 25 it everywhere. So I try to ignore it and not,

1 you know, make conversation about it. So I would
2 have to answer that nothing in particular strikes
3 me at this time.

4 Q. All right. All right. Well, let's take about 5 the -- the -- the one year period before that.
6 Would you say you followed this case closely
7 or ...

8 A. Yeah, I would say closely, yes.

9 Q. All right. And have you watched any of the -- 10 any news conferences or just the news stories?

11 A. Mostly just the news stories.

12 Q. All right.

13 A. And the big part is when it was developing, you
14 know, everybody wanted to know what was going on,
15 what was happening. And being a small community,
16 it was, you know, of interest.

17 Q. So in November, December of 2005 and January,
18 February, March of 2006, you paid pretty close
19 attention?

20 A. Yes, very close.

21 Q. All right. How about through this past summer?

22 A. Tapered off quite a bit.

23 Q. All right.

24 A. The media got a hold of it and it became less
25 interesting, I guess.

1 Q. I'm sorry?

2 A. The mediate -- media became more interested. It
3 became more widespread and I guess my interest, I
4 withdrew a little bit.

5 Q. All right. Starting when?

6 A. Probably this summer.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. This past summer.

9 Q. All right. Well, we wanted to talk to you about 10 some of the opinions you may or may not have 11 formed as a result of all that media coverage and 12 ask you this. I mean, you, first of all,
13 understand that as Mr. Avery sits here today, the 14 law presumes him innocent?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. You understand that?

17 A. I understand that.

18 Q. All right. And do you accept that principle?

19 A. I do accept that, yes.

20 Q. Okay. Now, I know there's been an awful lot of 21 media coverage here, so we'll get right to the 22 point. Have you formed any opinion that he is 23 guilty, based strictly on what the media has told 24 you of the facts?

25 A. No.

1 Q. All right. Are you concerned about the manner --
2 Well -- All right. Let me ask it this way. Is 3 there anything about Mr. Avery, or his family, or 4 his past that has led to forming any kind of 5 opinions about his guilt or innocence?

6 A. I don't know the family.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. But being from a small area, you do hear rumors
9 so, you know, I have heard some of those.

10 Q. All right. All right. Now, these rumors, can I 11 assume you are taking them for just what they 12 are, rumors?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. All right. And has -- has that information all
15 led to any opinions of his guilt, based on rumor?

16 A. You know, let me give you a little background.
17 Coming from Manitowoc, it's just a little bit
18 bigger than where I live now, Francis creek. And 19 when you move to a small community like Francis
20 Creek, everybody knows everybody and everybody
21 talks. And a lot of that is just rumors. I try
22 not to get caught up in that; I really do.

23 Q. All right. So you don't pay much attention to 24 that.

25 A. No, sir.

1 Q. All right. Well, so just that I'm clear, as he
2 sits here today, you don't have any particular
3 opinion of his guilt or innocence?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. All right. And the Court did ask, in the 6 questionnaire here, is if you did have any 7 opinions or any thoughts regarding the crime or 8 his involvement or whatever, that if you were 9 selected as a juror you would be asked to set
10 that aside and decide his guilt or innocence
11 solely on the evidence which we present in the 12 courtroom?

13 A. To the best of my ability, correct.

14 Q. Right. And you answered yes?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. Do you still feel that way --

17 A. Yes, I do.

18 Q. -- today? Okay.

19 A. Yup.

20 Q. I wanted to also follow up with a couple of other
21 questions regarding some experiences that you
22 have had with law enforcement, if I may?

23 A. Sure.

24 Q. I'm just struggling just a bit, as the light goes
25 down and my age goes up, my ability to read

1 without my reading glasses diminishes ever so
2 slightly. But it looks like you have had some
3 experiences with some of the county law
4 enforcement officers. So tell us a little bit
5 about that.

6 A. Sure. I was good friends with Tom Jansen, who 7 was a county officer for a number of years. And 8 our kids were very close, a lot of sporting
9 activities, camping, things like that. He has 10 since moved to the western part of the state and 11 really haven't had much contact with him.

12 Q. All right. And how long ago did he move away?

13 A. That was probably a year and a half ago.

14 Q. All right. But you were pretty good friends up
15 to that point?

16 A. Yes, we were, yeah.

17 Q. Okay. Did he ever talk about the business of law
18 enforcement with you?

19 A. No.

20 Q. All right.

21 A. No, we kept that separate. We really didn't talk
22 work, we just had more fun with family and 23 friends.

24 Q. Okay. So no plumbing and no law enforcement?

25 A. Exactly. No toilets and --

1 Q. Work and -- All right. Very good.

2 A. -- no law enforcement.

3 Q. Now, you also indicated that you did have -- was 4 it a friend or a friend's son was killed on an 5 ATV accident?

6 A. That is correct, yeah.

7 Q. Now, was that something that was a pure
8 accident --

9 A. Yeah.

10 Q. -- or was there something --

11 A. Pure accident.

12 Q. Okay. So there was no reason for any law
13 enforcement investigation?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Just a sad occurrence?

16 A. Exactly.

17 Q. Okay. All right. Now, because you were such 18 good friends with this former officer, Tom
19 Jansen, do you think your friendship with him
20 would have any impact on your ability to evaluate 21 a law enforcement officer's testimony the same
22 way you would evaluate any other person's
23 testimony?

24 A. I would still hold it in high regard, so.

25 Q. All right. All right. That's fair, you would

1 expect them to be credible, right?

2 A. Very credible, yes.

3 Q. Okay. However, when it comes to a court of law,
4 there's an instruction the Court will provide to 5 all the jurors and it tells you that we take all
6 witnesses as they are and that those witnesses
7 should be evaluated on the same standard; in 8 other words, treated the same. You look at them
9 and you determine their believability, their 10 honesty, their credibility, the same as you would 11 any other person; do you think you could do that?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay.

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: I will pass the juror.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

16 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

17 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

18 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

19 Q. My name is Jerome Buting and I, along with 20 Attorney Dean Strang, defend Mr. Avery here,
21 okay?

22 A. Okay.

23 Q. Now, Mr. Holsen, you were here last week and 24 filled out one of these questionnaires, right?

25 A. That's correct, sir.

1 Q. And you took your time and carefully read all the
2 questions?

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. And you answered them really from the heart?

5 A. Yes, I did.

6 Q. And, in fact, you signed it, swearing that it was 7 true; is that right?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Under penalty of perjury?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And last week, you were asked if there was any 12 reason that you could not be a fair and impartial
13 juror?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And you said, yes, there was. And you said that 16 this is so close to home and I have kids that go
17 to Mishicot and we have heard so much about it,
18 if I were selected I would do my best to be fair?

19 A. That's correct. I still feel the same way, yes.

20 Q. But, then, you also said, in answer to a question
21 Mr. Fallon asked, if you had any opinions that 22 had been formed --

23 A. Mm-hmm.

24 Q. -- today. And I don't know if you forgot what 25 you said last week, but when you were asked that

1 question, if you had formed any personal opinions
2 about the case based on publicity, last week you
3 said, yes, you had; do you remember?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And you had said that -- one of your opinions was 6 that the Avery family has problems?

7 A. That's, again, you know, what we hear as rumors
8 and it's hard when you are a small community like
9 we are, you hear everything.

10 Q. Sure, I know you do.

11 A. And, you know, I guess I'm just trying to balance
12 that, sir, so.

13 Q. Sure, but that's an opinion --

14 A. I understand.

15 Q. -- that's an opinion that last week, when you
16 filled this out, you had said you had formed,
17 correct?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Okay. And you also expressed some real concern
20 about the knowledge that you had gotten from the 21 coverage, right?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. And you said that, when asked to describe what 24 you remember about it, you used these terms about
25 how sad and how savage it was and that it was so

1 close to home, that my kids -- and that my kids
2 saw it and that it -- it had ties with Mishicot
3 school with Branden?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Is that where your kids go?

6 A. Correct.

7 Q. They go to the same high school as Brendan
8 Dassey?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. Were they in the same grade as him?

11 A. I believe -- Eric is 15 and my daughter is 13, so
12 they are a year younger, I believe.

13 Q. Okay. And you also said that you were concerned,
14 or you asked if you discussed this case at length
15 with any other persons and you said, yes, my 16 wife, as we are concerned about our kids?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. As they go to the same school as some Avery's and 19 how close to home it is.

20 A. Mm-hmm. Correct.

21 Q. Right?

22 A. Mm-hmm.

23 Q. So, you're concerned that there could be some --
24 maybe some fall out if ...

25 A. Correct. It's a small community.

1 Q. It's a small community and if you -- if you voted
2 to -- for not guilty -- or if you voted Mr. Avery
3 guilty, you would be concerned about some 4 retribution?

5 A. Either way.

6 Q. Either way.

7 A. Either way.

8 Q. And it is a small community. And that's a pretty
9 hard thing to put aside, right?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And we're not asking you to be super human here.
12 I mean, you are a human being like everybody else
13 and, you know, you are not expected to be a
14 perfect juror in every case, right?

15 A. Understood, correct.

16 Q. You may be a perfectly fine juror in some cases
17 and others maybe not?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. And in this case, you also talked about how, if 20 you had formed any opinion whatsoever about 21 Mr. Avery's guilt or innocence and, again, last 22 week you said, yes, you had?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. And that you mentioned the past history of 25 Mr. Avery and the gore of it, as covered by TV

1 news, papers, and radio, right?

2 A. Correct. Let me explain a little bit. Most of 3 this was directed at my children, you know, as 4 any parent, very concerned about them. So,
5 that's -- that's the answer.

6 Q. And did you -- Did you see a news conference
7 where Mr. Kratz, in fact, warned that any 8 children under the age of 15 should probably not 9 listen to it?

10 A. I do not recall.

11 Q. Or did your wife see that and talk to you about
12 it?

13 A. That's possible. I don't think I saw it. I have 14 heard about it a little bit but. I mean, it's 15 just -- it's a -- it's a -- Again, let me put it
16 this way, it's a sad case and you don't ever want
17 your children exposed to things like that that 18 happen in the world, unfortunately.

19 Q. Right. And so I'm wondering, you know, given all
20 of that and it's closeness to home and the way
21 that it's really -- really affected your feelings
22 and your -- about your children and your wife's
23 concerns --

24 A. Right.

25 Q. -- if you really think that you would be a good

1 juror for this case?

2 A. I would say no, but if -- if I was called to do
3 so, I would do so.

4 Q. Okay. Well, I mean, you are called to try and
5 be -- you're called to be a fair jury -- juror.
6 And if, in a particular case, if that's asking
7 too much of you, there's nothing to be ashamed
8 of, you understand that?

9 A. Understood.

10 Q. And that if this is really something that you
11 just think would be too difficult, there's no
12 shame whatsoever in telling the Court that you
13 really think you wouldn't be a good juror in this
14 case?

15 A. Okay. And I -- Actually, I probably wouldn't be,
16 being it's so close to home and that's why I
17 wrote it.

18 Q. Okay. I appreciate that. I just wanted to 19 clarify it --

20 A. Sure.

21 Q. -- because today it seemed like -- and sometimes
22 when jurors come in to Court, they feel like they
23 don't want to say that they can't be a fair juror
24 because that reflects on them. And it's not
25 really true. I mean, we all have different life

1 experiences and this one obviously hit very close
2 to you.

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. So I want you to -- It's important because,
5 Mr. Avery, despite what all you have heard,
6 Mr. Avery -- you haven't heard it all. And he 7 deserves the presumption of innocence and
8 deserves to start with jurors who have a clean
9 slate and can start, really, from zero?

10 A. Okay.

11 Q. And if you are not somebody who can do that, then
12 in all honesty, I wish you would please tell us
13 that.

14 A. Okay. I already have.

15 Q. That you can't?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Thank you. I appreciate that, sir.

18 A. No problem.

19 THE COURT: All right. We'll have the
20 Clerk escort you from the courtroom at this time.

21 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

22 THE COURT: Mr. Buting, does the defense
23 have a motion?

24 ATTORNEY BUTING: I do. I move to strike.

25 THE COURT: Anything from the State?

1 ATTORNEY FALLON: No, we'll join, based on
2 the last set of responses; I think it's evident.

3 THE COURT: The Court agrees. The Court
4 will order that Mr. Holsen be stricken for cause.
5 And I will see you at 8:30 tomorrow morning.
6 Anything before we go?

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: Just a quick question,
8 Judge, how far down the list should we prepare to 9 --in other words, how many do you think you will be 10 calling in tomorrow, so that we'll have all of the 11 information?

12 THE COURT: I would say, well, to be safe
13 14; hopefully, it won't take us that many.

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: And Mrs. Gonia is the 15 first one.

16 THE COURT: She is the next one, correct.

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: Okay. Thank you.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: That comes up to, by my
19 count, Juror No. 87.

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: Pretty much finishes that 21 second page completely.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Right. That would take
23 us through the second page.

24 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes.

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's what I had come up

1 with.

2 ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay.

3 THE COURT: The last juror is what number?

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: Eighty-seven maybe.

5 ATTORNEY FALLON: Juror No. 87 would be 14.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's what I come up

8 with.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Let's do that, prepare
10 up to 87.

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: All right.

12 THE COURT: All right. Just a second,
13 here's the jurors I have got left. I got No. 60.

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Sixty-five.

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Correct.

17 THE COURT: Sixty-seven.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Sixty-eight.

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Seventy-one.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Correct.

23 THE COURT: Seventy-two.

24 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Seventy-four.

1 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Seventy-five.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: Seventy-five is excused.

4 THE COURT: Seventy-five is out.

5 ATTORNEY FALLON: They are excused.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Seventy-six.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Seventy-seven.

9 ATTORNEY FALLON: Seventy-seven, oh, that's

10 the one that we kicked. That was already out.

11 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Did you?

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I didn't have that written

14 down.

15 THE COURT: All right. So 78, 79, 81.

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Right.

17 THE COURT: Eighty-six.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: And 87.

19 THE COURT: Let's include 88. Oops, 88 --

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: Eighty-eight is gone. I

21 don't have 77 off.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: That was --

23 THE COURT: To be safe, let's go through

24 91.

25 ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay.

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery. It's Case No.
3 05 CF 381. Uh, we are here today continuing with 4 the process of jury selection. Will the parties
5 state their appearances for the record, please?

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: Good morning, Your
7 Honor. May it please the Court, State appears by 8 Assistant Attorney General Tom Fallon, and Ken
9 Kratz, special prosecutors.

10 ATTORNEY BUTING: Morning, Your Honor.
11 Jerome Buting and Dean Strang appearing with
12 Mr. Avery.

13 THE COURT: All right. Before we
14 resume, uh, voir dire this morning, uh, I think
15 yesterday the Court was informed that the -- I'm 16 not sure that my notes are specific enough here,
17 but I had jurors 75 and 77 listed as
18 possibilities that the parties would be, uh,
19 jointly requesting that they be excused for 20 cause.

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: Um, I had Juror No. 75
22 as being previously excused by the Court and, uh,
23 77, I -- I thought that that may have been
24 discussed either Monday or Tuesday.

25 THE COURT: That does ring a bell about

1 Juror 75. I will, um, try to verify that with my
2 judicial assistant. Um, I don't have the reason
3 committed to memory but, um -- All right. We'll
4 address those issues later and bring in the first
5 juror at this time, which is Juror No. 60, Judith
6 Kania.

7 Ms. Kania, at this time I'll ask you to 8 raise your right and the clerk will administer
9 the oath.

10 (Juror sworn)

11 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

12 THE COURT: Uh, Ms. Kania, you've
13 already completed a jury questionnaire in this 14 case. Today we're moving on to the next step of 15 jury selection process which is called voir dire.
16 Uh, in this stage each of the attorneys, or the 17 attorneys for each side, will be permitted to ask
18 you some additional questions that relate to your
19 qualifications as a juror.

20 Uh, before we get to their questions, I
21 want to pass some information on to you. First
22 of all, if you are selected as a juror in this
23 case, I want you to know that the jurors will not 24 be sequestered. That means that the jurors will 25 be permitted to return home each day, uh, after

1 that day's proceedings in the trial, and, uh,
2 because of that fact, the Court will continue the 3 restriction that the jurors not be exposed to any
4 type of media information about the case, be it
5 radio, television, newspaper, the internet or any 6 other source, and jurors will continue to be 7 prohibited from discussing the case, uh, with 8 anyone, including members of their family or 9 other jurors until all of the evidence has been
10 received.

11 Uh, you should also know that, although
12 these proceedings today are open to the public,
13 the Court does not allow cameras in the courtroom
14 during individual voir dire and the media is not 15 permitted to identify the jurors by name in any 16 media reports of these proceedings.

17 In addition, should you be selected as a
18 juror, you should know that, uh, while cameras
19 are permitted in the courtroom during the trial, 20 they're not permitted to, uh, show the members of 21 the jury.

22 Um, in the event you, uh, continue on
23 the jury panel after today, uh, you'll get a
24 telephone call probably sometime today letting 25 you know when you will be reporting back for the

1 next step in the process.

2 Mr. Fallon? All right at this time

3 Mr. Fallon, uh, will ask you questions.

4 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

5 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

6 Q Good morning.

7 A Good morning.

8 Q Um, my name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant
9 Attorney General with the Wisconsin Department of 10 Justice and I'm one of the prosecutors in this
11 case. To my immediate left is Mr. Ken Kratz, the 12 Calumet County District Attorney and lead
13 prosecutor.

14 We're here this morning to follow up
15 with some, uh, questions regarding the 16 information you provided last week, uh, to help
17 us in, uh, selecting a jury for this case.

18 Um, first of all, is your last name
19 pronounced Kania?

20 A Kania. Right.

21 Q All right. Very good. Um, and do you prefer
22 Miss? Missis?

23 A Missis is good.

24 Q Very good. All right. Um, very good. Uh,
25 you're currently employed at the, uh, uh, Forder

1 (phonetic) Needle Company here in Manitowoc?

2 A Foster.

3 Q Or -- sorry?

4 A Foster Needle.

5 Q Foster? Okay. Very good. And, uh, how long

6 have you been employed there?

7 A Twenty years.

8 Q Uh, and you're a furnace operator?

9 A Yes.

10 Q What, exactly, does that entail?

11 A I take needles out of a box and put them on a

12 conveyor belt that goes into a furnace to heat them

13 up.

14 Q Oh, I see. Okay. And, uh, previously you worked

15 at, uh, the Mirro Aluminum Company?

16 A Um-hmm.

17 Q And what did you do for them?

18 A I worked in the Teflon department, spraying the 19 Teflon on the --

20 Q All right.

21 A -- pans.

22 Q And, um, how long did you, uh, work for them?

23 A I think it was four years.

24 Q Very good. Now, um, if you were, uh, selected as

25 a juror in this case, um, you've previously

1 indicated that, even if the case were to take six
2 weeks or, perhaps, a tad longer, uh, that 3 wouldn't, um, cause any financial hardship as 4 near as you can figure?

5 A I don't think so.

6 Q All right. So you feel pretty comfortable about
7 your ability to serve, uh, for that extended
8 period?

9 A I think so.

10 Q Okay. All right. Um, I want to talk, now, if I
11 may, about, uh, the, uh, pretrial publicity that 12 this case has generated. From my review of the 13 information you provided, it -- it appears that 14 you, um, at least watch the news somewhat
15 regularly?

16 A Um-hmm. Yes.

17 Q All right. And, um, you indicated you get your 18 news from the newspapers, television and, uh,
19 discussions with your neighbors?

20 A Right.

21 Q All right. Um, excuse me, of those, where would 22 you say you get the majority of your news?

23 A Television.

24 Q From television?

25 A Um-hmm.

1 Q All right. Uh, in terms of the television
2 coverage, how often do you watch the -- the news
3 on television?

4 A Every day.

5 Q All right. And, um, in addition to the -- the 6 news programs, do you watch any special news
7 events or special news channels?

8 A No.

9 Q All right. Um, with respect to the coverage of 10 this particular case, did you follow it closely,
11 somewhat closely or not at all?

12 A Somewhat.

13 Q Somewhat. Uh, about three weeks ago, uh, the 14 Court sent out a letter to prospective jurors,
15 uh, asking them to refrain from, um, reading or 16 listening to any of the coverage about this case.
17 Have -- Did you get that letter?

18 A I think I did. Yes.

19 Q All right. And have you been able to honor that
20 request?

21 A Not exactly. No.

22 Q Okay. Well, we'll talk a little bit about that.
23 And let's just start, say, from the last three
24 weeks or so. Uh, approximately -- well, tell us
25 what news coverage of the -- of this case that

1 you recall being, uh, exposed to.

2 A Well, I guess, general, most of the details, you
3 know. What all happened.

4 Q Okay. Well, tell us about that. Whatever you
5 can remember hearing about the case in the last
6 couple of weeks.

7 A Last couple weeks, huh? Okay. Um, oh, boy. I guess
8 the van, the way it was covered up in -- in the -- in 9 the salvage yard.

10 Q Okay.

11 A And the key found in the house.

12 Q All right.

13 A And I guess the nephew confessing that he helped
14 Mr. Avery kill, if he did, um, um --

15 Q All right. Any -- anything else stick in your 16 mind? Anything about blood evidence? Anything
17 about --

18 A Yeah. There was some blood evidence that --

19 Q What do you recall hearing about that?

20 A That it was put in the van, somehow. It was in the 21 van. Put it that way.

22 Q All right. Now, did that come from, um -- that 23 information, did that come from, uh, television,
24 from reading the newspaper, or your husband, or 25 friends, or how do you think you came upon that?

1 A I think maybe the newspaper.

2 Q From the newspaper?

3 A Uh-huh.

4 Q All right. Do you read the newspaper regularly?

5 A Yes. Uh-huh.

6 Q And, um, daily?

7 A Yes.

8 Q All right. Uh, have you been reading the news
9 coverage about this case, um, in the last three 10 or four weeks?

11 A Sometimes, yes.

12 Q Sometimes. All right. Um, well, based on the 13 information that you have read in the paper, you,
14 um, answered a question, um, first, that the only 15 person you really talk about this with, I take 16 it, is your husband?

17 A Um-hmm.

18 Q That's a yes?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay. Um, when asked if you had any specific 21 opinion as to Mr. Avery's guilt or innocence
22 based on what you've seen and heard, uh, you
23 indicated, uh, while just in general the news
24 media about the evidence found in the home and 25 the junk yard, and you seemed to indicate earlier

1 that, um, most of the evidence seems to point to
2 Mr. Avery but that's just what you heard.

3 A Right.

4 Q All right. Is -- is that your impression still
5 as you sit here today?

6 A I guess I still do feel he's guilty.

7 Q All right.

8 A From what I heard.

9 Q From what you heard?

10 A Right.

11 Q All right. Now, you do understand, um -- Well,
12 let me ask you this, because there are a couple
13 of questions that you, uh, forgot to answer here
14 and we want to ask about those. Uh, one of the 15 questions is, um, if you have formed any opinions
16 as to Mr. Avery's guilt or innocence, based on 17 information from any source, would you be able,
18 should you be selected as a juror, to set aside
19 those opinions and base your decision only on the 20 evidence presented in court?

21 A It would be quite hard.

22 Q All right. And why would that be?

23 A Because I guess I feel in my gut that he's guilty.

24 Q Okay. Even though you understand he is presumed 25 innocent?

1 A Right.

2 Q All right. You don't think you could accept any
3 ext -- instruction from the Court that you should 4 honor that presumption of innocence and decide
5 his guilt only on the evidence presented?

6 A I'm not really sure, but I don't think so.

7 Q You don't think so?

8 A No.

9 Q All right.

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: I have nothing else.

11 THE COURT: All right. Um, Mr. Strang, are 12 you willing to forgo your right to question this --

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: I -- I am. Thank you,
14 Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. Uh, at this time,
16 Ms. Kania, we'll have the clerk escort you from the
17 courtroom.

18 (Wherein juror is escorted out)

19 THE COURT: The parties have a joint
20 recommendation with respect to this juror?

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: Uh, yes. I think the 22 answers are rather clear, and her inability to,
23 um, uh, refrain from the latest coverage I think
24 make her, uh, unsuited for this service.

25 THE COURT: Does the defense concur?

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: The motion's joint.

2 THE COURT: Uh, the Court feels there's
3 clear -- a clear basis here to excuse this juror
4 for cause and the Court will do so.

5 Uh, next bring in Mr. Mueller. Uh, Mr.
6 Mueller, please raise your right hand and the
7 clerk will administer the oath to you.

8 (Juror sworn)

9 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

10 THE COURT: Uh, Mr. Mueller, you've already
11 completed a written questionnaire in this case.
12 Today we're moving on to the next step in the jury
13 selection process which is known as voir dire. Uh,
14 during this process, the attorneys for each of the 15 parties will have a chance to ask you some follow-up
16 questions to the information that you provided in 17 your questionnaire. Before that questioning begins,
18 uh, there are a few pieces of information I wish to 19 pass onto you.

20 First of all, if you are selected as a
21 juror in this case, you should know the jury will 22 not be sequestered. That means you will be
23 permitted to return home at the end of the court
24 proceedings, uh, each day and then report back
25 the following day. Uh, because of that fact,

1 we're going to continue to require that the
2 jurors not, uh, be exposed to any news media
3 coverage concerning the case, whether it be from 4 radio, television, newspapers, or the internet.

5 In addition, the jurors are not
6 permitted to discuss the case with anyone during
7 the trial, including, uh, other jurors or members
8 of the jurors' families.

9 The proceedings today are open, but
10 during voir dire, the Court does not allow 11 cameras in the courtroom and you should also know
12 that members of the media are prohibited from 13 identifying the jurors by name in any news
14 reports concerning this matter.

15 Finally, if you are selected on the 16 jury, you should also know that the cameras,
17 while they're permitted in the courtroom during 18 the trial, are not permitted to show the jurors
19 in any way that identifies them.

20 Uh, in the event you continue to be
21 eligible as a juror after the questioning this
22 morning, you'll get a telephone call later today
23 letting you know when to report for the next step
24 in the process.

25 Mr. Fallon, go ahead.

VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

1
2 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

3 Q Good morning. My name is Tom Fallon and I'm an
4 Assistant Attorney General with the Wisconsin
5 Department of Justice. I'm one of the
6 prosecutors in this case. To my immediate left
7 is Mr. Ken Kratz, uh, Calumet County District
8 Attorney and special prosecutor as well. Good
9 morning and, uh, thanks for coming in, and is it
10 pronounced Mueller or Miller?

11 A Mueller.

12 Q Mueller. Uh, Mr. Mueller, we have a -- a few,
13 uh, additional questions for you based on some of 14 the information you provided last week in the 15 questionnaire and like to follow up on that if we 16 could.

17 Um, first, I'd like to simply ask, um,
18 you currently, uh, work at Riesterer and, uh,
19 Schnell?

20 A Yes.

21 Q All right. Uh, service technician, I take it?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And how long have you been with them?

24 A Seven years.

25 Q Um, and, uh, previous place you worked at, um,

1 Siemers Holsteins?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Is that a -- a dairy, uh --

4 A Dairy farm.

5 Q -- operation?

6 A Yes, that's correct.

7 Q All right. What did you do for them?

8 A Um, maintenance.

9 Q Okay. And how long did you work for them?

10 A Four years. And I still work part-time for them.

11 Q You still work -- I'm sorry?

12 A I work part-time in summer for them.

13 Q Part-time? Okay. If you could just speak up

14 just a little bit more because we're having a

15 little trouble hearing you, okay? Thanks. Um,

16 you've had some, uh, technical college

17 experience?

18 A Yes.

19 Q All right. And, uh, accounting and bookkeeping?

20 A No.

21 Q Hmm?

22 A No.

23 Q No? Um, let's see. Uh, you indicated, uh, in a

24 question, have you ever taken courses in or do

25 you consider yourself knowledgeable in any of the

1 areas, you checked accounting. Was that a -- an 2 error?

3 A Uh, no. With -- I do part-time farm work.

4 Q Okay.

5 A And I do run a small cash crop operation. So I do do
6 my books --

7 Q Ah.

8 A -- in my accounting that way.

9 Q Okay. So just, uh, the nature of your work --

10 A Yes.

11 Q -- gets you a little bit into that field.

12 A Yes.

13 Q Keeping track of the money and all.

14 A Yes.

15 Q Okay. I gotcha. Okay. Uh, the next, uh --
16 Well, let me ask one, uh, question related to 17 your employment. Uh, the last question of the 18 questionnaire asks, uh, a question about, um,
19 whether your selection as a juror would cause any 20 type of economic hardship or something for you,
21 and you indicated that, uh, no, that it would 22 not, even if the case were to last, say, six 23 weeks or, perhaps, a little bit longer. Uh, is 24 that still the case today?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Okay. So you -- you feel reasonably comfortable
2 you'll have sufficient income or you have
3 sufficient savings set aside to carry you through
4 the -- the six-week period?

5 A I should, yes.

6 Q Okay. All right. Well, I'd like to talk a
7 little bit about some of the pretrial publicity
8 that this case has, um, generated, and, uh, I
9 note, uh, from your questionnaire that, um, you
10 have a variety of news sources?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Okay. Um, radio, television, newspapers,
13 neighbors, and, um, you say other from 14 conversations at taverns or other social events,
15 I take it?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay. Well, when you look at all those sources,
18 where would you say you get most of your news
19 from?

20 A Mostly be from the newspaper and TV.

21 Q Newspaper and television? All right. And, um,
22 you read the newspaper pretty regularly?

23 A Yes.

24 Q All right. And television news you watch --

25 A Pretty much every night.

1 Q -- every night? Do you watch the, um, five
2 o'clock, six o'clock, ten o'clock news or --

3 A Mostly ten o'clock.

4 Q Ten o'clock? And, um -- and you do listen to the 5 radio?

6 A Yes.

7 Q All right. And, uh, is the radio on at work
8 wherever you're working?

9 A Yes.

10 Q All right. And what kind of station? Is there
11 a -- is it a talk radio? A news station? Or 12 music that's mostly --

13 A Pretty much music.

14 Q All right. Uh, so you don't listen to a news
15 station network that much?

16 A No.

17 Q No?

18 A No.

19 Q Okay. Um, you were asked, uh -- Well, let me ask
20 you this: Uh, about, well, maybe three weeks or 21 so ago, uh, did you get a letter from the Court
22 asking, uh -- letting you know that you were a
23 possible prospective juror and, uh, to refrain
24 from reading any of the newspaper coverage or 25 listening to any of the television coverage of

1 the case?

2 A Yes.

3 Q All right. And were you able to comply with
4 that?

5 A Not fully.

6 Q Okay. Well, what happened or was it --

7 A Basically being in a bar. You know, they have the 8 news on.

9 Q Okay.

10 A See it. Um, you know, just stopping by my folks and 11 they had a -- the paper out and you'd see something.

12 Q Right. Um, I realize that you would -- you know,
13 it's pretty hard to avoid headlines and something
14 coming over the -- the airways, but I guess
15 the -- uh, the question probably is more aptly
16 asked is, did you pay close attention to the 17 story on the television or did you read any of 18 the stories in the newspaper?

19 A Yes.

20 Q You did. All right. And, uh, what do you
21 recall, um, uh, seeing on the television or 22 learning about the case, say, just in the last
23 three weeks?

24 A Uh, about the vial of blood.

25 Q Okay. And what do you recall hearing or seeing

1 about that?

2 A That it was possibly tampered with.

3 Q All right. Uh, what else?

4 A Um, that was pretty much the last of it that I heard.

5 Q All right. Um, any details about that stick in 6 your head?

7 A Not really.

8 Q Okay. Um, how about the time period, say, in the 9 year before that? You know, uh, before you got 10 the letter going back to January or December.
11 January of '06 or December of '05, uh, November 12 of '05. Do you remember any of the coverage when 13 the case first broke?

14 A Yes.

15 Q All right. And, um, would you say you followed
16 the events as reported in the news closely or not 17 too closely?

18 A Uh, I followed them pretty closely.

19 Q You did. Um, how about, um, from, um, March, uh,
20 of last year through the summer and into this
21 fall? Were you still following the case closely
22 or not closely?

23 A Uh, I was following it pretty close.

24 Q Okay. All right. Well, um, the reason I ask is 25 that, uh, you indicated, uh, in answer to a

1 question, um, have you formed any personal
2 opinions about this case based on the publicity,
3 and you said, no. Is that your -- is that still
4 accurate today?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Okay. And, um, the other question was, uh, have 7 you formed any opinions whatsoever of -- of
8 Mr. Avery's guilt or innocence based on anything
9 you read or heard in the -- in the paper, the 10 television, or the tavern, or anywhere else, and 11 you indicated, no.

12 A Yes.

13 Q All right. Is -- is that still your, uh, opinion
14 today? You don't really have an opinion on his 15 guilt or innocence?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay. Now, do you -- The Court will, uh,
18 instruct you that, you know, just as Mr. Avery
19 sits here today, he's presumed innocent. He's 20 presumed not to have done one blessed thing. And 21 do you understand that?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. And the Court will ask you to accept that 24 proposition and decide this case solely on the 25 evidence that's presented in the courtroom.

1 A Yes.

2 Q Do you think you can do that?

3 A Yes.

4 Q All right. Is there any question or doubt in 5 your mind that you would be able to do that?

6 A Little bit.

7 Q Okay. Well, let's talk a little bit. What
8 raises some concern in your mind?

9 A Well, there's a lot of talk there was, uh -- with the 10 police tampering, possibly.

11 Q Right.

12 A And that other stuff, um --

13 Q What's the other stuff?

14 A Uh, they had something that the cops or the police
15 had mishandled some evidence that was found in -- you
16 know, it's just hard to meet the -- you don't know
17 what was all tampered with or --

18 Q Or not?

19 A Or not.

20 Q All right. All right. So, in other words, you
21 really don't know what happened in the case as 22 you sit here today?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay. So the fact that you don't know about any 25 of the facts or what the evidence will be, um, do

1 you think that would make it easier for you to
2 accept the proposition that Mr. Avery is innocent
3 until he's proven guilty, or harder?

4 A Probably make it harder.

5 Q All right. Not knowing anything would make it
6 harder?

7 A Yeah.

8 Q Why would that be?

9 A Because you wouldn't know -- You're making a judgment
10 on, you know, stuff that he -- you don't know what 11 was all --

12 Q I'm sorry?

13 A Don't know what was all messed with.

14 Q Okay.

15 A Or what was -- what was there and what was added, and 16 so I got a feeling it would be hard for me to make a
17 decision that way.

18 Q Okay. Well, as you go through, um, your 19 experiences in life you make decisions every day
20 based on the information that you have in front
21 of you; right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. So if, um, the attorneys here, if we, um,
24 are presenting the evidence over the course of 25 the -- the trial -- and especially the State,

1 we're the ones that have the burden of proof, not
2 Mr. Avery, you understand that?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And we have to prove him guilty beyond a
5 reasonable doubt, and -- and if we don't, then
6 you must find him not guilty. Do you understand
7 that?

8 A Yes.

9 Q All right. So if after, um -- do you realize
10 that after six weeks of, uh, sitting as a juror,
11 you will have a -- a -- a far greater bit of 12 knowledge than you do right now?

13 A Yes.

14 Q All right. And, uh, because right now, I think 15 you said you really don't know what happened or 16 who did what; correct?

17 A Yes.

18 Q All right. So if we're both -- if the State is 19 starting from zero, from ground level, um,
20 wouldn't it seem easier for you to accept the --
21 the possibility that Mr. Avery is -- is innocent
22 until proven guilty?

23 A Yes.

24 Q I'm sorry?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Okay. All right. Okay. Now, you indicated
2 that, um -- I take it you watch some television
3 shows like, uh, Crime Scene Investigation or 4 Bones or --

5 A Yes.

6 Q Law enforcement type shows?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And you indicated that you found them, um, very 9 realistic?

10 A Yes.

11 Q All right. Tell us about why you think they're 12 realistic. Very realistic.

13 A Only pretty much kind of just sum up how the crime
14 scene processing and how just following evidence, um,
15 looking at different things that can factor in a --
16 in a case.

17 Q Okay. Um, do you think everything that you see 18 on the -- on these television shows, that the,
19 um, investigators can do on television, that 20 those things can be done in real life?

21 A Yes.

22 Q All of them?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay. Do you think it can be done as quickly as 25 it is done on the television shows?

1 A No.

2 Q I'm sorry?

3 A No.

4 Q No? Okay. Um, what else is, um, not as 5 accurately portrayed in those shows as, uh -- as 6 your understanding of what happens in the real
7 world on crime scene investigations?

8 A Uh, just the time, basically, that it takes for them
9 to, uh, I don't know, look at the evidence and all
10 that.

11 Q All right. Well, you don't really believe that 12 law enforcement has the ability to flash back to 13 when the crime occurred and try to figure out who 14 did what, do you?

15 A Uh, no.

16 Q Okay. So that would be a little somewhat
17 unrealistic?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. And, um, do you think that there could be 20 mistakes made?

21 A As to?

22 Q Well, during the investigative process. I mean,
23 they don't seem to make any mistakes on the 24 television, do they?

25 A I'd like to think they don't.

1 Q Okay. You'd like to think who doesn't; the
2 television or the real world?

3 A The real world.

4 Q Okay. Um, are mistakes possible in your mind?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Okay. Okay. Um, I also noted from your, uh,
7 report that, uh, you, uh, at least know, I think,
8 uh, Deputy Jost?

9 A Yes.

10 Q All right. And how do you know Deputy Jost?

11 A Um, he was one of the officers at a traffic accident
12 I was at. And he is also related to one of my 13 friends.

14 Q He's related to one of your friends? Um, how 15 often do you, uh, speak with Officer Jost?

16 A Uh, maybe once a year.

17 Q Okay. So he's not really a close friend or an 18 acquaintance?

19 A Not to me, no.

20 Q Okay.

21 A Just through --

22 Q You just --

23 A -- friends I know.

24 Q Okay. You just know who he is.

25 A Yes.

1 Q Okay. So you haven't had any discussions of,
2 uh -- about law enforcement or investigations or
3 anything like that with him?

4 A No.

5 Q Okay. Now, you said he was at some, um, accident
6 scene that you were, uh --

7 A Yes.

8 Q -- at? Tell us about that.

9 A Uh, basically, it was a girl that was going to pull
10 out into the intersection and stopped kind of halfway
11 through it and I rear-ended her with my truck.

12 Q Okay. All right. And, um, he was the one that 13 responded?

14 A He was the one that responded, yes.

15 Q Okay. And, um, how did that -- how did that go?
16 Was that -- do you think it was all handled
17 fairly and appropriately?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay.

20 A It was --

21 Q Was there any complaints? Did you think anything
22 was not handled right or that, perhaps, you
23 weren't sure you did fairly or anything like
24 that?

25 A No.

1 Q No. Okay. But apparently you have had some
2 contacts, or you're at least aware of some
3 contacts where um, um, things did not go so well
4 with law enforcement?

5 A Yes.

6 Q All right. Well, tell us about that.

7 A Uh, my friend, who had a DWI probably six months ago,
8 was, um -- had a law enforcement that was supposedly 9 dropping off, uh -- I don't know if it was some 10 tickets or citation or something, and once in a while 11 there would be a police car sitting on our road. Um,
12 he would not call my friend telling him that he was 13 going to drop off the papers. He'd just more or less
14 pop in or stop in randomly.

15 Q Okay.

16 A Um, but he would be sitting on the road couple of --
17 uh, probably, say, three or four times just with the 18 car shut off, no lights on, just sitting.

19 Q Okay.

20 A Um, and once in a while he wouldn't even stop in.
21 He'd just be parked out there and neighbors would 22 drive through and see a police car sitting with no
23 lights on or nothing.

24 Q Just sitting -- just sitting on the side of the 25 road?

1 A Yeah. Parked. Waiting.

2 Q So, um, did you consider that some form of

3 harassment just because the officer was sitting

4 on the road?

5 A Yeah. We felt -- or at least I felt -- because it

6 was really -- he wasn't making any attempt to contact

7 my friend just to say, I'm going to be here, I'll

8 stop in at this time, or are you available at this

9 time to receive these citations or tickets, and more

10 or less just kind of felt like he was waiting or

11 trying to find something that was --

12 Q Something else wrong?

13 A -- that was wrong, yeah, or --

14 Q Okay. Um, is it possible that the officer was

15 monitoring traffic or -- or, perhaps,

16 investigating some other matter in addition to

17 dropping off these citations for your friend?

18 A Not on a small country road I don't think.

19 Q I'm sorry?

20 A We live on a small country road so it's not a --

21 Q Not very likely?

22 A All -- all the neighbors know pretty much everybody.

23 Q Okay.

24 A And --

25 Q All right. Well, given that experience, um, do

1 you think that, um, if there were a lot of, uh,
2 police officers and sheriff's deputies testifying
3 in this case, that you could evaluate their
4 testimony the same as you would any other witness
5 or do you think you would be much harder on them?

6 A I would --

7 Q I'm sorry?

8 A What do you mean by that? I'm --

9 Q Well, the -- the Court will -- will give you an 10 instruction, if you're selected as a juror, as to 11 how to evaluate the credibility, the 12 believability, the honesty of witnesses. And the 13 instruction the Court will give you will tell you
14 that you should evaluate all witnesses the same
15 way. You know, you consider how they look and 16 how they act on the stand, and how they talk, and 17 whether they're consistent or not consistent with 18 a previous statement.

19 In other words, you would evaluate all
20 the witnesses the same and you wouldn't hold
21 anything against one police officer, or a -- or a
22 scientist, or, uh, even Mr. Avery, if he were to 23 testify, and yet you would evaluate their 24 believability according to the same standard?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Do you think you could do that or do you think
2 you'd be harder on the police?

3 A No. I believe I could do that.

4 Q Okay. There's no doubt in your mind about that?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Okay. Um, my last question is, um, the Court
7 will be instructing you, uh, not to read, watch,
8 or listen to any accounts of the trial if you
9 were selected as a juror. Uh, and, uh, the 10 Court, uh, did note in the questionnaire here
11 that the rule would be strictly enforced. And 12 when asked if you would find it difficult to 13 follow such an instruction you indicated, yes.
14 Can -- can you tell us why you would have a hard
15 time following that?

16 A No. I -- like I said, you go out. I live a sociable
17 life, too, and if they got it on at a bar, or people
18 are talking about it, ain't going to go out of my way
19 to talk about it, but it will be still following or 20 seeing what's going on.

21 Q Well, do you think you'd be able to say to them,
22 hey, look, you know, I'm on this jury, I -- I --
23 we just can't talk about this. Do you think 24 you'd be able to tell your friends that?

25 A No.

1 Q You couldn't do that?

2 A No, I couldn't.

3 Q Um, do you think you'd be able to just turn off
4 the television and walk out of a room?

5 A Uh, probably be kind of hard. I live with three
6 other guys, so --

7 Q All right. So you don't -- you don't think you
8 could abide by that Court's instruction?

9 A It would be hard to.

10 Q All right.

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: Um, I don't have any
12 other questions for this witness, Judge.

13 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Strang?
14 Mr. Strang.

15 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

16 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

17 Q Hi. Uh, Dean Strang, Jerome Buting, Steven
18 Avery. Um, this, uh, Deputy Jason Jost, um, do
19 you like the guy? Not like the guy?

20 A Yes. I have respect for him, yes.

21 Q Okay. Um, how about police officers in general, 22 just to cut right through it, do they -- do they 23 ever lie?

24 A I've never really dealt with any of them.

25 Q Do you think they might lie on oath just like

1 any -- under oath just like anyone else or no?

2 A Could be, yes.

3 Q Same as any other witness? Or more likely? Less
4 likely?

5 A Maybe less likely.

6 Q Okay. Um, I think that's all I have. Thanks.

7 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

8 BY THE COURT:

9 Q Um, Mr. Mueller, the, uh -- some questions were 10 asked about, uh, news accounts. You indicate
11 that if the Court told you not to, uh, see any 12 news accounts of this case that you could, uh --
13 you'd not be of -- you'd not be able to follow
14 that direction?

15 A It would be hard to, yes.

16 Q And tell me why again?

17 A Well, basically, I like going -- I go out like
18 everyone else, and, you know, if you're standing,
19 talking and there's a news flash or something, um,
20 you know, you got to respect other people for wanting
21 to see it. But -- I don't know. It's -- it's going 22 to be all around. It's going to be hard not to 23 notice it.

24 Q When you talk about when you go out, what -- 25 going out where?

1 A Uh, I usually go out to taverns. Um, you know, I
2 like my fire -- Friday night fish fry. And through
3 the fire department, you know, a lot of people talk.
4 We usually get done with a meeting or a drill we --
5 downstairs we turn the news on, um, you know, see
6 what local fires have happened and what else is all
7 on.

8 Q Okay.

9 THE COURT: Any --

10 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

11 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

12 Q When -- when -- when people talk or watch the --
13 the TV on this case around you, um, they talk
14 about whether Avery's guilty or not guilty?

15 A Yes.

16 Q What do they tend to think?

17 A Is -- If he's guilty or not?

18 Q Yeah.

19 A Um, majority of people think he's guilty.

20 Q And how about you?

21 A I'm undecided on it.

22 Q So to stay undecided, as -- as you would need to 23 be for a few weeks, can you stay away from that 24 kind of conversation with a court ordering you to 25 do it?

1 A I guess I'd have to if the Court's ordering me to do
2 it.

3 Q The Court would be ordering you.

4 A Yes.

5 Q Um, it would be just a few weeks. After the 6 trial was over, of course, you could do whatever
7 you wanted. But during this trial with a court
8 order, can you stay away from that kind of stuff?

9 A It's going to be hard. Probably not.

10 Q Okay. Thanks.

11 THE COURT: All right. The clerk will
12 escort you from the courtroom at this time.

13 (Wherein juror is escorted out)

14 THE COURT: Counsel, does either party
15 have a motion?

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Uh, yes, Your Honor,
17 I -- I do. I think, um, the juror must be struck
18 for cause. Uh, one, he indicated that he really
19 didn't think he could abide by the Court's 20 instruction to refrain from media coverage and 21 discussing the matter and I think we have to take 22 him at his word, especially in light of the fact
23 that he continued to monitor news reports even 24 after receiving the Court's letter instructing
25 him otherwise.

1 And, um, I think based on that
2 information he has to be excused. It's just too
3 much of a risk.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Strang?

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: Uh, I -- I can't
6 honestly oppose that.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Uh, the Court agrees.
8 The juror will be ordered stricken for cause. We'll
9 move on to the next juror which I believe is, uh,
10 let's see, Mr. Gray. Mr. Gray, please raise your 11 right hand and the clerk will administer the oath to
12 you.

13 (Juror sworn)

14 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

15 THE COURT: Uh, Mr. Gray, you've already
16 completed a written jury questionnaire in this case.
17 Today we're moving on to the next phase of the jury
18 selection process which is known as voir dire.

19 The attorneys for each of the parties
20 will have an opportunity to ask you some follow-
21 up questions relating mostly to information that 22 you provided on the questionnaire. Uh, before we 23 begin that process, uh, there's a few pieces of 24 information I wish to pass on to you.

25 First, the jury in this case will not be

1 sequestered. That means the jurors will be
2 permitted to return home at the end of each day
3 following the conclusion of court proceedings.
4 Uh, because of that fact, we will continue to 5 require that the jurors not be exposed to any 6 media accounts of the case; whether it be by 7 television, radio, newspaper, internet, or 8 otherwise, and the jurors will continue to be
9 prohibited from discussing the case with anyone,
10 including the other jurors, during the trial, or 11 any family members.

12 You should know that although these
13 court proceedings today are open to the public,
14 Court does not permit cameras in the courtroom
15 during the jury selection process, and the media
16 is prohibited from disclosing the names of the 17 jurors in any media accounts.

18 In addition, should you be selected to
19 serve on the jury, uh, while cameras are allowed
20 to cover the trial, they're not permitted to, uh,
21 show the jurors during the trial.

22 If you remain on the jury panel after
23 questioning today, you'll receive a telephone
24 call later today to let you know when to return
25 to court. Mr. Fallon.

VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

1
2 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

3 Q Good morning, sir.

4 A Morning.

5 Q My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
6 General with the Wisconsin Department of Justice.
7 I'm a prosecutor in this case. To my immediate
8 left is Mr. Ken Kratz, uh, the Calumet County
9 District Attorney and special prosecutor.

10 Uh, good morning and thanks for 11 returning, helping us out. Um, the attorneys
12 have a few questions for you to follow up on some 13 of the information you provided last week in your 14 questionnaire, and, uh, we appreciate your help.

15 I see, Mr. Gray, that you're currently 16 retired from, uh, GTE?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q Okay. And, uh, you were there 35 years?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q What -- what position or what did you do for GTE?

21 A A number of positions. Um, primarily in the, uh,
22 central office equipment, large systems. Um, I
23 installed, maintained, modified, changed.

24 Q Okay. All right. During your, uh, time there --
25 Excuse me. During your time there, did you have

1 any supervisory responsibilities --

2 A Yes.

3 Q -- or run any departments or anything?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Tell us about that.

6 A Uh, I was first level, um, um, supervisor at, uh,
7 Slinger -- in the Slinger area for awhile, uh, and
8 then transferred back up to Two Rivers from Slinger.

9 Q Okay. And how many people did you supervise or 10 oversee?

11 A I believe 11.

12 Q Okay. And how long did -- did you do the 13 supervisory -- or how long were you a supervisor?

14 A Couple years.

15 Q Couple years?

16 A Uh-huh.

17 Q Did you enjoy it?

18 A Yes.

19 Q You did. Okay. Uh, I also see that, uh, you,
20 um, served in the, uh, Air Force?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Uh, and what did you do in the Air Force?

23 A Communications.

24 Q And what did that involve? What type of 25 communication work were you involved in?

1 A Uh, communications at, uh, radar sites.

2 Q Okay.

3 A Uh, that would be tying a -- a -- radar units
4 together for communications to talk to each other and
5 that sort of thing.

6 Q Connecting a system, in other words, so that
7 everybody could talk?

8 A Yes.

9 Q I see. And you did that for, uh, four years did
10 I see?

11 A I served four years, yes.

12 Q Four years? All right. And what rank did you 13 achieve before retiring from that?

14 A E-4.

15 Q And -- what -- what is that?

16 A Well, that would be Airman First.

17 Q Airman First. Okay. Did you enjoy your, um,
18 time in the Air Force?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Yeah?

21 A Yeah. It was good.

22 Q Well, you seemed to hesitate a little. I just 23 thought I'd ask. You know, sometimes --

24 A Good and bad.

25 Q Yeah, I would imagine. All right. Um, okay. I,

1 um, see that, uh, you do, uh -- you like to
2 travel in your spare time. Um, what kind of
3 traveling do you like to do? Is that around
4 here? This country? Or do you travel overseas
5 much? Or --

6 A No, not overseas. Um, my family lives in Texas. We 7 go there a lot.

8 Q Okay.

9 A Um, and we -- we visit national parks and that sort
10 of thing.

11 Q I see. Okay. All right. Well, one of the 12 things of concern to, um, all of us here that
13 we'd like to talk to you about is, um, the news
14 coverage which has attended this trial, or the 15 prospect of this trial, and ask you some 16 questions about that.

17 And it appears that you obtain your news
18 from a variety of sources; radio, newspaper,
19 television, and magazines. And let me first ask,
20 where would you say you get the -- the vast
21 majority of your news? Or is it evenly split?

22 A The vast majority would be newspaper.

23 Q From the newspaper.

24 A Yeah.

25 Q All right.

1 A Various newspapers.

2 Q Okay. What papers, uh, do you read?

3 A Uh, the Milwaukee Sentinel, the Green Bay Press, and

4 the, uh, Manitowoc Herald Times.

5 Q All right. And do you read, uh, them, uh, daily

6 or regularly?

7 A Pretty much. Not all three but, um, I -- I read the 8 paper almost every day.

9 Q Okay. So you're reading one -- at least one of 10 those papers every day?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Okay. And, uh, how about, uh, television news?

13 A Very little.

14 Q Very little. All right. Um, and, uh, magazines.

15 What kind of magazines do you regularly read?

16 A National Geographic, that sort of thing.

17 Q All right. Uh, any news magazines like

18 U.S. World Report, or Forbes, or anything like

19 that?

20 A Many years ago but not anymore.

21 Q Okay. All right. Okay. I see from your

22 questionnaire that once you received your

23 notification from the Court you made a conscious

24 effort to avoid any news, um, about the case; is

25 that correct?

1 A That's very true.

2 Q All right. And, uh, as you sit here today you
3 can tell us that in the last three weeks you've
4 managed to pretty much avoid the news coverage?

5 A It's impossible to avoid all that --

6 Q Sure.

7 A -- but, yes.

8 Q Okay.

9 A Yeah.

10 Q You haven't read any detailed articles or --

11 A No.

12 Q -- anything? All right.

13 A No. I had my wife sensor the paper for me.

14 Q All right. And, um, any -- did you see anything
15 on television or hear anything on the radio?

16 A No. On television, not at all.

17 Q Okay.

18 A Um, the radio, just short blurbs.

19 Q Sure. Um, and as I see your, um, questionnaire,
20 you indicate you haven't formed any opinions at 21 all one way or another about this particular
22 case?

23 A No.

24 Q So as you sit here today you don't have any 25 opinion at all as to whether Mr. Avery is guilty

1 or innocent of what he's been charged with?

2 A No. That's what the trial is for.

3 Q Okay. So you have no problem at this time
4 presuming him innocent until or unless he's
5 proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt?

6 A No.

7 Q Okay. And you think you can follow that and 8 accept that principle, uh, as this trial would 9 begin if you were selected as a juror?

10 A Yes, I believe so.

11 Q Okay. All right. I just have one, uh, last 12 question: You did indicate that you did have 13 some concern about possibly serving as a jury --
14 uh, as a juror. I understand your mother is, uh,
15 ill down in San Antonio?

16 A That's correct.

17 Q All right. Um, what -- how is she doing lately?

18 A I talked to my sister Tuesday and she's a little 19 better. Her attitude and, uh, will to survive is -- 20 is much improved.

21 Q She's on the uptake, more or less, at least for 22 the time being?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay. Um, is she at home or is she hospitalized?

25 A Uh, she's -- hospital, therapy and nursing home for

1 the last four, five months.

2 Q Okay. But she seems to be relatively stable at 3 the current time?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay.

6 A Her, um -- she had an operation on her hip and it --

7 Q Sure.

8 A -- got infected and that sort of thing, and, uh, the 9 last time I talked to my sister, then she said the 10 wound was, quote, healing. Finally.

11 Q All right. So things seem to be getting better.

12 A Better, yes.

13 Q Okay. All right. Um, thanks. That's all I
14 have.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'll pass the juror.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Strang?

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

19 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

20 Q Um, good morning.

21 A Morning.

22 Q Uh, Dean -- Dean Strang, Jerome Buting, Steven
23 Avery. Um, Mr. Buting and I, uh, are defending
24 Mr. Avery. Um, and I -- I thought I would, um,
25 start by going back, um, just a little bit with

1 you. Um, you mentioned that you had been parish
2 president, or maybe you still are, um, parish
3 president.

4 A Yeah, that was '70's and '80's.

5 Q Okay.

6 A A long time ago.

7 Q And how long did you do that? You said two 8 terms, but I don't know how long the terms were.

9 A Each was a year.

10 Q Each was one year?

11 A Um-hmm.

12 Q Okay. And then sat on the parish school board as 13 well?

14 A For several years.

15 Q Uh, again, in the '70's and '80's?

16 A Yes.

17 Q When your -- when your boys were growing up?

18 A That's correct.

19 Q Are you still active in the parish?

20 A Um, not as much as I used to be but, yeah, I still do
21 some volunteer work.

22 Q And as -- as we come a little bit closer in time,
23 now, um, I'm -- I'm just sort of curious, um, how 24 much you and your wife followed, um, the 25 disappearance of Teresa Halbach, and then, um,

1 the discoveries, um, you know, on what people
2 have been calling the Avery property?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Uh, and then the arrest of Steven Avery?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Did you follow that pretty closely, initially?

7 A In the early days, yes.

8 Q Okay. And, um, what do you mean by "the early 9 days", Mr. Gray?

10 A In the first, uh, month, two months. That -- that 11 time period through there. Yeah.

12 Q Okay. And, uh, followed it pretty closely how?

13 A With the -- the news, the paper, that sort of thing,
14 but I -- I wouldn't say I followed it closely. I
15 knew it was going on, but, uh, I had other things
16 too.

17 Q Sure. Okay. And -- and even back then, um, I
18 guess where I'm going is were you -- were you
19 picking up most of what you did through the 20 newspaper --

21 A Yes.

22 Q -- as opposed to watching TV in the middle of the 23 day or something?

24 A Yes. I never watch television in the day.

25 Q Okay. Um, do you -- do you re -- remember a

1 young man named Brendan Dassey?

2 A The name, yes, um-hmm.

3 Q And what do you know about, um, young Brendan

4 Dassey?

5 A Personally, nothing.

6 Q Well, I mean, know from the paper or --

7 A Oh. That he was -- he's being -- he's implicated.

8 Q Okay. And any -- any understanding of how or why

9 he's implicated or --

10 A Yes. Uh, that was -- that came out very early.

11 Q Tell -- tell me a little bit about that. What --

12 what you've learned from the paper or TV or 13 wherever.

14 A That he was, uh -- was accused, arrested, uh,

15 questioned, that sort of thing. And, uh, that, uh,

16 he gave some sort of confession.

17 Q Um-hmm. Did you hear that he later took that 18 confession back or recanted?

19 A Yes, I did.

20 Q Um, do you remember how you heard about the 21 confession and then the recantation?

22 A Probably in the paper.

23 Q What do you suppose all of that has to do with

24 Steven Avery?

25 A I'm not sure.

1 Q Um, how about your wife? Have you -- you and
2 your wife discussed the case back in the early
3 days?

4 A No. The -- back then, yeah, we did to some extent.
5 Yes. Um-hmm.

6 Q Did -- does she have any opinion about whether
7 Mr. Avery did it, or didn't do it, or --

8 A She said she definitely wouldn't want to be on the 9 jury.

10 Q Okay. What did -- what did that mean?

11 A That she couldn't, uh, get the -- the details out of 12 her mind.

13 Q Oh. Okay.

14 A Um-hmm.

15 Q Uh, just that they -- all of the allegations
16 and --

17 A Yes.

18 Q -- the ugliness of it --

19 A Yes.

20 Q -- all? How about you? I mean, these are ugly
21 allegations. Um, uh, how -- how has that 22 affected you?

23 A I can, um, erase things in my mind so that they --
24 you know, if it -- they're not important, I pay no
25 attention to them.

1 Q And, I guess, are these important? Is it
2 important when a young woman goes missing and
3 then apparently --

4 A I'm not talking about the -- the act. I'm talking
5 about since I was in the, uh, jury pool.

6 Q Okay. And -- but I am talking about the --

7 A Is there a picture still in my mind?

8 Q Yes.

9 A Yes. Yes.

10 Q What -- what's the picture?

11 A That, uh, a young woman shouldn't be violated.

12 Q Um, violated meaning raped, or killed, or --

13 A Any --

14 Q -- her body mutilated or --

15 A Any of the above.

16 Q Any of that? Okay. Um, and do you react to that 17 in specific as a young woman shouldn't be or that 18 shouldn't happen to anyone?

19 A To a human being.

20 Q A human being? Um, do you -- do you have 21 grandkids?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And is there a level at which you're reacting to 24 this as a grandfather with grandkids who may be 25 about that age or in their 20's?

1 A No. No.

2 Q Okay. Um, what do you know about Mr. Avery's
3 background before that? Specifically, um --

4 A I'd --

5 Q (Unintelligible) -- or conviction.

6 A I -- I remember, uh, the first time Mr. Avery was -- 7 was convicted, but, uh, had long since not thought
8 anything at all about it.

9 Q You actually remember the first trial involving
10 Mr. Avery?

11 A I remembered the first, uh, incidents and, uh,
12 conviction.

13 Q Okay.

14 A As far as the trial details, no.

15 Q Right. But the -- but the conviction, and then
16 do you -- do --

17 A That it occurred.

18 Q -- do you remember what eventually happened with 19 that conviction --

20 A Yes, I do.

21 Q -- many years later?

22 A Yes, I do.

23 Q What?

24 A It was thrown out. Um --

25 Q And do you have -- do you -- do you know why?

1 I'm just --

2 A Yes. Because of the DNA.

3 Q Okay. And what -- what was your reaction to that 4 when that conviction gets thrown out because of 5 the DNA?

6 A Honestly, I thought the Sheriff's Department bungled
7 the job.

8 Q Um, and that the State Crime Lab got it right
9 with the -- the DNA was -- Gregory Allen was the 10 guy who committed the rape and the assault, not
11 Steven Avery?

12 A That's my understanding, yes.

13 Q And do -- um, did -- did you then hear about the 14 lawsuit?

15 A Yes.

16 Q What was your reaction to that?

17 A I thought he had a right to it.

18 Q Um, now, you know, all of us, obviously, bring 19 the little bits and pieces of what we know and 20 think with us, and when you assemble all of that 21 together and then make --

22 A Um-hmm.

23 Q -- you know, whatever efforts --

24 A Um-hmm.

25 Q -- you can to take on the role of a juror --

1 A Yes.

2 Q -- um, are you quite comfortable that if you
3 served here, uh, you could view Mr. Avery as 4 starting with a -- a clean slate all together?

5 A Yes. Yes.

6 Q Uh, why?

7 A Because I feel that everybody has the right to a fair
8 hearing.

9 Q Um-hmm. Wouldn't -- mustn't he have done
10 something here if he's in the courtroom sitting 11 in that chair?

12 A My position is accused doesn't mean guilty.

13 Q Not even maybe guilty or probably guilty?

14 A No. Maybe, but not until after the trial.

15 Q Okay. And, um, who would you expect to prove him
16 guilty or innocent here?

17 A Mr. Kratz.

18 Q Or the people at this table at least?

19 (No verbal response)

20 Q Okay. Uh, beyond a reasonable doubt? Could you
21 hold them to that standard?

22 A Yes.

23 Q If the Judge instructed that was the standard?

24 A Correct.

25 Q Do you expect Mr. Buting and I to prove him

1 innocent?

2 A No. Just to refute their evidence.

3 Q Right. And -- and I expect we probably will, um,
4 attack or -- or try to show another side to some 5 of their evidence. Some of their evidence we 6 probably won't have any -- any dispute with. But 7 whatever we do, can you bear in mind and honor
8 the rule that we don't have to do anything? We 9 don't have to prove a blessed thing to you?

10 A Yeah.

11 Q Um, that is, Mr. Avery or any -- you know, his 12 lawyers acting for him --

13 A Yeah.

14 Q -- do not have to prove his innocence?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Is that something you can accept?

17 A Yes.

18 Q So the only burden of proof lies with the 19 State --

20 A Yes.

21 Q -- and its lawyers, um, to prove him guilty
22 beyond a reasonable doubt?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Now, uh, as I've said, I'm not -- we're not going
25 to sit here like bumps on a log. That's just not

1 what we do. Um, and if we cross-examine some
2 witnesses, you would listen to that evidence just
3 as you would to the direct testimony?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Or the direct examination of those witnesses?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Um, one of the decisions we would have to make at 8 some point would be whether to call witnesses of 9 our own in what's called the defense case --

10 A Um-hmm.

11 Q -- whether to put on a defense case at all.

12 A Yeah.

13 Q Um, if we put on a defense case, will you give
14 our witnesses, Mr. Avery's witnesses, the same
15 fair consideration you would give the State's 16 witnesses?

17 A Yeah. Yes.

18 Q Um, the toughest call in that respect is whether 19 to call Mr. Avery as a witness or not. Um, if -- 20 if he's innocent, would you expect him to
21 testify?

22 A Not if he doesn't want to.

23 Q Why not?

24 A Because that's his right.

25 Q I understand. And that's -- you know, as a

1 matter of the American Constitution and, uh,
2 our -- our core values here, that's -- you know,
3 that's the correct answer everyone would say.

4 But, um, it's tougher to follow that
5 sometimes in real life. Why do you think you
6 could follow the Judge's instruction that
7 Mr. Avery has a right not to testify and you
8 can't consider that as any evidence at all?

9 A That's what I believe.

10 Q That is -- that is what you believe.

11 A What I believe. That's it.

12 Q That's why you spent your time in the Air Force?

13 A Well, no. It's just what I believe.

14 Q Yeah. Okay. Um, how about if he does testify?

15 If he were to testify, um, I would think it might 16 be natural for a juror to say, well, of course he 17 denies doing it. You know, he's not going to get 18 up and admit it. He's trying to save himself.

19 Um, would you come at it with that attitude?

20 A I don't know if you'd call it an attitude, but it's 21 true, he -- he doesn't want to -- he doesn't plead
22 guilty, he doesn't want to be guilty, so, yeah.

23 Q Right. Right. But, um --

24 A Uh, neither. I wouldn't take it either way.

25 Q Okay. And -- and, really, in the end, I think

1 that the -- the law that the Court probably would
2 give you is if he testified --

3 A Um-hmm.

4 Q -- um, he would be considered like any other
5 witness?

6 A I suppose.

7 Q You would weigh his testimony, listen carefully,
8 and decide whether you believe it or not believe
9 it --

10 A Yeah.

11 Q -- just like you would anybody else --

12 A Yes.

13 Q -- testifying?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Could you do that?

16 A Yeah.

17 Q Um, there are other witnesses, um, who present
18 similar problems for some people in evaluating,
19 but this is sort of the flip side from -- from --
20 at least for many people. Um, law enforcement
21 officers will testify here. Some of them will be 22 in uniform.

23 A Um-hmm.

24 Q Um, and, um, when you hear a law enforcement
25 officer testify, are -- are you willing and able

1 to look at him or her as just another human being
2 and just another witness?

3 A Yeah, I think so. Um-hmm. He's sworn an oath.

4 Q Who's like any witness who's taken an oath --

5 A Um-hmm.

6 Q -- to tell the truth. But what I'm getting at is 7 do you think there's anything about, um, going 8 into the profession of law enforcement that makes 9 you more likely or less likely than someone in 10 any other calling in life to tell the truth under 11 oath?

12 A No, I don't think so.

13 Q Um, you -- you would be able to listen to a law
14 enforcement officer's testimony and weigh it just 15 as you would Mr. Avery's or, you know, um, any 16 other citizen or witness who might be called?

17 A Yeah, I think so. Um-hmm.

18 Q Um, you sound just a little bit tentative about
19 that. Maybe you could -- maybe you could talk --

20 A No. A -- a witness is a witness. They're sworn.
21 Uh, they're -- they're not supposed to lie.

22 Q Right.

23 A So I would accept what they say.

24 Q But -- and -- and that's what we all want to do.
25 The -- the messy reality of life in trials is

1 that sometimes, um, in fact, not infrequently,
2 one witness is saying black and another witness
3 is saying white --

4 A Um-hmm.

5 Q -- on some point that matters.

6 A Um-hmm.

7 Q So they both can't be correct.

8 A Yeah.

9 Q Um, and the issue is whether you come into this 10 with some bias for or against --

11 A No.

12 Q -- a witness just because of the clothes they're 13 wearing or the job they have?

14 A No. No.

15 Q In the end, you may have to sort out conflicting
16 testimony?

17 A Correct.

18 Q And can you consider all witnesses evenly and 19 equally from the starting point in doing that?

20 A Yeah.

21 Q Did your, um, telephone installation, or, you
22 know, I guess it was larger systems you were 23 working with, did the installation and
24 maintenance of those systems require of you, um,
25 better than an average grasp of electrical

1 engineering or --

2 A Yes.

3 Q -- at least of electronics?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Did you acquire that in the Air Force or at least 6 get training in that?

7 A Started the air, but, uh, continued going to school
8 afterward. But, uh, through the company and that --
9 that sort of thing.

10 Q Okay. Um, did that, um, strike a cord with you,
11 um, in -- in terms of an interest in science at 12 all or --

13 A Uh, very much. Yeah.

14 Q Yeah.

15 A In electronics, um-hmm.

16 Q In electronics in --

17 A Yes.

18 Q -- specific?

19 A Um-hmm.

20 Q Okay. Um, do you -- and I'm -- I'm curious what 21 you bring of that interest or that bent, um, to 22 the courtroom in looking at or expecting
23 scientific evidence?

24 A Easy. It's, um, logic. Math, electronics is pure
25 logic.

1 Q Okay. And would you extend that to other, um,
2 physical sciences? Like the -- like biological
3 science?

4 A Um, yeah, somewhat. Uh, no. No. Uh, electronics is 5 math and math is straight. Yeah. It's pure logic.
6 No, um, biological -- you mean, human, animal. Yeah.
7 No, there are too many variations there.

8 Q Um, variations in terms of how the specimens are 9 collected, or preserved, or tested?

10 A Oh, specimens. Oh. No. That -- that I -- I -- I
11 don't know. I have no idea.

12 Q Okay. Um, but, again, what I'm -- what I'm 13 interested in is if somebody comes in and they've 14 got, let's say, expertise in ballistics --

15 A Um-hmm.

16 Q -- do you understand what I mean by --

17 A Yes.

18 Q -- ballistics? Um, looking under a microscope
19 at, uh, bullets, or fragments of bullets, or 20 cartridge casings --

21 A Um-hmm.

22 Q -- um, sometimes the boring of, uh, short or long
23 barrels on firearms. Um, so they come in with 24 this specialized expertise.

25 A Right.

1 Q Um, are you likely to give them much more credit
2 simply because of that expertise?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Uh, tell me a little bit about why?

5 A As an expert, they -- theoretically, they know what
6 they're doing. It's a science. It's what they do.

7 Q Um-hmm.

8 A So -- so, yeah, I respect -- I respect that.

9 Q Okay. And -- and are you willing and able to 10 probe on whether they've done good science in a
11 particular case?

12 A If the subject comes up, sure.

13 Q Sure. Okay. So even if the principles are 14 sound --

15 A Um-hmm.

16 Q -- you'd be willing to look at, well, was the 17 human part of -- of the process also sound?

18 A The human part of the evidence gathering? Is that 19 what you're saying?

20 Q Evidence gathering, evidence maintaining,
21 evidence testing, that kind of thing?

22 A I would want to make sure that there was a -- uh, an 23 unbroken train.

24 Q Look at the whole -- the whole series of 25 events --

1 A Um-hmm.

2 Q -- that lead to the scientific testimony?

3 A Yeah.

4 Q Okay. While we're on that, um, in more recent
5 weeks, let's say in the last, oh, eight weeks,
6 roughly, seven, eight weeks, um, have you heard
7 anything about a blood vial that --

8 A I heard --

9 Q -- referred to this case?

10 A I've heard about a blood vial, but I don't know what
11 they were talking about.

12 Q What the status is or what role, if any, it 13 plays?

14 A That's right.

15 Q Um, how did you hear about that?

16 A Before I could get out of the room when the 17 television was on.

18 Q Okay. All right. No. That -- Yeah. No.
19 I'm -- I hope that didn't sound accusatory --

20 A No.

21 Q -- you know. Um, do you remember about when?
22 Was it before or after Christmas?

23 A I think it was after Christmas.

24 Q Okay. Did that cause you to form any opinion at 25 all about the case?

1 A I wondered what they were talking about, but that's
2 all.

3 Q So more wondering than having an opinion?

4 A Beg your pardon?

5 Q More wondering than actually having an opinion?

6 A Yeah.

7 Q Um, last -- last area. Um, do you want to serve
8 on the jury in this case?

9 A Want to? No. Will? Yes.

10 Q Okay. Um, will, because it's a -- a civic duty?

11 A Yeah.

12 Q And why not want to?

13 A I would just as soon not. I would prefer not to. I
14 can't tell you why. I just would prefer not to.

15 Q Okay. And, um, I'm just -- I'm going to explore
16 that just a little bit, and if it gets
17 uncomfortable, tell me. All right?

18 THE COURT: I'm -- I'm sorry, Mr. Strang.
19 Time's up.

20 JUROR GRAY: Beg your pardon?

21 THE COURT: At this time, we'll have the
22 clerk escort you from the courtroom.

23 (Wherein juror is escorted out)

24 THE COURT: Is there a, um, motion from
25 either party?

1 ATTORNEY FALLON: There's no motion from
2 the State, thank you.

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: No motion.

4 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Gray is
5 accepted. Um, I think before we take our break,
6 the -- I know the next juror -- I'm not sure of the 7 reason why, but the next juror on the list was 8 scheduled to come in this afternoon. Perhaps we can
9 take Mr. Wardman, who might be a shorter questioning
10 than the -- the rest of them, and I know he waited
11 yesterday, so I'd like to get him in today.

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: I -- I will object,
13 um, Your Honor, to the truncation of my voir dire
14 of the preceding witness. Although I -- I did
15 not have a motion for cause, um, I had two, or 16 three, or four, or five minutes left of, um,
17 important voir dire of that juror about his 18 reservations, if any, about undertaking the 19 responsibility of deliberations.

20 THE COURT: All right. Your objection's
21 noted. Uh, Mr. Wardman, please raise your right
22 hand and the clerk will administer the oath.

23 (Juror sworn)

24 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

25 THE COURT: Uh, Mr. Wardman, you've

1 already filled out a, uh, juror -- written juror
2 questionnaire in this case. Today we're moving
3 on to the next step of the proceedings, which is 4 known as voir dire. The attorneys will each have 5 a chance to ask you some questions, which, for 6 the most part, will follow up on information that
7 you provided in your questionnaire.

8 Before we get to those questions, um, I
9 want to make sure you understand that the jurors
10 selected in this case will not be sequestered.
11 That means the jurors will be -- be permitted to 12 return home each day at the end of court
13 proceedings for that day. And because of that,
14 the jurors will continue to be subject to the 15 rule that, uh, they cannot have any media
16 exposure to this case either in radio,
17 television, newspaper, the internet.

18 Uh, and jurors will not be permitted to 19 discuss the case with anyone, including family
20 members or other jurors until it's time to 21 deliberate.

22 The proceedings in this case are open,
23 but during voir dire, the Court does not allow 24 cameras in the courtroom, and, uh, members of the 25 media are prohibited from using your name in any

1 court reports about -- or any news media reports
2 about this case.

3 If you are selected to serve as a juror,
4 uh, you should know that, uh, while cameras may 5 be in the courtroom for the trial, they're not
6 permitted to show the jurors.

7 Uh, in the event you remain on the jury
8 panel after today's proceedings, you'll get
9 another call, probably sometime later today,
10 telling you when to report back.

11 Mr. Fallon, you may begin.

12 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

13 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

14 Q Good morning, Mr. Wardman.

15 A Morning.

16 Q My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
17 General with the Wisconsin Department of Justice.
18 I'm one of the prosecutors in this case. To my
19 immediate left is Mr. Ken Kratz, the Calumet
20 County District Attorney, and lead special
21 prosecutor in this matter.

22 Um, thanks for coming in this morning.
23 We had a few questions we wanted to, uh, follow
24 up with, uh, based on the information you
25 provided last week. Sorry we didn't get to you

1 yesterday. I know you were here.

2 Um, I have a couple of, uh, preliminary
3 questions, then I just wanted to talk about one
4 area of concern, uh, to all of us here.

5 Um, my first question is, if you can
6 help me out because I'm not from the area, um,
7 you indicated you're not currently employed and
8 your principle occupation used the designation
9 E-C-K?

10 A Yeah. Eck Foundry.

11 Q Oh, Eck Foundry.

12 A Yeah.

13 Q Oh, I'm sorry. Okay. What kind of, um, work did
14 you do at the foundry?

15 A I was a lead man on the -- and worked on the bench in 16 the clean air room.

17 Q Lead man?

18 A Lead man.

19 Q Okay. Can you tell me a little bit about -- I'm 20 not quite familiar with that. What -- what does 21 that person do?

22 A It was my job to see that the castings were cleaned
23 right and shipped out.

24 Q Okay. Um, did that involve any supervisory
25 responsibilities?

1 A Yes, some.

2 Q Okay. Tell us about that.

3 A I had to watch the guys and -- and train them and

4 everything --

5 Q I see.

6 A -- so they knew what they were doing.

7 Q Okay. And how long were you a supervisor of 8 sorts?

9 A Um, I believe it was 21 years.

10 Q Twenty-one years. Okay. And how long did you

11 work at the, uh, factory?

12 A Twenty-eight.

13 Q Twenty-eight. So 21 out of the 28 years you were

14 in some responsibility as a supervisor for 15 others?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay. Okay. Um, you indicated in terms of, uh,

18 volunteer work two things of interest to us. Uh,

19 Union 301? That's associated with the -- the 20 foundries work --

21 A Yes.

22 Q -- that you did?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Okay. And what, uh, specific, uh --

25 A Oh, I -- I don't do -- dealing with the, uh, union no

1 more.

2 Q Okay.

3 A I didn't know if you meant now or --

4 Q Well --

5 A -- if ever.

6 Q Well, thanks for clearing that -- I was going to,

7 uh, get to that. But you're no longer in the,

8 uh --

9 A Union, no.

10 Q Okay. No -- Okay. So you don't even do any

11 volunteer work or currently --

12 A I do volunteer work but not for the union.

13 Q Not for the union. Okay. Very good. Um, how

14 long were you in the union?

15 A Twenty-eight years.

16 Q All right. So even as -- even though you had

17 some supervisory responsibilities, you were

18 still, uh, a member of the union at the foundry?

19 A Yes.

20 Q I see. Okay. Did you have any, uh, special

21 responsibilities as a member of the union like

22 maybe being a steward or anything --

23 A Yes.

24 Q -- like that?

25 A I was a steward.

1 Q You were. Okay. And how long were you a union
2 steward?

3 A Three years.

4 Q Okay. Uh, was that toward the end of your time
5 before retirement or was that earlier on in your 6 career?

7 A Earlier on.

8 Q Okay. Did you enjoy that union work?

9 A Yes.

10 Q You did. Okay. Were you -- were, uh, you
11 involved in representing any of your colleagues
12 in any, uh, labor disputes or, um, management
13 labor issues of any kind?

14 A One.

15 Q Just one. All right. And how was that process?

16 A Uh, he got some, uh, disciplinary action.

17 Q Okay. Um, do you think it was overall on balance
18 appropriately handled?

19 A Yes, it was appropriately handled.

20 Q Okay. Um, in your, um, work at the foundry, um,
21 were you responsible for drawing up any security
22 guidelines or, uh, safety guidelines for work at 23 the foundry of the people you were supervising?

24 A Uh, well, we had some insurance guys there that one
25 time, and we did -- yeah, a little bit.

1 Q A little bit. But it wasn't a big part of what
2 you were doing?

3 A No.

4 Q Okay. Um, in terms of problem-solving and -- and
5 dealing with, um, uh -- or -- or formulating
6 opinions, or speaking with people, trying to 7 understand a point of view, would you consider
8 yourself a -- a big picture person or more of a
9 detail-oriented guy?

10 A Detail, I think.

11 Q Okay. Um -- Okay. Tell me about the volunteer
12 work you do at the Sheriff's Department.

13 A Uh, we go on -- uh, out on patrol and we check, uh,
14 houses and that, if people have went on vacation, and 15 abandoned cars, and just keep our eyes open.

16 Q And how often do you do that?

17 A Uh, once a week.

18 Q Now, you're not a, um, licensed law enforcement
19 officer --

20 A No.

21 Q -- correct? All right. And you're not carrying 22 a weapon when you're assisting?

23 A No.

24 Q Okay. Um, but you do ride in the squad car with 25 other deputies?

1 A No.

2 Q Oh, you don't. Okay. Well, tell us how you work
3 then?

4 A It's both -- uh, both of us are volunteers and we --
5 we get four hour shifts.

6 Q Oh. So there's just you and one other guy who 7 help out?

8 A Correct. There's always two.

9 Q Okay. How do you get your assignments? Or how 10 do you know what to do?

11 A Uh, we have a, um -- I forget, now, what they -- how 12 they say it, but it's -- it's a book, and it tells us
13 which, uh -- where to go.

14 Q Okay. And these are people who may be out of 15 town and have apparently asked the Sheriff's 16 Department to keep an eye on things to make sure 17 that no one breaks in?

18 A Correct.

19 Q I see. Okay. So do you use a -- a county
20 vehicle or do you use your own car?

21 A County.

22 Q Okay. How long have you been doing that, sir?

23 A Uh, since November last year.

24 Q Okay. And, um, when did you retire, by the way,
25 from the foundry?

1 A Uh, '99. I crushed three vertebrae in my back. I'm
2 on disability.

3 Q Okay. I'll come back to the volunteer work in a
4 minute. But I just want to make sure, uh,
5 because of your disability and your back injury,
6 um, would serving on a juror -- on a jury, and,
7 you know, it might require sitting for an hour
8 and a half or two hours at a time, um, before you
9 get a break, would that cause any problems for 10 you in being -- as being a juror or do you think --

11 A No. If I get too much pain or something I just take 12 a pill.

13 Q Okay. And, um, does that affect your ability to 14 think and remember things if you have to take any 15 pain medication?

16 A No.

17 Q Okay. So it's pretty well under control then?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. All right. Um, in terms of the, um -- the 20 volunteer work, then, for the Sheriff's 21 Department, during, uh -- I take it you're still 22 doing that today?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And once a week for four hours?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Okay. Um, while engaging in that work, have you
2 had an opportunity to, uh, meet or become
3 familiar with various members of the, uh,
4 Sheriff's Department?

5 A Not -- not right now, no.

6 Q Okay.

7 A Because I just started.

8 Q Oh, just started. So --

9 A Well, since November.

10 Q Was that November of '06 or November --

11 A Six.

12 Q Oh. So this is just for the last three months?

13 A Yes.

14 Q I see. Okay. All right. Um, I believe you said
15 in your questionnaire you do have, um, one son
16 that is a member of the Sheriff's Department?

17 A Yes, I do.

18 Q Okay. Now, um, how long has he been a member of 19 the Sheriff's Department?

20 A Oh, five -- five years I think.

21 Q All right. And, uh, do you ever have occasion to 22 talk shop with your son about law enforcement
23 work in general?

24 A Not much, no. He won't tell me much.

25 Q All right. Um, very good. Well, let me ask, uh,

1 because this is a -- a matter of interest to all
2 of us here, um, if you were selected as a juror
3 in this case, and since your son is a member of 4 the Manitowoc Sheriff's Department, and since
5 there will be a pretty fair number of police
6 officers, and sheriff's deputies, and state
7 patrol officers, and other law enforcement people
8 testifying, do you think you could evaluate their 9 testimony the same as you would any other
10 witness?

11 A Yes, I believe I could.

12 Q Okay. In other words, you don't think you'd be,
13 you know, more favorably disposed to believing
14 them than you would over any other witness?

15 A No.

16 Q Okay. And you realize they're human just like 17 anybody else? They can make a mistake? And they 18 might even lie as much as the next guy?

19 A Yes.

20 Q All right. So as a juror, your job is to listen
21 and evaluate their testimony the same as you
22 would any other witness?

23 A Yes.

24 Q All right. And you think you could do that?

25 A Yes.

1 Q You feel pretty confident about that?

2 A Yes, I do.

3 Q Okay. Um, um, just one last couple of questions.

4 Uh, have you ever had any other law enforcement
5 experience other than just the past three months
6 of -- of helping out?

7 A No.

8 Q All right. Uh, any law enforcement training at 9 all?

10 A No. None.

11 Q Okay. And -- well, do you think that you could 12 accept, uh, an instruction from the Judge that if 13 you were selected as a juror in this case, you
14 could presume that Mr. Avery is innocent unless 15 and until the State can prove him guilty beyond a
16 reasonable doubt?

17 A Yes.

18 Q All right. You accept that basic proposition in 19 our law?

20 A Yes, I do.

21 Q All right. And you feel comfortable that you can 22 abide by that?

23 A Yes.

24 Q All right. And, um, I take it from your 25 questionnaire that you don't have any opinions of

1 Mr. Avery's, um, guilt or innocence at -- at all
2 at this time?

3 A No.

4 Q All right. Um, so you feel that you can give
5 both the State and Mr. Avery a fair shake in this
6 trial?

7 A Yes, I believe I can.

8 Q And that you would decide his guilt or innocence
9 only on what the evidence is that is presented
10 during the course of the trial?

11 A Yes.

12 Q All right. Is there any concern in your mind
13 that if, you know, you thought and you listened
14 to all the evidence, you say, geez, I just don't 15 think the State, uh, convinced me. Do you think 16 you could, uh, be comfortable rendering a verdict
17 of not guilty?

18 A Yes.

19 Q All right. And do you think that would cause any 20 concern or any problems with, perhaps, talking to 21 your son who's a law enforcement officer? Do you
22 think that might hinder your relationship at all?

23 A No.

24 Q All right.

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'll pass the juror.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Buting?

2 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you.

3 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

4 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

5 Q Good morning.

6 A Good morning.

7 Q My name's Jerome Buting, and this is Attorney
8 Dean Strang, and we represent Steven Avery.
9 Okay? I'd like to, uh, pick up on some things
10 that Mr., uh -- Mr. Fallon spoke about, but also 11 a few other things. But -- but let me first ask,
12 your volunteer work that you do with the Sheriff,
13 um, can you tell me why you decided to do that?

14 A I wanted something to do.

15 Q Okay. But, you know, there's lot of -- lots of 16 things you can volunteer for. Why that 17 particular --

18 A I kind of wanted to see what they -- what they did.

19 Q Okay. But why? I mean --

20 A I was curious.

21 Q Do you have a particular interest in law
22 enforcement though?

23 A No.

24 Q I mean, you could volunteer for, you know,
25 Habitat for Humanity or the --

1 A I don't have to do that much walking.

2 Q Okay. Um, your -- was it your son's involvement
3 with the Department maybe that piqued your
4 interest a little bit?

5 A Yeah, that was a little bit, too.

6 Q Had you ever wanted to be in law enforcement?
7 Thought, you know, be kind of interesting to do?

8 A No, not really.

9 Q How did the opportunity arise for you to do this?

10 A I heard that you could, uh, volunteer.

11 Q Um, and so who did you meet and what did you do?

12 A Uh, Peggy Holmes. I met her, and talked to her, and 13 she signed me up. They did a background check on me
14 and I got in.

15 Q Okay. And you -- you actually have a squad car
16 that you drive around?

17 A Yeah. It says "volunteer" on the side.

18 Q Okay. Um, and you work with another gentleman?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Or woman?

21 A Sometimes, yes.

22 Q And your son is -- what is his rank or what --

23 A He's a sergeant.

24 Q He's a sergeant?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Same last name?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Does he -- has he had any involvement in the 4 Steven Avery case?

5 A Yeah. He's standing outside the door.

6 Q Okay. So, um -- so he's had du -- duties here

7 in -- in the courthouse; right?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Um, did you ever talk to him about this at all?

10 A No.

11 Q Ever talk to him about the Avery case?

12 A No. But he had to take training or something for 13 some kind of gizmo they've used. Other than that,

14 no.

15 Q Stun belt?

16 A Yeah.

17 Q Okay. So he talked to you about the training he

18 had to do for that?

19 A Yeah. He mentioned it. That was about it. Because 20 I asked him why he had to go to school.

21 Q Do you think that, um -- do you think the police

22 officers would come into court and lie?

23 A Yeah.

24 Q Under oath?

25 A Yeah.

1 Q Why?

2 A Because they can get away with it.

3 Q How do they get away with it?

4 A Some judges believe them.

5 Q Okay. Um, and juries as well?

6 A Yeah.

7 Q Do you think that they have any more inclination
8 or likelihood of lying than -- than another -- any 9 other witness?

10 A No.

11 Q Would you think that they feel like they can get 12 away with it more easily than, say, another --
13 any other witness?

14 A It depends on the situation.

15 Q Do you think sometimes they're -- they're good at 16 lying under oath?

17 A Yeah.

18 Q Better than the average person?

19 A No.

20 Q So why do you think they're good?

21 A They get away with it.

22 Q Have you ever heard of that happening?

23 A Yeah.

24 Q When or where?

25 A When I went to court.

1 Q Okay. And you went to court on -- on a OWI case?

2 A Yeah.

3 Q Can you tell me a little bit about what happened
4 there?

5 A Yeah. They arrested me. I had one beer. I wasn't
6 drunk. But the reason I got into it with them is I
7 always keep three bucks over my sun adviser and they
8 took it. And I knew if I brought it up in court that
9 they would, you know, laugh it off and -- and think I
10 was pulling something. But I never said, boo. The 11 officer brought it up that I said I rob -- uh, that 12 he robbed me.

13 Q Okay.

14 A And the judge believed him.

15 Q Okay. So you were pulled over. Was this a first 16 offense OWI?

17 A Yes.

18 Q How long ago was this?

19 A Ten years.

20 Q And was this the Sheriff's Department?

21 A No. Police. I don't even think he's an officer
22 anymore.

23 Q Okay. Do you know what department?

24 A No.

25 Q Manit --

1 A Just city.

2 Q Manitowoc though?

3 A Yeah.

4 Q Okay. And you're saying that when you were 5 arrested, you had -- this -- this officer took 6 three dollars cash that you had in --

7 A Yeah.

8 Q -- your car? Um, and did you bring that up in 9 court?

10 A No.

11 Q But he brought it up and said that you claimed
12 he -- that he stole something from you?

13 A That he took the money, yeah.

14 Q Okay. And then did you respond to that in court
15 and say, no, it's -- I mean, he did, yes,
16 officer -- yes --

17 A I didn't say nothing because it ain't going to do me
18 no good.

19 Q So you actually sat there and saw him lie under 20 oath?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Right in front of your face?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And the judge believed him?

25 A Yeah.

1 Q In your opinion anyway. Um, how did that make
2 you feel?

3 A Mad, but there ain't nothing I can do about it.

4 Q You think it happens to others, too?

5 A I don't know. That I couldn't tell you.

6 Q Do you, uh -- do you think it's possible that in
7 this case, the Steven Avery case, that officers
8 would come in -- into court and lie?

9 A I don't know. I'd have to hear them.

10 Q Do you think officers could do -- or deputies,
11 or -- or any law enforcement officer, could do
12 more than just lie under oath, but maybe even 13 cross the line and falsify a report?

14 A Yeah.

15 Q What about crossing the line and actually 16 planting evidence or altering evidence in some 17 way?

18 A Depends if he didn't like him.

19 Q Depends what?

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm sorry?

21 THE WITNESS: Depends if he didn't like
22 him.

23 Q (By Attorney Buting) Meaning the defendant?

24 A Yeah.

25 Q So if an officer just really didn't like a

1 particular defendant, you could see situations
2 where they might actually go to the -- to the 3 length of planting evidence or tampering it with 4 evidence in a case?

5 A Maybe.

6 Q Have you ever heard of that happening?

7 A No.

8 Q Do you have any reason to believe that people in 9 the Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department would 10 be capable of doing such a thing?

11 A I wouldn't think so.

12 Q Do you have any reason to believe that -- that 13 they could not? I mean, in other words, because 14 your son is there, and you're volunteering there,
15 do you think that it's just not possible that 16 anybody in that Department would do such a thing?

17 A It's possible.

18 Q What if you came to the conclusion that that 19 happened in this case, um, that somebody in the 20 very department that you volunteer for would do
21 such a thing such as tampering with evidence or 22 planting evidence? How would that make you feel?

23 A Mad.

24 Q Mad?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Would that affect your -- your verdict?

2 A Yes.

3 Q How?

4 A I don't know. I -- I would plead not guilty for him.

5 Q Do you think that there would be any

6 repercussions afterwards for you?

7 A No, I don't think so.

8 Q Do you think the people in the department that

9 you volunteer for would be unhappy with you?

10 A I don't think so.

11 Q If this involved, in this case, very high ranking

12 members of the department you work for,

13 sergeants, lieutenants, things of that nature, do

14 you think that, uh, they would be unhappy if you

15 would return a not guilty verdict?

16 A I don't think so, no.

17 Q Well, now your son is a sergeant. Um, what if

18 you came to the conclusion that another sergeant,

19 or even someone above him, had committed

20 misconduct in this case? Would you be capable of 21 rendering a not guilty verdict?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Do you think your son would be unhappy with that?

24 A No.

25 Q Why not?

1 A Because it's -- I'm being honest.

2 Q Has he ever told you anything about the Sheriff's
3 Department that would lead you to, um, think that
4 this, um -- that this kind of misconduct could be 5 possible?

6 A No. He don't talk about his work.

7 Q All right. Could you tell me what you know about
8 this case from publicity, media?

9 A They say he killed her and burned her up. That's
10 about it.

11 Q And what -- what's your view about that?

12 A I -- I hate to say it, but I ain't really got no
13 view.

14 Q Well, do you think --

15 A It's wrong, but --

16 Q Why do you say you hate to say it?

17 A I don't know. I just don't know what to tell you.

18 Q Well, do you think that the media's portrayal of 19 Mr. -- the things you hear in the media about 20 Mr. Avery, uh, makes it look like he's probably 21 guilty or probably innocent?

22 A I'm undecided with that, because I didn't get to see
23 that much and then he told me -- the Judge told me
24 not to watch. So I -- I ain't seen nothing.

25 Q Okay. Did you see any press conferences in this

1 case? By the --

2 A No.

3 Q -- the Sheriff?

4 A No.

5 Q Prosecutor?

6 A No. I seen it way in the beginning and that was
7 about it.

8 Q And can you remember any details about what 9 you -- you heard or saw?

10 A No. They just showed it -- I think it was his farm
11 and, um, trailer house, and the tape around the 12 barrel, and that was about it.

13 Q Okay. Do you know the name Brendan Dassey?

14 A No.

15 Q Do -- or if I refer to him as -- as Mr. Avery's
16 nephew, do you recall any reports about him?

17 A Uh, yeah. Uh, not really. Well, I knew he was 18 involved but that was it. I didn't real -- I really
19 don't watch the news that much I'm sorry to say.

20 Q Okay. Well, you -- you say you knew that he was 21 involved. Did you hear any news reports that he 22 had made any kind of statements admitting that he 23 was involved or --

24 A No.

25 Q Did you ever hear any reports that he had, uh,

1 later denied his involvement and recanting the
2 confession? Withdrawing the confession? Do
3 you --

4 A No.

5 Q -- remember -- you hadn't heard anything about
6 that at all?

7 A No.

8 Q Do you think that's possible that somebody might 9 confess to something that's -- that they didn't
10 really do?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Why?

13 A Under duress.

14 Q Pressure from the police?

15 A Well, anybody.

16 Q Okay.

17 A Family or something.

18 Q Um, did you hear anything in the news reports
19 about, um -- about a blood vial?

20 A No.

21 Q Have you heard anything at all about whether 22 there might be any kind of tampering with 23 evidence or planting of evidence?

24 A No.

25 Q Do you remember Mr. Avery's statements when he

1 was first arrested in which he denied any
2 involvement and claimed somebody was trying to 3 frame him?

4 A Yeah. Yeah, I think I did.

5 Q What's your thought about that?

6 A Nothing.

7 Q Do you -- um, do you think that -- I mean, as 8 you -- as you look at this case and what you've 9 heard about this case, do you think Steven
10 Avery's being framed?

11 A I don't know.

12 Q Think it's possible that he is?

13 A I -- I don't know. I can't answer that.

14 Q Okay.

15 A Couldn't even tell you.

16 Q You don't -- you don't know one way or the other;
17 right?

18 A Right.

19 Q You don't know whether he's guilty either?

20 A Correct.

21 Q What do you know about his past? Can you tell me
22 what you know about Mr. Avery?

23 A I seen it when he got out.

24 Q Out of prison?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Okay. So you knew that he was wrongly convicted?
2 A Yes. And I was surprised to hear him on the next
3 time on the news about him.
4 Q About him suddenly being charged with something?
5 A Yes.
6 Q Okay. Any doubt in your mind that he was wrongly
7 convicted and spent all that time in prison?
8 A The first time?
9 Q Yeah.
10 A Yeah. They were wrong.
11 Q They were wrong?
12 A Yes.
13 Q Okay. And, uh, how did you feel about that?
14 A I don't know how to say that. He's just -- be --
15 they were wrong, but I know it happens.
16 Q You know it happens?
17 A Yes.
18 Q Okay. How do you know it happens?
19 A They did it to him.
20 Q Okay. Um, were you also aware of a lawsuit that 21 he filed?
22 A Yeah.
23 Q Against the county?
24 A Yes.
25 Q Do you have any thoughts or opinions about that?

1 A I think he should get the money.

2 Q Okay. Let me just brief -- very briefly go over
3 a couple of other things here. Did you, uh -- in 4 your OWI case, uh, it sounds like you actually
5 had a hearing?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Um, did you go to a trial?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Did you have a lawyer?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Did you testify?

12 A No.

13 Q You didn't take the witness stand?

14 A No, I don't think I did.

15 Q Okay. Um, did your lawyer -- or did you
16 understand that you had a constitutional right
17 not to testify?

18 A No.

19 Q Uh, is there some particular reason why you did
20 not? Or you --

21 A I just didn't know. I didn't know until now.

22 Q That you had a right not to?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Um, did, uh --

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, I'm going

1 to -- can we approach the bench?

2 THE COURT: Sure.

3 (Discussion off the record)

4 Q (By Attorney Buting) The, uh -- the
5 questionnaire that you filled out I think, uh,
6 had a question that -- that told you about a -- I
7 don't recall the number right now, but I think it
8 told you that the defendant has a right -- a
9 constitutional right not to testify if he -- he 10 and his lawyer so choose?

11 A If you say so. I don't remember.

12 Q You don't remember?

13 A Sorry to say, no. I just filled it out to get out.

14 Q Okay. Um, well, just to quickly go over with 15 you, the -- the Judge will instruct you that if 16 Mr. Avery chooses not to testify under the -- you
17 know, if it's our advice that he not testify,
18 that you can't consider that against him in any 19 way. Um, in other words, some people might think 20 if a defendant doesn't testify, you know, he must 21 have something to hide?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Is that something you might be concerned about?

24 A No.

25 Q So if Mr. Avery chooses not to testify, will that

1 affect you in any way in thinking that -- that
2 he's still innocent?

3 A No.

4 Q And if he does testify, uh, will you be able to 5 consider his testimony just the same as any other
6 witness?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Or will you think that he's more likely to lie
9 just because he's the defendant in the case and 10 he's trying to get off?

11 A Possible.

12 Q Well, will you be able to consider his testimony
13 in the same way as any other witness though?

14 A Oh, yes.

15 Q Okay. You show -- you watch, uh, C.S.I. shows, I
16 think; right?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And, uh, it's your opinion that they are very
19 realistic?

20 A Some of them. Some of it, yes.

21 Q Do you think that the -- for instance, the 22 evidence that they can find at crime scenes is --
23 is -- all those tests, that that's pretty
24 realistic?

25 A Pretty much.

1 Q Maybe that --

2 A Surprised at what they find, yeah.

3 Q Okay. Maybe they can't do them as quickly as

4 they show on TV, but the tests, themselves,

5 you'd -- you tend to think they're realistic?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And so, uh -- I mean, most crime scenes you'd

8 expect there would be lots of evidence available?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And if there wasn't -- if there was a lack of 11 physical evidence at a crime scene, is that

12 something that would give you concern about

13 whether or not there might be reasonable doubt?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Let me ask you this final question: Uh, do you

16 want to be on this jury or do you not want to be

17 on this jury?

18 A It's a tossup. Maybe. I don't want to be.

19 Q You don't want to -- you prefer not to be?

20 A Yeah.

21 Q Why?

22 A I, um -- I like what I do for the Sheriff's

23 Department. I hate to miss it.

24 Q And -- and you think -- you really think that

25 you'd be able to sit back there in that jury room

1 and, um, not be in some way biased against
2 Mr. Avery just be -- I mean, because you work so
3 closely with that Sheriff's Department?

4 A No.

5 Q All right. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: All right. We'll have the
7 clerk escort you from the courtroom at this time,
8 Mr. Wardman.

9 (Wherein juror is escorted out)

10 THE COURT: Um, Counsel, is there a
11 motion from either party?

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: None from the State.

13 ATTORNEY BUTING: No, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. Uh, Mr. Wardman
15 will be considered in. And, um, we'll take a break
16 at this time. Report back at 5 minutes to 11.

17 (Recess had at 10:42 a.m.)

18 (Reconvened at 10:58 a.m.)

19 THE COURT: Before we bring in the next
20 juror, I just wanted to, uh, make a follow-up
21 response to defense counsel's objection on the,
22 uh -- uh, my imposition of the 20-minute time limit
23 on the questioning of Mr. Gray. Uh, as I think I
24 indicated yesterday, I allowed at least each of the 25 parties once to exceed the 20-minute time limit

1 because I thought the nature of the answers being
2 given by the juror warranted it.

3 In the case of, uh, Mr. Gray, uh, I did
4 not detect any answers that he gave to questions
5 along the way that would have indicated the 6 questions could not be handled within 20 minutes
7 and that is why I terminated the questioning.

8 Uh, I believe our next juror is, uh, No.
9 71, Nancy Steinmetz.

10 Uh, Ms. Steinmetz, please raise your
11 right hand and the clerk will administer the oath
12 to you.

13 (Juror sworn)

14 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

15 THE COURT: Uh, Ms. Steinmetz, you've 16 already completed a written jury questionnaire in 17 this case. Uh, this morning we're going to move on 18 to the next step of the jury selection process which 19 is known as voir dire.

20 The attorneys for each of the parties
21 will have a chance to ask you some questions
22 relating to your qualifications of a juror. For 23 the most part they will follow up on answers that 24 you gave in your jury questionnaire.

25 Before we begin those questions, I want

1 you to know that the jurors in this case will not
2 be sequestered. That means at the end of court
3 proceedings each day the jurors will be permitted
4 to return home.

5 Uh, because of that fact, we will
6 continue to require that the jurors not be
7 exposed to any publicity concerning this case
8 during the trial, whether it be from radio,
9 television, newspapers, the internet, or any 10 other source. And, in addition, the jurors will 11 be prohibited from, uh, communicating with anyone
12 about the case, including other jurors or members
13 of the jurors' family.

14 These proceedings today are open to the 15 public, but the Court does not allow cameras in 16 the courtroom during jury voir dire proceedings,
17 and the members of the media are not permitted to 18 use the names of the jurors in their reporting of 19 this matter.

20 In addition, uh, should you be selected
21 to serve as a juror, you should know that while 22 there may be cameras in the courtroom during the 23 trial, they're not permitted to focus on the 24 jurors in a way that discloses the identity of 25 the jurors.

1 Uh, finally, if you remain on the jury
2 panel after today's proceedings, you'll be
3 notified when to record -- report back to court
4 again. Uh, it will probably be a notification
5 sometime today.

6 JUROR STEINMETZ: Okay.

7 THE COURT: At this time, I believe
8 Mr. Kratz will be, uh, asking you questions on
9 behalf of the State.

10 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Thank you, Judge.

11 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

12 BY ATTORNEY KRATZ:

13 Q Ms. Steinmetz, good morning. My name is Ken
14 Kratz. I'm the Calumet County District Attorney.
15 I'm the lead prosecutor in this case. With me
16 this morning is Tom Fallon --

17 A Morning.

18 Q -- from the Department of Justice, Attorney
19 General's Office. He'll be assisting not only 20 this morning but also throughout the, uh -- the
21 case.

22 Uh, I note, uh, Ms. Steinmetz that you
23 currently work at the American Club; is that
24 correct?

25 A Correct.

1 Q And you are involved in, uh, some kind of, um, a
2 secretarial position? At least answering phones;
3 is that right?

4 A Telecommunications.

5 Q Okay. Could you describe that a little more in 6 detail? What is it that you do there?

7 A Um, I take the incoming calls and, uh, direct them to 8 the correct place of business.

9 Q It's a rather large facility so I suspect there's 10 a lot of incoming calls or places throughout 11 them; is that --

12 A Correct.

13 Q -- is that correct? You've done it for 22 years;
14 is that right?

15 A No, I've done that for about, uh, four years. About,
16 um, ten years prior to that I was still at the 17 American Club and I was in a supervisory position in 18 the, uh, banquet area.

19 Q Ms. Steinmetz, uh, where would you say that you
20 get most of your news from; the television,
21 newspapers, or some other sources?

22 A Um, not much of anywhere. Um, I was working night
23 shift so I didn't watch the news. Um, don't get a
24 newspaper. We do get a Newsweek which I read a
25 little bit once in a while, but that's about it.

1 Q Is -- could be more of a national or world
2 publication?

3 A It's a -- a world news. If we do see something, um,
4 I take my 20-minute break up in the break room and
5 they do have a TV, but it's set at world news, and
6 then I guess the Newsweek is kind of like more of a
7 world news.

8 Q Do I understand that you're still working, uh,
9 second shift, or a later shift, or has that gone,
10 uh, to a different shift?

11 A About six months ago I -- my -- my hours changed. I
12 do three days during the day and then I do two -- two 13 night shifts.

14 Q All right. Uh, your husband is involved in 15 farming?

16 A Correct.

17 Q And, uh, has that been for most of his life?

18 A All of his life.

19 Q All right. Ms. Steinmetz, if you do receive any 20 local news because of where you work, would it be 21 fair to assume that it, um, may be more centered
22 in the Sheboygan County area rather than
23 Manitowoc or is that not necessarily true?

24 A To be honest with you, I don't know much news about
25 anything I guess.

1 Q Not much about either, huh?

2 A No.

3 Q All right.

4 A No.

5 Q Have you, um, heard of, uh, the case for which 6 you are summoned here as a potential juror; the 7 Steven Avery case?

8 A About, oh, over a year ago maybe, um, around
9 Halloween time, um, just very little bit of it. Not 10 much of anything. And then day goes on as -- as 11 normal. I -- I didn't --

12 Q Are you gen --

13 A -- pay attention to it.

14 Q I'm sorry to interrupt you. Are you generally
15 aware of the allegations against Mr. Avery?

16 A I am at this point, yes.

17 Q Did you become aware of those because of your 18 involvement in this case and the instructions by 19 the Judge, or was that from, uh, either a news
20 source or out in the community somewhere?

21 A Um, that, um -- when I got my first questionnaire,
22 um, in October, and it said from this period to this
23 period, and I'm thinking, well, my husband just got 24 his jury duty, and it's only a month, and he has to 25 call in. And I've never been asked before, and I'm

1 thinking, well, this is a little strange.

2 And I mentioned it to, um, one of my,
3 uh, associates, and she says, oh, I bet I know
4 what it is, and she went on the computer, and she
5 says, I bet it's the, uh, Avery case, and I said,
6 no way. And that was about all that I got
7 involved on that, because then if it was, I
8 shouldn't be trying to see what I could find out
9 about it or anything.

10 Q About three weeks ago, or perhaps even a little
11 more, you received a letter from the Judge, uh,
12 instructing you not to watch any news accounts or 13 not to read anything about this case; is that
14 right?

15 A Correct.

16 Q Have you been able to do that?

17 A No. I see a flash, my ears close, my -- my eyes 18 close. I plug my ears, count to 50. So, no, I have 19 seen absolutely nothing.

20 Q All right. So you've done your absolute best --

21 A My absolute best.

22 Q -- to avoid any, uh, any influence. That's good.
23 Ms. Steinmetz, uh, do you watch, uh, much
24 television, uh, at home in the evenings or,
25 specifically, shows that, uh, may be a

1 crime-related C.S.I. or anything like that?

2 A Um, on occasion we will watch, um, C.S.I. Not very
3 often. Not very often at all. Um --

4 Q Let me just stop you there. Does that kind of 5 show or that topic, if you will, of show, does
6 that interest you?

7 A It -- not -- it's a little bit interesting but, um,
8 you know, I -- I -- it's not something that I have to 9 turn on to watch. It's just something that we turn
10 on because there's nothing else on at the time or 11 we've, uh -- just don't have anything else to do. We 12 just flip the stations and once in a while we -- we 13 watch it.

14 Q Do you watch any other, um, shows that are not 15 necessarily, uh, only entertainment but perhaps 16 more of a documentary nature? Forensic Files or 17 anything that --

18 A No.

19 Q -- are -- are, uh, depictions of what is supposed
20 to be real life kinds of cases?

21 A No. We watch, um, a lot of the Discovery Channel,
22 how do you make this, or how is this made. Um, I
23 watch, um, Gray's Anatomy. I like that. I watch
24 Ugly Betty. And that's about as late as I stay up.
25 And by the time you get home from work, and make

1 dinner, and clean up, you know, there's only a little
2 bit of time that we might sit in front of the tube.
3 And I'm in bed by nine.

4 Q All right. I suspect from Gray's Anatomy or any 5 of those kind of shows, uh, you don't necessarily 6 believe that you have a good grasp, of, uh, the 7 medical field or anything like that, do you?

8 A No. It's just entertainment. Kind of who's doing
9 what with who. A little soap opera.

10 Q Are you familiar with a -- a kind of evidence
11 called DNA evidence?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Tell me what you know about that.

14 A From what I know, it's just that DNA can be matched
15 up to fit another person's identity. That it's like,
16 um, a fingerprint where only one person has the 17 specific little things that show up in the DNA.

18 There are --

19 Q That it's unique to one -- one --

20 A Exactly.

21 Q -- person and nobody else has the same DNA?

22 A Right. It's like --

23 Q All right.

24 A -- a fingerprint. It can't be related to anyone
25 else.

1 Q And from what you've known or heard about that
2 on, uh -- on TV, would you suspect that to be,
3 um, relatively accurate kinds of information? In 4 other words, that that is an accurate way to, uh,
5 identify either evidence or individuals from 6 which DNA came?

7 A I would think it would be pretty darn close to
8 accurate.

9 Q All right. What I'm asking, though, is, is there
10 anything that you know about DNA evidence that 11 causes you pause or concern about that kind of 12 analysis or that kind of evidence?

13 A No, I don't think so.

14 Q Have you had any, uh, run-ins -- I -- I -- I note
15 that your answer was, no, but let me ask you this 16 a little broader. Experiences, perhaps, with the 17 Manitowoc County law enforcement, uh, officials
18 that in some way questions you, uh, either about 19 their integrity or about the job that they're 20 doing?

21 A No.

22 Q You have a generally positive or negative view
23 about how the Manitowoc law enforcement community
24 is -- is doing their job?

25 A I've only been in Manitowoc maybe a handful of times.

1 Q I meant the county. The --

2 A The county.

3 Q -- entire county law enforcement community. Do
4 you know -- uh, do you have an opinion about how
5 they're doing their job?

6 A None whatsoever.

7 Q Do you feel safe in your community?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay. Um, Ms. Steinmetz, uh, would you consider 10 yourself a detailed-oriented person that likes to 11 make lists and things like that, or do you
12 consider yourself more of a big picture kind of a
13 person?

14 A Uh, detail orientated. In fact, we just had a little 15 appreciation thing with all the employers two weeks
16 ago and I got a little plaque saying that the 17 detail-orientated, you know, team worker. That type
18 of thing.

19 Q All right. That's nice. Do you like puzzles?

20 A Somewhat. Not real difficult ones, but --

21 Q What kind of puzzles do you like?

22 A Um, I like the kind where you can just kind of like
23 find the words within. Um --

24 Q Word search?

25 A Yes. That's -- otherwise I don't do too much for

1 puzzles.

2 Q All right. Uh, not a jigsaw puzzle person or
3 anything like that?

4 A No.

5 Q Ms. Steinmetz, if you had to serve on this, uh,
6 perhaps six-week jury process, would that cause
7 any personal or financial hardship for you?

8 A No.

9 Q Let me ask you this, Ms. Steinmetz: Once you,
10 even several months ago, thought that you might 11 possibly be on this important jury --

12 A Um-hmm.

13 Q -- did you look forward to that? Do you look 14 forward to being a member of this jury or would 15 you kind of, uh, feel awkward or concerned about
16 that?

17 A I don't feel awkward. Um, I -- I -- it's probably 18 like a 50-50. Um, I -- I would, um, take it very 19 seriously. It would kind of -- if I knew that I was 20 part of it, it's like, okay, um, I'm -- was selected,
21 I'm a fairly smart person, I think, but it would 22 still have -- it's -- it's a major decision that
23 would be -- you'd have to be really sure --

24 Q Sure.

25 A -- about, you know. So it -- it's kind of like a

1 50-50.

2 Q So you would take your responsibilities very
3 seriously and you'd be able to listen to the 4 instructions that the Court would give you in 5 deciding this case; is that what --

6 A Yes.

7 Q -- you're telling us?

8 A Yes.

9 Q All right. And although, um, maybe not looking 10 forward to it, if asked to serve, you'd certainly 11 do that; is that right?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Now, you have all sons; is that right?

14 A Yes, I do.

15 Q No daughters?

16 A No daughters.

17 Q Um, are any of your sons married?

18 A One is married. My oldest.

19 Q And do you have any grandchildren?

20 A No.

21 Q Have either of your sons or your daughter-in-law
22 spoken to you about the Steven Avery case?

23 A No.

24 Q Do you know if they're aware of it?

25 A I think so, because when I, um, got my first notice,

1 I had it up on the refrigerator, and when they would
2 come home, you know, that it might be, but we haven't
3 talked about anything with it.

4 Q Okay. You've told us in your questionnaire --
5 and -- and -- and I'm almost through here -- but
6 you've told us in your questionnaire that, uh,
7 you have not formed an opinion about Mr. Avery's,
8 uh, guilt or innocence, and any opinion that you
9 may have, you'd be able to set aside deciding 10 this case solely on the evidence as presented.
11 Is that still true today?

12 A Very much so.

13 Q As Mr. Avery sits here, uh, today he is presumed,
14 uh, innocent, uh, and may or may not, um, testify
15 in, uh, this case. Uh, are you familiar at all
16 with those legal principles that we have in this
17 country?

18 A Uh, it's my understanding that a person's innocent
19 until proven, without a question, guilty.

20 Q And when you hear evidence, either from law
21 enforcement officers, scientists, or -- or 22 citizens, would you be able to listen to 23 everybody's testimony, giving that testimony such 24 weight as you believe it's entitled to receive?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Is there anything, Mrs. Steinmetz, that I haven't
2 asked you? Uh, any pause that you have about,
3 uh, sitting on this jury, or something, uh, that,
4 uh, perhaps wasn't in the questionnaire that you
5 feel would disqualify you as a potential juror in 6 this case?

7 A No.

8 Q All right.

9 ATTORNEY KRATZ: With that, that's all I
10 have, Judge. Thank you.

11 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Buting?

12 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

13 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

14 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

15 Q Good morning.

16 A Good morning.

17 Q Um, how do you pronounce your name?

18 A Steinmetz.

19 Q Steinmetz. Okay. Spelled a little differently
20 sometimes.

21 A It is. I -- my first four years of marriage I
22 spelled it wrong. Until mother-in-law pointed it
23 out.

24 Q Well, my name's Jerome Buting, this is Dean
25 Strang, and we represent Steven Avery.

1 A All right.

2 Q Uh, we really appreciate you coming here today,
3 and, uh, I can tell you really, um, take this
4 seriously. You have, uh -- well, I'll talk about 5 your sons in just a minute, but your --

6 A Okay.

7 Q -- your husband's a -- a farmer. So you live --
8 what kind of a farm is it? Dairy farm?

9 A It's a -- a dairy farm. He's, uh -- he was raised as 10 a farmer. Um, he had his, um, own business. He was 11 an AI technician. And then, um, one of the farms
12 that he would do his breeding at, they were enlarging
13 and they had persuaded him to give his business up
14 and relocate to this other farm. And it's a very 15 large dairy farm, and he just -- he's just a farmhand
16 worker.

17 Q Oh, I see. So it's, uh -- it's not his farm --

18 A No, it is not. No.

19 Q Okay. Yeah, because I was wondering why none of 20 your sons decided to go into farming or work with 21 him, but I guess that explains it.

22 A One was going to college for veterinarian medicine,
23 but he made the decision, well, it -- it wasn't for 24 me, and I have to be happy, and so he went into a
25 different field.

1 Q I see one of them's in the Peace Corps.

2 A That's the one that was going to be a veterinarian,
3 yes.

4 Q Is he overseas then or --

5 A Him and his wife are in, um, Costa Rica.

6 Q Okay. So do you get to see them, uh, very often
7 or --

8 A No. I haven't seen them since they left in, uh,
9 first part of June.

10 Q Okay. Now, I know you've, uh -- sounds like
11 you've done a good job of trying to shield
12 yourself from any -- any information in the news,
13 but, um, every once in a while some blurb will 14 come on the radio, perhaps, or do you listen to 15 the radio when you drive?

16 A I have a CD in the car.

17 Q Okay. So let me just ask you: Are you familiar
18 with the name Brendan Dassey?

19 A No.

20 Q Okay. Have you heard anything about a blood
21 vial?

22 A No.

23 Q Okay. You've done very well.

24 A Thank you. I've tried really hard.

25 Q Um, you said that you've had no real, uh,

1 exposure to police, or you didn't -- you didn't
2 have any opinion one way or the other about kind
3 of job Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department is
4 doing?

5 A No. I just get aggravated when solicitation calls
6 from them, and they identify themselves, and I'm
7 thinking, oh, my God, what happened? Someone get 8 hurt in the family? And it's just a solicitation for 9 donation and --

10 Q Yeah.

11 A -- I just ask them, please don't call back.

12 Q Okay.

13 A That's about as close as I come to them.

14 Q Okay. Do you think that, um -- you're going to 15 be hearing from -- testimony from police officers
16 in this case --

17 A Um-hmm.

18 Q -- and one of the things you -- you have to do
19 when you're a juror, if you're selected, is to 20 determine the truthfulness or untruthfulness of 21 what people testify about. Do you think that if 22 somebody takes the witness stand and takes the 23 oath, anybody, that they're always going to tell
24 the truth?

25 A I would like to think they do.

1 Q Okay. But do you think -- in reality, do you
2 think they always do?

3 A Yes. I think so. I think if -- Yes, I do.

4 Q Okay. Well, what if in this case, as a juror,
5 you hear testimony from one witness that does not
6 seem to be true, that seems to be inconsistent
7 with what another witness has said, or maybe even
8 directly contrary to what they, them --
9 themselves, said at a different time --

10 A Um-hmm.

11 Q -- how are you going to deal with that?

12 A I'd have to think that somewhere someone wasn't being 13 completely honest and we would have to, um, probably 14 just continue to hear what others have to say, and be 15 a matter of putting the, uh, pieces together so that 16 if the person that wasn't being truthful would end up
17 somehow stumbling over things, because if you keep 18 saying untruths, you end up getting caught up into 19 something, and something would probably show up more
20 definite that they weren't truthful.

21 Q Okay. Um, what I'm getting at is that -- that,
22 you know, if you're selected as a jury -- juror
23 on this case, you're -- you're going to have to 24 do more than just assume or -- that everything
25 that's said on that witness stand is the truth.

1 A Um-hmm.

2 Q You're going to have to -- the Judge will
3 instruct you how to determine the credibility of 4 witnesses and what -- you look at their demeanor,
5 and what they say, and when -- what they said in 6 the past, and all of those factors you consider,
7 um, to resolve any -- any question about whether
8 the person's telling the truth. Do you think you
9 can do that?

10 A Yes, I do.

11 Q Okay. And, in particular, if law enforcement
12 officers, sheriff's deputies, or police officers
13 come up and take the witness stand, the Judge is 14 going to tell you that you have to also treat
15 them the same way as any other witness and judge
16 their credibility the same way. Do you think you
17 can do that?

18 A Yes.

19 Q You don't think that just because they're police
20 officers there's just no way they would ever lie
21 under oath?

22 A Um, I don't know. They probably could. They're just 23 like anybody else. If -- if a normal person lies
24 under oath, I mean -- but I -- I -- again, I would, I
25 don't know, be -- I would like to think they

1 wouldn't.

2 Q Sure. You -- you'd hope not. We'd all hope
3 that --

4 A Exactly.

5 Q -- of everybody. But, um, you may have to make
6 those kinds of determinations in this case, and I
7 want to be sure that you're -- you feel able to 8 do that.

9 A I do.

10 Q Okay.

11 A I do.

12 Q Okay. Do you think that if you heard evidence
13 that -- that gave you reason to -- to be
14 concerned that, perhaps, the police did even a
15 little bit more than lie under oath, but that 16 maybe even they -- they became so involved and 17 convinced that the person was guilty that they 18 crossed the line and either would alter their 19 reports or maybe even plant evidence against a
20 person, do you -- would you consider that?

21 A Well, it -- it would be -- wouldn't it be difficult
22 to know if they planted evidence or whatever for me
23 to assume that until several other people and 24 everything's coincided together?

25 Q Sure.

1 A I mean, I wouldn't be able to make that decision
2 knowing someone says, well, this, this, this. I have
3 nothing to base that --

4 Q Sure.

5 A -- that isn't the truth until, perhaps, other things
6 come together on it.

7 Q Right. And -- and, obviously, you've heard no
8 evidence at this point, so I'm not asking you
9 to -- to make any kind of decisions in -- at this
10 point, but I'm just wondering if you will be open
11 to listen to all of the evidence and to consider,
12 um, whether, you know, if -- if some evidence
13 tends to point that way --

14 A Um-hmm.

15 Q -- um, whether you would consider that as a
16 possibility or whether, because of some of 17 your -- your beliefs that you bring into the 18 case, you would just say, no, there's just no
19 way. I can't even accept that would ever happen.

20 A No. Um, I'm -- I'm completely open-minded. Um --

21 Q Okay.

22 A -- very open-minded.

23 Q Okay. I -- I -- I can see that. I appreciate
24 that. Um, and the, uh -- one of the questions in 25 the questionnaire, um, goes along with a -- an

1 instruction sometimes the judges give, and it
2 talks about a defendant's constitutional right
3 not to testify?

4 A Um-hmm.

5 Q And sometimes that's hard for people because 6 they -- they want to, you know, in their -- their 7 daily lives, when you try and find out -- make
8 decisions, you like to hear both sides. Are you
9 one of those kinds of people that like to hear
10 both sides before you make a decision?

11 A Um, yes. However, if, um, let's say Mr. Avery's, um,
12 side has all these witnesses and you feel comfortable
13 in that, I -- why would, um -- if -- and if Mr. Avery
14 isn't comfortable with going up there and having 15 someone try to tear him down a little bit, and it
16 wouldn't be to his benefit if he felt that the other
17 witnesses were positive for you, why would he go up
18 and possibly have it be a negative for himself?

19 Q Okay. And so -- so you could follow the -- the 20 Court's instruction that you're not supposed to 21 consider that decision against him in some way,
22 or speculate?

23 A Correct.

24 Q And, uh, because of the -- because the State has 25 the -- the burden of proof, um, if the defense

1 did put on any witnesses, would you hold us up to
2 some burden and say, well, you haven't proven
3 your case?

4 A I don't know.

5 Q Because what -- what you have to do is you have
6 to look only at -- at -- means you have to look
7 at the State's case and see if the State has 8 convinced you beyond a reasonable doubt.

9 A Correct.

10 Q And I just want to be sure that you -- you're not 11 going to impose some burden on Mr. Avery to prove 12 that he's innocent.

13 A No.

14 Q You can do that?

15 A I can do that.

16 Q Okay. All right. Thank you very much, ma'am.
17 Appreciate it.

18 A All right.

19 THE COURT: At this time, uh, the clerk
20 will escort you from the courtroom.

21 JUROR STEINMETZ: I think I need a glass
22 of water. Thank you, everyone.

23 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you.

24 (Wherein juror is escorted out)

25 THE COURT: Counsel, any, uh, motion from

1 either party?

2 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I've never had a juror
3 thank me before, Judge, but, uh, there's no
4 motion by the State.

5 ATTORNEY BUTING: No motion by the
6 defense, and, uh, for the record, if you would
7 note, I only took about 12 minutes, I think.

8 THE COURT: Right. I note that. Perhaps
9 that was why she was thanking you. I'm not sure.
10 But at any rate, we'll keep her on the panel and 11 move on to the next juror which is Mary Lou Salomon.

12 Uh, Ms. Salomon, I'll ask you at this
13 time to raise your right hand, please. The clerk
14 will administer the oath.

15 (Juror sworn)

16 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

17 THE COURT: Ms. Salomon, you've already
18 completed a written jury questionnaire in this 19 case. Uh, this morning we're moving on to the 20 next phase of jury selection which is known as 21 voir dire.

22 During this part of the process, the 23 attorneys for each of the parties will be 24 permitted to ask you some questions that relate
25 to your qualifications as a juror. For the most

1 part, they'll be follow-up questions to
2 information that you provided with your
3 questionnaire.

4 Before we get to those questions, I can
5 inform you that the, uh, jurors who are selected
6 in this case will not be sequestered. That is,
7 they will be permitted to return home each day at 8 the conclusion of each day of the court
9 proceedings and then return the next day.

10 Because of that fact, we'll continue to 11 require that the jurors, uh, not be exposed to 12 any news media accounts of the case, whether it
13 be from television, radio, newspaper, or the 14 internet, or any other source, and, in addition,
15 the jurors will be prohibited from, uh, talking
16 to anyone else, or communicating in any way about 17 the case. That would include other jurors or 18 members of the jurors' families.

19 The proceedings this morning are open to 20 the public, but the Court does not permit cameras
21 in the courtroom during the jury selection
22 process. Uh, and the, uh, news media are not
23 permitted to use the names of jurors in any news
24 accounts of the proceedings today.

25 If you are selected as a juror, you

1 should also know that while there may be cameras
2 in the courtroom during the trial, they are not
3 permitted to, uh, focus on or identify the jurors
4 in any way.

5 If you remain on the jury panel after
6 the questioning today, you'll get a call probably 7 later this afternoon, uh, letting you know when
8 to report back to court.

9 Um, Mr. Fallon, are you handling this
10 one?

11 (No verbal response)

12 THE COURT: Very well.

13 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

14 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

15 Q Good morning, Ms. Salomon.

16 A Good morning.

17 Q My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
18 General with the, uh, Wisconsin Department of 19 Justice. I'm one of the prosecutors in the case.
20 To my immediate left is Mr. Ken Kratz, uh, the 21 Calumet County District Attorney and lead special
22 prosecutor for this matter.

23 Good morning and, uh, thank you for 24 coming in today and helping us out. I'd like to 25 begin with a -- a few questions, um, about your,

1 um -- I guess your former work. Uh, you were,
2 uh, editor of a community newspaper?

3 A Yes.

4 Q All right. And, what kind of publication was 5 that? Is it weekly? Daily?

6 A It was monthly.

7 Q A monthly?

8 A Right. And, uh, it was basically homeowner's board
9 notes. Um, the sheriff would submit a report.

10 Q Okay.

11 A Library -- local library.

12 Q All right.

13 A That type of information.

14 Q Did you cover anything, as some people would say,
15 some of the hard news stories of the -- of the 16 time?

17 A No.

18 Q Okay. So this was just more, uh, community?
19 What's going on in the community?

21 Q Okay. Um, did you enjoy that work?

22 A Very much.

23 Q Yeah. And how long did you do it?

24 A Twenty-nine years.

25 Q Were you the editor for the entire time?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. Uh, would it be fair to say you enjoyed
3 writing or was it more the whole --

4 A I didn't have to do a lot of --

5 Q All right.

6 A -- the writing.

7 Q Okay.

8 A You know, it was kind of an assembly process.

9 Q Oh, so you enjoyed putting the paper together?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay.

12 A Um-hmm.

13 Q I gotcha.

14 A But for want of a title, that's what they called me.

15 Q Fair enough. Uh, did you get to choose the 16 headline as the editor or did you leave that to 17 the writer of the article?

18 A No, it was all mine.

19 Q Okay. All right. Well, um, I also have to ask,
20 because I was struck by, um, two things, uh,
21 hobbies of yours that looked interesting. Um,
22 Civil War, uh, and blue grass music. Interesting
23 mix. I -- to me they wouldn't seem to go
24 together. Um, what is it about, uh, the Civil 25 War that you find interesting?

1 A Uh, there's a lot of family history --

2 Q Okay.

3 A -- with the county, which is basically what brought

4 my son and I here. Um --

5 Q Okay.

6 A The monument that's at the corner of the courthouse

7 property is ancestors and --

8 Q Oh, very good. All right. And, um, I see, yes,

9 you're originally from Lincoln, Nebraska, but you

10 spent some time in the state of Washington?

11 A A lot of time, yes.

12 Q All right. And then how long have you been in 13 Manitowoc County then?

14 A Two years.

15 Q I see. Oh, all right. So you're recent to this

16 area?

17 A Yep.

18 Q Um, so you have, um -- through, uh, generations

19 you have a family connection to this county then?

20 A Yes, um-hmm.

21 Q I see. Uh, is that -- that's directly connected

22 to, uh, Civil War service?

23 A Yes. All of it. Um-hmm.

24 Q All right. Uh, and, um, how about, uh, blue

25 grass music? What -- what do you find

1 interesting about that?

2 A Um, just the rhythm, I guess. I --

3 Q Uh, have you been a fan of blue grass for quite
4 some time?

5 A Uh, no, not really. Not really. Basically, we got
6 involved in the Two Rivers shows that -- that come
7 monthly and --

8 Q All right.

9 A -- find that it's, uh, very enjoyable.

10 Q Very well. Well, let me ask -- um, I see, from 11 your other pursuits you're a Sunrise Optimist
12 and, of course, the Civil War Roundtable, uh, and 13 other historical, uh, events. Um, in -- in your 14 involvement in those cases have you, uh, been 15 called upon to, um, offer, uh, opinions or 16 directions for the organization at all? I mean,
17 any kind of, uh, supervisory advise -- advising
18 that you might do with those volunteer groups?

19 A Not advisory, no.

20 Q Okay. All right. Well, let me ask then, as a 21 person who was, um, at least in the media, at 22 least in the print media business for, uh, some 23 time, um, do you, um, regularly get your news
24 from, uh, the newspaper, or television, or where 25 would you say you got most of your news from?

1 A Probably television.

2 Q All right. And, uh, how often do you watch, uh,
3 televised news casts?

4 A Basically, I have CNN on for company during the day.

5 Q All right.

6 A But, watch it, um, I can't say that I do.

7 Q So it's background information?

8 A Right.

9 Q Um, in terms of your news casts, do you prefer,
10 uh, a more, uh, national or global perspective
11 than the local news? Is that what I'm detecting?

12 A Yes.

13 Q All right. Um, have you paid -- Uh, I see you
14 get the local paper here just on the weekends?

15 A Right.

16 Q All right. Now, um, the reason we ask is we want
17 to get at least an understanding of -- of what
18 you may be familiar with or how much you -- you
19 have heard about the case through both, uh, the 20 newspaper and television coverage of it.

21 And, um, about three weeks ago or so,
22 uh, you, I believe, received a letter from the 23 Judge advising you that you were a prospective
24 juror in this matter, and I think it, uh, asked,
25 that, uh, among other things, that you refrain

1 and make any reasonable effort not to watch any
2 of the news coverage or the -- read any of the 3 newspapers and -- and the like. Did you get that 4 letter?

5 A Yes, I did.

6 Q All right. And have you been able to abide by
7 it?

8 A Yes, I have.

9 Q All right. Uh, prior to getting that letter, um,
10 had you followed the case at all in the media
11 coverage?

12 A Uh, I was aware of it, but, uh, not as a daily thing
13 or a -- or a -- no.

14 Q There wasn't anything particularly interesting
15 about it that -- that had you follow it closely?

16 A Uh, no, I don't think so.

17 Q All right. Um, well, one of the reasons we ask
18 these questions is that we're hopeful that 19 prospective jurors come in with -- without any 20 opinions about the case at all, and -- and that's 21 what we'd like to ask. Um, based on your 22 familiarity with, uh, the media coverage that you
23 have, uh, seen and/or read, do you have any 24 opinion today at all as to whether Mr. Avery is 25 guilty or innocent of the charges leveled against

1 him?

2 A Um, no, I wouldn't think that I do.

3 Q All right. Well, you -- you -- you answered no
4 last week, and I did detect a little bit of a
5 hesitancy. Um, do you -- do you have an opinion
6 as to whether you think he's guilty or not, or --

7 A No, I don't.

8 Q Okay.

9 A My hesitancy was basically for media coverage in 10 general, I guess.

11 Q Okay. So, in other words, you have some reason
12 to doubt whether you have all of the information?

13 A Yes.

14 Q All right. Fair enough. Um, you understand, uh,
15 that in this particular case Mr. Avery is 16 presumed innocent unless and until the State can 17 convince the jury beyond a reasonable doubt of 18 his guilt?

19 A Yes.

20 Q All right. And, uh, you would be instructed on 21 that principle by the Court here, and do you have 22 any problem in accepting it and following it?

23 A No, I do not.

24 Q All right. Um -- okay. Now, I just wanted to 25 touch base on, uh, one other, um, matter. Well,

1 two matters. Um, one of the last questions that
2 you were asked last week is, um, you were advised
3 that there's a possibility, in fact a pretty good
4 possibility, this case may last six weeks.

5 And, uh, we wanted to make sure that all
6 of the prospective jurors in this case wouldn't 7 suffer any kind of emotional or financial
8 hardship if they were selected to, uh, serve as a
9 juror. And you indicated, uh, at that time that 10 you didn't think that would pose any problem for 11 you. Is that still your opinion today?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Okay. Um, in terms of, uh, evaluating, uh,
14 witnesses and testimony, uh, that will be
15 presented during the course of the trial, uh,
16 you'll be instructed that you would evaluate the 17 believability, the honesty, or the credibility
18 of -- of witnesses according to the same
19 standard. In other words, you would look at and 20 treat all witnesses alike and evaluate them for 21 their truthfulness, their honesty, the same as 22 you would any other person, do you understand?

23 A Um-hmm.

24 Q All right. And that includes police officers?
25 So even if a police officer were, uh, to take the

1 stand, and there'll be quite a bit of law
2 enforcement testimony in this case, you would be
3 required to evaluate their truthfulness the same
4 as you would any other person regardless of
5 whether they were a police officer, or a
6 scientist, or a -- or a truck driver, you would 7 treat them all alike in evaluating their
8 believability. Do you think you can do that?

9 A I think I can.

10 Q All right. All right. Um, and, lastly, I just 11 had a question, uh, would you like to serve on 12 this jury or would you rather not?

13 A I don't really think I have a --

14 Q An opinion?

15 A -- an opinion on that.

16 Q Okay.

17 A I --

18 Q So you're a fatalist. Whatever happens, happens?

19 A Well, I don't know about fatalist, but --

20 Q Very good. Thanks very much.

21 THE COURT: All right. Uh, Mr. Strang?

22 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

23 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

24 Q Morning.

25 A Morning.

1 Q I'm Dean Strang, and this is Jerome Buting, and
2 Steven Avery. We're -- we're defending
3 Mr. Avery. That is, Jerry Buting and I are. Um,
4 by starting in 1850 and moving forward, I don't
5 mean to suggest I'm going to take all that much
6 time with you, but, um, the, uh -- the, uh, mid
7 19th Century connections to this county, were 8 they on your husband's side of the family or on 9 your side of the family?

10 A My husband's side.

11 Q Okay. And, um, how long did you spend in 12 Lincoln, Nebraska as a little girl?

13 A Uh, probably year-and-a-half.

14 Q And then off to the state of Washington?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Um, is it Burien? Is -- I'm not sure I'm reading
17 your handwriting correctly on the town. I see
18 Reynold?

19 A Where I went to school.

20 Q Yes.

21 A Burien, um-hmm.

22 Q Burien. Um, is that western Washington or 23 eastern Washington? I don't -- I'm not familiar
24 with Burien.

25 A It's, uh -- it's basically south of Seattle.

1 Q Okay.

2 A Yeah.

3 Q Just south of Tacoma or well south?

4 A No, not south. No. It's -- it's closer to Seattle

5 than Tacoma.

6 Q Oh, okay.

7 A Yeah. It's not --

8 Q So it's --

9 A -- even halfway.

10 Q -- it's in the metropolitan area?

11 A Yes.

12 Q Okay. Um, and did you, um -- did you move -- two

13 years ago, did you move directly to Manitowoc

14 with your son from western Washington?

15 A No. Um, my husband had passed away about 12 years

16 ago --

17 Q Um-hmm.

18 A -- but, um, I had a big house that I got rid of, got

19 rid of my business, and, um, he said, my -- my son

20 was living in Appleton at the time, and --

21 Q Oh.

22 A -- he said, well, why don't you try Wisconsin? So I

23 said, well, I'd try a couple of winters here, because

24 they are different than the winters I think I was 25 used to.

1 Q Um-hmm.

2 A And, um, I think they were rather mild winters. So
3 that's -- basically, I've been in the state for four 4 years, but --

5 Q Okay. Um, you, um, paused a little bit and 6 confessed some hesitation, um, a few moments ago
7 and said that that was about media coverage. I
8 want to hear a little bit more about your
9 hesitation with respect to media coverage.

10 A Well, since I get almost all of my information from,
11 basically, television, I, uh -- I don't know, I guess
12 maybe I view it all as being edited to pull your 13 chain. Um --

14 Q Okay. Um --

15 A I know the programming is. That's the way I feel,
16 but I think sometimes the news is that way also.

17 Q Well, they're in a business?

18 A Right.

19 Q Right? I mean, it's -- most of the media are for 20 profit; right?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Um, was -- was the community newspaper that you,
23 you know, ran, published, edited, was that, um, a
24 for profit -- profit thing or was -- was that a
25 not for profit?

1 A It was a for profit run by a non-profit organization.

2 Q Was it part of a little chain of community
3 newspapers?

4 A No. No.

5 Q Independent?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Um, let's -- let's get into some stuff that, in 8 general, concerns the -- the relationship of the 9 government to the citizen, okay? A little bit?
10 Um, you'll be told, I think, by the Judge that 11 the lawyers at that table over there representing
12 the state of Wisconsin bear the burden of proof
13 in this case. Um, and that the lawyers at this
14 table, or Mr. Avery for that matter, do not bear
15 any burden of proof. Is that a system within 16 which you can function well? Rules you can 17 accept?

18 A I think I probably can, yes. I -- I have not had any 19 experience before with --

20 Q On a jury?

21 A On a jury, right.

22 Q Right. Um, but this is -- this is a -- a
23 criminal accusation rather than a civil
24 accusation, so in civil case each side may have a
25 burden of proof on this point or that point.

1 Here, only the State has the burden of proof the
2 Judge will tell you. And it's a very high
3 burden. Uh, it's proof beyond a reasonable
4 doubt.

5 Um, is there anything about that scheme,
6 if you will, that set of legal rules -- I don't 7 mean anything bad by scheme -- but that set of 8 legal rules, um, that you could not work with
9 him?

10 A I don't believe so.

11 Q Um, we may take an active role in the case.
12 We're -- we're entitled to do that, and I expect
13 that Mr. Buting and I won't sit like bumps on a
14 log, but, um, can you promise today that you
15 would not hold us to proving Steven Avery's
16 innocence?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Rather, you would hold them to proving his guilt?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Um, if we offer testimony or exhibits, um, will
21 you consider the defense offerings just the same
22 as you would consider the State offerings?

23 A Yes, I would.

24 Q One of the toughest questions in offering
25 evidence or not for the people at this table is

1 whether Mr. Avery should testify in his own
2 defense. Um, are you familiar with the rule in 3 America that a defendant has a privilege not to 4 testify in his trial if he chooses?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Um, are you also aware under American law and our
7 constitution that the defendant has an absolute
8 right to testify in his own defense if he 9 chooses?

10 A I would assume that, yes.

11 Q If Mr. Avery, in the end, testified, um, would 12 you be able to treat him just like any other
13 witness in deciding whether you believe him?

14 A I think I could, yes.

15 Q And if -- if the decision at this table was that 16 he was not going to testify, um, would you want
17 to know why?

18 A Possibly.

19 Q I -- I'm going to confess that was a bit of a 20 trick question, because you won't learn why, and,
21 uh, if he makes that decision, you'll actually be 22 told, I think, by the Judge, that you simply 23 cannot consider, um, the fact that the defendant
24 did not testify in deciding whether the State
25 proved him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

1 Um, but I -- it was a trick question. I
2 don't mean to be tricking you. Do you -- can you
3 understand why there might be a number of reasons
4 that someone who says he's innocent, nevertheless
5 does not take the witness stand and testify in 6 his own defense?

7 A Yes, I think so.

8 Q Um, I -- you mentioned some of them, I think,
9 that may be worried about being tripped up by 10 lawyers on the other side? That -- that may be 11 one reason?

12 A I don't know that that crossed my mind.

13 Q What does cross your mind?

14 A Well, basically, I guess the only case that I've ever
15 paid any attention to was the O. J. Simpson case.

16 Q Um-hmm.

17 A And whether that was also edited for the public, I
18 don't know.

19 Q And how do you link that up to a defendant not 20 testifying? As I recall, Mr. Simpson did not
21 testify --

22 A He did not. Right.

23 Q -- in that case, and what -- what connection are 24 you drawing there?

25 A Um, only that that's my only, I guess, frame of

1 reference --

2 Q Um-hmm.

3 A -- um, as to why a -- a defendant would or would not
4 choose to testify.

5 Q Well, and in the end, because there are so many 6 reasons that may go into it, some of them having 7 to do more with the defense lawyers than -- than 8 the accused himself, in -- because there are so
9 many reasons, you'll simply be told you -- you
10 can't speculate about that or even consider, um,
11 the fact that a defendant did not testify if 12 that's the choice in the end. Um, and I just 13 need to know whether you can follow that rule if 14 the Court instructs you that way?

15 A I think I could, yes.

16 Q You come here, um, without any opinion at all,
17 which is about guilt or innocence, which is what 18 a potential juror should be, um, saying sitting
19 today in your chair, um, and I -- I simply need a
20 commitment from you, if you -- if you can offer
21 it to me, that when the Judge instructs you that 22 the presumption of innocence stays with 23 Mr. Avery, not just today but through the entire 24 trial, right up to the time the jury begins to 25 deliberate its verdict at the very end of the

1 case, that presumption of innocence never
2 waivers, never changes, until you begin your
3 deliberations, and then you decide guilt or 4 innocence. Is that an instruction you can
5 follow?

6 A Yes, I can.

7 Q Some of the agents of the State, um, who may
8 testify -- uh, will testify, I'm sure, are law
9 enforcement officers from a variety of agencies.
10 You'll see law enforcement officers testifying
11 here. You've already answered in your 12 questionnaire that you could follow an 13 instruction that you would consider their 14 testimony just like the testimony of any other 15 witness who may be from any other calling or 16 vocation under the sun.

17 Um, and I'm -- I'm going to explore that 18 a little bit. Do you -- do you accept that under 19 the right circumstances a law enforcement
20 officer, just like anyone else, might violate the 21 oath and testify to something untruthful even 22 though sworn to tell the truth?

23 A Yes.

24 Q You don't think law enforcement officers have any 25 special proclivity to tell the truth under oath

1 or, for that matter, to lie under oath, do you?

2 A Uh, no.

3 Q Uh, you accept that they're human just like
4 everyone else who would take the witness stand?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Um, have you had any experience where you thought
7 a law enforcement officer was not honest?
8 Whether you've seen it on CNN or experienced it
9 in your personal life?

10 A No, I have no personal experience with it.

11 Q But you're open to considering their motives to 12 testify truthfully or falsely, um, their
13 potential biases or prejudices, their weaknesses
14 of recollection, just like anyone else's?

15 A Like anyone else's.

16 Q You're relatively new to -- to this area, and,
17 actually, just four years in Wisconsin. Have you
18 picked up anything along the way about
19 Mr. Avery's more distant past conviction in 1985,
20 um, that later, uh, was overturned when DNA
21 established that another man actually committed
22 the crime, not Mr. Avery?

23 A I -- I heard that story, yes.

24 Q Okay. Where did you pick that up?

25 A Uh, basically from television.

1 Q Okay. Um, do you -- do you have any questions
2 about that? Any -- any lingering doubt that
3 maybe Mr. Avery was guilty, or any belief that
4 because he wasn't guilty, he was really innocent,
5 that that somehow affects how you would look at
6 this case?

7 A No. I didn't have any other feelings on it either
8 way.

9 Q Well, did you hear about the lawsuit that 10 followed his exoneration and release?

11 A Yes.

12 Q What -- what were your opinions about that
13 lawsuit as a Manitowoc County taxpayer?

14 A Um, I think at the time I hadn't been in the state
15 for very long and, um, I don't know that I gave that 16 a whole bit of consideration either.

17 Q One -- one way or the other?

18 A Right.

19 Q Okay. I think that's all I have for you. Thank
20 you.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon?

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes. I have one
23 question for the juror.

24 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

25 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

1 Q Um, I'm just curious about your reference to the 2 O. J. Simpson case. Does that have any impact on 3 you as you sit and possibly end up as a juror in
4 this case?

5 A I don't think so. No, I haven't.

6 Q I mean, do you have any opinion about that case
7 or anything that might, uh, affect your
8 deliberations here?

9 A Other than I'm probably one of the few that still 10 thinks that he might be innocent.

11 Q Okay. All right. Um, in terms of evaluating
12 this particular, um, case here, you would decide
13 this case, though, solely on what the information
14 is that we present?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. Thanks.

17 THE COURT: All right. The, uh, clerk will
18 now escort you from the courtroom.

19 (Wherein juror is escorted out)

20 THE COURT: Counsel, any motion from
21 either party?

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: None from the State.

23 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, Your Honor. Thank
24 you.

25 THE COURT: Very well. Uh, Ms. Salomon

1 will be, uh, in the jury panel. We'll take our, uh,
2 lunch break at this time. Uh, how about 12:45
3 report back?

4 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's fine. Thank
5 you, Judge.

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: Uh, Judge, did you
7 check on those two jurors? The, uh -- I think it
8 was 75 and 77? I had 75 already excused and --

9 THE COURT: Seventy-five was excused by the 10 Court. There was an illness question, actually. I 11 don't think that juror even completed the
12 questionnaire.

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: Okay. Right.

14 THE COURT: Um, seventy-seven, my, um, uh,
15 court reporter informs me that she could find
16 nothing in her notes except a mention late yesterday
17 about the fact that there was a question but nothing
18 to show that, uh --

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: All right. I thought
20 that was included in one of our previous 21 discussions. Thanks.

22 (Recess had at 11:58 a.m.)

23 (Reconvened at 12:48 p.m.)

24 THE COURT: At this time we'll go back on 25 the record. Um, Mr. Strang, I believe there was a

1 matter you wished to bring up before we call the 2 first juror?

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes, thank you. I
4 received a letter by hand-delivery this morning
5 from the Manitowoc County District Attorney
6 who's, uh, named on the defense witness list, and 7 I think the, um, sensible thing to do here is 8 just to excuse him altogether from the 9 sequestration order.

10 I -- I don't think there's any realistic
11 concern that the order would be necessary in his 12 instance, so I suggest we simply exempt him from
13 it.

14 THE COURT: Any objection from anyone?

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: No.

16 ATTORNEY STRANG: No. Thank you.

17 ATTORNEY FALLON: No objection.

18 THE COURT: All right. The Court will, uh,
19 grant that request and excuse the district --
20 Manitowoc County District Attorney from the 21 exclusion order for witnesses in this case.

22 Um, Counsel, I was going to call the,
23 uh -- one of the next jurors out of order.
24 There's a Mr. -- I'm not sure how he pronounces
25 his name. It's No. 87, David Guckeisen or

1 Guckeisen. He's the only juror who's been
2 waiting around since this morning.

3 ATTORNEY KRATZ: All right.

4 THE COURT: Um, I'll give you a couple
5 minutes to, uh, take a look at his questionnaire
6 before we call him in.

7 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Thank you.

8 THE COURT: Please raise your right hand,
9 sir.

10 (Juror sworn)

11 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

12 THE COURT: And it's Mr. Guckeisen; is
13 that correct?

14 JUROR GUCKEISEN: That's correct, Your
15 Honor.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Guckeisen, you've
17 already filled out a written questionnaire in 18 this case. Today we're moving on to the next
19 phase of jury selection which is, uh, individual
20 voir dire. Each of the attorneys, uh, will have 21 an opportunity to ask you some, uh, questions,
22 relating to your qualifications as a juror. In 23 most cases, the questions will be follow-ups to 24 information you provided in your written
25 questionnaire.

1 Before we get to that, uh, part of the
2 proceedings, I can tell you that the jurors in 3 this case who are selected will not be
4 sequestered. That is, they will be able to 5 return, uh, home each day after the court
6 proceedings for that day.

7 Uh, and that although the proceedings,
8 uh, today in court are open to the public, the
9 Court does not permit cameras in the courtroom
10 during voir dire proceedings.

11 Uh, in addition, the media is not
12 allowed to disclose the names of the jurors in 13 reports of these proceedings.

14 Finally, if you are selected to serve as 15 a juror, the cameras that cover the trial will 16 not be able to, uh, show the jurors in any way
17 that allows identification of who they are.

18 Uh, I can tell you that if you remain
19 eligible as a juror after the questioning today,
20 uh, you'll get another telephone call from the
21 Clerk's Office probably later today letting you
22 know when to report back to court.

23 Mr. Fallon, are you going to handle this
24 one?

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Very well.

2 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

3 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

4 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Guckeisen.

5 A Good afternoon.

6 Q Um, my name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant
7 Attorney General with the Wisconsin Department of
8 Justice, and I'm one of the special prosecutors
9 in this case. Uh, to my immediate left is
10 Mr. Ken Kratz, the Calumet County District
11 Attorney and lead prosecutor. Um, thanks for,
12 uh, coming back this afternoon.

13 I wanted to ask you a few questions
14 about some of the information you provided in 15 your questionnaire last week, and, uh, if I may,
16 like to begin with, uh, a little bit about your,
17 um, employment history.

18 I see that you're, um -- I take it
19 you're currently working at, um, KMC Stamping and 20 Laser Form?

21 A Correct.

22 Q All right. What kind of business is that?

23 A It's a metal stamping-type business. Um, mostly 24 metals. Uh, parts for cars, tractors, trucks.

25 Q And what position do you hold with them?

1 A I am the CAD-CAM programmer. That's Computer-aided
2 Design, Computer-aided Manufacturing.

3 Q So what does it do?

4 A Actually, what I do is I'll take a formed up object
5 and metal and lay it out in the flat and then program
6 one of the three laser machines to cut it out.

7 Q I see. And how long have you been doing that
8 work, sir?

9 A Since 19 -- around 1978.

10 Q Okay. So quite sometime, 26, 7, 8 years?

11 A Approximately, right.

12 Q And that's in, um, Port Washington, Wisconsin?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q So you've got a little bit of a commute, do you?

15 A Yeah. Forty-four miles one way, every day.

16 Q Every day. And how many days a week? Five?

17 A Five. Sometimes six, but usually it's five.

18 Q Okay. And, uh, you've previously worked at a
19 location in, uh, Mequon?

20 A Um-hmm.

21 Q And, uh, what did you do for -- is it, uh,
22 Biersach and Neidermeyer?

23 A Right. It was the same thing.

24 Q Oh, same kind of work?

25 A Same kind of work, correct.

1 Q And, uh, I see, also, you did, uh, some work for
2 the, uh, Kiel Police Department?

3 A Right. Um-hmm.

4 Q And what kind of work is that, sir?

5 A I was there for approximately 11 years. That was,
6 uh, approximately seven years part-time, four years
7 full time.

8 Q Uh, seven full and four part? Or did I have that 9 the other way around? Seven part --

10 A Seven part-time and four full time.

11 Q Okay. And what did you do for them?

12 A I was a police officer.

13 Q Okay.

14 A And --

15 Q You were.

16 A The seven years part-time was reserve police, and 17 then part-time police officer.

18 Q All right. Now, what kind of duty did you have,
19 uh, when you were at the Kiel, uh, Department?

20 A Uh, just your normal patrolman-type of duty.
21 Checking doors, uh, making arrests, uh, speeding, you
22 know, domestics, which -- whatever came up, that's 23 what we would do.

24 Q All right. Now, I see, also, from your, um,
25 questionnaire you have some, uh, experience as a

1 fingerprint technician?

2 A Yes. That's when I was on the force.

3 Q Oh, you were.

4 A Um-hmm.

5 Q Okay. Well, tell us about that.

6 A I came down and had classes, uh, down in the 7 basement, across the street I believe it was, and to 8 learn how to categorize and to take fingerprints --
9 fingerprints the proper way, cat -- classify them,
10 and then make out the documents to send them in for,
11 you know, registration or classification.

12 And then try to, uh, take a fingerprint
13 and check on the parts we -- or the prints we had 14 at the time to see if there was any type of 15 matches with the certain criteria that was, uh --
16 at that time. Now they don't do that much
17 anymore but --

18 Q Okay.

19 A -- you know, when you did it physically --

20 Q Right.

21 A -- one at a time, and -- and try to find out --

22 Q Right. And are you referring to today the -- lot
23 of it is automated; is that --

24 A Right. Yeah. Today most of it is auto -- automated
25 with the checking to find out, you know, rather than

1 five or six different, uh, cards, now they just kind
2 of go through the database and find any matches and
3 then work that way.

4 Q All right. And then you start and check that 5 from there?

6 A Right.

7 Q Okay. Now, when you were with the Kiel
8 Department, was there anyone else on the 9 Department who, uh, shared those duties or were 10 you, uh, the fingerprint guy?

11 A Um, actually there was another which would be, um,
12 Rick Sloan. He was the chief at -- a few years back
13 and he did some fingerprinting, too. But, usually,
14 because of my shift being, uh, three to eleven in the 15 afternoon, evening, that's when the fingerprinting
16 was done for people that were going to go, like, uh,
17 for, serv -- uh, into, uh, service, or people that 18 were coming to be nationalized and go through their 19 procedures to become a American citizen, we'd have to 20 fingerprint them.

21 Q Sure.

22 A Children, so that in case they got lost we could find
23 them again.

24 Q Okay. Um, I take it from your history, then,
25 that you did that work, uh, or were doing that

1 job the same time you were doing your metal
2 stamping work?

3 A No, that --

4 Q No?

5 A -- was prior to metal --

6 Q Oh, that was prior to --

7 A Prior to metal --

8 Q I see.

9 A -- stamping. Correct.

10 Q So your, uh, uh, law enforcement experience, uh,
11 preceded your experience in the metal stamping
12 business?

13 A That's correct. Um-hmm.

14 Q So it's been, then, 28 years or so since you were 15 in law enforcement?

16 A Yeah, just about. Um-hmm. Approximately.

17 Q Uh, as a fingerprint analyst, did you have 18 occasion to go to crime scenes and -- and attempt
19 to lift prints from scenes?

20 A Yes. In fact, uh, there was a couple. One I recall
21 was a, um, car theft.

22 Q Okay.

23 A And we lifted the prints. Eventually going through 24 and sending them into the state of Wisconsin, the 25 crime lab for the FBI, we did find out whose they

1 were because they weren't on any records we had, of 2 course.

3 Q Right. Right. Uh, did you, uh, have occasion to 4 work any homicides, uh, for use with 5 fingerprinting?

6 A No. No.

7 Q Okay.

8 A Nothing in that. We've had, you know, dead
9 body-types things, or expired people calls, but this 10 was no homicides. These were natural deaths on all 11 of them.

12 Q I see. All right. Now, as a result of having 13 worked in law enforcement, I would imagine you
14 have, uh, some friends who are still in law
15 enforcement?

16 A Right. That's --

17 Q And --

18 A -- correct.

19 Q And --

20 A They are actually retired.

21 Q They are all retired?

22 A They're all retired, right.

23 Q However, I note from the questionnaire that you
24 are at least familiar with Investigator, uh,
25 Dedering?

1 A I'm not sure. That's why I circled it. What would
2 his first name be? Because I do know one. And I
3 don't know --

4 Q This is a John.

5 A -- if it's the right one. John?

6 Q This is a John Dederling, Calumet County?

7 A Yes, I would know who he was, but that's 20, 30 years
8 ago.

9 Q So you can't say that you're like close friends
10 or --

11 A No.

12 Q -- acquaintances --

13 A No.

14 Q You just recog --

15 A Not at all. No.

16 Q You just recognize the name?

17 A I just recognize the name. That's why.

18 Q All right. Who else, um, do you, um -- well, who 19 would you consider a close friend or a close
20 acquaintance, um, that is in law enforcement now
21 or has retired from law enforcement?

22 A I would say, uh, a retired detective from Manitowoc
23 County, which would be Larry Conrad, and, also, uh,
24 retired chief of police of the city of Manitowoc. I
25 mean, we get together couple times a year, but that's

1 not where once a week we're together or, you know, we
2 talk once a week. It's three or four times a year.
3 Basically, it's going to car swap meets. That's
4 about it.

5 Q All right. And what would, uh, that person --
6 the retired, uh, chief's name be?

7 A Rich Brey. Rich Brey.

8 Q All right.

9 A B-r-e-y.

10 Q Oh.

11 A Richard.

12 Q Thank you.

13 A Okay.

14 Q All right. Now, um, as you might -- as you might 15 imagine, there's, uh, going to be a -- a fair
16 amount of, um, law enforcement testimony
17 associated with a case like this.

18 A Um-hmm.

19 Q And, uh, the question that we all have in our 20 minds, uh, is that since you were a former law
21 enforcement officer, uh, do you think that you
22 could evaluate the testimony of a law enforcement
23 officer the same as you would any other witness
24 in determining whether they were telling the 25 truth or not?

1 A Yeah. That's the way I was brought up. I -- I would
2 have to answer yes to that.

3 Q All right. So you wouldn't give them any more
4 slack or any less slack than you would any other
5 witness in evaluating their credibility?

6 A No, I don't believe so.

7 Q All right. Now, I did want to touch base with 8 one, um, health-related issue, uh, just in case
9 you were, uh, selected as a juror. You mention
10 you -- uh, you have, um, some high blood pressure
11 which is, uh, treated by medication?

12 A Um-hmm.

13 Q Um --

14 A Exactly.

15 Q Okay. Uh, is that more or less under control
16 such --

17 A Oh, yes. Yes. It actually isn't really that high,
18 but they thought just as, you know, kind of a
19 preventive-type thing I take the medication, so --

20 Q And otherwise then your health is good?

21 A Correct.

22 Q Okay. Now, uh, I'm sure you recognize from 23 reading the last, uh, uh, question, uh, that, um,
24 this trial may very well go for, um, six weeks or 25 so. And I believe the Court has already answered

1 one primary question of yours, and that is the --
2 whether the jury would be sequestered?

3 A Correct. Yes.

4 Q Well, since -- assuming that the jurors are able
5 to follow the Judge's instructions that's not
6 likely to happen, um, is there any other reason
7 why you think you might not be able to serve as a
8 juror if you were selected?

9 A No, absolutely not.

10 Q All right. Um, the other -- or area of, uh,
11 two -- two other incidental questions, uh,
12 considering your law enforcement experience and
13 that you work with computers and in the stamping
14 business, would you consider yourself a -- a
15 detail-oriented person or more of a big picture
16 guy when it comes to forming opinions or solving
17 problems or the like?

18 A Probably more of a detail-type person.

19 Q Okay. Um, and, uh, you hate working on puzzles
20 or is that all right?

21 A I work on puzzles every day, I guess, so, yeah, I do
22 like it.

23 Q Okay. Um, very good. Let's talk a little bit
24 about, um, publicity, uh, with this, uh, case.
25 It looks like you get most of your news, uh, from

1 the television?

2 A Actually -- Excuse me. Actually, I very rarely watch
3 news.

4 Q Okay. Um, have you been following the events of 5 this case very much at all?

6 A Uh, when it first started, you know, when everything
7 came about, then I watched it, but, like I say, I
8 very seldom watch any news or anything. With working
9 full-time, and then I have two part-time, uh, uh, you
10 could say jobs, or whatever, and, uh, businesses, you
11 might say, so I very seldom get the chance to watch
12 news, so I haven't been watching anything in a long
13 time now.

14 Q All right. Um, did you recently receive a letter
15 from the Court about three weeks ago advising you
16 that there was a possibility you could be a juror
17 in this case and asking that you refrain from 18 watching or reading about any of the coverage of 19 this case?

20 A Yes, I did.

21 Q All right. And were you able to abide by that
22 request?

23 A Yes, I was. Uh-huh.

24 Q All right. All right. Um, so based on the 25 information that you had early on, you know,

1 going back a year or so ago, have you formed any
2 opinions about whether Mr. Avery is guilty or 3 innocent of the charge for which he's been, um --

4 A Actually, I have not.

5 Q No opinion?

6 A Because I didn't see both sides of the question or 7 the other side of the coin.

8 Q Right.

9 A In other words, like, you only hear one thing, you
10 don't hear both, so --

11 Q All right. So you're saying that there's just 12 not enough information for you based on your 13 little exposure to it to make any opinion list.

14 A Absolutely right. Um-hmm.

15 Q All right. Now, you understand from your
16 previous work, I would imagine, as a law
17 enforcement officer, that Mr. Avery is, uh,
18 presumed innocent unless and until the State can
19 prove him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Now, as law a law enforcement officer, do you
22 accept that proposition?

23 A Yes.

24 Q All right. And, uh, when the Court instructs you
25 on that, that you would follow that instruction?

1 A Yes.

2 Q All right. And you understand, of course, that,
3 uh, as part of that whole process, Mr. Avery
4 doesn't have to present a defense at all?

5 A That's what his Honor told us, uh, when we -- about a
6 week or so ago. He expressed that to us.

7 Q All right.

8 A Um-hmm.

9 Q So you're aware of that and you realize that if 10 they presented no evidence at all, it's 11 entirely -- you'd have to evaluate his guilt or 12 innocence solely on the evidence that Mr. Kratz
13 and I would present to you?

14 A That would be correct.

15 Q All right.

16 A Um-hmm.

17 Q And if we didn't convince you beyond a reasonable
18 doubt, you'd have to find him not guilty even if 19 he didn't say a word?

20 A Yes.

21 Q All right. And do you think --

22 A That's correct.

23 Q Do you think you could do that?

24 A I believe I could.

25 Q All right. That's all I have.

1 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'll pass.

2 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Buting?

3 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

4 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

5 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

6 Q Good afternoon.

7 A Good afternoon.

8 Q My name's Jerome Buting and this is Dean Strang.

9 We're the attorneys defending Steven Avery.

10 A Okay.

11 Q You mentioned that you had two part-time jobs in 12 addition to your job as a, uh, CAD programmer?

13 A Correct. These are actually two part-time
14 businesses. One is, um, auto cleaning and detailing
15 products, and I've just started a part-time locksmith
16 business.

17 Q Okay. And those part-time, uh -- the -- the auto
18 detailing thing, is that something you do in the 19 evenings?

20 A Actually, I don't do the detailing. I sell the 21 products. And it's -- this time of the year you
22 don't sell much of it because of being cold. But in 23 the summer I go to swap meets and sell it there. So
24 usually just products. I don't do the service,
25 actually, myself.

1 Q I see. Are these things like Armor All and --
2 or -- or similar types of products?

3 A It's a similar type, yes.

4 Q Not that name brand though?

5 A Right. Not that name brand.

6 Q And the locksmith, uh, business is something
7 that's, uh, recent?

8 A Right. I been doing it for about three years. But I
9 actually started a business as such just a little 10 over two years ago.

11 Q And how did you learn how to work on locks?

12 A I went to a class at, uh, Fox Valley Tech in 13 Appleton. It was a -- over a week class and we 14 became certified.

15 Q Okay. You have to have some kind of state
16 certification for that or --

17 A No, you don't, actually. And not in this state.

18 Q Okay. And so that's just something you do in the 19 evenings or weekends or --

20 A Correct. That's exactly right.

21 Q Your, uh, groups or organizations that you
22 mentioned in your questionnaire, um, Associated 23 Locksmiths of America? What -- what is that 24 exactly?

25 A That's actually a large group of locksmiths. You

1 belong to that and they give you information. You
2 can buy books or manuals through it. Um, they used
3 to have an online chat line where you could ask
4 questions, but they took care of that, so we can't do
5 that anymore. But it's a lot for information that
6 you might not know or lot of, uh, older locksmiths
7 will put on that you, you know, gain knowledge doing
8 it that way.

9 Q Okay. You also mention Wisconsin Law Enforcement
10 Officers Association? Are you still a member of
11 that?

12 A Yeah. I'm an inactive member. But I've been in that 13 since I was in the, uh, police department in Kiel,
14 which was 1977, around in that area.

15 Q Okay. So do you go -- go to any meetings or 16 anything like that?

17 A No.

18 Q Um, by being inactive, I mean, what -- what do
19 you -- do you get publications mailed to you or 20 what --

21 A Right.

22 Q -- do you do?

23 A We -- we do get a -- a publication, but it's -- they
24 call it "inactive." In other words, they'll send you
25 publications, but you don't go to meetings or

1 anything as such. You know, just -- I give them the
2 money and they send me a, uh -- a magazine once in a
3 while or, uh, you know, some information, but that's 4 about as far as that would go.

5 Q Now, how did you make the transition from being a
6 police officer to a CAD programmer?

7 A I was -- I started off just working with the sheet
8 metal after I had resigned from the Kiel Department,
9 and, uh, at that point everything was done manually,
10 and they started getting more updated technology with 11 computers, and I gradually worked into that. And 12 that's how I started, and -- and just continued on 13 going into this type of work.

14 Q So it wasn't something that -- that you started
15 before you left, uh, the police department? It
16 was --

17 A No.

18 Q -- something after?

19 A No.

20 Q May I ask why you resigned from the police
21 department?

22 A Uh, was a lot of small town politics. That's, uh,
23 what -- I got to the point where, finally, I didn't 24 believe I was doing the people or the citizens of 25 Kiel justice because I couldn't do my job because of

1 these politics that were going on. And I felt that,
2 uh, there was nothing I could do, so I ended up
3 resigning.

4 Q Were there, um, problems that -- that you were
5 having in -- internally in the police department
6 with supervisors or anything of that sort?

7 A Not so much internally but, uh, it had to do with the 8 city government you might say.

9 Q I mean, I don't mean to pry, really. It's --
10 it's, uh -- but I -- I need to know a little bit
11 about your background and how you have -- how you
12 come into the -- the situation you might find
13 yourself.

14 Were -- were they, uh -- I mean,
15 complaints of this -- that they were -- they had 16 against -- about -- about your job performance or 17 something that --

18 A It wasn't so much as a job performance. It was like,
19 uh, nit-picky little things like fuzz on your -- the 20 hammer of your gun. And we had cloth seats in the 21 squad car, so you're bound to get that.

22 But, um, they were to the point where 23 they would walk or ride their bikes at two, three 24 o'clock in the morning, and following me around
25 to see if I was checking doors, of what I was

1 doing, and it just got to the point where, you
2 know, it was more of a harassment-type thing.

3 It wasn't, they could say, well, you're
4 not doing your job, or you're not doing it well
5 enough, but all this other culmination of 6 nit-picky things and --

7 Q Um-hmm.

8 A -- I just --

9 Q Sure.

10 A -- didn't feel that I was serving the community to 11 the best I could.

12 Q And were these, um -- you said city government.

13 Was this like the city Mayor or the --

14 A Mayor and the -- and some of the councilmen.

15 Q Um, and were they harassing just you or others in 16 the department as well?

17 A Actually, it was me, because when I was hired, there
18 were two on the city council that wanted a relation
19 of their's hired at that time, and because he wasn't,
20 that's what started this all off.

21 Q I see.

22 A And it just kept getting worse so --

23 Q Sure. Okay. I understand. You also mentioned,
24 uh, that you knew a Mike Klaeser on the witness
25 list?

1 A What Mike Klaeser would that be? Because I do know a
2 Mike Klaeser, but if it's the right one or wrong one
3 I don't know.

4 Q I believe he's the Calumet, uh, coroner?

5 A No. No. The one I know is, uh -- runs a, uh, bait
6 shop in Kiel. That's Mike Klaeser, so --

7 Q Okay.

8 A Okay.

9 Q Thank you. Well, I don't think we'll be hearing
10 from him. Um, so you have an interest in, uh --
11 in terms of magazines, you seem to have an 12 interest in vehicles; Vintage Trucks, Model T,
13 Tow Times, those --

14 A Um-hmm. I -- I like older cars. I can't afford
15 them, but I like them.

16 Q Ever work on them? Uh, you know, kits or doing
17 mechanical work with engines?

18 A Yeah, on my own vehicles. I've got a -- an '88 Ford
19 Bronco, and that's a show truck, so I do all my own
20 work on that, but --

21 Q Sort of a hobby you like to do? Work on --

22 A When I --

23 Q -- with your hands?

24 A -- get a chance. Right.

25 Q Okay. Now, you said you remember some -- from --

1 well, if -- if -- in terms of your source of
2 knowledge of news, would it be more TV or, um,
3 newspapers, or internet, or what?

4 A Actually, if I do see any news, it's on the internet.
5 But I don't subscribe to a paper, I don't watch much
6 television, except maybe like the history channel, or 7 discovery, or learning. That's because a lot of 8 times I get home too late to be able to watch news
9 anyway, so --

10 Q Sure.

11 A -- it's something that you can get up for the next
12 day going back to work, so --

13 Q So when you say, "internet," what kind of sites
14 are -- do you get your news from on the internet?

15 A Actually, it would be like from the Manitowoc Herald
16 Times and --

17 Q Okay.

18 A -- Sheboygan Press. Just kind of local news.

19 Q Okay. So you do get some local news. It's just 20 through the -- the internet instead of --

21 A Right. And it's very, very seldom, unless there's 22 something that I really wanted to see or find out
23 about. But --

24 Q You remember when this case first arose, though,
25 is that what you said?

1 A Yeah.

2 Q You do recall?

3 A Yes. Last year sometime. I couldn't tell you when,
4 but --

5 Q And what do -- what do you recall about it?

6 A The only thing that I can recall about it was that 7 there was a lady that was missing, and that there was 8 being search -- or she was being searched for, and 9 that who was possibly being accused of this, and 10 where it was, which I have no idea where that was 11 taken place but -- and that's about as far as it
12 went, you know.

13 Q Do you recall seeing any news conferences or 14 seg -- excerpts from news conferences with 15 Mr. Kratz or Sheriff Pagel?

16 A No, I don't recall ever seeing that.

17 Q Does the name Brendan Dassey mean anything to
18 you?

19 A No, sir.

20 Q Um, do you know -- remember hearing anything
21 about the nephew of Mr. Avery?

22 A I've heard about a nephew, but I couldn't say what 23 the name was.

24 Q Well, can you tell me what you heard about that
25 nephew?

1 A Um, that he might have had something to do with it.
2 That's what I saw on the news and that's as far as it
3 went.

4 Q Okay. So you recall something about, um, uh,
5 statements that he may have made initially
6 admitting involvement?

7 A That's the only thing I do remember.

8 Q Any of the details of that story that he first 9 told?

10 A Not really. No, sir.

11 Q And did -- did you also learn about his later
12 recantations of that confession?

13 A No, sir, I did not.

14 Q Okay. Um, have you heard anything about a blood
15 vial involved in this case, potentially?

16 A No, sir, I have not.

17 Q Have you talked to any -- I'm sorry. Are you,
18 uh -- you're single? Okay. Um, do you have a
19 significant other that you confide in and talk
20 to --

21 A No, sir.

22 Q -- those things? Have you talked to other people
23 in the community about this case at all? Heard
24 their opinions?

25 A That would have been months ago. Lately, not. I --

1 I -- since we got the, uh, letter from the Judge, I
2 try to stay out of any conversations or anything like
3 that. If they start, I just tell them I ain't going
4 to talk about it as such, and that's --

5 Q Sure.

6 A -- about it.

7 Q Well, that's good. I appreciate that. But
8 months ago, when you would talk to people,
9 what -- what sort of opinions were you hearing?
10 That he was -- Mr. Avery was probably guilty? Or 11 that he was probably being framed? Or what were 12 you hearing?

13 A Actually, just about what you were saying. It's 14 both. That he was being framed; no, he was guilty;
15 um, no, he wasn't guilty. And this was personal
16 opinions from people. I have no idea, you know,
17 where they were basing them off of. I would assume 18 TV and rad -- and radio, or whatever, but, you know,
19 I have no clue where they were getting their
20 information.

21 Q And did you ever -- I mean, did you have any
22 leaning either way yourself when you would hear
23 and talk to these people?

24 A Not actually, because I don't watch that much about 25 it, and I didn't at the time either, so I really

1 wasn't up on it to say, yeah, okay, he was, or he is
2 guilty, or, no, he's not guilty, he's being framed,
3 and why he's being framed, I would have no clue,
4 so --

5 Q Okay. Do you know anything about his background?

6 A The only thing that I know about a background is 7 possibly because he have a junk dealership or junk
8 yard. That's about it.

9 Q Well, do you that -- do you know anything about 10 the wrongful conviction that he had? He was 11 in -- where he was in prison and there was, um --
12 exonerated when -- by DNA that matched somebody
13 else for the real crime?

14 A That I heard about.

15 Q You did hear about that?

16 A But I just heard, you know, bits and pieces that 17 that's what had happened, but that's as far as it --
18 it went with that, too.

19 Q And what do you think about that?

20 A It's hard to say. If that's the truth, okay, then.
21 But I haven't heard both sides of that story either.
22 And I kind of am one of these detail-type people.
23 Unless you tell me both sides, I can't make an 24 opinion on it.

25 Q So do you -- so you're not -- you're not sure, in

1 fact, whether he was actually innocent even of 2 that case?

3 A I don't know, because I don't know the circumstances.
4 Like you were saying, um, he was exonerated because
5 of something. Well, that's all I know about it. I
6 don't know what it was or what it -- you know, what 7 it entailed. That's just the part that you had 8 mentioned.

9 Q Do you also recall anything about a lawsuit that 10 was filed after that?

11 A No, sir.

12 Q You, uh -- just a few more things here. You --
13 you mentioned, uh, court TV, and then you put,
14 parentheses, "Cops." What -- what does that
15 mean?

16 A That's a show that they show once in a while on court
17 TV, uh --

18 Q Oh, I see.

19 A -- called Cops and --

20 Q So, you don't -- you watch that particular show.
21 Do you watch trials or any segments of trials?

22 A No. The only thing that -- and -- and I put it on 23 there, but I can't think the exact name of it. It's 24 got something to do with 48 Hours, where it's 25 homicide, and then they go out and they think they

1 got the party. It's supposed to be a live-type
2 thing. Lot of times you get the wrong person because 3 of what you're expect -- expecting or suspecting, and
4 when it -- the real stuff comes out, then they wind
5 up that that's not the person anyway. But I get to 6 watch those maybe once, twice a month or so.

7 Q You mentioned that, uh -- actually, as I look at 8 the question, maybe it wasn't the best phrase.
9 It asks whether you've had any good or bad
10 experiences with Manitowoc County Sheriff's 11 Department. You checked, yes. But then your 12 answer -- I can't tell whether that's good or bad
13 experiences?

14 A Oh, it was good experiences, because at that time I
15 was, um, in law enforcement. So we would bring 16 people over to the -- the facility across the street,
17 or we'd have to come over here for court. But that 18 was only when I was on the police department. Other
19 than that, I've never had any bad experiences with 20 any law enforcement agency.

21 Q Either while you were a -- an officer or, uh --
22 either within your own department, or your
23 experience maybe with others, that -- have you
24 ever encountered a situation where police
25 officers maybe shade the truth a little bit?

1 A I hate to say this, but, yes, I did at one point.

2 Q To -- now, I'm not going to ask you to name any
3 names or anything of that sort, but did it
4 involve, uh, actually coming into court and
5 testifying under oath?

6 A It never got that far.

7 Q Okay.

8 A It never came to court.

9 Q Did it involve changing reports or something of 10 that nature, or monkeying around with the 11 evidence, or --

12 A Doctoring the report a little bit as to times.

13 Q Okay. And, uh, did anybody ever find out about
14 it?

15 A Uh, if I'm not mistaken, the police chief did find
16 out about it.

17 Q Okay. Now, would you be able to listen to police
18 officers testifying here and, uh, consider the 19 possibility that maybe something like that or 20 worse happened in this case?

21 A It's possible. You know, it, uh -- everybody's
22 human, and, you know, everybody can make a mistake
23 now and then or, you know, change their opinion of 24 something. So I can't say, you know, for certain
25 that because a law enforcement officer walked up here

1 right now and said, this is what happened, that
2 that's a hundred percent true.

3 Q But, realistically, uh, if you -- if you search
4 your heart of hearts, you know, as a former 5 police officer still involved with the
6 association and having that affinity to them, do
7 you really think that you would maybe be a little 8 bit partial towards officers coming in and 9 testifying?

10 A I'm sure, somewhat, you know, being human as I am, I
11 somewhat have that, but you have to listen to the 12 evidence and weigh that evidence of what is going on 13 at the particular time.

14 Q So it would be hard for you to, uh, consider the 15 possibility that -- that one or more officers in 16 this case may have even planted evidence?
17 Something that serious?

18 A I'd hate to think so, but, um, it could be possible.
19 Anything's possible nowadays.

20 Q And you'd be able to consider that?

21 A If it came to it, yes.

22 Q Would you --

23 A Or there was evidence as such.

24 Q Okay. And would you require that Mr., uh --
25 Mr. Avery actually prove that to you in order to

1 find him not guilty?

2 A I'd have to go with what, uh, the evidence did show.
3 If there was evidence that what this officer said was
4 true, then I would have to worry about somebody
5 saying, no, it isn't true, and explaining it to me
6 why it isn't. In other words, the two sides of that
7 story.

8 Q Well, if you, um -- if you heard evidence that --
9 that gave you a, um, sus -- reasonable doubt,
10 real concerns, maybe some suspicions that,
11 perhaps, this was done, but not conclusive
12 videotape evidence proving that this -- some
13 evidence was planted in this case, would you --
14 would you consider that as part of the overall
15 evaluation of the evidence of whether or not 16 there's reasonable doubt?

17 A Oh, certainly. Certainly, I would.

18 Q Or would you require that Mr. Avery actually 19 prove that conclusively to you before you could 20 even consider it?

21 A Excuse me. If I had doubts about something that I
22 heard, I would not have to have him prove otherwise.
23 I would, uh, weigh that with the rest of the 24 testimony that would come out and work it from there.

25 In other words, um, it would be maybe he

1 can't prove that it's wrong, but maybe I have a
2 real good suspicion it is. And then I would have
3 to weigh that with the rest of the things that
4 are being said and shown, etc.

5 Q Okay. And, uh, you mentioned last week his Honor
6 told you that you, um -- that Mr. Avery has a --
7 a right not to even testify or present any
8 defense at all; right?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q Is that a new concept for you?

11 A I don't think it is. I'd heard of it before. I've 12 never been involved in it, of course. But I've heard
13 of it.

14 Q Well, you mentioned that you'd -- you're -- you'd 15 like to hear both sides. Several times you've 16 said that in -- in other contexts. So you're the 17 kind of person who likes to hear both sides
18 before you decide something?

19 A I would like to, but if there is an overwhelming
20 doubt in my mind to where I could not say guilty or 21 innocent right there and then, I could make a
22 judgment then at that point, and then there would not
23 be a reasonable doubt to convict Mr. Avery.

24 Q Then there would not be or --

25 A There would be a reasonable doubt not to convict him.

1 That's what I was trying to say.

2 Q Okay.

3 A Not to convict.

4 Q And would you hold those two lawyers over there
5 to the entire burden of proof? Make them prove 6 Mr. Avery guilty beyond a reasonable doubt and 7 not require Mr. Avery to do anything?

8 A Well, as far as the Judge had mentioned, I guess
9 that's what is supposed to happen. We have to prove 10 him -- or I shouldn't say myself. But he has to be 11 proven to be guilty as he's assumed innocent right
12 now.

13 Q I understand the Judge is going to instruct you
14 of that. What I just want to understand is can 15 you -- I mean, for some people that's hard. Not 16 everybody is a perfect jury for every case.

17 Some cases are -- you know, you may be a
18 very good juror in one case, but not in another.

19 A Um-hmm.

20 Q And sometimes people come into a case and say --
21 and in their heart of hearts they think, you
22 know, I really just don't think this is right for 23 me. Um, I would have to hear from Mr. Avery
24 first, for instance. Is that something that --
25 that you might worry about or might have concerns

1 about?

2 A That would be hard to say, because I'm not in the 3 situation right now where Mr. Avery is not going to 4 testify or whatever. But, I'd still have to go with 5 the premise that he is innocent until he's actually
6 proven guilty. So if he doesn't want to testify,
7 that's his, uh, choice and his position.

8 Q Well, do you realize that there could be a lot of 9 reasons why someone -- a defendant may not 10 testify? In other words, can you imagine someone 11 to be innocent and still not testify?

12 A I can imagine it could be.

13 Q Okay. And so if the Judge instructs you, you
14 can't consider that if that happens, you have 15 to -- you'll be able to follow that?

16 A Right. Exactly.

17 Q And, on the other hand, if he does testify, and 18 he might, there's a whole lot of things that -- 19 to be decided, would you be able to listen to his 20 testimony just like any other witness?

21 A Sure. Exactly. I would have no problem with that.

22 Q So having thought about all of this, and 23 understanding some of the issues, not a lot of it
24 is -- well, is this really -- is this really a
25 jury you think you can or should sit on?

1 A I believe I should. I believe I really should,
2 because --

3 Q Why?

4 A -- I don't have a bias one way or the other right
5 now. Um, I can't say whether he's guilty or innocent
6 because I don't know anything about the trial as 7 such, or about the accusations, or anything else,
8 being that I don't see very much news, etc., I don't
9 watch it, and, um, so I would be a -- a biased person
10 and have to weigh the evidence on both sides to find
11 out which was which, and whether he would be, in my 12 eyes, guilty or he would be innocent.

13 Q All right. Well, thank you, sir. Appreciate it.

14 THE COURT: All right. Thank you,
15 Mr. Guckeisen. The, uh, clerk will escort you from 16 the courtroom at this time.

17 (Wherein juror is escorted out)

18 THE COURT: Counsel, any motion from either
19 party?

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: None from the State.

21 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, I do have a
22 motion, actually, and it's not to -- to strike
23 this juror, yet, but it's to defer a decision on 24 it, because -- and I -- I -- as I look at the 25 computer-generated random list, um, taking jurors

1 out of order hasn't been a problem to now, but as
2 I look at it now, we're getting close to the end,
3 and it's possible that, um, there may be four
4 other jurors in line that we would end up
5 seating, or should end up seating before this
6 juror.

7 And, in fairness, to make sure that
8 there's completely random and that both sides
9 have a fair opportunity, I think we should go
10 back to that and, uh, if -- you know, if we need
11 to talk to Mr. Defore (phonetic), for instance,
12 out of line, he might -- let's see. I -- I see 13 that there's, um -- he would be the fourth in 14 line anyway, so, you know, we might be able to do
15 that, but, you know, it may very well be that 16 those next four would be seated as proper jurors,
17 in which case we would never get to this one.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon?

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: Um, in -- interesting
20 argument, but we're in the same boat, I guess.
21 If we have a juror who passes, I think we ought
22 to seat them. Um, it -- sure, we have concerns
23 regarding the next, uh, several jurors being 24 called in as well. Uh, in fact, um, I have my 25 doubts as to whether a couple of them will make

1 the grade as it were.

2 Um, if he -- if he, uh, passes, he
3 passes. He should be seated. Um, the fact that 4 he happened to be here early or whatever, is --
5 is fine. Uh, you know, it works both ways as the 6 next several jurors will soon --

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: -- demonstrate here.

9 THE COURT: Well, um, it's probably a
10 reason for, uh, not taking any jurors, after 11 Mr. Guckeisen, on the list from here on out until 12 we've got them. Um, I think there's something to be 13 said for the defense's argument.

14 What I'm going to do at this time is 15 include him, or at least on a contin --
16 conditional basis, include him as a member of the 17 jury given the instruction that he may be called
18 back.

19 Uh, if we somehow do wind up with enough
20 jurors in front of him, uh, then, uh, we'll take 21 the ones in order in front of him.

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you very much.

23 THE COURT: So, next we're -- Uh, yes,
24 we'll take Mr. Defere next. And after that, we go
25 back in order.

1 Uh, before we begin with the
2 questioning, I can tell you that the jury in this
3 case is not going to be sequestered. That means
4 that at the end of the trial each day the jurors
5 will be permitted to go home. Um, we're able to 6 do that because there'll be a continuing
7 obligation on the part of the jurors not to learn
8 anything from the news media about the case.
9 That is, not to, uh, learn anything from radio,
10 television, newspapers, or the internet about the 11 case, and, also, not to discuss -- make sure you
12 don't discuss the case with anyone, including any 13 other members of the jury, until it's time to 14 deliberate at the close of the trial, uh, or 15 any -- anyone else, including members of your 16 family, during the trial.

17 These proceedings are open to the public
18 today, but the Court does not permit cameras in 19 the courtroom during the jury selection process.
20 Uh, in addition, the media is not allowed to 21 disclose the name of the jurors, uh, as we con --
22 conduct this process.

23 And if you are selected for the jury,
24 uh, you should know that during the trial there
25 may be cameras in the courtroom, but they're not

1 permitted to focus on the jurors in any manner
2 that individually identifies them.

3 Uh, if you, uh, remain on the jury
4 panel, you'll receive instructions before you
5 leave today, uh, as to, uh, when you may be 6 called back.

7 Mr. Fallon, are you handling this one
8 for the State?

9 ATTORNEY FALLON: I am.

10 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

11 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

12 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Defere.

13 A Good afternoon.

14 Q My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
15 General with the Wisconsin Department of Justice,
16 uh, and I am one of the prosecutors in this case.
17 To my immediate left is Mr. Ken Kratz, the
18 Calumet County District Attorney and lead special
19 prosecutor in this prosecution.

20 Um, thanks for coming in this afternoon.
21 Uh, we have some, uh, questions to ask, um, of 22 you based on the information you provided in your 23 questionnaire last week, all right?

24 A I understand.

25 Q All right. And if you could speak clearly so our

1 reporter here can take down what you're saying,
2 that would really help us out. Um, I want to
3 begin with, uh, you are currently not employed;
4 is that correct?

5 A Yes. I'm a student at LTC.

6 Q And what are you studying at LTC?

7 A My GED.

8 Q I'm sorry?

9 A My GED.

10 Q Okay. And that's, uh -- just so I'm clear,
11 you're working for your, uh, graduate equivalency
12 degree? Your high school degree?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q All right. How long have you been employed in 15 that capacity? Or, excuse me, going back to 16 school in other words?

17 A Since I've been laid off in late October.

18 Q And --

19 A Using time wisely.

20 Q I'm sorry?

21 A Use the time wisely.

22 Q All right. Where were you laid off from?

23 A Tower Tech.

24 Q Okay. And what did you do for them?

25 A Yard man.

1 Q How long were you employed by them?

2 A Three-and-a-half-months.

3 Q And why were you laid off?

4 A I believe they got slow. They -- they never really
5 gave me an answer. They laid several -- several of 6 us off at the same time.

7 Q Okay. They never gave you an explanation?

8 A No, not really. They left me a voicemail one morning
9 and just said they didn't need us no more.

10 Q Okay. Did you, uh, happen to call in and ask,
11 hey, what's up, or what's going on?

12 A Yes. And most I got from it was slow or nothing
13 really direct.

14 Q Are you collecting any unemployment?

15 A Yes, I am.

16 Q And how long have you been collecting
17 unemployment?

18 A Since, I believe, November 1.

19 Q All right. Uh, and your, uh, wife works I take 20 it?

21 A Yes.

22 Q All right. Now, um, if you were, uh, selected as 23 a juror in this particular case, there's a, uh,
24 good possibility that your service would last for 25 a period of six weeks. Um, would that cause any

1 economic hardship on you and/or your wife, uh,
2 during that time where you're, uh, here, uh --

3 A No, not really.

4 Q All right. You think you'd have adequate funds
5 to, uh, get you through this time frame?

6 A Yes.

7 Q All right. Very good. Prior to working at, um,
8 Tower Tech, where did you -- where were you
9 employed?

10 A Labor Ready.

11 Q And what did you do for them?

12 A That was a temporary service. I worked at Northern 13 Labs for awhile.

14 Q And what did you do in that capacity?

15 A Forklift driver.

16 Q All right. And how long did you work there?

17 A Um, probably about three months until I got hired at 18 Tower Tech.

19 Q All right. And, uh, prior to that, where were 20 you employed?

21 A Um, probably through Labor Ready, couple other
22 temporary services. Um, I couldn't tell you names
23 offhand right now. They bounced me around a little 24 bit.

25 Q All right. Well, tell us about the job that

1 you've held the longest.

2 A Mirro.

3 Q And how long did you work for them?

4 A Little over six years.

5 Q All right. And what did you do for them?

6 A Material handler, forklift driver.

7 Q And, um, how come you are not with that company?

8 A The place shut down and moved to Mexico.

9 Q Okay. All right. So has it been a little tough

10 finding steady work since then?

11 A Yes. Um, for about a year we moved down to Waukesha,

12 and there I went to school for ATS. That's how I

13 ended up back in Manitowoc, but --

14 Q All right.

15 A -- it was my goal. I want a house up here, too.

16 Q Now, uh, I understand you belong to one, uh -- a

17 motorcycle club?

18 A Yes, I do.

19 Q And what's the name of that club?

20 A Immortals --

21 Q All right. And what's --

22 A -- Motorcycle Club.

23 Q I'm sorry?

24 A Immortals Motorcycle Club.

25 Q And what type of club -- club is that?

1 A It's a motorcycle club. Just bunch of guys get
2 together. They ride together. We have charities, a
3 Wal-Mart charity. And just hang out.

4 Q All right. Now, is it, uh -- does it have a good
5 reputation? This motorcycle club?

6 A To be honest, some people have a bad reputation with 7 it, some people are hard workers and have families,
8 or --

9 Q Uh-hmm.

10 A -- upright citizens.

11 Q Uh, do some consider it a -- a gang, for lack of 12 a better term?

13 A I don't.

14 Q Well, I mean, how about others?

15 A I don't think so. We're considered a club.

16 Q All right. Uh, as a club, have you had any, uh,
17 encounters with law enforcement officers?

18 A Um, not me directly. As a club, you know -- club,
19 you know, oriented, but I'm sure there's other
20 members that have been.

21 Q All right. But has, uh, law enforcement had, uh,
22 problems with the club? The organization as
23 itself?

24 A Um, trying to think. Probably before I was in.

25 Q All right. How long have you been a member of 1 this club?

2 A Um, about four years.

3 Q And when did you join?

4 A Was it -- maybe 2001, maybe. I couldn't tell you
5 offhand.

6 Q All right. What were the initiation, uh,
7 responsibilities to gain admittance to the club?

8 A Um, just be around. Be a good member. Help people
9 out. Somebody was moving or something, they call you
10 up, go give them a hand.

11 Q Okay. All right. Now, in terms of your, um,
12 association with this club, uh, have you ever had 13 any direct contact with members of law
14 enforcement?

15 A Not with the club, but I have separately.

16 Q All right. And, in fact, you've had a number
17 of -- of contacts with law enforcement; is that
18 correct?

19 A Yes.

20 Q All right. Um, uh, a number of arrests; is that
21 correct?

22 A Yes.

23 Q All right. Uh, tell us about those, please?

24 A Where do you want me to start?

25 Q Uh, well, the beginning is always a good spot.

1 A I had a problem with drinking for a long time.

2 Q Okay.

3 A I've got several drunk drivings.

4 Q All right.

5 A I got a few disorderly conducts. I couldn't tell you

6 how many.

7 Q Okay. Um, how about a battery complaint?

8 A Yeah, I probably got one of them.

9 Q All right. And, uh, how many drunk drivings do

10 you think you've had?

11 A Three. Not proud of them.

12 Q All right. And how many disorderly conducts?

13 A I probably had a couple.

14 Q All right.

15 A You probably know better than me.

16 Q So you've had a -- a fair amount of contact with 17 the law enforcement system; is that correct?

18 A Yes, I do.

19 Q And when was the last time you were arrested and 20 convicted of an offense, sir?

21 A Um, December, maybe.

22 Q December of --

23 A Sheboygan County. December of this last year.

24 Q All right. December of '06?

25 A Yep.

1 Q All right. And what was that for?

2 A Um, I believe it was battery. It was altercation in 3 a bar.

4 Q Excuse me. Is, um -- is that matter still 5 pending, sir?

6 A No, that's closed.

7 Q It is? All right. Were you convicted of 8 battery?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Are you on probation?

11 A No.

12 Q Uh, what -- what was the penalty?

13 A I believe it was just a fine.

14 Q You believe or it was?

15 A That's all I paid. I was -- I didn't get nothing
16 else out of it.

17 Q I'm sorry?

18 A I didn't get nothing else out of it. It was just a
19 fine.

20 Q All right. So you've had a number of disorderly
21 conducts, at least two batteries, and three OWI
22 convictions?

23 A Yes.

24 Q All right. So, would it be fair to say that you
25 had, um, significant contact with law enforcement

1 officers in your life?

2 A Yes.

3 Q All right. And, uh, you are, uh, just so I'm 4 clear, 34 years of age?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Now, let's talk about your, uh, contact with law
7 enforcement. In those cases were you treated
8 fairly?

9 A Yes.

10 Q All right. You have no problem with the 11 activities of the law enforcement officers?

12 A Nope.

13 Q All right. Let's -- let's take those, uh, OWI,
14 uh, matters. Um, did you plead guilty to those 15 offenses or did you take any of those to trial?

16 A The last one I took to court.

17 Q All right.

18 A To trial.

19 Q All right. And, uh, where was that, sir?

20 A Uh, Manitowoc County.

21 Q All right. And, um, do you know, uh, which 22 branch of court or who your judge was?

23 A I think it was this courtroom.

24 Q All right.

25 A I couldn't tell you which judge it was anymore.

1 Q All right. And, uh, during the course of that,
2 uh, uh, trial, was there testimony from the law
3 enforcement officers?

4 A I believe so. Yes.

5 Q All right. You believe so?

6 A I -- it's been five years, Your Honor. Yes, I
7 believe -- or District Attorney. I'm nervous. Yes,
8 there was testimony.

9 Q All right. And, uh, how many officers testified
10 in that case?

11 A One, two. I couldn't remember. There was a couple.

12 Q All right. Uh, in -- in your own defense, were 13 any witnesses called?

14 A I believe so. I -- I don't remember.

15 Q You don't remember.

16 A I -- I believe so, but I don't remember.

17 Q Did you testify?

18 A I think -- yeah, yeah, I did. I did.

19 Q All right. And, uh, you were convicted?

20 A Yes, I was.

21 Q All right. Did the law enforcement officers tell
22 the truth?

23 A Best of their abilities, yes. Best of their ability,
24 you know, yes.

25 Q All right. And did you tell the truth?

1 A Yes.

2 Q All right. Um, if they were telling the truth
3 and you were telling the truth, both of you can't 4 be right, can they?

5 A Um, how do I explain? I was wrong for the drunk
6 driving. I did it. But circumstances happened
7 weren't quite accurate.

8 Q As reflected how, sir?

9 A The way things went. That -- when he entered my 10 house, when it all went down, I think there was 11 confusion. It was dark. I don't think things went 12 down the right -- everything was seemed.

13 Q All right. Well, what does that have to do with 14 whether you were driving under the influence or 15 not?

16 A My attorney, I think, was trying to get me off on a
17 technicality.

18 Q All right.

19 A And -- and that's where I think he was coming around
20 where the whole -- the whole situation wasn't right.

21 Q Well, did the officers, uh, testify truthfully
22 regarding your driving ability that night?

23 A Um, I wasn't in the car. I was in my house.

24 Q All right. But were you driving?

25 A Yes, but no one seen me.

1 Q Okay. Were you -- had you been drinking when you
2 were driving?

3 A Yes.

4 Q All right. And you were under the influence when 5 you were driving?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Okay. Did you -- and you testified that you were 8 not under the influence?

9 A I never said that. It -- it's -- what it was, was 10 the way they entered my house. It's not -- it's not 11 really about the officers being right/wrong. They 12 testified. I did. But some laws my lawyer believed 13 were broken when they entered my house.

14 Q All right.

15 A That's -- that was the -- what my lawyer had -- was 16 going across trying to get to the bottom of.

17 Q All right.

18 A It's been over, like, five years. Like I said, I
19 don't remember everything right now.

20 Q All right. Well, how about in this, uh, very 21 last case? The one you -- where you were 22 convicted of battery? Uh, what happened in that
23 case?

24 A We were out. I just got out of school -- AT -- ATS
25 School, Sun Prairie. Friend of mine wanted to take

1 me out. I got back, so we went out. He brought
2 another --

3 COURT REPORTER: Slow down, please.

4 JUROR DEFERE: Oh, okay. I apologize.
5 And he wanted to take me out for a couple of 6 drinks. We met up with a friend of his. Um, he 7 got in some trouble at -- at a bar, and we told
8 him, leave. Get away from us.

9 So we went on our merry way and did what
10 we had to do. And then we ran into him little 11 bit later on in the evening. We walked in. He 12 was -- he's a very mouthy person. He was getting 13 beat on about -- by about three, four people. I
14 noticed it right away and I went over to his 15 defense. I regret going over to his defense
16 because he never thanked me afterwards. And then
17 we all -- we got arrested.

18 Q (By Attorney Fallon) All right. And, uh, you
19 were convicted of battery?

20 A Yep.

21 Q All right.

22 A I didn't fight it. I -- I knew I was wrong. I
23 should have turned my head and let him get beat on 24 because he -- he had it coming.

25 Q Right.

1 A Maybe it sounds bad but it's true.

2 Q All right. Now, let me go back to something for
3 a minute. Um, how about your other, uh, drunk
4 driving matters? Uh, were the -- did you review
5 the police reports associated with your arrests?

6 A The other two drunk drivings?

7 Q Yes.

8 A Um, right. Them were like probably '94, '95. I
9 haven't look at them in years, but I was driving. I
10 got -- I was arrested, drunk drivings. No excuse,
11 but, actually, going into remembering the details of 12 the police report, I don't remember none of that no
13 more.

14 Q All right. Well, were you treated fairly by the 15 officers?

16 A Yes.

17 Q All right. And, uh, uh, they were truthful in 18 their representations in the reports?

19 A I would think so. Yes, I would think so. It's been 20 so many years.

21 Q All right. But you don't know?

22 A I don't remember.

23 Q All right.

24 A That's probably the correct way of saying it.

25 Q Well, there's going to be a fair amount of law

1 enforcement testimony associated with this case,
2 Mr. Defere, and, uh, the question of, uh, concern
3 to all of us, and especially the State here, is
4 whether or not you can evaluate the law
5 enforcement officers' testimony, uh, fairly and
6 impartially, and given your, uh, criminal
7 history, do you think you can do that?

8 A Yes, because if I can't, because this is a big case,
9 there's a lot of people on the line here, if I feel
10 that I can't be honest, I would tell you right now I
11 can't be honest about it.

12 Q All right. And what makes you think that you
13 will be, uh, comfortable in evaluating the 14 testimony of the police officers in this case?

15 A If I feel uncomfortable about anything that goes on 16 here, I will let whoever I need to know that I cannot 17 be on the jury no more.

18 Q All right.

19 A If I feel impartial towards anybody, or I don't
20 understand or anything, I'm going to come forward
21 because this is -- this is not a joke. This is not a
22 drunk driving case.

23 Q All right. All right. Appreciate that. Now,
24 have you been following this case at all?

25 A No, not really. We don't have local channels. We

1 got Sat -- Dish Network and we got no basic channels.
2 My wife tells me a little bit about it, but that's
3 about it. I told -- not since I had to come in here,
4 I -- anybody's talked to me, I told them, I don't
5 want to know anything about it.

6 Q All right. What have you heard about the case?

7 A Mr. Avery's -- Mr. Avery's been arrested for murder.
8 There's some blood stuff in a folder or something,
9 and didn't -- going to court back and forth. Like, I
10 haven't really been following this seriously.

11 Q All right. What else do you, uh, recall hearing
12 about the publicity in this case?

13 A I don't -- you can't believe everything you hear.

14 Q Right.

15 A It's --

16 Q Well, have you heard -- have you heard anything
17 about a -- a guy by the name of Dassey?

18 A Oh, the broth -- the cousin or -- the cousin of it?
19 Cousin of Mr. Avery? Yeah, I've heard -- yeah,
20 he's -- he's -- yeah, he's accused of the murder,
21 too.

22 Q All right. What do you remember hearing about 23 his involvement?

24 A He's party to a crime.

25 Q All right.

1 A I don't -- I don't know a whole great deal about it.

2 Q Well, do you recall any of the details which

3 were, uh, supposedly, um, described by Mr. Dassey

4 upon his arrest?

5 A No, I don't remember. And I've been purposely not

6 watching the news or paying any attention to it.

7 I -- before I really paid much attention to it. I

8 got enough things in my own life to really care about

9 anybody else.

10 Q I won't argue with that.

11 A I don't drink no more. If you're thinking of drunk

12 drivings.

13 Q My, um, question, um, is that, uh, can you tell

14 us a little bit about what your wife told you

15 about the case in your discussions with her?

16 A That's been well over a week ago. She follows it. I

17 don't.

18 Q She follows the case?

19 A Yeah. I don't.

20 Q Does she follow it pretty closely?

21 A Not really. She -- she hears something on the news

22 before she goes to bed. That's about it.

23 Q Well, then how would you know if she's been

24 following the case?

25 A She watches TV. She watches TV at night. I know she

1 watches it.

2 Q How do you know she watches it?

3 A She watched -- Well, she goes to bed at night, I'm in 4 the living room watching my shows, and she goes in
5 the bedroom and watches her TV every night.

6 Q Okay.

7 A So --

8 Q I guess if you haven't talked that much to her,
9 I'm just curious as to how you would know that 10 she's watching the coverage of this as opposed to 11 anything else?

12 A She'll watch the news in general. She watch --
13 whatever comes on, she watches it.

14 Q Okay. Including this?

15 A Yeah. See, in -- let me explain. In our bedroom, we 16 have no satellite, and she has a little TV, black and 17 white TV, that's where she watches our local stuff.
18 I sit in my living room, my 40-inch -- 40-inch TV and 19 I watch my shows. My sci-fi, my history channels,
20 that's what I get into. Public news and local stuff
21 like that don't trip my trigger.

22 Q Okay. All right. But, uh, so you've at least
23 had some discussions, I take it, with your wife
24 about what's going on with this case?

25 A Before I was -- I had to come in here.

1 Q All right?

2 A But not a whole lot, because don't -- stuff like
3 this -- this murder cases, or anything with -- or 4 forensics doesn't trip my trigger.

5 Q All right.

6 A It does my wife. I'll be honest about that.

7 Q Okay. Just a couple, uh, questions and I'll be
8 done. Do you have any opinion at all, Mr., uh,
9 Defere, as to whether, uh, Mr. Avery is guilty of 10 the offense for which he's charged?

11 A I can't make that -- I can't make assumption.

12 Q All right. Why not?

13 A The trial's not done.

14 Q Right.

15 A Haven't heard all the facts.

16 Q Right. And what if the only facts you hear in 17 the case are those presented by the State, and he 18 chooses to present no facts at all?

19 A Told me it's up to just go by the facts. Whatever is 20 presented to us is all we got to go on.

21 Q All right. And if the State fails to convince 22 you beyond a reasonable doubt, would you acquit
23 Mr. Avery?

24 A Would that be the -- would that be the -- what we'd
25 have to do? I don't understand what you're saying

1 right now.

2 Q All right. Well, you -- you've had, uh, a case
3 of your own where the jury was instructed that if
4 they were going to convict you of drunk driving,
5 they had to be convinced beyond a reasonable
6 doubt that you were, uh, driving under the 7 influence; right?

8 A Yeah.

9 Q All right.

10 A So -- so you're basically saying if the facts are 11 stated that if you brought the facts out stating that 12 he was guilty? Is that what you're saying?

13 Q Right. Well, what if -- what if we didn't quite 14 convince you beyond a reasonable doubt, but yet
15 you didn't hear anything from the, uh -- from Mr.
16 Avery and his lawyers? Would you find him guilty
17 or would you find him not guilty?

18 A I don't know what I would do.

19 Q You don't know what you'd do?

20 A I don't -- I don't know what I would do. I -- I
21 don't.

22 Q Well, if the score -- Court were to instruct you
23 that you don't have to, um, uh -- you can't hold
24 it against him if he chose not to put any 25 evidence in, if he chose not --

1 A Okay. Okay.

2 Q -- to testify?

3 A I follow you. Um, so basically is saying if he's --
4 if -- I guess I'd have to go with the evidence.
5 If -- if there's not enough to convict him, then
6 that's the way it would have to be.

7 Q All right. So what would you determine -- would 8 you vote guilty or not guilty then?

9 A Probably not guilty.

10 Q All right.

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: Um, I notice that my
12 time's about -- I'll pass this juror.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Buting?

14 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

15 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

16 Q Good afternoon, sir. Um, my name's Jerome
17 Buting, and this is Dean Strang, and we're both
18 the attorneys representing Steven Avery here
19 today. I appreciate your coming here and being 20 so forthright.

21 A I'm nervous.

22 Q I can understand that. Almost everybody who sits
23 up there is. Really. You're not alone.

24 Um, Mr., uh, Fallon went through great
25 detail your background and your contact with the

1 police, but I take it that you can put aside any
2 of those instances and not let that affect you in
3 evaluating the testimony or the evidence in this
4 case; is that right?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And, in fact, in, uh, most of those instances it
7 seems like, uh, you admit you were in the wrong?

8 A I'm the -- yes, I'm no angel.

9 Q Okay. You've had some problem with alcohol and 10 you've been honest about that. We appreciate
11 that. Really. And you're trying to work on that 12 right now?

13 A Since I've been married and my wife don't drink, I
14 don't. Very seldom. I'll admit, I drink maybe once
15 a month, but it's better than what it used to be,
16 four times a week, but --

17 Q Okay.

18 A I got a good woman.

19 Q I'm glad to hear that. And you, um -- you feel
20 confident that if selected for this jury, you
21 could follow the Judge's instructions?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And that you would bring whatever life
24 experiences you have to this case just like any 25 other jury -- juror; right?

1 A Could you, um, explain what you mean?

2 Q All right. Let -- that may be a bad question.

3 But you're, uh -- despite whatever contacts you

4 may have had with the police, you're not going to

5 be un -- unduly favorable or sympathetic to the 6 defense; right?

7 A What's in my past has got no part with this.

8 Q Has nothing to do with Mr. Avery at all?

9 A No. This -- this is between right or wrong and --

10 and what happened. If I -- if anything that's my

11 life is going to affect me or affect anything going

12 on here, I -- I'd tell you -- I'd tell you right now,

13 I'm not the person to pick.

14 Q I appreciate that, sir. I -- I really do. Um, I

15 think you understand this is very serious matter

16 for both sides.

17 A It's -- it's also going to be a burden on all of us

18 jurors. It's going to be a burden on -- on us. We

19 got to put our life on hold for six weeks. It's

20 going to affect me looking for a job and, you know,

21 so on and so on, my wife, and daily -- daily things

22 to do around the house and --

23 Q Sure. But --

24 A It's not a joke.

25 Q And knowing all that, you're still willing to --

1 to serve and do your civic duty?

2 A It's my duty, just like there -- our soldiers are
3 overseas fighting for us. If we can't be proud
4 Americans like they're being proud over there, what
5 good are they -- are they fighting for? Got to be 6 that way.

7 Q All right. Thank you very much, sir. Appreciate
8 it.

9 THE COURT: All right. Uh, Mr. Defere,
10 the, uh, clerk will escort you from the courtroom.

11 (Wherein juror is escorted out)

12 THE COURT: Counsel? Mr. Fallon?

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: May I confer?

14 THE COURT: Go ahead.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: Obviously, this juror
16 causes the State some concern, so we're
17 deliberating as to whether we want to make a
18 motion to strike for cause. And I guess on 19 balance, we are going to make that request. Um,
20 it's a close question in some respects, and in 21 others, a rather clear one.

22 We're going to move that the juror be
23 struck for cause on the, uh, theory of -- of 24 objective bias. Um, although the juror's actual 25 answers seemed adequate, some would say more than

1 adequate, to, uh, justify seating the juror, I'm
2 concerned that given the big picture here, that
3 those answers may not very well be credible.

4 We have an individual, um -- and he'd
5 like us to believe that he's turning his life
6 around and he's, uh, straightening himself out,
7 uh, apparently recently getting married, etc.,
8 but I guess even that does not ring true. After 9 all, he has a December, 2006 conviction for 10 battery in Sheboygan County, and by my account,
11 that is only, uh, six weeks ago, seven.

12 Uh, this is an individual with, uh,
13 three OWI convictions, several disorderly
14 conducts, and another additional battery
15 conviction, with numerous law enforcement
16 contacts.

17 I also, uh, have a question, uh, to 18 doubt the, uh, circumstances surrounding his 19 affiliation with the motorcycle club as being
20 entirely on the up and up.

21 I think that applying the objective bias
22 standard, uh, could a reasonable person hearing
23 all they have heard about Mr. Defere come to a
24 reasoned conclusion that he could give the State
25 a fair shake? I think one would have to say, not

1 withstanding his answers, that a reasonable
2 person would not come to that conclusion. And,
3 uh, as a result, given the extensive criminal
4 history and the recency of it, uh, 2005 and 2006,
5 uh, we'd ask the Court to strike this juror for
6 cause.

7 Um, like I said, the, uh -- the words
8 seemed good, but they don't match, I don't think,
9 the background and the recent history, and I --
10 I'm unconvinced by his demeanor. Uh, he strikes
11 me as somebody who's a little too anxious and a
12 little too willing to waive the flag.

13 And I know that may sound harsh, um, but 14 that's our assessment of this juror and would ask
15 that he be struck for cause.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Buting?

17 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, we object to 18 that. There's no -- no grounds for cause for 19 this juror. Yes, I can understand why the State
20 doesn't want him on the panel. Obviously, the 21 State will intend to use a peremptory given the 22 rather grueling cross-examination Mr. Fallon gave 23 this young man, but the fact of the matter is not
24 only did he answer the questions appropriately,
25 the -- the explanations were appropriate and his

1 demeanor was appropriate.

2 This is a man who, yes, he's had some
3 difficulties with the law and he freely admitted
4 it, but I didn't hear him blaming the State for 5 any of them. He's blamed himself. He admits he 6 had an alcohol problem. Even the most recent 7 one, he admits he was trying to help a friend and 8 he should have stayed out of it. He's not
9 blaming the State.

10 He's not somebody coming in here and
11 saying, you know, I've got a vendetta against the 12 police or against prosecutors. It's a young man
13 who's had difficulties, but there's no reason to 14 think that he can't put those aside like any 15 other juror who's -- former police officers, if 16 we want to believe his answers.

17 All jurors bring their life experiences
18 with them collectively to the jury, and this 19 gentleman has every bit as much a right to do his 20 civic duty, to sit on this jury, as anyone else.
21 So I -- I -- I think there's absolutely no record
22 to justify striking this juror for cause, and I
23 would move to deny the State's motion.

24 THE COURT: All right. Well, I -- I
25 understand why the, uh, State would be initially,

1 uh, concerned, given the juror -- or the juror's,
2 uh, record, um, but I have to say that based on not
3 only the content of his answers, but his demeanor,
4 uh, I found him to believable -- be believable.

5 It would have been, um -- I'm sure it
6 was difficult, in a courtroom of a number of 7 people, for him to, uh, discuss and admit his 8 criminal past, although it's misdemeanors and,
9 um, uh, drunk driving, and it didn't involve
10 felonies, but I -- I thought he was believable
11 and forthright.

12 He acknowledged his culpability, I
13 think, with respect to virtually every conviction
14 that he had. It's true that he did contest, uh,
15 his -- I believe it was his most recent OWI, but 16 he, frankly, indicated that it was based more not 17 on his own feeling that he was not guilty, but on 18 a theory of defense his attorney recommended, and 19 he pursued it.

20 He said on a couple of it -- and a -- a
21 couple of occasions he believed that he had been 22 treated fairly by officers, and I just didn't 23 detect anything in his answers to, um, suggest 24 that, uh, he was not being forthright with those 25 answers.

1 Um, he also seemed to have a solid grasp
2 on the fact that this case involves charges more
3 serious than any of the ones he was involved with 4 himself. And, um, I -- I think he is -- he is 5 aware of the fact, he recognizes the 6 responsibility, and, uh, has indicated that he
7 could, um, uh, safely face that responsibility
8 and be a part of the jury in this case. So I'm 9 going to deny the motion and make him part of the 10 jury panel.

11 Uh, let's see. Jenny, how are you
12 doing? Do you want a break or do you want to 13 take one?

14 COURT REPORTER: Let's do one more.

15 THE COURT: Okay. How about Mr.
16 Wichlacz?

17 THE CLERK: We have --

18 THE COURT: Well, no, we're taking them
19 in order now. Oh, oh, is he here yet?

20 THE CLERK: I don't know. There were
21 only three ladies in there when I was there.

22 THE COURT: Okay. How about -- well --

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: He's not -- No. 68
24 was, uh -- or is he not here yet either?

25 THE COURT: Well, for --

1 THE CLERK: I'll go check.

2 THE COURT: Yeah. See if he's here.

3 Let's start taking them in order.

4 Ms. Barber, please raise your right hand
5 and the -- the clerk will administer the oath.

6 (Juror sworn)

7 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

8 THE COURT: Uh, Ms. Barber, you've already
9 filled out a written jury questionnaire in this case
10 last week. Today we're moving on to the next phase
11 of jury selection, which is the voir dire process.

12 The attorneys for both sides will have
13 an opportunity to ask you some questions that
14 relate to your qualifications to serve as a
15 juror. In many cases those questions will relate 16 back to, um, answers that you gave on your 17 written questionnaire.

18 Before we begin the questioning, I can 19 let you know that the, uh, jurors selected to 20 hear this case will not be sequestered. That 21 means the jurors will be permitted to go home
22 each night after the day's proceedings. And, uh,
23 because of that fact, there will be a continuing
24 uh, ban on any juror exposure to news media
25 accounts of the case, whether it be on

1 television, radio, the newspapers, the internet,
2 or anywhere else.

3 In addition, the jurors will be
4 prohibited from discussing the case with anyone
5 during the course of the trial, including any 6 family members, or even the other jurors, until 7 all of the evidence in the case has been
8 received.

9 Today's proceedings are, uh, not closed
10 to the public, but during voir dices, uh,
11 proceedings, the Court does not allow cameras in 12 the courtroom. In addition, the members of the 13 news media are not permitted to disclose the 14 names of the jurors in their reports of the court
15 proceedings today.

16 Uh, finally, you should know that if
17 you're selected to serve as a juror in this case,
18 there may be cameras in the courtroom, but 19 they're not permitted to show the faces of the 20 jurors.

21 Uh, in the event that you remain on the 22 jury panel after questioning today, you'll
23 receive further instructions, probably by a
24 telephone call later today, as to when to report
25 back to court. Mr. Kratz, you may begin.

ATTORNEY KRATZ: Thank you, Judge.

VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

BY ATTORNEY KRATZ:

Q Good afternoon, Ms. Barber.

A Good afternoon.

Q I'm Ken Kratz, the Calumet County District Attorney, who will be serving as lead prosecutor in this case. With me this afternoon is Tom Fallon. Mr. Fallon's an Assistant Attorney General. He works for the Department of Justice. He'll be assisting me not just this afternoon, but also through the presentation of -- of this trial.

As the Judge has explained, there are some follow-up questions to your answers given, uh, in your questionnaire, uh, that we need to ask of you.

Um, first of all, you, um, still work at, uh, Worthington Cylinders; is that correct?

A Yes, I do.

Q And that's in Chilton --

A Yes.

Q -- is that correct? All right. How long have you, uh, worked at that position?

A Twenty-eight years. I had to try and think.

1 Q All right. You've indicated on the, um,
2 questionnaire that you had previous employment at
3 Chilton Products; is that correct?

4 A Yes. Um, Worthington Cylinders took over the Chilton
5 Products half of the cylinders, so altogether in that
6 company building I've been there 28 years.

7 Worthington -- I've been there with Worthington for 8 four, because they bought out --

9 Q All right. I know that, but probably nobody else
10 in this room does.

11 A Okay.

12 Q That -- that's why I -- I asked that, Ms. Barber.

13 A Okay.

14 Q The, um, connection with, uh, Chilton, that is 15 the connection with Calumet County, also, uh,
16 causes you to have some familiarity with 17 Mr. Pagel; is that right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Can you describe that?

20 A Actually, Jerry and I went to school together.

21 Q All right.

22 A And that's how I know him. I know him enough to go
23 to him and say, hi, Jer, how's things, and --

24 Q All right. Have you had any discussions with 25 Mr. Pagel about this particular case?

1 A No, I haven't.

2 Q You were aware, however, early on of Mr. Pagel's,
3 uh, involvement in the investigation of this
4 case?

5 A Actually, not. The last time I saw him, none of this 6 had happened, so --

7 Q What I'm saying is, you realized early on in this
8 investigation --

9 A Oh.

10 Q -- that Mr. Pagel was involved in the 11 investigation?

12 A Yes. That's why I put it down.

13 Q And did you also realize early on that my office,
14 that is the Calumet County D.A.'s Office, uh, had 15 taken over responsibility of the prosecution in 16 the case?

17 A No, not really.

18 Q All right. Ms. Barber, where is it that you, uh,
19 most often receive your news?

20 A Most often, uh, television.

21 Q And, uh, had you recalled, and as you sit here
22 this afternoon, do you recall, uh, television
23 news stories regarding this case?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Let's go way back to the beginning of this case

1 in early November of 2005. Did you remember
2 reports of, uh, Teresa Halbach having been
3 missing and there was some missing persons or 4 search efforts for her?

5 A Yes.

6 Q You didn't participate in the search for Ms.
7 Halbach at all, did you?

8 A No, I didn't.

9 Q Do you know Ms. Halbach's family or, uh, anybody
10 that might be related to her?

11 A No.

12 Q You live in Valders; is that right?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Which would be just over the Calumet
15 County/Manitowoc County border; is that right?

16 A About seven miles in, yes.

17 Q All right. Now, uh, you don't know Investigator
18 Mark Wiegert?

19 A No, I don't.

20 Q Ms. Barber, uh, you mentioned in your report that 21 you've had some contact with law enforcement, uh,
22 officials. Uh, we're going to talk about your 23 son in -- in -- in just a moment, but --

24 A Okay.

25 Q -- um, have you personally had any contact with

1 law enforcement officials that in any way has
2 left a bad taste in your mouth about police
3 officers generally?

4 A No.

5 Q Have you had any contacts with law enforcement
6 that, uh, have been positive in nature? They've 7 helped you either, um, solve a crime for which 8 you may have been a victim or, uh, maybe just 9 helped on -- on some citizen call that you might 10 have made?

11 A I have to answer no to that. Um, if I could preface
12 some of it?

13 Q Sure. Go ahead.

14 A I'm a member of the Calumet County Fair Board. Every 15 Labor Day weekend I was in charge of cleaning the 16 restrooms for the fair. The police officers patrol
17 the grounds all night. My contact with some of them
18 have been through the course of the evening, sitting 19 and having a cup of coffee at three o'clock in the 20 morning when we were finished.

21 Q Okay.

22 A You know, all of those are positive things.

23 Q Would that be Calumet County Sheriff's, uh,
24 Officers, or city of Chilton officers, or both
25 that --

1 A Both.

2 Q -- would help with that? Are you familiar with,
3 uh, the former chief, uh, Mr. Albeyll, from 4 Chilton?

5 A Yes, I am.

6 Q And would those, uh, contacts have been positive
7 as well?

8 A Definitely.

9 Q Now, Ms. Barber, you had, uh, mentioned quite 10 candidly in your responses that your son had had,
11 uh, a legal problem or run-in with the law?

12 A Okay. I had two different sons.

13 Q Two different sons?

14 A Two different counties.

15 Q Two different counties, two different run-ins?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Let's talk about, uh, the one that you mentioned
18 here. There was a -- a burglary, uh, conviction?
19 Uh, which, uh --

20 A That was my youngest son.

21 Q Your youngest? And about how long ago did that
22 happen?

23 A Oh, I'm going to say 18 years.

24 Q So quite a long time ago?

25 A Yeah. He was -- he just turned 18 and you know how

1 stupid they can be at --

2 Q I do.

3 A -- 18.

4 Q I have a --

5 A Me, too.

6 Q -- 19-year-old son. What, uh -- what county did
7 that occur in?

8 A Calumet.

9 Q And the, um, prosecution, um, since it was 18
10 years ago, um, may have been actually just before
11 I became district attorney, Mr. Poppy was 12 probably the D.A. then?

13 A Yes, he was.

14 Q Is there anything about that prosecution, uh,
15 that you felt your son was treated unfairly or 16 anything -- anything like that?

17 A Um, well, I felt the kid that was in it -- it with 18 him should have gotten a little harsher. The kid
19 with him was only 17 and he got slapped on the hand
20 and --

21 Q Well, since I wasn't involved, I'm going to ask
22 you a very, uh, direct question. The fact that,
23 um, my predecessor, the former district attorney,
24 was involved in that case, would you in any way
25 hold that prosecution against our case here?

1 That is, against either me --

2 A No, not at all.

3 Q -- or our --

4 A I didn't hold it against the Court either. You know,
5 he -- he deserved what he got. I just felt it should 6 have gone a little further.

7 Q I understand. There was also, um, at least after 8 his conviction, you mentioned some, uh,
9 misunderstanding or some problem with his 10 receiving, um, Huber or --

11 A No.

12 Q -- work release privileges?

13 A Other son.

14 Q Oh, we're on the different case?

15 A Exactly.

16 Q All right. Let me just finish up with your 17 youngest son. Was there --

18 A All right.

19 Q -- anything else -- you'll have to wait until I'm 20 done talking. She can't take down both of us at 21 the same time.

22 A Okay.

23 Q Is there anything about your youngest son's
24 conviction, um, that, uh, was either handled
25 inappropriately, uh, or after his, um,

1 supervision or contact with law enforcement that
2 you feel was handled inappropriately?

3 A No, I don't.

4 Q All right. You said that there was another son
5 that was involved in something?

6 A Yes my --

7 Q And --

8 A -- second. That was Manitowoc County.

9 Q What kind of case was that?

10 A That was, um, drunken driving, fleeing.

11 Q About how long ago was that, Ms. Barber?

12 A Fifteen years.

13 Q Did that result in a conviction?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And did it result in any kind of a punishment for 16 your second son?

17 A He -- nine months in jail.

18 Q Is there anything about that investigation or 19 prosecution that you believe was inappropriately
20 handled?

21 A No.

22 Q By the way, each of these sons, have they, um,
23 for lack of a better turn -- uh, term,
24 straightened themselves out and doing well now?

25 A Yes, they have.

1 Q Okay. Any other law enforcement contacts either
2 positive or negative that you think that we
3 should know about to consider whether or not you
4 should serve on this jury?

5 A That would be the only --

6 Q Um, you consider yourself a -- a detail-oriented
7 person? Do you make a lot of lists?

8 A No.

9 Q So you're more of a big picture --

10 A Apparently.

11 Q Ms. Barber, are you aware -- and I think that 12 you've mentioned that you are -- at least
13 generally familiar with some TV shows that deal
14 with, uh, crime scene investigations; C.S.I., or,
15 um, shows like that; is that correct?

16 A Right.

17 Q Do you enjoy that kind of topic?

18 A Yes, I do.

19 Q You must be familiar, then, with a kind of 20 forensic identification which is called DNA
21 evidence; is that right?

22 A Right.

23 Q From what you've read, or what you've known, or 24 what you've seen on TV, do you believe that to be 25 generally a, uh -- a -- a --

1 scientifically-accepted principle? In other
2 words, you think that that's an accurate way for
3 identification in crime scene-type cases?

4 A Yes, I do.

5 Q Anything that you've learned about DNA analysis,
6 uh, or DNA testing that you at all question those
7 results?

8 A No.

9 Q Are you familiar with Mr. Avery at all, and his 10 past?

11 A Um, from originally, that would be about it. Um,
12 when it first -- when he first got let out of jail
13 and --

14 Q Tell me about that. What do you remember?

15 A That, um, he was wrongfully convicted, spent 18 years
16 in prison, and then, finally, was able to be let out.
17 I'm not sure I remember what came up that -- I think
18 the person who identified him said he was the wrong
19 person or something. I'm not real familiar with -- I
20 just remember him going on the Channel 11's makeover,
21 and getting his hair cut, and --

22 Q All right.

23 A -- spruced up.

24 Q Do you remember that, uh, wrongful conviction, or 25 his exoneration, that is, his release in that

1 case, was the result of DNA evidence?

2 A Now that you mention it, yes.

3 Q All right. And, generally, at least that concept
4 of, uh, exonerating people that are wrongfully
5 convicted, do you believe that to be a good
6 thing?

7 A Yes, I do.

8 Q Are you familiar with something called the 9 Innocence Project?

10 A That's the group out of Madison that investigates
11 certain crimes?

12 Q Investigates, uh, people that they believe have 13 been wrongfully accused or convicted?

14 A Okay. Yes. I -- I have heard of it.

15 Q All right. Ms. Barber, since this would be a 16 six-week trial, do you have any concerns that 17 sitting on this jury would cause you some 18 financial or other kind of hardship?

19 A No.

20 Q Uh, would your company continue to pay you if you
21 had to sit on this jury?

22 A Oh, yes.

23 Q Last question, and this is, I guess, more a -- of 24 a general question than something specific, but 25 is this something -- something that you want to

1 do? Is this a jury you'd like to serve on?

2 A Yes, I would.

3 Q Can you tell me why?

4 A I just feel I'm open-minded enough, um, to hear all
5 the facts. I -- I feel I was fair with pretty much
6 everything I do.

7 Q So you believe that you'd be able to evaluate 8 both sides, you'd be able to evaluate the 9 evidence, listen to the witnesses' testimony,
10 attribute whatever weight you think it deserved,
11 and make a reasonable decision?

12 A Yes, I do.

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's all the 14 questions I have, Judge. Thank you.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Strang?

16 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

17 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

18 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

19 Q And thank you for coming in. My name is Dean
20 Strang, and --

21 A Hi, there.

22 Q -- this is Jerome Buting -- and --

23 A Hi.

24 Q -- Steven Avery, uh, after his makeover. Um --

25 A Yeah.

1 Q And, uh, I -- I, too, appreciate you coming in,
2 probably sitting around for a good bit of time
3 waiting for us.

4 Um, easy one first, and I'm probably
5 being way too cautious on this, but you're on the 6 Manitowoc side of the county line?

7 A Yes.

8 Q You live in Manitowoc County?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Okay. Um, and -- and yet, you're -- you --
11 you're clearly very involved, still, in civic
12 life in Chilton, uh, Calumet --

13 A Yes.

14 Q -- County? Uh, tell me a little bit about that.
15 How that came -- comes to be?

16 A The Calumet County Fair Board?

17 Q Um-hmm.

18 A Well, all you had to be was a stockholder in the fair
19 association to become on the board of directors, and 20 I just felt it was something I enjoyed doing. Taking 21 part in the fair, and --

22 Q Sure.

23 A -- putting my input in where I could -- I actually
24 thought I did a good job.

25 Q Okay. Any -- any particular responsibility on

1 the board for one aspect of the annual fair or
2 not?

3 A Well, I was in charge of the restroom cleaning.

4 Q Uh-huh.

5 A And, if -- my judge of going to other fairs, and
6 everybody has to use the restroom, half the time you
7 don't want to walk into them. I made it my point
8 that people weren't going to shy away because it was 9 not clean. So --

10 Q You got it. Um, and you graduated from Chilton
11 High School?

12 A Yes, I did.

13 Q How long did you spend living in the Chilton
14 area?

15 A I moved into the Manitowoc/Valders area in '89, so up 16 until --

17 Q Up until then --

18 A Right.

19 Q -- did you live right in Chilton or --

20 A Yes, I did.

21 Q Okay. Um, do you have any grandkids?

22 A Seven.

23 Q How old is the oldest?

24 A Nineteen.

25 Q And the youngest?

1 A She was a year in June.

2 Q Okay. Uh, is -- is the 19-year-old a -- a young
3 man or young woman?

4 A Young woman.

5 Q Uh, in the area? All -- all seven of them?

6 A She goes to, um, cosmetology school in Appleton.

7 Q Uh-huh. And, um, you noted here that your, um --
8 your husband has a chronic health condition that,
9 you know, often can be controlled by medication
10 or diet?

11 A Right.

12 Q Um, does that give you any concern about being 13 away from the home eight hours a day or nine
14 hours a day?

15 A No. No. In fact, Sunday he leaves for South
16 Carolina for a week. He's a construction
17 millwright --

18 Q Oh.

19 A -- so they send him all over the country. He pretty 20 much is okay.

21 Q Oh.

22 A Yeah.

23 Q Okay. I -- I just -- I just wanted to be sure.

24 A I'm sorry. I --

25 Q You know, we -- this can be -- I mean, being on

1 a -- on a jury is something of a hardship, but
2 there should be a limit to --

3 A Right.

4 Q -- just how much of a hardship. Um, active in 5 your union --

6 A Yes.

7 Q -- obvious, I think?

8 A Well, I was an officer in my union. I still am a
9 union member.

10 Q Um-hmm. Have you ever been a steward?

11 A I was the financial officer, and on the bargaining
12 committee, and safety committee, and I was -- well,
13 being on the bargaining committee, I was a steward,
14 so -- same --

15 Q One -- one in the same. Yeah. Okay. Um, so
16 when -- when this all first came up, when Teresa
17 Halbach disappeared, and they were looking for 18 her, and then they arrested Steven Avery, um,
19 did -- did you follow this pretty closely at the 20 time?

21 A No.

22 Q Okay.

23 A Not really. I -- the names were unfamiliar --

24 Q Sure.

25 A -- and I guess it wasn't something that I really took

1 an interest in.

2 Q Okay. And that -- that's sort of what I'm
3 exploring. I mean, some people might react to 4 this as a mom, or as a grandmother, others not
5 react to it at all if it's not connected, and I'm
6 just -- I'm just trying to gauge how much you
7 sort of plugged into -- into this?

8 A Well, pretty much not much.

9 Q Um-hmm.

10 A I mean, un -- unless it's, I guess, something that 11 directly involves me, I guess I -- I can hear it and 12 just -- no, it's -- it's nothing that I followed that 13 close.

14 Q Okay.

15 A I mean, I didn't go out of my way to grab a newspaper
16 article and read it or make it a point that that's 17 where I had to be, in front of the television, and --

18 Q Got it.

19 A -- usually had something better.

20 Q Okay. No, I -- I've got it. I just --

21 A Okay.

22 Q Um, now, by the same token, you know, here it is 23 more than a year later, he's here, we're in 24 court, do you assume he's probably guilty? Do
25 you assume he's probably innocent? Do you have

1 any --

2 A I really have no judgment on that at all. I -- I
3 never really looked at it in the way -- one way or 4 another. It's -- it's something that I guess needed
5 to be proved first.

6 Q Well, why is he here if he didn't do something
7 wrong?

8 A Well, that's what I'd like to know.

9 Q Okay. And, in finding that out, I mean, you
10 know, of course you'd like to know that --

11 A Right.

12 Q -- and finding that out, whose job is that to 13 show you? Their's? Mine? Both?

14 A I would think both. I -- I feel both sides really
15 should present everything.

16 Q Um-hmm. Um, very natural feeling. And you're -- 17 now, you're walking into a legal system that has 18 some different rules for nearly ancient or at 19 least five or six hundred years worth of reasons,
20 I guess, um, and I think Judge Willis will tell
21 you, and I'm quite confident he'll tell you, that 22 in a criminal case like this it's actually just 23 the State that has the burden of proof. The 24 lawyers at this table. They -- they have the 25 only burden of proving anything, and they have to

1 prove Mr. Avery guilty beyond a reasonable doubt
2 if they can.

3 A Okay.

4 Q Um, we don't have to prove him innocent.

5 A Okay.

6 Q Can you accept that and live with those rules?

7 A Sure. It's a rule.

8 Q It -- it is a rule. And the question is whether 9 you would resist that or, in the end, not be able 10 to follow that for --

11 A No, I feel that's -- if that's the rule, and that's 12 what needs to be done, that's what should be done
13 then.

14 Q Right. And I'm -- I'm only predicting what the 15 Court's going to tell you. I mean, in the end,
16 the Court's going to give you the rules, not me.

17 A Okay.

18 Q Um, just trying to predict, since I've been doing
19 this for awhile. Um, and, um, you know, another
20 rule in that respect that we would have to know
21 that you can live with, and I think you've 22 already told me you -- you can and you do, is 23 that he's presumed innocent. That is, Steve 24 Avery is.

25 A Right.

1 Q Not just today, actually, but through this whole
2 trial, right up until the end when -- when you
3 folks, the jury, starts to deliberate.

4 A Right.

5 Q Okay. Only then do you decide what happened, but 6 you've got to presume him innocent right up until 7 you walk into the jury room and start
8 deliberating.

9 A Exactly.

10 Q Okay. Um, now, you know, there are two sides
11 here. He does have a couple of lawyers, and 12 we're not going to just sit here, although we 13 could, under the law. Um, so if we cross-examine 14 the State's witnesses, will you listen to their 15 answers when Jerry Buting or I are asking them
16 questions just as when the prosecutors are?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Weigh it the same?

19 A Yes.

20 Q How about if we actually call witnesses of our 21 own as defense witnesses? Will you consider
22 Mr. Avery's evidence just as you would the 23 State's?

24 A Yes, I would.

25 Q Um, and the same would be true if they

1 cross-examine our witnesses? Will you listen to
2 the answers given when they ask questions?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Okay. The toughest call on -- on a witness would
5 be Mr. Avery, himself. Uh, and here's, again, an 6 area where there's specific rules. Um, because 7 there are a whole variety of reasons, even an 8 innocent person might not testify. Um, if 9 Mr. Avery decided not to testify, I think the 10 Court will tell you that you can't consider that 11 at all as any evidence of guilt or even consider 12 it at all in deciding whether the State has 13 proven him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Can 14 you do that?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Even if you don't hear the other side of the 17 story straight from the horse's mouth, so to 18 speak?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Um, do you understand that there -- there may be 21 a variety of reasons why an innocent person would 22 not testify in his own defense?

23 A Yes, I do. I -- because I watch C.S.I. --

24 Q Um-hmm.

25 A -- any, really, court dramas, um, like S.H.A.R.K., I

1 mean, he's a -- portrayed as an excellent D.A. They 2 bring out the fact that defendants do not need to
3 talk --

4 Q Um-hmm.

5 A -- or say anything. And I guess that's -- I accept
6 that.

7 Q Okay. Um -- And I don't -- I don't watch a lot
8 of these shows, actually, but the one I tune into 9 once in a while is Law and Order, and it strikes
10 me, and see if you share the same experience,
11 basically the storylines in Law and Order are 12 either the guilty guy gets convicted or the 13 guilty guy gets off somehow?

14 A Yeah.

15 Q I don't see a lot of storylines with innocent
16 guys. Um, I don't know about C.S.I. or --

17 A Well, the -- C.S.I. never goes into court. I was 18 trying --

19 Q Sure.

20 A -- to pick one out that I watch.

21 Q Ab -- absolutely. And I -- I just -- I guess is 22 there room in your mind for an innocent man being 23 wrongly charged?

24 A Oh, sure.

25 Q And in that regard, you paused for a little bit

1 when Mr. Kratz asked you, um, whether you think
2 exonerating wrongfully convicted people is a good
3 thing or not. You paused and you gave --

4 A Well, I had to think about that.

5 Q Yeah.

6 A You know, it's -- it's one of those, hmm, and then
7 you think about it a minute, and, yes. That's --

8 Q Is -- is -- I mean, would the concern be that 9 somebody not get out on just a technicality?

10 A Oh, definitely. It's --

11 Q But if -- if someone was truly, actually
12 innocent, I -- I take it you would not want them
13 sitting in prison --

14 A Right.

15 Q -- for a crime they actually didn't do?

16 A Exactly.

17 Q So, I mean, in his situation where the DNA proved
18 that a specific other man actually did the rape,
19 not him, it excluded him and showed who did do
20 the rape --

21 A Right.

22 Q -- you would want somebody like that, I assume,
23 to get out of prison that day; right?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay.

1 A And I -- actually, when it came out, I was -- I was
2 glad to hear it, you know, that everything was 3 justified, that they were able to do something like
4 this for him.

5 Q Right. Okay. And did -- did you hear about the 6 lawsuit that he filed after getting out?

7 A I -- I heard something about it. I -- it's probably 8 like the rest of the -- I wasn't involved. The 9 name's not familiar.

10 Q But did the -- did the sympathy stick with him or 11 go away when you found out that he filed a
12 lawsuit to try to get some money for that?

13 A Well, to me it would be only fair, that if he was 14 wrongly convicted of something, to -- to lose 18
15 years of pay. It's only fair that he gets the chance
16 to make it up.

17 Q I hear the union steward.

18 A I'm sorry.

19 Q No. No. Um, not at all. Um, um, you'll hear a
20 lot of law enforcement officers, um, testify
21 here, um, maybe for both sides, but -- but 22 regardless who calls them, you know, there are a
23 lot of law enforcement officers testify. I will
24 ask, and I think the Court will instruct you,
25 that in weighing the testimony of a police

1 officer or a law enforcement officer, um, to
2 consider that person's testimony just like you
3 would any other human being who took the witness
4 stand. Can you do that?

5 A Oh, yes. I mean they're human. They're human 6 beings.

7 Q Right. I --

8 A Okay.

9 Q Exactly.

10 A That's --

11 Q Any -- any witness here will be, and, um, I -- 12 you would hope that every witness would tell the 13 truth under oath?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Um, but is a law enforcement officer any more
16 likely to honor that oath than anyone else who 17 does some other line of work?

18 A It shouldn't be. Everyone who takes an oath to tell
19 the truth should be telling the truth --

20 Q Right.

21 A -- no matter who they are.

22 Q And in -- can you look beyond the badge and --

23 A Oh, yes.

24 Q -- and decide, do I believe this? Does it make 25 sense? Is there a reason this person might or

1 might not lie? And consider every witness in
2 that way, including police officers?

3 A Oh, yes.

4 Q What -- what, if anything, have you heard about a
5 blood vial? A vial of blood that may be at issue
6 in this case?

7 A That -- if it came up, it came up after I got my
8 paper from the courthouse, and I -- I have a mute
9 button on my TV that's getting a real healthy
10 workout.

11 Q Okay. So you -- the answer is you just don't 12 know anything at all about it?

13 A No, I don't.

14 Q Okay. All right. Um, last sort of question or 15 two, um, you work with a number of people at 16 Worthington?

17 A Yes, I do.

18 Q Um, whatever your verdict would be, if you -- if 19 you serve on this jury, when you go back to work,
20 my guess is there are going to be people -- be 21 people who think you did the right thing, and 22 people who are not very happy with you.

23 A Right.

24 Q How are you going to deal with that?

25 A Well, I'll put it this way, I work the fifth shift at

1 either favorably inclined or unfavorably inclined
2 based on your acquaintance with him --

3 A Right.

4 Q -- which I gather is not close, but you know who 5 he is?

6 A Right.

7 Q Uh, if you're selected as a juror, would you give 8 any more or less weight to his testimony should 9 he be called to testify?

10 A I wouldn't give more or less.

11 THE COURT: Thank you. The, uh, clerk
12 will --

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: I -- I'm sorry. I --
14 I -- I had one followup --

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 ATTORNEY STRANG: -- on that.

17 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

18 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

19 Q I think you just moved to Valders in 1989?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Did you -- did you know former Police Chief
22 Wiegert?

23 A No.

24 Q Okay.

25 A No. Actually, I don't know my neighbors either.

1 Q Okay.

2 THE COURT: Um, Linda will escort you from
3 the courtroom at this time.

4 (Wherein juror is escorted out)

5 THE COURT: Counsel, any motion from either
6 party?

7 ATTORNEY KRATZ: No.

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. If not, the Court
10 will accept Ms. Barber as a juror. We'll take our 11 afternoon break at this time and resume at, uh, five 12 after three. Uh, in two minutes I'd like to see the 13 counsel in my chambers.

14 ATTORNEY BUTING: What time af -- after 15 three?

16 THE COURT: Five after.

1 (Continued proceedings reported by Diane Tesheneck.)

2 THE COURT: All right. At this time we're
3 back on the record without any jurors present in the 4 courtroom. During the break, counsel informed me
5 they were -- they would be talking about one juror
6 for which there may be a motion.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: Right. There may be one
8 other one that may roll into that, may be able to 9 take care of two here.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: Apparently, your Honor,
12 the parties have reached an agreement that two of 13 the upcoming jurors will be excused for cause. That 14 would be Juror No. 77 and Juror No. 78. Juror
15 No. 77 for statutory and objective bias reasons and 16 Juror No. 78 for subjective bias, based on the 17 answers to the questionnaire on Juror No. 78. And 18 on Juror No. 77, based on status of current arrest
19 history.

20 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Strang, is that
21 correct?

22 ATTORNEY STRANG: It is a joint motion as 23 counsel said.

24 THE COURT: All right. Based on my review
25 of the questionnaires in each of those cases, I

1 believe there's a basis for the party's motion. So
2 the Court will order that Jurors 77 and 78 be
3 excused for cause.

4 Janet, are there any other jurors up
5 till this point, in the number order, that have
6 not been called, but have not been excused
7 either? Were there any other jurors unaccounted
8 for, either questioned and excused or questioned
9 and accepted, that are open?

10 THE CLERK: No, not that I'm aware of.

11 THE COURT: Very well, then we'll bring in 12 Mr. Wichlacz. Just a second, Linda, hold on. Yes.

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: The parties have been
14 talking about the Juror No. 8, I think it was, from 15 Monday.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 ATTORNEY FALLON: Has developed a recent 18 issue regarding her potential hardship.

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 ATTORNEY KRATZ: We thought before she
21 became No. 30 we should deal with that issue so that 22 there isn't a question as to --

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That we did have somebody
25 in abeyance, if you will.

1 THE COURT: Yes, this is --Well, the 8th
2 juror selected, Juror No. 13 on the list.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

4 THE COURT: I can indicate for the parties
5 that this is Mary Whalen, that she was originally, I
6 believe on the first day --

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, she was the last one
8 seated on Monday.

9 THE COURT: Yes. Seated on Monday.
10 Indicated at the time that she initially claimed
11 hardship for a couple of reasons, financial and also 12 transportation responsibilities with respect to her
13 family. She, it turns out, is the sole source of 14 transportation for her husband. And recognized,
15 only after she left court, that while she could take
16 him to court, there was no one to bring him home.
17 And they live out in the country where there really
18 wasn't anybody else to provide transportation. So
19 she has requested that she be excused because of the 20 hardship on her family.

21 Does either party have any objection to 22 the Court granting her request?

23 ATTORNEY KRATZ: No, Judge.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Strang?

25 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, Judge.

1 THE COURT: All right. The Court, then,
2 will excuse Ms Whalen. And, then, we will at this
3 time move on to questioning Mr. Wichlacz, Juror 68.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: As I have Mary Whalen,
5 she's No. 13 not No. 8.

6 THE COURT: Well, she was the 8th juror
7 selected and No. 13 in the order.

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: Sorry.

9 THE CLERK: Actually, she was the 9th
10 juror --

11 THE COURT: Oh, was she?

12 THE CLERK: -- is what I had her at.

13 THE COURT: Let me see.

14 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Yeah, but we had taken
15 somebody out of order.

16 THE COURT: Oh, that could be. Yes, that's 17 right, she was actually the 9th one selected, but 18 the 8th in order. Okay. All right. Are we ready
19 for Mr. Wichlacz.

20 ATTORNEY KRATZ: We are and this will be my 21 examination, Judge.

22 THE COURT: Very well. Mr. Wichlacz,
23 please raise your right hand and the Clerk will 24 administer the oath.

25 (Juror sworn.)

1 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Wichlacz, first of all, am
3 I pronouncing your name correct?

4 MR WICKLASS: Wichlacz.

5 THE COURT: Wichlacz. Very well. You have 6 already filled out a written jury questionnaire in 7 this case. Today we are moving on to the next stage
8 of the jury selection process which is referred to 9 as voir dire.

10 In this stage, the attorneys for each of 11 the parties have an opportunity to ask you
12 questions that bear on your ability to serve as a 13 juror in this case. Many of the questions will 14 be follow-up questions to information provided in 15 the questionnaire.

16 Before we get to the attorney's
17 questions, I can tell you that the jurors who are 18 selected to serve in this case will not be
19 sequestered; that is, at the end of the trial
20 proceedings each day, they will be permitted to 21 return home.

22 Because of that fact there will continue
23 to be a prohibition on any exposure of the jurors
24 to information about the case in any form of news
25 media; be it radio, television, newspapers,

1 internet, or any other sources. And in addition,
2 the jurors will be prohibited from speaking to
3 anyone about the case. That would include family
4 members, as well as other members of the jury,
5 until it is time to deliberate.

6 Although the court proceedings today are
7 held in open court, no cameras are permitted in 8 the courtroom today during these voir dire
9 proceedings and the members of the news media are 10 not permitted to use the names of jurors in any 11 news reports.

12 If you are selected to serve on the jury
13 in this case, you should also know that while 14 cameras may cover the trial, they are not 15 permitted to show the jury in any way that 16 identifies any members of the jury.

17 In the event you are retained on the 18 jury panel after the proceedings today, you will 19 receive a notice, probably sometime later today,
20 letting you know when to report back to court.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Strang, at this point you
22 may begin your questioning.

23 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Mr. Kratz, but I will,
24 Judge.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Sorry, Mr. Kratz.

1 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

2 BY ATTORNEY KRATZ:

3 Q. Mr. Wichlacz, good afternoon. My name is Ken
4 Kratz, I'm the Calumet County District Attorney.
5 I represent the State in this case and will be
6 the lead prosecutor. Seated with me this
7 afternoon is Tom Fallon. Mr. Fallon is a
8 attorney with the Department of Justice,
9 Assistant Attorney General, will be assisting not 10 only today but also through the entire trial.
11 Good afternoon.

12 As the Judge explained this is our
13 opportunity to ask you some additional questions
14 and follow up on some responses that you gave in 15 your written questionnaire. Let me first start
16 with your most recent employment. I understand
17 that your principal occupation was manager of a
18 grocery store; is that correct?

19 A. Well, the grocery department at the -- well, it
20 was Sentry, now it's Piggly Wiggly.

21 Q. All right. And for how long had you engaged in 22 that employment?

23 A. Well, I'm still there part-time. It's going on 24 about 45 years.

25 Q. I understand, Mr. Wichlacz, that you have two

1 children, a son and a daughter; is that correct?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Your son is a member of the City of Manitowoc

4 Police Department; is that right?

5 A. Yes, that's correct.

6 Q. And your daughter is an attorney?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Could I ask your son's name, please?

9 A. Rob Barbier.

10 Q. I'm sorry?

11 A. Rob Barbier.

12 Q. And your daughter?

13 A. Katie Brown.

14 Q. Let's start with the obvious, your son being a
15 Manitowoc County law enforcement officer. Have 16 you had an occasion to speak with your son about
17 this case?

18 A. Just briefly. It was just that he was involved
19 in the search of the property.

20 Q. All right. Did your son --

21 A. That's about all he said.

22 Q. Did your son tell you what was engaged in those 23 search efforts?

24 A. Pardon?

25 Q. Did your son tell you what he did in those search

1 efforts?

2 A. Just -- just that they were looking around and
3 that's about all he said. He didn't say they
4 found anything or -- I guess that covers it.

5 Q. Your son is not on the witness list, but like
6 several other law enforcement and other
7 volunteers, he was involved in the search for Ms
8 Halbach; is that right?

9 A. For the car.

10 Q. All right.

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Was he also involved after the car was found; do
13 you know if he was on the property?

14 A. I don't think so. I think he was just, once they 15 found the car I think he was done.

16 Q. All right. Now, Mr. Wichlacz, I'm going to move
17 directly to a -- an answer of interest, if not a
18 concern; that is, that based upon the publicity,
19 you had come into this case believing that 20 Mr. Avery was guilty, or at least the publicity
21 pointed in that direction. Do you still hold
22 that opinion?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You also indicate, however, more importantly,
25 that despite that initial opinion, that you would

1 be able to set that aside and base your decision
2 solely on the evidence in this case; do you still
3 hold that opinion?

4 A. Well, yes, to a point.

5 Q. Well, you better explain that. What does that
6 mean?

7 A. Well, from the news coverage, I would guess that 8 Mr. Avery is guilty. In fact, I would say he is 9 guilty from the coverage, from what I have heard.
10 Now, I guess if a bolt of lightening came down
11 and told me he was innocent, I might believe it,
12 but it's just kind of overwhelming.

13 Q. I understand that.

14 A. I'm sure from what I have heard from you, that 15 you passed out to the press, and I'm sure you
16 have more that we haven't heard about, so ...

17 Q. And --

18 A. I would -- I would -- I guess at this point I
19 would find it very difficult.

20 Q. And so as Mr. Avery sits here, although legally
21 he may be presumed innocent; that is, the Court
22 may instruct you that he is presumed innocent --

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. -- you don't come into this case feeling that at 25 all; is that right?

1 A. Right. I know that's backwards. I know he
2 should be innocent, but ...

3 Q. But you wouldn't be able to set that aside?

4 A. I don't believe so.

5 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's all the questions I
6 have for this witness, Judge. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Any questions for the defense?

8 ATTORNEY BUTING: No, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Wichlacz, at 10 this point Linda will escort you from the courtroom.

11 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

12 THE COURT: Do the parties have a joint
13 motion on this juror?

14 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Yes, Judge, the State
15 would acknowledge that this witness should be struck
16 for cause.

17 ATTORNEY BUTING: I join in that.

18 THE COURT: All right. Based on the
19 witness' answers, the Court will excuse Mr. Wichlacz
20 as a juror for cause in this case.

21 The next juror would be Donald Kickland.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Who is the next one?

23 THE COURT: Donald Kickland, Juror 81.
24 Mr. Kickland, will you stand and raise your right
25 hand, please.

(Juror sworn.)

THE CLERK: Please be seated.

THE COURT: Mr. Kickland, you have already completed a written juror questionnaire in this case.

MR. KICKLAND: Yes.

THE COURT: This afternoon we're moving on to the next stage of the jury selection process which is called voir dire. The attorneys for each of the parties will have a chance to ask you some questions that bear upon your qualifications as a juror. For the most part, they will be follow-up questions to the information that you provided on the questionnaire.

Before we get to those questions, I can tell you that the jurors selected to serve in this case will not be sequestered during the trial. That means at the end of court proceedings each day the jurors will be permitted to return home and then report back to duty the next morning. Because of that fact, the Court is continuing the prohibition on any exposure of the jurors to any publicity regarding this case, whether it be from television, radio, newspaper, internet, or any other source.

1 And in addition, the jurors are
2 prohibited from discussing the case with anyone,
3 including members of the juror's family, or even 4 other jurors, until all the evidence has been
5 received.

6 Although the proceedings in court are
7 open to the public today, because this is part of 8 the jury selection process, the Court does not 9 permit any cameras in the courtroom today. And 10 the members of the media are not permitted to 11 disclose the identity of the jurors in any news
12 reports.

13 If you are selected to serve as a juror
14 in this case, I can also tell you that while
15 there may be cameras in the courtroom covering
16 the trial, they are not permitted to show the
17 jurors.

18 In the event you are chosen to continue
19 on the jury panel after questioning today, you
20 will receive instructions as to when to report to 21 court again. Mr. Fallon, you are handling this 22 one?

23 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

24 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

25 Q. Good afternoon Mr. Kickland.

1 A. Good afternoon.

2 Q. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
3 General with the Wisconsin Department of Justice.
4 I'm one of the prosecutors in this case. To my
5 immediate left is Mr, Ken Kratz, the Calumet
6 County District Attorney. He's the lead
7 prosecutor. Again, good afternoon and thanks for 8 returning.

9 A. Okay.

10 Q. The attorneys have a few questions regarding some 11 of the information you provided in your
12 questionnaire last week and wanted to follow up
13 on those if we may. First issue, just somewhat
14 of a routine one. You indicate that you do wear
15 a hearing aide so --

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. -- is that -- am I -- Do you hear me comfortably?

18 A. I hear you well.

19 Q. All right. And when Judge Willis was talking to 20 you you --

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. -- could hear him well?

23 A. Yes. Mm-hmm.

24 Q. All right. I'm going to turn off my microphone
25 and see how that sounds.

1 A. Okay.

2 Q. I have a couple of questions for you?

3 A. You have a couple questions for me.

4 Q. All right. So you hear that just fine.

5 A. I hear that just fine. Just like wearing
6 glasses, I can't read without them, but it helps.

7 Q. I'm familiar with that. All right. Okay. You
8 are a retired barber by trade?

9 A. Yes, I barbered from 1954 until 1983.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. Got out of school in '54.

12 Q. And from 1983 to 1990, Department of -- was that 13 Regulation and Licensing?

14 A. Yes, I worked for the Department of Regulation.
15 I was assigned to the Barber and Cosmetology
16 Academy Board and also the Pharmacy Examining 17 Board.

18 Q. I see. So -- Okay. So you kind of kept your hand
19 in the business, more or less.

20 A. Yeah. Yeah.

21 Q. All right. Did you enjoy that work?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. All right. What did you like about it?

24 A. Well, when these people submit their application
25 for barber shop, or beauty shop, or school,

1 electrolysis, or drugstore, they needed to send
2 in also a floor plan. And my duties were to go
3 to these locations and inspect them and give them
4 their location license.

5 Q. All right. Did you -- Was that -- Were you
6 limited to the Manitowoc County area or did you.

7 A. No.

8 Q. -- range further?

9 A. At that time, in 1983, there were three of us.
10 We were given territories. My territory was -- I
11 had about 80 percent of Milwaukee County, Racine
12 County, Kenosha County, Rock County; in other
13 words, all the way to Prairie Du Chien. Grant
14 County, Madison. I had most -- I had the City of 15 Madison, and therefore south.

16 Q. So you had the whole south part of the state?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. I imagine that kept you pretty busy?

19 A. Yes, it was a nice job.

20 Q. All right. And as a result of that, I see that 21 either from your work and your schooling, you had 22 some background in accounting and bookkeeping?

23 A. Yes, being a barber, I guess, at the time when I
24 was barbering, this was in the '70s I took some 25 night courses. Help with my doing my own book

1 work and also to know people, adjustment,
2 psychology, human behavior. I was interested in
3 that.

4 Q. Yeah, I was going to ask you how you got from 5 barbering to psychology, but the more I think
6 about it, it's probably not that great a jump, is
7 it?

8 A. No, you do listen to people.

9 Q. Right.

10 A. It helps with communication, gives you an 11 understanding.

12 Q. All right. And how long did you study your 13 psychology or human behavior?

14 A. Those were evening courses, like one semester of 15 the psychology and human behavior. And the 16 accounting was there for the same, one semester.

17 Q. Very good.

18 A. It was not to be a career. It was just something
19 I guess I wanted to do.

20 Q. All right. And I see for your spare time you
21 like to play golf and play cards?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Among other pursuits?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Well, how are you hitting 'em these days?

1 A. Well, it's kind of cold now, but last summer -- I
2 do quite well --

3 Q. All right. Good for you.

4 A. -- in golfing. And in the wintertime I go to the 5 senior center and play cards.

6 Q. All right. And what card games do you like to 7 play?

8 A. This morning we played some sheephead (sic).

9 Q. All right.

10 A. And occasionally some cribbage. I like the 11 numbers.

12 Q. All right. And you, I take it for some of the 13 organizations you belong to, in addition to the 14 church and bowling, you are a volunteer driver
15 for Red Cross?

16 A. Yes, I did that from 1992 until they terminated,
17 at December 31st of 2006. So I gave them over 14
18 years.

19 Q. Very well. And something, a Mason, past member,
20 tell me little bit about your Mason experience?

21 A. That's as a Mason, I'm an active Mason now.

22 Q. All right.

23 A. I'm a past member of maybe a Fish and Game and 24 Isaac Walton league.

25 Q. Oh, all right. I misread that.

1 A. Yeah, I was involved with Isaac Walton League for 2 many, many years.

3 Q. I see.

4 A. And past president, 1974. State director a few
5 years. And let's see, Fish and Game, just more
6 of a friendship.

7 Q. All right. Well, I would like to talk to you a
8 little bit more now about some of the things that 9 are more directly related to the business at 10 hand. And I see from your questionnaire, you
11 know a few people that may or may not appear as 12 witnesses in this case. You know Mr. Curt Drumm?

13 A. Okay. My wife is -- It's through my -- Basically 14 she's -- she's a teacher with the -- out at 15 Woodland Dunes. And I know he's a member there.
16 And they had a retirement party over here at the 17 Maritime Inn at that time for Bernie when he 18 retired. It's more -- more due to a social
19 thing. I have never went out with him or eat
20 with him, or this and that. Just know who he is.

21 Q. You just know who he is. Okay. Well, how about 22 Lieutenant Todd Hermann; how do you know him?

23 A. From 19 -- let's see 1992, approximately 15
24 years, Tom Kocourek came to the Isaac Walton
25 League soliciting for some money so they have a

1 place for rifles and that stuff here at the
2 county, across the street here at the County Jail
3 here.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. I guess he was soliciting money. And we gave him
6 some money for that. And he also brought up that
7 they are having a volunteer program. And when I
8 heard that, I approached him on it at that 9 meeting, that I would be interested in
10 volunteering. And he told me I should contact
11 his secretary, Leist. I believe her name is 12 Leist. I don't quite remember exactly. So I got 13 a hold of her the next day. And I registered.

14 And then I think Mike Bushman and Rick
15 Torrington were the two people that trained a few
16 of us to be volunteers with the Sheriff's 17 Department. Basically, we took the cars to get 18 them washed, take them to like Maritime Ford and 19 to garages to have them repairs, take them to 20 Quick-Lube for oil changes. Did some escort for 21 funerals.

22 Oh, yeah, then we escorted a building to
23 the Historical Village. Deliver supplies. It
24 had nothing to do with enforcement or 25 investigation. Strictly -- It's mostly with the

1 cars and transportation escorts.

2 Q. Background support?

3 A. Yeah, that's basically it.

4 Q. Sure. And that's -- so that's your only
5 acquaintance?

6 A. Yeah, basically, yes. There were times maybe
7 Mike Bushman wasn't there, then Hermann was 8 there. He just told us to take this car and that 9 car. So nothing -- nothing outside of the 10 volunteer time.

11 Q. Sure. And how about Tom Kocourek?

12 A. Well, he was sheriff at the time.

13 Q. All right.

14 A. So there was always an appreciation. And there
15 was some certificates given out for volunteer
16 hours and, of course, you get to shake his hand.
17 He thanked us.

18 Q. All right.

19 A. In other words, nothing to do with investigation
20 or enforcement.

21 Q. All right. So it's just -- in other words, you
22 don't really know him well, you just met him
23 through your volunteer work and a couple of hand
24 shakes?

25 A. Yes. And then I do volunteer at Holy Family

1 Hospital for their network and occasionally I see
2 him walking through and we say hi.

3 Q. All right.

4 A. But that's about it.

5 Q. Just a casual acquaintance, then?

6 A. They do that with everybody as a courtesy.

7 Q. Casual acquaintance, then?

8 A. I -- If you asked me how many children he has, I
9 don't know.

10 Q. Okay. Fair enough. All right. Well, as you
11 might suspect, with a case like this, there's 12 been a fair amount of publicity. And in your 13 questionnaire, you report that you are at least 14 aware of some of the publicity associated with
15 this case?

16 A. Until I got the letter from Judge Willis' office
17 approximately January, I believe around the 18 middle of January, the 15th, I will say, not to 19 watch television, read the paper and things like
20 that and I abide by it.

21 Q. All right. And so, well, prior to receiving that 22 letter, were you at least aware of some of the 23 publicity in the case?

24 A. I read the paper.

25 Q. All right. So you have a general idea of what's

1 going on?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. And did you read the paper regularly,
4 daily?

5 A. Well, I subscribe to the Manitowoc Herald-Times
6 and I read it every day.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. Except until the last three or four weeks now, I
9 kind of omit the trial, which we were asked to 10 do. So I had not read that. When I see the 11 headlines, that's as far as it goes.

12 Q. All right. Well, you were asked a question and 13 this is one of great interest to all of us here
14 and that is whether, based on all the information
15 that you had available to you, prior to receiving
16 the Judge's letter, whether you had any opinion
17 as to whether Mr. Avery is guilty or innocent.
18 And you answered no.

19 A. I learned one thing, you have to learn what the 20 facts are and see what the evidence are.

21 Q. All right. So you formed no opinion as you sit
22 here today?

23 A. I have no opinion.

24 Q. All right. Well, associated with that is, do you
25 think that if you were selected as a juror in

1 this case you could decide the guilt or innocence
2 of Mr. Avery solely on the information which was
3 presented during the course of these proceedings?

4 A. I will listen to all, everything. I will listen
5 to everything first and then after, when it's
6 done, I would then make my decision.

7 Q. Okay. And you are willing to work with your 8 other jurors in reaching that decision, I assume?

9 A. I will do my best.

10 Q. All right. Now, you realize that the State,
11 that's Mr. Kratz and myself and one of our other 12 colleagues, we're the ones with the burden of 13 proof; in other words, we have to prove that 14 Mr. Avery is guilty, beyond a reasonable doubt.
15 And if we fail to do that, then you must return a 16 verdict of not guilty; do you understand that?

17 A. Yes, I understand that.

18 Q. All right. And as part of that, Mr. Avery
19 doesn't have to say or do anything. The only 20 burden in this courtroom is on the State, the 21 prosecution, to try and convince the jurors that
22 he is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt; do you
23 understand that?

24 A. I would listen to both sides and make my 25 evaluation from that.

1 Q. But if they chose not to put on any case and the
2 only evidence you had was the evidence that was
3 presented by the State, and if after you saw it
4 and you thought and thought and thought and you
5 talked with your fellow jurors and you just
6 didn't think the State had proven his guilt,
7 beyond a reasonable doubt, would you vote not
8 guilty?

9 A. Yes, not guilty.

10 Q. All right. Now, I see you did serve on a jury
11 once before; is that correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. All right. Can you tell me a little bit about 14 the case, as best you can remember, looks like it
15 was a while ago?

16 A. I don't remember the exact year. Seems to me 6,
17 8 years, late '90's, maybe 2000. I just don't --
18 I don't -- I didn't write it down, so. I -- I
19 was called in a couple times. And the time that 20 I sat on a jury, it -- it -- what the case was 21 about was forgery. It was a forgery and they had 22 the evidence. And they had -- it involved a bank
23 and all the proof was there.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. They had witness forgery. It was a forgery case.

1 We reached a verdict on that case.

2 Q. And you found the person guilty?

3 A. Yes, the jury found the person guilty.

4 Q. All right. Now, during that case, did the person
5 who was accused of committing the forgery, did
6 that person take the witness stand or choose not
7 to, or do you recall?

8 A. I -- I will be honest with you, I don't remember.
9 I remember the witnesses being there. I do not 10 know if she was on -- no, I just -- just don't 11 remember if she was on the witness stand or not.

12 Q. Well, we ask that because that's of some interest
13 to all of us here and want to make sure that you
14 understand that a defendant need not take the 15 stand, doesn't have to take the stand, doesn't
16 have to say anything. And as the rules are, you
17 can't hold that against him or consider their 18 failure to take the stand in deciding whether 19 they are guilty or not guilty; do you understand
20 that?

21 A. Yes, I understand that.

22 Q. And you accept that principle?

23 A. When a person makes a decision not to go on the 24 stand that's -- that's -- that's their affair and 25 I understand that.

1 Q. Okay. So, and you can decide this case without
2 paying any mind to that?

3 A. Yes, I can do that.

4 Q. All right. Now, just a couple of other
5 questions. Based on your, you know, experience
6 in regulation and licensing and your experience
7 as a juror and just your general experiences in 8 life, as you go about solving a problem, as you
9 go about formulating an opinion or an idea, do
10 you consider yourself kind of a picture person or 11 more of a detail oriented guy?

12 A. I was a -- Myself and what I am and what I do, to 13 me is, I'm not a big picture person. I'm more
14 down to earth. I don't have a problem helping 15 people across the street, that's what we do with 16 the Red Cross. You need patience, you need to be 17 able to open up doors for other people, show a 18 little courtesy. It doesn't matter who it is, if 19 it's young or old.

20 Q. Right. Well, in terms of do you -- are you one
21 who pays close attention to details or not so
22 much?

23 A. Well, to help and assist other people you have to 24 be very tentative. You have to be able to pick 25 up what they -- without being asked to do, to go

1 in and pitch in and help them out. You can see
2 that.

3 Q. Sure.

4 A. Yes, you do pay attention to other people.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. It's very, very important.

7 Q. In your spare time, do you ever work on puzzles?
8 Do you like to work on puzzles, or do you not?

9 A. Puzzles?

10 Q. Yeah.

11 A. No, I'm a reader.

12 Q. You're a reader.

13 A. Yeah, I'm reading Michener right now, Chesapeake.
14 It's a bay out on the east coast.

15 Q. James Michener novel?

16 A. I like novels.

17 Q. You said you were reading Chesapeake?

18 A. Yes, by Michener.

19 Q. By Michener.

20 A. That's what I'm reading now. I like to read. I
21 rather do that than set puzzles.

22 Q. All right. Do you dislike puzzles or just 23 don't --

24 A. No, I don't mind puzzles. I just rather read.
25 It's just a matter of choice.

1 Q. All right. I see that you do watch a show, like,
2 called Crime Scene Investigation, CSI?

3 A. I kind of watch it on Thursday night, yeah. I
4 got interested in it a couple of years ago and I
5 have been following that one.

6 Q. So, and you found that show somewhat realistic?

7 A. It's interesting. It's fun, some appears to be 8 real, yes.

9 Q. And some not so realistic?

10 A. Well, I'm not sure.

11 Q. Okay.

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'll pass the juror.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

15 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

16 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

17 Q. Dean Strang, Jerome Buting, Steven Avery.

18 A. Good afternoon.

19 Q. Collectively the defense. And I want to go back
20 just a little bit on some background that 21 Mr. Fallon touched on. How long have you been a
22 Mason?

23 A. Late '70s.

24 Q. And --

25 A. 1970, late '70s.

1 Q. If you don't mind my asking, what degree have you
2 attained?

3 A. Well, I -- I took the ark (phonetic) right, so I
4 ended up at the Triple I Shrine down in 5 Milwaukee. Then, being out of town a lot and 6 then I took a demit from it so. From all the 7 bodies except a Mason. I'm retired so I took 8 demit from the Shrine.

9 Q. Okay. And you retired now?

10 A. I'm going to -- I'm 71. I will be 72 in April,
11 29th.

12 Q. The -- The work you did for the Department of 13 Regulation and Licensing, that was paid work, I
14 think, right, or were you volunteering there too?

15 A. Oh, no, I was employed by the Department of 16 Regulation and Licensing. I think I was about 48
17 years old when I made the change from my own
18 business as a barber here in Manitowoc. And 19 through a friend that encouraged me to apply for 20 it, they were looking for two people at that 21 time. He thought I would make a good State
22 inspector?

23 Q. Mm-hmm.

24 A. -- and investigator for the Cosmetology and 25 Barber Examining Board at that time. And I took

1 the test and got a pretty good score and got the 2 job.

3 Q. What -- Did you think of that in a sense as law
4 enforcement?

5 A. When I applied for it, it was the understanding
6 that I would investigate their complaints.

7 Q. Right.

8 A. And do their inspection for a new location and do
9 unannounced inspections.

10 Q. Right. Right.

11 A. And their complaints would involve like 12 unlicensed practice.

13 Q. Mm-hmm.

14 A. And also you need a little knowledge about hair.
15 People do, as far as being competent, people do
16 get burns in their skin from the perm burns --

17 Q. Right.

18 A. -- and stuff like that.

19 Q. Right.

20 A. And heat. And unsanitary practice like soiled
21 towels and things. You need to change towels on 22 every patient or customer, things like that.

23 Q. So what drew you to this sort of law enforcement
24 aspect of that work?

25 A. The law enforcement, well, they have the Barber

1 Cosmetology Examining Board. And I also, later
2 on, I did the Pharmacy Examining Board. They do
3 have Administrative Code, which was set up by 4 their examining board, which needs to be 5 enforced.

6 Q. But what -- And my question is, what drew you to 7 want to do that sort of law enforcement work?

8 A. Okay. There's a fellow by the name of Mr. Hansen
9 and he worked for social service. He encouraged
10 me to take this up. It was his idea. Actually,
11 I turned him down. And he approached me again on 12 it and asked me if I sent in that application. I
13 said, no, he said I have one with me, would you
14 sign it. I said, yes. So it was actually an 15 encouragement through another person.

16 Q. Okay. And, then, when you were looking for some 17 volunteer work, you have done a lot of volunteer
18 work over --

19 A. Yeah, fire department, Silver Creek Fire
20 Department, spent some years there. Yes, I did.

21 Q. Isaac Walton, Holy Family Hospital.

22 A. Yes, active right today. In fact, I was 23 scheduled at Harbortown from 12 to 4. And I left
24 there at 2:00 to meet my appointment with you
25 people.

1 Q. So what was the -- Since you have so many
2 volunteer activities and opportunities, what was
3 the attraction to doing volunteer work for the 4 sheriff's department in particular?

5 A. Oh, okay. As I explained, in 1992, it was in the 6 wintertime, like about this time of the year.
7 The sheriff, Tom Kocourek, came to the Isaac
8 Walton League and also he was there to raise some 9 funds to have a rifle range over here at the 10 jail.

11 Q. Right. Yeah, and I don't mean to interrupt. I
12 don't mean to interrupt. I heard the story --

13 A. Okay.

14 Q. -- of how you heard about it.

15 A. Mm-hmm.

16 Q. But what was attractive about doing that? Why
17 did you --

18 A. When I asked him --

19 Q. -- choose to do that?

20 A. When I asked him what it involved with, he told
21 me about the cars and transportation, escorting,
22 things like that. I said, good, that gets me out
23 in the county, get a chance to take things to 24 Mishicot. We made a couple trips to the nuclear 25 plant. Then he said, funeral things, well, I

1 like people, I like to get out.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. Kind of get to know your surrounding area here in
4 Manitowoc County.

5 Q. And interact with people?

6 A. Yes, I like people best.

7 Q. Okay. When you first heard about the crimes
8 charged here, did they -- did they shock you?
9 Did they horrify you? What was your reaction?

10 A. You mean the crime, like?

11 Q. The crimes charged here, the accusations against
12 Mr. Avery?

13 A. I think any crime that I hear, as well as 14 Mr. Avery's, it's -- it's -- it's a shock.

15 Q. And did you react to that here? I mean this 16 isn't any crime. I mean, a young woman going
17 missing and then being found dead and someone
18 being arrested is unusual here?

19 A. Well, I don't know either one, but to me it is --
20 I have feelings for people.

21 Q. Right.

22 A. All people. And when something tragedy happens,
23 I mean, it's sad. I mean, it's something that 24 needs to be checked out, found out and just see
25 what's going on. Let's get the facts.

1 Q. Right. And here he is, this is the man the State
2 of Wisconsin has hailed into court, so to speak.
3 Do you think he's probably done something wrong
4 otherwise he wouldn't be here?

5 A. I don't know. I really don't know if he did
6 something wrong or not. I have -- It's what one
7 party says and what another party says.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. I have to sort that out.

10 Q. Let's follow that up a little bit. You explained
11 to -- when Mr. Fallon was questioning you, that 12 you would listen to everything --

13 A. Right.

14 Q. -- here before deciding, making a decision only 15 at the end. And that's good, but I need -- we 16 need to go one step further on that. The -- the 17 essential further step is in hearing and 18 listening to everything here and deciding the 19 case after you have heard everything here, can
20 you also put aside everything you heard before
21 you came to the courtroom?

22 A. I was -- I was -- I should be able to handle
23 that. I think I can do that.

24 Q. So, in other words, I think the Court will tell
25 you, will instruct you at the end, that you get

1 to decide the case only on the evidence you have
2 heard in court?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. Is that something you can do?

5 A. That I can do.

6 Q. Now, he will tell you you don't set your common
7 sense aside or leave that at the door, but in 8 terms of evidence, you don't get to consider what
9 you heard before you came to court; do you
10 understand that?

11 A. Anything in the past is in the past, we start
12 today.

13 Q. Right. And you would not consider what you heard
14 in the past?

15 A. No, we will not use the past.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. Only from today on, whatever we hear, that's what 18 we would make our decision on.

19 Q. Okay. And there's a natural inclination to want
20 to hear both sides of the story, I suppose,
21 right, to make a fair decision?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. But you may not hear both sides, or both sides
24 equally, in a criminal case. Because only the 25 State has any burden of proving anything to you.

1 Do you understand that?

2 A. Yes, I understand that.

3 Q. And while we don't sit like bumps on a log,
4 neither will we necessarily try to prove to you
5 anything. In other words, I may not try to prove
6 that Steven Avery is innocent. I may concentrate
7 on showing that they have not proved him guilty.

8 A. Okay. I understand that.

9 Q. You understand the difference?

10 A. Yes, I do.

11 Q. And let's get at that a little bit. Let's
12 suppose at the end of all of the evidence, you
13 have heard their witnesses, maybe we'll call some 14 witnesses, maybe not, but you have heard all the 15 testimony, you have heard the arguments of the 16 lawyers on both sides.

17 Now you are back with 11 other people
18 and you are going to decide, okay. And let's say
19 you, personally, come to the decision that, you
20 know, Mr. Avery might be guilty. Maybe he -- 21 maybe I even think he is probably guilty. But 22 I'm not convinced, beyond a reasonable doubt,
23 that he is guilty. I don't know if he's 24 innocent, because they didn't prove to me he is 25 innocent either. I think he may be guilty. He

1 is probably guilty. But I don't believe it
2 beyond a reasonable doubt. What verdict would
3 you vote to return if that's how you weighed out
4 all the evidence?

5 A. What verdict, would I give? If you don't give me
6 unreasonable doubt, then he would be not guilty.

7 Q. Okay. In other words, if he is maybe guilty,
8 your verdict would be not guilty; did I
9 understand you?

10 A. Well, I know, the way you explained it to me, you
11 have to prove that he is guilty. If he's not 12 proven, then he's not guilty.

13 Q. Beyond a reasonable doubt?

14 A. Reasonable doubt, correct.

15 Q. Okay. All right. Let's -- let's consider the 16 possibility that he does not testify. And I
17 think you said, well, that's his own affair?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. In some ways, though, it's your affair if you are 20 on the jury. And I think the Court would tell
21 you, if Mr. Avery chose not to testify, that you
22 simply could not consider that. It's not 23 evidence of guilt. It's not evidence of 24 anything. It's not evidence at all. Could you
25 work within that rule?

1 A. Yes, I can work with that rule.

2 Q. Now, suppose he does testify, let's suppose, for 3 whatever reason, we all here decide that he is
4 going to testify and he gets up on the stand.
5 Are you going to be sitting there saying, well,
6 how can I believe what he says, he is, you know,
7 he is the guy in the hot seat. He's the guy with 8 everything to lose. Are you going to say that or 9 will you be able to listen to him just like any
10 other witness?

11 A. I would listen to him. Because in the past, when 12 I went to a beauty shop or a barber shop, I
13 listened to everybody.

14 Q. Okay. Probably 29 years as a barber, my guess is 15 you heard a whole lot of gossip.

16 A. Well, everybody has things to tell me.

17 Q. Some of it turns out to be right?

18 A. And some is very interesting too.

19 Q. Right. Okay. And that's why we do what we do in 20 courtrooms?

21 A. I understand.

22 Q. To try to weed out some of the stuff that just 23 might be very interesting, but not so red hot in 24 it's reliability. That you can do?

25 A. Yes, I can do that.

1 Q. Okay. Having now worked in law enforcement with
2 the Department of Regulation and Licensing and
3 volunteered for six years or something at the 4 sheriff's department; do you tend to think that
5 law enforcement officers, people with a badge,
6 are more likely to be truthful than all of the 7 rest of us?

8 A. Okay. When I was with the sheriff's department
9 that was -- that's almost nine years ago since I
10 left them. And I would -- I would say the people
11 that I associated with, with the State of 12 Wisconsin, I will go back it up there with them
13 first. I worked with other -- other
14 investigators and therefore and inspectors and I
15 respect them.

16 And the same thing here, if it's a
17 voluntary thing, you go there in the morning and 18 they send you out with the cars and stuff so you
19 really don't get in depth with them too much.
20 They are not there to mislead us, just take the 21 car, do this, drop this and that off. So it was 22 very -- it was very -- congenial, I mean.

23 Q. Right.

24 A. It was more or less a fun thing. They made it
25 fun and made it easy for us. Our opinion, they

1 were very thoughtful of us volunteers.

2 Q. And my question is, with those warm feelings for
3 good police officers --

4 A. Yeah.

5 Q. -- does that carry over to where you would say,
6 you know, I trust police officers and their word
7 more than I trust other people, just because of 8 the job they have?

9 A. Well, I'm basing it on my experience with them,
10 yes. Same as at Holy Family Hospital. I respect
11 the coordinator of volunteer services.

12 Q. Mm-hmm.

13 A. You respect them and you trust them.

14 Q. But the rules here will be, I think as the Court
15 will tell you --

16 A. I understand.

17 Q. -- that all witnesses come on equal. It doesn't 18 matter what clothing they wear or whether they 19 have a badge?

20 A. No, doesn't matter.

21 Q. They are all human. You consider their testimony
22 all in the same sorts of ways?

23 A. Right. Yeah, being a Mason, you have to respect
24 everybody and your leaders.

25 Q. Okay. And that's something you can do here?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Do you think it's possible that a law enforcement
3 officer could lie under oath?

4 A. Yes, they can lie.

5 Q. Even under oath?

6 A. Some do.

7 Q. How do you know that?

8 A. Reading books.

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. Reading books, reading somebody's non-fictions.

11 Q. And I suppose other witnesses can lie under oath,
12 too, can't they?

13 A. It can happen, yeah. That's something that 14 doesn't end.

15 Q. What if it -- What if you heard evidence that 16 went beyond that and went to planting evidence?

17 A. I have to listen to it, I have to know what the 18 facts are.

19 Q. Okay. You are not just going to rule that out,
20 say that's ridiculous, could never happen?

21 A. No, no, no, I would not rule that out. I would 22 -- I like to hear about it. I like to know what 23 I'm talking about.

24 Q. Okay. Have you heard anything about a blood
25 vial, a tube of blood in this case?

1 A. That's about it. I know of it and then of course
2 I haven't followed up on it in the last almost 3 four weeks.

4 Q. And that's because of the letter you got from the 5 court or some other reason?

6 A. Well, I think it was -- I think it was on news
7 before I got the letter from the court.

8 Q. Right. And what did you learn about this tube of 9 blood?

10 A. Nothing, I don't know.

11 Q. Okay. In terms of planting evidence, how much
12 proof is it that you would want before you
13 decided something was or was not planted?

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: I object to that
15 question.

16 THE COURT: That objection is sustained.

17 Q. (By Attorney Strang)~ What -- What kinds of 18 things other than Mr. Michener and his books do
19 you like to read?

20 A. Oh, I read Liberia (sic).

21 Q. Other -- other than -- other than James Michener?

22 A. Oh, I see. Others. I was thinking of other
23 books that he wrote, I'm sorry.

24 Q. No, no. What kind --

25 A. My mistake, you said it right. I kind of like

1 Clancy, some of his non-fictions are pretty good.
2 Don (sic) Clancy, he wrote some nice --
3 especially General Horner, he was pretty
4 interesting over there, back in the '90s there.
5 Ended up running to space, pretty interesting.
6 Stuff like that.

7 Q. Okay. Two more quick things. What do you know,
8 if anything, about Mr. Avery's past?

9 A. None. Oh, well, I shouldn't say none. I don't
10 know him as a person, except that he was released
11 from prison. He was found innocent of a rape
12 charge.

13 Q. And is that something you accept?

14 A. Why, sure. It's public record. I mean, it shows
15 that he was not guilty. I except that fact.

16 Q. And last question, or maybe two if there's a
17 follow-up. But do you want to serve on this
18 jury?

19 A. I would be willing to do that.

20 Q. But do you want to?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Why?

23 A. Well, when I was a young fellow, I was drafted.
24 This was at the end of the Korean War, 1953. I
25 graduated, the Korean War ended shortly after I

1 was drafted. I wanted to serve my country. Of 2 course, they didn't have hearing aids like they 3 do now.

4 But anyway, they told me that, we're not
5 going to draft you. We're going to give you 4F
6 because you have a hearing problem. And I might 7 miss an assignment and cause some lives. Those 8 fellows served two, three years for their country
9 and more. And this gives me a chance to serve my 10 county, my community.

11 Q. And your country?

12 A. I want to do that. It gives me a chance to do
13 something. I'm going to be 72 and I would be 14 willing to do that.

15 Q. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: All right. Thank you,
17 Mr. Kickland, Linda will escort you from the 18 courtroom at this time.

19 MR. KICKLAND: Thank you.

20 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

21 THE COURT: Counsel, any motion from either
22 party?

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: No motion from the State.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: I don't have a motion,
25 but because I got burned a few years ago in a case

1 in Richland County, I do have some residual
2 questions about his hearing. With both lawyers
3 there were some answers that were not responsive to 4 the questions. It was okay when we were up very 5 close to the microphones.

6 But I do have some concern about that.
7 And I also have a strong feeling that people with 8 a hearing disability ought to be able to serve on 9 juries, but as I say, I got burned on that. I
10 made that mistake before.

11 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Kratz.

12 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Thank you, Judge. Calumet
13 County is blessed with a system which allows for and 14 encourages individuals with hearing problems to 15 serve. We have hearing assistance devices for 16 jurors. And should Mr. Kickland be invited to serve
17 on this case, that would be available to him in 18 Calumet County.

19 THE COURT: All right. My own impression
20 was, I know Mr. Fallon turned his microphone off and 21 spoke to the juror and I had trouble hearing a
22 little bit. I mean could hear what Mr. Fallon was 23 saying, but I think without the benefit of the 24 microphone it was not that loud and I thought that 25 the juror heard it pretty well.

1 I think certainly with the benefit of a
2 hearing assistance device, which I also use in my
3 courtroom periodically, I think it should work.
4 And I also try to watch the witnesses myself to 5 make sure they get up to the microphone and 6 invite any juror who can't hear any answer to 7 raise their hand during the course of the trial
8 whether they have a hearing problem or not and 9 ask them to repeat it. So I agree that can be a
10 problem in some cases, but I thought he -- he did
11 well.

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: As long as we all keep an
13 eye on it, I think he would be fine.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. I know the 15 parties mentioned they may have some motions
16 regarding other jurors; how about Juror 86, she's 17 next on the list, are there any objections to her?

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: Well --

19 THE COURT: If she --

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: Question 74 and 69.

21 Question 74 and 69 are the --

22 THE COURT: Okay. Let me check.

23 ATTORNEY STRANG: The context would be --

24 ATTORNEY BUTING: And 43.

25 THE COURT: I'm sorry. I'm looking at

1 Question 74; what were the other numbered questions?

2 ATTORNEY BUTING: 43 and 69.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: Okay. I'm sorry, the
4 questions for the next --

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: The questions for Debra
6 Nicholson.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: Do we have one juror
8 after No. 86?

9 THE COURT: We have three more, actually.
10 Next juror would be 90.

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: 91.

12 THE COURT: Oh, 90 and 91.

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: Oh, yes. Okay.

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: We have some concern
15 about 91; although, I think that looks on paper like
16 a better bet than 86 -- No. 86.

17 THE COURT: Is the defense asking to have
18 86 excused for cause before questioning?

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: I would if it will speed
20 things up. I also -- I understand that this is an 21 on the bubble situation.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: If you were to look off
23 paper, No. 90 might be the surest bet, but it all 24 depends on whether you want to deviate from the 25 order.

1 THE COURT: Well, we have 86, 90, 91, and
2 93 here.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: I think two out of four
4 look pretty good. You might have three out four
5 depending on how you want to do it.

6 THE COURT: We need one by my count.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: Right.

8 THE COURT: Will the parties stipulate to 9 passing over 86 and moving on to 90?

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: Sure, not striking her
11 but passing over her?

12 THE COURT: And if she gets selected, she 13 would be No. 30.

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: This next one would be
15 the last --

16 ATTORNEY STRANG: But does that include
17 Mr. Guckeisen?

18 THE COURT: Yes. He is in in any event
19 now, even if 86 -- 86 if accepted would be 29 and 20 Mr. Guckeisen is 87, he would be 30.

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: I see, okay. No, then I
22 don't have any problem with going to No. 90.

23 THE COURT: All right. So the parties are 24 not going to ask the Court to excuse 86 at this 25 time, but are you going to stipulate to taking the

1 juror out of random order and questioning Juror 90,
2 first?

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: I think to be very
4 technical, I am moving to excuse No. 86 for 5 subjective bias, but I have no problem if the Court
6 wants to hold that in abeyance and moot it out.

7 THE COURT: All right. With the 8 understanding that if 90 is in, the game is over.

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: If that's the count,
10 right.

11 THE COURT: Okay. All right. All right.
12 Let's have Ms Piaskowski in, then.

13 Ms Piaskowski, if you will please raise
14 your right hand, the Clerk will administer the 15 oath.

16 (Juror sworn.)

17 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

18 THE COURT: Ms Piaskowski, you have already
19 completed a written jury questionnaire in this case.
20 Today we're moving on to the next step in the jury
21 selection process which is voir dire.

22 The attorneys for each of the parties
23 will have an opportunity to ask you some
24 questions pertaining to your qualifications as a
25 juror. For the most part, they will be follow-up

1 questions to the information that you provided on
2 your questionnaire.

3 Before we get to those questions, I can
4 tell you that the jury selected in this case will
5 not be sequestered; that means that after each
6 day of the trial the jurors will be permitted to 7 return home. Because we're allowing the jurors
8 to return home, the prohibition on any exposure
9 to news media coverage will continue. That means
10 the jurors will be prohibited from being exposed 11 to any information about this case on the 12 television, radio, newspaper, internet, or any 13 other source.

14 And in addition, the jurors are
15 prohibited from discussing the case with anyone,
16 including members of the juror's family and even 17 the other jurors until it's time to deliberate at 18 the close of the case.

19 The court proceedings today are being
20 held in open session, but the Court does not
21 permit cameras in the courtroom during the voir
22 dire proceedings and the news media is not
23 permitted to disclose the identity of the jurors
24 in their news reports.

25 In addition, should you be selected as a

1 juror in this case, you should know that while
2 there may be cameras in the courtroom covering
3 the trial, they are not permitted to show the
4 jurors.

5 In the event you remain on the jury
6 panel after questioning today, you will be 7 notified shortly when you are to report back to 8 court. Mr. Fallon, at this time you may proceed.

9 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

10 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

11 Q. Good afternoon, Ms Piaskowski.

12 A. Good afternoon.

13 Q. How are you?

14 A. I'm fine.

15 Q. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
16 General with the Wisconsin Department of Justice.
17 I'm one of the prosecutors in this case. And I
18 would like to ask a few questions to follow up on 19 some of the information you provided last week.

20 A. Okay.

21 Q. By the way, thank you for your patience. I'm 22 sure we have probably interrupted your
23 afternoon's activities. Let me first begin by 24 asking just a couple of questions. You currently 25 work at Lakeshore --

1 A. Cap.

2 Q. What kind of business is that?

3 A. It's Community Action Program.

4 Q. How long have you worked for them?

5 A. It will be two years. It was two years.

6 Q. And what kind of work do you do for --

7 A. I am --

8 Q. -- that program?

9 A. -- sub-contracted out at Human Services in

10 Manitowoc.

11 Q. All right.

12 A. I work in Child Protective Services.

13 Q. Okay. And since you are familiar with Child

14 Protective Services, what aspect of that do you

15 do?

16 A. I'm a family support worker.

17 Q. I see. Okay. Have you always been a family

18 support worker?

19 A. No, I haven't. I have worked as a nurse's aide

20 and still do casually. Also worked at a

21 Montessori School.

22 Q. Did you teach or were you just an aide?

23 A. Assistant teacher.

24 Q. Assistant teacher. Very good. How long -- Do

25 you still keep your hand in that, did I hear you

1 say?

2 A. No. No. They keep me pretty busy where I am.

3 Q. Okay. All right. Now, in terms of a number of 4 interests, or at least some schooling you have
5 had, you have checked off a number. I suspect
6 now from what you have told us that makes sense,
7 you have some background in law, some psychology,
8 some medicine, some corrections. Is that as a
9 result of the Community Action Program and the 10 people that you work with in that system?

11 A. Yeah, there was certain courses we had to take 12 and follow up on. My role at my job right now is 13 going into homes and helping parents to get their 14 children back. They are all usually under 10
15 years old.

16 Q. All right. So this activity, it's not so much
17 the investigative work as to determine whether 18 services are needed, but your job is to go back
19 in and help put the family back together and get
20 everybody back on track?

21 A. Exactly.

22 Q. All right. Have you ever been involved in the 23 investigative angle to determine whether or not 24 services are needed in the first place?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Okay. So you have been strictly a service
2 provider almost?

3 A. Right. I can make referrals if I walk into a
4 home and feel something is unsafe. Yes.

5 Q. All right. Okay. Can you tell me a little bit
6 about one of your hobbies, what is the 7 Mississippi Exchange Program?

8 A. It's a long story. I'll make it very short.
9 It's bringing up black children from the south
10 and they stay with a Wisconsin family from 11 anywhere, 10 days to the whole summer. And the 12 point of the whole program is to have black
13 children interact with white children. Where we 14 go is the Delta. Mississippi burning took place
15 there.

16 Q. Sure.

17 A. The Klan is still very prominent down there. So 18 it's -- a lot of children down there have never 19 touched white skin.

20 Q. So, this is a program to promote racial harmony?

21 A. Right. Exactly.

22 Q. Do you yourself get to travel down to the Delta
23 area?

24 A. All the time.

25 Q. You do?

1 A. Fourteen times I have been down there.

2 Q. I'm sorry?

3 A. Fourteen.

4 Q. Okay. How often do you get down there, once or 5 twice a year?

6 A. I go twice a year.

7 Q. Okay. I'm going to guess that you probably find
8 that pretty rewarding?

9 A. Oh, I love it, yes.

10 Q. What's the most -- the most fun about it? What 11 really trips your trigger? What really -- What 12 did you like?

13 A. Um, the friendships, you know. It's an 14 eye-opening experience, truly. Whites do not 15 talk to me when I'm down there.

16 Q. Really?

17 A. No, I get called a "nigger lover". I get called 18 lots of things. So, it's not Wisconsin, that's 19 for sure. It's like visiting family again. You
20 know, we had the same boy for nine years now. So
21 when I go down there, I live with his family for 22 the amount of time I stay there.

23 Q. Okay. And how often are you down there for, a
24 week or two at a time?

25 A. Usually -- Well, I just started going down

1 longer.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. This year it will be two weeks I stay down there.

4 Q. All right. So I imagine you have developed a
5 fair amount of confidence in yourself and a fair
6 amount of thick skin.

7 A. Oh, yes, very much so.

8 Q. Very good. I would like to ask you a few
9 questions, if we may, about what you might know
10 about this case. You may or may not know there's 11 been a fair amount of publicity associated with 12 it. And we would like to ask you a little bit
13 about that. In terms of the news, where do you
14 get most of your news from; radio, television,
15 newspapers?

16 A. I will turn the radio on in the morning, usually,
17 before I get the kids up, so WOMT. It will be on 18 for maybe a half an hour or so. And then if time
19 permits I read the paper at night. But I do not 20 watch the news at night at all. I don't have 21 time. Usually my cases are at night.

22 Q. Right.

23 A. The kids are -- The cases I have, the children
24 are in school usually, so my visits are at night.

25 Q. All right. So do you work like a 3 to 10 kind of

1 hours?

2 A. I don't have set hours, it depends. Tuesday,
3 Wednesday, Thursday I have one family that I pick
4 the kids up from school and supervise the visit
5 with mom until 6:30.

6 Q. Right.

7 A. Something like that. Then I return them to 8 foster care. So I don't get home until 7, 8 --

9 Q. All right.

10 A. -- and then I spend time with my family and ...

11 Q. Hit the sack?

12 A. Hit the sack.

13 Q. All right. In terms of publicity, associated 14 with this particular case, do you have any 15 recollection at all; do you know much about 16 what's going on?

17 A. Well, of course, you know.

18 Q. You are aware he's been charged with murder --

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. -- right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. But beyond that, are any of the details -- do you
23 know much about any of the details?

24 A. Not the nitty gritty details, no. Of course,
25 when it first happened, you know, everybody was,

1 you know. But I was not by any means glued to
2 the TV watching it.

3 Q. Right.

4 A. I was at work. Steven Avery, as far as I know,
5 has never been involved with Human Services or 6 anything. I have never heard the name before all
7 of this happened so.

8 Q. Okay. Never heard the name before any of this 9 case came up?

10 A. No.

11 Q. All right. We'll get back to that in just a 12 moment. But I would guess about maybe three,
13 four weeks ago, you might have gotten a letter
14 from the Court advising you that you were a
15 prospective juror and asking that you refrain
16 from any of the media coverage that might be 17 attending to the trial. Did you get that letter?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And were you able to comply with its request.

20 A. Um, you're going to think this is -- Well, what 21 happened was, I didn't even read that bottom
22 paragraph.

23 Q. Right.

24 A. And so I just saw the top part if it and 25 everybody is saying, are you sure it's not this

1 case. I go, I don't think so. No, I didn't get
2 a separate letter. And, then, maybe a week ago I
3 read -- or read the bottom. I went, oh, oh,
4 yeah, it is -- it is Steven Avery's case.

5 So, no, I did not discuss it or talk
6 about it, because I didn't even finish reading
7 the whole letter, unfortunately. I read when I
8 needed to be here and what time and that was it.

9 Q. Okay. Did you read any -- see any of the news
10 coverage lately on the case?

11 A. Uh-uh.

12 Q. Not a thing?

13 A. I don't watch the news at night --

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. -- so. If it's in the paper, I happen to see it.
16 And, of course, I do a jail visit here, so I do
17 see the cameras out here --

18 Q. Right.

19 A. -- quite a bit.

20 Q. And according to the information you provided,
21 you have no opinion, whatsoever, about anything
22 in this case. In other words, you don't have any 23 opinion as to whether he is guilty or innocent at 24 this particular time?

25 A. Truthfully, I think I did until, like, I did hear

1 about one instance that I kind of changed my mind
2 a little bit so kind of put me more neutral.

3 Q. Okay. Well, tell us -- Well, let's start with --
4 We'll start with how you feel right now. I mean,
5 do you have an opinion?

6 A. Now I'm more neutral than I was in the beginning,
7 yes.

8 Q. Okay. All right. And so when you say neutral,
9 does that mean you have no opinion or it could go
10 either way or what do you think?

11 A. I think it could go either way.

12 Q. Okay. What was the event that brought you to 13 neutral or ground zero as it were?

14 A. I started out at neutral, too. But at first I
15 thought, no way, no, he couldn't have did this.
16 He just got out. There's no way.

17 Q. Right.

18 A. And then the specific event that made me kind
19 of -- after I heard all -- hearing what people
20 are saying and what not, I think, oh, my gosh,
21 yes, he did. And then the vial of blood that
22 they were talking about.

23 Q. What did you hear about that?

24 A. Just that it was unlocked or available to the 25 public.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. Something to that sort.

3 Q. Is that something from the media or just you
4 picked up?

5 A. Word. Word. Word of mouth.

6 Q. Word of mouth. Okay.

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. Okay. Okay. Excuse me, one moment, I managed to 9 run out of ink. And when did that come to your
10 attention?

11 A. Probably was shortly when it came out in the 12 news. I mean, I don't know exactly.

13 Q. All right. Recently or way back when?

14 A. Couple weeks ago, talking about it.

15 Q. All right. And that somehow brought you back to 16 neutral?

17 A. I don't want to say neutral but, you know, placed
18 some doubt in my mind, you know.

19 Q. Okay. So would it be fair to say you don't 20 really have a strong opinion either way as to his 21 guilt or his innocence, you just don't know?

22 A. Yeah.

23 Q. All right. Well, one of the things that you will
24 be instructed here by the Court -- and defense
25 counsel will talk a little bit about this as

1 well, but you will be asked, if you were selected
2 as a juror in this case, to decide this case
3 solely on the evidence which is presented during
4 the course of the trial and not based on anything
5 anybody would have told you at work or any other
6 friend, or family member, or anything like that;
7 that any decision reached by the jury in this
8 case would have to be just on the evidence
9 presented in court. Do you understand that?

10 A. Mm-hmm.

11 Q. All right. And is that a yes?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. Yes, I do.

15 Q. Do you think you could do that, follow that rule?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. Is there any doubt in your mind that you 18 would be able to base your decision solely on the 19 evidence that's presented?

20 A. I truly hope so, yes.

21 Q. Okay. Now, a part of that, also, is the fact
22 that the State has the burden of proof here. I
23 would imagine you are familiar with that from 24 your work in protective services. But the State
25 is the one who has to prove that someone is

1 guilty, beyond a reasonable doubt. Correct?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. And if they can't do that, then the jury must
4 come to the decision of not guilty?

5 A. (No verbal response. Nods head.)

6 Q. All right. You accept that?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right. And that would include, even if for 9 instance Mr. Avery and his attorneys chose not to 10 put any evidence in at all and the only evidence
11 that you had to consider was that presented by 12 the State. And if they didn't convince you, if 13 we didn't convince you, beyond a reasonable
14 doubt, of his guilt, you would have to vote not
15 guilty?

16 A. (No verbal response. Nods head.)

17 Q. All right. And you would -- you understand that?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And you could do that if that's what you felt in 20 your heart-of-hearts, after all the evidence is 21 in you say, geez, maybe he is, or he might be,
22 but I'm not convinced beyond a reasonable doubt,
23 so I have got to vote not guilty?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. You understand that?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And you could do that if that was what you -- the
3 decision you came to?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. All right. Math is never a favorite
6 subject.

7 A. I was going to say what are you laughing at.

8 Q. Well, I share your pain.

9 A. Yes, my children do too.

10 Q. You have a friend who's a detective in the 11 Juvenile division, I see, or not?

12 A. Yes, I do, but he got a promotion so -- and I
13 never got a chance to even -- can I say his name?

14 Q. Oh, sure, please. We were going to ask who he 15 might be.

16 A. Oh, Larry Ledvina.

17 Q. Larry --

18 A. Ledvina.

19 Q. Ledvina. Okay. Does he work for the sheriff's 20 department, police department or ...

21 A. He's with the -- I have to look at somebody for 22 help.

23 ATTORNEY BUTING: Sheriff.

24 A. Sheriff. Is that where he is? You can tell we 25 don't talk work when we do go out. His son and

1 my son are very, very good friends.

2 Q. Are good friends.

3 A. And I work with his wife so.

4 Q. Okay. But you don't talk any law enforcement
5 shop as it were?

6 A. No, no. I get told I don't park in the white
7 lines sometimes, you know, in front of the 8 building, but no we don't talk shop.

9 Q. So you don't talk -- So you have a deal, you
10 don't talk child support services and he doesn't
11 talk law enforcement?

12 A. No, not too often. When he was with juveniles
13 and we did respite, I would say, do you know this 14 kid, oh, yeah, you know, that kind of thing, but 15 otherwise, no, we don't.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. We stick to basketball, football.

18 Q. All right. Well, it may turn out, in fact, I'm 19 pretty sure, that there will be a fair amount of 20 law enforcement witnesses who will be asked to 21 testify in this particular case. And one of the 22 jobs of the jurors in this case will be to 23 evaluate their credibility.

24 And having been at least somewhat
25 involved in the system, do you think you can

1 evaluate the credibility of a law enforcement
2 officer or -- the same way you would evaluate the 3 credibility of any other witness?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. All right. In other words, you wouldn't hold
6 them to any higher standard, or any lesser
7 standard than you would any other witness that 8 would appear?

9 A. No, no. I would expect them to tell the truth.

10 Q. All right. Well, we would all hope so. But you
11 may be called upon to make a decision as to 12 whether some officers are being truthful or 13 untruthful during the course of the trial; do you
14 think you could do that?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Sure. All right. Now, I just want to verify a
17 couple of things. If you were selected as a
18 juror, the trial may very well go six weeks,
19 maybe a little longer, maybe a little less. Kind
20 of hard to guess, as you might know. Is there
21 any hardship that you think that might cause?
22 You answered no last week, but we just wanted to 23 touch base with you on that issue, make sure
24 there wouldn't be any problem if you were
25 selected as a juror.

1 A. Not that I can foresee, no.

2 Q. Okay. Just a related question. I forgot to ask
3 about your work. In working with families in 4 need and providing services, do you consider
5 yourself kind of a big picture person, bottom
6 line approach to things, or are you more of a
7 detail oriented, step-by-step approach to problem
8 solving or opinion forming?

9 A. People I work with, I -- I do have formed my 10 opinions on them, until I get to know them. We 11 work -- We do work step-by-step. It is a
12 step-by-step process for some of my families --

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. -- you know, to get unsupervised visits --

15 Q. Sure.

16 A. -- to get their children back.

17 Q. Right. So when you are trying to orchestrate
18 that and you're trying to put a family back
19 together, are you one who really pays a lot of 20 attention to the details, or are you thinking,
21 you know, big picture, what's going to work best
22 for this group? How do you go about it? If you
23 were to assess your own approach.

24 A. Well, right now, I'm in the middle of doing that 25 with a family. And we got the oldest child; we

1 have a date to go home. And we are doing the
2 step-by-step process. We are looking into the 3 future.

4 Q. Sure.

5 A. You know, we do a little bit of both, I guess.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. It's a very hard question.

8 Q. Well, may not be an easy answer.

9 A. Depends, yeah, depends what kind of case I have 10 at the moment or ... There's was, you know,
11 little baby steps --

12 Q. Sure.

13 A. -- that grew bigger.

14 Q. All right. That may be it. Just one moment.

15 Oh, yes. The one area I forgot to follow up on,
16 you were asked if you had any positions of 17 leadership and you indicated you were on the 18 Board of Directors for Project Self Help and 19 Awareness?

20 A. That's the Mississippi program, yes.

21 Q. Oh, that's the Mississippi program.

22 A. Yes. Yes.

23 Q. I see. So you have a fairly prominent role in 24 setting up the program and setting some of the 25 policies?

1 A. Yes, yes. Right now we're doing newspapers and
2 sending articles out to get more families, so.

3 Q. Sure.

4 A. That would be my hardship, yes.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. At home, but.

7 Q. So you might have to put a little of that on the 8 back burner for awhile?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Do you do that during the daytime or is that 11 something you do at night after you get home?

12 A. I don't do much of anything at night when I get 13 home, I'm pretty tired so.

14 Q. Okay. Fair enough.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: I guess that's it. I
16 will pass the juror. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Buting.

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you.

19 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

20 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

21 Q. Good afternoon.

22 A. Hello.

23 Q. It's almost evening.

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. My name is Jerome Buting. This is Dean Strang.

1 And we're, obviously, the defense attorneys for
2 Mr. Avery here today. I appreciate your candor.
3 And your questionnaire had some very interesting
4 background things, most of which Mr. Fallon has 5 covered.

6 But I want to talk a little bit about
7 this Mississippi Exchange Program. Maybe some
8 day I will be able to talk to you more about it,
9 but I won't get into it in great detail today.
10 But it seems like a very interesting program I
11 have never heard of. And I wonder some of the 12 lessons you may have learned from that, how you
13 apply that in your job and in your life and how 14 you may come to this jury with that.

15 You talked about how when you go down
16 there many -- or some of the whites really
17 ostracize you. Apparently don't like you, or 18 maybe even the young black kids that you are 19 trying to help?

20 A. It's not necessarily just the children. I could 21 be walking with the grandmother of the boy that 22 stays with us and I have gotten told to walk
23 behind him.

24 Q. You have gotten told by someone else?

25 A. A white man.

1 Q. Okay. So, I mean, that's a pretty --

2 A. Because I'm walking with a black woman, yes.

3 Q. That's a pretty snap judgment that somebody is 4 making, right?

5 A. Oh, yeah, yeah.

6 Q. And I guess so you have had some real hard,
7 sometimes cruel examples of what happens when
8 people judge too quickly?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And that, you know, if sometimes they don't take
11 the time to look deeper and more carefully at a 12 situation, they can completely misread you or the 13 situation entirely?

14 A. Correct, yes.

15 Q. Unfortunately, way too many people in this day
16 and age still have closed minds I guess, right?

17 A. Yes, especially, yeah.

18 Q. Do you think there's people up here in Wisconsin
19 like that too?

20 A. I don't notice it so much in Manitowoc because so
21 many people know my family and know Eric. We did 22 have one issue with, actually, a law officer. We 23 have a lake and Eric and my husband were putting 24 the pier in -- or the raft in, which is something
25 that floats so many feet from your pier. And my

1 husband had yelled, go get the wrench, or
2 whatever, so Eric just hopped on the paddle boat
3 and took it over there. And the DNR was out and 4 saw him on the paddle boat without a life jacket.
5 And the first thing the law officer said was
6 where's that's black boy, find that black boy.

7 So needless to say, they both got
8 tickets for $250 for not having ... But when we 9 brought up the black boy situation, we did get it
10 dropped. So I do find that, yes, you know.

11 Q. Even up here, sure.

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. That, of course, is sort of a racial bias --

14 A. Mm-hmm.

15 Q. -- or snap judgment. But there could be other
16 ways that people are biased as well and make snap
17 judgments and, you know, make the wrong
18 judgments, right?

19 A. Of course.

20 Q. Now, going to your knowledge or the information
21 that you got when you -- it wasn't clear to me, I
22 think you said it wasn't really the news so much
23 that you -- the TV news that you so much heard
24 about, it was what came on the radio and word of 25 mouth, is that more how you have heard about this

1 case?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And --

4 A. Of course, the beginning of the case, like I
5 said, was on the news constantly. I mean, if the 6 TV was on, it was interrupted or something by --

7 Q. Right.

8 A. -- by that, but ...

9 Q. And the news conferences, did you see those?

10 A. I saw a few of them, I believe.

11 Q. Okay. Now, it sounds like, though, even when you
12 first heard it come up -- come out, did you also 13 hear any of Mr. Avery on the news or saying that 14 he was framed, this isn't true?

15 A. I don't believe ever hearing him speak. I have 16 seen pictures of him being released.

17 Q. Okay. What about, did you hear from word of 18 mouth from other people that, the other side, he 19 was saying right from the beginning, that I was 20 framed or I'm being framed?

21 A. Yes, I have heard that.

22 Q. Okay. And it sounds like, at least initially,
23 your sort of gut reaction was maybe that's right
24 because I can't imagine him doing this, he just 25 got out, right?

1 A. Right.

2 Q. And then as you heard a little bit more evidence
3 that was being leaked out into the media, you
4 started to question that?

5 A. Exactly.

6 Q. Okay. But it's only recently, now, that you
7 started to reconsider that, now that you heard,
8 well, hey, there is a blood vial of some sort,
9 right?

10 A. Mm-hmm, yes.

11 Q. Okay. So, are you even open to the possibility
12 that maybe he is being set up or was set up,
13 framed?

14 A. I don't know. I don't know how to answer that.
15 I don't know enough.

16 Q. It's not something that you completely wouldn't 17 even consider, or is it?

18 A. Possibly. I mean, I guess, that's what put that 19 little bit of doubt in my mind --

20 Q. Mm-hmm.

21 A. -- you know, when I first heard it, yes.

22 Q. Perhaps, if somebody was so biased against him
23 that they would go to such a step?

24 A. I hate to think that would happen but ...

25 Q. Mm-hmm. Now, you -- you actually work in the

1 court system; it wasn't entirely clear to me
2 what? You work with CHIPS cases, is that it;
3 child in need of protection and services?

4 A. Some of them are.

5 Q. Okay. Some are, some aren't, some you get in 6 without actual ...

7 A. The majority of them are CHIPS.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. Some like us so much that are voluntary, they 10 want that.

11 Q. Okay. But it sounds like you have had some 12 exposure to the court -- a courtroom setting and 13 the rules of court and all of that?

14 A. I do not go to court.

15 Q. Oh, you don't.

16 A. No, very rarely, unless a client wants me there
17 for support. I will get a court order that says
18 they need to comply with their weekly visits with 19 me and follow through with, you know, whatever
20 the judge may say at the time, you know.

21 I have had to -- I was court ordered to 22 go to every doctor appointment, that kind of 23 thing. But not necessarily do I come to the 24 courtroom, no.

25 Q. Okay. But you do understand, it sounds like,

1 some of the basic principles of burden of proof?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And beyond a reasonable doubt?

4 A. Mm-hmm.

5 Q. And that the State has to prove everything?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. If -- On the other hand, if the defense --

8 Mr. Fallon asked you, if -- if we just did

9 nothing and didn't put on any kind of case or

10 evidence at all, would you be able to look at the 11 State's case and still decide if you have a

12 reasonable doubt and if they haven't proved it to

13 you, beyond a reasonable doubt, come back not

14 guilty, right?

15 A. Mm-hmm. Yes.

16 Q. Okay. If, on the other hand, we -- we did

17 present some evidence, some witnesses, or

18 cross-examination of the State's witnesses,

19 presenting evidence to you, would you start

20 thinking, well, okay, now I've got to see whether

21 they have convinced me, whether the defense has

22 proven to me that he is innocent?

23 A. Of course, yes, I mean --

24 Q. See --

25 A. I would have to take --

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. Am I reading you wrong when you ...

3 Q. No, I think what you're doing is perfectly

4 natural. Most people want to hear both sides.

5 A. Right.

6 Q. And want to kind of weigh one against the other.

7 A. Right.

8 Q. But when you come into court, the instructions

9 tell you -- the Judge will tell you that the

10 State has the entire burden of proof and that

11 even if we present any evidence, you don't shift

12 the burden to us and say, oh, okay, now did the 13 defense prove their case?

14 A. Mm-hmm.

15 Q. You still have to keep your focus on, you know,

16 your eye on the ball, which is, did the State

17 prove their case, beyond a reasonable doubt --

18 A. Right.

19 Q. -- while considering the defense evidence, but

20 not actually requiring us to prove anything?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. It's a little bit hard to do, but do you think

23 you can do it?

24 A. I believe I could.

25 Q. Okay. Let me ask it this way. If -- If

1 Mr. Avery, with us, through us, was not able to
2 prove who did this crime, would you still be able
3 to find him not guilty, if you had a reasonable
4 doubt whether he did it?

5 A. I believe that to find him not guilty I would
6 have to have no doubts in my mind at all.

7 Q. Okay. But to find him not guilty --

8 A. You would have to prove I would have no doubt. I
9 would have to be 100 percent --

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. -- without a doubt.

12 Q. And that's even if -- even if we couldn't show
13 who did kill her, let's say, even if we couldn't
14 show the real person who did this crime, as long
15 as you -- you still had doubts about whether he 16 did it, you could -- you would come back not
17 guilty?

18 A. If I had doubts that he still -- I guess I'm 19 still not understanding.

20 Q. That's my fault. I guess I'm not being clear.
21 Go ahead.

22 A. The State would have to prove to me that there is 23 no doubt in my mind that he did not do it; that 24 is what I feel. I'm not, like, maybe, maybe not,
25 you know, that kind of person. But you would

1 have to, also, prove to me that there's no way he
2 did it.

3 Q. We would have to prove that?

4 A. Well, yeah. I would like, you know, by your 5 testimony, or whatever you show me, I would like
6 to be able to walk away with a good conscience
7 thinking Steven did not do this, or Mr. Avery did
8 not do this.

9 Q. Okay. Well, let's --

10 A. I believe in my heart either he was set up,
11 someone else did it, or something.

12 Q. So what if --

13 A. I'm not asking -- I'm not thinking you would have 14 to give me a name and an address, that kind of 15 thing. If that's what you mean.

16 Q. Yes, of the real killer.

17 A. Right. Right.

18 Q. Okay. All right. So what if after hearing all
19 the evidence, including the defense evidence --

20 A. Okay.

21 Q. -- you thought, well, gosh, I don't know, maybe
22 he did it, maybe probably Steven Avery did it
23 but, gosh, I just don't know, there's these real
24 serious doubts I have. I'm not 100 percent
25 convinced that he is innocent, on the other hand,

1 I have some reasonable doubts about whether he is
2 guilty. Do you think you could come back with a
3 not guilty verdict if you felt that way?

4 A. I guess it's hard to answer that right now. I
5 would like to think that, in my heart, if I was 6 100 percent.

7 Q. See, what you -- what you have to focus on is --

8 A. The facts, I know. And, you know, I would have 9 to be fairly confident in my answer. I mean,
10 it's a -- it's a man's life --

11 Q. Right.

12 A. -- on the line. I would do my best, yes, I
13 guess.

14 Q. Okay. So, if the Judge instructed you that what 15 you really have to focus on is to be sure you
16 have no doubt --

17 A. Mm-hmm.

18 Q. -- whether he is guilty; the focus is not whether 19 you have no doubt whether he's innocent?

20 A. Mm-hmm.

21 Q. Do you understand the difference?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Because otherwise you would be making him prove
24 that he's innocent.

25 A. Mm-hmm.

1 Q. Do you see the difference?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. And you can do that?

4 A. I can try.

5 Q. Okay. I appreciate that. Now, since you have a
6 friend in the sheriff's department, although, you
7 didn't even know he was in the sheriff's
8 department?

9 A. Well, I -- shows how much we talk work, yeah. I
10 knew he was in the sheriff's department and he
11 was in juvenile -- he worked with the juveniles.
12 I did not know where his promotion led him to. I
13 know where his office is, I know how to get to 14 him, but I don't know.

15 Q. Okay. All right. Do you -- Do you think you
16 would have trouble facing him at your son's next
17 basketball or football game if you came back not 18 guilty?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Even if part of the defense was that somebody in 21 his department crossed the line and was really
22 trying to frame or set up Steven Avery?

23 A. No. I don't know whose in his department. No.

24 Q. That would not bother you?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Okay. Now, I can tell that you are very
2 dedicated to your job and your work, that's very
3 important, right?

4 A. It is, yes.

5 Q. And that's fine. Can you look at your jury
6 service the same way, that for the next six weeks
7 this would be -- if selected, this would be your
8 job and you would want to do just as good a job
9 and just as thorough a job at this responsibility
10 as your own job?

11 A. I would like to think so, yes.

12 Q. Okay. I'm almost done, but there's one last
13 thing --

14 A. That's fine.

15 Q. -- I forgot, on what your prior knowledge would
16 have been. You mentioned hearing a news
17 conference when the case was first charged; do
18 you -- do you know the name Brendan Dassey?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. The nephew?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. And have you heard some information about 23 him and can you tell me briefly what that is?

24 A. What I know about him?

25 Q. Yes.

1 A. Is that what you are asking me?

2 Q. Yes.

3 A. I know, probably what everybody else knows that,
4 you know, he said he got off the bus. He heard
5 some noise. He went to Mr. Avery's trailer, that
6 part. And that he participated in Teresa's
7 death.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. Then a few weeks later, I heard that he said he 10 did not do that.

11 Q. Okay. Can you -- Are you familiar with the -- 12 with anybody who has ever falsely confessed to 13 something they didn't do, before?

14 A. No. No, usually it zaps them. The people I work
15 with.

16 Q. Sure. Can you conceive of any reasons why
17 somebody might, a 16 year old in particular?

18 A. I probably -- and this wasn't really touched on 19 with you, sir, but he -- Branden?

20 Q. Brendan.

21 A. Yeah, my son is 16 so, of course, you know he 22 knows friends from Mishicot. And when all this 23 happened he said, someone he knew said that he 24 was so quiet they couldn't imagine him doing
25 that. He was just a quiet boy that they couldn't

1 imagine him doing that. And I can vividly
2 remember my son coming home and saying that.

3 Q. Okay. What if -- what if the State didn't call
4 Brendan Dassey at all in this case; would that be
5 a problem for you?

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: Object to that question.

7 THE COURT: Based on the form of the 8 question, I will sustain the objection.

9 ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay. Let me rephrase
10 this.

11 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ What if, since you have 12 heard that whole story, what if --

13 A. Which whole story are you talking about?

14 Q. The one you --

15 A. My son, or the first one.

16 Q. The one that you said you heard Brendan Dassey
17 say about getting off the bus --

18 A. Right.

19 Q. -- and all of that?

20 A. Okay.

21 Q. Since you have heard all of that, what if you had 22 -- had to sit through this trial and never hear
23 any of that, never hear that story at all; would 24 you be able to put that out of your mind and 25 decide the case only on the facts here?

1 A. Apparently I would have to if it wasn't brought
2 up. If it wasn't --

3 Q. If for some reason he didn't testify in this case
4 and you never heard that story and any of it, or
5 you heard some -- some of it, but maybe not all
6 of it, whatever, the point being, could you block
7 out any of that outside information you had heard
8 and focus only on the evidence that you hear in
9 court?

10 A. I would do my best.

11 Q. Okay. Well, knowing all of that, is this a case
12 you think you would like to be on the jury? Do
13 you want to be on this jury?

14 A. I don't know if anybody wants to be on a jury. I
15 guess I'm very -- I'm like -- my friends are 16 asking me that too. I'm very much, if it's meant
17 to be, it's meant to be, you know.

18 Q. Okay.

19 A. I will do my best to abide by the law and, you
20 know, do what I have to do. But, no, I don't 21 want to give up going to State. I'm sure
22 Roncalli is going to State this year. No, I
23 would rather be doing that with my family, if 24 that's what you are asking me. But if I get 25 picked to serve, I will serve and do it to the

1 best of my ability, yes.

2 Q. Okay. That's fine. Thank you. Very much.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

4 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

5 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

6 Q. Yes, I want to clarify something.

7 A. Okay.

8 Q. And I don't want you to have the wrong
9 impression.

10 A. Okay.

11 Q. And I'm not sure what you have. You keep saying
12 if I'm not 100 percent sure, or the State would 13 have to prove -- you said the State would have to 14 prove that there's no doubt of his guilt?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. All right. Now, you understand that the State's 17 burden of proof is to prove beyond a reasonable
18 doubt?

19 A. Reasonable doubt.

20 Q. Not beyond all doubt.

21 A. Okay.

22 Q. Not to the exclusion of any doubt. It's not a
23 hundred percent.

24 A. Okay.

25 Q. So, in other words, can you give the State a fair

1 shake. I don't want you to hold the State to a
2 standard that the Court is going to instruct you
3 is --

4 A. I think I'm thinking more in my mind, you know.
5 I want to be -- be able to sleep at night too.

6 Q. Right.

7 A. You know, and -- but...

8 Q. Well, do you understand there's a --

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. A difference --

11 A. A reasonable doubt.

12 Q. Beyond all doubt --

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. -- no doubt and a reasonable doubt?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. All right. And you have that squarely in your 17 head. And, well, if Judge Willis were to say,
18 when it came time to start deliberations, you
19 would have to determine whether he is guilty,
20 beyond a reasonable doubt. In other words, you
21 are not going to hold the State to a standard
22 higher than that?

23 A. Okay. Yes.

24 Q. Do you accept that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. And do you have an idea in your head where 2 that all lies out?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. The Court will describe it much -- in more
5 detail later on but ...

6 A. And that's a lot of what, you know, I have never 7 been on a jury before so some of that you will
8 have to pinpoint for me and clarify.

9 Q. The Judge will take care of that.

10 A. That's his job?

11 THE COURT: I'm actually going to do some 12 of that right now. I have a few questions to ask
13 you.

14 MS PIASKOWSKI: Okay.

15 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

16 BY THE COURT:

17 Q. I'm going the try to phrase the questions as best
18 I can, along the lines of the instructions that 19 the jury would get at the close of the trial.

20 A. Okay.

21 Q. First, and the parties on voir dire, as they are 22 permitted to do, you know, ask you for attitudes.
23 But one of the things that -- one of the 24 commitments we have to get out of jurors is that 25 they are able to follow the instructions given by

1 the Court even if they might judge things
2 differently in the absence of any instructions.

3 So, first of all, with respect to the 4 burden of proof, the burden of proof is for the 5 State to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that
6 Mr. Avery is guilty of any of these particular
7 charges. Mr. Avery does not have a burden to 8 prove anything. And at the end of the trial, the 9 Court will instruct you that you can only find
10 Mr. Avery guilty of any charge if you are 11 convinced, beyond a reasonable doubt, that he's 12 guilty. Do you understand that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Is that an instruction you think you can follow?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And that means, for example, if you get in the 17 jury room and you are thinking to yourself, well,
18 you know, the State introduced some evidence to 19 show that he is guilty. And, you know, I think
20 there's a chance that Mr. Avery is guilty, but I
21 have also got some serious doubts.

22 And while I know in your answers you
23 said you would like to be 100 percent sure, you
24 might not be 100 percent sure, either of guilty
25 or not guilty. But unless you are sure, beyond a

1 reasonable doubt, that he is guilty, you would
2 have to vote not guilty; is that an instruction
3 you can follow?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. If I instruct you at the end of the case that 6 those are the rules, can you follow those?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. One other thing I wanted to mention related to,
9 you, like many of the jurors, have been exposed
10 to some publicity concerning this matter. And as 11 Mr. Buting explained, if you're selected to serve
12 as a juror, another important instruction will be 13 that you have to base your decision only on the 14 evidence that you hear in court.

15 Some of the information that's been on 16 the news may not be brought forward as evidence
17 at court. And you can't be speculating, well, 18 did that not come in because it didn't happen, or 19 because of some other reason.

20 You just have to base your decision only
21 on what you hear in the courtroom. And you can't 22 wonder why other evidence that you may have 23 thought you were going to hear didn't come in.
24 And you can't speculate about why it didn't come
25 in.

1 I know you have indicated today that you
2 have heard some things in the news that tend to
3 make you feel both ways. But if you're selected
4 as a juror, you have to commit to make your 5 decision only on the evidence that does come in 6 and what you do hear; that is, what you do hear
7 in the courtroom. Do you feel that you can do
8 that if you are selected as a juror?

9 A. Yes. Yes.

10 Q. Do you have any questions about it that you want
11 to ask?

12 A. No. No. I have a 12 year old that is very good
13 about, if it's on the radio, he will turn it off.
14 He says, mom can't hear that, or the paper, gets 15 rid of that ever since, so.

16 THE COURT: All right. At this time,
17 Linda -- we'll have Linda escort you out of the 18 courtroom.

19 MS PIASKOWSKI: Okay. Thank you.

20 (Wherein the juror was excused.)

21 THE COURT: Now, counsel any motions from
22 either party?

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: None from the State.

24 ATTORNEY BUTING: None from the defense.

25 THE COURT: All right. Ms Piaskowski will

1 be made a part of the jury panel. And I believe
2 that brings us to 30; is that the count of everyone?

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's what I have.

4 THE COURT: Janet, I will ask you first.

5 THE CLERK: That's what I have.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Now, with respect to
7 proceedings from this point forward, the parties
8 made a suggestion earlier today to the Court that 9 was on a tentative basis, I believe, depending on 10 events today, which we have done that; we have 30
11 jurors. The parties would be prepared to exercise
12 their peremptory challenges tomorrow morning at 13 9:00; is that correct?

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

15 THE COURT: That works for both parties?

16 ATTORNEY STRANG: I think 9:00 is fine if
17 we're out of here pretty soon.

18 THE COURT: Well, we're going to be out of 19 here pretty soon.

20 ATTORNEY STRANG: That's fine.

21 THE COURT: We're not dealing with anything
22 else today. So ... All right. We'll meet back in 23 this courtroom, then, at 9:00 tomorrow for 24 peremptory challenges.

25 And it's also my understanding, the

1 parties suggested to the Court and as I think
2 about it, I think it's a good suggestion, that we
3 address the defense motion regarding the State's 4 demonstrative exhibits that it wishes to make
5 part of its opening statement, tomorrow afternoon
6 in Chilton. 1:00?

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: Sure.

8 THE COURT: Does that work for the parties?

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: Sure.

10 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes.

11 THE COURT: I also would like to address
12 any comments that the parties have regarding my 13 opening instructions, at that time.

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: In Chilton?

15 THE COURT: In Chilton. And I will ask the 16 parties at this time, is there anything else they 17 feel should be on the agenda for tomorrow afternoon?

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: Just a little
19 clarification, are we doing the peremptories with 20 the jurors here in the courtroom or are we doing
21 that --

22 THE COURT: No, they will be here in the
23 courtroom.

24 ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay. They will be here
25 in the courtroom and then we'll be back and forth

1 and when we get -- we have exercised all of them,
2 the Clerk will read them off and the rest will go.

3 THE COURT: Right. Normally, the attorneys
4 sit at counsel table and pass the sheet back and 5 forth.

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's fine.

7 ATTORNEY BUTING: I just wanted to be sure
8 we're still doing it that way.

9 ATTORNEY FALLON: Right. That was my
10 concern as well, to make sure that all 30 were here.

11 THE COURT: They will be here.

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: Okay.

13 THE COURT: Now, because of seating, some 14 of them will be in the front row or the front two 15 rows of the audience behind you. We can't fit 30
16 jurors in the jury box. But I know the parties like 17 to be able to see their faces, so you will be able 18 to do that.

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: Good.

20 THE COURT: Anything else on the agenda for 21 tomorrow afternoon?

22 ATTORNEY STRANG: No. And it's at least
23 possible that I may be flying solo at that hearing;
24 we haven't decided that entirely.

25 THE COURT: Okay. For the benefit of the

1 news media here, that means that the no camera rule
2 will still be in effect in the morning for the jury
3 selection. However, I think the parties, and
4 perhaps the media as well, may want to use tomorrow
5 afternoon's proceedings in Chilton as a dry run.
6 Those proceedings will be open to the public and
7 cameras are permitted. So I think that addresses
8 media concerns. Anything else before we adjourn
9 today?

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: I can't think of
11 anything, but for whatever reason I just -- I seem
12 to be -- I just have this gnawing feeling that there
13 is something we're omitting, but not of any great
14 consequence that we can't deal with tomorrow.

15 THE COURT: All right. We will see you at 16 9:00 tomorrow.

PROCEEDINGS IN CALUMET COUNTY

MOTION HEARING 30

WITNESSES

TROOPER TIM AUSTIN

Direct Examination by ATTORNEY KRATZ 33
Cross-Examination by ATTORNEY STRANG 69
ARGUMENTS TO MOTION 111

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 the case of State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery,
3 Case No. 05 CF 381. Will the parties state their
4 appearances for the record, please.

5 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Good morning, your Honor.
6 The State of Wisconsin appears by Calumet County
7 District Attorney Ken Kratz appearing as lead
8 special prosecutor in this case. Also appearing on 9 behalf of the State is Tom Fallon, Assistant
10 Attorney General with the Department of Justice and 11 Norman Gahn, Assistant District Attorney from 12 Milwaukee County, also appearing as special
13 prosecutors.

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: Good morning, Steven
15 Avery is here in person, your Honor. Jerome F.
16 Buting represents him, to my right, and Dean A.
17 Strang.

18 THE COURT: Very well, we are here this
19 morning to complete the process of jury selection.
20 The remaining members of the jury panel are now in 21 the courtroom. At this time the Clerk will call the 22 jury panel members by name and the jury bailiff will 23 show the panel members where to be seated.

24 THE CLERK: Daniel Slaby, Diane Free, Terri
25 Temme, Jacqueline Ungrodt, Cherri Haskell, Barbara

1 Schmidt, Sharon Thorne, Julie Dorn, Paul Nelesen,
2 Nathan Klein, Philip Saari, Michael Stonebraker,
3 John Lawrence, August Schuette, Marian Flint, Kevin
4 Brotski, Richard Mahler, Tami Gosz, William Mohr,
5 Patrick Keehan, Melvin Pedersen, Henry Gray, Nancy
6 Stienmetz, Mary Lou Salomon, Carl Wardman, Laura
7 Barber, Scott Defere, Donald Kickland, David
8 Guckeisen, Patricia Piaskowski.

9 THE COURT: Members of the jury panel, as I
10 explained last week, now that 30 qualified jurors
11 have been identified, the parties will be exercising
12 what are known as peremptory challenges. Each side,
13 on an alternating basis, is permitted to strike
14 seven members of the jury panel.

15 The 16 remaining jurors will hear the 16 evidence in this case. At the conclusion of the 17 trial, the names of the alternate jurors will be 18 drawn by lot and 12 jurors will deliberate and 19 render verdicts in this case. The parties will 20 now begin the process of exercising their
21 peremptory strikes. The courtroom is to remain
22 quiet until that process has been completed.

23 (Peremptory strikes made.)

24 THE COURT: At this time the Court will
25 read the names of the persons who have been selected

1 to serve on the jury in this case. When you hear
2 your name read, please stand.

3 Daniel Slaby, Diane Free, Terri Temme,
4 Barbara Schmidt, Sharon Thorne, Julie Dorn, Paul
5 Nelesen, Nathan Klein, August Schuette, Marian
6 Flint, Richard Mahler, William Mohr, Henry Gray,
7 Nancy Steinmetz, Carl Wardman, Laura Barber.

8 Those of you who are still seated will 9 not be serving on the jury in this case and your 10 jury service in this matter is complete. On 11 behalf of Manitowoc County, I want to thank you
12 for your service. I do have one final
13 instruction to read to you before excusing you
14 this morning.

15 Your service in this case is completed.
16 You do not have to answer questions about the 17 case from anyone other than the Court. There is 18 no requirement that you maintain secrecy
19 concerning your participation in this case, but 20 you do not have to discuss the case with anyone
21 or answer any questions about it.

22 At this time the Court will ask that the 23 jurors who are currently seated -- those of you
24 who are standing can sit; the rest of you can 25 stand at this time and the bailiff will escort

1 you to the jury room.

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: Your Honor, there will be
3 a motion that should be addressed before anyone is 4 excused.

5 THE COURT: Do you wish to do that in the 6 presence of the jurors?

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: I do not.

8 THE COURT: Pardon me?

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: I do not.

10 THE COURT: Oh, okay. All right. Take
11 them to the Branch 1 jury room on the other side.
12 You can follow the bailiff.

13 (Excused jurors taken to the Branch 1 jury room.)

14 THE COURT: All right. As soon as the 15 bailiff gets back we will have the other jurors
16 retire to this room.

17 At this time those jurors who have been 18 selected to serve on the jury in this case may 19 rise and the bailiff will escort you to this jury
20 room. They will be coming back out, Shirley.

21 JURY BAILIFF: Okay.

22 (Chosen jurors taken to Branch 2 jury room.)

23 THE COURT: The Court will note for the 24 record that the jurors are now in the jury room,
25 outside of the courtroom. Mr. Strang.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you, your Honor.
2 Outside the presence of the jury now, given the
3 demographics of those approximately 90 jurors we saw
4 physically from the panel and the State's use of one
5 of its seven peremptory strikes to strike
6 Mr. Lawrence, I feel bound to make a motion to 7 reverse that State peremptory strike under -- on 8 authority of Batsen vs. Kentucky and cases that 9 follow.

10 I will make the following record as a
11 matter of prima facie showing. The highest 12 sequenced numbered juror whom we examined was 13 No. 90, by my count. Of course, there were a 14 number of jurors struck by joint motion before we 15 got to 90, so we didn't see 90 human beings here.

16 But of those we did see over the last
17 four days one and one only appeared to be at 18 least partly of African/American heritage, and 19 that was Mr. Lawrence. I noticed one other
20 person who appeared clearly, at least to my eyes,
21 to be not of European ancestry and that was 22 Huang (sic) Dao, first name, H-u-a-n-g, last name
23 D-a-o.

24 Of -- Of those two people, only
25 Mr. Lawrence was in the final pool of 30. As I

1 say, I can't comment, I don't know his ethnicity
2 or his parentage, but to the eye he looks to have 3 at least one parent of -- ultimately African
4 heritage, describe him as a light-skinned black
5 man with a relaxed curl for his hairdo.

6 The other jurors in the final 30 appear
7 to me to be of -- what I will call European 8 ancestry; that is, Caucasian or white-skinned, in 9 the vernacular. So I -- I think there's a prima
10 facie showing.

11 I note as well that although the Court
12 ultimately found cause for striking Huang Dao,
13 Mr. Huang was a juror we sought to keep and,
14 indeed, I think I wanted him held in abeyance if 15 nothing more. The motion to strike Mr. Dao was 16 the State's.

17 Again, that's a different matter in the 18 sense that the Court found cause. And I believe
19 I acknowledged that, you know, there were --
20 there was a basis for the State's motion for 21 cause and I recognize the potential issues there.

22 I add that only for the full context in 23 moving to set aside the State's use of its 24 peremptory strike against Mr. Lawrence as a
25 matter of due process under the Fourteenth

1 Amendment to the United States Constitution and
2 the correlative provisions of Article 1 of the 3 Wisconsin Constitution.

4 THE COURT: Who will be responding on
5 behalf of the State?

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: I will, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes. Thank you.

9 Actually, I find the motion rather stunning from 10 counsel very accomplished as Mr. Strang.
11 Nonetheless, I have several responses, both legal,
12 practical, and the like.

13 First and foremost, the first step in
14 any Batsen challenge is that the defendant must 15 show that he or she is a member of a cognizable
16 group and that the prosecutor has exercised
17 peremptory strikes to remove members of the 18 defendants race from the venire. So unless 19 counsel is suggesting that Mr. Avery is of 20 African/American descent that would be a new
21 revelation to the State.

22 And even if that were the case, I would
23 indicate for the Court that we seriously thought
24 yesterday that we were going to move to strike
25 Mr. Lawrence for cause. We were not -- We

1 weren't as quite certain as we are this morning,
2 but we believe that Mr. Lawrence lied on his
3 questionnaire.

4 In fact, if the questionnaire is to mean
5 anything, it's a significant question. We were 6 uncertain because we wanted to verify as best we 7 could and we think we have, although nothing is 8 100 percent certain. But he, in answer to 9 question, I think it is Question 54, Have you,
10 any members -- any family members or anyone close
11 to you ever been a suspect and arrested for or 12 charged with a criminal offense?

13 First, we thought it was Mr. Lawrence
14 himself who had been arrested and has a pending
15 drug offense. But it turns out there is a John 16 O. Lawrence, Sr., age 44, whom we believe to be 17 this juror's father, with pending offenses; in 18 fact, he has a number of pending drug offenses.

19 And he indicated no. And I believe he 20 indicated there was no contacts with law
21 enforcement of any kind. And that caused us some 22 great concern. We were, last evening, working on 23 the CCAP program and trying to verify as much as 24 we can. But we believe this John O. Lawrence,
25 Jr. to be the son of the John O. Lawrence, Sr.

1 with a criminal history.

2 Would also indicate for the Court that
3 another matter concerned the State and that is 4 the youth of this man. And, obviously, at the 5 young age of 20, it's very hard for someone of 6 that age to distinguish themselves in the
7 community, but he did not impress us with a
8 significant work history, for any of that to 9 suggest to us that he had a claim or a sufficient
10 stake in the community relative to the 11 deliberation process.

12 But primarily, we are under the 13 impression, based upon our information, that he 14 was not truthful in his questionnaire and, quite 15 frankly, he should have been struck for cause.
16 We wanted to do our best to try to verify as best
17 we can. Lots of phone calls late into last
18 night. And we believe that he is, in fact,
19 related, as best we can, given the name and same
20 middle initial and the junior and what have you.

21 As a result of which, so we have a legal 22 basis, this is not a Batsen issue. Two, we have 23 a juror who we believe lied. And three, we have 24 the demographics of he did not distinguish
25 himself; he did not look to us like he would be a

1 responsible dedicated juror, notwithstanding the
2 responses he gave. And those are our reasons.
3 Hold on. Is there a concession that Mr. Avery is 4 not a member of the cognizable class?

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: Mr. Avery, is not
6 African/American. And it has been established since 7 1990 or 1991, by the United States Supreme Court, in 8 Powers v. Ohio, that one need not be a member of the 9 same ethnic group or other cognizable class as the 10 struck juror to raise a Batsen challenge; Powers vs.
11 Ohio, United States Supreme Court, if my memory
12 serves even closely.

13 So I think that lays to rest entirely
14 the first defense the State offers, which is the 15 legal one. As to the factual defense, the jury
16 questionnaires will be part of the record, but I
17 recall nothing in which Mr. Lawrence offered his 18 middle initial or his middle name.

19 Now, whether there's a John O. Lawrence,
20 Sr., who is in fact his father, I don't know. My 21 recollection is the juror made a comment about 22 not knowing much about his father or not having 23 much contact. And I don't really -- don't
24 remember exactly what he said and I could be a
25 mile wide there. But the transcript would --

1 would bear that out. I do recall him listing Jr.
2 on his questionnaire. I do not recall a middle 3 initial.

4 THE COURT: All right. The Court does not
5 have the Batsen test committed to memory; it's not
6 something that gets raised very often. Mr. Fallon.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: Well, there is a recent 8 Wisconsin Supreme Court case. I'm aware of Powers.
9 There is a 2003 Wisconsin Supreme Court case State
10 vs. Lamon, L-a-m-o-n, setting forth the three step
11 process, as well, that could be examined.

12 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to take a
13 short recess. And then we'll go back on the record.

14 Before I do that, let me ask, as long as 15 we're on the record, something I meant to ask
16 earlier: Subject to the objection raised by the 17 defense, are the 16 jurors that the Court has 18 identified, the jury that each party selected
19 based on their peremptory strikes.

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: I believe the panel left
21 reflects the -- accurately those which were struck
22 by the State.

23 ATTORNEY STRANG: So do I.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 (Brief recess taken.)

1 THE COURT: At this time we are back on the
2 record outside the presence of both the at least
3 tentatively excused jurors and the jurors who have
4 been tentatively selected to serve on the jury
5 panel. The defense has made a motion challenging
6 the State's decision to exercise one peremptory
7 challenge for the purpose of removing a juror who
8 appears to be of a minority race in this case.

9 I'm not sure that that fact is disputed;
10 that is, I believe that both parties recognize 11 Mr. Lawrence would fall into the category of 12 somewhat of a minority race.

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: And I -- I think so, but
14 I also -- I was going to add one further factual
15 agreement that we were able to come to, I think,
16 during the break. I think when we went back and 17 checked, Mr. Lawrence did not list his middle 18 initial on his handwritten questionnaire, but the 19 middle initial O. is listed on the computer printed
20 voir dire list in its various sorts from the Court.
21 That's -- the one the parties have is dated
22 January 26, 2007.

23 So the name as given on the 24 questionnaire is John Lawrence, Jr. The name on 25 the computer voir dire list is John O. Lawrence,

1 without a Jr. or Sr. designation and that's at 2 least agreed on the defense part.

3 THE COURT: All right. The first issue is
4 whether or not a defendant wishing to raise a Batsen
5 challenge has to be a member of a minority class
6 himself in order to do so. Based on the Court's
7 reading of the case law, specifically, the Powers
8 case, to which the Court was referred and which is 9 actually cited in a footnote in the Lamon case at 10 page 762, where the Wisconsin Supreme Court
11 recognizes that a defendant of whatever race is 12 entitled to a jury selected without discrimination
13 by the authority of Powers.

14 So I don't believe the fact that
15 Mr. Avery himself may not be a minority -- may 16 not be a member of a minority race is sufficient
17 to preclude the defendant raising a Batsen
18 challenge to the dismissal of Mr. -- or the 19 striking of Mr. Lawrence in this case. The Court
20 believes, then, that it is required to apply the 21 Batsen analysis to this case.

22 The first step of a defendant raising a
23 Batsen challenge is to make a prima facie showing
24 that the prosecution has exercised a peremptory
25 challenge on the basis of race. As I indicated a

1 minute ago, I don't believe that there's a
2 dispute in this case that that part of the test
3 has been met. Mr. Lawrence appears to be the 4 only remaining minority member on the panel. And 5 the State did exercise a peremptory challenge to 6 remove him from the panel.

7 The next part of the test goes on to
8 provide that if the defendant satisfies this 9 threshold, the burden then shifts to the 10 prosecution to articulate a race neutral
11 justification for the disputed challenges, or in 12 this case, the challenge. In this case, the 13 State has offered two explanations, as I
14 understand it, for the removal.

15 The first one and the primary one is 16 that the State believes that the juror was not 17 truthful on the juror questionnaire, specifically
18 Question 54 relating to whether or not --
19 Actually, I don't have a questionnaire in front
20 of me; can somebody read me, for the record, the 21 exact question?

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Sure. Have you, any
23 family members, or anyone close to you ever been a
24 suspect in, arrested for, or charged with a criminal
25 offense? He checked no.

1 THE COURT: Okay. So the question required
2 the juror to indicate not only whether the juror
3 himself fell into that category, but whether or not
4 any family member fell into that category. The 5 prosecutor, Mr. Fallon, indicates that the defendant
6 -- or the juror answered that question no. That is 7 not disputed.

8 It does also not appear to be disputed
9 that a gentleman with the same name, except Sr., 10 as the juror in this case who is identified as 11 Jr. on his questionnaire, has a record of a
12 number of convictions, in addition to a pending
13 charge at this time. The State indicated that 14 they attempted to conclusively determine whether
15 or not the John Lawrence with the criminal record
16 was John Lawrence, Jr.'s father.

17 The age appears to match. And we now
18 know that the middle initial also appears to 19 match. The fact that one is a Sr. and one is a
20 Jr. adds additional support to the argument that 21 it appears he may well be the father.

22 And because of that fact, the State
23 argues it had a valid reason to -- non-race
24 related to exercise a strike against
25 Mr. Lawrence. The State also argues that, based

1 on his young age and lack of employment that his
2 commitment to the community may also be an issue
3 in this case. So the Court is satisfied that the 4 State has articulated a legitimate race neutral
5 reason for challenging Mr. Lawrence.

6 The application of the third part of the 7 test was a point of dispute in Lamon. There were
8 some dissents in that case, or least one that I
9 know for sure, by the Chief Justice. And I
10 attempted, during the break, to review not only
11 the majority decision, but the dissent as well.
12 And the Court is satisfied that under the 13 approach of either the majority or the dissent in 14 Lamon, that the State in this case has met its 15 burden.

16 Specifically, I believe that while there
17 is not conclusive evidence, or the State did not 18 come up with conclusive evidence, it came up with 19 some fairly compelling evidence to strongly
20 suggest that the juror in this case was the -- or 21 is the son of the John Lawrence, Sr. who has the 22 criminal record and that the answer given by the 23 juror may well not have been truthful. The Court
24 cannot say conclusively it was not truthful, but 25 there was certainly a good faith reason for

1 coming to that conclusion that is not related to
2 the race of the juror.

3 Part of the test outlined by the
4 dissent, which would apply -- require courts to
5 engage in more thorough analysis or a stricter
6 test, however you like to phrase it, indicates
7 that the part of the Court's duty is to assess
8 the credibility of the prosecutor and the reasons
9 given for the striking of the juror.

10 In this case, I can find nothing, based 11 on what the Court recalls to be the demeanor of 12 the State in questioning the juror, or the reason
13 given for the strike, that would suggest that 14 anything was motivated by race. I believe that 15 the reasons given by the State, under the 16 totality of the circumstances, and I'm not really
17 aware of any other circumstances that would call
18 their decision into question here.

19 While it's true that under the Powers
20 decision the -- a defendant who's not even a
21 minority can raise the challenge, it's a little 22 difficult to see, applying the totality of the 23 circumstances, why the race of the juror in this
24 case would have any special significance. There
25 is no reason why, to the extent a minority juror

1 would be more sympathetic to a minority
2 defendant, that that would be a reason -- an
3 improper reason for the State to attempt to
4 remove him from the jury. We don't have a
5 minority defendant here.

6 But I'm certainly not basing my decision
7 entirely on that. As I recognize -- or as the 8 case law dictates, the defense can raise the 9 issue here. But to the Court, it adds additional 10 credibility to the State's argument that it made
11 the request it did, or made the decision it did,
12 on a race neutral basis.

13 I believe in the State's argument it
14 emphasized the criminal record element of the 15 father more than the second reason, but that's an 16 additional reason which the State could have 17 used. I'm focusing more in my decision on the 18 reasonable grounds to suspect untruthfulness on
19 the questionnaire.

20 So, the Court will deny the defense
21 motion in this case. With that, is there
22 anything else either party wishes to raise before
23 bringing the jurors back?

24 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, just -- just one
25 thing, real quickly, I want to put on record. In

1 speaking with Mr. Gahn today, it appears there may
2 be some confusion over what the Court's order on the
3 test -- the test of the samples for this EDTA, or 4 whatever. My understanding was that the State would 5 preserve sufficient sample of the vial of blood for 6 any defense testing and that we would get sufficient
7 sample of the actual RAV 4 stains that were being
8 tested by the FBI.

9 Mr. Gahn was under the impression that
10 any other stains in the RAV 4 that had not been 11 tested or that would be -- would satisfy that 12 part of it. I just want to put on the record
13 that I disagree with that. I think the defense
14 needs to have half of the actual stains that are 15 being tested -- actual stains from the RAV 4 that 16 are being tested and about which any opinion
17 might be given by the FBI.

18 And I believe that was what we discussed
19 in court. It's not clear in the hand -- or the 20 written order, which was handed to me in the 21 middle of jury selection, but I think that's what 22 we anticipated.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Gahn.

24 ATTORNEY GAHN: I will just state that I
25 don't know if I'm disagreeing with Mr. Buting at

1 this point or not. All I know is that I do recall
2 that we talked about splitting the blood vial
3 evidence. But there are five blood stains from the 4 RAV 4.

5 Three of them were -- And of those 5,
6 DNA testing was done and each of the five showed 7 to be the blood of Steven Avery. Three of those 8 five have been sent to the FBI. The FBI may be 9 taking one of those and I will find that out
10 hopefully before noon. They may be consuming one
11 of them. They don't know.

12 But I do know that my understanding of 13 the order was we would preserve sufficient sample
14 of blood stains from the RAV 4. I know for sure
15 we have got four that are preserved. Whether one
16 of them maybe consumed, that's kind of up to the 17 tester. So I, whatever, if it is, then I will 18 ask them to find a larger stain, see if we can
19 cut it in half and then I will ask them to test
20 that one too. I mean, I don't know if there is 21 disagreement here yet or not.

22 THE COURT: The focus at the argument was 23 on splitting the blood vial sample; I recall that.

24 ATTORNEY GAHN: Right.

25 THE COURT: I -- All I will say is, I think

1 it's important if this line of examination is
2 pursued, for the defense to also have an opportunity
3 to perform testing on blood that was found in the 4 vehicle. Sitting here as the judge and not an
5 expert in the analysis of blood, I'm not going to be 6 issuing orders about whether or not a blood stain
7 can be split -- a particular blood stain can be
8 split because, frankly, I don't know if that's 9 scientifically possible.

10 The Court's ultimate concern would be
11 the element of fairness. And I think its 12 important that in some scientific fashion that
13 both parties get a chance to analyze the blood
14 sample in the car to the extent that's feasible.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, Judge, I just want
16 to be very clear on the record, because it is my 17 understanding and I think it was clear before, that 18 in order for fairness to be preserved here, we -- it
19 is not enough to say we get some other sample. We 20 need half of these stains that the FBI is going to 21 be testing, because the EDTA levels will vary
22 depending upon where in the car, what the substrate
23 is, fabric, medal, whatever. And that was a big 24 issue in the Cooper case and so that's why I want to 25 make sure that that's clear that that's a concern

1 for us here.

2 THE COURT: All right. Let's do this.
3 Mr. Gahn, you check with your folks at the FBI and 4 see if it's feasible to split a sample of a stain or 5 stains in the vehicle. If the parties still have an 6 agreement, you can come back to court, but I just
7 don't feel I have enough information in front of me
8 to address a difference of opinion if there is one.

9 Is there anything else before we bring
10 back the jurors who have been selected? And I
11 take it, that based on the Court's decision
12 denying the defendant's Batsen motion, the jurors
13 who are not selected can now be released?

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Very well. Janet, can 16 you have them bring in the jurors? You can let 17 Linda know the other jurors can be released.

18 THE CLERK: They are not going to be in any
19 order.

20 THE COURT: They don't have to, we can put
21 14 in the box and then the extra two in front.

22 (Wherein the jury panel was brought in.)

23 THE COURT: You may be seated. Members of 24 the jury panel, and I'm going to address you that 25 way because you have not been sworn as jurors yet,

1 that will happen on Monday. I will be giving you
2 some preliminary instructions on Monday and one of 3 them will include what you just experienced, which 4 is, from time to time the jurors may be excused from 5 the courtroom for the Court to hear arguments from
6 the parties.

7 For purposes of this morning's
8 proceedings, in just a minute the Court is going
9 to excuse you for the day. But while you are 10 back in the jury room you will be receiving
11 instructions concerning transportation
12 arrangements for Monday, when the trial is 13 scheduled to begin. If you have any questions
14 concerning any of those arrangements, please pass
15 them on to the bailiff. And if necessary, they 16 will be addressed by the Court.

17 Before I excuse you today, I want to 18 again stress that you are to make certain that 19 you have no exposure to any media coverage of the 20 trial until you reach your verdicts in this case.
21 As I have previously informed you, the jury will 22 not be sequestered during this trial, but that
23 decision is dependent on your commitment that you
24 will not listen to, watch, or read any news
25 accounts of the case during trial, nor discuss

1 the case with anyone, including members of your
2 family or other jurors.

3 For these reasons, I'm going to order
4 that for the duration of the trial, you simply 5 not watch the local news on television. Do not
6 listen to the local news on the radio. And do
7 not read the newspaper unless you first have 8 someone remove any articles about this case from 9 the paper. That is of vital importance.

10 In addition, and I think one of the 11 jurors brought this up in voir dire, using the 12 mute button should a promo or something come on 13 TV while you are watching another show or 14 anything regarding this case. Please take those 15 type of steps to consciously avoid any exposure
16 to the case that may inadvertently be presented
17 to you during the course of the trial.

18 If you are inadvertently exposed to any
19 information about this case during the trial,
20 please notify the jury bailiff. At this time,
21 I'm going to excuse you for today, subject to the 22 transportation instructions you will be receiving
23 shortly.

24 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, one other
25 reminder about the internet access as well.

1 THE COURT: Oh, I did not include internet
2 access, but that would also be exposure to the case
3 which is prohibited. Do not look on the internet
4 for any information about this case. Thank you, Mr.
5 Fallon.

6 (Jury panel not present.)

7 THE COURT: Counsel, is there anything else
8 before we adjourn to Chilton this afternoon.

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: One brief thing, which
10 is, given how long this ran this morning, I'm 11 wondering if we could push back to 1:30 this 12 afternoon; I have to get the materials for that 13 hearing back in Appleton.

14 THE COURT: Okay. I do have one request;
15 do the parties have any idea how long they think the 16 proceedings may take this afternoon? I know -- I
17 assume there's going to be -- or I was led to 18 believe there would be some evidence regarding the 19 motion about the materials the State wishes to 20 present during the opening.

21 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's the smallest part,
22 Judge, the admissibility hearing on the 23 demonstrative evidence. And Mr. Austin from the 24 State Patrol will be available for live testimony in 25 that regard.

1 We do have some other matters that --
2 both as to opening statements and some other
3 evidentiary matters. With -- with my best guess,
4 Judge, we should be out of there by, if we start
5 at 1:30, by 3:30 or 4:00, if that would please
6 the Court.

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: I'm guessing a little bit
8 longer. I would have guessed the computer generated
9 animation hearing, between testimony and argument
10 might go an hour and a half or even two,
11 conceivably. And there will be some substantial
12 discussion on the preliminary jury instructions.

13 And I will try to catch up with counsel
14 for the State before -- if I can, before we get 15 to that, just to see whether there's areas of 16 agreement on the substantive part of the 17 preliminary jury instructions.

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right. We'll see
19 you at 1:30 in Chilton.

20 (Noon recess.)

21 (Proceedings reconvened at Calumet County Courthouse.)

22 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
23 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery, it's Case No.
24 05 CF 381. This matter is scheduled for a motion
25 hearing this afternoon. Will the parties state

1 their appearances for the record, please.

2 ATTORNEY KRATZ: State appears by Calumet
3 County District Attorney Ken Kratz, also by Tom
4 Fallon with the Department of Justice.

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: Good afternoon. Steven
6 Avery in person and Dean Strang on his behalf.

7 THE COURT: All right. And we're here this
8 afternoon I believe, first, to hear a motion filed
9 by the defendant to exclude the use of computer
10 generated animations in the State's opening
11 statement, for purposes of today; is that correct?

12 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, the issue is the 13 admissibility of the animations, generally. There
14 is a second issue that needs to be decided regarding 15 images that would be used in opening statements both
16 by the State and the defense. They are related in a
17 sense, but the admissibility hearing regarding the 18 demonstrative evidence generally, and the computer
19 generated scene images, as well as animation,
20 specifically, will need to be ruled on by the Court
21 this afternoon.

22 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Strang, it's 23 your motion I will let you add to that if you wish.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, I agree with
25 Mr. Kratz and, indeed, it is simpler than that.

1 What we ought to deal with is just the admissibility
2 of the computer generated animations. Because if,
3 or to the extent they are admissible, then, of 4 course, there is no objection to Mr. Kratz using 5 images from them in his opening statement.

6 I say of course, I mean, I guess that
7 doesn't necessarily follow, but it is a fact here
8 that if the underlying animations are admissible,
9 I don't have a quarrel with him using a few
10 slides from them in his opening statement. And 11 he already has shown me those that he wishes to 12 use.

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I'm sorry, Judge, just to 14 complete that point, there is the more global
15 question, though, if there are any other objections
16 to images that I have proposed in openings, I just 17 simply wanted to make a record of that before
18 Monday, otherwise we're ready to proceed.

19 THE COURT: All right. You may proceed.

20 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, I have heard at 21 least from one member of my staff that at least the 22 Court's microphone isn't picking up very well in the 23 house. This is probably a good opportunity to set
24 volume levels and the like. We can do that during 25 the hearing, of course, but I at least wanted to

1 alert the Court that it's a little quiet, at least
2 for the house, the people behind us, not being able
3 to hear very much.

4 THE COURT: My recollection is that
5 somewhere there is a remote control device around
6 here that allows me to control the volume, but I'm 7 not sure where it is.

8 SHERIFF PAGEL: One should be yours, two,
9 the clerks, three is the -- four and five should 10 be --

11 ATTORNEY KRATZ: One is the bench.

12 THE COURT: Number one is the bench.

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's much better
14 already.

15 THE COURT: Is that satisfactory?

16 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Perfect.

17 THE COURT: Wonderful.

18 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Thank you, Judge. The
19 State will call Tim Austin to the stand.

20 ATTORNEY STRANG: While Mr. Kratz is
21 setting up, there was an issue Mr. Fallon suggested,
22 which is keeping media cameras off of the laptop
23 screens of counsel for both sides. I don't know if 24 that's already covered by the media order or if we 25 need to address it.

1 THE COURT: I don't have a copy of the
2 media order in front of me, but I know it referred
3 to materials that counsel use on their table. And I
4 will indicate today that if the order as written
5 does not specify images on laptop computers it's 6 meant to apply to all materials on the table, and 7 that specifically includes laptop computers.

8 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Tim.

9 THE CLERK: Raise your right hand.

10 TROOPER TIMOTHY AUSTIN, called as a
11 witness herein, having been first duly sworn, was
12 examined and testified as follows:

13 THE CLERK: Please be seated. Please state
14 your name and spell your last name for the record.

15 THE WITNESS: My name is Timothy Austin,
16 A-u-s-t-i-n.

17 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Mr. Austin, if you could
18 pull the microphone down towards you. Would you
19 once again state your name for the record.

20 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir. My name is Timothy
21 Austin.

22 DIRECT EXAMINATION

23 BY ATTORNEY KRATZ:

24 Q. Mr. Austin, how are you employed?

25 A. I'm employed as a trooper with the Wisconsin

1 State Patrol.

2 Q. How long have you been a state trooper?

3 A. I have been with the patrol since July of 1996,
4 about 10 1/2 years.

5 Q. And do you have any specific responsibilities
6 with the State patrol?

7 A. Yes, I'm assigned to the Wisconsin State Patrol
8 Academy, to the Technical Reconstruction Unit.

9 Q. Mr. Austin, have you brought with you here a
10 document which is known as a curriculum vitae?

11 A. Yes, sir, I have.

12 Q. And for lack of a better term, is the common
13 knowledge of this kind of a document called a
14 resume, or something like that?

15 A. Yes, they are. Essentially outlines my training
16 and experience in the field of reconstruction
17 activities.

18 Q. I have handed you what's been marked for 19 identification as Exhibit No. 1; could you tell
20 us what that is, please?

21 A. Yes, sir, this is the document you referred to.
22 It's my curriculum vitae that goes over my
23 education, training, certification.

24 Q. And at least for purposes of this hearing, if you
25 could just briefly indicate whether or not you

1 have a specific education, training, and
2 experience that permits you, on behalf of the 3 State Patrol, to create images for use not only
4 for investigative purposes, but for use in court
5 proceedings?

6 A. Yes, sir. I hold certification as an instructor
7 in the field of forensic mapping and the use of 8 Total Station technology for collecting
9 measurements at scenes.

10 Q. Mr. Austin, in this case, were you asked on 11 behalf of the State of Wisconsin to assist in 12 creation of images at or near a property known as 13 the Avery Salvage Yard?

14 A. Yes, sir. I was contacted to provide forensic 15 mapping services ultimately leading to the 16 creation of scale diagrams and three dimensional
17 models.

18 Q. When did you first become involved in this case?

19 A. Without referencing my notes, I believe it was
20 November 5th, 2005.

21 Q. The same day that the law enforcement personnel
22 took control of the Avery property, executed
23 search warrants, and otherwise began their search
24 efforts; is that right?

25 A. Yes, sir. That's correct. It was late in the

1 afternoon on that day when I was contacted.

2 Q. Mr. Austin, did you then spend time on the Avery
3 salvage property itself and did you in fact take 4 some measurements and perform other duties which
5 allowed you to create these images?

6 A. Yes, sir. For the next approximately seven days,
7 myself and a team of law officers forensically
8 mapped and measured the entire Avery Salvage Yard
9 property.

10 Q. To assist the Court and counsel in providing your 11 testimony today, I'm going to have you refer to 12 the image that has been portrayed on the screen.
13 Can you tell us what we're looking at, please?

14 A. What you are looking at is an aerial photograph
15 that I believe was taken by State Patrol Pilot,
16 Trooper Dennis McConnell. It shows the Avery
17 salvage yard property referred to before and some 18 of the surrounding properties and landscape.

19 Q. Now, so the Court understands where some of these 20 images are going to be coming from, you provided
21 counsel, that is the prosecution and the defense,
22 as well as a copy for the Court, of some figures 23 or images that ultimately have made it's way into 24 a binder of yours; is that correct?

25 A. Yes, sir, that's correct. This is one of many

1 images that I put in a document entitled a
2 Forensic Mapping and Scenery Construction Report.

3 Q. To complete the record, Mr. Austin, I have handed
4 you what's been marked as Exhibit No. 2. Can you
5 tell us what that is, please.

6 A. Exhibit 2 is a DVD containing my narrative
7 report, digital photographs taken by myself and
8 other State Patrol Officers, and other logs
9 documented by the State Patrol. Essentially, the 10 binder I described before is what's on this DVD.

11 Q. All right. Did you bring that binder with you?

12 A. Yes, sir, I have a black and white copy.

13 Q. Can you just hold it up for us and show us what 14 you are talking about.

15 A. This binder here is the one I'm referring to.

16 Q. So Exhibit No. 2 is a electronic version of all
17 the information that's included in that binder.
18 And again, the relevant portions, other than some 19 of the measurements and the like, but at least 20 the figures that you will be referring to have 21 all been provided to counsel and the Court; is 22 that your understanding?

23 A. Yes, sir, that's correct.

24 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Okay. Just to - so that I
25 don't forget, more than anything else, Judge, I am

1 going to move for the admission of Exhibits 1 and 2
2 at this time?

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: No objection.

4 THE COURT: All right. Those exhibits are
5 admitted. I have one question, has -- or maybe it's 6 still coming -- has the image that we're looking at 7 on the screen been identified in some fashion yet?

8 ATTORNEY KRATZ: It has not, Judge. It is 9 about to be.

10 THE COURT: Very well. Go ahead.

11 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Mr. Strang indicates,
12 Judge, that my mike should be up a little bit as 13 well as Mr. Austin's. This is probably the time --

14 SHERIFF PAGEL: I think three would be for 15 Mr. Austin.

16 THE COURT: And State should be 4 or 5.

17 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Mine says mike 4
18 underneath, Judge.

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: Mine is mike 5.

20 THE COURT: I'm hearing some type of
21 buzzing periodically. I don't know if it's coming
22 over the sound system or where, but if it's not 23 bothering the parties, we'll proceed.

24 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I think what happens,
25 Judge, with this sound system, when you talk, as you

1 might know, our microphones cut out. When the Court
2 talks, they don't want anybody else talking at that
3 time, which is probably a good idea. But I think
4 the system then picks up yours, if we overlap a
5 little bit. And I think that's what's causing that,
6 but we'll move forward.

7 Q. (By Attorney Kratz)~ Mr. Austin, are you able 8 then to -- With the image that we're referring to 9 here, are you able to find that figure and could 10 you please identify that in your materials?

11 A. Yes, sir. May I reference my binder?

12 Q. Please do.

13 A. If I may, sir.

14 Q. Go ahead.

15 A. That photograph is Figure 3, which appears on 16 Page 10 of my narrative report.

17 Q. So at that scene that you have identified as the 18 Avery salvage property, then, I think you began
19 telling us that you took some measurements. Can 20 you tell us about that.

21 A. Yes, sir. The bulk of the measurements were 22 taken using an electronic device called a Total
23 Station, that's made by a company called
24 Geodimeter?

25 Q. Can you spell that for us.

1 A. Yes, sir, G-e-o-d-i-m-e-t-e-r.

2 Q. What is Total Station?

3 A. Total Station essentially is an electronic 4 device. It measures distance and angles to 5 document an objects position in 3D space,
6 basically measures along an X, Y, Z axis on a
7 standard coordinate system.

8 Q. What is Total Station typically used for in your 9 line of work, if you understand what I'm asking
10 you?

11 A. The Total Station, we utilize that in the 12 reconstruction unit for taking measurements at 13 both crash and crime scenes.

14 Q. You mentioned that Total Station assists in 15 taking measurements, can you very briefly tell us
16 how that occurs.

17 A. Are you asking me how the instrument works, or 18 how it records measurements?

19 Q. Sure.

20 A. Essentially, the instrument locates itself, if 21 you will, in 3D space. And then, if I'm taking a
22 measurement to you, Mr. Kratz, the instrument
23 recognizes that it's going say -- turning 90
24 degrees towards you, an elevation of maybe down
25 two degrees. The instrument recognizes that

1 change in elevation or change in angle and then
2 assigns or calculates what your coordinates would
3 be in relationship to me.

4 Q. I see. So, it isn't just simply a tape measure,
5 me to you, that would be one access, if you will,
6 but it's actually a three dimensional measurement
7 that is being taken; is that correct?

8 A. Yes, sir, that's correct.

9 Q. So, in lay terms, is that even more accurate than 10 a tape measurer or a one dimensional measuring 11 device?

12 A. When you look at adding in the operator factor,
13 if you will, yes, the Total Station is going to 14 be more accurate than if we had strung out, you
15 know, a thousand foot of tape at the Avery
16 salvage lot.

17 Q. All right. How many days were you involved in 18 taking measurements at the Avery property?

19 A. May I, again, reference my notes.

20 Q. Sure.

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: The witness ought to feel
22 free to look at whatever he needs, whenever he 23 needs.

24 THE COURT: Very well.

25 THE WITNESS: Thank you, sir.

1 A. We began the mapping on November 5th and finished
2 the mapping at the Avery property on
3 November 12th.

4 Q. So that was really the entire time that law
5 enforcement had control of the property; is that
6 right?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. You mentioned that during that time frame you
9 were involved in taking these measurements
10 individually. How many of those days were you
11 personally out there, if you remember?

12 A. I believe that I was there for six of those seven
13 days.

14 Q. And during that time, Trooper Austin, do you know
15 how many individual measurements were taken
16 through and by use of this Total Station process?

17 A. Yes, sir, there were over 4100 measurements taken
18 at the Avery Salvage Yard.

19 Q. I assume, based upon what you know of Total
20 Station and your use and the certifications for 21 that piece of equipment, you have an opinion as 22 to its accuracy?

23 A. Yes, sir. My opinion is that Total Station is 24 obviously very accurate. In fact, the maximum
25 induced error that an instrument gives us is only

1 about three seconds.

2 To explain, a circle is divided into 360
3 degrees. Each degree is divided into 60 minutes.
4 Each minute is divided into 60 seconds. The
5 Total Station is accurate to within three 6 seconds.

7 Essentially, in this particular case,
8 our longest shot is about 1200 feet. That comes 9 out to be an accuracy of about less than half an 10 inch.

11 Q. After the measurements are obtained by you, and 12 after the data is compiled, could you tell me the 13 first step in the creation of images. And let's
14 first talk about two dimensional images.

15 A. Certainly. The Total Station stores it's data
16 internally in its on board data collector. We 17 download the data from the Total Station and we 18 bring it into a computer aided drawing program.
19 In this case, we used a software program called
20 CAD Zone to begin processing that information.

21 Q. I'm going to, once again, direct your attention
22 to the in-house screen. We have to come up with 23 a better name for that as we go through the 24 trial. If you could tell me what figure we're 25 looking at here and if this is an image that may

1 better describe a two dimensional drawing or
2 representation that's created.

3 A. Yes, the particular picture, if you will, you
4 have on the board is Figure 4 from my narrative
5 report. What this shows is the two dimensional
6 view, meaning it is straight or completely
7 orthogonal, looking straight down on this portion
8 of the Avery Salvage Yard?

9 Q. I'm sorry, do you have a laser pointer with you?

10 A. No, sir, I do not.

11 Q. I'm going to give you mine.

12 A. Thank you.

13 Q. Trooper Austin, please feel free to use that as 14 you are describing things so we can better
15 understand what you are talking about. Go ahead.

16 A. Sir, if I -- if I may, do you have Figure 5? It
17 might be easier to help explain this.

18 Q. I'm sure I have everything.

19 A. What I have asked you to do is essentially zoom
20 out and look at the entire Avery property that
21 was diagrammed and mapped. The portion you
22 showed us before, which was Figure 4, is a
23 closeup of this upper northeast corner, which is 24 the primary business buildings, if you will, for
25 the Avery Salvage Yard.

1 So if you want to go back to Figure 4,
2 at least we know now what portion of the main
3 diagram it is from. So, now, we essentially zoom
4 in on that northeast corner and we can see this
5 would be the main road coming in. This is a
6 gravel driveway, if you will, that runs east and 7 west.

8 Here is a storage building, the main
9 shop, and here's a private residence. So we have 10 taken a small portion of that area that was 11 mapped and, now, looking at our diagram, straight
12 from above, looking down at a specific corner of
13 it.

14 Q. Now, diagrams like this, two dimensional
15 diagrams, is that what are commonly used in 16 trials or when there are triers of fact, to help
17 juries or judges understand evidence?

18 A. Yes, sir. We very commonly use two dimensional
19 diagrams such as this to help show the scene or 20 show where objects are or distances of particular 21 items.

22 Q. Although this is much nicer, the concept really
23 isn't any different than a blackboard or a
24 chalkboard that might be used to help describe,
25 or help understand some evidence; is that fair?

1 A. As technology has evolved, we have moved from the
2 chalkboard, to the easel, to two dimensional
3 diagrams. And as technology continues to
4 improve, we're going to move ahead also.

5 Q. Let's move ahead today, then. After your two 6 dimensional images are created, are you able to,
7 then, with the Total Station and the measurements
8 that are gained therefrom, create three
9 dimensional modeling?

10 A. What I discussed, the Total Station, a few
11 questions ago, I mentioned that the Total Station
12 measures in 3D space. That's the X coordinate, Y
13 coordinate, and now the Z coordinate, which gives 14 us height or elevation to objects.

15 So we have the information there, just 16 that we now bring that data into a second
17 computer program. This one is called forensic 18 3D, which allows us to draw or create diagrams in 19 3D space, so we can add that height, elevation
20 element to objects.

21 Q. I'm going to, once again, direct your attention
22 to the screen, ask if you can tell us what this
23 figure is, what it shows, and how it helps
24 explain your process?

25 A. This is Figure 8 from my narrative report. It's

1 on Page 14. This shows an unrendered three
2 dimensional image. When I say unrendered, what I
3 mean is, it does not have any textures applied to 4 three dimensional surfaces. As you can see, our 5 garage building, our vehicles are white. They
6 essentially haven't been painted, if you will. I
7 haven't applied any type of textures to those
8 objects.

9 Q. The application of the texture, then, how is that 10 process created?

11 A. In many cases, the software will allow us to take
12 a photograph of a particular texture. What I
13 mean by that, if I was diagramming this desk, I
14 could take a photograph of the wood and paste
15 that wood, that photo of the wood, on the model.

16 In this case, in this particular garage,
17 we photographed the siding on that garage so that 18 we could apply it to our three dimensional model.

19 Q. And so you aren't only guessing at what the 20 different colors and the different textures of 21 objects are, but you take them from images that 22 you retrieve from the property; is that right?

23 A. In most cases. I don't like the word guessing,
24 because there are some that I did apply textures
25 from a personal library. For example, the paint

1 on the truck, I did not photograph the paint on
2 that particular truck. I applied a general black
3 car paint texture to it. What we do see on the 4 garage --

5 Q. By the way, what figure are you referring to now?

6 A. I'm sorry, this is Figure 9. It's the same
7 image; however, it has now been rendered in the 8 software. Again, what we do see here, however,
9 is that texture mapping process on the garage
10 building.

11 Q. Your three dimensional modeling, could you
12 describe, not just in this case, but in other
13 cases that you have been asked to testify and 14 other cases that your colleagues have been asked
15 to testify, what is the advantage of 3D modeling
16 versus the two dimensional images that we saw, as 17 a jury or a trier of fact may consider?

18 A. When we look at two dimensional image, again,
19 we're just looking straight down on that 20 particular area. What's difficult for us to 21 appreciate, any type of spacial relationship or 22 geometric perspective, if you will.

23 In other words, we don't know, or it's 24 more difficult to actually visualize how that 25 scene looked, or how objects are related to each

1 other. When we now take that into a three
2 dimensional model, we can get a better
3 understanding of how that scene looked or how
4 objects are, again, in relationship to each
5 other.

6 Q. All right. You were asked, then, by the State,
7 by the prosecution, to take these 4100 plus
8 measurements, all of the data, including all the 9 photographs that you both obtained, and viewed,
10 and created some modeling for us; is that right?

11 A. Yes, sir. I have to add, though, we did not 12 model the entire Avery property in 3D.

13 Q. Why not?

14 A. I think I would still be working on it today if I
15 modeled that in 3D.

16 Q. All right.

17 A. Also, the work that I did was under the direct
18 supervision of the lead investigators or 19 yourself. And it was determined that we probably 20 really don't need the entire property done in 21 three dimensions.

22 Q. Now, because this is an adversary system, in other
23 words, because there's the defense, and the 24 prosecution, is it typical for one side or 25 another to ask you or direct you to create images

1 for use at trial?

2 A. Yes, when you look at the work that I did, and I
3 know we're going to get deeper into this, but
4 there are evidentiary areas that I don't
5 necessarily know about. And I need that 6 guidance, for persons to tell me what is
7 important, and what is not important, in a
8 diagram.

9 It's very typical for one side to tell
10 me what they would like to see. Many of these 11 exhibits I designed to assist others, in 12 explaining to you, or to a jury, what it is that 13 they did out there at the scene.

14 Q. Let me just talk about that just briefly. So,
15 other than you showing, if you will, or being 16 able to show the jury the scene itself, did we 17 ask you to provide or create these images to 18 allow investigators or law enforcement officers
19 that found evidence, or even other experts, to 20 use those images to better explain or describe
21 the evidence that they may have found, or their
22 testimony.

23 A. Yes, sir. It's one thing to be able to, if you
24 will, sit in this box and verbally explain where 25 something was positioned. But to be able to

1 physically show that geometric relationship; in
2 other words, where it is compared to other
3 objects, helps persons to better understand where 4 these items are located, where they are in
5 relationship to other items.

6 Q. Let's talk about some interiors first, all right.
7 And you were asked to do some modeling, not just 8 in the yard itself, or in the exterior -- or is 9 it easier to talk about exteriors first?

10 A. It's your option, sir.

11 Q. Doesn't matter to you, I'm sure. All right.
12 Let's talk about some interiors. I'm going to 13 show you Figure No. 31. Let's talk about what 14 we're looking at here, first.

15 A. Sir, this is Figure 31, found on Page 32 of my 16 narrative report. What we're looking at here is 17 an overview of a residence that was on the 18 salvage yard property. And what I have done with 19 this particular model is, I have hidden the roof.
20 In other words, if the roof is a layer, I turned 21 the roof off, so that we can see all of the rooms
22 together.

23 Q. Let me just stop you there. I'm sure Mr. Strang
24 and I at some point will establish the 25 foundation, but Exhibit 31, we're looking at

1 Steven Avery's residence?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. All right. Go ahead.

4 A. Again, what I have done is taken the roof off, or 5 rather, hidden the roof from the model so that we
6 can look at all the various rooms that are inside
7 of his residence. If you think of -- remember
8 the old overhead projectors, you could lay one
9 piece of plastic over it, and another, and 10 another, essentially we have taken one off so
11 that we can see what's underneath the roof in
12 this case.

13 Q. Now, Figure No. 31 is an unlabeled, or a clean,
14 if you will, image. Were you also asked, and did
15 you provide labels, if the Court allows, and if 16 the State, or whatever party actually wishes to 17 present them, believes it would be helpful for 18 the jury?

19 A. I provided you with two separate images, one
20 being unlabeled, which we just saw on the screen,
21 and I also provided you with one having labels,
22 in other words, there's text and leader arrows
23 identifying various rooms.

24 Q. What are we looking at now?

25 A. This is the image I just described. It is the

1 same one you had previously; however, this one
2 has text and leader arrows identifying various
3 rooms in the residence.

4 Q. And through all the images -- in fact, I'm going
5 to have you look at, I think it's Exhibit No. 4.
6 You have a packet of images up there, could you
7 tell us what Exhibit 4 is.

8 A. Yes, sir, I believe these are those images that I
9 provided you with. They are 4 by 6 prints of 10 these rendered models. And there should be label
11 versions and unlabeled versions in these 12 envelopes.

13 Q. And for assistance of the Court and really trying 14 to anticipate what the Court's direction may be,
15 to me, to the State, in use of some of these 16 images, you have created a hard copy, or a set of 17 all of your figures, both labeled and unlabeled,
18 so that a record can be made, that is, if some of 19 the documents -- some of the images might be 20 introduced and some may not, we're able to just 21 put in the ones that are acceptable to the Court,
22 and perhaps to counsel, as well; is that right?

23 A. Yes, sir, that's correct.

24 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Just to complete the 25 record, Judge, although we will have originals, the

1 entire packet which has been provided to the Court
2 in a 8 1/2 by 11 form, all those images are in 3 Exhibit No. 4. I would ask the Court receive those 4 for purposes of the record at this time.

5 THE COURT: Any objection?

6 ATTORNEY STRANG: None.

7 THE COURT: Those are received.

8 Q. (By Attorney Kratz)~ Now, other than the 9 buildings including Mr. Avery's trailer, were you
10 asked to do some interior renderings of 11 Mr. Avery's garage?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And could you tell me, if we look at one of those 14 figures, direct me to one that might be helpful.
15 Exhibit 41?

16 A. Yes, sir, Exhibit 41.

17 Q. I'm showing you what's been labeled, then, as 18 Exhibit 41; what are we looking at?

19 A. Sir, Figure 41 is an overview of the garage that 20 you asked about. Again, I hid or turned off the 21 roof layer so we could see what's inside of that
22 garage.

23 Q. I'm sorry, this is Figure 41, it might be from 24 Exhibit No. 2, if I'm remembering correctly. Why
25 don't you take the laser pointer and just very

1 briefly tell us the items that you have been
2 asked to place inside of that garage?

3 A. Inside of the garage, there's a Suzuki Samurai
4 vehicle that was in the garage when I completed
5 the forensic mapping of that location. Next to 6 that is a snowmobile. There's also a snowmobile
7 on the opposite side of the Suzuki Samurai.

8 And then around the border, around the 9 walls here, we see various tools, if you will.
10 There's a tool chest in the back. There's an air
11 compressor. Next to that is a welder. There's a 12 freezer and a filing cabinet in here. Various 13 larger items that we can use to locate anything
14 else we need to find in the garage.

15 Q. Let me ask you, Trooper Austin, without the 16 assistance of this computer generated image,
17 would a jury or a trier of fact ever be able to 18 see something like this?

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: That really is not a
20 proper question.

21 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I can ask it a different
22 way perhaps, Judge.

23 THE COURT: Go ahead.

24 Q. (By Attorney Kratz)~ The computer generated
25 images, does it allow anybody, not just a trier

1 of fact, but anybody in the courtroom, to
2 visualize a scene from an angle or from a
3 perspective that the human eye could not?

4 A. That's why I believe that the three dimensional
5 models are important. In this case, you know, we 6 would never be able to have an overview of the 7 garage interior without removing -- excuse me --
8 removing the roof as we did in the three
9 dimensional model.

10 The same with the house. And we can
11 then move about in this model to gain other
12 perspectives so that we can, you know, perhaps 13 from a different viewpoint, look at those spatial 14 relationships we discussed earlier.

15 Q. When talking about three dimensional, it is that 16 relationship, that is, the relationship between a
17 piece of evidence to a fixed object, or to a
18 known location that's important; is that what 19 your testimony was?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. All right. Let's talk about exteriors for just a
22 moment. I'm going to have you -- have you look
23 at Figure No. 10 and tell us what we're looking 24 at?

25 A. Figure No. 10, Mr. Kratz, is an overview of the

1 entire area that I did model, in three
2 dimensions.

3 Q. Does that include what would be known as the 4 Steven area -- excuse me -- Steven Avery
5 residence and curtilage, as well as the Barb
6 Janda and Dassey residence and area surrounding?

7 A. In previous slides, we looked at a residence, in 8 the interior, and that Steven Avery residence is 9 over here. The garage we looked at is next to 10 that residence.

11 In terms of a directional relationship,
12 in this particular view, north would be to the 13 bottom of the screen. And, yes, I'm sorry, to 14 finish your question, sir, the Barb Janda
15 residence is over here on the left side of your 16 screen, and her garage.

17 Q. I'm going to have you look at just a couple of 18 other images, Image No. 16.

19 A. Yes, sir. Figure No. 16 is also from my report.
20 Essentially, we have moved our camera to get a
21 different perspective of the Steven Avery
22 property. This allows us to see both the 23 residence, the garage, as well as some other
24 items I was asked to include in the model.

25 Q. Were one of those items, or two of those items

1 that we're going to talk about, first of all, the
2 van, the Dodge Caravan, I believe; is that shown
3 in this image?

4 A. Yes, sir. The Dodge Caravan is this red colored
5 vehicle down here in the lower left portion of 6 your screen.

7 Q. For the Court's information and just as by way of 8 offer of proof, the evidence in this case will be 9 that was the vehicle that Teresa Halbach was 10 asked to come and take a picture of. Were you
11 also asked to include a burn barrel that was 12 found, or that you took dimensions of, and 13 measurements of, on this property?

14 A. Yes, sir. Both the mini-van and the burn barrel
15 were in place when I did the forensic mapping, so
16 they were located with the Total Station. The 17 burn barrel you are referring to is over here on 18 the right side of your screen.

19 Q. And not going into any detail, because that's 20 what the trial is for, but was it your 21 understanding that there is some evidence that 22 was recovered from the interior of that burn
23 barrel?

24 A. That is my understanding, sir.

25 Q. Now, as I understand, you're able to move the

1 camera around, if you will. Figure No. 20 is an
2 example of that. Can you tell us what we're 3 looking at.

4 A. Sir, that is indeed Figure No. 20 from my
5 narrative report. What we have done from that 6 previous slide you had up is we have moved our
7 position further to the south. And we're now
8 looking to the northwest, to the back of the 9 trailer -- I'm sorry -- residence we discussed
10 before, and the back side of the garage, and 11 items that were identified to me as being of 12 evidentiary value, behind that garage.

13 Q. Although Figure 20 shows some of the same items
14 that Figure No. 16 would be, this is a different
15 angle and, again, something that the human eye
16 would not be able to accomplish; is that correct?

17 A. And we're moving in closer from that last point,
18 which allows us to see items in better or greater
19 detail as they have been modeled here. So, yes,
20 I do agree with you.

21 Q. Last example that I'm going to give you, and 22 again, these are just by way of example, Figure
23 No. 23, tell me what we're looking at.

24 A. Sir, this is Figure No. 23 from my narrative
25 report. We have moved further to the southeast,

1 where we were before, and looking at the back
2 side of Steven Avery's residence. We're now
3 looking at the backside of the Barbara Janda
4 residence, and some other items back here that I
5 was asked to include in the model.

6 Q. All right. Trooper Austin, a little bit out of 7 your area of expertise by crash reconstruction
8 and crime scene reconstruction, were you asked to 9 assist another expert, an anthropologist in this
10 case, in the creation some other images?

11 A. Yes, sir. I was asked to work closely and under 12 Dr. Leslie Eisenberg, to create additional model
13 images.

14 Q. Were you able to perform that task?

15 A. Yes, I physically met with Dr. Eisenberg in 16 Madison and had lengthy communications with her,
17 after meeting with her person, to create model
18 images that would help her to explain her
19 findings in this case.

20 Q. Now, I don't expect -- in fact, let me just ask
21 you, much of what you were asked to create, did
22 you know what it was that you were creating? I'm 23 not sure how to ask that. Why don't you tell us
24 how that process culminated.

25 A. Yes, I was asked to create the model, which is my

1 area of expertise. However, what she wanted me
2 to assist her with was creating skeletal models
3 so that we could point out locations of various 4 bones. That is certainly outside of my area of 5 expertise, that's why I worked closely with her,
6 and directly under her, so she could explain, I
7 would like a leader arrow pointing to this bone,
8 and this bone is called a, and the name of that 9 bone.

10 Q. All right. I have a figure on the screen, it's 11 just the -- a picture of a female skeleton.
12 We're not going to show these because that will 13 be Dr. Eisenberg's area of expertise, but could 14 you just briefly describe how these skeletal
15 models were created?

16 A. The base skeletal model, that would be the one
17 without any type of textures to it, I obtained
18 from the FBI in Quantico, Virginia. They sent me
19 a CD containing various skeletal models.

20 I chose the female skeleton as was most
21 appropriate in this case. I then applied a bone
22 texture to it, received approval from
23 Dr. Eisenberg, and then met her in person to 24 again show close ups or different bone locations
25 on that model.

1 Q. All right. And, again, those have been created,
2 provided to the Court and to counsel -- excuse
3 me -- and are included in your images, both
4 Exhibit No. 4, as well as Exhibit No. 2; is that
5 correct?

6 A. Yes, sir. They are on the DVD I provided to you
7 and they should be in the photographs also -- or 8 the 4 by 6 images rather.

9 Q. All right. Let's leave the scene mapping or 10 modeling then and let's talk a little bit about 11 animations. Were you asked to create animations
12 as well?

13 A. Yes, sir, I was.

14 Q. And could you tell us about that process, please.

15 A. To create motion, essentially we need numerous 16 still images of those still renders. In fact, we 17 need about 30 of them for every second of motion
18 that we want to create. If you were to think 19 back perhaps to a child's toy where we would have 20 something in the corner and we flip through those 21 pages and we see that object changing or going
22 into motion, that's kind of what we're doing
23 here. We're putting image, after image, after 24 image to create that effect of moving through a
25 scene.

1 Q. Now, in lieu of, or instead of taking the jury to
2 the Avery salvage property in the middle of
3 February, did I ask you to create a walk through,
4 if you will, of the Steven Avery property, the 5 Barb Janda property, and the surrounding 6 curtilage?

7 A. Yes, sir, you did.

8 Q. And I know that we showed the Court your first
9 draft of that, it was probably last week
10 sometime; have you made some improvements to
11 that?

12 A. Yes, sir, I have made some minor changes to that.

13 Q. I have given you another exhibit, I think it's 14 Exhibit 3; is that right?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Tell us what that is?

17 A. Exhibit 3 is the disk I gave you maybe an hour or 18 so ago with the final version of the animations.

19 THE COURT: And for the record, Judge, I
20 have given Mr. Strang his own version of that. And 21 I will be asking that the Court accept Exhibits 3 --
22 have I moved Exhibit 4, Janet, do you know?

23 THE CLERK: Yes.

24 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Yeah, Exhibit 3, then, I
25 would offer at this point to complete the record.

1 THE COURT: Any objection?

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: Not for purposes of this
3 hearing.

4 THE COURT: That exhibit is admitted.

5 Q. As I play this animation, Mr. Austin -- or let me
6 ask this first question, what improvements did
7 you make, and how long did it take to create, and 8 what kind of process was involved?

9 A. The version I gave to you last week, my draft
10 version, was completed at 15 frames per second,
11 meaning there were 15 images for every second of 12 animation. I felt it looked somewhat choppy. I
13 therefore re-rendered it at 30 frames per second,
14 which gives it a much more fluid sense of motion,
15 if you will.

16 I also felt that in that draft the 17 gravel did not appear as it should in the 18 animation. Because the way the software looks at 19 the reflection of light, the gravel essentially
20 appeared to sparkle. I, therefore, changed the 21 gravel texture so it doesn't have that reflective
22 capability to it.

23 Q. Once again, this animation, as well as all of 24 your other still images, do you believe that they 25 will assist, not only the trier of fact, that's

1 the jury, but other witnesses in explaining
2 evidence that's found or the relationship between 3 that evidence and fixed objects?

4 A. Mr. Kratz, as we put these 5200 pictures into 5 motion, or make them give that impression of 6 motion, that's going to help myself, you, jury
7 members, to be able to, again, see where items
8 are located to each other. As we go from one end
9 of the scene to the other, or then back around to 10 the backside, if you will, we're going to get a
11 better understanding of what exactly the geometry
12 is of that particular property.

13 Q. I'm going to play this DVD that's been created
14 and just invite you to chime in, if you will,
15 when that becomes appropriate.

16 ATTORNEY KRATZ: The record should reflect,
17 Judge, that this is Exhibit No. 3. And I have asked
18 Mr. Austin to -- to narrate as we go through.

19 Q. Go ahead, Mr. Austin.

20 A. Mr. Kratz, what I have done is, I started at the 21 southeastern portion of that property, if you
22 will. And we're going to come in by those --
23 that Dodge Caravan, which as we talked about 24 before, was identified to me as being of 25 evidentiary value. We are then going to pause in

1 front of that Caravan and identify it using a
2 beader, and that is text and arrow.

3 Q. Between this rendering and the one last week, did
4 you also remove some things?

5 A. I did change some of the text and I will bring 6 that up when we get to that point, what was 7 changed from the previous version.

8 Q. All right.

9 A. Forgive me, I did forget to tell you this
10 earlier, sir, another change I made is, I slowed
11 down the camera as we pan across the top of the 12 residence, so you will see it slightly slower as 13 we move from room to room.

14 Moving from the Caravan to the Steven
15 Avery residence, what we'll do is we'll fade that 16 roof out so we can see the interior of that 17 residence. Now, as we move between these rooms,
18 this is one of the changes I made. It's a little 19 bit slower than what you saw last week.

20 Q. As we're looking at all these images, how many 21 separate images are we actually seeing?

22 A. There's over -- For the entire animation
23 sequence, there's over 5200 images that were 24 rendered to create this.

25 Q. How long did it take to create this?

1 A. I utilized three separate computers to try to
2 speed up the process. I started last Friday and
3 I finished last night.

4 Q. So any delay wasn't intentional on your part?

5 A. No, sir. Moving from the residence to the 6 garage, similar to the still image you showed us
7 before, Mr. Kratz, we're going to fade the roof
8 out so we can see the inside of the garage.

9 Q. If you haven't added any images, all these things
10 that we're seeing were there while you were 11 taking the measurements; is that correct?

12 A. That's correct. From here, Mr. Kratz, we're 13 moving from the overview of the garage. We put 14 the roof back on, if you will, and now we're 15 looking at items behind the garage. And I have 16 added -- these were in last week's version. I
17 have added labels identifying Steven Avery
18 residence and we see we are now at the Steven 19 Avery garage.

20 Q. The darker area to the left, would that be what 21 is known as the burn area, or where some other
22 very important items, including some bone
23 fragments were found?

24 A. Yes, sir, that's my understanding. We're now
25 moving to the southeast. We're going to go

1 behind the Barb Janda property and we're going to
2 identify that residence, as well as the burn
3 barrels that were positioned behind that house.

4 Those burn barrels were there. I did
5 the forensic mapping, so those have been -- their
6 location was mapped. This is one of the changes
7 in the text. Previous to today that said,
8 Janda/Dassey burn barrels. I have taken the 9 names off, so it just says burn barrels there.

10 Q. Some other witness may identify who actually had 11 control of those burn barrels; was that the 12 reason for that change?

13 A. Yes. From those burn barrels we're now moving
14 back to the front of the Steven Avery property
15 and we're going to show the geometric location of 16 the burn barrel position there. And, again, when 17 we show the text here, this previously stated
18 Steven Avery burn barrel, it now just states burn
19 barrel when she show that header.

20 And this is, essentially, the end of the 21 animation generated here. We have seen those 22 images I discussed before, those 5,000 images,
23 and we're fading out to close off the animation.

24 Q. Now, this afternoon we're not going to show the 25 skeletal animations, but was roughly the same

1 process used to assist the jury, ultimately, and
2 probably through the narration of either an
3 anthropologist or a pathologist with what they
4 believe is some important evidence found in this
5 case?

6 A. Yes, the second animation you are referring to 7 was generated in exactly the same manner. It's 8 not as long, there's only slightly over 600
9 images to generate that one. And I don't know if 10 you viewed that last week, if you did, there are 11 no changes to it at all. That one was not 12 altered in any way.

13 Q. Finally, Mr. Austin, asked a little different way
14 and perhaps in more technical jargon, are the 15 images that you created, these computer generated
16 images, true and accurate depictions of the items
17 that are portrayed within them, at least to the 18 best of your ability to create them?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. All right. For purposes of this admissible
21 hearing, that's all I have of Mr. Austin. Thank
22 you, Judge.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

25 CROSS-EXAMINATION

1 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

2 Q. And thank you, Mr. Austin. I just very briefly
3 want to understand the Total Station a little bit
4 better. When you say that device locates itself
5 in space, is this through the assistance of a
6 global positioning satellite?

7 A. No, sir. May I try to reexplain?

8 Q. Sure. Yes.

9 A. If I can. When I set the Total Station up, if 10 you take a point directly underneath that 11 instrument, essentially, that's our -- we call it
12 a zero point. If you're to think back to say
13 high school geometry, we have our X axis and we 14 have our Y axis, and we also have our Z axis,
15 which is our height. So that point directly 16 below the instrument, that we have created is 17 000. It will then will take the angle and 18 distance to you, sir, and then it would recognize 19 your position, then, both horizontally and 20 vertically.

21 Q. Okay. And does it do that by laser?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. So, it's sending laser beam and then measuring
24 the time back to a reflective surface or receptor
25 on the Total Station?

1 A. We have a -- it's a two-man operation, if you
2 will, sir. If the piece or the item we were
3 measuring was over by you, or if you were 4 standing by that, I would give you a prism, which 5 is on staff, and you would hold that directly on 6 that item, or directly over it, and, yes, it
7 would reflect back from that prism.

8 Q. So, what it's measuring then is not the item, but 9 the prism that someone is holding on or near the 10 item you are trying to map?

11 A. Correct. The Total Station knows, or we tell it
12 how tall it is by measuring it. We also tell it
13 how tall the prism is so it mathematically
14 calculates to compensate for that height. So it
15 still -- it's measuring to the prism, but what it
16 is determining is the coordinate to the item at 17 the bottom of the staff.

18 Q. Okay.

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: And I may need to have 20 the kind assistance of Mr. Kratz. May I call on 21 that?

22 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Please.

23 ATTORNEY STRANG: If we -- For example, if
24 we went to something with the four burn barrels
25 behind Barb Janda's trailer.

1 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Give me the figure number,
2 Mr. Strang.

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: I don't have the
4 foggiest.

5 THE WITNESS: Mr. Kratz, can we look at 6 Figure 23.

7 ATTORNEY KRATZ: You certainly can.

8 THE WITNESS: It's on Page 24, would that
9 work, sir?

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: Beautiful, just fine.

11 Q. (By Attorney Strang)~ The barrels themselves, as 12 they are modeled here, look like they are 13 supposed to have holes in them; is that right?

14 A. I applied a rust colored texture to them. I
15 don't believe it is supposed to depict holes. It
16 is supposed to depict just a rusty color.

17 Q. Just something you picked off the digital pallet
18 that the program provides?

19 A. There's a library, if you will, that's with it.
20 And I did pick a rust color to give the 21 impression that it's a rusty barrel.

22 Q. Okay. I thought when we were having our virtual
23 flyer one that I saw dark spots that I took to be 24 holes in the barrels. Maybe -- Maybe it was my 25 imagination of what the image was supposed to be.

1 A. If there were dark spots on there, and I think I
2 do believe there are, it's designed just to --
3 just to show an old barrel, not designed to show
4 any type of hole.

5 Q. So, one who is looking at this and says, boy,
6 gee, there look like a lot of holes in those burn
7 barrels, is seeing something that's simply
8 supplied by your imagination, or the computer's
9 choice of replication of a background, or a color
10 that you have selected?

11 A. For the barrel, could someone get that 12 impression, from what you are telling me, yes.

13 Q. Okay. And I'm not trying to tell you, I'm just 14 asking you. I mean if it looks like a hole, that 15 doesn't mean there was a hole in the barrel?

16 A. Right. You said you got that impression so,
17 obviously, somebody could, yes.

18 Q. Or I could have serious mental problems, I
19 suppose. But setting that aside, if it looks
20 like a hole, that doesn't mean there is a hole
21 there?

22 A. In that case, again, that was a texture from a
23 library designed to show -- in fact, I believe it
24 was for -- simply for a burn barrel that I
25 utilized.

1 Q. Excuse me?

2 A. The texture I assigned it was from a library for
3 a burn barrel.

4 Q. Oh, okay. And just -- I'm just trying to get a
5 better feel for the -- I'm particularly
6 interested in the three dimensional process. You
7 consistently use the term model to describe the 8 images that you have created for the State. Why
9 do you use the term model?

10 A. That's the term that's mostly used in the 11 industry, if you will, the software program I'm 12 using is generally used in the jewelry or marine
13 or both design industries. And these are 14 generally referred to as models. I could just 15 the same refer to them as a three dimensional
16 scaled diagram, perhaps it's just a term that's 17 been instilled in me from when I received the 18 training.

19 Q. Sure, but one thing you mean to denote by 20 choosing the word model is that this is not a
21 photograph in the sense that people have
22 understood that term for the last 150, 160 years
23 or so?

24 A. That's correct. No, I would never try to state
25 this is a photograph of the scene. It's not.

1 Q. It's not a photographic depiction in the sense of
2 something that is as accurate as a photograph
3 might be?

4 A. I don't know if I agree with you on accurate, the 5 geometry here, everything is accurate.

6 Q. And I'm with you on that. I'm with you on 7 geometry and spatial relationships, okay. You
8 and I don't have any quarrel at all, at least for 9 now, about that, and I don't know that we ever
10 will.

11 But in terms of the details that a human
12 eye might take in, a hole in a metal burn barrel,
13 chipped paint on the side of the garage, graffiti
14 on the side -- I'm not suggesting there was 15 graffiti -- but graffiti on the side of a garage,
16 a broken window pane, a lone leaf left on a tree,
17 those sorts of visual details here, the model
18 doesn't even purport to capture?

19 A. That's correct. No, you would see those in your 20 crime scene photographs.

21 Q. So what the model is useful for, among other
22 things I guess, but primarily, is showing us
23 relationships in space, of one item to another,
24 for example, true?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. And does the model -- or does the Total
2 Station, which you eventually download to the
3 forensic 3D software, does the Total Station do a
4 good job, for example, of capturing the 5 circumference of the opening at the top of a burn
6 barrel?

7 A. To map location of the burn barrel, each
8 particular one, what I would do is, I would take 9 three points on there. And I can use those three 10 points in the CAD software to create a perfect
11 circle, if you will. So, you know, I don't
12 actually go around and go over every half inch
13 with the prism. Three points, because that's 14 what I need to create a circle.

15 Q. Okay. So if we look at the four burn barrels,
16 what you have done with your partner who's 17 holding the prism for you on the stick, is you
18 have gone to three separate points on the top of 19 each one of those four burn barrels?

20 A. Correct. There would be three points on each
21 barrel, for those four there.

22 Q. Okay. And then the computer says, I know what to 23 do now, I will create a perfect circle?

24 A. Well, I have to tell it to do that. You know, I
25 will, essentially, in the software I have got

1 various options, editing, drawing tools,
2 etcetera. I will tell it, I'm going to draw a
3 circle and I'm going to give you three points. I
4 then identify those three points and my circle is 5 generated.

6 Q. Got it. So, again, within the limitations here,
7 if what we were interested in knowing is, you
8 know, how far from the side door on Barb Janda's
9 trailer is the cluster of four burn barrels, this 10 would be a very good tool for doing that,
11 correct?

12 A. If I wanted to -- Are you asking me if I wanted
13 to physically measure that distance using the CAD
14 environment, or to get a perspective view?

15 Q. A perspective view.

16 A. Then, yes, I agree, this would be the tool.

17 Q. Okay. And, indeed, I suppose you could use the 18 software to spit out the exact -- not spit out,
19 but to tell you, if you were to run a cord line
20 from the middle of the four burn barrels to the 21 door knob on the side door of the trailer, we 22 could get down to a fraction of an inch the 23 distance of that cord line, correct?

24 A. Yes, we could.

25 Q. But as to what the burn barrels actually look

1 like to a human eye, or would look like in a
2 photograph, we shouldn't be relying on the model
3 to give us?

4 A. I agree.

5 Q. Now, if we go back, with Mr. Kratz's assistance,
6 to Figure 9, is that possible?

7 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Sure.

8 Q. Okay. Now -- And I'm also going to be interested
9 in Figure 10 eventually. But on Figure 9, I see 10 what looks to me like rather dramatic shadows of 11 two lovely leafy trees, casting across the bottom
12 half of that picture.

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Is that what that looks like?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And the measurements here were taken between
17 November 5 and November 12, 2005?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Okay. If I have my directions about right,
20 should I be alarmed by a catastrophic change in 21 the planet earth's orbit and tilt that I now have 22 a strong sun shining out of the northwest, in 23 early November, 2005, in the northern hemisphere?

24 A. If I can put this particular item in perspective,
25 and perhaps I should have done that with

1 Mr. Kratz. The page that this is on, on Page 14
2 of my report, is talking about the forensic 3D
3 software package. And the image right before
4 this one is one of the unrendered garage. And 5 this one is shown in my report directly
6 underneath it as showing a rendered version.

7 And my point here, the point is in the 8 report was to show how we can generate these 9 models with the various textures on them. This 10 is in no way -- This particular view is not -- or 11 with the shadows, is not shown any later in the 12 report when I'm talking about the scene models.
13 And these are actually not leafy trees, these are 14 the pine type trees that are up near the 15 residence that you are seeing. So I would not 16 try to purport that this is how it looked on 17 November 5th, 6th, 7th through the 12th, 2005.
18 This was to show the software.

19 Q. So how do the lovely long shadows of the pine
20 trees get in there.

21 A. I turned the sun on in this particular case to 22 show, again, the software's capabilities. You
23 will see in the other renderings, the sun I
24 actually have off. You will see some shadowing,
25 but the sun giving directionality has not been

1 turned on. I did not intend to depict any time
2 of day, specific time of day, in any of the 3 models you are seeing, you know, that are 4 designed to show you the actual scene or any 5 animation.

6 Q. Or to suggest the orientation of sun to the 7 scene?

8 A. No, I did not do that or did I have any intention
9 of doing that.

10 Q. Okay. And when we see trees in your models,
11 particularly the ones that are leafless, as they
12 might be in early November around here, they all 13 look the same to me. Are these simply trees that 14 the computer generates for the purpose of 15 suggesting that there is a tree in that spot in 16 space.

17 A. This software package allows me to actually
18 specify different types of trees and to specify
19 different seasons. You would see your apple
20 blossoms in the spring and apples in the summer.
21 I, for the purpose of being demonstrative of 22 their being a tree, I did not vary the trees at 23 all. So you are very correct in that all of the 24 leafless trees are the same. The only difference 25 is in their size.

1 Q. Okay. And in general, then, there's a certain
2 amount of artistry, if you will, on your part or 3 on the part of the operator turning the sun on or 4 off, selecting color palet, that kind of thing,
5 to help make this an attractive model, if you
6 will.

7 A. The intent is not to be attractive, if you will.
8 It's to show that there is a tree in this 9 position, that this item is a barrel. But do we 10 have some liberty, if you will, of picking what 11 tree is going to go in there, or what texture is 12 going to be there. I suppose. I do the best I
13 can to try to make that as close as possible.

14 Q. No. And please don't take this as an attack.
15 And by attractive, I understand you are not 16 planning to send this home so mom can put it on 17 the refrigerator. But it's designed to give us a
18 sense of reality, or the illusion of reality of a
19 real scene, correct?

20 A. The design is to give you an idea. And I
21 mentioned these buzz words before about geometric
22 perspective and spacial relationships.

23 Q. Right.

24 A. But to give you an idea of how that scene is laid
25 out. It's not, as you mentioned before, it is

1 not designed to give you a photograph, or a
2 photographic image of what that scene looks like.

3 Q. So whether to color the garage, or what color to 4 make it, whether to turn on the sun, or leave the 5 sun turned off, you know, which direction the 6 shadows should fall, whether there should be
7 shadows, how to color the gravel, these are all
8 just decisions you have to make, in good faith.
9 I'm not suggesting anything to the contrary. But 10 these are just artistic decisions, for want of a
11 better word, in presenting something that looks
12 other than just shades of gray?

13 A. Yes, those are decisions that I made.

14 Q. Okay. And then there's, you know, you don't have 15 to buy into the label artistic, I don't mean
16 anything by it. I don't mean to pick a fight by 17 that. But in addition to those kinds of 18 decisions that you made, in creating your 19 exhibits here, there are also some decisions that 20 were made either by Mr. Kratz, or by Mr. Wiegert,
21 or Mr. Fassbender, primarily, correct?

22 A. As to the colors that were used?

23 Q. No, no, other decisions as to the depictions;
24 specifically, what items would be included?

25 A. Oh, yes.

1 Q. Okay. And those decisions simply were made by an
2 advocate, or people on one side of this lawsuit,
3 for demonstrative purposes?

4 A. Can you say that one more time. I did not
5 understand the lawsuit part.

6 Q. Sure. Some of the decisions about what to 7 include, simply were made by either Mr. Kratz, as 8 one of the lawyers for the State, or one of the 9 two lead investigators on the case, or their 10 purposes of showing or demonstrating what they 11 would like to show or demonstrate.

12 A. Yes, that's correct.

13 Q. Okay. Now, I'm quite certain, knowing these 14 gentleman somewhat, that they didn't ask you to 15 include anything that was made up, made up out of 16 faux pas. And you also were on the scene,
17 correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. So, did you satisfy yourself that the things you
20 were asked to include in fact were things present
21 at least at some time between November 5 and
22 November 12th?

23 A. If I understand your question correctly, are you
24 asking if I'm satisfied everything I have 25 depicted was at that scene during that time?

1 Q. Yes.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. Nothing was added in. In other words, if 4 we -- if we go to Figure 41, again, with 5 Mr. Kratz's help.

6 A. Overview of the garage, sir?

7 Q. Yes. Yes, with the roof peeled off. So, if we
8 go to that, there, in fact, was, looks like a
9 John Deere lawn mower or tractor, present in the 10 scene at some point while you were there?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. There were two snowmobiles, each a flank of the 13 Suzuki Samurai, not just one?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. But now, to go in the other direction, or 16 the converse of this, there also were items
17 present that have been omitted from these models,
18 correct?

19 A. Yes. Omitted or not measured. There were a lot
20 of debris, for lack of a better word, in that 21 garage.

22 Q. Okay. So while we haven't added anything in that 23 wasn't there, we have taken out some things that 24 were there?

25 A. Taken out or they weren't measured when I was

1 there.

2 Q. And if they weren't measured, they cannot be 3 included?

4 A. If they weren't measured, then you are not going
5 to see them in there, denoted as being in a
6 specific location.

7 Q. So someone looking at this Figure 41, for 8 example, unless he or she was able to look at a
9 photograph taken at about the same time, would 10 not understand that the garage, in fact,
11 contained a whole lot more items and clutter than 12 it appears to in the model?

13 A. I believe I understand your question. Like if I
14 were to look at the -- there's a table back here
15 denoted in silver or grayish color. There were 16 items on that table, if you will. There were --
17 I can even tell you what they are: Parts, or 18 boxes, or other items. No, I denoted the 19 location of that table, but not everything that 20 was on it.

21 Q. Right. In fact, your recollection is that the 22 table top was all but covered with junk and 23 miscellaneous things.

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. Likewise, the garage floor was not

1 covered, but quite cluttered with all kinds of
2 parts and miscellaneous stuff?

3 A. There were more items in that garage than what
4 were depicted in this particular perspective.

5 Q. Perhaps the most striking example of this, if you
6 went to Figure 31.

7 A. The residence over here?

8 Q. Yes.

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: Is your Honor able to
10 follow along?

11 THE COURT: Yes, I am following along. I
12 have hard copies of the exhibits and I'm looking at 13 them.

14 Q. Okay.

15 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Do you need something from 16 me?

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: Figure 31 would be great,
18 just for the spectators.

19 ATTORNEY KRATZ: With or without arrows?

20 ATTORNEY STRANG: Right now, either is 21 okay. Very well.

22 Q. If the uninitiated took the model in Figure 31 as 23 an entirely accurate representation of the way
24 Mr. Avery's home looked, one would conclude that 25 at least as to his living room and dining room,

1 he had a fairly minimalist philosophy of interior
2 design.

3 A. In fact, I documented that in my narrative too,
4 sir, that items in those rooms were not measured,
5 you know, what the furniture that was there.

6 Yes, without -- if they weren't shown a crime
7 scene photograph, or they weren't told that this
8 is designed just to show relationships of certain 9 objects, yeah, they would not probably have an 10 understanding that there were other items there.

11 Q. Things like couches, and chairs, and fairly large
12 pieces of furniture?

13 A. I remember two chairs. I don't remember having a
14 couch.

15 Q. Okay. But in other words, there's some 16 significant pieces of furniture that just aren't
17 here?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. Okay. And so the things that are included
20 reflect some editorial judgment on the part of 21 the State in this instance?

22 A. Or items that I, like I say, I didn't actually 23 get to the chairs that you were referring to 24 there by the time our warrant ran out that day.
25 So, yeah, there's also some judgment on my part

1 when I was in there as to what items I could get
2 to in the time allotted.

3 Q. Fair enough. Fair enough. And throughout making
4 these slides, in a number of ways, you were
5 guided by the requests of, let's just say agents
6 of the State, in directing you on which of the 7 available items that actually were there should 8 be included and which should be omitted from the 9 image or the model?

10 A. Yes, that's correct.

11 Q. Now, in explaining that such direction is common
12 in your work, you told the Court that this is 13 common to rely on one side or the other in a
14 lawsuit, for that sort of direction?

15 A. The bulk of the work that I do, as -- as 16 Mr. Kratz pointed out, is -- is in crash
17 reconstruction.

18 Q. Yes.

19 A. And a lot of the diagrams that I do for crash
20 reconstruction, we don't show everything in those 21 aspects either. We'll actually usually collect
22 more information than we need, or on the flip 23 side, we can't show every single crack that's in 24 the pavement.

25 So that's what I meant by it's

1 relatively common to only show certain aspects or
2 for certain things to be omitted. You know, I'm 3 never going to intentionally omit something of an
4 evidentiary value for either side, but I think it
5 would be impossible to show everything.

6 Q. And that's not where I'm going. What I'm saying
7 is, you are getting your direction from one side?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Not from two sides?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And because you are employed by the Wisconsin
12 State Patrol, when would the defense ever be, in 13 a criminal case, the defense ever be suggesting 14 what should be included and what not included in 15 a model?

16 A. Typically, that has not happened. I did offer to 17 Mr. Kratz, you know, that we could add additional 18 items if there was something that you
19 particularly wanted displayed or shown in there.
20 I haven't heard anything back on that yet. But,
21 no, typically we don't call the defense attorney
22 up and say what do you want in the diagram. Or,
23 you know, I guess I haven't had a chance where 24 they have approached me and said can you add
25 this. I have been asked in court to draw in

1 where something was on a diagram but, no, not the
2 scenario that you are portraying. That's not
3 happened to me.

4 Q. It's the first I'm hearing of it too. And, you
5 know, they are entitled to create their own
6 demonstrative exhibits. They just are, just the 7 same way I am.

8 The point is, you are someone at the
9 technical reconstruction unit of the Wisconsin
10 State Patrol Academy more typically would assist
11 the prosecution in preparing such exhibits?

12 A. That's correct and that's how it was in this 13 case, as you point out, yes.

14 Q. Here we can use this just as well as anything,
15 the -- the items that are shown, all of them were 16 mapped with the forensic station or the Total
17 Station?

18 A. No, a lot of these items were manually -- the 19 measurements were manually recorded. It would be 20 possible, but very difficult, to set the 21 instrument up in a small bedroom, as you will,
22 that we had here in the residence. It was 23 quicker just to manually, if you will, measure
24 those positions.

25 Q. Fair enough. Fair enough. And those

1 measurements may have been taken at different
2 times, by different people?

3 A. No, I took -- the measurements that you are
4 seeing here were taken by me on the last date.
5 So, obviously, they are going to be at different
6 times, but I was in there at one, you know, all
7 at one time frame, if you will.

8 Q. Okay. And, again, don't -- I'm just using this 9 demonstratively so to speak, okay, so don't get 10 carried away with just the image of, but in 11 general, the images we have seen, the mapping,
12 whether done by the Total Station, or done
13 manually, was done at different times?

14 A. Oh, I'm sorry, I misunderstood your question.
15 Yes, they were all done, you know, in the course
16 of one day. Then we would call it a day, go
17 home, come back the following day, reset up, or 18 do a different area, or finish that location.

19 Q. And during the time you were on scene, doing the 20 mapping, there were 50 or 100 other law
21 enforcement officers also on the scene, executing
22 at least a couple of search warrants; you were 23 aware of that?

24 A. Yes. They were never in the immediate area we 25 were working in. It's a very large area,

1 obviously.

2 Q. Right.

3 A. A lot of the searchers were down in the -- where
4 the vehicles were in the salvage yard. But,
5 yeah, I do know, for example, that there were
6 probably 60 of my co-workers that were out there
7 doing searches.

8 Q. Okay. And you have no way of knowing what items
9 law enforcement officers may have moved before 10 you got around to mapping the dimensions and 11 location of those items?

12 A. If that happened, I wouldn't know.

13 Q. I would like to go briefly to the skeleton model.
14 Just an unlabeled image. There we go. Great.
15 That works fine. This thing actually came off a
16 CD that the FBI sent to you?

17 A. Yeah, I contacted their -- was it their 18 Structural Imaging Unit -- I would have to look
19 at the particulars, and requested a -- Structural
20 Design Unit of the FBI and requested a skeletal
21 model in a standard CAD, be in a drafting format.
22 They sent me what's called a DXF file, which 23 means drawing exchange file, that my software
24 could also read. So, yes, I did obtain this from 25 the FBI.

1 Q. Okay. And was the -- was the depiction on the
2 FBI's CD or DVD, whatever it was, a photograph,
3 or was that image itself a computer generated
4 image of some kind?

5 A. What they gave me was, you know, for lack of a
6 better term, we discussed it before, was a three
7 dimensional model. It was actually the CAD file,
8 if you will, would have been similar to my final
9 overall scene of the Avery property. This was 10 just a file, if you will, of a female skeleton,
11 which then I can move around in 3D space.

12 Q. Sure.

13 A. Or put the texture, or label accordingly. So it
14 wasn't a picture they gave me, was the actual 15 model itself.

16 Q. Again computer generated?

17 A. Yeah, a computer electronic file. Yes.

18 Q. Yes. And as to whether it was a female skeleton, 19 you simply you relied on the label assigned to 20 the file?

21 A. I trusted the FBI. And I trusted Dr. Eisenberg
22 to confirm, yes, this is female.

23 Q. Okay. And if you know, do we have a height on 24 this skeletal model?

25 A. On the model itself?

1 Q. Yes.

2 A. I think -- I think I have it right around 5 feet.

3 I would have to go back and look, sir.

4 Q. But in any event, that's a number you could give
5 us, or dimension you could give us as height?

6 A. Of the skeleton?

7 Q. Yes.

8 A. Yes, I could go back and see what that was.

9 Although, everything -- if I were to adjust that 10 model's height, everything would be
11 proportionate, meaning if I made it 5 feet tall
12 or if I made it 20 feet tall, the relative size
13 and proportion would remain the same.

14 Q. Okay. So this can't be taken to depict any 15 particular person, in other words?

16 A. No, that's not my intention here at all. It was 17 to help Dr. Eisenberg to point out specific bone
18 locations.

19 Q. Right. The knee bone connects to the shin bone,
20 and one can see where the knee bone would be in 21 relationship to the shin bone?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. That's fine. So let me go to some 24 specific questions. And here it will be useful,
25 not so much to use the screen, but just the

1 binder we have here, we all have the same one.

2 A. Okay.

3 Q. Now, we have been describing three dimensional
4 models. But of course, none of them are, right?
5 We're looking at the flat pieces of two
6 dimensional paper, or flat images on a screen?

7 A. Yes, it's a flat screen.

8 Q. The illusion of the third dimension is 9 perspective provided by mathematical algorithm?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. The design of the software itself, or the design
12 of the algorithms that create the illusion of 13 three dimensional space are not something that 14 are your work product?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. Not something in which you are expert?

17 A. No, I'm not a programmer.

18 Q. So this is -- this is a commercially available,
19 or proprietary software package that somebody in 20 the Wisconsin State Patrol Academy purchased and 21 you use.

22 A. The first part of your question is correct. The 23 Wisconsin State Patrol Academy did not purchase
24 this. This is something that, as a trainer of 25 the software, that I have from them. So this is

1 not something the State Patrol has purchased yet.

2 Q. Sure. Okay. And that will teach me to ask
3 compound questions. If we go to Figure 17?

4 A. The exterior of the trailer, sir, or the 5 residence, rather.

6 Q. Yes, looks like that to me. You have no idea
7 what, if anything, duck tape may have to do --
8 duck tape under the porch may have to do with 9 anything in this case, do you?

10 A. No.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: Do we have a labeled 12 version of that?

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Sure.

14 Q. Okay. But somebody asked you to include some 15 duct tape --

16 A. Yes, that's correct.

17 Q. -- in this figure. And didn't give you exactly
18 where the duct tape was supposed to be?

19 A. No, that's based off of a photograph.

20 Q. So, quite honestly, you simply tell us you here
21 that are doing an approximation?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Again, whether duct tape has anything to do with 24 anything, you have no idea?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. Okay. Likewise, in Figure 18, you refer to a
2 number of items, a vehicle bench seat, a mallet,
3 tire cords, a rake, and here, again, you tell us
4 placement is to be deemed as being approximate,
5 correct?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. So this is something that you just decided where
8 to put these items in the model?

9 A. I tried to do the best I could to explain in the 10 narrative here as to how the items were placed.
11 The one you pointed out here, yeah, they had been 12 moved before I forensically mapped that location.
13 I relied on photographs taken by the State Patrol
14 Trooper Jim Reese, to put those items in place.
15 So I did do what I could to note which items were 16 mapped and which were based on photographic
17 evidence.

18 Q. But we could look at the photographs, if he 19 wanted to know where the items were.

20 A. Which I did in this case. But now our view here,
21 we've moved up to -- I don't know what our
22 elevation is here, looks like somewhere around 50
23 feet, looking down, so we can see the entire
24 area.

25 Q. So if we wanted to pretend we were 55 feet tall,

1 now we can do that.

2 A. I don't think the intention would be for play
3 acting, just to get a good overview.

4 Q. Right. But that's the point of view so to speak.

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay.

7 THE COURT: Excuse me, Mr. Strang. Let me
8 ask just one question. The approximate location,
9 based off of the photos, is that a number of photos,
10 or one photo that showed all these items?

11 THE WITNESS: There were several photos I
12 was able to utilize. I can't tell you, your Honor,
13 how many I had at that point. Trooper Reese did
14 take several shots behind there with the camera.
15 And for some of these, if it was possible, I also 16 utilized aerial photographs so that we can see the 17 vehicle bench seat in one of those. But if I could 18 use -- the more I could use, obviously, the better.

19 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Strang.

20 Q. There were a number of area photographs taken,
21 some of which you used to assist you?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Were any of those done with a zoom lens?

24 A. I would have to look at my notes to see what 25 Trooper McConnell did or what type of camera he

1 had, or focal lens. I guess I don't know because
2 I wasn't involved in those.

3 Q. And it's not worth the time. Did you look at 4 them digitally?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. So we know they were digital photographs
7 at least?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And, therefore, we could use Photoshop, or 10 something on the computer, to enlarge or minimize 11 the view of part of those photographs.

12 A. That is correct. There were also some
13 non-digital pictures that I believe were arranged
14 to be taken by DCI, which showed items also.
15 Those were not digital, but you could look at 16 them and see.

17 Q. Okay. If you go to Figure 32 --

18 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Labeled?

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: Either way.

20 Q. -- this is the bathroom?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. There's a bathroom door, but it looks like
23 the doorway has disappeared?

24 A. The material on the -- I'm going to use a laser
25 pointer here, sir.

1 Q. Sure.

2 A. The material on this wall is the same as the 3 material on this wall. And you see this, this is 4 a shadow from this wall coming down. It's going
5 to be in the rendering or perhaps how we're
6 displayed here was printed.

7 There is an opening here, but because
8 the wall behind it is identical in texture, it
9 gives us the illusion, if you will, in that
10 picture, that it's a solid wall. But we do see a
11 shadow from this back wall in here, which shows
12 us that there really is an opening there. If I
13 would have made this wall darker or this wall
14 darker you would see a difference.

15 Q. I would see a doorway?

16 A. Yes. Do you see what I mean about the shadow
17 that's back here? The shadow is actually on that 18 hallway wall, so that's why we're seeing it
19 inside, by looking through the door.

20 Q. Okay. So, it's not a situation where there was 21 an error in measurement or something that caused 22 the computer to think there was no doorway into 23 the bathroom?

24 A. No, it's the fact that I have the same texture on 25 that wall as I do on the other wall and that in

1 this particular render gives us that -- I don't
2 want to say optical illusion, for lack of a
3 better term, it appears to us that that door is 4 missing.

5 Q. Here, again, this isn't another example where 6 you, quite forthrightly, in the report, told us
7 that you are approximating the location of the 8 guns?

9 A. That's correct. And you're right, that is 10 mentioned in the report.

11 Q. If we go to Figure 36-A now, you may not know
12 enough about this case to understand this, but 13 this sort of model is something that the lawyers
14 have been probably spending a fair amount of time
15 looking at. And I have seen photographs
16 depicting the same basic area.

17 So just for the Court's benefit, there
18 are a very noticeable pair of men's slippers just 19 to the left of the key in the photographs, of the 20 same area that you have modeled here. Have you
21 seen those photographs too?

22 A. Yes, I was given a singular photograph in this
23 case to show me the location of that key. And I
24 was asked to put that key in. I am aware of the 25 slippers they are talking about.

1 Q. And the outlet on the wall?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. Okay. So is that the kind of thing that you are 4 simply told, don't bother about the outlet on the 5 wall, don't bother about the slippers, just show
6 us the approximate location of the key?

7 A. I was asked about the outlet on the wall by the 8 prosecution, and that one I would have had 9 difficulty putting in without having
10 measurements. I did not measure the outlets or 11 light switches when I was there. I felt 12 comfortable putting the key on the carpeting on 13 the floor, but I did not feel comfortable in 14 putting the outlet in.

15 Q. An earlier draft of this -- and I understand it
16 was just a draft -- had no key fob on the key
17 correct?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. No little blue or purple strap. Were you asked
20 to add that back in?

21 A. That didn't exist at that point, in the previous 22 draft. I believe you are referring to the one I
23 had delivered to you back in December, what was 24 in there was a generic key, if you will. It was 25 not the actual key or a model of the key that was

1 found.

2 After that version came out, I was asked
3 to put in, if you will, the actual key. So I was 4 given access to it. I took measurements of that 5 key and, hence, you see it in this particular
6 version.

7 Q. Okay. And as we go through, we don't need to 8 stop particularly on each one of these, but
9 Figures 37 and 38, you have got cross-hatched
10 areas, shows approximate locations of things; is 11 that again based on photographs, or just 12 somebody's description to you of where bleach or 13 duct tape was found?

14 A. Yes, and yes. There were photographs of both of 15 these items. In fact, looking at my photographs
16 that I took when I was in the residence, the 17 bleach you are referring to in Figure 37 was in 18 place. But, yes, those are based on requests
19 they be in and/or based on statements and 20 photographs.

21 Q. Go to Figure 44, if you would.

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Now, here some color has been added for 24 highlighting, specifically, blue color, correct?

25 A. You are referring to the truss. I apologize, my

1 version is black and white.

2 Q. Do you have the -- Do you have your little --
3 your writing at the top, your captioning?

4 A. Yes, you are referring to the mark, I can see it
5 in the one Mr. Kratz put up. Yeah, I thought
6 that was a blood print?

7 Q. Now, the blue coloring is something added by you?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Just to highlight an area?

10 A. Yes. I believe as I wrote here, it was shaded 11 blue to make the area differ from the remainder 12 of the other sections of the trusses. I did that 13 to show a location.

14 Q. The location is where at least someone told you
15 there were some marks on a ceiling truss?

16 A. I actually, when we surveyed -- This part, we did
17 use the Total Station for and myself and other
18 officers involved saw those marks ourselves. So
19 that actual location is correct on these. As to 20 do they have any value, I don't know. But we 21 mapped out that location and we put -- I put them
22 in there.

23 Q. Whether the marks themselves that you have 24 highlighted have anything to do with anything,
25 you have no idea?

1 A. That's correct, sir.

2 Q. The next slide, Figure 45 -- Are we using, in
3 Figure 45, the scene as it looked in March, 2006
4 or the scene as it looked in November, 2005, as a
5 starting point for the model?

6 A. The original model -- and if I'm not following
7 you, please, please stop me.

8 Q. Oh, sure.

9 A. The original model that's here is based on 10 forensic mapping that I did back in November of 11 2005. Now, what my intention to depict here is 12 items that were denoted by investigators in March
13 of 2006.

14 Apparently they had gone back in and
15 found some items of evidentiary value. And 16 that's what this and the following photograph are 17 designed to -- excuse me -- I mean photograph
18 image, are designed to depict, is items that they 19 noted during that examination.

20 Q. But the items themselves were among those that 21 were mapped in November, 2005, or were they 22 simply added in, based on new information in 23 March, 2006?

24 A. The paint thinner, I think, as I talked about
25 before, I didn't map the items that were on top

1 of that particular bench. I did observe, after 2 reading the reports and looking back at my
3 photographs that I took when I was in the garage,
4 the paint thinner was in place. I can't tell you
5 exactly, say it's 3 inches over, 4 inches back.
6 I can't do that.

7 Q. Sure.

8 A. That's why it says approximate.

9 Q. Was the blackjack creeper?

10 A. The blackjack creeper was in place when I was 11 there. And that one I could put in based on the 12 items around it. It's right up against that air
13 compressor and by the welder, so I had no
14 difficulty in putting that in.

15 Q. Although, you had not mapped it?

16 A. No, the location of the blackjack creeper was not
17 noted; however, the compressor behind it, there
18 is a lawn mower in front of it, a waste paper
19 basket, and a welder right there. So that was --
20 I was very confident in putting that in place.

21 Q. All right. Very briefly, we don't even -- I
22 don't think we need the images because they don't
23 have figure numbers, but there are some close up
24 views of the skeletal model showing defects, what
25 you have described as defects, or probably Dr.

1 Eisenberg described as defects, in the mental
2 foramen and in the parietal bone, true?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. And on those you simply picked, or Dr. Eisenberg
5 has picked at random, which side of the head to 6 use as in modeling those defects?

7 A. I believe that -- I guess I don't feel
8 comfortable discussing that. I was directed that 9 it's the left side of the head at this particular
10 location of the parietal bone. Again, as 11 Mr. Kratz pointed out, that's well outside of my 12 area of expertise. I generated these models
13 under her supervision and for Dr. Eisenberg.

14 Q. Okay. I'm interested in the text then, I guess,
15 just to nail that down on page 56.

16 A. I'm there, sir.

17 Q. You write, in part, however, it is unknown from 18 which side of the mandible the fragment
19 originated. For demonstration purposes only the 20 model shown below depicts the left side of the 21 head.

22 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, I'm sorry, the 23 mandible is the jaw.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: Right. Yes, it is.

25 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Dr. Eisenberg will testify

1 exactly where the defect is on the cranial defect.
2 But other than that, your Honor, the text is what it
3 is.

4 THE COURT: I must have a different Page
5 56, because my Page 56 doesn't show a jaw.

6 A. I'm sorry, Mr. Strang, could you repeat the 7 question.

8 Q. Well, the question was, am I right that simply 9 for purposes of illustration here, what you are 10 saying at least is, you are using the left side
11 of the mandible.

12 A. I believe, and thank you for refreshing my memory
13 on this one, what I did in that case, that I
14 showed one of the mental foramen which, again,
15 well outside my area of expertise, my
16 understanding is it's a opening for a blood
17 vessel in the jaw. There's blood on each side of 18 the jaw. I depicted one of them. I believe the 19 text says after that, that the mental foramen on 20 the right side of the jaw is similarly located.

21 Q. Very well. Technically, if you were asked, would 22 it be possible to start with, you know, Figure
23 31, for example, and then add in one arrow or 24 label at a time, like a PowerPoint presentation,
25 to use something much simpler, with which I'm

1 familiar with?

2 A. You are asking that could be done?

3 Q. Yes, could that be done technically?

4 A. Oh, yes.

5 Q. Without an unreasonable amount of work?

6 A. No, it would not be unreasonable at all.

7 Q. Okay. What you have given us here are all or 8 nothing. All the labels, or none of the labels,
9 on the figures that -- for which we can choose
10 labeled or unlabeled?

11 A. Yes. What I did was I gave -- obviously, I
12 couldn't do that in the report. Essentially, as 13 you said, it's all or nothing here.

14 Q. Right.

15 A. What I gave Mr. Kratz was 4 X 6 prints and 16 electronic versions of either, yes, all or
17 nothing. But, no, it would not be any difficult
18 amount of work to separate those out, or to put 19 them into a PowerPoint presentation.

20 Q. There's nothing magic about PowerPoint, but my 21 point -- my point simply was, if some of the 22 labels were acceptable to the Court or the 23 parties, and not others, is that something you
24 could do without a great deal of trouble?

25 A. If that were the decision, and either you or

1 Mr. Kratz were to direct me as to what has to be
2 done, yes, we could make that happen.

3 Q. Okay. And similarly, no big deal to take out
4 words in some of the labels, if that was the 5 decision? So, in other words, it could be 6 garage, rather than Steven Avery's garage, just 7 for example?

8 A. That's correct. And just to go a step further if 9 I may, sir.

10 Q. Sure.

11 A. In the animation, that would be relatively easy 12 also.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. The difficulty would be if we had to re-render
15 some of those approaches, that would take a
16 lengthy amount of time. But the textural parts
17 in there can be altered rather simply.

18 Q. All right. And I think my last question is, the 19 new DVD that I was just given this afternoon, do
20 you think that, without any purchase of 21 proprietary software, I could pop that in a
22 laptop and run the virtual tour, or stop it, or 23 sort of use the exhibit as well?

24 A. Yes, there's nothing proprietary about it. It's 25 written to an M-PEG 2 Format, meaning any DVD

1 player can read that.

2 Q. Okay. And that can be stopped or backed up, that
3 kind of thing, by the person running the laptop?

4 A. Yes, just as if you were going to put a regular 5 movie in there, you could pause it, or reverse,
6 or fast forward.

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thanks. That's all I
8 have.

9 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Nothing for this hearing,
10 Judge.

11 THE COURT: All right. Your witness is 12 excused. We'll take our break at this time, give 13 the reporter a rest. Come back in 15 minutes.

14 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, on this issue we 15 don't anticipate any more testimony; do you want a
16 brief argument?

17 THE COURT: I will hear the argument after 18 we get back.

19 ATTORNEY KRATZ: What time do you want us
20 back?

21 THE COURT: Fifteen minutes, quarter to 22 four.

23 (Recess taken.)

24 THE COURT: At this time we're back on the
25 record, I will hear argument on the defendant's

1 motion regarding the animations. I think,
2 Mr. Strang, we'll let you go first, I'm sure you
3 know exactly what the objections are.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: Sure. I think we can
5 narrow the scope considerably. In the end, I don't 6 think there will be any real problem at all with the 7 skeletal model. And I can work through with 8 Mr. Kratz or his colleagues any minor issues that 9 remain.

10 But I think -- I think where we're
11 heading on that is that they have already removed 12 color highlights on bones, which was good. And 13 we're probably heading toward unlabeled images,
14 first, and then adding labels as a witness
15 describes, you know, whatever it is that the 16 arrow would come in for. And I don't think that 17 editorial content of the labels on the skeletal
18 model would be any issue at all. They are just 19 really using formal names for bones. So I think
20 that will wash out.

21 I will talk a little bit about
22 proportion and, you know, get a better
23 understanding of that now that I have a
24 foundation from Trooper Austin on that. But I
25 don't expect that the Court will need to address

1 that and we probably would withdraw the motion so
2 far as the skeletal models go -- or model.

3 The Avery property, you know, this
4 northwest corner of the 40 acre parcel will 5 present some difficulty, perhaps, and just to 6 describe what it is for the Court. I don't have 7 a good vocabulary for this because, at least to 8 me, not being involved in, you know, air crash
9 cases or personal injury cases, where a great
10 deal of money is at stake, computer generated
11 animations are new to me, even though they are 12 not new to the profession, particularly.

13 But the concern, if I can articulate it,
14 is that the models come so close to a realistic
15 or photographic quality that it's easy to forget
16 that they just are not. The photographic eye of 17 a video camera picks up everything within it's 18 field of focus and there's no opportunity for 19 somebody to say, well, I want this flower pot in,
20 but the watering can over there, I want that 21 taken out.

22 Now, obviously, with digital photographs
23 we actually can do that kind of thing now. But 24 in the traditional sense, a video recording or a
25 photograph gives a true depiction. These do not.

1 But what's included is so deceptively good -- and
2 I don't mean in a pejorative sense perceptively,
3 but it's so realistic appearing that it's easy, I
4 think, for a juror to forget that he or she is
5 looking at a collection of pixels that reflects
6 editorial judgment on everything other than the 7 geometry.

8 And I will simply take the geometry and
9 the spatial relationships off the table here.
10 I'm not concerned about the accuracy of the 11 algorithm. I'm not concerned about the accuracy
12 of measurements, whether they are manual or done
13 with the Total Station device. That can be 14 developed easily enough and understood by way of 15 foundational questions on direct, or a few simple
16 questions on cross-examination. And jurors then 17 can understand that, well, you know, there may be 18 some slight human error in spatial relationships.
19 Not worried about that, or the geometry, if the 20 Court will.

21 Where I get worried is things like holes
22 in burn barrels. That kind of thing, it is very 23 easy to assume that there really must be a hole
24 in the burn barrel if it looks like there's a
25 hole in the burn barrel.

1 Or easy to assume that, you know, the
2 dog was standing out at the end of his leash, if
3 he's standing out at the end of his leash in the 4 depiction here. It's all that much easier to 5 lose track of the fact that we're not depicting 6 anything as it would have been, necessarily, on 7 October 31, 2005.

8 We just -- There's no way of knowing.
9 These are later creations based on later
10 measurements. We'll also have to work some on 11 labeling, but my expectation would be that 12 collaboratively the State and the defense could 13 come to some agreement on labeling as to the 14 trailer and the Janda trailer and the surrounding 15 yard, for want of a better word.

16 We may even get -- We may, we're not yet
17 today, but we may get to some agreement on 18 something like the image that has a rake and tire
19 cords and a mallet and a number of items shown in 20 approximate locations. It may be that if the 21 State introduces photographs taken during the 22 same week, that photographically show the scene,
23 it may be that I'm a lot less concerned about a
24 demonstrative representation once the jury
25 understands, here are the photographs and here's

1 the diagram, which, you know, which is really
2 intended just for argument or illustration and
3 not for pictographic accuracy. We're not there
4 yet, we may be able to get there on that topic.

5 The greatest concern and the one on
6 which we probably do need the Court's help is the 7 garage. The garage, as depicted in the models
8 here, really is materially different than the 9 garage was in real life. And I say to myself,
10 here, this is where the differences are so
11 material that, you know, an actual jury view of 12 the garage would be better than a virtual tour of 13 the garage.

14 And the problem may be exasperated by 15 the fact that for whatever reason, at least the 16 photographs that Mr. Buting and I have seen of 17 the garage, aren't particularly good and they are 18 not particularly numerous. So I don't know,
19 here, that -- there may be photographs I have not 20 seen, not that they haven't been given to me, but 21 just that there's such a mass of photographs, I'm 22 not sure I have looked at every photograph we 23 have.

24 But it may be that there are photographs
25 I have not seen or things that could be blown up

1 that would allow the jury to see the garage as it
2 actually was. Because the differences are
3 material and they may be material to arguments
4 that the State wants to make. They could
5 potentially become misleading if one is relying 6 on the -- on the computer model only as to the 7 garage.

8 Could something fit in the garage; could 9 something have been laid down in the garage; the 10 truss marks; the marks on the truss. I have no
11 reason to think that the State will be able to 12 show the relevance here at all of marks on a
13 truss, so to have an image that takes the roof
14 off, gives the juror a view that, as the witness
15 said, probably is not humanly possible to have.

16 And then on top of it, highlights
17 something that may have nothing at all to do with 18 anything, in fact, as far as I know does have 19 nothing at all to do with anything relevant or 20 probative here. It becomes unfair. So that -- 21 that -- the garage really is where most of the 22 points of contention lie. And whether we can get
23 there with photographs that would allow the jury
24 to take them proper in a fair context, a
25 demonstrative model of the garage, I don't know.

1 And, you know, as I say, the trailer,
2 would I be much happier with just a video camera
3 walk through, which may or may not have been done
4 at the scene, I don't know. I think it would be
5 more accurate, but there probably are enough
6 photographs in the end, or there may be enough
7 photographs of the trailer that we can live with
8 modeling as long as the Court gives a good
9 instruction on what a demonstrative exhibit may 10 or may not be used for properly.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Kratz.

12 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Thank you, Judge. I
13 appreciate Mr. Strang's concessions regarding 14 admissibility. And that's what this hearing is.
15 It's not to decide the weight that a jury may give 16 to these items, but simply whether or not they are 17 admissible.

18 We're left with, then, the standards of 19 admissibility for demonstrative evidence, which 20 is one of the simplest formulas for a Court to 21 apply in admissibility hearings. And it's simply 22 whether it will assist the jury and whether the 23 probative value may be outweighed by 24 countervailing factors, the 904.03 analysis.

25 Demonstrative evidence in and of itself

1 is certainly admissible. As Mr. Austin
2 testified, if a citizen can come down from a
3 witness stand and draw an intersection on a chalk
4 board without one measurement -- without it being
5 at all to scale and that's admissible, there
6 shouldn't be any question regarding admissibility
7 of these kinds of images; that is, with in excess
8 of 4100 measurements and being perfectly, not
9 only to scale, but of geometric proportions.

10 Here's a case, Judge, State vs.
11 Peterson, the 1998 decision in Wisconsin, just 12 cite it just for the record, at 222 Wis. 2d, 449
13 which describes the thing that I'm talking about;
14 that is, the determination of admissibility
15 requires this Court consider the degree of 16 accuracy in the recreation; the complexity and 17 duration of the demonstration; whether there is 18 other available means of proving the same facts;
19 and those risk factors that I talked about, that 20 is the risk that may impact on the fairness of 21 the trial.

22 This Court has heard from Mr. Austin and 23 I think there's no question as to the accuracy of 24 these images. And I also think there is no
25 question that it will assist the trier of fact.

1 The only real objection that I can envision would
2 be in the area or the point where we talk about
3 it being cumulative; that is, the State even
4 recognizes that we do reach a tipping point that
5 there may be a time when too many demonstrative
6 exhibits are being offered.

7 But to reach that level, Judge, we're
8 talking about so far down the path of relevance
9 and so many exhibits, that we really aren't
10 talking about a relevancy issue anymore; we're
11 talking about the same exhibit being shown over 12 and over. The State certainly doesn't intend to 13 do that.

14 That's why these are State exhibits.
15 That's why these are animations rather than 16 simulations. And let me just parenthetically,
17 Judge, describe for the Court and argue that we
18 aren't talking simulations we're talking
19 animations, which are simply representations of 20 objects that are shown within them and that 21 includes the animation.

22 Simulations, Judge, are when a computer
23 is asked to draw conclusions from data. Those 24 are the reconstructions and the like and that 25 isn't what we're talking about here. This Court

1 need not approach any analysis about the science
2 that's involved since that appears to be
3 unconverted.

4 And so for this hearing, Judge, I am
5 asking the Court rule on admissibility of the 6 scene images, both interior and exterior, as
7 being of the accuracy contemplated by a trial
8 court. They will assist the trier of fact and 9 there is no risk of a fairness problem.

10 Mr. Strang is free to describe or supplement any 11 of these animations or computer -- excuse me,
12 we're talking about computer images, with
13 photographs.

14 We are not prohibiting the defense, nor
15 have we ever, of the creation of their own
16 diagrams or their own renderings. These are 17 State exhibits and the jury will certainly be 18 told that. So we're asking the Court, again,
19 rule on the admissibility of the -- both the 20 interior and exterior property images.

21 As far as the skeletal images, I
22 appreciate, again, Mr. Strang's concession and 23 withdrawal of his objection. Dr. Eisenberg, I'm 24 sure, will talk about the bones and those all
25 appear accurate representations.

1 And then, finally, Judge, as to the
2 animations, that is the moving images, the 5200
3 images that are placed side by side, in lieu of,
4 or instead of, a jury view; I don't know what
5 better way we could have created something to 6 show the jury spatial relationships,
7 relationships of evidence to known and fixed
8 objects.

9 There's nothing that I believe that is 10 unfair or prejudicial in what we have seen. And 11 so, not just for opening statements, your Honor,
12 but when other witnesses may be asked to use
13 these images, I will ask leave of the Court to be 14 allowed to do that.

15 Let me also assure the Court and
16 Mr. Strang that I expect that we'll still have to 17 deal with relevance or materiality issues,
18 especially with things like the garage, or 19 trusses, or the like. But as far as whether or 20 not these images are admissible, the unbalance
21 and Exhibit 4 are all of the images that have 22 been provided to the Court. With the testimony,
23 which I would ask the Court to adopt, of 24 Mr. Austin, we'll ask the Court accept those as 25 demonstrative evidence in this case. That's all

1 I have.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: I'm in full agreement
4 with Mr. Kratz that animation presents no separate
5 problem; that is, if the image is fair and not
6 materially misleading and, therefore, potentially 7 helpful to the jury and the ability to move or 8 change the point of view in the image is not 9 objectionable.

10 And I disagree that there's no
11 simulation involved here, but there certainly is 12 no dynamic simulation in the sense we don't have 13 a 747 taking off and then a depiction of a
14 catastrophic failure and resulting explosion, for 15 example.

16 The simulation we do have is the removal
17 of the rooftops, which is a simulation. Now,
18 that isn't so much my problem as it is things
19 like highlighting parts of a truss or, you know,
20 labeling things in an editorial and potentially
21 misleading kind of way. So I don't know,
22 although there is some simulation here, I don't
23 know that it's a problem in and of itself.

24 The real problem where this stops
25 becoming helpful to a jury is where it tends to

1 mislead a jury into believing that the scene
2 looked very different than it actually looked.
3 And that's primarily an issue of the garage,
4 which if it can't be offset by good photographs
5 of the garage as it actually was during the 6 evening of November 5, I think there we do have 7 something that's not helpful to the jury because
8 it confuses or misleads the jury.

9 And the Court either would have to 10 exclude that or be very careful about both the 11 cautionary instruction with it and any labeling.
12 I would ask the Court to exclude altogether any 13 highlighting as really not helpful and, indeed,
14 affirmatively unhelpful.

15 THE COURT: All right. The parties have
16 both cited to the Court to the case of State vs.
17 Peterson, 1998 Court of Appeals case. And although 18 that case deals with a videotape that was taken
19 later, the Court agrees that much of the rationale
20 and the explanation of the law in that case appears
21 to apply here.

22 The Court in that case indicated that
23 before a videotape demonstration could be 24 admitted, it would have to be demonstrated that 25 it was conducted under conditions reasonably

1 similar to the conditions existing at the actual
2 event. The same standard I think will apply
3 here; that is, the animations, are they
4 reasonably similar to what the appearance was at 5 the scene at the time.

6 The case goes on to provide, even if
7 this foundation is established, the trial court
8 may, in its discretion, include the videotape
9 demonstration upon a finding that the probative
10 value of the tape is outweighed by its 11 prejudicial affect. As I understand the defense, 12 that may be part of its argument with respect to 13 the garage.

14 At this point in time, the parties have 15 asked for guidance and I'm going to attempt to 16 give some guidance. It's difficult. I'm not in 17 a position to address the motion to the extent it
18 asks me to specifically exclude something,
19 because I don't have enough foundation.

20 For example, the garage. At this point,
21 I don't know enough about the evidence to know
22 what the significance of clutter in the garage is 23 going to be. I would say at this point, based on 24 the defense's concern, I would want to see a
25 foundation from the State laid before that

1 particular image would be allowed in. That's an
2 image that shouldn't be used as part of an
3 opening statement presentation.

4 With respect to some of the other
5 concerns expressed by the parties, for example,
6 the concern that the jury might feel that the 7 animation shows holes in the burn barrels;
8 there's further language in Peterson where the 9 Court says, if enough of the obviously important
10 factors in the case are duplicated in the 11 experiment and if the failure to control other 12 possibly relevant variables as explained and if 13 the jury is aided, the Court should let the 14 evidence in.

15 As I viewed that particular exhibit, I
16 wasn't struck by the fact that it looks like
17 there's holes in the burn barrel, but I agree
18 from looking at it that perhaps that's a possible
19 conclusion the juror could come to. In the 20 Court's mind, that type of thing can be fairly
21 easily explained away by simply saying that that 22 type of detail is not attempted to be shown by 23 this exhibit. In many cases, I suspect there's 24 going to be photographs that do provide more
25 detail and can certainly help put any animation

1 into perspective for the jury.

2 With respect to the concerns about any
3 labeling that is disputed, it seems to me that's 4 easily enough addressed by requiring a witness to 5 lay a foundation before any labeling comes in,
6 unless it is agreed by the parties ahead of time.
7 It certainly wouldn't be unusual for a witness to 8 get up to a blackboard at a trial and draw a
9 diagram and say here is where I found the key or 10 whatever it was. And as long as there is a
11 witness that testifies to the location of 12 something like that, it seems to me that the 13 computer aided images can be a useful means of 14 showing the jury what it is the witness is 15 testifying to.

16 Something like the truss marks in the
17 garage, which I have to confess at this point I
18 have no idea what the significance of them might 19 be, that type of thing would require foundation
20 before an exhibit showing -- pointing an arrow to 21 truss marks, would be admissible.

22 There would have to be a prior showing
23 that there's a foundation that a witness found
24 something there and also the Court would have to 25 hear any objections as to relevance. I don't

1 know what relevance marks on a truss might have.

2 With respect to the exhibits showing
3 approximate locations, the labels would depend
4 on, No. 1, the significance of a precise
5 location. If there's a rake or a mallet in a
6 yard and whether it's one foot one way or the 7 other doesn't make a tremendous difference.
8 Approximate location may well be enough. If its 9 location is vital and its precise location can 10 not be determined, that could be a different
11 story.

12 I'm not sure, based on the evidence
13 presented and what I know at this point that I
14 can provide the parties with much more guidance.
15 It appears that the defense is willing to 16 acknowledge the concept of the relevance of some 17 of these computer exhibits and that there's --
18 objections are only going to be raised to certain 19 exhibits. That's all the guidance I can give the 20 parties at this point.

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: I can help a little bit
22 more too, just to clean things up. Mr. Kratz has 23 some actual photographs that he intends to use as 24 PowerPoint slides in his opening and the photographs
25 are not objectionable in the opening presentation.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Obviously, the opening
2 has to be addressed at this point because the 3 opening comes before there is any evidence. Are
4 there -- Is there a dispute as to any computer
5 generated exhibits that the State wishes to use in 6 its opening that the defense objects to?

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: I have seen them. I'm 8 trying to remember if the garage is one of the 9 slides and I can't. I just don't remember.

10 ATTORNEY KRATZ: There is one image, Judge,
11 of the interior of the garage. Let me -- I had 12 offered it because this is where two bullet
13 fragments were found. I can replace this, probably,
14 with a photo, evidence tent 9 and 23A. And until 15 that foundation is reached, if this will satisfy
16 Mr. Strang and with leave of the Court, I will
17 simply replace this with a photo. There's nothing
18 special about this, Judge, that I have to --

19 THE COURT: Well, again, for further
20 guidance of the parties and I -- I have some 21 reservations, because at this point Mr. Strang is 22 indicating there may not be any photos that show
23 what it really looked like. But if you had a photo 24 that showed how cluttered the garage was and it was 25 followed immediately by an exhibit such as this,

1 just to show the location of the evidence, the jury
2 would then have both an idea -- a clear idea from
3 this exhibit of where the evidence was found and a
4 clear exhibit -- idea from the photo of exactly what
5 the garage looked like and I would probably admit
6 both of them.

7 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I intended to do that.
8 And, in fact, Judge, you have this photo of the 9 garage. And, in fact, in my opening, it is intended
10 to put the computer animation right after this 11 photo. This is a March 1st photo. Does show the 12 clutter. Shows tent 9, does not show tent No. 23,
13 which, for the Court's information, it would be --
14 or the second bullet.

15 THE COURT: Is the defense satisfied that
16 if the other exhibit immediately follows this one
17 that it's not objectionable? I'm assuming this is 18 what the defense means by clutter; it would qualify
19 as clutter in my book.

20 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yeah, and there was -- a
21 whole vehicle is missing here, of course. This is 22 in March. But -- Well, let me say this, I mean, I
23 have no objection to the use of this photograph in 24 the opening statement. This is something that's 25 going to be admissible and, indeed, we have

1 stipulated the foundation or authenticity --
2 authenticity I should say of I think every
3 photograph the State wants to offer. This would be 4 relevant.

5 THE COURT: Well, for purposes of ruling on
6 the opening, I will, since I'm seeing both exhibits
7 now, if this exhibit is part of the opening and if
8 the objection to the garage photo is that it doesn't 9 accurately depict the amount of clutter in the 10 garage, if the computer exhibit immediately follows
11 this one, I think it's allowable. To me, the 12 combination of the two adequately informs the jury
13 of other relevant variables that have to be 14 explained and this photo certainly appears to 15 explain those variables.

16 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Very well, thank you,
17 Judge. Do I understand, then, that the balance of 18 the images that have been provided both to counsel
19 and to the Court will be met without objection?

20 THE COURT: Well, I think Mr. Strang
21 objected to a series of labeling items. Possibly --

22 ATTORNEY KRATZ: No, for opening, Judge.

23 ATTORNEY STRANG: Oh, for opening.

24 ATTORNEY KRATZ: For my opening images,
25 that's what we're talking about now, I thought.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: What other images?

2 ATTORNEY KRATZ: There's one of the house,
3 this one.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: I didn't think there was
5 any problem with that image.

6 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Very well, thank you.

7 THE COURT: I would say this, if you are
8 showing that in the opening and if there's a series
9 of pieces of furniture that are missing and I see
10 this one appears to have more furniture than the 11 other one I looked at, but it would be helpful in 12 the opening to at least make a mention to the jury
13 of limits that apply to the animation. Since they 14 will be seeing it at a time when they haven't
15 received any evidence.

16 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Very well, thank you.
17 That actually takes care of two of our motions
18 today.

19 THE COURT: Are there any other items
20 related to the computer generated animations that 21 require addressing at this time?

22 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I will -- And I appreciate
23 the Court's direction and general statement as to 24 admissibility. I will continue to work with 25 Mr. Strang between now and next week, when offered.

1 I suspect that Trooper Austin will give a version of 2 what he did today and perhaps the non-objectionable
3 images can be shown. And, then, before and until 4 those foundations are laid, we can address those
5 more objectionable images as the trial unfolds.
6 That seems to be the most reasonable approach. But,
7 once again, I will discuss that with Mr. Strang.

8 THE COURT: All right. There is one other
9 issue on the agenda today and that was the original
10 instructions or the preliminary instructions to be
11 given to the jury prior to trial. I have provided
12 the parties previously with a draft of instructions
13 the Court was proposing to give.

14 The statute that covers this provides
15 that, if the Court gives additional instructions
16 beyond the ones specified in the statute, they 17 shall be disclosed to the parties before they are 18 given. And either party may object to any 19 specific instruction or proposed instructions of 20 its own to be given prior to trial. It's my 21 understanding at least the defense had
22 instructions it wished to submit; I don't know
23 about the State.

24 But given the hour and the fact I'm not
25 sure what the parties will be doing this weekend,

1 but I know I will be in my office, let me suggest
2 this, if either party wishes to either object to
3 instructions I have included or propose
4 additional instructions that it requests be
5 given, you can put those in a Word document and
6 email them to me. I will get them this weekend
7 and on Sunday I will email back to you the 8 proposed opening instructions that I will give,
9 after consideration of any suggestions from 10 either party. Will that work?

11 ATTORNEY GAHN: I just have one quick one
12 that I think would solve it all if we could do it,
13 if you want to just hear about it. One thing that I
14 propose through it, under the 110, under your first
15 degree intentional homicide, when you have elements
16 of the crime, I think that it states here that 17 before the jury can find the defendant guilty --
18 says the defendant or Brendan Dassey. I think
19 that's troublesome because I think we need to cross
20 out Brendan Dassey. We have to focus on -- because 21 the jury could find Brendan Dassey committed this
22 and by reading this also find Steven Avery guilty.

23 THE COURT: Well, just wait a minute. The 24 State is the party charging party to the crime here.
25 And I believe that, granted, you wouldn't get,

1 reading from just that sentence alone, what you are
2 asking for, but if you move on to the jury's
3 instruction portion, you have to find you have to be
4 satisfied by a reasonable doubt that the defendant
5 committed both elements of the crime or that he
6 intentionally aided and abetted.

7 If you're going by the party to the 8 crime theory, the first element is that someone
9 else in this case, Mr. Dassey, committed the 10 crime. And then you have to go on to find that 11 Mr. Avery aided and abetted. I think that's 12 taken from the form instruction.

13 ATTORNEY GAHN: I read it as if, if they 14 were to find Mr. Dassey committed the offense that 15 they could find the defendant -- I just think it
16 would be clearer if we left the name out of Brendan
17 Dassey and just said the defendant comma and either
18 do one of four things: Either put as a party to a 19 crime, or put as a principle, or as an aider and 20 abettor, or put as a person concerned with the 21 commission of a crime, or fourth, as a person who is 22 a party.

23 I have seen it done all those four
24 different, or in concert with another, and leave
25 the name Brendan Dassey out. I wonder what

1 Mr. Strang thinks of that because I don't think
2 it's beneficial to Mr. Avery.

3 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Strang.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: I do have my own
5 objections to it from a different angle. And I like
6 -- I like the Court's idea of putting this in 7 writing. And if I -- I think Word comes as part of 8 the Windows Office Suite, so it's probably on this
9 box somewhere. I always use Word Perfect.

10 THE COURT: I think even if you send it in 11 Word Perfect I could open it.

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: In other words, the Court
13 does not want it in PDF because that would require 14 retyping.

15 THE COURT: Right.

16 ATTORNEY STRANG: Okay.

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: Let me figure -- I will
19 try -- I will try to figure out how to get into Word
20 and address it. But -- But as to a preview, I think 21 the Court has created a duplicity problem by -- by 22 joining together the first degree intentional
23 homicide and the mutilation of a corpse counts.

24 And I, too, have some concerns about the 25 way that Brendan Dassey is added to the

1 substantive elements under 1010. Although, I
2 mean, Brendan Dassey is the person as to whom
3 Steven Avery is supposed to be the party to the 4 crime. I mean, that clearly is the State's 5 theory, so I don't know that Mr. Dassey ought to 6 come out altogether.

7 THE COURT: If both parties prefer to -- I
8 joined them because they are both charged as a party
9 to the crime. If both parties want completely
10 separate instructions for each one, I will honor
11 that request.

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: Let me work on it. We'll
13 obviously copy each other on any emails. What I can 14 do, the Court has a note, the pages aren't numbered,
15 but the Court asked, does the defense wish that I
16 notify the jury of the agreement that Mr. Avery had 17 an unreversed felony conviction, on the felon in 18 possession charge?

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 ATTORNEY STRANG: And I do, I think we
21 ought to be just upfront with the jury about that.

22 THE COURT: Okay. I don't know that that's 23 -- I think I have been informed that it was the 24 intention of the parties to place that on the 25 record, but I don't know that it's been done yet.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: My intention is to
2 stipulate away the second element of felon in 3 possession of a gun. We will not challenge the 4 second element. The jury should consider it proven;
5 that is, that the defendant had been convicted of a
6 felony before November 5, 2005.

7 THE COURT: As long as I have your comments
8 by 7:00 Sunday morning, that will be fine.

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: We can exchange email
10 addresses off the record.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else this
12 afternoon?

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: We'll probably be
14 submitting ours this afternoon yet, Judge, but if I
15 could just have a moment.

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, there is one
17 other matter that I would -- I think the Court is 18 aware, that I will be submitting correspondence to 19 the Court and Mr. Strang will respond at some time.
20 Hopefully we can get that done by Sunday, but that 21 may be a tall order, as well. But there's that one
22 other matter that I will be sending correspondence
23 on.

24 THE COURT: I understand. And I understand
25 that sometime before Monday morning I'm going to

1 receive something on that; that's my understanding.

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: Maybe -- The jury is
3 coming at -- or we're starting at 9:00 with the jury
4 on Monday?

5 THE COURT: Yes.

6 ATTORNEY STRANG: Maybe we ought to be here
7 at 8:00.

8 THE COURT: I think that would be -- well,
9 at least by 8:30.

10 ATTORNEY KRATZ: We'll be here at 8:30;
11 that's fine, Judge.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's all. Thank you.

14 THE COURT: All right. We're adjourned for
15 today.

23 TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS

24 Reported by Diane Tesheneck, RPR

25 Official Court Reporter

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery, Case No. 05 CF
3 381. We are here this morning -- or this afternoon
4 to hear the defendant's motion for a new trial.
5 Will the parties state their appearances for the 6 record, please.

7 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Good afternoon, Judge, the
8 State appears by Calumet County District Attorney
9 Ken Kratz, Assistant Attorney General Tom Fallon,
10 Assistant District Attorney Norm Gahn, appearing as 11 special prosecutors.

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: Steven Avery is present
13 in person; he is in custody. Jerome Buting and Dean
14 Strang appear on his behalf.

15 THE COURT: All right. I will indicate for 16 the record I have received and reviewed the 17 defendant's written motion for a new trial with 18 arguments that consist of 39 pages. I also received
19 the State's response to defendant's motion for new 20 trial, specifically addressing issue number one.

21 I have read, more than once, each of 22 those documents. But if either party desires to 23 supplement the written argument with anything
24 additional today, I will give the parties an 25 opportunity to do so. Mr. Strang, on behalf of

1 the defendant, since it's your motion.

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, I'm happy to do
3 that. I think probably since the briefing on our 4 side is reasonably lengthy and the arguments many,
5 it would be, in all likelihood, more helpful to the 6 Court if I responded to questions, or if there's an
7 area that the Court wants me to address, I'm happy
8 to do that.

9 THE COURT: Well, from your perspective, I
10 guess I was looking primarily at anything you might
11 want to say in response to the submission I received
12 from the State yesterday.

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: Sure. The State and I
14 are agreed on the basic rule in Wisconsin in a
15 criminal case, which is that inconsistent verdicts
16 alone don't require, in and of themselves, a new 17 trial in a criminal case.

18 It's a very different rule in a civil
19 case, of course, and that -- that's troubling
20 just considering the -- the interests at stake in 21 civil and criminal cases, why the law would be 22 more tolerant of -- of inconsistent verdicts in 23 the criminal setting with liberty at stake, than 24 in the civil with a shifting of money or an
25 allocation of damages for loss being at stake.

1 But the rule is as it is. I have tried
2 to explain here why the verdicts necessarily are
3 inconsistent. And the State, I think, in arguing
4 there is no necessary inconsistency, misses the 5 fact that the testimony, which was undisputed, in 6 the end, about bullet holes to the skull, two 7 particular areas of the head, either of which the 8 State's testimony suggested would have been
9 fatal, itself was a disfigurement for a
10 mutilation of a corpse, for purposes of the first
11 element of the mutilating a corpse charge.

12 So it won't do here to say that a jury
13 might have found that Mr. Avery killed Ms
14 Halbach, but not been persuaded, beyond a
15 reasonable doubt, that he burned her body. The 16 burning wouldn't have been necessary to establish 17 mutilation of a corpse.

18 Beyond that, I think there is a
19 necessary inconsistency and that the challenge I
20 offer to the Court is to rethink the a priori
21 assumption that Court's seem to apply that it's 22 the acquittal that's not warranted under law,
23 when that happens, rather than the conviction.

24 At least behind the veil, so to speak,
25 or without knowing more, there would be no reason

1 to go into a case with an assumption that a jury
2 would nullify in the defendant's favor, rather
3 than in the State's favor. It seems to me those
4 two possibilities are in equipoise and there's no
5 reason, no good justification, then, for allowing
6 inconsistent verdicts to stand on the unproven
7 and, I think, illogical assumption that the 8 defendant has gotten the benefit of the 9 inconsistent verdict, rather than the State.

10 Here, I thought it made sense to address
11 another possible reason justifying the difference
12 in treatment between civil cases, where there is 13 very little tolerance for inconsistent verdicts,
14 and criminal cases where there is much greater 15 tolerance for them.

16 Addressing a point on the criminal side
17 that it seems to me could augur in favor of the 18 rule, as it stands, and the State's position
19 here, which is the State, because of the double 20 jeopardy clause, arguably would bear all the 21 burden of a retrial if one were granted for 22 inconsistent verdicts.

23 The defendant could stand on his
24 acquittal and demand a retrial, only on the count
25 of conviction, thereby putting the State in a

1 position where it couldn't get the benefit of
2 multiple counts. And I, you know, whatever
3 may -- may be said in support of the double
4 jeopardy bar of retrial, that strikes me as 5 having some logical appeal, in terms of 6 tolerating the inconsistent verdict, rather than 7 prejudicing the State on a retrial in that 8 fashion.

9 And so what Steven Avery has offered to
10 do is to waive jeopardy, which indeed is waivable
11 under the Fifth Amendment and the Fourteenth
12 Amendment to the United States Constitution and
13 correlative provision of the Wisconsin
14 Constitution to waive jeopardy as to the 15 mutilating a corpse count, so that both he and 16 the State are back at square one, or in 17 equivalent positions on a retrial.

18 Moreover, the inconsistent verdict
19 problem doesn't go to the third count here, felon
20 in possession of a firearm at all. On that 21 basis, we have not sought to set aside the guilty
22 verdict on the felon in possession count. So the 23 parties can be put back where they were, ex ante
24 here, by virtue of Mr. Avery's willingness to 25 waive jeopardy on a grant of a new trial on the

1 homicide, to waive jeopardy on the mutilating a
2 corpse count so that that may be retried in 3 tandem.

4 That's, I think, the thrust of our
5 argument. It rests, in the end, on due process
6 and fairness and not treating a criminal
7 defendant disadvantageously as compared to a
8 civil party, also, again, challenging what is to 9 me a logically unsupportable a priori assumption
10 that in a case of inconsistent verdicts, it's 11 always the defendant who's gotten the benefit of 12 the jury's compromise.

13 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Kratz.

14 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, I do ask the Court
15 consider our written position. It's clear, at least
16 to the prosecution, that the State of Wisconsin law
17 is that this Court is not permitted, by the theory
18 of inconsistent verdicts, to set aside this -- this 19 verdict and would ask the Court follow existing 20 Wisconsin case law and not make new law, or not
21 upset the precedential value that Mr. Strang asked
22 this Court to do. And on that issue, then, Judge, I
23 would ask the Court adopt our position and deny the 24 motion. That's all. Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Very well. Mr. Strang,

1 anything else?

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: The Court will address each of 4 the bases raised by the defense in its motion for 5 new trial. The first one more extensively than the 6 others, because the others have already been the 7 subject of prior Court rulings.

8 On the issue of inconsistent verdicts, I
9 will note, first, that the Court has not been 10 able to locate, and I don't believe I have been 11 cited to any reported Wisconsin criminal case in 12 which a conviction has been reversed because of 13 verdicts that were alleged to be inconsistent. I
14 do agree with the State that the leading 15 Wisconsin case on the issue appears to be State
16 vs. Thomas, a Court of Appeals case and what 17 appears to be the most recent authority on the 18 subject.

19 I will note at the outset, that's a case
20 that, in the Court's opinion, provides a more
21 extreme example, if you will, of verdicts that 22 were inconsistent because the charge on which the 23 defendant in that case was found not guilty was 24 armed robbery. And that charge was a predicate
25 for the charge in which the defendant was

1 convicted; specifically, intimidation of a
2 victim.

3 The charge of intimidation of a victim
4 required, as one of its elements, that the 5 defendant in the case had committed a crime. And 6 the only crime that was really the subject of the 7 testimony or argument was the armed robbery
8 charge on which the defendant was acquitted.

9 The following excerpts from that
10 opinion, in the Court's mind, are significant
11 here. The Court ruled in Thomas that juries have 12 always had the inherent and fundamental power to 13 return a verdict of not guilty, irrespective of 14 the evidence.

15 The Court went on to hold that the jury
16 here was instructed, that if it was satisfied
17 that the State had proven, beyond a reasonable
18 doubt, all of the elements of armed robbery, it
19 should find the defendant guilty of armed
20 robbery. But that if it was not so satisfied, 21 then it must find the defendant not guilty of 22 armed robbery. This distinction between must and 23 should in criminal law is long standing in 24 American jurisprudence.

25 The Court went on to hold, the fact that

1 a not guilty verdict is inconsistent with another
2 verdict finding the defendant guilty, does not
3 require, or by itself permit, reversal of a
4 judgment entered on the finding of guilt, since
5 there is no way of knowing whether the
6 inconsistency was the result of leniency,
7 mistake, or compromise.

8 The defense candidly and I think
9 properly, in its argument, acknowledges that the 10 State of Wisconsin law is such that it is 11 difficult, if not impossible, to have a verdict
12 on a particular count reversed on the basis that 13 it's inconsistent. I, as a circuit judge, do not 14 have the power to second guess the law as it has 15 developed in this case in the Wisconsin Supreme 16 Court and the Courts of Appeal. These arguments
17 are probably more properly addressed to the Court
18 of Appeals should this matter be appealed.

19 I would note, finally, that the defense
20 in this case did introduce independent evidence
21 challenging the State's contention of the burn
22 site location. And it's possible that the jury
23 could have doubts on that particular charge,
24 which it did not have on the homicide charge.

25 Verdicts are not necessarily entirely

1 consistent or entirely inconsistent. And it
2 appears to the Court that the verdicts in this
3 case, to the extent there is a sense of degree,
4 or at least is not inconsistent, as the verdicts
5 were in the Thomas case.

6 But in conclusion, I do not believe
7 there is a basis, in Wisconsin law, to question
8 the jury's verdict on a homicide charge, on the 9 basis of inconsistency with the verdict on the 10 mutilation charge.

11 The defense in this case sets forth
12 other reasons why the Court should consider
13 granting a new trial. The next one in order
14 deals with the three counts which were -- well,
15 two of which were dismissed before the trial
16 started, and one of which the Court dismissed
17 before the case went to the jury. The Court has 18 already addressed that argument in prior rulings,
19 specifically, elements of the argument that is 20 made in the brief, and I'm not going to do so in 21 detail here.

22 I would note that in this pleading and 23 in prior pleadings, there was a reference to the 24 statements of Mr. Dassey as being inadmissible.
25 In the Court's mind, I have always viewed them as

1 being potentially inadmissible, but not
2 necessarily inadmissible. Mr. Dassey was never
3 offered as a witness.

4 We don't know if he would have asserted
5 a right to his Fifth Amendment right to remain
6 silent, whether there would have been an order
7 for him to -- if the State had requested it, how
8 the Court would have ruled. And I don't think,
9 as part of the defense argument, that the Court
10 would agree that the State never had any
11 admissible evidence to proceed on those counts,
12 because it was a bit early in the game to 13 characterize any statements Mr. Dassey may have 14 made as inadmissible.

15 The defense also reiterates its
16 disagreement with the Court's decision not to 17 strike a juror for cause during the course of the 18 trial; specifically, a juror who some six or 19 seven years earlier had sat in as a juror in a
20 civil case in which one of the State's witnesses,
21 Detective David Remiker, was a plaintiff.

22 The Court has previously ruled, or did
23 rule during the course of the trial, that there
24 was not sufficient grounds to strike that juror
25 for cause. The Court stands by that ruling. I

1 would note, in addition, today, that the juror in
2 question was removed from the jury -- from the 3 jury as one of the alternates who did not
4 deliberate. So the juror in question did not
5 actually deliberate on the verdicts.

6 I also note, in reference to the two
7 cases relied on by the defense in the argument,
8 that there are significant factual differences
9 between those cases and the juror in this case.

10 The first case cited by the defendant
11 was State vs. Delgado. In that case, the juror
12 in question was asked, as were other jurors on 13 voir dire, whether they had any history or 14 personal experience with sexual assaults. The 15 juror did not answer the question at the time,
16 but disclosed during deliberations that the 17 juror, in fact, had been a sexual assault victim
18 herself. And the juror's statement during the 19 deliberations demonstrated that her history did
20 affect her service as a juror in that case.

21 In this case, there is no indication,
22 that the Court can see, that the juror was not
23 candid during voir dire. I went back and read
24 her written questionnaire in which she did
25 disclose that she was, in fact, a juror in a

1 civil case some five to six years earlier. She
2 did not name the parties in that case. I don't
3 believe she remembered who -- what those names
4 were. She was not asked during oral examination
5 further details about the case.

6 She, in the Court's mind, candidly
7 disclosed to the Court, without being invited to 8 do so, during the course of the trial, that once
9 she saw Mr. Remiker on the stand, she recognized
10 him as the plaintiff in the case in which she had 11 deliberated. She indicated she did not have a 12 recollection as to whether or not he testified in 13 that case. And I saw no reason, and continue to 14 see no reason, to doubt her recollection in that 15 regard. It's not unusual to forget, after six or 16 seven years, what the details were of a
17 particular case, even if you sat on it as a
18 juror.

19 The Court also believes that the facts
20 in this case are distinguishable in a number of 21 ways from the Faucher case, a second case cited
22 by the defense. The juror in that case indicated
23 that the juror recognized one of the witnesses as 24 a former next door neighbor. And the juror
25 indicated that in her opinion the witness was a

1 girl of integrity who wouldn't lie.

2 That's significantly different from this
3 case where the only contact between the juror and
4 Detective Remiker was the exposure of Detective
5 Remiker to the juror in the course of a trial
6 some six or seven years earlier. And the juror
7 had no opinion as to Mr. Remiker's credibility
8 because the juror could not even remember if 9 Mr. Remiker had testified in the case. So I
10 think there's significant differences between 11 this case and the case in which jurors were ruled
12 to have been jurors who should have been stricken
13 in the past.

14 The next item raised by the defendant is 15 the Court's denial of the defendant's Batsen
16 Challenge to a minority juror who was stricken by 17 the State. The Court is not going to elaborate
18 on its prior decision sustaining that strike. As 19 the Court noted at the time, and as the defense
20 points out, the fact that the defendant in this
21 case is not himself a member of a minority group
22 did not prevent him from raising the Batsen
23 challenge. But the Court finds that under the 24 rule of Batsen, the decision to strike the juror
25 was not improper.

1 The defense also argues that the Court
2 erred in excluding the testimony of Manitowoc
3 County Coroner, Debra Kakatsch. The Court
4 excluded the testimony during the course of the 5 trial under Section 904.03 because the Court
6 determined that the probative value of the 7 offered testimony was significantly outweighed by 8 a potential confusion of the issues and
9 considerations of undue delay and waste of time.

10 To elaborate on the Court's earlier
11 decision, at the outset of the investigation of 12 this case, once the police became involved,
13 responsibility for the investigation of the case
14 was turned over by the Manitowoc County District
15 Attorney to the Calumet County District Attorney.
16 And the Wisconsin Department of Criminal
17 Investigation was brought in almost immediately.

18 The decision was made because of 19 Mr. Avery's pending lawsuit against Manitowoc
20 County. And I believe it's important to keep in 21 mind that while it was the actions of the 22 Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department that no
23 doubt formed the basis of the lawsuit, the 24 Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department is not an 25 independent entity that was the subject of the

1 suit, it's Manitowoc County. And Coroner
2 Kakatsch was also an employee of Manitowoc
3 County.

4 While it's true that representatives of 5 the sheriff's department participated in the 6 investigation, the supervisory role was ceded to 7 Calumet County and the State of Wisconsin. And 8 Coroner Kakatsch would have had a supervisory
9 role had she participated.

10 More significantly and directly
11 involved, as far as her testimony would have 12 gone, she could only offer testimony of what she 13 would have done had authority not been turned 14 over to Calumet County and the State. She had no
15 significantly relevant testimony or probative
16 evidence to offer on factual matters related to 17 the crime.

18 The Court gave the defense more than
19 adequate opportunity to highlight the motives
20 that members of the Manitowoc County Sheriff's 21 Department conceivably could have had against the 22 defendant. In the Court's judgment, it would
23 have been a waste of time to make a five week
24 trial even longer by allowing the testimony of 25 what a witness might have done had the witness

1 participated in the investigation.

2 The Court does acknowledge that the
3 defendant certainly had a right to introduce
4 evidence critical of the State's handling of the 5 forensic cremains evidence in this case. The 6 defendant was given adequate opportunity to do so
7 in the form of cross-examination of the State's
8 witnesses and the testimony of Dr. Scott
9 Fairgrieve, its own witness.

10 That evidence was directly probative and 11 more than sufficient to address this particular
12 part of the defense case. The Court concludes
13 that Coroner Kakatsch had no particular expertise
14 that would have added anything to the defense
15 argument.

16 The defendant also argues that the Court
17 erred in allowing Mark LeBeau's testimony. He 18 was the FBI expert that testified about EDTA test
19 results. Again, this issue was thoroughly
20 addressed during the trial. I'm not going to 21 repeat everything again. But given the learning
22 curve, if you will, of the Court, with respect to 23 EDTA evidence, both before the trial and during 24 the course of the trial, I would make the 25 following observations:

1 The Court is not being critical of
2 either party for not conducting EDTA tests
3 earlier. Each party was free to make whatever
4 strategic decision it wished to make on this
5 point, that is, to conduct EDTA testing or not
6 testing.

7 With respect to the scientific state of 8 EDTA testing itself, the Court, based on the 9 testimony at the trial, and the pre-trial briefs
10 that were submitted by the parties earlier, comes 11 to the following conclusions:

12 At least at this point there is no one
13 standardized procedure for testing the presence
14 of EDTA in blood samples, primarily because of a
15 lack of demand for such testing.

16 The Court also concludes, however, that
17 testing for the presence or absence of EDTA
18 appears to be scientifically possible. Certainly 19 the FBI expert, Mr. LeBeau, who testified,
20 believes it is.

21 And as the Court understood the
22 testimony of defense witness, Janine Arvizu,
23 while she was critical of some of the methods
24 employed by the FBI and the conclusions that were 25 drawn from the methods employed, I do not recall

1 anything in her testimony to suggest that EDTA is
2 something that cannot be measured in blood
3 samples with proper testing protocols.

4 While it's true that the FBI at this
5 point may have more experience in this area than 6 private labs, the Court does not believe there is 7 anything special about the FBI's experience or 8 equipment that would make the FBI uniquely
9 qualified to test for EDTA. In fact, Ms Arvizu's
10 testimony suggested that a private lab may well
11 have utilized alternative procedures to do a
12 better job.

13 Finally, I would note that the defense
14 has argued alternatively during the latter stages
15 of the pre-trial proceedings and the trial
16 itself, either that EDTA testing is unavailable
17 or unreliable, but, then, at the same time,
18 argued that the Court should have continued the 19 trial in this case to permit the defendant to 20 conduct EDTA testing.

21 Given the defense experts criticism of 22 the methods employed by the FBI, the Court
23 believes that the defendant could just as easily
24 have conducted EDTA testing before the trial as 25 at this time. The decision not to test, the

1 Court believes, was the defendant's decision and
2 cannot form the basis of an argument for a new
3 trial at this point.

4 Finally, the defense alleged that there
5 were other errors committed by the Court,
6 including rulings on the searches, the
7 admissibility of the bullet on which the victim's
8 DNA was found and other motions that the Court
9 ruled on during the course of these proceedings.
10 In all likelihood, many of the Court's rulings
11 may be the subject of challenge in an appeal of 12 this matter, but the Court finds no reason at 13 this time to reconsider those rulings.

14 For all those reasons, the Court is 15 going to deny the defendant's motion for a new 16 trial at this time. And we will proceed to 17 sentencing which is scheduled for 1:30 on 18 June 1st.

19 I will inform counsel that I had my
20 judicial assistant contact the PSI writer. I
21 understand it's expected to be available
22 Thursday, that is, two days from today. Is there
23 anything further from either party this
24 afternoon?

25 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Did the Court want me to

1 draft an order?

2 THE COURT: Yes, I would like you to draft
3 an order, please.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: Two things, one, I think
5 the Court misspoke factually on the third issue
6 concerning the juror we contend should have been
7 stricken for objective bias. It is true the juror
8 did not serve, but that was not because she was an
9 alternate who was excused. We used the extra
10 peremptory strike that we agreed, with the State,
11 the parties would have to remove her because the 12 Court had not removed her for cause.

13 THE COURT: Well, the Court understands
14 that to be a method that the parties agreed to, to 15 select the alternate jurors who would not serve, but 16 I do agree that that was the procedure that the 17 parties agreed to.

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: And, secondly, does the 19 Court know whether the PSI will be mailed to 20 counsel, or is it to be picked up or ...

21 THE COURT: I would suggest that the 22 parties contact the PSI writer directly for that.
23 And if there are problems with getting it in a
24 timely fashion, notify the Court. I'm trying to 25 think, this Thursday would be --

JUDGE 'S DECISION	57

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery, Case No. 05 CF
3 381. We are here this afternoon for the sentencing
4 hearing in this case. Will the parties state their
5 appearances for the record, please.

6 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Good afternoon, Judge, the
7 State appears by Calumet County District Attorney
8 Ken Kratz and Assistant Attorney General Tom Fallon,
9 both appearing as Special Prosecutors.

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: Good afternoon, as well.
11 Steven Avery is here in person, in custody; Jerome
12 Buting of Buting and Williams on his behalf, as well
13 as Dean Strang of Hurley, Burish and Stanton.

14 THE COURT: Okay. I will indicate for the 15 record that the defendant was found guilty and 16 convicted, following a jury trial, on March 18,
17 2007, of first degree intentional homicide and felon
18 in possession of a firearm. The crime of first
19 degree intentional homicide is a Class A felony
20 which -- which carries a mandatory penalty of life
21 in prison.

22 However, the Court is required to make a
23 determination as to if, and when, the defendant
24 is eligible for extended supervision. The 25 choices are: Eligibility after 20 years of

1 incarceration, eligibility after a date set by
2 the Court which can be no earlier than 20 years
3 of incarceration, or the Court can determine that 4 the defendant is not eligible for release to
5 extended supervision.

6 The charge of felon in possession of a
7 firearm is a Class G felony which is punishable
8 by a fine of up to 25,000 or up to 10 years in 9 prison consisting of no more than 5 years initial
10 confinement and no more than 5 years of extended
11 supervision.

12 The Court has previously ordered and has
13 been provided with a copy of the Presentence
14 Investigation Report in this case. I believe the 15 writer of that document, Ms Czechanski, is 16 present somewhere in Court. Have both of the 17 parties received a copy of the Presentence
18 Investigation Report? Mr. Kratz?

19 ATTORNEY KRATZ: We have, Judge.

20 THE COURT: And Mr. Buting?

21 ATTORNEY BUTING: We have.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Buting, have you had a
23 chance to review the Presentence Investigation
24 Report with your client?

25 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes, I have.

1 THE COURT: I understand from a previous
2 submission I received last week, involving
3 statements given by Brendan Dassey, that the Defense
4 disputes background information presented in the
5 presentence attributed to Mr. Dassey. I suppose
6 before we proceed further I should allow you to 7 elaborate on that.

8 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge. Before
9 I do, let me say, also, there's -- there's other
10 background information about Mr. Avery's family,
11 education, those sorts of things, we don't have any 12 objection to, or claim that there are any 13 significant inaccuracies in that portion of the 14 presentence.

15 However, the presentence describes the 16 description of the offense as well as her
17 recommendation for disposition. Clearly, those 18 sections rely heavily on the one statement of 19 Brendan Dassey that was introduced at his trial;
20 that is, a portion of the March 1st, 2006,
21 interrogation. We absolutely do object to any 22 consideration or reliance by the Court at 23 sentencing on any of those facts.

24 We believe they are untruthful,
25 inaccurate, false, and misleading. And as the

1 Court knows, a defendant has a due process
2 constitutional right to be sentenced only upon
3 accurate information.

4 Cite just a couple of cases, Townsend
5 vs. Burke, 334 U.S. 736, and U.S. vs. Tucker, 404
6 U.S. 443. Also some Wisconsin cases, State vs.
7 Mosley, 201 Wis. 2d, 36, that's a Court of 8 Appeals 1996 case. And more recently, State vs.
9 Groth, G-r-o-t-h, 258 Wis. 2d, 889, that's a
10 Court of Appeals 2002 decision in which the 11 sentencing was reversed.

12 And, basically, what those cases hold is 13 that it is paramount that the Court base its 14 sentence on accurate information, not false, or 15 inaccurate, or misleading information.

16 In the Groth case, there was allegations
17 made that the defendant, in the past, had beaten
18 pregnant women, I think was the facts in that 19 case. And it was later determined that the 20 district attorney was relying on inaccurate
21 information and that was enough for the Court to 22 actually reverse the sentence.

23 Here, Mr. Dassey, I'm confident from the 24 submission that we sent, which is 58 pages long,
25 a memorandum, as well as all of the transcripts

1 and all of the DVDs, the version of Mr. Dassey's
2 numerous stories that was presented at his trial,
3 is only one of a number of versions. And it's 4 misleading for the presentence writer, or this
5 Court, to consider that version of events as 6 reliable and accurate when, in fact, it's not.

7 I should note, also, that,
8 unfortunately, that version which has been, we
9 believe in our case, largely disproved,
10 factually, by the lack of physical evidence to 11 corroborate it, that version describes a very
12 cruel death for Teresa Halbach, a torture, more
13 or less, for which there is no factual support,
14 other than the one version given by Brendan
15 Dassey, a 16 year old young man with limited
16 mental facilities, who we believe was imposed
17 upon by the psychological police interrogation
18 techniques that we set forth in the attachment.

19 The only evidence of how Teresa Halbach
20 died was presented at our trial, which was that 21 there was a gunshot to the head. It was unclear,
22 at least it was unproven, in my mind, whether
23 that even occurred while she was alive or dead.
24 I don't think that was possible to have been 25 proven.

1 But to assume that what she suffered at
2 the hands of anyone, much less Mr. Avery or Mr.
3 Dassey, is the version of events that were
4 presented in the March 1st confession is -- is a
5 stretch because there's no evidence to support it
6 whatsoever. And all of the physical facts tended
7 to disprove that version.

8 It's unfortunate that that's the -- the 9 image that the Halbach family and friends are 10 left with, as an example, or a picture of what 11 she went through when, in fact, that very well --
12 she may have gone through nothing at all like
13 that.

14 Mr. Avery and his attorneys do not know
15 how Teresa Halbach died. That she did die is -- 16 was proven by the State in this case, but how she 17 died was not. And, certainly, no evidence, no
18 reliable, accurate information, was presented
19 that this Court can rely on, that she suffered 20 before she died, that she was tortured, that she 21 was begging for her life, any of that, which not 22 only pervades the presentence report itself, but 23 also the attached letters from the family and 24 friends, who -- some of whom highlight that very 25 issue; that is, it's not just that she died, but

1 it's the manner in which she died that they take
2 such offense at, and understandably so.

3 But, again, what I'm asking this Court
4 to do is twofold. One, to take no consideration
5 and to rely -- to not rely on, at all, anything
6 in the presentence report that describes Teresa
7 Halbach's death in the manner in which Brendan
8 Dassey, on that one portion of the interview,
9 said it happened.

10 And two, because these presentence
11 reports are not used just today, these also go
12 into the offender's correctional file, with the 13 Department of Corrections, I'm asking that the 14 Court order that this be rewritten and that all
15 references to that Brendan Dassey version be 16 stricken.

17 I don't think it's enough to just order
18 on the record that you are not considering it. I
19 think the Court also has to have this rewritten
20 and resubmitted, absent all of those disputed
21 facts, because they are disputed, they are 22 inaccurate, and they would be a violation of 23 Mr. Avery's due process rights for the Court to 24 consider them.

25 THE COURT: All right. I will ask the

1 State, at this time, if they have any response to
2 that particular request before I, Mr. Buting, go
3 back to you about any other matters in the PSI which 4 may be of concern.

5 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Are you asking for a
6 response as to Mr. Buting's confidence in the 7 unreliability of the statements, or that it should 8 be rewritten or resubmitted, or both?

9 THE COURT: Well, both.

10 ATTORNEY KRATZ: All right. Mr. Buting's
11 personal confidence in the unreliability of 12 Mr. Dassey's statements is of very little help for 13 this Court. Mr. Buting can have his own personal
14 opinion as to the reliability, as Mr. Dassey's jury
15 could have an opinion as to the reliability of his 16 statements. I will note for this Court that the law
17 permits this Court consider any version of the 18 events which are supported by evidence; in fact, to 19 consider uncharged, unproven offenses, even conduct
20 for which a defendant has been acquitted. State vs.
21 Leitner, L-e-i-t-n-e-r, and other cases, stand for 22 that proposition.

23 I will, however, Judge, just so that we 24 can move on with the real purpose of today's 25 hearing, that is the sentencing, indicate that

1 the State's position, although obviously
2 disagreeing with virtually everything that
3 Mr. Buting has just told the Court, indicate that
4 Mr. Avery was convicted in this case, with what
5 the State believes was overwhelming
6 circumstantial and scientific evidence.

7 Although the Defense has attempted, at 8 this point, to complain about evidence which was 9 not introduced nor needed to convict Mr. Avery,
10 and which may be relevant for another sentencing,
11 or even for some other hearings, it is not
12 relevant for today's purposes.

13 The State does intend and the State will 14 be asking the Court sentence Mr. Avery, based 15 upon the evidence presented in this case, on the 16 defendant's own criminal history, on the victim's 17 character, on the victim impact that is to be 18 introduced, and not as to Mr. Dassey's statement,
19 or at least not to give or intend undue reliance
20 upon those admissions.

21 Finally, Judge, it is the State's
22 position that this Court has no authority to 23 direct the presentence writer to rewrite or 24 resubmit a PSI because Mr. Buting may think that 25 the facts or versions stated therein are

1 disputed, or Mr. Buting thinks that they are
2 unreliable. The Court can give the version of
3 events and the weight to that, what the Court
4 deems appropriate.

5 This Court is in a very good position
6 since it has sat through this entire case for the 7 last 18 months. Certainly, I'm sure,
8 individually, has developed a version of events
9 for which a sentence can be derived and we would
10 ask the Court do that. That's all we have today,
11 Judge, thank you.

12 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Buting, are 13 there any other parts of the PSI which the defendant
14 wishes to suggest corrections to?

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: Factually, no, but if I
16 could just respond to the last portion of 17 Mr. Kratz's comments. It's not a matter of just 18 personal opinion, whether I believe Brendan Dassey's
19 March 1st story or not.

20 What we're talking about is a
21 constitutional right to due process. Yes, the 22 Court can consider facts that even -- that come
23 from uncharged offenses, or even cases for which 24 there was an acquittal.

25 But there has to be -- The information,

1 the Court has to find, is accurate and reliable
2 in order to rely upon them. And what we're
3 saying is, to Brendan Dassey's statements, none
4 of his statements are accurate or reliable enough
5 for this Court to consider at sentencing.

6 And if the State disputes that, then
7 we'll be happy to have a hearing and present all
8 of the evidence that we have presented through 9 live witnesses, right here in this packet that we
10 submitted to the Court. If not, if the State
11 wishes to move on, then the Court cannot consider 12 them, or rely upon them, is the actual language
13 from the case law.

14 The Court may not rely on inaccurate
15 facts. And if they are disputed facts, they have 16 to be resolved in some way. And if the Court
17 chooses to resolve them by relying on them, then
18 the Court has to so state.

19 As far as the Court's authority on the 20 presentence, certainly the Court has the 21 authority to order the presentence to be modified
22 or amended, the Court is the one that orders the 23 presentence. The presentence writer is supposed
24 to be independent to the Court.

25 And if -- if the -- I believe it's the

1 Mosley case, Mosely and Groth talk about the
2 problems when there are inaccurate -- when there
3 is inaccurate information in the presentence
4 itself; and that those are the facts that are
5 being disputed, that's what needs to be 6 addressed.

7 And because they do go to the Department
8 of Corrections, the Court should order, and can
9 order, that that be deleted, if the Court chooses
10 not to rely on it. If the Court wants to rely on 11 those at a sentencing, then this material can 12 stay. But, obviously, that's an issue, then,
13 that can be addressed on post-conviction, with 14 Mr. Avery, later. But what we're asking is that 15 the Court not consider or rely upon any of 16 Mr. Dassey's statements and that they be deleted
17 from the presentence as well.

18 THE COURT: It's my understanding, unless I
19 misunderstood the State, that with respect to the 20 circumstances surrounding the charges in this case
21 themselves and the conviction, that the State is 22 going to ask the Court to rely simply on the 23 evidence that was introduced at the trial, which was 24 certainly thorough, covered five weeks, I was there.
25 Mr. Kratz, am I speaking correctly?

1 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That is correct, Judge,
2 yes.

3 THE COURT: So the State is not going to
4 ask -- be asking the Court to consider the extra
5 statements from Mr. Dassey that are described in the 6 PSI?

7 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's right.

8 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Buting, is 9 there anything else about the PSI that you wish to 10 bring up at this time? I'm talking now by way of 11 the factual background provided.

12 ATTORNEY BUTING: Sure, but let me just 13 point out that the PSI or -- it's not entirely clear
14 to me whether the State intends to rely on -- the 15 State did mention they want the Court to sentence on 16 victim impact.

17 And if there are statements in the PSI,
18 letters that are attached and they may perhaps be 19 repeated or similarly stated in court today with 20 live statements that refer specifically to the 21 manner in which Teresa Halbach died, as a
22 particular impact on the victim, and if those --
23 again, that coming solely from the one Brendan
24 Dassey version on March 1st; and if that is going
25 to be relied on by the State in justification of

1 their recommendation or the Court in
2 justification of its sentence, we have the same
3 problem, I think.

4 THE COURT: Well, I think you are talking
5 about two different concepts. The victims have a
6 right to express their feelings, whatever they are,
7 and express their beliefs, whatever they may be.
8 And I don't think the Court is in a position to tell
9 them they can't feel a certain way, or believe
10 certain facts.

11 But as far as the facts that the Court
12 will be using to assess the severity and scope of 13 the offense, maybe I'm wrong, but I understood
14 that both parties were going to be asking the 15 Court to consider the evidence that was 16 introduced at the trial in this case. Now, if 17 I'm missing something, let me know, but that's my
18 understanding.

19 ATTORNEY BUTING: That's fine.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Kratz?

21 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's fine, Judge.

22 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Buting,
23 anything else?

24 ATTORNEY BUTING: Other than what the Court
25 chooses to do about the presentence, which you could

1 do at the end if you wish or you could --

2 THE COURT: I understand that you are
3 making a separate request. At this time I will
4 simply note for the record that the defendant
5 disputes the account of what happened as it's 6 attributed to Brendan Dassey in the PSI; and that 7 neither of the parties are going to be asking the 8 Court, in their sentencing arguments, to rely on 9 that information; and that the defendant is making a
10 separate request for further action from the Court
11 as to the content of the PSI itself. That's never 12 been requested of me before and I'm not prepared to 13 answer that from the bench today, but I will take 14 your request under advisement.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you.

16 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, if I could have
17 just a moment. We're prepared, Judge, thank you.

18 THE COURT: All right. At this time I will 19 indicate that the Court has read the attachments to 20 the PSI, which include a -- one letter in support of 21 the defendant, the defendant's own statement, and a
22 significant number of written statements from 23 victims and members of the victim's family.

24 I will, in a few minutes, offer any
25 victims a chance to make statements to the Court.

1 But before I get to that, I would like to ask the
2 parties if there is any other testimony from
3 anyone, or any other statements from anyone, that
4 either party wishes to present to the Court
5 today, other than victim impact statements.

6 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Not by the State, your
7 Honor.

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: We anticipate no
9 testimony, but I expect that Mr. Avery may wish to 10 exercise his right to allocution.

11 THE COURT: And I will certainly grant him
12 that right, after I hear the arguments of the 13 parties. With that, then, we'll proceed to Victim
14 Impact Statements. Mr. Kratz.

15 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, before proceeding
16 to that, it is a responsibility of this Court, at 17 the time of sentencing, to inquire of the State
18 whether all provisions of Chapter 950 have been 19 complied with. I will tell the Court that they 20 certainly have in this case. This course -- excuse
21 me -- this Court understands that the victim's
22 family has been in attendance throughout these 23 proceedings, and the sentencing hearing is no
24 exception thereto.

25 Written impact statements have been

1 provided. There is no restitution request, as
2 noted in the presentence, and I think the Court
3 needs to make a specific finding of that. And 4 with that, Judge, we are prepared, then, to hear
5 from five relatives of Teresa Halbach. And when
6 the Court is ready to hear those statements, I
7 can introduce them at that time.

8 THE COURT: You may do that at this time.
9 I'm going to ask you to share your microphone at the 10 podium with anyone who chooses to make a statement.

11 ATTORNEY KRATZ: What I'm going to do,
12 Judge, is I'm going to have the individuals identify 13 themselves, their relation to Teresa, and then 14 provide their statement. I will also tell the 15 Court, as the Court understands, at the conclusion
16 of the five impact statements, we do have a DVD
17 video to play, which is approximately three minutes
18 in length. I will introduce that before it is 19 played. The first statement will be given by Maria
20 Halbach. Maria.

21 MARIA HALBACH: Good afternoon, Judge
22 Willis.

23 I have always been taught that
24 everything happens for a reason. This belief has 25 been challenged in the last year and a half. I

1 continue to struggle with why or what reason
2 there could be behind the suffering Teresa went
3 through, but I guess some things are bigger than 4 we can understand.

5 Life seemed so simple on October 29th,
6 2005, when I was with Teresa. Little did I know
7 that this would be the last time I would see her,
8 that at that moment, when we're out living life
9 and having some fun, someone in the world was 10 plotting to take Teresa's life.

11 I was brought up in the same small town
12 as Teresa. I got to know Teresa in middle 13 school. We made many great memories throughout
14 our friendship.

15 We camped out in high school. We went 16 to dances. We went through boyfriends. We had 17 fights with girlfriends. Skydived. She was 18 there to see each of my children as they were 19 starting their lives. Through it all, Teresa was 20 always there with a smile and had something
21 lighthearted to say.

22 I was blessed to fall in love with a
23 Halbach and join this amazing family. What you
24 see is what you get. Teresa, and everyone who 25 surrounded her, are full of faith, love, and true

1 kindness.

2 One of the ways that Teresa's murder has
3 affected me is in the feeling, the emotion that
4 is completely foreign to me, and that is anger.
5 Anger is not something I'm used to feeling. I
6 did not understand what it felt like to truly
7 feel angry with another person until the events
8 of Teresa's death began to unfold.

9 Just when we thought things could not
10 get any more horrifying, it did. I would get a 11 phone call, an email, or read the newspaper and 12 another detail was displayed that was beyond the 13 realm of our imagination.

14 I was raised to forgive those who sin
15 against me or someone that I love. The statement
16 sounds great and it is easily said; however, it
17 has been put to the test. Forgiving someone who 18 does not take responsibility for their actions is 19 not an easy task.

20 The events that took place on
21 October 31st, 2005, have not only affected me,
22 but they have affected my children. I have three
23 children. Two of my children were near and dear
24 to Teresa. And my third child never even got the 25 chance to meet her. Zachary was born one month

1 after Teresa's death.

2 My children have had to learn more about
3 death and the horrifying acts that other people
4 are capable of, at a very young age. A piece of 5 their innocence and their childhood was taken
6 from them when Teresa was so brutally taken from 7 us.

8 My husband and I are raising our
9 children in the same way Teresa was raised, to 10 trust in the greater good that exists in people.
11 We were raised to trust and be optimistic.
12 Teresa's murder shook this trust and temporarily
13 set in place a sense of insecurity and 14 skepticism.

15 However, I'm not going to allow Steven
16 Avery to take my life away from me, as he did
17 Teresa. I'm going to continue to live life like 18 Teresa. Teach my children to do the same. They 19 still look to the stars at night to find the 20 brightest one. This is the star that represents 21 Teresa.

22 The course of events surrounding
23 Teresa's death do not overshadow her life. We 24 may not know the reason, but life is too short to 25 focus on this. My faith has led me to believe

1 that this crime is horrific and unthinkable;
2 however, our place is not vengeance, our place is
3 justice.

4 Justice for Teresa is to be assured that
5 the people who hurt her and humiliated her are 6 never allowed the opportunity to hurt someone
7 like this again. It is in your hands, Judge
8 Willis, to hold Steven Avery accountable for his 9 actions and not let him hurt again. He needs to 10 be put behind bars for the rest of his life,
11 until he has to answer to the ultimate judge.
12 Thank you.

13 KERI LOWE: Good afternoon, Judge. A
14 part of a parent's role is many --

15 THE COURT: Excuse me, can you state your 16 name for the record.

17 KERI LOWE: I'm Keri Lowe; I'm Teresa's
18 cousin.

19 THE COURT: Go ahead.

20 KERI LOWE: A part of a parent's role is 21 many different things: First, to protect her
22 from all; protect from harm, evil and bad
23 influences in society.

24 Secondly, you create a positive
25 environment for children to observe and grow.

1 Furthermore, you instill values that only hope --
2 that you only hope will carry on with them
3 through life.

4 Finally, you raise them to be confident,
5 strong, outgoing, and full of life.

6 A parent is a provider of strength;
7 physically, emotionally and intellectually.

8 Because of the evils in society, my role as a
9 mother is different. I still protect. I still 10 do the things moms do. When something tragic
11 happens to your family your world changes.

12 I'm a Halbach family member with three 13 young girls. I'm now dealing with issues and 14 situations I never foresaw. Explaining to my 15 girls how an innocent woman's life was taken, for 16 no apparent reason, leads to many unanswered
17 questions.

18 Keeping faith, being strong and being
19 positive are difficult attributes to maintain
20 after an incident as this. I hope the outcome
21 will help me as a parent show all, especially 22 young children such as my three girls, how 23 society will protect us from evil.

24 Life goes on; however, we have a void
25 that will never be replaced or forgotten. Please

1 help my role as a parent and show me that we will
2 all be protected. Judge Willis, for our sake and
3 our children's, please put Steven Avery away for 4 life without parole. Thank you.

5 THE COURT: Would you state your name and
6 your relationship to Teresa, please.

7 RHONDA BEHNKE: My name is Rhonda Behnke
8 and I'm Teresa's cousin.

9 THE COURT: Go ahead.

10 RHONDA BEHNKE: Dear Judge Willis, How
11 do I start a letter to tell someone how much a 12 person meant to me, because it so personal and 13 heartfelt that I have never had to let all those 14 kinds of emotions and feelings known to public.

15 To know what I lost losing Teresa in my
16 life affects me and my family very much. I
17 couldn't list everything that she has meant to me
18 and all she's been to me. I know what I feel is 19 a loss of a friend; a cousin; a brilliant,
20 artistic, creative person; someone who could 21 imagine so deep; a person who could find good in 22 everything.

23 I have lost my daughters only now
24 knowing or hearing of the good that Teresa did,
25 and not seeing or experiencing it firsthand.

1 Teresa's laugh, hearing it once, you
2 would think that you would never be able to
3 forget it. You would never imagine not being
4 able to not hear it again. It's not that you
5 want to forget it, but it's very distant now.

6 Her love was one in a million,
7 unconditional love, not judging, never think
8 twice kind of love. We weren't ready for Teresa
9 to be taken away from us. We weren't ready to 10 say our goodbyes and we never really did get to 11 say goodbye.

12 The talent the world can't see through
13 her eyes anymore, the beautiful depth of her
14 pictures, the true things she could only bring 15 out in people, the love no child can feel from 16 her, the love of a husband and of being a mom,
17 the laugh we will never hear again, and the loss
18 we feel every day.

19 Like I said, how do you tell a stranger
20 the love and hurt you feel with losing someone as 21 wonderful and beautiful as Teresa. Saying this 22 isn't even half of what my heart feels every day.

23 So, I am not a judge and I am not -- and 24 I know I don't have say into what happens to 25 Mr. Avery. All I know is that I do have an

1 opinion. I wish to see Mr. Avery serve life in
2 prison with no parole.

3 Why do I feel this way, because Teresa's
4 life was taken with no good reason. She did not
5 want to leave us this way. She did not ask for 6 this to happen to her.

7 And I feel we're here to defend her life
8 and her death. We're here to make sure that 9 Mr. Avery gets what he deserves for taking not 10 only Teresa's life, but also her future and our 11 futures with her.

12 So, please, Judge Willis, look into the 13 hearts of this Teresa Halbach family. Look at 14 us, in our hearts, and see what is missing. See 15 what Mr. Avery took from us; a beautiful,
16 wonderful young lady who meant the world to us
17 and who we will miss every day. Thank you.

18 MIKE HALBACH: Mike Halbach, Teresa's
19 younger brother. Honorable Judge Willis, my 20 family and I would never choose to be involved in 21 a situation like this. We never chose to feel
22 heartbreak, to feel loss.

23 But Steven Avery chose my sister,
24 Teresa. He thought only of himself. He chose to 25 end her life. He chose to retain his sins inside

1 himself and to point blame at everyone else. He
2 chose not to hold himself accountable and ask for 3 forgiveness, but to make a jury of 12 of his 4 peers decide if he was accountable or not.

5 They did that, and in doing so, have put
6 you in the position you are in now. As God
7 guided Teresa's life, let him guide your decision
8 now. It's your choice. I ask that you sentence
9 Steven Avery to life in prison without parole.
10 Thank you.

11 TIM HALBACH: Tim Halbach, Teresa's
12 older brother. Judge Willis, at first I wasn't
13 going to speak today because, quite honestly, I
14 didn't think you'd need any more convincing that 15 Steven Avery should get life without parole.

16 He killed my sister. And in doing that,
17 he took the life of someone that he barely knew
18 and completely disregarded the ramifications that
19 his actions would have, not only ending Teresa's
20 life, but the affects it would have on her
21 family, her friends, and this community. And for 22 that alone, he deserves to spend the rest of his 23 life in prison.

24 But putting that aside for the moment,
25 and after thinking about more whether or not to

1 speak today, I felt compelled to come here and
2 speak to you, because, as Teresa's big brother, I
3 instinctively always try to look out for her.
4 And although there is nothing I can do for her
5 now, what I can do, and what I am doing, is 6 standing here today and respectfully asking this
7 Court to send Steven Avery to prison, without the 8 possibility of parole, to ensure that he never 9 does this again, to someone else's sister.

10 Finally, for the past 19 months, we hope
11 that -- my family and I have hoped that our love
12 for Teresa was shown in our words and our 13 actions. Judge Willis, we want you to see this 14 type -- we want you to see the type of person
15 Teresa was and why we'll always -- why we will 16 always carry her spirit with us.

17 We have a presentation that Teresa made
18 when she was -- videos that Teresa made when she 19 was 22 years old. And this -- we want you to see 20 who Steven Avery took from us. Thank you.

21 (Video playing.)

22 TERESA HALBACH: I love hugs. I love --
23 I have a theory that you need nine hugs a day in 24 order to feel loved.

25 I love being happy.

1 I love knowing that I have nothing to
2 complain about.

3 I love knowing that my family is
4 healthy, that I have a lot of friends.

5 I love making people laugh. I love
6 laughing.

7 I love when people compliment me.

8 I love the Beatles.

9 I love God.

10 I love knowing that I like who I am.

11 I love taking pictures. I love holding
12 a camera in my hand.

13 I love kids. I love babies.

14 I love traveling. I love talking about 15 traveling.

16 I love being myself with everyone I
17 know.

18 I love No Doubt and Gwen Steffani.

19 I love my sisters, my mom, my whole
20 family, of course. I don't hate anyone. I love
21 a lot of people. I feel loved.

22 Um, so let's say I die before I'm 31.
23 Let's say I die tomorrow. I don't think I will,
24 I think I have a lot more to do. I just want
25 people I love to know that whenever I do die, I

1 just want people to know that whenever I die,
2 that I was happy, that I'm happy with what I did
3 with my life.

4 The only thing, is if it happened now,
5 is that I wish I could have become a mother,
6 because that's the one thing I have always known
7 that I want, to be a mom, so... But there's a
8 reason for everything. And I will be a good mom
9 one day. I will. As long as I'm happy.

10 Okay. That's enough.

11 THE COURT: Is there anything else from 12 either party before closing argument?

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: No, Judge. I would ask
14 that the Court, having previously received the 15 video, the DVD that has been shown, include the 16 Court's copy as part of the official file and 17 official record of these proceedings. Other than 18 that, Judge, the State only has argument. Thank
19 you.

20 THE COURT: Any objection from the Defense?

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, the State's request
22 should be granted.

23 THE COURT: All right. The Court will do
24 so. All right. Mr. Kratz, I will hear from you
25 first.

1 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Thank you, Judge. The
2 only decision that this Court has pursuant to
3 Section 973.014 is whether the defendant should be
4 eligible for extended supervision. This still
5 requires the Court, like any sentencing, to consider
6 the three primary sentencing factors; that is, the 7 gravity of the offense, the character of the 8 offender, the need to protect the public.

9 And my comments this afternoon will
10 track those three primary factors; the first
11 being gravity of the offense. Obviously, there
12 is no more serious offense in Wisconsin than 13 first degree intentional homicide, that for which 14 the defendant has been convicted. The PSI writer
15 and the evidence, in fact, recognizes that this
16 particular homicide was premeditated; that is, it
17 was planned. And Mr. Avery targeted Ms Halbach
18 as his victim and this became not just a
19 senseless, but what the State argues to be a
20 sadistic crime.

21 The Defense, as you heard today,
22 complained about the versions as to the manner of 23 death and, certainly, what lead up to it. But 24 whatever version this Court adopts, there is no
25 sanitized or polite way to describe and discuss

1 how this lovely young woman was killed.

2 The community's worst nightmare, the
3 State argues, is violence perpetrated against
4 somebody, either random or targeted, for no
5 apparent reason. And when considering, then, the 6 gravity of this particular offense, we're asking
7 the Court consider the violence that was used, as 8 well as the surrounding circumstances.

9 The character of the defendant is 10 perhaps easiest to discuss when looking at the 11 defendant's past. Whenever Mr. Avery was not
12 incarcerated, that is, when he was not in prison
13 or jail and when he was allowed to make his own
14 kinds of decisions, we look at the kind of 15 behaviors that he engaged in. It's clear, Judge,
16 that Mr. Avery chose criminal behavior as the 17 preferred type of behavior, since he was a very 18 young man.

19 Page 6 of the presentence report
20 chronicles Mr. Avery's criminal history, which
21 this Court knows includes several burglary
22 convictions for which he was placed on probation.
23 His probation was revoked and, thereafter, sent 24 to prison.

25 It includes a horrific story of torture

1 of an animal committed by Mr. Avery in 1982.

2 And, finally, in 1985, includes
3 endangering the safety of a young woman by 4 forcing her off the roadway, pointing a gun at 5 her and ordering her into his vehicle. This 6 pattern of behavior certainly goes to the 7 character of the defendant and is all behavior
8 while Mr. Avery was not in a locked up or 9 confined setting.

10 The presentence also chronicles how
11 Mr. Avery behaved after his release in 2003, and 12 most particularly, includes the statements of his 13 then girlfriend, Jodi Stachowski, where she
14 describes Mr. Avery's bad temper, describes him
15 as being abusive, describes threats to kill him
16 and, in fact, claims by Mr. Avery that he could 17 get away with it if he chose to kill Ms
18 Stachowski.

19 I didn't read anywhere, Judge, in this 20 presentence report, nor in the volumes of 21 information that, certainly, I had available to 22 me in preparing for the trial, that would suggest
23 any mitigating or redeeming social qualities that
24 Mr. Avery brings before this court. Certainly no
25 remorse has been showed, no acceptance of

1 responsibility, which in and of itself is not a
2 significant factor, but when considering the
3 character of the defendant, it is certainly 4 something that this Court can and should
5 consider.

6 Lastly, Judge, the need to protect the
7 public perhaps is the most important of the three 8 primary factors for the Court to consider. And 9 this Court has the opportunity, as you heard not 10 only in oral statements today but in written
11 submissions, to ensure that this kind of crime
12 never happens, at least by Mr. Avery's hand.

13 The presentence writer describes Mr.
14 Avery as being a very high risk to reoffend. And 15 in the presentence writer's words, suggests that 16 this Court guarantee that Mr. Avery never see the 17 light of day again, outside of the prison walls.

18 The victim's family, which is important
19 and appropriate for this Court to consider, all
20 suggest that Mr. Avery have no possibility of 21 release, not only piece of mind for the family,
22 but, again, considering his recidivism or risk to 23 reoffend.

24 And, finally, Judge, I think it
25 appropriate for this Court to consider those

1 values and those considerations that the
2 community has. Although, certainly not something
3 that is well publicized, this is a small
4 community, something difficult for the State to
5 imagine a community being more impacted by a
6 crime than that committed by Mr. Avery.

7 Assurance for the community, that is,
8 assurance that Mr. Avery will not be available to 9 commit these other crimes, is something
10 appropriate for this Court to consider.

11 That brings me, then, Judge, to our
12 recommendations and brings me to that point in 13 this trial that is a very important part of the 14 trial; that is, of course, the sentencing and the 15 State's recommendations.

16 The Halbach family has been forced not
17 only to come to terms with the loss of a loved
18 one, but also to consider her last moments on 19 earth, at the hands of Mr. Avery. This Court,
20 through the past 18 months, has also heard, that 21 despite the high quality and professional
22 investigation that was performed, that law
23 enforcement officers have been subjected to both
24 professional and personal attack throughout,
25 including allegations of criminal wrongdoing

1 themselves.

2 In fact, Judge, the entire community,
3 that is, Northeast Wisconsin, has been required
4 to endure a year and a half of a combination of
5 very sad news, a combination of witnessing what I
6 will characterize as legal gamesmanship, in one
7 version or another, of the term "poor Steven
8 Avery".

9 Well, today, Judge, is the day that the 10 Halbach family and law enforcement and the entire 11 community has waited for. It's the day when 12 justice will reign down upon this cold-blooded
13 killer. When this community, through this court,
14 and through this Judge, tells Steven Avery that 15 your evil deeds will be punished, that you will 16 be held accountable for your cowardly, for your 17 senseless acts, the State then believes, and only
18 then, justice is going to be served.

19 The Court has seen a videotape today and
20 the Court has heard from many of Ms Halbach's
21 family and friends and knows now, or at least
22 should know, that Teresa Halbach was a genuinely 23 lovely young woman. Her whole life was ahead of 24 her. She was a talented photographer; loved by 25 her family and by her friends; was active in the

1 community; and her loss continues to be felt by 2 all of those individuals who knew her and who 3 loved her.

4 It isn't just how she died that has
5 caused pain and has horrified this family, but 6 the memory of how she lived and the memory of the 7 kind of person that she could have become, that 8 is so painful.

9 Judge, I'm asking, on behalf of the 10 State of Wisconsin, that this Court consider the 11 gravity of the offense, the character of the 12 defendant, the need to protect the public and 13 sentence this man to life imprisonment without 14 the possibility of release; that is, without the 15 possibility of an extended supervision time.

16 There is, Judge, a second count; that
17 is, possession of a firearm by a felon, which I
18 guess necessarily isn't discussed in great detail
19 in this case, but the State will argue that 20 Mr. Avery receive a consecutive period of 21 confinement. What the State has available is 5
22 years initial confinement, 5 years extended
23 supervision. We're asking the Court include that 24 as a consecutive sentence to whatever it is that 25 the Court decides as to the homicide count.

1 That's all the comments we have, Judge.

2 I will remind the Court, which I'm sure
3 the Court already knows, Mr. Avery will have the 4 opportunity to have some credit applied to 5 whatever sentence the Court imposes. That would
6 be from, I believe, the 9th of November, 2005,
7 when he was first taken into custody. That's all
8 Judge. Thank you.

9 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Strang, I
10 believe you are going to argue for the Defense.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: I am, but I'm going to 12 turn to Steven Avery now, first, because I think if 13 he is to speak, he should do that first. And I
14 expect that what he has to say will not be easy for 15 anyone sitting behind me and it won't be easy for 16 him, but I at least would invite him to speak now if 17 he wishes.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Avery, do you -- You have 19 the right to allocution. If you wish, I would let 20 you speak after the attorneys have made their 21 arguments, but I will also grant your attorney's
22 wish and let you speak now, if you wish to speak
23 now.

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Strang, has the order been

1 discussed with Mr. Avery? Does he understand he
2 could speak after you are done if he wishes?

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes.

4 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Avery, I will
5 hear from you at this time.

6 THE DEFENDANT: Well, your Honor, I'm sorry
7 for the Halbach's family, Teresa Halbach's family,
8 what they are going through, the pain, the hate they 9 got. There's nothing else going to bring her back,
10 you know. And my family, what they are going
11 through, and everybody's friends, and the community,
12 it's hurting everybody.

13 And for myself, Teresa Halbach I didn't
14 kill. I am innocent of what all of this. And I
15 figure later on, I will prove myself innocent. I
16 will take it from there. That's all I got.
17 Thank you.

18 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Strang.

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you, your Honor.
20 One of the things we're left to do in every human 21 endeavor is to take each other, one another, just as 22 we are and just as we find ourselves today. We 23 aren't given impressions, none of us are given the 24 ability, entirely, to shape even our own future let 25 alone the future of a world we would imagine or want

1 to live in as perfected.

2 If your Honor or anyone else in this
3 courtroom had a way to prevent one more murder
4 from ever happening in this human family,
5 anywhere in the world or in the State of
6 Wisconsin as one small corner of the world, I
7 willingly would follow your honor or anyone else
8 to the ends of that world in pursuit of ending
9 the time when human beings kill one another.
10 It's a subject on which I feel deeply. And what 11 I feel doesn't much matter here, but I would do
12 that.

13 If I could get governments to stop
14 killing people; if I could get men to stop
15 killing women; if I could get parents to stop
16 killing their kids; if I could stop human 17 killing, I would follow anyone who had the 18 solution for that.

19 We never have been able to stop it for 20 as long as human beings have lived in society.
21 Since -- I guess since homo erectus yielded to 22 homo sapiens, we have acted without much
23 sapientiae -- to use the Latin in our specie's
24 name -- far too often and we have killed one
25 another.

1 Since I despair of ever stopping murder,
2 I would say this, that my wish, my secondary wish
3 short of stopping murder, would be that every,
4 every person who has the misfortune of being
5 murdered might be grieved as Teresa Halbach has 6 been grieved. Everyone of them, I wish they
7 could be grieved by as many loved ones, by a
8 family and a group of friends who have shown as 9 much dignity, who have shown as much decency, who 10 have as much bedrock faith in human beings to 11 rely upon when it gets as bad as it can get. I
12 would wish that for anyone. If there has to be 13 another murder somewhere today, I would wish that 14 for the victim.

15 And it brings your Honor, unfortunately,
16 to what to do. And, understandably, the people
17 to my left, who are themselves loyal workers
18 within one of the institutions of the state, one
19 of the institutions of criminal justice as we 20 attempt to administer it as human beings; and the 21 people behind them who, as law enforcement
22 officers, also are members of a state institution
23 dedicated to criminal justice; and in the 24 community behind them, who, because we live in a
25 community, want to have faith in our state

1 institutions and in the hope of justice in
2 criminal cases.

3 I understand, I think well after 20
4 years of doing this work and even thinking about
5 it from time to time, why there is the need and 6 the desire and the rightful wish to rely on those 7 institutions of criminal justice. They are the 8 front end institutions of criminal justice with 9 whom and with which we have the most direct 10 contact.

11 It is the police who respond to the 12 missing person. It is the State, through its 13 police and district attorney, who investigate the 14 murder, who seek to bring the perpetrator to 15 justice; the district attorney who must file
16 charges, prosecute them in court.

17 Your Honor belongs to one of the
18 institutions of criminal justice that work at the 19 front end of our search for justice, presides
20 over a trial, imposes sentence. It is natural
21 and right to want to rely on these institutions.

22 What I ask today, concretely, is that we
23 leave room to rely, as well, on the back end
24 institutions of the same state, the same system
25 of pursuing criminal justice. At the back end,

1 the state institutions that we find are the
2 Department of Corrections and the Parole
3 Commission which continues to exist in that name,
4 although it is extended supervision that the law
5 now describes for the Parole Commission's
6 consideration.

7 There is reason not to exclude those
8 back end institutions from the State's effort to 9 pursue criminal justice as well. They serve
10 useful purposes and, indeed, today marks the end
11 of the role of the front end institutions of 12 criminal justice.

13 The circuit court completes its final
14 act today, or shortly after, with the entry of a
15 final judgment. The police have completed their 16 work, for functional purposes. The district
17 attorney, finally, is relieved of the burden of 18 this case; and if there's to be an appeal, passes
19 it to still another institution in the assemblage
20 of our state institutions that pursue criminal
21 justice.

22 So today, after about 19 months, just
23 over a year and a half, the front end
24 institutions have completed their work and done
25 their best. The back end institutions, if this

1 Court were to do as I will ask the Court, will
2 not begin to make decisions about Steven Avery
3 until they have had 20 years of experience with 4 him, rather than 19 months.

5 They won't begin to consider what should
6 be done with him until they have had 20 years
7 direct experience with Steven Avery and, I hope,
8 20 years of experience with the Halbach family
9 and with the community who loved Teresa Halbach.

10 Concretely, my plea today is simply to 11 place the same faith in the back end institutions
12 of criminal justice that we repose on the front
13 end institutions. So mine, your Honor, is a plea
14 to preserve the prospects of progress.

15 We find, today, someone who is 16 unremorseful, who is not prepared to ask for 17 forgiveness, who asserts innocence. That's who 18 we find today. It is beyond our power to know,
19 in any godlike way, whether the claim of 20 innocence is false or true; and if false, why it
21 is made. It simply is beyond our power.

22 What we can do and what we must do,
23 because we're human, is rely on the good
24 functioning of the front end institutions of 25 criminal justice, interlocking as they are, but

1 each with their own character: Court, jury -- an
2 important front end institution in our system of 3 justice; prosecution; police. We have to rely on
4 them.

5 We cannot pretend to have an omniscient
6 knowledge about what's in his heart or what he 7 did. And we are right to rely on these
8 institutions. It's the best we can do today.
9 But if we are to do our best, then we will leave
10 open the prospects for progress. And we will 11 repose the same reliance and faith in the back
12 end institutions that our state provides in its 13 pursuit of criminal justice.

14 Progress is not just possible, it's
15 unavoidable for everything that lives. I think
16 progress for Steven Avery is not just possible,
17 it's unavoidable. Progress for the Halbach
18 family, and all those in the community who loved
19 Teresa Halbach, is not just possible, it's 20 inevitable. Every living thing progresses. And 21 progress, indeed, for the state's own
22 institutions of criminal justice, is not just 23 possible, it is inevitable.

24 I speak of the truth, that everything
25 that lives, that is vital, progresses; only death

1 is static. Life, inevitably, invariably, is
2 dynamic; only death is static. I take these as 3 truths.

4 And in saying that, I ask your Honor,
5 today, to impose a life sentence and not a death
6 sentence. I ask your Honor to impose a dynamic,
7 vital sentence of life that will leave the full
8 role for the other institutions of criminal
9 justice into whose hands you will tender Steven
10 Avery today and whose work will be longer, more
11 intimate than the work of the front end
12 institutions can be and who themselves will have 13 the benefit of progress.

14 To pretermite the work of the Parole
15 Commission and the Department of Corrections
16 today is to render static the rest of Steven 17 Avery's biological life; to render static the 18 participation of the Halbach's in the horror that 19 brings them here; and to render static, as to 20 Steven Avery at least, every further and human 21 improvement that may come to our institutions.

22 It is to impose a death sentence with
23 only the indeterminate and uncontrollable factor
24 of the cessation of biological functioning to 25 intervene. It is to cut off all prospects of

1 progress, to deny parole eligibility.

2 Now, people who are a lot smarter than I
3 am argue about whether progress is necessarily
4 regenerative or whether it's degenerative;
5 whether progress necessarily, in the end, means
6 expansion or collapse; whether progress
7 necessarily is good or whether sometimes the 8 progress of human life and the world is bad.

9 But we don't have to get into that
10 debate because there is always progress in life.
11 It moves forward. It's dynamic. And when the 12 institutions are left in place and left the 13 powers that they can exercise, it will be dynamic
14 and not static. Progress is good. Whether it
15 leads to collapse or expansion, whether it is 16 regenerative or degenerative, it's good.

17 Steven Avery not only may change, he
18 necessarily will change, over time. It may give 19 him a chance, some day, to ask for the 20 forgiveness that the Halbach's wish to hear him
21 solicit. And he would have a reason to do it,
22 here, among us, the human family, rather than on 23 knee, bent in prayer, if indeed the prospect of 24 eligibility for extended supervision is left open
25 as a prospect for progress.

1 The Halbach's will change, because they
2 will live. By the year 2025, I urge your Honor
3 to give them a chance to speak again, to speak to 4 the Parole Commission, to tell the parole
5 commission what, then, in 2025, is in their
6 hearts and in their minds. And I expect that
7 they would have that opportunity again in 2030,
8 or 2035, in 2045, perhaps.

9 Don't expect parole or extended
10 supervision to be granted at its first
11 opportunity, if ever. And as part of why I say
12 we don't have to decide what progress means in 13 the end, because the outcome may be the same.
14 Steven Avery may die of natural causes tomorrow.
15 He may die of natural causes when he is 85. And 16 it may well be, if your Honor imposes the life
17 sentence that I ask, that he dies in prison at 18 age 85. That well may be.

19 Eligibility for extended supervision is 20 no promise of its grant. And if in 2025, or 21 2035, or 2045, the Halbachs view Mr. Avery's
22 proper place as remaining behind prison walls,
23 then the Parole Commission ought to hear that.
24 And they ought to have a chance to say it.

25 And if they feel something differently,

1 which of course I can't predict, no one with any
2 humility could predict, then the Parole
3 Commission ought to hear that as well.

4 All I can say with any confidence, the
5 one narrow prediction I can make with any
6 confidence at all, is that if, for example, Mike
7 Halbach is given a chance to speak again, 25
8 years from now or 30 years from now, my confident
9 prediction is that he will not photocopy the 10 eloquent written statement he submitted with the 11 presentence report. He will not photocopy the 12 already different and progressed eloquent written
13 statement he gave here today.

14 He will not stand on those words alone
15 at 45, eloquent as they were for a 25 year old
16 today. He will have progressed. There will be 17 new nuance, new life experience, new perception
18 and understanding that will have been acquired.
19 And it may lead him to say that Steven Avery
20 should remain in prison. So be it. It's 21 something worth hearing and it's a prospect for 22 progress we ought not cut off.

23 The state institutions of criminal
24 justice themselves will change and grow and 25 progress over the 20 years before Mr. Avery even

1 would be eligible for consideration of extended
2 supervision, under the best of circumstances.

3 Thank heavens that in 1985 progress was
4 not pretermitted as to one of Mr. Avery's prior
5 convictions. Thank heavens progress was possible
6 within our institutions of criminal justice. I
7 do thank heaven for that.

8 And if this conviction is rightly
9 obtained and a guilty man is behind bars, then we
10 will know that better in 20 years, or 30 years,
11 or 40 years, or 50 years. We will know that with 12 more certainty than we know it today. It's the 13 nature of progress and the refinement of human 14 institutions.

15 So, whatever the outcome, whether he
16 never is released on extended supervision in his 17 lifetime or whether he is, there will have been 18 growth, greater understanding, a hope of 19 reconciliation or even redemption. And all of 20 that will come with progress.

21 To pretermitt that prospect of progress
22 today by saying that the back end institutions of 23 criminal justice have no role to play, there will
24 be no consideration of eligibility, or no
25 eligibility and no consideration for extended

1 supervision, is to draw a line in time after
2 which progress cannot benefit or affect Steven
3 Avery, or the Halbach family, or as to him, the 4 institutions of criminal justice.

5 Now, your Honor, in no other field of 6 human endeavor known to me do we cut off the 7 prospect of progress. If 10 years from now
8 Mr. Avery comes down with some dread disease,
9 comes down with cancer and he has to be treated
10 in the Department of Corrections and he is turned 11 over to those who practice medicine instead of 12 practicing law; they will not say we can and will 13 treat you only with the methods of diagnosis and 14 treatment and cure known in 2007. If the cancer
15 occurs in 2017, they will treat him with the 16 benefits of human progress through the day in 17 which he's diagnosed.

18 If some psychological need develops for 19 him or for anyone else in the Department of 20 Corrections and we turn from law to psychology,
21 that psychologist will not say, you were
22 incarcerated in 2005 and, therefore, I will treat
23 you only on the basis of the body of knowledge
24 that we had in 2005, although the calendar today
25 says 2030. It would be unthinkable in any other

1 field of human endeavor.

2 Historians, for example, do not feel
3 themselves bound to assess Abraham Lincoln's life
4 by what was known about it in 1865. In every
5 other area of human endeavor we rely on and draw
6 the benefits from progress. Law should do the 7 same and it can.

8 We have institutions at the back end of 9 our system of criminal justice just as competent,
10 just as dedicated, as those at the front end.
11 And those institutions will be able to make 12 contemporaneous judgments and judgments on the 13 basis of 20, or 25, or 30, or 40, or 50 years
14 experience, not the year and a half under which 15 all of us labor today.

16 Finally, I want to say that if your
17 Honor accepts the invitation to foreclose
18 consideration for extended supervision today,
19 your Honor, in doing so, and I don't -- I
20 understand that these are the wishes of most of 21 the people in this room, certainly those to your
22 Honor's right, behind me.

23 But I say, all the same, that if your
24 Honor takes up that invitation, then from this 25 day forward, as a matter of criminal justice,

1 quite apart from the role she will continue to
2 play in the hearts of her friends and her family
3 and her community, but as a matter of criminal
4 justice, if your Honor takes up that invitation,
5 Teresa Halbach becomes an abstraction and one
6 quickly forgotten, because there are a lot of 7 murders in our human family.

8 But if the Halbachs and the community
9 have the chance to speak and be heard by the 10 institutions of criminal justice that work at the 11 back end, their words will be actuated by their 12 memories of Teresa Halbach's values, by their 13 memories of her life, by the memories of what she 14 believed in. Their words will be actuated, in 15 part, by that.

16 And 20 years from now, those who loved
17 her best will speak for Teresa Halbach and speak
18 accurately of what she valued and loved. Thirty
19 years from now they will do that. And 20 and 30
20 and 40 years from now, the Parole Commission will 21 have to consider Teresa Halbach, not as an 22 abstraction, but as somebody who's part of 23 progress and, therefore, vital in the way that I
24 have described it.

25 And if the words that people speak at

1 that point, actuated by love and memory of Teresa
2 Halbach, are words without mercy, words without
3 reconciliation, words of fear for the community
4 safety, then so be it. Then so be it. He should 5 hear it, the Parole Commission should hear it, we
6 all should hear it. And if they are something
7 else, then so be that. We can't know what will
8 happen between now and then. I ask your honor
9 only to let it happen.

10 I'm asking the Court to take the harder
11 course, the one that is not easy, but also the 12 one that is not pointless. I'm asking the Court
13 to show as much faith in the back end
14 institutions of criminal justice as in its front
15 end institutions. I'm asking the Court to 16 preserve the prospects of progress.

17 In making that request, I want to add
18 that I agree entirely with those who loved Teresa
19 Halbach, about one point they made unanimously in 20 particular; that is this, that there are many 21 lessons to learn from the life of Teresa Halbach,
22 many lessons that can be learned from the life of 23 Teresa Halbach. Unfortunately, I know of only
24 one lesson that can be learned from Teresa
25 Halbach's death; and that is, that imposing death

1 on another human being is easy and it's pointless
2 and it's wrong.

3 And in the hope that we have all learned
4 that one lesson from her death, I'm asking this
5 Court not to take the easy course, not to take 6 the pointless course, but to preserve the 7 prospects of progress. And with progress, to 8 allow the lessons of Teresa Halbach's life
9 themselves to live.

10 I'm asking the Court to exercise its 11 discretion under Section 973.014 (1g)(a), 1 and 12 to leave Mr. Avery eligible, eligible for 13 consideration for extended supervision in 20
14 years. I have not the slightest expectation,
15 today, that he will walk out of prison in his 16 lifetime. But I have a hope and a faith in 17 progress, including his. And so, in a real
18 sense, I'm asking for the life sentence, not the 19 death sentence.

20 THE COURT: Does the State have anything in 21 rebuttal?

22 ATTORNEY KRATZ: No, thank you, Judge.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Avery, although I have
24 already heard from you, traditionally, the Court
25 allows the defendant to have the last word, if you

1 will, and I'm going to give you another chance to
2 say anything additional, if you wish. I will let
3 you speak with your attorneys for a few minutes,
4 first, if you want. And if there's any other
5 statement you wish to make to the Court, I will
6 allow you to make it at this time.

7 ATTORNEY BUTING: He is fine.

8 THE COURT: Very well. I'm going to take a
9 recess at this time to review the arguments of the 10 parties, the statements of the victims, and other 11 information that's been presented. The Court will 12 be back out with a sentence in about 20 minutes.

13 (Recess taken.)

14 THE COURT: Before the Court announces its 15 sentence in this case, I want to remind all those 16 present that this is a court of law. The Court
17 recognizes the emotional nature of this case and its 18 importance to all parties involved; however, any 19 vocal outburst or displays of emotion will not be 20 tolerated. Any violation will result in removal
21 from the courtroom and possible arrest.

22 At the outset, I wish to express the 23 Court's sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Halbach and the 24 other members of the Teresa Halbach family.
25 During the course of these proceedings, I have

1 had the opportunity to observe how your family
2 has handled an extremely difficult situation with
3 dignity and poise.

4 I'm sure that your ability as a family
5 to focus on the joy and happiness of Teresa's
6 life, rather than the tragic circumstances of her
7 death, has been a source of strength for your
8 family as well as an inspiration to other
9 families who have experienced personal tragedies.

10 The Court is highly aware that in many
11 ways this case is unique, even among homicide
12 cases which, fortunately, are rare in this 13 county. This was the longest criminal trial in 14 the history of Manitowoc County. The case has 15 received more publicity than any other trial in 16 the counties history. But, nevertheless, the 17 rules that the Court is to apply in sentencing
18 are the same as they are for other criminal
19 cases.

20 At the conclusion of the trial, the 21 Court instructed the jury that the jurors were 22 not to be swayed by sympathy, prejudice, or 23 passion. The State, the defendant, and the 24 victim are all entitled to the same consideration
25 from the Court in imposing a fair and just

1 sentence in this case.

2 With respect to sentencing
3 recommendations on the homicide charge, the State
4 has recommended that the Court impose the 5 mandatory sentence of life in prison without the 6 possibility of extended supervision.

7 The Defense has recommended that the 8 Court impose a sentence of life in prison, but 9 authorize eligibility for extended supervision
10 after 20 years.

11 The PSI writer recommends that the Court
12 impose a sentence which will not allow for the 13 defendant's release from prison.

14 Those are the recommendations presented
15 to the Court today.

16 The law in Wisconsin directs the Court
17 to consider three primary factors; specifically,
18 the severity of the offense, the character of the 19 offender and the needs of society. The law also 20 requires the Court to impose the minimum amount
21 of custody or confinement which is consistent
22 with these factors.

23 Although in a case of first degree
24 intentional homicide the Court is required to 25 impose a life sentence, the Court understands

1 this directive to apply to its determination of
2 when and if a defendant, sentenced to life in
3 prison, is eligible for extended supervision.

4 First of all, with respect to the
5 gravity of the offense, the charge of first
6 degree intentional homicide is the most serious
7 crime known to the law. The evidence in this
8 case, although largely circumstantial, was more
9 than sufficient, in the Court's mind, to sustain
10 the jury's verdict and the Court so ruled earlier
11 in this case.

12 We know that the victim in this case,
13 Teresa Halbach, suffered at least two gunshot
14 wounds to her head. Because of the condition of 15 the body, it could not be conclusively stated
16 whether the gunshots were the cause of her death
17 or whether other means were used and the gunshots
18 were post mortem.

19 The blood evidence demonstrated that at 20 some point after the death, Mr. Avery, the 21 defendant, transported Teresa Halbach's body in 22 the back of her vehicle.

23 There was also evidence introduced at 24 trial that the defendant lured Teresa Halbach to 25 his home on that day.

1 There was evidence that he specifically
2 requested that she be the person sent to take the
3 photo of the vehicle for sale.

4 There was also evidence that there were
5 two cell phone calls he made to her on that day
6 on which he blocked his number indicating a
7 desire to conceal his identity.

8 Because of the condition of the body
9 that was discovered, there were many things about 10 the homicide that, necessarily, are not known.
11 Among those are the defendant's precise
12 motivation for committing this crime. However,
13 while the motivation cannot be known with 14 certainty, the circumstantial and scientific
15 evidence was strong that the defendant's actions
16 in killing Teresa Halbach were premeditated.

17 The effects of this crime on the 18 victim's family will be permanent. Teresa
19 Halbach's vibrant life was brutally taken from 20 her at a very young age. Her parents, siblings,
21 and other family members have lost a loved one
22 forever, as emotionally detailed in their 23 statements to the Court. This is not a case in 24 which any tool of restorative justice can repair
25 the devastating and permanent damage caused by

1 Mr. Avery's actions.

2 With respect to the other charge, the
3 felon in possession of a firearm charge, the 4 severity of that charge is generally determined
5 by the circumstances in which the weapon was 6 possessed. In this case, those circumstances are 7 aggravated because the weapon was used in
8 connection with an intentional homicide.

9 Moreover, there's no evidence to suggest
10 that the homicide in this case was the result of 11 any loss of temper or anything in that area, but 12 rather was the result of a calculated murder. In 13 addition, the victim in this case had no prior 14 meaningful relationship of any kind with the 15 defendant, Steven Avery.

16 The Court is also directed to consider
17 the character of the offender. That background
18 is contained largely in the Presentence
19 Investigation Report. Mr. Avery was 43 years old 20 at the time the crimes in this case were 21 committed.

22 The record shows that, while he is
23 somewhat below average in intelligence, he is not
24 mentally impaired in any sense. There's no
25 evidence of any serious health problems to speak

1 of.

2 Mr. Avery was previously married and had
3 four children. He was divorced while serving a
4 17 and a half year prison sentence for felony
5 convictions in two cases. First, for endangering
6 safety by conduct regardless of life as a
7 repeater, and felon in possession of a firearm in 8 Case 85 FE 3.

9 The second sentence arose out of what
10 everyone now acknowledges were wrongful
11 convictions for attempted first degree
12 intentional homicide and related charges in Case
13 85 FE 118.

14 The record contained in the PSI
15 demonstrates that Mr. Avery has been regularly
16 involved in criminal activity during those 17 portions of his adult life when he was not 18 incarcerated.

19 At age 18 he was convicted of his first
20 two felonies, two burglary counts for Manitowoc
21 County. He was originally placed on probation.
22 That probation was subsequently revoked for other
23 criminal violations and he was sentenced to two 24 years in prison.

25 At about the same time, he was convicted

1 on three misdemeanor theft counts that were
2 amended down from three burglary counts, for
3 crimes committed in Marinette County.

4 At age 20, he was again convicted of a
5 burglary in Marinette County and received a 15
6 month prison sentence, served concurrently with 7 his first prison sentence.

8 Approximately a month after the 9 Marinette County burglary conviction, Mr. Avery
10 was convicted in Manitowoc County of cruelty to 11 animals, a charge which arose out of an incident
12 in which he poured gasoline on a cat and threw
13 the cat into a bonfire. After the cat escaped
14 the fire and ran into the yard, Mr. Avery
15 reportedly poured more gasoline on the cat, so
16 that it would burn to death.

17 The Court has -- or did exclude evidence
18 of this crime and other crimes committed by 19 Mr. Avery, during the trial, because of their 20 highly prejudicial effect. However, at 21 sentencing, these crimes become relevant as 22 evidence of the defendant's character.

23 While the incident involving the cat
24 occurred many years ago, it does demonstrate a
25 level of cruelty that the Court finds difficult

1 to rationalize simply as a mistake of youth.

2 In 1985, at age 22, Mr. Avery committed
3 his most serious felonies, before the charges in 4 this case. He was convicted of endangering
5 safety by conduct regardless of life as a
6 repeater and felon in possession of a firearm as
7 a repeater. For those charges, he received a 6
8 year prison sentence.

9 The Complaint in that case indicated
10 that at 5:30 in the morning, on January 3rd,
11 1985, Sandra Morris was driving to drop off her
12 infant daughter at her grandparents before
13 reporting to work. On County Highway Y, a
14 vehicle driven by Mr. Avery came up from behind,
15 pulled alongside of her vehicle and struck the 16 side of it forcing her to stop.

17 Mr. Avery got out of the car. She
18 recognized him when he got out and approached her
19 vehicle, while he was pointing a rifle at her.
20 He originally ordered her to get into his 21 vehicle, but when she pointed out that her infant
22 child was in the car and it would freeze if left
23 alone, Mr. Avery allowed her to leave.

24 By the time he was 24 years old, when he
25 was sentenced to the prison sentences that

1 included the sentence on the wrongful conviction,
2 Mr. Avery had been convicted of five felonies and
3 four misdemeanors.

4 He did not commit any crimes, needless
5 to say, during the next 17 and a half years that 6 he spent in prison. However, while in prison, he
7 sent written correspondence and an audiotape
8 threatening to kill his wife. The threats were 9 considered serious enough that his former wife
10 obtained an order prohibiting him from contact
11 with his children.

12 His only convictions following his 13 release from prison in September, 2003, are the 14 convictions in this case.

15 While the majority of Mr. Avery's adult
16 life has been spent in prison, and a significant
17 portion of that time was for a crime he did not
18 commit, the fact remains that, during his time
19 out of prison as an adult, Mr. Avery has 20 regularly committed crimes, including serious
21 felonies.

22 Before leaving the character of the 23 offender issue, I want to make one point. The 24 Court gives no weight, whatsoever, to Mr. Avery's
25 refusal to admit guilt in this case. The Court

1 believes it would be improper to consider that as
2 an aggravating factor. It is Mr. Avery's
3 absolute right to maintain his innocence, even in 4 the face of the jury's verdicts in this case.
5 One need only look at Mr. Avery's wrongful
6 convictions in the 1986 case to understand the 7 rationale for this rule.

8 While the defendant's acknowledgment of 9 guilt can be considered as a mitigating factor,
10 and that is not present here, nevertheless, the 11 converse of the rule is not true. A refusal to 12 admit guilt is not an aggravating factor.

13 The most important factors, from the 14 Court's perspective, on the issues of severity of 15 the offense and character of the offender are,
16 first, the vicious nature of the crime in this
17 case. The indications that Mr. Avery consciously
18 selected the victim in this case, the fact that 19 there was no rational reason for the crime, no
20 prior relationship to the victim, this wasn't a
21 domestic dispute; it appeared to be simply a
22 calculated, premeditated murder.

23 There were probably other background
24 explanations for what happened, but the Court is 25 not going to speculate as to what those might be,

1 or go beyond the evidence that was introduced at
2 the trial.

3 With respect to the character of the 4 offender, the Court finds it to be most
5 significant that Mr. Avery has been involved in 6 serious criminal activity, on a regular basis,
7 during those times of his adult life when he was 8 not incarcerated. Significantly, while most 9 criminals become more law abiding as they get
10 older, the record demonstrates Mr. Avery's crimes
11 have gotten more serious as he's gotten older,
12 culminating with the homicide of Teresa Halbach
13 in this case.

14 The final consideration for the Court
15 is -- or are, the needs of society. In the 16 Court's opinion, those needs are the most
17 important factor in this case. I have to say,
18 Mr. Avery, that what particularly strikes the 19 Court as I was preparing for today's proceedings,
20 as the -- is the continuing danger that you pose
21 to those around you, evidenced not only by the 22 homicide in this case, but by its timing in your 23 life.

24 Whatever crimes may have been a part of 25 your past, at the time you committed this

1 homicide, everything suggested that your life was
2 poised to take a turn for the better. By October
3 31 of 2005, you had legitimately become a
4 standard barer for the success of the Wisconsin
5 Innocence Project. Nobody doubted that you were 6 innocent of the crimes for which you were 7 exonerated, and that project was instrumental in 8 securing your freedom.

9 The fact that everyone acknowledged that
10 you had been wrongly convicted made you a subject
11 of sympathy, not only in this community, but 12 across the State. The State legislature
13 introduced legislation which bore your name,
14 extending greater protections to those accused of 15 crimes in order to reduce the future potential
16 for wrongful convictions. Legislators were 17 questioning whether the State shouldn't be 18 increasing the maximum amount of compensation
19 which can be awarded to persons who were 20 wrongfully incarcerated.

21 You were also the plaintiff in a civil 22 suit against Manitowoc County, which promised to 23 bring you significant compensation for your 24 lengthy period of wrongful incarceration. Even 25 with the specter of the homicide charges in this

1 case hanging over your head, your attorneys were
2 able to settle that case for $400,000. However,
3 despite having the widespread sympathy of the 4 public, and the prospects for a significant
5 financial award, you committed the horrible crime
6 that brings you here to be sentenced today.

7 All the evidence suggests that this was
8 not a crime of passion, but rather of planned
9 premeditation. There is no indication, that I
10 saw in the trial, that you were under the 11 influence of alcohol or drugs at the time. The 12 victim was not a acquaintance with which you had 13 any particular relationship that could have given
14 rise to any type of domestic disturbance, but was 15 a mere business acquaintance. Moreover, the 16 crime was not the result of a youthful lapse of 17 judgment; you were 43 years old at the time you
18 committed the crime.

19 In terms of assessing your danger to 20 society, the evidence forces me to conclude that
21 you are probably the most dangerous individual
22 ever to set foot in this courtroom.

23 Your attorney has argued eloquently that
24 the Court should make you eligible for release at 25 some point in the future. But from what I see,

1 nothing in your life suggests that society would
2 ever be safe from your behavior.

3 One of the things that strikes me the 4 most is that, as you have grown older, your
5 crimes have increased in severity. This crime
6 was committed at a time when you were 43 years
7 old. Given the trend of your crimes, society has 8 a legitimate right to be concerned that there is 9 a serious risk you would reoffend and commit
10 serious offenses if you were ever permitted to be 11 released from prison.

12 The moral need for punishment as a
13 result of the gruesome murder in this case,
14 coupled with the danger that the Court believes
15 you pose to society based on your prior history
16 and the premeditated and senseless nature of the 17 homicide in this case, compels the Court to 18 conclude you should not be free again.

19 For the foregoing reasons, on the first
20 degree intentional homicide charge, the Court
21 sentences you to life in prison and determines 22 that you will not be eligible for release to
23 extended supervision.

24 On the felon in possession of a firearm
25 charge, the Court sentences you to a penalty of

1 10 years in prison, consisting of 5 years initial
2 confinement, followed by 5 years extended
3 supervision; that sentence to run concurrent with 4 your sentence on the first degree intentional
5 homicide charge.

6 In light of the Court's sentence on the 7 first degree intentional homicide charge, the 8 Court is not going to set any specific conditions
9 of extended supervision on the possession of a
10 firearm charge.

11 The Court has been notified that, in 12 terms of sentence credit, you are entitled to 13 credit of 568 days, that being the period of time
14 from November 9 of 2005, to the present.

15 I'm required to notify you that you will 16 be losing your voting rights as a result of your 17 conviction in this case. We have a paper that 18 explains those rights for you.

19 I also have for you a Written
20 Explanation of Indeterminate Sentence, which the 21 Court is required to prepare on the firearms
22 charge. I will hand that to you before you leave
23 today.

24 I will also notify you that you do have 25 the right to seek post conviction relief in this

ATTORNEY KRATZ: No, Judge.

THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

ATTORNEY STRANG: No.

THE COURT: If not, these proceedings are adjourned.

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven A. Avery, Case No. 05
3 CF 381. Will the parties present state their 4 appearances for the record.

5 ATTORNEY FALLON: Good morning, your Honor,
6 may it please the Court, the State appears by
7 Assistant Attorney General Tom Fallon and District
8 Attorney Ken Kratz as Special Prosecutors.

9 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Steven Avery appears in 10 person with his attorney, Suzanne Hagopian, and 11 Martha Askins.

12 THE COURT: Very well, we are here this
13 morning on the defendant's post-conviction motion.
14 I will note for the record the defendant has filed a
15 post-conviction motion seeking a new trial on two 16 separate grounds.

17 The defendant alleges, as the Court
18 understands the motion, that the trial court
19 committed error by excluding evidence of third
20 party liability at the trial; and second, the 21 defendant alleges the trial court committed error
22 by improperly excusing a juror with a claimed
23 family emergency, following the first day of 24 deliberations. I will stop here, Attorney
25 Hagopian, and ask if you want to rephrase that.

1 I briefly summarized it, but.

2 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: No, that's fine.

3 THE COURT: Very well. One note, at the 4 outset, the Court did grant the defendant's request
5 to submit a portion of the post-conviction motion,
6 that is, documents relating to the claimed error in 7 excusing the juror, under seal. I did that with the 8 understanding that, following the evidentiary
9 portion of today's hearing, those documents would be 10 released. And I will issue an order, following the 11 hearing today, releasing all of the documents that 12 have been filed in connection with the 13 post-conviction motion, from their sealed status.

14 I will also indicate that, before
15 today's hearing, the parties filed briefs on the 16 issue of whether or not the juror who was 17 excused, who is the subject of that portion of 18 the post-conviction motion, would be permitted to 19 testify at today's hearing.

20 The parties indicated to the Court they 21 took opposite positions on that question and the 22 Court permitted the parties to file briefs with 23 the Court. Those briefs are included in the 24 documents which will be -- which were originally
25 admitted under seal, but which will be released

1 at the conclusion of today's hearing.

2 The State challenges the defendant's
3 offer of that testimony both on grounds of 4 relevance and as being prohibited by Section
5 906.06 of the Wisconsin Statutes. With respect
6 to the relevance of the proffered testimony, the 7 defense agrees, and the Court agrees, that as it
8 relates to some of the defendant's arguments, the 9 testimony would be irrelevant. That is, for 10 example, to the extent the defendant alleges that 11 the Court committed structural error in the 12 procedure that was used to exclude the juror, the 13 evidence would not be relevant.

14 However, the defendant argues that,
15 under other of its theories, specifically the 16 possibility that an appeals court would require
17 that the defendant show prejudice as a result of 18 the Court's actions, the evidence could have 19 relevance. And the Court agrees that both as it
20 relates to the defendant's allegations of 21 prejudice and the claim of ineffective assistance
22 of counsel -- Whoever has the child in the back
23 of the room is going to have to leave the 24 courtroom immediately. To the extent it relates
25 to the prejudice claim and the ineffective

1 assistance of counsel claim, the evidence could
2 have relevance and the Court will, therefore,
3 allow the excused juror to testify.

4 In addition, there's an issue of whether
5 or not the evidence is prohibited under Section
6 906.06 (2), which is a statute that in general
7 prohibits testimony from a juror when it's used
8 to impeach a verdict. Specifically, the 9 introductory portion of the statute reads as 10 follows: Upon an inquiry into the validity of a 11 verdict or indictment, a juror may not testify as 12 to any manner or statement occurring during the 13 course of the jury's deliberations.

14 The Court accepts the defendant's
15 arguments that while the type of testimony
16 described in the statute is of the type that 17 would be prohibited should the verdict be 18 questioned, in this case the evidence is offered
19 for a different purpose, that is, as it relates 20 to the procedure used to excusing the juror and,
21 therefore, the statute does not prohibit the 22 juror from testifying.

23 That is not to say that anything the 24 juror might say would be relevant, but the Court
25 concludes that the juror is not prohibited from

1 testifying in any respect, for those reasons.
2 Unless there's something further from either
3 party at this time, Attorney Hagopian, you may
4 call your first witness.

5 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Very well, thank you.

6 THE COURT: Just a second.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, thank the
8 Court for the ruling. We do have a motion to 9 sequester expected witnesses.

10 THE COURT: Any objection from the defense?

11 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: No.

12 THE COURT: Very well, any other witnesses
13 who will be testifying should be excused from the 14 courtroom at this time. I see Attorney Strang
15 leaving the courtroom. Are there any other
16 witnesses in the courtroom who the defendant intends
17 to call?

18 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Our investigator, I
19 think, is going to leave.

20 THE COURT: Very well.

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: We're not going to oppose
22 if the investigator wishes to stay, because Officer
23 Wiegert is here on our behalf as well. So we don't 24 have any objection if their investigator wishes to 25 remain here, because we intend to have Officer

1 Wiegert present, not anticipating calling him, but
2 one would never know.

3 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: All right. Thank you.

4 THE COURT: Okay. That's acceptable to the
5 defense then, so the defense investigator and 6 Officer Wiegert may stay in the courtroom. Attorney
7 Hagopian, you may call your witness.

8 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: I would call Richard
9 Mahler.

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: While we're waiting for 11 Mr. Mahler, if the record would reflect that 12 Attorney Gahn has joined the prosecution table.

13 THE COURT: So noted.

14 THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand.

15 RICHARD R. MAHLER, called as a witness
16 herein, having been first duly sworn, was
17 examined and testified as follows:

18 THE CLERK: Please be seated. Please state
19 your name and spell your last name for the record.

20 THE WITNESS: Richard R. Mahler,
21 M-a-h-l-e-r.

22 DIRECT EXAMINATION

23 BY ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN:

24 Q. Mr. Mahler, how old are you?

25 A. Forty-four.

1 Q. Are you employed?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And where are you employed?

4 A. I work in retail.

5 Q. Are you married?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. How long have you and your wife been married?

8 A. Thirteen years.

9 Q. Is it correct that you were selected to serve as 10 a juror in this case, that being State vs. Avery?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Was that in early February, 2007?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. Would you agree that this was a very high profile
15 case?

16 A. Yes, I do.

17 Q. Had you ever before served on a jury?

18 A. No, I did not.

19 Q. How did you feel about being selected to serve on
20 this jury?

21 A. I thought it would be an honor to look at 22 evidence and base a decision on the evidence.

23 Q. How did your wife feel about the fact that you
24 had been chosen to serve on the jury?

25 A. She was kind of excited because it was such a

1 high profile case and, I mean, she thought it
2 would be interesting for me to be on a jury.

3 Q. Had your wife been upset about something that had
4 been reported in the media at the time the jury
5 was selected?

6 A. Yes, ma'am.

7 Q. Do you recall what it was in the press report
8 that had upset your wife?

9 A. That I was a musician living off my wife's money.

10 Q. Now, your name didn't appear in that media report
11 did it?

12 A. No, ma'am.

13 Q. What about your wife's name, did that appear in 14 the press account?

15 A. No, it did not.

16 Q. But your wife was able to figure out who they 17 were talking about?

18 A. Yes, ma'am.

19 Q. Was your wife upset about that report to the 20 point that she did not want you to serve on the 21 jury?

22 A. No.

23 Q. When you began your jury service, were you and 24 your wife having marriage problems?

25 A. No, we were not.

1 Q. And as a juror in this case, as the trial got
2 under way, were you present in court for the
3 lawyers' opening statements?
4 A. Yes, I was.
5 Q. Were you present in court for all of the witness'
6 testimony?
7 A. Yes, I was.
8 Q. And were you also there in court for the lawyers'
9 closing arguments?
10 A. Yes, I was.
11 Q. That whole process took a number of weeks, didn't
12 it?
13 A. That's correct.
14 Q. Do you remember about how long you were here
15 listening to the case?
16 A. Five weeks, roughly.
17 Q. Now, during those five weeks when you were in 18 court, right up to the very end of trial, were 19 you permitted to go home each night?
20 A. Yes, I was.
21 Q. Were you permitted to go home on the weekends?
22 A. Yes.
23 Q. And did you, in fact, go home to your family each 24 night and on the weekends, while this trial was 25 going on?

1 A. Yes, that is correct.

2 Q. Was there a point in the trial when the jury was
3 not allowed to go home?

4 A. That was during deliberations.

5 Q. During about the time of deliberations?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Now, if I, when questioning you, use the word
8 sequestered, do you know what I'm talking about?

9 A. It means lock down.

10 Q. Lock down.

11 A. Can't go home, can't do nothing, no TV, sit in 12 your room and do nothing.

13 Q. Now, is it correct that you were among the 12
14 jurors who were given the case and began
15 deliberations?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And when that began, when the deliberations
18 began, do you recall how many nights you had 19 spent away from home?

20 A. I believe it was one night.

21 Q. Where did the jurors stay while you were
22 sequestered?

23 A. The Best Western in Chilton.

24 Q. And now, at that point, when you're sequestered,
25 five weeks, six weeks after you were selected to

1 serve on this jury, at that point were you and
2 your wife having marriage problems?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Did you feel that your wife was still generally
5 supportive of your jury service?

6 A. Yes, I do.

7 Q. I would like to direct your attention,
8 specifically, to the day that deliberations
9 began, which was March 15 of 2007; do you
10 remember that day?

11 A. Yes, I do.

12 Q. Do you recall approximately how long the jury
13 deliberated that day?

14 A. We deliberated for four hours.

15 Q. At some point, were the deliberations completed
16 for the night?

17 A. Yes, ma'am.

18 Q. Was it your expectation that deliberations would 19 begin again the next day?

20 A. That is correct.

21 Q. What was your mood as deliberations ended for the 22 night, on March 15th?

23 A. I was exhausted but, really, it was done for the 24 day.

25 Q. What was your feeling, in just a general sense,

1 as to how things had gone during deliberations
2 that day?

3 A. I was frustrated.

4 Q. And why was that?

5 A. Because of some comments in the deliberations.

6 Q. And what sort of comments, just generally?

7 A. One of the jurors made a statement before looking 8 at the evidence.

9 Q. And that made you feel frustrated?

10 A. Yes, it did.

11 Q. What did you do after deliberations were done for 12 the day?

13 A. We were escorted to the bus, and from the bus we 14 went to Seven Angels Restaurant.

15 Q. And did all of the jurors go out to eat together?

16 A. Yes, we all did.

17 Q. And you mentioned you were transported there by a
18 bus?

19 A. That's correct.

20 Q. And were you in the company of bailiffs, or 21 officers, or who was with you?

22 A. Bailiffs and state patrol officers. And I'm not 23 sure if there was county, but I know there were 24 plenty of state patrol officers around.

25 Q. So then you're at dinner at Seven Angels; was

1 there anyone present during the dinner, other
2 than the jurors?

3 A. The bailiff and, like I said, the other officers,
4 state patrolmen.

5 Q. At any point during the dinner did Sheriff Pagel
6 arrive?

7 A. Some time during dinner, yes, he did.

8 Q. And do you recall what was the occasion for him
9 to arrive at the restaurant?

10 A. Some of the jurors felt that they wanted to have 11 an alcoholic drink and I guess Sheriff Pagel
12 stated that the judge said it was okay.

13 Q. And in this restaurant, were the jurors seated in 14 some sort of separate room, away from the public?

15 A. Yes, we were all in like a side banquet room,
16 with the doors closed.

17 Q. And when Sheriff Pagel arrived, did he come into 18 that banquet room where the jurors were?

19 A. Yes, he did.

20 Q. Did he then leave after telling the jurors that 21 you could have a drink?

22 A. I don't recall.

23 Q. Could you describe the seating arrangement at the 24 restaurant?

25 A. It was in a -- tables were in kind of a U shape,

1 I believe, with a couple tables in the center,
2 that's what I remember.

3 Q. And who were you sitting next to?

4 A. I was sitting next to Juror Carl.

5 Q. And do you recall his last name?

6 A. Yes, Wardman.

7 Q. Now, Carl Wardman, he was another juror serving
8 on the case?

9 A. Yes, ma'am.

10 Q. Did you speak with Mr. Wardman at dinner that
11 night?

12 A. I didn't catch the question.

13 Q. Did you speak with Mr. Wardman at dinner that
14 night?

15 A. Yes, I did.

16 Q. And what did you say to him?

17 A. I told him that I was frustrated with 18 deliberations.

19 Q. And did Mr. Wardman have a response for you?

20 A. Yeah, if you can't handle it, why don't you just 21 leave.

22 Q. I'm sorry, I'm having a little trouble hearing
23 you. Could you speak up.

24 A. If you can't handle it, why don't you tell them
25 and just leave.

1 Q. Could you describe Mr. Wardman's tone of voice
2 when he made that comment?

3 A. Pretty much the way I stated it. You know, if 4 you can't handle it, then, you know, tell them
5 and just leave. Just kind of sarcastic tone of 6 voice.

7 Q. And how did you interpret Mr. Wardman's comment
8 to you?

9 A. Verbally threatening.

10 Q. Did you feel physically threatened by him?

11 A. No.

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm sorry, I can't hear
13 the witness.

14 A. No, ma'am.

15 Q. (By Attorney Hagopian)~ When you said you felt 16 verbally threatened, what do you mean by that?

17 A. It was just his tone of voice and demeanor when 18 he said it.

19 Q. And how did your exchange with Mr. Wardman leave
20 you feeling?

21 A. I felt threatened and upset.

22 Q. You had earlier testified to even before going to 23 dinner that night to feeling somewhat frustrated
24 by the deliberations?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. Was Mr. Wardman at all involved in your feeling
2 of frustration from the deliberations?

3 A. Yes, he is the one who made the statement as we
4 walked into the jury room.

5 Q. What was the statement that was made?

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, relevance and 7 hearsay.

8 THE COURT: Counsel.

9 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: As to hearsay, we're
10 not offering it for its truth, but merely for the 11 effect on the listener. And the relevance is in 12 terms of his explanation as to why Mr. Mahler was 13 feeling the way he was.

14 THE COURT: I will allow it.

15 A. He said he's --

16 (Court reporter couldn't hear.)

17 A. He said, he's fucking guilty.

18 Q. And was that very early in the deliberations?

19 A. That was right as we got into deliberations.

20 Q. Had there been a preliminary vote taken by the 21 jury that day during deliberations?

22 A. Yes, there was.

23 Q. What was your vote?

24 A. I voted not guilty, based on I wanted to look at 25 all the evidence and make a decision based on

1 that evidence.

2 Q. And do you know what Mr. Wardman's vote was?

3 A. No, I can just guess. I have no clue what his 4 vote was.

5 Q. And when you say guessing, would it be correct to 6 say that you are relying on the comment that he
7 made --

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. -- basically arriving in the deliberation room?

10 A. Yes, ma'am.

11 Q. So, after dinner, did you then return to the 12 motel with the other jurors?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. And I assume you were taken back to the motel on 15 a bus?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. All of the jurors together?

18 A. With state patrolmen --

19 Q. Mm-hmm.

20 A. -- all over the place.

21 Q. What did you do when you got back to the motel?

22 A. We were escorted to our rooms.

23 Q. Did -- Were you aware, were jurors all staying in 24 their rooms or did some other things happen?

25 A. At first, we were all pretty much in our rooms.

1 Q. Was there an area the jurors were allowed to 2 congregate?

3 A. Yes, in the evening, they had a television with 4 VCR tapes or movies that we could watch.

5 Q. Because I assume you didn't have a TV in your 6 individual room, did you?

7 A. No.

8 Q. And you didn't have a telephone in your room?

9 A. No, ma'am.

10 Q. At some point, then, after you're back from 11 dinner, back in your motel room, did you decide
12 to call home?

13 A. Yes, I did.

14 Q. And what did you -- So you didn't have a phone in 15 your room; what did you have to do to make 16 arrangements to call home?

17 A. Well, there was -- I noticed a couple other 18 jurors calling home from a phone that the bailiff
19 had, a cell phone.

20 Q. Were you aware, prior to your arrival back to -- 21 at the motel that evening, that jurors were 22 allowed to call home?

23 A. No, I didn't.

24 Q. But you saw other jurors doing that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And why did you decide to call home?

2 A. I decided to call home just to check in, to let
3 her know everything was okay.

4 Q. And when you refer to "check in and let her
5 know", are you referring to your wife?

6 A. Yes, ma'am.

7 Q. Did you have any information at that point that
8 your wife was trying to reach you?

9 A. No, not at all.

10 Q. Did you have any information that your wife had 11 called a bailiff, or anyone else at the motel, to 12 report a family emergency?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Were you able to speak with your wife?

15 A. Yes, I was.

16 Q. And you were doing this on the bailiff's cell
17 phone, correct?

18 A. That is correct.

19 Q. Were you in your private room or somewhere else
20 in the motel?

21 A. We were in the group TV room that we were 22 watching movies in.

23 Q. Did you tell your wife how you were feeling?

24 A. No.

25 Q. In that conversation, did your wife tell you

1 something about your stepdaughter?

2 A. Yeah, she said that there was an accident.

3 Q. How old was your stepdaughter at that time?

4 A. Seventeen.

5 Q. Now, the mention of an accident, did that come up
6 immediately in the conversation?

7 A. No.

8 Q. So you and your wife had conversed about other
9 matters before there was any mention of an
10 accident?

11 A. Just how I was doing. I told her I was doing all
12 right.

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm sorry, I'm having a
14 real hard --

15 A. I told her that I was doing okay, that I was all
16 right.

17 Q. (By Attorney Hagopian)~ And it was then, after 18 some discussion, that there was mention of an
19 accident?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. Did your wife tell you that your stepdaughter was 22 in the hospital?

23 A. No, she did not.

24 Q. Did she tell you that your stepdaughter was 25 injured in any way?

1 A. No, she did not.

2 Q. Did your wife tell you that you needed to come
3 home?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Did you sense that your wife was upset that
6 evening?

7 A. Yes, I did.

8 Q. Did you know why?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Did you think your wife would divorce you if you
11 did not come home that night?

12 A. No, not at all.

13 Q. When you then ended the conversation with your 14 wife, did you hand the cell phone back to the 15 bailiff?

16 A. Yes, I did.

17 Q. As you handed the cell phone back to the bailiff,
18 did you tell the bailiff that you had a family
19 emergency?

20 A. Not that I recall.

21 Q. What did you do?

22 A. I went back to my room.

23 Q. And what were your thoughts at that point?

24 A. After sitting in my room for awhile, I was 25 uncertain what was happening at home.

1 Q. You were uncertain about what was going on at
2 home?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. Were you also feeling frustrated?

5 A. Yes, I was.

6 Q. And what was the source of that frustration?

7 A. That conversation at dinner.

8 Q. So were you still upset about your exchange at 9 dinner that night, with Mr. Wardman?

10 A. Yes, I was.

11 Q. Were you still upset about how things were going
12 in deliberations?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. What did you do next?

15 A. I believe I talked to one of the state patrolmen, 16 outside my door.

17 Q. What did you tell the state patrol officer?

18 A. And I told him that I needed to talk to the 19 bailiff.

20 Q. And what was the officer's response?

21 A. He said he would get the bailiff to my room.

22 Q. And what happened next?

23 A. As I recall, the bailiff came in and said he 24 would get ahold of Sheriff Pagel.

25 Q. Did you provide any information to the bailiff at

1 that point?

2 A. Yes, that there was a family emergency I had to
3 deal with at home.

4 Q. And that was the extent of the conversation, as 5 you recall?

6 A. As I recall, yes.

7 Q. So the bailiff said he would get Sheriff Pagel.
8 Did Sheriff Pagel arrive, then, at some point?

9 A. Yes, he did, with the bailiff.

10 Q. And where were you when Sheriff Pagel arrived?

11 A. I was in my hotel room.

12 Q. And you had been in your motel room this entire 13 time, from after when you spoke to the state
14 patrolman, until Sheriff Pagel arrived?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And when Sheriff Pagel arrived, did he actually 17 come inside the motel room with you?

18 A. Yes, he did.

19 Q. Was there anyone present in that room, other than 20 you and Sheriff Pagel?

21 A. I believe the bailiff was there with him.

22 Q. And did you speak with Sheriff Pagel?

23 A. Yes, I did.

24 Q. Did Sheriff Pagel say anything to you?

25 A. Yes, I guess he was asking what was going on.

1 Q. And what did you tell Sheriff Pagel?

2 A. That there was some kind of an accident at home,
3 family emergency.

4 Q. Did you tell him anything else?

5 A. Just that I felt I needed to go home.

6 Q. Do you recall if you told Sheriff Pagel that your 7 stepdaughter's car had been totaled?

8 A. No, I don't recall saying anything like that.

9 Q. What did Sheriff Pagel do when you told him that 10 you needed to go home?

11 A. He said he would get ahold of the judge.

12 Q. Were you present when Sheriff Pagel spoke with 13 the judge?

14 A. Yes, I was.

15 Q. Do you remember where that occurred?

16 A. That was in my hotel room.

17 Q. So it's you and Sheriff Pagel in your room,
18 possibly the bailiff as well?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. And Sheriff Pagel was on the phone with the 21 judge; is that correct?

22 A. As I recall, yes.

23 Q. And is Sheriff Pagel using his own cell phone?

24 A. Yes, he was.

25 Q. Could you hear what the sheriff was saying to the

1 judge?

2 A. I remember him talking to the judge, but I don't
3 remember what he was saying.

4 Q. Now, at some point after this encounter with 5 Sheriff Pagel and the call to the judge, did you
6 yourself speak with Judge Willis?

7 A. Yes, I did.

8 Q. And whose phone were you using?

9 A. Sheriff Pagel's.

10 Q. And where were you when this conversation with 11 the judge took place?

12 A. In my hotel room.

13 Q. Was Sheriff Pagel present while you were speaking
14 with the judge?

15 A. Yes, he was.

16 Q. Do you recall where he was in relation to you,
17 the distance?

18 A. Couple feet.

19 Q. Would he have been able to hear what you were 20 saying?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Approximately how long did your conversation with 23 the judge last?

24 A. Two minutes.

25 Q. What, to the best of your recollection, did you

1 tell the judge?

2 A. I told him that there was a family emergency at
3 home. And I recall him asking if I needed --
4 sure I needed to go home.

5 Q. So you told the judge there was a family
6 emergency and you needed to go home?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Did you say anything else?

9 A. Not that I recall.

10 Q. Did the judge ask you if your stepdaughter was in 11 the hospital?

12 A. No, he did not.

13 Q. Did the judge ask you if your stepdaughter was 14 injured?

15 A. No, he did not.

16 Q. Did you tell the judge, in that conversation,
17 that your marriage was in trouble?

18 A. No, I did not.

19 Q. Did you tell the judge that you and your wife
20 were having trouble before the trial had even 21 begun?

22 A. No.

23 Q. What happened next?

24 A. I handed the phone back to Sheriff Pagel and then
25 I waited in my room and got my stuff together.

1 Q. Did the judge say anything to you at the end of 2 that conversation?

3 A. He said I was free to go.

4 Q. Had you told the judge the full story about why
5 you wanted off the jury that night?

6 A. No, I did not.

7 Q. What did you not tell the judge?

8 A. About my conversation with Mr. Wardman.

9 Q. Had your stepdaughter actually been in an
10 accident?

11 A. No, ma'am.

12 Q. What had happened to her?

13 A. Her car was having troubles. She just had car
14 troubles.

15 Q. When did you find that out?

16 A. Upon my arrival at home.

17 Q. And once you were home, what were your feelings
18 about having gotten off the jury?

19 A. I was frustrated and angry with myself.

20 Q. Did you feel like you had let yourself down?

21 A. I felt like I left myself down and all parties
22 involved.

23 Q. When did you start to feel that way?

24 A. A few hours after I got home.

25 Q. So you felt that way even before the jury had

1 come back with a verdict?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. Does this still bother you today?

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, relevance.

5 THE COURT: Attorney Hagopian.

6 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: I think it just may
7 offer some further explanation as to why he's here
8 today.

9 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the
10 objection.

11 Q. (By Attorney Hagopian)~ Mr. Mahler, the way you
12 have spoken in your testimony today, is that your 13 typical manner of speaking?

14 A. No, ma'am.

15 Q. What is your typical manner?

16 A. I'm usually pretty happy. Pretty -- I don't feel 17 as nervous --

18 Q. Mm-hmm.

19 A. -- as I do right now.

20 Q. The way you are speaking today, is that how you
21 would speak when you are feeling upset about
22 something?

23 A. Yes, ma'am.

24 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: That's all I have.

25 Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

3 CROSS-EXAMINATION

4 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

5 Q. Good morning, Mr. Mahler.

6 A. Good morning.

7 Q. Would you say you have a pretty fair recollection
8 of the events of March 15th, 2007?

9 A. Yes, I do.

10 Q. Very well. What time did you begin deliberations
11 on March 15th, 2007?

12 A. It was in the afternoon, like one -- around 1:00.

13 Q. And what time did you call it a day,
14 deliberating?

15 A. It was like 4, 4:30 roughly.

16 Q. At the end of deliberations that day, what was 17 the first stop the jurors made when they left the 18 courthouse? Did they go to the hotel? Did they 19 go to the restaurant? What did they do first?

20 A. We went to the restaurant.

21 Q. And you went to Seven Angels?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. And there were the 12 jurors, correct?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. And there were bailiffs, correct?

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. How many bailiffs?

3 A. I believe one.

4 Q. And there were some law enforcement officers
5 providing security detail, correct?

6 A. That is correct.

7 Q. All right. There were some sheriffs deputies?

8 A. As I recall.

9 Q. A state patrol officer or two?

10 A. Yeah, there were plenty of state patrol officers.

11 Q. All right. And you got to the restaurant on the 12 bus that was provided by the county, correct?

13 A. That is correct.

14 Q. Who did you sit with on the bus?

15 A. I don't recall.

16 Q. Did you have any conversations with anyone on the 17 bus, on the way to dinner?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. You testified that you had an unpleasant exchange
20 with Mr. Wardman at dinner. Prior to that dinner
21 conversation, you had no other conversation with 22 Mr. Wardman, correct?

23 A. That is correct.

24 Q. And thus, the only time that you had any exchange
25 with Mr. Wardman was at this brief dinner

1 exchange, correct?

2 A. That is correct.

3 Q. What did you have for dinner?

4 A. I believe it was some kind of -- like a French
5 dip type of sandwich.

6 Q. How did it come to pass that you were sitting
7 next to Mr. Wardman?

8 A. I just -- I don't know, I just sat down.

9 Q. Just coincidence that you ended up sitting next
10 to Mr. Wardman?

11 A. I don't know why, I just sat down.

12 Q. So it was a coincidence?

13 A. Pretty much so.

14 Q. All right. How long were you at the dinner --
15 excuse me -- How long were you at dinner or 16 having dinner at Seven Angels?

17 A. About an hour or so, as I recall.

18 Q. Not a long dinner; is that correct?

19 A. That is correct.

20 Q. All right. What did Mr. Wardman have?

21 A. I don't recall.

22 Q. And from your questioning by counsel, I take it
23 that you only had one exchange with Mr. Wardman,
24 correct?

25 A. That's right.

1 Q. I'm sorry?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. So you had no other small talk, as it
4 were, with Mr. Wardman, whatsoever?

5 A. No.

6 Q. And so at some point, was this before dinner,
7 during dinner, or after dinner, that you had this
8 exchange with him?

9 A. It was during dinner.

10 Q. And so out of the blue, without having any 11 discussion beforehand, you turned to him and told
12 him you were frustrated about the deliberations
13 that afternoon?

14 A. That is correct.

15 Q. All right. And he said, well, if you can't 16 handle it, then you should just tell them that 17 you want to leave, correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. There was no other exchange between the two of 20 you, correct?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. I'm sorry?

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. Thank you. Did you find participating in the 25 trial itself, as a juror, to be stressful?

1 A. Yes, sir. I believe we all did.

2 Q. And it was stressful, why?

3 A. Because to me it was because of certain things
4 that were said during deliberations.

5 Q. Well, I'm not getting to deliberations. I'm 6 talking about the trial itself, listening to the 7 evidence for the five weeks before deliberations,
8 was that stressful?

9 A. No, sir, I didn't feel it was.

10 Q. Okay. So it would be fair to say that the first
11 time you felt stress was during the initial four 12 hours of deliberations; is that correct?

13 A. That is correct.

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: May I have a moment,
15 please.

16 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ You found the deliberations
17 stressful because you attribute a cavalier
18 comment to one of the jurors, Mr. Wardman,
19 correct?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. All right. What other stress, other than that 22 one comment, now I'm talking during
23 deliberations, caused you stress?

24 A. There was a couple of different jurors that made
25 statements, but his stood out the most to me.

1 Q. All right. So there was the one statement that
2 he made and a statement or two attributed to
3 other jurors, seemingly suggesting too cavalier
4 approach for your liking; is that it?

5 A. To me, it just seemed they were more willing to 6 look at the evidence.

7 Q. I'm sorry, they were what?

8 A. To me it seemed that they weren't willing to sit
9 down and look at the evidence.

10 Q. So, there was a comment from Mr. Wardman and a 11 comment from how many other jurors?

12 A. Two others.

13 Q. All right. So there were three jurors that you
14 didn't think were taking this seriously enough?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. All right. And that made you stressful?

17 A. As far as doing my civil duty, yes.

18 Q. All right. Were you upset about that?

19 A. Yes, I was.

20 Q. Were you distraught?

21 A. I was angry.

22 Q. You were angry?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. And who did you express your anger to?

25 A. I basically held.

1 Q. All right. So you didn't respond to Mr. Wardman
2 when he made his first comment during
3 deliberations?

4 A. I did not.

5 Q. You did not respond to the other two jurors
6 either, correct?

7 A. That is correct.

8 Q. All right. So you didn't impress upon them the 9 serious nature of the deliberations, correct?

10 A. I did mention too that during the deliberations,
11 that we're here to look at the evidence. I
12 didn't direct it to the three jurors, but I said
13 to everybody, that we should look at the
14 evidence.

15 Q. All right. All right. So there were those three 16 comments that were made by three different jurors
17 during the initial deliberations stage?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. All right. There were no other comments,
20 correct?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. The rest of the time was actually spent looking 23 at the evidence and talking about things, as 24 jurors do, correct?

25 A. The majority of us, yes.

1 Q. All right. So that night, you had no prior
2 conversation with Mr. Wardman, whatsoever, before
3 you leaned over to him during dinner and told him
4 you were frustrated by that afternoon's events?
5 A. No, I did not.
6 Q. And you had no further conversation with him,
7 after he made what you termed to be a sarcastic
8 comment about, then you should just leave?
9 A. No, I had no other comment -- or no other
10 conversations with him.
11 Q. All right. And you had no conversation with any 12 other juror about your frustrations, correct?
13 A. No, not during --
14 Q. Dinner?
15 A. -- dinner.
16 Q. Correct?
17 A. That's correct.
18 Q. All right. On the bus ride back to the hotel,
19 who did you ride with?
20 A. I don't recall. I don't know.
21 Q. Did you have -- You didn't have any conversation
22 with anyone on the bus regarding the day's
23 events, your frustrations, I mean, correct?
24 A. No, sir. We were bound to not talk about it.
25 Q. All right. You got back to the hotel or motel;

1 what time was it?

2 A. I believe it was like 6, 6:30, something like

3 that.

4 Q. What was the first thing you did?

5 A. We were escorted to our hotel rooms.

6 Q. You were escorted to your room?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. Who escorted you to your room?

9 A. The sheriff -- The state patrol.

10 Q. A state patrol officer?

11 A. Yes. They walked us up the steps.

12 Q. How many bailiffs were there?

13 A. I do recall there was one.

14 Q. All right. Do you recall the bailiff's name?

15 A. No, I don't.

16 Q. He had been a bailiff with this jury for quite 17 some time, had he not?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. All right. You do not recall his name at this

20 time?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. Did you have conversation with anyone else at 23 dinner, about family, about work, music?

24 A. No, not during the meal.

25 Q. Not during dinner?

1 A. No.

2 Q. On the bus ride back to the hotel?

3 A. No.

4 Q. When you got to the hotel, your first stop was 5 immediately to your room?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. How long were you in your room?

8 A. Three, four hours, as I recall.

9 Q. Three or four hours.

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. What did you do during the three or four hours?

12 A. I believe I went to sleep.

13 Q. So you had no conversation with anyone --

14 A. Not until --

15 Q. -- after returning to the motel?

16 A. Not until I found, you know, I found out there
17 was movies.

18 Q. What time was that?

19 A. That was probably around 9:30, 10:00.

20 Q. Well, if I were to tell you that court records
21 reflect that you had a conversation with Judge
22 Willis about your need to leave, about 9:00,
23 would that be incorrect?

24 A. I don't recall.

25 Q. You have no recollection of that?

1 A. I don't recall what time it was.

2 Q. All right. So, just so I'm clear, you went back
3 to your room and stayed in your room for a period
4 of time, you think you took -- you went to sleep?

5 A. As I recall, yes.

6 Q. So up to this point, you were frustrated?

7 A. Yes, I was.

8 Q. You were angry?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. You were distraught?

11 A. I -- Yes.

12 Q. All right. And all as a result of your exchange
13 at dinner with one other juror; is that correct?

14 A. That is correct.

15 Q. That exchange at dinner lasted 10 seconds?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And as a result of that exchange, you felt
18 threatened; is that correct?

19 A. That is correct.

20 Q. All right. You were -- Did you feel -- Well,
21 let's talk about that. Why did you feel
22 threatened?

23 A. It was by the way he said it and his comment at 24 the beginning of deliberations.

25 Q. All right. And why did you feel threatened by

1 that, his tone of voice?

2 A. His demeanor, the way he said it.

3 Q. Did you feel it was going to seriously jeopardize
4 your ability to be a juror?

5 A. I don't believe it did.

6 Q. You don't believe that it did, correct?

7 A. I felt -- No, that I didn't feel that it would.

8 Q. I'm sorry, you are going to have to be clearer,
9 Mr. Mahler.

10 A. I didn't feel it would affect my judgment as a
11 juror, no.

12 Q. All right. So, in other words, being a juror,
13 you were going to more or less stick to your guns
14 and review the evidence and then decide, after 15 you reviewed everything, as you thought the 16 evidence merited, correct?

17 A. That is my -- That was my intention.

18 Q. That was your intention. And even though you had 19 this unpleasant exchange with Mr. Wardman, that 20 was still your intention when you went to your 21 room that night, correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. All right. And it obviously wasn't that 24 threatening because you mentioned it to no one,
25 correct?

1 A. I'm not the kind that usually tells. You know, I
2 sometimes hold a lot of things in. I don't
3 express my anger.

4 Q. All right. But you didn't mention anything to 5 the bailiff, correct?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. And you didn't mention any of this concern or 8 threatening behavior to any of the troopers,
9 correct?

10 A. No, sir.

11 Q. And you didn't mention it to the sheriff's 12 deputies who were assisting in the security
13 detail, correct?

14 (Court reporter couldn't hear.)

15 A. No, sir.

16 Q. All right. Now, at some point you woke up and 17 you proceeded to this common room?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. And when you got to that room, who was present?

20 A. The bailiff and a bunch of other jurors.

21 Q. All right. And what was going on in the common
22 room when you arrived?

23 A. There were jurors watching television and I
24 noticed that other jurors were talking on the 25 cell phone with their spouses.

1 Q. All right. And the bailiff was there, correct?

2 A. That is correct.

3 Q. And what did you do?

4 A. After -- Well, when I noticed that other jurors
5 were calling their spouses, I asked if I could 6 call home.

7 Q. All right. And you asked the bailiff this,
8 correct?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. You asked if you could use his phone, right?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. And he agreed to allow you to call home, correct?

13 A. That's right.

14 Q. And he stood nearby as you called home, correct?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. All right. And you called home and spoke to your 17 wife?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. All right. And you have just told us that your 20 relations with your wife were just fine, correct?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. All right. You have a warm, loving relationship,
23 correct?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. All right. And you feel secure and safe in

1 telling her things that you may not tell other
2 individuals, correct?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. All right. And you have been married for how 5 many years, 15 years?

6 A. Thirteen.

7 Q. Thirteen years. All right. And often times you
8 have told her and expressed things to her that 9 you pretty much keep to yourself and don't tell
10 others, right?

11 A. Yeah, I try.

12 Q. And in this particular case, you were so upset
13 and so distraught, but you didn't mention
14 anything to your wife about the stress of the 15 deliberations, correct?

16 A. No, sir, because I was sworn not to say anything
17 to her about anything in deliberations.

18 Q. All right. Now, in your conversations with your 19 wife, she told you your stepdaughter had been in 20 an accident?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. All right. She was still upset about the report
23 that appeared in the press, during the initial 24 selection process, about you living on the 25 proceeds of a trust fund that she had, correct?

1 A. Didn't seem that's why she was upset that
2 evening.

3 Q. I'm coming to that. But at the time of the 4 deliberations, even after five or six weeks, that
5 was still a sore point with her, right?

6 A. I believe it was, yes.

7 Q. All right. Now, in the phone conversation that 8 night, March 15th, there was no discussion of 9 that press report, correct?

10 A. Not at all.

11 Q. All right. Did she tell you that your 12 stepdaughter's car was totaled?

13 A. No.

14 Q. She did not tell you that?

15 A. No, sir.

16 Q. All right. She was upset that your stepdaughter
17 was in an accident?

18 A. I didn't know why she was upset.

19 Q. But she told you that your stepdaughter was in an
20 accident?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. All right. And you assumed that she was upset
23 because of the accident?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. All right. You never asked if she was hurt,

1 right?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. And your wife never told you if your stepdaughter

4 was hurt, or did she?

5 A. No, she did not.

6 Q. She didn't tell you, right?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. All right. She also could have been upset

9 because you weren't there for family support,

10 because of the accident, correct?

11 A. I suppose that could be.

12 Q. That could be part of the --

13 A. Part of it, right.

14 Q. -- of the reason for her seeming upset to you?

15 A. I believe it could be, yes.

16 Q. All right. And how would you characterize her

17 demeanor on the phone?

18 A. She just seemed upset.

19 Q. Seemed upset. How did she seem upset to you?

20 A. Her tone of voice.

21 Q. All right. Was she crying?

22 A. I couldn't tell.

23 Q. Did she raise her voice?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Did she lower her voice too much?

1 A. I don't believe so, no.

2 Q. What was it about the tone of her voice that led
3 you to believe that she was upset?

4 A. It was the way she was talking to me, she just
5 seemed kind of like I'm talking to you now, you
6 know, kind of upset, nervous, whatever. I
7 couldn't -- It was the way she was talking.

8 Q. All right.

9 A. She wasn't talking like she usually talks to me.

10 Q. Did she tell you she wanted you to come home?

11 A. No, sir.

12 Q. She didn't tell you that?

13 A. No, sir.

14 Q. But you felt that you should go home?

15 A. I felt under the circumstances, yes.

16 Q. That you should go home?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Because you thought that there was a crisis at 19 home, that you should be there to help out?

20 A. I didn't know what was going on and I was worried
21 about what was happening, yes.

22 Q. How long did the conversation last between you
23 and your wife?

24 A. About five minutes.

25 Q. And that was in the common room?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. With the bailiff nearby?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. And he was there close enough to make sure that

5 there was no discussion regarding the status of

6 deliberations or the case, correct?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. So he could hear what you were saying?

9 A. Yes, I believe so.

10 Q. What did you say to the bailiff when you were

11 done speaking with your wife?

12 A. I just handed him the phone.

13 Q. You didn't say anything?

14 A. Not that I recall, no.

15 Q. You didn't say anything about the nature of your 16 conversation with your wife?

17 A. No, not that I --

18 Q. You didn't tell him that your wife seemed upset?

19 A. No.

20 Q. You didn't say anything that maybe you needed to 21 go home?

22 A. Not that I recall, no.

23 Q. All right. So after the conversation, you left

24 the common room and you went back to your room?

25 A. That is correct.

1 Q. Were you escorted back to your room, or did you
2 walk alone?

3 A. There were state patrolmen that escorted us or 4 were down the halls to ...

5 Q. So did they escort you, or were they just well
6 placed in the hallway to observe your movements?

7 A. They were -- I remember I was escorted to my
8 room.

9 Q. All right. And was your room nearby, or was it a
10 longer walk?

11 A. It was a longer walk.

12 Q. All right. You got to your room, the trooper
13 watched you walk into your room; is that correct?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. And you went into your room and you were there
16 alone?

17 A. That's right.

18 Q. All right. And you were in your room how long,
19 before you decided you needed to speak to 20 someone?

21 A. I don't recall how long I was there.

22 Q. What was your mood at that time?

23 A. I was upset, worried.

24 Q. You were worried about what was going on at home.

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. You didn't really know what was going on at home;
2 is that what you are telling us?

3 A. That's correct.

4 Q. All right. So there was this reference to a car
5 accident, but the reason for your concern was 6 more that you had no idea what was going on; is
7 that correct?

8 A. The uncertainty, yes.

9 Q. The uncertainty of the situation made you upset?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. And it caused stress?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And you were distraught?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. And primarily, as a result of the tone of voice
16 that your wife was talking to you about?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. All right. What did you talk about in that
19 conversation?

20 A. We talked about how things were going, you know,
21 how I was doing, how I was feeling.

22 Q. All right. How you were doing, how you were 23 feeling. And you told her you were doing, okay?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. So far so good, as it were; is that right?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. You didn't complain to her that you were feeling
3 down, correct?

4 A. I don't know.

5 Q. You didn't tell her you certainly weren't feeling
6 threatened, right?

7 A. I don't remember saying anything like that.

8 Q. Basically, you tried to put her at ease and tell
9 her everything was all right with you, correct?

10 A. Yes, sir, without going into details of 11 deliberations or anything.

12 Q. Right. But generally, your mood, you said you
13 talked about how each of you were feeling and you
14 told her you were fine, right?

15 A. (Witness nods.)

16 Q. Is that a yes?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. Thank you. All right. After some period of time
19 in your room, you decided that you need to speak
20 to someone. How much time would you say elapsed
21 before you, after mulling these things over, you
22 stepped into the hallway, right?

23 A. Yes. I don't remember.

24 Q. All right. And who did you speak to in the 25 hallway?

1 A. State patrol officer.

2 Q. All right. And you didn't tell him anything
3 other than what?

4 A. That I needed to talk to a bailiff.

5 Q. All right. And he said he would get the bailiff?

6 A. Yes, sir, as I recall.

7 Q. All right. So he told you to remain in your 8 room, correct?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. All right. So you went to your room -- back in 11 your room?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. All right. And he went and got the bailiff?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. All right. Now, if I told you that bailiff's
16 name was Oscar, would that ring a bell?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. That was the bailiff, right?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. All right. So Oscar came to your door, right?

21 A. As I recall, yes.

22 Q. All right. Did he come into your room?

23 A. I believe he did.

24 Q. All right. All right. What did you tell Oscar?

25 A. That there was a family emergency and I felt I

1 had to go home.

2 Q. Did you give him any details on the family
3 emergency?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Did you tell him your stepdaughter was in an
6 accident?

7 A. Not that I recall.

8 Q. Did you tell him your wife was upset?

9 A. Not that I remember.

10 Q. You didn't tell him it was the uncertainty of the 11 situation which led you to believe you should go
12 home?

13 A. Not that I recall, no.

14 Q. All right. So Oscar told you that he would get 15 the sheriff, right?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. All right. It's your testimony that you talked
18 to Sheriff Pagel first, correct?

19 A. After I talked to the bailiff --

20 Q. Right.

21 A. -- I believe, yes.

22 Q. The first person you talked to after Oscar was 23 Sheriff Pagel?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. You told Sheriff Pagel that your stepdaughter was

1 in an accident?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. You told him that the vehicle was totaled?

4 A. I don't recall that.

5 Q. You told him that your wife was very upset about
6 the accident?

7 A. I don't recall.

8 Q. You don't recall saying that?

9 A. No, I was pretty upset at the time.

10 Q. You were upset at the time?

11 A. I was upset with --

12 Q. And you were upset at the time because you
13 couldn't figure out why your wife was upset?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. You also told him that your wife was still upset
16 because of the media reports regarding this trust
17 fund issue, correct?

18 A. I don't recall that.

19 Q. You don't recall telling him that?

20 A. No, sir.

21 Q. Could you have told him that?

22 A. I might have.

23 Q. All right. Could you have told him that your 24 wife was upset about the accident; could you have 25 told him that?

1 A. It's probable, possible.

2 Q. It's probable, possible. All right. You told
3 him that your wife was upset by the amount of 4 time that you were away from the home because of 5 the length of this trial, right?

6 A. I don't recall.

7 Q. You don't recall. You could have told him that?

8 A. I don't recall.

9 Q. You don't recall. You would characterize your 10 demeanor in your conversation with Mr. Pagel as 11 being upset?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Distraught?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. All right. Really concerned about what was going 16 on at home?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. All right. You certainly suggested or implied
19 that you had some marital difficulties with your 20 wife, with Mr. Pagel, correct?

21 A. I don't recall saying anything like that.

22 Q. You didn't imply or impress upon him that it was 23 vital for your marriage that you be excused and 24 go home and attend to those family issues?

25 A. I don't recall.

1 Q. You don't recall?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Specifically, and exactly, what did you tell
4 Sheriff Pagel when he came to your room?

5 A. As I recall, that I told him there was a family
6 emergency that I had to attend to at home.

7 Q. That was it?

8 A. That's what I recall telling him.

9 Q. That's what you recall.

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. All right. And he said he would contact the 12 judge?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. All right. He left your presence?

15 A. I believe he did.

16 Q. All right. And he contacted someone, or did
17 something, he was gone?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. For a few minutes?

20 A. Mm-hmm.

21 Q. He returned?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. All right. And when he returned, he had a cell
24 phone?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. And at that particular point, he dialed the cell
2 phone and you believed him to be contacting Judge
3 Willis?

4 A. That's correct.

5 Q. All right. And he and Judge Willis had a brief
6 conversation?

7 A. I believe so, yes.

8 Q. How long?

9 A. I don't recall.

10 Q. Seconds?

11 A. He just put me on the phone.

12 Q. He put you on the phone right away?

13 A. Pretty much so, yes.

14 Q. All right. So you didn't overhear any 15 conversation, at that particular point, between 16 Sheriff Pagel and Judge Willis?

17 A. I don't recall much of a conversation.

18 Q. You recall no conversation?

19 A. Much of a conversation, right.

20 Q. And your impression was it was very brief and he 21 then handed you the phone so that you could speak
22 to the judge?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. All right. And at that particular point, you
25 spoke to the judge?

1 A. That's correct.

2 Q. All right. At that particular point, when you
3 spoke to the judge, you were upset?

4 A. Yes, sir.

5 Q. You were distraught?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. You were concerned about what was going on at
8 home?

9 A. That's correct.

10 Q. In fact, you were concerned primarily because you
11 had no idea what was going on at home?

12 A. That's correct.

13 Q. All right. You told the judge that your 14 daughter, your stepdaughter, was in an accident?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. You told him that the vehicle had been totaled?

17 A. I don't recall.

18 Q. You told the judge that your wife was very upset
19 about the accident?

20 A. I believe that's what I told him, yes.

21 Q. All right. You also told him that your wife was 22 upset about the amount of time that you were 23 spending away from home because of the 24 requirements of this trial?

25 A. I don't recall that.

1 Q. You don't have any recollection of that?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. All right. You could have told the judge that?

4 A. I don't recall if I did or not.

5 Q. You told the judge that the family and friends
6 and your wife were still somewhat embarrassed by 7 those news reports about the trust fund issue,
8 right?

9 A. I don't recall saying that.

10 Q. You don't have any recollection of saying that to 11 the judge?

12 A. No, sir.

13 Q. You told the judge you were having marital 14 difficulties, correct?

15 A. I don't recall saying that to him.

16 Q. You have no recollection of that?

17 A. No, sir.

18 Q. You impressed upon the judge that it was vital
19 that you go home to preserve your marriage,
20 because you were concerned about that, correct?

21 A. I don't recall saying that.

22 Q. When you were speaking with the judge, you spoke 23 very quietly, right? That's your demeanor?

24 A. I believe I sounded upset.

25 Q. All right. And your tone of voice, you spoke

1 quietly?

2 A. I don't -- I believe I was talking, you know,

3 like I am right now.

4 Q. Slowly?

5 A. That's correct, like I was upset --

6 Q. Somewhat --

7 A. -- and nervous.

8 Q. I'm sorry, go ahead.

9 A. Well, I was talking like I am, basically, now.

10 Q. Somewhat monotone?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. You told the judge that the trial was putting a

13 strain on your marriage, didn't you?

14 A. I don't recall that.

15 Q. You have no recollection of that?

16 A. No, sir, none at all.

17 Q. What impression were you trying to create with 18 the judge, in this conversation with him?

19 A. I was upset.

20 Q. All right. What other impression? What did you

21 want the judge to conclude, after his discussion

22 with you?

23 A. That I should be let go.

24 Q. That you should be allowed to return home,

25 correct?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. So your conversation with him was designed to 3 accomplish that objective, right?

4 A. Under the circumstances, yes.

5 Q. All right. You certainly left the judge with the 6 impression that your marriage might very well be 7 at stake because --

8 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Objection, that would
9 be beyond the scope of his knowledge.

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: I will rephrase.

11 THE COURT: Go ahead.

12 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ It was your intent to 13 create the impression that your marriage was at 14 stake?

15 A. I don't believe so.

16 Q. Your conversation with the judge lasted less than 17 five minutes, right?

18 A. About two, three minutes, yeah.

19 Q. And Sheriff Pagel was present the entire time of 20 that conversation, correct?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. And he was just a few feet away from you during 23 the course of that conversation, right?

24 A. Yes, sir.

25 Q. All right. At the end of the conversation, the

1 judge told you you could be excused?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. All right. And he told you that he would not
4 publicly disclose the reasonings, on the record,
5 correct?

6 A. As I believe, yes, that's what he said.

7 Q. All right. And you thanked him for that,
8 correct?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. You were concerned about your family privacy in 11 those issues, at the time, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. All right. Mr. Mahler, in your conversation with 14 Sheriff Pagel, before the call with Judge Willis,
15 you never mentioned anything about your concerns
16 of being verbally threatened by another juror,
17 correct?

18 A. No, sir.

19 Q. You never mentioned anything to the bailiff,
20 Oscar, that this was a concern, correct?

21 A. No, sir.

22 Q. All right. And the bailiff was the one who was 23 actually in charge of the juror's well-being,
24 correct?

25 A. Yeah, I believe so.

1 Q. That was his job, as far as you could tell?

2 A. Mm-hmm. Yes, sir.

3 Q. And you never mentioned anything about your 4 concerns with the jury or, more particularly,
5 this incident at the restaurant, correct?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. All right. And in your conversation with Judge
8 Willis, you did not tell him about that?

9 A. No, I was pretty much concerned about what was 10 happening at home.

11 Q. All right. And the real reason you wanted to go
12 home was what was occurring at home, or what you
13 didn't know, but certainly was concerning to you,
14 at home?

15 A. Yes, that was.

16 Q. That was the reason you wanted to go?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. So if -- In an effort to get home, you told the 19 judge that you were having marital problems,
20 didn't you?

21 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Objection, asked
22 several times and answered.

23 THE COURT: Sustained.

24 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ Mr. Mahler, the 25 preservation of your marriage was more important

1 than your duty as a juror, correct?

2 A. I don't believe, no.

3 Q. You don't believe so?

4 A. It had nothing to do with my marriage.

5 Q. I'm sorry?

6 A. It had nothing to do with my marriage.

7 Q. But you told the judge that it did?

8 A. I don't recall --

9 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Objection.

10 A. -- saying that.

11 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Covering the same
12 ground.

13 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the
14 objection.

15 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ All right. Did you intend
16 to deceive the judge?

17 A. I don't recall saying --

18 Q. You don't recall saying any of those things I
19 asked you about, is that correct?

20 A. About my marriage being in trouble, no. And my 21 intention wasn't to deceive the judge.

22 Q. Your intention was to get home?

23 A. Under the circumstances, yes, right.

24 Q. And those circumstances were the problems at
25 home?

1 A. The uncertainty of what the accident, or
2 whatever, what I thought was an accident.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: Pass the witness.

4 THE COURT: Any redirect?

5 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Yes, please.

6 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

7 BY ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN:

8 Q. Mr. Mahler, you made reference that you had 9 entered into deliberations with the plan of how 10 you wanted to proceed; is that right?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. And what was your thought about what you wanted
13 to do in deliberations?

14 A. My object was --

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, beyond the 16 scope of cross.

17 THE COURT: Counsel.

18 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: There had been
19 testimony, at some length, elicited on cross, as to 20 his reaction and things that were actually said
21 during deliberations. And that's what I am leading 22 to, following up on that.

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: The question is his state
24 of mind and what occurred that evening, not what he 25 was planning to do the next day.

1 THE COURT: As the question is phrased, I'm
2 going to sustain the objection.

3 Q. (By Attorney Hagopian)~ You testified about some 4 comments that were made by the jurors in this
5 first day of deliberations; do you recall that
6 testimony?

7 A. Yes, ma'am.

8 Q. And how did those comments leave you feeling?

9 A. I felt hopeless. I felt angry. I was angry and 10 I felt hopeless.

11 Q. And one of the jurors who made the comment, as 12 you described, quite immediately, that he is 13 guilty, that's one of the comments you are 14 referring to that left you feeling frustrated?

15 A. Yes. There were similar comments from two other
16 jurors.

17 Q. So then, at dinner, when you were seated next to 18 Mr. Wardman, and you made the comment that you
19 were feeling frustrated; in your own mind, what 20 were you referring to?

21 A. I was referring to his comment, without directly
22 pointing the finger at him.

23 Q. And it was after you made the comment, in your 24 own mind referring to his behavior during 25 deliberations, that he then responded to you,

1 correct?

2 A. That's correct.

3 Q. And your testimony was that his -- his -- his 4 comment was that you should try to get off the 5 jury?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And how did you take that comment?

8 A. As a verbal threat.

9 Q. And I would like you to explain what you mean by 10 a verbal threat. In your own mind, at that time,
11 what did you think he was trying to tell you?

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, asked and 13 answered.

14 THE COURT: Sustained.

15 Q. (By Attorney Hagopian)~ You have testified, that 16 when you spoke with the judge, that you were 17 feeling frustrated and you were upset. Part of 18 that frustration was your family situation?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Was there some other thoughts in your mind at 21 that time that were troubling you?

22 A. It was a mixture of what was said during 23 deliberations, at lunch, and then all of a sudden
24 the family emergency hit.

25 Q. And when you refer to the deliberations, what

1 specifically are you referring to?

2 A. To the comment that Carl and two other jurors had
3 made.

4 Q. And are you also, then, referring to the comment
5 that was made by Mr. Wardman at dinner?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. So when you spoke to the judge, you did want off
8 the jury; is that right?

9 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, leading.

10 Q. (By Attorney Hagopian)~ When you spoke to the 11 judge, what were you hoping to accomplish?

12 A. To go home and find out what was really going on.

13 Q. Had you been instructed by the Court about what 14 you could and couldn't talk about, in terms of 15 the deliberations?

16 A. Pretty much anything about the trial, we weren't 17 allowed to talk to anybody about.

18 Q. And was it your understanding that you should not 19 be talking to other people about what was going 20 on in deliberations?

21 A. That is correct.

22 Q. Did you think it would, in any way, be improper
23 for you to talk with your wife about what
24 happened in deliberations that day?

25 A. Yes, it would have been improper.

1 Q. Would it have -- Also, in your own mind, would
2 you have thought maybe it wasn't proper to talk
3 about that with the bailiff?

4 A. I felt it was improper to talk about it with 5 anybody.

6 Q. When you spoke with your wife that evening, and
7 there was mention of an accident, did your wife
8 provide you with any details about this accident?

9 A. Not at all.

10 Q. Did you ask her specific questions about the
11 accident?

12 A. No, I didn't ask her.

13 Q. So there's mention of an accident and then what 14 happens in the conversation?

15 A. I just said, well, I got to get going, I will 16 talk to you later.

17 Q. You were questioned some about this press report
18 about a trust fund that I would like to ask if 19 you remember a day, I'm referring to March 12th
20 of 2007, that would have been a few days before
21 the case went to the jury. Do you remember being 22 brought in and questioned by the judge, each
23 juror, one by one?

24 A. Yes, ma'am.

25 Q. You specifically remember that day and you

1 remember, were you in the courtroom or somewhere
2 else?

3 A. We were in a back room.

4 Q. And do you recall at that time some reference
5 being made to that press report?

6 A. I don't recall.

7 Q. Would it refresh your recollection to take a look
8 at the transcript of that? I have here --

9 THE COURT: Just a minute. Do you
10 understand the question?

11 THE WITNESS: Yes, ma'am. Yes, sir.

12 THE COURT: What is your answer, to whether 13 or not looking at the transcript would refresh your 14 recollection?

15 THE WITNESS: Yes, it would help.

16 THE COURT: Go ahead.

17 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm going to object as to 18 the relevance of the transcript during the jury
19 selection process as it pertains to his state of 20 mind on the night the decision to excuse him.

21 THE COURT: It's my understanding we're not 22 talking about the jury selection process here, but 23 rather a questioning of the jury that occurred a few 24 days before these events. I don't actually know the 25 substance of what's being referred to. Why don't

1 you show Mr. Fallon the transcript.

2 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Certainly.

3 (Off record discussion.)

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's fine, Judge, I
5 will withdraw the objection.

6 THE COURT: Very well.

7 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: May I approach the
8 witness?

9 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

10 Q. (By Attorney Hagopian)~ Mr. Mahler, I'm showing
11 you a transcript dated March 12, 2007. I'm on 12 page 32. I'm actually going to ask you to start
13 reading at line 24. It refers to officer as 14 being the speaker, however, I believe Mr. Fallon
15 will agree that that must be a typographical
16 error and that was actually you speaking.

17 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Is that correct,
18 Mr. Fallon?

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: That would be my
20 understanding of the general context of the 21 discussion, it appears to be a misnomer.

22 Q. (By Attorney Hagopian)~ I would ask you then to 23 start reading on line 24, continue on to the next
24 page and read through line 16?

25 THE COURT: And you are asking him to read

1 it to himself?

2 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Yes, please.

3 A. Okay.

4 Q. (By Attorney Hagopian)~ Okay. Have you completed
5 reading that?

6 A. Yes, ma'am.

7 Q. I will take that back then. And I'm going to ask
8 you, then, in that questioning by the Court, did
9 you raise with the Court the incident where there
10 had been a press report that had caused some 11 upset for your wife?

12 A. Yes, ma'am.

13 Q. And were you asked whether that would affect you
14 now, at this point in the trial, shortly before
15 deliberations were to begin?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And did you feel at that point that this was 18 going to affect your ability the serve as a
19 juror?

20 A. Not at all.

21 Q. And as far as you can recall, Mr. Mahler, in 22 your -- whatever you told Sheriff Pagel when he
23 came into your motel room, you do not recall
24 mentioning your wife's upset about this press
25 report?

1 A. No, ma'am.

2 Q. And to the best of your recollection, you do not
3 recall mentioning that in your conversation with 4 the judge?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Is it fair -- If the judge, when you spoke with 7 him by phone that evening, had asked you for 8 details about the accident, would you have been 9 able to provide them?

10 A. No, ma'am.

11 Q. And when you refer to your upset about your 12 family situation, did you feel -- what was your 13 feelings in terms of what you have described as 14 the uncertainties?

15 A. I just wasn't sure what was happening at home.
16 And I was upset, like anyone would probably be,
17 with uncertainty of the situation.

18 Q. And your lack of knowledge about the accident,
19 about what was going on at home, these would be 20 matters that could be clarified with some further
21 follow up with your family?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. But that never happened, right?

24 A. No, ma'am.

25 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: That's all I have.

THE COURT: Mr. Fallon, anything?

ATTORNEY FALLON: Nothing.

THE COURT: Very well. You are excused.
We'll take our morning break at this time and resume
at 5 minutes to 11.

(Recess taken.)

ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, before we proceed, I think counsel and I would like to introduce Exhibit No. 1, which is the Court's memorandum on the issue we just talked about.

THE COURT: The Clerk will mark it. It is marked. Very well.

ATTORNEY FALLON: Very well. Thank you.

THE COURT: And is it stipulated that it's being admitted, or you are simply marking it?

ATTORNEY FALLON: I believe admitted.

ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Admitted. Although could I just look at the second page of that, just to make sure?

ATTORNEY FALLON: It's got the addendum.

ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: It does. Okay.

ATTORNEY FALLON: Yup.

THE COURT: Very well, Exhibit 1 is admitted. Attorney Hagopian, you may call your next

1 witness.

2 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: We call Dean Strang.

3 ATTORNEY DEAN A. STRANG, called as a
4 witness herein, having been first duly sworn, was
5 examined and testified as follows:

6 THE CLERK: Please be seated. Please state
7 your name and spell your last name for the record.

8 THE WITNESS: Dean A. Strang, S-t-r-a-n-g.

9 DIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN:

11 Q. Is it correct, Mr. Strang, that you and Attorney
12 Jerry Bruting (sic) were trial counsel for
13 Mr. Avery in this case?

14 A. Not initially, but eventually, yes.

15 Q. And you were -- you or your law firm was retained
16 by Mr. Avery?

17 A. Initially, I and my law firm were retained, and 18 then Jerry Buting was retained after that.

19 Q. And you were the first attorney to represent
20 Mr. Avery in this case, were you?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Is it correct that his first attorneys were 23 appointed by the Public Defender's Office?

24 A. That's my understanding.

25 Q. And the defendant must be found indigent in order

1 to qualify for public defender appointment; isn't
2 that right?

3 A. At least past an initial appearance, that's my
4 understanding.

5 Q. How was Mr. Avery able to afford to retain you?

6 A. He settled the civil action he had pending under 7 42 U.S.C. 1983 and all -- or substantially all of 8 those proceeds went to retaining counsel.

9 Q. And that lawsuit, the civil action, was related
10 to his wrongful conviction; is that right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. When you agreed to represent Mr. Avery, did you
13 or your law firm enter into a written retainer
14 agreement with Mr. Avery?

15 A. The firm did, yes.

16 Q. Did that agreement require Mr. Avery to pay a
17 specific fee to retain your law firm?

18 A. Yes. And my recollection is that it was to be a
19 flat fee. So, yes, he had to pay a specific fee
20 to retain us and that was all we were going to 21 get.

22 Q. The record shows that you were retained in about
23 February of 2006 and the trial began a year
24 later, February of 2007. When the trial began,
25 how much of the fee had been expended for

1 Mr. Avery's representation?

2 A. I cannot be certain of that, but if forced to
3 guess, I would say all of it, and then some,
4 before trial began.

5 Q. To your knowledge at that time, did Mr. Avery
6 have additional funds to put towards his legal 7 representation?

8 A. No, nothing significant. There may have been an
9 old car somewhere, or snowmobile, but nothing
10 that was worth the trouble to try to ask him to 11 sell or give to us.

12 Q. Did the retainer agreement specify at what point
13 your representation of Mr. Avery would end?

14 A. Going by memory here, I think we agreed to 15 represent him through a first trial and 16 sentencing, if necessary, but not on a retrial or 17 any post-conviction or appeal proceedings.
18 That's memory, but that's my recollection.

19 Q. So if a mistrial had been declared under the 20 terms of the retainer agreement, would you or 21 your law firm have been obligated to represent
22 Mr. Avery at a second trial?

23 A. As I recall the agreement, no.

24 Q. I'm now going to direct your attention toward the 25 end of trial; and specifically, I'm referring to

1 March 15 of 2007, that was the day when closing
2 arguments were completed and the jury began
3 deliberations. Do you have a recollection of 4 that day?

5 A. Sure, in a general sense.

6 Q. That evening of March 15th, were you informed at 7 some point that the jury had stopped deliberating
8 for the day?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. How did you learn that?

11 A. I think by -- you know, I'm sure by a phone call.
12 And whether that came into my cell phone or to --
13 I think I had a working telephone in the 14 apartment that I was renting, but in any event it
15 would have been a telephone call.

16 Q. And do you recall approximately what time that 17 was?

18 A. No, is the short answer to that. It was either 19 getting toward or well into maybe time for 20 dinner.

21 Q. When you received the news that the jury had 22 stopped for the day, was it your understanding
23 that the jury would resume deliberations the next 24 day?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. After having been told that the jury was done for
2 the night, what did you do?

3 A. I know approximately, I may be compressing time
4 here because I just don't remember exactly when I
5 was told we could stand down for the evening, but
6 at least at some point after that what I remember
7 doing is collecting Mr. Buting and suggesting
8 that we go have dinner and a beer.

9 Q. Now, you had been in trial for, what, about six
10 weeks at that point?

11 A. I think at least or, you know, something right
12 around there, yeah.

13 Q. How were you feeling that evening?

14 A. Exhausted. I mean, if I'm recalling this
15 correctly, I had given my portion of the defense
16 closing argument the same day as Mr. Kratz's
17 rebuttal and the judge's instructions. And 18 that's the day we're talking about, I think,
19 right?

20 Q. You had completed your arguments, correct.

21 A. Okay. So I was having the sort of let down you
22 have after a closing argument.

23 Q. Did you have a drink with dinner that night?

24 A. I remember we went out for Mexican food. It was 25 in a strip mall somewhere not far from the

1 southeast corner of the city of Appleton, where
2 Jerry and I both were staying.

3 Couldn't possibly tell you the
4 restaurant or exactly where it was, but it was a
5 Mexican restaurant in a strip mall. And when I
6 have Mexican food I have a negra modelo beer.
7 And at no other time do I drink negra modelo
8 beer, so, yes, I had a negra modelo beer very 9 shortly after getting to the restaurant and 10 getting somebody's attention.

11 Q. Okay. And do you recall, were you feeling the 12 effects of the alcohol while you were at the 13 restaurant?

14 A. Yes, I was. I think I only had one beer. I'm 15 sure I would have been legal to drive --

16 Q. Mm-hmm.

17 A. -- but I could feel the beer.

18 Q. At some point that evening did you receive a
19 telephone call from Judge Willis?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Did this occur while you were still at the 22 restaurant?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Do you have any recollection as to the time?

25 A. In my head, it was about 8:30. That could be --

1 that could be off one way or the other, but
2 that's -- that's my recollection. And I think
3 the phone call came into my cell phone, as
4 opposed to Jerry's. That's my recollection.

5 Q. So the phone call comes on your cell phone; I
6 assume you were the one who answered it?

7 A. That's how I recall it.

8 Q. And did you speak directly with Judge Willis?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. To your knowledge, was there anyone else on the 11 line, aside from you and Judge Willis?

12 A. I can't believe the phone call would have 13 happened without someone from the prosecution
14 either already on the line or being added
15 immediately. But, honestly, the only one I
16 remember speaking was Judge Willis. And, you
17 know, I remember I spoke a little bit. But -- 18 so, no, I can't tell you for sure that someone
19 from the prosecution team was on there, but I
20 would be quite surprised if one or more of the 21 prosecutors were not.

22 Q. But at least as you are sitting here today, you
23 don't have any recollection of having heard, for 24 example, District Attorney Kratz say anything
25 during the conversation?

1 A. I really don't. It doesn't mean he wasn't on the
2 phone, I just don't remember anyone other than
3 the judge speaking and, you know, my reacting.

4 Q. So you are on the phone, Judge Willis is on the 5 phone, that much you recall?

6 A. That's what I recall.

7 Q. Was Attorney Buting on during this call at all?

8 A. I don't think so, because if -- I think it came 9 into my cell phone, and if that cell phone had a
10 speaker phone feature, I surely never figured out
11 how to use it or had any interest in using it.
12 And so, you know, I think that what was -- I know
13 Jerry was there and I remember him being there,
14 but I think that I was probably relaying tidbits
15 to him.

16 Q. What did Judge Willis tell you in that phone
17 conversation?

18 A. Well, approximately, as I recall --

19 Q. Yeah.

20 A. -- what he said is that he had been notified
21 maybe by the sheriff's department, I don't know
22 that I was given a name, but by the sheriff's 23 department, that a situation had arisen with a
24 juror. And my recollection is that it was 25 presented to me as being urgent and serious. And

1 I'm distinguishing, I mean, that it was a serious
2 situation, something important, but that it was
3 also emergent or urgent.

4 Q. I'm sorry, could you -- I didn't quite understand
5 the last.

6 A. It was not just serious, it was something urgent,
7 something that needed to be tended to
8 immediately, was the impression I got during that
9 conversation.

10 Q. In that conversation, do you recall, did the 11 judge tell you which juror was seeking to be 12 excused?

13 A. I'm sure he did. I don't recall that, but I know
14 which juror we were talking about. I can't 15 attribute it to that first conversation with 16 100 percent certainty, but he probably told me.

17 Q. And which juror are we talking about, in your 18 mind?

19 A. Mr. Mahler.

20 Q. Yes. Okay. And in that phone conversation,
21 again, this is at the restaurant, with Judge
22 Willis, was there any discussion about how to 23 handle the situation?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. What was proposed?

1 A. I don't remember what was proposed. What I think
2 I remember is what was agreed upon, or settled,
3 which is that the judge would make his own
4 inquiry of the juror. And if the facts presented
5 to him, or suggested to him by someone in the 6 sheriff's department, were born out by the 7 judge's inquiry, that the juror would be excused,
8 would be relieved of further duty on the case.

9 Q. Your recollection is that that was something that 10 was agreed upon in the conversation?

11 A. Agreed, acquiesced to, yes. I mean, I didn't --
12 I don't recall my squawking about that or 13 objecting.

14 Q. Do you recall if you were the one who had 15 proposed that?

16 A. No, I don't, but maybe I did. I mean, I -- It's,
17 you know, I just have an impressionistic
18 recollection that the judge was sort of driving
19 the suggestion, or the resolution.

20 Q. So that in that phone conversation, did you agree
21 that the judge should speak with the juror?

22 A. Yes, or I mean, agreed or didn't object to that 23 course. My own recollection is that that was the 24 best -- that was the best that was going to 25 happen at that point.

1 Q. And when you agreed, or acquiesced, was it your
2 understanding that the judge would be speaking
3 with the juror, without either you or Mr. Buting
4 present?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Was it your understanding that Mr. Avery would 7 also not be present?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And as part of that, again, that conversation,
10 did you agree or acquiesce that the judge should 11 also remove the juror?

12 A. Yes, if -- if the facts were as they had been 13 presented to the judge, you know, were as 14 represented by the sheriff's department or 15 something very close to that, yes. And I really 16 don't mean to be splitting hairs on agreeing or 17 acquiescing. This was -- I don't remember who 18 proposed.

19 Q. Mm-hmm.

20 A. I don't remember the full discussion, but I think 21 by the end there was a consensus that this was 22 the course of action the judge would take.

23 Q. And at that time, when that decision was made,
24 did you have a recollection of who this juror
25 was, which juror was Richard Mahler?

1 A. Oh, sure.

2 Q. Okay. What did you think of him?

3 A. Focus me a little bit on that.

4 Q. Well, during the course of trial, were you paying
5 some attention to the jurors, as the trial went 6 on?

7 A. Not that much. It's one of my shortcomings, as a
8 trial lawyer, to be honest. But I was aware of 9 who he was.

10 In voir dire, I had this sense that he
11 would not be a follower necessarily, that this
12 was someone who, you know, wasn't a standard
13 government issue human being. He was -- had 14 maybe his own drummer, so to speak. I'm not 15 trying to make a joke about being a musician, but 16 he was someone who was likely to come to his own
17 views of the case, I thought, and I didn't have 18 any sense where he would end up.

19 Was he more likely a prosecution juror
20 or defense juror, that I had no sense. But I had 21 the sense that he would probably prove to be a
22 relatively strong juror.

23 Q. And that the characteristics that you had 24 ascertained from the individual voir dire, that 25 he would be able to come at his own decision,

1 would that be something you would view as
2 favorable, favorable quality in a juror?

3 A. Not necessarily. You know, this isn't something
4 I ascertained, it's something I guessed,
5 surmised, intuited, from the sort of unhelpful
6 process that is voir dire.

7 Q. That night, when the situation arose, did you
8 have a strategic reason for trying to get Richard
9 Mahler off the jury.

10 A. No. No, I mean not -- No, I didn't want this man
11 off the juror -- off the jury, on his merits. I
12 certainly did have a concern that if he was 13 distracted by a family tragedy, or something that 14 was weighing heavily on him, that he might be
15 someone who would be inclined not to deliberate
16 fully or with a, you know, an exclusive focus on 17 the case. But that wasn't a concern I had before
18 the phone call. I wasn't out to get rid of this
19 juror.

20 Q. In the conversation with Judge Willis that 21 evening, was there any discussion of the 22 Wisconsin Supreme Court's decision in State vs.
23 Lehman?

24 A. In the phone call while we were --

25 Q. In the phone call at the restaurant.

1 A. -- at the Mexican restaurant. Not that I recall,
2 no.

3 Q. Were you familiar with that decision as you spoke
4 with Judge Willis?

5 A. No, and that's why I think it didn't come up. I
6 remember not knowing exactly what our options
7 were at that point, if the juror got excused.

8 Q. Did you become aware, familiar with that decision
9 at some point after that conversation?

10 A. Later on, yes, later on that evening. I'm quite 11 certain there was not a second beer. I think 12 dinner was either gulped down or cut short. And 13 I went back and got on Westlaw, at some point
14 earlier than I would have preferred to.

15 Q. When you agreed to have the Court speak with the 16 juror and remove him if the information was 17 confirmed, did you consider whether Mr. Avery and 18 his attorneys had a right to be present during 19 that inquiry?

20 A. I knew we did. He had a right, personally, to be 21 present if the Court was speaking to a juror and 22 he certainly also had what I see as an 23 independent right to have counsel present during 24 such conversation with a juror.

25 Q. Did you consult with Mr. Avery about whether he

1 wanted to be present during the Court's inquiry
2 with the juror?

3 A. No, I couldn't, he was in the Calumet County
4 Jail.

5 Q. So you were also not able to consult with him
6 about whether he wanted this particular juror
7 taken off the jury?

8 A. No.

9 Q. In your mind at that time, again you are still at 10 the restaurant, in this conversation, what did
11 you think would happen if you had objected to the 12 procedure that was discussed, the Court talking
13 to the juror and excusing him? What if you had 14 objected to that and told the Court that 15 Mr. Avery and his attorneys had a right to be 16 present?

17 A. What would have happened is necessarily 18 speculative. But I -- right or wrong, I had the 19 impression that this was serious enough and 20 urgent enough that some contact between the judge
21 and the juror just was very likely to happen that 22 night, at best, or that the juror would be let go
23 on the say so of the sheriff's department.

24 I can't say the judge said that, I'm
25 just -- that was the sense I had, was that sort

1 of the best safeguard we were going to get was to
2 have the judge talk to the juror. I don't recall
3 any conversation about reconvening that night in 4 court. Maybe we had it, I just don't recall any
5 conversation like that, or even I don't recall
6 talking about doing this in the morning.

7 It was -- I felt like at the time -- I
8 mean, bluntly, my sense at the time was this was 9 not a time for temporizing or worrying too much
10 about legal niceties. That was just my sense.

11 Q. Well, when you agreed to the juror's removal, did
12 you have any information about an accident?

13 A. Yes, I think what we were told, and judge was 14 attributing this to the sheriff's department, was 15 that maybe a stepdaughter of the juror had been 16 in a car accident; that neither she nor anyone
17 else had been killed, as far as anyone knew; but 18 whether she was injured or in the hospital, or 19 whether others were injured or in the hospital,
20 seemed unknown at that point; and that in a
21 related way the juror's wife had about had it
22 with his absence, or his service on the jury; and 23 that this car accident was sort of a last straw
24 and she was threatening to walk out of the 25 marriage. That was, as I recall, what was

1 presented, secondhand, by the judge, to us.

2 Q. Mm-hmm. Did you have any information that, for
3 example, the stepdaughter was hospitalized?

4 A. No, my recollection is that we were told that was
5 unknown, that no one had died, but I don't think
6 we knew whether anyone was in the hospital or
7 not.

8 Q. And you refer to this information as having come
9 from the sheriff's department; is that correct,
10 as far as you knew?

11 A. I think that's what the judge said.

12 Q. Was there any, to your recollection, any specific 13 mention that the information came from Sheriff
14 Pagel?

15 A. I don't remember that now. Is it possible, yes,
16 but I don't remember it being attributed to any
17 particular employee of the sheriff's department.

18 Q. When you agreed that the judge could speak with 19 the juror and remove him if information was 20 confirmed, were you aware that Sheriff Pagel had 21 spoken with Mr. Mahler?

22 A. I don't think I was. I don't recall that. I
23 can't exclude it entirely.

24 Q. Would it have concerned you, had you known that 25 the sheriff was speaking with the juror?

1 A. Yes, but I think it would have concerned
2 Mr. Buting more.

3 Q. And why is that, why do say that?

4 A. He was more suspicious of Sheriff Pagel. And I
5 tried to maintain a line of communication there,
6 a cordial working relationship with the sheriff.

7 Q. And when you authorized, or agreed for the Court
8 to speak with the juror, did you expect that 9 Sheriff Pagel would be involved in that 10 communication?

11 A. I don't know that I had an expectation one way or 12 the other.

13 Q. Were you provided, again, in this conversation
14 with the judge, were you provided any information
15 as to how this situation about the accident had 16 come to the juror's attention?

17 A. Might have been, I don't remember -- I don't 18 remember being told that, I might have been. May 19 have been that the jurors all had been allowed to 20 call home. I guess I'm guessing. I don't recall
21 specifically how this came to the juror's
22 attention.

23 Q. You didn't have any specific information that the 24 wife had been calling in to report a problem?

25 A. If I did, I don't remember it now, that's

1 possible, but I don't remember it.

2 Q. So, there's a conversation with the judge, all
3 this is occurring at the restaurant, there's an
4 understanding of how the judge should handle it.
5 And what happened next in terms of your knowledge
6 of the situation?

7 A. Well, I think there was a second phone call that
8 Mr. Buting placed to Judge Willis. But I only 9 think that because I have seen a page of 10 Mr. Buting's cell phone record more recently. I
11 didn't remember --

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. -- that Jerry Buting had placed a call to the 14 judge. Without that cell phone record, my 15 recollection would be that at some point that 16 night we were told that it was fait accompli,
17 that the juror had been interviewed by the judge
18 and the judge had excused the juror. I think I
19 knew that before I went to bed that night.

20 Q. Okay. So, when you got back to your apartment,
21 your best recollection is that you knew at that
22 point that Juror Mahler was off?

23 A. I don't know if it was before I got back to the 24 apartment, but some -- some time before I went to 25 bed. And it probably was either before I got to

1 the apartment or very soon thereafter. Because,
2 as I say, I did go on Westlaw and start doing
3 some research to see if I could determine what
4 our options were then.

5 Q. And that's when you discovered the Lehman
6 decision?

7 A. Yes, I found Lehman.

8 Q. So then I turn your attention to the next day,
9 it's March 16, 2007; was there a meeting in 10 chambers that morning with Judge Willis and the 11 attorneys?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Was Mr. Avery present during that in chambers
14 conference?

15 A. No. No, the initial meeting with the judge and 16 the lawyers in chambers, Mr. Avery was not 17 present for that.

18 Q. And by the time of that in chambers conference,
19 had you spoken to Mr. Avery about the juror's
20 removal?

21 A. I don't think so.

22 Q. So as far as you knew, when you went into that in 23 chambers conference, your understanding would
24 have been that Mr. Avery still had no knowledge
25 of the fact that a juror had been taken off the

1 jury?

2 A. My recollection is that we had not, that
3 Mr. Buting and I had not spoken to him before
4 going to chambers the morning of March 16. So,
5 if he knew, that didn't come from us.

6 Q. Was there some discussion of the Lehman decision
7 in that conference?

8 A. Yes, I mean, as I recall it, more or less
9 simultaneously, the judge and I discovered that 10 we each had found Lehman and we had copies of it.

11 Q. And in part, relying on that decision, was there
12 some discussion of the options available now that 13 a deliberating juror had been removed?

14 A. Yup. Yes.

15 Q. And what options were discussed?

16 A. Well, I think -- I think all the lawyers and the 17 Court were in agreement that there were three 18 options. One, you could continue with 11 jurors;
19 two, you could declare a mistrial; three, you
20 could insert an alternate juror, if one had been
21 retained, into the group, to restore it to 12.
22 And that if you did that, the jurors would have 23 to be instructed to begin deliberations anew.

24 And I think there also was consensus
25 that each of the two sides had an absolute veto

1 in the sense that any -- either of the two
2 options would have allowed deliberations to go
3 forward, required the assent of both sides.

4 Could have forced a mistrial, to put it
5 succinctly, either side could have.

6 Q. And it was the understanding at that point that
7 indeed there was an alternate available?

8 A. We had retained an alternate, yes.

9 Q. And while you were still in that in chambers
10 conference, did the parties reach an agreement of 11 which of the options to take?

12 A. My recollection is, no, that at some point I or 13 Jerry, or both of us, said we have got to go talk
14 to Steven.

15 Q. But was there some at least tentative agreement
16 among the attorneys and the Court as to which 17 option would be taken?

18 A. I think that we were all leaning toward plugging
19 in the retained alternate juror and continuing
20 deliberations with 12, although deliberations
21 would have to start afresh. I think we were 22 leaning that way by the time Mr. Buting and I
23 left chambers to go down and speak with Mr. Avery
24 in the jail.

25 Q. And even in that conference, may there have been

1 some discussion of drafting the appropriate
2 instruction to give the jury, if the sub -- if
3 the alternate were put in?

4 A. I can't place the exact time at which that 5 discussion occurred, but at some point, yes, we
6 talked about an instruction and settled, I think,
7 on the wording of an instruction. I can't place
8 that at the initial meeting in chambers before
9 Mr. Buting and I spoke to Mr. Avery. Maybe,
10 maybe not.

11 Q. When the decision ultimately was made to 12 substitute in the alternate, was it your
13 understanding that Lehman would allow the parties 14 to consent to putting in an alternate during
15 deliberations?

16 A. As long -- excuse me -- as long as deliberations
17 started over, yes.

18 Q. And you have testified that you had found Lehman
19 the night before and were familiar with that by 20 the time of the in chambers conference. Had you
21 also researched whether there had been any 22 changes to the relevant statute since Lehman was 23 decided?

24 A. I did not.

25 Q. So, did you ultimately agree to the option of

1 substituting in the alternate with the belief
2 that that was an option permitted under Wisconsin
3 law?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. So after this in chambers conference, then, you
6 went to meet with Mr. Avery?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And that took place at the jail; is that right?

9 A. Yes, it did.

10 Q. Who was present?

11 A. Jerry Buting, Steven Avery, and I.

12 Q. How long did that meeting last?

13 A. Something under 20 minutes, close to 20 minutes.

14 Q. That 20 minutes would have been from the time you
15 arrived at the jail until the time you left?

16 A. I have looked at that page from my trial notes,
17 and as I recall, the notes say 8:45 to 9:05. And 18 I have a habit about keeping time with 19 conferences with the detained or incarcerated
20 clients.

21 And I note the time when I'm walking
22 through the security door, the last locked door,
23 and then I note the time when I leave the secure
24 area of the jail or prison. I don't -- I
25 don't -- you know, I don't write down the time

1 when the client walks in the interview room, or
2 the booth, or wherever we're meeting. Because 3 that's unpredictable, how long that's going to
4 take the jail personnel to get the client there.
5 And usually what I'm doing at that point is 6 writing down the things we're going to discuss.

7 Q. So, based on your note showing that time of a 20
8 minute time frame, that would be the absolute
9 longest the conversation with Mr. Avery took?

10 A. Right. The conversation with Mr. Avery would 11 have been a little bit shorter than that. The 12 Calumet County Jail was very prompt about getting 13 Mr. Avery into the interview room that we used.
14 I think because -- I think because he was the 15 only inmate in the adjoining pod, but we never 16 had to wait long.

17 Q. And what was discussed in that meeting with
18 Mr. Avery?

19 A. The fact that we lost a juror, the night before,
20 and what the three options were at this point,
21 going forward.

22 Q. And those would have been the three options you
23 just described in your testimony?

24 A. Right. And -- And I also would have explained --
25 I did explain to Mr. Avery that, in the end,

1 which of these three options to choose was his
2 choice.

3 Q. And so as part of this discussion, did you tell
4 Mr. Avery he could have a mistrial?

5 A. I did.

6 Q. Did you give him any advice about taking a
7 mistrial?

8 A. I advised that he not take a mistrial. I steered
9 him toward introducing the alternate juror into
10 the deliberations.

11 Q. And in part of your discussion with him about 12 whether to take a mistrial, did you talk to him
13 about whether you would be representing him at a
14 second trial?

15 A. We must have then, and I remember more than one
16 such conversation with Mr. Avery. And one of 17 those must have been then, in this meeting on the 18 16th.

19 Q. And what did you tell him?

20 A. If you have a mistrial, which you have a right to 21 do, they will try you again. This isn't a case
22 where they are going to, you know, make a
23 meaningful offer for a lesser disposition. The 24 case will go to trial again and neither Jerry nor 25 I will be able to represent you, financially. We

1 just can't and won't do that, through a second
2 trial.

3 Q. At any point in that discussion of the options,
4 did you advise Mr. Avery that he should proceed
5 with 11 jurors?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Why did you not recommend that?

8 A. Because I never would.

9 Q. Why?

10 A. Twelve is better than eleven. I mean, you know,
11 look, you want to win the case, but placing, so
12 to speak, is a mistrial, in my business. And you
13 have got one more chance to get a mistrial with 14 12 jurors than you do with 11. The dynamic is 15 different.

16 Q. If substitution of a juror, during deliberations,
17 was not a legal option, would you have advised
18 Mr. Avery to proceed with 11?

19 A. I'm sorry, I zoned out a moment.

20 Q. Sure. You had talked about mistrial and you
21 recommended substituting, correct?

22 A. Yup.

23 Q. You did not recommend going with eleven?

24 A. I recommended that we not go with 11.

25 Q. If --

1 A. Strongly.

2 Q. -- substitution of a juror was not an option
3 allowed under law, would you then have advised
4 Mr. Avery to proceed with 11 jurors?

5 A. No.

6 Q. If the choices allowed by law would have been go
7 with 11 or have a mistrial, which option would
8 you have recommended?

9 A. Well, I don't know, and here's why I don't know,
10 because I would have been saying mistrial and I'm 11 not sure Mr. Buting would have. That's 12 something, had we known that there were only two 13 options, that's something that would have 14 required a real discussion, between me and 15 Mr. Buting, to reach agreement ourselves, before
16 we spoke to Steven, because we weren't going to 17 go into a client and, you know, have his two 18 lawyers be giving him directly conflicting advice
19 or bickering about what we thought he ought to 20 do, in front of him.

21 Q. So, if I understand your testimony, you
22 personally, if given the choices of 11 jurors or 23 a mistrial, would have preferred the mistrial,
24 correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. But you are unsure whether Attorney Buting would
2 have preferred 11 or a mistrial?

3 A. To this day, I'm unsure of that. But, you know,
4 we had -- we had made an agreement which became
5 sort of solemn over time. We had made an
6 agreement, the day Jerry Buting agreed to get 7 into the case, that we would not play it for the 8 fumbles, that we were going to try to win this
9 trial. We wanted, you know -- we wanted not 10 guilty verdicts down the line. And Jerry had 11 secured my agreement before he agreed to come in 12 as co-counsel.

13 And that agreement, interestingly enough
14 in this trial, was one we had to come back to and 15 reaffirm at a number of different junctures.
16 This was one of those. And if the choices had 17 been two, not the three that we thought, that 18 would have been a juncture that would have 19 required a real serious conversation about, you
20 know, do we go for broke or do we take a
21 mistrial.

22 Q. But just to make sure then I understand, the 23 declining of a mistrial was with the 24 understanding that the option that was chosen,
25 substituting in the alternate, was a legally

1 permissible option?

2 A. Absolutely, yes.

3 Q. I'm going to show you a court memo that is dated
4 March 16th, 2007, and has been marked as an
5 exhibit. And I just want to ask if you are 6 familiar with that.

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. You have seen that before?

9 A. I have.

10 Q. How did you become aware of that memo?

11 A. Judge Willis told us, I think the morning of 12 March 16, that he either had or was going to 13 prepare a memo like this, just to memorialize
14 what had happened the night before.

15 Q. And so you were told about it, do you recall,
16 though, when you actually saw it?

17 A. I don't.

18 Q. Do you think it was that same day?

19 A. I don't, but I honestly, in my mind, I saw this 20 after trial, for the first time. But I could be 21 wrong about that, it could have been that day, it
22 could have been the next day. In my head, for 23 whatever reason, I think I didn't see this until 24 after trial. Perfectly possible I'm wrong about
25 that.

1 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: I will take that back.
2 And then I think that's all I have for now. Thank
3 you.

4 ATTORNEY ASKINS: Judge, at this point, we
5 would turn our attention to the other issue and
6 should I just go ahead and proceed with Mr. Strang,
7 or what did you want to do in terms of the Court's
8 schedule today?

9 THE COURT: Why don't you go ahead and get
10 started.

11 ATTORNEY ASKINS: Okay. Thank you.

12 DIRECT EXAMINATION CONTD

13 BY ATTORNEY ASKINS:

14 Q. Mr. Strang, I would like to change subjects here
15 and ask you about some other matters relating to 16 Mr. Avery. Now, prior to the trial in this case
17 there were a number of motions filed by each side
18 to resolve certain potential trial problems; is 19 that correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. In fact, there was lots of pre-trial litigation,
22 lots of pre-trial motions, correct?

23 A. You know, both sides filed a number of motions
24 and briefs.

25 Q. And prior to the trial, do you recall filing with

1 the Court a request to be able to introduce
2 evidence at the trial of alternative persons who
3 may have been responsible for Mr -- for Ms
4 Halbach's death?

5 A. Yes. And at least one brief supporting that
6 motion.

7 Q. And, ultimately, the Court issued a ruling on 8 that; is that correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And do you recall that the Court ordered that you
11 could not present evidence that a third party,
12 other than Brendan Dassey participated in the 13 commission of these crimes; is that also correct?

14 A. Yes, generally. Let me tell you what I remember
15 about that, and I haven't gone back and looked.
16 But my recollection is that the judge ruled that 17 Denny applied. And that under Denny we had not 18 made a sufficient showing as to anyone, other
19 than Brendan Dassey, and the State, I think, gave 20 us Brendan Dassey. I think they conceded Brendan
21 Dassey, for Denny purposes. But I think beyond
22 Brendan Dassey, the Court ruled that we had not 23 made the necessary showing that would allow us to 24 argue specific third party liability.

25 Q. Now, a minute ago you used a phrase that you and

1 Mr. Buting -- and I'm not going to get it exactly
2 right -- had an agreement not to play for
3 fumbles, but for the win, correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And I'm wondering why you made that agreement;
6 what was the purpose for that sort of agreement
7 between you and Jerry, or the rationale behind
8 it?

9 A. And it's -- I realize it sounds funny because I
10 don't take any case planning to lose, you know.
11 You try to win everything that you think is going
12 to trial. But this was a matter of specific 13 discussion. And Jerry brought it up, in our 14 first meeting in my office, when he was 15 considering entering an appearance.

16 And, you know, it was, look, Dean, if
17 I'm going to get in, I'm not interested in a
18 mistrial. I'm not interested in appellate
19 issues, you know, for their own sake. I'm 20 interested in trying to win this case.

21 And while I don't remember the details
22 of that conversation, it had to do, and the 23 reason we struck that agreement, or really, you
24 know, reached an accord deeper than ordinary
25 professional obligation, was that this was Steven

1 Avery we were talking about. This was somebody
2 who had spent 18 years in a cage for a crime he
3 didn't commit.

4 And I'm an officer of the court. I work
5 in the system. I have given my professional life
6 to our system of justice and I didn't want that.
7 And I think, to his credit, the first one who 8 decided he didn't want that happening again, on 9 his watch, was Jerry Buting. And that's the gist
10 of the conversation that we had. So if we're 11 going to do this, we are going to try to win this
12 case.

13 Q. Now, the Judge's ruling on third party liability,
14 and I will either refer to it as the Denny ruling
15 or the ruling on third party liability; did that 16 affect your trial strategy?

17 A. Sure.

18 Q. I would like to direct your attention to the 19 opening statement. You presented the opening
20 statement on the part of the defense, correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. You have tried many cases in your career?

23 A. Maybe not as many as you think, but.

24 Q. As an experienced defense attorney, however, you
25 would agree that you are an experienced defense

1 attorney?

2 A. I guess, relatively speaking, I'm getting more
3 experience by the day, but.

4 Q. As a defense attorney, do you have a specific way
5 that you approach an opening statement to a jury?
6 Is there something that you are trying to 7 accomplish?

8 A. Grab their attention, give them a coherent
9 narrative that embraces and advances the theory
10 of defense.

11 Q. And that was true in Mr. Avery's case as well?

12 A. That's what I tried to do.

13 Q. In light of the Court's ruling, then, did the 14 Court's third party liability ruling affect your 15 approach to the opening statement?

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, relevance, the 17 opening --

18 ATTORNEY ASKINS: I'm sorry, I can't hear
19 the objection.

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, relevance.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, the opening
23 statement is not evidence and nor is it argument.
24 It's a statement of what is expected to occur. It's 25 an oratorical device. It is not argument. It is

1 not evidence. And, therefore, is irrelevant to the 2 specific and narrow focus of this post-conviction
3 motion.

4 THE COURT: Attorney Askins.

5 ATTORNEY ASKINS: Judge, ultimately the
6 question is going to be raised about what effect
7 the -- or what prejudice, what effect there was on
8 this case, due to the Court's third party liability
9 ruling. And I think the opening statement being
10 part of the whole defense case is certainly relevant
11 to how this case was handled differently.

12 THE COURT: Well, I largely agree with
13 Attorney Fallon on this one. I will let you ask a 14 couple questions as an introduction into the 15 evidence portion of the case and certainly the 16 closing argument, but.

17 ATTORNEY ASKINS: Very well, thank you.

18 THE COURT: Go ahead.

19 Q. (By Attorney Askins)~ Would you like me to repeat
20 the question?

21 A. No, I think I have it in my mind. Had the Denny
22 ruling gone our way, we would have settled on one
23 or more people as to whom we thought we had the 24 best case, that they had committed the crime.
25 And I would have presented a theory of defense in

1 my opening statement that identified that person
2 or those persons that stopped short of, and
3 explain to the jury why I was not taking on the 4 burden of persuasion in the end of proof beyond a
5 reasonable doubt.

6 But the theory of defense would have
7 been shaped around the person we thought probably
8 committed the crime. And I would have had a
9 chance in that opening statement to blunt the 10 thrust of the prosecution argument that I
11 expected, which was, if you are saying the police
12 planted evidence to frame Mr. Avery, or to make 13 it appear that Mr. Avery committed the crime, if 14 you're saying that, then you must also be saying
15 that the police killed Ms Halbach, which we 16 weren't saying.

17 But unable to point to the person we
18 think did, we were -- we were wide open on the 19 flank to that prosecution attack. And I would 20 have shaped -- tried to shape an opening
21 statement that took that opportunity for attack
22 away from the State.

23 Q. Let's turn now to the actual evidence at the 24 trial. You were able to illicit testimony that 25 Teresa Halbach was good at getting so-called

1 hustle shots; is that correct?

2 A. Yes. Can't tell you from whom, but I know that
3 came in.

4 Q. Did the trial court's third party liability
5 ruling affect your ability, in your mind, to 6 elicit other testimony relating to hustle shots?
7 And what I mean by -- I should back up. When I
8 say other testimony, testimony other than what 9 you did elicit.

10 A. That I don't -- That I don't remember, tying the 11 Denny ruling to hustle shots.

12 Q. All right.

13 A. Honestly, Jerry was more focused on the hustle
14 shots than was I, but I don't remember that.

15 Q. Now, another -- or one important piece of 16 evidence in the State's case was the blood inside
17 of Ms Halbach's vehicle, correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Did the trial court's ruling on third party
20 liability affect how you would respond to that 21 evidence at the trial?

22 A. It took away the ability to suggest that persons
23 other than law enforcement officers had access to 24 bloody bandages, bloody towels, blood drips that 25 came from Steven Avery. He had cut his finger

1 badly some time I think shortly before Ms Halbach
2 disappeared, or right after, somewhere in there.

3 Q. Another blood source, you have stated, how would 4 that matter?

5 A. Well, if his blood was found in her car, as the 6 people from -- or, you know, Sherri Culhane was 7 going to testify, that's a big problem for the 8 defense. How did it get there, if it wasn't
9 Steven Avery who bled in the car. The Denny
10 ruling left us only the police as the possible
11 source of that blood, if it wasn't directly from 12 Steven Avery.

13 The people who were on that property
14 regularly, though, would have had, presumably,
15 access to Steven's trailer or to places where he 16 disposed of bandages, things he had bled on.

17 Q. As a defense attorney, have you previously
18 defended a client on a theory that the -- that 19 client was framed in some fashion by the police?

20 A. Certainly not in the first chair, at least not 21 that I remember in the first chair. It is an 22 enormously unappealing defense, for obvious
23 reasons.

24 And I think I second chaired Jim Shellow
25 in a trial in which that was essentially the

1 argument as to an FBI agent who had elicited a
2 statement from the client. That is, I know I
3 second chaired Jim. And I remember the trial and 4 I think Mr. Shellow's argument in that was that 5 the FBI agent had set up the client in some
6 fashion. That's the only thing that even comes 7 close, that I remember as I sit here.

8 Q. And I think you stated, is that a difficult or an 9 easy argument to make to a jury?

10 A. You know, it's not an argument that most jurors,
11 most jurors, come in prepared to accept. You
12 know, there are some who just don't like or trust
13 law enforcement. But, you know, the norm, so far 14 as in my experience with jurors, is that they 15 presuppose the good faith, competence, and 16 honesty of law enforcement officers as a group.

17 Q. I'm going to refer to the State's rebuttal
18 closing argument in this case, in it and this is 19 a quote from the transcript and I'm going to ask
20 you a question following that.

21 The quote is this, Despite Mr. Buting
22 trying to sell you on the fact that we're not 23 saying the cops did it, that's exactly what they 24 are saying. That's exactly what they are arguing
25 to you and you have to be prepared to go there.

1 Closed quote.

2 In light of the trial court's Denny
3 ruling, did this argument from the State surprise
4 you or did you expect that argument?

5 A. Expected that from the get go. That's the 6 argument I would have been making if I were
7 Mr. Kratz. I think I tried, you know -- I
8 think -- I think, in opening statement, I told
9 the jury, we're not saying the police killed Ms
10 Halbach.

11 Q. Did the trial court's third party liability
12 ruling affect how you would handle this expected
13 argument from the State?

14 A. Yes. I think I could have taken it away, had I
15 been able to say, this probably is who killed Ms
16 Halbach and this is why they had a motive to put 17 it on Steven. And in doing so, they found a very 18 receptive audience in law enforcement, who were 19 happy to believe him guilty.

20 Q. All right. I would like to turn your attention
21 now to Bobby Dassey, one of the State's 22 witnesses; you recall his testimony at trial, in 23 general?

24 A. In general.

25 Q. And do you recall that he was one of the

1 individuals you identified in your third party
2 liability briefs as a potential alternative
3 suspect?

4 A. Yes. Yes, I think -- I think we identified all
5 of the Dassey brothers who lived with their
6 mother as, I think, as potential third party
7 perpetrators.

8 Q. And now you did the cross-examination of Bobby,
9 do you recall doing the cross-examination?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. All right. And did the trial court's third party
12 ruling affect your cross-examination of Bobby
13 Dassey?

14 A. Yes, I think there is a very, very good
15 likelihood. I can't say this for sure, because 16 we're talking about a ruling we never got, you
17 know, but had the Denny ruling gone the other
18 way, I think there's a very good possibility that
19 Bobby Dassey would have been cross-examined by me
20 as someone who potentially was a murderer.

21 Q. Just drawing your attention to a couple of -- and 22 I'm not going to go into a great amount of detail
23 about this, but were there areas that you thought
24 would be fruitful to cross-examine Bobby on,
25 Bobby Dassey?

1 A. The mutual and mutually exclusive alibi that he
2 and Scott Tadych offered each other would have
3 been the one that comes to mind.

4 Q. Had you looked at Mr. Dassey's, Bobby Dassey's
5 chronology that day, his timeline for where he 6 was and when?

7 A. Well, I'm sure that I had. We had all the 8 interviews of law enforcement with Bobby Dassey.

9 Q. Would you have treated Mr. Dassey differently
10 about the so-called joke that Mr. Avery had 11 supposedly made to him?

12 A. Almost surely.

13 Q. How so?

14 A. That could have been handled as a blame shifting
15 effort by someone who himself was culpable,
16 rather than having to handle it as, oops, you
17 made a mistake, you didn't really mean to suggest 18 that Mr. Avery was serious about that.

19 Q. Now --

20 A. Could have been handled as something, you know,
21 that he never heard.

22 Q. Excuse me?

23 A. It could have been handled as something that
24 Bobby Dassey never heard and was saying to point
25 an accusatory finger at his uncle.

1 Q. Now, another individual was Scott Tadych, who was
2 the State's witness; do you recall Mr. Tadych?

3 A. Oh, yes.

4 Q. And you did the cross-examination of him as well?

5 A. I did.

6 Q. And do you recall that he was also identified as 7 a possible third party suspect?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Did the Court's Denny ruling affect your 10 cross-examination of Mr. Tadych?

11 A. Almost surely.

12 Q. Can you give some examples of how the Court's 13 ruling affected your handling of Mr. Tadych, or 14 more specifically, your cross-examination?

15 A. I expect that I would have projected to 16 Mr. Tadych, or to the jury, in my attitude toward 17 Mr. Tadych, my tone of voice, the manner of my 18 questioning, the view that he was a probable
19 murderer.

20 Q. You mentioned the mutual alibi with Mr. Bobby 21 Dassey; would that have been a source of 22 cross-examination as well?

23 A. It was anyway. I would have tried to develop 24 that at greater length, including the 25 improbability of the whole notion that these two

1 guys going hunting, you know, Dassey at Tadych's
2 place, and Tadych somewhere past Dassey's place.

3 You know, the improbability of that
4 could have been developed on cross of both of 5 them, including, you know, Bobby Dassey's claim
6 that he took a shower before going hunting, not
7 something a bow hunter likely would do.

8 Q. How about other witnesses, and I understand that 9 the ruling did not go your way; however, had the 10 ruling gone your way, would you have considered
11 calling other witnesses in Mr. Avery's defense?

12 A. Potentially, if allowed, witnesses to 13 Mr. Tadych's temper; witnesses to Mr. Tadych's
14 attempt to sell a .22 caliber long rifle, shortly
15 after this; a witness to Mr. Tadych bolting out
16 of work, ashen faced, shortly after this, when he 17 heard that one of the Dassey boys either had been 18 arrested or was being questioned by the police.

19 Q. Other than Mr. Tadych, any other types of 20 evidence or witnesses who you might have called,
21 I mean other than witnesses relating to 22 Mr. Tadych? Anybody else who you think you might 23 have called?

24 A. That -- Now, we're beyond my ability to sort of 25 reconstruct this. The ruling did not go our way

1 so we tried a different case than we would have
2 tried had the ruling gone our way. That's just
3 the nature of pre-trial rulings, significant ones
4 in any event.

5 Q. Fair enough. So now we move on to the closing
6 argument and both you and Mr. Buting made closing
7 arguments, correct?

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, I'm going to 9 impose an objection. I have listened now for about 10 the last 30 minutes on this line of questioning, and 11 it occurs to me that this line of questioning is 12 entirely irrelevant to the specific focus of the 13 post-conviction motion, which was, in effect, did
14 the Court err in making the ruling that you made at 15 that time, based on the argument presented by the 16 defense and the arguments presented by the State, as 17 to the existence of the evidence at the time.

18 And this last 35 minutes here of what is 19 in effect speculation as to what might have 20 occurred, could have occurred, we would have done
21 this, or we might have done that, doesn't really 22 shed any light whatsoever on whether or not the 23 Court was wrong, or committed an error in 24 deciding whether the evidence of third party
25 liability should have gone the other way. I

1 don't see its relevance.

2 THE COURT: Attorney Askins.

3 ATTORNEY ASKINS: Your Honor, it is
4 relevant because, as I mentioned earlier, ultimately 5 this question is going to be addressed in terms of 6 prejudice, and what we're establishing today is 7 prejudice. And the other response that I would 8 have, first of all, is that we're now closing in on 9 the last two questions that I have for Mr. Strang
10 and so the objection is a little late in this 11 process.

12 But this is also information that the 13 Court did not have at the time that it made the 14 Denny ruling. This information that we're 15 eliciting today is information that you had not 16 heard prior to today's date. And so I think it's 17 useful for you to have that, to understand what
18 is part of our motion relating to Denny.

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: If I may respond.

20 THE COURT: Go ahead.

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: We haven't heard any
22 evidence. What would the evidence have been, that 23 is where the essence of the prejudice argument,
24 assuming for the sake of this brief discussion that
25 prejudice must be shown under these circumstances.

1 But the real question is, what is the evidence, not
2 what counsel's strategy would have been, or how
3 counsel might have changed his opening, or how
4 counsel might have cross-examined Mr. Dassey
5 differently or Mr. Tadych differently. The question
6 is, what would the evidence have been if elicited.
7 There is no evidence.

8 THE COURT: All right. Well, this is a
9 post-conviction motion hearing rather than a trial,
10 I'm not going to anticipatorily decide that the 11 defendant doesn't have an argument to make based on 12 this line of questioning. I will let the State make 13 that argument in its written brief. Attorney
14 Askins, I'm going to permit you to continue.

15 ATTORNEY ASKINS: Thank you, your Honor.

16 Q. (By Attorney Askins)~ Turning to the closing
17 argument, as I was asking you before, did the 18 trial court's ruling affect your closing argument
19 to the jury?

20 A. Yes, I -- there's a specific instance that I can 21 recall in the -- I -- The defense split the 22 closing argument, Mr. Buting went first, I went 23 second. He said something suggesting that 24 someone else may have been the culprit, during 25 his closing argument. I don't remember the

1 details now, but I think it probably was
2 Mr. Kratz who objected and wanted to be heard.

3 And my recollection is that at some
4 point in chambers, so maybe it was at the end of 5 the day, or at some break, before I started my
6 closing argument, I think I was told, you know,
7 Strang, you better go back, you better go out and
8 clean up the mess that Buting made or, you know,
9 sort of pull back from the position he took,
10 otherwise there may be a curative instruction by 11 the Court, which as I recall is what Mr. Kratz
12 wanted.

13 Q. I had asked earlier if you have a theory of how
14 you approach an opening statement to a jury. Do
15 you also have a kind of a theory of how to 16 approach a jury in your closing argument?

17 A. Again, with a narrative that I hope reaffirms the 18 facts that I expected to elicit for the jury and 19 that reaffirms the theory of defense as 20 consistent with the evidence the jury heard, and 21 that, if possible, inspires the jury to hold firm
22 to the rules by which we try cases in this
23 country, and offers them a narrative in a theory
24 that fits better with the facts than the 25 competing narrative that the State offers.

1 Q. Did you understand the trial court's ruling to
2 prohibit you from offering a coherent theory that
3 some specific other individual did this?

4 A. I couldn't argue that anyone other than Brendan
5 did it, that was the nature of the Court's ruling
6 as I understood it.

7 And I think I went back and tried to
8 retract or smooth over whatever it is Jerry had 9 argued in his portion of the closing argument
10 that had resulted in the objection and the 11 colloquy, whether that was in the courtroom or in 12 chambers.

13 ATTORNEY ASKINS: I have no other
14 questions, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: All right. We're going to take
16 our noon break at this time. Counsel, I will leave
17 it up to you whether we resume at 1:00 or 1:15. I
18 would like to try and get the evidence in today.

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: 1:15 is fine.

20 THE COURT: 1:15.

21 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: That's fine.

22 THE COURT: Very well, we'll see you back
23 at 1:15.

24 (Noon recess taken.)

25 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Strang, you may

1 be seated. At this time we're back on the record.
2 Attorney Askins, I believe you completed your
3 direct, correct?

4 ATTORNEY ASKINS: That's correct, your
5 Honor.

6 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Fallon.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: Good afternoon, counsel.

8 THE WITNESS: Good afternoon.

9 CROSS-EXAMINATION

10 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

11 Q. If we could take a moment or two to get a little 12 information regarding your background, I think
13 that would be beneficial. As I understand it,
14 Mr. Strang, you have extensive practice in both
15 federal and state courts here in Wisconsin?

16 A. Sure. I mean, I won't quibble with the 17 adjective, but yes, both federal and state court.

18 Q. All right. In fact, at one time, you were the 19 federal defender, I believe, in the eastern
20 district, was it?

21 A. I was the first federal defender in Wisconsin, I
22 was initially the eastern district of Wisconsin
23 and then three or four years in we added the 24 western district of Wisconsin.

25 Q. So at some point you were the -- Well, first of

1 all, tell us what the federal defender is?

2 A. It's a public defender position, but representing
3 the indigent only in federal court on federal 4 prosecutions.

5 Q. And how long did you hold that position?

6 A. Five years, almost to the day.

7 Q. And I believe you were just telling us at some 8 point your responsibilities included the whole of 9 Wisconsin?

10 A. Both districts, yes, which encompassed the whole
11 of Wisconsin together.

12 Q. All right. And prior to that time, you had 13 experience as a criminal defense attorney,
14 correct?

15 A. Yes, about 11 and a half, 12 years of criminal
16 defense experience before I became the federal 17 defender.

18 Q. All right. And how long ago or how long has it
19 been since you stepped down from the position as 20 the federal defender?

21 A. I stepped down on August 1, 2005.

22 Q. So, in terms of experience, you have roughly 20
23 years of criminal defense practice experience?

24 A. Twenty-one.

25 Q. All right. And as I understand it, you have, at 1 least on two occasions, argued cases before the

2 United States Supreme Court?

3 A. The second time I was only the co-author of the 4 brief and at counsel table I didn't argue Booker,
5 but I argued a case in the U.S. Supreme Court
6 before that.

7 Q. All right. And on that -- particularly on that
8 Booker case, that was a pretty significant piece
9 of legislation -- of case law, was it not?

10 A. In the little world of federal --

11 Q. Sentencing.

12 A. -- criminal law and sentencing, yes, it was a
13 significant case.

14 Q. And you were successful in arguing that the 15 federal sentencing scheme was unconstitutional?

16 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Objection, relevance.
17 And I think there is some relevance to the general
18 experience, but this sort of level of detail, I just 19 don't think it's relevant.

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: Well, if one of the 21 allegations here, Judge, is that counsel was 22 ineffective, we're certainly entitled to know of his 23 experience.

24 THE COURT: I hope we're not going to be
25 spending a lot more time on it, but I will allow you

1 to ask a couple questions.

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: I have about four or five
3 more questions.

4 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ You are or have been an
5 adjunct professor of law at Marquette University
6 Law School?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. You similarly have been or are an adjunct
9 professor of law at the University of Wisconsin
10 Law School?

11 A. That's also true.

12 Q. And you currently have that position at the 13 University of Wisconsin, do you not?

14 A. Yes, and at Marquette, although I'm not teaching
15 a class this semester at Marquette.

16 Q. In fact, in classes that you teach, you have 17 taught classes on federal law, federal crimes?

18 A. Well, I taught a course for three years, or four
19 years, or something, at Marquette Law School
20 called Federal Crimes and Federal Criminal
21 Procedure, one course.

22 Q. And you have taught courses on evidence?

23 A. I have taught evidence once, last spring, at UW
24 and expect to do it again next spring.

25 Q. All right. And was that state rules of evidence

1 or federal?

2 A. Both, because of the diploma privilege, but a
3 focus on the federal rules of evidence.

4 Q. And you have also taught on Fourth Amendment
5 Search and Seizure Law?

6 A. I teach -- With Marcus Berghahn, I teach a
7 seminar on the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth
8 Amendments, at -- again, at the University of 9 Wisconsin Law School.

10 Q. And the Fifth Amendment talks about both
11 interrogation law and even fair trials and double
12 jeopardy. You cover those topics?

13 A. We don't -- We actually don't cover double 14 jeopardy, but you have got the right amendment.

15 Q. All right. And you are also on faculty for the 16 National Criminal Defense College in Macon,
17 Georgia, correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And you have been on that faculty for about 10
20 years?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And that's a school designed to educate and teach
23 trial skills to defense attorneys from around the 24 country?

25 A. Yes. And to some extent outside the country.

1 Criminal defense lawyers only, that's correct.

2 Q. You have authored a number of law review
3 articles?

4 A. Co-authored one, authored and published two, and
5 then another one is coming out this fall, later
6 this fall.

7 Q. All right. And this one coming out this fall is 8 entitled what?

9 A. Becoming What We Pretend To Be, Casual Rhetoric
10 In American Criminal Justice. Get it while it's 11 hot.

12 Q. And you have also have been involved in the anti 13 death penalty movement, correct?

14 A. Not so actively now, but yes, very actively in 15 the mid-nineties to late-nineties.

16 Q. Lectured, debated, wrote on the issue?

17 A. Yes, to all three.

18 Q. All right. In this particular case, I believe 19 you already expressed this, but I want to be 20 clear, the ultimate goal in this case, at least 21 as you and Mr. Buting set out, was to obtain an 22 acquittal?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And that, in this case, would have been three not 25 guilty verdicts, correct?

1 A. As the case went to the jury, that's right.

2 Q. All right. Now, you would agree with me,
3 counsel, that a trial lawyer's decisions
4 throughout the course of handling a case like
5 this are an effort to achieve that objective, an 6 acquittal; you make decisions with that goal in 7 mind?

8 A. In this case?

9 Q. Yes.

10 A. Yes. And I'm sorry, I mean to the extent that 11 it's a case where the client is saying I'm
12 innocent, I didn't do it --

13 Q. Right.

14 A. -- and I want to go to trial, then I could speak
15 more generally and agree with you, yes.

16 Q. All right. That would be the point, your point
17 is well taken. And certainly in this particular 18 case, a not guilty verdict on a charge of 19 homicide for Teresa Halbach was definitely in 20 Mr. Avery's best interest, right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. All right. Now, a criminal defense attorney, in 23 representing a client and representing their 24 interest, has what often is referred to in the 25 law as a fiduciary obligation, right?

1 A. I view it that way. I don't know how often I
2 have seen fiduciary duty apply to the criminal
3 defense role, but I view it that way.

4 Q. All right. And would you express, then, to us,
5 your understanding of what that obligation is,
6 that fiduciary obligation?

7 A. Well, as I understand it, it would be to put the 8 client's interest first and to act in a way that 9 advances his legitimate interests so far as 10 possible, while obeying the ethical and other
11 societal rules that bind lawyers, and in general
12 bind all of us.

13 Q. All right. And with that in mind, with that 14 obligation in mind, you make decisions which you
15 believe are in the best interest of your client,
16 directed toward the goal of an acquittal?

17 A. Yes, some decisions are the clients to make,
18 others are committed to the lawyer, but I think
19 no matter who's the ultimate decision maker, I
20 would agree with you that I try to come to a
21 course or a decision that is in the client's
22 legitimate best interest.

23 Q. And you would agree that sometimes, whether it's 24 a decision or a recommendation to a client for 25 their decision, sometimes that's a very difficult

1 process, the decision making process?

2 A. Oh, sure.

3 Q. Or deciding on a recommendation?

4 A. Yes, I do agree with that.

5 Q. All right. And sometimes it's unpleasant?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Sometimes contentious?

8 A. Rarely, but yes, that has happened.

9 Q. And sometimes you may make an argument or a
10 recommendation to the Court because your client
11 thinks that's what should be done?

12 A. Now, you are speaking generally, beyond this
13 case?

14 Q. Generally, yes. I mean, you may not always agree
15 with your client, and they may want -- but if 16 it's their decision --

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. -- and if it's legal and appropriate, you have to 19 go that way?

20 A. If you can't dissuade them from a poor but 21 permissible choice, then, yes, unless it's --
22 unless it's a matter that's so clearly committed
23 to my judgment, yes, I would go that way or ask
24 to withdraw.

25 Q. All right. Now, returning again to decisions,

1 sometimes, and I'm talking generally now,
2 sometimes decisions are made jointly with you and
3 the client together?

4 A. Ideally, yes.

5 Q. Right.

6 A. And, yes, I mean I try to work toward that on 7 every decision, to the extent I can, with a
8 client.

9 Q. The goal being to forge a consensus between you
10 and your client?

11 A. An understanding, a mutual reliance, trust. And 12 it's a good way to check in to see that we're --
13 you know, we still view the case the same way.

14 Q. Right. And, however, as I think you have just 15 said, sometimes decisions are those that are 16 solely for the client?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. All right. And sometimes there are just other 19 decisions which are best made and solely the 20 purview of the lawyer?

21 A. At least by law committed to the lawyer's
22 judgment, that's right.

23 Q. Certainly. But good practice is to at least kick
24 those things around with your client before you
25 decide on a course of action?

1 A. That's -- that's the best practice. You -- I
2 think most people, or at least I will speak for
3 myself, I fall short of that sometimes, but that
4 is certainly what I view as the best practice.

5 Q. Regardless of the situation, whether it's a joint 6 decision, the client's decision, or you as the 7 lawyer's decision, the goal is to make a decision
8 which is in the best interest of the client?

9 A. That is the goal.

10 Q. All right. As to the night of March 15th, you
11 first became aware there was a problem when you
12 received a call from Judge Willis, correct?

13 A. Yes, that's my recollection.

14 Q. And now, as recalled, the jury went out about 15 1:00 that afternoon, on March 15th?

16 A. Well, I don't know, I recall things as being a 17 little later in the day, but it was some time in 18 the afternoon.

19 Q. And they quit around 5:30?

20 A. There, again, I thought it was later, but it's 21 not like I have a specific recollection or a note
22 or anything.

23 Q. When the call came from the Court, I believe you
24 have already told us you were having dinner at a
25 Mexican restaurant and Mr. Buting was with you?

1 A. Yes, I was awaiting food. We had ordered, but
2 the food had not arrived when the call came.

3 Q. And when the call came in, you were the one doing
4 the talking for the defense team primarily, with 5 the judge, correct.

6 A. That's how I recall it, yes.

7 Q. And your best recollection is is that Mr. Buting
8 was nearby and you were relaying the comments
9 that were made to you by the Court?

10 A. Yes. And that -- and that Mr. Buting could 11 overhear my end of the conversation.

12 Q. Certainly. And you don't recall Mr. Kratz being 13 in on the conversation, but you fully expect he 14 was?

15 A. That's true.

16 Q. All right. And he said -- The reason you don't 17 remember him, probably, is that he said very 18 little during that conversation, correct?

19 A. That would explain it, I mean, that would be one
20 plausible explanation.

21 Q. All right. Now, in terms of your recollection as 22 to the information you were receiving, the Court
23 advised you that it had received some information
24 from Sheriff Pagel concerning Juror Mahler,
25 correct?

1 A. I don't remember Sheriff Pagel being identified
2 personally. That doesn't mean that Judge Willis
3 didn't say it, I just don't recall it being
4 attributed specifically to Jerry Pagel or any
5 other person by name.

6 Q. But you do recall the Court saying, I have been
7 made aware or I have been told this information.

8 A. Yes. And beyond that, I remember the Court
9 attributing it to the sheriff's department,
10 someone. I knew the source was the sheriff or 11 someone in his employ.

12 Q. In other words, the impression you were left with 13 is that it was an, for lack of a better term, an 14 official source of information?

15 A. For lack of a better term.

16 Q. All right. And the Court advised you that 17 Mr. Mahler apparently was advised that his 18 stepdaughter was in a car accident earlier that 19 evening, correct?

20 A. That was part of what I recall, right.

21 Q. And there was some information relayed to the 22 Court that the vehicle which she was driving was 23 totaled, heavily damaged?

24 A. That well could have been relayed to me. I don't 25 remember that specifically. My recollection is

1 no one was killed, extent of injuries or property
2 damage, unknown.

3 Q. Unknown?

4 A. That's my recollection.

5 Q. However, there was other information that his --
6 that the juror's wife was very upset by the 7 accident and the amount of time that he had been
8 away from the family?

9 A. As I recall it, the sense was this was the last 10 straw, with the juror's wife. This just, last 11 straw, put it over the edge.

12 Q. And part of the reason for that last straw
13 impression was, some of the media had attributed
14 to the information that he revealed during voir
15 dire that apparently a large source of his income
16 was coming from his wife's trust fund apparently?

17 A. I believe that now. I don't know whether I heard
18 that in the first phone call, or when that piece
19 of explanation came about. But I understand that 20 came to be part of the story.

21 Q. All right. So as you think about it now, it's 22 easier for you to connect those two pieces than 23 maybe it was that night?

24 A. My memory just is not fresh on this phone call.

25 Q. All right. The Court provided you with

1 information. I believe you testified on direct
2 examination that you -- you were certainly 3 impressed with the apparent urgency of the 4 situation?

5 A. And, again, that's his objective impression that 6 I remember best as opposed to --

7 Q. Specific --

8 A. -- objective events or words.

9 Q. All right. As opposed to specific details, you
10 remember being impressed that this is an urgent
11 or very important situation?

12 A. Serious and urgent.

13 Q. And as a result, you were then impressed with the 14 fact that it needed to be addressed, somehow,
15 sooner rather than later?

16 A. That's what I thought the Court was 17 communicating. I mean, that's the sense I got 18 from what Judge Willis was saying, yes.

19 Q. All right. Part of that sense of urgency came 20 from the fact that the juror's marital state was 21 certainly becoming an issue. In other words,
22 there was a sense that maybe his marriage was on 23 the rocks and that helped contribute to the 24 urgent impression you were left with?

25 A. The information the judge was relaying to me,

1 that was a piece of it, you know, that the wife
2 might walk out or something terrible might happen
3 as a matter of the juror's marriage.

4 Q. Right. All right. So with that information, did
5 you ask the Court to hold for a moment and you
6 and Mr. Buting discuss, well, what do you think
7 we should do, or was it kind of a free flow
8 evolving discussion as to what do you think we 9 should to?

10 A. I don't remember. As a matter of reconstruction,
11 because I have seen one page of Mr. Buting's cell
12 phone records, as a matter of reconstruction, I
13 surmise that I probably said, your Honor, let us
14 get back to you in a few minutes. Let us talk
15 about this and call you back soon. Because it
16 appears that, if I'm remembering right, like
17 8:59 p.m. Mr. Buting places a call on his cell
18 phone to the judge.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. And I had -- My cell phone was sort of old and 21 the battery was dying. It didn't -- It didn't
22 last very long and all I had was a car charger
23 when I was up trying Mr. Avery's case. So it
24 would make sense that we would switch to Jerry's
25 better cell phone.

1 Q. All right. So your recollection is that there
2 must have been some discussion between you and
3 Mr. Buting as to how you should proceed, or what 4 your recommendation to the Court would be as to 5 how you guys should proceed?

6 A. This is something that I would have wanted to 7 talk to Jerry about and that we would have viewed
8 as co-counsel as being a collaboratively made
9 decision, if circumstances permitted that.

10 Q. And while we're on that topic, is it fair to say
11 that the responsibility for handling this case
12 was split equally, or were you more lead counsel?

13 A. Both. The agreement was that I was lead counsel
14 and would be the tie breaker, so to speak, if we 15 needed one, but that we really would try to 16 operate as equals and share responsibilities.
17 And I think the division of labor was as close to 18 equal as you can get.

19 Q. All right. In any event, after discussion or 20 consulting with Mr. Buting to assess the defense
21 strategy here, for your part of the conversation,
22 it was ultimately agreed that the Court should 23 investigate this report further before any final 24 decision could be made as to what to do with the 25 juror, right?

1 A. Right. I mean, if you really want my subjective
2 recollection or sense of this, it was convincing
3 Judge Willis to talk to the juror before acting
4 and before removing the juror, was sort of the 5 best we were going to get. That's how I recall
6 it, rightly or wrongly.

7 Q. And both you and Mr. Buting were in agreement
8 with that plan, that we should at least verify
9 whatever this report is before we make any 10 decisions?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And as --

13 A. Well, we in the sense of having at least the 14 judge do that.

15 Q. Right.

16 A. Right.

17 Q. And as a result, with the agreement of Mr. Kratz
18 and Mr. Buting, you advised the Court to go ahead
19 and attempt to ascertain whether the report of 20 this juror's problem was in fact accurate?

21 A. I doubt that I advised the Court to do anything,
22 and I can only assume Mr. Kratz agreed. I don't
23 remember in the end, anyone objecting.

24 Q. That was my next question. No one objected to 25 the Court's inquiry?

1 A. Not that I recall.

2 Q. And you certainly had plenty of opportunity to do
3 so?

4 A. Well, sure, informally, we were -- I don't think
5 there was a court reporter. I don't think we 6 were on the record or being recorded. So in some
7 sense, we had no opportunity to object in the way
8 lawyers use that term. Informally, in terms of 9 expressing an opinion, no one was cutting us off.

10 Q. Right. And there was no opinion expressed during 11 the phone conversation that this would be a bad
12 idea?

13 A. I don't -- Yeah, I don't recall anyone
14 expressing, you know, affirmatively, this would 15 be a bad idea.

16 Q. Now, at the time that the decision was made that 17 the Court should inquire further, well, that 18 decision at that time, you believed, was in the 19 best interest of Mr. Avery, correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And -- And one of the reasons were that you would 22 certainly be concerned that if there -- that if 23 Mr. Mahler's mental state, you -- would somehow
24 become an issue if he were remaining on the panel
25 as well, correct?

1 A. Well, sure, that he would be a distracted juror.
2 Now, I want to make clear, that although I
3 thought, given the range of possibilities that I
4 perceived, having the judge talk to the juror was
5 in Mr. Avery's best interest, yes.

6 As I said, I also thought that I was
7 acting, in some ways, in a broader moral sense,
8 in the juror's best interest, or in the interest
9 of his family. And as I suggested on direct,
10 this just felt like a time where you -- where I
11 shouldn't stand on legal niceties. That may have 12 been a mistake, but that's how I -- that's how I
13 took it and I was, at least in part, considering
14 the juror and his family.

15 Q. And as a matter of fact, during that 16 conversation, several of the individuals did
17 express concern for his emotional state, for his 18 well-being, the juror's? I mean that -- the 19 feeling that you just expressed, you were not the 20 only one to express some concern for Mr. Mahler's
21 well-being?

22 A. I remember the judge expressing that.

23 Q. Right.

24 A. Yes. And Mr. Kratz may have, I don't remember
25 him speaking, but.

1 Q. And you would also be concerned, as a lawyer, if
2 Mr. Mahler had remained on the panel, that his
3 mental state could affect the deliberations,
4 generally, of other jurors?

5 A. I don't think I agree. I think the specific 6 concern that I had was that if he remained on the 7 jury, and whatever the events were at home were 8 weighing heavily on him, that he might be 9 inclined to rush through deliberations or not 10 hold to a sincerely held belief about the weight
11 of the evidence.

12 Q. All right. And -- But you have had enough cases
13 where you are experienced to realize that one
14 juror with a problem like that can have an affect 15 on the overall panel's deliberations, right?

16 A. I can't draw on my own experience on that one, I
17 have never had anything really very close to this 18 arise before.

19 Q. But you have never had a particular juror who was 20 distracted or any -- had any other problems such 21 that that juror's demeanor and mental state
22 affected the deliberations of the panel as a
23 whole?

24 A. Well, I have certainly seen, you know, jurors
25 come out with a hung jury or a verdict where

1 someone appeared to be in tears or in some
2 emotional distress, but I really don't think I
3 had ever lost a juror during deliberations
4 before. That's why I did not know what the
5 options were. That's why I had to get on Westlaw
6 that night.

7 Q. In any event, you did tell the Court that if the 8 Court were able to verify the preliminary report
9 that it received regarding the problems he was 10 experiencing, it would be appropriate to excuse
11 him?

12 A. Whether I said it or I told anybody that in the 13 end, I was part of that consensus, as I recall.

14 Q. And Mr. Buting was in agreement with that?

15 A. Yes, he must have been. I don't remember us, you
16 know -- I didn't overrule him, so to speak, on
17 that.

18 Q. And you would agree that the decision to excuse
19 that juror, under the circumstances as you
20 believed them, was in the best interest of
21 Mr. Avery?

22 A. Given the information I had and the range of 23 possibilities as I perceived them, yes,
24 understanding that I was also thinking about the 25 juror's interests.

1 Q. So, at some point you did become aware that the 2 Court did excuse Mr. Mahler?

3 A. I'm sure I knew that before I went to bed that
4 night. I don't think we learned that the next
5 morning in chambers.

6 Q. And one of the reasons you have that belief is 7 you, as you said, hit the books, or as we say
8 today, hit the computer and did some research?

9 A. Right. Yes, that is part of why I -- and, you
10 know, just in general, I recall knowing that the 11 night of the 15th, I guess, when this came up.

12 Q. All right. And so when you went to bed that 13 night, you and Mr. Buting -- Well, let me not 14 assume that. After you found the Lehman case,
15 I'm assuming that you had some discussions with 16 Mr. Buting as to what you thought that case
17 meant, on its own, and then what it meant for 18 your decision as it pertains to Mr. Avery's case?

19 A. Here's what I think happened. His apartment was 20 right below mine and I think I printed off
21 Lehman, decided there was nothing newer than 22 that, that was something like a 1982 case,
23 thereabout.

24 Q. Right.

25 A. Printed it off. Took it down, I think, to

1 Jerry's apartment. My recollection is that he
2 was going to call Kathy, who is his wife and law
3 partner, and bounce it off her and see if she had
4 ever bumped into this situation or could help.
5 But I think it wasn't very long before I got down
6 there and said, you know, I think I have the
7 case.

8 Q. All right. And so you and he then discussed what 9 you thought the case meant and how it might
10 affect Mr. Avery's case?

11 A. Right. It was -- As I recall, it was a Justice
12 Abrahamson opinion, so it took a while to read,
13 but, yes.

14 Q. Another time. When you went to bed that night,
15 then you were aware of the fact that, at least as 16 you believed them, there were three options
17 available to you, and more particularly, to 18 Mr. Avery? When I say you I mean you and
19 Mr. Buting.

20 A. Right. I think we knew those three options when 21 we retired.

22 Q. And as you talked about, the one option was 23 proceed with 11?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Another option was a mistrial?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And then the third option was, let's go with the 3 substitute juror?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. All right. And as I understood your comment, you
6 have a firm personal philosophy of not advising
7 to go with 11 jurors?

8 A. Right. And that would be consistent with what I
9 learned from the people who mentored me.

10 Q. And one of the reasons for that is, that 11 regardless, if there is to be a conviction, it's 12 going to take 12 and not 11, so there's an extra
13 person there?

14 A. Yup.

15 Q. And the other option is, if there's a 12th juror,
16 then there's at least -- I'm not going to get
17 into statistics, but there's at least one more
18 opportunity that you might have a juror that's 19 not convinced and you are going to have a
20 mistrial?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Thus there would be no conviction for your 23 client?

24 A. That's right.

25 Q. And even though its not a conviction -- or excuse

1 me -- even though it's not an acquittal, it's not
2 a conviction, so it's still in your client's
3 interest?

4 A. He lives to fight another day.

5 Q. He lives to fight another day.

6 A. That's right. That's right.

7 Q. All right. So with the benefit of the 12th
8 juror, the substitute juror, then it would have
9 been true that by substituting that juror, you
10 kept your client's right to a 12 person jury
11 firm?

12 A. I don't want to quibble with you on firm, but I
13 -- but I will -- I will agree that, yes, in the 14 end he had 12 jurors who returned the verdicts.

15 Q. Returned the verdicts. And by having a 12th
16 juror, you then also had that -- you still had 17 that additional option that maybe a mistrial
18 would result, because there was still one more
19 person the State had to convince before a
20 conviction could be obtained, right?

21 A. Well, we had no way of knowing which way the jury
22 was split or leaning but, yes, there were 12
23 people who had to agree unanimously, one way or 24 the other at that point, not 11.

25 Q. So in this sense, the opportunity for a mistrial

1 still existed?

2 A. Sure, I mean, they hadn't returned a verdict, so
3 there's always a possibility that they will
4 deadlock, I suppose.

5 Q. Right. Now, you told us about the fee agreement
6 and the handshake with Mr. Buting about -- that 7 you would go all out for an acquittal in this
8 particular case. In terms of assessing this 9 case, you also felt fairly good about how the 10 case went in for the defense, did you not?

11 A. At trial's end?

12 Q. I'm sorry?

13 A. At trial's end?

14 Q. Yes.

15 A. Yes, I thought that it had gone in about as well
16 as it could, taken as a whole.

17 Q. Right. All right. And so when it came down to 18 discuss these three options with your client, you
19 had to make a recommendation to him as to which 20 option you thought was in his best interest,
21 right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And how much time did you spend with him
24 discussing the option of proceeding with just the 25 remaining 11 jurors?

1 A. Almost none. I would have -- I would have made
2 very clear I thought that folly.

3 Q. And as I understood your testimony, that was --
4 there was clear agreement by Mr. Buting on that 5 point, with you?

6 A. Right, no disagreement, certainly.

7 Q. So you told him about the option, but you really
8 made short shrift of any discussion as to whether
9 that was in his best interest?

10 A. That's fair.

11 Q. All right. So, in effect, then, the time spent
12 with him was the discussion of should we mistry
13 this case or should we go with the substitute
14 juror. The balance of your time with him was 15 discussing those possibilities?

16 A. At least the balance of the substantive
17 discussion, I agree.

18 Q. All right. And with respect to assessing this 19 case, you recommended, I believe you said,
20 against mistrial?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Mr. Buting agreed with that recommendation?

23 A. Yes, I think we were speaking jointly, not at the 24 same time, but I think we agreed, yes, we'll take 25 the 13th juror, the alternate, put her in, start

1 deliberations over.

2 Q. All right. And you would agree with me, would
3 you not, that the parties, meaning yourself and
4 Mr. Buting, and the three of us, Mr. Gahn,
5 Mr. Kratz and myself, had contemplated the very
6 possibility that we would have need for a
7 substitute juror?

8 A. Yes. Who's idea that was, I don't have any 9 recollection now, but, yeah, we kept a 13th. I
10 think excused two alternates and kept one for the 11 purpose of having a spare, so to speak, if we ran
12 into trouble.

13 Q. And as a matter of fact that was the result of a
14 somewhat extensive process, was it not?

15 A. What I remember, that I could describe fairly as 16 extensive, is that I think we horse traded so
17 that it was -- it was really sort of wired who 18 the one remaining alternate would be.

19 Q. As a matter of fact, it was you, was it not, who 20 suggested that the parties exchange one
21 additional peremptory strike of the three
22 alternates, thereby leaving one alternate left?

23 A. It certainly could have been. I mean that level
24 of detail, I don't remember, but that sounds like
25 me. I mean, that --

1 Q. Yes.

2 A. That sounds right.

3 Q. All right. And as a matter of fact, you had one
4 particular juror in mind that you wanted to 5 strike because a previous motion to strike for 6 cause was denied?

7 A. Yes, that's right. That's right. I think there
8 had been a motion to strike for cause.

9 Q. All right. And as result of some familiarity
10 with one of the witnesses?

11 A. I don't remember why. I remember there was one I
12 really wanted to see go.

13 Q. All right. And the State also removed one juror
14 that was a concern to all parties as a result of 15 some activities that occurred shortly before the 16 end of the trial?

17 A. I think so, something that had to do with maybe
18 brandy Manhattans, at a fish fry.

19 Q. Something about a juror being a little too
20 talkative at a fish fry.

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. All right. So the parties horse traded, as it
23 were, thereby we left one alternate juror on the 24 panel.

25 A. That's how I recall it.

1 Q. And then we took the additional step of agreeing
2 that that juror would be sequestered at the
3 hotel, all by herself?

4 A. Yeah, I think that's probably right. Do I recall
5 that specifically, no, but that sounds right.

6 Q. All right. Because we didn't want to run the 7 risk of her somehow being contaminated by any 8 news accounts or discussions with family,
9 correct?

10 A. I'm sure. I'm not disagreeing if you have a 11 better recollection than that.

12 Q. So when it came time to actually be faced with 13 the decision here, the parties had contemplated
14 and prepared for this eventuality?

15 A. The lawyers, at least on the defense side, it was 16 just the lawyers. We had not included Mr. Avery,
17 probably, in any of that.

18 Q. In any of that.

19 A. Probably not.

20 Q. In your view, that was -- these are the kinds of 21 questions that lawyers routinely make, based on 22 their experience?

23 A. Yes and no. This is something I should have 24 discussed with Mr. Avery, but because he was not 25 admitted to bail, or he was unable to make the

1 bail the Court had set, and I think Sergeant
2 Wiegert in particular, or Detective Wiegert, was 3 listening assiduously to his phone calls at the 4 end of each week; we just didn't share things
5 with Mr. Avery that we should have.

6 Q. But the question is, with respect to the lawyers
7 in this case agreed that -- to this option being 8 available?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. All right. When you recommended against mistrial
11 to Mr. Avery, what other reasons did you give 12 him? You talked about the situation, the 13 agreement you had with Mr. Buting, but what other
14 reasons, what other thoughts, crossed your mind?

15 A. Well, it crossed my lips. I mean, I told Mr.
16 Avery, you know, if this case gets mistried, it's 17 not going away, you know.

18 It's a very serious case. They are 19 going to reprosecute this. You know, you are 20 going to face another jury trial and you won't
21 have us as your lawyers. We tried to say that 22 nicely and gently, but he was entitled to that 23 truth. He was not going to have us as his
24 lawyers.

25 And as a practical matter, what that

1 meant is that he would have to rely on counsel
2 appointed by the State Public Defender. That was
3 information we had -- I thought, had to share
4 with him.

5 I think I'm really pretty certain that I
6 told him, hey, the case went in, you know, about 7 as well as it could have. You know, we won some,
8 we lost some but, you know, overall, you take
9 this on the whole, it went in about as well as it
10 could have, for the defense. That I'm quite sure
11 I told him.

12 Q. And you believe that you and Mr. Buting did the 13 best you could on this case?

14 A. Oh, geez, that's a -- that's a God question, in 15 some ways. I mean --

16 Q. Well, you worked very hard on this case?

17 A. We worked very hard on the case, that's true.

18 Q. And you believe that you said that it went in as 19 well as it could, and we can't account for 20 everything in trial work, can you?

21 A. Right. I mean, about as well as we could have.
22 The calculus really was, is this case likely to 23 go in better for the defense the second time, and 24 I thought probably not.

25 Q. Right. And one of the reasons is, you thought

1 that you and Mr. Buting gave him his best chance
2 at an acquittal, based on the record you made?

3 A. There's probably some arrogance in that but, yes.

4 Q. And you knew at a retrial the prosecution would
5 have an opportunity to dissect whatever defense
6 strategy there was and attempt to deal with it on 7 a retrial?

8 A. Yes, that's a two way street but, of course, yes.

9 Q. And certain evidentiary developments that 10 occurred during the course of the trial would 11 have affected any possible retrial of this case,
12 specifically, reference the EDTA issue?

13 A. Yes. I think that was part of the calculation, 14 or should have been and rightly was part of the 15 calculation.

16 Q. As to what might likely occur on any type of 17 retrial?

18 A. Right. One could assume that there would be some 19 months between the Court declaring a mistrial and 20 then impaneling a new jury.

21 Q. And that --

22 A. With the change of counsel, there well could have 23 been a year.

24 Q. And that was my next question, could have been at 25 least nine months and probably more?

1 A. It well could have been.

2 Q. And that would have been 9 or 10 or 12 more
3 months in the local county jail for your client?

4 A. As matters stood, I mean, one would renew a bail
5 motion, but he was not able to come close -- he
6 and his family could not come close to posting
7 the bail that the Court set.

8 Q. Right. And finally, you had a pretty good
9 idea -- Well, let me rephrase that. You at least 10 had some idea who the alternate juror would be 11 when she was substituted in?

12 A. I knew her name.

13 Q. You knew the name.

14 A. Sure.

15 Q. And it wasn't someone that you moved to strike
16 either for cause or for any peremptory challenge
17 earlier on, right?

18 A. I'm not answering that one because, you know, A,
19 there will be a transcript of what I did or 20 didn't do. And, B, I have no recollection of 21 whether I moved to strike that juror at any
22 point.

23 Q. All right. But in terms of whatever impression
24 you had, you were left with the impression that 25 she was at least an acceptable or an okay juror

1 to assume the role as the 12th juror?

2 A. Specifically, what my opinion was, that she was
3 the best of the three alternates. You know, if 4 we were going to have an alternate retained,
5 during deliberations, this woman was the one to 6 pick.

7 Q. But we didn't know who the alternates were until 8 the names came out of the tumbler, right?

9 A. I think that's right, but it was after that point
10 we knew there were three.

11 Q. Three.

12 A. And my view was, of those three this is the one I
13 would pick --

14 Q. If you had to --

15 A. -- if I had to choose, right.

16 Q. Now, in your discussions with Mr. Avery,
17 regarding whether he should follow your advice or 18 not, he certainly didn't insist on proceeding
19 with 11 jurors, did he?

20 A. No.

21 Q. And he accepted your recommendation that a
22 mistrial was probably not the best choice?

23 A. Yeah, he accepted it. I really think I steered
24 this decision --

25 Q. Right.

1 A. -- to the outcome.

2 Q. But that's not the first time you have had a
3 discussion with a client and recommended
4 strongly, or softly, or to use your phrase,
5 steered a client toward a decision which you
6 believed was in their best interest?

7 A. Oh, it's not the first time at all.

8 Q. No. In fact, it's somewhat -- it's often quite 9 routine?

10 A. I do it commonly.

11 Q. All right.

12 A. I think it's the first time I ever told a client
13 to turn down a mistrial.

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: May I approach?

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ Counsel, I'm showing you
17 what has been received as Exhibit No. 1, I
18 believe you have previously identified that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. The Court provided us with that memo on the 16th,
21 did it not?

22 A. I don't recall that. I'm not denying it. It's 23 dated the 16th. In my mind, I first saw this 24 after trial, which of course is impossible, if it
25 was given to me on the 16th. I would have looked

1 at it.

2 Q. Do you want to take a moment to look it over,
3 specifically page two? Read page two to
4 yourself.

5 A. The second paragraph --

6 Q. Yes.

7 A. -- is the one you are trying to invite --

8 Q. Yes.

9 A. -- me to consider? Yeah, I read it, but I don't
10 know if the judge is saying he prepared the memo
11 this morning or prepared the memo to elaborate
12 the comments on the record this morning.

13 Q. But we had a discussion in chambers at 8:30 as 14 well?

15 A. Right, probably was 8:30.

16 Q. All right. But you would agree that the Court
17 did provide you with that memorandum?

18 A. Oh, yes, absolutely.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. I don't know if when is a big deal --

21 Q. Right.

22 A. -- but.

23 Q. As you read it over now, there's nothing in there
24 that strikes you as being inconsistent with your 25 memory of those events, is there?

1 A. I didn't read the whole thing. If you want me to
2 answer that I'm going to read the whole thing
3 then.

4 Q. Sure.

5 A. You know, the only thing I really -- I recall
6 differently is, I think the first call from the 7 judge to my cell phone happened, you know, before
8 9:00 p.m. I would have -- you know, I think it
9 more like 8:30.

10 Q. Quarter to nine, something like that?

11 A. Yeah, but I mean, earlier than that. And then 12 the rest of it, you know, is consistent with my 13 recollection, to the extent I have one. And this 14 sort of prompts me to recall, but I think in the 15 first conversation there was some discussion
16 which the judge was expressing reluctance to go
17 too far into the details of the marital 18 difficulties, or not, you know, not wanting to 19 embarrass or pry unnecessarily. And, you know,
20 that I agreed that some deftness there was 21 appropriate.

22 Q. In other words, the Court was struggling to 23 balance the competing objectives that were at 24 play here?

25 A. That was my sense.

1 Q. All right. All right. Thank you. As a result
2 of, then, Mr. Avery accepting your recommendation
3 to proceed with 12, that then put into play a
4 series of events regarding just how we were going
5 to do that, in terms of integrating a brand new 6 juror, correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right. And I believe that the parties were 9 in agreement. And I think based on some of the 10 research the parties had done, is that they would 11 have to be instructed as a group again, to start
12 over?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. And that they should be told to start over?

15 A. That much I got from Lehman, or that's -- you
16 know, I read Lehman to require that.

17 Q. And as a matter of fact, the first step we took 18 in the process was to invite the new juror in and 19 make sure that she had obeyed her responsibility
20 not to listen to any media accounts, or anything
21 of that sort; in other words, we wanted to make 22 sure that her knowledge base hadn't been tainted
23 by outside information? We had a colloquy with 24 the juror, correct?

25 A. I really don't remember that. I'm sure it's a

1 matter of record. I'm not disputing whatever the 2 transcript shows.

3 Q. And we did bring the jury back in as a whole and 4 have them reinstructed, and the jury was
5 instructed to accept the new juror and to begin
6 deliberations anew?

7 A. Yes, I remember being in the courtroom, all the 8 lawyers, Mr. Avery. I remember the jury coming
9 back in and an instruction to that effect being 10 given. I have no specific recollection of 11 details.

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: May I?

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ I'm showing you what has 15 been marked as Exhibit 2?

16 (Witness asks for a break.)

17 THE COURT: We'll take a short break at 18 this time, resume in five minutes.

19 (Recess taken.)

20 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon, you may continue.

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: Just a few more questions
22 on this issue, counsel.

23 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ I provided you what has 24 been marked for identification purposes as
25 Exhibit No. 2; do you recognize it?

1 A. This must be the instruction the jurors were
2 given after the alternate joined them.

3 Q. And there was no objection from you or Mr. Buting
4 as to the content of that instruction, correct?

5 A. I don't want to be quarrelsome, I don't remember.
6 I'm going to let the record speak on that, if
7 that's acceptable.

8 Q. Very well. All right. Let's change gears a
9 little bit and ask, if I may, a few questions on 10 the third party liability question. We have
11 referred to it as the Court's Denny ruling, so I
12 will use that terminology, if that's acceptable?

13 A. Sure.

14 Q. The Court's ruling did not preclude you from 15 pointing a finger at Brendan Dassey, correct?

16 A. That's right.

17 Q. And in this particular case, you chose not to 18 introduce any evidence or point the finger that 19 way?

20 A. That's right.

21 Q. The Court's ruling still allowed you to suggest,
22 and you so argued, that some unknown, some other
23 person, committed this murder?

24 A. Yes. I mean, we certainly were allowed a
25 reasonable doubt argument and I think your

1 request, generally, was fair.

2 Q. And so the impact of the ruling specifically was
3 that you couldn't point a particular finger at a
4 particular suspect?

5 A. Or suspects, yes.

6 Q. Or suspects, or more than one. All right. The 7 ruling still permitted you to argue and
8 cross-examine witnesses with the idea in mind
9 that the police framed Mr. Avery?

10 A. Yes, I mean, at least in the sense of suggesting
11 the police may have planted evidence, yes. And I
12 paused because there may have been -- I think
13 there was a separate motion argument and ruling
14 on that issue, if my memory serves.

15 Q. Well, there was the blood vial issue, right?

16 A. I thought even apart from that. I may be wrong,
17 but the short answer to your question was, yes,
18 we were able to argue planting of evidence.

19 Q. And you were then able to choose, as a lawyer,
20 which bits of evidence you would actually argue
21 were planted by the police?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. In other words, you had your choice of suggesting 24 that the blood was planted?

25 A. In the Toyota?

1 Q. Yes.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. You had the opportunity to argue that the police
4 planted the key?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. In fact, you also argued that the bones, the 7 fragments identified as Teresa Halbach, were
8 actually moved from some place else to the fire
9 pit behind his house, correct?

10 A. That argument was not directed toward the police.
11 That's not on the topic we're discussing. The 12 blood, yes. The key, we had -- we were able to 13 develop an evidentiary basis to make those 14 arguments.

15 Q. And you chose not to make the argument with 16 respect to the bones in the fire pit,
17 specifically?

18 A. Chose not to argue that the police moved the 19 bones?

20 Q. Yes.

21 A. I didn't argue that the police moved the bones
22 and, you know ...

23 Q. That some unknown person did?

24 A. The perpetrator, I think, was the gist of my
25 argument and the police were not the perpetrator.

1 Q. Now, you realized that the prosecution was going
2 to argue that the way the frame up theory was
3 positive, that a reasonable conclusion, in fact,
4 an almost irrefutable conclusion, was that they
5 would have had to have been involved in the 6 crime. You knew that argument was coming?

7 A. I didn't know it, I anticipated that you would
8 make what I sort of think of as a false premise
9 argument, that if we argued that the police were 10 involved in planting evidence, to believe that 11 you would have to believe that the police also 12 committed the underlying crime.

13 Q. In fact, I made that argument in the 14 suppression -- in the motion hearing two weeks
15 before trial.

16 A. I don't recall that, but I certainly anticipated
17 it and, you know, probably anticipated it
18 before -- two weeks before the trial, if you made
19 that argument then.

20 Q. Right.

21 A. It didn't take a genius to anticipate that
22 argument.

23 Q. Exactly. Now, there was quite a bit of evidence
24 in this particular case that was available for 25 you to poke holes at or question its reliability?

1 A. I don't know how to agree or disagree with that.
2 I mean, the Court's rulings circumscribed the
3 available evidence in some ways, opened it up in 4 other ways.

5 You know, there was a whole series of
6 rulings, obviously, that had an affect on both
7 the evidence the parties would have available to 8 them and the arguments they might make based on 9 that evidence, or the inferences they might ask
10 the jury to draw, so.

11 Q. That's my point, the rulings that while they may 12 close some doors, they open other doors that 13 previously weren't there, as you just said.

14 A. Right. And I'm not going to --

15 Q. My next question is, can you give us an example 16 of that?

17 A. Of what?

18 Q. Of a Court's ruling opening an avenue or opening
19 a door you hadn't previously thought of?

20 A. No, you know, a door the Court did not close, for 21 example, would have been -- I know there were 22 some doors the Court left open and I can't come
23 up --

24 ATTORNEY ASKINS: Judge, excuse me, I would
25 like to interpose an objection. I'm not sure what

1 the relevance is of this is.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: The relevance is that
4 they have spent some time talking about trial
5 strategy and supposed impact of the Court's ruling
6 in this particular case. My argument is that the 7 Court's ruling, or I'm trying to get counsel to talk
8 about the fact that this ruling does, for whatever,
9 there's a cause and there's effect. There's a
10 liability and there's an availability of other 11 arguments and other approaches to the evidence. And 12 that's what I'm probing here, this relative to the 13 prejudice issue. I will rephrase the question.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's probably the best
16 way to go here.

17 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ All right. You indicated
18 on examination that you would have approached the 19 handling of witness, Bobby Dassey, differently;
20 is that correct?

21 A. It's reconstructive necessarily, but, yes, I
22 think I probably would have approached Bobby
23 Dassey differently if the Denny ruling had gone
24 our way, rather than against us.

25 Q. All right. And I think you said you would have

1 treated him more as a murderer?

2 A. As a potential murderer, I probably would have
3 projected that attitude, you know, taken that
4 position as a foundation for my cross. If that 5 makes sense to you.

6 Q. What evidence did you have that Bobby Dassey
7 killed Teresa Halbach?

8 A. He potentially is the last one to admit seeing
9 her. His only alibi is Scott Tadych. His story
10 about deer hunting is improbable, at least 11 because of the showering. His recollection of 12 time frames is different than the bus driver.

13 And I think we had a good argument that 14 she was, because of the habit and the sort of 15 likelihood that she's getting to each stop along
16 her school bus route at the same time, five days
17 a week, that she was a more reliable witness in 18 that respect.

19 He has access to Steven's trailer. He 20 has access to the guns in his own home.

21 And, you know, if you're asking for
22 direct evidence, no, I didn't have a confession.
23 We could have presented a circumstantial
24 evidence, in much the same way the State did
25 here, against Mr. Avery.

1 Q. But you would agree there was no direct evidence
2 connecting Mr. Dassey to the murder?

3 A. I don't know that I can agree or disagree, as I
4 sit here now, at that level of detail, I'm sorry.

5 Q. There's no physical evidence?

6 A. No -- No forensic evidence, no trace evidence?

7 Q. Right.

8 A. None that I'm aware of, that's right.

9 Q. No blood?

10 A. Of Bobby Dassey?

11 Q. Yup.

12 A. None that I know.

13 Q. And none of Teresa Halbach's was apparently 14 located anywhere inside the Dassey trailer,
15 correct?

16 A. Or the Avery trailer.

17 Q. Or the Avery trailer, which makes it rather 18 unusual if somebody was trying to frame him,
19 wouldn't they put evidence there?

20 A. Arguably they did leave a gun there.

21 Q. Well, they left a gun.

22 A. With masking tape, saying Steve's gun, or 23 something like it.

24 Q. Only it wasn't Steve's gun, was it?

25 A. I don't remember whose -- the masking tape is

1 what I remember, and I think I -- I think I all
2 but gave the jury the felon in possession count
3 in closing argument, if memory serves.

4 Q. But that's not my question, what you did in
5 closing argument.

6 A. No, I'm sorry.

7 Q. The question is the evidence. So you would have 8 taken a different tone of voice?

9 A. Attitude, I mean, the cross would have been 10 outlined differently and the projected attitude
11 to the witness, I think, would have been 12 different, yes.

13 Q. All right. But that's not evidence, correct?

14 A. No, that's -- No, it's part of the courtroom
15 mosaic. It's considered by juries. It's not 16 within the definition of evidence.

17 Q. And you were able to cross-examine Mr. Dassey
18 about the so-called joke, the Court's ruling did
19 not preclude you from crossing him on the joke,
20 correct?

21 A. That's correct. That's correct.

22 Q. And you would agree, as trial counsel, there are 23 several ways for lawyers to deal with issues such 24 as that. There's not just one way to 25 cross-examine a witness when something happens

1 like that.

2 A. Oh, I agree with that. I think the point is that 3 one's theory of defense drives the
4 cross-examinations, just as its drives the direct
5 examinations and the decisions about who to call,
6 if anyone, in a defense case, if you're defending
7 the case, and the theory -- your theory drives
8 all of those decisions. So I think, in a sense,
9 I'm agreeing with you.

10 Q. And so the ruling did not preclude you from 11 cross-examining them on the joke?

12 A. No, I was allowed to cross-examine him.

13 Q. What evidence did you have that Scott Tadych
14 murdered Teresa Halbach?

15 A. Just circumstances that would have allowed the 16 inference. I ticked through some of them on 17 direct examination. I'm not going to sit here
18 and pretend to recall all of it.

19 But I think his foreman, or his boss,
20 had some helpful potential testimony about his
21 violent nature, his angry nature, the day he runs
22 out of work ashen faced when one of the Dassey
23 boys is picked up by the police, or talked to by 24 the police. Mutual alibi with Bobby Dassey.
25 Changes in his story about when he sees flames,

1 how high the flames are, how big the fire is.

2 I mean, this is -- this is someone who,
3 as I recall, testified differently on a number of 4 points, than the statements he had made to
5 Calumet County sheriff's officers earlier.

6 Q. And you pointed out those inconsistencies in the 7 cross-examination of Mr. Tadych, didn't you?

8 A. Some of them, I did, yes, times, height of 9 flames.

10 Q. Height of flames, the passing of Mr. Dassey on 11 the roadway?

12 A. I didn't do much with that.

13 Q. But you cross-examined him, you had that 14 opportunity?

15 A. Oh, sure, I had the opportunity to cross-examine 16 Mr. Tadych, agreed.

17 Q. And you knew that afternoon Mr. Tadych was 18 nowhere near that property, was he?

19 A. I don't know that at all.

20 Q. He was up visiting his mother in the hospital;
21 there were numerous witnesses to that, correct?

22 A. Well, as a matter of fact, I think he said there
23 were none. And no one testified they had seen
24 him visit his mother at Bellin. But that was his 25 story, that he had been up visiting his mother at

1 Bellin hospital, as I recall it.

2 Q. And there are witnesses that could have been 3 called to substantiate that, had it been 4 necessary?

5 A. I don't know that at all.

6 Q. You and I both know that in trying a particular
7 case you pick and choose what evidence is going 8 to be delivered to the jury during the course of 9 a trial, correct?

10 A. Sure.

11 Q. And you make decisions on whether or not the 12 evidence is needed or necessary at the time
13 before it's presented to the jury for
14 consideration?

15 A. If I were you, I would have decided no such 16 evidence to corroborate Mr. Tadych was necessary
17 because he wasn't available to us as a Denny
18 suspect.

19 Q. And that's because there was no evidence that 20 directly connected him to that crime?

21 A. I mean, we're getting back to arguing the 22 briefing.

23 Q. What evidence did you have that he was trying to 24 frame his brother-in-law, or soon to be 25 brother-in-law?

1 A. What evidence did I have? Changing the story, I
2 guess, and putting Steven out by a bonfire at the 3 side of a garage, different times depending on 4 when you asked him.

5 Q. But he wasn't the only one to put him by a
6 bonfire, was he?

7 ATTORNEY ASKINS: Objection, your Honor, I
8 think this goes beyond the scope of our direct.

9 THE COURT: Well, cross-examination isn't
10 limited by direct.

11 ATTORNEY ASKINS: Then I guess I would have 12 to question the relevance, your Honor.

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: They are the ones saying
14 that the record is such that they have been 15 prejudiced by the Court's ruling. I'm looking for 16 what the law requires as introduction of evidence
17 upon which a court makes a ruling. And we're 18 probing for the evidentiary underpinnings of the 19 argument they are now advancing.

20 THE COURT: All right. I did rule in the 21 defense favor before on the theory that some showing
22 of prejudice should be allowed, so I'm going to 23 allow your questions to proceed as well.

24 A. I paused as I did, and I will defer to all of you
25 who have read the transcript presumably, and I

1 have not, of the trial. But I can't remember
2 another witness who put Steven Avery -- at trial,
3 who put Steven Avery at a bonfire. Maybe I'm 4 forgetting someone, but I don't remember any
5 other trial witness who did that. I think
6 Mr. Fabian talked about seeing a fire in the one
7 burn barrel to the south and east maybe of, or 8 north and east of Mr. Avery's trailer, but I --
9 again, I will defer to all of you who have read
10 the transcript.

11 Q. My point is, if you had evidence, it was 12 presented in your motion to the Court in an 13 effort to get the Court to rule in your favor and 14 permit this type of -- permit this type of 15 argument?

16 A. I think I did the best I could in that brief to 17 lay out the available evidence that I thought
18 bore on making the Denny showing. That I agree.

19 Q. And going back to the point I was making earlier,
20 you and I both know, as trial counsel, that there
21 is what is in the record and what is actually
22 used by the lawyers in their case. And then
23 there's a whole other set of facts and other
24 information which is available, that the lawyers,
25 for whatever reason, tactical or otherwise, chose

1 not to use or introduce in evidence?

2 A. That's generally true. That's right.

3 Q. And in this particular case, there was a
4 substantial amount of police investigation that
5 was developed?

6 A. Yeah. I'm not -- I mean, I'm not going to 7 quarrel with the adjective.

8 Q. But the point being is that there easily could 9 have been other witnesses to many events, they 10 just weren't called as witnesses, because for one
11 party or the other decided they didn't need to 12 use them.

13 A. I can agree with that, in general.

14 ATTORNEY ASKINS: Your Honor, excuse me. I
15 just want to interject because -- and this is a
16 little unusual because, of course, Mr. Fallon
17 participated at the trial, but he is prefacing many 18 of his so-called questions with, my point is. And I
19 would ask that the attorney be instructed that we're 20 going at questions now, not points that he is 21 attempting to establish with this witness, or with
22 this witness.

23 THE COURT: I understand his usage of the 24 phrase to mean the point of my question is.

25 ATTORNEY ASKINS: All right.

1 THE COURT: That's the way I'm taking it.

2 ATTORNEY ASKINS: Thank you, your Honor.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: Going to pass the

4 witness.

5 THE COURT: Any redirect?

6 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Yes, please.

7 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

8 BY ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN:

9 Q. Mr. Strang, I would like to direct your attention
10 back, again, to the conversation you had with 11 Judge Willis on March 15th, while you were at the 12 restaurant. When the judge explained to you the 13 problem with the juror, was it your understanding
14 that at that point the judge had not personally
15 spoken with the juror?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Was it your understanding that the information
18 that was being imparted to you was, at best,
19 secondhand?

20 A. Yes, someone in the sheriff's department, to 21 judge, to me.

22 Q. Did you, in fact, know that someone in the 23 sheriff's department had spoken with the juror?

24 A. I think I understood that from what the judge was 25 telling me. The information the judge got was

1 coming from the sheriff's department, so I
2 inferred that someone in the sheriff's department
3 had spoken to the juror.

4 Q. So, was it your understanding that at the time
5 this information was imparted to you, that Judge
6 Willis had had no opportunity to observe the 7 demeanor of the juror?

8 A. That was my understanding. I don't know if he 9 said this or not, but I had the sense that the 10 judge was calling me from his home.

11 Q. So the judge would have had no opportunity to 12 personally assess whether this juror was upset or 13 distraught?

14 A. At the time of the first call to me?

15 Q. Yes.

16 A. So I assumed.

17 Q. And in that conversation, did you know, did you
18 have any information that this juror, Mr. Mahler,
19 may have had some concerns about how some other
20 jurors were approaching the deliberations?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Did you have any information that perhaps
23 Mr. Mahler was having some problem with another
24 juror?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Did you have any information that Mr. Mahler had
2 felt verbally threatened by another juror?

3 A. No.

4 Q. And in this conversation and when you authorized
5 the Court to speak with and then to remove the 6 juror, it's correct that you also, personally,
7 had no opportunity to assess the demeanor of the 8 witness?

9 A. That's true.

10 Q. Excuse me, not the witness, but the juror.

11 A. The juror, Mr. Mahler, no, that's true.

12 Q. There was some indication that this juror may 13 have been upset, or a part of his emotional
14 status was due to his wife's upset about some 15 press report; do you recall that?

16 A. Do I recall hearing that in that first telephone
17 conversation?

18 Q. Yeah, in that conversation.

19 A. I can't place it there. I know I heard it at 20 some point, it well could have been in that first
21 conversation.

22 Q. You could have heard that in the conversation?

23 A. Yeah, I could have, yes.

24 Q. And that wasn't the first time you had heard
25 something about his wife being upset about a

1 press report, correct?

2 A. Gosh, off the top of my head, I don't remember an
3 earlier time, but.

4 Q. Do you remember a few days earlier, was on 5 March 12th, when the Court conducted an
6 individual voir dire of each of the jurors?

7 A. Yes. I couldn't have told you the date, but in a
8 little conference room down the hall from -- from 9 Judge Poppy's chambers in Calumet County, I
10 think.

11 Q. And Richard Mahler was among the jurors who was 12 individually questioned; do you recall that?

13 A. I think we went through all of them, I think,
14 that day.

15 Q. And do you recall in that individual voir dire
16 whether Mr. Mahler had referred to his wife's 17 upset about a press report at the time of jury
18 selection?

19 A. That -- that rings a bell. That rings a bell
20 with me, but I couldn't give you details or 21 even --

22 Q. Would it --

23 A. -- really assert to you with complete confidence
24 that he said it in that individual voir dire.

25 Q. Would it refresh your recollection to take a look

1 at the transcript of the individual voir dire?

2 A. Sure, and I'm not disputing the transcript, I
3 mean it does ring a bell, but.

4 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: May I approach, your
5 Honor?

6 THE COURT: Go ahead.

7 Q. (By Attorney Hagopian)~ I'm going to ask you to 8 take a look at the transcript from March 12,
9 2007. And page 32, beginning at line 24, there's
10 a reference here, actually, to officer speaking
11 and I believe the State has agreed that that must 12 be a typographical error and actually was 13 referring to Mahler. And if you would begin
14 reading there and on to the next page?

15 A. I remember the gist of this.

16 Q. Okay. So is it, then, your recollection -- Did
17 you read through line 14 on page 33?

18 A. No, I read through line 24 --

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. -- on page 33.

21 Q. Okay. So in that individual voir dire, then,
22 Mr. Mahler raised the issue of his wife's upset?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And that was referring back to the time of jury
25 selection?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And the Court asked Mr. Mahler if that was going
3 to affect his ability to continue serving on this
4 jury?

5 A. Right, and in effect he said, no, that he could 6 deal with that.

7 Q. And he could handle that. And so you -- you were 8 present for that individual voir dire on the 9 12th?

10 A. Yes, I was.

11 Q. And you would have been familiar with that when
12 you received the call from the Court on March
13 15th indicating a problem with this juror?

14 A. Yes. And I would hazard a guess that I would 15 have remembered it, three days later, unlike now.

16 Q. You have testified that you were concerned that 17 perhaps the best you could accomplish that night,
18 in that conversation with Judge Willis, was to 19 have the judge talk to the juror before excusing
20 him. Is that -- Do you recall that testimony?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. So, was it your concern that if somehow you
23 objected to this process, objected to the Court
24 talking to the juror, that the judge might just 25 excuse Mr. Mahler without even speaking with him?

1 A. That was my concern. Now, I can't attribute that
2 to anyone other than myself. I mean, that was
3 just an impression, was that the best we were
4 going to get was having the judge speak directly
5 to the juror.

6 Q. But is it also your recollection that when --
7 that at some point you told the judge you needed
8 to confer with Mr. Buting about this and you
9 would get back to him?

10 A. It's a -- That's a reconstructed recollection, in 11 the sense I know I would have wanted to talk to 12 Mr. Buting, arrive at an agreement. We, like the 13 day before, or two days before, very recently
14 before this, Jerry Buting and I had had a set to 15 over a decision I had made without consulting
16 him. It was probably two days before. Because I
17 didn't consult him, he was home preparing his 18 part of the closing argument and I was here -- or 19 I was at the courthouse in Chilton.

20 We had had a real disagreement over that 21 for, first real conflict. So I know I would have 22 been attuned, the night of the 15th, to bringing 23 Jerry into the loop and making a collaborative
24 decision on this. And I now know there was a
25 phone call. I didn't remember that phone call

1 until you and Ms Askins showed me the page from
2 the cell phone records, but there was a cell
3 phone call from Mr. Buting's phone to the judge's
4 telephone number, I think. So, I'm
5 reconstructing what I believe must have happened.

6 Q. So your best recollection, though reconstructed
7 at this point, is that you did ask for time to 8 confer, although perhaps not a lot of time, but 9 that the judge did permit you to confer and get 10 back to him?

11 A. Right, that's my -- that's my best recollection
12 as I sit here.

13 Q. Now, there was reference to the -- what was 14 agreed to was that the Court could speak with 15 Mr. Mahler, and if the information was 16 verified -- is that a fair word to use, verified?

17 A. Right.

18 Q. That he could then dismiss the juror.

19 A. Right. And I want to -- I'm sorry not --

20 Q. Let me just ask.

21 A. Sure.

22 Q. By verified, you took that to mean that the Court
23 would be speaking with Mr. Mahler, correct?

24 A. Right.

25 Q. And that that would be occurring off the record?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And there wasn't any plan, as part of this
3 agreement, that the judge would report back to
4 you about what he learned from Mr. Mahler before
5 excusing him?

6 A. You know, I don't -- I don't remember. I think
7 we had given him the authority to go ahead and
8 excuse the juror if he decided that the report
9 from the sheriff's department was verified. I
10 think we had, you know, that we had agreed that 11 that's what the judge would do.

12 Q. So would it be fair to say that the verification
13 to you didn't come, really, until the next 14 morning, when --

15 A. I think I knew that night.

16 Q. You knew the juror was removed?

17 A. I think so. I really do. I think so.

18 Q. But any information that you obtained about what 19 Mr. Mahler told the judge would have come after 20 Mr. Mahler was removed from the jury, correct?

21 A. Yes, I think that's right. In other words, I
22 think when I heard it, it had happened, the Court
23 had excused Mr. Mahler. And then I think we were 24 told the details that the judge got and where the 25 judge stopped short rather than pushing the

1 juror, and the judge's impression that the juror
2 was very -- you know, was distraught, or in some
3 emotional distress.

4 Q. There -- You were asked on cross-examination
5 that, well, you know, even though you didn't take
6 a mistrial you still held out the possibility
7 that you could have had a hung jury; do you
8 remember that --

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. -- questioning? But you -- That morning, on 11 March 16th, you didn't have any doubt in your 12 mind you could have had a mistrial at that point?

13 A. Yes, I had a right to have a mistrial that 14 morning, or Steven did, Steven Avery did.

15 Q. And that was your reading of Lehman?

16 A. Yes. And I think had I told Steven Avery we 17 should have taken the mistrial, he would have 18 said, okay, and we would have had a mistrial.

19 Q. It was equally clear in your mind that you were 20 not going to be the attorney representing him in 21 the second trial?

22 A. I was not.

23 Q. And that was made clear to Mr. Avery as well?

24 A. Yes, not just in the fee agreement, but the 25 morning of the 16th.

1 Q. Now, had this case gone to a second trial, would
2 you have cooperated with successor counsel?

3 A. Sure.

4 Q. You would have shared your discovery that you
5 have obtained?

6 A. Well, sure.

7 Q. That next attorney could have obtained the 8 transcripts of the first trial?

9 A. Sure. Probably would have shared my trial notes.

10 Q. You testified that you had steered Mr. Avery to 11 not take the mistrial?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And is it correct that that steering away from a
14 mistrial was with the belief that what you were 15 steering him to, substituting the alternate, was 16 allowable under the law?

17 A. Yes.

18 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: That's all I have.
19 That's on the juror issue. In fact, I think that's 20 all we have for you.

21 THE COURT: Very well, Mr. Fallon.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Nothing from the State.

23 THE COURT: Witness is excused. Counsel,
24 you may call your next witness.

25 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Call Attorney Jerry

1 Buting.

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Judge, while we're
3 waiting for the witness, could counsel and I
4 approach?

5 THE COURT: Sure.

6 (Off record discussion.)

7 THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand.

8 ATTORNEY JEROME BUTING, called as a
9 witness herein, having been first duly sworn, was
10 examined and testified as follows:

11 THE CLERK: Please be seated. Please state
12 your name and spell your last name for the record.

13 THE WITNESS: Jerome Buting, B-u-t-i-n-g.

14 DIRECT EXAMINATION

15 BY ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN:

16 Q. Mr. Buting, is it correct that you, along with 17 Attorney Dean Strang, were trial counsel for 18 Mr. Avery in this case?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. I would like to direct your attention to near the 21 end of trial and, specifically, the date is 22 March 15, 2007. That's the day on which closing
23 arguments were completed and the jury began
24 deliberations; do you have some recollection of 25 that day?

1 A. Yes, I do.

2 Q. And, specifically, that evening, did you and
3 Attorney Strang go out to dinner that night?

4 A. Yes, we did. I believe it was some time after 8.
5 We were told the jury had quit for the day, that 6 they were going for dinner themselves and that we
7 could sort of stand down, so to speak.

8 Q. And would you just, please, briefly describe your 9 mood at dinner that night?

10 A. Well, it was the end of a six week trial, we were 11 obviously exhausted. And it was always a release
12 when you finish the closing arguments. You're 13 still on -- you're still tense, waiting for the 14 jury verdict, as we were in this particular case,
15 but once we were told that the jury had retired
16 for the night, we were able to relax a little
17 bit, and we were able to have a couple beers
18 for -- have dinner, and retire early, probably 19 was the plan.

20 Q. And is it fair to say that you felt that your 21 work was over for the night?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And then at some point that evening did you or 24 Mr. Strang receive a telephone call from Judge
25 Willis?

1 A. We did.

2 Q. And that was still while you were at the
3 restaurant?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Do you recall whether you spoke directly to Judge
6 Willis in that conversation when the judge
7 called?

8 A. Sure. My recollection, it's been two and a half
9 years, so it's a little unclear to me, but as I
10 pieced it together, my recollection is the first
11 call probably came in to my partner, Dean
12 Strang's cell phone. I don't know whether he 13 held it up to my ear, or whether -- I think more
14 likely he just spoke to the judge himself and 15 then relayed to me what information he was 16 getting, in that first call.

17 Q. And in that first call, at least as the 18 information was relayed to you, did you learn
19 that there was a problem with a juror?

20 A. Yes, I did. My understanding was that there
21 was -- there was a serious problem with one of 22 the jurors, a crisis, an emergency sort of 23 situation, that the juror's daughter or
24 stepdaughter had been in a serious car accident.

25 I don't recall whether -- I know that

1 the impression I had was not that she was
2 seriously injured. I don't recall whether she
3 was injured at all, but I knew that it was a very
4 serious accident. Maybe the car totaled,
5 something like that, and that the juror's wife
6 was upset at him that -- at how much of the time
7 during the trial he was apparently unavailable to 8 her.

9 And the situation was sort of like, here
10 it is, you know, now I'm alone, I have to deal
11 with this crisis. And there was apparently some 12 kind of reference to their marital problems and 13 that this was sort of the last straw, and he 14 wanted off. He had felt like he had to get off.
15 The impression I got was that the juror was just 16 really sort of falling apart and asking to be 17 excused.

18 Q. Now, do you recall, this information is imparted,
19 it's relayed to you, was there any discussion at 20 that point about how to handle the situation?

21 A. I think -- I don't recall whether the first phone
22 conversation, or whether it was the second one,
23 but I believe that at some point during that
24 first call Dean said, well, let me talk -- We'll 25 talk about it and we will get back to you

1 shortly.

2 And the impression was that we had to
3 talk quickly and get back to him within a few
4 minutes, 15, 20 minutes, something like that. I
5 don't know whether in that first call the option
6 came up that the judge could make some contact
7 with the juror himself, or whether that came up
8 as a way of dealing with it in the second call.

9 Q. What is your recollection about a second call,
10 how that came about?

11 A. I believe, and actually I checked my cell phone
12 records for this because I just couldn't recall
13 exactly the sequence, and just before 9:00 I
14 apparently made a phone call. I must have called
15 a number the judge gave me, and had, I believe it
16 was a 12 minute phone call.

17 The judge must have conferenced in
18 Mr. Kratz, because I don't think I knew how to do
19 that with my phone. At least I don't recall
20 doing that. But I'm sure he must have been on,
21 somehow involved in the conversation.

22 At some point, in one of those two
23 calls, the decision was made that the judge
24 would -- My impression was that this information
25 had come to the judge from one of the bailiffs,

1 that this juror was falling apart and that there
2 was this crisis. I had no indication that there
3 was any contact between the sheriff and the juror
4 or anything like that. I don't think I knew that 5 until much later.

6 But at any rate, my recollection is that
7 the judge suggested that perhaps he could contact
8 the juror, speak to the juror directly, and at 9 least verify that the information he was getting 10 was correct, that the juror was really
11 distraught.

12 And I don't recall exactly, my
13 recollection was that that was the judge's
14 suggestion, that he came up with. I don't 15 recall, certainly, suggesting it, but I can't be 16 sure who did.

17 Q. And so part of what was ultimately decided, if I
18 understand your testimony, is that the judge
19 would speak with the juror; is that correct?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Was there also an agreement that the judge would
22 be permitted, or you would agree that the judge
23 should remove the juror if the information was 24 confirmed or verified?

25 A. Yes. And the agreement was that that could be

1 done right then, that night. For some reason it
2 never occurred to any of us, I guess, to
3 reconvene in court.

4 The impression I got was that this was
5 the sort of crisis that needed to be resolved
6 immediately. And at the time, that seemed to be 7 the most efficient way to deal with it.

8 Q. So that night, then, as you are at the 9 restaurant, as the information comes in, as you
10 are making a decision what to do and the decision
11 is made, was it your understanding that the judge
12 would be speaking to the juror without either you
13 or Attorney Strang present?

14 A. That's correct.

15 Q. And was it your understanding that Mr. Avery
16 would also not be present?

17 A. That's correct.

18 Q. As this situation with the juror was discussed at 19 the restaurant, did you know which juror was 20 having the difficulty?

21 A. Yes, I did.

22 Q. And were you able to place that juror, you knew 23 which --

24 A. Oh, yes.

25 Q. -- juror was being talked about?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Had you formed an opinion about him over the
3 course of the trial?

4 A. Yes, I thought he was a favorable juror for the 5 defense. At the beginning of the trial he was 6 sort of a wild card, I would say. He struck me
7 as somebody who kind of traveled to the beat of 8 his own drum, so to speak, which in this sort of 9 a case I thought could cut either way. But as 10 the case went on, you know, sometimes it's 11 difficult to read from jurors the kind of 12 feedback you get during the trial.

13 But I was not pleased that he was one of 14 the ones who -- or the one that this happened to.
15 There was two or three others that I would have 16 been very pleased if I had heard they were --
17 wanted to be discharged, but certainly not this 18 one.

19 Q. So that night when you were forced into making a
20 decision on how to proceed, did you have a
21 strategic reason for wanting to get Richard
22 Mahler off the jury?

23 A. No, I had no -- no such reason to get him off; I
24 would have preferred he stay.

25 Q. You have been a criminal defense lawyer for a

1 number of years; isn't that right?

2 A. Twenty-eight.

3 Q. Twenty-eight?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Now, before Mr. Avery's case, had you ever
6 encountered a situation like this, where a
7 question rose during deliberations about a
8 juror's ability to continue to serve?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Had you previously had the need to research the 11 legal question about the procedure to follow when 12 a juror is asking to be removed?

13 A. No. I think that if this had happened during the 14 day, when we had been standing by waiting for 15 juror questions, or things of that nature, no
16 matter what the crisis or emergency might have 17 been, I think it would have been much easier.

18 My instinct would have been, well, let's
19 convene in court. Let's talk to the juror. But 20 this happening at whatever it was 8:30, 9:00 at 21 night, it did not occur to me that we should have 22 done that. Apparently nobody thought of that.

23 Q. So it's fair to say that when the situation came 24 up, while you were at the restaurant, you were 25 not familiar, for example, with the Supreme

1 Court's decision in State vs. Lehman?

2 A. Oh, no, absolutely not, when we got that call, I
3 had never -- never -- well, if I had read the 4 case, it would have been 20 years ago or
5 something when it first came out, but I had never
6 had the need to apply it before.

7 Q. And you testified here that you and Mr. Strang
8 did have some opportunity, although perhaps not
9 very long, but to confer about the information
10 you received --

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. -- talk about what to do. Do you recall in that 13 time you had for conferring, was there any 14 discussion between you two about whether 15 Mr. Avery had a right to be present during the 16 Court's questioning of the juror?

17 A. No.

18 Q. When you agreed that the Court should be able to 19 speak with Juror Mahler, and remove him if the 20 information was confirmed, were you aware of case
21 law indicating that Mr. Avery had a right to be
22 present, with his attorneys, when the Court
23 questioned the deliberating juror?

24 A. You know, I don't know if I was aware of specific 25 case law on that point, but I think, again, if

1 this had happened during the day, my instincts
2 certainly would have been that -- I did know
3 that, generally, a judge is not supposed to 4 confer with a deliberating juror without the 5 attorneys present.

6 That's why any questions that there
7 might be go back and forth in writing. The judge
8 would then convene the attorneys and say the 9 juror has a question and that sort of thing. And 10 then if it's answered in anyway other than a
11 written response, the juror is presented in court
12 with the defendant present.

13 I knew all of that, but somehow this
14 circumstance, this crisis emergency that seemed 15 to be presented just did not -- it didn't seem to 16 fit that same scenario.

17 Q. When you agreed to have the Court speak with 18 Mr. Mahler, had you consulted with Mr. Avery
19 about whether he wanted to be present?

20 A. No, we did not.

21 Q. And when you agreed that the Court could remove 22 this juror, had you consulted with Mr. Avery
23 about whether he wanted to have Mr. Mahler taken
24 off the jury?

25 A. No, we did not.

1 Q. That evening, when this information was conveyed
2 to Attorney Strang and then relayed to you, was 3 there any information passed along about how the 4 problem at home had come to the juror's
5 attention?

6 A. I don't actually recall. The impression I got 7 was that his wife had called. I think the 8 information was that his wife had called and 9 somehow got through to him, which I think was 10 sort of the other reason I thought that this was 11 really a crisis, an emergency, because I didn't 12 think that the jurors would be able to have any 13 contact, that the rules would not allow them to 14 have contact with somebody from home, unless it
15 was an emergency.

16 Q. And, again, at the time when you agreed that the 17 judge could speak with and remove Juror Mahler,
18 were you aware that Sheriff Pagel had spoken with 19 Mr. Mahler?

20 A. Absolutely not.

21 Q. Would it have concerned you, had you known
22 Sheriff Pagel was involved in the communications
23 with Juror Mahler that evening?

24 A. Very much.

25 Q. Why is that?

1 A. Sheriff Pagel was in no way anybody that I would
2 consider uninterested in the case, just the
3 opposite. He was the supervisor of the primary
4 investigators in the case, at least the Calumet
5 County part of it.

6 I was -- He was not sworn as a bailiff.
7 My understanding was that the only ones who would
8 be in contact with the jurors directly would be 9 the bailiffs. And my understanding of what 10 happened that night was that the bailiff, and the 11 bailiff only, spoke to the juror and handed the 12 phone -- or spoke to the judge directly. That 13 all communication went from the juror, to the 14 bailiff, to the judge, without any go between.

15 And, certainly, had I known that Sheriff
16 Pagel had any direct contact with any of those 17 jurors, not just Mr. Mahler but anybody, I would 18 have objected and probably moved for a mistrial.

19 Q. When you agreed to have the Court speak with the 20 juror, did you expect that Sheriff Pagel would in 21 any way be involved in that communication?

22 A. Absolutely not.

23 Q. That, for example, Sheriff Pagel would be 24 standing nearby when Richard Mahler spoke with 25 the judge?

1 A. Absolutely not. You know, I later learned that,
2 that he was nearby, I thought in the parking lot
3 or something like that, which struck me as kind
4 of odd. Even that struck me as sort of odd. You
5 know, maybe the nature of this case, where we had
6 to raise a police frame-up defense, made me
7 especially suspicious of any of the investigating
8 officers. So I would have been especially 9 attuned to any objection had I known that.

10 Q. So you didn't have any information that, in fact,
11 Sheriff Pagel had spoken with Juror Mahler inside
12 Mr. Mahler's private motel room?

13 A. No, I had no such information.

14 Q. If you had known that the information was going
15 from Mr. Mahler to Sheriff Pagel, to the judge,
16 how would you have responded?

17 A. I would have objected, as I said.

18 Q. And by objecting, is there anything you would 19 have insisted upon?

20 A. Probably a mistrial at that point. I don't know
21 that any remedy short of that would have 22 satisfied me. I obviously would have spoken to 23 my co-counsel about it, but from my own personal
24 view, there would have been nothing short of a
25 mistrial at that point because we just don't know

1 what kind of communication there might have been
2 with Mr. Pagel.

3 And I know, for instance, that we made a
4 big deal in our pre-trial motions about there not
5 being even any Manitowoc County deputies involved
6 as bailiffs in the case. And then when we
7 learned that the Court had two retired
8 individuals that were bailiffs and that had done
9 this before that were not employed by the Calumet
10 County Sheriff's Department at that point, or 11 Manitowoc, it was -- that was a comforting
12 arrangement that we were agreeable to.

13 Q. So just so the record is clear here, you knew
14 that Sheriff Pagel was the sheriff in Calumet
15 County?

16 A. Absolutely, yes.

17 Q. And that several of his employees had testified
18 as witnesses for the State in this case?

19 A. Certainly.

20 Q. Then, I would like to turn your attention to the 21 next day, March 16th, and specifically the record
22 shows that there was an in chambers conference
23 that morning with Judge Willis and the attorneys;
24 do you recall that?

25 A. Yes, I do.

1 Q. Was Mr. Avery present during that in chambers
2 conference?

3 A. No.

4 Q. By the time of that in chambers conference, had
5 you spoken with Mr. Avery about the juror's
6 removal?

7 A. No, we had not.

8 Q. Did you know, by that point, that Mr. Mahler had,
9 in fact, been taken off the jury?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Was there some discussion in that in chambers
12 conference of what options were available, given
13 that the deliberating juror had been removed?

14 A. Yes. I believe -- My recollection is there must 15 have been a third call, a brief call, perhaps to 16 Mr. Strang's phone later that night that told us
17 that the judge did, in fact, speak with the juror
18 and had confirmed it and excused him. But 19 somehow or another we knew that clearly.

20 We then were, I believe, told let's
21 discuss what we're going to do the next day and 22 that was kind of left at that. We went back to 23 our apartments where we were living. Mr. Strang
24 did some research, found the case of State vs.
25 Lehman. I believe I read it that night. We came

1 into the chambers the next day. We thought that
2 that case applied.

3 I think the judge might have also found
4 that case as well and presented it as what we 5 thought at the time were three options, which was
6 either a mistrial -- three options when a
7 deliberating juror is removed for cause, either a
8 mistrial; a proceeding with just 11 jurors; or 9 the defendant, and only if the defendant, agreed,
10 the third option would be to substitute in one of 11 the alternates to begin deliberations anew.

12 That's what the -- at the time of that
13 case, as I understood the case, State vs. Lehman,
14 the statute was silent on whether an alternate
15 juror could be brought in in the middle of 16 deliberations. And in that case the defendant
17 had objected and the Court reversed and ordered a
18 new trial.

19 In our case, I thought that was still
20 the status of the statute. I didn't do any 21 independent research. And Mr. Strang hadn't
22 discovered, apparently neither had the Court or 23 the prosecutor discovered, that the statute was 24 changed after the Lehman case.

25 The Lehman case was never reversed by

1 another court case. We knew that. We had
2 checked that. But somehow that the statute had
3 been changed and that the procedure for alternate
4 jurors had been changed, by statute, to require
5 them to be dismissed when the case goes to the
6 jury.

7 Q. So, in that conference that morning with the 8 Court and prosecutors, was there -- among those 9 three options was there some agreement reached as 10 to how the parties would like this to proceed?

11 A. In the chambers, before we spoke with Mr. Avery,
12 I don't know that we committed to anything. I
13 think we discussed the three options and 14 everybody seemed to think those were what was 15 available. And then we were, then, to go speak
16 with our client and discuss the options with him.

17 Q. Okay. So then you met with Mr. Avery at the jail
18 that morning?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And that would have been after the in chambers
21 conference?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And that was the first time that you had spoken
24 with him that day, correct?

25 A. Can I just clarify that the attorney/client

1 privilege has been waived for this portion of
2 the -- so that I can discuss the --

3 Q. Yes, my understanding is that by having made the 4 allegations that we did, that the attorney/client
5 privilege is waived to the extent of the 6 allegations made in the motion.

7 A. Sure. Yes, we did, then, have a discussion with
8 Mr. Avery.

9 Q. And do you recall approximately how long that 10 meeting lasted?

11 A. I would say 10 to 20 minutes, something like
12 that.

13 Q. Do you remember who did most of the talking, you
14 or Mr. Strang?

15 A. Probably Mr. Strang. I think he took the lead.

16 Q. And in that meeting, was that the time when 17 Mr. Avery first learned that a deliberating juror 18 had been removed?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Did you, in that meeting, tell Mr. Avery that he 21 could have a mistrial?

22 A. Yes, I'm sure we did.

23 Q. What advice did you give him about a mistrial?

24 A. I'm sure we talked about all three options. And 25 the one that was off the table from the

1 beginning, was to proceed with just 11 jurors.
2 That was never anything that I would have
3 advised, or Mr. Strang, and I think we told
4 Mr. Avery that.

5 So really, it came down to the two
6 remaining ones, which is a mistrial or substitute
7 in the alternate juror. And I think it was my
8 advice, ultimately, but I think we told him it
9 was his choice, but ultimately we were telling
10 him, both of us I think were telling him, that 11 probably we should proceed with the alternate
12 juror.

13 And, unfortunately, part of that
14 calculus, so to speak, involved the simple
15 financial economic reality that neither one of us
16 would be available on a retrial, if the case had 17 been mistried, and would have to start all over,
18 another six weeks, six months down the road, or 19 whatever, that realistically we were not going to 20 be able to be his attorneys.

21 And that was in the fee agreement, that
22 was something I felt bad about at the end, as I
23 walked out, I felt like it was kind of a
24 Hobbesian choice, so to speak, for Mr. Avery, a 25 difficult choice, that he either had to accept an

1 alternate juror, or he had to agree to a
2 mistrial, where he would no longer have his
3 attorneys, at the second trial, that he would be
4 left with a court -- or public defender or public
5 defender appointed counsel.

6 Q. So that was specifically something discussed with 7 Mr. Avery, in that --

8 A. It was.

9 Q. -- 10 to 20 minute meeting?

10 A. It was.

11 Q. And when you discussed with him the option of 12 substituting in the alternate, was that presented
13 as an option that was permitted by law?

14 A. Yes, we thought it was.

15 Q. By that next morning, you were familiar with the 16 Lehman decision you testified, correct?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. But is it also correct, if I understand your 19 testimony, that you had not gone the step of 20 checking whether there had been any statutory 21 changes since Lehman?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. You also testified that going with 11, 11 jurors,
24 was off the table, so I take that to mean that 25 was something you expressly advised Mr. Avery

1 against; is that correct?

2 A. Yes, I'm sure we did. I don't even remember more
3 than a brief discussion. That was not really
4 even an option. I think we were pretty clear
5 that neither one of us would ever have agreed to 6 losing one addition -- you know, one -- one of --
7 one 12th of the minds required for a jury. So we
8 didn't really delve into that very much with him,
9 but it certainly was not presented to him as 10 something we would recommend.

11 Q. If the choices that actually had been allowed by 12 law would have been to proceed with 11 or to have
13 a mistrial, which of those two options would you
14 have recommended to Mr. Avery?

15 A. We would have recommended a mistrial, even with 16 the fact that we would not have been his
17 attorneys, unless somebody could have figured out
18 a way to pay us so that we could take care of our 19 responsibilities to our employees and the 20 financial requirements that we have as law firms.
21 Even given that, we would not have recommended
22 proceeding with 11 jurors.

23 Q. And based upon your experience representing 24 Mr. Avery over those many months, do you believe
25 that he would have taken your advice had you

1 recommended a mistrial?

2 A. He would have.

3 Q. On the morning of March 16, when a decision was 4 made not to take a mistrial, had you at that
5 point become aware that Sheriff Pagel had spoken
6 with Juror Mahler the night before?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Had you known that, would it have affected your 9 thinking about whether to take a mistrial?

10 A. It would have. It would have. I would have 11 immediately said this is a mistrial.

12 Q. I just want to, so the record is clear, show you
13 Exhibit 1 and ask if this is something that you
14 have seen before.

15 A. Yes, it is.

16 Q. And what I'm showing you is the Court's memo
17 dated March 16, 2007?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. Do you recall how you became aware of the memo?

20 A. I don't clearly remember when we got this. I
21 think it was after the trial, after the verdict,
22 but I don't know for sure. My recollection was 23 that it was -- Well, it says right here that the 24 Court prepared this memo to elaborate on comments
25 I made on the record this morning, so that the

1 record concerning why the juror was excused would
2 be complete.

3 So it sounds like it was written after
4 we had had the in chambers conference, after we
5 had met with Mr. Avery, after we had gone back
6 reported what the decision was, and after we had 7 convened in court and announced the issue, and 8 colloqued Mr. Avery. And then it was -- We had 9 gone through all of that before this memo was 10 even prepared. And that would be consistent with 11 my recollection, that it was some time after all
12 of that.

13 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: I do not have anything
14 further.

15 THE COURT: All right. I think, Counsel,
16 we'll take our afternoon break at this time and 17 resume at quarter to four.

18 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Thank you, your Honor.

19 ATTORNEY ASKINS: Thank you.

20 (Recess taken.)

21 THE COURT: Attorney Askins, are you going
22 to be taking this part of the direct examination?

23 ATTORNEY ASKINS: Yes, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: You may proceed.

25 DIRECT EXAMINATION, CONTD.

1 BY ATTORNEY ASKINS:

2 Q. Mr. Buting, I'm going to change direction here
3 and talk about some different subjects. Prior to 4 Mr. Avery's trial, there were a number of motions
5 filed by each side to outline or resolve
6 potential trial problems; is that correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And to resolve evidentiary or anticipate
9 evidentiary problems; would you agree?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And one of the areas in which the parties hashed
12 out this sort of thing was relating to so-called 13 Denny evidence; is that right?

14 A. Yes, it is.

15 Q. And do you recall that the Court ultimately 16 ordered the defense to be prohibited from 17 presenting evidence that any third party, other 18 than Mr. Brendan Dassey, participated in the 19 commission of the crimes against Ms Halbach?

20 A. That's correct.

21 Q. Now, did the Court's ruling have an affect on 22 your trial strategy?

23 A. Yes, it did, very much. The way -- the way we 24 analyzed it -- Let me just speak for myself. The 25 way I analyzed it, because of the pre-trial

1 publicity, specifically the press conference that
2 Mr. Kratz had when Brendan Dassey was arrested,
3 that presented a version of events that were so
4 horrific that we knew there was a great deal of 5 prejudice against Mr. Avery in the community, and 6 we knew that that version was simply false, we 7 knew that that version would not be presented by 8 the State at the trial because we could very 9 easily disprove it with all of the physical
10 evidence.

11 I felt that this could not be just a
12 reasonable doubt case, where you would pick apart
13 the State's case and leave all these unanswered
14 questions, that it was my feeling from early on,
15 that we really needed to win this case. We 16 really needed to be able to point the finger at 17 another suspect.

18 And that was -- We thought there were
19 several other suspects and that we -- I felt that 20 the -- that this became a sort of an O.J. Simpson
21 case where it was, you know, if O.J. Simpson
22 didn't do it, then who did, is what everybody
23 thinks. I felt that if it was the same way with 24 Steven Avery, that we would have a very hard time
25 getting a not guilty. Maybe a hung jury, but

1 certainly not a not guilty, and that's what we
2 were trying for.

3 So we really wanted to show the jury
4 that not only was he not guilty, but here's
5 another person there who could have been guilty,
6 or could be guilty, so that they could have some
7 sort of comfort level in returning a not guilty
8 verdict.

9 Q. Now, understanding that the ruling did not go the 10 defense way, might you have called other
11 witnesses, in addition to the witnesses you did
12 call?

13 A. Yes. It affected us two ways: One, in the way
14 that we would cross-examine the witnesses that 15 the State called. And also in the way that -- 16 the decisions we had as to what witnesses to 17 call.

18 Q. Without going into a great amount of detail, can 19 you explain in what way cross-examination would 20 have been different?

21 A. Well, with two of the people that we believed 22 were prime suspects in the case, two of them were 23 State's witnesses, one of whom, in fact, was 24 quote, unquote, the star witness that the State
25 relied on a great deal, and that was Bobby

1 Dassey.

2 Bobby Dassey and Scott Tadych were --
3 had no alibi other than each other. We knew that 4 there was -- we believed that we could show that
5 Bobby Dassey was lying, that we had an
6 independent, disinterested witness in the school
7 bus driver, who could place Ms Halbach on the 8 Avery property an hour later than he had said.

9 But, we were not able to cross-examine
10 him, and in fact, in Mr. Kratz's closing argument
11 and perhaps the rebuttal -- must have been the 12 rebuttal, because I don't think the school bus
13 driver was mentioned in his first -- he weighed
14 the two against each other and said, you know,
15 Bobby Dassey's more credible than the school bus
16 driver.

17 Well, one reason Bobby Dassey might have
18 appeared more credible than the school bus driver
19 on the timing of all of this, is because we
20 weren't able to cross-examine Bobby Dassey as a
21 potential perpetrator. He was a witness, neutral
22 witness, unbiased. And yet, we had ways
23 of cross-exam -- or we would have used ways to 24 cross-examine that would have presented both him
25 and Mr. Tadych as potential suspects that the

1 jury should consider as perpetrators.

2 Q. Although Attorney Strang was able to
3 cross-examine Bobby Dassey, correct?

4 A. Sure. Actually, I believe he -- Mr. Strang
5 cross-examined both Tadych and Bobby Dassey. But 6 the way you cross-examine somebody when they are 7 an interested witness who is trying to save their
8 own skin, because they could be a guilty party,
9 is very different than the way you cross-examine 10 a witness when your hands are tied and you are 11 not allowed to do that.

12 So, you know, you may be able to present
13 inconsistencies in the versions -- various 14 versions of a witness, from one time to the next,
15 and I think he did that, but without showing a
16 motive for the witness to fabricate, you leave
17 the jury with, and you leave the State with the 18 ability to just argue, well, these are minor
19 inconsistencies. They don't matter. This is an 20 otherwise uninterested party.

21 Very different than you would if there
22 was, for instance, if it's a snitch in a case, an 23 informant, or somebody who is a suspect who,
24 therefore, has a motive, that a neutral witness
25 wouldn't.

1 Q. Now, you did the primary closing argument in this
2 case; do you recall your closing argument?

3 A. I do.

4 Q. Did the trial court's Denny ruling affect your
5 closing argument?

6 A. Very much.

7 Q. As an experienced defense attorney, what do you
8 try to accomplish in a closing argument?

9 A. Well, certainly reasonable doubt is where you
10 start. As I said, in this case, though, I wanted
11 to be able to do more. I wanted to be able to 12 give the jury not just reasons to doubt the 13 evidence the State had massed against Mr. Avery,
14 but also to consider that there were other
15 suspects, other people with opportunity, access,
16 and as much motive as Mr. Avery, which is to say
17 really none that anybody could divine. But that 18 was our argument, before the trial, about why we 19 thought we should be allowed to do that.

20 I believe at one point I was 21 interrupted, or there was an objection to my 22 cross-examination, by Mr. Kratz, when I had --
23 What I tried to do throughout the trial, in order
24 to try and get around, as best we could, the 25 Denny ruling, of course, the Denny ruling, we

1 knew there was Kyles vs. Whitley, U.S. Supreme
2 Court case that said that we could explore the 3 bias, investigative bias of the officers. And so
4 as a very weak substitute to being able to point
5 the finger at another suspect, we tried to show
6 that there were other suspects that the police
7 just didn't investigate.

8 We weren't able to cross-examine the 9 suspects themselves that way, but we could -- we 10 could point out to the jury that so and so didn't 11 have an alibi and wasn't asked, or claimed to 12 have an alibi and the police didn't follow up,
13 and that sort of thing. So I think I was at a
14 point in my closing where I was trying to 15 contrast Bobby Dassey's testimony with Lisa
16 Buchner, the bus driver.

17 And at one point I said, made reference
18 to Mr. Kratz's claim that Bobby Dassey was the 19 last person to see Teresa Halbach alive, and I
20 said, well, that may be true if he was the 21 killer, or something like that, and was objected
22 to.

23 And as I recall we -- I was allowed to 24 proceed to the end of the closing. We took a
25 break, and then the -- there was discussion about

1 Mr. Kratz wanted the jury to be instructed
2 about -- that I was -- I don't know, I don't
3 remember exactly how it was, the record would 4 show that. But somehow or another I was 5 basically squashed in my ability to try and paint
6 somebody else as a suspect, which I thought I
7 really couldn't do any way.

8 That, frankly, was just a slip of the 9 phrasing. I hadn't actually intended to go into 10 that in my closing, but clearly that was the 11 line, the line the State was drawing, and they 12 weren't going to let me go past it.

13 Q. Your understanding was you could not name
14 particular individuals in your closing argument
15 as alternative suspects?

16 A. The most I could do was argue that the State
17 failed to investigate other possible suspects. I
18 couldn't name any. I couldn't explain why
19 someone would lie because I believed they were a 20 suspect. I couldn't do any of that.

21 Q. Now, you were able, it seemed, to talk a little 22 bit about the so-called hustle shot; is that 23 correct, during the course of the trial?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And if I recall the testimony correctly, I think

1 maybe the receptionist at Auto Trader, or one of
2 the other individuals there, testified to what a
3 hustle shot is. Is that your recollection?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And you obviously were there, I'm reading the 6 transcript, I'm thinking that you were able to 7 get a little bit of information in about the 8 so-called hustle shot theory of the defense. Is 9 that -- Am I reading too much into that 10 transcript, or was there something there about 11 the hustle shot?

12 A. Well, one of the -- one of the theories that we 13 were working on was that the real killer was 14 somebody that she had done a hustle shot with, so
15 to speak, and that it seemed absurd that you
16 would call the office, leave a paper trail, you
17 know, here, come on out to Avery Road, and that 18 you would then kill that person, when you had 19 such an easy link.

20 But that I knew that hustle shots were
21 arrangements that the individual photographers
22 made on their own, rather than a referral for a
23 job from the front office. So, as I understood
24 this process, the only record of when one of the 25 photographers would hustle their own business, or

1 their own business, the only record of that and
2 who that person was would come after the fact,
3 when the photographer would then submit a bill to 4 Auto Trader and get paid double what they would 5 otherwise.

6 So, to me that made a lot more sense, as 7 the sort of scenario where somebody would have
8 killed her, if it was somebody in a situation
9 like that. I'm not sure when I first started
10 getting into that information, the State was --
11 knew where I was going with it, and whether, you
12 know, whether they knew that I was trying to 13 develop a possible other suspect theory without 14 really getting into who or naming anybody.

15 But that much I was able to get into,
16 and I argued that to the jury, that she had a
17 history of that, just within the last month. I
18 forget what it was, 10 or 12 cases like that 19 where she had hustled. She was good at her job,
20 obviously, and she was able to get that kind of 21 business. But I couldn't point the finger at any 22 particular individual as a suspect who did that.

23 Q. The trial court's ruling, then, did have an 24 affect on your development of the hustle shot
25 theory; is that correct?

1 A. Yes. If I could just explain how.

2 Q. Sure.

3 A. Specifically, we thought that she had -- was on 4 her way out from the Avery property, having
5 completed her job with Steven Avery, when one of 6 these other suspects flagged her down and
7 suggested that she take another picture, hey,
8 I've got another car over here, or truck, or 9 something, and that they, in fact, were the ones
10 that were the perpetrator, after that.

11 Q. And did you feel that you could have developed
12 that theory of other possible suspects had the 13 Court ruled for the defense in the Denny area?

14 A. Yes, I did.

15 ATTORNEY ASKINS: I have no further
16 questions for this witness.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

19 CROSS-EXAMINATION

20 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

21 Q. Mr. Buting, as I understand it, you have 22 practiced primarily criminal defense law for 23 approximately 28 years?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. The extent or the vast majority of your practice

1 is in criminal defense?

2 A. Almost exclusively.

3 Q. All right. And you have been in your own
4 business, your own law practice, for several
5 years now, correct?

6 A. Yes, it's 16 years.

7 Q. And prior to that time you worked at a couple of 8 different law firms; is that correct?

9 A. I worked at the Public Defender's Office,
10 Milwaukee Trial, for the first nine years of my 11 career, and then I was in a private firm for 12 about three or four years, and then I opened my 13 own practice.

14 Q. Then you opened your practice?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. And your practice is primarily state court
17 practice, or do you do some federal criminal 18 defense work as well?

19 A. I do some federal, but the great bulk is state
20 court.

21 Q. All right. You have argued cases before the 22 Wisconsin Court of Appeals?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And you have argued cases in front of the 25 Wisconsin Supreme Court, correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. I believe you have also been admitted to the U.S.
3 Supreme Court bar?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Argued a case there?

6 A. I have not.

7 Q. You have not yet.

8 A. I have filed briefs and petitions, opposed
9 petitions, but not had a case actually accepted
10 in the Supreme Court.

11 Q. All right. And you have tried a significant 12 number of cases as a defense attorney, correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. All right. Over a hundred?

15 A. Probably not. I was trying to think about that 16 the other night, probably somewhere in the area
17 of 50. I had a much higher volume when I was a
18 public defender.

19 Q. Public defender than private practice?

20 A. Right.

21 Q. Right. All right. I'm going to -- We'll start
22 with the juror issue, all right?

23 A. Sure.

24 Q. Okay. There's some background stuff that I just 25 want to talk about. We have kind of walked all

1 around it today, but we don't have anything on
2 the record. We'll get into more detail, but just 3 generally, at the time the call came in, as near
4 as you recollect or believed, you and Mr. Strang
5 were in the Appleton area having dinner?

6 A. Yes, I believe it was.

7 Q. And Mr. Kratz, as far as you knew, was at home?

8 A. I had no idea where he was.

9 Q. And he lives in the Appleton area, right?

10 A. I'm not sure I even knew that, but.

11 Q. All right. And since the jury had retired, you
12 knew that Judge Willis, or at least believed that 13 Judge Willis and his staff had returned here to 14 Manitowoc?

15 A. I assume so.

16 Q. All right. And that Mr. Gahn and I were 17 elsewhere, Chilton, or someplace else?

18 A. I had no idea exactly where you were.

19 Q. The point being is that when this all occurred on 20 the night of March 15th, we were all spread out
21 in different locations in the area?

22 A. That's fair to say, yes.

23 Q. Okay. Now, we have had some discussion, I think
24 from co-counsel and from yourself, that you had a
25 fee agreement to represent Mr. Avery through the

1 initial trial and sentencing; would that be fair?

2 A. Through the initial trial and in the event there
3 was a sentencing, we hoped there wasn't,
4 obviously, but, yes, I believe it went that far.

5 Q. And you obtained from him a fee for those 6 services, a flat fee agreement I believe it's 7 called?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. All right. And the flat fee in this case that 10 was -- was split between you equally?

11 A. It wasn't exactly equal. There was -- I took a
12 lesser amount initially, with the understanding
13 that Mr. Strang's firm would be responsible for 14 any costs that exceeded the amount that they put 15 into a trust account as a reserve for costs.

16 Q. All right. And what was the amount that the fee
17 agreement was for?

18 A. I believe -- He had settled his civil rights case
19 for 400,000. By the time the -- those civil 20 rights attorneys took their share of it and the 21 costs, I think he came out with about 240,000.
22 And I took 100, Mr. Strang took -- I don't
23 remember exactly how much. I think there was 20
24 in reserve, so he was probably 120.

25 We knew even then, though, with the

1 amount of work that this -- although it initially
2 sounded like a lot, that when you break it down
3 to the amount of work we were going to have to do
4 on this case, we knew it wasn't going to be
5 enough, so there -- enough certainly to go
6 through it twice. And so that's why we put in 7 the fee agreement that this was going to be a one
8 trial only.

9 Q. One trial only deal. And so some of that money
10 had to be set aside for expenses associated with 11 the investigation and preparation for the ...

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. Not just your attorney time?

14 A. That's right.

15 Q. Right. Okay. All right. So let's back up. And 16 as I understand it, when you originally came on 17 in this particular case, the agreement was that 18 you and Mr. Strang would -- would do your 19 darnedest to obtain an acquittal in this case? I
20 think he used the phrase you weren't going to 21 just play for the fumbles, you were going to go
22 for the win.

23 A. That's right. And that was -- that was my view
24 all along, was that we were -- you know, that we
25 were going to try and win this with a not guilty

1 verdict, not just a hung jury or a mistrial,
2 because we thought that Mr. Avery was innocent
3 and that he had suffered 18 years of wrongful
4 conviction and that he deserved a resolution in 5 this one trial.

6 And that was our strategy all along.
7 That was one of the reasons why we were working
8 on the whole idea of trying to offer the jury
9 some other suspect.

10 Q. All right. And you had the feeling going in that 11 he deserved the best -- the very best defense
12 that could be mounted?

13 A. That's right.

14 Q. All right.

15 A. And I think we gave him the very best effort that 16 we could.

17 Q. All right. And you would agree that when you
18 have decisions to make as a lawyer in this 19 particular case, that some decisions are made in 20 conjunction with the client and his wishes?

21 A. That's right.

22 Q. All right. Some wishes -- some decisions are 23 made solely by the client?

24 A. That's right.

25 Q. All right. And in those situations, you do your

1 best to make a recommendation to them, and that
2 recommendation is based on what you think is in 3 his best interest?

4 A. That's right. And -- But we do try and present
5 the options fairly, and -- and, you know, present
6 to him what we think the law allows or what it
7 doesn't allow. And in the particular instance of 8 this alternate juror substitution in we, frankly,
9 got that wrong, I think. I think everybody did.

10 Q. And while we're on that point, but what it turns
11 out is, it did give you and Mr. -- you, meaning
12 you and Mr. Strang and Mr. Avery, it did give you 13 a third option that may or may not have been 14 there otherwise?

15 A. The Lehman case?

16 Q. Well, in terms of how we came to this decision in 17 this case, there was the third option of 18 proceeding with a substitute juror?

19 A. Right. We thought that that was still available
20 by law and that was what we recommended to him.

21 Q. All right. And you recommended it to him because 22 that third option was based on everything that 23 you knew at the time, that that was in 24 Mr. Avery's best interest to go with that option
25 rather than the other -- either one of the other

1 two?

2 A. We felt that, yes.

3 Q. All right. And that's because the -- I take it
4 from your comments on direct examination you are
5 not a fan, as it were, of proceeding with 11
6 jurors?

7 A. That's right.

8 Q. All right. And why not?

9 A. I don't think -- I don't think it's ever a good
10 idea to give up one 12th of your mind, collective 11 mind of a jury. Twelve people, that one extra
12 person can bring a perspective that the other 11
13 don't have. And I think there's a reason we have 14 got 12, we have always had 12. And I have never 15 agreed to a situation where we proceed with 11.

16 Q. And in this particular case, viewing that you had 17 three options, you did not believe that a motion
18 for mistrial, based on what you knew at the time,
19 was in the best interest, all things considered.

20 A. That was a very difficult choice because we knew 21 that he could -- could have gotten a mistrial and 22 that that would have been, frankly, a guaranteed
23 mistrial. And what made it so difficult is that,
24 you know, in most first degree homicide cases, if 25 you get to the point where you have a chance to

1 get a guaranteed mistrial, I think most of the 2 time I advise a client to do that.

3 In this case, though, we had the
4 difficult calculus that we knew that if we did
5 that he would have other counsel, and we had to 6 explain that to him. I think it would have been 7 unfair to say, okay, let's get a mistrial, and 8 say, oh, by the way, we're not going to be your 9 lawyers.

10 I didn't feel good about doing it
11 because I had a responsibility to Mr. Avery, and 12 we did our best. But we also had economic 13 realities of our own law firms, and our own
14 employees. And we had to, you know -- we 15 couldn't -- we already spent an entire year on 16 the case, probably were making $10 an hour by 17 then. And so that made it difficult in this 18 case, and I don't know that I ever encountered
19 that dilemma before.

20 Q. And I think, as you said earlier, you thought
21 that you had done, under all circumstances, the 22 very best that you could with the presentation of 23 the case?

24 A. I did.

25 Q. All right. And it would be fair to say, looking

1 at it from your perspective, you meaning the
2 defense attorney's perspective, that the case
3 went in about as well as one could expect, all
4 things considered?

5 A. I did, with perhaps the one exception being the 6 EDTA FBI test, that was sort of sprung on us in 7 the middle of the trial, when we didn't have a
8 chance to redo our own test.

9 But otherwise, I thought that the --
10 that and the fact that the State, I think wisely,
11 decided not to call Brendan Dassey as a witness,
12 because I think the case might have gone in 13 better had that actually -- if we had just 14 brought in that elephant in the room and we had 15 just dealt with him, showed the jurors how that 16 information that they may have gotten elsewhere
17 and was hard to unring the bell that they had 18 heard, we were hoping that you would call Brendan
19 Dassey so we could expose the confessions as 20 false. And then that would have made the case go
21 in better. But absent that, I think the case
22 went in about as well as we could hope.

23 Q. And you realize, of course, you had no control
24 over what prosecution strategy would be selected
25 and implemented?

1 A. We didn't. Although we did consider calling
2 Brendan Dassey ourselves, and thought that that
3 was just too risky to do, so we did not.

4 Q. So the point being, is that all things
5 considered, evaluating, you were reasonably
6 comfortable with the status of the evidence that 7 the jury was now considering?

8 A. Sure.

9 Q. All right. And as you presented these options to 10 Mr. Avery, based on the effort that you have put 11 in and the amount of work, you believe that you
12 and Mr. Strang presented him with his best
13 opportunity at obtaining an acquittal, or perhaps
14 a mistrial if the jury came to that point?

15 A. Given the constraints that we had with the Denny
16 motion, and the EDTA test, yes.

17 Q. All right. And if, in fact, there had been a
18 retrial, then both sides would have the 19 opportunity to reevaluate each other's trial
20 strategies and adjust accordingly?

21 A. That's correct.

22 Q. All right. And as it pertains to Mr. Avery's
23 situation, all things considered, you thought it
24 was in his best interest for the current jury to 25 continue to deliberate on the status of the

1 evidence that they had been presented?

2 A. Given the information I had, yes.

3 Q. All right. In fact, the parties had contemplated
4 the very possibility that there would be a need,
5 or there might be a need for a substitute juror
6 by the manner in which the alternates were
7 removed from the panel, correct?

8 A. You know, I was trying to recall what sort of 9 discussions we had, and I haven't seen the whole
10 transcript myself, but I don't know whether it
11 was on the record or whether these were in 12 chambers discussions, what sort of discussions we 13 had as a group on what to do with the alternates.
14 And I don't think we ever -- I know none of us
15 ever saw the statute that says that they should 16 be dismissed once the case is submitted to the 17 jury. And I don't recall what discussions were 18 made for how that alternate juror would be 19 housed.

20 Q. All right. Let me try to jog your recollection
21 here. Is it not true that Mr. Strang, your 22 colleague, suggested that rather than removal
23 of -- rather than determining the identity of the 24 alternates by -- let me rephrase that. Once the 25 identity of the alternates was determined by lot,

1 he suggested that the parties each take one
2 peremptory challenge to remove the alternate,
3 such that there would be one left?

4 A. That's right.

5 Q. Right. And in that particular case, the defense
6 had their eyes on one particular juror who turned
7 out to be an alternate, that they did want
8 removed from the panel, correct?

9 A. That we did want removed?

10 Q. Yes.

11 A. Yes, there was one particular juror that we 12 thought had been talking about the case, should 13 have been removed in a voir dire that I think
14 that we had in chambers, and wasn't. I think
15 we're talking about the same one.

16 Q. And there was one other juror who was somehow --
17 in the middle of trial remembered some prior
18 association with a witness?

19 A. That's right.

20 Q. Right.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And so each of those jurors were removed in this
23 process of one peremptory for each team?

24 A. Correct. But as I recall, that discussion, I
25 actually wasn't initially party to that. I think

1 we had some conflict in chambers when I --
2 Mr. Strang had made an agreement that I wasn't
3 quite as comfortable with when we talked about
4 it.

5 But that was before the closings had
6 even begun. And that was back, I think the day
7 before the closings, when counsel was working
8 on -- with the Court on jury instructions. And I
9 think that's the way that came about.

10 Q. In any event, the lone remaining alternate was 11 agreeable to both sides?

12 A. Yes. And, actually, I thought that if -- if we 13 had to have her as a juror, that she would be an 14 all right juror for the defense. That was the 15 sense that I had.

16 Q. And the parties agreed that she would be 17 sequestered in the -- in the hotel, but in an 18 entirely different area from the rest of the 19 jurors, just in case a need did arise, correct?

20 A. You know that's the part I do not recall. I
21 don't know if I was absent for that part of the 22 discussion, but I -- for instance, I was trying
23 to consider what arrangements were made for her
24 security.

25 There was only two bailiffs that had

1 been sworn, and I don't know how exactly it was
2 agreed that that juror would be kept separate,
3 which -- who would eat dinner with her, would
4 there only be one bailiff with the other 12. I
5 just don't remember any of those kinds of
6 discussions, and so I don't know that -- that I
7 was actually part of that discussion or not. I
8 just can't recall.

9 Q. All right. In any event, when you came in the 10 next day, you were aware that the Court had 11 already excused Mr. Mahler?

12 A. I believe we learned that that night before, yes.

13 Q. Right. So you had the night to at least sleep on 14 it, as it were, and contemplate what was likely
15 to occur the next day?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And you did a little research, reviewed the 18 Lehman case?

19 A. I did none of the -- I did no independent
20 research. I know Mr. Strang did find -- did some 21 research, found Lehman. He Sheppardized it, as 22 they say, found that it wasn't overruled, it was 23 still good law, case law anyway. And so -- And 24 then when we came into chambers, I believe the 25 Court had also found that case, or maybe yourself

1 as well, so that was the basic extent.

2 Q. And the Court at that time, also in that early
3 morning conference in chambers, before you went
4 to talk with Mr. Avery, the Court filled us in as 5 to the -- more of the events of the night before?

6 A. I don't know what more of the events there were 7 that we were filled in, I don't recall that.

8 Q. Nothing?

9 A. I don't.

10 Q. At that particular point, then, you asked for 11 time to go consult with Mr. Avery, as to the 12 likely course of events?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And that particular time, you realized that 15 Mr. Avery, and only Mr. Avery, held the mistrial
16 key in his hand?

17 A. That's right.

18 Q. And whether or not the case was going to be 19 mistried, go with 11, or go with the substitute,
20 that decision was going to be his?

21 A. With our advice.

22 Q. With your advice?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. All right.

25 A. Although I will say --

1 Q. Well, let me ask a question.

2 A. Okay. Go ahead.

3 Q. You also agree that the prosecution had really no
4 say in what any of those three options were, that
5 was entirely a defense call?

6 A. The prosecution's only say would have been to 7 present the new statute that said one of those
8 options wasn't on the table. And none of us
9 caught that, and so we presented the wrong set of 10 options to Mr. Avery.

11 Q. I understand your point of view. My question
12 was, on the options that you believe you had, and 13 the ones you presented to Mr. Avery, the 14 prosecution had no choice; it was entirely his 15 choice as to which of those three options?

16 A. The prosecution's choice could have been, excuse
17 me, Judge, the only option here is mistrial or 18 11. Other than that, I don't think the 19 prosecution could have controlled the decision,
20 but I think the prosecution could have corrected
21 it --

22 Q. And that's assuming, for the sake of argument,
23 that anyone knew of that particular change?

24 A. That's right.

25 Q. Based on the information that was presented,

1 however, that morning, the choice was

2 Mr. Avery's?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. And when you sat down with Mr. Avery, you
5 recommended, rather quickly, against proceeding
6 with 11?

7 A. That's right.

8 Q. And the discussion then centered on, well, should 9 we mistry it or should we go with 12?

10 A. That's right.

11 Q. And, ultimately, you recommended to him that you
12 proceed with the substitute juror?

13 A. That's right.

14 Q. And at that particular time, and under the 15 circumstances as they existed, you believed that 16 that was in his best interest?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And he was agreeable with your recommendation?

19 A. He was. He was agreeable with virtually all of 20 our recommendations throughout the trial.

21 Q. He trusted you?

22 A. He did.

23 Q. All right. He believed that you were operating 24 in his best interests?

25 A. He did.

1 Q. And you were operating in his best interests?

2 A. We tried. We missed this particular point, but 3 we tried.

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: If I may have a moment,
5 Judge.

6 THE COURT: Go ahead.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: Pass the witness.

8 THE COURT: Any redirect?

9 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Just a very few
10 questions, please.

11 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

12 BY ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN:

13 Q. Now, you have testified that, in your view, the 14 alternate who was left was generally an agreeable
15 juror, from your perspective?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. But before the situation arose on the night of 18 March 15th, you also viewed Mr. Mahler as an 19 agreeable juror, from your perspective?

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, asked and
21 answered. He already commented on what he thought
22 was Mr. Mahler's suitability.

23 THE COURT: He did. I guess I viewed the 24 question as foundational for another question. So
25 contingently, at least, I'm going to allow it.

1 Q. (By Attorney Hagopian)~ And in fact, you had
2 testified that you viewed Mr. Mahler as perhaps
3 favorable to the defense?

4 A. I did. And I think Mr. Avery preferred him. The 5 one thing that Mr. Avery was able to provide us
6 assistant with -- assistance with in the trial
7 was to try and -- that sort of -- the body
8 language that the jurors were showing, something
9 only a defendant can tell is, are you getting 10 good vibes or good feelings from particular
11 jurors.

12 They are not always accurate because
13 sometimes jurors can't be read that easily, but I
14 do recall that he was disappointed when we told
15 him, in the morning, that Mr. Mahler was gone,
16 because he thought that he was a juror that he
17 was comfortable with or was -- I don't remember,
18 specifically, if he was getting really good vibes
19 from him, but he thought that he was a favorable
20 witness -- or, I'm sorry, a favorable juror.

21 Q. You have also testified that you entered into 22 this case with Mr. Strang with the strategy that 23 you were trying for a not guilty verdict?

24 A. That's right.

25 Q. You wanted to win?

1 A. That's right.

2 Q. But would you also say, and I gleaned from your
3 testimony that there would be some instances
4 where you felt that you could no longer pursue
5 that goal, that a mistrial would be necessary?

6 A. Certainly. In fact, I think we made several 7 motions for mistrial during the process of the 8 case. Renewed them at the end, especially 9 involving the EDTA testing and that sort of 10 thing.

11 So we moved for mistrial. There were 12 some circumstances where we felt a mistrial would 13 be necessary, but it wasn't a goal sometimes you
14 shoot for as, you know, playing for the fumble,
15 or whatever it might be, to try and -- Sometimes
16 in a case, if you get a mistrial, there's a
17 potential for negotiations, better negotiations
18 than you had the first time. I never thought
19 that that was realistic in this case, so that 20 wasn't a strategy we were shooting for.

21 Q. Was it your thought that in the instances where 22 the goal of a not guilty verdict would have to 23 yield to the necessity for a mistrial, would be 24 when there was some error that you thought was so
25 grave that it really impacted the case --

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. -- severely?

3 A. And that would be true in the instance of any
4 contact between a juror and Mr. -- and Sheriff
5 Pagel, as I gave an example. I would have, even
6 though I wanted to win, and even though I thought
7 the case had come in well, had I known that, I
8 would have viewed that as so serious. Again, I
9 was hypervigilant, suspicious, conspiratorial,
10 whatever, about police involvement in this case,
11 because of what we -- the way we thought it
12 developed.

13 And if there had been any inkling that 14 Sheriff Pagel was having direct contact with 15 deliberating jurors, everything we -- I said
16 about wanting to win this case would have gone
17 out the door and I would have recommended a
18 mistrial. That's one example.

19 Q. You have also referred to your understanding of 20 the law about substituting in an alternate as a
21 mistaken view, correct?

22 A. I believe so now that I have looked at the 23 statute that was analyzed in Lehman, which was 24 silent on the issue, and then shortly thereafter,
25 the statute that was enacted which specifically

1 says that jurors -- alternates shall be
2 dismissed, I forget the exact phraseology, but
3 when the case is submitted to the jury.

4 I don't think if I had seen that
5 statute, and if I had known of it, I would have
6 suggested to Mr. Avery that he had that third
7 option.

8 Q. So that would have been another example of an
9 instance where your desire for a not guilty
10 verdict would have had to yield to the need for a
11 mistrial?

12 A. It would because, as I said, the 11 jury -- 11
13 juror option was never something I would 14 consider. And then he would have been left with 15 just mistrial or 11 jurors, and I would have 16 recommended mistrial.

17 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: That completes our
18 questioning.

19 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Fallon?

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: Tempting, but no.

21 THE COURT: All right. You are excused.

22 THE WITNESS: Thank you. Am I no longer
23 sequestered?

24 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Yes, that would be my
25 view.

1 THE COURT: Yes, and free to leave as well?

2 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Yes, free to leave.

3 Your Honor, may I request about a 10 minute recess.

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Thank you.

6 (Recess taken.)

7 THE COURT: Attorney Hagopian, are there
8 any further witnesses for the defense?

9 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: No, there are not.

10 THE COURT: Are there any witnesses for the 11 State?

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, the State has 13 decided not to pursue rebuttal witnesses on this 14 matter. However, we would ask the Court to engage
15 in a colloquy with Mr. Avery regarding his decision
16 not to testify in this post-conviction matter.

17 THE COURT: All right. Well, that's new 18 ground for me. I'm not sure what his rights are in 19 a post-conviction hearing. But Mr. Avery, assuming 20 that your rights are similar to what they are in a
21 criminal hearing, do you understand that --

22 Frankly, I'm hesitant to say that you
23 have a constitutional right to testify at this
24 hearing, because I don't know if you do. Do the 25 attorneys have any authority for such a right

1 existing?

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, I think there
3 is one by implication, similar to the trial right,
4 because this does involve evidentiary testimony. It
5 involves decision making that affected the outcome
6 in the case, and it is his case. And I think he 7 would have the right to testify or not to testify,
8 similar to a trial.

9 Secondly, and also by implication, there
10 is a creature in the common law known as 11 ineffective assistance of appellate counsel. And 12 I want to make sure -- we have just had that 13 experience -- they have conferred with him. And 14 I think prudence suggests that we go over the 15 matter with him. Because it is, in fact, his 16 case and his decisions, again, based on the 17 recommendations of counsel. And I would like the 18 record to reflect that they have been adequately
19 considered.

20 THE COURT: Very well. I'm certainly
21 willing to engage in a colloquy that I believe I can 22 word such as to cover the situation where there is 23 or is not a constitutional right.

24 Mr. Avery, let me ask you, first, it's 25 my understanding that you have just had some time

1 during the recent break to confer with your
2 attorneys about whether or not you would be
3 testifying at today's post-conviction motion
4 hearing; is that correct?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, it is.

6 THE COURT: Do you feel that you have had
7 adequate opportunity to confer with your attorneys
8 about your decision whether or not to testify?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I did.

10 THE COURT: Do you understand that you may,
11 at least, have a constitutional right to testify at 12 this hearing, even if you didn't agree with your 13 attorneys, should they have advised you not to 14 testify?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

16 THE COURT: And let me ask you this, is it
17 your decision, even independent of any advice you
18 may have received from your attorneys, not to 19 testify at today's hearing?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

21 THE COURT: And do you make that decision
22 with the understanding that if you disagreed with 23 them and wanted to testify you may well have a right
24 to do so?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do.

1 THE COURT: Do you feel you have had
2 adequate time to make your decision in this case?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

4 THE COURT: And do you have any questions
5 you wish to ask at this time of either me or your 6 attorneys about your right to testify at this
7 hearing?

8 THE DEFENDANT: No, I have no questions.

9 THE COURT: Very well, the Court will -- is
10 satisfied that, as I indicated, whether or not you
11 have a constitutional right to testify at this
12 hearing, that you have independently made the 13 determination, along with in consultation with your 14 attorneys, not to testify.

15 Otherwise, at this point, Counsel, my
16 intention would be to set a briefing schedule.
17 And I will ask the defense, first, how much time
18 you need to submit a brief in support of your 19 post-conviction motion?

20 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Our preference, your 21 Honor, would be to write the brief, at least, and 22 have it in final form, once we have the transcript
23 from today's hearing.

24 THE COURT: That's a fair question. I
25 actually had a note to myself, which I neglected to

1 read, asking when we might have a transcript.

2 Diane, what do you think?

3 COURT REPORTER: I would say two weeks.

4 THE COURT: Okay. That puts us to -- let's
5 see -- October 12th.

6 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Then I would ask that
7 we would have two weeks, then, upon receipt of the 8 transcript, to submit our brief.

9 THE COURT: All right. Let's say, assuming
10 that the transcript is to you by October 12th, we'll 11 set it at October 26th, with the understanding that 12 if for some reason the transcript is delayed, you
13 have the right to request an extension of that date.
14 Mr. Fallon, how much time for the State to respond?

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: I guess I was under the 16 impression, based on previous discussions, that 17 there was going to be a simultaneous briefing, so
18 that the Court would have adequate time to decide
19 the case and meet the December 1st deadline.
20 Counsel is now suggesting they want additional 21 briefing and reply brief --

22 THE COURT: Well, I'm perfectly willing
23 to -- What if we had both of you submit briefs by 24 the 26th and then replies by the -- how about the 25 4th of November, to give me -- that's about 10 days

1 to give me an opportunity to get it, because I think
2 I'm going to issue a written decision in this case
3 and I don't know that it's going to be short.

4 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: I have no objection to
5 the simultaneous briefing, but I would ask the Court
6 if we could have, and then the State as well, but we
7 really feel we would need two weeks to file a
8 response brief. And the reason, your Honor, is that 9 we have basically had our argument out here,
10 available to the State, for some time. And, they 11 understandably, have not submitted anything in 12 writing as to their position.

13 THE COURT: All right. So October 26th for 14 initial briefs and November 9 for replies?

15 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: That would be very
16 good.

17 THE COURT: Does that work for the State?

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: It's not very good for my
19 schedule, but I will just have to make it work.

20 THE COURT: All right. Is there anything
21 further either party believes needs addressing
22 today?

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: What day is November 9th,
24 if I could ask?

25 THE COURT: These are both Mondays. If

1 anybody has a different day request, now is the time
2 to make it.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: Could I have until Friday
4 of that week?

5 THE COURT: All right. Why don't I do --
6 Let's do both of these then. Let's make it -- Just 7 to avoid the need for any adjournments, I'm going to 8 give you Friday, the 30th, for your initial briefs.
9 And I sure hope I'm looking at a 2009 calendar here,
10 this isn't my bench -- but, yes. I'm sorry, just a 11 second. Okay. The 30th -- Friday, the 30th, for 12 initial briefs, and Friday November 13th for 13 replies.

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

15 THE COURT: And if I have to request one of 16 the parties to ask for another extension from the 17 Court of Appeals, I will let you know.

18 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: Certainly.

19 THE COURT: Anything else?

20 ATTORNEY HAGOPIAN: No.

21 THE COURT: Very well, we're adjourned for
22 today.

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.
