1 friends of the Avery family, to determine whether 2 there were post-conviction efforts that could be 3 brought on Steven's behalf, arising from a 1985
4 charge and, if I remember correctly, 1986
5 sentencing.

6 We filed post-conviction motions on his 7 behalf, relating to what we called newly 8 discovered evidence, consisting of DNA analysis 9 conducted on material found beneath the 10 fingerprints of the victim of a sexual assault, 11 for which Mr. Avery had been convicted.

12 Q. Fingernails not fingerprints?

13 A. What did I say, fingerprints? Yes, fingernails.

14 Q. Okay. This was about 1995?

15 A. Yes, I think the hearing on that would have been 16 in 1996. It was across the hall in Judge 17 Hazlewood's court.

18 Q. Okay. During that -- During the period of time 19 of that representation, was your practice
20 exclusively the defense of criminal cases?

21 A. Actually, from, gee, from 1972, roughly on, if I 22 had had a total of three civil cases in my 23 career, to today, that would a lot.

24 Q. Okay. All right.

25 A. The rest have all been the defense criminal

1 cases.

2 Q. And the firm, of which you were a partner at that 3 time, was almost exclusively a criminal defense 4 firm?

5 A. Yes, there was one partner who did family law.
6 There may have been the odd -- excuse me -- civil 7 rights action. I mean, I had handled civil 8 rights actions, as well. But by far, the vast 9 bulk of what we did was defense of criminal 10 cases.

11 Q. What was your second representation of Steven 12 Avery?

13 A. In a civil case, arising from the same conviction 14 that was the subject of the earlier
15 representation. And I was co-counsel on that 16 case with Walt Kelly, who was handling the civil 17 side of the case. I was involved to handle the 18 criminal law related side of the case, and to be 19 a trial lawyer on it.

20 Q. And what -- During what period of time, were you 21 representing Mr. Avery on that civil action?

22 A. My recollection is that Mr. Avery was exonerated, 23 and it was determined that Mr. Allen was the 24 actual assailant, in 2003.

25 And my recollection, again, is that that

1 was August or September and Walt and I were 2 involved in the case approximately 30 days later.
3 So, let's say, very early fall of 2003, up until 4 the settlement of that case, which was sometime
5 after Mr. Avery's charge in the present case.

6 Q. Were you representing Mr. Avery on that civil 7 case as of November 5, 2005?

8 A. I was. And if I may, that's the half that I made 9 reference to. I had had some conversations with 10 Mr. Kratz while I was, essentially, acting as 11 Mr. Avery's criminal defense lawyer, because he 12 didn't have another criminal defense lawyer at 13 that stage.

14 And I was still trying to determine 15 whether or not there were sufficient ethical 16 conflicts between being involved, simultaneously, 17 in the representation of Mr. Avery in a civil 18 case and getting involved in the criminal case.
19 Ultimately, that was resolved in favor of saying 20 such a conflict existed.

21 I talked to Mr. Kratz, by telephone, 22 told him I would not be involved, on behalf of 23 Mr. Avery, very much longer at all. My 24 recollection is that he and I then had a 25 telephone conference call with a Manitowoc County

1 Circuit Court Judge. I'm sorry, I just don't 2 remember which judge it was, at that time,
3 because it was just a scheduling conference, it
4 may have been even a scheduling conference on a 5 initial appearance. I'm not sure. It was not a 6 substantive appearance however.

7 And in that telephone conversation, I
8 informed the Court that I was prepared to act as 9 Mr. Avery's counsel, for purposes of the 10 scheduling, but would not be continuing to act as 11 his counsel in the criminal case.

12 Q. Let me locate you in time a little bit. We have 13 established here, and we're all clear, that 14 November 5, 2005, was a Saturday. All right.

15 Mr. Avery, at that point, was not under 16 arrest. I think the court records, and the 17 earlier evidence here, will show that he was 18 arrested on November 9, 2005, which would have 19 been the following Wednesday.

20 And just to give us some time frame on 21 the conversation with Mr. Kratz, and with the 22 Judge, here in this county, that you have 23 described; do you know whether those 24 conversations were before or after Saturday, 25 November 5?

1 A. I know they were after.

2 Q. On Saturday, November 5, 2005, and I think the 3 period of time we're interested in is, certainly, 4 the afternoon, perhaps between about 2:00 p.m.
5 and 5; do you recall talking with Steven Avery?

6 A. Yes, I do.

7 Q. Do you recall where you were when you talked with 8 Steven Avery?

9 A. Yes, I was in my office.

10 Q. Do you recall how you talked to Steven Avery?

11 A. By telephone, that would have been a wired line, 12 as opposed to a cell line, in my office.

13 Q. That is a landline in your office?

14 A. Yes. And when I say, my office, I mean the law 15 firm called Glynn, Fitzgerald, and Albee, located 16 in Milwaukee.

17 Q. Is the main number for that office 414/221-9600?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And then you have a number of rollover telephone 20 lines?

21 A. I think at least four additional ones. There's 22 9600, 9604, 9649, and then a couple of numbers
23 that I brought with us from the Shellow, Shellow
24 and Glynn telephones to the Glynn, Fitzgerald, 25 and Albee telephones, which included 271-8536 and

1 271, I think, 9417. And then there's, you know, 2 there's also a DSL line, and a fax line, and 3 others. But those are the five telephone lines.

4 Q. The voice telephone lines --

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. -- at least as you would call them. Were those 5
7 as of November 5?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Do you recall whether you were dialing a cell 10 phone number, or a landline number, for 11 Mr. Avery?

12 A. Can I expand on that a little bit?

13 Q. Sure.

14 A. My recollection is a cell phone. And I need to 15 back up a little bit to sort of set the scene, if 16 I can. I indicated that Walt Kelly and I were 17 representing Mr. Avery in a civil rights action, 18 based on his arrest and charging in connection 19 with the basis for his exoneration. We were in 20 the middle of depositions in that case and were 21 moving from what we considered to be less 22 important depositions to more important 23 depositions.

24 Q. This is as of November 5?

25 A. Yes. And Mr. Kelly and I would frequently meet

1 at my office, on Saturday mornings, to decide
2 what we were doing next in that case, and review 3 where he had been, and talk about where we were 4 going. And November 5th was such a meeting.

5 And we had decided to have that meeting,
6 because I started another case in Door County,
7 that was set for trial on restitution, complex, 8 white-collar crime, you know, multi-hundred 9 thousand dollar restitution issue and as well as 10 some sentencing issues.

11 And in the course of this meeting, Walt
12 Kelly asked me whether I had talked to a 13 particular newspaper reporter from the Milwaukee
14 Journal-Sentinel, and I said I had not. Walt 15 said that he had, and the person wanted to know 16 if either Walt or I had any comment on this 17 strange congruence between the fact that Steve 18 Avery is an exonerated guy who is in the middle 19 of a civil rights action, and there is now a 20 young woman who has disappeared, who has 21 apparently had some factual intersection with 22 him.

23 And I told Walt I didn't have the 24 slightest idea what this reporter was talking 25 about. Neither did Walt. We knew nothing of a

1 missing woman. And as a matter of fact, I think 2 at that time we thought this was somebody from 3 the Green Bay area.

4 So we talked to that reporter. He told 5 us he was running a story in the next day's 6 newspaper. And with respect to the presentation 7 of the Avery side of this issue, he was going to 8 be relying on some of the statements that 9 Mr. Avery had made to various media outlets.

10 Q. What day did you talk to this reporter?

11 A. I'm thinking it was the same Saturday that we 12 were in the office. And as a matter of fact, I'm 13 sure that's when it was.

14 And, again, as a lawyer, I'm sure you
15 can understand this, but for the record, I need 16 to say that this was a shock, to put it lightly.
17 Because the notion that a person who had been 18 wrongfully convicted of a crime he didn't commit, 19 is now sufficiently trusting of the media and law 20 enforcement, that he's making statements to them, 21 boggled my mind. I mean, I -- you know, it made 22 no sense to me at all. And so I said, I need to 23 try to get in touch with Steve. And here's where 24 my confusion is --

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm going to interpose an

1 objection to the narrative at this time and ask that 2 we return to specific questions relative to the 3 issue at hand.

4 THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

5 Q. (By Attorney Strang)~ You made the decision you 6 wanted to call Steve, meaning Steven Avery?

7 A. Yes, and that's where the confusion was as to 8 your question --

9 Q. A point of confusion --

10 A. -- was this a cell line or was this a hard line, 11 did I call him one way or the other? And the 12 answer is, I'm not real sure. I believe that I 13 called him on his cell phone, and was then 14 requested, by him, or someone else who answered 15 the phone, to call back on a different cell 16 phone, that belonged either to his brother or his 17 mother. I think I was given both numbers. So, 18 yes, I did call him back. It was on a cell
19 phone. And I did speak to Steven Avery.

20 Q. Do you recall whether there was more than one 21 conversation that afternoon, in which you
22 actually spoke with Steven Avery?

23 A. Yes. I mean, I talked to him, I think, three 24 times during the course of what, I think, were 25 two calls. That is, I think in one call I talked

1 to him. And then there was an interruption.

2 Then I talked to him again. And then the other

3 call, I just talked to him the first time.

4 Q. Did you talk with a law enforcement officer that 5 afternoon, too, during the course of one of the 6 calls?

7 A. I did.

8 Q. Do you recall who that law enforcement officer 9 was?

10 A. Only by a refreshed recollection from your 11 showing me a report of his, whenever that was, a 12 month or two ago. And, frankly, a detective 13 outside introduced himself to me as Detective 14 O'Neill. We chatted for a little bit, and so I 15 understand his name to be O'Neill.

16 Q. So, if you talked to Steven Avery three times, 17 during the course of two calls, can you place the 18 conversation with Detective O'Neill in there 19 somewhere for me?

20 A. In that group? Yeah, I believe that it was 21 between the second and third, which I think were 22 part of the same telephone call.

23 Q. All right. What -- What was the thrust of your 24 conversation with Detective O'Neill, as you 25 recall it?

1 A. What can you tell me about this matter? Is 2 Mr. Avery under arrest? Is he a target of what 3 you guys are doing? Do you have warrants for 4 him? What can you tell me about this?

5 I mean, it was basically asking him
6 questions at the beginning, it was later telling 7 him, after we had gone through our question and 8 answer discussion, which was much more in the 9 nature of questions, and much less in the nature 10 of answers, that --

11 Q. Questions by whom?

12 A. Questions by me to him, and not a lot of answers 13 being received, or at least answers that weren't 14 terribly meaningful, that I said, Well, look, I 15 mean, I know I don't have the authority to make 16 you stop questioning him, but I'm telling you 17 that I don't want him questioned anymore, and I'm 18 going to talk to him again and make sure that he 19 tells you he doesn't want to be questioned
20 anymore.

21 Q. Do you recall O'Neill saying something to you 22 like, But Steven is well aware he is not under 23 arrest, he's free to leave at any time, he 24 doesn't have to talk with us, so that's not an 25 issue with us?

1 A. Something like that, yes.

2 Q. What was your response to that, if you recall?

3 A. He could -- He could have his view about arrest.

4 I could have my view about arrest. The point
5 was, that I didn't want Steven talking to him, 6 and that Steven would follow my advice and not 7 talk to him.

8 Q. Did you, then, ask to speak to Steven again?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. And understand, I had spoken to Steven earlier on 12 this same subject, as well. That's -- I don't 13 want to be volunteering stuff.

14 Q. Okay. And I'll try to get to it.

15 A. Okay.

16 Q. When you took the phone -- When Avery got back on 17 the phone, after O'Neill, what did you tell
18 Mr. Avery?

19 A. Well, actually, I repeated something that I had 20 said earlier, which is that I did not want him 21 talking to the officer, that even though the 22 officer said that he was not under arrest and at 23 that point not a target, and that there weren't 24 any warrants for him, that it just simply wasn't 25 in his interest to be carrying on these

1 conversations without the presence of a criminal 2 defense lawyer.

3 Not only did I want him to understand
4 that that's what I was telling him, but I also 5 wanted him to say that to the officer. So I 6 asked him to take the cell phone that he was 7 speaking on -- And I had the impression that he 8 was in a house.

9 He may not have been, he may have been 10 on a porch of a house. And when I say house, I 11 mean, I include trailer. I don't even know what 12 this place was, that he was visiting in Crivitz.
13 But at any rate, I wanted him to take that cell 14 phone with him, so that when he made the comments
15 to the officer, I could hear it.

16 Q. Did you hear him saying anything to the officer?

17 A. I did. And my best recollection of what I heard 18 him say is --

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection --

20 A. -- I don't want to talk to you.

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: -- hearsay.

22 THE COURT: Just a sec -- Excuse me?

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: Hearsay, self-serving 24 hearsay by the respondent, the defendant.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: It's not an assertion
2 offered for it's truth. It's a verbal act, that was 3 audible to Mr. Glynn.

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: If it's not offered for 5 the truth, it's not relevant.

6 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the
7 objection.

8 Q. (By Attorney Strang)~ Were you able to hear any 9 part of Mr. Avery's statements, or assertion, 10 comment of any kind, to somebody other than 11 yourself, on the phone?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What, in substance, did you hear?

14 A. What I heard --

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection.

16 A. -- was Mr. Avery --

17 THE COURT: The objection is sustained.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: He can ask what counsel
19 said, that's fine.

20 ATTORNEY STRANG: Again, your Honor, with 21 all due respect, I think the comment here is a 22 verbal act. Whether someone actually wants a lawyer 23 or not, only he can know, and that's really not -- 24 the truth really isn't an issue here.

25 What's at issue is whether an assertion

1 that, I don't want to talk to you, or I want a 2 lawyer, or I'm going to stop this conversation, 3 anything like that, was made in a way that was 4 audible, both to the detective, we can infer from 5 Mr. Glynn hearing it.

6 THE COURT: I think it's a statement. I
7 think it's hearsay. I'm sustaining the objection.

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: I would note, it is on 9 the recording. It's already there. It's already in 10 evidence.

11 Q. (By Attorney Strang)~ What had been your earlier 12 advice in the first conversation with Mr. Avery?

13 A. The very first conversation I had with him was 14 one in which I told him not to have any 15 conversations with the officers, period.

16 Q. Did you ask, now, going back to the time when you 17 are on the phone with the officer, with O'Neill; 18 did you ask him, or was there a discussion
19 between the two of you, about whether Mr. Avery 20 was a suspect?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. What do you recall yourself saying to 23 Mr. O'Neill, we have got his end of the 24 conversation but?

25 A. My recollection is that I used the word target.

1 And that's a term that I use in conversations
2 with prosecutors. It's a conversation that I use
3 in the relatively rare circumstances when I'm 4 talking to a state or city law enforcement
5 officer. And I believe that's the term I used.

6 Q. Would -- Would it help refresh your recollection, 7 in terms of the actual conversation, or the 8 further conversation with him, if I suggested to 9 you that at some point, as I have the tape, or 10 the recording, it reflects O'Neill saying to you,
11 For me to say he's a suspect, I haven't 12 determined that, no.

13 A. I mean, that certainly is consistent with my 14 recollection, but that doesn't -- I mean, I still 15 may have said to him, is he a target, and he may 16 have responded in terms of suspect. But, 17 clearly, what he communicated to me, was that he 18 was not prepared to say that Steve Avery was a 19 suspect, which, you know, I construed as a 20 outright lie.

21 Q. What, if anything, did you tell Mr. O'Neill about 22 your specific role representing Steven Avery that 23 afternoon, at the moment that you were on the 24 phone, alternately, with the two of them?

25 A. I told them that I was counsel in a pending civil

1 case, and if this was a criminal investigation 2 that Steve Avery was involved in, I was acting as 3 his lawyer in that as well.

4 Q. Do you recall him challenging that assertion at 5 any time?

6 A. You mean, telling me I couldn't be the lawyer, or 7 I wasn't the lawyer, or something, no.

8 Q. Do you recall him leading you to believe that he 9 would not respect your assertion that you wanted 10 the conversation with Steven Avery to stop?

11 A. I think --

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, speculation.

13 Q. I'm asking if you recall that.

14 THE COURT: Just a second repeat the 15 question please. Diane, can you read it back?

16 (Last question read back.)

17 THE COURT: I'm going to allow it.

18 A. I think that what he said was something to the 19 effect that Steve is going to have to make up his 20 own mind on that, or something to that effect, 21 that caused me to say, Well, look, I'm telling 22 you, I'm his lawyer, I don't want him questioned.
23 He certainly wasn't saying that, I don't believe 24 you are a lawyer, or I don't believe you are his 25 lawyer, or I don't believe that he wants to 1 listen to you.

2 Q. But as a practical matter, you had to leave it at 3 that, being on the telephone?

4 A. That's right.

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: That's all I have. Thank
6 you.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

9 CROSS-EXAMINATION

10 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

11 Q. Mr. Glynn, you have been actively engaged in the 12 criminal defense, or the defense of individuals 13 accused of crimes, since 1972, correct?

14 A. Actually '71.

15 Q. '71. And during that time you have had occasion 16 to advise many individuals regarding their 17 constitutional rights, correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You would consider yourself relatively proficient 20 in the scope of one's Fifth Amendment right to 21 counsel?

22 A. And Sixth, I think, yes.

23 Q. We'll take them one at time, Fifth Amendment 24 right to counsel?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Fifth Amendment right to remain silent?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And Sixth Amendment right to counsel --

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. -- correct? Okay. Now, with respect to the 6 events on November 5th, you were told, by 7 Detective O'Neill, that Mr. Avery was not under 8 arrest, correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And that he was not in custody?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. That there were no warrants for his arrest?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And then there was a question of whether we --

15 A. I don't -- I shouldn't -- I don't know about the 16 for arrest business. I think I asked if there 17 were any warrants, and he said, no. So, I don't 18 know if -- I meant to encompass more than arrest.

19 Q. And there was a discussion regarding suspects
20 versus targets, you think you used the word 21 target, and he responded with the word suspect, 22 correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. All right. And he said he is certainly not in a 25 position to say that he's a suspect, correct?

1 A. Yes, or words to that effect.

2 Q. Or words to that effect. All right. Now, you 3 also indicated that you, at that time, were 4 representing him primarily, first and foremost,
5 on the civil rights action involving Manitowoc
6 County, correct?

7 A. If, by first and foremost, you mean earlier, yes, 8 I was representing him on the civil case before I 9 was representing him on the criminal case.

10 Q. And as I understand it from your testimony, you 11 just said that you told Detective O'Neill, If 12 this is a criminal case, I'm representing him on 13 that, too?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. But you had no discussion with Mr. Avery whether 16 or not you were going to represent him on any 17 criminal investigation, had you?

18 A. No.

19 Q. As a matter of fact, you didn't even know if 20 there was a criminal investigation, or a missing 21 persons complaint, correct?

22 A. I believed it was a criminal investigation and 23 the officer was telling me it was a missing 24 persons investigation.

25 Q. All right. But he told you it was a missing

1 persons case?

2 A. He did.

3 Q. All right. Nonetheless, without having any 4 discussions with Mr. Avery, you were asserting 5 that you were representing him on the criminal 6 investigation?

7 A. That's correct.

8 Q. Okay. Now, just so we're clear, one's Fifth 9 Amendment right to counsel does not exist unless 10 one is in custody and subject to police 11 interrogation, correct?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. One's Fifth Amendment right to counsel -- excuse 14 me -- Fifth Amendment right to silence, likewise, 15 does not exist until one is in custody and 16 subject to interrogation?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And it's further -- With respect to one's Fifth 19 Amendment right to counsel, those rights are 20 personal to the person who is the subject of the 21 interrogation?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. They cannot be invoked by their lawyer?

24 A. So it's been said.

25 Q. And, similarly, with respect to one's Fifth

1 Amendment right to silence, that is a right which 2 is personal to one who is accused?

3 A. Absolutely.

4 Q. That right cannot be invoked?

5 A. Same as we were saying before.

6 Q. All right. So it's incumbent upon the 7 individual, in person, to assert their rights on 8 their own behalf, correct?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And, again, those rights don't exist if one is 11 not in custody, correct?

12 A. Well, right, if at a later hearing one is 13 determined not to have been in custody, then 14 those rights, not being exercised, is 15 meaningless.

16 Q. Now, with respect to one's Sixth Amendment right 17 to counsel, one's Sixth Amendment right to 18 counsel does not exist until one is similarly 19 charged with the offense for which the 20 interrogation is to take place, correct?

21 A. Today, yes.

22 Q. Well, it was back then as well?

23 A. By then, you mean the time of the interrogation?

24 Q. Yes.

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. All right. And as a matter of fact, with respect 2 to the Sixth Amendment right to counsel, it is an 3 offense specific right, correct?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. It doesn't cover any and all cases, only the 6 cases for which the person is charged?

7 A. There is some case law that disagrees with that,
8 but the general thrust of case law is as you 9 stated.

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: Your Honor, this is 11 afield, in the sense that we have raised no Sixth 12 Amendment claim, or correlative Wisconsin
13 Constitutional claim here. It's agreed that 14 Mr. Avery was not yet charged with a criminal 15 offense, the formal accusatory process had not 16 begun.

17 THE COURT: So it's a Fifth Amendment
18 question, you are saying?

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: It's a Fifth Amendment
20 question. And, again, the correlative provisions of 21 the Wisconsin Constitution, that's right.

22 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ All right. As a matter of 23 fact, in your discussions with Detective O'Neill, 24 as I understood your examination from defense
25 counsel, you said, quote, I don't have authority

1 to stop you from questioning him, you told 2 Detective O'Neill that, correct?

3 A. Right.

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all.

5 THE COURT: Any redirect?

6 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

7 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

8 Q. Assuming that a person is not under arrest, and 9 setting aside the very narrow circumstances of 10 when it can be a crime to refuse to provide your 11 name or your identity to a law enforcement
12 officer, I'm talking about Hiibel, most recently.
13 Setting aside that, if one is not in custody, 14 does one in this country have a perfect right to 15 assert a claim to silence, irrespective of 16 custodial status, when approached by a law 17 enforcement officer?

18 A. Absolutely.

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: That's all I have.

20 THE COURT: All right. The witness is 21 excused.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Pass. Thank you.

23 THE COURT: And, hopefully, Mr. O'Neill is 24 still hovering in the hall.

25 Mr. Strang, from my own benefit, is the 1 motion -- I don't recall if this was specified in 2 the motion, but is your motion triggered by the 3 portion of the interview that you questioned 4 Mr. O'Neill on earlier, that point forward? Is 5 there any challenge to any statements made before 6 that point? The language about, Well, I guess 7 they don't want me to talk no more, and I got to 8 listen to my lawyer; is that what the defense is 9 arguing here, is the assertion of the right to 10 remain silent?

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes, and I don't want to 12 be pinned down to specific words, but we're talking 13 about the same point in time and it's -- it's in 14 part two --

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: It's reflected on the 16 bottom of page four and the remainder of page five 17 from the report status.

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: And I guess, more 19 importantly --

20 THE COURT: I think on the --

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: -- part three and into 22 part four on the --

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: On the tape.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: -- on the tape, on the 25 recording.

1 THE COURT: Right. My recollection is the 2 part three ended with the officer waiting for 3 Mr. Avery to come back, after he was on the 4 telephone --

5 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's correct.

6 THE COURT: -- with his attorney, and then 7 part four --

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: Picks up --

9 THE COURT: -- starts with the language
10 that you questioned Mr. O'Neill about.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes.

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: Correct.

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: Right. We're in the 14 right location. That's right.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. O'Neill, you are 16 still under oath. Mr. Strang, do you need a couple 17 minutes to go over that.

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes.

19 THE COURT: All right. Let's take a short 20 break and then we will come back for some final 21 questions for Mr. O'Neill.

22 (Exhibit 23 marked for identification.)

23 (Brief recess taken.)

24 THE COURT: Mr. O'Neill, you are still 25 under oath and, Mr. Strang, you may begin.

BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

Q. Is Exhibit 23 an accurate photo copy of the notes retrieved from your car?

A. Yes, it is.

Q. If you go to the first page, the top page, the entry at the top, 1415 is 2:15 p.m.?

A. Yes.

Q. That's roughly when you arrived to begin talking to Steven Avery?

A. Actually I'm leaving the car at the point and talking to Steve Avery, yes.

Q. I'm sorry?

A. I think we arrived at 2:00 p.m. Actually sitting down with Steven was at 2:15.

Q. All right. And then down at the bottom, at 5:57 p.m., which you have written in Zulu time or military time, 1757; do you see that?

A. Yes, I do.

Q. All right. And -- And what you are recording there is that the property owner revoked his consent for you to be on the property?

A. Correct.

Q. The property owner being Al, or Allen Avery?

A. Correct.

1 Q. What's 1055 mean?

2 A. In my notations, 1055 would mean alcohol -- 3 alcohol was a factor in that notation.

4 Q. Okay. But you understood the property owner to 5 be revoking consent for law enforcement to be 6 present on the property?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. If we go to Page three, you have got an entry of 9 1538; is that right?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. That's 3:38 in the afternoon?

12 A. Correct.

13 Q. And you write, Attorney phoned to me, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What do you mean there?

16 A. I believe that was a point where, two minutes 17 before the connected phone call of Mr. Glynn, he 18 received, again, a phone call. And it was his 19 attorney. And they wanted to talk to me, but the 20 area that we're in is really bad for cell phones 21 and it disconnected. And he called back, as 22 noted in the second entry.

23 Q. And what's the -- I can't read the time on that, 24 can you?

25 A. 1540.

1 Q. So, two minutes later.

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. 3:40. The lawyer calls back, and the first line

4 I can't read, after 1540; what does that say?

5 A. Interview continue.

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Okay. Meaning interview with Steven Avery

9 continued?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And then at that point, Avery actually offers you

12 the names and telephone numbers of the lawyer at 13 some point right in there, correct?

14 A. I don't believe Steven did. I don't know if this

15 is a notation I made when I was asking Attorney

16 Glynn to clarify the name, and I see that there's 17 another name as well in the log.

18 Q. Right. But as a matter of refreshing your 19 recollection, if the tape -- I think the 20 recording has Mr. Avery saying something to you,

21 very close to, if not verbatim, quote, "No, but 22 here's his number, case when you want to talk to 23 me, contact them and they -- they want to be 24 there too", closed quote. Do you remember

25 Mr. Avery saying--

1 A. I don't remember that, but if it's on the 2 recording, I would have to refresh my memory with 3 that.

4 Q. Okay. But do you recall Avery at least offering 5 you a number for one or more of his lawyers?

6 A. I don't remember. I don't remember if I got it 7 from Mr. Glynn, or if I got it from Mr. Avery, or 8 if I got it from both, or if it was at the 9 conclusion of our interview. I really don't know.

10 Q. Okay. But the comment here, interview continued, 11 it's referring to the interview with Avery, not 12 an interview with Glynn?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. Okay. And then below that you have written 15 Stephen Glynn, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And below that, you have written the name Walt 18 Kelly?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. That's not a name that Mr. Glynn gave you?

21 A. It may have been, I'm not certain. In fact, I 22 didn't realize it until now that the name Walt 23 Kelly was below my note of Steve Glynn.

24 Q. Okay. So whether Glynn gave it to you, or Avery 25 gave it to you, or both, you just don't remember?

1 A. I remember talking to Mr. Glynn. But noting,
2 Mr. Kelly's.

3 Q. Okay. And you noted the attorneys, right?

4 A. I believe Mr. Kelly is an attorney, yes.

5 Q. Yeah. I mean, you have got a note to the right 6 of that, attorneys?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And then a telephone number?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. Which is 414/221-9600?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Do you remember now whether you got that from 13 Glynn, Avery, or both of them, or do you just not 14 remember?

15 A. I don't recall.

16 ATTORNEY STRANG: That's all I have.

17 Thanks. And I move Exhibit 23.

18 THE COURT: Any objection?

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: No objection to the 20 exhibit. No questions.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Exhibit 23 is in and the 22 witness is excused.

23 THE WITNESS: Thank you, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: You're welcome.

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: I think that completes

1 the evidence on this motion.

2 THE COURT: On that motion, I believe it
3 does.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes, it does.

5 THE COURT: Counsel, what are the remaining 6 witnesses that the parties will be calling on the 7 multiple execution search warrant issue?

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: The burden is still on 9 the defense to go forward, that we have taken 10 testimony from one of their witnesses, Lieutenant 11 Lenk. So I'm not certain how many more they have 12 and how much more we're going to do this evening.

13 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, I have Detective 14 Remiker, and Sergeant Colborn. Neither of which 15 probably will be much longer than -- probably be 16 about the same length as Lieutenant Lenk, which was 17 what, about 45 minutes?

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: I think probably about an 19 hour total.

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: About an hour each, for 21 those. Sheriff Pagel, just briefly. And possibly 22 Sergeant Tyson tomorrow, but I don't know that we're 23 going to need that, and that would be it. Unless, I 24 don't think -- possibly Investigator Wiegert, if he 25 had some decision making or a signing type

1 authority, we could find that out later.

2 THE COURT: The -- And these witnesses are 3 all going to have something to say that's not just 4 cumulative to what the others have said?

5 ATTORNEY BUTING: They weren't all on the 6 exact same searches, right. They were paired up at 7 times, and other times they were separate, with 8 other individuals.

9 THE COURT: How much time do you think is 10 left to present the defense case, with those 11 witnesses?

12 ATTORNEY BUTING: I would estimate about -- 13 Detective Remiker, perhaps a little bit longer, 14 because he actually did more searches than anybody.
15 Colborn maybe a half hour, Remiker maybe 45 minutes.

16 THE COURT: What about the others, or are 17 they contingent witnesses?

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: Wiegert is contingent
19 on -- I don't know, he didn't do any of the searches 20 directly, so his testimony would be only in the 21 event he is a -- was involved in the decision 22 making. And similar with Pagel. And Tyson, I think 23 there is really only a couple of searches that he 24 was involved in. So neither one of those witnesses 25 would be lengthy, on my motion.

1 THE COURT: I'm just wondering, if I
2 understand the nature of your motion, and the 3 multiple -- I understand the legal argument, I'm 4 just wondering if every officer who participated in 5 a search, has to testify for you to make your point.

6 ATTORNEY BUTING: The case law on these -- 7 on this issue, is not entirely clear. And in 8 Wisconsin, there is none that has actually ruled on 9 it. But the other case law, I think the one thing 10 that is pretty clear and not surprisingly, because 11 most Fourth Amendment law is like this, is very fact 12 driven.

13 And although there are some -- there's 14 some sort of different approaches, although 15 there's some common themes that the other courts 16 in other state's have taken on this issue. But 17 the facts, and I anticipate the State is going to 18 be presenting some evidence as well --

19 THE COURT: Well, I don't want to prevent 20 you from fully presenting your case, I'm just 21 questioning whether the level of detail for each 22 witness will be necessary. What is the State 23 looking at in terms of its witnesses?

24 ATTORNEY FALLON: I can tell the Court
25 that, I'm looking for my check list at the moment,

1 but off the top of my head, I know that there will 2 be probably four witnesses, if they call all the 3 witnesses they are calling.

4 I believe we have some brief testimony
5 from Sergeant Tyson, some testimony from 6 Lieutenant Bowe and Lieutenant Sippel. And there
7 will be testimony from Special Agent Tom 8 Fassbender.

9 I think that's it. Because I suspect 10 that by the time defense is done presenting their 11 case, and we'll be able to elicit testimony from 12 some of the witnesses they are calling, that that 13 will -- that will help, although most of my 14 questioning for the other witnesses is unrelated 15 to the key points that the defense is apparently 16 trying to bring out.

17 THE COURT: All right. Well, it looks to 18 me like the testimony we're looking at is going to 19 take the better part of the day tomorrow. I don't 20 know that it pays --

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: I would say that's 22 probably true.

23 THE COURT: -- to do much more tonight. We 24 are going to have to finish tomorrow --

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's fine.

1 THE COURT: -- regardless of how long it
2 takes. I did have one matter I wanted to take up on 3 the record before we leave. I think we have 4 discussed it before. I know I have discussed it
5 with counsel and in correspondence, and I don't 6 believe there's been any objection to this.

7 But in order to address some of the 8 concerns, primarily raised by the defense on the 9 venue motion, and also under the Court's own 10 authority, to keep prejudicial evidence from 11 being made public, because of the level of 12 publicity that's attended to this case, I have 13 ordered a number of documents sealed. And I have 14 actually given the parties some authority on 15 their own to submit documents under seal.

16 A number of those documents have since 17 been opened, but a number of them are also still 18 sealed, and I would like to hear from the 19 parties, on the record, whether they have any 20 objection to the documents that are currently 21 sealed, or the method that the Court has been 22 using to this point. Mr. Fallon and Mr. Kratz.

23 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Yes, Judge, we do
24 understand that the items that remain under seal 25 include nine other acts motions, and one three-part

1 in limine motion by the State, that required a 2 probative versus prejudice analysis by the Court for 3 admissibility. We have no objection to those 4 matters remaining under seal.

5 It's my recollection, Judge, perhaps I'm 6 wrong on this, but it's my recollection that the 7 balance of the items that originally were ordered 8 sealed by the Court, have now been unsealed. And 9 if that is, in fact, a correct recollection, we 10 have no problem with that continuing.

11 We do anticipate a ruling, again, some 12 time prior to trial, at least enough in advance 13 of trial, as to the other acts and that one 14 three-part in limine motion. And we understand, 15 at least the Court's original indication, that 16 the items that would be ruled admissible, the 17 seal would be lifted; and those that the Court 18 believed, if any, would be inadmissible, would 19 remain sealed. The State has no objection to 20 that procedure as well.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

22 ATTORNEY STRANG: First, most broadly, I 23 have no objection to the procedure the Court is 24 using on both sealing and unsealing to date.

25 Second, more specifically, as I

1 understand the division between which specific 2 documents remain sealed and which do not, I have 3 no objection there either.

4 The proviso I guess I would add, is that 5 it probably would be a good time tomorrow, for me 6 to pause and just look to make sure that my 7 understanding of what is sealed and not sealed, 8 accords with reality.

9 THE COURT: I have not -- I know at the 10 last hearing, before a number of documents were 11 unsealed, I did my own inventory and attempted to 12 make sure that anything that could be unsealed was 13 unsealed. I have not inventoried the sealed versus 14 unsealed documents lately, so I'm not in a position 15 to know -- say whether Mr. Kratz is correct as to 16 the current state of affairs or not.

17 However, that -- if I didn't mention it,
18 the understanding is correct, that once the Court 19 rules that information will be admissible, it's 20 the Court's intention, at that point, to unseal 21 it. There's certainly a strong presumption in 22 favor of openness in our court system, and it's 23 only to maintain the integrity of the trial and 24 protect the defendant's rights to a fair trial 25 that some of the documents have been sealed.

Counsel, let's do this, I'm going to excuse you for today, but let's plan on starting at 8:30 tomorrow, to make sure we don't run into troubles as the day goes on. Anything else today?

ATTORNEY KRATZ: Not from the State, Judge. Thank you.

ATTORNEY STRANG: We had a stipulation resolving one motion, should we make that of record tomorrow, or do we fear that we'll forget it.

THE COURT: Well, I think, actually, I have a list of some other things to possibly address after tomorrow's hearing, and that's one of them. So, we'll do it that way, along with some of the other matters to be addressed. All right. If there's nothing further, we're adjourned for today.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

Q. We left off your last testimony with the efforts to obtain a warrant, search warrant, on November 5th, for the Avery property, correct?

A. I believe so.

Q. And I believe you said that you went with Investigator Wiegert, and one or more lawyers, to get the warrant itself, from Judge Fox?

A. Yes.

Q. And then you returned to the Avery property with the warrant at what time?

A. I believe it was about 3:30 in the afternoon.

Q. And then, what was your assignment after that?

A. Well, there were several discussions about how we were going to go about doing this. Obviously, the scope of our concern, in our search, was to locate Teresa. And eventually we put some teams together, some individuals.

What we tried to do is coordinate our efforts so that there was a Calumet County officer and a Manitowoc County officer together. And we were assigned different locations to go in and find Teresa.

Q. And by that time, you were aware that, because of 1 the possible appearance of a conflict of 2 interest, the Manitowoc Sheriff's Department had 3 turned over lead authority for the investigation

4 to Calumet, right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And so, you first were paired with an 7 Investigator Steier, I believe?

8 A. Gary Steier, correct.

9 Q. From Calumet?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And you made your first entry, on the warrant, to 12 Mr. Avery's trailer?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And that would have been at 3:48 p.m., on 15 November 5th?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And you did that by force, by kicking in the 18 door, did you not?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And then, what did you do when you were inside?

21 A. We entered. There was two doors. The door to 22 the right, we entered. We entered into a living 23 room, the kitchen is to the right. There is a 24 hallway to the left that leads to the bathroom, 25 and then another bedroom way on the end.

1 Just went through the residence checking
2 closets, looking for Teresa, or any evidence that 3 Teresa was there, any clothing, anything obvious 4 that would indicate Teresa would be in that 5 residence.

6 Q. Now, so we're clear on the record, you testified 7 yesterday that you had actually -- the day 8 before, November 4th, you had been in the very 9 same trailer with consent?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. So you had gone through and opened up doors and 12 closets, on that occasion as well?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. And neither the 4th, nor the 5th, then, when you 15 made this first entry, did you see anything that 16 would indicate that Teresa had been there?

17 A. I did not find Teresa in his trailer.

18 Q. I'm sorry, the last part of that?

19 A. I did not find Teresa in his trailer.

20 Q. In the trailer?

21 A. Correct.

22 Q. So you were in it only about 10 minutes at that 23 time?

24 A. Well, I believe we went to the garage.

25 Q. Let's stick with the trailer, first?

1 A. I'm recalling the times, the garage was around a 2 little after 4 o'clock.

3 Q. If I told you that you entered the trailer at 4 3:48 on November 5th, and exited at 3:58 p.m., 5 would that be --

6 A. Correct, yes.

7 Q. Okay. And then, after leaving the trailer, you 8 went immediately into the detached garage that 9 was located next door?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And if I told you that you entered at 3:58 p.m.
12 and left the garage at 4:06 p.m.; would that fit
13 with your recollection?

14 A. If that's what my report says, that would be 15 accurate.

16 Q. Okay. And, again, in the garage, you were 17 looking for Teresa or any evidence that would 18 indicate Teresa had been there?

19 A. I would say that's pretty accurate.

20 Q. And, again, you found neither?

21 A. Well, I didn't -- We didn't find her. There was 22 some shell casings on the floor.

23 Q. Did you pick those up at that time?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Okay. So, nothing else?

1 A. I don't believe so.

2 Q. All right. Now you -- You went back, I assume, 3 had some other duties elsewhere on the property
4 after that, but then you returned to the trailer,
5 that is, Steven Avery's trailer, at 5:35 p.m., 6 with the dog handler; do you recall that?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Do you ever remember going in the trailer, in 9 Steven Avery's trailer, at any point, with the 10 dog handler?

11 A. I did not.

12 Q. Let's see. I'm going to show you an excerpt from 13 the Calumet County Sheriff's Department report, 14 Page 89, at the top, ask you to review that last 15 three paragraphs; are you familiar with that?

16 A. Yeah, I have had discussions about that entry.

17 Q. About that what?

18 A. About the entry on the report, that makes 19 reference to myself going into the residence with 20 a dog handler.

21 Q. Does that refresh your recollection on this?

22 A. No, that wasn't me.

23 Q. So you are saying that this report is in error?

24 A. It is not my report. My report indicates the 25 times that I was in the residence. For some

1 reason, my name was listed as an individual going 2 in on that occasion. That's not the case.

3 Q. Okay. So you, at no point, entered with a 4 cadaver dog, to look around the apartment?

5 A. Must have been somebody else that he documented.
6 That wasn't me.

7 Q. Were you aware that that was done?

8 A. I don't believe so.

9 Q. Okay. All right. In any event, you did go back 10 in the trailer, that is, Mr. Steven Avery's 11 trailer, again, on November 5th, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And I'm talking about after the search warrant 14 was obtained?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. And it was approximately 7:30, I believe?

17 A. Correct, yes.

18 Q. And so we have these times for the record, if I 19 told you that you entered the Avery trailer, 20 Steven Avery trailer, at 7:30 p.m. and exited and 21 10:05 p.m.; would that fit with your 22 recollection?

23 A. That sounds right.

25 A. Yup.

1 THE COURT: Was that 10:05, the time?

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

3 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes, 7:30 to 10:05 p.m.

4 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ Now, on that occasion, you 5 also entered with Sergeant Colborn, correct?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And Lieutenant Lenk?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And Calumet Sheriff's officer, Sergeant Tyson?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. So there were four officers, three of which were 12 Manitowoc Sheriff's Department officers, right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And the 4 of you then spent 2 1/2 hours, 2 hours 15 and 35 minutes, searching the entire trailer; is 16 that right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And you seized a number of items?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Including bedding, photographs, handcuffs; do you 21 recall that?

22 A. I believe so, yes.

23 Q. And you, yourself, were also searching, looking 24 at the walls, and the doorways, and areas like 25 that, to see if there might be any evidence of 1 blood as well, correct?

2 A. That's my job, yes.

3 Q. Okay. And you did locate some items that, at the 4 time, you believed might be bloodstains, later
5 determined not to have any relationship to Teresa
6 Halbach, but you did make note of those, right?

7 A. There were several areas within the residence 8 that contained a red dried substance.

9 Q. Okay. And you had photographed them?

10 A. I believe I took some digital photographs of 11 those areas, yes.

12 Q. Okay. And then you also took swabs of those 13 areas?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And by that, I mean, you were taking a -- Well, 16 you tell me, I don't want to lead you. Tell me 17 what taking a swab means.

18 A. Well, what you do is, you take a sealed, unused, 19 sterile cotton-tipped applicator, you remove that 20 from its packaging. Usually what you do is, you 21 prepare another package for that applicator to go 22 into.

23 You use a sealed, distilled water
24 container, and you apply a few drops to the end
25 of the sterile cotton-tipped applicator. You

1 then swab the dried, liquid substance with the 2 applicator. You place it into your evidence
3 packaging. You seal it. You label it. You 4 secure it.

5 And then a lot of times, in many cases, 6 you would also take a controlled swab, which is 7 another swab. You use the same technique. You 8 swab an area in close proximity to the area where 9 you took the first swab from.

10 Q. All right. And you did that more than once while 11 you were in the Steven Avery trailer, on November 12 5th, that evening, correct?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And the point of that was, you were looking for 15 trace evidence, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Specifically, to see whether or not there might 18 be any DNA associated with Teresa Halbach?

19 A. Well, many -- Many of the areas I observed looked 20 consistent with blood.

21 Q. Okay. And that's your job, was to do that and to 22 look for that?

23 A. Absolutely.

24 Q. And you were commanded by the warrant to do that,
25 right?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And so, you did do that, you took swabs? You can 3 refer to your report if you need to. It's on 4 Page 12, just to refresh your recollection. But 5 you identified three different spots on the 6 wooden frame area surrounding the doorway; is 7 that right?

8 A. Yes. Right outside of Steven's bedroom, there 9 was a wooden frame around the door. And along 10 the wall there was some dried, red substances on 11 the wall.

12 Q. Okay. And then you also found some -- a drop of 13 similar dried, red substance on the floor of the 14 bathroom, correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you took a swab of that?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And you also found a similar type of a red 19 marking on the wooden molding on the right side 20 of the bedroom doorway? I'm sorry, right side of 21 the doorway, facing the doorway, from the 22 interior of the residence?

23 A. That's the first one I talked about, the molding 24 around the doorway.

25 Q. Okay. But now you took another one, second to 1 last full paragraph.

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, I'm going to 3 object, because it seems to me that, although they 4 were in there doing their search and that it does 5 take time, and we'll certainly concede that, I'm not 6 sure that the painstaking detail of what was 7 collected where, and how it was collected, other 8 than the fact that collecting evidence takes time 9 and is detailed work, beyond that, I'm not sure how 10 this relates to the multiple execution argument.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

12 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, I could tighten it
13 up a little bit, but it is relevant in terms of, you 14 know, their evidence, whether or not he was 15 completing his search of the residence at that time.

16 THE COURT: Well, I agree that -- I can 17 understand why you have to get it in, but I don't 18 want to be here until midnight either. I think for 19 purposes of this hearing, the level of detail that 20 we're going into right now is probably unnecessary.

21 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ All right. Let me ask you 22 this way, if you recall. Do you know how many 23 swabs, in total, you took of things that you 24 thought might possibly be bloodstains? I 25 understand later they have proven not to have any

1 relevance, but you were doing your job at the 2 time. How many swabs did you take from the 3 residence on that evening?

4 A. The entire residence?

5 Q. Yes.

6 A. I can't give you an exact number. In my 7 estimation, I would say probably between 10 and 8 20.

9 Q. So you found a lot of possible areas to look, 10 throughout the trailer, right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Not just by the doorway, but also in the living 13 room, front door, areas like that?

14 A. There were some areas on the front door, wasn't 15 sure if it was paint, blood, other substance. I 16 wasn't sure. I believe I took some swabs in that 17 area. I don't know if there was anything in the 18 living room. It was more in the bathroom and 19 Steven's bedroom.

20 Q. Now, was it primarily your responsibility? Of 21 the four officers in there, was it primarily your 22 responsibility to be doing the trace evidence 23 search, or what?

24 A. We all played a part. We all had a section of 25 the residence, or the bedroom. I have done

1 collection similar to this in the past, the use 2 of those types of kits. I felt very confident in 3 my abilities, and we worked together.

4 One individual may have taken the 5 collection, the other individual may have 6 prepared the packaging, to put the collection in.
7 So, using my equipment --

8 Q. Sure.

9 A. -- it made the most sense.

10 Q. So, but do you know whether any of the other 11 three remaining officers that were in there, also 12 collected trace evidence, in the form of swabs?

13 A. In the form of swabs, I would say that it was 14 either myself or Sergeant Colborn who would have 15 done the swabs or participated in the collection 16 of those.

17 Q. Okay. Now, you also seized -- In terms of trace 18 evidence, you also found like a lint roller with 19 some sort of adhesive material on it?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And you seized that?

22 A. I did not seize that, I used that.

23 Q. Oh, I'm sorry. You used that in order to take 24 samples of fibers, hairs, things like that?

25 A. It's a technique you use. In this case, the

1 carpeting in Steven's bedroom, I used a lint
2 roller to just roll over the carpeting to collect 3 trace hair, trace items of evidence that may have 4 been in the carpeting.

5 Q. Okay. And you went all around the bedroom, or 6 all around the bed, anyway?

7 A. I think the main area that I -- that I used was 8 when you first walk into the bedroom, between the 9 doorway and the bed, near the night stand, that 10 area.

11 Q. Okay. And then, also a number of items, many, 12 many items, were seized. Do you know about how 13 many items were actually taken on that search?

14 A. It's my job to collect it, search, and then 15 everything was turned right over to Calumet
16 County. They did the list. I have no idea.

17 Q. Could it be as many as 50 items; would that fit 18 with your recollection?

19 A. It could have been.

20 Q. Okay. And I'm not going to go through all of 21 those, I'm sure your happy to hear.

22 A. Thank you.

23 Q. But it did include a vacuum cleaner bag and 24 filter, correct?

25 A. I believe that was taken. Whether that was taken

1 Saturday or Sunday, I'm not sure.

2 Q. You could look at the bottom of Page 22 -- I'm 3 sorry, 12 --

4 A. 12.

5 Q. -- of your report, last full paragraph.

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. The vacuum bag and filter were removed from the 8 vacuum cleaner on that search, right?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. And the four of you searched and continued as 11 long as necessary, that evening; isn't that 12 right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. No one kicked you out of the trailer and said 15 it's time to go?

16 A. No.

17 Q. No one put any kind of time limit on when you 18 should get out of that trailer that night; is 19 that right?

20 A. No. That's right, I'm sorry.

21 Q. Okay. And then, when you left at 10:05 p.m., you 22 had completed your search of the entire trailer, 23 Steven Avery trailer; is that right?

24 A. Well, that search, yes.

25 Q. As far as you knew, at that point, you had

1 searched -- or you had seized everything that had 2 any apparent evidentiary value, from Steven 3 Avery's trailer?

4 A. No. I know we had some questions about certain 5 things. I mean, at that time, we didn't know a 6 lot. And there were magazine, after pornographic
7 magazine, in there. There was pictures. There 8 was stuff, we weren't sure at that time whether 9 it was relevant or whether we should take it, so.

10 Q. But anything that had obvious evidentiary value, 11 that fit within your parameters of the search 12 warrant, you took on that night?

13 A. No. We -- Obviously, we went back to get a 14 number of other things. There was a shotgun, or 15 a gun, in the bedroom.

16 Q. Answer my question though, is -- did you leave 17 the -- is there some reason you didn't take the 18 shotgun that night?

19 A. I don't recall. There may have been a question 20 whether it was included in the search warrant.
21 We had a lot of questions about what we should 22 take, what we shouldn't take.

23 Q. Okay. But in your actual words of your report, 24 at 2205, 10:05 p.m., the officers were completed 25 with the processing of the residence and out

1 of -- went out of the residence; isn't that what 2 it says?

3 A. That's what it says.

4 Q. While that was going on, by the way, Sergeant
5 Tyson, the Calumet officer, was also doing sort 6 of a written log of all of the items, and the 7 times that they were seized, and where they were 8 located, and all of that?

9 A. Right alongside of us.

10 Q. Okay. All right. Now, the next morning, this is 11 November 6th, did you return to the Avery salvage 12 property?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. At about what time?

15 A. I believe I arrived at about, around 8 o'clock 16 a.m.

17 Q. Okay. And were you assigned certain duties 18 again?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And who gave you those assignments?

21 A. Well, again, we met Investigator Wiegert, Agent
22 Fassbender, Lieutenant Lenk. We were all
23 involved in discussions. And there was a 24 decision made to go process the garage. And we 25 made assignments, who would participate in that

1 search and went and did.

2 Q. My question is, who made those assignments, or 3 did you just sort of volunteer for it?

4 A. We all did, depending on who was there, who the 5 personnel was, who had the equipment, who worked 6 well together. It was a cooperative effort 7 amongst all of us making those decisions.

8 Q. All right. And on that occasion --

9 A. I had a say in that. Wiegert had a say in that.
10 We all did.

11 Q. And on that occasion, the team, the same team was 12 formed. I'm sorry, I take that back. It was the 13 same team of Manitowoc officers?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. Yourself?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Lieutenant Lenk and Sergeant Colburn?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. But a different Calumet officer, this time a 20 Deputy Kucharski was assigned to go along with 21 you?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. His responsibility was primarily, he was going to 24 be taking custody, as well, of any of the items?

25 A. Correct.

1 Q. And when you went back to the Avery property, you 2 did not go into Mr. Avery's trailer residence at 3 that time, did you?

4 A. Not initially, no.

5 Q. Instead, you went into the garage, the detached 6 garage next to it?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Which you had not -- you had entered only once 9 before, for about seven minutes, on the day 10 before?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And if I told you that you entered the detached 13 garage next to Mr. Steven Avery's residence at 8 14 a.m. and left at 9:47 a.m; would that fit with 15 your recollection?

16 A. That sounds accurate.

17 Q. So, the four of you, the four officers were 18 inside the garage searching, for about 1 hour and 19 47 minutes?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. And can you tell me how big the garage is, 22 approximate estimate?

23 A. About a standard two car garage size.

24 Q. Okay. And the four of you had went through the 25 garage, thoroughly looking for, again, any

1 evidence of Teresa Halbach or evidence that would 2 fit with what was sought in the warrant?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. And no one kicked you out of the garage at any 5 particular time?

6 A. No.

7 Q. You were able to stay as long as you wanted?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And you did seize some items, including some .22 10 caliber shells, correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And also some, again, possible bloodstains that 13 you noted on the floor in the various areas?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And, again, you did the same type of a process of 16 collecting them with swabs, sealing them, for 17 possible DNA tests, and that sort of thing?

18 A. Correct.

19 Q. And I recognize, again, that those didn't turn 20 out like you thought they might but,
21 nevertheless, you were doing your job and were 22 looking for possible blood of Teresa Halbach; is 23 that right?

24 A. I guess I was -- If it was blood I was collecting 25 and whose it was, I'm not able to determine that.

1 Q. Okay. Or whether it was even blood at all?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Okay. And now you finished searching the garage

4 at 9:47 a.m., you were right next door to the 5 Steven Avery trailer, just a few feet away,

6 right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Did you go back into the trailer at that time?

9 A. No.

10 Q. In fact, you didn't go back into the trailer

11 until -- that is, Steven Avery's trailer, until 12 about 12:25 p.m.?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. That same day, November 6th?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you went back, because you were asked to go;

17 is that right?

18 A. I believe so.

19 Q. By who?

20 A. I'm guessing those conversations took place with 21 Investigator Wiegert and/or Agent Fassbender.

22 Q. And if I told you that you entered at 12:25 p.m.

23 and left at 12:48 p.m., this is Mr. Steven 24 Avery's trailer, on November 6th; would that fit

25 with your recollection?

1 A. Sounds about right.

2 Q. And on that occasion you seized -- you went back 3 to get the weapons you saw?

4 A. We -- Earlier I talked about some of the 5 questions we had. Obviously, this was in 6 reference to some other items that we had 7 observed on the first search. And we went back 8 and collected some additional things.

9 Q. Some magazines, I think you mentioned,
10 photographs?

11 A. Photographs, the weapon above the bed, I believe 12 there was some additional bedding in the other 13 bedroom, within the residence. There may have 14 been a carpet shampooer that was taken also.

15 Q. And, again, you had as much time as you wanted in 16 that trailer, on that occasion, no one kicked -- 17 Is that right?

18 A. Yeah, I mean, we had a lot of searches to do that 19 day. We had our work cut out for ourselves. So 20 I wouldn't say we were rushing, but we knew there 21 were other places that needed to be processed, 22 so.

23 Q. And, again, the officers who entered Mr. Avery's 24 trailer at 12:25 p.m., November 6th, were the 25 same ones that had gone into the garage; that is,

1 yourself, Detective Remiker, Lieutenant Lenk, 2 Sergeant Colborn, all from Manitowoc, as well as 3 Calumet's Deputy Kucharski; is that right?

4 A. I believe so, yes.

5 Q. So all four of you were back in there?

6 A. I believe so.

7 Q. And did you, at any time after that, go back into 8 Mr. Avery's -- or the detached garage next to 9 Mr. Avery's residence?

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor --

11 A. Second time?

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: -- I'm going to oppose an 13 objection here. As I'm listening to the line of 14 questioning here, it seems remarkably similar, if 15 not identical, to the questions and information
16 obtained from Lieutenant Lenk in yesterday's call.
17 So this does seem to me, duplicitous.

18 I'm not quite sure how this adds to the 19 equation. I mean, it's quite obvious that they 20 entered the residence on a number of occasions 21 while conducting this overall search. So, I'm 22 not quite sure what we are accomplishing with 23 Detective, or Investigator Remiker's echoing what 24 Lieutenant Lenk testified to.

25 ATTORNEY BUTING: Actually, I think we are

1 done with his. That was going to be my final 2 question.

3 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ Did you go back in the 4 garage, yourself?

5 THE COURT: You may answer.

6 A. No.

7 ATTORNEY BUTING: All right. Thank you.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon, are you going to be 9 conducting cross?

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: I am. Thank you, Judge.

11 THE COURT: Go ahead.

12 CROSS-EXAMINATION

13 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

14 Q. How long have you been an evidence collector, or 15 evidence technician, as they are sometimes 16 referred to?

17 A. Well, I don't recall when I attended the State
18 Crime Lab Evidence Tech School. I would guess 19 that's at least six, seven years ago, would be a 20 guess.

21 Q. All right. Is evidence -- Is the search for 22 evidence, particularly trace evidence, time 23 consuming?

24 A. It's very detail oriented. You have to be very 25 careful; yes, definitely.

1 Q. Does it take time?

2 A. Takes a lot of time.

3 Q. All right. And why does it take time?

4 A. Well, when you are looking for trace evidence, it
5 doesn't stand out. You have got to look for it.
6 You have got to find it. You have to be on your 7 hands and knees. And then, when you are 8 collecting those things, you are dealing with 9 very small samples, you are using tweezers. You 10 are using small patching material.

11 You are using cotton-tipped applicators
12 that you have to apply sterile water to. You are 13 doing a collection. You are doing a controlled 14 sample. You are packaging it. You are sealing 15 it. You are labeling it. Each item, there's a 16 process that you follow to make sure that that 17 evidence is secure and is as pure as you can 18 collect it.

19 Q. All right. So in effect, first of all, you have 20 to spend time to find trace evidence, right?

21 A. Definitely.

22 Q. And then there's an entirely separate process of 23 collecting the evidence, correct?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And that collection is sometimes painstakingly

1 slow?

2 A. It can be.

3 Q. Sometimes it's rather quick, for instance, if you 4 are just securing a gun from the wall; that takes 5 but a matter of a moment or two. Perhaps a 6 minute or two to collect it, log it in, and 7 secure it. But perhaps, as opposed to looking 8 for fiber evidence, or possible blood splots -- 9 spots, that takes more time, doesn't it?

10 A. Definitely.

11 Q. And as I understand it, you are required to, 12 basically, once you find an item, you deal with 13 that item. You log it in; you picture it, if you 14 do take a picture; you collect it; you secure it; 15 you label it, before you go on to the next item.
16 It's one item at a time.

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. And that's to ensure the integrity of the piece 19 of evidence you are collecting?

20 A. Without a doubt.

21 Q. And as a matter of fact, especially when you are 22 looking for trace evidence and things like that, 23 there are environmental factors that affect the 24 collection of trace evidence?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. For instance, would you say it's easier to find 2 trace evidence with natural daylight, as opposed 3 to artificial incandescent light?

4 A. Natural daylight is always advantageous.

5 Q. So -- So -- And your recollection was that you,
6 yourself, took anywhere from 10 to 20 swabs, each 7 one had to be individually processed?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. All right. And as counsel suggested, there could 10 have been perhaps 50 or more items secured that 11 evening?

12 A. That's possible.

13 Q. All right. And each one had to be individually 14 found, right?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. They had to be pictured or preserved, and then 17 they were collected, correct?

18 A. Correct. Packaged, labeled. Insert number, 19 date, and time of collection, everything.

20 Q. Before the next item could be processed?

21 A. Definitely.

22 Q. All right. Now, with respect to the assignments, 23 it's true, is it not, that although there was a 24 great deal of give and take and discussion 25 amongst the investigators, that notwithstanding

1 that, Investigator Wiegert and Special Agent
2 Fassbender were in charge of the overall 3 investigation, correct?

4 A. Definitely.

5 Q. So, in terms of the cooperative effort, in other 6 words, they sought your ideas and your input,
7 correct?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. But the decisions, in terms of what was to be 10 done and when and how and allocation of 11 resources, those were decisions made by Wiegert
12 and Fassbender?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Based on your input and available resources?

15 A. You are exactly right.

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Buting?

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: Just one or two.

19 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

20 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

21 Q. Mr. Fallon asked you a number of questions about 22 what you were trained to do, or what you might do 23 in certain cases, how long it takes to collect 24 trace evidence in general, correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. But in this case, on November 5th, in those 2 1/2
2 hours, while you were in that trailer, you did,
3 in fact, get down on your hands and knees, right, 4 with a lint roller?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And to collect a swab off of the bathroom floor?

7 A. Correct.

8 Q. And you were doing all of those things that you 9 would normally do, to find trace evidence,
10 correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And you are a thorough officer, aren't you?

13 A. I believe so.

14 Q. And you did as thorough and complete a job as you 15 could that night?

16 A. I believe so.

17 Q. And Mr. Fallon mentioned that Agents Fassbender
18 and Investigator Wiegert were in charge?

19 A. Investigator Wiegert.

20 Q. Wiegert, I'm sorry, I say that half the time. Is 21 that right?

22 A. Well, yeah, they were assigned as the lead 23 investigators, correct.

24 Q. So they were the ones who -- Well, let me ask you 25 this, then, Lieutenants -- Lieutenant Sippel, are

1 you familiar with him? Maybe I'm pronouncing his 2 name wrong.

3 A. I've heard his name. If I would see him, I would 4 probably recognize him. I don't --

5 Q. Lieutenant Bowe, I think it is; do you know him?
6 Or Bowe?

7 A. I'm sure if I seen him, I would recognize him.

8 Q. So, neither of them were directing you or 9 advising you what to do during the entire week or 10 so that the Avery property was seized?

11 A. If I'm correct, I believe those individuals had a 12 lot to do with the security, or the watching over 13 the property, some of the layers of security that 14 we had out there.

15 Q. Okay. They would have been in the command post 16 area that was set up?

17 A. No, they would have been parked right next to 18 Steve's trailer, in a squad car, or standing 19 outside the trailer providing security, or 20 watching over that residence. There were several 21 layers of security out there.

22 Q. Are you talking about lieutenants?

23 A. Those Calumet County officers.

24 Q. Okay. But my question is, were they involved in 25 the direction or decision making of the search,

1 in particular, the search of Mr. Avery, Steven 2 Avery's residence?

3 A. I don't believe so, no.

4 Q. That was Wiegert and Fassbender, collectively, 5 with your cooperative decisions?

6 A. Yes.

7 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you.

8 THE COURT: Anything else?

9 ATTORNEY FALLON: I just have one question.

10 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

11 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

12 Q. What did you mean when you said, we had a lot of 13 searches to do that day, in response to Counsel's 14 question, on your Sunday's questioning?

15 A. Well, we had about 37 acres, thousands of cars, 16 residences, shops, outbuildings. There was a lot 17 to do.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: All right. Thank you.

19 ATTORNEY BUTING: One last.

20 FURTHER REDIRECT EXAMINATION

21 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

22 Q. Do you know how many officers, law enforcement 23 officers, were out there on that 40 acre parcel, 24 besides yourself?

25 A. When?

1 Q. During the week.

2 A. No idea.

3 Q. As many as a hundred?

4 A. Could have been.

5 Q. So there were many others available to do 6 searches, besides yourself and your foursome that 7 was doing these searches, correct?

8 A. Based on our discussion, based on our confidence 9 in our abilities, based on our experience working 10 together, based on the access to equipment, and 11 the being comfortable with that equipment, and 12 being able to use that equipment properly --

13 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, he's not answering 14 my question. Would you please answer the question I 15 asked, which is --

16 THE WITNESS: I was getting to that.

17 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ Were there other officers 18 available, that were searching in other areas, 19 besides just the four of you?

20 A. There may have been, but it didn't make sense for 21 those individuals to do those searches.

22 Q. To do what searches?

23 A. Of the residences, the garage, the buildings.

24 Q. Didn't make sense for them, for anyone but you 25 four, to search any of the buildings on that

1 property?

2 A. Well, you obviously want to use evidence techs, 3 people who are trained to do those types of 4 searches and collections of evidence.

5 Q. And you had --

6 A. It's limited.

7 Q. Well, you had plenty of evidence techs out there, 8 during that week, did you not?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Well, you had the Crime Lab?

11 A. They showed up with two people on Saturday --

12 Q. Okay. You had --

13 A. -- which one was a photographer only.

14 Q. You had DCI?

15 A. Fassbender may have been the only one out there
16 Saturday.

17 Q. But during the week, as we went on, up to 18 November 9th?

19 A. I was only there until Sunday night.

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: All right. Thank you.

21 THE COURT: All right. You are excused.

22 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: Defense may call its next
24 witness.

25 THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand.

1 SERGEANT ANDREW L. COLBURN, called as a
2 witness herein, having been first duly sworn, was
3 examined and testified as follows:

4 THE CLERK: Please be seated. Please state
5 your name, spell your last name for the record.

6 THE WITNESS: Andrew L. Colburn,
7 C-o-l-b-o-r-n.

8 DIRECT EXAMINATION

9 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

10 Q. Sergeant, how are you employed?

11 A. I'm a patrol supervisor with the Manitowoc
12 Sheriff's Department.

13 Q. And how long have you been so employed?

14 A. 14 years.

15 Q. As a police officer, you say?

16 A. As a corrections officer until 1996. I have been 17 a police officer since '96.

18 Q. Okay. And how long have you been a sergeant?

19 A. Since 2002.

20 Q. Okay. And on November 5th of 2005, were you so 21 employed?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. And did you become involved in a Teresa Halbach
24 matter?

25 A. Yes, I did.

1 Q. And what date was that?

2 A. On Saturday, I believe it was the 3rd of 3 November.

4 Q. Could that have been Thursday, November 3rd?

5 A. Yes, sorry, Thursday, November 3rd.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. That was my initial involvement.

8 Q. And you received a phone call from somebody at 9 Calumet?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Advising you that there was a missing person 12 investigation?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. And were you asked to do something in your 15 jurisdiction, in Manitowoc?

16 A. Yes, the officer that called from Calumet asked 17 if we could send a deputy, or if I could go out 18 to the Avery Auto Salvage area and check to see 19 if that young lady was there.

20 Q. And that was that very same evening, November 21 3rd, is what they wanted you to do, right?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. And so did you do so?

24 A. Yes, I went out there personally.

25 Q. You did?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Okay. And the name, Steven Avery, was mentioned 3 to you; is that right?

4 A. No. When I was contacted, I was just told that 5 the last address that she had been at, they 6 thought, was an address on Avery Road. I didn't 7 know of any other residences on Avery Road, but 8 the Avery Auto Salvage area.

9 Q. Okay. And so when you went out there, did you 10 see Steven Avery?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And he was somebody that you were familiar with,
13 right?

14 A. Not real familiar with, but I knew who Steve was, 15 by sight.

16 Q. Well -- And you knew his involvement with your 17 department as well, right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. In fact, you had been deposed in his civil case 20 just three weeks earlier, right?

21 A. Yes.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, relevance.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

24 ATTORNEY BUTING: I will move on.

25 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ When -- Did you find

1 Mr. Avery at home, or outside the trailer, or 2 tell me what happened?

3 A. Probably the two -- the two Avery's that I'm most 4 familiar with are Charles and Earl. I knew Earl 5 doesn't live out there, so my initial -- the idea 6 in my head was to make contact with Charles.

7 And so I drove directly towards where I
8 knew Charles lived, which is in close proximity 9 to the shop building. Got out of my squad. And 10 before I could get to Charles' residence, Steve 11 came out of his parent's home and asked what I 12 was doing.

13 Q. Okay. And so what did you tell him?

14 THE COURT: Excuse me, I have a question 15 here. I think this testimony is for the multiple 16 execution of the warrant section. Is this testimony 17 necessary for purposes of this motion?

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: If it's whether it's an 19 entry or not, I don't know whether he went into the 20 residence at that time or not, it could be.

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: But what relevance is 22 that, in terms of once a warrant is obtained, 23 whether it was properly executed.

24 THE COURT: Right.

25 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, it relates to

1 whether -- the necessity of how many times you need 2 to go back into someone's residence.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: Well, we're talking -- If 4 you want argument, I'm prepared to argue more.

5 THE COURT: I think we have to get to the 6 point after the warrant was issued, to hear
7 testimony that's relevant to your motion. I mean, 8 I'm sure that the questions you are asking might 9 be -- may well be relevant at a different time, 10 during trial, for example, but I don't see how they 11 relate to the motion.

12 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, I guess it's not 13 clear to me whether he entered. That's really what 14 I'm getting at, but I'm trying not to lead him, so 15 it's going a little bit slower. My real question 16 is, did he go into the Avery trailer on that night 17 or not.

18 THE COURT: How is that relevant to the 19 issue relating to multiple executions of the search 20 warrant, which wasn't issued until a couple days 21 later?

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, I think it relates 23 to it because every entry makes it less necessary to 24 go in again.

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: We would disagree. We're

1 talking two conceptually different concepts, one a 2 breeze through based on consent and --

3 ATTORNEY BUTING: I don't know if there is 4 or not. I mean, I haven't asked the question yet 5 and don't have an answer on that yet. He may have 6 never gone in, I don't know.

7 THE COURT: I will let you ask a few brief 8 background questions, but I think we should move on 9 to the point fairly quickly once the point is 10 issued.

11 ATTORNEY BUTING: Sure. Let me just get to 12 the point.

13 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ Did you, on that night, 14 November 3rd, accompany or go into Mr. Avery's
15 trailer?

16 A. No, I didn't.

17 Q. Okay. So you just talked with him outside?

18 A. That's correct.

19 Q. All right. Did you go in the next day, to his 20 trailer?

21 A. No, I didn't.

22 Q. Okay. Now, moving onto Saturday, November 5th, 23 did you -- can you tell me what time you arrived
24 at the Avery property?

25 A. Sometime between 6 and 6:30 in the evening.

1 Q. Is that when you are on duty?

2 A. No, I was on my day off.

3 Q. Okay. So you were called in?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And you -- Did you meet with -- with somebody who 6 was assigning you tasks to do?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Who was that?

9 A. I believe it was Investigator Wiegert from the 10 Calumet Sheriff's Office.

11 Q. Were you aware, at that point, that the -- 12 because of the appearance of a conflict of 13 interest, because of Mr. Avery's pending 36

14 million dollar lawsuit against your department,

15 that Calumet had taken over -- supposedly taken

16 over the lead investigation?

17 A. Yes, I was told that the Calumet Sheriff's Office

18 would be the lead investigative agency and we 19 were to assist them.

20 Q. And do you know how many officers were out on the 21 scene of the property, on that day, when you

22 arrived?

23 A. No, I do not.

24 Q. Do you have an estimate of whether it's more or 25 less than 50?

1 A. I would hazard a guess at less than 50, but I 2 don't have an accurate head count of how many 3 officers were out there, sir.

4 Q. All right. Or what about the following day, do 5 you have any other -- the November 6, do you have 6 any information or knowledge about how many 7 officers were there then?

8 A. Again, approximately the same amount as on 9 Saturday.

10 Q. All right. Now, on November 5th, after you 11 arrived at the property, did there come a time 12 when you entered Mr. Steven Avery's residence to 13 conduct a search, based on a search warrant?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And who were you with?

16 A. A Sergeant Bill Tyson from the Calumet Sheriff's 17 Department, Detective Remiker from our agency, 18 Lieutenant Lenk from our agency, and myself.

19 Q. And how was it you were assigned to perform those 20 duties?

21 A. One of my additional duties or specializations in 22 the area of criminal investigation, is evidence 23 tech. And I was acting in that capacity.

24 Q. Let me ask you, in your department, as patrol 25 supervisor, are you among the top three

1 individuals qualified to search Mr. Avery's
2 trailer?

3 A. I'm not sure I understand the question, sir. Are 4 you asking for the rank structure of the Patrol 5 Division?

6 Q. No. No. I'm asking for your qualifications as 7 a --

8 A. I would probably be in the top three choices, 9 yes.

10 Q. To search a residence?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. And you have done that a number of times?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Do you know how many, approximately?

15 A. 25 or better.

16 Q. Okay. And you completed your search of the 17 residence at some point around 10 o'clock that 18 night; is that right?

19 A. Yes, sir, that sounds right.

20 Q. And did you come back the next day and do some 21 more searches of the Avery property?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Do you know what time you started?

24 A. Would have been around 8 o'clock in the morning.

25 Q. And did you go immediately into Mr. Avery's

1 trailer, again?

2 A. I don't believe we went immediately into his 3 trailer. I believe that we went into his garage, 4 though --

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. -- which is in close proximity to it.

7 Q. If I told you you were there in the garage from 8 about 8:00 a.m. to 9:47 a.m.; would that fit with 9 your recollection?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. And were you there with Detective Remiker, 12 Lieutenant Lenk, again?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And Deputy Kucharski from Calumet?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. And then you completed the search of the garage; 17 is that right?

18 A. Yes, sir.

19 Q. Were you asked to go back in Mr. Avery's trailer 20 sometime during the noon hour, 12:30?

21 A. I'm not sure of the time, but I believe, yes, we 22 were asked to go back into Mr. Avery's trailer.
23 Steve Avery, I'm talking about.

24 Q. And was that with a specific -- Was that from 25 Investigator Wiegert's direction?

1 A. I don't know who exactly gave the direction to go
2 back in there. One of the Calumet County
3 supervisors just said, the next thing we need you 4 to do is go back in, you know. I didn't -- Every 5 time I was directed to go into the trailer, it
6 didn't come directly from Investigator Wiegert.
7 Could have come from any number of supervisors 8 that were out there.

9 Q. At any rate, you were directed to go back in, 10 specifically, to seize some weapons --

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. -- that were located in the bedroom of Mr. Steven 13 Avery?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. And you did that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And you went in, the same four officers went in 18 on that occasion, right?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. And you completed your search on that occasion,
21 right?

22 A. Yes, sir.

23 Q. Now, there's a similar request the following day, 24 I believe, November 7th. Do you recall being 25 asked to go into the Steven Avery trailer again,

1 to simply get a serial number of a computer?

2 A. Are we talking Monday, now. Is it Monday?

3 Q. Yes, that would be Monday, November 7th.

4 A. Yes, I do recall being asked to obtain a serial 5 number for a computer.

6 Q. And you went in with Lieutenant Lenk and Sergeant 7 Tyson from Calumet?

8 A. I believe so, yes.

9 Q. And did you get the serial number?

10 A. Yes, I did.

11 Q. And then you left on that occasion, right?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. And then, on the following day, this would be 14 Tuesday, November 8th, did you again go back into 15 Mr. Steven Avery's residence?

16 A. Yes, I did.

17 Q. And if I told you 8:25 a.m. you entered and left 18 at 12:08 p.m.; would that fit with your 19 recollection?

20 A. That sounds accurate, yes, sir.

21 Q. And on that occasion, you went in with who?

22 A. That occasion I believe it would have been 23 myself, Lieutenant Lenk, and Deputy Dan 24 Kucharski, from Calumet County Sheriff's Office.

25 Q. So the three of you were inside the apartment for 1 almost four hours?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. On that same day -- I'm sorry -- Yes, on that 4 same day, immediately after you completed the 5 search of Mr. Avery's trailer, you went into the 6 garage again; is that right, the same three of 7 you?

8 A. On Tuesday are you talking about?

9 Q. Yes.

10 A. I don't recall if we went in the garage that day 11 or not.

12 Q. If I told you you entered at 12:19 p.m. and left 13 at 12:45 p.m. and you were looking for tools and 14 things, specific tool to match up with something, 15 did that -- would that -- that --

16 A. Yes, I do recall that.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. I didn't know if that was on Tuesday but, yes, I 19 do recall that.

20 Q. And then, the following day, November 9th, do you
21 recall going back into Mr. Avery's trailer with a 22 specific intent to look for a garage door opener, 23 some gloves, and things of that nature?

24 A. It's possible; that, I don't recall.

25 Q. Do you recall going into his residence at all on 1 November 9th, that would be --

2 A. Wednesday?

3 Q. Wednesday.

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, I think this 5 question is -- I know it hasn't been asked
6 specifically of Sergeant Colborn, but I believe 7 Lieutenant Lenk did indicate that he was in there
8 that day. And I think we stipulated, if I recall, 9 that the entry was 10:39 to 10:59, with an 10 interruption at 10:59, and then resumed at 11:40, 11 and ended at 11:50. I think we agreed to that 12 yesterday, so I'm not sure what this adds to the 13 equation.

14 ATTORNEY BUTING: That's correct, your 15 Honor, I forgot that we had stipulated to that, so I 16 can move on.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ Did you have anything to do 19 with getting the search warrant?

20 A. No, sir.

21 Q. Did you have anything to do with the decisions of 22 when you went into his residence, or not?

23 A. No, sir.

24 Q. Lieutenant Lenk out ranks you; is that right?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. And on -- Let me go back to this first search for 2 a minute, the November 5th entry, in the evening, 3 when you were there from, like 7:30 to 4 10:05 p.m.; are you oriented for that?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Okay. You said that you are an evidence tech; 7 does that mean you collect evidence as well?

8 A. Collect evidence, photograph evidence, locate 9 evidence, it's all, yes.

10 Q. Okay. I'm sorry. And did you do so on that 11 occasion?

12 A. Yes, I did.

13 Q. Were you collecting swabs and things that could 14 be trace evidence?

15 A. My -- excuse me -- My primary job, if you want to 16 use that term, was probably photographing and 17 assisting in collecting. I didn't do a lot of 18 the swabbing on Saturday.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. I did assist Detective Remiker with that task, 21 though.

22 Q. Okay. And you did, I believe, find some fiber 23 evidence, or something, on the living room floor; 24 do you recall that?

25 A. It's entirely possible, yes.

1 Q. Okay. Do you know how many items you actually 2 collected yourself, that night?

3 A. Myself, personally, if you are talking about just 4 me, I didn't, like, collect any items myself, bag
5 them up and say I have this. I would locate
6 items that I thought were of evidentiary value 7 and I pointed them out to Sergeant Tyson of the 8 Calumet Sheriff's Office and, collectively, we 9 would pick those items up.

10 Q. Okay. And by the way, did you review anything 11 before your testimony today?

12 A. I did review these two reports that I have in my 13 hand here. The one is the Calumet County 14 Sheriff's Department report and the other one is 15 our Manitowoc Sheriff's Department report that 16 was compiled by Detective Remiker.

17 Q. That's the 22-page report?

18 A. My report indicates it's -- this is page one of 19 24.

20 Q. Twenty-four. May I see the Calumet report for a 21 minute, please? You have reviewed both of these 22 items?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 ATTORNEY BUTING: May I have just a moment,
25 Judge, I think I have seen these, but there's a

1 couple pages that are different now.

2 THE COURT: Go ahead.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, I would just 4 observe that, given the sequencing of that report,
5 those last pages, if that's what's in issue here, I 6 would be surprised if they are relevant to this 7 particular motion. I mean, they may be certainly 8 entitled to that under discovery, but I'm not sure 9 that it adds anything to Sergeant Colborn's 10 testimony relative to the events of the week of 11 November 5th.

12 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ All right. Lieutenant, the 13 Manitowoc official report of the investigation in 14 this case is -- it's now 24 pages, right?

15 A. Are you asking me to count each page or?

16 Q. Well, I'm just asking you how many total pages it 17 is?

18 A. It says this is Page 1 of 24. I didn't take any 19 pages out, this is 24 of 24, so I'm assuming 20 these to be --

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. -- 24 pages.

23 Q. All right. How much of that report consists of 24 reports that you wrote or dictated into this 25 sequential system?

1 A. Oh, there's only a very few entries that I
2 personally have on here.

3 Q. In fact, the last couple of pages involve a 4 report that you did very recently?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. And -- But it deals with an investigation that 7 you did way back on November 3rd?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. Particularly, it's the encounter with Mr. Avery 10 that night that we talked about briefly at the 11 beginning of this testimony?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. But you only recently, within the last month or 14 two, prepared a report of that?

15 A. Only within the past month or so made an addition 16 on this report about that, yes.

17 Q. And until you did that report, you had almost no
18 personal reports in that entire Manitowoc 19 official report, right?

20 A. That is correct.

21 Q. And were you directed to add that report to it, 22 this newer one?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. By whom?

25 A. We had a pretrial conference -- and I'm just

1 using the term pretrial, generically --
2 conference in Calumet County and all the officers 3 were talking about what involvement they had in 4 this case.

5 And when I mentioned that I had initial 6 contact with Mr. Avery on 11/3/2006, it was 7 suggested that I make an entry to this report, 8 the Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department report,
9 about the nature of that contact.

10 Q. Okay. That was one of your supervisors directing 11 you to do that?

12 A. Yes.

13 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you. I have no
14 further questions.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Pass. We have no
17 questions for this witness.

18 THE COURT: All right. You are excused.
19 You may call your next witness.

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: Your Honor, if you give 21 me just a minute here, we may be able to shorten 22 this.

23 THE COURT: All right. We'll take a 10
24 minute break at this time and then resume.

25 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you.

1 (Recess taken.)

2 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Fallon, you
3 may -- or -- Yes.

4 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, at this time we're 5 not presenting any other evidence on the multiple 6 entries motion.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon, any witnesses for 8 the State?

9 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, the State will be 10 presenting witnesses. State would call as it's 11 first witness, Tom Fassbender.

12 SPECIAL AGENT THOMAS FASSBENDER, called 13 as a witness herein, having been first duly 14 sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

15 THE CLERK: Please be seated. Please state
16 your name, and spell your last name for the record.
17 Thomas Fassbender, F-a-s-s-b-e-n-d-e-r.

18 DIRECT EXAMINATION

19 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

20 Q. What do you do for a living?

21 A. I'm a Special Agent with the Wisconsin Department 22 of Justice, Division of Criminal Investigation.

23 Q. How long have you been so employed?

24 A. With DCI, I have been employed 21 years.

25 Q. And prior to that, any law enforcement

1 experience?

2 A. I had five years as a patrol officer on the State 3 Patrol.

4 Q. What is your current assignment as an agent with 5 the Department of Justice?

6 A. I currently work within our Special Assignments 7 Bureau, which is primarily responsible for 8 homicide investigations.

9 Q. All right. And how long have you held that 10 particular assignment?

11 A. About five years.

12 Q. Prior to that, what duties or assignments did you 13 hold?

14 A. When I came in with DCI, I was a narcotics agent 15 for five years. And then I went into white color 16 and government corruption for about 11 years.
17 And during that period, I worked internet crimes 18 against children for about two years at the same
19 time.

20 Q. All right. With respect to your current 21 assignment, approximately how many homicide 22 investigations have you been involved in?

23 A. Well, if we're counting what we term "cold case"
24 homicide investigations, I have a file drawer 25 full of those, which would go anywhere from 8 to 1 15 cases there. Other homicide investigations, 2 probably anywhere from 5 to 10.

3 Q. All right. Now, during those particular 4 investigations, are they -- Where are those 5 homicide investigations? Where did they take 6 place? What is your jurisdiction or area of 7 operation?

8 A. Jurisdictionwise would be State of Wisconsin.

9 Q. All right. With respect to this particular case, 10 I would like to draw your attention to 11 November 5th, 2005; how did you become involved
12 in this case?

13 A. DCI was re -- Or the assistance of DCI was 14 requested by the Calumet County Sheriff's 15 Department and I was assigned by my supervisor.

16 Q. And did you arrive upon the scene of the Avery 17 Auto Salvage Yard on November 5th?

18 A. Yes, somewhere around shortly after 2:00 p.m.
19 that day.

20 Q. Had you had any association at all with the 21 missing person case involving Teresa Halbach 22 prior to that?

23 A. No.

24 Q. All right. When you arrived at 2:00 p.m., which 25 law enforcement agency was in control and in 1 charge?

2 A. Calumet County Sheriff.

3 Q. All right. At some point during the 4 investigation -- Well, let's ask the question 5 this way. What was your role? As a member of 6 the Division of Criminal Investigation, what was 7 your role in this missing persons case on 8 November 5th?

9 A. Initially, it was to come in and provide 10 assistance to the Calumet County Sheriff's 11 Department, investigating the scene. And shortly 12 after arrival and having some briefing sessions, 13 I took over role as a co-lead investigator.

14 Q. All right. Who was the other co-lead 15 investigator in the case?

16 A. Investigator Mark Wiegert, with the Calumet
17 Sheriff's Department.

18 Q. And approximately how long after your 2:00 p.m.
19 arrival did that take place, roughly?

20 A. I'm not real sure, probably within an hour, hour 21 and a half.

22 Q. All right. Were you on site when a search 23 warrant was obtained?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. And are you familiar with the area

1 which was the subject of the search?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. Specifically, I would like to first 4 of all draw your attention to, I believe it's 5 Exhibit 18, if I'm correct. Yes, Exhibit 18.
6 Are you familiar with what is depicted in 7 Exhibit 18?

8 A. Yes, it is the Avery's Salvage Yard, with some 9 additional properties up in the northwest corner, 10 I believe that is, Steven Avery's residence.
11 Barb Yanda's residence up in that area would be 12 an additional several acres up there.

13 Q. All right. And the overall area which was 14 subject to the search warrant that was obtained, 15 was how many acres?

16 A. Approximately 40 acres.

17 Q. All right. And what is depicted in Exhibit 18, 18 is that a fair and accurate depiction of the 19 Avery Auto Salvage Yard and the adjoining 20 properties?

21 A. Yes, that would be that, and that would be the 22 scene, the initial scene, we were dealing with.

23 Q. So what is depicted there is the 40 acres?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. With respect to the 40 acres, are you aware of

1 the breakdown as to how much of that general area 2 contained the auto salvage yard business and it's 3 inventory?

4 A. Yes, approximately 37 acres would have been 5 attributed to that.

6 Q. All right. And during the course of the 7 investigation, were you able to determine a 8 ballpark estimate as to approximately how many 9 junked cars, for lack of a better term, are 10 located on that 37 acre portion of the parcel?

11 A. Initially, when we got there, we believed it to 12 be well over 1,000 junked cars. And, ultimately, 13 a rough count was taken by searchers, that put it 14 more in the neighborhood of 36 to 3800 junk cars.

15 Q. All right. And in terms of including residences 16 and commercial buildings, approximately how many 17 buildings are located on that parcel?

18 A. About 15.

19 Q. All right. Out of the 15, how many of them were 20 residences which were subject to the execution of 21 the search warrant?

22 A. Four.

23 Q. And did the four also include immediate out 24 buildings, such as garages?

25 A. That is correct, yes.

1 Q. All right. And the remaining buildings there 2 were commercial buildings, or support buildings,
3 for the business of the salvage yard?

4 A. Yes, with the exception of one, I guess you would 5 term it a house trailer, alongside the road going 6 down to Barb Yanda and Steven Avery's residence.
7 It was a large trailer alongside that road. I 8 would count that as a building that was searched.

9 Q. All right. Now, when the warrant was obtained 10 and about to be executed, were any precautions 11 taken to secure the overall premises, again, 12 directing your attention to Exhibit 18?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. All right. And tell us about those.

15 A. Well, there were checkpoints established out on 16 the primary, or the main highway, running 17 parallel to the property, as well as a checkpoint
18 coming into the property on Avery road. There 19 was, as you got down to the end of Avery Road, or 20 the south end of Avery Road, and getting onto the 21 Avery property, business property, is where a 22 command post had been set up.

23 Q. All right. If I were to -- I'm going to have 24 you -- I'm going to give you a laser pointer. If 25 you would just direct out where the command post

1 was located.

2 ATTORNEY BUTING: Could he mark it?

3 THE WITNESS: I don't think I will have to,
4 it's real near No. 3, where 3 is marked, just maybe 5 a little south of 3 there, you can see some vehicles 6 and stuff. So it would have been right at that 7 nexus, right around 3.

8 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ Now, I would also like to 9 direct your attention to Exhibit, I believe it's 10 19, which is behind you on the chalkboard.

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Are you familiar with what is depicted there?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. All right. And just so that we're clear, what is 15 depicted in Exhibit 19?

16 A. That's an aerial view, a little broader version 17 of an aerial view, that shows the Avery salvage 18 yard and adjoining properties, about right in the 19 center of that view, and then the surrounding 20 parcels of land and property.

21 Q. All right. I believe we had a stipulation 22 yesterday, but just to illustrate your testimony, 23 can you refer to where this Highway 147 is 24 located on Exhibit 19?

25 A. Certainly, with the pointer, it's running

1 essentially east-west, east to southwest, right 2 there, which would be about one parcel of land or 3 field, north of the Avery property.

4 Q. All right. Now, you indicated there was a 5 checkpoint that was set up, can you describe the 6 locations on -- using Exhibit 19, to tell us 7 where the checkpoints were?

8 A. Okay. The day that I arrived, I can't remember 9 if the checkpoints out on the highway had been 10 set up yet; I'm not going to speak to that for 11 sure. But I know if they weren't, shortly 12 thereafter, the highway checkpoints would have 13 been set up.

14 Q. All right.

15 A. The highway checkpoints would have been out on 16 Highway 147, which would have been to the west of 17 the Avery property, somewhere toward the upper 18 left corner of this picture.

19 Q. All right. I'm going to give you a pen, if you 20 could just put a checkmark and the number 1, that 21 may illustrate that, please. Is the area where 22 the checkpoint located, is that on the map, or 23 could it be farther west or farther east of what 24 is depicted there; do you recall?

25 A. To my memory, the checkpoints may have moved

1 during the course of the week. They may have 2 expanded. They may have started, you know,
3 closer to Avery Road and then eventually expanded 4 out a little further.

5 Q. All right.

6 A. So that's where I'm having problems definitely 7 putting the X --

8 Q. All right.

9 A. -- on where it was at any given point.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. I know at some times it was as far west as here, 12 but it may have been as close as this, earlier in 13 the week.

14 Q. All right. We'll put a check on each of those 15 locations then. The one farthest to your left, 16 we'll make that No. 1, and then -- right.

17 A. And if that is the little city I'm thinking about 18 here, I know there was an intersection of a road.

19 ATTORNEY BUTING: Could we identify what 20 road, the names of those roads are, if you know?

21 THE WITNESS: I'm not going to be able to 22 do that. It's just that there was Highway 147.
23 There was an intersection, and I'm going to, again, 24 put an X there and a 1, by that one, and it may 25 have been as close as what I'm designating as X-2,

1 to the west of Avery Road.

2 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ Is it possible there could 3 have been one even farther west, which is not 4 depicted on the map?

5 A. It's possible. And I'm not going to say for sure 6 at this point.

7 Q. Were there any checkpoints on Avery Road?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. All right. And tell us about those.

10 A. The checkpoints on Avery Road, again, moved.
11 Generally, during the day, when we were there 12 working, the checkpoint was toward the north end 13 of Avery Road, out near Highway 147.

14 Q. Pretty close to the intersection of Avery Road 15 and 147?

16 A. That's correct.

17 Q. All right. So put a check there.

18 A. I will put an X there with a 3.

19 Q. All right. And you said it moved, tell us about 20 that.

21 A. At night, when most of the personnel, the 22 investigative personnel, left the scene, they 23 would often times draw that back in toward the 24 command post area.

25 Q. What was the thinking for that?

1 A. The thinking was to draw it back in, contain the 2 scene a little better, and actually have that 3 personnel right there at the corner of the scene, 4 to provide security for the scene, and also for 5 break purposes, because there were porta-potties 6 and stuff that were there, and food and water, 7 and shift changes, and stuff like that.

8 Q. All right. Now, were there any checkpoints east 9 of Avery Road, on 147, anything that you can 10 place on our map there, or were they farther east 11 than what is depicted?

12 A. I don't believe so. I think they were around 13 this intersection, in the vicinity of this 14 intersection, on Highway 147.

15 Q. All right.

16 A. I will put an X-4 there.

17 Q. All right. You may resume your seat. Directing 18 your attention, again, to Exhibit 18, the 40 acre 19 plot of land depicted there, once the initial 20 search warrant was obtained and you began the 21 searches, was that area under your continuous 22 control?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And when did you give up control of that 40 acre 25 plot of land?

1 A. Saturday, November 12, at about 11:28 a.m.

2 Q. All right. Now, during the course of the week 3 that you were there, was there plans made to 4 secure the premises -- the perimeter of the 40
5 acre plot on Exhibit 18?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. All right. And what can you tell us about that?

8 A. The plans to secure the perimeter was to have law 9 enforcement personnel, at minimum, on each corner
10 of the property.

11 Q. All right. And was that around the clock 12 securance?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. All right. At any point during the seven days, 15 did you ever leave -- were any of the guards 16 removed or any of the postings from the corners
17 of the property?

18 A. Other than changes, shift changes, to my 19 knowledge, no.

20 Q. All right. Was it Lieutenant Sippel and 21 Lieutenant Bowe, from the Calumet County 22 Sheriff's Department, who were in charge of the 23 overall perimeter security?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. Again, returning to the time on

1 November 5th when Detective Wiegert and Detective
2 Remiker and others returned with the search 3 warrant, what was the initial plan or focus of 4 executing the search warrant?

5 A. That would have been to do a protective sweep of 6 the buildings on that scene, and also to search 7 for Teresa Halbach.

8 Q. All right. And what did you mean by protective 9 sweep; what was the point or purpose of that?

10 A. When law enforcement executes a search warrant or 11 a search, we generally do a protective sweep for 12 our safety, or the satisfy of anyone on that 13 scene, to look for anything that could endanger 14 us people, people armed with weapons, whatever.

15 Q. All right. And that's so you could also see if 16 there were any other individuals who were 17 actually on the premises at the time the warrant 18 was being executed?

19 A. Certainly.

20 Q. All right. You also said that the other point or 21 purpose was to look for Teresa Halbach, tell us 22 about that.

23 A. Well, essentially, this was a missing case -- or 24 a missing person investigation at that point.
25 And the search warrant was to look for -- one of

1 the things, the search warrant, was to look for 2 the body or to look for Teresa Halbach, in the 3 hopes of finding her alive.

4 Q. All right.

5 A. And that was the primary purpose at that time.

6 Q. And given that primary purpose, were there any -- 7 Well, given that as a purpose, how did you go 8 about attempting to accomplish that particular 9 aspect, what did you do?

10 A. Based on the personnel we had, teams were set up 11 to disseminate throughout the property and do 12 that sweep, through the buildings, looking for a 13 protective sweep and looking for Teresa.

14 Q. All right. Now, in your capacity as an agent 15 with the Department of Justice, have you been 16 involved in the execution of search warrants?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Numerous times?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. In terms of the focus, for instance, is there a 21 difference in the way you approach things if the 22 focus is looking for a particular person as 23 opposed to looking for something like blood, or 24 narcotics, or something of a smaller size?

25 A. Most certainly.

1 Q. All right. Tell us about that.

2 A. If I'm looking for something larger size, 3 something obvious or evident, it's obvious that 4 that search is going to be a little quicker and 5 easier because it's much more visible and 6 apparent.

7 If I'm looking for evidence that might 8 constitute forensic evidence or trace evidence, 9 so to speak, blood, or hair, or fibers, that's 10 going to be a much more detailed search, which 11 may involve artificial lighting, may involve 12 getting down on hands and knees, using magnifying
13 glasses, etcetera. So there's a big difference.

14 One could -- conceivably could call it a 15 search, while the other one may be, you know, 16 searching for evidence and then the processing
17 and collection of evidence. So there's a
18 difference.

19 Q. All right. Now, in terms of organizing the 20 search teams, who organized the teams?

21 A. It would have been either myself, or Investigator 22 Wiegert, or someone in our stead at times. And I 23 believe that probably would have been, in this 24 instance, Investigator Wiegert, because I would 25 have been involved with a search of my own, or

1 with one of the dogs at that time.

2 Q. Now, on -- All right. How did you and 3 Investigator Wiegert assign responsibilities or 4 duties during the execution of this search
5 warrant?

6 A. Again, based on the personnel present, a decision 7 had been previously made that Calumet was going 8 to take over the investigation, and that 9 resources being as they were, we were going to 10 use Manitowoc County personnel to assist in the 11 investigation of this scene, and the search of 12 this scene.

13 And, basically, what we decided to do,
14 as the teams were set up, we would have either a 15 person or an investigator, from Calumet County or 16 DCI, accompany Manitowoc County personnel, if 17 they were on a search team.

18 Q. All right. Now, what kind of teams were actually 19 put together?

20 A. I'm not sure if I understand the question.

21 Q. Is there a difference, for instance, from a 22 search team and/or an evidence collection team?

23 A. Well, certainly. Again, this initial search, we 24 weren't concerned with having evidence collection
25 technicians on those particular teams

1 necessarily. It may have been deputies. It may 2 have been jail personnel. It may have been DCI 3 agents on the teams.

4 Again, their primary purpose was the 5 protective sweep and the searching for Teresa, 6 and not necessarily a concern of finding and 7 locating trace evidence, so to speak.

8 Q. All right. And once -- Did there come a time 9 when the focus shifted from looking for Teresa to 10 one looking more detailed, looking for more trace 11 evidence, as it were, or other evidentiary items, 12 found or listed in the warrant?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. All right. Tell us about that.

15 A. What happened was, they did the protective sweep 16 and the search for Teresa in the buildings area.
17 After that, we had some trained cadaver dogs come 18 in. And I initially accompanied one of those 19 trained cadaver dogs, with some other personnel.
20 And we did a search all along the south end of 21 the property, where the dog alerted on Teresa's 22 RAV 4 vehicle.

23 We continued that search along that 24 south border of the property and actually into 25 the adjoining property owned by Radandt. During

1 that time, additional dogs arrived and additional 2 searches were done, utilizing the dogs, of some 3 of the buildings. Just a walk through, basic 4 search, with the dogs, to see if the dogs alerted 5 on anything.

6 Again, the thinking being, if the dog 7 alerted on something, that might be a clue or an 8 assist in helping locate Teresa or the body of 9 Teresa Halbach. And again, that was a fairly 10 quick search, walking the dogs through.

11 Q. When you say fairly quick search, are you 12 referring to the buildings?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. All right. Were the dogs used to search other 15 areas on the property?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Tell us about that.

18 A. Again, Lieutenant Sippel and Bowe would probably 19 be better to address that. But the dogs were 20 used to take into the pit area, the salvage area, 21 walking through and around cars and to see if 22 they were alerting on anything there. So that's 23 that 37 acre area that we were talking about.

24 Q. So would it be fair to say that when you were 25 using the dogs, the primary focus was still

1 looking for Teresa, or something, some part of 2 her remains, for instance?

3 A. Certainly.

4 Q. All right. Now, you indicated you were -- You
5 mentioned something about the Toyota RAV 4; did 6 you have any involvement in securing that item of 7 evidence?

8 A. To a degree. After I arrived, sometime after I 9 arrived, we had approached the RAV 4 and used a 10 flashlight to confirm that there was no body in 11 the RAV 4. While we were there, we were getting 12 reports and seeing obvious signs of inclement 13 weather approaching, getting reports of serious 14 inclement weather approaching.

15 The Crime Lab, Wisconsin State Crime Lab
16 was involved and I was in contact with them. And 17 as such, we would be agreeing to attempt to put a 18 tarp over the RAV 4 vehicle, which we did.
19 Inclement weather arrived and there was some 20 rain, not the worst of it yet, but that was 21 accompanied by some high winds. And the winds 22 were blowing the tarp all over. So, ultimately, 23 we went back to that scene and we ended up 24 removing the tarp, because it was just flailing 25 around anyways.

1 Q. You couldn't keep the tarp on because of the 2 weather?

3 A. No.

4 Q. At some point, was the vehicle removed?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Approximately when?

7 A. Approximately 8:45 p.m.

8 Q. All right. You mentioned something about serious 9 inclement weather on the way; what concerns, if 10 any, did that pose for you during the course of 11 executing the search warrant?

12 A. Well, that, as well as other things. We were 13 getting into dark now, losing daylight.
14 Searching, anything, is much better and well done 15 during daylight as opposed to artificial light or 16 in the dark. Add to that the horrendous
17 rainstorm that ultimately moved in that evening, 18 very much limiting any of the outdoor search, 19 except the removal of the RAV 4, which we 20 accomplished in that storm.

21 Q. How bad was the weather?

22 A. It was raining extremely hard when the storm hit, 23 as hard as I have experienced.

24 Q. And how long did that rain persist?

25 A. You know, I don't remember exactly, but most of

1 the night that we worked there it was raining.

2 Q. All right. And did that create some concerns 3 with you, with respect to evidence detection and 4 collection?

5 A. Well, obviously, we had concerns with any 6 evidence collection and detection outside, 7 coupled with the dark. Lights were brought in to 8 illuminate the southeast corner where the RAV 4 9 was found, that area. But the rain affected that 10 quite heavily, also. So we were fairly or pretty 11 much limited to inside or in building searches at 12 this time.

13 Q. All right. I will come back to that in a minute.
14 I would like to direct your attention, again, to 15 Exhibit 19. And -- which is behind you -- and 16 ask, during the course of the week that you were 17 executing the search warrant on the premises 18 depicted in Exhibit 18, were you called upon to 19 investigate, or participate, or coordinate 20 searches of surrounding areas?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And tell us about that.

23 A. Ultimately, when we were done searching, it was 24 estimated that we had searched approximately six 25 to 800 acres of property.

1 Q. That's in addition to the 40 acres?

2 A. In addition to the 40 acres on the Avery
3 properties. And that property included a lot of 4 surrounding areas which were gravel pits, sand
5 pits; I think most of them owned by Radandt.

6 And then many ponds and lakes. I'm not 7 sure of the count, but numerous ponds and lakes 8 that had to be searched, either with dive teams 9 or walk-throughs of some sort. Again, all taxing 10 the personnel and resources during the course of 11 that week.

12 Q. With respect to your role and Investigator 13 Wiegert's role, were the two of you responsible 14 or more or less in charge of the perimeter 15 searches; in other words, the 6 to 700 acres, was 16 that your responsibility or someone else's?

17 A. That would have been more Lieutenant Bowe and 18 Sippel coordinating that, managing that part.

19 Q. But who oversaw their work?

20 A. Investigator Wiegert, myself.

21 Q. All right. And returning then to the weather on 22 Saturday night and limiting to building searches, 23 did there come a time where you, and/or 24 Investigator Wiegert, directed various search 25 teams to enter the buildings?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. All right. And tell us how that came to pass.

3 A. I keep returning to this, but again, pertaining 4 to the personnel we had present and the resources
5 yet available that evening, now we're organizing 6 what we believe to be a search to look for 7 evidence, potential processing and collection of 8 evidence. And for such a search, we need 9 evidence technicians or trained officers who were 10 trained in the collection of evidence.

11 Q. All right. And on Saturday night, I would say 12 approximately 7:30 or thereabouts, how many 13 evidence technicians, or evidence collection
14 teams, were available on Saturday?

15 A. I believe we put one evidence collection team 16 together that night.

17 Q. All right. During the course of the week, were 18 other evidence collection teams put together?

19 A. Yes. And I'm going to back up, Saturday night, 20 if you count the Crime Lab, the two technicians 21 that came from the Crime Lab, we would have had 22 two.

23 Q. All right. What assignment did the Crime Lab
24 people have on Saturday night?

25 A. To process and seize and transport the RAV 4,

1 Teresa's vehicle.

2 Q. Did they actually do an examination or processing 3 of the vehicle itself, on scene, or just the 4 collection and removal?

5 A. The only thing they processed or looked at, on 6 scene, was the debris and the items that had been 7 used to conceal the vehicle, but the vehicle 8 itself, to my knowledge, no.

9 Q. All right. And what happened to the Crime Lab
10 after the vehicle was removed, the Crime Lab 11 personnel, after the vehicle was removed?

12 A. The Crime Lab personnel remained with the 13 vehicle. I believe one of the technicians rode 14 with the individual towing the vehicle, while the 15 other one followed the vehicle, or led the way to 16 Madison.

17 Q. All right. So in terms of after they left the 18 scene, you only had one evidence collection team 19 on site that evening?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. All right. So in terms of using their 22 capabilities, what was the plan?

23 A. The plan was to start searching buildings. And 24 we started with Steven Avery's residence on the 25 northwest corner of the property, at about 7:30,

1 if I remember right.

2 Q. All right. And did there come a time that you
3 and/or Investigator Wiegert, directed additional 4 entries into Mr. Avery's trailer?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. All right. And did there come a time where you 7 directed additional entries to other residences
8 during the course of the week?

9 A. I believe so, yes.

10 Q. And the businesses, or buildings associated with 11 the business?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. All right. And there's been some testimony that 14 through the course of the week, and in particular 15 the first five days, there were as many as -- I 16 think perhaps eight entries, thereabouts, to 17 Mr. Avery, Steven Avery's trailer. And three or 18 four entries to the garage.

19 So what was it about the circumstances, 20 in your mind, that caused you to direct 21 successive or additional entries, first of all,
22 with respect to Mr. Avery's trailer?

23 A. I think that's a longer answer than you might 24 anticipate. But additionally, we have the 25 same -- you have got your protective sweep and

1 looking for a body, and using the dogs. I would 2 categorize those into, basically, the same type 3 of search, a walk-through, a sweep. So you have 4 two entries there.

5 I have got a search warrant for a scene
6 here, which is a 40 acre scene. I don't have a 7 search warrant specifically for any building or 8 Steven's house, or Barbara's house. I have got a 9 40 acre scene here. That's why I say I'm holding 10 that scene. Okay. Ultimately, that evening, we 11 get a team put together and we start the 12 buildings.

13 We start with Steven's residence. When 14 the technicians go in there, they are looking for 15 evidence that's obvious. And they are also 16 looking for trace or forensic evidence, which is 17 a little more difficult, sometimes, to detect.

18 At this point in time, you are talking
19 it's dark, it's night, you have got a horrendous 20 rain storm going on. We want to look, to the 21 best of our abilities, for that type of evidence.
22 Because of the rain, because of people maybe 23 going in and out of their house to get evidence 24 collection bags, gloves, whatever they need, 25 flashlights, you run the risk of evidence being,

1 in effect, destroyed or lost. So we look for 2 that type of evidence as quickly as possible, 3 because that is the most susceptible to that type 4 of danger.

5 So, they go in there about 7:30.

6 Keeping in mind also, at this point in time most 7 of those investigators that went in that trailer 8 are already going on 12 hours, or more, of work.
9 So you are talking that they are getting tired, 10 there could be safety issues, and exhaustion's
11 becoming a factor. So they go in there --

12 Q. Does that affect the ability to locate and 13 collect evidence --

14 A. I would think --

15 Q. -- based on your experience --

16 A. -- so, yes.

17 Q. Was that based --

18 A. I felt it, yes.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. So, they go in there until about 10:30 and they 21 clear Steven's residence that evening. They come 22 back and we have, Mark and I, as well as the 23 sheriff and other people that are involved,
24 Sippel, and Bowe, and whoever, are continually 25 having debriefing sessions, and planning

1 sessions, and assessing what's going on.

2 Taking in all the intelligence
3 information that's happening. We debrief that 4 team. And even as early as that night, in my 5 mind, I'm telling people -- or my mind I'm 6 thinking -- either that night or the next night, 7 I'm telling people, we are not done in that 8 house. We will be going back there, for several 9 reasons: Number 1, they noted guns. They talked 10 to us about a vacuum cleaner, and having taken, I 11 believe, the bag out of the vacuum cleaner.

12 But we talked about the roll -- about 13 the brush that's in the vacuum cleaner, how that 14 can collect -- possibly collect trace evidence.
15 And we're going to want to take that. Bedding in 16 a spare bedroom, yeah, we're going to want to 17 take that.

18 That's how these meetings occurred, you 19 know. What did you find? What did you see in 20 that residence? We're going to want that.

21 Q. All right.

22 A. That building is still part of my scene. This is 23 an ongoing search. So as early as that, we're 24 going to be returning there. That night, that 25 completed that night. The following evening is

1 when we continued the search in process,
2 involving going in the buildings, including 3 Steven's garage.

4 Q. Now, did the apparent evidentiary significance of 5 items observed in the buildings, in particular, 6 Mr. Avery's trailer; did that change during the 7 course of the week?

8 A. Certainly.

9 Q. Tell us about that.

10 A. Beginning just at that first night, I mean, we 11 have -- we have investigative personnel. To 12 start with, we have investigative personnel up in 13 Marinette, at the Avery's other property up 14 north, who are speaking with Avery members, 15 gleaning intelligence and information, which is 16 being reported back to us.

17 We have investigators at the scene that 18 are going out and doing interviews either of 19 relatives, family members, friends, or just 20 people who may have been involved in this scene.

21 We have neighborhood canvasses that are 22 started the following day. We're constantly 23 bringing in intelligence and information, 24 assessing that information and intelligence.

25 We have evidence teams that are finding

1 evidence and we're making determinations on:
2 What's been found; what we need to look for; do 3 we need to look somewhere else; are there things 4 that we're missing.

5 That's all affecting what's going on in 6 this ongoing process. This is not a static
7 process, that's just standing still. We have a 8 RAV 4 that went down to the Crime Laboratory, 9 that's being analyzed. I think it's as early as 10 Sunday that there is a presumptive positive test 11 for human blood in that vehicle. That's 12 affecting what we may be doing, or what we're 13 looking for, obviously.

14 Q. All right. Now, at some point did the Crime Lab 15 come down and assist further in the search of the 16 scene, and/or the collection of evidence, or the 17 identification of evidence?

18 A. Yes, they came back. The other team came back on 19 Sunday I believe, afternoon, later afternoon, 20 Sunday.

21 Q. And what did they do to assist in either the 22 identification or collection of additional
23 evidence?

24 A. They were being sent all over the place. Again, 25 on Sunday, we have search teams that are going

1 out and searching. We're accounting for the 2 vehicles, the trunks of the vehicles, underneath
3 the vehicles, and the insides of the vehicles; 4 the car crusher, the crushed vehicles, the 5 crushed vehicle in the car crusher; the 6 buildings, and even maybe starting some of the 7 surrounding areas.

8 As the search teams are going through,
9 again, they are not necessarily evidence
10 technicians, but they are looking for potential 11 evidence, or identifying potential evidence, and 12 either marking or flagging the potential 13 evidence. And that could include, and in many 14 instances did include, potential blood in junked 15 vehicles.

16 And the Crime Lab was being utilized to 17 go check or analyze those areas of potential 18 evidence, to see if it needed to be collected, if 19 it was blood, if it wasn't blood. They went to 20 vehicles. I think they went to a golf cart at 21 one time, to check something that had been found 22 in a golf cart.

23 Ultimately, they were directed to go
24 back -- or asked to go back into Steven Avery's 25 residence, to use alternate light sources to

1 check for the presence of blood.

2 Q. All right. And did they, in fact, go into 3 Mr. Avery's residence at some time during the 4 course of one of these searches, with alternate 5 light sources, to look for blood?

6 A. Yes, I believe they did that Sunday evening.

7 Q. All right. And did they actually collect what 8 they observed, or how did you work with them, 9 best utilizing their abilities?

10 A. Yes. Generally, they would be able to identify 11 and help process. And the collection of 12 evidence, if they collected it, it was 13 immediately turned over to Calumet County
14 personnel.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: I'm going to object to 16 his testimony about what they did or didn't do, in 17 Mr. Avery's residence, unless this witness was there 18 and observed it.

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: I will clear up with a 20 foundation question.

21 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ Were you responsible -- 22 Strike that. Let's try it this way. Once 23 someone entered a residence and did something in 24 the residence, was that information conveyed back 25 to you in the command post or -- and/or Detective

1 Wiegert?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. All right. So in terms of your responsibility
4 and Investigator Wiegert's responsibility, you 5 were made aware of the results, or what the 6 observations were, during the course of entering 7 any of these residences?

8 A. I would believe so, in most of the cases, yes.

9 Q. Now, specifically, since the Crime Lab personnel
10 work also for the Department of Justice, did you 11 have constant contact with them regarding what 12 they were doing and how they were assisting?

13 A. The majority of time, yes, I agree.

14 Q. Now, with respect to their participation in one 15 of the searches of Mr. Avery's trailer, that 16 being Steven Avery's trailer, with respect to 17 using an alternate light source, were you made 18 aware of that?

19 A. Yes.

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: Objection, hearsay.

21 THE COURT: For purposes of this hearing, I 22 think it's relevant to determine how this witness 23 acted and what he did, rather than for the truth of 24 the matter, so I'm going to accept it on that basis.

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: Fine, thank you.

1 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ So, did the Crime Lab
2 collect evidence after they went through --

3 ATTORNEY BUTING: Same objection. It's 4 hearsay, as to what was done inside that house, if 5 he wasn't there. He can talk about why he did or 6 didn't do things afterwards, but he -- it is hearsay 7 for him to relate what someone else did, outside of 8 his presence, and came back and told him. What 9 other purpose does the State have to offer that?

10 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon?

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: Certainly. First of all,
12 it does go to the state of mind. After all, he is 13 one of the two people responsible for the overall 14 execution of this warrant. He's already established 15 the fact that he and Investigator Wiegert were in 16 charge of the investigation, so they were clearly 17 made aware.

18 He's already testified that there were 19 debriefings after each search. This is all 20 information that factors into the decision making 21 process as to how that warrant was executed.

22 Secondly, under 904.01, a certain amount 23 of hearsay under these circumstances is 24 permitted.

25 Third, taking the Court's previous

1 example, it does go relative to his state of 2 mind.

3 THE COURT: For purposes of this hearing,
4 what they found or what they didn't find isn't 5 really that important. It's hearsay if it's 6 introduced for the purpose of proving the truth of 7 the matter asserted.

8 In this case, I take the information to 9 be an explanation of why orders were given, why 10 searches were ordered to be conducted, why they 11 came back the next day. And I think so for that 12 purpose, which is most relevant to the defense 13 motion here, it is not hearsay because it's not 14 offered to prove the truth of the matter
15 asserted; therefore, I'm going to allow it.

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

17 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ What occurred with respect 18 to the Crime Lab's participation and what affect 19 did that have on you, in terms of what you were 20 doing and organizing, with respect to 21 continuation of the executing the search warrant?

22 A. They identified additional areas in Steven's 23 trailer that show the presence of blood, or the 24 potential presence of blood. They collected a 25 few of the areas. They identified the other

1 areas, as areas that were needed to go in and 2 collect yet.

3 Q. And subsequent to that, did you direct additional 4 entries to collect the information requested by 5 the Crime Lab?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. All right. Are you an evidence technician, by 8 the way?

9 A. I have attended a week long evidence technician
10 course put on by the State Crime Laboratory.

11 Q. All right. After you directed the subsequent 12 entry suggested by the Crime Lab, in other words, 13 the collection of these additional samples, in 14 your mind, were you -- was the execution of the 15 search warrant, as a whole, completed?

16 A. Absolutely not.

17 Q. With respect to the part of the warrant 18 permitting entrance, authorizing entrance to 19 Mr. Avery's trailer, and his garage, for that 20 matter, after Sunday evening, did you, in your 21 mind, think that you had completed or, quote, 22 gotten everything there was to get?

23 ATTORNEY BUTING: I think what's in his 24 mind is really irrelevant. It's ultimately going to 25 be a legal question. It's more what he did and

1 didn't do. He's not --

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: It's a foundational 3 question to explain subsequent conduct.

4 THE COURT: Well, in a sense, you are both 5 right. Even what his thoughts were may not 6 necessarily control the outcome of the decision on 7 your motion, but as both parties have already 8 informed the Court, there's not a lot of case law on 9 this, and it may be that what was going through his 10 mind is important. So, for that reason, I'm going 11 to allow the question.

12 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ Did you feel you had 13 completed that portion of the execution of the 14 search warrant with respect to the defendant's 15 residence and garage?

16 A. Based on -- a lot on the factors I already talked 17 about, no.

18 Q. All right. And why not?

19 A. Reiterating a lot of those factors, and the 20 purpose of a lot of the searches up to that 21 point, we were not done with those areas. We 22 had, like I said, after that first forensic 23 search, based on the weather and lighting
24 conditions, exhaustion of the searchers, I knew 25 that building, even without Steven being the

1 primary suspect necessarily, was going to be 2 searched again. It was too likely that things 3 would have been missed, based on those factors.

4 They did see some things in there, guns 5 and stuff, that we needed to go back in and get 6 the following day, due to the lateness of hour, 7 etcetera. And we did. We knew there was a 8 computer in there that we had to obtain 9 information off of, which we got a separate 10 search warrant for.

11 And then the Crime Lab was asked to go 12 in because that first search team found evidence 13 of blood in there. So we asked them to use their 14 technology to determine if there was any other 15 blood in there. Again, as I said, this was 16 ongoing.

17 After they identified other areas of 18 blood, we knew we had to go back there and get -- 19 collect those items. During this whole course of 20 things, through debriefings and interviews, 21 interviews being conducted, we're obtaining more 22 intelligence information that tends to indicate
23 that Steven is definitely the suspect, or a 24 suspect in this case, which makes it even more 25 relevant that we make sure we do a complete and

1 thorough search of that area before we release 2 the scene.

3 Q. With respect to that, what additional information 4 was uncovered on Tuesday, for instance, that led 5 you to continue the belief that you needed to 6 gain additional entry into the trailer and the 7 garage; what was happening?

8 A. Number one, Monday, we were -- we were busy in 9 other areas, again, in the junkyard, other 10 buildings, etcetera. So we did not get back to 11 Steven's trailer on Monday like we had planned 12 to, because of what the Crime Lab showed, and 13 just my beliefs.

14 So Tuesday, it was planned to go back in 15 there. I believe Tuesday they went back in there 16 and got the computer. And then Tuesday we were 17 going back in, that that's where we put the team 18 up to go back in there and hopefully do a final, 19 thorough search of that trailer.

20 Things that were coming in, I mean from 21 interviews and intelligence, we're interviewing
22 people and finding that Steven's initial story, 23 it was inconsistent with later stories that he 24 had given, whether to us or to the press.

25 We have other interviews of other

1 individuals that are contradicting --
2 contradicting his statements.

3 We have information coming in from the 4 Crime Lab, the presence of blood. And I believe 5 it was Tuesday, and I'm not sure, but I believe 6 it was Tuesday I was advised by the Crime Lab 7 that DNA analyzed from the RAV 4, matched up with 8 Steven Avery's DNA from the Wisconsin data base, 9 DNA data base. That may have been later on 10 Tuesday, but these are the types of things that 11 are coming in and we're analyzing and basing our 12 decisions on.

13 Q. Did the fact that there were bone fragments 14 uncovered from a burn pit on Tuesday factor into 15 the equation?

16 A. I'm sure that factored into the equation, to make 17 sure that the residence was searched properly and 18 held. I believe -- I'm not sure what time of day 19 the bone fragments were found, whether they were 20 found a little later, or the search had conducted 21 earlier, so I'm going to say I'm not sure.

22 Q. All right. During the course of overseeing the 23 execution of this search warrant, were you, 24 and/or Investigator Wiegert, more or less was 25 your attention drawn away from the scene to other

1 locales outside of the perimeter here?

2 A. Oh, yes, a lot of times.

3 Q. Tell us about that and why you felt that you had 4 to address those.

5 A. Again, you are getting information from many 6 different sources, whether it's evidence 7 technicians finding evidence, or agents or 8 investigators doing interviews and obtaining 9 information and intelligence. And you perform 10 sort of a triage, I guess. Is this something 11 that we need to address? Do we have the 12 personnel and resources to address it now, or 13 could it wait?

14 And a good example, we had the Crime Lab
15 personnel running around trying to address 16 different areas. During Tuesday, I think it was 17 Tuesday morning, license plates were found in a 18 vehicle on the yard that were Teresa Halbach's 19 license plates from her vehicle. At that point 20 we made the decision to pull the Crime Lab off 21 what they were doing to go address the seizure 22 and the processing of the plates from that 23 vehicle.

24 Other areas where maybe blood was found,
25 we were directing evidence technicians to go

1 there. We had search teams out that were 2 identifying these various areas of evidence.
3 They would report back to us and we would 4 determine, do we need to send someone there now, 5 or can we just hold that scene until we can get 6 someone available to go process that.

7 We need people who have been trained in 8 processing evidence to do that. And we only had 9 so many people that were trained to do that. So 10 we're constantly making those decisions. We had 11 a site that, potentially, could have been a 12 clandestine burial site, that we pretty much 13 pulled everyone off of, for quite a period of 14 time, until we determined that it wasn't.

15 Q. Where was that? Was that in the perimeter or 16 somewhere else?

17 A. That was outside the perimeter, to the west.

18 Q. And were individuals dispatched to areas such as 19 Maribel Caves Park?

20 A. We had intelligence coming in that some pants, 21 and I think some lotion or something, had been 22 found at this park. So, yes, we dispatched some 23 evidence technicians over there.

24 We had a report of a cell phone being 25 found in the ditch. We ultimately dispatched

1 people there. We had that clandestine site. We 2 had reports of some bones found on some property
3 west of this area, that Mark and I actually went 4 out on because there was no one available, 5 technicians available, that we checked that.

6 Q. When you say Mark, you mean Mr. Wiegert?

7 A. Our investigator, Wiegert. We had intelligence 8 coming in from interviews that someone may have 9 seen something; for example, a bus driver
10 dropping someone off, that we had to send people 11 out to interview and obtain information from that 12 person.

13 Q. All right. Now, during the course of this week 14 long event, did you have assistance of other law 15 enforcement agencies?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. All right. What agencies assisted?

18 A. Wow, I don't even know the whole list, but the 19 State Patrol for sure. They were assisting in 20 perimeter security, I think from day one or day 21 two, and then en masse. I think on Tuesday was 22 the first day they were there en masse, where 23 upwards of 60 troopers arrived to help search 24 that, go over that yard, again.

25 Q. When you say the yard, you are talking about the

1 salvage yard?

2 A. The salvage yard, the vehicles. And they 3 actually came and assisted in searching the 4 properties adjacent to the Avery properties.

5 Q. All right. Other law enforcement entities 6 assist?

7 A. Of course, Manitowoc County Sheriff, Manitowoc
8 City, I think Two Rivers may have had some people 9 there, and then Calumet County Sheriff's 10 Department, obviously, and some various, I think, 11 police departments in Calumet County also 12 assisted in perimeter and scene protection, and 13 security.

14 Q. And did -- At some point did you receive 15 assistance from some local firemen?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. All right. And how were they employed?

18 A. I believe the first day they were employed was on 19 Sunday, and they were employed in searching the 20 vehicles. And I believe they brought in their 21 Jaws of Life to open trunks of vehicles, and car 22 doors, and whatever needed to be opened. And 23 they were broken up into teams.

24 And I believe each of those teams had 25 one law enforcement -- at least one law

1 enforcement personnel with them. And they went 2 through the yard and went through every vehicle 3 to make sure that, again, Teresa, or evidence of 4 Teresa, was not apparent in those vehicles. And 5 that's in the vehicles, under the vehicles, 6 evidence that the vehicle had been moved, or not 7 moved. And if it was moved, we had to get 8 personnel in there to lift that vehicle up, move 9 it, check under it.

10 Q. All right. Now, with the -- in terms of having 11 at least the benefit of these additional 12 resources, did that ease the strain at all with 13 respect to the actual evidence collection 14 processing component associated with the 15 execution of a warrant?

16 A. Not nearly as much, no, because these people 17 weren't trained to process or collect evidence.

18 Q. Who was responsible for coordinating their 19 efforts?

20 A. The efforts of whom?

21 Q. The State Patrol, the firemen, the Two Rivers
22 officers; in other words, the supporting law 23 enforcement cast, as it were?

24 A. The hands on portion was probably more Lieutenant 25 Sippel and Bowe, but Investigator Wiegert and I

1 were ultimately responsible for what we were 2 going to do.

3 Q. All right. And you decided how they were going 4 to be employed, these law enforcement assists?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. All right. During the course of the week, do you
7 recall, you mentioned two evidence collection
8 teams; were there other evidence collection teams 9 available at your disposal?

10 A. Off the top of my head, Sunday we had two primary 11 evidence collection teams made up of Calumet
12 County Sheriff's evidence technicians, Manitowoc
13 County and Manitowoc City.

14 And then we had the Crime Lab personnel,
15 who I would describe more as roving where needed.
16 And then later in the week, we actually brought 17 in an evidence technician from the Grand Chute
18 Police Department that assisted us.

19 Q. All right. Now, all this is going on, did you 20 have law enforcement personnel in other parts of 21 the state who were collecting information and 22 providing it to you during the execution on the 23 search warrant?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And tell us about that.

1 ATTORNEY BUTING: Objection, it's 2 irrelevant.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: It goes to the resource 4 allocation issue and how they went about their 5 business. They keep questioning why it took eight 6 searches, or four days, to complete processing of 7 that. This is -- all goes to that explanation.
8 Now, the hallmark of Fourth Amendment is 9 reasonableness, under the circumstances.

10 THE COURT: I will let you ask a few 11 questions about it.

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

13 A. The primary area in question would have been up 14 in Marinette County where the Avery's have 15 property up there. And many of the Avery's were 16 there on that Saturday, November 5. So I had 17 to -- or I did, allocate special agents to go up 18 there. We had Marinette County personnel up
19 there.

20 I had special agents running definitely
21 throughout Manitowoc County as well as into other 22 counties, following up leads, reports of this or 23 that. I had many special agents transporting 24 evidence from the Avery property, or Calumet
25 Sheriff's Department, down to Madison Crime

1 Laboratory, to forensic anthropologists down
2 there. So, yeah, a lot of special DCI personnel 3 was eaten up doing a lot of that too.

4 Q. Were there other -- What I guess, for lack of a 5 better term, were there other volunteers which -- 6 who assisted in the searches?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right. And who is responsible -- When did 9 they come into the play?

10 A. For my part, or our part, I'm going to guess 11 mid-week, talking about the week of November 7.
12 Mid to early week, we had -- we realized we had 13 acres and acres and acres of property outside the 14 40 acre Avery scene that still needed to be 15 walked through and searched.

16 There was a point in time that we 17 weren't sure we had a body. And we decided to 18 utilize the searchers who were still standing by, 19 you know, hanging around; the civilian searchers 20 that Ryan Hillegas had kind of coordinated. And 21 so we decided to utilize them to walk through 22 some of those areas outside of that 40 acre area 23 accompanied by, again, a member of law
24 enforcement.

25 Q. All right. Now, were there other neighborhood

1 canvasses or leads called in by just citizens, 2 that impacted upon the allocation of resources?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Tell us about that.

5 A. We had leads coming in, like I said, I mentioned 6 the cell phone, someone found a cell found.
7 There were leads coming in that someone said --
8 or people said they saw Teresa or saw Teresa's 9 vehicle; we had to send investigators out to 10 that.

11 We were finding evidence on the property 12 that would lead investigators to go out; for 13 example, handcuffs or leg irons, and receipts for 14 the purchase of such things, and we sent people 15 out on. We had -- Just lost my train of thought.

16 Q. Okay. So you had received information, or 17 benefits from some community searchers?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. All right. One second. During the course of 20 executing the initial search warrant here, at 21 some point did you become cognizant of the fact 22 that this was taking several days?

23 A. Oh, absolutely.

24 Q. And what, if anything, did you do, or what did 25 you do in recognition of that?

1 A. Well, if I understand your question correctly, 2 number one, holding the scene.

3 Q. Right.

4 A. Number two, attempting to get additional 5 resources and personnel in place.

6 Q. Right.

7 A. Number three, we did obtain additional search 8 warrants for various things and, ultimately, 9 mid-week, we obtained another search warrant for 10 the whole scene.

11 Q. Right. Now, in terms of your experience, have 12 you ever been involved in overseeing the 13 execution of a search warrant this comprehensive?

14 A. No.

15 Q. In terms of your experience with the Department 16 of Justice, have you ever been involved in the 17 execution of a search warrant of this magnitude?

18 A. That I was personally involved with?

19 Q. Yes.

20 A. No.

21 Q. All right.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

24 CROSS-EXAMINATION

25 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

1 Q. Let me start right, for the moment, with where 2 you ended. You said you got other search 3 warrants during that week, right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. And this is during the period from November 5th
6 to November 12th, when you had that property
7 under your control, right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. How many other search warrants did you obtain 10 during that week?

11 A. Related to the property.

12 Q. No, related to the case.

13 A. Related to the case.

14 Q. Investigation.

15 A. So you are talking about DNA --

16 Q. Everything.

17 A. -- search warrants. I can't give you a number.

18 Q. Dozens, would that be right?

19 A. It may be as many as dozens, yes.

20 Q. So you were going back and getting warrants 21 throughout the week, applying for warrants
22 related to this case, dozens of times?

23 A. I just -- I don't know about the dozens, but, yes 24 numerous times.

25 Q. Say as many as 20?

1 A. That would probably be fair, yes.

2 Q. Okay. But it wasn't until late in the day on 3 November 9th, that you went back and asked for an 4 additional warrant to allow you to search
5 Mr. Avery's residence and garage; isn't that
6 right?

7 A. Now, the 9th being Wednesday, if I'm correct?

8 Q. Yes.

9 A. I believe it was Wednesday, yes.

10 Q. 4:40 in the afternoon, I believe, would you --

11 A. I didn't -- I don't believe I went back and got 12 that search warrant. I think I served it, but I 13 didn't go get it.

14 Q. All right. So, you served it at 4:40 p.m. on 15 November 9th?

16 A. Without seeing that, I can't say.

17 Q. Well, let's see if I can find it for you. I'm 18 showing you a copy of the warrant, just to 19 refresh your recollection.

20 A. This warrant shows it was endorsed on November 9, 21 at 4:40 p.m.

22 Q. All right. And that warrant was intended to 23 allow you to continue searching Mr. Steven 24 Avery's property, as well as the other areas in 25 this 40 acre parcel, correct?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. You were worried that the original warrant from 3 November 5th was going to expire, as a matter of 4 time, was going to expire with the five day
5 statutory limit, correct?

6 A. I believe so, it wasn't my decision. My 7 decision -- That wasn't my decision.

8 Q. And that warrant on November 9th -- I can show it 9 to you again if you would need to, but that 10 warrant contained more information, gathered 11 through your intelligence and your investigation, 12 to support a probable cause finding, than was in 13 the original warrant from November 9th, correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 THE COURT: The original one from the 9th
16 or the 5th?

17 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ I'm sorry, from November 18 5th, correct?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So as you -- Throughout the week, the week 21 November 6th, November 7th, November 8th, you 22 talked about how you kept gathering all this 23 additional information, right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. There would have been nothing to prevent you from

1 going back to a judge, on Saturday, November 6th,
2 with new information, saying I want another
3 warrant to be able to go back into Mr. Avery's 4 trailer or garage, correct?

5 A. The only constraints would have been time and 6 personnel, but you're probably right, yes.

7 Q. Or November 7th?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Or November 8th?

10 A. The 8th, we served numerous other warrants and 11 that would have been a tough day, probably.

12 Q. Well, you are serving numerous warrants. You are 13 going to a judge. You are filling out 14 applications for other warrants, throughout that 15 time, up to 20 different warrants.

16 Nothing would have prevented you, on 17 those occasions, from getting another warrant to 18 allow you to go into Mr. Avery's house a second 19 time, or a third time, or a fourth time, or a 20 eighth time; isn't that right?

21 A. Except the fact that we had the scene.

22 Q. Except what?

23 A. The fact that we were still holding that scene.
24 In our estimation, this was ongoing.

25 Q. You had no lack of personnel, to go to a court

1 and get search warrants, from November 5th
2 through the 9th; isn't that right?

3 A. Yes. And that strained our personnel, getting 4 those search warrants, phone search warrants.

5 Q. But you did it, didn't you?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. They were there, in front of a judge?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And all it would have taken was another affidavit 10 to present to the judge, saying, we think that 11 there's reason why we need to go back into 12 Mr. Avery's residence. That's all you would have 13 needed in order to get another warrant from a 14 judge, right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. You could have done that, right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. You chose not to?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. You believed that this warrant gave you carte 21 blanche to go in and out of his residence and 22 trailer as many times as you wanted, right?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Now, meanwhile, you had that property secured 25 from the owner's and residents, the people who

1 lived and worked on that property, right?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. For one solid week, the owners of the property 4 and the people who lived on that property, were 5 denied access to that property, right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. This was a business that was completely shut down 8 while you had it secured, right?

9 A. Correct.

10 Q. There were people who had to feed -- who had dogs 11 and pets on the property, who were unable to get 12 to it, right?

13 A. Yes. That was another one of our concerns, 14 taking care of them. And dealing with the 15 property owners and trying to help them get 16 things off their property. I dealt with the 17 Averys numerous times on the phone, taking them 18 into the property, helping them get things, yes.
19 It wasn't my intent to deprive them of the 20 property. We wanted to get that back to them as 21 soon as we could.

22 Q. But you did, in fact, hold it for an entire week?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Now, let's talk about the personnel you had.
25 Give me a number, how many officers -- how many

1 law enforcement officers, during that week, did 2 you have searching that property? Forget the 3 firemen. Let's just talk law enforcement 4 officers.

5 A. On any given day, or during the course of a week?

6 Q. During the course of a week, over 100?

7 A. I would say over 100.

8 Q. Easily over 100, right?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. This was a high profile case, correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. This was a case that was in the media everyday, 13 if not throughout the day, correct?

14 A. Certainly.

15 Q. This Toyota RAV 4, when it was brought to the 16 Crime Lab, they dropped everything and started 17 working on it right away, didn't they?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And we know how backed up the Crime Lab is on 20 other cases, right?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. This case took priority for them?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. And this case took priority for you?

25 A. Well, certainly. And one of the reasons was to 1 release that scene as soon as we could.

2 Q. How many DCI agents did you have working on this 3 case between November 5th and November 12th.

4 A. I can't answer that, but on and off, probably 5 upwards of 10.

6 Q. Okay. So you had at least 10 DCI agents
7 available to you during that week?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And are each of those agents -- did they have 10 evidence collection training?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Any of them have evidence collection training?

13 A. To my knowledge, no, but I'm not sure.

14 Q. Does DCI have anybody else in the state who 15 collects evidence?

16 A. I'm sure there are agents that collect evidence.
17 The arson agents would, obviously, collect 18 evidence. Have they been certified? Have they 19 gone to specific evidence training, or schools?
20 I don't know.

21 Q. This is the State Department of Justice we're 22 talking about, correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Criminal investigation?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. How many agents work for that department, in the 2 state?

3 A. Approximately 60, I'm not sure.

4 Q. And they go through a lot of training, don't 5 they?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Probably more than your average police officer?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. And you are telling me that those 10 agents, that 10 you had at your disposal, were not capable of 11 collecting evidence from a crime scene?

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's argumentative, the 13 question, did he have trained agents at his 14 available disposal? That's one question, but the 15 way the question is asked --

16 THE COURT: Well, I will ask you to 17 rephrase the question. I think what he's getting at 18 is relevant, but.

19 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ Did you have -- Is it your 20 testimony that you had -- that those 10 agents
21 that you actually used, forget about the other 50
22 available somewhere in the state, but those 10 23 agents, are you telling me that they were not 24 capable, trained enough, to collect any evidence?

25 A. What I'm telling you is, a lot of the agents that

1 I had at my disposal were transferring evidence 2 to and from Madison, around Madison. Many of the 3 agents I utilized, I utilized for interview
4 purposes. Because DCI agents, in my estimation 5 at that time, would be better used to go out in 6 the field and do interviews because they're --

7 Q. Answer my question.

8 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge --

9 A. I'm getting to it.

10 ATTORNEY BUTING: -- I would ask you to 11 direct the witness to answer my question.

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: If you would let the 13 witness finish his statement, you might get his 14 answer.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: It's a simple question;
16 he can answer it, or he can say no.

17 THE COURT: Well, there is some ambiguity,
18 in trained to collect evidence. I have heard 19 references to evidence technicians who are 20 apparently trained in a special way to collect 21 certain types of evidence; and then there's other 22 officers who just collect evidence. So make your 23 question a little more specific, and then he can 24 answer it directly.

25 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ As part of the training of 1 a police officer, you are trained to -- in crime

2 scene evidence searches, right?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. All police officers go through that, do they not?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Every single one?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. And they are taught how to avoid contaminating 9 evidence by touching it with their hands, or 10 smearing fingerprints, all of that sort of thing,
11 correct?

12 A. They are taught the basics.

13 Q. All right. And you had a hundred police officers 14 at your disposal that week, who would have that 15 training; isn't that right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And then, some also have more specialized 18 training. Did they get some sort of certificate 19 that says they are an evidence collector, or 20 what?

21 A. When I went to the training, you got a 22 certificate that you attended and completed that 23 week long training.

24 Q. And you are a qualified evidence technician, are 25 you not?

1 A. I went to that training.

2 Q. Well, are you qualified to collect evidence, or 3 not?

4 A. I believe I'm qualified to collect certain 5 amounts of evidence, certainly.

6 Q. And during this week, isn't it true that you have 7 spent a total of 55 minutes in Mr. Avery's
8 trailer?

9 A. I don't know.

10 Q. Isn't it true that you never even entered his 11 trailer until November 10th, at 5:05 p.m., when 12 you did a brief walk through, looking for hacksaw 13 blades?

14 A. No.

15 Q. I'm sorry, isn't it true that's when you entered 16 the garage for the first time?

17 A. That may be true, yes.

18 Q. And isn't it true that the first time you entered 19 the residence of Mr. Avery, you personally, was 20 November 12th, at 8:20 a.m., and you left at 21 8:45 a.m., and seized some direct TV documents?

22 A. No.

23 Q. That's not true?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Well, what is true? You weren't there that day?

1 A. I was there that day, but that's not the first 2 day I was there.

3 Q. What's the first day you ever entered his 4 residence?

5 A. I believe Tuesday, when a key was found. We went 6 there and viewed that, entered the residence to 7 view that.

8 Q. Okay. And you just looked at what they found, 9 and left?

10 A. Essentially, yes.

11 Q. After that, the next time was this November 12th 12 date?

13 A. To actually go in the trailer, probably. I may 14 have been outside looking in. I know I was, 15 standing on the porch, looking in the door, but I 16 did not go in.

17 Q. And this November 12th, just so we're clear, 18 that's the day you released the whole property,
19 right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. That was a week later?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And did you ever collect any evidence from his 24 trailer?

25 A. I assisted in the collection of a small tin of 1 ashes. I didn't take it, but I assisted in that.

2 That was on Saturday, the 12th.

3 Q. So that was a week later?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Is Investigator Wiegert a trained evidence 6 collection, or at least as much as you are?

7 A. I don't know.

8 Q. Do you know how long or how many times
9 Investigator Wiegert went into Mr. Avery's 10 trailer?

11 A. No.

12 Q. So, out of that hundred police officers that you 13 had, that included the State Patrol, right?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. State patrol has evidence collection teams, do 16 they not?

17 A. I don't know.

18 Q. Well, you utilized them in this case, right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Did you ask whether they could provide any 21 assistance to you as evidence collection
22 technicians?

23 A. We wanted them for searchers and to identify 24 potential evidence, after which we would send 25 collection teams to take the evidence.

1 Q. Well, you just told us that you were strained for 2 resources, to collect evidence, isn't that what 3 you testified about earlier?

4 A. I would say that we were.

5 Q. Let's go into that. Did you ask any of the State 6 Patrol officers, that you were working with,
7 whether they were trained and capable evidence 8 technicians to collect evidence?

9 A. State patrol has no criminal authority and we 10 weren't going to use them to collect evidence.

11 Q. Did you ask them whether they had any --

12 A. No.

13 Q. -- experience? Okay. How about Calumet County 14 Sheriff's Department; how many officers did they 15 have who could collect evidence?

16 A. That we wanted to collect evidence?

17 Q. How many officers did they have, on their 18 department, who were capable of collecting
19 evidence?

20 A. I don't know.

21 Q. So, when you say you're strained and you didn't 22 have enough resources, it's because you didn't 23 even know what your resources were capable of 24 doing; is that it?

25 A. No, it's because we had a certain type of 1 individual that we wanted to collect the 2 evidence, that was trained, that had experience.

3 Q. Oh, you mean evidence people from Manitowoc
4 County Sheriff's Department?

5 A. Calumet, Manitowoc, Manitowoc City, Crime Lab.

6 Q. Well, in fact, you sent in Manitowoc County
7 officers to search Mr. Avery's residence?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. After you knew that Manitowoc County had recused 10 themselves, or stepped down as the lead 11 investigators of this case, because of their 12 civil lawsuit that Mr. Avery had filed?

13 A. Absolutely.

14 Q. Did you decide to send Lieutenant Lenk into 15 Mr. Avery's apartment -- or trailer?

16 A. Whether it was me personally, or a combined 17 decision with Investigator Wiegert, I'm not sure.

18 Q. But between the two of you, you had made that 19 decision to send Lieutenant Lenk in?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And to send Sergeant Colborn in?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Did you know, at that time, that Lieutenant Lenk 24 had been deposed as a witness in the 36 million 25 dollar lawsuit that Mr. Avery had filed just 1 three weeks earlier?

2 A. No.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, relevance.

4 This line is irrelevant.

5 ATTORNEY BUTING: He brought it up on 6 direct examination. He asked about the decision 7 making and who and why he decided to bring people 8 in. I'm entitled to cross-examine him on that.

9 ATTORNEY FALLON: The question, there was a 10 civil lawsuit pending, has little to do with the 11 collection of the evidence.

12 THE COURT: I don't know that to this 13 motion it has much probative value, but if -- there 14 were a few questions on direct, so I will allow a 15 few on cross.

16 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

17 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ So you did not know, at 18 that time, that Lieutenant Lenk had been deposed 19 as a witness in this lawsuit?

20 A. No, I didn't.

21 Q. He did not tell you?

22 A. No.

23 Q. And did you know that Sergeant Colborn had also 24 been a witness, deposed in Mr. Avery's lawsuit, 25 just three weeks before you sent him into his

1 house to search?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Sergeant Colburn didn't tell you that either, did 4 he?

5 A. No.

6 Q. And if you had known that, would you have sent 7 those two officers into his house to search?

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, speculation,
9 relevance, argumentative.

10 THE COURT: For purposes of this hearing,
11 on this motion, I will sustain the objection.

12 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ Now, Sergeant Colburn is 13 just a patrol supervisor, right?

14 A. To my knowledge.

15 Q. He is not a detective, right?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. And yet you put him into a team to go search 18 Mr. Avery's residence, right?

19 A. To my knowledge, he has had experience and 20 training in evidence collection.

21 Q. Using this patrol supervisor as a benchmark, how 22 many other officers were that qualified to also 23 have gone in and searched for, or collect 24 evidence? Strike that search for, let's just 25 leave it with collect evidence.

1 A. How many other officers would have been qualified 2 to search for evidence?

3 Q. No, to collect it.

4 A. To collect it. That determination was made on 5 their experience and training, not whether they 6 were a road sergeant, not whether they were a 7 trooper, not whether they were a special agent.

8 Q. How many of these 100 officers had sufficient 9 training to collect evidence at a crime scene?

10 A. I don't know.

11 Q. Why do you not know?

12 A. I wasn't directly involved in that decision, when 13 they put the teams together, to determine who was 14 going to be on those teams.

15 Q. You said you were a co-leader.

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Of this entire investigation, right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And you just told us -- or tried to explain why 20 it took so long was because you didn't have 21 enough resources, right?

22 A. At times, yes.

23 Q. Is it your testimony, then, that you did not even 24 ask these 100 officers, what degree of training 25 they had, to see whether -- how many of them

1 might have actually been able and capable of 2 collecting evidence?

3 A. I don't know. For example, the first night, I
4 was assigned with the Crime Lab and the wrecker 5 operator, to go down and secure the RAV 4.
6 During that period of time, Mark was up --
7 Investigator Wiegert was up at the command post 8 organizing the evidence collection team. So,
9 him, along with Lieutenants Bowe and Sippel, 10 would have been more involved in a specific 11 detail of organizing and putting together those 12 teams.

13 Q. All right. So you don't really know then, you 14 would have to correct your testimony -- prior 15 testimony -- about whether you had any personal 16 knowledge of how much resources you did or didn't 17 have, from law enforcement, who could have 18 collected evidence?

19 A. I don't know if I have to correct my testimony.
20 I'm looking at what happened when teams were put 21 together. I mean, I'm in that command post, and 22 if there's officers that had had training, I 23 would anticipate that they would have come 24 forward and told us that they had training. My 25 assumption was that we had the people who had the

1 training experience, that we wanted to do that 2 task.

3 Q. How many teams did you have -- did you actually 4 put together? How many different teams did you
5 put together to search? Let's just talk about 6 the buildings on that property.

7 A. Again, if we're talking search teams, or teams 8 that were going in to collect evidence, these are 9 two different things, in my mind. My evidence 10 collection teams, to my knowledge, there were two 11 primary teams earlier in the week, a third team
12 if you count the Crime Laboratory.

13 And then, when we started processing the 14 bones and the burn pit area, it would have been 15 our arson guys, DCI arson guys, along with 16 someone collecting it from Calumet County.

17 Q. So how many of those -- You say your arson guys, 18 those are DCI agents who are trained to collect
19 evidence?

20 A. They are arson investigators and they collect 21 evidence related to arson, so I would imagine, 22 yes, they are trained and experienced in that 23 field.

24 Q. And how many of them were on the scene?

25 A. This would have been mid-weekish, probably, when

1 we had them come, had upwards of probably four or 2 five, at any given moment, four maybe.

3 Q. All right. You said you had the Manitowoc City
4 Police out there at the scene as well, right?

5 A. On Sunday, for sure.

6 Q. All right. How many officers from that 7 department did you use?

8 A. For evidence collection, I think two.

9 Q. So there were evidence collectors qualified, and 10 employed, and working for the Manitowoc City 11 Police?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And you had them out there on the scene?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What about Two Rivers Police Department, did they 16 have any trained evidence collection people?

17 A. I don't know.

18 Q. Did you bring any of them out to the scene?

19 A. I think they may have had some personnel out 20 there; in what capacity they acted, I'm not sure.

21 Q. Did you ever ask any of these law enforcement 22 departments who had come to your aid and 23 assistance, if they would have some evidence 24 collection teams that they could assist you -- 25 that they could loan you and give you to work on

1 this case?

2 A. Yes, I went out and obtained the Grand Chute 3 evidence technician to come over.

4 Q. But you didn't ask that of Two Rivers; is that 5 what you're saying?

6 A. No, not me personally.

7 Q. And what about Mishicot Police, were also there?

8 A. I don't know.

9 Q. You mentioned some other police departments from 10 Calumet County?

11 A. Some of the small police departments there 12 allowed us to use personnel, I believe, but that 13 was mainly for perimeter and scene security, and 14 stuff like that.

15 Q. You said this was the most comprehensive, biggest 16 search you had ever done, right?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Did you ever go to your supervisor, call your 19 supervisor and say, hey, I need more evidence 20 collectors out here, give me everybody you've 21 got?

22 A. We talked about it.

23 Q. Did you ever ask for it?

24 A. She said I could have the personnel that I had 25 needed, I mean within reason.

1 Q. All right. You basically had the whole
2 department, within reason, at your disposal,
3 right?

4 A. Right. And I took what I could get.

5 Q. So, in truth, you had plenty of officers capable?

6 A. If you want to take officers off of scenes, off 7 of other searches, yeah. But those things had to 8 be done too. Interviews had to be done. It's 9 not that these officers were all sitting around 10 in a carton of eggs, waiting to be used. They 11 were being utilized in other areas.

12 Q. I understand that. And I'm not criticizing that.
13 But what I'm questioning you about, though, is 14 you have a search warrant that commands you to, 15 forthwith, search these places. You don't have 16 all day, or all week, or whatever. You don't 17 have an unlimited time to execute that warrant; 18 isn't that right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. You know that when the judge says you can go onto 21 someone's property, and go into their house and 22 search, you are to do that with all due dispatch,
23 right?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. That's a priority?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And that if you have officers available to assist 3 you and do that, you should do that, right?

4 A. I believe I did.

5 Q. Mr. Avery's trailer, Mr. Steven Avery's trailer, 6 can you tell me about how big that is?

7 A. Kitchen, living room, hallway, bedroom, bathroom, 8 another bedroom, all average size.

9 Q. It's a single width trailer, right?

10 A. Yes, I believe so.

11 Q. It's not a double-wide, right?

12 A. Probably 12 to 14 feet wide.

13 Q. Okay. And maybe, what, 30 feet long?

14 A. No, probably longer than that.

15 Q. Forty, maybe; does that sound fair?

16 A. Forty, fifty feet, I'm not sure.

17 Q. But it's a regular common size house trailer?

18 A. Yeah, what you would commonly associate with a 19 house trailer.

20 Q. On the evening of November 5th, you had 4 trained 21 police officers going through Mr. Avery's 22 trailer, for 2 1/2, 3 hours, right?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And you had no concern about the capabilities of 25 that team of officers, to collect and seize any

1 evidence, right?

2 A. Other than what I mentioned on direct.

3 Q. What?

4 A. Other than what I mentioned on direct.

5 Q. I'm sorry. I don't know what you are referring 6 to?

7 A. Lighting conditions, weather conditions, 8 exhaustion.

9 Q. Well, did any of them tell you they were 10 exhausted?

11 A. Independent recollection, I don't remember.

12 Q. Okay. But, so to your knowledge, none of those, 13 Lenk, Colburn, Remiker, or --

14 A. Tyson.

15 Q. -- or Tyson, came to you and said, Hey, boss, I'm 16 beat; I'm just exhausted; I have to quit for the 17 night?

18 A. When they were done, yes. At 10, 10:30, whatever 19 time they cleared that.

20 Q. Did anybody of them ever come up to you and say, 21 we just got to quit, we're just too tired?

22 A. Did they ever say that, no.

23 Q. All right. This Steven Avery trailer had no 24 attic, did it?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Had no basement?

2 A. There may have been a crawl area, crawl space, 3 but I'm not sure.

4 Q. Okay. So if we take the dimensions of about 5 14 feet wide, by 50, that's maybe 700 square 6 feet?

7 A. If you say so.

8 Q. That's a really small area for a search, isn't 9 it?

10 A. Depends what you are looking for.

11 Q. Well, by Saturday, November 5th, you had cadaver 12 dogs on that property, didn't you?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. You were searching not only for Teresa alive, you 15 also were contemplating the possibility she was 16 not alive, right?

17 A. Correct.

18 Q. So your investigation, in part, was a potential 19 homicide investigation, even then, was it not?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Did you ever take any of those cadaver dogs into 22 Mr. Avery's trailer?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. And did the dog alert on any part of his trailer?
25 He did not, did he?

1 A. I don't believe so.

2 Q. And you said the dogs were kind of all over the 3 property, right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. This was Saturday, November 5th?

6 A. I was aware, because I was with one dog, where we 7 went, and I know that there were some other dogs
8 that swept through the buildings, and I believe 9 they were then utilized to sweep through the 10 salvage yard.

11 Q. Okay. And because you were a co-leader, you 12 would be told if there were any areas where these 13 dogs were alerted?

14 A. Myself or Investigator Wiegert.

15 Q. Okay. And the whole purpose of these dogs is 16 that they are trained to be able to -- I don't 17 know whether it's scent, or whatever training it 18 is, but they can assist in locating blood, as 19 well as deceased bodies?

20 A. The theory -- Yeah, the theory is, human blood or 21 cadavers.

22 Q. And I think you used the dogs only that one day, 23 Saturday?

24 A. No.

25 Q. You used them throughout the?

1 A. They were brought back on other occasions, along 2 with bloodhound.

3 Q. And isn't it true, that none of those dogs ever 4 alerted on a burn pit, behind Mr. Avery's
5 detached garage?

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, relevance.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

8 ATTORNEY BUTING: He's talking about 9 ability to search, and where to search, and what his 10 resources are, and he brought up the dogs on direct.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon?

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: Just because -- I don't 13 see how that's relevant to the multiple execution 14 theory or the resource issue. The fact that they 15 used dogs, yes, that's admitted, they used dogs. So 16 what. Whether the dog hit on the burn pit or not, 17 how does that add to the -- why does that make 18 something more probative, more relevant, more 19 material?

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: Then why were we bringing 21 it up in the first place. It's a resource issue 22 that I can explore on cross-examination.

23 THE COURT: It's a resource that he used 24 the dogs. And the questions about how often he used 25 them and what they were used for, is fine. But

1 whether or not he hit on this particular case, 2 again, that's an issue that may be highly relevant 3 for the trial, but I don't think it's particularly 4 probative on this motion. So, I'm sustaining the 5 objection.

6 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ Let me ask it this way.
7 When the dogs would alert on something, that 8 would cause you to devote some resources, you or 9 Wiegert, to devote some police resources to then 10 start searching, right?

11 A. Certainly.

12 Q. And that would, potentially, include evidence 13 collection officers if, upon search, they found 14 something that looked like it was of evidentiary 15 value, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And you talked about, for instance, a suspected 18 clandestine grave site, right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. The dogs alerted on that?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And you took a team over and you spent some time 23 working on that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And it ended up being -- In fact, you were very

1 seriously thinking that this was potentially a 2 new grave site and that Teresa's body might even 3 be in there, right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. So you pulled a bunch of people over there to go 6 look at it?

7 A. To deal with it, yes.

8 Q. Okay. And then it ultimately determined -- was 9 determined to be nothing of value, correct?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. So tell me, during that week, did you have to 12 take your resources, your evidence collection
13 team, to the burn pit behind Mr. Avery's garage, 14 before November 8th? On the 5th, 6th, or the 15 7th, did you have to take an evidence collection
16 team to the burn pit behind Mr. Avery's garage, 17 because a dog had alerted?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Thank you. Let me go back for just a minute. We 20 were talking about search warrants you could have 21 gotten. One of the search warrants you did get 22 was for Mr. Avery's computer, right?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You believed at that time that the original 25 warrant was not sufficient to allow you to seize

1 the computer; is that why you went back?

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection,
3 mischaracterization. He's already testified it was 4 not his decision to seek a renewal of the warrant.

5 ATTORNEY BUTING: This is not a renewal.
6 This is a different warrant.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm sorry, is this the 8 November 9th or --

9 ATTORNEY BUTING: No, this is the computer.

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: Oh, I'm sorry, then I 11 withdraw it.

12 THE COURT: I will allow the question.

13 ATTORNEY BUTING: Could you read it back, 14 please.

15 (Last question read back.)

16 A. I would have to speculate. I don't think I was 17 involved in that decision, as it related to the 18 computer.

19 Q. Who was?

20 A. I would believe Investigator Wiegert, as the 21 other co-lead investigator, probably dealt with 22 that.

23 Q. Did you ever see the affidavit, the application 24 for that warrant?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And that included -- I mean, that was a warrant
2 to permit a specific search within Mr. Avery's 3 residence, right? Specific item?

4 A. I have seen it, but I don't really remember.
5 There's a warrant to seize the computer, I
6 imagine, and to search said computer.

7 Q. And there would have been nothing to prevent you
8 or Investigator Wiegert, to, at that same time, 9 seek an additional warrant to allow you to search 10 his trailer?

11 A. I imagine.

12 Q. And that was November 7th?

13 A. Seventh or eighth. Obtained on the seventh?

14 Q. I believe so.

15 A. Okay. And served on the 8th, I believe, yes.

16 Q. These checkpoints that were set up were 17 maintained either in their original spot, or in 18 some similar close area, for the entire week of 19 November 5th to the 12th, right?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Around the clock, correct?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Did you have a guard stationed outside 24 Mr. Avery's trailer, around the clock, for the 25 entire week?

1 A. I believe there was. Again, that would be more a 2 question to the Lieutenants, Sippel or Bowe.
3 Partly from the fact that that was one of the 4 corners of the property so, ultimately, there was 5 someone there from almost minute one, because 6 they had someone on each corner of that scene.

7 Q. So you had no concern about the -- somebody -- or 8 somehow the scene being compromised while you 9 went off to go get an additional warrant; that 10 wouldn't have been a concern, would it?

11 A. That's correct.

12 Q. When I say additional warrant, I mean an 13 additional -- potential, additional warrant for 14 Mr. Avery's residence or garage?

15 A. Correct.

16 Q. You also got telephone search warrants, telephone 17 record search warrants?

18 A. Subpoenas and search warrants, yes.

19 Q. And DNA?

20 A. Telephone records.

21 Q. Right, telephone records. And DNA search 22 warrants?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Seeking -- In other words, requiring individuals 25 to submit to examinations for DNA samples and all

1 of that?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Now, on November 9th -- I'm sorry, November 5th, 4 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th, you permitted or, indeed,
5 instructed Manitowoc Sheriff Department officers
6 to go in and out of Mr. Avery's residence, right?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. But after that second warrant was obtained, at 9 4:40 p.m., November 9th, suddenly for the 10 remaining three days, no Manitowoc officers were 11 allowed to go into Mr. Avery's residence, or 12 directed to go into Mr. Avery's residence?

13 A. I don't know, if it wasn't.

14 Q. You wouldn't dispute that, that there was -- 15 that, in fact, after a second warrant was 16 obtained, you no longer had any Manitowoc
17 officers go into his residence?

18 A. Do I not -- No, I don't dispute that.

19 Q. Did something happen? Were you -- Somebody tell 20 you, Hey, maybe we better stop using Manitowoc to 21 go into his office -- or his residence?

22 A. Not that I recall.

23 Q. Did you and Investigator Wiegert ever talk about 24 it and say, Hey, maybe we better stop using the 25 Manitowoc Sheriff people to go into Mr. Avery's

1 residence?

2 A. No.

3 Q. This rain that occurred on November 5th, what 4 time did that start?

5 A. There was an initial lighter rain, which would 6 have been in the afternoon, between 3 and 4, some 7 time. Then it bypassed, or stopped for a while, 8 and I can't tell you when exactly it started at 9 this time. Probably toward dark, after dark, 10 right in there.

11 Q. Now, there was nothing to stop your searchers 12 from searching the buildings while it's raining 13 outside, correct?

14 A. Correct.

15 Q. And you know, Mr. Avery's residence and garage 16 weren't leaking rain -- or leaking water during 17 the rain or anything of that sort, right?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. So, you can't say that the rain somehow prevented 20 your searchers from completing their search of 21 Mr. Avery's residence that night, can you?

22 A. I factored it as a condition, when I'm 23 determining whether or not I felt that search was 24 adequately done and complete.

25 Number one, it's darker when it's

1 overcast and raining.

2 Number two, it's affecting -- I mean, 3 there's wet, people going in and out of the 4 trailer are bringing in wetness and stuff. I 5 factored it.

6 Q. Well, the officers that you sent in there, or you 7 and Wiegert sent in there, the four officers, 8 into this little 700 square foot trailer, stayed 9 in that trailer for 2 1/2 hours; they didn't come 10 in and out, did they?

11 A. I don't know. If they had to go out to their 12 vehicle to get collection devices, or storage
13 things, I don't know.

14 Q. Well, indeed, the fact that it was raining, would 15 have been a benefit to you, to assist you to -- 16 or to allow you to more quickly complete the 17 searches of the buildings, because you could use 18 all of your officers in those buildings, instead 19 of spread out over 40 acres; isn't that right?

20 A. That evening, that's correct. We didn't have a 21 lot of officers that evening.

22 Q. Well, how many officers did you have that 23 evening? This is the first day that this thing 24 is discovered, right?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. You had helicopters flying over, doing aerial 2 flyovers, right?

3 A. I think so, I'm not sure.

4 Q. You had officers coming in on their days off, 5 right?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. This was big news. We got this vehicle here.
8 We're going at it, right?

9 A. Whatever officers we could get in that amount of 10 time, we got, yes. Some were sent up to 11 Marinette, some were out doing interviews that 12 were important to do, and some were there.

13 Q. And were some also assigned to search the shop?

14 A. At some time during this search, yes.

15 Q. Were there other teams, on that night of November 16 5th, available to search Mr. Avery's residence, 17 other than the three Manitowoc officers you chose 18 to put in there?

19 A. My answer would be speculative, and it would be, 20 no. I was busy down in the pit. The decision 21 would have been made by Mark -- or Investigator 22 Wiegert that night. I knew our resources, our 23 personnel, were not that many, so my answer would 24 be, yes, it's speculation.

25 Q. So then your focus at the beginning was on

1 Mr. Avery's residence, of all those buildings, 2 that was your initial focus?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. That's where you wanted to send the team in,
5 right?

6 A. That's where we started.

7 Q. And it was important for to you find -- At that 8 point, you were certainly considering this to be 9 a homicide investigation, potentially?

10 A. We were thinking dirty.

11 Q. Okay. That's a yes, is it not?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And so those officers were sent in there 14 to look for any possible evidence, including 15 trace evidence, that might indicate that Teresa 16 Halbach was killed in that trailer?

17 A. Certainly.

18 Q. And they did, in fact, seize trace evidence, 19 didn't they?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And they did, in fact, get down on their hands 22 and knees and use lint rollers, and swab stains 23 off of the floor, and all of that, didn't they?

24 A. Whether they got down on hands and knees, I don't 25 know, but I would assume, yes.

1 Q. And when the Crime Lab told you that they thought 2 there was maybe some other trace evidence that 3 might be worth searching, or seizing, you didn't 4 go and get a warrant on that basis, did you?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Nothing would have prevented you from going to a 7 judge and saying, Hey, now I have got some 8 additional evidence I can present to you. Crime 9 Lab has gone in with their expertise and they 10 found this spot or that spot, that should be 11 seized?

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, asked and 13 answered.

14 THE COURT: I don't recall if that specific 15 question has been asked and answered. I will allow 16 it.

17 A. No, nothing would have prevented that, other than 18 I was still holding that scene.

19 Q. Now, you mentioned that as part of this 20 intelligence and information you were getting,
21 you specifically mentioned that Mr. Avery's 22 story, initial story, was somehow inconsistent?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Give me examples of that, at that point I'm 25 talking about. Give me examples of what was 1 inconsistent about his story.

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, foundational, 3 relevance.

4 ATTORNEY BUTING: He's saying as part of 5 his decision making, it's taking --

6 THE COURT: The objection is overruled.
7 That was given as one explanation for the actions of 8 the witness, so I will allow the question.

9 A. Steven Avery's initial statement to, I believe 10 Investigator -- or Sergeant Colborn, was that he 11 never left his trailer, and that Teresa Halbach 12 never came up to the trailer, he never spoke with 13 Teresa Halbach.

14 Ultimately, we received information that 15 Teresa Halbach was seen walking up to his 16 trailer. We received information later, 17 obviously, that he did talk to her.

18 Q. So you are saying, in his initial story, he said 19 he never talked to her?

20 A. His initial statement to Sergeant Colborn was 21 that he never spoke with Teresa Halbach. He 22 never left the trailer. He watched her out of 23 the window, of the trailer.

24 Q. Okay. And some subsequent information was 25 that -- I'm sorry, you said someone saw her

1 walking up --

2 A. Subsequent interviews indicated that she was seen 3 walking from her vehicle up to the trailer, and 4 then that individual lost sight of her, and then 5 when he went outside, she was gone, and the 6 vehicle was still there.

7 Q. Who was this?

8 A. Bobby Dassey.

9 Q. Okay. And Bobby Dassey at one point was a 10 possible suspect too, wasn't he?

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, relevance.

12 THE COURT: Sustained.

13 Q. (By Attorney Buting)~ On November 5th, when you 14 got there, you said it was around 2 o'clock?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And you directed -- You drove down to the 17 southeast corner of the property where the RAV 4 18 was located?

19 A. By the car crusher, yes.

20 Q. And did you walk over to the RAV 4?

21 A. No, I viewed it from that distance, at that time.

22 Q. At some point, did you walk over to the RAV 4?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. I believe you said you looked inside with a 25 flashlight.

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. You were looking for -- to see if anybody was in 3 there?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Did you see any blood?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Did you check the doors?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Did you touch it at all?

10 A. No.

11 Q. You put a tarp over it?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. How long was that tarp on there?

14 A. No more than a half hour, probably.

15 Q. Do you know whether the tarp was on there when 16 there were flyovers?

17 A. I don't know.

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: I have no other
19 questions at this time.

20 THE COURT: All right. We'll take our 21 lunch break at this time, and resume at 1:15.

22 (Noon recess taken.)

23 THE COURT: At this time we'll go back on 24 the record. Mr. Fassbender, you are still under 25 oath, and I believe Mr. Fallon is up for his

1 redirect.

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Right, just a couple
3 questions.

4 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

5 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

6 Q. Now, as far as you know, in terms of utilizing 7 personnel from other jurisdictions, Kucharski, 8 Tyson, and Riemer are from Calumet County
9 Sheriffs Office?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. And they were placed on the evidence collection 12 teams because they are evidence technicians?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Now, in terms of the Division of Criminal 15 Investigation and the Wisconsin Department of 16 Justice, in cases of homicides or other major 17 offenses, the Crime Lab is, in fact, the evidence 18 technicians or evidence collectors in those types 19 of cases?

20 A. Yes. If I go to a homicide, I get called to a 21 homicide, our evidence techs are the Crime Lab, 22 that's who we take.

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all I have for 24 this witness.

25 THE COURT: All right, anything else?

1 ATTORNEY BUTING: No questions.

2 THE COURT: Witness is excused.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: State at this time would 4 call Lieutenant Kelly Sippel.

5 THE COURT: Very well.

6 THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand.

7 LIEUTENANT KELLY SIPPEL, called as a
8 witness herein, having been first duly sworn, was 9 examined and testified as follows:

10 THE CLERK: Please be seated. Please state
11 your name, spell your last name for the record.

12 THE WITNESS: Kelly Sippel, S-i-p-p-e-l.

13 THE COURT: Counsel, before we proceed, is 14 everybody in compliance with the sequestration
15 arrangement here? Are there any other --

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, I only have one
17 other witness and I believe he is out in the hall.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 DIRECT EXAMINATION

20 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

21 Q. Where are you employed?

22 A. Calumet County Sheriff's Department.

23 Q. How long have you been employed?

24 A. Since October 21st, 1981.

25 Q. What rank do you currently hold?

1 A. Lieutenant.

2 Q. How long have you been a lieutenant?

3 A. Since '94.

4 Q. All right. Prior to that, what duties or rank 5 had you held?

6 A. Patrol officer, patrol duties, related to street 7 level activities.

8 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, can I interrupt 9 for one second?

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 ATTORNEY BUTING: With regard to 12 sequestration, I see that Investigator Wiegert is in 13 back. I understand the State is not intending to 14 call him; however, there may still be a possibility 15 I would -- It's unlikely, but it's still possible I 16 might call him after this, and I would ask that he 17 be sequestered.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: I can ask him to leave.
19 He's right, I wasn't going to call him.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Wiegert, we'll ask you to 21 leave the courtroom then.

22 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ Directing your attention to 23 the events of November 5th, 2005, were you called 24 upon to assist in the execution of a search 25 warrant at the Avery property, located here in

1 Manitowoc County?

2 A. Yes, I was.

3 Q. All right. Approximately what time did you first 4 arrive upon the scene?

5 A. About 3:20 p.m., on the 5th.

6 Q. What were your duties?

7 A. Upon arriving at the scene, I was initially put 8 with two other Manitowoc County investigators to 9 assist in doing a sweep of the buildings on the 10 property, in an attempt to locate the potential 11 victim and/or other civilians that still may be 12 on the property, to secure them off the property.

13 Q. All right. And how long did that particular duty 14 take you, estimated time?

15 A. That went until about 5:30, 5:40 in the evening, 16 on the 5th.

17 Q. All right. And once those duties were completed, 18 what was your next assignment relative to the 19 execution of the warrant?

20 A. At that point in time, I began to contact 21 additional officers and staff from our 22 department, in an attempt to secure and lock down 23 the property, and start initiating shifts for the 24 upcoming hours.

25 Q. All right. And so would it be fair to say that

1 you were assigned, or in charge of perimeter
2 security?

3 A. That would be correct, of the inner perimeter.

4 Q. All right. Just so that we're clear, what would 5 be the inner perimeter; first directing your 6 attention to Exhibit 18, which is on the easel 7 resting on the jury box?

8 A. We took the inner perimeter utilizing the roadway 9 at the top of the map. If you would like I can 10 go over.

11 Q. You can have that, I think we have a laser 12 pointer there for you.

13 A. Above this roadway, there is a fence line located
14 here.

15 Q. And you're pointing to the roadway which goes 16 east, west across --

17 A. Travels east and west, due north would be to the 18 top of the photograph.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. We also had the roadway here, but we had another 21 fence line or berm, a property divider,
22 basically.

23 Q. Now, you are referring to the east?

24 A. East.

25 Q. East of the property.

1 A. And then the western half of the property, there 2 was another berm, and beyond that berm, it went 3 into some open gravel pit areas. And pretty much 4 the same across the bottom half of the property
5 here. And then we made a containment within this 6 general area.

7 Q. All right. Now, briefly, if I may direct your 8 attention to Exhibit 19, which is behind you.
9 And can you locate Exhibit 18, within the 10 confines of Exhibit 19?

11 A. This would be the property in question right
12 here.

13 Q. All right. Now, in terms of the perimeter 14 security here, starting Saturday night, what 15 efforts did you undertake?

16 A. Prior to my arrival on the 5th, the vehicle had 17 been located in this lower southeast quadrant of 18 the property. We had assigned a deputy to stay 19 at this location during the processing and the 20 removal of that vehicle.

21 We also had about -- I believe it was 22 around 1:30 in the afternoon, they had assigned 23 an officer to stay in this quadrant of the 24 property, in regards to the buildings here. That 25 officer was relieved at about 1430 hours by

1 another officer. And then --

2 Q. I'm going to stop you right there. The last 3 quadrant, that would be the northwest quadrant?

4 A. This would be the northwest corner of the 5 property.

6 Q. All right. That's the area for which Mr. Avery's 7 trailer, and garage, and his sister, Barbara's, 8 residences are located?

9 A. That would be correct.

10 Q. All right. Please continue, you said after that 11 area.

12 A. I had -- At this point, we had set up a command 13 post at the intersection here, coming off of 14 Avery Road and where these two roads come off of 15 that, heading south. And at approximately 7 or 8 16 o'clock in the evening, a sergeant from the 17 Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department informed me
18 of the area located in the southwest quadrant, 19 that vehicular traffic may be able to get into 20 the property.

21 Q. All right. Now, you just pointed to Exhibit 19, 22 so you are referencing what would be the 23 southwest corner of the property?

24 A. That's correct.

25 Q. All right. Once you learned that, what steps did

1 you take?

2 A. Both him and I, then, went around to that, to 3 take a look at what kind of access or easement 4 there would be into this particular area, and 5 determined that the vehicular access would 6 basically incur in this corner. At that point in 7 time, we made arrangements to cover that corner, 8 as well, with an officer.

9 Q. All right. And when you covered the area with an 10 officer, can you tell us what you meant by that?

11 A. We placed -- We were able to place a patrol 12 officer at that location for the remainder of the 13 week, 24/7.

14 Q. All right. Now, if I may, for a moment, 15 Exhibit 18 is a photograph with a flight date of 16 November 11th. I draw your attention, first of 17 all, to this corner, on the southwest side. Do 18 you recognize what is depicted there?

19 A. Yeah, this would be one of the units or patrol 20 vehicle that we used for staffing that corner.

21 Q. Now, is that -- would that be a typical location 22 where a perimeter security was set up for that 23 southwest corner?

24 A. That is correct. There was -- there is a -- this 25 line that you see here is an old rail, overhead

1 rail.

2 Q. Yes.

3 A. The unit would either be on one side, or the 4 other side, of that rail.

5 Q. Now, with respect to the upper quadrant, there is 6 a vehicle, which is depicted right here,
7 underneath the sign, Plymouth Voyager?

8 A. That's correct.

9 Q. Or the arrow points elsewhere, what is that 10 vehicle?

11 A. That is also a patrol unit that was used. Those 12 cars change periodically depending upon who was 13 covering that corner. But during the day we 14 would have the officer back up and allow the 15 investigators to do their work throughout this 16 area. Then at night we would move that patrol 17 car closer into the buildings, in about this area
18 here.

19 Q. All right. So, you are pointing to an area which 20 is directly in front of the residence of Steven 21 Avery, the garage; is that correct?

22 A. That's correct.

23 Q. All right. Now, how about in the southeast 24 corner, were there evidence of -- on this 25 photograph, for instance -- where it's

1 exemplifying perimeter security placement?

2 A. That's correct. We have a patrol car located
3 right here. This car would utilize this corridor 4 through here, through the day, and through the 5 evening, to cover this berm area.

6 This is a area that goes up, be 7 estimating 60 feet, an upward climb, basically,
8 to a hay field. And there was a bit of berm back 9 here. And he was -- he or she was able to cover 10 this corner and watch those berms.

11 Q. All right.

12 A. At night, the first two days, we actually had 13 that lit even.

14 ATTORNEY BUTING: Could we just let the 15 record reflect that when he was pointing to the 16 southeast corner, talking about a berm along the 17 south edge of the property; where were you talking?

18 THE WITNESS: There's two berms. There's a 19 higher berm of approximately 60 feet or better, 20 located along this edge. And then there's a 21 shallower --

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: This edge being the 23 eastern edge?

24 THE WITNESS: That would be the eastern 25 edge.

1 ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay.

2 THE WITNESS: And then along this southern 3 edge here, there is another berm that goes up 4 approximately anywhere from -- it varies, you know, 5 10, 15, 20 feet and then drops down into another 6 quarry, an actual old gravel or sand pit quarry.

7 ATTORNEY BUTING: That's fine.

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

9 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ All right. And in terms of 10 the northeast corner, what was happening there?

11 A. The northeast corner, on Saturday, the 5th, right 12 about in this area, we had a command post set up.

13 Q. Just for identification purposes, that's an area 14 to the right of the exhibit sticker and slightly 15 north --

16 A. Yeah.

17 Q. -- of the number three?

18 A. It would be just adjacent to the number three.
19 You can just kind of catch it on the photograph, 20 where we had the command post.

21 Q. All right. And now, in terms of perimeter 22 security, were there any other command post 23 locations, or anything that were -- that you 24 utilized?

25 A. Saturday we, and in through Saturday evening, we

1 utilized this command post. And Sunday morning
2 the Calumet County Sheriff's Department brought 3 in our own command post and we reorganized at 4 this location here, utilizing this command post
5 for the investigators, and this command post 6 became command security, basically, for the 7 property.

8 Q. All right. Would you put your initials on that 9 particular -- All right. Thank you. And you put 10 your initials -- For the record, what initials 11 did you put on there?

12 A. K.S.

13 Q. K.S. Thank you. All right. Now, in terms of 14 the perimeter security here, who else, if anyone, 15 assisted you in performing those duties?

16 A. The interior perimeter was pretty much maintained 17 by employees of the sheriff's department, with 18 assistance from various other agencies when we 19 couldn't fill staffing gaps. Basically, we had 20 to rely on other municipal agencies to assist us 21 on that, on the inner perimeter.

22 Referring to the map behind me, the 23 exterior perimeter, being the highway and the 24 roadways around the adjacent acreage, was 25 maintained by the Wisconsin State Patrol and

1 managed by the State Patrol. And they were also 2 assisted by various sheriff's departments and 3 municipal agencies.

4 Q. All right. Now, in terms of returning then, 5 again, to Exhibit 18, these postings on the four 6 corners of the property, was there always a car 7 there during the course of the week long 8 occupation of the property?

9 A. That is correct.

10 Q. All right. And during the course of the week, 11 were any artificial lights or anything used 12 during the evening hours to assist in keeping an 13 eye on things?

14 A. That is correct. In this lower quadrant here, in 15 the southeast quadrant, we did have lights set up 16 to cover these berms coming into the property, 17 where we could actually light up the physical 18 berm to see anybody breaching from the top.

19 Q. All right. At any point did those lights move, 20 or were they utilized for any other purpose?

21 A. As the week went on, through searching -- we 22 started searching properties adjacent to the 40 23 or so acres involving our inner perimeter. And 24 we started finding items what we felt that might 25 be evidentiary purpose -- or needed for

1 evidentiary purposes, and quarries to the 2 southwest of the property.

3 At that point, mid-week, going into 4 Thursday, we started putting officers, additional 5 officers, on those evidence areas, until we could 6 physically recover. Then we began to light these 7 quarry areas as well, at that point.

8 Q. And what was the purpose of that?

9 A. To secure, basically, the evidence or what we 10 felt was evidence, that we were finding in those 11 quarries.

12 Q. All right. Now, in terms of overall -- although 13 not your primary function, were you aware of 14 where certain checkpoints were located on the 15 surrounding roads?

16 A. Referring to the map behind me, primary 17 checkpoints --

18 Q. That's Exhibit 19 --

19 A. Exhibit 19.

20 Q. -- for the record.

21 A. I'm not sure how to pronounce the community, 22 Larrimore, I believe, or Larrame, I'm not quite 23 sure. It's a small community just off this 24 particular photo, where the highway meets here 25 with another county trunk. And the primary

1 checkpoint for the exterior perimeter was located
2 there.

3 Q. And that's Highway 147. And is the road that it 4 intersects with, is that -- any part of that road 5 depicted on the exhibit?

6 A. This part of the map here, or photograph, you can 7 see a portion of that roadway.

8 Q. All right. And you are referring to Exhibit 19, 9 the road that runs diagonally across the south --

10 A. Quadrant.

11 Q. Southwest quarter.

12 A. And then they had an officer located at this 13 intersection here. And this intersection was 14 also blocked at this location. And Manitowoc
15 County Sheriff provided an officer at the north
16 end of Avery Road, at 147, to manage individuals 17 coming in and out of the crime scene.

18 Q. All right. Now, in terms of access, was the 19 inner perimeter, as you say that you were 20 responsible for, was security maintained for the 21 entire seven days?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. All right. At any time -- Well, let's ask this 24 question. You, yourself, in charge of perimeter 25 security, were you at the property the entire

1 seven days?

2 A. No.

3 Q. All right. Who else filled in your duties when 4 you were not there?

5 A. I was relieved by Lieutenant Bowe of the Calumet
6 County Sheriff's Department.

7 Q. All right. And in terms of that, how did you and 8 Lieutenant Bowe organize or supervise those 9 responsible for perimeter security?

10 A. We would supervise the security from the command 11 post. We would work approximately 30 hour
12 shifts. I would -- Lieutenant Bowe relieved me 13 Sunday morning. I stayed on Sunday morning, the 14 6th through the 7th, where we worked together in 15 trying to organize staffing as we were going on.
16 Approximately 6, 7 p.m., on Sunday evening, I 17 left. And then I would return on Monday morning 18 to relieve Lieutenant Bowe, who then would leave 19 sometime late afternoon, on Monday, early 20 evening.

21 So we always had a portion of at least 8 22 hours, the two of us working together, trying to 23 formulate and create and keep the security. And 24 then we always would have one of us working the 25 night shift.

1 Q. All right. And during the course of the week, to 2 your knowledge, were there any attempts by other 3 individuals, none law enforcement people, to come 4 in and see what's going on?

5 A. If I could refer to Exhibit 19, behind me, we did 6 have several attempts. First attempt would have 7 occurred, an incursion by the press, from this 8 farm located to the southeast of the property.

9 The press did come in and park at this 10 farm. And as the individual was walking across 11 this field, and as he began to breach the berm, 12 the officer at this location observed that 13 breach, contacted the command post. I then left 14 on an ATV, made contact with that press
15 individual, on that berm, prior to him setting 16 up. Removed him and walked him back to the farm, 17 to his vehicle, identified him, and removed him 18 from that area.

19 Q. As a result of that incident, were there any 20 additional precautions taken, with respect to 21 perimeter security?

22 A. At that point we then -- this town road, I 23 believe, that travels north and south here, was 24 then closed by the Manitowoc Sheriff's 25 Department, to local travel only at that point.

1 Q. All right. Any other concerns, or possible
2 interested bystanders who approached the area
3 while it was under your control?

4 A. We had another attempt by two individuals, two 5 local residents, curious residents, who as they 6 were coming down this fence line, approaching 7 from 147, from the north, heading south to the 8 northwest corner of the property, they got to 9 about halfway down this fence line when officers 10 from the command post area, as well as officers 11 that were working within the interior scene, 12 started to move towards them.

13 They then retreated up the fence line,
14 and were apprehended by Manitowoc Sheriff on a 15 driveway just off of 147. They were placed in 16 handcuffs, returned to my location at the command
17 post. I identified them, warned both individuals 18 that a return to the property would result in 19 their arrest.

20 Q. All right. Were they then escorted back to 21 beyond the checkpoint?

22 A. They were then escorted back out, up to the 23 checkpoint, back out to 147.

24 Q. All right. Now, at night time, just so that 25 we're fair here, is it conceivable or possible,

1 that there could have been a perimeter breach?

2 Could someone have hoofed it in, so to speak?

3 A. It's very possible that somebody coming in from 4 anyone of the quarries or wooded areas, could 5 have breached by foot.

6 Q. All right. Is that the reason why lights were 7 then placed down in the quarry area, later on in 8 the week?

9 A. Initially, those lights were placed at the 10 vehicle location, for the vehicle. And then we 11 began to use them when the vehicle was removed, 12 for that purpose.

13 Q. All right.

14 A. And, secondarily, at the command post here, we 15 had a state trooper sergeant at the command post.
16 He would relieve his staff for breaks and 17 bathroom breaks and meal breaks. And when he 18 would return, I would travel, or Lieutenant Bowe 19 would travel, through the property, periodically, 20 at night, and relieve our staff on the corners
21 for breaks and meals and so forth.

22 Q. During the course of the week, was it difficult 23 to navigate through the property to get from one 24 side to the other?

25 A. Unfortunately, on Saturday evening, we had a

1 heavy rainstorm and the roadways within this area 2 here filled, at locations, with water. Most 3 became fairly impassable -- you can see some of 4 the water still in some of the locations on this 5 photo -- with passenger vehicles.

6 We, as an agency, did have a four-wheel 7 drive Explorer. And that first day or two, we 8 did travel through, but because of how difficult 9 it became at times, we then, when we had to move 10 out to this location, we quite often went all the 11 way around the perimeter and off of the county 12 trunk here, through the quarries. But, yes, it 13 was difficult at times.

14 Q. All right. And do you have any approximate 15 estimate for us, approximately how many officers 16 you utilized or were assisting you, in just the 17 task of perimeter security?

18 A. Everyday, 24/7, we always had security here, 19 officer in this corner, this corner, and the 20 southeast corner. And then throughout the day, 21 due do searching, evidentiary reasons, there were 22 officers throughout the property as well.

23 And then we had the exterior covered,
24 you know, by other agencies. I would have to 25 resurrect logs to determine exactly how many

1 officers was on the security.

2 Q. All right. Now, one moment.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: I have no other questions
4 for the witness.

5 ATTORNEY BUTING: No cross, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Okay. The witness is excused.

7 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

8 THE COURT: The State may call it's next
9 witness.

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, we're -- I'm going
11 to call Lieutenant Bowe.

12 THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand.

13 LIEUTENANT BRETT BOWE, called as a
14 witness herein, having been first duly sworn, was 15 examined and testified as follows:

16 THE CLERK: Please be seated. Please state
17 your name, spell your last name for the record.

18 THE WITNESS: Brett Bowe, B-o-w-e.

19 DIRECT EXAMINATION

20 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

21 Q. What do you do for a living?

22 A. I work for the Calumet Sheriff's Department as a
23 deputy.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Bowe, can you move the 25 microphone over, please.

1 Q. (By Attorney Fallon)~ Say that answer again.

2 A. I work for the Calumet Sheriff's Department as a
3 deputy.

4 Q. All right. What rank do you currently hold?

5 A. Patrol lieutenant.

6 Q. All right. How long have you been so employed 7 with Calumet County?

8 A. Sixteen years I have been there.

9 Q. And how long have you held the rank of 10 lieutenant?

11 A. Almost two years.

12 Q. What were your previous duties?

13 A. Prior to that, I was a patrol sergeant. Before 14 that, I was a patrolman. And I was a jailer for 15 a year and a half.

16 Q. All right. Directing your attention now to the 17 week of from November 5th to November 12th, were 18 you involved at all in the execution of a search 19 warrant on the property of the Avery Auto Salvage 20 Yard and the residences located therein?

21 A. Yes, I was.

22 Q. And in what role or capacity did you have with 23 respect to that?

24 A. I was in charge of the command post.

25 Q. All right. And specifically, what duty were you

1 assigned?

2 A. My main duty was to guarantee security on the 3 property, and also to coordinate the searches.

4 Q. All right. And in terms of the security, who 5 else did you share those responsibilities with?

6 A. Lieutenant Sippel.

7 Q. All right. And in terms of yourself and 8 Lieutenant Sippel, how did you work? In other 9 words, were you both there at the same time,
10 alternating shifts? What did you do?

11 A. During the day, we were there at the same time.
12 He started on Saturday morning, I arrived Sunday 13 morning. He left Sunday night, I would have 14 stayed through the night. He would have come 15 back Monday morning and then I would have left 16 Monday night. And we kept alternating that way.

17 Q. All right.

18 A. So we were both there during the day.

19 Q. All right. We have heard some testimony already 20 from Lieutenant Sippel, so I don't want to repeat 21 that, but I have a question for you, are you 22 familiar, yourself, with any attempted breaches 23 of the security that you were involved in, in 24 ferreting out?

25 A. Yes, I am.

1 Q. Tell us about that.

2 A. There were three that I was aware of. There was 3 one that I was personally involved with.

4 Q. All right.

5 A. Is that the one you want?

6 Q. If need be, there should be a laser pointer in 7 front of you and there's an exhibit to your 8 immediate right and one behind you. In terms of 9 the incident you were involved in, tell us about 10 that.

11 A. The incident I was involved in, the officer that 12 was stationed down in the southeast corner 13 notified us that he had observed a person on the 14 berm, to the south, which would have been located 15 a little further south than what this map shows.

16 Q. All right. And you just briefly turned and 17 pointed to Exhibit 19, the one on the chalkboard?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. All right. And if that assists you better, tell 20 us about what you -- what incurred -- occurred, 21 excuse me.

22 A. The officer indicated that there was an 23 individual just south, on top of the berm. I 24 proceeded around to the quarry and got up on top 25 of the berm. And I could see a set of footprints

1 that came along there.

2 They were approximately 20 yards south
3 of the southeast corner of the property. And I 4 saw that the footprints led to a residence that 5 was just to the east of where the footprints
6 were. So I followed them up to that residence.

7 Q. All right. And were you able to ascertain who 8 was responsible for the footprints and/or the 9 attempted entrance?

10 A. I spoke with a gentleman there who indicated that 11 his wife had just left for work. He indicated 12 that she had gone out and had fed their dog and 13 was gone for approximately five minutes. And 14 that he had heard her car leave at that time and 15 that that was the only person on the property 16 that could have been back where we were.

17 Q. All right. In terms of your particular time, 18 while you were in charge, were there any other 19 attempted entrances to the -- the inner 20 perimeter, as it's been described?

21 A. Yes, there were. There was an individual that 22 was also in the southeast corner, further north, 23 so they would have been just east of the 24 property. And Lieutenant Sippel addressed that.
25 That was a member of the media.

1 And then there were two gentleman that 2 came in from the north, on the west side of the 3 property, were walking a line fence down, and I 4 believe they made it about two-thirds of the way 5 down through the 40 acre field. And when they 6 saw numerous officers approaching them, they 7 turned and headed back toward the north. And 8 they were apprehended --

9 Q. All right.

10 A. -- north of that property.

11 Q. All right. And during your time, when you were 12 solely in charge of the -- of the perimeter, were 13 there postings at each corner of the perimeter; 14 in other words, was there, the euphemism of 15 today, 24/7 security?

16 A. Yes, there was.

17 Q. All right.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Buting, any questions?

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: None.

21 THE COURT: Witness is excused.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: I believe Exhibits 18 and 23 19 have already been received, so that being the 24 case, just in the odd chance they aren't, I would 25 move for their introduction. And secondly, we would

1 rest the presentation of our evidence on this issue.

2 THE COURT: All right. With respect to 18
3 and 19, have they been admitted?

4 THE CLERK: Yes.

5 THE COURT: All right. They are already 6 admitted. Any rebuttal witnesses from the defense?

7 ATTORNEY BUTING: None. Are there any 8 exhibits that are not admitted? I should --

9 THE CLERK: Everything is received.

10 ATTORNEY BUTING: Everything is received.
11 Okay. Thank you.

12 THE COURT: All right. Does that conclude 13 the witnesses then, for all the outstanding motions
14 at this time.

15 ATTORNEY STRANG: The only thing I will add 16 is, I should have thought to do this yesterday when 17 I had Mr. Glynn on the stand, but I will make an 18 offer of proof on what his answer would have been,
19 had the hearsay objection not been sustained. I 20 expect Mr. Glynn would have testified that, as he 21 had said something to the effect that, he had told 22 Mr. Avery that he wanted Mr. Avery to tell the 23 officer that he didn't wish to speak to the officer 24 without a lawyer.

25 And Mr. Avery agreed to say that, with

1 the cellphone still -- the line still open, and 2 Mr. Glynn heard that. He thinks before Mr. Avery 3 got into the car, heard Mr. Avery saying to 4 somebody, you know, nearby, I don't want to talk 5 to you any more without my lawyer, or words to 6 that effect.

7 THE COURT: All right. Is that --

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: Obviously, we still hold 9 to our objection.

10 THE COURT: Let me ask this, is that 11 something that was on the CD transcript?

12 MR. STRANG: It's not on the transcript
13 but, you know, the tape goes off and then comes back 14 on as Avery, I think, is probably getting into the 15 car.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So that's a statement, 17 had it been admitted, that the defense would have 18 contended came in between parts three and four of 19 the tape recorded --

20 MR. STRANG: That's my best inference.
21 That's an inference only.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Then I have a second 23 objection to that. And the second objection is, 24 that's speculation on the part of Mr. Glynn, as to 25 when that occurred relative to the getting into the

1 vehicle or the turning on the tape, because he 2 wasn't there. So, now I have another grounds to 3 object.

4 THE COURT: Okay. I didn't understand that 5 Mr. Glynn would have said that. I understood --

6 MR. STRANG: Glynn thought it was before
7 Avery -- If you assume Avery was out of the car, 8 Avery says it right away, you know, before he would 9 have had a chance to go an open a car door. Glynn 10 doesn't hear car doors opening and there's no pause 11 in there.

12 THE COURT: All right. I would like to 13 take a short break at this time, to meet with 14 counsel and determine what else we're going to do 15 today.

16 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, could we have just 17 one moment.

18 THE COURT: Yes.

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: Judge, before we do that,
20 I would like you to make a record on two points 21 since it appears that the testimonial part of this 22 motion has now ended. With respect to the Franks 23 motion and, more importantly, with respect to the 24 State's challenge to his standing to even raise a 25 challenge, that you engage in a colloquy with the

1 defendant, Mr. Avery, that he did, in fact, have a 2 right to take the stand and assert his reasonable 3 expectation of privacy in any of the locations 4 subject to the search.

5 Secondly, we would ask the Court to 6 engage in a second colloquy with the defendant, 7 relative to the circumstances surrounding the 8 taking of this statement by the Marinette
9 detective, Anthony O'Neill. If he had the right 10 to testify, he had the right to say, in his mind, 11 what occurred and when things occurred, 12 vis-a-vis, that statement. And he apparently has 13 chosen not to. So I would ask that you engage in 14 a colloquy with Mr. Avery, on both of those 15 matters, before we close and move to argument.

16 THE COURT: Let me --

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: May I -- I'm sorry.

18 THE COURT: Just a second, before I give 19 you a chance to speak, Mr. Strang. Your first 20 request, Mr. Fallon, was to what, the right to 21 privacy to?

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: His right to testify,
23 relative to his right to challenge the search 24 warrant. We had objected, demanded that he 25 establish standing to challenge the warrant and,

1 thus, standing to bring the Franks motion. So,
2 obviously, he has that right and he has chosen not 3 to exercise it.

4 So that would be the first colloquy,
5 that that was a decision that he made with,
6 presumably, advice of counsel, that he's given up 7 his right to testify and offer his point of view.
8 That's the first one. And the second one is, his 9 right to testify regarding the motion to suppress 10 the statement to Detective O'Neill.

11 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Strang.

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: I understand and 13 appreciate that the flow of Wisconsin law, in the 14 last 15 or 20 years, has advanced steadily toward 15 inserting the Court ever more frequently into 16 strategic decisions and decisions on which witnesses 17 to call, or whether to call the defendant in a 18 pretrial matter, and so I understand full well why 19 the State makes the request that it does.

20 I also acknowledge that I have invited
21 the Court, on at least one or two occasions so 22 far, to engage in a colloquy with Mr. Avery, 23 where we were requesting some relief or some 24 indulgence. And I thought that would be the 25 better way to make a record, or to make clear

1 that this was done with the accused's personal 2 consent.

3 That said, I'm not aware of any 4 authority here that would invite the Court to 5 insert itself, at this point, in the decision on 6 what witnesses to call on pretrial matters, or on 7 foundational matters in the case of the standing 8 question, or personal interest in privacy on a 9 pretrial motion.

10 And I think that, you know, obviously, 11 Mr. Avery has been present here. The record has 12 reflected that all along. He's been awake. He's 13 been an active participant at the defense table.

14 But I don't think it's a wise move to -- 15 to have the Court, or then the adversarial party, 16 involved in every decision in the defense camp 17 about what witnesses to call or how,
18 strategically, to handle the pretrial motion.
19 So, you know, while the Court will do as it sees 20 fit, I don't think a colloquy on either of these 21 points is either required or appropriate under 22 the circumstances.

23 THE COURT: Let me -- Mr. Fallon, I'm not 24 sure -- I understand what you are saying about the 25 motion to suppress the statement to Officer O'Neill;

1 I'm not sure with respect to the Franks motion.

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: The Franks motion is 3 ancillary. The real issue is, does he have the 4 right to even bring a Franks motion. Does he have 5 standing to challenge the search? And he has to 6 establish standing by a preponderance of the 7 evidence. That's his burden.

8 And if it's the defense burden, then,
9 one rightly ought to assume that he has the right 10 to testify, to assert his constitutional 11 interests. And if he's choosing not to, that's 12 fine. I just want to make sure that it's his 13 choice, presumably with the advice of counsel.

14 If not, we would be more than happy to 15 accept a waiver of any subsequent claim in the 16 future of ineffective assistance of counsel for 17 not putting their client on the stand, for 18 purposes of completing the record on these two 19 motions.

20 THE COURT: All right. I want to make sure 21 that I'm understanding your point on the Franks 22 motion correctly. I understand, and I believe the 23 State has already asserted that the motion that was 24 filed by the defense did not constitute a 25 substantial preliminary showing that a false

1 statement had knowingly and intentionally been made, 2 or a statement with reckless disregard for the 3 truth; you have made that motion, have you not?

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, relative to the 5 Franks aspect of this.

6 THE COURT: Right. And argued that the 7 Court should not have even conducted an evidentiary 8 hearing because the defense motion does not meet 9 that initial plateau to be entitled to a hearing.

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's the second 11 argument. The first argument, they didn't have 12 standing to bring a Franks motion, except as it 13 pertains to the trailer and the garage. His 14 residence, the trailer. And the garage.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, it's the same
17 warrant. Mr. Fallon has been making this argument 18 for two days now. And the warrant, it's the same 19 warrant; it involves his trailer as well as all the 20 property. So, how can he say he doesn't have 21 standing to challenge a warrant that has his trailer 22 residence on it.

23 THE COURT: Well, I suppose the State could 24 argue that the Court should find in the State's 25 favor, and in the alternative, if the Court doesn't

1 find in the State's favor, it should only sustain 2 the argument made by the defense as it relates to 3 the trailer and the garage. I mean, I don't know if 4 that's where we're heading or not.

5 One of the things I was going to discuss 6 with counsel in chambers was what we were going 7 to do from here forward. And one of those was 8 going to be, to hear your arguments, because I 9 believe I told Mr. Fallon I would hear his 10 argument, which I have not heard yet.

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's right. So our 12 only question is, is it seems to me that wisdom 13 would suggest that we take colloquy from the 14 defendant so that we're sure that he had the right 15 to testify on these matters, if he wanted to, and 16 he's chosen not to.

17 THE COURT: Let me ask the defense, and I 18 don't know that this is self-evident in the 19 pleadings, is the defendant asserting that he has a 20 right to privacy that extends beyond the trailer, 21 the garage, and the immediate surrounding area, if 22 you will, that is, to the rest of the 40 acre 23 parcel? I don't know that I have -- that the 24 defense has asserted, to this point, that the 25 defendant has such an interest.

1 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, I think -- I think 2 it's pretty clear from the testimony that what we 3 focused on, and from the motion, is the entries to 4 his residence and to his garage and, you know, the 5 reasonable curtilage, or whatever, in that area.

6 The testimony regarding the other
7 aspects of the property is that he was basically 8 an employee or worked there, not an actual 9 ownership -- owner of it. But that testimony 10 went to the question of whether or not there was 11 probable cause for the officers to have been in 12 the location they were at, before consent was 13 given to the officers, such that the information
14 that Detective Remiker obtained, that is, the VIN 15 number, was improperly obtained and should not 16 have been considered in the warrant, as part of 17 the probable cause.

18 In other words, if the Franks motion -- 19 if the Franks motion is granted and the Court 20 strikes that portion of it that is considered 21 deliberately false or recklessly untruthful, and 22 then you look at the remainder of the warrant to 23 see if there's still probable cause, and that 24 consideration has to -- in my estimation we can 25 argue all this, but that's what the testimony

1 went to, as to why that portion of the police 2 observations could also not be considered in 3 determining whether there was probable cause.

4 THE COURT: All right. Maybe I missed it,
5 I know there was testimony that Detective Remiker 6 didn't ask consent -- I don't think he asserted that 7 he asked consent -- before responding to the scene 8 on Saturday, and responding to the location of the 9 RAV 4, and looking at the VIN number.

10 But I guess to this point, I also didn't 11 understand that the defendant to be asserting 12 that he had a right to privacy with respect to 13 that portion of the property that required -- 14 would have required Detective Remiker to ask for 15 the defendant's consent to visit it.

16 I don't know, I mean, it's not -- it's 17 not clear to me, in the motion papers that were 18 filed, what the arguments were going to be.
19 That's why -- one of the reasons I'm going to 20 permit each side to make oral argument, perhaps 21 some of those points can be clarified.

22 Is the defendant arguing that he had an 23 individual right to privacy that was violated, 24 that required Remiker to get consent or a warrant
25 before responding to the location of the RAV 4

1 and looking at the VIN number?

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Excuse me, your Honor, I
3 think we're getting a little off track. Because we 4 are going to argue these points shortly, the only 5 issue on the table right now, as I understand it, is 6 whether or not we're going to take a colloquy from 7 Mr. Avery, that he was mindful that he had the 8 opportunity to testify and chose not to. And if 9 we're not, then that's fine, and then we can proceed 10 to argument. I mean that's the only -- I don't want 11 to mix up the two concepts.

12 THE COURT: Well, this is a pretrial
13 motion, let me ask you this, Mr. Strang or 14 Mr. Buting, have the two of you discussed this with 15 your client and made a decision, after your 16 discussions with him, that you would not be calling 17 him to testify?

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: We have not had extensive 19 discussion about it. And I think, beyond that, it's 20 privilege. And really this is the point. I mean, 21 if we could do a colloquy with Mr. Avery and,
22 essentially, what the State would be hoping to 23 accomplish is, his ratification of decisions that 24 haven't been his, strategic decisions about how to 25 proceed on a pretrial motion and which witnesses to 1 call, and not to call, him included.

2 If -- if these calls are so far wrong
3 that they fall below a reasonable level of 4 defense counsel's performance, then that's the 5 fact. And having him ratify them doesn't change
6 that. The decisions on what witnesses to call 7 here and which not to call, including Mr. Avery, 8 have been mine and Mr. Buting's.

9 THE COURT: Well, I understand that. I
10 guess my question is directed to something that's a 11 little -- that falls a little short of actually 12 conducting a personal colloquy with Mr. Avery, and 13 that is, whether or not the two of you have 14 discussed this with him. I'm not looking to get 15 into any privilege.

16 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, and in a very general 17 way, we have had very brief discussions about it, as 18 to the -- as to these two motions.

19 THE COURT: All right.

20 ATTORNEY STRANG: And I will say,
21 discussion to the extent that that implies a two-way 22 discourse, may be gilding the lily to some extent.
23 I know that, very briefly, I have expressed an 24 opinion or made an assertion. I'm not sure that 25 beyond that I should be implying a two-way

1 discourse.

2 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to take a
3 short break at this time. Before I ask counsel to 4 meet with me in chambers, I'm going to ask that 5 defense counsel address this issue with Mr. Avery.
6 And we'll discuss in chambers how to proceed further 7 when we come back out on the record, after that's 8 been completed.

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: Is there a place we can 10 talk in private?

11 THE COURT: Yes, I believe the jury room
12 would work for that purpose.

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Two-fifteenish?

14 THE COURT: Let's say 2:20, in my chambers.

15 ATTORNEY STRANG: We can use the jury room, 16 but that will require one of two things: First, 17 preferably all the law enforcement people or 18 representatives of the State, being outside a closed 19 door.

20 Or, second, much less preferably, 21 anybody who's within the room being deputized as 22 a defense investigator for purposes of that 23 meeting, and being instructed that he or she is 24 within the lawyer/client privilege, on the work 25 product doctrine, forever more, for purposes of

ATTORNEY BUTING

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court will go
2 back on the record. Before we hear oral argument
3 from the parties on the Franks motion, there's a 4 couple of other things to address. First of all,
5 it's my understanding from discussions with counsel, 6 that the parties have agreement on the media 7 statements motion that was filed by the defense, and 8 for which testimony has been taken; is that correct, 9 counsel?

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, that is correct. It 11 is my understanding, and I think Counsel would 12 agree, that neither side is conceding the merits of 13 the other side's argument, but in acknowledgment of 14 the overall circumstances of this case and the 15 number of statements at issue, we have reached this 16 following resolution:

17 And that is, that the State would agree
18 not to use any of the interview statements
19 obtained by News Reporter Kolbusz, which I
20 believe, if memory serves me, were November 18th 21 and December 14th. And in exchange for which the 22 defense is withdrawing their request to prohibit 23 our use of any of the statements, either 24 telephonically, or in person, obtained by 25 Investigative Reporter Matesic.

1 Again, neither side is conceding the 2 merits of the other side's argument; it's just a 3 concession due to the overall circumstances of 4 the case.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

6 ATTORNEY STRANG: There's nothing about 7 that with which I disagree. I will add a little bit 8 I think that matters and I believe we're also in 9 agreement on. The Emily Matesic interview was 10 November 12th, as I recall, the in jail televised 11 interview. And we are withdrawing our 12 constitutional objection to that, withdrawing the 13 motion in so far as that interview goes.

14 And as to the one later, telephonic
15 interview with Ms Matesic, and I will say that it 16 was -- that was a straddler, that was sort of 17 midway in between. Because the motion never was 18 intended to cover interviews or statements of 19 Mr. Avery where he initiated the telephone call.

20 And as I say, that one straddled a 21 little bit, because Ms Matesic initiated in one 22 sense by writing a letter asking Mr. Avery to 23 call, he initiated in another sense by making the 24 collect call. But in any event, no 25 constitutional objection and the motion is

1 withdrawn as to those two interviews.

2 At this time, I believe that the State 3 has not obtained the raw footage of the 4 November 12 interview, or any full tape, or raw 5 tape, so to speak, of the later telephonic
6 interview with Ms Matesic.

7 I know the defense doesn't have those 8 materials. And I think what we have agreed to do 9 at this point is just to table, until later,
10 questions of completeness, if in fact the State 11 is able to obtain raw footage, or the full 12 interview, on either of those occasions.

13 Assuming the State is not, we will not 14 object to introduction of the little two minute 15 or two minute plus segments of those interviews
16 that were actually aired in the Matesic 17 interviews.

18 And then I also agree, it's simpler as 19 to the Channel 5, or Jennifer Kolbusz interviews, 20 both in the jail, both televised or filmed, 21 November 18 and December 14, those the State will 22 make no use of at all at trial. And, again, 23 here, each of the two sides is utterly secure in 24 its conviction that the other side is completely 25 wrong on the legal merits, so.

1 THE COURT: All right. In light of the 2 detail involved in your agreement here, I'm going to 3 ask you to provide that to the Court in the form of 4 a written stipulation and then I will accept it.
5 Mr. Strang, I will have you draft it. And --

6 ATTORNEY STRANG: I would be happy to.

7 THE COURT: -- when the Court receives it,
8 then, I will deal with it.

9 With respect to some of the other
10 motions that are pending, because of the lateness 11 of today, and I'm still going to be hearing oral 12 arguments, what I am going to do is set a date 13 for August 22nd, that is a Tuesday, at 9:00 in 14 the morning.

15 And on that date, the Court will issue a 16 decision, or issue decisions, addressing the 17 issues of venue and the trial date, among other 18 things, but also, on most of the other motions 19 that have been heard, and that is, either heard 20 or for which briefs have been filed.

21 I understand that some of the motions
22 that were heard over the last couple days will be 23 dependent on the filing of written briefs and the 24 court reporter generating a transcript. So we 25 may not be in a position to deal with everything

1 on August 22, but certainly the venue and trial 2 date motions, and some of the other motions as 3 well.

4 With respect to the concerns raised by 5 the State just before we entered into the break, 6 Counsel, it's my understanding that defense 7 counsel has discussed more fully than even 8 before, with the defendant, his right to have 9 provided testimony at these motion hearings over 10 the last couple days, and that it's still the 11 defendant's decision, in consultation with 12 counsel, to elect not to testify. Mr. Strang, is 13 that correct?

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: We had -- Mr. Buting and 15 I had a meeting with Steven Avery in the Manitowoc 16 County Jail, during break. I'm going to guess, I 17 didn't time it, but I'm going to guess the meeting 18 was about 10 or 15 minutes long, something in that 19 neighborhood. It was a private meeting, law 20 enforcement was not in the room. We were within the 21 secure envelope in the jail.

22 And we -- we had a two-way discussion
23 about Mr. Avery's opportunity, if he chose, to 24 testify at the motions hearings, and his right to 25 maintain his silence as well, and choose not to

1 testify. Explained -- Mr. Buting and I explained 2 that these pretrial motions and their strategic 3 questions are at least predominantly issues 4 committed to a lawyer's judgment. And we 5 explained to him what our judgment was, and is, 6 on the presentation of evidence on those motions.

7 But this was a two-way discussion and 8 Mr. Avery, as always, is really a very, very 9 cooperative client, someone who's engaged in 10 discussions and cares about his case. And I
11 think he certainly treats us as if he respects us 12 as the two lawyers he chose to defend him in this 13 case.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Avery, do you concur with 15 that summary of your discussion, just placed on the 16 record, with Mr. Strang?

17 MR. AVERY: Yes.

18 THE COURT: You understand you have the 19 right, if you wanted to, to testify at these 20 hearings, but do I take it that you have made the 21 decision, in consultation with your attorneys, that 22 you elect not to testify at these hearings?

23 MR. AVERY: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Very well. The Court is 25 satisfied that the defendant has been adequately

1 informed by defense counsel of his right to testify 2 at these hearings and has made the decision, in 3 consultation with his attorney, not to testify.

4 With respect to the motions that the 5 Court has heard the last few days, first of all, 6 on the issue of the admissibility of the 7 statements made to the Marinette County Sheriff's 8 Department, it's my understanding that the 9 testimony that we have heard was fairly limited 10 on those, and that the court reporter expects to 11 get it out in short order, and the parties could 12 submit simultaneous written briefs by a week from 13 tomorrow.

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Both parties in agreement?

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's correct, Judge.
17 Although the record should reflect, that the 18 preference of the State was to argue it now. But 19 acknowledging the decision of the Court, we'll have 20 a brief for you the end of next week.

21 THE COURT: All right. The testimony taken 22 on the issue of the effective multiple executions of 23 the search warrant and the motion related to that, I
24 understand there is a good deal more testimony there 25 and the parties would like additional time in which

1 to brief that issue.

2 I have spoken to the court reporter, she 3 indicates she can have a transcript ready in 4 about three weeks. So I'm asking the parties at 5 this time, how much time would you like to submit 6 simultaneous briefs on that issue? So, 7 essentially, the transcript will be ready at 8 about the end of the month.

9 ATTORNEY BUTING: I could probably do it in 10 10 days after that.

11 THE COURT: Okay. How about 12 September 13th, it's a Wednesday?

13 ATTORNEY BUTING: Sure.

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: September 13th, I will 15 check my calendar, please. Right now, my written 16 calendar shows that that would be doable. I haven't 17 checked my computer calendar back at the office.
18 So, assuming I don't have anything else going on, I 19 think that's doable.

20 THE COURT: All right. We'll say briefs
21 due 9/13 on the multiple executions issue.

22 And the last matter is the Franks
23 motion. I will hear oral argument at this time 24 on that issue. Since there is an initial burden 25 there on the defense, I will hear from the 1 defense first.

2 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

3 Perhaps, before we -- before I argue that, though, 4 we did have some discussion off the record with 5 counsel for the State, that maybe crystallizes the 6 issue on standing a little bit better. I don't know 7 if you would like to state what your position is on 8 where Mr. Avery does or does not have standing?

9 ATTORNEY FALLON: The only thing I would 10 say is that the State hasn't challenged his 11 standing, or haven't contested his standing to 12 challenge a search of the house and the garage, and 13 the rest we're prepared to argue.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: Including the -- the burn 16 barrel and burn pit in the area of his house and 17 garage? That was something that wasn't clear to me.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: It was clear in our 19 pleadings. And, again, the arguments and 20 discussions are relative to this particular motion, 21 exclusively.

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: All right. Judge, as we 23 pointed out in the motion that we filed, the -- 24 although -- Let me talk about Franks first, and then 25 I will talk a little bit about standing. And in

1 order to complete my argument on Franks, I want to 2 play for the Court the second phone call that 3 Detective Remiker had with Investigator Wiegert on 4 the morning of November 5th, regarding the use of -- 5 or the discussion about whether there was an intent 6 to use volunteers to search the Avery property or 7 not. And if I could play that, briefly, and then I 8 will argue from there. I have set up -- I have my 9 copy in there, I could put the original in if you 10 like.

11 THE COURT: All right. And this was, if I
12 remember correctly, the part of Detective Remiker's 13 testimony where the jail had tapes, the attorneys 14 went over and listened to them, so there's no 15 question that this is the tape; both parties agree?

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: I believe so. I believe 17 so, depending on what we hear, if it is as 18 represented by counsel, yes, it's a conversation 19 between Detective Remiker and Investigator Wiegert.

20 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Buting.

21 ATTORNEY BUTING: There were two phone
22 calls, the first one is more lengthy. It is the 23 second one that is very brief and is more of issue 24 in this.

25 THE COURT: Is it set up for the second

1 one?

2 ATTORNEY BUTING: It is set up and ready
3 for the second one.

4 THE COURT: Very well.

5 (CD played, Exhibit 20.)

6 DETECTIVE REMIKER: Remiker.

7 INVESTIGATOR WIEGERT: Yeah. Is it 323 or 8 373?

9 DETECTIVE REMIKER: 323.

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: I can't remember fuckin' 11 reading.

12 DETECTIVE REMIKER: 32319 -- the year you 13 were born, 1929.

14 INVESTIGATOR WIEGERT: You got 'er. Hey, I 15 have a change of plans here.

16 DETECTIVE REMIKER: Okay.

17 INVESTIGATOR WIEGERT: The boss has got 18 something he wants us to do.

19 DETECTIVE REMIKER: Okay.

20 INVESTIGATOR WIEGERT: He wants us to go
21 back over and reinterview Avery and Zipperer, again.
22 And as long as the search party is out there, he 23 wants us to ask them if they would allow us to have 24 the search party come on their property and go 25 through the junkyard. The search party.

1 DETECTIVE REMIKER: Okay.

2 INVESTIGATOR WIEGERT: So, if it's okay

3 with you, we'll meet you over at your Sheriff's

4 Department.

5 DETECTIVE REMIKER: Okay.

6 INVESTIGATOR WIEGERT: Talk about it a

7 little bit, and if you're not too busy.

8 DETECTIVE REMIKER: Okay. Man, Zipperer is 9 not going to be real happy.

10 INVESTIGATOR WIEGERT: I'm sure he is not.

11 If he tells us no, he tells us no.

12 DETECTIVE REMIKER: All right.

13 INVESTIGATOR WIEGERT: Later.

14 DETECTIVE REMIKER: Okay.

15 INVESTIGATOR WIEGERT: If you don't mind.

16 DETECTIVE REMIKER: Yup, that's fine.

17 INVESTIGATOR WIEGERT: We'll stop over.

18 Okay. We'll probably be there, I would say, within 19 the hour.

20 DETECTIVE REMIKER: Okay. Give me a call

21 before you get here, I will meet you.

22 INVESTIGATOR WIEGERT: Will do.

23 DETECTIVE REMIKER: Okay.

24 INVESTIGATOR WIEGERT: Thanks.

25 DETECTIVE REMIKER: Bye.

ATTORNEY BUTING: That's it, Judge. And I told your court reporter beforehand, that it's a little hard sometimes for her to be able to take down what's being said in the CD like that, but I wouldn't have any objection to her listening to -- if she prepares a transcript on it, have her listening to the Court's exhibit, which is Exhibit No. -- I'm sorry -- 20, for accuracy on the transcription.

THE COURT: Okay.

ATTORNEY BUTING: The case of Franks vs. Delaware says that if an individual who applies for a search warrant, that is, the affiant, in this case, Investigator Wiegert, provides false information intentionally or with reckless disregard for the truth, and that information was necessary to establish probable cause, then the Fourth Amendment requires that a hearing be conducted.

If, at the hearing, it's proved that the false information was presented intentionally, or with reckless disregard for the truth, then what the Court does is set aside that portion of the affidavit and looks to the remainder of the affidavit, to see whether probable cause exists.

1 If, having struck that portion of the 2 affidavit, probable cause does not anymore exist, 3 then the warrant is -- the search must be voided, 4 the warrant is improper. It's our contention, in 5 the motion that we filed, that Investigator 6 Wiegert, either deliberately, intentionally, or 7 certainly with reckless disregard for the truth, 8 did just that.

9 In Paragraph 5 of the search warrant
10 affidavit, that's dated November 5th, 2005 -- 11 it's been made part of the record -- in 12 particular, Investigator Wiegert stated in that 13 affidavit, that officers had received 14 information, from volunteer searchers, that they 15 had located a vehicle matching the description of 16 the vehicle owned by Teresa Halbach.

17 That is the first statement that is -- 18 is inaccurate, that is incorrect. As I believe 19 also was made part of the record, the transcript 20 of the call from Pamela Sturm makes clear that 21 she did not say that the vehicle matched. In 22 fact, that she indicated that the vehicle color 23 did not appear to be correct, or did not appear 24 to be with the same that she had seen described 25 or had seen on the fliers that she was following.

1 And that it was, in fact, because of 2 that, and she hesitated to say that she thought 3 it was the matching vehicle because she wanted to 4 see the VIN number. And she was calling and 5 asking, do you know the VIN number.

6 Secondly, we also argued that the term 7 "volunteer searchers" was a bit of a stretch in 8 that we believe the officers used volunteers in 9 such a way, or citizens in such a way, as to 10 essentially make them part of a police search, by 11 trying to engage them in a Fourth Amendment 12 search.

13 Now, in that regard, the motion was 14 based upon statements made in the official 15 Manitowoc County Police -- Sheriff's Department's 16 report of this investigation, which I went over 17 with both Detective Remiker and Investigator 18 Wiegert. Investigator Wiegert denied making the 19 statement that was in Detective Remiker's report, 20 that Detective Remiker attributed to him, in 21 which stated, Wiegert indicated that several 22 searchers were willing to go to the Avery
23 property, on Avery road, to search the junkyard 24 and salvage area.

25 When I put the question to Investigator

1 Wiegert, he said that Detective Remiker just got 2 it wrong, I didn't say anything about that. I 3 think he said he didn't say anything about 4 volunteers coming to search the junkyard at all.
5 And here's where his credibility, in this court, 6 at this hearing, it is at issue. Because he 7 didn't know at the time, as neither did we when 8 he testified, that Manitowoc County had actually 9 recorded that phone conversation.

10 And I played that portion of it right
11 now, in which it's clear he did talk to Detective 12 Remiker about using these volunteer search party, 13 is what he calls it, to search the Avery
14 junkyard. And that if, in fact, he was using -- 15 using volunteers to conduct a search, that 16 obviously by that time, Mr. Avery was also a 17 person of interest at a minimum.

18 Using them to get consent to try and get 19 in and search, would be a way to get around 20 Mr. Avery's Fourth Amendment rights with regard 21 to privacy and expectations on the search of the 22 Avery family property, and that that was 23 recklessly, if not intentionally, misstated in 24 the affidavit, again, Paragraph 5 of the 25 affidavit.

1 The other part of that paragraph that is 2 completely wrong, or nearly completely wrong, 3 Detective Remiker himself acknowledged, he puts 4 in the affidavit that -- I mean Wiegert, that 5 Wiegert acknowledged he, in fact, put false 6 information, or incorrect information, in here, 7 because he says in his affidavit, that the 8 searchers provided the entire VIN number.

9 And when pressed on that in court he had 10 to admit that that's not true, in fact, only a 11 part -- a portion of that VIN number, about half, 12 10 of the 17 numbers, could be provided by the 13 volunteers, that they evidently were unable to 14 read the rest of it.

15 Now, the State will probably argue, oh,
16 that's just a semantics, that's just a mistake, 17 negligence at most, it's not any kind of reckless 18 disregard for the truth. But we have got to 19 think about the timing of this as well. Wiegert 20 talks to Pamela Sturm on the phone at about 21 10:30, 11:00 in the morning.

22 This is only a matter of a couple hours 23 later he's -- at most, he's preparing this 24 affidavit. It's facts are obviously fresh in his 25 mind. It's clear from the transcript that there

1 was an extensive discussion -- extensive
2 discussion with Pamela Sturm about how many 3 numbers she could read in the -- on the VIN.

4 And it's very clear, as you look at the 5 transcript of that 911 call, or whatever you want 6 to call it, that there's back and forth, can you 7 read this, well, I'm not sure about that number, 8 might be a T, might be a 1. Very clear that she 9 did not have the full VIN number.

10 And yet here, within a couple of hours 11 or so, he's saying, in this affidavit to the 12 Court, that the searchers not only found a 13 vehicle that matched the description, but that 14 had a VIN number, complete VIN number that 15 matched. And that's a very big difference in my 16 mind, and in the Court's mind, I'm sure it is.

17 Because if -- if you are trying to get 18 probable cause for a warrant, it's much, much 19 easier to do so if you mislead the Court and tell 20 them, hey, there's a vehicle that these searchers 21 found, and it matches the description that was 22 given for Teresa Halbach's vehicle. And not only 23 that, they checked the VIN number and it's 24 completely a match, all 17 numbers.

25 Very easy to get probable cause with

1 something like that. It's another matter if they 2 point out the truth, if Wiegert was to point out 3 the truth to the Court, which is that, well, we 4 only have a partial VIN number. And there is 5 some hesitation on the part of the caller, the 6 searcher, as to whether this really matches or 7 not.

8 And in cross-examination, I believe it
9 was, Attorney Fallon was having Investigator 10 Wiegert point out all these other facts that he 11 knew, such as whether the model matched, whether 12 there was a sticker on it from Le Mieux Toyota, 13 all these other facts, but the point is not what 14 he knew in his mind, the point is what he 15 provided to the independent reviewer, the Court.

16 And he does not say anything in this 17 affidavit about the model year, or any comments 18 that the -- Pamela Sturm said about that, or any 19 of his subsequent investigation about whether or 20 not there's -- there were other reasons to 21 believe that the vehicle might have matched.

22 He skipped over all that. He just 23 assumed for himself that he could call it a 24 match, and that he could tell the Court that 25 these volunteer searchers believed it to be a

1 match, rather than telling the full truth, which 2 was -- which is something very less than that.

3 If in fact, the information that's left 4 out, or not -- or deliberately not included, was 5 reckless, or reckless disregard for the truth,
6 then the first couple of sentences in Paragraph 5 7 would be struck, or stricken. The only other -- 8 Frankly, the only other part of that paragraph 9 that supplies probable cause is, Investigator
10 Remiker, once he got to the scene, it says 11 Investigator Remiker was able to confirm that the 12 VIN number, and then it lists all 17, is the 13 correct number for Teresa Halbach's Toyota RAV 4.

14 And then he talks about Investigator 15 Remiker's visual observation. And then here we 16 get to the point of whether or not Detective 17 Remiker was in a place where he can make -- 18 lawfully make those observations, such that they 19 could be considered by the Court, in the search 20 warrant. If not, then that has to be struck as 21 well, stricken from this affidavit.

22 And without Paragraph 5, there is not 23 probable cause. I can spend some time on that 24 later if there's really a dispute about it. But 25 there's not probable cause in this affidavit, if

1 you take Paragraph 5 out, plain and simple.

2 So the question then is, at this point
3 anyway, did Detective Remiker have a right to be 4 in the position that he was, to go up to the 5 vehicle and to read the VIN number on it? Was he 6 lawfully there? Were his observations lawful?
7 And that does involve questions of standing, as 8 to whether Mr. Avery might have a reason to have 9 an expectation of privacy, as well. So let me 10 address those two points.

11 First of all, the testimony said, or 12 established, that Detective Remiker did not have 13 consent from anybody on that property, at the 14 time that he came up to the RAV 4 and, I believe, 15 shined his flashlight on it, or whatever, in 16 order to try and read the VIN number.

17 And the testimony from Pamela Sturm was 18 that she had gotten consent, holding herself out 19 to be a volunteer, but not a police officer. And 20 so that consent would clearly not carry over to 21 the police as well.

22 There's also some testimony, that later, 23 Earl Avery supposedly gave consent to the 24 officers to be there, but that was, I think the 25 record was at 11:17. That was a good 5 or 10

1 minutes, or 15 minutes, I think, after Detective
2 Remiker arrived at the scene.

3 Earl Avery, when he testified, in fact,
4 denied that he ever gave consent. He said the 5 officers made him sit around for three hours, 6 never talked to him until then, they just had 7 their way with it.

8 I don't think that there can be any 9 serious argument that -- that there was -- that 10 that part of the property was simply open to 11 public access and that -- that none of the 12 Avery's would have any expectation of privacy in 13 that area, the southeast quarter quadrant of 14 their property.

15 Testimony was, from Earl Avery, he 16 marked on Exhibit 18, where the public is 17 generally allowed and not allowed, without 18 permission. And the custom and practice is that 19 they drive up to the front of the office, they 20 come in, and they say, do you have a part for 21 this or that year car, and then they are allowed 22 to go in, sometimes with supervision, sometimes 23 without, and go into the yard. But only with 24 permission that they -- I think Earl's words 25 were, absolutely not, is the public allowed to

1 just go in there without -- into the pit, or into 2 the junkyard area, without permission.

3 Other facts which indicate a reasonable 4 expectation of privacy were testified to today by 5 Lieutenant Sippel. He talked about how there's 6 fence lines around the property, on the north and 7 east -- I'm sorry -- north and east edge, yes.
8 And that there are berms, one of them very high, 9 on the east edge, and 15 feet or so, 10 to 10 15 feet on the south edge, which would clearly 11 indicate that someone is trying to demark that 12 property as separate and private from public 13 access.

14 So the question that the State, then,
15 has raised is whether or not, I assume this is 16 the essential argument, is whether or not 17 Mr. Avery himself had standing. It's conceded 18 that he had standing in his house, or trailer, 19 and that he had standing in his garage. But they 20 contest that he had standing anywhere else. And 21 presumably that includes the location where the 22 RAV 4 was found, the so-called burn pit and burn 23 barrel, located outside of his residence and 24 garage.

25 The State has -- had filed a brief, or a

1 memo, to the Court, the day before this motion
2 hearing started yesterday. And I did not have a
3 chance to file a written response. I apologize 4 for that, but it was not received until the very 5 day before this. But I did have a chance to 6 review some of their cases and some of my own.
7 And I have some cites, and some references, and 8 legal authority that I think run counter to their 9 arguments.

10 First of all, the case of Rakas vs.
11 Illinois, which is at 439 U.S., at page 139, I 12 believe it is. Makes clear that the Fourth
13 Amendment -- a claim -- a Fourth Amendment claim 14 does not depend on a property right. It is a 15 personal right. It's a right, an expectation of 16 privacy in the invaded place. Fourth Amendment
17 does not protect property. It protects people 18 from unreasonable searches and seizures.

19 No single factor is determinative on the 20 question of standing. That's also from Rakas, at 21 152. And State vs. Whitrock, which I believe is 22 also cited by the State, at 161 Wis. 2d, at page 23 974, says that the Court must take a totality of 24 the circumstance approach when determining the 25 questions of standing.

1 It is true, defendant does have the 2 burden of establishing, however, just by -- just 3 by a preponderance of the evidence, that he had a 4 reasonable expectation of privacy in the -- the 5 things searched. But Whitrock and Arizona vs.
6 Hicks, which is the cite, 480 U.S. 321, 1987, 7 make clear that a defendant does not need to show 8 an ownership interest in the place or thing to be 9 seized, and that the thing, in fact, seized need 10 not even be his own property.

11 In both Whitrock and Hicks, I believe 12 stolen property was involved. And in Hicks, the 13 Court found that there was a reasonable 14 expectation of privacy, even in the stolen stereo 15 equipment that was found inside of this 16 individual's house.

17 And in that case, the police, in order
18 to determine whether or not the item was stolen, 19 it was not obviously stolen when they went in 20 there, but they moved pieces around, and they 21 looked at serial numbers, and they recorded
22 those. And they went back later and determined 23 that the property appeared to have been stolen, 24 or was reported stolen.

25 And on that basis, they went back with a

1 warrant. And the Court stated, no, no, you can't 2 do that, that was improper. And that's akin to 3 Detective Remiker going onto this property, using 4 a flashlight, in order to read the VIN number on 5 this vehicle.

6 The case law also shows that people have 7 a reasonable expectation of privacy in a variety 8 of areas, a number of different settings. The 9 Trecroci case, I think it's misspelled in the 10 State's brief, but that's T-r-e-c-r-o-c-i. The 11 cite for that is 246 Wis. 2d, 261. It's a Court 12 of Appeals case from 19 -- I'm sorry -- from 13 2001.

14 That case actually does a fairly good 15 job of summarizing what some of the factors are 16 and what some of the various areas where standing 17 has been found, even when someone doesn't own the 18 property. And I point out that the State used 19 Mr. Earl Avery to try and establish that Steven 20 Avery did not have an ownership interest, or 21 portion of the property.

22 But that that really is irrelevant on 23 the question of standing here. The numerous 24 cases say you don't have to own the property to 25 have a reasonable expectation of privacy in it.

1 I will get into a little bit more of that in a
2 minute.

3 Even in a workplace, employees have a
4 reasonable expectation of privacy, O'Connor vs.
5 Ortega, 480 U.S. 709 at 717, 1981, I believe, or 6 '87. Overnight guests in a house have an 7 expectation of privacy, State vs. Whitrock, 8 again. Even commercial areas, in garbage, if 9 steps are taken to exclude the public, can't 10 have -- are areas that one can have an 11 expectation of -- reasonable expectation of 12 privacy in.

13 The Trecroci case, at page 282, sort of 14 lists, gives a helpful list of factors to 15 consider in determining whether someone has 16 standing in a particular place. And it's not 17 necessary that all of them be met, but they are 18 considered in part -- as part of the totality of 19 the circumstances.

20 The first is whether the person had a
21 proprietary interest in the premises. And here, 22 clearly, he had a proprietary interest in the 23 house and the garage. He did not have -- He was 24 not an owner of the Avery Salvage business but, 25 on the other hand, he worked there.

1 It's a family business. He lived on the 2 property. Earl talked about how he did -- Steven 3 Avery did all the things that Earl did, including 4 dismantling vehicles, driving out to pick up 5 junks and bring them back and forth. And so the 6 fact that it's a family business, I think, makes 7 that factor somewhat less critical.

8 Second factor is whether the person was 9 legitimately on the premises that are searched.
10 Clearly, Mr. Avery lived on the Avery compound so 11 to speak, or right next to it, and he worked on 12 the compound every day. So he clearly was 13 legitimately there.

14 Whether the person had complete dominion
15 and control, and the right to exclude others, 16 perhaps he didn't have as much of complete 17 dominion as he would as an owner, but 18 nevertheless, he worked there, he lived there, he 19 worked the car crusher right near the area where 20 this was found. He had full access to all of the 21 property as a family member, and as a person who 22 worked in the family business.

23 The next factor is whether the person 24 took precautions customarily taken by those 25 seeking privacy. I have covered that already.

1 But I think the berms, the fences, it's clear 2 that the property itself does have attributes to 3 indicate that there is a reasonable expectation 4 of privacy in that property.

5 Whether the person had put the property
6 to some private use, clearly they did. There's a 7 business in the front. There's a public office 8 in the upper right, or northeast corner of the 9 40-acre parcel, but the rest of it is private.
10 There's private residences, both to the north
11 edge and down the eastern edge, where Chuck Avery
12 lives. All the land belonged to the family.

13 And, finally, whether the claim of 14 privacy is consistent with historical notions of 15 privacy. This is a fluid concept because -- 16 that's probably changed over time -- but here, 17 people know, that if you enter someone's private 18 property, you must receive permission to do so.

19 Even the volunteer who testified, Pamela
20 Sturm, recognized that she had to get permission 21 from Earl Avery before she could go into any area 22 of the yard to do a search. So I think that 23 that's a factor that clearly indicates that there 24 is a historical and reasonable expectation of 25 privacy in that area.

1 Then, finally, there is the question of 2 the -- Well, let me just, before I turn to the 3 burn barrel and burn pit area.

4 If I make the first hurdle, if we pass
5 the first hurdle, and the Court finds that there 6 is sufficiently reckless or intentional 7 misstatements, falsehoods, in the affidavit, and 8 that, therefore, they are stricken, then the 9 Court, I think, sequentially, next, has to look 10 at the question of whether or not Detective 11 Remiker, therefore, was in a position where he 12 was not lawfully permitted to make the 13 observations -- the rest of the observations that 14 are included in Paragraph 5.

15 And if so, then there is no probable 16 cause for the warrant. The entire warrant is 17 void and the entire search is void, at least as 18 to that warrant. Later warrants were obtained 19 and we have to deal with those issues later, but 20 as to this warrant they would be void.

21 And that would also answer the question
22 as to any evidence found outside of Mr. Avery's 23 residence, such as the burn pit, or the burn 24 barrel, or whatever. We wouldn't even have to 25 get to the question of standing, because if the 1 warrant is void, it's void.

2 But as to the question of standing, it's 3 not clear to me just what position the State is 4 taking on this, but the testimony was, and the 5 exhibits show, that the burn barrel was right 6 outside the front residence, front area of the 7 trailer, and that the burn pit was behind the 8 detached garage.

9 So I don't know how they are going to 10 argue that he had a privacy interest in the house 11 and the garage, but not in those areas that are 12 close by. If that's their position, then they 13 will have to make it, but I don't see it. It's a 14 bit of a different argument, I think, when we get 15 to the far corner of the property, where the 16 vehicle is made. But as to those other areas, I 17 don't see any legitimate argument.

18 So, for those reasons, I think we have 19 established a reasonable expectation of privacy, 20 by a preponderance of the evidence. I think we 21 have established that there were material, 22 intentional or reckless disregard for the truth 23 in the affidavit. And I think we have 24 established, as well, that when those improper 25 falsehoods, or illegally obtained portions are

1 stricken from this warrant, there is no probable
2 cause left in the warrant. And so the search -- 3 any searches based on this November 5th warrant, 4 would have to be voided and any evidence
5 suppressed. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you, Judge. Well, 8 the defense argument is stunning for the facts which 9 were omitted during the presentation of their 10 argument. So, in an effort, let's first all start 11 with a couple of general principles and then we'll 12 go through the evidence which I understand was 13 presented during the last day and a half.

14 Counsel is correct, it is a totality of 15 the circumstances analysis, with respect to 16 determination of whether or not Mr. Avery has a 17 reasonable expectation of privacy, in the areas 18 searched, and in the items seized.

19 If there is no reasonable expectation of 20 privacy, in the areas searched, and the items 21 seized, there is, as it pertains to Mr. Avery, no 22 Fourth Amendment event. There is no search.
23 There is no basis for a hearing. And there is no 24 basis to request suppression.

25 Now, first and foremost, Counsel is

1 correct and does cite Rakas vs. Illinois, which 2 is a case that we clearly cite in our brief.
3 It's a critical case. And counsel is right, in 4 fact, it's one of the few things that I do agree
5 with, and that is the Fourth Amendment reasonable 6 expectation of privacy is not conditioned upon 7 the existence of a property right. We agree.
8 Quite frankly, that supports the State's argument
9 that there is no standing, no reasonable 10 expectation of privacy.

11 In determination of whether there is a 12 reasonable expectation of privacy, the burden is 13 on the defense, to establish by a preponderance 14 of the evidence, whether it is more likely than 15 not, whether it's somewhere over 50 percent. Is 16 it likely that this person has two things, 17 whether the individual has exhibited an actual,
18 subjective expectation of privacy in the area
19 inspected or searched, and in the items seized.

20 The second part of the question is, is 21 the expectation, is it one that society is 22 willing to recognize as reasonable, as a 23 reasonable expectation of privacy, under the 24 circumstances. There has been no evidence of an 25 actual, subjective expectation of privacy

1 produced by Mr. Avery.

2 We have references to berms and we have 3 references to fence lines. We have no reference 4 to the fact that the berms were created with that 5 intent, with that subjective expectation. We 6 have no evidence that there's actually a fence
7 that goes along the fence line.

8 We have no evidence that Mr. Avery took 9 any -- any reasonable steps to secure the salvage
10 yard, the location of where Teresa Halbach's 11 vehicle was found, the vehicle in which her 12 license plates were found. The burn barrel, 13 which I might add and point out to the Court on 14 Exhibit No. 18, is located up here, Mr. Avery's 15 residence is here. We have a burn pit, which is 16 behind a garage, and I will get to that in a
17 minute.

18 There has been no demonstration of an 19 actual, subjective expectation of privacy that 20 has been provided to this court. All we have is 21 a berm line, a fence line. We have a rather 22 isolated geographical piece of property. That 23 alone is insufficient to justify, or a 24 conclusion, first of all, that there's an actual, 25 subjective expectation of privacy.

1 And more importantly, or equally
2 important, I should say, there's been nothing 3 here that demonstrates that society is prepared
4 to accept that Steven Avery has a reasonable 5 expectation of privacy in the location of the 6 Toyota RAV 4 vehicle, found at the bottom of 7 Exhibit No. 18.

8 More importantly, there's been no
9 evidence whatsoever that suggests he has a 10 reasonable expectation of privacy about anything 11 in that vehicle. And while he may not have a 12 property right, we agree he has no property right 13 with respect to her vehicle. He has no property 14 right with respect to the blood found in the 15 vehicle, unless of course it's his blood.

16 But then, again, we don't have any 17 testimony saying that. We don't have any 18 evidence of the fact, introduced in this hearing, 19 of those facts, justifying a reasonable
20 expectation of privacy there.

21 He did not drive that vehicle. He did 22 not own that vehicle. As far as we know, the 23 only time he touched that vehicle was sometime 24 during the week of October 31st.

25 With respect to the contents of the burn

1 barrel, the location of the burn barrel, where's
2 the reasonable expectation of privacy? Anyone 3 would drive up and down that upper road there, 4 stop and look in that burn barrel. Burn barrel,
5 anything in the burn barrel is discarded
6 abandoned property. It's the quintessential act
7 of abandoned property. Burned stuff is in there.

8 What reasonable expectation of privacy
9 actual -- First of all, what subjective, actual 10 expectation of privacy did that man have in the 11 contents of this burn barrel? What expectation 12 of privacy did he have in the remains of the 13 camera, in the remains of the cell phone, in the 14 remains of other items collected there? It's not 15 only an expectation of privacy in the place, but 16 also in the things. And there's been no
17 evidence, no argument, nothing whatsoever.

18 The burn pit, located behind the garage,
19 what special -- what evidence do we have there 20 are any special expectation of privacy there?
21 Yes, okay, it's located behind the barn. Great, 22 do we have any demonstration? Do we have any 23 evidence that there was an actual, subjective 24 expectation of privacy created by Steven Avery in 25 the burn pit?

1 There's no evidence in the record, not
2 one iota, that he did anything special to secret 3 that area, to shield it from anywhere else, other 4 than it's geographical location. And, quite 5 frankly, that's not enough.

6 More to the point, what reasonable, or 7 what actual, subjective expectation of privacy 8 does he have in the contents of the pit. What 9 subjective, actual expectation of privacy does he 10 have in the remains of Teresa Halbach? I 11 certainly didn't hear any evidence suggesting 12 that he has such an expectation of privacy 13 relative to the contents of the burn pit either.

14 Now, let's further address some of the 15 case law cited by the defense. It's been a while 16 since I read Arizona Hicks -- vs. Hicks, but it 17 seems to me the principle that Counsel cites in 18 that is that individuals can't have an 19 expectation of privacy in stolen items. That's 20 true.

21 But the search in Hicks occurred in the 22 house of Mr. Hicks, if I remember, and it's been 23 some time, so there is an expectation in the 24 place, which then, of course, provided an 25 additional expectation of privacy in the items

1 within the place. Well, that's a far different 2 set of facts than we have here.

3 Then they cite O'Connor vs. Ortega.

4 Ownership is not -- Let's see, Ortega, if memory 5 serves me, that was a case involving a search of 6 an individual at his place of employment. As a 7 matter of fact, O'Connor vs. Ortega, I believe, 8 was an actual search of the person's private 9 office. Again, that's an entirely different set 10 of circumstances that we have in this particular 11 case.

12 Again, they cite the Whitrock case,
13 which I also cite for the principle, the general
14 principle in my brief, for another point.
15 Certainly guests can have an expectation of 16 privacy in someone else's home. We're certainly 17 not contesting that but, then again, it's the 18 place that's searched and how reasonable is their 19 expectations.

20 And it's not a carte blanche, just 21 because you have a guest, they always, forever, 22 have a reasonable expectation of privacy in, for 23 instance, your home. There are other factors 24 that the Courts look at, but it's not uncommon.
25 I don't see how that case has any particular

1 relevance, or the principles therein, have 2 application to this case, because the facts are 3 so unique and so different.

4 Next, it's pretty much conceded in their 5 argument, and in the testimony, that by and 6 large, the vast area contained in Exhibit No. 18, 7 here, is attributed to the auto salvage yard.
8 Well, the last time I looked, an auto salvage 9 yard was a commercial enterprise and business.

10 And while one may have, and I use the 11 word one because I will come back to that, one 12 may have a reasonable expectation of privacy in 13 commercial property, but it is less than a 14 reasonable expectation of privacy one would have 15 in a private dwelling. The best case for that is 16 New York vs. Burger, B-u-r-g-e-r, 482 U.S. 691, 17 page 700, 1987. And if memory serves me, Burger,
18 I think, involved a search to a auto salvage 19 yard.

20 Now, with respect to the challenge here,
21 we have no reasonable -- no actual, subjective 22 expectation of privacy, which has been 23 established in the defense presentation of 24 evidence, in this particular case. Not only is 25 there no actual, subjective expectation of

1 privacy in the areas that we have just talked 2 about, there's no one that society is willing or 3 prepared to accept as reasonable under the 4 circumstances of this case. Again, this is a
5 commercial piece of property, by and large. It 6 is a property which is held open to the public.

7 It's the State's position that Mr. Avery
8 doesn't have a basis to challenge the search 9 warrant except, and only limited to, the search 10 of his residence and the garage. Any property 11 located elsewhere, he did not have a reasonable 12 expectation of privacy in.

13 Particularly in addition, the argument
14 is, with respect to the burn area and the burn 15 pits, you have abandoned property, you have burn 16 property. And more importantly, relative to the 17 expectation of privacy, there is no evidence, 18 there is no testimony, that there were any steps 19 taken by Mr. Avery, evincing an actual, 20 subjective expectation of privacy, other than 21 their mere location. And, quite frankly, in or 22 near the curtilage, to borrow the old common law 23 term, is not enough.

24 All right. Moving on to the challenge
25 to the Franks motion. The State's primary

1 argument, and I'm going to begin with the 2 procedural argument, and then I will reach the 3 merits. The procedural argument is, first and 4 foremost, the defendant's pleading. Its motion, 5 affidavit, supporting documentation, we believe,
6 was insufficient to justify the Court's taking 7 the evidentiary testimony in the first place.

8 First, there must be a substantial
9 preliminary showing that there was a false 10 statement, knowingly and intentionally, or with 11 reckless disregard for the truth, was included in 12 the warrant and affidavit, and that that 13 statement is necessary to the finding of probable 14 cause. We agree.

15 Franks vs. Delaware is the seminal case 16 in this matter. It has been adopted and it's 17 reasoning applied in a couple of Wisconsin cases, 18 most notably State vs. Anderson. To make a 19 substantial preliminary showing there must be 20 allegations of deliberate falsehood or reckless 21 disregard. And those allegations may be -- must 22 be accompanied by an offer of proof.

23 When you look at the motion and 24 supporting documentation of the defense, they 25 raise conclusory allegations that there were

1 certain false statements made, but they don't 2 really show or demonstrate that there was any in 3 the pleadings, any intent on the part of the 4 affiant, in this case Investigator Wiegert, to 5 deliberately mislead and lie to the Court, in an 6 effort to obtain the warrant.

7 Their pleading is totally and completely 8 deficient. It is conclusory only. And I will 9 rely on the argument raised in my written brief
10 on that particular point. Again, a presumption 11 of validity attends to the affidavit.

12 In this case, there pleading fails to 13 establish that the key statement was false or 14 made with reckless disregard for the truth.
15 Defense hinges it's argument primarily on two 16 concepts, whether or not there were really 17 volunteers and this -- the manner in which the 18 vehicle identification number, commonly referred 19 to the VIN, was obtained. So let's take those 20 one at a time.

21 In their pleadings, they allege that 22 they weren't really volunteers. I believe I
23 specifically point pages, I think, it's 7 or 8, 24 or 8 and 9, where they raise the specter, that 25 there was this grand scheme to employee

1 volunteers to secretly invade the Avery compound
2 and conduct a search. At best, the pleadings 3 suggest that they might do something like that,
4 at best. In other words, might use the volunteer 5 searchers to help assist in a search.

6 This discussion, while there was a 7 meeting, that we were all going to meet at the 8 Manitowoc Sheriff's Department, that all, at 9 best, signifies an intent to have something
10 happen in the future. It doesn't exist -- 11 doesn't establish the existence of any kind of 12 working relationship, or to take the legal phrase
13 now, an agency relationship, or a joint venture 14 relationship, with law enforcement, at the time
15 of Pamela Sturm's entry to that property.

16 At best, it's a -- suggests that maybe 17 at some point we will utilize these searchers to 18 assist us in the search. As it turned out, we 19 know from Mr. Hillegas, that several days later 20 he did assist in that capacity. But the 21 pleadings don't tell us that such -- or suggest 22 that such an agency existed at the time of entry.

23 There's no other evidence to suggest 24 that Pamela Sturm, in the affidavit, was working 25 at the behest, or for, law enforcement. There's

1 no evidence anywhere in the affidavit that 2 suggests that such an agency relationship 3 existed, or was established, prior to gaining 4 entry on the morning of November 5th. So their 5 pleading is deficient.

6 Secondly, with respect to the VIN
7 number, they say that there was a lie regarding 8 this whole concept of matching, primarily hinging
9 its argument on whether the -- Pamela Sturm found 10 all of the VIN characters upon her examination of 11 the vehicle. Well, regardless of whether she did 12 or she didn't, it is irrelevant.

13 Detective Remiker did have the 14 opportunity to examine the vehicle, did have the 15 opportunity to find all 17 characters. And that 16 was hours before the warrant and affidavit were 17 prepared and submitted to a judicial officer for 18 review and signature.

19 Again, with respect to the pleadings,
20 we'll come back on the technical argument and 21 make this point. I think if you were to remove 22 the discussion of the VIN number entirely from 23 Paragraph 5, the affidavit prepared by 24 Investigator Wiegert states probable cause, 25 easily.

1 We know at the time of the affidavit,
2 and the Court has the affidavit, I believe it's 3 marked as Exhibit 15, if memory serves me. Yes,
4 Exhibit 15.

5 We know that in Paragraph 2 of this 6 particular case, that a missing person Complaint 7 was filed with the Calumet County Sheriff's 8 Department, by Karen Halbach. We know that her 9 daughter had not been seen or heard from since 10 Monday, October 31st, 2005, and that it was 11 unusual for her not to have contact with family 12 friends or work people. We know further, from 13 that paragraph, that she was driving a 1999
14 Toyota RAV 4, dark blue in color.

15 We also know that on November 4th, we 16 have Mr. Avery informing the investigators, I
17 believe Investigator Remiker, that Teresa Halbach
18 was in fact on his property. He did see her on 19 October 31st, 2005, that she was there to take 20 photographs of the vehicle he was selling.

21 We also know, taking out the concern
22 regarding the obtaining of the VIN number, that 23 Pamela Sturm found a Toyota RAV 4, on the 24 property, on November 5th. That's less than five 25 days, a few hours less than five days after she

1 was last seen on the property.

2 The interesting thing about the Toyota
3 RAV 4, as she described it, the affidavit says it 4 was dark blue in color. She finds a RAV 4. The 5 RAV 4 that she finds, her attention is drawn to.
6 It is not an unfair inference to draw that it has 7 some similar appearance to the RAV 4 of Teresa 8 Halbach's.

9 But what really makes this case rather 10 interesting is the fact that, of all the vehicles
11 there, we have a RAV 4 which is secreted by brush 12 and other automobile parts, less than -- again, 13 less than five days after she was last seen and 14 known to be driving that vehicle. That in and 15 off itself is probable cause to justify a search 16 warrant, the issuance of a search warrant in this 17 particular case.

18 Now, additionally, let's assume for the 19 sake of argument that -- we don't have to assume, 20 but we will for purposes of the procedural 21 argument -- that Pamela Sturm was only able to 22 read four of the characters, not 10. But let's 23 say it was just four, let's just say it was the 24 last 4, 3044.

25 What are the odds, what are the

1 probabilities, that it is, in fact, Teresa
2 Halbach's vehicle, when you consider all those 3 facts. Easily meets probable cause. At 10
4 digits, does that make it closer? Ten digits, 5 we're at -- we're preponderance of the evidence.

6 All right. Now, to the merits of the 7 argument, and to the testimony that was 8 delivered. The testimony establishes, I think 9 critical testimony was provided by Pamela Sturm 10 and Ryan Hillegas.

11 With respect to Pamela Sturm, she 12 testified that she had no contact whatsoever with 13 any member of law enforcement regarding the 14 decision to participate in the volunteer search 15 program and, more importantly, in the decision to 16 go to the Avery property and look for Teresa 17 Halbach's vehicle. As she indicated, and was 18 confirmed by Ryan Hillegas, it was her idea.

19 No one told her anything. No one 20 suggested anything. In fact, she hadn't even 21 been given any instructions by Mr. Hillegas as to 22 what to do and how to do it. He gave her a very 23 generalized map of the area. And she and her 24 daughter, Nikole, went on their way and took the 25 initiative and decided they would go there.

1 Because, at least she knew in her mind,
2 from the media newscast, the last place Teresa
3 Halbach was seen, that anyone knew at that time, 4 was the Avery property. It was her decision to 5 go there, without any association with law 6 enforcement whatsoever. That was confirmed by 7 Ryan Hillegas.

8 The entire volunteer search effort, 9 especially in those early days, that being 10 Thursday night, Friday when the posters were 11 picked up, Friday afternoon when the posters and 12 information were distributed, was entirely his 13 workings, along with his friend, and Teresa 14 Halbach's roommate, Scott Bloedorn. They were in 15 charge of the volunteer efforts.

16 There's no testimony they took any 17 organization, any direction, any control, any 18 supervision, or any advice, for that matter, from 19 law enforcement, other than, perhaps -- and the 20 record is thin on this -- if you find something, 21 call us, here are the phone numbers. Hardly 22 evidence indicating, or establishing, the 23 existence of an agency relationship, or a joint 24 venture relationship.

25 In fact, as I recall the testimony of

1 Ryan Hillegas, it wasn't until later on Friday 2 that they decided that he would have a meeting at 3 the residence of Teresa Halbach and Scott 4 Bloedorn's, the next morning, and perhaps do some 5 searches.

6 And when questioned about the scope, or 7 purpose, or focus of these searches, he indicated 8 that they were searching the roads, the ditch 9 lines, the general fields, in the area from 10 Manitowoc to Mishicot, to the area where -- the 11 apartment where Teresa Halbach lived.

12 Their assumption was the fact that she 13 perhaps had some automobile accident. That was 14 their focus. They weren't looking to search 15 private premises or private property, per se, 16 other than something that might be associated 17 with an open field. That was the focus.

18 There was no law enforcement involvement
19 in that. And as indicated, Pamela Sturm and her 20 daughter, Nikole, show up a good hour after 21 everyone else has been dispatched. Again, the 22 decision to go there was entirely theirs.

23 The tape played by counsel is rather 24 interesting, but there's a couple of ways to look 25 at that. But more importantly, it supports the 1 argument made relative to the procedural point, 2 and that is, at best, it signifies that, well, 3 we're going to have the searchers, maybe we can 4 use those searchers do something later.

5 We want to go back. We want to get a
6 reinterview of Mr. Avery, want to get a 7 reinterview of Mr. Zipperer, and we're going to 8 ask for consent. We can get the searchers to 9 help us with a search. Again, doesn't signify 10 any agency existed, doesn't signify any joint 11 venture existed at that time.

12 At best, it signals that perhaps one
13 would occur in the future. It certainly doesn't 14 suggest, and it doesn't even come close to 15 suggesting, that there was an error, a lie, or an 16 omission, relative to just who these searchers 17 were and what they were up to.

18 Now, with respect to that, I would like 19 to direct the Court to the case of State vs.
20 Anderson, as an example of what would constitute 21 an error, a lie, or omission. Anderson was a 22 case that came out of Kenosha County regarding 23 the execution of a search warrant for narcotics 24 at a particular residence there.

25 In that case, the defense challenged the

1 search warrant on a Franks motion, alleging that 2 there were two lies, or reckless disregards for 3 the truth that occurred, in the presentation of 4 the affidavit.

5 One was a statement by the undercover --
6 or by the officer, the affiant, who said, Well, I
7 have reason to believe that the informant we use 8 here is reliable because we made two prior 9 purchases with that individual and they 10 demonstrated their reliability. Defense
11 challenged that as a reckless statement, 12 insufficient to justify credibility, reliance by 13 the Court on that.

14 Secondly, they challenged the statements
15 when the undercover officer said, Well, I saw the 16 ve -- I saw the informant go to and from the 17 residence of the defendant, return to and come 18 from the residence of the defendant. It turns 19 out that, actually, the investigator did lose 20 sight of the informant for a moment or two, and 21 never actually saw them enter the house and exit 22 the house, but it was a matter of moments.

23 The Court likewise determined, under 24 those type of facts, that those were not lies, 25 they were not reckless disregards to the truth,

1 they were reasonable inferences drawn from the 2 circumstances which were presented in the court.

3 And, again, under those circumstances,
4 and taking by analogy what's occurred here, there 5 is no unfair, unreasonable inference drawn from 6 the contents of this affidavit. And if those 7 statements, under those circumstances, were found 8 to be supportive of the issuance of the warrant 9 in that particular case, then certainly anything 10 that occurred in the affidavit here, meet legal 11 sufficiency.

12 The other thing which the Anderson case
13 notes, and I would again point out, in footnote
14 seven of Anderson --

15 THE COURT: What's the citation?

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, 138, Wis. 2d, page 17 451, specifically, page 464. The Anderson cite is 18 in my brief. Footnote seven, the Court noted that 19 they were, quote, "We are unconvinced that a hearing 20 was providently granted in that case."

21 The Anderson case is also significant 22 for another reason, which was discounted by the 23 defense, and so we take issue with that. And 24 that is, the defense says that what information 25 was contained in Investigator Wiegert's mind, in

1 other words, what information he had available to 2 him at the time he applied for the warrant, which 3 may or may not have found it's way into the 4 affidavit, was irrelevant.

5 Well, quite frankly, nothing could be 6 further from the truth. Because as Rakas vs.
7 Illinois, as Franks v. Delaware, and as State vs.
8 Anderson tell us -- specifically, I should say as 9 Franks v. Delaware, not Rakas -- as Franks v.
10 Delaware, and the Anderson case tell us, it says, 11 Because the defendant must show either intent or 12 reckless disregard, a Franks hearing, by 13 necessity, focuses on the state of mind of the 14 affiant.

15 So what Investigator Wiegert knew and 16 when he knew it, was important. That was the 17 basis for the testimony. He knew that they had 18 found a Toyota RAV 4. He knew from the telephone 19 conversations that it was a late model. In fact, 20 the Court can consult Exhibit 16 regarding that.

21 As a matter of fact, Exhibit No. 6 -- 22 I'm sorry -- Exhibit 16 was the recording, so 23 either one, Exhibit 16, but Exhibit 17 is the 24 written transcription. Looking at page 62
25 question by Detective Wiegert:

1 Question: Does it look like a newer
2 one?

3 Caller: Yeah, it's the '99 to 2000.

4 Wiegert: Is there any --

5 Caller: It's more of a bluish-green, 6 though, that's why we don't want to put, you
7 know --

8 Question: Is there any license plates
9 on it?

10 Caller: No plates on it, but it's a 11 little covered up. It's weird, it's covered up.

12 There's also much discussion as to 13 whether it was dark blue, blue, bluish-green.
14 And the Court can consult the transcript on the 15 tape, but she says it's more blue than green.

16 During the course of that trip from 17 Calumet County, to Manitowoc County, to the 18 property itself, Investigator Wiegert knew that 19 there was a Le Mieux sticker, dealer sticker, on 20 Teresa's vehicle, and then confirmed with Ms
21 Sturm that the vehicle she found, likewise, had a 22 sticker. They knew some of the VIN numbers, upon 23 arrival they got the rest of the VIN numbers.

24 All of that information goes to the 25 state of mind. So when the officer uses the word

1 matching, that's what's in his mind. And 2 matching, by the way, doesn't have to be a hyper 3 technical term, as counsel would like to suggest 4 it is.

5 And perhaps in purposes of DNA analysis,
6 matching means hyper technical, dot your eyes,
7 cross your t's, perfect fit. But in every day
8 parlance, matching means matching. It looks like 9 it, it is, it's similar to, etcetera.

10 Again, and that becomes relevant,
11 because the whole purpose of the Fourth Amendment 12 search and seizure law, the whole determination 13 of probable cause is that it -- it's not a hyper 14 technical determination. It's based on reason.
15 It's based on common sense. It's based on 16 inferences. It's based on reasonable
17 possibilities and probabilities that the item 18 looked for will be found in the place searched.

19 Now, also did want to respond to some 20 concerns, because yes, first and foremost, Pamela 21 Sturm did have consent. I don't think that's 22 questioned. She had consent to enter the 23 property. She told us so. And Mr. Earl Avery, 24 likewise, confirmed that he allowed her in.

25 As a matter of fact, his words when

1 questioned about that, words to the effect:
2 Well, he was concerned. He wanted to help out.
3 He wanted to do what he could. And when I asked,
4 Well, if it was your sister, you would want
5 somebody to be willing to help out and let you 6 take a look around, and I believe his answer was 7 yes. So there's no question that Pamela Sturm 8 rightfully had a way to get on there.

9 Again, it is a commercial property.
10 Again, this occurred in the morning, when the 11 property, the salvage yard where the vehicle was 12 located, was in business. It was during business 13 hours, 8 to noon. They were there at 11.

14 So it's a property held open to the 15 public. There were other members of the public 16 milling about, through that yard. In fact, the 17 phone call, Exhibit 16 and 17, which the Court 18 is, again, free to peruse, indicates there was 19 observations of other individuals floating around 20 at the time the vehicle was found.

21 In fact, Ms Sturm was somewhat 22 concerned, because she didn't know who they were, 23 or what they were up to. And she had a pretty 24 good feeling that she had found the vehicle.
25 Otherwise, I don't think she would have been all

1 that concerned.

2 But not knowing who is there, what's 3 going on, I think the fact of her heightened
4 sensitivity, is further evidence. Also, a fact
5 in the mind of Investigator Wiegert and Sheriff 6 Pagel, that there was something to the finding of 7 that vehicle, that it was the vehicle everyone 8 was looking for.

9 Next, the defense would have us to 10 believe that, there is no basis for law
11 enforcement to even come in there. Well, excuse 12 me, but you have a situation where you have the 13 vehicle of the missing person, found in the 14 corner of a business piece of property. Law 15 enforcement had every right to go in there and 16 assist in, one, securing the vehicle, you have 17 exigent circumstances here.

18 It's interesting to note that, as was 19 pointed out in the testimony, the vehicle is 20 reasonably close to the car crusher. The vehicle 21 is also secreted from view. It is a vehicle, as 22 Mr. Avery told us, he didn't even know it was 23 there two or three days earlier.

24 So all of these factors come into the 25 equation as to the reasonableness -- and that's

1 the linchpin of Fourth Amendment analysis, the 2 reasonableness of law enforcement behavior upon 3 arrival at the scene. They went there. They 4 secured the vehicle. Took care of the safety of 5 Pamela Sturm and her daughter, Nikole.

6 Now, even if the defense wanted to make 7 the argument, I saw -- I heard inklings of it, 8 that there were somehow some kind of trespass 9 here, by law enforcement. Well, the reality is, 10 that doesn't matter. We don't believe there was.

11 But even if the Court were somewhat 12 concerned, I would ask the Court to direct, and 13 perhaps consider, the case of United States vs.
14 Oliver, Supreme Court case at 466 U.S. 170.
15 Oliver is not particularly noteworthy for the 16 Court's analysis, except with respect to one 17 point. And -- And that deals with the law of 18 trespass and it's possible application in Fourth 19 Amendment determination.

20 The law of trespass, this is page 183.
21 Law of trespass, however, forbids intrusions upon 22 land that the Fourth Amendment would not 23 prescribe. For trespass law extends to instances 24 where the exercise of the right to exclude 25 vindicates no legitimate privacy interest.

1 And then they go on to say -- there is a 2 footnote, which I will get to in a minute -- they 3 go on to say, less in the case of open fields, 4 the general rights of property protected by 5 common law trespass, have little or no relevance
6 to the applicability of the Fourth Amendment.
7 Well, by analogy, we're in a salvage yard here, 8 and whose expectation of privacy are we concerned 9 with, Earl and Charles Avery, or is it Steven 10 Avery.

11 With respect to trespass, the Court went 12 on in the footnote, the law of trespass 13 recognizes the interest, and possession, and 14 control of one's property, and for that reason, 15 permits exclusion of unwanted intruders. But it 16 does not follow the right to exclude conferred by 17 trespass law, embodies a privacy interest also 18 protected by the Fourth Amendment.

19 To the contrary, the common law of 20 trespass furthers a range of interest that have 21 nothing to do with privacy and that would not be 22 served by applying the strictures of trespass law 23 to public officers. And the footnote goes on.

24 In examining the totality of the 25 circumstances here, taking all of the evidence

1 that the Court has taken in, over the course of 2 the last day and a half, there is no basis, 3 whatsoever, under the Fourth Amendment law, to 4 suppress any of the evidence. One, there is no 5 standing, by Mr. Avery, to challenge any of the 6 searches, other than the search of his trailer 7 and his residence, although he attempts to do so.
8 And he attempts to do so on the basis of a Franks
9 challenge.

10 Again, there was no basis to hold a 11 hearing and, clearly, based on the testimony
12 which was established by all of the witnesses 13 here, there was certainly probable cause to 14 justify the search warrant and conduct the search 15 that law enforcement conducted. There is no 16 material omission, or material lie, affecting the 17 establishment of probable cause in this 18 particular case. As a result, this Court is duty 19 bound to deny the request and we ask the Court to 20 do so. Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Buting, brief rebuttal?

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes, Judge, I will try to 23 be brief because I know it's getting late here.
24 The -- A couple things are not -- a lot of things 25 are not clear about what position the State is

1 really taking here. It seems to say that, because 2 Mr. Avery has no personal privacy interest in, for 3 instance, the remains of Teresa, he can't have any 4 standing.

5 That's totally irrelevant. The Court's 6 have made it clear that would also be true as to 7 stolen property, as in Hicks. One has no 8 expectation, or no personal interest in that 9 stolen property, you shouldn't even have it in 10 your house, but the Court said that's not the 11 issue. Ownership is really irrelevant when it 12 comes to standing.

13 So -- And that applies also to -- he 14 said it a couple times, I think he also mentioned 15 it when he was talking about the vehicle, he 16 didn't drive it, he didn't own it, etcetera, 17 etcetera. Again, that doesn't matter. The issue 18 is, is there an expectation of privacy. And, 19 frankly, if -- One factor that he ignored is, in 20 determining whether someone has an expectation of 21 privacy, if the State is going to argue that 22 there was some effort to conceal it, that would 23 seem to even more indicate that there was an 24 expectation of privacy, if it was not out in the 25 open.

1 The reference to the burn barrel somehow
2 being, and the burn pit somehow being, like 3 abandoned, and somehow no expectation of privacy, 4 absolutely, I totally disagree with. First of 5 all, it's not like garbage, even garbage you have 6 an expectation of privacy in until -- as long as 7 it's by your curtilage, until it is picked up, as 8 people often retrieve things from garbage.

9 This is entirely different. When you
10 burn, a burn barrel, expectation is it's not 11 being picked up. It's not ever going to go to 12 someone else. The contents of the burn
13 barrel are, it's going to be entirely burned up.
14 That's the point of it.

15 Moreover, the location of it, as we have 16 seen numerous times through these descriptions, 17 is it's probably a good half a mile, you have to 18 get off the highway and drive a half a mile down, 19 to the driveway that goes over to Mr. Avery, and 20 then back over to his property, going all the way 21 around this big parcel of --

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm going to object. I
23 don't believe there's any evidence that's a half 24 mile ride from one point to the other. I don't 25 recall any evidence of that being introduced.

1 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, whether it's 2 exactly a half mile, it's clearly a long way off the 3 highway. Would Mr. -- Suppose this analogy, would 4 Mr. Fallon say, that if you have a clothes line 5 hanging over the area where that burn pit is, with 6 your clothes on it, that any individual from the 7 public, or law enforcement, could drive down highway
8 147, turn right on Avery Road, and then drive around 9 the corner, take a left, go all the way over to the 10 Steven Avery residence, park, get out, walk around 11 to the back of it, and start going through your 12 clothes? Of course not. The location of that is 13 obviously not open to the public and there's clearly 14 an expectation of privacy.

15 By the same token, would he expect that 16 somebody would be allowed to drive off of Highway 17 147, down the road, turn left, go all the way 18 down the driveway and start sticking their nose
19 in the burn barrel? No, I don't think so. I 20 think the location clearly indicates an 21 expectation of privacy. And it's not like 22 garbage, because there's no expectation it's 23 going to be picked up by anybody.

24 The reference to commercial business, as 25 I want to mention for just one second, O'Connor

1 vs. Ortega, I think, did deal with a private 2 office and it was in a hospital, I think. But 3 the comparison of this, what I cited it for is to 4 point out that even -- there's even an 5 expectation of privacy in a commercial setting, 6 not just a private setting.

7 But, this is not strictly what you would 8 classify as an employment, or employee, employer
9 type of case, because this is a family run 10 business. It's not like Mr. Avery is just an 11 employee of GE or something, who has his own 12 private office and expectation in there, but 13 everything else in the big plant is not. This is 14 different. This is a small, family run business 15 where he is not just an employee, he's a member 16 of the family working there and living there.

17 And there is one other case that I would 18 cite to the Court on that point, and that's State
19 vs. Schwegler, S-c-h-w-e-g-l-e-r, 170 Wis. 2d, 20 487, 1992 case, which was a horse barn, again, it 21 was a commercial business. But where the horse 22 barn, and there was an inspection done, that the 23 Court ultimately found, the owner of that 24 business, even though it was a commercial 25 business, had an expectation of privacy in the 1 barn and the warrantless inspection was unlawful.

2 One last point on the question of 3 proximity and, used to be called curtilage, and 4 that sort of thing. Again, like in all Fourth 5 Amendment law, it is very fact intensive, the 6 Courts recognize the difference between a very 7 large property and a small one.

8 In State vs. Martwick, M-a-r-t-w-i-c-k,
9 that's 231, Wis. 2d, 801, I don't have the year,
10 I don't think, but it's at page 819. The Court
11 notes, On a smaller property, such as Martwick's 12 property, the curtilage may very well extend for 13 less distance than on a larger property, where 14 the owner has more room to conduct his or her, 15 quote, "intimate activities of life", citing a 16 U.S. Supreme Court case.

17 And they also -- In this case, they 18 found that it wasn't, but they also note in State 19 vs. O'Brien, which is at 223 Wis. 2d, 303, at 20 page 316, a 1999 Wisconsin Supreme Court case, 21 the Supreme Court found that a truck parked 22 approximately 200 feet from a farmhouse was 23 nonetheless within the curtilage. So, when one 24 is talking about a large, open, farm type, or 25 parcel like we have here, the whole concept of 1 curtilage is different than if you are talking 2 about a little city house.

3 Now, as to the question of probable 4 cause, and whether the State argues that even if 5 you take -- you strike certain parts from the 6 Paragraph 5 of the affidavit, there's still 7 sufficient probable cause. And one of the points 8 that he made is, he argues, Well, the rest of the 9 affidavit says, she's been missing since October 10 31st; they spoke to Mr. Avery, he conceded that 11 he did see her on October 31st; and that, then, 12 Sturm, the volunteer searcher, citizen searcher, 13 found a Toyota RAV 4 on the property, and as if 14 that alone, I think he says, would be probable 15 cause.

16 But -- And maybe in some settings it
17 would be, if this was a farm, with no other 18 vehicles, and you happen to have -- or maybe just 19 one or two vehicles, and you happen to find a 20 Toyota RAV 4. Well, perhaps that is probable 21 cause, probably would be.

22 This is a auto junkyard. There's 4,000
23 cars on there. So the mere existence of a Toyota 24 RAV 4 would not be unusual, and would not be so 25 significant that, in and of itself, absent any

1 other descriptions that match, that there would 2 be probable cause.

3 Now, I would concede, so there is no -- 4 we don't waste anymore time on this, that in our 5 pleadings, we believe the evidence would indicate 6 that there was an agency type relationship 7 between these searchers, these citizens, and the 8 police, and that they were conducting -- using 9 them as an end around. And I will concede that 10 the way the evidence came out on this record, we 11 haven't established that.

12 Patricia (sic) Sturm and Ryan Hillegas, 13 whether truthful or not, clearly the record from 14 them is that they did not have any contact with 15 law enforcement. They weren't organized, 16 encouraged, or whatever.

17 My point in playing that segment of -- 18 or that brief phone conversation today, of 19 Investigator Wiegert, was not to try and show 20 that his reference to volunteers proves that he 21 was using them for that, but it goes to his 22 credibility on the other matters that he's 23 testified to, because he swore under oath that he 24 did not say anything to Remiker on the phone 25 about using, or intending to use volunteers, to 1 search the Avery property.

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm going to object,
3 that's a mischaracterization of his testimony.

4 ATTORNEY BUTING: Obviously it's --

5 THE COURT: His testimony will speak for 6 itself, I will take a look at the transcript.

7 ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay. So, yes, but 8 conceding that that -- that one part of Paragraph 5 9 we have not established our burden on, says nothing 10 about the rest of it, though. Granted, okay, so 11 they are volunteer searchers, according to this 12 record. But, Wiegert also says that the volunteer 13 searcher said they had a matching -- a vehicle 14 matching the description, and we know that that's 15 not true.

16 The reference in Franks and Anderson
17 that the State makes, to the state of mind of the 18 affiant being important, he totally 19 misunderstands, or he's taking it out of context.
20 What the Court is talking about is, sure, the 21 state of mind of the affiant is important, 22 because it's important as to the intent or 23 recklessness element, of the test.

24 It's not relevant what the affiant has 25 in his mind that he doesn't present to the Court.

1 Otherwise, why would we have search warrants in 2 the first place, if all that it needed was that 3 the officer, in his own mind, is convinced that 4 he's got enough evidence, but he feels like he 5 doesn't have to even tell the Court.

6 That's preposterous. That's turning on 7 its end, the whole process of requiring an 8 independent evaluation by a magistrate, not 9 allowing officers themselves to accumulate facts 10 or beliefs and come to some conclusion on their 11 own. Those facts and beliefs need to be 12 presented to the Court. It's not enough that he, 13 in his own mind, thought, oh, well, this is 14 enough for a match. He should tell the Court 15 what it is that makes him think that. And he 16 didn't do that.

17 Just two other quick points. One, yes, 18 this is a property open for business, and yes, 19 there are other people wandering around there at 20 the time. But all of them had permission. It's 21 clear, that the custom and practice was that 22 people don't go into that salvage yard, into the 23 pit, and start looking at cars, without -- that 24 is customers -- without permission from the 25 owners first. And that's what Patricia (sic)

1 Sturm did, that's not what Detective Remiker did.

2 It's not a question of trying to apply
3 trespass law, specifically, which is the Oliver
4 case. It's a question of, under the Fourth
5 Amendment, whether Detective Remiker had a lawful 6 purpose in being where he was and observing what 7 he saw.

8 Even if there is some exigent
9 circumstances to allow him to come down to the 10 property and to, quote, "secure the vehicle", he 11 did much more than that. And that's the point, 12 he didn't just come down here, secure the 13 vehicle, talk to the Sturms, then go get a 14 warrant, which is what he should have done.

15 He did more. He searched the vehicle, 16 because he went up to it with a flashlight and he 17 looked in and he used illumination to allow him 18 to see other evidence related to the car,
19 particularly the VIN. That's what happened.

20 It's analogous to what happened in 21 Hicks, where they recorded the serial numbers.
22 They moved them, the speakers or stereo 23 components, recorded the serial numbers. And 24 that was considered a search that was unlawful.

25 So, for all those reasons, I think the should be granted. Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. Given your arguments, and my need to look at the transcript, I'm not sure I will have a decision for you on this issue on the 22nd, but we certainly will have some.
And I will see you then. Is there anything else from either party?

ATTORNEY KRATZ: No.

ATTORNEY STRANG: No, your Honor. Thank
you.

THE COURT: If not, we're adjourned for

TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS

Reported by Diane Tesheneck, RPR
Official Court Reporter

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery, Case No. 05 CF
3 381. Will the parties present state their 4 appearances for the record, please.

5 ATTORNEY KRATZ: State of Wisconsin appears
6 by Calumet County District Attorney Ken Kratz, 7 appearing as Special Prosecutor. Also appearing as 8 Special Prosecutor is Tom Fallon, from the 9 Department of Justice.

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: Steven Avery is here in 11 person and he's represented by Jerry Buting of 12 Buting and Williams. And Dean Strang of Hurley, 13 Burish and Stanton. Good morning.

14 THE COURT: All right. We're here this 15 morning for the Court to issue its decision on a 16 number of motions that have been filed. Following 17 the decisions on those motions, the Court will take 18 a summary of the motions that are still outstanding, 19 just to make sure that they are all being dealt 20 with.

21 Court will first issue its decision on 22 the defendant's motion to dismiss on the grounds
23 that the State has made a trial in Manitowoc 24 County impossible. The basis for this motion is 25 alleged that the State has taken actions to make

1 a fair trial in Manitowoc County impossible.

2 Specifically, the defendant refers to 3 eight press conferences that were conducted 4 primarily by the Calumet County District Attorney
5 and Sheriff. Four of these press conferences 6 occurred after the defendant's arrest in this 7 case. The defendant also cites comments made in 8 a two-part news story in May of this year by the 9 Manitowoc County Sheriff.

10 The defendant asserts that his 11 constitutional rights under Article 1, Section 7
12 of the Wisconsin Constitution, as well as his due 13 process rights under the 14th amendment to the 14 United States Constitution, and Article 1, 15 Section 8 of the Wisconsin Constitution were 16 violated by the State's participation in pretrial 17 publicity.

18 The defense brief concludes on Page 11,
19 that, taken together, the State's actions
20 effectively have destroyed Avery's opportunity to 21 obtain an impartial jury in Manitowoc County.
22 That is, the basis for requesting dismissal as a 23 sanction is the claim that participation by 24 agents of the State in pretrial publicity has 25 precluded the defendant from receiving a fair

1 trial in front of Manitowoc County jurors. The 2 Court has reviewed the media account -- accounts 3 referenced by the motion.

4 The defendant cites no Wisconsin case
5 which has ever granted the remedy he requests;
6 that is, no Wisconsin case has ever found that a 7 defendant is entitled to dismissal of a criminal 8 charge because of the State's participation in 9 pretrial publicity.

10 The defendant does cite two Wisconsin
11 cases as being relevant: State ex rel. Schulter
12 v. Roraff, a 1968 Wisconsin Supreme Court case, 13 and Briggs vs. State, a 1977 Wisconsin Supreme 14 Court case.

15 In neither of these cases did the Court 16 order that the criminal charges involved be 17 dismissed. In fact, the Court specifically 18 rejected the remedy in Schulter, the one case in 19 which the defendant actually requested dismissal.
20 Continuance and change of venue have been the 21 only remedies approved, to date, where 22 prejudicial pretrial publicity threatens the 23 defendant's right to a fair trial.

24 The Court is not prepared to say that 25 the State's participation in pretrial publicity

1 could never justify dismissal of criminal 2 charges; indeed, there's language from the 3 Schulter decision which suggests that the Court 4 did not rule out the possibility entirely.
5 There's a sentence that reads as follows: In 6 State vs. Woodington, we considered the problem 7 of pretrial publicity and concluded that the 8 remedy was not necessarily the dismissal of 9 charges, but a change of venue, or continuance of 10 the trial, and the careful selection of the jury 11 on voir dire.

12 So it may be possible that, in an 13 appropriate case, the Supreme Court could justify 14 dismissal as a sanction. However, since no 15 reported decision ever -- ever sanctioned the 16 remedy of dismissal, this Court concludes that a 17 remedy as drastic as dismissal could only be 18 justified by very egregious behavior on the part 19 of the State.

20 The Court concludes in this case that 21 the State's role in pretrial publicity was not 22 egregious, or designed to jeopardize the 23 defendant's right to a fair trial. The Court has 24 reviewed the participation of the State 25 complained of by the defendant and makes the

1 following observations:

2 The first four of the eight cited press 3 conferences were more informational in nature and 4 also related more to the missing person report, 5 not to the involvement of the defendant in the 6 crimes that have been alleged in this case. The 7 last four press conferences did involve a 8 detailing of the accusations made against the 9 defendant, in some cases with more detail than 10 the Court believes was necessary.

11 But the content was largely confined to 12 information contained in the Complaints against 13 Mr. Avery, and the co-defendant in this case, 14 Brendan Dassey. While the content was somewhat 15 inflammatory in nature by virtue of the very 16 allegations of fact, similar to the situation
17 described in the Briggs decision, the information 18 was largely available to the press and the public 19 anyway, from the Complaints, which already were, 20 or were soon to become, public information.

21 The Court notes that the press in this 22 case has given publicity to a number of pleadings 23 and motions that have been filed, even before the 24 court proceedings dealing with those pleadings.
25 So, it is unlikely that the news conferences

1 resulted in the disclosure of any meaningful
2 information that would not have been publicized
3 in any event.

4 The Court also notes that, especially 5 early in these proceedings, there were media 6 reports that the defendant and members of the 7 defendant's family believed the police were 8 unfairly picking on him and suggested that the 9 defendant was being framed; indeed, the defense 10 in this case has filed motions indicating that 11 such a defense may be pursued at trial.

12 Supreme Court Rule 20:3.6(d) permits a 13 district attorney to make a statement reasonably 14 required to protect the State from the adverse 15 effects of publicity not initiated by the State.
16 Early in these proceedings, such adverse 17 publicity existed. The State was reasonably 18 entitled to respond to public allegations that it 19 was basing its decisions on bias rather than the 20 evidence obtained.

21 With respect to the two-part news story
22 involving the Manitowoc County Sheriff, the Court 23 notes that that took place in May, a number of 24 months before the scheduled trial date. At the 25 outset, the Court does conclude that a number of

1 the comments made by the Sheriff were ill-advised 2 and the Sheriff should not have participated in 3 the interview, even in the absence of a
4 prohibition order issued by the Court. The Court 5 does conclude, however, that his participation 6 was not so egregious or prejudicial as to justify 7 dismissal of the charges.

8 First, it had been previously reported,
9 and the May reports reiterated, that the Sheriff 10 was involved in the wrongful prosecution of 11 Mr. Avery back in 1985. The Sheriff's testimony 12 at the July 5 hearing in this case suggested he 13 may still not be convinced that Gregory Allen is 14 guilty and Steven Avery is innocent in the 1985 15 sex assault. But the Sheriff appears to be 16 largely alone in that belief.

17 As has been widely reported for some 18 time, the State has not only conceded that 19 Mr. Avery did not commit the 1985 crime, but the 20 State has concluded that another man, Gregory
21 Allen, did. Thus, any viewer of this report 22 would have serious reason to question the 23 Sheriff's objectivity.

24 To further balance the report, it 25 included prior statements from members of the 1 defendant's family that law enforcement 2 representatives were unfairly picking on the 3 defendant's family.

4 Sheriff's explanation as to why his 5 department would have had no reason to frame the 6 defendant may have been unfortunately worded, but 7 the Court is satisfied that the Sheriff was 8 trying to explain, in an admittedly awkward way, 9 why the allegation that his department was trying 10 to frame Steven Avery should not be believed. As 11 the Court has already noted, while the Sheriff 12 should not have granted the interview, his 13 participation is somewhat mitigated by a 14 perceived need to respond to publicized frame-up 15 allegations on the part of the defendant and his 16 family.

17 A person viewing the report may well 18 have come away with the impression that the 19 Sheriff believed the defendant is guilty of the 20 crimes charged in this case. That should not be 21 any more surprising than that the defendant's 22 family, friends, and his attorney in a civil 23 case, Stephen Glynn, publicly expressed their 24 belief in his innocence in the same report.

25 If law enforcement officials did not

1 believe the defendant was guilty, this Court
2 would certainly expect the State to move to 3 dismiss the charges against the defendant. The 4 Court gives the public more credit than to be too 5 unduly influenced by comments from either side.
6 The report was balanced and not so inflammatory 7 that persons who viewed it months ago could still 8 not provide the defendant a fair trial if 9 selected as jurors.

10 Finally, the Court notes that while the 11 defense is requesting dismissal because he 12 asserts the State's participation in pretrial
13 publicity has made a trial in Manitowoc County 14 impossible, the defendant acknowledges in another 15 motion that if the Court grants an adjournment of 16 the trial date to early next year, a fair jury 17 composed of Manitowoc County citizens could be 18 selected. At least, the Court believes that's a 19 fair inference for the Court to draw from the 20 defendant's contingent change of venue request.

21 The bottom line is that while there may 22 be a set of facts which would warrant the relief 23 the defendant seeks, there are no such facts
24 present here. The complained of publicity
25 occurred many months before the scheduled trial.

1 Early news conferences focused on the search for 2 Teresa Halbach, not the charges against the 3 defendant.

4 Later press conferences with the Calumet
5 County District Attorney and Sheriff were mainly 6 confined to information available in public 7 records. The Manitowoc County Sheriff's 8 participation in the May interview was 9 ill-advised, but not so prejudicial as to justify 10 the remedy the defendant seeks.

11 The defendant's own contingent change of 12 venue request demonstrates his belief that, with 13 adequate precautions, a fair jury can be selected 14 in Manitowoc County. For all these reasons, the 15 defendant's motion to dismiss is denied by the 16 Court.

17 Before I proceed to other motions, I
18 will note that there have been motions filed 19 relating to change of venue and scheduling of the 20 trial date. And it's my understanding that the 21 parties have a stipulation on those issues to 22 propose to the Court this morning; in fact, I 23 have been handed a written stipulation. Counsel, 24 does one of you care to put it on the record for 25 the Court?

1 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I certainly can, Judge. I 2 don't know how much in detail the Court wants me to 3 go. We have provided the Court a two-page 4 stipulation. That stipulation attempts to deal with 5 the issues of change of venue, as well as trial 6 schedule. The stipulation, and I will read at least 7 the part of the stipulation that is being proposed 8 towards the bottom of Page one.

9 The parties, that is, the defense and 10 the State, have agreed to the following: Number 11 one, that the jury trial in this case will 12 commence on or about February 5, 2007. The 13 parties continue to believe that the trial itself 14 will last approximately six weeks. I note for 15 the record that I'm paraphrasing, when 16 appropriate, in parts of the stipulation.

17 Number two, that the jury trial will 18 physically be held in the Calumet County
19 Courthouse.

20 Number three, that the Court has agreed 21 upon the county in which the jury will be 22 selected. The parties have identified and have 23 agreed upon that jury pool, and the Court may 24 wish to comment on that thereafter.

25 The stipulation is proposed by myself

1 and Mr. Strang, both as lead counsel for the 2 relative parties. The stipulation includes 3 acquiescence by Mr. Avery, and a statement as to 4 waiver of right to be tried physically here in 5 Calumet County. And also includes the agreement
6 of the Halbach family, by Tim Halbach, a 7 representative of the Halbach family.

8 I should note that the purpose of the 9 stipulation, or at least in part, as well as the 10 Halbach's acquiescence, is based upon the Halbach 11 family's ability to now fully participate, if 12 they choose, in all aspects of the jury trial, as 13 the physical location would be within Calumet
14 County.

15 Attached to the stipulation includes
16 proposals from Sheriff Pagel, with the agreement 17 of the Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department.
18 This sets forth reasons why Calumet County is a 19 preferred venue, or preferred place of trial in 20 this case, as to issues of security, transport, 21 and the physical evidence which is being held in 22 the Calumet County Courthouse.

23 Lastly, there is correspondence from 24 Mr. Rollins, who is Corporation Counsel, acting 25 on behalf of Manitowoc County. This county, that

1 is, Manitowoc County, has requested this Court 2 adopt the stipulation, based upon the physical 3 amenities that the Calumet County Courthouse may 4 have, Mr. Avery's location, the physical 5 evidence, again, and the participation of the 6 Halbach family.

7 For all of those reasons, and reasons
8 previously provided in more detail to the Court, 9 including this proposal having been made by me
10 back in, I believe it was February of this year, 11 the parties jointly, that is, Mr. Avery, his 12 lawyers, and the State, is asking the Court adopt 13 the stipulation.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: Counsel recited the 16 stipulation's terms, in their essence. He did it 17 fairly. He did it accurately, but for one small 18 item on which he misspoke, innocently, and that is 19 simply that Mr. Avery has agreed in writing here, 20 not to be tried in Manitowoc County, physically.
21 The trial will take place in Calumet County, but it 22 would be Manitowoc County in which he had a right to 23 insist upon the physical location of the trial. And 24 he's agreed instead to try the case in the Calumet
25 County Courthouse, just as counsel explained.

1 THE COURT: All right. I will note there
2 were some written modifications to the third
3 paragraph in the stipulation, that after the parties
4 approached the Court, I indicated I had a concern 5 with. At one point, it was my understanding the 6 parties wished the county from which the jury would 7 be selected to not be disclosed at this time. But I 8 understand the parties do not have an objection to 9 disclosure as of today.

10 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's correct, Judge.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: That's true.

13 THE COURT: And I think that is important,
14 for the Court to make sure that Mr. Avery -- and I'm 15 going to conduct a brief colloquy with him on the 16 record today -- that everybody understands and 17 agrees what is being proposed here and,
18 specifically, that the parties both agree that the 19 jurors are to be selected from Manitowoc County. Is 20 that correct?

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes.

22 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Avery, is that your 24 understanding of the recommendation that the parties 25 are proposing to the Court today, and that you have

1 agreed to?

2 MR. AVERY: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Okay. I do have some questions
4 to ask of you, to make sure that you understand it,
5 and I want to make sure that you are knowingly 6 agreeing to this proposal.

7 First of all, do you understand that you 8 have a constitutional and statutory right to keep 9 venue in Manitowoc County, if you wish; that is, 10 a right to be tried not only by a jury of 11 Manitowoc County residents, but also, at least 12 arguably, to a trial physically held in Manitowoc
13 County. Do you understand that?

14 MR. AVERY: Yes, I do.

15 THE COURT: Do you also understand that the 16 venue statute, Section 971.225, only permits the 17 Court to order the trial to be held in another 18 county if I make a determination that an impartial 19 trial could not be held in Manitowoc County? That 20 is, if you were not requesting it, the Court would 21 not be ordering that this trial be held in Calumet
22 County; do you understand that?

23 MR. AVERY: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Is it your wish to be tried in 25 Calumet County in this case, with a jury composed of 1 Manitowoc County residents?

2 MR. AVERY: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Has anyone made any promises or 4 threats to you, to get you to request this 5 provision?

6 MR. AVERY: No.

7 THE COURT: Have you had adequate time to 8 discuss this decision with your attorneys?

9 MR. AVERY: Yes.

10 THE COURT: And do you have any questions
11 at this time? If you do, I would go off the record 12 and permit you to discuss the matter further with 13 your attorneys. Do you have any such questions?

14 MR. AVERY: No, I don't.

15 THE COURT: Very well. The parties had 16 alerted the Court a few days ago that this 17 stipulation would be being presented today, so I 18 have had some time to give it some thought. I also 19 took the opportunity, a few days ago, to travel to 20 Calumet County in order to tour the courthouse 21 facilities.

22 I agree that there are some advantages
23 to holding the trial in Calumet County, in terms 24 of security relating to both the defendant and to 25 the jurors. There also appears to be more space

1 at the courthouse for the media.

2 And the Court has been informed that 3 Manitowoc County officials believe it would be 4 more economical to hold the case in Calumet
5 County. That is not a major request, obviously, 6 in the Court's decision, but the Court is aware 7 that Manitowoc County officials concur in the 8 move. And I also understand that the victim's 9 family has joined in this request; in fact, 10 Calumet County, I believe, is closer to their 11 home than Manitowoc.

12 Based on those considerations, the 13 request that's been made by the parties, I'm 14 going to grant the joint request that's been made 15 here. I will also note the request calls for a 16 delay in the trial date, that will further 17 alleviate any prejudicial effects of any pretrial 18 publicity, avoid any potential conflicts with the 19 Thanksgiving holiday that might have occurred had 20 the trial started in mid-October, and allow the 21 defense more time to evaluate the evidence in 22 this case, which is somewhat voluminous. The 23 Court has been informed of such requests on the 24 defense in the past. So I will grant the 25 request.

1 The trial date here will be scheduled
2 for February 5, of 2007. I cannot foresee
3 anything at this time that would result in a 4 further continuance of that trial date, and the 5 Court will agree to hold the trial in the Calumet 6 County Courthouse.

7 The jury will be selected, composed of 8 Manitowoc's residents. Jury selection, I think,
9 will take place here. It will be more convenient 10 for everyone. But once the trial begins, it will 11 take place in Calumet County. Is there anything 12 further from either party on that matter?

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: No, Judge.

14 THE COURT: If not, then the Court will 15 move on to the defense motion to exclude members of 16 the Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department from 17 testifying in this case. That motion initially 18 included a request, also, to prevent members of the 19 Sheriff's Department from overseeing the jury in 20 this case. But, Mr. Strang, it's my understanding 21 that with the move of the physical site of the trial
22 to Calumet County, that portion of the defense 23 motion is being withdrawn.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: It is in the sense that I
25 think it's mooted. There are a number of logistical

1 details attending the stipulation just presented to 2 the Court, and adopted by the Court, that we have 3 not laid out here today, but on which the parties 4 are in accord. And one of those, in sum, is that 5 with a trial conducted in the Calumet County
6 Courthouse, the Calumet County Sheriff's Department, 7 in the ordinary course, would take charge of jury 8 assembly, jury management, the role of bailiff, 9 custody of Mr. Avery, if in fact he's in custody at 10 the time of trial.

11 And we see that as mooted the request
12 for relief as to a role with the Manitowoc County 13 Sheriff's Department, in prospective or actual 14 jurors, because under this proposal the Manitowoc
15 County Sheriff's Department will have no role 16 with, or contact with, actual or prospective 17 jurors.

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right. As the Court
19 noted, the defense has filed a motion to exclude all 20 members of the Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department 21 from testifying on behalf of the State, as part of 22 the State's case in chief.

23 The sole basis for the defense motion
24 arises out of comments made in an interview
25 Sheriff Kenneth Peterson provided to FOX 11 News

1 in Green Bay, portions of which were aired in a 2 two-part report on May 11 and 12 of this year.
3 The Court is not going to detail the Sheriff's 4 comments further here, other than to note that 5 they related to the Sheriff's involvement with 6 Mr. Avery in the past, including the Sheriff's 7 role in the prosecution of Mr. Avery back in 8 1985, relating to a sex assault charge, for which 9 he was subsequently exonerated. The Sheriff also 10 relayed in the report some of his own opinions 11 concerning the defendant's personality.

12 The defendant contends that he is 13 entitled to the remedy he seeks because the 14 Sheriff's's comments were calculated to interfere 15 with the defendant's right to a fair trial in 16 Manitowoc County, before a Manitowoc County jury.

17 The Court has reviewed the two-part news 18 report in it's entirety and I have also read and 19 heard the party's arguments; that is, the written 20 argument submitted by Mr. Strang, with his 21 motion; the written response submitted by 22 Mr. Fallon; as well as the arguments made at the 23 July 5, 2006 hearing. The Court makes the 24 following observations:

25 The Court has accepted, today, the

1 stipulation of the parties that the trial will be 2 held in Calumet County, with a Manitowoc County 3 jury. So the defendant has not lost his 4 constitutional right to a trial in the county 5 where the crimes are alleged to have been 6 committed. The place of the trial is being moved 7 at the joint request of the defendant and the 8 State.

9 Earlier in these proceedings, the 10 parties agreed, informally, to eliminate out of 11 court comments to the press; the State, through 12 the attorneys or representatives of the Calumet
13 County Sheriff's Department, and the defense 14 through defense counsel or the defendant himself.
15 There was, and is, no order at this time to 16 support this agreement. But it came about as a 17 result of the Court's reluctance to issue a gag 18 order, which the Court regarded as an extreme 19 remedy. The Court felt that this agreement, 20 along with the admonition to the parties to 21 comply with Supreme Court Rule 20:3.6 would 22 address the concerns initially raised by the 23 defense.

24 The informal agreement has proven
25 largely effective with respect to the parties

1 involved. No party mentioned any concern at the 2 time with comments originating from the Manitowoc
3 County Sheriff's Department. The Court did not 4 issue any type of gag order, and the Sheriff's 5 comments in this case did not violate any such 6 order.

7 There is no evidence that the Sheriff
8 initiated contact with FOX 11 News.
9 Representatives of that organization apparently 10 contacted him for the interview.

11 Nevertheless, the Court does believe 12 that the comments were inappropriate coming in 13 the context of these court proceedings. And the 14 Sheriff should not have -- should have used his 15 own discretion to avoid such comments. Those 16 comments fell within the scope of the type of 17 publicity the parties had agreed to stop and had 18 the potential to jeopardize the defendant's right 19 to a jury of Manitowoc County jurors.

20 Whatever the Court's decision is on the 21 defense motion, the Court believes that care 22 should be taken to make sure such comments do not 23 occur again before the trial in this case. The 24 Court notes that the comments involved were those 25 of the Sheriff alone.

1 His department does not have control of 2 this investigation. And the Court has not been 3 presented with any evidence to suggest that any 4 other member of the Manitowoc County Sheriff's 5 Department who participated in the investigation 6 in this case has been directly, or indirectly, 7 influenced in any way by the Sheriff. The Court 8 notes that the Sheriff has announced his 9 intention to retire at the expiration of his term 10 in early January of next year.

11 The Court makes the following
12 conclusions: The Court is unaware of any 13 precedent for granting the remedies the defendant 14 seeks where no court order was violated. The 15 cases cited by the defense, which sustain the 16 drastic remedy of exclusion of evidence, involve 17 violation of either a court order or a discovery 18 statute.

19 Participation by representatives of the 20 State in pretrial publicity has only been used in 21 reported cases as a grounds for change of venue 22 or a continuance. There is even less reason in 23 this case to exclude evidence from members of the 24 Sheriff's Department who did not themselves
25 participate in any allegedly improper comments.

1 The Court further notes that the report
2 was a one time, in two-part, news item on one
3 television station in May, approximately nine 4 months before what will now be the scheduled 5 start of the trial.

6 The Court agrees that the comments made
7 were inappropriate in the context of these court 8 proceedings and did constitute a threat to the 9 defendant's right to fair trial before a 10 Manitowoc County jury; although, the Court has 11 earlier today accepted a stipulation of the 12 parties to have this case heard by a Manitowoc
13 County jury.

14 While the attorney's did not cite 15 concern over comments from the County Sheriff's 16 Department, that is, the Manitowoc County
17 Sheriff's Department, at the time they reached 18 their informal agreement to refrain from public 19 comment in this case, the comments should not 20 have been made.

21 To make sure there are no further 22 problems of this nature, the Court is going to 23 issue an order prohibiting members of either the 24 Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department, or the 25 Calumet County Sheriff's Department, from making

1 any further public comment concerning this case,
2 or the defendant, Steven Avery, until the trial 3 is concluded.

4 The Court is satisfied that adherence to 5 the attorneys to Supreme Court Rule 20:3.6 6 precludes the need for any such order to apply to 7 counsel. I'm directing the counsel for the 8 defense to draft the order and submit it to 9 counsel for the State before submitting it to the 10 Court for signature.

11 Because the Court concludes that the 12 other remedy sought by the defense, that is, the 13 exclusion of testimony by members of the 14 Sheriff's Department of Manitowoc County is not 15 warranted, that portion of the defense motion is 16 denied.

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: As a matter of 18 clarification, your Honor -- and I'm happy to draft
19 the proposed order -- I will intend to include 20 proceedings related to Brendan Dassey within the 21 Court's definition of this case, even though,
22 technically, the Dassey proceedings are under a case
23 number different than the Avery proceedings.

24 THE COURT: Any objection from the State?

25 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I'm not sure you have

1 authority over the Brendan Dassey case, Judge.

2 THE COURT: I don't have authority over the 3 case, but -- and the Court's order would have no 4 affect in his case -- but I think it could extend to 5 comments relating to his role in this case. I 6 will -- I will do this, I will let it up to the 7 parties, in the form of your proposed order, to 8 attempt to resolve that matter. If it still winds 9 up being contested and the parties have alternative 10 versions of the proposed order to submit, I will 11 review them, give the parties a chance to be heard, 12 before I issue the Court's order.

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's fine. Thank you.

14 THE COURT: The Court will next move on to 15 the State's motion in this case to admit statements 16 of Teresa Halbach to co-workers. The State seeks to 17 admit certain statements which Teresa Halbach
18 allegedly made to co-workers in October of 2005, 19 relating to her observations during an earlier visit 20 to the defendant's property and her state of mind 21 based on those observations.

22 The defense opposes the admission of 23 these statements. The admissibility of evidence 24 which the State seeks to introduce involves 25 issues relating to hearsay, relevance, and the 1 defendant's right to confront his accusers. The 2 Court will address each of these issues

3 independently, as they relate to the statements
4 which the State seeks to introduce.

5 First of all, with respect to hearsay,
6 the State asserts that Teresa Halbach's
7 statements relating to both her perceived 8 observations and to her state of mind fall under 9 the hearsay exception contained in Section 10 908.045 (2). That statute provides in relevant 11 part as follows:

12 The following are not excluded by the 13 hearsay rule, if the declarant is unavailable as 14 a witness. A statement which describes an event 15 or condition recently perceived by the declarant, 16 not in contemplation of pending or anticipated 17 litigation and while the declarant's recollection 18 was clear.

19 The statements which Teresa Halbach may 20 have made to her co-workers describing 21 observations from her earlier visit to the 22 defendant's home could fit within this hearsay 23 exception, subject to adequate foundation. At 24 this point, the State has not provided the Court 25 with a date the observations were allegedly made

1 by Ms Halbach, nor when the observations were 2 relayed to her co-workers.

3 However, it appears that any statement 4 relating to her observations may well constitute 5 a statement which describes an event she recently 6 perceived. Indeed, the defense does not 7 seriously dispute, that with proper foundation, 8 the hearsay exception in Section 908.045 (2)
9 could apply to statements relating to Ms
10 Halbach's observations.

11 The statements relating to her state of 12 mind, as opposed to her observations, do not fall
13 within the exception of Section 908.045 (2). A 14 statement of recent perception is exactly that, 15 it is a statement of something which the 16 declarant has perceived. It does not include 17 opinions of the declarant relating to her 18 perceptions or her state of mind.

19 Now, there is a hearsay exception not 20 advanced by the State which could arguably apply 21 to the defendant's state of mind; that is,
22 Section 908.03 (1), which reads, in relevant 23 part, as follows. The following are not excluded 24 by the hearsay rule: A statement explaining an 25 event or condition made while the declarant was

1 perceiving the event or condition, or immediately
2 thereafter. While the statements made by Ms
3 Halbach relating to her then existing state of 4 mind could arguably fall within this exception, 5 they would still have to be relevant before they 6 could be admitted.

7 In order for a statement of Teresa
8 Halbach relating to her state of mind to be 9 relevant, the statement would have to relate to 10 an element of the crimes which the State seeks to 11 prove. A similar issue was addressed by the 12 Court of Appeals in the case of State vs. Kutz, a 13 2003 Court of Appeals case.

14 The defendant in that case was charged 15 with first-degree intentional homicide, hiding a 16 corpse, and stalking, arising out of the 17 disappearance of his wife. The State sought to 18 introduce a number of statements attributed to 19 the wife in the time leading up to her 20 disappearance involving threats which the 21 defendant made to her. The State sought 22 introduction of the of statements as evidence of 23 her fearful state of mind at the time she made 24 the statements, shortly before her disappearance.

25 The Court of Appeals ruled that the

1 statements were not admissible, because while 2 they were evidence of the declarant's state of 3 mind, her state of mind was not relevant to the 4 charges in that case. The Court recognized that 5 the primary purpose of introducing the evidence 6 was to demonstrate that the threats were actually 7 made to the wife, not that she was in fear 8 because of the statements.

9 That is similar to the situation here.
10 While any statement of Teresa Halbach involving 11 her state of mind made a few weeks before her 12 disappearance would certainly be relevance as 13 evidence of her state of mind, her state of mind 14 is not really at issue in this case.

15 The State has suggested that her state 16 of mind has a relationship to the elements which 17 the State must prove on the kidnapping charge.
18 However, the Court views the probative value of 19 her sate of mind weeks before the crime as very 20 marginal. The Court does not believe that her 21 state of mind has sufficient probative value or 22 relevance to justify admission of the evidence.

23 The State asserts that the personal 24 observations of Theresa Halbach, as opposed to 25 her state of mind, have relevance as to the

1 defendant's intent and plan to sexually assault
2 her in the future. The Court has heard 3 references in prior arguments of the parties to 4 allegations that Mr. Avery specifically requested
5 Teresa Halbach to return to his residence.

6 Depending on what other facts are 7 introduced her observations, which were relayed 8 to her co-workers, may have probative value which 9 could justify their admission. However, the 10 Court is unable, based on the current state of 11 the record, to resolve that issue at this time.

12 Should the observations of Teresa
13 Halbach fall within the hearsay exception of 14 Section 908.045 (2) and have sufficient probative 15 value to justify their admission, the question 16 remains as to whether the admission of such 17 statements would violate the defendant's 18 constitutional rights under the confrontation 19 clause of the constitution.

20 The United States Supreme Court expanded 21 the scope of the confrontation clause in Crawford 22 vs. Washington, a 2004 case. The Court ruled in 23 Crawford that where testimonial statements are 24 involved, the defendant is entitled to confront 25 his accusers, regardless of the reliability of

1 the statements or whether they fall in firmly 2 rooted hearsay exceptions.

3 For purposes of the State's motion, the 4 key question is whether the statements offered 5 for admission are testimonial in nature. The 6 issue of what is a testimonial statement was 7 recently addressed by the United States Supreme 8 Court in Davis vs. Washington, a case decided on 9 June 19th of this year. The case involved the 10 question of whether statements made by an 11 emergency 911 caller were testimonial in nature.

12 The Court ruled that some of the 13 statements made in the course of a 911 call were 14 testimonial, while others were not.
15 Specifically, the Court ruled as follows:

16 Statements are non-testimonial when made 17 in the course of police interrogation, under 18 circumstances objectively indicating that the 19 primary purpose of the interrogation is to enable 20 police assistance to meet an ongoing emergency.

21 They are testimonial when the 22 circumstances objectively indicate that there is 23 no such ongoing emergency and that the primary 24 purpose of the interrogation is to establish or 25 prove past events potentially relevant to later

1 criminal prosecution.

2 Of particular significance to our case
3 is the following language, which the Davis
4 opinion quoted from the Crawford case: An 5 accuser who makes a formal statement to 6 government officers bears testimony, in a sense 7 that a person who makes a casual remark to an 8 acquaintance does not.

9 With this example the Supreme Court
10 comes very close to describing the statements
11 Teresa Halbach purportedly made to her co-workers 12 as a textbook example of what is not testimonial.
13 The observational statements which the State 14 seeks to admit were not made to the police and 15 were certainly not made in the context of any 16 investigation by anyone. They are much more in 17 the nature of a casual remark to an acquaintance, 18 which is not testimonial.

19 The Court concludes that the statements 20 by Teresa Halbach of her earlier observations of 21 Mr. Avery are not testimonial in nature and their 22 admission would not implicate confrontation
23 clause concerns.

24 In conclusion, any statement made by 25 Teresa Halbach to her co-workers concerning her

1 state of mind at an earlier point in time are not 2 admissible. Subject to proper foundation
3 establishing relevance and probative value,
4 statements that she made involving prior 5 observations may be admissible under the hearsay 6 exception contained in Section 908.045 (2).

7 Finally, for today's hearing, the Court
8 will address the defendant's motion challenging
9 the search of November 5, on the basis that it 10 violated the rule in Franks vs. Delaware. I'm 11 not addressing, today, the additional challenge 12 to the search based on alleged multiple 13 executions of the search warrant, because the 14 Court has not yet received from the briefs of the 15 parties on that issue.

16 As part of his challenge to obtaining -- 17 to the obtaining and execution of the search 18 warrants, the defendant challenges the 19 November 5, 2005 search warrant on the basis that 20 it was obtained as a result of false statements, 21 knowingly and intentionally made, or with 22 reckless disregard for the truth, that were 23 included in the affidavit supporting the search 24 warrant request.

25 Under the rule of Franks vs. Delaware, a

1 1978 United States Supreme Court decision, if the 2 defendant makes a substantial preliminary 3 showing, and proves that such false statements 4 were made, and that they are necessary to the 5 finding of probable cause, a search warrant can 6 be voided and the fruits of the search 7 suppressed.

8 Initially, the defendant's motion
9 alleged that three separate knowingly false 10 statements were made in the affidavit of 11 Detective Mark Wiegert supporting the request for 12 the November 5, 2005 warrant. First, the 13 defendant alleged that Pamela Sturm and her 14 daughter, the two citizens who initially located 15 Teresa Halbach's vehicle on the Avery property, 16 were incorrectly characterized as volunteer 17 searchers, when in fact they were acting on 18 behalf of law enforcement.

19 Following the evidentiary hearing,
20 defense counsel acknowledged that the evidence
21 did not demonstrate that Ms Sturm and her 22 daughter were anything but volunteer searchers.
23 The motion goes on to allege, however, that the 24 affidavit falsely claimed that the volunteer 25 searchers located a vehicle matching the

1 description of the vehicle owned by Teresa
2 Halbach, at the Avery auto salvage.

3 Further the defendant alleges that the 4 affidavit falsely represented that the searchers 5 provided a complete VIN from the vehicle, when in 6 fact the searchers were only able to identify 10 7 of the 17 characters of the vehicle
8 identification number.

9 While acknowledging that Detective
10 Remiker was able to obtain the full VIN of the 11 vehicle when he responded to the scene, the 12 defendant's motion further alleges that Detective
13 Remiker did not have a search warrant, or consent 14 to be on the property, and his complete 15 identification of the VIN can, therefore, not be 16 considered because it was illegally obtained.
17 The defendant concludes that if the false
18 information and Detective Remiker's
19 identification are excised from the affidavit, it 20 lacks the required level of probable cause to 21 justify the issuance of the November 5 warrant.

22 The State asks the Court to deny the 23 motion for the following reasons: First, the 24 allegations made in the defendant's motion do not 25 constitute a substantial preliminary showing

1 justifying an evidentiary hearing under the 2 holding of the Franks case.

3 Second, that Steven Avery lacks standing 4 to challenge the searches of any portions of the 5 Avery Auto Salvage Yard, other than his trailer 6 residence and the detached garage, because he has 7 not demonstrated a reasonable expectation of 8 privacy in the other portions of the Avery
9 Salvage property.

10 Third, that no intentional
11 misrepresentations were made in the affidavit.

12 Fourth, even if the challenged
13 information is excised from the affidavit, it 14 still contains sufficient probable cause to 15 justify the issuance of the November 5 warrant.

16 And, finally, that Steven Avery lacks 17 standing to challenge the information gathered by 18 Detective Remiker when the detective responded to 19 the scene on November 5, because whether or not 20 Detective Remiker was legally on the premises, 21 Mr. Avery had no reasonable expectation of 22 privacy, either in Teresa Halbach's vehicle, or 23 the portion of the Avery Salvage property on 24 which Detective Remiker was present.

25 The Court will first address the State's

1 claim that the defendant has not made a 2 substantial preliminary showing entitling him to 3 a hearing on the alleged Franks violations. When 4 a defendant alleges that a search warrant is 5 based on knowingly false information, the United 6 States Supreme Court held in Franks vs. Delaware
7 that the following procedure governs:

8 Where the defendant makes a substantial
9 preliminary showing that a false statement 10 knowingly and intentionally, or with reckless 11 disregard for the truth, was included by the 12 affiant in the warrant affidavit, and if the 13 allegedly false statement is necessary to the 14 finding of probable cause, the Fourth Amendment 15 requires that a hearing be held at the 16 defendant's request.

17 In the event that at the hearing the 18 allegation of perjury, or reckless disregard, is 19 established by the defendant, by a preponderance 20 of the evidence, and with the evidence -- with 21 the affidavits false material set to one side, 22 the affidavit's remaining content is insufficient
23 to establish probable cause, the search warrant 24 must be voided and the fruits of the search 25 excluded to the same extent as if probable cause

1 was lacking on the face of the affidavit.

2 In this case the defendant's motion
3 alleged, first, that the two citizens who found 4 the RAV-4 were not truly volunteer searches, but 5 persons who Detective Wiegert told Detective
6 Remiker were willing to go to the Avery property
7 on Avery road to search the junkyard salvage
8 area.

9 The quoted language presumably was 10 obtained by the defendant as part of a discovery 11 from a police report. One possible inference 12 from the language could have been that the 13 volunteer searchers had in fact met with 14 Detective Wiegert and expressed their willingness 15 to assist the police in searching the Avery
16 property.

17 While neither party has argued the point 18 at any length, it is at least arguable that if 19 they had been enlisted to assist law enforcement, 20 the searchers may have had to disclose that fact 21 to Earl Avery when they obtained his consent to 22 enter the property, in order to conduct the 23 search. The State has not argued otherwise as a 24 reason for which the motion should be denied.

25 The defense also characterizes as an

1 intentional false statement, or one made with 2 reckless disregard for the truth, the assertion 3 in the affidavit that the searchers claimed they 4 had located a vehicle matching the description of 5 the vehicle owned by Teresa Halbach. The basis 6 for this assertion is that Pamela Sturm was told 7 to be looking for a green vehicle, but she 8 informed police that the vehicle was, quote, 9 "bluish green, though it's more blue than green", 10 end quote.

11 In addition, while the affidavit
12 indicates that Sturm provided the entire 17
13 character VIN, Sturm was actually able to report 14 only 9 or 10 of the 17 VIN characters. She was 15 not in a position to see the remaining 16 characters.

17 Detective Wiegert acknowledged in his 18 testimony that the portion of his affidavit 19 indicating that Patricia Sturm provided the 20 entire VIN was incorrect. He acknowledged that 21 while he obtained the full VIN from Detective 22 Remiker, Ms Sturm was only able to make out 10 of 23 the 17 characters.

24 In addition to the inconsistencies
25 listed in the defendant's motion, the defendant

1 also asserts that the State was not assisted by 2 Detective Remiker's ability to read the full VIN
3 because he did not have authorization or consent
4 to be on the property.

5 The Court was initially inclined to 6 conclude that the defendant's motion did 7 constitute a substantial preliminary showing that 8 false statements had been intentionally included 9 in the search warrant which called into question 10 the level of probable cause needed for the 11 issuance of a warrant. Had Patricia Sturm -- or 12 I believe it's Pamela Sturm -- and her daughter 13 been acting as agents of the State, their 14 discovery of the RAV-4 and it's identifying 15 information, which formed an important basis for 16 the issuance of the warrant, may have been 17 subject to suppression.

18 As the State correctly points out,
19 however, a close reading of the defendant's 20 motion reveals no substantial preliminary showing
21 that the Sturms were acting as agents of law
22 enforcement. The motion does refer to a 23 scheduled meeting of volunteers, which apparently 24 never took place.

25 But there is no assertion that the

1 Sturms had any specific relationship with any 2 member of law enforcement. Indeed, the defense
3 conceded at the conclusion of the hearing that no 4 evidence introduced added anything to the 5 allegations in the original motion.

6 In addition, while the motion describes 7 Detective Remiker's entry on the property as 8 unauthorized and non-consensual, which apparently 9 it was, there's no assertion in the motion that 10 Steven Avery had any legitimate expectation of 11 privacy over either Teresa Halbach's vehicle or 12 the portion of the Avery salvage property on 13 which the vehicle was located.

14 If Detective Remiker's presence on the 15 property had violated Steven Avery's reasonable 16 expectation of privacy, it could perhaps be 17 argued that the failure of the affidavit to 18 disclose his unlawful presence was a material an 19 intentional omission, which could support a 20 Franks claim under the Wisconsin Supreme Court 21 decision in State vs. Mann.

22 However, since there was no assertion in 23 the motion that the defendant had a legitimate 24 expectation of privacy over the area in which the 25 Halbach vehicle was located, Detective Remiker's

1 lack of permission to be on the property does not 2 measurably contribute to the substantial
3 preliminary showing required as a prerequisite 4 for a hearing on the defendant's Franks motion.

5 The Court concludes that the State is 6 correct, the motion does not make a substantial 7 preliminary showing entitling the defendant to a 8 hearing on the Franks claim. While the defendant 9 may not have been entitled to a hearing on his 10 Franks motion, the Court, nevertheless, 11 conditionally granted one.

12 The evidence introduced at the hearing
13 further supports the conclusion that there was no 14 Franks violation in this case. The defense 15 acknowledges that the volunteer searchers
16 referred to in Detective Wiegert's affidavit
17 truly were volunteer searchers; thus, there is no 18 basis upon which to delete their discovery of 19 Teresa Halbach's vehicle, from the Wiegert
20 affidavit.

21 While one can argue whether or not 22 Detective Wiegert was justified in using the term
23 "matching" in the affidavit, the Sturm's clearly 24 did discover a vehicle, which was very similar in 25 appearance to Teresa Halbach's vehicle, and which

1 turned out to be an exact match.

2 While Detective Remiker's entry on the 3 property may not have been authorized by an owner 4 or person in control of the property, there is no 5 evidence to suggest that the defendant had any 6 ownership interest or other expectation in the 7 area upon which the vehicle was located, or the 8 vehicle itself. Thus, the information provided 9 by Detective Remiker is also appropriately
10 included in the affidavit.

11 With all of this information included, 12 there is no question but that the affidavit was 13 sufficient to justify the issuance of the 14 November 5, 2005 search warrant.

15 The State also asserts in it's written 16 argument that Steven Avery has no standing to 17 challenge any of the searches that were 18 subsequently conducted at the Avery Auto Salvage
19 Yard, including searches of the burn barrel, burn
20 pit, the RAV-4, or any of the other buildings 21 located on the property, with the exception of 22 Mr. Avery's residence and detached garage.

23 Resolution of this argument is not 24 necessary to the Court's decision on the Franks
25 issue. The Court concludes that this argument is

1 more appropriately addressed in the portion of 2 the defense motion challenging the multiple 3 executions of the original search warrant.

4 For the reasons stated, the defense
5 motion to suppress the fruits of the November 5, 6 2005 search warrant on the grounds that it was 7 issued in violation of Franks v. Delaware is 8 denied.

9 Those are all the decisions on motions
10 the Court has today. I did want to take a brief 11 inventory of what I understand to be the 12 outstanding motions and confirm the status of 13 those motions at this time.

14 The State has filed a motion concerning 15 the admissibility of DNA evidence. And it's my 16 understanding that at least at one point the 17 parties were working on a stipulation to resolve 18 that motion. Counsel, where are we on that 19 motion?

20 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I understood, Judge, if 21 there was going to be a challenge to whatever it was 22 that Mr. Gahn had presented, that Mr. Buting was 23 going to alert us to that.

24 ATTORNEY BUTING: That's correct, Judge, 25 and Mr. Gahn has been trying to compile some

1 additional requests that I had made regarding those 2 tests and has not yet complied with that. And once 3 we receive that, I anticipate we'll either -- we'll 4 be in a position to either agree or not agree.

5 THE COURT: All right. I would like to 6 have a date by which the Court will be notified 7 either that the motion is going to be contested, or 8 that it's resolved.

9 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, would the Court be 10 willing to adopt a scheduling plan that Mr. Buting 11 has 30 days after the receipt of our discovery?
12 Mr. Gahn is meeting with Mr. Fallon and myself 13 tomorrow. We should have an idea as to that date, 14 certainly won't be any later than perhaps 15 mid-September. Nonetheless, Judge, Mr. Buting 16 believes that he can have that done within 30 days 17 after receipt.

18 THE COURT: When you say receipt, is that 19 what's going to happen in the next couple of days?

20 ATTORNEY KRATZ: No, Mr. Gahn will be 21 meeting with us. And what I'm suggesting is that we 22 can -- if you wanted to set a date certain for that, 23 we can have that to him, let's say by the 15th of 24 September; Mr. Buting alerting the Court as to any 25 challenges by the 15th of October. That should give 1 us plenty of time.

2 THE COURT: All right. So, Mr. Buting, 3 with the understanding that you are going to get the 4 information by September 15th, the October 15th is 5 acceptable to the defense?

6 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes, that's fine.

7 THE COURT: Very well. The State has filed 8 a number of other acts motions. The Court has 9 received written arguments and I'm going to be 10 issuing a written decision on those motions. Do I 11 have all of the briefs that are going to be filed.

12 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Yes, you have three from 13 the State, Judge.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

15 ATTORNEY STRANG: You have everything the 16 defense anticipates submitting.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: I think the most recent 19 was Friday, August 18. We submitted a brief on one 20 aspect of Paragraph 6 of the State's motion.

21 THE COURT: All right. And I understand 22 that each party has filed a motion. The defense has 23 filed a motion to admit evidence regarding the 24 defendant's prior wrongful conviction. The State 25 has filed a motion to exclude it. Where are the 1 parties on those motions?

2 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I note that a stipulation
3 was proposed, Judge. I think even Mr. Strang may 4 have provided us with his first suggestion as to 5 that stipulation. This kind of goes on the same 6 track as the stipulation regarding evidence of 7 victim history. That stipulation is to exchanged as 8 well. Would the Court allow us to exchange and then 9 perhaps alert the Court by, again, the 15th of 10 October, if we have a resolution. If we don't, we 11 can certainly tell the Court before that time.

12 THE COURT: Does that work for both
13 parties?

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes. I followed the 15 Court's lead, I submitted a proposed stipulation on 16 the wrongful conviction evidence that really also 17 looks like an offer of proof. It's fairly detailed 18 and I gave the State a written draft of that 19 document either on August 9 or August 10, when we 20 were last here in Court. I don't -- I don't see any 21 difficulty in leaving that issue unresolved until 22 October 15 on the present schedule.

23 THE COURT: All right. So with respect to 24 that issue and the issue of the victim's history, 25 the parties will notify the Court by October 15th

1 either that you have an agreement, or that you
2 don't, and if it requires Court resolution --

3 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I'm sorry, we should 4 probably be using the 16th, the 15th is a Sunday.

5 THE COURT: All right. The 16th.

6 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I don't if it makes that 7 much difference. The 16th I think is --

8 THE COURT: I will use that for the DNA
9 evidence issue as well.

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: Okay.

11 THE COURT: With respect to the suppression 12 motion regarding Marinette County statements, I have 13 received briefs from both parties, but it's my 14 understanding that there may be a related issue the 15 parties want to alert the Court to.

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, Judge. After 17 reviewing counsel's brief on the matter, the thought 18 occurred to me that I think each counsel would like 19 to be heard. If the Court for one reason or another 20 decides to suppress the statement obtained by the 21 Marinette County Sheriff on Saturday, November 5th, 22 from the point on -- from the point of contention, 23 we would like to be heard as to whether the 24 subsequent statements obtained on November 6th ought 25 to be suppressed as well. And that's because

1 there's a different set of arguments and issues 2 presented.

3 Neither party really briefed those this 4 time around, waiting and preferring to see if 5 there was a need to. So we -- I think each 6 counsel would reserve our right, if we may, to 7 address further those issues if, and only if, the 8 Court finds anything suppressible on the 9 November 5th statement.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Strang, is that a fair 11 statement?

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: That's been the defense 13 intention from the start, both on the motion to 14 suppress statements after the point of contention, 15 as Mr. Fallon puts it, on November 5, 2005. And I 16 might add on the Fourth Amendment suppression 17 motions, as to which Mr. Buting took the lead role, 18 I think the Court properly ought to decide on, is 19 the exclusionary right -- exclusionary role rightly 20 invoked here? Does it have a role to play? If it 21 does, we can be heard later, both parties, on the 22 scope of exclusion, or what potential evidence would 23 derive from any unconstitutional conduct by law
24 enforcement.

25 And I will add, it's not out of the 1 realm of possibility that the State or the 2 defense might wish to offer some evidence on the 3 scope of application in the exclusionary rule; 4 although, it's also quite possible that just 5 would be a matter of written or oral argument.

6 So not only am I in agreement with Mr. Fallon on 7 this point, it's really been my intention from 8 the start as I think a much more orderly and 9 measured way to proceed on those issues.

10 THE COURT: All right. So the -- Whether 11 or not the parties are going to be looking to make 12 further argument, or possibly even introduce 13 additional evidence, will depend on the Court's 14 decision. And the parties are both asking the Court 15 at this time to only make a decision with respect to 16 the November 5 statements. Is that a fair summary?

17 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: And there -- Yes, it is.
19 And there, just to endorse the suggestion the Court
20 made during the August 9 and August 10 evidentiary 21 proceedings, there's no challenge to the 22 admissibility of Mr. Avery's statements on 23 November 5 prior to, again, as Mr. Fallon puts it 24 elegantly, the point of contention, and we have both 25 briefed where exactly that arises in the recorded

1 interview.

2 THE COURT: All right. There is a defense
3 motion, filed some time ago, entitled -- it's 4 actually not a motion, but a notice concerning 5 interference with right to counsel. I have been led 6 to believe a number of times that's been resolved, 7 but it's still technically hanging out there.

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, it is resolved. It
9 was not a motion or a request for relief, it was a 10 notice of a concern. Since I had it -- had the 11 concern on June 16, I treated that deadline as one 12 by which I ought to raise the concern in good faith.
13 I did.

14 The State provided me the information it 15 promised about the inmate at issue, his name is 16 Orville Jacobs. I'm satisfied at this point with 17 the information I have gotten from the State. I 18 don't perceive a Sixth Amendment right to counsel 19 concern arising with respect to Mr. Jacobs. Of 20 course, if future information comes to light, or 21 future events warrant it, I will raise the 22 concern again, but I don't anticipate either of 23 those events coming to pass.

24 THE COURT: All right. Since it was 25 entitled a notice and not a motion, I don't believe

1 there's any need for a formal withdrawal document or 2 anything like that.

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: But neither is there any 4 need for a ruling.

5 THE COURT: All right. Then with respect 6 to the defense motion to suppress the fruits of the 7 search, or searches, based on multiple executions of 8 the search warrants, those written briefs are due 9 September 13.

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes, it's a simultaneous
11 exchange, as I understand it, of one round.

12 THE COURT: For my benefit, and I haven't 13 seen the written arguments yet, but it appeared to 14 me possible, based on the way the evidence came in, 15 that there could be different lines of arguments 16 relating to different individual searches. Are the 17 parties -- Are the briefs going to be structured 18 such that different searches are addressed
19 individually?

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: I suppose we could do it 21 that way. I anticipate -- Really, if the Court can 22 recall from the testimony, I anticipate that the 23 major point of contention is going to be after that 24 first three hours or so search was made on the night
25 of the 5th, Saturday night. Thereafter, there was a

1 number of entries and -- and I can address each one
2 of those separately, but I think the primary issue 3 is going to be on that.

4 THE COURT: Let me just ask this, I don't 5 want to tell each party -- either party how to argue 6 their case, but if you have arguments that relate to 7 some searches and not others, please let those be 8 differentiated in your briefs so that I know what 9 you are trying to argue.

10 ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay.

11 THE COURT: And then there's also a State's 12 motion regarding statements to other inmates. I 13 believe I have recently received a written brief 14 from the defense on that. Is there anything more 15 coming from the State, or do I have everything I'm 16 going to have on that?

17 ATTORNEY KRATZ: We just talked about that, 18 Judge. We will discuss that in detail tomorrow and 19 if the Court would allow us an opportunity, perhaps 20 to the 13th of September, we can get that to the 21 Court as well.

22 THE COURT: All right. Any objection from 23 the defense?

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: I don't. That's an issue
25 that's under seal, or we have treated it as sealed

1 to date.

2 THE COURT: Very well. I will give the 3 State until September 13 then to respond.

4 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, could we return 5 for just one moment to the multiple execution of the 6 search warrant issue. As the Court framed it, I 7 don't know whether that -- the way these -- the 8 arguments may come out then might really be more 9 amenable to a reply by either party as well.

10 In the event that there are -- that the 11 State has certain arguments on certain searches 12 and not others, or that I have likewise, it might 13 be easier to just reply to them, rather than try 14 and anticipate -- each of us anticipate what the 15 arguments of the others would be. We have a 16 little bit more time to do that now and I just 17 raise that as one way of resolving that.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes. Thank you. It 20 seems to me that the way -- excuse me -- the way the 21 defense pled the issue and proceeded with its 22 proofs, that the issue has been fairly well narrowed
23 to complain of the searches occurring to Mr. Avery's 24 trailer and garage, starting on Sunday, the 6th, 25 until the second or subsequent warrant was obtained

1 late afternoon, I believe on the 9th.

2 Those were the issues which were the 3 subject of the testimony and it seems to me that 4 that's the context in which the case is going to 5 be argued. So I'm not really sure that we need 6 to separate out the searches per se other than, 7 as the testimony reflected, there was, you know,
8 an entry on Sunday, for instance, and one or two 9 on Monday, and then one on Tuesday, that type of 10 itemization or reflection.

11 I'm not sure it's to our benefit to 12 separate them out any further, because as I 13 reviewed the case law in preparation for writing 14 this brief, it's not much -- it's not the issue, 15 really. And I don't -- I don't know if we really 16 need to reply, and counter-reply, or what have 17 you. It seems to me it's been narrowly pled and 18 the testimony was narrowly produced. So I'm not 19 sure we have a whole lot of range of other 20 searches at issue, so to speak.

21 THE COURT: Let's do this, after each party 22 receives a copy of the other party's brief, if 23 either party feels there's a need to reply, you can 24 ask the Court for permission, in writing, just fax
25 it to me, I will take it up at that time.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

2 THE COURT: I would ask also on that issue,
3 I think I mentioned it before, I did not have access 4 in our law library, or my online law library, to all 5 of the secondary sources that necessarily relate to 6 that issue. So if you have -- if you're going to be 7 citing any secondary sources, please give me copies.
8 I have got ALR and Amger and those types of things, 9 but I think it was --

10 ATTORNEY BUTING: La Fave.

11 THE COURT: -- La Fave I do not have.
12 Right. I'm not looking to make the file any bigger 13 than it is, but if you cite to La Fave, give me a 14 copy. I think I have already gotten one from the 15 State.

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: I think you got the copy.
17 I think, unless counsel disagrees, I think we have 18 got the relevant portions of La Fave for the Court.

19 ATTORNEY BUTING: I believe so. If there 20 are any -- so the Court has access to case law.

21 THE COURT: Other jurisdiction case law is 22 fine, I have got Lexus Nexus, but La Fave is not on 23 there.

24 ATTORNEY BUTING: So anything like Law
25 Journals, Law Reviews, things of those nature that

1 might -- you do not have access to?

2 THE COURT: If you have got access to Lexus
3 and it's on Lexus, you don't have to send it to me.

4 ATTORNEY BUTING: I use Lexus.

5 THE COURT: Right. So, if it's not on 6 Lexus, send it, otherwise you don't have to. I 7 certainly have access to case law from all other 8 jurisdictions and a number of secondary sources, but 9 not La Fave.

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, may I have 11 just a moment to talk to Mr. Buting on this.

12 THE COURT: Go ahead.

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: I thought we might have 14 one other point of interest for the Court, but I 15 guess we'll have to defer comment until we consider 16 it further.

17 THE COURT: All right. Is there anything 18 further from either party today?

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes. One, just a point 20 of clarification. This may have been implicit in 21 the Court's rulings both on the motion to dismiss 22 and the motion for sanctions to exclude the 23 Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department, since the 24 Court referred to having reviewed the eight news 25 conferences, but I just want to make sure that the

1 record is complete and that, in fact, a viewable, 2 either VHS tape or DVD arrived from WFRV-TV to the 3 Court as I had arranged to happen.

4 THE COURT: Yes, the VHS tape arrived and 5 that's workable.

6 ATTORNEY STRANG: Terrific. Second, I
7 anticipate some further motions, not just motions in 8 limine. Conceivably, for example, some discovery 9 that I received -- was received at my office, I have 10 lost track of the dates now, but it's more than a 11 week and less than two weeks ago. Some new 12 discovery suggests a further non-evidentiary motion.

13 It's also entirely possible, as 14 Mr. Dassey's case proceeds here, that an issue 15 may arise under Samuels -- under State vs.
16 Samuels in this case. We can't know that at this 17 juncture of the proceedings in Mr. Dassey's 18 separate case.

19 But what I would propose is that I treat
20 the October 16 deadline as a good time to file 21 any other motion, other than an in limine issue 22 properly addressed much closer to trial, you 23 know, that has arisen with new discovery, or new 24 information, or new events since June 16.

25 For that matter, September 13, I also

1 could treat as a date for raising any new issues.
2 I know there's at least one that I intend to 3 raise so, that's disclosure. And I guess also 4 jointly request that the Court set a date, fix a 5 date for me to do that, or accommodate new issues 6 that have arisen.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Kratz.

8 ATTORNEY KRATZ: We are going to need a
9 scheduling conference anyway, Judge. We talked 10 about jury questionnaires. We talked about exchange 11 of experts and some other more definite scheduling 12 order from the Court. And whether the Court wants 13 to do that by a phone conference, to at least 14 schedule that meeting, or wants to set that meeting, 15 we're certainly amenable to that.

16 THE COURT: All right. Because of the 17 contemplated adjournment of the trial date, I didn't 18 give that as much attention as I might have before 19 today. I agree that we're going to need a 20 scheduling conference at some point to establish 21 timelines for filing motions in limine, jury 22 questionnaires, those types of things. Do either of 23 the parties have any suggestions about when that 24 could be effectively accomplished?

25 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, we'll know where we

1 are on some things on October 16, particularly DNA, 2 and the wrongful conviction, and victim's history
3 information.

4 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Perhaps later that week,
5 Judge, we know it's blocked off our calendar so.

6 THE COURT: I know I have got time that 7 week. All right. I'm having the clerk get me my 8 calendar.

9 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Could either be that 10 Thursday or Friday, those work best for us, Judge.

11 THE COURT: Thursday the 19th, morning or 12 afternoon?

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Morning would be just 14 fine.

15 THE COURT: Should we say 10:00.

16 ATTORNEY BUTING: That's fine.

17 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's good, Judge. Thank 18 you.

19 THE CLERK: What date was that?

20 THE COURT: October 19th.

21 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Will that be on the record
22 or in chambers, your Honor?

23 THE COURT: I will notify you about that a 24 little closer to the date, whether it will be on the 25 record, or simply a scheduling conference, or

1 something that involves going on the record. For 2 now, it will be an off the record scheduling 3 conference, but I'm going to hold the time in the 4 event there is anything to deal with on the record.
5 Does either party have anything else that needs 6 addressing?

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: So we'll address
8 deadlines for further motions and the whole sort of 9 schedule before trial at that point?

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: Fine.

12 THE COURT: Anything else today?

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: No, Judge. Thank you.

14 THE COURT: If not, we're adjourned for 15 today.

16 (Proceedings concluded.)

25 Official Court Reporter

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery Case No. 05 CF
3 381. This matter is scheduled for a status 4 conference today. And I will indicate for the 5 record that I met with counsel before we began today 6 and they informed me of the status conference.
7 There were a few matters to take up on the record.
8 Will the parties state their appearances for the 9 record, please.

10 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Your Honor, the state
11 appears by Calumet County District Attorney Ken
12 Kratz appearing as Special Prosecutor. Also special 13 Prosecutors Norm Gahn and Tom Fallon.

14 ATTORNEY BUTING: Good morning, your Honor,
15 Buting and Williams by Attorney Jerome Buting
16 appearing on behalf of Mr. Avery. Also Dean Strang 17 appearing on behalf of Mr. Avery. Mr. Avery is 18 present in court.

19 THE COURT: Very well. Mr. Buting, I
20 believe you indicated you wish to take up a matter 21 concerning a motion recently filed by the defense.

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes, Judge, we filed -- 23 the defense filed, on December 6, a motion to allow 24 the Court to grant us access to a particular exhibit 25 that we discovered has been sitting in the Clerk's

1 Office in Manitowoc County, in Mr. Avery's 1985
2 wrongful conviction case. We discovered that a vial 3 of his blood, or what we believed was a vial of his 4 blood, was in a box in that file. And we filed a
5 motion.

6 We could see that the box itself, the 7 seal, the evidence tape seal, had been broken and 8 that it had been resealed with a piece of scotch 9 tape. We did not want to open that to see if 10 there really was a vial of his blood in that box 11 until the Court allowed us. So we filed this 12 motion.

13 The Court initially sealed it. I 14 understand the Court is unsealing it today. The 15 Court granted the defense request. The parties, 16 including the prosecution team, went to the 17 Clerk's Office last week. The box was opened and 18 there was, inside of it, a styrofoam box that had 19 also at one point been sealed with evidence tape.

20 That evidence tape had been opened, cut 21 open, and inside the styrofoam package was a 22 liquid vial of Mr. Avery's blood, in a tube, that 23 also was unsealed, and therefore available to 24 anyone who would want to use it to plant evidence 25 against Mr. Avery in this case.

1 We filed our motion and set forth some 2 of the links that we believe will establish at 3 trial. And the issues that remain now are 4 whether or not any sort of forensic tests can be 5 done on the blood that will shed any further 6 information for either party and that is 7 something that the State and I will be working on 8 in the next week.

9 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Gahn, are you
10 handling this one for the State?

11 ATTORNEY GAHN: Yes, I am, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: With respect to the defendant's 13 motion, specifically, what's going to be done with 14 this blood, what's the State's position.

15 ATTORNEY GAHN: Your Honor, the State's 16 position is that we would like to have access to 17 that vial of blood. Our initial investigation in 18 looking into this matter has revealed that although 19 we cannot determine who was the source of drawing of 20 this blood and that there may be some questions on 21 chain of custody. At this point we just haven't had 22 time to fully investigate this matter.

23 In any event, we would like to have 24 access to the blood. There is some chemical 25 testing that we would like to do with this blood.

1 We're confident that the testing that we 2 anticipate doing is going to show that this blood 3 had absolutely nothing to do with the case that 4 is in front of this Court.

5 And we also are in the process of 6 interviewing individuals who did have contact 7 with that blood and -- but that was under the 8 Court's approval back in Manitowoc County and 9 that the individuals who did unseal the blood, it 10 was done under the auspices of a court, and there 11 was nothing really surreptitious, or some type of 12 lapse of security where this could be taken or 13 planted. And we're confident we'll be able to 14 show that.

15 But in order to do that, we would ask
16 the Court to unseal that blood and give us access 17 to it so that we can send this for testing.
18 We're so confident in our position that we're 19 more than willing to split that sample, if the 20 Court wishes, with the defense. In any event, we 21 certainly would like to get on with the testing 22 that we believe will show that this vial of blood 23 had absolutely nothing to do with the case before 24 us.

25 THE COURT: All right. With respect to how

1 this matter is to be handled, Mr. Buting, has the 2 defense determined yet whether or not it wishes to 3 test the blood?

4 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, it's my 5 understanding, I don't believe there are any tests 6 that can be done on this vial of blood that are 7 really going to shed any more light to either side.
8 I may be wrong, Mr. Gahn may find someone who thinks 9 that something else can be done. But I very much 10 object to unsealing the evidence and allowing the 11 State to have free access to this blood at this 12 time.

13 What we discussed in chambers I think is 14 a fair way to deal with this, which is that 15 Mr. Gahn and I will talk between now and the end 16 of the year, December 31st, to see if there is a 17 joint proposal we can present to the Court. But 18 my feeling at this time is if there is any 19 transfer of that evidence, I want notice to the 20 defense, I want potentially a representative from 21 the defense present during change of custody, if 22 not even perhaps during the testing itself.

23 But I think we can work that out between 24 the two of us. And if we can't, then we can 25 bring it back to the Court for a decision on how

1 it should be handled. At this time, though, I do
2 strongly urge the Court to keep this evidence 3 locked in the safe at the Clerk's Office in 4 Manitowoc County.

5 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Gahn.

6 ATTORNEY GAHN: May I address that, your 7 Honor?

8 THE COURT: Go ahead.

9 ATTORNEY GAHN: What I would ask the Court
10 to do is this. Again, as we're confident in our 11 position with this vial of blood, I would ask the 12 Court to -- what would be the mechanism. Assume 13 that firstly, wherever we find a place to send this 14 blood, I will call Mr. Buting. They would be 15 welcome to accompany our people, or whoever is doing 16 the testing. They would be welcome to hire an 17 expert to watch the testing. They could even send 18 someone along to accompany the vial of blood 19 wherever it goes. We'll make that opportunity 20 available to them.

21 My concern is this, we're coming up 22 quickly upon this trial date. And there are some 23 places that I believe we may be able to send this 24 vial of blood. Assume that this Friday I come up 25 with a place that I believe is going to give us

1 the -- accomplish the testing that we believe 2 would be appropriate in this case. I will notify 3 Mr. Buting where that will be. And he will be 4 welcome to send his expert or his people along.

5 And the main thing I'm concerned is, if 6 I want to send one of our investigators to 7 Manitowoc County to get that blood, will we be 8 able to have access to it. That's why I'm asking 9 that that be unsealed and the Manitowoc County 10 officials know that, should a representative from 11 the State, and it may either be a Calumet County 12 sheriff or someone from DCI to come to pick up 13 that blood and they can take that blood from the 14 safe.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: And that's exactly what I 16 don't want to happen. If something happens this 17 Friday, then Mr. Gahn can contact me. If we reach 18 agreement, we can certainly notify the Court by 19 stipulation. You know, we could fax, email motions
20 back and forth. And the Court could certainly sign 21 an order promptly. I don't see that there is any 22 need at this time to say -- to give carte blanche 23 access to this.

24 I have had this experience in other 25 counties, that the only way that I know of that

1 you can insure that the defense is notified -- 2 sometimes the Clerk doesn't realize that that's 3 part of the requirement and they go ahead and 4 release it to the State without telling us. The 5 only way to do it, it is in a secured place now, 6 sealed in a safe, with very -- we hope very 7 limited access. And it should remain that way
8 until -- unless and until the State can find 9 somebody, if they wish, who is going to do some 10 of the tests.

11 And with regard to the closeness of 12 trial, this has been sitting in the Clerk's 13 Office throughout the time of this prosecution.
14 This was not some hidden evidence that the 15 defense is dumping on the State at the last time.
16 They had every bit the same opportunity we did to 17 go search the record, particularly since 18 Mr. Avery and his family, from the very 19 beginning, have been claiming that the blood was 20 planted against him by someone in this case.

21 And now we discovered that blood did 22 exist where that could have happened. It was 23 unsealed. The seals have been broken. And I 24 think that the parties can work this out. If 25 Mr. Gahn is concerned about the delay, part of 1 that is because they just chose not to 2 investigate the case and Mr. Avery's claims 3 thoroughly, like they should have.

4 THE COURT: All right. I will make the 5 following observations. And I hear the parties, I 6 don't understand really there to be a dispute 7 between the two parties as to the mechanism for 8 testing the blood. The defense doesn't feel it
9 necessary for the blood to be tested. The State 10 indicates it does and is willing to allow the 11 defense to participate in really, without 12 restriction, in overseeing and the testing of the 13 blood.

14 And the defense is indicating, if the 15 blood is tested, that's what it wants. So I'm 16 anticipating that the parties are going to reach 17 an agreement here. I will give you until -- 18 December 31st is a Sunday, yes, Sunday. So I 19 will give you until Tuesday, the 2nd, to agree.

20 If the parties don't agree, the State 21 can file a motion to examine the blood on such 22 terms as it deems appropriate. And the Court 23 will take up that motion and set it for a hearing 24 in very short order, if that's determined to be 25 necessary. But I have to say, based on what I

1 hear the parties telling me on the record today,
2 I'm not sure why that should be necessary.

3 ATTORNEY GAHN: Your Honor?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 ATTORNEY GAHN: May we also have relief
6 from your January 19th date where you set that for 7 the turnover, the list of rebuttal witnesses. Since 8 I don't know if we'll be able to make that date, I 9 would like to have relief from that also.

10 And the other final question I have is, 11 assume on Friday there is a place we want to send 12 this blood, is it -- would the mechanism of 13 getting that blood into one of our sheriff's or 14 DCI agent's custody to get it into the mail, 15 simple as I will call Mr. Buting, we try to do a 16 conference call Friday, and would it be as simple 17 as you making a phone call to Manitowoc County 18 saying so and so is going to come down on this 19 date, say next Tuesday, you may release it to 20 him. Is it that simple?

21 THE COURT: Well, you can fax me a 22 stipulation. And certainly based on the 23 stipulation, I can order that it be released under 24 the terms of your stipulation. If you don't reach a 25 stipulation, then it gets a little more complicated.

1 With respect to the rebuttal witnesses,
2 before I would allow a party to have relief from 3 the deadline that's been set, I would like to 4 make alternative arrangements for when the 5 rebuttal witnesses would be notified.

6 I will say on the record, that based on 7 the late notice to the State of the development 8 of this evidence, that certainly sounds like 9 grounds for from relief from the existing 10 deadline. But as far as acting on the motion 11 that you just made on the record, I would take 12 that up at such time as it's coupled with a 13 description of when the notice would be provided.

14 Is there anything else that either party
15 wishes to take up on the record at this time? It 16 was my understanding that the State, specifically 17 Mr. Kratz, was looking for some clarification of 18 discovery items.

19 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I am, Judge. In chambers 20 we discussed the lack of materials being provided to 21 the State on February 1st. The State filed a 22 reciprocal discovery demand with the defense. It 23 was our hope that by the 15th of December, the date 24 that the Judge had ordered for exchange of 25 discovery, that we would have received the witness

1 statements, or reports from investigators that 2 summarize the statements from witnesses.

3 We understand that expert reports may 4 accompany an expert witness list sometime in 5 early January. But the lay materials we had 6 hoped would have been provided by the 15th, and 7 if they are forthcoming, we would appreciate 8 notice of that fact.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: The State had every right
11 to expect that by December 15. Indeed, the Court's 12 order set that as a general discovery deadline. I 13 dropped the ball, or let it pass, being focused on 14 the witness list at the time. We have a limited 15 amount of material that I think does fall within the 16 discovery statute. We discussed this in chambers.
17 And I will make every effort to get that to 18 Mr. Kratz, if not this week, then certainly between 19 Christmas and New Years.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Kratz, anything else?

21 ATTORNEY KRATZ: No, Judge. If I get it by 22 the first of the year, that will provide plenty of 23 opportunity for preparation. Thank you, Judge.

24 THE COURT: Very well. Is there anything 25 else either party wishes to bring up on the record

1 at this time?

2 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Could we just have a
3 moment, Judge?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 ATTORNEY KRATZ: We understand, Judge, that 6 some scheduling of logistic matters will be 7 addressed by the Court later on today in a meeting.
8 And there were some other scheduling and other 9 agreements that were placed -- or were discussed in 10 chambers, but nothing that I believe needs to be 11 placed on the record at this time.

12 THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Strang.

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: The only other matter I
14 would have to raise, your Honor, is just a 15 reiteration of our concern and our request that in 16 any proceeding, telephonic or otherwise, in which 17 the Court and the parties go beyond a discussion 18 strictly limited to scheduling, we would like 19 arrangements to be made for the participation in 20 person or by telephone of Mr. Avery.

21 I realize that the schedule is fluid and 22 that the Court may have to convene other 23 hearings. Purely scheduling matters, of course, 24 need not involve Mr. Avery. But to the extent we 25 get into anything other than scheduling, we

1 simply reiterate the request that he be included, 2 present in some practical fashion.

3 THE COURT: All right. Well, certainly 4 there is a statute, aside from fundamental fairness, 5 that requires that that take place. And if there is 6 anything else that we have to go on record for that 7 doesn't involve scheduling, that's what we'll do.
8 Today's hearing was only scheduled to be a status
9 conference, but the parties notified the Court ahead 10 of time that there were some items to be dealt with 11 on the record and that's how we wound up here today.
12 If necessary, we'll do that again in the future.

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: Anything else today?

15 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Not on the record, Judge.

16 THE COURT: Very well. If not, we're 17 adjourned for today.

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

19 THE COURT: Let's go back on the record.
20 Mr. Buting, you had a clarification question?

21 ATTORNEY BUTING: Just the -- did the Court 22 rule then that the motion we filed is going to be 23 unsealed, or is unsealed?

24 THE COURT: I intend to issue that order to 25 unseal the motion.

ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay.

THE COURT: With respect to the evidence that's the subject matter of the motion itself, I indicated that I would withhold ruling on that at this time pending what I anticipate will be an agreement between the parties. And if the parties do not come to an agreement, and the State asks for a motion to have the evidence unsealed, I will rule on that motion when it comes in.

ATTORNEY BUTING: So, in the meantime, the evidence that's the subject of the motion will remain sealed?

THE COURT: Yes.

ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you. I just wanted to clarify that.

THE COURT: Very well. We're adjourned for today.

TRANSCRIPT OF PROCEEDINGS

Reported by Diane Tesheneck, RPR

Official Court Reporter

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery, Case No. 05 CF
3 381. This matter is scheduled this afternoon for a 4 hearing on a motion that was filed yesterday by the 5 State; specifically, a motion to exclude blood vial
6 evidence, or in the alternative, to analyze the vial 7 of blood. Will the parties present state their 8 appearances for the record, please.

9 ATTORNEY KRATZ: The State appears by
10 Calumet County District Attorney Ken Kratz, 11 appearing as Special Prosecutor. Norm Gahn also 12 appears as Special Prosecutor. And I should alert 13 the Court that this is Mr. Gahn's motion.

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: Good afternoon. Steven 15 Avery is here in person this afternoon. Jerome 16 Buting of Buting and Williams appears on his behalf, 17 as do I, Dean Strang of Hurley, Burish and Stanton.
18 I think that covers it.

19 THE COURT: All right. I will indicate for 20 the record that I have received -- I received by 21 fax, it probably came in last night, I read it this 22 morning, that is, the State's motion and the 23 memorandum that was submitted in support of the 24 motion.

25 I have also received and read the

1 defendant's response to the State's motion to 2 exclude the blood vial evidence. I will give the 3 parties a opportunity to briefly supplement the 4 memoranda with oral argument, if they wish.

5 Mr. Gahn.

6 ATTORNEY GAHN: Thank you, your Honor. I
7 believe that the Court can make an analysis under 8 the cited cases in our brief of State v. Richardson
9 and State v. Denny. The State will concede that 10 there may be some relevance to this vial of blood to 11 this trial, but I think that the analysis must go 12 further by the Court and to look at the probative 13 value of this and then to make a determination under 14 904.03 whether this would be a delay of the trial, 15 confusion of issues for the jury. And this complete 16 analysis must be done by the Court.

17 I note from the response by the defense 18 that at no time do they suggest or state that 19 there is -- this vial of blood is admissible.
20 And I believe that under the case law, that the 21 Court should rule that this is inadmissible
22 evidence for these reasons.

23 Conceding there may be some relevancy, I
24 believe that the probative value is very low.
25 And if one makes an analysis akin to the analysis

1 the Court made in State v. Richardson, you have 2 to look at all the assumptions that a jury is 3 going to have to make about this vial of blood.

4 Now, I'm making these assumptions along
5 a Richardson analysis knowing that the defense 6 has not filed or given any type of offer of proof 7 of how they plan to connect the vial of blood to 8 Teresa Halbach's SUV. But the jury is going to 9 have to make the assumption that the blood in the 10 vial is Steven Avery's. They are going to have 11 to assume that it was planted some time between 12 November 3rd and November 5th, or if they -- 13 maybe it was planted October 31st, or 14 November 1st, or 2nd. But that type of 15 assumption implies that perhaps a police officer 16 murdered Teresa Halbach and cut up her body and 17 planted this to try and frame Steven Avery.

18 They would have to assume that the 19 police, or whoever planted it, knew that Teresa 20 Halbach was dead. And how could they know that.
21 The only way they could possibly know that would 22 be is if Steven Avery told them, or Mr. Dassey 23 told them -- and Mr. Dassey didn't say anything 24 until March 1st -- or one of the police actually 25 did the killing, or perhaps they got an anonymous

1 tip.

2 But there are so many factors out here, 3 and so many assumptions that would have to be 4 made, that this lends itself to confusion of 5 issues and misleading the jury and, really, a 6 purposeful attempt to distract their attention 7 from focusing on the true issue in this case, and 8 that is, whether Steven Avery murdered Teresa
9 Halbach.

10 But there's also going to have to be 11 assumptions made that some law enforcement 12 officer had access to this vial of blood somehow, 13 or was there complicity by the Clerk of Court's 14 in Manitowoc County, or was it just --

15 This isn't a case of negligence we're 16 talking about, you know, an intentional crime 17 committed by law enforcement officers, and 18 possibly along with the Clerk of Court's. This 19 is an appalling allegation that's being made.

20 And there's so many assumptions, as I
21 said, would have to be made by the jury, that I 22 believe that this is a very low probative value
23 to this evidence. And when you have a low 24 probative value to the evidence, the analysis 25 under a 904.03 examination certainly shows how

1 this would be such a waste of time and confusion
2 of issues and distraction to the jury.

3 Because the Court, I believe from prior 4 ruling, especially when we argued the 904.04 (b) 5 other acts, other wrongs and crimes evidence, the 6 Court wants this trial to focus on whether Steven 7 Avery murdered Teresa Halbach and not get 8 sidetracked on other issues and collateral 9 issues. But if this vial of evidence comes in, 10 it is just fraught with other issues such as is 11 it Steven Avery's, who drew it, what happened
12 when it was at Laboratory Corporation of America, 13 who had access to it, what are the security 14 procedures at the Manitowoc County Clerk of 15 Court's Office.

16 There are just so many side issues and 17 collateral issues, that I believe that it 18 necessitates under a 904.03 analysis that this 19 evidence lacks, number one, probative value and 20 also would be a waste of time and confusion of 21 issues, for the jury. And we ask the Court to 22 not allow this evidence to come in.

23 I also want to address, I guess, sort of 24 a preemptive strike I would like to make on this 25 knowledge on our part, the State, and our access

1 to this vial of blood and the untimeliness of 2 notifying us about the existence of it.

3 I want the Court to know that the 4 prosecution team, I believe, exercised due 5 diligence in looking for this vial -- a vial of 6 blood. We recognized this early on and asked our 7 detectives to search for it. And we have 8 searched in all the places that one would expect 9 to find a vial of blood, crime labs, Manitowoc 10 County Sheriff's Department, law enforcement.
11 And as I said, we exercised due diligence looking 12 for it.

13 This vial of blood turns out to be in 14 existence, but there's really a few people who 15 knew about it. It was never in the control of 16 law enforcement. And to try and associate the 17 Manitowoc County Clerk of Court's office with law
18 enforcement is a stretch. This is a public 19 service. They serve the public. These are 20 people who have taken, I imagine, an oath of 21 office, and they have jobs, civil, and criminal, 22 and all the other things that go along with the 23 Clerk of Court's. They are not associated with 24 law enforcement at all.

25 And I was very surprised to see that a

1 vial of blood, to turn up there. But we did 2 look, and we looked to try and find it, because 3 we felt that if they want to pursue a planting 4 defense, fine, but how do you plant evidence if 5 there is no blood.

6 Now they have come up with this, but 7 this is information that was in the possession of 8 Mr. Avery, he could tell them, hey, blood was 9 drawn from me up in Fox Lake, or whatever it was, 10 in 1996. And this was also a Innocence Project
11 case, and that is something I think the defense 12 is more aligned with than prosecution are aligned 13 with.

14 And they had more of an opportunity to 15 know and find out the existence of this vial of 16 blood. And they knew about it at the latest in 17 July, July 20th. It could have been earlier.
18 But I believe that they viewed -- if they viewed 19 it so importantly, and wanted it sealed, they 20 should have told us about it.

21 I think they had a responsibility under 22 971.23, the discovery statute, to tell us about 23 this and give us the opportunity to test this.
24 Because this is -- this is the crux of the case, 25 this vial of blood now. And we need to meet the 1 defense and have the opportunity to test this 2 vial to meet their defense.

3 And the defense in this case, and I just 4 want to reiterate to the Court that, you're 5 talking -- this is -- you're talking about 6 people's reputations here. There is an 7 allegation that are going to be made by the 8 defense, and they have made them already, that 9 perhaps some law enforcement officer, someone 10 from Manitowoc County, who is sworn to protect 11 the public, to serve the public, took this vial 12 of blood -- and so callously disregard for the 13 Halbach family -- planted this evidence in a car
14 and didn't care who murdered Teresa Halbach.
15 This is appalling. This is a despicable defense.

16 And also they are saying that someone in 17 that Manitowoc County Courthouse, whether it be 18 through complicity, or slipshod operations, that 19 this place was just wide open for anybody to 20 willy-nilly walk in and get access to it. And 21 that's not what I found when I visited the 22 Manitowoc County Clerk of Court's Office. I
23 didn't find that at all. And it's just a 24 despicable allegation and defense and we need to 25 meet it, your Honor. We need to meet it full on.

1 And I'm asking the Court, first, to rule
2 that under a Richardson and also a Denny
3 analysis, how is the defense going to connect the 4 vial of blood in the Manitowoc County Clerk of 5 Court's Office to the SUV of Teresa Halbach. How 6 do they make that connection? Just by saying so, 7 it exists?

8 I mean, you could make that same
9 argument that if Mr. Avery donated blood, or one 10 was taken for a medical procedure, or blood was 11 drawn for any myriad of reasons, that, oh, just 12 because it exists, therefore, somehow, under all 13 those possible scenarios, the blood was taken by 14 someone and planted in the SUV. The connection 15 is there. It is not there. They have not met 16 the law under Denny or under a Richardson
17 analysis, so it should be excluded.

18 But if the Court does not wish to 19 exclude it, we ask the Court to allow us time to 20 test it. And we want to test it with the FBI.
21 That may take three to four months to test it, so 22 we would be asking for a continuance.

23 And the other concerns that we have are 24 the many, many potential appellate issues that 25 could come up, especially under a Hicks, Moran,

1 and Armstrong analysis on whether it be in the 2 interest of justice, or ineffective assistance of 3 counsel. There is evidence, a blood vial that 4 can be tested chemically, that can be 5 scientifically tested. And it can tell us
6 whether the blood in Teresa Halbach's car came 7 from that vial of blood. And I believe this case 8 is too important, we have come too far, too long, 9 and too many vicious allegations, against people 10 who are public servants or law enforcement 11 officers, have been made, that we must have the 12 opportunity to have that vial and do the testing 13 that we believe is suitable to meet their 14 defense. May I just have one moment, your Honor?

15 THE COURT: Go ahead.

16 ATTORNEY GAHN: That's all I have. Thank 17 you.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Buting. Or I got the brief
19 from Mr. Mr. Buting; is it Mr. Strang?

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: We may both respond at 21 different times, depending on the issues that come 22 up, but Mr. Strang will take the lead here.

23 ATTORNEY STRANG: One of the good things, 24 your Honor, that 8 or 900 years of history, with the 25 English common law and coming across the Atlantic to

1 the United States, has done for us is to make combat
2 in a courtroom ritual. And when the language 3 becomes very charged and the emotions become very 4 charged, as inevitably they will in a case in which 5 the most serious, horrible, and heinous crime is 6 alleged, it's good to have this tradition of 7 civility, and ritual control of a combat, to fall 8 back upon.

9 And I agree that the potential 10 implications, as opposed to the allegations that 11 we made, because we have made very few 12 allegations, we have tried to present facts at 13 this point and to explore things that we have 14 found in the Manitowoc County Circuit Court. But 15 I agree with my friend, Mr. Gahn, that the 16 potential inferences from this are, indeed, 17 despicable in the sense of being unspeakable, in 18 the sense of being horrible, and in the sense, 19 particularly, impossibly true.

20 And I go back to the starting point here
21 in noting the allegations that Steven Avery 22 murdered Teresa Halbach are despicable in the 23 very same way. The allegation that he had sex 24 against this young woman's will with her are 25 despicable, and vicious, in the very same way.

1 And unlike every law enforcement officer
2 of Manitowoc County, Mr. Avery doesn't go home at 3 night while he is under these sorts of 4 allegations. Presumed innocent though he may be,
5 he sits here today in custody.

6 And in large part, the issues that the 7 State raises now, the Court already has 8 addressed, after thorough briefing from both 9 sides, briefs filed in June, State's may have 10 actually been filed in May, I don't remember. I 11 know ours in response to the State's motion to 12 prohibit evidence of third party liability was 13 filed on or about June 26th.

14 And the Court has ruled, on July 10 of 15 last year, just exactly what the disclosure 16 obligation was on the defense for extrinsic 17 evidence of planting, has ruled on what 18 inferences we might pursue, or argue, without 19 extrinsic evidence of planting. And I am glad to 20 hear this afternoon that counsel for the State 21 does not reiterate the written argument made 22 yesterday, that our disclosure was untimely,
23 under this Court's orders. Because by the time 24 this Court set a schedule on July 10 for 25 disclosure of this sort of evidence, the trial

1 had been moved to October 16. That meant July 10
2 set a September 16 deadline.

3 Long before that deadline arrived,
4 August 22 arrived, and the trial was moved to 5 February 5. And after very thorough discussion 6 and disagreement to be worked through and an 7 exchange of drafts and going round and round and 8 making at least two, and maybe three trips,
9 between Mr. Buting and the defense investigators 10 and the Manitowoc County Circuit Court, we 11 decided to disclose this extrinsic evidence, or 12 arguably extrinsic evidence of possible planting
13 of Steven Avery's blood, to the State.

14 Not 30 days before trial as the Court's 15 order required, but 60. And not to pursue this 16 ex parte, as we had intimated in chambers we were 17 considering at one point, but to pursue it in 18 open court, in an unsealed fashion, and with 19 service upon our adversaries.

20 Those weren't easy decisions, but the 21 fact is that disclosure was not just timely here, 22 it was 30 days before the deadline that the Court 23 set after considering exactly the Richardson
24 argument and the Holmes vs. South Carolina
25 argument to which Mr. Gahn harkens back today.

1 The issue, as I understand it here,
2 primarily, is disclosure, and now, where do we go
3 from there. To the extent the State is arguing 4 to exclude evidence of possible planting, the 5 Court's ruled on that. I don't know, unless 6 there are questions from the Court that there's a 7 need to revisit the briefing and the rulings on 8 that earlier, particularly since the timing of 9 disclosure now ought be resolved, because we more 10 than complied with the Court's timing order.

11 The vial clearly will be admissible.
12 Its availability and proximity to members of the 13 Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department comes in on 14 undisputed facts to the extent of the location of 15 the Clerk's Office, the location of the Sheriff's 16 Department, the location within the Clerk's 17 Office of two boxes or cartons that contain the 18 1985 Avery file.

19 And the 904.03 analysis, I think,
20 benefits in a sense, from stepping back just a 21 little bit, again, and understanding that from 22 the beginning counsel for the State has 23 estimated, as I recall, that it would take four 24 to five weeks to present the State's 25 case-in-chief against Mr. Avery on the despicable

1 allegations that the State hopes to prove. And 2 that perhaps a week would be sufficient for the 3 defense case-in-chief in responding to those 4 allegations.

5 Now, recently the State has suggested 6 that if there aren't some stipulations from the 7 defense this maybe four to five weeks is tight
8 for the State's case-in-chief. And I will say 9 this, one week is still adequate, or better than 10 adequate, for the defense case.

11 So if we're to have a discussion about 12 all the linkages that would have to be made, and 13 all the witnesses that would have -- who would 14 have to be called, the balance pretty clearly 15 here tips in favor of the defense and against an 16 argument that this is collateral, or a waste of 17 time.

18 This evidence goes directly to the 19 integrity of some of the most damning evidence 20 against Mr. Avery that the State intends to 21 offer. And that's the very small amounts of his 22 dried blood that the State will say were found in 23 Teresa Halbach's Toyota.

24 He's been saying from the beginning, to 25 anybody with a microphone and TV camera,

1 initially in early November, 2005, that if his 2 blood was in the Toyota, somebody planted it. So 3 that hasn't been any secret about his defense and 4 his view of the facts.

5 We, as his agents, to a large extent, 6 played the hand that he dealt us, looked down the 7 road to which he pointed us. That the State 8 didn't look in the same places we did, alters not 9 one wit this irreducible fact, the evidence here
10 uncovered in the Manitowoc County Circuit Court, 11 in the Clerk of Court's Office, was as available 12 to the State, or to a member of the public, as it 13 was to the defense.

14 I don't know that I'm going to go 15 farther on arguing admissibility, because that's 16 not primarily what we're here for today. But I 17 do want to address the matter of further testing 18 and an adjournment, and I think Mr. Buting is 19 better equipped to speak to the specifics of 20 possible testing.

21 We have tried and failed to get him,
22 Steven Avery out on bail. It's been 14 months.
23 It's been solitary confinement. And it's been 24 under conditions where the taping of his every 25 word, other than to counsel, for one reason, has

1 been used assiduously for the other reason, of 2 gathering evidence by the State. And if he is to 3 remain in custody, we will and do oppose the 4 adjournment of this trial. We want it to go 5 forward on February 5, if he is to remain in 6 custody.

7 Now, the question of the State's ability 8 or interest in testing can be separated from an 9 adjournment. And, again, after talking about it 10 with Mr. Buting, and his conversations with 11 Mr. Gahn, who is a candid and accessible 12 adversary, we believe that the blood in the vial 13 that was found in the Clerk's Office can be 14 partitioned, divided in a way that does not 15 prejudice the defense and that would allow the 16 State to undertake the testing it seeks to do.

17 I am assured by Mr. Gahn, and I accept 18 his word entirely that, moreover, even the very 19 small amounts of dried blood in the Toyota RAV 20 are sufficient to allow partitioning or to allow 21 testing by the State, without full consumption or 22 spoliation of that dried blood evidence. I take 23 him at his word. He is an expert in the area of 24 blood and DNA.

25 So I think, that as a matter of testing,

1 the Court can fashion conditions that do not 2 prejudice Steven Avery and that would allow the 3 State to pursue the course of testing, any course 4 of testing it may wish. The admissibility or 5 relevance of the results of that testing, I 6 cannot address and the Court cannot address at 7 this point. Nobody has briefed it. We know very 8 little about the proposed EDTA testing.

9 The track record of admissibility in 10 case law is not good, but it is also not terribly
11 extensive. But, again, this is a separable 12 issue, in the sense that testing can go forward.
13 Admissibility and relevance of results of 14 testing, or opinions formed on the basis of 15 testing, can be addressed later, when there's 16 more, factually, to work with.

17 But if the State wants to test, and if 18 Mr. Avery is to remain in custody, the trial 19 ought go forward while the testing process is 20 going forward. If Mr. Avery is instead to be 21 released on stringent conditions that would 22 assure the community's safety, and realistically 23 remove any slight risk of flight he may 24 represent, then the calculus changes entirely 25 for the defense.

1 We would not oppose an adjournment under 2 those circumstances. We don't pursue testing
3 ourselves. We don't know that we will. We 4 aren't asking to. But we understand why the 5 State wants to pursue that testing. And we also 6 understand the potential ramifications, largely 7 unknowable now, but certainly imaginable, of 8 testing results that might cast doubt about a 9 verdict previously rendered in this case.

10 So, if this man could go home at night, 11 as the law enforcement officers do, and as the 12 rest of us do, with a GPS bracelet on his ankle, 13 or checking in every day to the Two Rivers Police 14 Department, or whatever the conditions are that 15 send him home, we would not oppose the State's 16 request for an adjournment to test.

17 We may well oppose in the end the 18 admissibility, the relevance of those test
19 results, but that, again, is something the Court 20 could address with the benefit of knowledge of 21 the test results, presumably, and a chance to 22 look at the type of testing that was done, the 23 protocols, and what the case law may have to say 24 about the admissibility of similar tests.

25 We have not sought defense testing at

1 this point ourselves, because as Mr. Buting said 2 the last time we were in court, we don't know of 3 a test that can be done that would be productive 4 or helpful. A federal decision from 2005 that 5 Mr. Buting uncovered, has a federal judge writing 6 in her decision that the FBI stopped doing the 7 very testing that Mr. Gahn now says the FBI will 8 do.

9 Mr. Gahn's information is fresher and,
10 again, this is a man who knows what he's doing 11 and is candid. But our best information had been 12 that the FBI wasn't in this business.

13 Mr. Buting can address the other lab
14 that the State has identified as being a possible 15 site for testing, and I have no basis on which to 16 dispute the State's assertion that there are, in 17 this whole country, but two laboratories capable,
18 presently, of doing this testing, the FBI and a 19 private laboratory the State has named.

20 Realistically, for reasons Mr. Buting can 21 address, the private laboratory may not be a good 22 choice for either the State or the defense.

23 So, I hope I have been clear. I 24 understand why the State wants to test. If the 25 presumption of innocence that he enjoys were

1 undergirded and backstopped here by letting him
2 sleep where innocent people, or presumptively 3 innocent people sleep, we would not oppose an 4 adjournment.

5 The Court may deny the adjournment for 6 its own reasons, but not over our objection, if 7 bail were modified so that he didn't spend 4 more 8 months, after 14, in jail, presumptively 9 innocent, in solitary confinement, and with his 10 every word to his loved ones listened to by 11 police, for potential evidence.

12 If that state of life is to continue 13 until he is tried, then Steven Avery opposes an 14 adjournment, thinks that testing could go forward 15 without prejudice to him, but reserves the right 16 to challenge or support, conceivably, 17 admissibility or relevance of test results and 18 opinions flowing from those test results.

19 And I would like to turn it over to 20 Mr. Buting to go give the Court a little bit 21 better sense of why the 30 day testing option 22 with a private lab may, in the end, not be 23 feasible for either the State or the defense.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

25 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, just to give you a

1 little bit of background, I looked into this. And 2 part of what we were doing when we discovered the 3 possibility that Mr. Avery's blood vial may be in 4 the Clerk's Office and recall that all we knew was 5 that there was a box that said it was in there, the 6 books we did not open until the Court granted
7 permission in December.

8 But in my research, it did not appear 9 that there was a credible lab available to do the 10 kind of testing that Mr. Gahn now says the FBI is 11 doing. And I don't know anything about their 12 protocol and whether this is credible or not.

13 But what I do know is that the kind of test he is 14 talking about, this EDTA test, to be able to try 15 and measure whether there is this preservative
16 that is found in blood vials, certain blood 17 vials, whether that can be detected in a 18 bloodstain at a crime scene, never came up until 19 the middle of the O.J. Simpson trial, at which 20 point the FBI, for the first time, while the 21 trial was going on, developed some sort of 22 testing protocol.

23 Their expert was called, actually by the 24 defense in the O.J. case, and was very helpful to 25 the defense, and ultimately very embarrassing to

1 the FBI, who was part of the whistle blower
2 allegations in the very lengthy investigation 3 that the FBI lab did of misconduct, or 4 negligence, or sloppy practices in their lab.
5 And that analyst, who had testified about the 6 EDTA test, was called to task for that very 7 testimony and that very test.

8 Since that case, a few cases have gone 9 forward where it's almost -- in fact, it is 10 always the defense that seeks to use this kind of 11 a test to determine -- and in most cases I think 12 it's been post-conviction -- but to determine 13 whether or not the blood may have been planted 14 that was found at the crime scene.

15 The alternate lab that the State
16 mentions in their motion, National Medical 17 Services located in Willow Grove, Pennsylvania, 18 has been severely discredited. And for that 19 reason, we didn't come to the Court and ask that 20 they do such a test.

21 The federal case that Mr. Strang was 22 referring to, for some reason I could not find on 23 Westlaw, but it is in public record. It is on 24 the website, PACER website, for the United States 25 District Court and the Southern District of

1 California, it's Kevin Cooper vs. Jill Brown,
2 Warden of San Quentin. And the District Court
3 Judge issued a very thorough, 160-page decision, 4 describing the protocol that was used for EDTA 5 test in that case.

6 About 26 pages of the 160 concerned that 7 one issue, the EDTA protocol, how it was devised.
8 There were affidavits filed by the FBI in that 9 case, that federal judge says in a footnote that, 10 Although the FBI had been testing during the O.J.
11 Simpson case, they were no longer in the business 12 of doing EDTA tests. So when I saw that, my 13 knowledge was that, really, there was nobody 14 credible still doing these kinds of tests.

15 THE COURT: What's the year of the case?

16 ATTORNEY BUTING: The decision came out in 17 June of 2005. I didn't copy the whole 160 pages so 18 I don't have that, but the Case No. -- the local 19 Case No. is 04-CV-656 and I have a PDF I could 20 certainly forward to the Court, that I was able to 21 download from their website.

22 In that case the defense used
23 Dr. Ballard from this National Medical Services.
24 And he was so severely discredited by not only 25 this court, but a prior court, New Jersey vs.

1 Pompey, that I just want to read this so that you 2 realize that, frankly, that alternative is not on 3 the table as far as I can see, from either side, 4 to try and submit testing to there.

5 What the court found in Pompey, as 6 repeated in this Cooper case, is that 7 Dr. Ballard's analytical methods were haphazard 8 and unreliable.

9 In sum, he used valid science, gas
10 chromatography/mass spectrometry, to obtain a 11 product, glibly and unscientifically dismissed
12 EDTA sources other than the purple-topped tubes, 13 and took a gargantuan leap to a conclusion that 14 is unsupported by science, facts in the record, 15 or even common sense.

16 Ballard skewed the presentation of his 17 data, obscured the significance of his findings, 18 and changed his hypotheses to suit defendant's 19 tampering theory. Ballard did not demonstrate 20 that his conclusions were predicated on a 21 reliable foundation. Rather, his constant
22 equivocations discredited his method of reasoning
23 and, thus, rendered his ultimate conclusion 24 worthless.

25 So I say this just so that it is very

1 clear, I do not see that lab as any option for 2 either side. And, therefore, we're left with, if 3 Mr. Gahn's information is correct, I have no 4 reason to doubt, but his information apparently 5 now is that the FBI is back in the business of 6 doing this. I don't know how they do it. And I 7 would certainly reserve the opportunity to 8 challenge the reliability or methods of protocol 9 that they use, and may want to discuss with this 10 Court further, how that should be done if that's 11 -- testing is granted. But, clearly, the FBI is 12 the only option, so I can understand why that is 13 the State's preference. Thank you.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Gahn.

15 ATTORNEY GAHN: Just very briefly, your 16 Honor. I think you can see that the defense at 17 least agrees that there's something important about 18 doing this testing, that traditionally it's been 19 requested by the defense and has generally come up 20 on post-conviction motions. The FBI does do this 21 testing. I have spoken with them on a number of 22 occasions, yesterday was the latest that I spoke 23 with the chemist, toxicologist who would be doing 24 this testing for us.

25 I do not, as I stated in the brief, for

1 the Court's information, I said there were two 2 places. I do not care to send it to National 3 Medical Services. We want to send it to the FBI.
4 That's where I believe the history, and 5 experience, and methodology used by them is -- 6 will be to our benefit, should there be an 7 admissibility hearing down the road.

8 But I think that the defense recognizes 9 the importance of doing this testing. And if, as 10 they say, this vial of blood goes to the 11 integrity of our evidence, we have to test it, 12 your Honor. And we have to test it at a 13 credible, meaningful laboratory.

14 I don't think there is any way around
15 this. We either test it now, or test it later.
16 And the cases, I believe, under whether it be 17 ineffective assistance of counsel, or whether it 18 be the interest of justice, it's going to be 19 tested later. That's my belief. And I think 20 that our -- the history of these cases in 21 Wisconsin indicates that it would be prudent to 22 do it now instead of later.

23 THE COURT: Do I understand that, although 24 the National Medical Services Laboratory is 25 mentioned in your brief, that you share Mr. Buting's

1 opinion of their capabilities of doing this testing?

2 ATTORNEY GAHN: Let me put it this way, I 3 share that there has been prior cases, or especially 4 the case, the Cooper case, Mr. Buting, that that is 5 in existence, and the National Medical Services, 6 Dr. Ballard, did not fair well. Yes, I agree. And 7 I do not care to send it there. Now, whether they 8 have -- No, I agree, I do not believe that that is 9 an appropriate lab to send it to.

10 THE COURT: And with respect to the FBI
11 testing, has something changed at the FBI since 12 Mr. Buting indicates they were criticized in the 13 previous case.

14 ATTORNEY GAHN: I don't know, your Honor I
15 don't know that they stopped doing it. I'm not 16 aware of that. When I talked to the FBI -- I just 17 do not know about that. All I know is that they can 18 test it and they can quantify it.

19 I want to say something else. There are 20 a few differences, though. And I know that 21 Dr. Ballard did get beat up in some courts, and 22 he did make some stretches and leaps in his 23 conclusions. But as I recall the cases I read, 24 and they are probably the same that Mr. Buting 25 read, you were talking about, he was a defense

1 witness.

2 And they were talking about blood that 3 was on fabrics, like on a person's shirt. There 4 is a diffusion of that blood throughout the 5 shirt, and it is difficult to try to determine 6 the volume of what that blood would be, or what 7 would be the volume of the EDTA in that, as 8 compared to the volume of EDTA that's in the 9 blood.

10 I don't ever recall a case that I read 11 where they had the actual purple-topped tube 12 where they say it's coming from to make a 13 comparison, so that's a difference.

14 The other difference is is that 15 according to the records that the defense
16 provided me, Laboratory Corporation of America, 17 two days after this blood was drawn by the nurse, 18 made a spot card of it. So that is almost a 19 control that would be very helpful in the 20 interpretation of this case, if that control is 21 still in existence.

22 Now, I have a call out to Laboratory
23 Corporation of America. I talked to a Meghan
24 Clement, and as I said in my brief, there are a 25 lot of questions still we have to investigate and

1 look at. But if that spot card is available, 2 then you have sort of like a control, that was 3 taken right after the blood was drawn.

4 And that spot card, usually, are very 5 fresh. They are free of any type of 6 contaminates. And that's the purpose of them.
7 You could get an EDTA level right there. And the 8 other thing is, that we have blood that is on, 9 like, the vinyl of the car, on the metal portion,
10 and good photographs of it, things that there 11 isn't any excuses, that one could possibly make a 12 rational determination of the volume that is 13 there.

14 And that's the difference with this 15 case, than the ones I read where Dr. Ballard, I 16 think did make some leaps, a few leaps from this 17 fabric evidence, and whether it contained blood 18 that would have come from a purple-topped tube.
19 But we have the tube here. I also believe that 20 if we get it, we could make some type of 21 quantitation.

22 The problem is this, if you look on that 23 Exhibit 3, that the defense sent us in their 24 initial brief, from Laboratory Corporation of 25 America, I can't tell whether they removed one or

1 two milliliters. I don't know what tube this is.
2 I don't know if the nurse drew the full container 3 of the tube. I don't even know the size of the 4 tube.

5 All these questions we are trying to 6 answer. And we have only -- And it's been very 7 difficult over the Christmas and New Year's 8 holidays finding people, mostly everyone is 9 operating under a skeletal crew in their offices.
10 We are trying to do, which in contact people, 11 that had we known about this back in July we 12 could have done it. And apparently the defense 13 has not pursued any of that.

14 And I believe that they just like the 15 fact that there's this vial there. And they are 16 going to just draw their conclusions and try and 17 get the jury to speculate what all the 18 possibilities could have happened to that vial.
19 That's a -- We want to get to the truth. We want 20 to test this. And I believe we must test it.

21 THE COURT: And what's the -- your brief 22 indicates that -- that the FBI will require three to 23 four months, is that because the test takes that 24 long or some other reason?

25 ATTORNEY GAHN: I think it's a

1 recalibration of their instrumentation.

2 THE COURT: Explain that to me.

3 ATTORNEY GAHN: Well, from my 4 understanding, is that every -- during 5 accreditation, you have to recalibrate all your 6 instruments that you do whatever your tests are on.
7 They are in that process of doing the recalibration
8 of their instrumentation. That's my understanding 9 of why it's three to four months.

10 THE COURT: And is there -- Do you know 11 whether or not there's anything that can accelerate 12 that schedule? Do they understand that this case is 13 scheduled to go to trial in a month?

14 ATTORNEY GAHN: Yes, I have made that clear
15 as far as -- and I asked and, no, they cannot do 16 that within that time frame.

17 THE COURT: All right. What I'm going to 18 do today is take under advisement this weekend the 19 request of the State to adjourn the trial. That's 20 one of the issues that's raised here. And I want to 21 spend some time to think about that.

22 With respect to the other issue that's 23 raised concerning the frame-up evidence, if you
24 will, I did go back and take a look at my notes
25 from July. And this is one case where I didn't

1 pay enough attention to my own notes. I did 2 indicate in my notes to myself, that if there was 3 going to be evidence introduced in support of a 4 frame-up defense, that it should be dealt with by 5 a motion in limine ahead of time.

6 At this point, the Court has been 7 informed by the defense that the blood vial in 8 the Clerk's Office would form the basis, or maybe 9 the key element, of a defense case regarding an 10 alleged frame-up. I don't know what other 11 evidence the defense may be contemplating 12 introducing as part of that defense. And in 13 order to conduct an appropriate analysis under 14 Richardson as to whether such evidence should be 15 admissible, I have to know what it is.

16 We have a motions hearing scheduled for 17 January 19th. What I'm going to order is that 18 the defense provide the Court, in the form of a 19 motion in limine, that whatever evidence it 20 intends to introduce on the issue of a frame-up 21 defense, by next Friday, so that I can review 22 that evidence and we can be prepared to deal with 23 the motion on the 19th of January. I will, on 24 the issue of the request for and adjournment, get 25 back to the parties early next week --

1 Is there anything else today, keeping in 2 mind we still have, and I think we're still going 3 to keep it, the 9:00 status conference tomorrow?
4 I want a telephone status conference. I want 5 to -- just to inventory things that have to be 6 addressed before we proceed on the 19th.

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: There's one more thing
8 today. We have, tomorrow, at the end of the day, a 9 deadline on expert disclosure and also Denny
10 disclosure. I think we can hit -- I think we can 11 hit the expert disclosure.

12 We could hit the Denny disclosure, but I 13 have lost a lot of time this week because of this 14 issue, and an unexpected trip to court, and also 15 because of the cancellation of a flight on 16 Tuesday morning, back from a weekend away, and 17 would like the opportunity to file, by Monday at 18 noon, the Denny response, rather than by tomorrow 19 at 4:30. I ran that by Mr. Kratz, I'm sure he is 20 not wild about it but, as always, he is courteous 21 and I think doesn't have any objection, but of 22 course that's the Court's call.

23 THE COURT: Any objection from the State?

24 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's a professional
25 accommodation I'm willing to provide, Judge, not a

25 Official Court Reporter

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery, Case No. 05 CF
3 381. We are here this morning for a motions
4 hearing. Will the parties state their appearances 5 for the record, please.

6 ATTORNEY KRATZ: On behalf of the State of 7 Wisconsin, your Honor, Ken Kratz, Calumet County
8 District Attorney; Norm Gahn, Assistant District 9 Attorney for Milwaukee County; Tom Fallon, from the 10 Department of Justice, all appear as Special 11 Prosecutors.

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: Steven Avery appears in 13 person. Jerome Buting of Buting and Williams, to my 14 left, on his behalf. And Dean Strang of Hurley, 15 Burish and Stanton, as well.

16 THE COURT: All right. I will indicate for 17 the record that I met briefly with counsel in 18 chambers before we began, to take an inventory of 19 motions that are outstanding and set up the order in 20 which they will be addressed this morning. The 21 first motion is the State's motion for relief from 22 pre-trial scheduling order. Mr. Kratz.

23 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Mr. Gahn will handle that
24 motion.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Gahn.

1 ATTORNEY GAHN: Your Honor, I believe that 2 the motion that we filed speaks for itself. We're 3 just asking the Court -- Today was the deadline for 4 us to turn over rebuttal witnesses, and in light of 5 the recent events, we're asking to be relieved from 6 that, because we may need to do some additional 7 testing. We don't know yet if we will, but we're 8 asking the Court to relieve us from that 9 responsibility to reveal any of our rebuttal
10 witnesses, expert witnesses especially, today.

11 And I have cited a State v. Konkol in 12 support for this request. And also our own 13 discovery provisions under 971.23 (1)(d) which 14 basically excludes rebuttal witnesses from what a 15 district attorney must disclose to the defendant.

16 THE COURT: All right. Will it be 17 Mr. Strange or Mr. Buting?

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: I have got it, Judge. We 19 don't have a real concern about their request, 20 assuming that it relates -- it's limited to this 21 issue of the blood vial and whether there's any 22 other testing that can still be done on it. I don't 23 know that at this point that there is any, and they 24 haven't decided if there is anything yet at all.

25 But assuming that it is limited to that

1 and that something is ongoing between now and the 2 next few weeks, we don't have any objection to 3 extending the time for them to file any kind of 4 notice. And, frankly, I'm sure that Mr. Gahn 5 would share with us whatever results they are 6 going to come up with anyway. I don't think that 7 he's intending to do some ambush on this issue.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Gahn.

9 ATTORNEY GAHN: Your Honor, I don't want
10 this to be limited to just the blood vial situation.
11 It may involve other witness' testimony as far as 12 the whole -- the fording or attacking the defense 13 that may be presented in this case. So I don't want 14 to just limit to that one area.

15 We have some additional investigation to 16 do to look at in light of some recent documents 17 also that have been filed by the defense. So we 18 may not want that limited at all to just the 19 blood vial, but all aspects of the defense; the 20 location of the vial, where it was, who had 21 custody of it, all -- everything. It's all 22 related. It surrounds all of that issue. But 23 it's not just to that, it may be other 24 testimonial evidence.

25 THE COURT: Your motion refers to the blood

1 vial and other related evidence. So I take it that 2 you are not looking for blanket relief from the 3 requirement of the pre-trial order, but you are 4 pointing out, that to the extent that other evidence 5 relates to the blood vial, that's the nature of your 6 request?

7 ATTORNEY GAHN: That's correct your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

9 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, I'm not sure how 10 that other related evidence would involve expert 11 witnesses. I thought that's what he was referring 12 to here. The Court's order, Paragraph 4 B 4, I 13 don't have right in front of me, but.

14 THE COURT: It provides that the State 15 shall provide to the defense the identity of any 16 rebuttal expert witness the State intends to call, 17 along with copies of reports of any such expert, on 18 or before January 19. Goes on to provide, the State 19 may request additional time, if necessary, based on 20 the nature of any proposed but previously 21 unanticipated testimony of any named defense expert.

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: So, again, I'm not sure 23 what other kind of expert testimony might be 24 involved in this, but as long as it's not a blanket 25 exemption from the Court's -- I think the Court does

1 have discretion to pose these kinds of deadlines.
2 The Court did impose the deadlines, and imposed the 3 deadlines against the defense as well, which we have 4 complied with. So, I think maybe there needs to be 5 more clarification later if there is something that 6 we're not anticipating here. But otherwise --

7 THE COURT: Let me ask this, I understand,
8 based on the previous arguments and information 9 presented to the Court related to the type of 10 testing that might be involved, that it may be 11 difficult for the State to put any timetable on when 12 information might be presented to the defense. But 13 can there be a description, in terms of so much time 14 before such evidence would be offered, that the 15 information would be presented to the defense?

16 ATTORNEY GAHN: I don't know if I can 17 commit to that, your Honor. Because it's just -- I 18 don't know exactly, depending on future rulings, 19 where we are going to be going. I guess at this 20 juncture I would inform the Court that, as far as 21 expert testimony, I suspect that testimony will be 22 pertaining to the vial, but there may be other lay 23 witnesses that we'll be presenting to thwart the 24 overall defense of, we're talking the location, the 25 security, and everything involved in the defense.

1 And I simply would ask the Court to 2 perhaps recognize State v. Konkol and what the 3 Court has held, and also the statutory language
4 which basically states that the State does not 5 have to turn over its rebuttal witnesses to the 6 defense.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

8 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, on the other hand, 9 the Court did impose the December 15th deadline for 10 discovery, of all types of discovery. Now, 11 obviously, some discovery may be forthcoming based 12 on additional investigation that they have been 13 doing, but I would expect that the State would be 14 required, or should be required, to turn over such 15 discovery immediately, as soon as they get it, 16 rather than, you know, holding it back as some 17 ambush that they are going to present in the 18 rebuttal, whether it's lay or otherwise.

19 I think that the discovery, the ongoing 20 duty to supplement the discovery, should require 21 prompt compliance, as we have been doing. We 22 have turned over some reports just in the last 23 few days, in fact.

24 THE COURT: All right. What I'm going to 25 do is this, the motion as I understand it requests

1 relief from the pre-trial scheduling order in order
2 to allow the State to conduct scientific testing on 3 the blood vial and other related evidence. I 4 believe that this type of an extension was 5 contemplated at the time the pre-trial order was 6 issued, and so I'm going to grant the request as 7 it's framed.

8 I'm gathering from the argument of the 9 parties that other issues could arise that may be 10 contested, but they haven't been presented,
11 specifically, to the Court at this time and I'm 12 not going to speculate about those. However, 13 given the recent time frame within which the 14 evidence described in the motion was first 15 presented to the State, I'm going to grant their 16 motion.

17 The next item is the State's demand for 18 compliance with discovery requests. And I
19 believe that relates to the January 5 defense 20 disclosure of potential expert witnesses. Who 21 will be arguing this motion for the State?

22 ATTORNEY GAHN: I will, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Gahn, you may proceed.

24 ATTORNEY GAHN: Your Honor, I'm basically 25 going to rely upon the brief we filed in this

1 matter. I simply would highlight what is stated in 2 our statute of 971.23 (2m)(am), which simply states
3 that if -- that any relevant written, or reported 4 statements of a witness named on a list under 5 Paragraph A, including any reports or statements of 6 experts made in connection with the case; or if the 7 expert does not prepare a report, or statement -- or 8 statement, a written summary of the expert's 9 findings, or the subject matter of his or her 10 testimony, including the results of any physical or 11 mental examination, scientific test, experiment, or 12 comparison that the defendant intends to offer in 13 evidence at the trial.

14 It clearly states that, summary of the 15 expert's findings. And reading what the 16 defendant has submitted, certainly does not come 17 anywhere close to telling us what are the 18 findings of their expert.

19 They have not supplied any written
20 reports which have been prepared by their experts 21 but -- and they have not provided us with a 22 summary that is telling us what the findings are.
23 They have simply told us that their experts may 24 or may not testify to something. They may agree 25 with, they may challenge, they may disagree with,

1 what our experts have come up with.

2 This is telling us absolutely nothing.
3 I don't believe they are complying with the 4 statute and I believe that the case that we 5 cited, the Schroeder case, certainly stands for 6 that proposition, that they tell us something. I 7 mean this isn't really difficult. It's quite 8 simple.

9 If they are going to call these experts
10 to testify, tell us what they are going to say, 11 what is the issue, and what are their findings, 12 what are their conclusions, not this general 13 broad, they may discuss some topic that is so 14 broad in nature that there's no way for us to 15 determine exactly what, you know, what their 16 testimony is going to be. So I would ask the 17 Court to require them to make this more definite 18 and more certain. And provide us with a written 19 summary of what their findings are.

20 I did speak with Mr. Buting, in our 21 motion we also talked about the October 6th 22 discovery demand that we filed that pertains to 23 the DNA evidence specifically. Mr. Buting is 24 going to look at that motion that we filed, that 25 discovery motion that we filed. And my

1 understanding is that he's going to get with his 2 expert and will comply as best he can with that, 3 so we needn't discuss that. I believe that 4 Mr. Buting will do that and take him at his word, 5 and will provide us with the necessary 6 information that we have asked for.

7 But overall, we still believe that we 8 have not been -- that the statute has not been 9 complied with.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

11 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, I assume the Court
12 got the letter that I faxed yesterday.

13 THE COURT: It did.

14 ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay. I think we have 15 more than adequately complied with the statute.
16 And, in particular, the way the statute reads is,
17 really, one of three things can be done. If a 18 report is prepared, then the report is turned over.
19 However, if there is no report prepared, then the 20 statute says a written summary of the expert's 21 findings or, and that's the important thing, or the 22 subject matter of his or her testimony.

23 And as I understand, the State's 24 complaint is that the disclosure doesn't 25 specifically list each and every finding, if

1 that's the way that they want to term it, but the 2 statute doesn't require that. The statute 3 requires a summary of the subject matter of his 4 or her testimony in lieu of that.

5 Now, we actually do include certain
6 findings. There's some opinions specifically 7 expressed in there of what we anticipate 8 Dr. Fairgrieve may testify about, in particular, 9 as well as Dr. White. It's perhaps a little 10 less -- it's a little more vague maybe on the DNA 11 expert, Dr. Friedman, but in part that's because 12 we explain in the last paragraph that we're not 13 offering any specific test results or 14 manipulation of data through the genotype or 15 various software types of thing.

16 So, I think clearly we have complied
17 with the statute as to description of the subject 18 matter. And really the Anderson case that I 19 point out to the Court, -- First, before I get to 20 that, the language of "this witness may testify 21 about that" or, you know, rather than "will 22 testify" is, really, simply a reflection of the 23 fact that none of these experts may testify at 24 all. The defense doesn't have to present any 25 evidence.

1 And so what we're saying by using that 2 language is that obviously this witness may or 3 may not testify. If the witness testifies, this 4 will be the subject matter of their testimony.
5 So to clear up any confusion about that, there's 6 no uncertainty as to what the subject matter will 7 be if they will testify.

8 And in Anderson, the State was permitted 9 to introduce a witness at trial without any kind 10 of expert disclosure under the discovery statute, 11 but simply by saying in a motion in limine that 12 an expert will testify about the dynamics of 13 child sexual abuse and -- or actually the -- I 14 think the specific phrase was -- I don't recall 15 it exactly, but the witness was not even named, 16 much less any written summary of what they were 17 going to say.

18 All that was disclosed was that there 19 would be an expert, unnamed, in the area of the 20 effects of child abuse, and disclosure, and all 21 of that. And the Court said that, in their view, 22 satisfied this discovery statute requirement of a 23 written summary of an expert's finding, or 24 subject matter of his testimony.

25 So if that was adequate in Anderson,

1 this is way more than adequate under the statute.
2 As Schroeder says, State vs. Schroeder, that the 3 State cites, the purpose of the discovery
4 statutes is to enable the other side to prepare 5 for the trial, not to do the preparation for 6 them.

7 We have done that, we have presented the 8 witnesses, the experts that we may use. If they 9 testify, these are the subject matter. I think 10 we were very specific as to what it is, what 11 subject matter they would testify about, and 12 there are some actual findings included in there.
13 So I think that we have more than adequately
14 satisfied the State's request.

15 As to the DNA, I did speak with Mr. Gahn 16 beforehand. Some of what he asked for in his 17 October discovery demand I didn't turn over 18 because I thought it related only if Dr. Friedman 19 had performed separate independent tests. I will 20 take another look at that and I think that we 21 will work out whatever remains in that. I will 22 turn over whatever protocol, if he still wishes 23 that, even though tests weren't done. But as to 24 the others, I think we have more than satisfied 25 the requirements.

THE COURT: Mr. Gahn.

ATTORNEY GAHN: Your Honor, even the Anderson case, when I read the Anderson case that Mr. Buting has provided under Westlaw printout, this is a 15 page decision. And as far as the portion on the statutory section, 971.23 (1), it's a mere one paragraph of -- looks like 20 lines, and it really is sort of an aside in the Anderson case.

In fact, under State v. Anderson, the Supreme Court case at 291 Wis. 2d, 673, this Anderson case that the defense has cited was reversed by the Supreme Court. And they don't even mention this aspect. They don't even bring it up that I could find in the 40 page decision.

So the case being cited was reversed and they didn't even address this very, very minor issue. But even what is said in the Anderson case is -- what their response to us has been: These experts may testify to something; they may not. They may agree. They may challenge.

This is telling us absolutely nothing. This isn't the spirit of the statute or the spirit of the Schroeder case. If your expert is going to testify, tell us what their findings are and what their conclusions are so that we can

1 address that issue at trial. It is something 2 that to state, as the defendant just said, that 3 they gave a summary, I think he said -- if I 4 could have just one moment here while I get that 5 -- that it was, or the subject matter of his or 6 her testimony.

7 Well, to state something like they may 8 testify to DNA frequencies, well, that's not -- 9 that's such a broad expansive topic that tells us 10 nothing. What exactly is your finding or your 11 conclusion as to the statistical analysis.

12 They may or may not testify as to DNA
13 protocols. Well, what, what, the protocols are a 14 100 pages long, and they are all different types 15 of, you know, quality assurance, quality control.
16 What exactly is the finding or conclusion of your 17 expert, that they have come up with. And they 18 just have not provided us with anything close to 19 that.

20 And I don't believe that's in the spirit
21 of Schroeder, or in the spirit of the statute.
22 And we would ask that they make a more definite 23 and certain explanation to us of what their 24 experts will testify to. Thank you, Judge.

25 THE COURT: All right. I took the

1 opportunity to review the legal authorities cited by 2 the defense and also some other cases that 3 interpreted the statute in this case. I also read 4 the defense disclosure of potential expert witnesses 5 that was offered.

6 And the Court concludes as follows:

7 First, I think the defense adequately explained
8 its use of the term may in the sense that it 9 meant, not that this may or may not be this 10 expert's opinion, but rather that the State is 11 not -- or the defense is not required to produce 12 any expert testimony. And the defense used the 13 term may to indicate it was not committing to 14 call these experts, only that it may call them.
15 And I think that's perfectly appropriate.

16 With respect to the meaning of the 17 statute, the operative statutory language reads
18 as follows: If an expert does not prepare a 19 report or statement, a written summary of the 20 expert's findings or the subject matter of his or 21 her testimony are what must be provided.

22 In the case law I examined, I found the 23 most helpful explanation of that statutory 24 language, which admittedly when it uses the term 25 subject matter, could be somewhat ambiguous, the

1 most helpful explanation I found was in the case
2 of State v. Revels, R-e-v-e-l-s, reported at 221
3 Wis. 2d, page 315. And at 330, the Court 4 summarized its interpretation of the statutory 5 language as follows:

6 We agree with the State, that given the 7 language of Section 971.23 (2m) and its obvious 8 purpose, it must be construed to require 9 disclosure of relevant substantive information 10 that a defense expert is expected to present at 11 trial, whether in the form of findings, test 12 results, or a description of the experts proposed 13 testimony.

14 The Court also finds that to be the most 15 reasonable interpretation of the statutory 16 language, given the purpose for which discovery 17 is supposed to be provided. As I take that 18 standard and apply it against the disclosure that 19 was presented by the defense, I find that some 20 cases, that some of the information provided by 21 the defense has met the standard, in other 22 situations it falls short.

23 For example, I'm not going to read it 24 verbatim, but if counsel has the defense offer in 25 front of it, the first full paragraph on page 3,

1 describing what Dr. Fairgrieve may testify about,
2 I view as consistent with the type of information
3 that is called for by the statute.

4 If I look back at page 2 and read, for 5 example, that Dr. Fairgrieve may testify about 6 identification of human remains, including 7 specific deficiencies in the recovery of the 8 remains at issue in this case, the Court finds 9 that that type of information falls short of what 10 the statute requires. The other side is entitled 11 to know what are the specific deficiencies that 12 are going to be testified about.

13 Otherwise, the discovery doesn't serve 14 its purpose. It doesn't allow the State to 15 prepare for the type of evidence that's going to 16 be admitted. And that's not to say that the 17 defense is required to do the State's work for 18 them, it's just to let the State know what work 19 it is going to have to perform on its own to 20 answer the claims made by defense experts.

21 Another example, a little further on 22 page 2 is the role of temperature and duration in 23 the rendering of a human body to cremains. Well, 24 what is that role? The State is entitled to know 25 what the opinion -- or what the position of the 1 defense expert is, so that it can determine 2 whether or not it agrees with that position, or 3 whether or not it intends to dispute the 4 findings.

5 Likewise, moving on to the statement of 6 Dr. Friedman on page 5: It says he may be 7 offered to testify about the reliability or lack 8 thereof of the Wisconsin Crime Lab conclusions in 9 this case. That's a conclusory statement that 10 doesn't really address the type of information 11 the statute calls for.

12 The defense is entitled to know, what is 13 it that the defense expert finds unreliable about 14 the Wisconsin Crime Lab conclusions, again, so 15 that the party can answer it. And although its 16 not at issue here, I would hold the State to the 17 same standard -- standards in providing its 18 expert information to the defense.

19 So the Court, necessarily in this case, 20 cannot say with specificity exactly what the 21 defense must do, but I do indicate that, with the 22 examples I have given, I find that the defense 23 disclosure of potential expert witnesses and 24 summary of their expected testimony falls short 25 of what the statute requires. And the Court will

1 grant the State's demand for compliance, along 2 the lines outlined by the Court.

3 The next item the Court will address is 4 the defendant's motion for disclosure of 5 exculpatory information, which was filed on 6 January 17th. Will that be Mr. Strang?

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes, that's I. Buting
8 gets the hard things and I get the easy ones. The 9 case law on the State's due process obligation under 10 the -- here the Fourteenth Amendment, to provide 11 exculpatory information known to it is not entirely 12 clear in terms of what request, or what specificity 13 of request a defendant must make to trigger fully 14 the State's obligation of disclosure of exculpatory
15 information.

16 And it -- I think it used to be clear 17 that absent a defense request, with some 18 specifics about what it is the defendant thought 19 the State might have that is exculpatory, the 20 State did not have a due process duty. Now, I 21 think since Brady against Maryland, and assuming 22 almost 44 years, the defendant's obligation to 23 ask has somewhat eroded and been replaced by an 24 affirmative obligation of the State to tender.

25 But, this is the only way, I suppose, in

1 which I'm conservative, but I'm conservative on 2 this in the sense of, I thought it better
3 practice to ask, with as much specificity as I 4 could, for what it is I think the State may have,
5 and in doing so invoke the State's due process
6 duty to disclose to me.

7 So this is a bit of a
8 belt-and-suspenders approach. It was preceded by 9 a narrower request, in writing to Mr. Kratz, that 10 I didn't file with the Court. But I thought, 11 given developments in the last couple months, 12 that it would be a good idea for me to make 13 specific requests and thereby trigger the State's 14 duty.

15 These are ethical lawyers at the other
16 table, I expect them to comply with the duty.
17 And I don't know at this point the State -- or 18 the Court, really needs to take any action other 19 than inquiring of the State. And I will say that 20 I already know some information within the scope 21 of my request.

22 And so it's not that I'm completely in 23 the dark necessarily on some of the information I 24 seek, rather in a case this serious, I'm seeking 25 to make sure that I have got it all. That if

1 there's something that goes to bias of a State's 2 witness, or honesty, credibility of a State's 3 witness, a State's -- a State witness' motives to 4 testify falsely or to shade testimony, evidence 5 that might support a defense or some mitigation 6 of sentence, that I have asked for it and I have 7 gotten everything they have of that stripe.

8 So that -- that's the reason for the 9 motion. We don't have a specific dispute today.
10 And as I say, other than inquiring probably of 11 the State, I'm not sure that there's a ruling the 12 Court needs to make on the Brady motion today.
13 But it was better practice to file it in my view.

14 THE COURT: All right. Who'll be 15 addressing this matter for the State? Mr. Fallon.

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, thank you. I would 17 frankly acknowledge that I would have liked a little 18 bit of time to digest the request of the defense as 19 it is framed in the context of an exculpatory
20 evidence request. I did not receive the document 21 until last evening as I, likewise, was out of the 22 office on Wednesday.

23 The first thing I guess I would like to 24 address in response to counsel's comments, much 25 of what he says I do not disagree with. This is,

1 as he would say, a particularized or specific 2 demand as opposed to the general demand that is 3 part and parcel of every criminal case.

4 But I think, again, his argument and his 5 request puts the cart before the horse to the 6 extent that just because one says it is 7 exculpatory, or potentially exculpatory, doesn't 8 necessarily make it so. And I recognize that 9 whether a bit of evidence or information is 10 admissible is not the determinative standard as 11 to whether something is exculpatory or 12 potentially exculpatory.

13 So I acknowledge that and I wanted to 14 say that upfront. But in having said that, in 15 making a determination as to whether evidence is 16 exculpatory or not, there is a materiality 17 component here. And within the analysis of 18 materiality there is this overlapping concern, 19 overlapping of arguments as to whether such 20 evidence would even be admissible. So I think we 21 have to acknowledge that.

22 And as I look at the information
23 requested, that's what I am struck by and that 24 is, is this information significantly material, 25 given all that we know now. And the Court has

1 had pretty extensive pleadings and briefs filed 2 to evaluate the context in which this request is 3 made. I have serious reservations as to whether 4 it's truly material in the context of Brady. And 5 I guess I would like to digest that and think 6 about that further.

7 Secondly, I'm not convinced that the 8 information is solely or exclusively in the 9 domain or the possession of the State per se. We 10 have, as counsel readily acknowledged, six 11 additional pages of discovery from their 12 investigator regarding information that he has 13 unearthed in his interview of members of the 14 clerk staff, buildings and grounds, maintenance 15 individuals, and the like.

16 The question is, they have subpoena
17 capability as well as the State to get 18 information. I can represent that in terms of 19 the prosecution files and information that we 20 have available, we don't have any of the 21 information available to us. It's not in our 22 possession.

23 We will certainly look for the 24 information, but I'm not conceding, for the sake 25 of our argument here, that it's necessarily

1 material, or that they are entitled to it, or 2 it's solely in our possession and we have the 3 obligation to get it.

4 We will look at the information but,
5 again, much of the import of what's being asked 6 here will be the subject of additional motion and 7 argument at the end of the day today. And that 8 may or may not have an impact as to the 9 materiality component.

10 I wish I could say more, but only having 11 it an evening to digest this, that's about all I 12 can say. We'll look at it. We'll make some 13 inquiries, because there are some interesting 14 questions there. But we by no means accept, for 15 purposes of this, that it is an exculpatory 16 information demand. We do not except that it is 17 necessarily material. I'm not saying it's not 18 relevant, I will concede that, but then we have 19 that whole materiality component.

20 So that's our statement on this. We'll 21 look into some of these matters, both as a 22 courtesy and for our own information. We would 23 certainly like to know some of this. I also 24 believe that most -- much of this has been 25 complied with, with respect to some of our recent

1 pleadings.

2 And I would acknowledge, for instance,
3 Paragraph 2, our last pleading, I think we have 4 answered that. Paragraph 5, I think recent 5 discovery information, which should have been 6 sent to defense regarding the vial of blood, I 7 think that has been complied with already.

8 I would indicate with respect to item
9 number 10 for instance, we are, ourselves, 10 correctly so, we're waiting for a report from 11 Mr. McCurdy at the FBI. We do not have that 12 report. We have a request in. We're told it's 13 coming, but we don't have it yet. So, in terms 14 of those specifics, those I think I can provide 15 to you.

16 With respect to the absence or presence 17 of keys, I can tell you after the recent 18 discovery that we sent to defense and discovery
19 we received from them, I'm not sure with respect 20 to keys and access issues that there are -- there 21 is any more. We can certainly look.

22 But I think Investigators Wiegert and 23 Fassbender did a round of interviews regarding 24 that point and Defense Investigator Baetz, I 25 believe it is, likewise did some. I'm not sure

1 there's much more to be had there.

2 Again, raising the question, I'm not 3 convinced this is entirely in our bailiwick. But 4 that's my comments at the moment. If I may 5 confer with counsel for a second.

6 THE COURT: Fine.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: And, again, as I said, I 8 think a further discussion, perhaps regarding the 9 two motions, at the end of the day, this can be 10 discussed even more freely, so I will pass on that.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: There are three things I
13 can add that will, I think, be helpful in reply.
14 First, it's of course not at all uncommon that 15 prosecutors dispute the materiality of information
16 that may be exculpatory or dispute with the defense 17 whether something is exculpatory.

18 Common situation, advocates on both 19 sides look at facts from their peculiar 20 perspective and experience, of course. I request 21 that in such situations, the State follow -- take 22 the high road in the sense of erring on the side 23 of disclosure, recognizing that as lawyers who 24 defend people, rather than prosecuting them, we 25 may have a better sense of how to use something

1 in an exculpatory fashion, or of what exculpatory
2 admissible evidence, something inadmissible may 3 lead to.

4 If the State is unwilling to do that in 5 its announced pursuit of the truth, which would 6 suggest erring on the side of disclosure, there 7 is available the option of tendering something 8 that's questionable from the State's advantage
9 point, to the Court, for an in camera and neutral 10 determination.

11 I think for a lot of reasons that's less
12 preferable than simply disclosing it and fighting 13 later about what it means, but it is an available
14 option. And if nothing else, ought be used here 15 if the State has information about which 16 materiality might be in dispute.

17 Second, and this is quite specific to 18 this case, I recognize, and I want to make sure 19 that the Court and counsel recognize here, the 20 contours, as I see them, of the application
21 particularly of a case like Kyles vs. Whitley, 22 the 1995 U.S. Supreme Court decision that 23 discusses, essentially, what is the State, or the 24 prosecution mean.

25 Does it mean only the lawyers who sit at

1 counsel table or who are employed by a District
2 Attorney's Office? Does it include law 3 enforcement officers; if so, how deep within the 4 department, so to speak, or within the 5 investigating agency. And this case, happily, is 6 not typical in this sense.

7 It's a Manitowoc County case, as a
8 matter of venue and as a matter of original 9 statutory law enforcement obligation. We can 10 fight about how completely or what this means, 11 but on November 5, 2005, some steps were taken to 12 turn over some level of investigative control to 13 the Calumet County Sheriff's Department. And 14 there is no question that on or about November 5, 15 I think it was November 5, but I could be off, a 16 judge in this county entered an order appointing 17 a Special Prosecutor from outside the county, 18 hence, Mr. Kratz's appearance.

19 In my view, though, this lessens not at 20 all the obligations of the Manitowoc County 21 Sheriff's Department, to yield to the 22 prosecutors, exculpatory information within its 23 possession, at least if that's known by officers 24 who took an active role in the investigation that 25 led to the charges here.

1 I further acknowledge that not only are 2 there institutional problems in out-of-county
3 people relating to in-county-people and, you
4 know, maybe the informal working relationships
5 aren't what they would be within a county, 6 between the D.A.'s Office and the Sheriff's 7 Department, but here, of course, the Manitowoc 8 County Sheriff's Department's conduct has been 9 put at issue by the defense. And we have had the 10 unusual situation of DCI investigators engaged in 11 interviews, quasi formal at least, law
12 enforcement interviews of Manitowoc County
13 Sheriff's Department or other Manitowoc County
14 personnel.

15 So there are practical problems, but it
16 doesn't change, in my view, the due process
17 obligation in the end to route out information
18 that the Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department 19 may have, and to which the prosecution is 20 entitled, and as to which it has a due process 21 obligation to disclose to the defense.

22 Third, the due process obligation, of 23 course, is ongoing. So if compliance is complete 24 today, it doesn't necessarily mean that it's 25 complete for all time, obviously, as information

1 is gleaned.

2 And counsel acknowledges, faithfully,
3 that the information covered by Paragraph 10 4 should be disclosed to the defense and says that 5 he can't disclose it yet, because he doesn't have 6 it. Well, if he doesn't have it, that's true, he 7 can't. So he has an ongoing obligation.

8 We were told by a Calumet County officer
9 at the last hearing in Chilton, that this 10 information had been received from the FBI. But 11 that I was told, in fairness, the very same day, 12 was news to Mr. Kratz. And so I don't know, it 13 doesn't matter. The point is that the obligation 14 is ongoing and I'm sure the State will comply 15 with that.

16 As to Paragraph 5, in specific, the 17 State has made reference in a recent filing to 18 what it says a phlebotomist says. But of all the 19 interviews recently disclosed to us concerning 20 the general topic of the blood vial, that's the 21 interview that's missing.

22 We don't have a report of any interview
23 from the, I think the now retired, phlebotomist.
24 And I would expect to get that, if in fact the 25 State is representing what she says in a

1 pleading. I'm sure the State is doing that 2 accurately, but I would expect to have the 3 underlying witness statement. And I'm sure it 4 will be disclosed by my friends at the next 5 table.

6 So, this is an ongoing process and I
7 will end where I started, which is to say the 8 request has been made, the obligation triggered.
9 And I don't know that the Court can enter 10 specific rulings today, necessarily, but I wanted 11 to make a record of it. And the nuances here of 12 the relationship of some ranking members of the 13 Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department with this 14 particular prosecution team complicate, but don't 15 alleviate, the State's duty.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

17 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, one final point.
18 And I guess this dovetails back into the recent -- 19 the discussion that we just held regarding relief 20 from the pre-trial scheduling order. Because this 21 is a perfect example of what is rebuttal testimony.

22 If the defense wants to put forth the 23 defense that they are suggesting and implying in 24 their pleadings to date, then they do so at their 25 peril. The State has indicated -- sought relief

1 from that order on the specific vial and the 2 other related matters, well, here is a related 3 matter.

4 Now, admittedly, the whole concept of 5 rebuttal does not excuse one's obligations with 6 respect to what is potentially exculpatory
7 evidence, so I acknowledge that. But, again, it 8 is an example of the complexity of this case, and 9 the issues, and the import.

10 Again, the State doesn't have to show 11 all of its cards with respect to how it will 12 respond and refute certain defenses which are 13 going to be proffered. We only have to show our 14 hand, or tip our hand, if such information is 15 going to be, quote, "truly exculpatory", in the 16 meaning of that phrase.

17 And, again, as I had said, I would like 18 to review some of the law on that. I'm aware of 19 counsel's representations. In fact, I don't 20 disagree with much of what he said at all in 21 terms of what our obligations are. I'm quite 22 aware of those obligations. And the fact that 23 the prosecutor's obligation is to look in areas 24 immediately beyond their own office is pretty 25 well settled in the law. So, I don't take issue

1 with that.

2 But, again, there is the relationship 3 here between what is truly rebuttal and what is 4 truly exculpatory. And if it is truly
5 exculpatory, then counsel is absolutely correct.
6 Anything short of that, then they go down the 7 road at their peril, because we are entitled to 8 respond as the law permits.

9 And that's why the statute is written 10 the way it is. And that's why rebuttal is set up 11 the way it is, such that the State has a fair 12 right to reply, since we have the burden of 13 proof, beyond a reasonable doubt. Thank you.

14 THE COURT: All right. First of all, I
15 believe Mr. Strang is correct in the sense that I 16 don't know there's much the Court can decide about 17 this motion today. I'm just going to make a couple 18 of observations. To the extent -- and I believe the 19 parties agree with this -- to the extent the State 20 possesses information that may be exculpatory, the 21 obligation to share that with the defense goes 22 beyond the need for the defense to make a motion.

23 Case law requires it. Section 973 -- or 24 971.23 (1)(h) requires it by statute. And 25 certainly the State is aware of a number of

1 criminal cases where convictions have been 2 reversed because of a failure to provide 3 exculpatory information.

4 The motion for disclosure, to the extent
5 it draws attention to any exculpatory information
6 that the State may not have been aware of before 7 would assist the State, if you will, in 8 determining the existence of the information and 9 turning it over to the defense, if both parties 10 agree that it's exculpatory, the State, in any 11 case, runs a risk if it doesn't turn over 12 evidence that is later determined to be 13 exculpatory.

14 If there's any evidence requested in the 15 motion that doesn't fall under the heading of 16 exculpatory evidence, and has not been previously 17 requested, the discovery deadline ended on 18 December 15th, so it would not have to be turned 19 over.

20 In addition, I will note that whether or 21 not evidence may be exculpatory and may be 22 material to this case may depend on the outcome
23 of rulings on motions on which the Court has yet 24 to rule. And as defense counsel points out, the 25 State's duty is ongoing, so there may be a duty

1 to turn over evidence that hasn't been turned 2 over yet, depending on future court rulings.

3 Having made those comments, which I 4 think for the most part the parties reflect in 5 their statements to the Court today, I'm not 6 going to issue any ruling on the motion at this 7 time. If at some point in time the defense 8 doesn't receive something it feels it is entitled 9 to receive that is in existence and wants to 10 specifically renew the motion, I will take it up 11 at that time.

12 But it appears to be, at this point, 13 more of a work in progress, for the reasons that 14 I have said. Some of the items the State 15 contends that it has turned over, the materiality 16 of other types of evidence, may still yet to be 17 determined and may trigger at some point in the 18 future -- in the near future -- an obligation to 19 turn over additional information.

20 Next, the Court will take up the 21 defendant's motion to exclude computer generated 22 animations. And when I say take up, I'm just 23 going to address it and recognize it as being 24 outstanding. The Court has been provided earlier 25 this morning with the information that is the 1 subject of the defendant's motions.

2 I will, because of the proximity of 3 today's date to the start of the trial, get an 4 explanation from the defendant of the basis for 5 the motion, on the record. And also, hopefully, 6 get some idea from the State of the reasons for 7 which the information will be provided, as they 8 may have relevance in determining whether or not 9 the information is admissible. Who is going to 10 present the State's position, Mr. Strang? Excuse
11 me, the defense position. It's your motion.

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: I will. I understand the 13 Court hasn't had a chance to look at the three 14 animations at issue and, indeed, neither have we.
15 We received the same CD's or DVD's today. We have 16 had, and the Court has not until now, had copies of 17 slides, for want of a better word, for two of the 18 three animations.

19 The simple point, though, that ought not 20 get lost in the shuffle here, is that I believe 21 early on, in fact probably before Mr. Buting and 22 I entered our appearances, Mr. Avery invoked his 23 discovery rights under Section 971.23, without 24 reservation. And it's a little bit unclear to me 25 here how the State would explain or justify, with

1 good cause, the failure to disclose these 2 exhibits, particularly the FBI animation, as to 3 which we have seen nothing at all until today, I
4 assume on the CD or the DVD we have, as gauged 5 against the December 15, 2006 discovery cut off.

6 The underlying information I think in 7 these animations isn't something newly 8 discovered, isn't something that the State got 9 only from the defense, and does relate to 10 information and physical items that the State has 11 had in its sole custody, at least as to the 12 Toyota, since November 5, 2005.

13 And as to the Avery property, the 14 underlying information as I understand it is 15 drawn from the State's seven or eight day
16 exclusive possession of the entire Avery 17 property, again, from about November 5 to 18 November 12, 2005, where even family members and 19 people who lived on the property were excluded, 20 by the State.

21 So there is a -- there is a tardiness
22 issue here that is separate from, and stands 23 independently of, the question then of relevance, 24 completeness, fairness, and a 904.03 balancing
25 that I have addressed at greater length on brief,

1 as to which there's no point in my offering
2 further argument until the Court has had a chance 3 to look at the exhibits. And for that matter the 4 State hasn't had much chance here to respond in 5 writing, if that's its wish.

6 THE COURT: All right. Who will be 7 handling this for the State?

8 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I will, Judge.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Kratz.

10 ATTORNEY KRATZ: First and foremost, your 11 Honor, let me explain what we're talking about.
12 There are three different areas of the generation of 13 summary exhibits that the State has had performed.
14 Those include a computer generated virtual tour, if 15 you will, of the Avery property itself, which 16 includes buildings and curtilage which basically 17 surround the Steven Avery trailer.

18 We have also asked for, and have 19 received, a representation, or series of 20 representations, to assist one of our expert 21 witnesses, the anthropologist in this case, in 22 describing what human remains were recovered to 23 better assist the jury to understand from where 24 on the human body, where on the skeleton, to be 25 blunt about it, these items may be found.

1 And lastly, we had performed, through 2 assistance of the FBI, a representation of the 3 victim's vehicle, which was recovered, which as 4 this Court and defense knows, is of a highly 5 probative nature, and items found within.

6 Mr. Strang's submission, which I do
7 request an opportunity to respond to in more 8 detail, makes claims like, the angles depicted in 9 the computer generated animations are not such 10 that a human could make, and -- and that's true.
11 I guess that's the point of demonstrative
12 evidence.

13 Demonstrative evidence, rather than 14 original evidence, rather than the thing from 15 which the demonstrative evidence is generated, is 16 to assist the trier of fact. And the only thing 17 that a Court has to determine, at least from an 18 admissibility standpoint, is whether or not it's 19 a fair representation of what it purports to 20 show.

21 Now, the State today, so that the Court 22 understands what we were talking about, has 23 provided 3 CD's, 3 discs, which are examples of 24 those summary exhibits. I couldn't disagree with 25 Mr. Strang more about the State's requirement or

1 obligation to provide these things to the 2 defense.

3 The defense is entitled to the actual 4 items that are seized, or measurements of, or 5 business records, or phone records, or photos.
6 But they aren't entitled to summary exhibits.
7 They are not entitled to maps, or timelines, or 8 charts, or diagrams. And even though these three 9 animations are computer generated, they are 10 clearly within the category of diagram.

11 If we go to the most basic kind of a 12 diagram that juries sometimes see in an 13 automobile accident, the diagram of an 14 intersection, kind of an overview, where was the 15 car coming from. Well, that's not an angle that 16 is available to the human eye. But nobody would 17 suggest, that because it's from a different 18 angle, that it's somehow not relevant or not of 19 assistance to a jury.

20 So to suggest that because it's -- I
21 think Mr. Strang is arguing, so nicely done, 22 because it is of a high-tech nature, because it's 23 computer generated, somehow that goes to its 24 admissibility, it is somehow prejudicial to 25 Mr. Avery. We do disagree.

1 We will be able, at trial, or before if 2 the Court wishes, a more detailed offer of proof 3 to demonstrate how this demonstrative evidence, 4 how these summary exhibits, will be of benefit to 5 the jury, so that the jury can see in an 6 overview, or an overall representation, where 7 specific evidence is found, how it may relate, or 8 interrelate, to other evidence, and how,
9 certainly, it is not going to be cumulative.

10 These are very well done. The timing of 11 them was for the State's presentation of its 12 case-in-chief. I provided them to the Court and 13 to the defense as a matter of courtesy. That's 14 how I'm looking at my provision of these. Again, 15 I don't think the entitlement to summary exhibits
16 occurs until the very moment, that day witness 17 intends to refer to them at trial.

18 But in order to speed up the trial
19 process, which we're all, I think, sensitive to 20 in this case, I'm happy to have the Court review 21 these matters and to issue a pre-trial ruling.
22 And, again, would ask for an opportunity for more 23 detailed argument if, in fact, after reviewing 24 these, the Court has a question as to their 25 materiality or to their relevance at the time

1 that that might come up. That's all I have at 2 least for today, Judge. Thank you.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: I agree with counsel up
5 to a point, that if this properly is viewed as a 6 summary exhibit under 910.06, which certainly the 7 State is free to argue on brief, that it's the 8 underlying physical items that the defendant is 9 entitled to see, or examine, or to have, as a matter 10 of the principle discovery statute, Section 971.23.
11 I don't agree that the timing of the disclosure of 12 this exhibit, therefore, is unimpeachable.

13 The defendant certainly is entitled to 14 have his jury not consider irrelevant, unfair, 15 overly suggestive, or unhelpful demonstrative
16 evidence to the jury. This Court set a 17 December 15 deadline for motions in limine, which 18 would ordinarily be the way to address 19 demonstrative evidence, or summary exhibits, or 20 other things that might be excludable as not 21 relevant or -- under Section 904.03.

22 And to time that with a discovery
23 deadline, on the same day, by disclosing this 24 after December 15 I'm, of course, in no position 25 to make a motion in limine by December 15. And

1 my motion in limine to that extent necessarily is 2 tardy, although I think without fault, because I 3 can't move to exclude that which I haven't been 4 told will be offered, or shown.

5 So timeliness in that sense here, very 6 much remains an issue. And, again, the other -- 7 the other details about the fairness of the 8 presentation are probably best addressed on paper 9 and then by the Court's review, and ours, of the 10 exhibits themselves.

11 THE COURT: All right. Neither party is 12 asking the Court to make a ruling on this particular 13 matter today. And since I haven't seen it, I think 14 that's appropriate. The only comment I would 15 reiterate is that this offered exhibit, or set of 16 exhibits, whether they are admissible or not, may 17 not be determined simply intrinsically by the 18 exhibit, but the purpose for which it's offered.

19 At this point I don't know that yet.
20 You know, the fact that they don't show
21 shrubbery, or foliage, I think that was mentioned 22 in the defense's motion, for some purposes that 23 may be significant, for other purposes it may not 24 be. So in order for the Court to evaluate the 25 defendant's motion, I'm not only going to have to 1 see the exhibit, but be informed as to the 2 purpose for which it's offered. And it's my 3 understanding, counsel, that we're going to take 4 this up at the final pre-trial on February 2nd.

5 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's fine, Judge.

6 THE COURT: Okay. The next item, which I 7 believe should be brief, is the Court, based on the 8 stipulation submitted by the parties concerning the 9 exclusion of witnesses at the trial, drafted a 10 proposed order. The Court received a response from 11 the defense with a couple of suggested 12 modifications. I didn't receive anything back from 13 the State. But do I take it, at this point, that 14 with the modifications suggested by the defense, 15 that the form of the order is acceptable to both 16 parties?

17 ATTORNEY KRATZ: The Court may recall that 18 this was the subject of a written stipulation by the 19 parties. And since Mr. Strang and I jointly drafted 20 that, we don't have an objection. Mr. Strang 21 included, in at least in the Court's form of the 22 exclusion order, one suggestion. With that -- with 23 that one variance to the Court's offer, the State 24 doesn't have any objection that the exclusion order 25 be adopted and the Court can enter that order.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: Just so we're not going
2 past each other, I think I actually made two 3 changes. I don't have it in front of me.

4 THE COURT: Right. Just for my own
5 information, Conrad Baetz, is he a defense 6 investigator?

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Very well. The next series of 9 motions that has been presented for the Court's 10 consideration deals with evidentiary matters, which 11 for the most part I believe the State wishes to 12 argue are inadmissible for, among other reasons, 13 being not probative and unduly prejudicial. And the 14 State has asked that the Court hear argument on 15 those motions in camera. So, before getting to the 16 motions, I will hear from the State on its request 17 to consider these matters in camera.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes. Thank you, Judge.
19 The State does request that these matters be 20 addressed in camera. As the Court and the parties 21 are aware, there's been a flurry of briefing which 22 occurred since the first of the year on third party 23 liability and blood vial evidence.

24 I have asked in our pleadings for oral 25 argument and that -- that the argument be an in 1 camera argument. My reasons are these:

2 First and foremost, there will be a
3 great deal of discussion amongst the parties
4 regarding facts which may or may not be facts
5 heard by the jury. For instance, if the Court 6 determines the evidence to be inadmissible, then 7 those are facts which are not going to be 8 disclosed or heard by the jury.

9 And given the nearness in time to the 10 jury selection process and the potential for such 11 prejudicial and possibly inflammatory argument, 12 and fact, and statement being made this close in 13 time to the selection process, runs a risk of 14 contaminating the jury pool.

15 Additionally, the three matters to be 16 discussed are all interrelated. The State sees 17 the interrelationship far stronger than the 18 defense, but I think the defense would agree, 19 that to adequately discuss these motions, there 20 will be a variety of facts that need to be 21 brought out on the record, and discussed, and 22 argued.

23 As a result of which, we do not want to 24 run the risk of potential contamination of the 25 jury pool this close to the jury selection

1 process. So, that's why the issues of third
2 party liability, the admissibility of the blood
3 vial evidence and, thus, the subsequent bias
4 issues, need to be addressed in camera until a 5 ruling is obtained. And that is the basis for 6 our request.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: The State -- The Court is 9 correct that this is the State's request, that the 10 Court take up facts and available possible evidence 11 that will have a great bearing on this trial outside 12 of public scrutiny and outside the hearing of the 13 media. The State has offered some good reasons for 14 that.

15 I don't stand to oppose that today, in 16 part because I am relying on counsel's assessment 17 of where this factual discussion could take us.
18 In the end, of course, this is one of these 19 issues on which the Court cannot defer to the 20 parties, because the Court has to speak for the 21 broader public and speak for the First Amendment.
22 And I don't presume to undertake that role, or to 23 tell the Court how it should exercise its 24 overriding public duty in that respect.

25 I do say that I -- I don't understand

1 the State, by the use of the term "in camera" to 2 be seeking to exclude the defendant himself. And 3 I would ask that he participate. I understand it 4 to be the public and the public's representatives 5 of the media that would be excluded. And I
6 tender the decision to the Court.

7 THE COURT: All right. First of all, that 8 is also the Court's understanding of the State's 9 request; I don't believe the State is asking that 10 the defendant be excluded. I will state for the 11 record that when I received the written arguments of 12 the State and read the request, I took the 13 opportunity to explore this issue a bit.

14 Under Section 757.14 of the statutes, 15 they provide that sittings of every court shall 16 be public. And that is certainly the general 17 rule. It is extremely rare that a session of 18 court can be closed. I have been on the bench 19 for almost 10 years and I don't believe I have 20 ever closed a session of court.

21 However, the law is that in certain rare 22 situations a sitting of court can be closed. The 23 leading case on the issue, as far as I can tell, 24 is State ex rel. La Crosse Tribune vs. Circuit
25 Court. It's a 1983 reported court decision.

1 Some of the most important language in that 2 decision for our purposes reads as follows:

3 It has long been recognized that the 4 requirement for public trials is subject to 5 certain inherent powers of the court to limit the 6 public nature of trials in certain respects where 7 the administration of justice requires it.

8 The circumstances necessary to trigger 9 the discretion to close a courtroom must be 10 compelling. One circumstance which arguably 11 could trigger a trial judge's discretion to close 12 the court is that a fair trial could not 13 otherwise be had.

14 The trial judge should recite on the 15 record the factors that impel him to close the 16 courtroom and why such factors override the 17 presumptive value of a public trial. Findings of 18 fact must be made with specificity, process must 19 be a rational one and the rationality of it must 20 be demonstrated on the record, showing that the 21 conclusion was reached on facts of record, or 22 which are reasonably derived by inference from 23 the record.

24 A trial court is required to hold a 25 hearing and publicly reach a conclusion based on

1 the exercise of discretion prior to ordering a
2 closing. The parties and members of the public 3 present in court may appear at such hearing, that 4 is, the hearing that we have today, which is on 5 the record.

6 As I said before, closing court
7 proceedings is rarely done, but I do find that in 8 this particular circumstance there are 9 circumstances which justify that decision. I 10 will be repeating some of the arguments made by 11 the parties, or primarily by the State here.

12 But I first want to note for the record,
13 the Court is aware that this case has received, 14 at least for purposes of this county,
15 unprecedented public coverage. This has included 16 live television coverage of most of the court 17 proceedings, and in addition, video of the court 18 proceedings in their entirety have been posted on 19 media websites for persons who are not otherwise 20 available to view the proceedings.

21 As a general rule, the Court views this 22 as a positive situation, that is, it enables the 23 public to see the court system in action. Court 24 proceedings are supposed to be public and the 25 participation of the media significantly assists

1 in that regard.

2 However, it can pose a problem in a case 3 such as this where the publicity concerning the 4 pre-trial hearings is widespread. And we're 5 dealing with disputed matters relating to 6 important pieces of evidence to the parties that 7 some of which may determine -- be determined to 8 become inadmissible and could be highly 9 prejudicial and threaten fairness of the trial.

10 In this particular case, we're within 10
11 days of beginning the jury selection process.
12 This trial has already been delayed once for a 13 number of months. And one of the important 14 reasons advanced for the delay was the existence 15 of previous publicity that could well be 16 considered prejudicial and threaten the fairness
17 of the trial. Given the fact the trial is not 18 going to be starting until approximately 15
19 months after the alleged offense, it's important, 20 I think, not to unduly create a reason for 21 another adjournment.

22 The Court also notes that it's 23 impossible in this case, particularly, to 24 successfully insulate potential jurors from the 25 publicity that comes out of today's hearing. The

1 jury is going to be selected from Manitowoc
2 County. This is not a case where we're bringing 3 jurors in from a far-flung part of the state 4 where they might not be exposed to the publicity 5 from this hearing.

6 As I indicated, it's not just a normal
7 motion hearing, it's a motion hearing that deals 8 with evidence which is alleged by one party, in 9 this case the State, to be inadmissible, to be 10 arguably inflammatory, and highly, potentially 11 prejudicial to threaten the fairness of the 12 trial.

13 Finally, I will note that I believe the 14 disadvantages of holding the hearings in camera 15 can be somewhat alleviated by the fact that, to 16 the extent the Court issues a decision -- and I 17 will indicate in open session it's not likely to 18 be issued today, I'm going to want an opportunity 19 to review the arguments of the parties and their 20 written submissions, many of which have been 21 received simply in the last few days -- but at 22 such time as the Court issues a decision, 23 determining that any evidence is admissible, that 24 ruling will be made public and immediately
25 available to the public and to the media.

1 So for those reasons the Court finds
2 that consideration of the evidentiary motions 3 that remain, and that have been described by the 4 State on the record, will necessarily be 5 conducted in camera; that is, out of view of the 6 public.

7 I will take a recess at this time in 8 order to permit the courtroom to be cleared and 9 then we'll resume with the hearings. Mr. Gahn.

10 ATTORNEY GAHN: Judge, just -- I have just 11 one very quick matter and I believe Mr. Kratz also 12 does. Regarding our issue number two this morning, 13 the demand for compliance with discovery, we had 14 asked on Page 8 of our brief that the compliance be 15 completed within three days. I would ask the Court, 16 would you make that part of your ruling?

17 THE COURT: First, I would want to hear 18 from the defense as to the feasibility of that.

19 ATTORNEY BUTING: Give me just one second 20 to look back in my notes here, for what I have to 21 do. And three, we're talking about three business 22 days, or I'm going to have to contact --

23 THE COURT: Lets' name a day. Next week, I 24 assume you're talking about.

25 ATTORNEY GAHN: Yes, you'll not include the 1 weekend.

2 THE COURT: Wednesday?

3 ATTORNEY GAHN: That will be fine, your 4 Honor.

5 ATTORNEY BUTING: I think that should do.
6 Yes, that would be the --

7 THE COURT: 31st.

8 ATTORNEY BUTING: No, 24th.

9 THE COURT: I'm sorry, I'm a week ahead,
10 Wednesday, the 24th.

11 ATTORNEY GAHN: Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Kratz.

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Two things, Judge. The 14 Court set today as a date by which the State should 15 file proposed jury instructions, and recognizing 16 that these may change and evidentiary rulings may 17 affect them, I have that document for the Court and 18 I wanted the record to reflect its filing.

19 Secondly, the Court had asked that, if 20 either party contemplated the inclusion of any 21 images, that is, photographs or other images, 22 within its opening statements, power point 23 presentation, or however else they may be 24 included in its opening, that those be provided 25 to the Court by today's date. I have prepared a

1 CD with the images the State intends to include
2 in its opening. Both of these submissions, I 3 should tell the Court, have been provided to 4 Mr. Strang before the start of this hearing.

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: I acknowledge receipt of 6 both, just as Mr. Kratz says. And I will note as 7 well that we provided two letters by facsimile to 8 the Court and counsel, both dated January 18, 2007;
9 although, I think one only faxed early this morning
10 to the Court and counsel relating to proposed jury 11 instructions.

12 THE COURT: All right. I understand, I 13 believe when I read Mr. Strang's letter, he 14 indicated that because of the outstanding motions
15 that have not yet been resolved, it was impossible 16 to submit, necessarily, all jury instructions 17 requested by the defense. I understand Mr. Kratz to 18 be saying the same thing for the State. And the 19 Court understands that, that both parties will be 20 given a chance to supplement their requests for jury 21 instructions pending the outcome of outstanding
22 motions.

23 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Do we know whether the 24 defense intends to offer any images during their 25 opening statement, or whether they even intend to 1 give their opening at the start of the case?

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: I --

3 ATTORNEY KRATZ: If so, I ask for some 4 notice or opportunity to object, just like the State 5 has given.

6 THE COURT: I don't believe they are 7 required to state today whether they are going to 8 make an opening statement.

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: I'm not, but I will. And 10 I will, I will be giving an opening statement, or we 11 will, probably I will, I expect immediately after 12 the State's. And my present intention is not to use 13 exhibits in that opening. If that changes, I will 14 disclose that to the State and to the Court if it 15 wants, just as soon as I change my mind about that.
16 But that would be a change of mind.

17 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That would be just fine, 18 Judge. I don't need more notice than that, that's 19 fine.

20 THE COURT: Anything else before we take 21 our break?

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: No.

23 ATTORNEY KRATZ: No.

24 THE COURT: If not, lets report back in 15
25 minutes.

1 (Recess taken.)

2 THE COURT: At this time we're back on the 3 record. As I announced previously, this portion of 4 the proceedings is being conducted in camera and the 5 public is not present in the courtroom at this time.
6 The next motion that I had up for consideration was 7 the Denny motion.

8 Specifically, the defense filed a
9 statement on third party responsibility
10 indicating that as a first point that Denny did 11 not apply to this case, but in the alternative, 12 if the Court determined that Denny did apply, the 13 defense identified a number of persons who could 14 be considered possible perpetrators of the crime 15 and explained the offer that would be made, of 16 evidence to support those allegations. The State 17 filed a memorandum to preclude third party 18 liability evidence. Will Mr. Strang or 19 Mr. Buting be handling? Mr. Strang, you may 20 proceed.

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you. Let me just 22 take care of a housekeeping issue first. We have a 23 Manitowoc deputy in the courtroom who is a court 24 officer. And I think for -- as much for his own 25 good as anything, since his possible testimony or

1 facts about which he knows may come up at some point 2 along the line here, we may want to excuse him so 3 that he is clean, so to speak, and not subject to a 4 cross about what he may have overheard bearing on 5 the subject matter of his possible testimony. I
6 don't have any -- again, I don't have any problems 7 with this guy in particular, just probably is a good 8 thing to do. Deputy Riddle.

9 THE COURT: Well, we have --

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: Oh, and we have Deputy 11 Tackes too. Okay.

12 THE COURT: Does the State wish to be 13 heard?

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: This seems to be a 15 security based issue. We'll defer to the Court and 16 counsel as to how you wish to proceed on this. To 17 me, I don't see it as much of an issue at all. But 18 if Mr. Strang has some significant concerns and the 19 Court has agreed, that's fine. I think the 20 determination should be made from a security based.
21 And if there's another officer available, great, if 22 not, then we'll have to -- Court will have to make a 23 determination whether you want to proceed with just 24 one bailiff.

25 THE COURT: Let me suggest this. We're in

1 here on an in camera basis, what if the Manitowoc
2 County bailiffs step just outside this door instead
3 of just inside, and that way we'll have some level
4 of security. But to the extent some of the motions 5 involving testimony by Manitowoc County Sheriff's 6 Department employees have not been addressed yet, I 7 assume that can take care of the defendant's 8 concern.

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: Absolutely, I'm looking 10 to avoid an issue rather than create one. Stepping 11 outside the door would be fine. Mr. Avery has been 12 fitted with a stun belt, I don't know who has the 13 control on that, but.

14 THE COURT: We have two Calumet county
15 officers here.

16 ATTORNEY STRANG: Then we're fine. Then 17 we're just fine.

18 THE COURT: Very well, we'll wait just a 19 couple minutes. If you want to stand outside this 20 door, Gary.

21 OFFICER TACKES: Okay.

22 THE COURT: Mike will be out one door, you 23 will be out the other.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: You know, your Honor, I
25 wrote a fair amount on Denny and I really have no

1 desire to blather for the sake of hearing myself 2 talk, so if there's some focus the Court can give 3 me, or particular issue to address.

4 THE COURT: Actually, I'm just giving you 5 an opportunity to supplement your memo. I will 6 indicate that I have read the written submittals by 7 the parties on these remaining issues at least four 8 or five times already. But at the time you wrote 9 yours you perhaps did not have the benefit of having 10 receiving the State's response, so if there's 11 anything else you wish to present at this time I 12 will receive it.

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: Okay. Well, I -- I do 14 think it's important here at least to try to 15 separate Denny which, you know, is maybe 16 significantly different on its facts than this case, 17 to begin with, from Richardson. If only because the 18 Wisconsin Supreme Court in Richardson said this 19 isn't Denny, we're not going to apply Denny in this 20 context; indeed, we're going to reject the State's 21 invitation to apply Denny in the frame-up context 22 that Richardson addressed.

23 And I -- Denny is not even a good fit to 24 begin with, as I argued on brief, and I shan't 25 repeat that. But the nitty-gritty here is, when

1 we -- when we suggest that there are others at 2 the Avery property who had the same or no less 3 apparent motive than Steven Avery to commit the 4 crimes alleged in the Amended Information, and 5 who had about the same opportunity and about the 6 same direct connection, that really is about as 7 far as the facts allow the defendant to go here, 8 where the defense -- where the defendant's own
9 assertion that I'm not guilty, always factually 10 has been, at bottom, an assertion that I just 11 didn't do it, and I can't shed any light for you 12 on who did.

13 And there's no real persuasive motive
14 that the State can offer for the crime; that is, 15 you know, this isn't a case where the victim owed 16 the defendant money, or there was a divorce
17 ongoing or, you know, any -- any of the usual 18 sort of causes of human action, or usual reasons 19 that might lead to a homicidal anger, or to 20 passion getting out of control, you know, 21 murderous passion, not amorous passion.

22 We're really in no better position to 23 tender a motive on the facts here than is the 24 State. And that really is very different than 25 Denny, where the very evidence the defendant

1 wanted to offer was evidence of someone else's 2 motive. He had, you know, a motive that he 3 wanted the jury to consider, that another person 4 had. So it's a tough fit.

5 THE COURT: Let me ask this.

6 ATTORNEY STRANG: Sure.

7 THE COURT: Denny doesn't require a
8 defendant to come up with Denny evidence. The 9 defendant certainly, here, is not obligated to say 10 these other persons could have done it, so I didn't 11 do it. The burden is on the State to prove that the 12 defendant did do it.

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: Right.

14 THE COURT: But I didn't understand your 15 pleading to be saying that you didn't want to offer 16 evidence that others did it; that is, not just -- 17 the defense, as I understand it, is not simply going 18 to be that the evidence is not sufficient to prove 19 that Mr. Avery committed these crimes, but rather to 20 identify if not one person, a group of other people, 21 who did. And it seems that type of thing does get 22 you into Denny, does it not?

23 ATTORNEY STRANG: It can and, certainly, as 24 I see the argument and the trial unfolding 25 factually, you know, we will be saying, what

1 investigative scrutiny did some of these other 2 people get. Steven Avery became, very quickly, the 3 focus of the investigation. And the State will say, 4 well, that's right and we have got good reasons for 5 him having been the focus.

6 What we want the jury to understand is 7 that there were others who, at least initially, 8 looked about equally situated as potential 9 suspects. And not much investigative effort was 10 expended on exploring whether they were good 11 suspects, or whether they were easily excluded 12 and, therefore, not viable or good suspects.

13 And at that level, if I understand the 14 Court, I think that's not Denny at all. That's 15 something we're free to do. And this is where I 16 do agree with the Court that much of what we have 17 presented in writing and orally, overlaps at some 18 very -- connects up at some very general level in 19 that you are getting into bias issues, an 20 investigative bias, or a tunnel vision on one 21 person of particular interest, when in fact an 22 objective investigation might have looked at 23 other people more seriously than the State did.

24 THE COURT: Let me stop you there. Who is 25 going to handle this for the State? Mr. Fallon, if

1 the -- one of the State's investigators is on the 2 stand and the -- they give their testimony and the 3 defense says, well, why didn't you investigate 4 further other people who you determined to be on the 5 scene, on the date of the alleged crimes; does the 6 State take the position that they have got to make a 7 Denny showing to ask that question, or can they ask 8 it, from the State's perspective?

9 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, I think 10 that's just a backdoor way of introducing the 11 potential of a third party liability suspect. And I 12 guess as I'm sitting here listening to the Court and 13 counsel begin the argument, the first thought that 14 came to my mind is simply this, does the defense 15 want to introduce the evidence set forth in their 16 statement on third party responsibility, either in 17 their case-in-chief or on cross-examination? Do 18 they want to do that?

19 THE COURT: I wonder the same things, but 20 we haven't gotten to that yet.

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: Because I'm treating it 22 as a motion for introduction of that evidence, and 23 do they want to argue that one of those individuals 24 could have, or did, commit this offense. Then I can 25 respond to that. I think we're miscasting the 1 issue.

2 THE COURT: I'm trying to take this in the 3 order in which it may come in. I'm saying that -- 4 and I asked myself this as I was reading the 5 briefs -- if the State -- or if the defense, on 6 cross-examination, asks a investigating officer, or 7 officers, why they focused in on the defendant and 8 did not investigate other suspects further -- or 9 maybe they did investigate other suspects, at this 10 point I have no way of knowing -- without referring 11 to a specific other suspect, my own feeling is that 12 at least that question doesn't get you into Denny.

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: Depends on what they want 14 to do with the answer. And then the question is, 15 well, then why is that relevant? Counsel will say, 16 well, it goes to bias. Since when is bias and an 17 institutional conundrum?

18 THE COURT: It may go to bias.

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: Then why is it relevant?
20 Why is it material to whether or not Mr. Avery 21 committed the offense? Sure, they can ask the 22 question, my concern is, what are they going to do 23 with the answer? What are the arguments to be made?
24 It's a backdoor attempt at pointing a finger that 25 somebody else committed the offense. Otherwise, the

1 jury is going to get sidetracked. That's the whole 2 idea behind Denny. That's my take. I will let the 3 Court and counsel continue.

4 THE COURT: All right.

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: Let's go at this from an 6 element standpoint on the homicide charge. The jury 7 has got to find that someone has been killed. And 8 let's suppose the jury finds that they are satisfied 9 that Teresa Halbach is killed. Then the next two 10 things they have to decide are, was it Steven Avery 11 who killed her, and did he do it intentionally.
12 Those are the elements. And, you know, we can't hop 13 over that second element, which is, is it the 14 defendant who killed her.

15 One of the reasons that a jury 16 reasonably might doubt whether the State has 17 proven that he killed Teresa Halbach is to say to 18 themselves, gee, I haven't heard any reason he 19 would have to kill her that's any more compelling 20 than the reason that his brother might have had 21 to kill her, or that Scott Tadych or Robert 22 Fabian might have had to kill her.

23 And I understand that they were there, 24 and I don't think the police looked very hard at,
25 for example, the fact that Earl Avery and Robert

1 Fabian give very different times for when they 2 are out on the rabbit hunt, which is a short 3 hunt, strange to do at darkness and, gosh, both 4 of them probably have .22 rifles in their hands; 5 although the police didn't bother to ask that 6 either.

7 And we understand that Mr. Avery's back 8 door to his trailer was broken open. And we 9 don't know why a member of this family, or 10 somebody who's riding around on a golf cart on 11 the property, couldn't have gone into the back 12 door of his trailer, either to put the .22 rifle 13 there, or to take it from there, or both.

14 And we're interested in the fact that a 15 cadaver dog hit on the golf cart that Earl Avery
16 and Robert Fabian said they were riding around 17 on, which then gets concealed in Mrs. Avery's, 18 Delores Avery's, garage. And we have got some 19 doubts here about whether the State got the right 20 man.

21 I don't see that as being a Denny
22 argument, although clearly it relates to other 23 people in the same way that evidence would have 24 to relate to other people if, you know, we were 25 trying, you know, the 1912 attempt to assassinate

1 Theodore Roosevelt outside the Gilpatrick Hotel
2 in Milwaukee where there is a whole crowd of 3 people and the issue might have been who's the 4 gunman. And --

5 THE COURT: Well, let me ask you this, I'm 6 reading from Denny now and they conclude, while our 7 decision establishes a bright line standard 8 requiring that three factors be present, that is, 9 motive, opportunity, and direct connection, our 10 holding is consistent with the Lasecki language 11 regarding the term "tendency".

12 So how can you argue that to be entitled 13 to show Denny evidence you have got to have these 14 three factors, but somehow if you only have two 15 you don't?

16 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, I guess what I'm 17 arguing is that I have got just as much as the State
18 does on all three. You know. I can't tender a 19 motive for one of these other people to have done 20 this, but the State can't tender a motive for Steven 21 Avery to have done it.

22 So it seems to me surpassingly odd that 23 the defense, which bears no burden, is in the 24 position here of having to jump hurdles that the 25 State, in seeking to prove Mr. Avery guilty,

1 doesn't have to jump. And, indeed, on request, 2 will get a jury instruction saying that they 3 don't have to prove motive, but I do, if I want 4 to challenge his guilt by pointing out --

5 THE COURT: How's that different from 6 Denny? I assume the jury instruction was there at 7 the time of Denny and they showed motive.

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: Because in Denny, it's 9 motive that the defendant wanted to offer. And the 10 facts of Denny are that he was excluded from 11 offering the motive of a particular third person, 12 evidence of that motive. Denny's tough, I mean, it 13 really is.

14 And, you know, everybody talks about it, 15 myself included, for years, as if it's an 16 immovable and unchallengeable feature of 17 Wisconsin law. It never went above the Wisconsin 18 Court of Appeals. And the footnote in 19 Richardson, where the holding is we're not 20 applying Denny here to frame-up, the footnote is, 21 we have never approved Denny at all. So I take 22 it Denny is a published decision it stands, but 23 --

24 THE COURT: There's a Supreme Court
25 decision authored by Justice Crooks that applied

1 Denny, I forget --

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes.

3 THE COURT: -- the name of the case, but.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: Scheidell, there is. And 5 have -- And, again, I accept Denny as the law. It's 6 not a great fit here, and how far beyond its facts 7 it can be applied isn't clear to me, and that's what 8 I tried to address in writing.

9 The proffer and, you know, Mr. Fallon
10 asks a fair question, do you want to offer this.
11 Yes, we do want to be able to offer the facts we 12 proffered alternatively, if the Court finds that 13 Denny applies. And we want to be able to offer 14 them if it finds that Denny doesn't apply.

15 These are fair areas to explore, both as 16 a matter of simple reasonable doubt, and as a 17 matter of the bias that each individual 18 investigative officer may have brought to the 19 task where the person at issue was Steven Avery.

20 I guess, you know, specifically, as I
21 read Denny, the defense that I want to offer, 22 this evidence of a third person's motive. And I 23 think the actual holding as opposed to the 24 discussion in the dictum in Denny is that, if you 25 want to offer evidence of motive of a particular

1 third person, motive alone is not enough. You
2 also have to offer some evidence, you know, a 3 plausible showing, or whatever the phrase is, of 4 opportunity of that third person and of some 5 direct connection to the offense.

6 So it's not enough that you say, hey, I 7 want to show that the decedent had a bookie who 8 was mad at him because, you know, he hadn't made 9 good on his bets and had a reason to kill him.
10 And when the facts are that the bookie, 11 undeniably was in the City of New York, when the 12 homicide occurred in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and 13 had no opportunity to have committed it, you 14 know, then I understand Denny on those terms on 15 why the motive wouldn't be relevant, wouldn't be 16 enough.

17 This is very different. We're not 18 seeking to offer a motive. What we're saying is 19 we have got the same evidence of motive,
20 opportunity, and direct connection to the crime
21 as to this group of people, as the State does as 22 to Steven Avery.

23 THE COURT: Well, and I agree with your 24 summary of the holding in Denny, it is different to 25 the extent that the defendant in that case wanted to

1 show evidence of motive. You are saying that's not 2 what -- that's not part of the defense argument.

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: Not here. I don't have 4 it any more than the State does.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: Has he concluded his 7 remarks?

8 THE COURT: I suspect --

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: It's helpful just to --

10 THE COURT: -- neither one of you has 11 probably concluded your remarks --

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's what I meant to 13 say.

14 THE COURT: -- but you're next, so you go 15 ahead.

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: First of all, I take 17 issue with three assumptions, or statements of 18 counsel, one, that they are in exactly the same 19 position as we are with respect to motive,
20 opportunity, and direct connection to the crime.
21 One, I dispute that.

22 But with respect to motive, however, the 23 Court has ruled our evidence of motive 24 inadmissible. So on the theory of the law of the 25 case, apparently we do not have an explainable reason why the crime occurred.

However, opportunity clearly exists on this particular case. And more importantly, and most importantly, there is a direct connection, because the defendant's blood is the blood that is found in the SUV. It's the bullet fragment containing the victim's DNA found in the garage, the key is to the Toyota, is found in his residence. So there are direct connections unlike any of the others.

Secondly, I take issue with counsel's characterization of Denny. Denny is not simply just about a defendant wishing to introduce motive evidence; although, I acknowledge that's how the case got to the Supreme Court. The defense was denied the opportunity to introduce the motive of this third person, in particular the motives attributed to one Gary Peterson over a $130 debt, or the fact that Bill Cudahy also had a motive because a shotgun was exchanged for drugs and then that shotgun was ultimately sold, apparently, to the annoyance of one of the parties, as a result of which this Christopher Mohr was killed.

That's what our facts there are. But if

1 the Court's attention can be directed to the 2 Denny decision, it's more than about motive.
3 Motive was the means, that's the -- as it were,
4 if the Court is a card player, that's the ante 5 that gets you in the game, that's jacks are 6 better, to borrow the metaphor.

7 But the point of Denny is that -- and 8 it's found on page 17, and I'm looking at the 9 Westlaw, the headnotes 9 and 10, second 10 paragraph, it says, in other words, there must be 11 a legitimate tendency that the third person could 12 have committed the crime. That's the whole idea 13 behind it, is there a legitimate tendency, in 14 which the legitimate tendency is the direct 15 connection.

16 The legitimate tendency is demonstrated 17 by motive. It's demonstrated by opportunity and 18 the whole connection to the crime. That's what 19 we're talking about here. And those are the 20 circumstances, that's the context of Denny.

21 Now, looking at the defendant's 22 statement on third party liability, what do we 23 have? Again, our complaint is that, one, Denny
24 clearly applies here. If they wish to introduce 25 these facts, in direct examination or in their

1 case-in-chief, and then argue the inference to 2 the jury that the police job was so bad, and by 3 the way, look at how bad it was, these guys could 4 have done it, then they have to comply with 5 Denny. That's just cut and dried. I'm 6 astonished that counsel would say that they don't 7 have to apply, that it's not controlling here.

8 The law requires the Court to look at 9 each person individually. So as the Court goes 10 through this, there are alternative Denny proffer 11 beginning at Page 9. They list two different 12 categories, customer or friends category, and I
13 think a family category. So I'm going to address 14 my comments specifically, because I think the law
15 requires the Court to address them specifically.

16 As to Scott Tadych, it's clear, and 17 counsel acknowledges, there is no motive 18 presented there. Opportunity, sure, he is on the 19 property, I will concede that. But there's no 20 connection. As a result of the no motive, and 21 most importantly, no connection to the crime, and 22 that's the key, it's not just the location, it's 23 not the property, there has to be a connection to 24 the crime. And that is the key here in analyzing 25 all of these, there is no direct connection for

1 Scott Tadych to the crime. Therefore, evidence, 2 cross-examined, case-in-chief, otherwise, should 3 be and must be excluded.

4 Next, you have Robert Fabian and Earl 5 Avery hunting rabbits. Counsel points out we 6 have a time discrepancy, well, that's hardly 7 unusual. If there was a situation, or a case, in 8 fact, I doubt whether counsel has ever had one 9 because I'm not sure I have, where witnesses say 10 the exact same thing at the same time and 11 everything lines up perfectly. Quite frankly, 12 when that happens, then I know something stinks.
13 I have yet to see it in my years of experience, 14 where everything lines up so perfectly.

15 There's no connection, no motive, no 16 connection to the crime, and just because he is 17 on the property for that one hour or two hour
18 period hunting rabbits, I suppose one could say 19 that he had the opportunity. So for purposes of 20 argument, we could concede that. But there again 21 there is no direct connection and no motive.

22 Similarly, with respect to Andres
23 Martinez, this one is rather interesting, because 24 I think Andres Martinez, again, there's no
25 motive, there's no opportunity, and there's no

1 connection. And, again, if they wish to offer
2 evidence of third party liability here, I think 3 Martinez is -- the potential admissibility of 4 Martinez is governed by Scheidell to a certain 5 extent, because it's another act. Although here, 6 we apparently know that -- who the other actor is 7 as opposed to, I think in Scheidell there was a 8 question as to, I think it was unknown third 9 parties and the adoption of this Sullivan
10 analysis.

11 Well, whether you use Sullivan analysis, 12 or whether you use a Denny analysis, under either 13 way, Martinez does not meet the requisite 14 admissibility standards. Under Denny, there is 15 no motive, there's no opportunity, and there's 16 nothing to directly connect. If you want to take 17 a Sullivan analysis then, one, is the evidence 18 offered for a proper purpose, sure, to suggest 19 that somebody else may have committed the crime, 20 okay, fine, that's a proper purpose.

21 However, on the next two steps of the 22 analysis the Andres Martinez evidence is 23 inadmissible. It does not meet the relevance 24 determination because, as the Court is aware, 25 relevance is a two-part determination. If I may

1 have a moment to elicit further, here it is.
2 Relevance has two facets. The first
3 consideration is whether the other acts evidence 4 relates to a fact or proposition that is of 5 consequence, and I think that's probably true in 6 this case.

7 However, the second consideration is 8 whether the other acts evidence has a tendency to 9 make a consequential fact more or less probable.
10 And given the nature of the assault and when that 11 assault occurred, it's one -- it's so 12 sufficiently dissimilar and unrelated to the 13 circumstances of the Halbach murder that it fails 14 on the relevancy prong.

15 And then, finally, even if it didn't 16 fail there, it would certainly fail on balancing
17 the probative value on the Andres Martinez
18 assault of his girlfriend, with its potential 19 prejudicial effect. In this case, confusion is 20 the primary concern here, delay, waste of time, 21 and a jury going down the wrong road, as opposed 22 to trying to determine whether or not Mr. Avery 23 is, in fact, the murderer.

24 So the fact that Andres Martinez
25 attacked his girlfriend with a hatchet does not

1 add anything of consequence to our analysis here.
2 I don't need to comment further on these many 3 inconsistencies to law enforcement.

4 THE COURT: Before we leave him, I don't 5 know if I missed it in the defense offer, what would 6 be the evidence connecting Mr. Martinez to the 7 location of the crime at the time of the crime?

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: That's fuzzy. He, I
9 think in the end denies having been there on October 10 31. And there's a receipt for his son's car having 11 been towed there on November 2, 2 days later. And 12 he, in the end, says, well, that's the day I most 13 recently went to the Avery's.

14 So it's -- Others -- others suggest that 15 he may have been there and indeed been at a 16 bonfire on October 31. But, you know, I can't -- 17 I don't have any ironclad evidence to put him 18 there. Neither do I need to offer that.

19 What's -- One of the things that's so
20 striking about Mr. Martinez is his first talk 21 with the law enforcement officers, before he does 22 start changing his story considerably, on some 23 interesting details about his relationship with 24 Steven Avery. His first statement includes what 25 most experienced detectives would have recognized

1 as a confession to killing her, and sort of 2 explored this strange statement, well, I'm going 3 away for the rest of my life anyway, so I guess
4 if they say I did it I could take responsibility 5 for it. That's -- You know, that's exactly the 6 kind of statement that people sometimes initially 7 make in, ultimately, confessing a shameful crime.

8 Rather than sort of following that, or 9 going into the crack that Mr. Martinez offered, 10 what we have, these agents, according to their 11 reports, saying is, oh, you know, we're not going 12 to blame you for something you didn't do, and 13 that's just the end of the matter. Really, you 14 know, an interesting bit of tunnel vision there.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: I guess I would dispute 16 that, because I'm under the impression discovery has 17 been provided and there's also, and I think counsel 18 acknowledges it, they may not find it greatest in 19 the world, but there is an alibi associated with 20 Mr. Martinez in terms of his location. I believe 21 there is evidence that he was out trick-or-treating 22 with his kids.

23 ATTORNEY STRANG: With a 16 year old boy,
24 who claims he skipped school, that's true. But, you 25 know, what we do have to avoid here is getting into

1 the very problem that Holmes vs. South Carolina
2 warns about. Now, Holmes approves, in general, 3 rules like Denny, and in fact cites Denny, as the 4 sort of rule that's, in general, permissible, but 5 says, look, you can't look in isolation at the 6 State's showing and say, boy, that looks strong 7 standing alone so, therefore, I'm not going to allow 8 competing defense evidence that standing alone 9 doesn't look as strong. That's what Holmes is 10 about. And particularly in arguing direct 11 connection, that's really what the State -- the 12 mistake the State is inviting the Court to make 13 here.

14 THE COURT: I understand what Holmes says, 15 but as long as you focus on the evidence, or lack of 16 evidence, supporting the third party involvement, I 17 think you steer clear of Holmes' problems. If you 18 say I'm not going to look at your third party 19 evidence because there was DNA evidence connecting 20 Mr. Avery to the crime and that's enough for me, 21 then you are into a Holmes problem.

22 ATTORNEY STRANG: Right, I agree.

23 THE COURT: But I don't understand the 24 State to be making that argument here.

25 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, they are saying,

1 look, you know, the key's found in his trailer, and 2 a bullet with Teresa Halbach's DNA, or a fragment of 3 a bullet is found four months later in his garage.
4 Now, in fact, there will be plenty of evidence at 5 trial that Steven Avery did not have exclusive 6 access to the garage. Others went in the garage.
7 An issue why this bullet is found four months later, 8 after multiple searches of the garage.

9 I mean, the jury will have all kinds of 10 evidence to consider in assessing the weight, if 11 any, to give that bullet, including the fact that 12 the bullet has also got DNA from a State Crime 13 Lab analyst on it. I mean, that's -- that's 14 just where we have to be careful, because, taken 15 in isolation, finding a Toyota key in Mr. Avery's 16 bedroom sounds terrible when you look at how many 17 searches --

18 THE COURT: Okay. Wait a minute, I
19 interrupted Mr. Fallon just to ask about the 20 evidence of Mr. Martinez so, Mr. Fallon, you may 21 continue.

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you. After 23 Mr. Martinez, the defense then suggests that a 24 couple of adolescent school girls, K.S. and A. MCK, 25 that there was a group of people at a bonfire.

1 Again, those people, apparently Mr. Martinez has 2 mentioned a Dawn Hauschultz, German spelling, 3 H-a-u-s-c-h-u-l-t-z, Steven Avery and --

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: This is all part of the 5 Martinez discussions?

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: Right.

7 THE COURT: Yes.

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: So, again -- All right.
9 Then I will accept that. Apparently those aren't 10 being offered as viable suspects.

11 Next, you have James Kennedy, again, 12 opportunity solely because he happened to be on 13 the property at the time.

14 THE COURT: Just, before we leave that, 15 when was this bonfire, I don't know if I caught that 16 from the offer?

17 ATTORNEY FALLON: I believe that was 18 supposedly the night before.

19 THE COURT: October 30th.

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: No.

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: No.

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: Well, there certainly was 24 a fire, and we're going to introduce evidence of a 25 fire on the night of the 31st, but there's evidence

1 of a bonfire before.

2 THE COURT: I'm looking at Page 13, and it
3 says a schoolgirl and her friend, that Martinez, 4 Dawn Hauschultz, Steven Avery, and another Steven 5 had been at a bonfire and party at the Avery 6 residence. A. MCK confirmed that she heard from 7 Dawn Hanes that Martinez and his friends, Roberto 8 Brooks, were at the Avery property on October 30th.
9 When I put those two together, I read it as being a 10 bonfire on October 30th.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: There are two different 12 statements there and the one girl does place it as 13 Sunday night, October 30, the other doesn't.

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: I think it makes it all 15 the more speculative and full of conjecture when one 16 goes to analyze the admissibility or the possibility 17 of any of those people, particularly Mr. Martinez, 18 being involved.

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: That's a tough argument
20 for the State to make where its own witnesses are 21 going to be in conflict over whether there was any 22 fire on October 31st. It's certainly the State's 23 theory that there was. But it's going to present 24 people who say I didn't see a fire on October 31.
25 So, none of this is ideally crisp and clear.

1 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Fallon, you may
2 continue.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you. Again, with 4 respect to Mr. James Kennedy, their Denny analysis, 5 no motive and no direct connection to the crime are 6 offered. So evidence regarding him should be 7 excluded.

8 With respect to the family members, you
9 have a -- Charles Avery is the first one 10 mentioned. Defense argues, well, apparently he 11 may have a motive, but his motive is no greater 12 than their client's because of the sex offender 13 charges and/or convictions associated with both 14 Charles and Earl Avery.

15 As I noted in my pleading, one of them 16 was actually convicted, the other was not. But 17 there's nothing to directly connect Charles Avery
18 or Earl Avery, for that matter, with the crime.
19 Yes, they are connected to the crime scene, when 20 one considers the salvage yard as the crime 21 scene, or the location, but there's not a direct 22 connection to the crime itself. And such 23 allegations need more before the jury is going to 24 have a finger pointed at one of the defendant's 25 brothers.

1 That gets us to the Dassey boys, which 2 there are four: Bobby, Blaine, Bryan, and 3 Brendan. We're excepting Brendan from the 4 discussion for the obvious reasons. That leaves
5 us the remaining three Dassey brothers.

6 Again, the motive, the opportunity, and 7 the connection are very, very thin. Motive,
8 absolutely none. Connection to the offense, 9 none. Opportunity, depending on which version of 10 the time frame, arguably that could be conceded.
11 But, again, certainly insufficient evidence 12 connecting them to the offense in question.

13 As a result, under a Denny analysis, for 14 the defense to suggest and point a finger that 15 one of the individuals mentioned in their 16 statement is a viable suspect, such that the jury 17 ought to consider that in evaluating the quality 18 of the investigation, is a reach. It's going to 19 lead to confusion. It's going to have the jury 20 going down who knows what path. And it doesn't 21 add anything to the possibility or reality of 22 what the jury's actual determination or job is in 23 this case, and that is to determine whether 24 Mr. Avery is, in fact, the one who killed her.

25 If they are going to suggest and imply,

1 or directly say in argument, that anyone of these 2 6, 8, 10 people listed in that statement could 3 have been the murderer, then they have got to 4 have more than what they have shown us. So that 5 evidence should be denied, Judge. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Anything else on the Denny
7 motion?

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: I would be reiterating
9 the brief and I think, you know, I will stand on 10 that. I don't think I'm waiving a thing. But 11 the -- just to go back to the real basics here, I 12 think that Denny does not apply at all. If the 13 Court disagrees and finds that Denny does apply, 14 then the facts we have offered in the alternative, 15 we do wish to pursue on cross-examination,
16 conceivably in the defense case-in-chief.

17 And I understand what the 904.03
18 limitations might be on cumulative questioning or 19 other cumulative evidence. But the Court does 20 need to understand that some of the people we 21 discuss, and James Kennedy, for example, would be 22 a good example here, Dawn Hauschultz would be 23 another one, are there not because we view them 24 as suspects themselves, but because they are in a 25 position to offer testimony that bears on the 1 activities of others.

2 James Kennedy is there to say what he 3 sees about Charles Avery and how peculiar it is 4 that Charles Avery, at 3:00 on October 31, 2005, 5 isn't in or around the office, and has to be 6 hailed by shouting for five minutes or more and 7 comes from behind the building. And James 8 Kennedy is there to talk about the gray smoke 9 that he sees rising from the center of, not 10 Steven Avery's burn pit, but from the center of 11 the salvage yard pit, at 3:00 on October 31, 12 2005, or shortly after.

13 So, you know, this -- and if the writing 14 was inartful, I take the blame for that, it's my 15 writing. But on the alternative hypothesis that 16 Denny applies, I'm doing my level best here to 17 assemble, from what the State did and didn't do, 18 the evidence suggesting the least legitimate 19 tendency to believe that these people had no 20 lesser motive than Steve Avery, no lesser 21 opportunity, and no lesser connection to the 22 place of the offense.

23 I mean, let's take the Dassey boys just 24 to finish. There isn't any physical, direct 25 connection between Brendan Dassey and the death

1 of Teresa Halbach, but this 17 year old boy is 2 facing the rest of his life in prison on the 3 State's accusation, without any physical evidence
4 of a direct connection. Brendan Dassey, for all 5 that appears here, has the same encounter with 6 Teresa Halbach, or walks past her as he's getting 7 off the bus, that his brother, Blaine, does.

8 Their really isn't any difference here
9 in apparent motive, opportunity, or direct 10 connection. And when we have Teresa Halbach's 11 bones being found, not just in Steven Avery's 12 burn pit, which has gotten all the public
13 attention, but some of them being found in a burn 14 barrel immediately behind the Janda house, where 15 the four Dassey boys live, is this something that 16 a jury ought to be allowed to consider in 17 deciding whether the State has proven Steven 18 Avery's guilt, beyond a reasonable doubt? You 19 bet it is.

20 THE COURT: Let me ask this, let's say that 21 if, to the extent that Denny is not on all fours
22 because Denny sought to offer evidence of motive, 23 and you are saying the defense does not, then 24 what -- what does the defense contend are the rules 25 for determining whether third party liability can be

1 presented to the jury?

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: I'm sorry to be
3 quarrelsome, but I don't know that we're talking 4 about third party liability. We're talking about 5 evidence of the activities and presence of others 6 that has some tendency to make it less likely that 7 Steven Avery was the person who murdered Teresa
8 Halbach.

9 THE COURT: Well --

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: This is simply relevant
11 evidence.

12 THE COURT: The thing is, if you look at 13 Denny, Denny wasn't just saying that one specific 14 person -- other person did it, he is other persons.
15 He wanted to suggest multiple possibilities. It 16 seems to me that while the defense in this case is 17 not basing its claim on the allegation that others 18 had motive, that in other respects you are trying to 19 do essentially what Denny did. You are saying, 20 look, there were these other people, and I can name 21 them, who were in a position to commit this crime, 22 who could have committed this crime, who were at the 23 scene, had the opportunity. Isn't that what you are 24 doing?

25 What are the rules -- From the defense

1 perspective, what are the rules the Court is to 2 apply in determining whether or not the defense 3 will be allowed to elicit testimony that these 4 other person or persons could have committed the 5 crime?

6 ATTORNEY STRANG: Relevance, 901 -- 904.01
7 and 904.02, and the ordinary balancing under 904.03.
8 Indeed, I mean, let's not kid ourselves, the State 9 will name the people who were there. The State will 10 elicit testimony on direct examination, from at 11 least some of them, that they were there at the 12 right time. The State will elicit evidence about 13 the activities of some of them. The State will 14 elicit, I'm sure, testimony from law enforcement 15 officers about the persons with whom they spoke.

16 So when we explore bias, by showing that 17 law enforcement officers immediately narrowed 18 their focus, for practical purposes, to Steven 19 Avery, we necessarily have to do that by showing 20 what the broader focus would have included. It's 21 just practical stuff.

22 Again, you know, the rabbit hunt is one
23 example, but an example only. That -- This is a 24 dynamic scene, there are a number of people 25 there. And an unbiased investigation would have

1 pursued many of the facts that we have laid out 2 in the alternative proffer. And the 3 admissibility here is the same standard it is for 4 the State's evidence, circumstantial though it
5 is, that Steven Avery did it, which is, does it 6 have some tendency to make it more likely that he 7 committed the crime. This has some tendency to 8 make it less likely.

9 THE COURT: All right. Let me ask,
10 Mr. Fallon, with respect to Denny, at least one -- 11 setting aside for the moment its significance, there 12 is at least one difference between Denny and what 13 the defense is attempting to do, and that is the 14 defense is saying, we're not offering a motive for 15 these alternative possible suspects. What's the 16 State's position on that issue?

17 ATTORNEY FALLON: As I indicated earlier,
18 the State's position on that is that Denny is more 19 than just offering evidence about motive. The case 20 stands for the proposition that if you are going to 21 point the finger at a third party, you have to 22 establish the legitimate tendency. You have to 23 establish, which is primarily in the construct of is 24 there a direct connection. I think that's the -- 25 the operative fact here.

1 THE COURT: No, but -- Let me rephrase my 2 question. Is the State's position that, if a
3 defendant wants to offer evidence that a third party 4 or parties might be responsible for the crime, that 5 the only way they can do that is if they provide 6 motive plus opportunity and a direct connection to 7 the crime, or is the State's position that, well, 8 there's still this legitimate tendency test, but 9 they have to -- if they are not going to use motive, 10 they have to do -- show opportunity and direct 11 connection?

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: Under Denny, they have to 13 establish all three. Now, I want to address, if I 14 may, because I think this dovetails into the point 15 you are making --

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 ATTORNEY FALLON: -- your request if Denny
18 doesn't apply, then what do we apply.

19 I think counsel is correct, 904.01, .02, 20 and .03 analysis is the analysis that would be 21 the fall back position to determine the 22 admissibility of this evidence. Then I would 23 invite the Court to look at the evidence under 24 that analytical framework as well.

25 Because, quite frankly, it's

1 inadmissible under that framework, and here's 2 why. Relevance, as I mentioned earlier, has two 3 facets. First is whether the evidence relates to 4 a fact or proposition that is of consequence, and 5 why that may be met here.

6 The second consideration for relevance
7 is what we all learned in law school years ago as 8 the materiality component of our relevant
9 statute. And that is whether the other act 10 evidence -- or not just other acts, excuse me, 11 whether the evidence has a tendency to make a 12 consequential fact more probable or less 13 probable.

14 The fact that, for instance, Robert
15 Fabian was on a rabbit hunt with a .22, the fact 16 that there was a golf cart that was found rather 17 interesting by one of the cadaver dogs, the fact 18 that there was smoke in the middle of the salvage 19 yard as opposed to the far corner up on the upper 20 right side, great.

21 But how does that really make a 22 consequence here, the consequence of fact more or 23 less probable. And even if you were to accept 24 the establishment of that second facet of 25 relevance, you still must then evaluate whether

1 the probity, the strength -- and this is where 2 counsel misreads Holmes, and I think the Court 3 happily noted that -- where you do consider the 4 strength of what's being discussed here.

5 So is the probative value substantially 6 outweighed by the prejudicial effect, by the 7 confusion of issues, the potential of the jury 8 being misled, undue time considerations, and 9 things of that sort. And even in a 904.03
10 balancing test, everyone of those individuals 11 mentioned in the statement on third party
12 liability fails to meet that standard, admittedly 13 a lower standard of admissibility as well.

14 Because they -- I strongly challenge
15 whether they meet that second facet of relevance, 16 the old materiality. And even if they did, the 17 probative value under all of the evidence known 18 here is substantially outweighed by the 19 prejudicial effect. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: All right. Let 's take a lunch
21 break and then we'll come back and I will hear 22 argument on the other issues. I'm in my office for 23 lunch, so I will defer to counsel; how much time do 24 you want?

25 ATTORNEY STRANG: Forty-five minutes to an

1 hour.

2 THE COURT: 1:15, does that work.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: Sure.

4 THE COURT: See you at 1:15.

5 (Noon recess taken.)

6 THE COURT: At this time we are back on the 7 record. All counsel and the defendant are present 8 in the courtroom. When we left off before lunch the 9 Court finished hearing argument on the third party
10 evidence issue, that is, the Denny motion. Counsel, 11 I'm not sure whether, next, it pays to take up the 12 wrongful conviction issue or the planted blood issue 13 first.

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: We would prefer to take 15 the blood vial issue, the planted blood issue.

16 THE COURT: Any objection from the defense?

17 ATTORNEY BUTING: No.

18 THE COURT: Very well. I will hear from 19 the defense first then. Who will be presenting this 20 matter? Mr. Buting?

21 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Very well, you may proceed.

23 ATTORNEY BUTING: Like Mr. Strang said, we 24 have pretty thoroughly set this forth in the written 25 submission, so I don't want to repeat everything in

1 there, but I do want to point out a few things.

2 First, the Richardson case. I think we 3 need to recognize and distinguish it a little bit 4 from what we have here. And I understand I think 5 the -- why that case was decided the way it was.

6 There's a very big difference between 7 that case and this. That was a direct evidence 8 case. There was a victim, or alleged victim, at 9 the time, saying Mr. Richardson had sex with me, 10 or raped me. He denied it. But balance -- And 11 offered a convoluted argument of a frame-up that 12 was collateral in part because he was two steps 13 removed from the victim. Wasn't just the victim, 14 wasn't just the victim's mother, it was his 15 ex-wife who supposedly then got the victim's 16 mother and the victim to frame him.

17 What the Court noted as the frame-up 18 evidence, when it came to the question of 19 probative value, how it had little probative 20 value, they balanced it against the fact that he 21 says, I didn't have sex with her, period.

22 Yet his semen was there. Her
23 underclothes were found there. The injuries, 24 significant injuries, torn hymen and what not.
25 Which his frame-up evidence did not go to explain

1 any of. Wasn't like he was saying she, you know, 2 deliberately injured herself, tore her hymen, did
3 all this kind of stuff. His frame-up evidence 4 did not go to explain away any of that evidence.

5 Now, this case, on the other hand, is a
6 circumstantial case. There is no direct evidence 7 that Mr. Avery committed this crime. Here, the 8 proffered evidence does offer an explanation for 9 some of the circumstantial evidence, directly.
10 And I can just hear it right now, if this blood 11 evidence is not allowed in, the prosecution is 12 going to get up in their closing argument and 13 they are going to say, no matter what doubt the 14 defense may have raised about this, or that, or 15 these other pieces of evidence, the bottom line
16 is his blood was in her car. And that kills him.
17 He said he was never in her car, his blood was in 18 her car.

19 We will be standing there with our hands 20 completely tied behind our back, unable to defend 21 against the underlying accusation in this case, 22 without this evidence. That's why, in this case, 23 it goes directly to the heart of the right to 24 present -- the constitutional right to present a
25 defense.

1 If this is -- Frankly, if we are not 2 allowed to do this, I think this case is going to 3 be reversed. Because there is no other way that 4 Mr. Avery can adequately defend himself against 5 these allegations, allegations that he made from 6 the very beginning of this case. I think even 7 before he was arrested, or certainly -- must have 8 been before he was arrested, because he was 9 saying it to the television camera, if my blood 10 is in that car, or my DNA is in that car, it was 11 planted, because I didn't go in that car. That's 12 the first point I want to make.

13 Second point, I want to clear up
14 something here, because the State wants to link, 15 merge, Denny and Richardson in this case because 16 of the blood planting defense. And that's partly 17 because I think they wrongly assume that if the 18 police planted the blood, necessarily they also 19 murdered Teresa Halbach.

20 And that does not follow logically and 21 it does not necessarily follow with the defense
22 that can be offered. Mr. Avery has never said 23 that. He is entitled to let the jury consider 24 that some other unknown individual may have 25 committed this murder and that the police are

1 opportunistic and took the opportunity that was 2 presented to frame him, which thereby totally 3 destroyed his civil claim against them.

4 That's why, for instance, it's entirely
5 unnecessary, therefore, for us to show that one 6 or more police officers had a motive to kill 7 Teresa Halbach. Because they are separate, what 8 the pleadings demonstrate is a motive to frame 9 Mr. Avery, and an opportunity to do it as well.

10 So when they -- when they talk about -- 11 Recognized, by the way, not being a civil case, 12 we don't have the opportunity to do depositions, 13 to question all of these officers ahead of time 14 and present, perhaps, as clear and thorough and 15 airtight an offer of proof as you would in a 16 civil case.

17 These are police officers that, if they 18 were involved, necessarily, have covered their 19 tracks in a way that we have not been able to 20 pierce yet. Some more may come out at trial and 21 should come out at trial.

22 But at this point we're limited by the 23 fact that how is any defendant going to ever 24 prove a direct connection saying that a witness 25 saw Lieutenant Lenk, or Sergeant Colborn, or

1 anyone else, take that vial of blood and put it.
2 You know, it's almost impossible to expect in any 3 case, a defendant being able to do that. The 4 police control the scene, they control the 5 evidence, they control the documentation of that 6 evidence, the written documents.

7 Despite all that, I think we have 8 already shown they slipped up and that there are 9 indications that a reasonable jury has a right to 10 hear, and look at, and consider when we're 11 talking about whether there's a reasonable doubt 12 that Mr. Avery committed this offense. And if 13 there's --

14 And logically, if he says there's no way 15 his blood could be in there, in that car, because 16 he was never in the car, and his blood is found 17 there, if he -- if evidence shows that there's an 18 explanation that someone else put it there, then 19 that also would tend to indicate at least a 20 reasonable doubt about whether he committed the 21 crime itself. Because it pulls the rug out from 22 under one of the major pillars of the State's 23 case and challenges the credibility and the 24 reliability of everything else that they have 25 brought up to try and point the finger against

1 Mr. Steven Avery.

2 The one thing that I want to say,
3 though, about Holmes, South Carolina vs. Holmes,
4 it's not that we're saying that Holmes overrules
5 Denny, or that Holmes even overrules Richardson.
6 But there is one aspect of Richardson though, 7 that may no longer survive, and that is, the 8 whole idea that -- that you can -- that you weigh 9 the strength of the State's case against the 10 proffered evidence from the defense.

11 And in that case -- That's why I'm 12 saying -- That case, by the way, has never been 13 cited, as far as I could tell, by any other case 14 authority in the country, since it was decided.
15 And I think it's because it's a narrow case on 16 those narrow facts.

17 But the analysis that they went through 18 and that I went through earlier here, about how, 19 yeah, he says he was framed by this girl, not by 20 the girl or her mother, but by his ex-wife 21 putting them all up to it, they didn't balance 22 that say, well, let's look at that, but besides 23 the fact there is semen, there's her bedclothes, 24 there's the injuries, and ultimately they said -- 25 the analysis, as I see it, is that they said that

1 that outweighed the defense.

2 That's what I think Holmes says you can 3 not do. Holmes says you have to look at the 4 proffered defense evidence separate from the 5 State's evidence. And at page 10 of the slip 6 opinion, this really is the second to the last -- 7 or third to the last paragraph of the whole
8 decision.

9 What they point out is, quote, just 10 because the prosecution evidence, if credited,
11 would provide strong support for a guilty 12 verdict, it does not follow that evidence of 13 third party guilt has only a weak, logical 14 connection to the central issues in the case.

15 And where the credibility of the 16 prosecution's witnesses or the reliability of its 17 evidence is not conceded, the strength of the 18 prosecution's case cannot be assessed without 19 making the sort of factual findings that have 20 traditionally been reserved for the trier of fact 21 and that South Carolina did not purport to make 22 in this case. I think we may fall into a similar 23 trap here if we start trying to balance too much 24 what the State's forensic evidence is versus 25 Mr. Avery's in this case.

1 But let me turn to some of the so-called 2 facts that the State has now presented in their 3 response. These facts, a number of them are 4 disputed and, therefore, the fact finder in 5 disputed facts should be the jury not the court, 6 because they go directly to Mr. Avery's right -- 7 to the heart of his right to present a defense.

8 For instance, Paragraph 5, Page 2, of 9 the State's response says that, Lenk placed 10 himself on duty at approximately noon, and 11 approximately 2:00 p.m. he arrived on the scene.
12 Well, right away, that's directly contradicted by 13 sworn testimony from Lieutenant Lenk that he 14 arrived at the property at 6:30 or 7:00. Lenk 15 never filed a report of those, his activities or 16 whereabouts.

17 They have, as yet, produced no work
18 records of his. We did receive, however, some -- 19 and by the way, some of the documents that we 20 have asked for in the Brady motion, should not be 21 implied to mean that -- that there isn't already 22 significant evidence that supports the arguments 23 we're making. We want to make sure there is 24 nothing else out there that would make it even 25 stronger.

1 But we do have reports that Deputy 2 Inspector Schetter made showing the hours that 3 every officer worked on that day and what their 4 duties were. And that's what we put in our 5 proffer here. Lenk says he works 10 hours. We 6 also have logs that show when officers signed in 7 and signed out.

8 And that goes to the Paragraph No. 6 in 9 Mr. Fallon's response, that a logbook is created 10 to account for the comings and goings of law 11 officers and others. Well, I would add, except 12 for Mr. Lenk. Because, according to the log 13 book, he never arrived at the scene of the Alvery
14 (sic) Salvage. And yet we know he was there 15 because they do show that he left.

16 A reasonable inference that a jury, and 17 only a jury, should make is that he somehow snuck 18 in unnoticed. He was able to bypass that. And 19 if he was able to bypass that perimeter, or 20 whatever it was, then what else could he have 21 been able to bypass without there being 22 documentation.

23 It doesn't necessarily require a huge 24 conspiracy of the entire police department. He 25 may have -- You know, the person who's the guard

1 who's checking people in in the logs, may or may 2 not have been involved in this at all. If he was 3 able to bypass that guard, he may well have been 4 able to get to the vehicle.

5 These are factual contradictions,
6 factual contradictions. They are not pure 7 speculation, as Mr. Fallon would argue. He was 8 there, but he never checked in. He said he 9 worked 10 hours, but the only record of his work 10 is, according to his testimony, four hours at 11 most, 6:30 to 7:00 is when he arrived, I think he 12 said under oath. And he left at 10:40.

13 Now, the State is perfectly free to 14 explain to the jury, if they can, these factual
15 contradictions away. But Mr. Avery is equally 16 free to argue these factual contradictions to the 17 jury in the way that he sees fit and that they 18 fit and support his theory of defense.

19 Another fact, so-called fact, mentioned
20 I believe in Paragraph 14, is that the DNA 21 profile obtained from the key to the SUV was not 22 blood, but another biological source. Well, 23 actually, I don't believe that's been ruled out, 24 according to the preliminary hearing testimony, 25 because there was never a presumptive test done

1 on the key.

2 Visually, she didn't see it, but she 3 swabbed it immediately for DNA. If all blood 4 could be seen visually, there would be no reason
5 for doing presumptive tests. So we don't know 6 whether the source of his DNA at that point, on 7 the key, could have been from the blood or not.

8 More importantly the blood is found in 9 his house, where they had four days to obtain 10 plenty of sources of his own DNA. It is not 11 unusual to find someone's own DNA in their own 12 house. It's all over the place. And on top of 13 that, they have specific DNA samples from him, 14 buccal swabs, in not just the Clerk's Office, but 15 in the Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department, 16 from prior DNA exoneration efforts. And that was 17 verified by their own investigation.

18 Paragraph No. 14 in the so-called facts
19 claims that this Marlene Kraitswood (sic) 20 testified, as she's the phlebotomist, and that 21 she drew the blood sample and that she was the 22 one that put the hole in the tube top. Well, we 23 have seen no such report. And his response 24 earlier was, we don't have to show all of our 25 cards. This is like in the nature of a rebuttal

1 witness is what I'm assuming, he has got the 2 report.

3 We have seen the interviews of everybody 4 else in the links of these, no pun intended -- of 5 this chain. But there's no report of this nurse.
6 Now, he may say they don't have to show all their 7 cards, but that's exactly what they are trying to 8 get the defense to do, number one.

9 And number two, he can't put these facts 10 in here and make averments to the Court that they 11 are facts, if he is not even going to turn over 12 any reports that support it, to the defense. And 13 we have seen nothing of that.

14 More importantly, the tube top was not 15 sealed. And we said that right in our papers, in 16 our moving papers, that the hole there is only 17 one of several ways that the blood could have 18 been taken. Whether the hole was put there, or 19 used -- an existing hole was used by inserting a 20 needle to withdraw it, or even more likely the 21 top is just pulled right off and blood, whatever 22 they need is taken out. Because it was unsecured 23 and there really would not even have been a need 24 to use a needle, you just pull the top right off.

25 Paragraph 17, and this is an example of

1 how all of these so-called facts are jury 2 questions that only a jury can decide. Moreover, 3 testimony would reveal that neither Lenk, nor 4 Sergeant Colborn, or anyone else associated with 5 the wrongful conviction lawsuit entered the SUV 6 on Saturday, November 5th.

7 Oh. Okay. So that's it. That's the 8 end of the question, huh? We're just supposed to 9 accept that and walk away and go home and say, 10 Lenk is now saying that, that's all we need.
11 Please, that is for a jury to decide. Lenk's 12 credibility is already in question because he's 13 been caught in inconsistencies under oath at 14 best, perjury at best, for the defense
15 perspective.

16 And the same that goes to their claim
17 later that Lenk did no more than just prepare 18 transmittal paper work. Again, that's what we're 19 supposed to believe and just accept as a given 20 fact instead of letting the jury know.

21 In essence, what they want us to do is 22 just assume that it's a mere coincidence that 23 Lenk is on these documents in 2002; that he's 24 deposed as a witness in a civil case three weeks 25 earlier; that he volunteers to search the

1 defendant's home, after his superiors have 2 already determined there is a conflict of 3 interest and with his department's involvement 4 because of that very same lawsuit.

5 He doesn't tell, neither does Colborn,
6 the new superior officers that he was a witness 7 and involved in that case. He finds this magic 8 key in plain view, when no else could, and he's 9 still involved in the case, five months later, in 10 March, after the Brendan Dassey so-called 11 confession, when the bullet is found.

12 Now, we don't know, and I don't want to 13 leave the Court with the impression that the only 14 explanation is that Mr. Lenk planted that bullet 15 there; we don't know that. There are other 16 explanations, including one that it wasn't even 17 her DNA on that bullet.

18 Because the evidence will also show that 19 the DNA analysis of that bullet was flawed in 20 that the control failed and included the 21 analyst's own DNA, which by protocol means the 22 test gets thrown out. But she applied for a 23 deviation from that protocol in order to make the 24 call.

25 And the evidence will also show that

1 that is the only time in her career she's ever
2 even asked to deviate from a protocol. Again, 3 those are questions that a jury is going to have 4 to decide and the jury will hear.

5 So, really, what it comes down to is, it 6 seems to me, the State is arguing that -- they 7 are conceding that it's material, and it's 8 relevant, that it's probative. But that really 9 what it comes down to is that this is a waste of 10 time, this is a confusion, there's unfair 11 prejudice.

12 The unfair prejudice thing, let me just 13 respond briefly to, since we are in closed
14 hearing, we can talk about these inmate 15 statements. They claim, well, the inmate -- the 16 Court has already ruled these inmate statements 17 to be inadmissible and that somehow they are 18 prejudiced by that.

19 When, in fact, if they think that that 20 is so critical to their case, that those 21 statements are so important, they have an appeal, 22 as of right, that they could have taken, or still 23 could, under 974.05, State vs. Eichmann, which 24 says that a -- an order that bars admission of 25 evidence that, quote, might normally be

1 determinative to the success of the prosecution, 2 gives them an automatic right to an appeal. And 3 they haven't done that.

4 And the case also says that it's -- they 5 give the State so much authority and discretion 6 that they are the one -- the prosecution is the 7 one to make the determination of whether the 8 evidence that is excluded is that important to 9 them or not.

10 So to argue that this somehow has 11 prejudiced them so much, when they have other 12 remedies, is really an auspicious argument. So 13 it comes down to the confusion and delay, which 14 is the last argument that they make, which is 15 really a 904.03 argument.

16 And they argue that so much time is 17 going to be taken up by the defense. Well, we 18 just saw a calendar here that shows -- I don't 19 remember how many days for the State's case, but 20 basically four weeks, but only -- I'm sorry -- 21 with five days projected for the defense. As if 22 any evidence that goes -- that would tend to 23 indicate Mr. Avery is not guilty is somehow a 24 waste of time. That's absurd.

25 They claim there would be an endless

1 parade of witnesses. Well -- And that they would 2 be forced to present and hour by hour accounting
3 for Lieutenant Lenk and Colborn, or whatever.

4 First of all, the State, in particular 5 those Manitowoc officers, put themselves in that 6 position. They chose to remain involved in this 7 investigation when it was obvious to everybody 8 else that they shouldn't be; not only on that 9 day, but even five months later, when Lenk is at 10 the scene again, still involved. It's a conflict 11 of interest. It demonstrates their bias and bias 12 is not a collateral matter, particularly when 13 it's this critical to the defense, and it's never 14 a waste of time.

15 I disagree that every witness they 16 discuss in here has to testify and that that's 17 going to take forever. At some point they may -- 18 We don't need to offer them, if they feel like 19 they need to, if they think that interviewing 20 witnesses 15 months later, when they could have 21 done it right away, that relying on 15 year old 22 -- 15 month old memories is probative, so be it.
23 It would be their choice to waste the jury's 24 time, not ours.

25 So, for all of those reasons, I think

1 the defense has presented a very strong case of 2 the importance, relevance, and, indeed, necessity 3 that this blood vial evidence be introduced or 4 presented in this case. So we oppose the State's 5 motion to exclude.

6 If the Court has questions about, again,
7 feel free to just throw them at me here if there 8 is some legal issues or questions.

9 THE COURT: What is the defense's version 10 of when the blood would have been taken from the 11 Clerk's Office? Is it between --

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: It's not two years like 13 the Court I think at one point -- or what Mr. Fallon 14 argues something about from September 2003. We're 15 not going to be offering that as, like, somehow 16 these officers took a sample of his blood two years 17 earlier and just hung on to it until the 18 opportunity. I can't completely rule that out, but 19 I think the most likely scenario is going to be that 20 it was after Teresa Halbach's disappearance, 21 probably after Teresa Halbach's disappearance was 22 reported, which narrows it even more. But again --

23 THE COURT: So sometime between 10/31 and 24 November, is it the 5th?

25 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes, November 5th.

1 ATTORNEY FALLON: Actually, she's reported
2 missing on the 3rd.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: But last seen on the 5 31st.

6 THE COURT: Okay. So, November 3rd and 7 November 5th. And I think there was -- and this may 8 have been touched on this morning, the idea of who 9 would have committed the crime and whether or not 10 anyone from the Manitowoc County Sheriff's 11 Department would have been committed -- or would 12 have been involved in the commission of the 13 homicide. That is not a part of the State's -- or 14 the defense theory. Or I don't want to put words in 15 your mouth; what is the theory?

16 ATTORNEY BUTING: I think if we were going 17 to argue that -- Well, probably -- probably the only 18 ones that would fit that scenario would be Lenk and 19 Colborn, because we think there's motive. At least 20 there's bias. If that's strong enough motive to 21 also involve killing. This is not going to be a 22 primary defense that's offered.

23 I think that -- I can't rule out that a 24 jury could consider it, but they had opportunity 25 because -- well, we don't know if they had

1 opportunity. We haven't determined exactly what 2 they were doing on the 31st. That may be ruled 3 out simply by producing the documents that we 4 requested back on December 15th, I believe. They 5 may have alibis for the actual crime itself. And 6 so that may not even be an issue that the jury 7 could even speculate on. It's more likely, 8 frankly, that there are -- that these are 9 independent events.

10 THE COURT: All right. I mean, I -- to 11 leave even open the possibility that it would be 12 alleged that either Lenk or Colborn were involved, 13 the -- I mean, the argument would be that somehow 14 because they were employees of the Manitowoc County
15 Sheriff's Department, and the Manitowoc County 16 Sheriff's Department was being sued by Mr. Avery for 17 a claim that is, near as I understand it, was 18 covered by insurance, I don't know what the limits
19 on the policy might have been, but that either Lenk 20 or Colborn felt they had a sufficient stake in that 21 that that would have been a motive for them to kill 22 Teresa Halbach for the opportunity to frame Steven 23 Avery?

24 ATTORNEY BUTING: Probably not. Very, very 25 likely not. And my only hesitation in saying that

1 is, because I just don't know what they did or where 2 they were on October 31st, even though we asked for 3 it over a month ago. But unless we could show some 4 connection, I mean I think in that instant you would 5 have to satisfy Denny, and we don't have a 6 connection of them to the scene.

7 But in any event, I think the motive is 8 not a motive to kill. I think the motive is a 9 motive to frame. And that's why the defense is 10 coupled with not just the planting of the blood 11 theory of defense, but also the investigative 12 bias that ignored other likely suspects, to the 13 point where they were getting preferential 14 treatment in the case of Chuck Avery.

15 But also, the -- recognize that on 16 November 5th, before the body had been found, 17 when all they have is a vehicle with some blood 18 in it -- in fact, at that point they didn't even 19 have that, because nobody at the scene -- that's 20 another important thing, none of the cops who 21 originally arrived at the scene saw any blood in 22 it, inside the RAV. It was broad daylight on a 23 sunny -- maybe not sunny, but broad daylight on a 24 Saturday morning, 11 a.m.

25 They have got flashlights with them and

1 they are looking in the car as well. They are 2 able to see little pieces of paper with her name 3 on it. They are able to see all this stuff and 4 they don't see a piece -- a splotch of blood 5 right on the ignition, where they were looking 6 and shining around the whole dash area looking 7 for the VIN number. That's very questionable.

8 But even without seeing all of that,
9 when they go to apply for a warrant, search 10 warrant, they are swearing under oath that they 11 think there is probable cause to believe evidence 12 of a crime, including homicide, occurred. So for 13 whatever reason, whether they were involved in 14 it, or perhaps more likely they know how these 15 things turn out and they had enough at that point 16 to realize that's where this was going, in all 17 likelihood. I think that's the more likely 18 scenario, but.

19 THE COURT: The -- I indicated to counsel
20 when we were talking about setting up this hearing 21 today, in terms of scheduling, that one matter that 22 I -- concerned me was the question of whether bias 23 evidence had to be related to a particular witness, 24 or that whether or not there was some argument that 25 bias could be imputed to an entire, in this case,

1 Sheriff's Department. Anything from the defense on 2 that issue?

3 ATTORNEY BUTING: Mr. Strang is going to 4 take on that issue, your Honor.

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: Only because I'm the one 6 who took a look at that, your Honor, and to me the 7 bottom line is that evidence of bias adduced on 8 cross-examination, or conceivably extrinsic evidence 9 of bias, is related to an individual witness. You 10 know, it's the witness' bias that is relevant and 11 important to a jury in assessing the witness' 12 credibility at trial.

13 That said, one of the biases that we can 14 have as human beings is, of course, an 15 institutional bias. It's only one of the biases 16 that may drive us, that may tilt our behavior, 17 our words, in one way or another.

18 Now, I didn't find anything anywhere
19 that addressed, specifically, cross-examination 20 of an individual witness on the question of 21 institutional bias. But again, I wouldn't expect 22 to find that, because the issue is bias of the 23 individual, which may have institutional roots.
24 And there I did find, you know, some useful sort 25 of comment by courts, not directly on point, but

1 it helped me to think about the question of bias
2 as it relates to an individual witness.

3 When the U.S. Supreme Court has spoken
4 of institutional bias, when its used that term, 5 it's most often been in the context of a re -- a 6 re -- a conviction at trial, a reversal on 7 appeal, or a conviction after a guilty plea and 8 then a reversal on appeal, a remand, and then the 9 State upping the ante, or the court upping the 10 ante, either with additional charges on the 11 retrial, or with a longer sentence on the 12 retrial. And defendants then challenging that on 13 subsequent appeal as vindictive and a denial of 14 due process.

15 And I think the very first time the U.S.
16 Supreme Court spoke of institutional bias was in 17 acknowledging that its decisions putting due 18 process limits on higher sentences after remand, 19 or additional charges after remand. And here I'm 20 quoting the U.S. Supreme Court, "reflected 21 recognition by the court of the institutional 22 bias inherent in the judicial system against the 23 retrial of issues that already have been 24 decided", closed quote. And that's United States
25 vs. Goodwin, 457 U.S. 368, at page 376, decided

1 in 1982.

2 The other common setting, or the other
3 setting in which the Supreme Court has spoken of 4 institutional bias is considering forced 5 medication or competency assessments, competency
6 to refuse medication, for example. And the court
7 recognizing that often these are done at state 8 mental hospitals, or state institutions by 9 psychologists or psychiatrists employed by the 10 state with an interest in furthering treatment as 11 the doctors think is recommended. And there 12 could be an institutional bias there that may 13 color the testimony of such witnesses in favor of 14 forcing medication.

15 So, you know, what that says to me is,
16 of course, and I started thinking about it, I 17 mean, all of us, to the extent we work for an 18 institution or within an institution, may adopt 19 its interests as our own biases. This is why it 20 is not at all uncommon or improper for the State 21 to ask defense expert witnesses, how much are you 22 being paid, who is paying you.

23 In other words, you know, the old
24 biblical comment in the Gospels, His bread I eat, 25 His song I sing. Also fair with the defense with

1 State witnesses to establish they are employed by 2 the same sovereign who's prosecuting a defendant.

3 In civil cases, not at all uncommon or 4 improper for one side's expert to be asked 5 whether he or she has ever testified for the 6 other side in a civil conflict. A toxic tort 7 where an epidemiologist is called, for example
8 or, you know, whatever the example might be. A 9 medical malpractice case in which a particular 10 M.D. is simply known as a plaintiff's doctor or 11 as a defense doctor.

12 And again, that gets at the issue of 13 institutional bias. We don't enshrine that as 14 significant in and of itself, it is just an 15 aspect of the individual bias that one explores 16 with any witness, or may be entitled to explore 17 with any witness.

18 So, in its application here, the State
19 will call them. The State will call, I predict 20 at least in its case-in-chief, a number of 21 Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department employees.
22 Indeed, every significant piece of physical 23 evidence in this case against Steven Avery was 24 discovered first by, or had present at the time 25 of discovery, a Manitowoc County Sheriff's

1 Department employee.

2 So we're going to hear from these 3 people. And will it be appropriate to 4 cross-examine them, establish their employment, 5 establish their awareness of the lawsuit against 6 their department, establish that they take pride 7 in their work and that they take pride in the 8 reputation of their department, and that they 9 felt that pride imperiled by the allegations that 10 their own department had embarked on a course of 11 action that had led to a 32 year sentence for a 12 man who didn't convict -- commit the crime of 13 which he was convicted.

14 Yes, that is appropriate, because that 15 officer who wears that uniform is entitled to 16 take pride in his work, in his uniform, in his 17 department. And is entitled, I guess, in a 18 sense, he's human, to have his actions, words, 19 thoughts, affected subtly, perhaps even 20 subconsciously, by his own human biases. We all 21 have these. And that's why it's so important for 22 bias to be explored. It's not a dirty word in 23 the end, but it is essential for neutral fact 24 finders in weighing sometimes difficult nuances 25 of credibility.

1 Now, as to some Manitowoc County
2 Sheriff's Department employees, they had been 3 pulled in directly to the civil lawsuit. They 4 knew because the depositions were focused, in 5 main, on their actions in prolonging the 6 imprisonment of Steven Avery beyond 1995 or 1996.

7 They knew by virtue of the deposition
8 that their personal reputation was at stake, that 9 their personal actions were under scrutiny, and 10 that regardless of insurance coverage and what 11 insurer had what layer, or whether there was a 12 self-insured layer in there, or what the limits 13 of the top layer of policy coverage were;
14 regardless of all of that, do you think for a 15 moment that a Lieutenant Lenk or a Sergeant 16 Colborn wouldn't consider the fact that his 17 personal ambitions for promotion, or for 18 retaining his rank, or perhaps political 19 ambitions, and low and behold in the fall of 20 2006, Sergeant Colborn threw in his hat and ran 21 for sheriff in this county; do you think for a 22 moment they didn't consider the possibility that 23 their interests were affected by the actions of 24 their department at issue in that lawsuit and 25 potentially by their own personal actions being

1 called into question, regardless of how 2 defensible they may have thought their own 3 actions were?

4 Of course not. It is information that 5 bears on bias. Does it have institutional
6 aspects, sure. It also has highly individual 7 aspects to it. And so that that's why I sort of 8 abjure the idea of adjectives in front of the 9 word bias, in the sense that it's bias that we 10 would be exploring. And, yes, it is linked to an 11 individual witness.

12 We do not propose to come in and offer 13 evidence in the abstract simply to establish that 14 a department was biased and, therefore, every 15 member of it was biased. This is perhaps subtle, 16 but we may well, though, be entitled to explore 17 an individual witness' identification with his 18 department, identification with its reputation, 19 sense of his own reputation being at stake, or 20 his own actions being attacked, called into 21 question.

22 And it would not be conceivably out of 23 line here to recall, for the Court to recall, 24 that on the witness stand on July 5, 2006, the 25 former sheriff of Manitowoc County revealed

1 himself to be perhaps the last person in the 2 world, who's heard of Steven Avery, who's not yet 3 ready to accept that Mr. Avery was innocent of 4 the crime for which he was convicted, a rape for 5 which he was convicted of 1985. Page 7 of the 6 July 5, 2006 transcript -- and it sticks out with 7 me because I remember watching the Court's 8 reaction --

9 THE COURT: I recall the answer.

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: -- and my own at the 11 time. Would it be strange that a department headed 12 by a man who held that attitude might be affected by 13 that attitude in the hierarchy down the line? It 14 would not. Doesn't mean we get to go on at, you 15 know, to our heart's content, or forever, about 16 Sheriff Kenneth Peterson. I'm not suggesting that 17 necessarily comes in at all.

18 But I am suggesting that where we work,
19 and what we do, and the things we commit our life 20 to, create in us biases that might be described 21 in part as institutional biases, just as the 22 United States Supreme Court has, and that these 23 are the among the sources of bias, that it's 24 entirely appropriate for the defense to explore,
25 in a criminal case, and for the State to explore,

1 if the defendant elects to offer a defense
2 case-in-chief himself.

3 THE COURT: All right. Let me ask,
4 somewhat as a follow up to that, in terms of the 5 defense offer to get the blood vial evidence in and 6 the argument that the defense would make, do I 7 understand it to be that, in considering what the 8 defense feels is the bias of the witnesses and the 9 opportunity and everything else, that it's Lenk and 10 Colborn that are the subjects, if you will, of the 11 defense claim?

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes, and they may -- Yes, 13 and we don't know that they necessarily would have 14 acted directly. What we do know is that at the 15 relevant time, James Lenk was not just a lieutenant, 16 but as I understand it, the head of the detective 17 bureau. So he's a person of brass, of rank in the 18 department. And Andrew Colborn, of course, was a 19 sergeant, albeit in the road patrol division, if I 20 recall it, in November of 2005.

21 Do I know whether they directly acted,
22 or whether by virtue of familiarity in rank 23 within the department they may have known where 24 to get a master key, or been able to ask someone 25 for a key, obtain one, I don't know that. But

1 the answer remains, I think, yes, that I believe 2 it would be Mr. Lenk or Mr. Colborn to whom, 3 alternately, we would have to ascribe a plan or 4 an exercise to plant blood.

5 Now, by his presence, Detective Remiker, 6 also is around and Mr. Lenk, Lieutenant Lenk, is 7 Detective Remiker's superior. However, Detective 8 Remiker was not deposed in the 1983 action in 9 federal court. And although I have not read all 10 the depositions, I am unaware of his conduct with 11 respect to the 1985 conviction of Mr. Avery ever 12 becoming an issue at all. It would surprise me 13 if it had, because I think he joins the 14 department even after the 1995 or 1996 telephone 15 call from a Brown County law enforcement agency 16 that is the connection of Sergeant Colborn and 17 Lieutenant Lenk to this civil action.

18 So Remiker is there. He's present. He 19 works for Lenk. But I'm not aware of any -- any 20 personal connection of Detective Remiker to the 21 lawsuit that Mr. Avery brought against Manitowoc 22 County. He has only the connection of working 23 for the Manitowoc County Sheriff's Department 24 under Lieutenant Lenk's supervision, in so far as 25 I know.

1 THE COURT: Who will be speaking for the 2 State? Mr. Fallon?

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, I will be addressing
4 the blood vial issue and Mr. Kratz will follow up 5 with the bias discussion on behalf of the State.

6 With respect to the blood vial evidence, 7 I will begin there. The only thing that I will 8 agree with by the defense is the fact that we 9 actually begin in the same place, with the 10 Richardson case. After that, I agree with very 11 little, if anything, represented by the defense.

12 Richardson, it does need to be 13 distinguished. And I think it is important for 14 the Court to consider exactly what Richardson was 15 about and what Richardson actually held.

16 Mr. Richardson was charged with a sexual 17 assault, five counts, and one count of false 18 imprisonment. His theory was that his estranged 19 wife was framing him. He based that on the fact 20 that, again, that his estranged wife was framing 21 him. He based it on the fact that she called his 22 divorce attorney and said that he, being 23 Richardson, had sex with a 14 year old girl, two 24 days prior to the charged event.

25 Richardson also alleged that the mother

1 of the victim talked to his estranged wife the 2 day of the assault, that his estranged wife gave 3 the victim's mother the phone number of the 4 divorce attorney. The victim's mom reported the 5 assault to the attorney. And she initially had 6 lied about making the call until she was 7 impeached with phone records. Those are the 8 facts.

9 The defendant is merging the theories of 10 Richardson and frame-up evidence with the Denny 11 case. Because of the nature in which the 12 frame-up defense, the planting of evidence -- 13 because that is the frame -- the planting of 14 evidence by the police necessarily implies the 15 police were involved in the death, either 16 directly or in a cover up, of the death of Teresa
17 Halbach.

18 There's no other reasoned inference to 19 be drawn. As a result, I think they have to 20 comply with both Denny and Richardson.

21 Teresa Halbach was last seen alive on 22 October 31st. Presumably she had Tuesday and 23 Wednesday off, although I think she had an 24 appointment on Wednesday. But the important fact 25 is that she was not seen or heard from by any

1 member of her family, or anyone else, on Tuesday
2 and Wednesday, the 1st and 2nd of November.

3 She was reported missing on November 3rd 4 and a missing person's investigation was 5 commenced. At approximately 10:30 a.m. on 6 Saturday, November 5th, her car was found by 7 volunteer searchers on the Avery property, 8 secreted with brush and debris, in the corner of 9 the salvage yard farthest away from the 10 defendant's residence. The vehicle was locked.

11 Now, let's step back in time, the time 12 about 11 years ago. The defense requires us to 13 do that. Eleven years ago this month,
14 defendant's blood was drawn as part of a 15 post-conviction relief motion process. Blood was 16 drawn at Fox Lake Institution. Marlene Krintz, 17 M. Krintz, the name on the paperwork, drew the 18 blood.

19 It was sent out for analysis by Lab
20 Corp., analyzed and eventually returned to the 21 Clerk of Court's Office where, as far as anyone 22 knows, it sits until June 19th, 2002. On that 23 day the file is examined by the former District 24 Attorney, E. James FitzGerald, and Wendy Paul of 25 Project Innocence and two or three others,

1 presumably at the request, or order, of Judge
2 Hazlewood, the original trial judge.

3 The box was apparently resealed with 4 nothing more than scotch tape at the time. At 5 that time the blood was not sent with the 6 fingernail clipping and the one unknown pubic
7 hair, for analysis. It remained with the Clerk
8 of Court.

9 Moving forward in time, the defendant is 10 exonerated and released after serving an 11 additional 12 years in prison for a crime he did 12 not commit. His case generates significant 13 interest and publicity. Many people come and 14 look at his court file, freely. As counsel noted 15 the last time around either in person or in a 16 call, the public has a right to examine the facts
17 and circumstances. The public includes the media 18 and anyone else who had a interest in the case.

19 It's within that background that we were 20 asked to make two assumptions. And this is where 21 I think the defense proffer of proof fails, and 22 fails miserably. We are to assume that someone, 23 presumably a member of the Sheriff's Department, 24 gained access to the Clerk of Court's office, at 25 a time unknown.

1 Even today when the Court asks the 2 defense to narrow the time frame, they can't say
3 for sure that it was a 2 year window, a 26 month 4 window from September of '03 until the end of 5 October of '05. Could be, although they think 6 most likely between November 3rd, 4th and 5th.

7 But someone gained access to the Clerk's 8 Office, as I said, at a time unknown. Presumably 9 after he was free, could have been before. Or 10 was it after the lawsuit was filed, before this 11 alleged bias was supposedly created, this motive.
12 Apparently a motive and a bias to kill an 13 innocent 25 year old photographer, just so they 14 could get back at Mr. Avery for besmirching the 15 reputation and integrity of the Manitowoc Police
16 Department.

17 Presumably we are asked to speculate
18 that happened, because the two bailiffs have a 19 key from the Sheriff's department. Perhaps the 20 Sheriff has one for emergency situations as well.
21 But the assumption falls woefully short. The 22 speculation, the conjecture, falls short of 23 what's required for admissibility. There's no 24 evidence to suggest anywhere, known at this time,
25 that a member of the Sheriff's Department, past

1 or present, ever actually touched or handled that 2 vial of blood. Not one shred.

3 Part two, that someone planted some of 4 that blood in Halbach's vehicle, sometime between 5 October 31st and November 5th, or if you like, 6 between November 3rd and November 5th.

7 Presumably that someone is a Sheriff's officer, 8 because it would be mighty difficult for a member 9 of the public to wander into that property and 10 somehow gain access to a locked vehicle under 11 cover of debris and brush and the like and 12 managed to plant blood.

13 The suspects, as we now have clearly
14 revealed, are apparently Lieutenant James Lenk 15 and Sergeant Andy Colborn. I suggested in the 16 State's reply to their proffer, Sergeant Colborn 17 did not even get to the property until 5, 5, 18 5:30 that evening on November 5th. Although he 19 certainly was on the Avery property on the 4th 20 and 5th for the consent searches previously 21 discussed in motions.

22 But think about this, for them to have 23 planted the blood to frame the defendant, they 24 would have had to have known that she was dead.
25 How could they have known that? Steven Avery

1 could have told them. If that was the case, we 2 wouldn't be here. Brendan Dassey could have told 3 them. Well, that's true, but he didn't tell 4 anybody anything of noteworthiness until 5 March 1st.

6 Perhaps there was an anonymous tip. But 7 we're led to believe if the blood was removed 8 from the Clerk's Office on November 3rd or 4th, 9 or, look, presumably in the early morning hours
10 of the 5th, and then it somehow got from here -- 11 somehow got from here out there, and then not 12 only did it somehow get from here to there but it 13 somehow got inside the locked vehicle, under a 14 guard.

15 A fact from the hearing is known and in 16 Detective Fassbender's testimony he was 17 responsible in his efforts to cover the vehicle.
18 Later in that afternoon the vehicle was finally 19 removed by Crime Lab personnel at 8:42 p.m.

20 Crime Lab personnel arrived at 4:00 p.m.
21 and were attending back and forth. They didn't 22 stay with the vehicle. I think the testimony was 23 they weren't constantly there. But the Crime Lab 24 people, the field response unit arrived around 25 4:00 and did a number of things. Chiefly among 1 them was to take care of this vehicle.

2 So presumably someone went in there and 3 planted the blood. You will recall the 4 testimony, I believe, and the information that's 5 been provided, that the vehicle was not opened 6 until the next day, at the Crime Lab, where it 7 was then processed in Madison, not in Manitowoc.

8 So assuming that someone could have 9 got -- Well, we're led to make two assumptions:
10 Law enforcement found that vehicle on the 3rd or 11 4th and got it into it then, or they got into it 12 on the 5th. How did they do that? And if they 13 got in on the 3rd or the 4th, or the morning of 14 the 5th, then it stands to reason that they would 15 have had to have known that she was dead.

16 Example, if that's the case, then is the 17 other evidence planted as well, the cell phone, 18 the palm pilot, the camera. Apparently we were 19 led to believe that Lieutenant Lenk planted the 20 key. And just because Lieutenant Lenk was 21 apparently on the property during the execution
22 of the March search warrant, he must have planted 23 the blood fragment too, the fragment with the 24 victim's DNA.

25 Well, I can assure you there's only one

1 way that could have happened. You don't have a
2 bullet fragment with Teresa Halbach's DNA on it 3 unless you killed her. The fact that this is 4 suggested is nothing short of preposterous and 5 outrageous. We're not a court of law. Were we 6 not dealing with pleadings regarding a man's 7 defense on a charge of murder, we'd be dealing 8 with a claim of slander and libel.

9 Teresa Halbach's remains were not 10 recovered until November 8th. And they were not 11 sure. They knew -- they had a pretty good idea 12 they were human bones on November 8th. And it's 13 probably a reasoned inference that it was Teresa 14 Halbach. But the identification that it was 15 Teresa Halbach was a couple of days after that.

16 So, it seems to me, if you are going to 17 blame somebody for a crime, then you better damn 18 well know a crime was committed. You can't frame 19 somebody for a crime unless you know the crime
20 was committed. And how do they know the crime 21 was committed on the 3rd, or 4th, or 5th unless 22 they did it, or unless they assisted in covering 23 it up.

24 Maybe they helped Brendan Dassey. But 25 that, necessarily, by implication, implies law

1 enforcement's involvement in her death. And if 2 that's the case, then Denny applies, because 3 that's third party liability, somebody else did
4 it. I want the evidence. Show me the evidence 5 that Lenk and Colborn were responsible for the 6 death of Teresa Halbach, before you got in here 7 and have the nerve, the unmitigated gall to get 8 up here and suggest that they were responsible 9 for her death, by implication.

10 That's the distinction between 11 Richardson and our case. Richardson did not 12 suggest -- Richardson's frame-up theory did not 13 imply that the victim's mother committed the 14 assault. It did not imply that his estranged 15 wife committed the assault. In fact, it doesn't 16 imply that any one necessarily committed the 17 assault. You can make a case; although counsel 18 alluded to some facts that I don't think were in 19 the Supreme Court opinion, probably were in the 20 appellate opinion, or Court of Appeals opinion.

21 But one reading of that defense, that 22 doesn't necessarily imply that the crime occurred 23 at all, or implied, to the contrary, that someone 24 else did it. And if that's the case, then the 25 analysis in Richardson is still a half a bubble

1 off plumb because they should have used Scheidell
2 if she has all these injuries indicative of a 3 sexual assault and yet you don't know who did it.

4 So then there was a merger of a frame-up
5 and a Denny argument -- or in Scheidell -- excuse 6 me -- in Richardson. I'm speculating because 7 that wasn't discussed, so we can't go down that 8 road.

9 In this case it's clear inference that 10 the Sheriff's Department in general, and now we 11 know Lieutenant Lenk and Sergeant Colborn in 12 particular, are involved, we are led to believe, 13 because of some misconceived ill-gotten theory of 14 bias of. Mr. Kratz will address this further.
15 But I have to mention it.

16 Even though they were not defendants in 17 the lawsuit, they had no personal liability, they 18 had nothing at stake. They weren't even 19 responsible for his original conviction in the 20 first place. They were deposed as witnesses, as 21 I understand it, because they failed to pass on 22 some information after the fact regarding 23 somebody else, presumably Mr. Allen, the actual 24 perpetrator of the crime against Penny Beerntsen.

25 But they weren't responsible for his

1 wrongful conviction. They had nothing to do with 2 it. They weren't defendants in the action.

3 You can't frame someone for murder
4 unless you know the murder occurred. Let's think 5 about it. I'm going to get in there and we'll 6 sprinkle some blood around. Have got to do this 7 quick, got to put some blood in the CDL 8 (phonetic), here put some on the ignition key.
9 We'll put a spot here, another spot there. We'll 10 do four spots. I have to open the car.

11 Depending on the location of where the 12 blood is, hope nobody will see me, or well, maybe 13 everyone did see me. So there must be more 14 involved. How else could you sprinkle the blood 15 in those locations.

16 And more importantly, unless they knew 17 Teresa Halbach was dead, how did they know that's 18 her blood in there. Seems to me you are taking 19 an awful chance of planting blood there, if you 20 don't know a crime has occurred, you don't know 21 it's her blood. Not an unreasonable inference 22 that it's her blood, but that's a pretty good 23 risk to take. Obstruction of justice, that's 24 felony behavior. Misconduct in office for a 25 police officer, tampering with evidence, the list

1 goes on and on. I'm going to risk my career over 2 that, I think not.

3 By implication, this frame-up theory is 4 entirely different than the frame-up theory
5 posited in Richardson and it necessarily implies 6 police involvement. Because how can you take the 7 chance of planting something unless you know the 8 crime occurred. And how would they know the 9 crime occurred, unless they were coconspirators.

10 Under that analysis Denny does apply.
11 And there is no motive. There's no opportunity.
12 And there's no connection for Remiker, Colborn,
13 Lenk, or any other member of the Manitowoc County
14 Sheriff's Department in this crime.

15 In the alternative, if you find that the 16 State's argument is not compelling enough, that 17 there's a merger of a frame-up theory with the 18 Denny theory, and you wish to analyze this 19 strictly under a 904.03 analysis under 20 Richardson, the State would submit that the 21 evidence is inadmissible under that theory as 22 well.

23 The evidence has to be relevant. And as 24 we have discussed the last time around, relevance
25 has two facets. It is again, in the second facet

1 of relevance, the materiality component, where 2 this falls short. It's not material.

3 And by the way, when you are evaluating 4 materiality of evidence, you have to look at the 5 evidence as a whole, you know. And this is where 6 the defense, again, continues to misread and 7 misinterpret the holding of Holmes vs. South
8 Carolina. You still consider all evidence. You 9 still evaluate it in determining materiality.
10 You still have to evaluate it in the calculus of 11 determining the probative value and whether the 12 probative value is substantially outweighed by 13 prejudicial effect, waste of time, confusion, 14 etcetera.

15 The defense fails on part two, the 16 materiality component, that facet of 17 demonstrating that there is a connection -- and 18 there's that word connection -- to the case at 19 hand, a tendency to make a consequential fact 20 more or less probable.

21 On the third step of the Richardson
22 analysis, the balancing, there is unfair 23 prejudice with respect to the existence of that 24 vial of blood and its admissibility. Given the 25 time frame involved here, the Court's

1 determination that preservative testing, EDTA 2 testing, is not reliable enough, it certainly 3 undermines the State's ability to reply, at least 4 in a scientific mode, if not a practical mode -- 5 and I will get to that in a moment -- as to the 6 probability, possibility, that this blood found 7 in the Clerk of Court's office, which we still 8 don't know how it would have gotten from here to 9 the crime scene, other than by speculation or 10 conjecture, was the same type of blood, was the 11 source of the blood at the scene.

12 With respect to the inmate statements,
13 I'll rely on the comments in my brief. But I 14 think they need to be reconsidered if this 15 evidence is admitted, and reconsidered because 16 their probative value is now increased as a 17 retort. Because it's evidence of a bias and a 18 motive and intent.

19 It's evidence of this crime, possessed
20 by the defendant, long before any supposed 21 motive, bias, or evidence existed on behalf of 22 Lieutenant Lenk, Sergeant Colborn, or any other 23 member of the Manitowoc County Sheriff's 24 Department.

25 In terms of the practical considerations

1 here, it seems to me there would be a great deal 2 of witnesses called, whether it's the 3 groundskeeper, whether it's members of the Clerk
4 of Court's Office. Anybody ever seen Lieutenant 5 Lenk in the Clerk of Court's office, when did you 6 see him, how long ago was that.

7 And I point out that there was no reason 8 for any of that questioning. No reason for that 9 investigative purpose until the existence of this 10 vial of blood was revealed. There's no reason to 11 test what was in the car for preservatives.

12 There's no reason to test what was in the car for 13 cellular degradation, or any other type of test 14 one may suggest, until the vial of blood
15 presented itself. And likewise, there was no 16 reason to interview every member of the Clerk's 17 Office or interview the bailiffs where now we're 18 supposed to.

19 I think the best example of this case 20 getting sidetracked and going down the road of 21 confusion and unrelated issues, is their demand 22 for disclosure of exculpatory information. It 23 reads, for all of the reasons stated in the 24 State's brief, we're going to be looking at work 25 schedules for Lieutenant Lenk, Sergeant Colborn,

1 and I'm not sure if Detective Remiker has now 2 been thrown in the mix or not.

3 We're going to be looking at 4 disciplinary records that apparently they want us 5 to track down. We're going to be looking at 6 access, who had keys, what were the codes to the 7 Clerk of Court's Office. There's a key to get in 8 the outside door and there's a code to get 9 behind. So, who got the codes, when they got the 10 codes, when were the codes changed.

11 Their disclosure form is an indictment 12 of the folly of this argument and supports the 13 State's theory that all we're going to do is go 14 down the wrong track, more confusion, more delay.
15 We're going to be spending time chasing down this 16 vial of blood.

17 How can they have got into the Clerk of 18 Court's Office. Could they get in on Thursday 19 morning, was it Friday do you think, or maybe it 20 was really early Saturday and then somebody got 21 that blood out there. Well, who had keys and how 22 did they get in.

23 It's still -- Their offer of proof fails
24 and it fails miserably because there's nothing 25 other than conjecture or speculation as to who

1 got into the Clerk of Court's Office, whether the 2 vial itself was taken and then later returned, or 3 a portion of the vial was taken and returned.

4 And just how did they do that? Did they 5 use a needle and syringe? Did they pop the cork?
6 Pour a little in their own beaker and secret 7 themselves away? In other words, they 8 burglarized the Clerk of Court, which 9 interestingly enough is another act. That's a 10 felony.

11 If it's a law enforcement officer, you
12 have got burglary. You have evidence tampering.
13 You have got misconduct in office. You have got 14 obstructing of justice. I'm sure when we're done 15 with this law school quiz, I could come up with a 16 few more charges.

17 Confusion and delay will necessarily 18 result by the admissibility of this evidence.
19 And as a result, this evidence must and should be 20 excluded. Thank you. Mr. Kratz will address 21 bias.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I did not know if you had 24 any other questions on the issue of the blood vial 25 itself. I think -- I think Mr. Fallon made it clear

1 that the State's position is that there is no 2 linkage. There is no connection between the vial of 3 blood and the blood that's in the SUV.

4 I agree with much of what Mr. Strang 5 said regarding bias, interestingly enough, in 6 that it is not a collateral matter. It is 7 something, when appropriately applied, that 8 witnesses can be impeached with.

9 And as long as we're talking about cops, 10 let me talk about bad cops, because that's what 11 Mr. Strang and Buting are alleging here, Judge.
12 Again, we're not talking about negligence, or 13 something along those lines. We're talking about 14 criminal behavior. We're talking about 15 malfeasance.

16 And as my memorandum to the Court 17 suggested, that when bias is involved, like the 18 blood vial evidence, but bias is so interrelated
19 here, when we're talking about criminal behavior
20 of cops, there had better be some proof. There 21 had better be something other than Mr. Buting 22 standing up, because apparently he can, and 23 saying, you know what, Lieutenant Lenk planted 24 evidence, or Sergeant Colborn planted evidence.

25 And this institutional bias, or at least

1 some version of that that Mr. Strang has 2 attempted to apply to Lieutenant Lenk and to 3 Sergeant Colborn, at least if their theory is to 4 be adopted, Judge, shouldn't stop there. What, 5 then, difference is it that Lieutenant Lenk was 6 embarrassed by Mr. Avery's lawsuit. Why not 7 Detective Remiker? Why not Deputy Jost? Why not 8 members of the Clerk of Court's Office, who may 9 have been, as county employees, embarrassed?

10 And so what Williamson and the other 11 bias cases do, is they don't allow that kind of 12 questioning unless there is evidence, evidence 13 that can be rationally related to that particular 14 witness.

15 I'm glad that Mr. Strang mentioned
16 Sheriff Peterson, because by at least example, 17 the differences between Sheriff Peterson and a 18 bias that he may hold, if he was ever in fact 19 going to be a witness in this case, may be 20 appropriate to go into this wrongful conviction, 21 or this bias against Mr. Avery.

22 But that doesn't apply to Lieutenant 23 Lenk, doesn't apply to Sergeant Colborn. And 24 there is no evidence that it does. Again, Lenk 25 and Colborn, not involved in the 1985 prior

1 conviction, not involved in the lawsuit.

2 Mr. Strang suggests that they are somehow pulled 3 into the lawsuit. The Court already knows to 4 what extent they are involved in this civil 5 lawsuit; that is, giving a very short deposition.

6 And so, the embarrassment as a member of 7 the Sheriff's Department, when dealing with 8 professional reputations, when dealing with a 9 slur of criminal misconduct, does not raise to 10 the level of rationally related to a particular 11 piece of evidence.

12 If this Court, however, is going to 13 allow some kind of evidence about the 1985
14 wrongful conviction, I have given suggestions on 15 the last page. There are facts that do not 16 include the lawsuit. There are facts of the 17 wrongful conviction itself that could be offered 18 as bias, but certainly should apply then to 19 Lieutenant Lenk and Sergeant Colborn and 20 everybody else.

21 And for those, and for that reason, the 22 State believes that when the Court looks at 23 Williamson, when the Court decides whether or not 24 it's rationally related to any of these specific 25 witnesses, although maybe not as impassioned as

1 Mr. Fallon, just as strenuously, Judge, I'm 2 asking the Court to reject this kind of evidence.

3 As they cannot, in fact I think the 4 defense may even agree that they cannot, connect 5 it directly to either of these two witnesses as 6 compared to the universe of other potential 7 witnesses from the Sheriff's Department and 8 shouldn't be allowed. That's all I have got,
9 Judge.

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, I forgot to 11 mention one other thing in response to the defense 12 and that is on their right to present a defense.
13 With respect to that, I think the Court is familiar 14 with South Carolina vs. Holmes in the pleadings. I 15 just wanted to make the Court and counsel aware of a 16 decision that was decided two days ago dealing with 17 the right to present a defense. I have a copy for 18 the Court, Section 5 of the Muckerheide, 19 M-u-c-k-e-r-h-e-i-d-e, case.

20 Part 5 deals with a defense right to 21 present a defense. And interestingly enough
22 there's a discussion of Scheidell and other acts 23 evidence contained with it. So I would ask the 24 Court to review that as you consider counsel -- 25 one of counsel's opening points, the right to

1 present a defense. Because, again, here's the 2 latest and the court acknowledging that that's 3 not a limitless right or -- and one must 4 introduce relevant and material evidence. So,
5 thank you.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 ATTORNEY BUTING: If I could just address
8 the last point very briefly. I haven't thoroughly 9 read the Muckerheide, I think is the way you
10 pronounce it, Muckerheide or Muckerheide decision 11 that Mr. Fallon is referring to, but I did briefly 12 see it when it came down a couple days ago. That's 13 the one where the defense wanted to offer evidence 14 from, I believe the father, that -- it was a 15 homicide while intoxicated, the passenger was 16 killed. Mr. Muckerheide was the driver. He argued 17 the passenger grabbed the wheel, forced him to 18 crash.

19 And it was the affirmative defense for a 20 homicide while intoxicated. And he had evidence 21 that the victim's father was going to say that 22 the victim had also done that when he, the 23 father, was driving and so on and so forth.
24 Well, the one -- Very little of the case deals 25 with the constitutional right to present a

1 defense.

2 What it does say when it gets to that 3 point at the very end is it points out that 4 Muckerheide was, nevertheless, allowed to present 5 his entire defense and to make the argument that 6 on that occasion the defendant did in fact grab 7 the defendant's wheel. And the only evidence 8 they didn't hear was minimally probative evidence 9 that on a prior occasion, with a different 10 driver, under different circumstances, the victim
11 had gestured toward, or grabbed the steering 12 wheel. That's very different than what we have 13 here, where a complete explanation for very 14 otherwise damning circumstantial evidence would 15 be denied.

16 Mr. Fallon just kept pounding away like 17 there's no way this could be unless the officers 18 killed her. They couldn't have done this 19 planting unless they also were the ones that did 20 the crime. They had to have killed her. He must 21 have said that five or six different times in 22 their argument. And it's just plain wrong. It's 23 just simply wrong.

24 On November 5th, at approximately 2:00
25 p.m., which is around the same time, by the way,

1 in their new statement of facts, or first 2 averment of facts, they say Lenk put himself on 3 duty or -- I'm sorry -- arrived at the salvage 4 yard. Meanwhile, Mr. Kratz, and Wiegert, and 5 Remiker, and I believe also the D.A. Rohrer, were 6 all over, at the same time, at Judge Fox's home
7 in Two Rivers, I believe, presenting an affidavit 8 in which they swore, under oath, that they 9 believed they would find evidence of a homicide 10 if permitted to search the Avery property. Now, 11 we don't presume that that sworn testimony was 12 false, yet, nevertheless, they were investigating 13 this case as a homicide by the time Lenk 14 supposedly even shows up at the scene, as early 15 as 2:00 p.m.

16 It's not necessary to show murderous
17 intent on the part of officers. We're showing 18 opportunistic intent.

19 Mr. Fallon got -- made a very nice,
20 passionate closing argument here, which I'm not 21 going to repeat, or try and outdo at this point, 22 except to say that, fine, make that argument to 23 the jury. He is fully entitled to do that and 24 he's going to be required to do that because of 25 the conduct, not because as Mr. Kratz says, Jerry

1 Buting gets up here and just says it's so.

2 I'm not the one who put myself on duty
3 at a homicide investigation when I knew that my 4 boss had already recused the department,
5 supposedly, from having leadership involvement.
6 I'm not the one who volunteered to go search the 7 primary, in fact only suspect in the police's 8 eyes, his very residence. I'm not the one who 9 didn't tell the Calumet people that I was 10 subpoenaed and involved in the civil case.

11 The reason they have to do all of this 12 is because their people put it -- put themselves 13 in that position. And for whatever reason, if 14 it's purely coincidence, then a jury should 15 decide that. I don't think it is.

16 I think there's more than sufficient --
17 Remember Richardson says any tendency.
18 Richardson doesn't even require the legitimate 19 tendency to show this. It's any tendency. And 20 clearly this evidence has some -- any tendency to 21 make a consequential fact less probable here.
22 That is, the consequential fact of who killed
23 Teresa Halbach.

24 As I said before, if the blood isn't -- 25 if somebody put the blood of Steven Avery into

1 that RAV 4, then it's more probable that he is 2 innocent of the crime that he's charged with.

3 He would impose an impossible burden. I
4 don't know what he expects, that we're supposed 5 to have a video tape, present a video tape of 6 here is the perpetrator sneaking into the Clerk's 7 Office. Here's what key he uses, we zoom in, you 8 can see, aha, this is the key with serial number 9 so and so which must have been taken from such 10 and such, and insert it into the door, and there 11 he is, he's grabbing the video -- the vial, and 12 here's how he's taking it out of the vial, and 13 here's where he goes.

14 That's ridiculous. It's impossible that 15 you could ever -- any court would expect that 16 kind of certainty, and everything else is pure 17 speculation. It's not speculation. There's a 18 series, a very careful series of steps that we 19 have laid out in our motion in great detail, 20 showing our cards, much more than they have.

21 Mr. Fallon and Mr. Kratz, from the 22 State's perspective, anything that doesn't go 23 down the track towards conviction is a waste of 24 time. And that is simply not the case. That's 25 why we have juries, that's why we have adversary

1 system in this country. And Mr. Avery is 2 entitled and, indeed, required to present this 3 defense of the blood vial evidence, this evidence 4 as part of his defense that he is not guilty of 5 this crime against Teresa Halbach. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: I know, Mr. Buting, that I
7 asked you to do this I think earlier, but just so 8 it's the last thing I hear before we conclude today; 9 I want to make sure as I'm sitting in my office this 10 weekend that I have a clear representation of what 11 the defense offer is. That is that, as I understand 12 it, and you can fill in the blanks or correct me
13 when I'm wrong, either Lenk or Colborn would have a 14 sufficient basis to be biased in this case, or a 15 motive for planting evidence, however you want to 16 put it, because of the fact that they have a 17 connection with the Sheriff's Department, they work 18 for the Sheriff's Department, they were deposed in 19 the civil case some three weeks earlier. And I'm 20 trying to remember is it one or both of them that 21 received a telephone call or something in 1995, that 22 they put in the file?

23 ATTORNEY STRANG: They were both questioned 24 about their own personal involvement in that 25 particular incident. One thing I forgot to add is,

1 they were not defendant's in the civil lawsuit yet, 2 at that time, but that is not to say that they 3 couldn't have been joined later as the discovery 4 proceeded and the plaintiff's uncovered more 5 wrongdoing or potential liability. Because from 6 that point forward Mr. Avery sat another eight years 7 in prison.

8 THE COURT: Okay. The theory being that 9 they were given some information that they should 10 have followed up on that might have led to his 11 exoneration sooner.

12 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes, and the call
13 involved, frankly, Mr. Allen, the ultimate --

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: Maybe you remember this 15 past October -- I will take a stab at it -- I think 16 the testimony from the two depositions was 17 approximately this. That while he was working in 18 the jail, Sergeant Colborn took a call from a law 19 enforcement agency, the name of which he didn't 20 remember at the time of the deposition, he thought 21 maybe it was from Brown County.

22 Realized that it wasn't a call that 23 belonged in the jail, transferred the call to the 24 Detective Bureau in the Sheriff's Department.
25 And at that point, as I recall the deposition

1 testimony, it breaks down in that Detective Lenk, 2 who would have been in the Detective Bureau at 3 that time, doesn't remember whether he got the 4 call or doesn't remember what it was about.
5 There was a -- and now I'm not remembering the 6 deposition testimony well. But it's sort of -- 7 there's confusion there, and then both of them 8 write a report about this phone call, for the 9 first time on September 12, 2003, at Sheriff
10 Peterson's request, which is the day after Avery 11 has been released from prison.

12 So they both write reports the day 13 after. And at that point they don't remember if 14 it's 1995 or 1996 when the phone call came in.
15 The gist of the phone call being from a law 16 enforcement agency saying we have someone here in 17 custody who says that he did a rape for which 18 someone else is in prison and it was in your 19 county.

20 THE COURT: Well, it sounds from what you 21 are telling me, if that's the way it was presented, 22 Colborn did what he should have done, he got the 23 call at the jail and referred it to the Detective 24 Bureau.

25 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, but that was

1 challenged in the deposition and his failure to 2 write any report --

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: Maybe the sensible thing
4 to do is just submit the depositions in there.

5 ATTORNEY BUTING: The point being, at that 6 point this information was just coming out and was 7 being -- they were being challenged on a memo that 8 not only their own reports, but also a memo that a 9 investigator in the Manitowoc District Attorney's 10 Office had written, which he had spoken to the two 11 of them. It was inconsistent with what they had 12 been testifying about, so it was their -- their own 13 involvement in that incident was being challenged.

14 THE COURT: All right. At any rate, they 15 have these depositions three weeks earlier.
16 Sometime after November 3rd they, along with other 17 members of the Manitowoc County Sheriff's 18 Department, get the report that Teresa Halbach is 19 missing, right?

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: Actually, Sergeant
21 Colborn, fortuitously or whatever, gets the call 22 from Investigator Wiegert, I believe. Learns 23 that -- or Dederling, one of the two -- learns that 24 one of the last places she had been, or one of the 25 last places she had been that day, she was last

1 seen, was the Avery residence. And says, okay, I
2 will follow through. We'll get somebody out there
3 to talk to him. Hangs up.

4 And sometime shortly after that,
5 Investigator Wiegert gets an unsolicited call
6 from Lieutenant Lenk, which obviously means
7 Colborn told Lenk. Lenk is, aha, Avery, let's 8 find out more about this. And he then, on his 9 own, not being asked to, calls Wiegert and starts 10 asking and showing increased interest from that 11 point on, personal interest.

12 THE COURT: But that's on November 3rd.

13 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Then the vehicle is discovered
15 on the 5th. What, was Officer Colborn on the scene 16 on the Avery property on the 5th?

17 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes.

18 THE COURT: I know Lenk was, you said.

19 ATTORNEY BUTING: Lenk was. Colborn, I
20 think the logs show him arriving around 5:00 p.m.
21 Don't know if he was there earlier, before the logs 22 began to be taken or not.

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: I can add, Jerry, we 24 asked about when that log started, and I think they 25 started the log about 2:25, ballpark, so for what

1 that's worth.

2 ATTORNEY BUTING: So it's about three and a
3 half hours after the vehicle was -- not discovered, 4 but three and a half hours after the police arrived.

5 ATTORNEY FALLON: Right.

6 ATTORNEY BUTING: And again, the law
7 enforcement people and the head prosecutors were 8 gone from the scene by 2:00 -- no, between, I think 9 1:00 and 3:00. Rohrer, Mr. Kratz, Wiegert, Remiker, 10 they all left.

11 THE COURT: What is the -- Does the defense 12 have a theory as to how either Mr. Colborn or 13 Mr. Lenk would have gotten into the vehicle to plant 14 the blood.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: We have several theories.
16 I don't know that -- Again, here we have to show all 17 our cards, they don't have to show anything.

18 THE COURT: Well, here's the thing, 19 whatever the standard is, and I know the parties are 20 arguing what it is, but certainly there is some 21 burden that the defense has to meet.

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: I understand.

23 THE COURT: And if that's the one you are 24 asking.

25 ATTORNEY STRANG: Sure.

1 THE COURT: To give you a fair shake, I
2 want to make sure I'm evaluating your request --

3 ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay.

4 THE COURT: -- with whatever showing you
5 want to make. If you tell me, we have no idea, I
6 will accept that answer. I'm just saying, what do 7 you want the Court to consider.

8 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, the Court can 9 consider what we have put in writing. And if you 10 look at it carefully, you will see that there are 11 some windows of opportunity in both in terms of time 12 and in terms of physical opportunity.

13 But by the way, the whole question of 14 whether the vehicle was truly locked at the scene 15 when first discovered is not as clear as the 16 State would have you believe. Because the 17 volunteer who discovered it said she thought that 18 they checked the doors and they were locked, at 19 the prelim this is her testimony; however, she 20 also said she thought it was only a two-door, not 21 a four-door.

22 So that's inconsistent with her having 23 checked all four doors, five doors, actually, if 24 you include the hatch. Even if it was, who do 25 you go to when you lock yourself out of the car?

1 Who do you call? The police.

2 We also have evidence they have seen the 3 report that, from a locksmith, that this 4 particular RAV 4 was very easily opened by these 5 jimmies that police officers have. Poses no
6 difficulties. And as is described in the written 7 pleadings, the vehicle was covered actually with 8 almost a ideal situation where it was obscured 9 from the view of other officers by gigantic tarps 10 creating a tent over it, hiding it from view of 11 anybody, but obviously leaving access in and out 12 at either end. So whether that's when it 13 happened, that's another possibility.

14 It was also getting dark by, probably 15 even before the Crime Lab arrived, because I 16 believe sunset was at 4:30 and the Crime Lab 17 didn't arrive until 4:00.

18 THE COURT: All right. Is there -- I will 19 definitely reread your memorandum again; is there 20 anything else you want to tell me this afternoon?

21 ATTORNEY BUTING: I don't think so. I
22 think that really I think we have covered almost all 23 the issues.

24 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, if you are 25 going to do that then I would ask the Court to

1 consider this one circumstantial or coincidental
2 fact. If the blood was planted in the vehicle, then 3 it must have been entirely fortuitous that Pam Sturm 4 happened upon that property of her own volition and 5 by the grace of God found the car, unless of course 6 she was told to go there, unless she's a 7 conspirator.

8 Because if you're going to plant blood 9 and then have it discovered, then how does that 10 happen? Just coincidence? Who had the jimmy, 11 that's a question. And, finally, I just ask the 12 Court to think back at Special Agent Fassbender's 13 testimony at the motion hearing. He said they 14 attempted to put a tarp on, attempted to do a 15 tent like thing, but were not successful because 16 the wind and the weather prevented that from 17 happening. So, and again, I certainly would 18 invite the Court to check Pam Sturm's testimony 19 at the prelim and the motion hearing, as you 20 evaluate the proffer. Thanks.

21 THE COURT: All right. I realize that 22 there's another motion related to these and that is 23 the -- what would come in with respect to wrongful 24 conviction evidence. I have the written proposals 25 of the parties, or the written arguments with

1 respect to this issue, and I think Mr. Kratz 2 addressed it somewhat in his comments as well.

3 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I did, Judge.

4 THE COURT: Is there anything else?

5 ATTORNEY KRATZ: No. No, I rely on my 6 brief comments today but, not only the standards, 7 but the number of facts that the Court will have to 8 decide. What, if anything, is properly admitted for 9 impeachment purposes, is laid out in my memo.
10 That's all.

11 THE COURT: Anything further from the 12 State?

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: The defense.

14 THE COURT: The defense, I'm sorry.

15 ATTORNEY STRANG: We laid out a proffer 16 which is essentially everything we would like to 17 offer on the wrongful conviction on the lawsuit.
18 The State comes back saying none of it should come 19 in but, alternately, here is four things, if you are 20 going to let anything in. And the State omits 21 entirely the lawsuit from its proposal. Will allow 22 some very limited evidence as to the prior wrongful 23 conviction.

24 When you read the four things, someone 25 coming fresh to this would be left with the

1 impression that the State was on Steven Avery's
2 side in that effort to exonerate this poor 3 wrongfully convicted man. Because, why, it was 4 the State Crime Laboratory that tested the DNA 5 for him and found that it was good, that it was 6 not his. And it was the State of Wisconsin 7 joined in securing the defendant's release in 8 2003.

9 My guess is the Court comes down 10 somewhere in between the two poles that the 11 parties have offered. It's -- It's the general
12 impression that the State's limited presentation 13 would leave is that this was somehow a joint 14 effort to secure the release of a wrongfully 15 convicted man for the 18 years that it took and 16 decided that it was not as the docket sheet bears 17 out.

18 And, again, what we offered was 19 everything we would like to get in. I'm going to 20 leave this one to the Court, the issues of bias, 21 and impeachment, and credibility are pretty well 22 framed here and I think the Court can strike a 23 pretty good balance.

24 THE COURT: Anything else? If not, we are 25 adjourned for today.

ATTORNEY BUTING: Do you think that we would know Monday on any or some of these?

THE COURT: Depends how far I get this weekend. As soon as I have got something for you, I will let you know. I realize that this issue is important to both parties so I'm going to take as long as I feel I need to make a decision.

ATTORNEY STRANG: Does the Court anticipate a written ruling on these issues?

THE COURT: I don't know that either yet.

ATTORNEY STRANG: Very well.

ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm sorry, I did not hear that.

ATTORNEY BUTING: I didn't hear.

THE COURT: I said I don't know that either yet.

ATTORNEY BUTING: Oh, okay.

24 Reported by Diane Tesheneck, RPR

25 Official Court Reporter

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery, Case No. 05 CF
3 381. Will the parties state their appearances for 4 the record, please.

5 ATTORNEY KRATZ: The State appears by
6 Calumet County District Attorney Ken Kratz,
7 Assistant Attorney General Tom Fallon, Assistant 8 District Attorney Norm Gahn, all appearing as 9 Special Prosecutors.

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: Good morning, Steven 11 Avery is here in person. He's represented by Jerome 12 Buting of Buting and Williams, and Dean Strang of 13 Hurley, Burish and Stanton.

14 THE COURT: Very well. We had proceedings 15 set today to begin at 8:30 for the purpose of 16 administering jury questionnaires. Late last week 17 there were a few motions filed which needed to be 18 addressed before we begin the process of 19 administering the jury questionnaires. Therefore, 20 the Court set this matter for a hearing this 21 morning.

22 The first item to take up is a motion 23 that was filed by the defense to dismiss the 24 sexual assault, kidnapping, and false
25 imprisonment charges. Mr. Strang, I believe you

1 will be heard with respect to that motion.

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you. In chambers,
3 the Court had reached an understanding with counsel
4 that the State, as I understand that, that agreement
5 we reached in chambers, the State would announce 6 it's intention to call Brendan Dassey in its 7 case-in-chief, or not, by the close of business on 8 January 22, 2007, a week ago.

9 When that day passed and the next,
10 without word from the State, I concluded that 11 silence had to be taken as an intention not to 12 call young Mr. Dassey in the State's 13 case-in-chief and considered, then, what to do 14 about that.

15 This is something that has been close in 16 mind for me since March 10, 2006, the filing of 17 the Amended Information and the substantial 18 disagreement that the parties had over the 19 requirement, if any, that Wisconsin law imposed 20 for the State to show, at least probable cause, 21 for the first degree sexual assault, kidnapping,
22 and false imprisonment charges that the Amended 23 Information added, apparently by timing and by 24 content of the Dassey Complaint, solely or almost 25 solely on the strength of Brendan Dassey's

1 statements inculpatng himself.

2 Now, with the benefit of about 10
3 months, since March 10, and a review of the 4 discovery, it appears to me, at least, that 5 absent Mr. Dassey's testimony in Steven Avery's 6 trial, there is no evidence, none, to support the 7 charges of first degree sexual assault and 8 kidnapping.

9 And while it is, I concede, a somewhat
10 closer call, I don't think the State can support 11 the charge of false imprisonment either, which 12 includes an essential element of confinement or 13 restraint. And because coercion is another 14 essential element of false imprisonment,
15 necessarily, means confinement or restraint 16 during someone's lifetime, in their 17 consciousness, or at least during their lifetime.

18 I think the State's evidence of that, if 19 not naught, is clearly insufficient to sustain 20 any reasonable fact finder in concluding that one 21 or both of those essential elements of false 22 imprisonment could be proven here.

23 I, therefore, on January 24, submitted 24 our motion to dismiss the three counts that the 25 Amended Information added. And, indeed, as I

1 understand the evidence the State has disclosed
2 to the defense to date, as of March 10, 2006, not 3 only did the State have no corroboration for the 4 essential details of the first degree sexual 5 assault, kidnapping, and false imprisonment
6 charges filed by Amended Information, no
7 corroboration beyond Brendan Dassey, the physical 8 evidence that was known, or surely should have 9 been known to the State, for months, on March 10, 10 2006, tended to disprove, conclusively, some of 11 Brendan Dassey's allegations.

12 So when Brendan Dassey said that I got 13 off that school bus, and as picking up the 14 narrative that the special prosecutor regaled a 15 live TV audience with, and went down to the 16 Steven Avery trailer, and claimed that he heard 17 screaming coming from inside, and that he knocked 18 on the door and there was no answer for awhile, 19 and eventually a sweaty Steven Avery came to the 20 door, and there in the back bedroom, manacled to 21 a bed, was Teresa Halbach.

22 When those claims were being made on 23 live television, the State knew that the school
24 bus driver, who had dropped Brendan Dassey off 25 that very time, and has no conceivable reason to

1 have lied, being a school bus driver, said that 2 when she dropped him off, she saw Teresa Halbach,
3 or a woman, out taking photographs of a van. I 4 guess she wasn't manacled to a bed in Steven 5 Avery's trailer if she was standing outside 6 taking photographs as Brendan Dassey got off that 7 bus.

8 And on March 10, when this Amended
9 Information was filed, following eight and nine 10 days after the successive live news conferences, 11 the State had physical evidence, in its 12 possession, making it impossible to believe that 13 someone had been stabbed and slashed repeatedly 14 on Steven Avery's bed. There was no blood in 15 that bedroom.

16 And when Brendan Dassey said that we cut
17 off some of her hair, or I did, at Mr. Avery's 18 request, with a large knife, the State knew, or 19 should have known, that not one strand of Teresa 20 Halbach's hair was found anywhere in Steven 21 Avery's trailer; indeed, not one detectable trace
22 of Teresa Halbach's DNA, hair, blood, anything 23 else, anywhere in his trailer. Not an iota of 24 physical evidence to support the proposition that 25 she was ever in the trailer, let alone raped

1 there, imprisoned falsely there, held there as 2 the victim of a kidnapping. None.

3 Is there any other evidence in the 4 massive discovery, that I commend opposing 5 counsel for providing to us, any other evidence 6 at all, to support a claim of first degree sexual 7 assault, if we set aside Brendan Dassey as a 8 witness in this case? To my eyes, the answer is 9 no. None. Zero.

10 In 20 minutes, we're going to have a 11 jury panel brought in here and they will need to 12 be told, if we are to understand sensibly their 13 answers, and if they are to answer sensibly, a 12 14 or 15 page questionnaire, whatever it is. They 15 will need to be told what charges are to be 16 tried, what charges are we to hear, what 17 allegations is the State making against the man 18 accused.

19 And where there's no evidence,
20 evidently, I will stand corrected if there is,
21 and I'm sure counsel will correct me if I'm 22 wrong. But where in my line of sight there is no 23 evidence to support a first degree sexual assault
24 charge, or a kidnapping charge and insufficient 25 evidence at best to support a false imprisonment

1 charge, this jury should not be told that those 2 charges exist and, indeed, they ought be 3 dismissed.

4 We can address, then, whether that's a
5 sufficient remedy. I think it's not. I think 6 some further action will have to be taken by this 7 Court to counteract the affect of allegations
8 made against one young man, Defendant A, in a 9 separate case, that were imported, although 10 inadmissible, imported in the public mind, to 11 impugn the presumed innocence of Defendant B, in 12 an entirely separate case.

13 But the issue, first, is dismissal and,
14 then, what more would be required.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Kratz.

16 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Thank you, Judge. After 17 the State files an Information, the Defense has an 18 opportunity, and in most instances an obligation, to 19 bring a motion to dismiss. Mr. Strang did that on 20 the 3rd of May, when he brought a motion to dismiss 21 those three additional counts in the Information.

22 And this Court, after finding probable 23 cause, believed that the six counts against 24 Mr. Avery were supported by evidence that, if a 25 jury was to hear, could be believed and could

1 sustain a conviction. Let me remind the Court, 2 let me remind Mr. Strang, that it is the State's 3 decision what charges go forward against a State 4 defendant, not the defense attorney's and with 5 all due respect, Judge, not the Court's.

6 The decision, however, on what to go to 7 trial with and when that decision has to be made,
8 is something that is ripe for discussion this 9 morning. And although not a decision for the 10 Court, and not a decision at the urging of the 11 defense, this Court has to consider what factors 12 the State must take into consideration when 13 determining what charges go forward.

14 Necessarily in this case, and quite 15 unfortunately in this case, we then have to talk 16 about Brendan Dassey. I say, unfortunately, 17 because under most circumstances, in fact, save 18 this circumstance, I can't think of a time when 19 it would be appropriate, in open court, on 20 television, to discuss the status and the nature 21 of plea negotiations in an ongoing case, in an 22 ongoing criminal prosecution. I'm talking about 23 Mr. Dassey's prosecution.

24 But Mr. Strang has made some of those 25 things public. And in the Dassey case, some of 1 those things have been made public. So I'm going 2 to limit my discussion of the plea negotiations 3 in Dassey's case, to that which has already been 4 public.

5 This Court already knows that in May of 6 last year, 2006, a plea agreement had all been 7 reached with Mr. Dassey, which included Mr.
8 Dassey's deal, decision, agreement, to testify 9 truthfully, in the Steven Avery case. When 10 Mr. Strang so eloquently stands up and says the 11 State has no proof, perhaps Mr. Strang forgets 12 those times, or back to the time when Mr. Dassey 13 had, in effect and in and through his lawyer, 14 agreed to enter a plea and to testify against 15 Mr. Avery.

16 It wasn't until Mr. Kachinsky, through a 17 whole different story, was stripped of his 18 ability to handle felony prosecutions by the 19 State Public Defender's Office which, by the way, 20 was almost instantaneously reinstated after 21 Mr. Kachinsky agreed to get off of the Dassey 22 case, that new lawyers were appointed in the case 23 and plea negotiations began anew with Mr. Dassey.

24 This Court knows that those plea
25 negotiations have been ongoing. And this Court

1 knows that the deadline for those plea
2 negotiations was the 22nd of January. I agree 3 with Mr. Strang that that was the time when the 4 State was to hear from Mr. Fremgen, who is 5 Mr. Dassey's new lawyer, as to whether or not, 6 first of all, Mr. Dassey was going to change his 7 plea; and, secondly, and perhaps more 8 importantly, that if called as a witness in the 9 Avery case, what posture, what position, would 10 Mr. Dassey take.

11 This Court knows, that on the 24th of 12 January, two days after the deadline, I received 13 notification from Mr. Fremgen. I alerted the 14 Court, I sent the Court and counsel a copy of 15 Mr. Fremgen's letter setting forth what 16 Mr. Dassey's position would be, if he was called.

17 Importantly, Judge, that letter 18 indicates that Mr. Dassey, although if called in 19 the Avery case would invoke his Fifth Amendment 20 right against self incrimination, if granted use
21 immunity by the Court, presumably upon a 22 direction by the State, that Mr. Dassey would 23 testify, would testify in the State's 24 case-in-chief, would testify on rebuttal, or 25 would testify when the State chooses to call him.

1 And, therefore, there is evidence as to the two 2 counts that Mr. Strang claims, again, so
3 ferverently, that there's no evidence for, that Mr.
4 Dassey would testify.

5 Now, that doesn't stop the analysis by 6 the State. The three attorneys at this table 7 have had long discussions about whether we should 8 proceed with all six counts, or whether we should 9 proceed with the four counts that don't require 10 Brendan Dassey's testimony. That, again, Judge, 11 is a decision solely within the province of the 12 State, solely in the province of this table, as a 13 matter of fact, as to whether or not we're going 14 to proceed.

15 That decision doesn't have to be made by 16 law until jeopardy attaches, until the jury is 17 instructed by the Court as to what the charges 18 are. Now, I understand that it is this Court's 19 preference to tell the jury, today, what those 20 charges are going to be, that within the context 21 of the supplemental jury questionnaire to alert 22 the jurors as to what those counts are going to 23 be.

24 And so that puts us in a dilemma, if you 25 will, in that the State wished to wait until

1 Friday, the 2nd, as we have told you in 2 correspondence, as to whether or not we intended
3 to call Brendan Dassey. If put to that question 4 today, our inclination would be not to call 5 Brendan Dassey, to either save Brendan Dassey for 6 our case-in-chief, upon a grant of use immunity,
7 or to save Brendan for rebuttal testimony, again,
8 upon a grant of use immunity.

9 Certainly, though, this Court would 10 agree that he is available to testify in the 11 Steven Avery case. And so, if we're going to 12 instruct the jury as to what the charges against 13 Mr. Avery are going to be, it is the safer 14 position to just name the four charges from which 15 we do not need Brendan Dassey. Again, our 16 preference, if I can reiterate, is to wait until 17 the 2nd, is to wait until Friday, when the State 18 can decide how to proceed.

19 Would, or is it possible that Brendan
20 Dassey would change his mind about a plea
21 agreement, between now and Friday, absolutely.
22 Given the ongoing nature of the agreements,
23 that's always possible. But, for practical 24 purposes, if the Court wishes to know, wishes an 25 inclination by the State, I'm happy to give that.

1 But the bottom line is, this Court does 2 not have the authority to dismiss those two 3 counts. The State still could, if it chose, call 4 Mr. Dassey. Mr. Dassey was named as a witness.
5 When it was time to name our lay witnesses, 6 Brendan Dassey was named. He's included on our 7 witness list and so there shouldn't be any 8 surprise as to whether we can proceed with 9 Mr. Dassey or not.

10 We may choose to call any of those 11 witnesses that we have named. We may choose to 12 only call a subset of those witnesses, and 13 Brendan Dassey is certainly one of those people 14 that's within that category.

15 But to suggest that the State has no 16 evidence, to suggest even further than that, that 17 there need be some, what the defense has called, 18 "strong curative instruction", the State believes 19 is absolutely absurd. Any time use immunity is 20 conferred in a case, when there is two 21 defendants, which isn't unusual, those of us that 22 have been practicing criminal law for a long time 23 know that happens once in awhile, especially when 24 one defendant has given an inculpatory statement, 25 which inculpates another, those are called

1 interlocking confessions. And when that happens, 2 it is not usual for use immunity to be conferred.

3 To suggest, though, that the jury has to 4 be somehow informed, even before they are 5 selected, as to the nuance of the use immunity 6 statute, as to whether the State chooses to call 7 a witness or not, and, specifically, in this 8 case, that there should be some negative
9 inference taken, by the fact that the State
10 chooses not to call somebody, or that the State 11 chooses not to proceed on two counts, is simply 12 not supported by law.

13 We're asking, then, that the Court
14 reject, first of all, the Defense motion to 15 dismiss. We're asking that the Court reject the 16 inclination to provide some curative instruction, 17 which certainly would prejudice the State; the 18 prejudice to the State, Judge, should be obvious.

19 If we have to start this case swimming 20 upstream, if you will, in the face of some 21 instruction given to the jury that they should be 22 taking some negative view of the State, then we 23 intend to proceed on all six counts. We will.
24 If that's what this Court's inclination is, we 25 will go forward on all six counts. We will ask

1 the Court to grant Mr. Dassey use immunity and we 2 will proceed on those six counts.

3 If, however, the State is not so
4 inclined -- excuse me -- if the Court is not so 5 inclined, if the Court, like every other case, is 6 going to proceed to jury selection without 7 providing this strong curative instruction, or 8 not further contaminating the potential jury
9 pool, which recent pre-trial publicity, the State 10 believes and the State's argued already has, then 11 it is our inclination to proceed on the four 12 counts. Again, those four counts that do not 13 require Brendan Dassey, allowing us, as is within 14 our province, to make a decision as the trial 15 proceeds whether we call Brendan in our 16 case-in-chief, whether we call him in rebuttal, 17 or whether we choose not to call him at all.
18 Thank you, Judge.

19 THE COURT: Before I turn it back to 20 Mr. Strang, within your argument is there a motion 21 to dismiss the sexual assault and kidnapping 22 charges, or not?

23 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Not until the Judge rules
24 on this motion. And -- And I don't mean to be cute 25 with the Court, and I think you understand, Judge,

1 that it's the curative instruction, your inclination
2 that causes the State the most concern. I am, and I
3 have, as you know, been candid with the Court, as a 4 matter of courtesy. I have told you all along what 5 our intention was going to be.

6 Without that curative instruction, the 7 State, I will tell the Court, as I have told you 8 candidly, intends to proceed on four counts, 9 rather than six. But, if the Court is going to 10 give a curative instruction, then we do have that 11 objection.

12 THE COURT: I understand. Mr. Strang, 13 briefly.

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: All due respect to 15 counsel, the State is supposed to start every 16 criminal case swimming upstream. And the strong 17 current against which the State is supposed to be 18 swimming is a presumption of innocence. That 19 presumption of innocence has been eroded, if not 20 eliminated, here, by the spectre of Brendan Dassey 21 offering admissible, as opposed to inadmissible
22 evidence.

23 It is too late to sit on the fence here.
24 We can't very well tell this jury that there are 25 four counts to be tried, and then tell them on

1 next Monday, oh, by the way, there is also a rape
2 and a kidnapping. You can't do it. Neither can 3 either side, as a practical matter, give an 4 opening statement in this case, without knowing 5 whether the alleged accomplice is testifying or 6 not.

7 Now, Mr. Kratz was candid enough to 8 concede, if one listened carefully, that 9 Mr. Dassey is available to him, legally. The 10 State can move for use immunity, the Court, then, 11 grants that immunity. The case law suggests that 12 the Defense has very little to say about that 13 State request.

14 It is just too late, now, 10 months
15 after these charges were filed, to say we'll tell 16 you later. Because the jury questionnaire 17 process is beginning and we can't rely on the 18 answers these jurors give to whether they can try 19 this case fairly, unless they know what it is 20 they are trying, in outline. It is just too 21 late.

22 And I agree, as an abstract matter, with 23 much of what Mr. Kratz says about the black 24 letter. The State decides what charges it will 25 push forward on and which it will not.

1 And I, also, let me be clear, if Brendan 2 Dassey takes the witness stand on a similar 3 chair, one county over, he has admissible
4 evidence to offer, once he's sworn under oath.
5 It may hurt Mr. Avery; it may help Mr. Avery; it 6 may do a little of both. But it is admissible 7 evidence, once he takes the stand. And until he 8 sits down in a chair like that, nothing he's got 9 to say is admissible on the State's offering, or 10 at the State's instance, or over Defense
11 objection.

12 So the State has all the information it 13 needs today, it's had it for months, to decide 14 whether it's calling Mr. Dassey, to prove the 15 three charges it added in the Amended 16 Information, or not. This Court has a right, in 17 managing this trial, and in selecting a jury, and 18 ideally having it not be a waste of time, to know 19 what charges it's trying, with the jury it's 20 picking. And counsel have a right to be able to 21 assess the answers these jurors give, on the 22 knowledge that the jurors were given accurate 23 information about something as basic as what the 24 allegations are.

25 THE COURT: All right.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: It's time to decide.

2 THE COURT: First, a couple of comments
3 with respect to the procedure for jury selection in 4 this case. Because of the large number of jurors in 5 the panel, the parties have previously agreed that 6 we're going to be using a procedure in which, in 7 large part, the questionnaire is taking the place of 8 questions that would typically be asked on general 9 voir dire.

10 It's a little different in the sense
11 that the questionnaire is going to be filled out 12 by the parties, off the record. But there 13 certainly are similarities between the questions 14 that are on the questionnaire and what typically 15 is asked in general voir dire.

16 In order for the jurors to give accurate 17 answers, and for the parties to assess those 18 answers, I think it's necessary that the jurors 19 be aware of the charges that the State will be 20 pursuing against the defendant. That's why I 21 would not feel comfortable giving the jurors a 22 preliminary instruction, before they fill out the 23 questionnaire, without the jurors knowing what 24 the charges are going to be against the defendant
25 in this case. So I don't think we can post --

1 postpone the time within which the jurors are 2 going to know the charges.

3 With respect to the curative instruction
4 issue, I will make the following comments: At 5 this point it would be difficult for the Court to 6 consider giving some type of curative 7 instruction, based on the evidence or lack of 8 evidence that the State has available to it to 9 produce that relates to the charges.

10 To be sure, in the course of these 11 proceedings, the Court has gleaned some 12 information concerning evidence which each side 13 may choose to produce, but that's not been 14 fleshed out in any great detail. I understand 15 from the representations that have been made to 16 the Court that the State has, or has not, as time 17 has gone on, had an idea of what type of evidence 18 it might hope to gain from Mr. Dassey.

19 I don't -- I'm not aware of anything to 20 suggest that the State has been acting in bad 21 faith in any regard. And quite simply put, I do 22 not believe that the State has engaged in any 23 conduct to this point which would warrant the 24 giving of some type of instruction unfavorable to 25 the State, should the State decide at this point

1 to dismiss some of the charges that have been 2 filed. And so I'm not going to -- Whatever
3 action the Court takes this morning, I'm not 4 going to give some type of an extra instruction, 5 I just haven't heard anything that would warrant
6 it.

7 With that background --

8 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, may I be heard then 9 before --

10 THE COURT: Yes.

11 ATTORNEY KRATZ: -- you rule further?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: If I could just have one 14 more moment.

15 THE COURT: Go ahead.

16 ATTORNEY KRATZ: With those findings,
17 Judge, the State is, at this time, because we 18 believe it within the province of the State, moving 19 that Counts, I believe it's 4 and 5, that is, the 20 first degree sexual assault as a party to the crime, 21 and the kidnapping, Count No. 5, be dismissed.

22 The State intends to proceed, then, on 23 Counts 1, 2, 3, and 6. I will be happy to 24 provide a Court with what will be called a second 25 Amended Information, which will actually make

1 Count 6, Count 4, so that the jury isn't confused
2 as to the number of counts or why there may be a 3 gap in the -- those charges. Count 4 will be 4 false imprisonment.

5 And the State intends, then, to proceed 6 on those four counts rather than -- rather than 7 the six counts. And I believe then, that 8 relieves the Court of the obligation of having to 9 rule upon this motion.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Strang, from the defense's 11 standpoint I understand that you, based on your 12 motion, were requesting the administration of the 13 curative instruction as well, but I take it that the 14 defense has no objection, given the Court's ruling 15 on the instruction issue, to the dismissal of Counts
16 4 and 5.

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: Provided that's a
18 dismissal with prejudice, which is the Court's 19 prerogative, once the State has moved to dismiss, 20 not the State's; we don't object to a dismissal with 21 prejudice of Counts 4 and 5.

22 THE COURT: I have dealt with this issue
23 before. There's a, frankly, question as to how much 24 power the Court has in that regard when a dismissal 25 is granted at this stage in the trial.

1 At this point, my inclination would be 2 to -- simply to grant the State's motion to 3 dismiss those counts. I'm not going to rule at 4 this time, nor do we have time to address the 5 issue, as to whether or not they would be with or 6 without prejudice. The law is, that the 7 dismissal, absent some other finding by the 8 Court, I believe is without prejudice. And I'm 9 not prepared today to do any more than that.

10 ATTORNEY STRANG: Here's the problem, and 11 here's why the Court needs to take some further 12 curative action. Since March 10, up through the 13 WFRV report last night, for example, Steven Avery 14 has been presented as the man who allegedly raped, 15 mutilated and murdered Teresa Halbach.

16 Now, the first question, I guess in a 17 bigger scale, this raises, is how many times will 18 Steven Avery be charged in Manitowoc County with 19 rapes he didn't commit, this makes two. And the 20 public, for 10 months, has been led to believe 21 that he's a rapist, in addition to all else they 22 might think about him.

23 Where do we go, you know, forget getting 24 the 18 years back on the first one, where do we 25 go to get the last 10 months back? Where do we

1 go to get our presumption of innocence back, from 2 a public who believes and has heard time and 3 again that he is an alleged rapist, even before 4 murder?

5 THE COURT: Right. I'm not precluding you 6 from advancing that argument at some point in the 7 future; I'm just saying I'm not prepared to make 8 that ruling today.

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: And I want to be clear,
10 then, on the record, that we are heading into a 11 potential for mistrial by going forward on the false 12 imprisonment count, if the Court's ruling permits
13 the State to do that. And if the State believes 14 that it will avail itself of the dismissal without 15 prejudice, later to call Brendan Dassey, and to 16 argue that there is no surprise and, therefore, 17 under Wisconsin Statutes, an amendment of the 18 Information should be permitted, or argue that it 19 wants the Information to conform to the evidence it 20 plans to adduce by calling Mr. Dassey, there will be 21 a mistrial motion, and it will be a serious motion.

22 ATTORNEY KRATZ: If I may interrupt, Judge.

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I will concede, just out
25 of fairness to Mr. Strang and to the defense team,

1 that during the course of this trial, the State will 2 not ask the Court reinstate those charges, will not 3 ask the Court add the additional counts, even if 4 Brendan Dassey is allowed to testify, that should at 5 least get us through this proceeding.

6 THE COURT: All right. And with respect to 7 the defense extra motion to dismiss the false 8 imprisonment charge, I previously ruled, that given 9 the law in the State of Wisconsin on preliminary 10 examinations and the Court's duty and the ability of 11 the State to add a charge that's factually related 12 to the bindover, that the State has the right to do 13 that. And I'm also not, obviously, at this point in 14 the proceedings, in a position to say that the -- 15 there's no evidence that the State can produce to 16 sustain that charge.

17 So the Court is denying the defense 18 motion to dismiss the false imprisonment charge.
19 I will grant the State's motion to dismiss
20 Count's 4 and 5, the first degree sexual assault 21 charge and the kidnapping charge.

22 ATTORNEY STRANG: That said, the State's 23 proposal of a second Amended Information makes 24 sense, given the state of the record and the Court's 25 rulings.

1 THE COURT: All right. It was my 2 understanding Mr. Fallon also wished to be heard on 3 the jury selection process before we bring the 4 jurors in for the questionnaires.

5 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, thank you, Judge.
6 Just a couple of preliminary thoughts. And I
7 realize, at least I recollect from our phone 8 discussion on Friday, that I think the balance of 9 this will have to be addressed on Friday afternoon, 10 I believe.

11 But I just wanted to point out that the 12 Court's intent to limit the parties to 10 to 15 13 minutes of individual voir dire, to follow up on 14 the juror questionnaire, which is about to be 15 filled out by the jurors today, would arguably, 16 and I note counsel and I, I think, are in 17 agreement on this, that the 15 minute was 18 arguably sufficient; although, I think both of us 19 had serious concerns about that.

20 But when I replied to the defense
21 submission on January 5th, as I represented I 22 would and hearing no objection from the Defense 23 and no objection from the Court, I was surprised 24 that many of the submitted questions by the State 25 were deleted, many were accepted.

1 So my concern is that, at best case 2 scenario, 15 minute individual voir dire was 3 marginally sufficient given what I expected the 4 supplemental juror questionnaire to contain; and 5 that is, many of the suggestions or several of 6 the suggestions that I agreed with from the 7 Defense, as well as many of the State, the Court 8 on its own chose to disregard several of the 9 submissions of the State.

10 And, presumably, that's in the Court's 11 prerogative as I'm aware that jury selection, 12 there is a vast amount of discretion afforded to 13 the trial court. But, again, not hearing any 14 objection from either the Court or opposing 15 counsel, I expected to see a little more robust 16 supplemental juror questionnaire.

17 However, the Court has exercised that 18 discretion and determined otherwise. Our comment 19 is that I would like the Court to address the 20 follow up voir dire procedures on Friday
21 afternoon, because I'm not sure, quite frankly, 22 that 10 to 15 minutes will allow counsel adequate 23 time to explore other matters not included in the 24 general -- or in the supplemental juror
25 questionnaire.

1 As I indicated earlier on, although it's 2 unusual and not advisable to use the supplemental 3 juror questionnaire as a stand in for general
4 voir dire, it certainly is possible, but -- and I 5 understand the Court's desire to not create an 6 unwieldily document for the prospective jurors.
7 But I would ask the Court to reconsider it's idea 8 as to how the follow-up voir dire is going to 9 occur.

10 I'm very concerned, that at least from 11 the State's perspective, that we will not have 12 adequate time to pursue other matters in that 13 time frame.

14 THE COURT: All right. We'll address that 15 further at the final pre-trial on Friday.

16 At this time, I think I'm going to ask 17 the parties to remain here. I will go back and 18 have the clerk bring in the jurors, then I will 19 come back out on the bench and give the jurors 20 the preliminary information prior to their 21 completion of the questionnaire.

22 And I believe there is agreement that 23 after the Court completes that process, we'll 24 take a short break to clear the courtroom so that 25 members of the press and members of the public

1 will be excused, since during the time the jurors
2 will be completing the actual questionnaires, 3 court will not be in session, and neither the 4 parties nor I will be present.

5 So if you just sit tight, I will check 6 on the process of the jurors and we'll get 7 started. I think all of the seating in the 8 courtroom, except for whatever is left in the 9 back, will be needed for members of the jury 10 panel.

11 (Brief recess.)

12 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, this 13 morning we are commencing the jury selection process 14 in the case of State of Wisconsin vs. Steven A.
15 Avery, Case No. 05 CF 381. This is a criminal case.
16 In a moment I will read to you the crimes charged in 17 the Information in this case.

18 The Information is nothing more than a 19 written, formal accusation against a defendant, 20 charging him with the commission of criminal 21 acts. You are not to consider the Information as 22 evidence against the defendant in any way. It 23 does not raise an inference of guilt.

24 The Information in this case charges the 25 defendant, Steven Avery, with being a party to

1 the crime of first degree intentional homicide of 2 Teresa Halbach. Mr. Avery is also charged with 3 party to the crime of mutilating her corpse, 4 false imprisonment, and felon in possession of a 5 firearm.

6 To each of the charges I have just read, 7 Mr. Avery has entered a plea of not guilty, which 8 means the State must prove every element of the 9 offenses charged, beyond a reasonable doubt. The 10 law presumes every person charged with the 11 commission of an offense to be innocent. This 12 presumption attends the defendant throughout the 13 trial, and prevails at its close, unless overcome 14 by evidence which satisfies the jury of his 15 guilt, beyond a reasonable doubt. The defendant
16 is not required to prove his innocence.

17 The burden of proving the defendant
18 guilty of every element of the crimes charged is 19 upon the State. Before you can return a verdict
20 of guilty on any count, the State must prove, to 21 your satisfaction, beyond a reasonable doubt,
22 that the defendant is guilty on that count.

23 The case is being prosecuted by Special 24 Prosecutor Kenneth Kratz. Mr. Kratz, if you can 25 please stand up.

ATTORNEY KRATZ: Good morning.

THE COURT: Thomas Fallon.

ATTORNEY FALLON: Good morning.

THE COURT: And Norman Gahn.

ATTORNEY GAHN: Good morning.

THE COURT: The defendant in this case is Steven Avery.

THE DEFENDANT: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

THE COURT: And Mr. Avery is being defended by attorneys, Dean Strang.

ATTORNEY STRANG: Good morning.

THE COURT: And Jerome Buting.

ATTORNEY BUTING: Good morning.

THE COURT: The trial itself is expected to take approximately six weeks. Sixteen members of the jury panel will be selected to serve on the jury. While only 12 members of the jury will arrive at the final verdict, 4 additional jurors are being selected to hear the case in the event members of the jury should have to be excused before the jury retires to deliberate. Should there be more than 12 jurors remaining at the close of the evidence, the alternate jurors will be selected by lot.

The process we are about to engage in is

1 called voir dire. Its purpose is to assure that
2 the jury ultimately impaneled to hear this case
3 is comprised of people who are not biased or 4 prejudiced. The jurors must be citizens who can 5 fairly and impartially decide the facts of the 6 case, based solely upon the evidence presented in 7 court, and will then follow my instructions as to 8 the law applicable to those facts.

9 We are using the proceeding today to 10 have all prospective jurors complete a written 11 questionnaire. Some jurors will be called back 12 for further individual questioning beginning next 13 Monday, February 5th. Whether and in what order 14 you will be called back is determined by a random 15 computer selection process.

16 Should you be required to return, the 17 Clerk's Office will contact you by telephone with 18 a time and date to return. Some of you may be 19 excused without participating in individual voir
20 dire. The voir dire process is going to require 21 that you disclose publicly, a certain amount of 22 personal information about yourselves and your 23 families, that you may otherwise want to keep to 24 yourself. It is, unfortunately, necessary.

25 In special circumstances, exceptions may

1 sometimes be made to insure the privacy of your 2 answers. You will have to indicate on the 3 questionnaire if you think you have a valid
4 reason to ask for an exception.

5 This morning we will proceed as follows:
6 In a few minutes the Clerk will hand each of you
7 a written questionnaire which you are to complete 8 under oath. Please take your time and answer all
9 questions as completely and accurately as you
10 can. If you are uncertain about how to answer 11 any question, please note your uncertainty in 12 your written answer.

13 I will not be available to individually
14 answer any questions you may have as you complete 15 the questionnaire.

16 When you have completed and signed your 17 questionnaire, return it to the Clerk, who will 18 turn all the completed questionnaires over to me.

19 After you complete your questionnaire 20 this morning, you will be excused for the 21 remainder of the day.

22 After some prospective jurors have been
23 brought in and questioned individually, next
24 week, the lawyers and I will confer to decide if 25 any juror should be excused for cause, that is,

1 for any legally sufficient reason. If I rule 2 that any prospective juror is to be excused for 3 cause, that particular panel member will be told 4 and released from further service in this case.

5 After a sufficient number of prospective
6 number of jurors have been questioned 7 individually, the lawyers will be permitted to 8 exercise their peremptory challenges upon those 9 remaining on the panel. Once the peremptory 10 challenges have been exhausted, a jury of 16 11 persons will be seated to hear the trial.

12 The process of jury selection will take 13 some time, as you can see. I ask you to be 14 patient while we are concerned with matters that 15 don't involve you personally. I strongly suggest
16 that you bring something back to read while you 17 wait next week, should you be called back for 18 individual voir dire.

19 It is estimated by the lawyers that it
20 will take six weeks to try the case once the jury
21 has been selected. You should all have received 22 a letter asking you to request to be excused in 23 advance, if a case of that length would cause you
24 any extraordinary personal hardship.

25 Those who responded that it would, and

1 whose reasons were found to be sufficient, have
2 already been excused. The Court understands that
3 serving on a jury for six weeks presents a
4 significant inconvenience to most people. That 5 is an unfortunate but necessary price we pay for 6 the system of justice that we enjoy.

7 If any of you has a reason, now, to 8 believe that you would suffer some exceptional
9 hardship, other than the convenience (sic) jury
10 service causes everyone to sit on a case of this 11 duration, please give specific reasons in your 12 response to the pertinent question on the 13 questionnaire.

14 This case has received a substantial
15 amount of publicity in the newspapers, and on 16 radio and television. That you are aware of the 17 publicity does not, by itself, disqualify you.
18 If, however, that publicity has caused you to 19 form some opinions about the case already, and 20 you think you might be unable to put those 21 opinions aside and listen to the evidence with an 22 open mind, please be candid about it on your 23 answers to the relevant questions on the 24 questionnaire, and when you are questioned
25 individually.

1 After the trial starts, it is absolutely
2 essential that the jurors who are chosen for the 3 case learn nothing whatsoever about it from any 4 source, other than the evidence presented in the 5 courtroom. The jury will be obliged to that end
6 not to read, listen to, or watch any news
7 accounts of the trial, nor to talk or let anyone 8 else, including one another, talk to them, about 9 any aspect of the case, until it is over.

10 I also instruct you that, for so long as 11 we are engaged in the process of jury selection, 12 you are not to read, listen to, or watch any news 13 accounts of this case or of the proceedings, nor 14 talk to anyone or let anyone else talk to you
15 about any aspect of the case. That means not 16 listening to radio accounts about the case, not 17 reading any newspaper accounts, and not watching 18 television news coverage of this matter.

19 As we conduct the voir dire process, you
20 will naturally be meeting each other and talking
21 among yourselves. It is extremely important,
22 however, that you do not discuss this case,
23 including the voir dire questions, or your 24 answers to any of those questions.

25 Do not share anything that you may know,

1 or any opinions or impressions you may have,
2 about the case, with any other prospective juror.
3 Do not talk about your individual answers to the 4 questionnaire or any questions you are asked in 5 open court with anyone. Both the State and 6 Mr. Avery are entitled to have a completely fair, 7 openminded and impartial jury sit in judgment in 8 this case.

9 You will be asked many questions
10 intended to enable me and the lawyers to draw
11 some inferences about your attitudes. As you
12 answer the questions, I ask you to ask yourself,
13 do I have any reason to question my own
14 impartiality, to suspect that I might be 15 prejudiced for or against the State or the 16 defendant, for any reason.

17 In other words, are you aware of 18 anything which would prevent you from rendering a
19 fair and impartial verdict, based solely on the 20 evidence presented in this courtroom, and the 21 instructions I will give you at the end of the 22 trial so -- as to the law applicable to this 23 case. If so, please be truthful in making that 24 known to us.

25 Finally, I want you to know that the

1 Court recognizes that each of the jurors selected
2 to serve in this case is being asked to perform 3 an important civic duty at a significant personal 4 sacrifice of time and attention. While it's not 5 the same as serving in the military, for example, 6 in a sense the jurors are being drafted into 7 government service for six weeks.

8 Your service in this case imposes a
9 greater burden than we ask of most citizens. I 10 would ask you to keep in mind, however, the deep 11 personal satisfaction that you can receive from 12 knowing, should you be selected as a juror, that 13 you answered the call of your government and 14 served with honor by rendering a verdict based 15 not on any preconceived motions -- or notions, 16 but only on the evidence introduced at trial and 17 the instructions given to you by the Court.

18 At this time, before we break, I'm going 19 to ask the Clerk to swear the panel.

20 THE CLERK: Would all of the jurors please 21 rise and raise your right hand.

22 (Jury panel sworn.)

23 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

24 THE COURT: All right. Members of the jury
25 panel, in a minute you are going to be coming back

1 here to complete your questionnaires. Because of 2 the fact Court will not be in session during that 3 time, we're going to clear the courtroom of everyone 4 else before we ask you to do so.

5 So at this time the clerks and the 6 bailiffs will escort you back to the other
7 courtroom that you started in. You will be there 8 for few minutes. You can take a rest stop if you 9 need to, and then you will be brought back here
10 to complete your questionnaires. You may stand 11 at this time and be escorted out.

12 (Jury panel not present.)

13 THE COURT: All right. The prospective
14 jurors have now all left the courtroom. Counsel, 15 anything else further before we go off the record?

16 ATTORNEY STRANG: The Court's instructing 17 on publicity, it probably would be a good idea to 18 add the internet.

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: Right, that was the only 20 thought I had.

21 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. We will 22 adjourn at this time, and I will see you back at 23 10:30.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

(Second half of jury panel present.)

THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, this morning we are commencing the jury selection process in the case of State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery, Case No. 05 CF 381. This is a criminal case. In a moment I will read to you the crimes charged in the Information in this case.

The Information is nothing more than a written formal accusation against a defendant, charging him with a commission of criminal acts. You are not to consider the Information as evidence against the defendant in any way. It does not raise an inference of guilt.

The Information in this case charges that the defendant, Steven Avery, or the Information charges the defendant, Steven Avery, with being a party to the crime of first degree intentional homicide of Teresa Halbach. Mr. Avery is also charged with party to the crime of mutilating her corpse, false imprisonment and felon in possession of a firearm.

To each of the charges I have just read, Mr. Avery has entered a plea of not guilty, which means the State must proof every element of the offenses charged, beyond a reasonable doubt. The 7 is not required to prove his innocence.

8 The burden of proving the defendant
9 guilty of every element of the crimes charged is 10 upon the State. Before you can return a verdict
11 of guilty on any count, the State must prove, to 12 your satisfaction, beyond a reasonable doubt,
13 that the defendant is guilty of that count.

14 This case will be prosecuted by Special
15 Prosecutor Kenneth Kratz. Mr. Kratz.

16 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Good morning.

17 THE COURT: Attorney Thomas Fallon.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: Good morning.

19 THE COURT: And Attorney Norman Gahn.

20 ATTORNEY GAHN: Good morning.

21 THE COURT: The defendant, Steven Avery, is 22 present in court today.

23 THE DEFENDANT: Good morning, ladies and 24 gentlemen.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Avery, will be represented

1 by Attorney Dean Strang.

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: Good morning.

3 THE COURT: And Attorney Jerome Buting.

4 ATTORNEY BUTING: Hello.

5 THE COURT: The trial itself is expected to 6 take approximately six weeks. Sixteen members of 7 the jury panel will be selected to serve on the 8 jury. While only 12 members of the jury will arrive 9 at the final verdict, 4 additional jurors are being 10 selected to hear the case in the event members of 11 the jury should have to be excused before the jury 12 retires to deliberate. Should there be more than 12 13 jurors remaining at the close of the evidence, the 14 remaining alternate jurors will be selected by lot.

15 The process we're about to engage in is 16 called voir dire. Its purpose is to assure that 17 the jury ultimately impaneled to hear this case
18 is comprised of people who are not biased or 19 prejudiced. The jurors must be citizens who can 20 fairly and impartially decide the facts of the 21 case, based solely on the evidence presented in 22 court, and who will then follow my instructions 23 as to the law applicable to those facts.

24 We are -- We are using the proceedings
25 today to have all prospective jurors complete a

1 written questionnaire. Some jurors will be 2 called back for further individual questioning 3 beginning next Monday, February 5. Whether and 4 in what order you will be called back is 5 determined by a random computer selection
6 process.

7 Should you be required to return, the 8 Clerk's Office will contact you by telephone with 9 a time and date to return. Some of you may be 10 excused without participating in individual voir
11 dire. The voir dire process is going to require 12 that you disclose publicly, a certain amount of 13 personal information about yourself and your 14 families, that you might otherwise want to keep 15 to yourself. It is, unfortunately, necessary.

16 In special circumstances, exceptions may 17 sometimes be made to insure the privacy of your 18 answers. You will have to indicate on the 19 questionnaire if you believe you have a valid
20 reason to ask for an exception.

21 We'll proceed as follows: In a few 22 minutes the Clerk will hand each of you a written 23 questionnaire which you are to complete under 24 oath. Please take your time and answer all
25 questions as completely and accurately as you

1 can. If you are uncertain about how to answer
2 any question, please note your uncertainty in
3 your written answer.

4 I will not be available to individually
5 answer any questions you may have.

6 When you have completed and signed your
7 questionnaire, return it to the Clerk, who will 8 turn all the completed questionnaires over to me.
9 After you complete your questionnaire, you will 10 be excused for the remainder of the day.

11 After some prospective jurors have been
12 brought in and questioned individually, next
13 week, the lawyers and I will confer to decide if 14 any should be excused for cause, that is, for any 15 legally sufficient reason. If I rule that any 16 prospective juror is to be excused for cause, 17 that particular panel member will be told and 18 released from further service in this case.

19 After a sufficient number of prospective
20 jurors have been questioned individually, the 21 lawyers will be permitted to exercise their 22 peremptory challenges upon those remaining on the 23 panel. Once the peremptory challenges have been 24 exhausted, a jury of 16 persons will be seated to 25 hear the case.

1 The process of jury selection will take
2 some time, as you can see. I ask you to be
3 patient while we are concerned with matters that
4 don't involve you personally. I strongly suggest
5 that you bring something back to read while you
6 wait, should you be called back for individual 7 voir dire next week.

8 It is estimated by the lawyers that it
9 will take six weeks to try the case once the jury
10 has been selected. You should all have received
11 a letter asking you to request to be excused in 12 advance if a case of that length would cause you
13 any extraordinary personal hardship.

14 Those who responded that it would, and
15 whose reasons were found to be sufficient, have 16 already been excused. The Court understands that 17 serving on a jury for six weeks presents a
18 significant inconvenience to most people. That 19 is an unfortunate but necessary price we pay for 20 the system of justice that we enjoy.

21 If any of you has a reason, now, to
22 believe that you would suffer some exceptional
23 hardship, other than the convenience (sic) jury
24 service causes everyone to sit on a case of this 25 duration, please give specific reasons in your

1 response to the pertinent question on the
2 questionnaire.

3 This case has received a substantial
4 amount of publicity in the newspapers, and on
5 radio and television. That you are aware of the 6 publicity does not, by itself, disqualify you.
7 If, however, that publicity has caused you to 8 form some opinions about the case already, and 9 you think you might be unable to put those 10 opinions aside and listen to the evidence with an 11 open mind, please be candid about it in your 12 answers to the relevant questions on the 13 questionnaire and when you are individually 14 questioned.

15 After the trial starts, it is absolutely
16 essential that the jurors who are chosen for the 17 case learn nothing whatsoever about it from any 18 source, other than the evidence presented in this 19 courtroom. The jury will be obliged to that end
20 not to read, listen to, or watch any news

24 I also instruct you that, for so long as

1 you are not to read, listen to, or watch any news

3 talk to anyone or let anyone else talk to you
4 about any aspect of the case. That means not 5 listening to the radio news accounts about the 6 case, not reading any newspaper accounts, not 7 watching television news coverage of this matter
8 and not searching the internet for information 9 about the case.

10 As we conduct the voir dire process, you
11 will naturally be meeting each other and talking
12 among yourselves. It is extremely important,
13 however, that you do not discuss this case,
14 including the voir dire questions, or your 15 answers to those questions.

16 Do not share anything you may know, or 17 any opinions or impressions you may have, about 18 the case, with any other prospective juror. Do 19 not talk about your individual answers to the 20 questionnaire or to any questions you are asked 21 in open court with anyone, including your fellow 22 jurors. Both the State and Mr. Avery are 23 entitled to have a completely fair, open-minded 24 and impartial jury sit in judgment upon this 25 case.

1 You will be asked many questions
2 intended to enable me and the lawyers to draw
3 some inferences about your attitudes. As you
4 answer the questions, I ask you to ask yourself,
5 do I have any reason to question my own
6 impartiality, to suspect that I might be
7 prejudiced for or against the State or the 8 defendant for any reason.

9 In other words, are you aware of
10 anything which would prevent you from rendering a
11 fair and impartial verdict, based solely on the 12 evidence to be presented in this courtroom, and 13 the instructions I will give you at the end of 14 trial as to the law applicable to the case. If 15 so, please be truthful in making that known to 16 us.

17 Finally, I want you to know that the 18 Court recognizes each of the jurors selected to 19 serve in this case are being asked to perform an 20 important civic duty at a significant personal 21 sacrifice of time and attention. While it is not 22 the same as serving in the military, in a sense 23 the jurors are being drafted into government 24 service for six weeks.

25 Your service in this case imposes a

5 you answered the call of your government and 6 serve with honor by rendering a verdict based not 7 on any preconceived notions, but only on the 8 evidence introduced at trial and the instructions
9 given you by the Court.

10 At this time I will ask the Clerk to 11 swear the members of the jury panel. Will you 12 all please stand.

13 THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand.

14 (Jury panel sworn.)

15 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

16 THE COURT: Members of the jury panel,
17 because you are going to be completing a 18 questionnaire while court is not in session, we're 19 going to take a few minutes to clear the courtroom.

20 At this point, I'm going to ask you all 21 to stand and be escorted by the bailiffs and 22 court personnel back to the other courtroom for a 23 few minutes. Once the courtroom here is cleared, 24 you will be brought back here and given your 25 questionnaires.

1 As indicated earlier, after your 2 questionnaires are completed, you can hand them
3 to the Clerk and you will be free to leave for 4 the day. You may rise and be escorted back to 5 the other courtroom at this time.

6 (Jury panel not present.)

7 THE COURT: You may be seated. The members
8 of the jury panel have now left for the other 9 courtroom and the courtroom is clear.

10 Counsel, I would ask, this is our last 11 time on the record for today, I would ask you to 12 stop back in chambers after we're done, just so 13 we can clarify the agenda for the pre-trial on 14 Friday.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, can I make one 16 question here?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: It didn't occur to me
19 when you read it the first time and as I listened 20 this time; do the jurors know that they will not be 21 sequestered for the full six weeks?

22 THE COURT: Well, they haven't been told 23 that they would be sequestered. They haven't been 24 told that they have not been. I suppose we'll have 25 to address that in individual voir dire. I will

Might just be something to be aware of if we get questionnaires where people talk about hardships, that maybe they are thinking it would be a bigger burden than it really will be, since they will be able to go home. Probably should have discussed this earlier, but it just slipped my mind.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you, anything else?

ATTORNEY KRATZ: No.

THE COURT: Very well, we're off the record for today.

WITNESSES	PAGE
SHERIFF GERALD PAGEL
Direct Examination by ATTORNEY STRANG	111
Cross-Examination by ATTORNEY KRATZ	137

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery, Case No. 05 CF
3 381. We're here today for a final pre-trial
4 conference in this matter. Will the parties state
5 their appearances for the record, please.

6 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Your Honor, the State
7 appears by Calumet County District Attorney, Ken
8 Kratz appearing as Special Prosecutor. Also 9 appearing as Special Prosecutors include Tom Fallon 10 from the Department of Justice and Norm Gahn from 11 the Milwaukee District Attorney's Office.

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: Good afternoon. Steven
13 Avery appears in person. Jerome F. Buting of Buting 14 and Williams represents him, as does Dean Strang of 15 Hurley, Burish and Stanton.

16 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, I'm sorry, before 17 we proceed with our agenda this afternoon, I had 18 alerted the Court that I was going to make a 19 technical change to the Information. That's been 20 done to a four count Information as represented on 21 Monday. I am prepared to file that original with 22 the Court. Mr. Strang has already received a copy.

23 THE COURT: Very well, you may give the 24 Clerk the original at this time.

25 There are a number of items for the

1 Court to address today. The first one I have on 2 the list is the State's motion for release of 3 blood vial evidence and blood spot cards for 4 scientific testing. Who's going to be speaking 5 on behalf of the State?

6 ATTORNEY GAHN: I will, your Honor.

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: Your Honor, if I may,
8 before we get to that, the defense acknowledges 9 receipt of the second Amended Information. Because 10 actual objections to a jurisdictional and otherwise 11 have been raised, I preserve those. We appear 12 specially, to that extent, not waiving objections to 13 the second Amended Information, but acknowledge 14 receipt of it and waive reading.

15 THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Gahn.

16 ATTORNEY GAHN: Thank you, your Honor. In 17 our motion that we filed we are asking the Court to 18 release the vial of blood that is currently under 19 seal in the Clerk of Court's Office here in 20 Manitowoc County. The defense has filed a response 21 and that response levels allegations that we are 22 trying to try this case by ambush, or at the 23 minimum, trying to be cute --

24 THE COURT: All right. Let's stop right 25 there, because if the defense has filed a written

1 response, I don't have it. When did it come in?

2 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yesterday.

3 THE CLERK: I don't have it.

4 THE COURT: Check with Robbie. Was an 5 original filed with the Clerk?

6 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes.

7 THE COURT: The clerk is indicating she 8 doesn't have it.

9 ATTORNEY BUTING: I have a copy, and with 10 the attached exhibits. We faxed that, it says it 11 was received.

12 THE COURT: All right. At any rate, I have 13 a copy at this time. And I trust, Mr. Gahn, from 14 your comments, that the State has a copy.

15 ATTORNEY GAHN: I'm sorry, please, your 16 Honor?

17 THE COURT: I trust from your comments, 18 since you made response to the defendant's response, 19 that you have a copy?

20 ATTORNEY GAHN: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. I now have one, so 22 you may proceed.

23 ATTORNEY BUTING: Do you want to take a 24 moment, your Honor, and read it first before we 25 proceed.

1 THE COURT: Just a minute. All right. I
2 have a copy of this document, but I didn't 3 understand that this document referred to the blood 4 vial evidence.

5 ATTORNEY BUTING: Did I give you the wrong
6 one? I gave you the wrong one.

7 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Gahn, you may 8 proceed.

9 ATTORNEY GAHN: Thank you, your Honor. I
10 would like to just recap a little bit the chronology 11 of events and what brings us here today. On 12 December 6, we were notified that this vial of blood 13 existed in the Clerk of Court's Office. And on 14 January 3rd, we filed our motion to exclude blood 15 vial evidence, or in the alternative, would the 16 Court grant continuance for us, to allow us to test 17 that vial of blood.

18 By written decision and order on 19 January 9th, this Court denied our motion for the 20 continuance to test the vial and reserved ruling 21 on our motion to exclude the blood vial evidence.

22 The following day, on January 10th, I 23 was informed by law enforcement officers who were 24 involved in this case that they had received a 25 call from the U.S. Attorney's Office. And the

1 U.S. Attorney's Office had expressed concern over 2 the decision not allowing us time to test this 3 vial, and offered their services, shall we say 4 their pull, or whatever, to expedite testing that 5 we would like to see done with the resources 6 available to them, namely the Federal Bureau of 7 Investigation.

8 At that time, we made the decision that 9 we would like to see what your ruling was,
10 because we felt that we had a rather compelling 11 and powerful argument for the Court to rule that 12 the blood vial does not come in. And so we 13 waited for your decision on that, on that issue.

14 And we also felt that we were in a good 15 position and felt that that decision was likely 16 because the Court had granted a continue -- 17 denied our motion for continuance. In any event, 18 the decision came down last Tuesday and the Court 19 has decided that the evidence of the blood vial 20 is going to come in in this trial.

21 The Court ruled that although we found 22 the probative value rather low for this evidence, 23 I think the Court based its decision upon the 24 Sixth Amendment right of the defendant to present
25 a defense, and we understand that. But the Court

1 also noted in its decision that the Court would 2 entertain any request, by the State, to test that 3 blood, should we wish to pursue that. And that 4 is precisely why we're here today. We're going 5 to ask you, your Honor, to unseal that blood and 6 we would like to send that off for chemical 7 testing, or what other test that we deem 8 appropriate.

9 Some of them, it's difficult to say how 10 we want to test it, because we don't know the 11 condition of the blood yet. And until that blood 12 is examined and just determine what shape it is 13 in, that will determine what test we will pursue.

14 But we will be able to pursue the 15 testing for EDTA, which we originally asked the 16 Court to give us the continuance. And we are 17 told that the FBI will have that testing
18 completed before the close of this trial. I 19 think that speaks to the vast difference in 20 influence that an Assistant District Attorney 21 from Milwaukee County has with the FBI Lab and 22 the U.S. Attorney. But we're told that that can 23 be accomplished.

24 I would ask the Court to reconsider the 25 thoughts that the Court put down in its decision

1 about the Cooper case. There are some vast 2 differences with the situation that we have and 3 that Cooper case. And I would ask the Court to 4 recall that in my argument I thought that I laid 5 out those differences well, I thought.

6 The Cooper decision was brought by the 7 defense. It was a post-conviction hearing. And 8 up until now, I don't know, I could not find a 9 decision where the State brought a request for 10 EDTA testing. It's generally brought by the 11 defense. And in that case, they simply had stain 12 samples. And the individual, the person, the lab 13 that tested those was claiming that just the mere 14 presence of EDTA in the sample, therefore, 15 indicates it came from a vial of blood with EDTA.

16 I agree that there were some stretches
17 made by the defense in the Cooper case. But this 18 case is different. We have standards to compare 19 to the EDTA levels, if there are any, in Teresa 20 Halbach's SUV. We have the vial itself and we 21 also have standards that are at Laboratory
22 Corporation of America.

23 And this makes this a vastly, vastly 24 different situation than what the Cooper case 25 presented. And I believe that the testing that

1 would be done in this case, we would clearly,
2 clearly meet the Walstad standard here and that 3 whatever issues the defense has would go to the 4 weight of the evidence and not to the 5 admissibility. Because even a reading of the 6 Cooper case, all the experts agree that the 7 underlying scientific principles, the ability to 8 test substances for the presence of various 9 chemicals, is well established and has been for 10 many, many years.

11 We believe that it is critical that we 12 be given the opportunity to test this vial of 13 blood and present those results at trial. I 14 believe that the testing that we will be able to 15 accomplish before the trial is over will clearly 16 show that the blood in Teresa Halbach's SUV did 17 not come from this vial of blood that is in 18 this -- in this building.

19 Now, the defense does not like the case
20 of State v. Konkol, but unfortunately for them, 21 it's the law. We have the right to meet their 22 defense in rebuttal and we really don't have to 23 tell them how we're going to do it, but we're 24 telling them today how we're going to do it. And 25 they take their chances, if they are going to go

1 down this planting defense, at their peril.

2 The defendant's response to our motion
3 for access to the blood vial evidence, in a way, 4 I think strongly supports our position, that we 5 be given the opportunity to conduct the 6 scientific testing. If the Court would look on 7 Page 6, Paragraph 4 of their response, the 8 defense intends to use the vial as an exhibit and 9 to bring it into the courtroom. And they state 10 that they want to have it as an exhibit in court 11 and display this and any alteration of the 12 condition of the vial.

13 They talk about the amount of liquid, 14 the condition of the top, in order to demonstrate 15 the viability of the defense that the vial was 16 tampered with by officers. And then they state 17 directly, or through agents -- What concerns me 18 here, is that this is flying right in the face of 19 your decision to allow the blood vial in. But 20 you did place limitations on how far they can go 21 with this planting frame-up defense.

22 Who are the agents of these officers
23 they are talking about? And it seems that we are 24 now back with bailiffs in this courtroom, clerks, 25 anyone who works in the Manitowoc County Clerk of 1 Court's Office, maintenance personnel, anyone who 2 had a key to that office, anyone who had the 3 combination to the door that you -- second door 4 that you get in. All of these people now seem to 5 be -- could they have been the agents of one of 6 these deputy sheriffs.

7 Furthermore, to bring this vial into 8 court and show it to the jury, to show the amount 9 of liquid, the condition of the top, you are now 10 again -- this seems to fly in the face of what 11 your court order was in your decision to place
12 limitations. Do we now have to call the North 13 Carolina people to see how they put the stopper 14 on; the nurse; the phlebotomist who pulled -- 15 that took the blood out into this vial, into this 16 vacutainer; is that why the hole is in the purple 17 top.

18 The information and the exhibits to the 19 defendant's initial motion to seal this evidence 20 indicates that the box was crushed in transit.
21 Did that cause, perhaps, the stopper of the tube 22 to be dislodged ever so slightly? These are just 23 questions that we are going to be going off on, 24 that I believe was not the intent of the Court 25 when it rendered its decision.

1 But more importantly, if they are 2 allowed to bring this vial into the courtroom and 3 start discussing quantity, how much is in it, 4 whether the stopper tube has been tampered with,
5 or whether there's been a breach by a needle
6 through the top, you are getting into, now, 7 scientific matters.

8 And you are going to be looking at, the 9 jurors, the color that's there, the viscosity of 10 blood. There are so many, now we're getting into 11 areas that it cries out for chemical testing. If 12 this is what their intention to do, they are 13 basically bringing in science into the courtroom, 14 about that vial of blood, and that is not 15 correct. This can only be answered by testing 16 this vial of blood.

17 Giving us the opportunity to test it and 18 show the defense, and show the world, what this 19 defense is, that these officers would plant blood 20 in Teresa Halbach's car, we have to have that 21 opportunity. The minute they bring that vial in, 22 we have to have had been given the opportunity to 23 test it, your Honor.

24 I'm concerned for the Halbach family and 25 Teresa Halbach, that they get the trial that they

1 deserve. But also, just as importantly, I know
2 from 22 years experience as an Assistant District
3 Attorney, and 10 years in law enforcement with 4 the Criminal Investigation Division of the United 5 States Army, I always know that there is always a 6 sort of a -- can be a tension between the police 7 and the prosecutors.

8 But the relationship we have is embraced 9 by each other. And when two officers are accused 10 of what they are being accused of, for the last 11 week these two deputy sheriffs have been on the 12 broadcast news, and on the print media, and 13 painted as if they could do something like this.

14 And as a prosecutor, we have a 15 responsibility to do everything we can to also 16 restore their good names. These deputy sheriffs 17 have protected this community. They put their 18 lives on the line. They get into situations that 19 none of us want to deal with in life.

20 They are both good solid decent family
21 men. They are kind men. They are gentlemen.
22 I'm sure everyone in this room knows them. They 23 deserve to have their reputations protected. And 24 we can best do that by allowing us the 25 opportunity to test that vial of blood and

1 show -- and show the world that the blood that is 2 in Teresa Halbach's car did not come from this 3 vial of blood.

4 In the Wisconsin case of State v.
5 Migliorino, 489 NW 2nd, 678, they quote from the 6 United States Supreme Court. And they state
7 that, absent a constitutional provision statute 8 or evidentiary rule to the contrary, the law is 9 entitled to every person's evidence.

10 As former Chief Justice Warren Burger
11 emphasized, for a unanimous Supreme Court, the 12 need to develop all relevant facts in the 13 adversary system is both fundamental and 14 comprehensive. The ends of criminal justice 15 would be defeated if judgments were to be founded 16 on a partial or speculative presentation of the 17 facts.

18 The very integrity of the judicial 19 system and public confidence in the system depend 20 on full disclosure of all the facts within the 21 framework of the rules of evidence to ensure that 22 justice is done. It is imperative to the 23 function of courts that compulsory process be 24 available for the production of evidence needed 25 by either the prosecution or by the defense. And

1 that's in United States v. Nixon, 418 U.S., 683, 2 1974 decision.

3 And a few years later, in United States
4 v. Robinson, at 485 U.S. 25, 1988, the Supreme 5 Court stated, The central purpose of a criminal 6 trial is to decide the factual question of the 7 defendant's guilt or innocence. To this end, it 8 is important that both the defendant and the 9 prosecutor have the opportunity to meet, fairly, 10 the evidence and arguments of one another. And 11 for us to meet, fairly, the allegation that these 12 two deputy sheriffs, these sworn officers who 13 have taken an oath of office, would do something 14 so despicable, and so criminal, necessitates us 15 to have the opportunity to show how uncorrect, 16 and untrue, and vile that allegation is. That's 17 all I have, Judge, thank you.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

19 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, Judge, it seems to 20 me we're having nothing more than a rehash of the 21 State's previous motion, which this Court considered 22 thoroughly and denied for good reason. We object to 23 any testing at this time, other than fingerprint 24 testing. We say that we have no objection to the 25 State bringing in some fingerprint analyst to

1 examine the vial, as it is, in the Clerk's Office.
2 But we do object, as I say in my response, at this 3 late 11th hour, to any opening of the vial and doing 4 tests on the vial of blood itself.

5 If this motion had been filed long a 6 ago, it may be different. But one thing that 7 Mr. Gahn left out of his chronology here, they 8 were notified, by the way, December 6th, that was 9 two months before trial, that this blood existed.
10 And no motion was forthcoming at that time. No 11 EDT motions forthcoming.

12 And I'm not usually in the habit of 13 reading people's emails in Court, but it wasn't 14 one sent to me, in any event. So I think the 15 Court needs to recognize, that in the Crime Lab 16 records is an email dated almost one year ago, 17 February 6th of 2006, to the Crime Lab analyst.

18 And at that time, a year ago, this email 19 demonstrates the State was aware of and 20 considering the possibility of EDTA tests. It 21 says, quote, "Norm agreed that the bloodstains
22 (or a couple anyway) should be tested for EDTA 23 preservative to deflect the absurd suggestion
24 that cops are carrying around vials of blood. I 25 know your lab doesn't or can't test for it, but

1 Norm suggests the Lab of Hygiene might. Do you 2 think that's a good idea, or should we go to a 3 private lab?

4 One year ago they knew about this 5 potential EDTA test. And I don't have the answer 6 to that particular email, but the answer is, that 7 they didn't do it. And they didn't test it 8 because they were afraid they would find EDTA in 9 the stains in the RAV-4, and that the defense 10 would have another argument that this was planted 11 evidence. That's what's going on here, Judge.

12 Just to make clear, Judge, this email I 13 am referring to was in discovery. So it wasn't 14 -- I received it legitimately. If the Court 15 wants to see that paragraph, or the whole email 16 is fine. But the point being here is that this 17 has been a strategy, a -- a game of sorts, that 18 the State has been playing, gambling that things 19 would turn out the way they want, rather than 20 doing the test.

21 Now that they have lost, they are trying 22 to come back and do something, again. They are 23 trying to reverse it. That's evident from 24 Mr. Gahn's own comments.

25 December 6 is when they were notified,

1 officially, that there was a blood vial in the 2 Clerk's office. No motion was made at that time.
3 They wait a month, to January 4th, before they 4 move to exclude it, or to continue the trial for 5 testing. Now, he's telling us, for the first 6 time, that when we were last discussing this, the 7 Court and counsel for the defense were told that 8 the FBI would take about three months, or four 9 months, or whatever it was going to be, to retool 10 and be able to do this test, because they do not 11 even do EDTA tests anymore.

12 They stopped doing them because they are 13 not reliable. They haven't done them since the 14 O.J. Simpson trial 10 years ago. They were going 15 to have to recalibrate their entire chemical lab 16 in order to be able to even do these tests for 17 this one case. Why? Because now the State is 18 desperate. So, now we hear, though, on 19 January 10th, that Mr. Gahn was told, oh, the 20 U.S. Attorney is involved. U.S. Attorney's 21 Office now says they are going to get the FBI to 22 be able to do it.

23 Well, did we have a motion on 24 January 10th? No. Did we have a motion on the 25 11th, the 12th, or any of the succeeding days?

1 No. Because they gambled, they took a gamble
2 that you were going to exclude the blood vial
3 evidence and they lost. They took a chance. It 4 was a strategic decision the State made. And 5 everyone has got to live with it.

6 At this point, we have got jurors who 7 have been on the verge of being selected. We 8 have got everything ready for trial to begin on 9 Monday. And this trial cannot begin on Monday if 10 there are going to be any tests. Because as I 11 point out, State vs. Wold, the Supreme Court 12 decision, in my motion, it is very clear that if 13 scientific tests are to be done, the other side 14 has a right to its own sequential tests, 15 surrebuttal tests.

16 On Page 4 of my motion, I quote from 17 Wold, W-o-l-d, The need for full and fair 18 disclosure is especially apparent with respect to 19 scientific proof and the testimony of experts.
20 This sort of evidence is practically impossible 21 for an adversary to test or rebut at trial, 22 without an advance opportunity to examine it 23 closely.

24 We have a -- We would have a surrebuttal
25 right to present our own evidence debunking

1 whatever the FBI comes up with here. Because as 2 Mr. Gahn points out, every single reported case 3 where EDTA has been tried -- has been offered as 4 evidence, has been the defense doing it. And the 5 State has presented witness after witness, expert 6 witnesses, to say that it is not reliable and it 7 should not even be admissible and they have 8 debunked it.

9 Now, all those witnesses we would have a 10 right to bring into this court and rebut whatever 11 they would come up with, but we can't do that 12 now. It's too late. Because they took a gamble 13 and lost.

14 As I understand it, this EDTA test is 15 the only thing they are asking for now. And the 16 Court has ruled on that. And there's no way at 17 this point the Court can reverse that without 18 postponing the trial, which we object to.

19 Mr. Avery is in custody. He has a right 20 to proceed. And he should not be punished or 21 prejudiced because of some strategy, failed 22 strategy, foolish strategy perhaps, in hindsight, 23 but certainly a presumptuous one, to presume that 24 this Court was going to rule in their favor and 25 exclude it in the first place.

1 Especially when we see now, that a full 2 year ago, they knew that this was going to be an 3 issue. They knew from the very beginning when he 4 said it was planted. They have had plenty of 5 time. This email proves that in February they 6 were talking about doing these tests a year ago, 7 and chose, deliberately chose, not to do that.

8 So if these officers have to sit through 9 a proceeding or news -- news reports that somehow 10 make them seem vile, I think was the term, 11 whatever, so be it. That's the strategy that the 12 State took. That's the path that they took.
13 That's where this trial is going.

14 And it's a jury who is going to decide 15 if they are good and decent people, solid decent 16 people, or not. The jury who hears the evidence 17 as to -- that shows what they did or didn't do in 18 this case, will make that decision.

19 They want to show the world that this 20 blood in the RAV did not come from the vial.
21 That's absurd. They call the defense absurd. If 22 they were able to do that, we would have been 23 hearing about this long before today.

24 Still, after two months, they have not 25 been able to present the Court with one single,

1 scientifically valid, reliable test that could be 2 done at this point, on the vial of blood, that 3 would somehow prove what they would love it to 4 prove. It doesn't -- There are no tests.

5 There will be EDTA in the stains in the 6 RAV. There will be EDTA in the blood tube.
7 There will be EDTA in the RAV because, according 8 to the State's experts in every other case, EDTA 9 is a common chemical that is found in the 10 environment, especially in cleaning products, 11 Armor All, automobile type products. It's there.

12 So there are no tests, that I have 13 heard, either before court or in court, or from 14 Mr. Gahn, there are no tests that are going to 15 prove what they want it to prove. That is, 16 somehow -- it's not like they are going to be 17 able to do some perfect fingerprint or DNA type 18 of test and say this came from the vial, this 19 couldn't have come from the vial.

20 For them now to wait. The Konkol case, 21 let me just talk about that for a minute. Konkol
22 says that the State can, in rebuttal, they can 23 use an expert. That case was an OWI case where 24 the State presented, in rebuttal, a blood alcohol 25 absorption expert, to rebut the defense that was

1 presented, which is, I couldn't have been a .12
2 because I only had one drink. And several other 3 witnesses were presented, said we saw him, he 4 only had one drink.

5 The defense objected when this witness
6 came in in rebuttal, saying this witness wasn't 7 on the witness list. Konkol examined the statute 8 that requires disclosure of witnesses. It's 9 971.23 (1)(d). That's all Konkol did. And that 10 does specifically say that there is an exception 11 for rebuttal or impeachment witnesses.

12 This is entirely different. This 13 request falls under (5) of 971.23, which would be 14 a motion for scientific testing. And as I think 15 the case law is clear, that motion could have 16 been made earlier and we would have had no reason 17 to object, or no right to object, because then 18 there would have been time for sequential 19 testing, for the defense to have a lab of its 20 choosing, probably to call one of the State's 21 former prosecution witnesses in many of these 22 other cases, to say, this EDTA stuff is voodoo 23 science, you can't prove anything. Yeah, we can 24 test for EDTA, but it doesn't tell us anything.
25 It can't prove one way or the other.

1 And now we can't do that if they are 2 allowed to start testing now and suddenly spring 3 it on us in the middle of a trial. It would 4 require -- I just point out to the Court, look at 5 that Cooper case. Look at how long, how many 6 hearings they had, how many evidentiary lengthy 7 hearings with experts and battles of experts that 8 court had on that one issue.

9 That's what we would be looking at here
10 if we go through this trial, suddenly they bring 11 up some test and they want to argue that it 12 somehow proves one thing, when other experts will 13 say, no, it doesn't. And we're going to have to 14 take a -- we're going to have to postpone the 15 trial, send the jurors home, and come back in a 16 few months. It's just -- it's impossible.

17 And I point out in 971.23 (5), unlike 18 the witness list statute, which does make an 19 exception for rebuttal or impeachment witnesses, 20 there is no such exception in (5). It doesn't 21 say that you can present these in rebuttal, or 22 you can hold off and put in tests in rebuttal, 23 you know, in the middle of a trial.

24 And, clearly, when you look at Wold and 25 you see, it's just common sense that the other

1 side has a right to respond. And when you are 2 talking about scientific tests you can't just 3 suddenly, after five weeks of trial, or six weeks 4 of trial, find an expert who is going to come in, 5 look at this, test it, and be available to rebut
6 it. It's just too late.

7 And not only is it too late, the State
8 has still, and this is very important, it's not 9 like something is being -- going to be kept from 10 the world, or something is going to be kept from 11 the jury that would otherwise answer this 12 question. There is no test that will prove 13 whether this -- If there was a test that would 14 prove it, I would have asked for it. Because 15 then I believe it would show that the blood in 16 the vial is the same blood that is in the RAV-4.

17 But I have done the research and 18 Mr. Gahn has done the research too. And there 19 are no tests that will prove that and that's why 20 we haven't heard of any yet. So we're not 21 holding anything back from the world or the jury 22 by not doing these tests.

23 Mr. Gahn points out Migliorino and talks 24 about how the law is entitled to every person's 25 evidence. And I think Nixon, United States vs.

1 Nixon, talks about that as well, but there are 2 limits, of course. If the law -- If either side 3 was allowed to present whatever evidence they 4 want, then we would be presenting evidence at the 5 trial of other suspects that could have committed 6 this crime. A number of them, we could have 7 presented evidence of.

8 Instead, we have to go to trial and we 9 can't answer -- or we can't answer the questions 10 of the jury, who did it if he didn't. We tried.
11 We offered a number of witnesses, but this Court 12 ruled, under the law, as it was entitled to, that 13 that evidence should not come in, similarly here.

14 Not every piece of evidence that either 15 side wants, gets to come in. There are limits on 16 it. And this Court has ruled on them already in 17 this case. To do otherwise, now, would 18 jeopardize a mistrial, having to retry this case
19 all over, and simply because the State took a 20 gamble and lost.

21 So, for all those reasons, I move to -- 22 the Court to deny this motion, with one 23 exception, that we have no objection to being 24 able to present fingerprints -- a fingerprint 25 test to the jury, whatever. I'm assuming that

1 can be done in a way that won't alter the vial.
2 They have Super Glue type things, that are more
3 or less invisible, that won't detract from it.
4 But we have a right to present this blood vial to 5 the jury so that they can see it in the condition
6 that it is, and then draw whatever reasonable 7 inferences there are from that evidence. Thank 8 you.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Gahn.

10 ATTORNEY GAHN: Very briefly, your Honor.
11 I'm sorry, very briefly, your Honor. The timing was 12 perfect in this case by the defense. They knew 13 about this vial of blood at least in July, last 14 July. And, of course, Mr. Avery knew about it on 15 January 2nd of 1996, when the vial of blood was 16 drawn from his arm in the prison system. So I 17 suspect they have known about this from the very, 18 very beginning.

19 They waited until December 6 to put this 20 on us. It wasn't until the following week, I 21 believe the 14th, that we actually all went and 22 looked and actually determined that there was a 23 vial of blood in the Clerk of Court's Office.

24 And as I explained to the Court, too,
25 there's no games here. This is too serious of a

1 case. We don't play games here. To get the 2 answers -- get the answers to the questions that 3 I had, over that Christmas holiday period, was 4 difficult, the professors at the universities, 5 the science departments, the laboratories, and it
6 wasn't until when I brought the motion on January 7 3rd that we had the information that we felt was 8 important to us and that we felt comfortable and 9 confident that we would be able to present very 10 valid reliable scientific evidence to this court.

11 As far as the email goes and that we 12 knew about a year ago, yes, we did talk about it 13 but the decision was made, and the very 14 reasonable decision was made, as is shown in the 15 Cooper case. We didn't know there was a vial of 16 blood in existence. And to test the stains in 17 the SUV, we knew about how ubiquitous in nature 18 the EDTA is. And it probably wouldn't have been 19 helpful or wouldn't have told us anything. And 20 that's the difference between all the cases and 21 the facts we have here.

22 Yes, the FBI does not routinely do this 23 test, because it's rarely, if ever, asked for by 24 the State. This is a defense motion that they 25 want to bring in. But here we have standards to

1 compare it to. Certainly it isn't like a DNA
2 test, but in principle it is like DNA.

3 You can have the bloodstains in the car, 4 but it doesn't tell you anything unless you have 5 a standard to compare them to. And we have blood 6 stains in this car here and we have ED -- we have 7 a vial of blood that is a standard. In a North 8 Carolina, at the lab, there is a standard that 9 makes this just a vastly different case.

10 I don't understand why they are so 11 afraid of this testing. If their theory of 12 defense is correct, I would think that they would 13 also embrace this and welcome it. Don't they 14 want to know whether the blood in the car came 15 from the vial of blood.

16 Your Honor, I believe that this case is 17 so different that we will meet the Walstad 18 requirements in an admissibility hearing. The 19 Court has indicated, I believe all along, that 20 it's willing to release that evidence to parties 21 if they wish to test it. I think that the 22 decisions that we made are reasonable. They make 23 sense.

24 And now that we know that this testing
25 can be done and accomplished in the time frame

1 that I was told it could not be, but for the 2 assistance of the U.S. attorney, the problem is 3 that once that vial of blood is brought into the 4 courtroom, and jurors are being told questions, 5 or to look at the vial, and look at the color, 6 and look at the amount that's in there, that's 7 still in liquid form, look at the top, look at 8 the stopper; you are now getting into areas of 9 science and you are going to be -- and without 10 having answers and science, the jurors will be 11 forced to widely speculate.

12 How much was in there? How much was 13 used at Laboratory Corporation of America? How 14 much was there in the SUV? Is there more blood?
15 It just cries out for us to have that opportunity 16 to test it and to answer all these questions, 17 once and for all, put it to rest.

18 And, again, we will preserve one half of 19 that, whatever is in that tube. They can do 20 testing concurrently. And this belief that, oh, 21 they can't do anything about it now until they 22 see our results, is not true. They know the 23 exact same experts that were called in the Cooper
24 case.

25 And I think everyone, and the Court read

1 the case, all the scientists that were called 2 agreed on the underlying scientific 3 underpinnings, the instrumentation, and the 4 ability of the scientific chemistry labs,
5 toxicology labs, whatever they are, to test for a 6 particular substance using the instrumentation 7 that they have now.

8 The only question is, the interpretation 9 of the data. They know who those experts are 10 now. They can line someone up, the very second 11 that the data comes off to us from the FBI can be 12 shipped to them and they are ready to -- They can 13 move on this. They don't have to wait to see it 14 and then look for an expert. They can find one 15 right now. And if they want to do their own 16 testing, whatever that may be, they can also do 17 it right now.

18 So I would ask the Court, as I said, I 19 believe the Court has indicated all along its 20 willingness to allow this testing. And I think 21 that the most important thing here for the Court 22 to recognize is that once that vial is brought 23 into the courtroom and it's talked about in a 24 scientific fashion, we must, we must have the 25 opportunity to answer those scientific questions.

1 And, again, I just cannot, cannot emphasize too
2 much asking you to give us the chance to restore 3 the reputations of these fine deputy sheriffs.
4 That's all I have. Thank you so much.

5 THE COURT: All right.

6 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, I just have a --

7 THE COURT: Go ahead.

8 ATTORNEY BUTING: -- response to that. Not 9 a big response. We have still not heard from 10 anybody, any expert, that will say that such a test 11 exists that can restore the reputation of these 12 officers or whatever. This is -- Mr. Gahn is being 13 disingenuous if he is comparing this in any way to 14 DNA where you can look at one, look at the other, 15 and say, yes, there is a match.

16 There is no such test. If there was 17 such a test, we would have heard about it 18 already. We would have had something presented.
19 We would have an expert here today who would be 20 opining, yes, we can do that. But we haven't 21 heard anything. We're just hearing these wild 22 assumptions that maybe there might be such a
23 thing.

24 The -- They ask, don't we want to know, 25 wouldn't we like to know if there was? Well, we

1 already know from all the experts we have talked 2 to, that there is no such test that can do that 3 comparison. But if they want us to know so much, 4 then let Mr. Avery out on bail. He's the one who 5 is sitting in solitary confinement for 15 months 6 while they made a choice not to test earlier, 7 when they could have. It's too late to do that 8 now without postponing the whole trial.

9 The argument that we can do concurrent
10 tests is totally disingenuous because Mr. Gahn 11 knows, as the Court knows, there are no other 12 labs that do this that are reliable or -- other 13 than the one that was -- reputation has been 14 battered in two cases, including the Cooper case.

15 There, frankly, are no labs to do it at 16 all, not even the FBI, until right now, for this 17 one test. So how are we going to go find someone 18 else to do it. We would have to go outside the 19 country somewhere, assuming there is even anybody 20 else anywhere who does. We can't do that.

21 The Court indicated a willingness to 22 entertain some sort of testing. But I don't 23 think the Court entertained a willingness to 24 reconsider the whole issue of whether we should 25 allow an EDTA tests. If there was some sort of 1 easily done type of test, that wouldn't delay the 2 proceedings, that's what I understood the Court's 3 willingness to do. And that's what we would have 4 been willing to do two months ago, if there was 5 any such test.

6 I haven't found any. Mr. Gahn hasn't 7 found any. There are none. The answer is going 8 to have to be left up to the jury in this case, 9 as to whether it came -- whether the stains came 10 from the vial or not. And nothing that could be 11 done before, probably nothing even after, is 12 going to answer that question, one way or the 13 other. And I think that's all. Thank you.

14 THE COURT: All right. Well, based on the 15 developments as they have been presented to the 16 Court over the last few weeks, it's obvious that 17 both parties regard the blood vial evidence, as it's 18 been referred to, as important in this case. The 19 information provided to the Court, although there 20 hasn't been an evidentiary hearing on the matter, is 21 that the defense had some knowledge of the existence 22 of the blood vial in the Clerk's Office last July.
23 And the State indicates it was not notified of the 24 existence of the vial until early December.

25 Given the relatively late notice to the

1 State, first of all, I'm not aware of anything 2 that I would characterize as undue delay on the 3 part of the State. From all indications, they 4 were surprised to learn of the existence of the 5 vial, and EDTA testing is not something that is 6 as standardized even as DNA testing, to the 7 extent you can call DNA testing standardized.
8 That's also a development of recent years.

9 Ultimately, criminal trials are all 10 about a search for truth. And at this point in 11 the game, the Court is not being asked to 12 determine whether any test results from the blood 13 in the vial are admissible, but simply whether or 14 not the State should be given the opportunity to 15 attempt to test the blood in the vial in order to 16 determine if there is admissible evidence that 17 will assist the jury. I think that it's only 18 fair in this case to permit the State to be given 19 an opportunity to do that.

20 If there is probative evidence that can 21 be derived from testing the blood in the vial, I 22 think it's important to both parties that such 23 evidence be presented to the jury, regardless of 24 which party the evidence supports. So I am going 25 to grant the State's motion to have access to the 1 blood vial evidence for testing.

2 In the course of the arguments from the 3 parties, there were a couple of things that 4 became apparent to the Court. First of all, the 5 defense has a legitimate interest in determining 6 any -- the existence of any fingerprint evidence 7 on the vial. And the vial will have to be 8 secured in order to test for fingerprint
9 evidence, before any blood is withdrawn to do a 10 blood sample.

11 I also believe that the defense should 12 have the right to have the sample split, in the 13 event the defense finds a lab that can do EDTA
14 testing, or any other testing that the defense 15 may feel is meaningful in this case, so that they 16 have an opportunity to conduct that testing.

17 The Court, in it's previous ruling, 18 refusing to continue the trial, commented on the 19 difficulties expressed in the Cooper case with 20 determining the significance of levels of EDTA in 21 blood. But the Cooper case didn't address the 22 question of comparability. In this case, it's 23 alleged, as part of the defense, as I understand 24 it, that the blood in the victim's vehicle may 25 have come from the vial in the Clerk's Office.

1 And the Court is not prepared to say,
2 and has been presented with no evidence to 3 suggest that there may not be a meaningful 4 comparison of EDTA levels in the blood vial and 5 EDTA levels in the blood found in the victim's 6 vehicle. So I think at least the potential here 7 exists for admissible evidence.

8 And until testing is done, the Court 9 simply isn't in a position to rule on it's 10 eventual admissibility. The only thing the Court 11 knows for sure is that if I deny access to the 12 blood vial at this time the Court would never 13 have a chance to consider such evidence. So I'm 14 going to grant the State's motion on that basis.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 ATTORNEY BUTING: If the Court is going to 18 do that, then the defense reluctantly moves to 19 postpone this trial, to continue it, because 20 otherwise we are being ambushed here. We will not 21 be able to respond to whatever the State comes up 22 with. It's just impossible, when you think about 23 the undertaking that we have to do between now and 24 the next four or five weeks, the number of 25 witnesses, we're going to be in court all day long.

1 We are not going to be able to respond to whatever 2 it is they come up with. That's what Wold talked 3 about.

4 In fairness to his constitutional right
5 to have a fair trial, there's no way that we can 6 possibly prepare to rebut whatever the State 7 comes up with. Now, it may be that what the 8 State comes up with is favorable to the defense.
9 But we don't know that at this time point, that's 10 the problem.

11 And the only remedy, if the State does 12 dig up some sort of evidence that they think is 13 helpful to them and hurtful to the defense, the 14 only remedy will be to adjourn the trial at that 15 point. And with this kind of a trial, we can't 16 do that. We will have taken a months worth of 17 testimony and then we will have -- we will be 18 back in front of the Court moving to adjourn.
19 And you will be risking a mistrial and reversal 20 of this case on appeal, because this man wouldn't 21 have a right to rebut whatever the State is 22 doing. It's that simple.

23 THE COURT: Response from the State.

24 ATTORNEY GAHN: Yes, your Honor. Again,
25 they made this tactical and strategic decision last

1 July not to tell us about it and wait until 2 December. This is what their decision was. And 3 this is what Konkol is all about, and what rebuttal 4 evidence and rebuttal testimony is all about.

5 I do take issue with their saying they 6 can't do anything about this. There's plenty 7 they can do. And this Court has read that Cooper
8 decision. We know who the experts are and we 9 know what the issues are. They can prepare right 10 now getting an expert lined up. I have talked to 11 experts who said you can -- once the data comes 12 off from the FBI, send the data. It's not going 13 to take long to look it over and say is this 14 valid or is it not valid. The issues here are 15 the interpretation of the data.

16 No one is going to come in and question 17 the underlying scientific principles here. They 18 can start working on this now, lining someone up, 19 lining up their arguments. And it will be the 20 same type of arguments that were in the Cooper
21 case, the ubiquitousness of this type of a 22 chemical in the community, and society, and the 23 environment. They can start working on that 24 right this moment.

25 And, again, they can take their sample.

1 There are other tests that I believe can be done,
2 that they could do if they wished not to do EDTA
3 testing. Just the fact of, you know, quantifying
4 it, how much is in that vacutainer? How much did 5 Meghan Clement use at Laboratory Corporation of 6 America. There are other things. What is the 7 breakdown? We are looking into things, even the 8 nature of is there an irreversible effect of 9 hemoglobin in the blood, at some point does it 10 turn a different color.

11 These are things that they also, I'm 12 sure, have been looking at and discussing among 13 themselves. So I don't think -- they are not 14 being caught off guard on this. We're giving 15 them an awful lot of information. And I, 16 obviously, will tell the Court the very moment we 17 get this information from the FBI. It will be 18 sent to them, immediately, and as soon as we 19 possibly can. And I will be checking with the 20 FBI on a regular basis and hoping, you know, can 21 we get it, to get it as soon as we possibly can.

22 THE COURT: All right. You know, I'm 23 hearing different things from the parties today. I 24 know in the defense's earlier argument, defense 25 counsel I believe indicated that no one, perhaps, is

1 capable of doing this testing, or no one at least 2 other than the FBI. So, if that would be true, the 3 question could be asked, what would be the benefit
4 of granting an adjournment after the FBI results 5 came in, if nobody else is capable of doing the 6 testing. And it's a little hard for me to accuse 7 the State of ambushing the defense, when the defense
8 knew of the existence of the vial of blood in July, 9 but didn't inform the State until December.

10 Those comments aside, at this point the 11 Court is not ruling on the admissibility of the 12 test results, the Court is simply being asked to 13 give the State an opportunity to do the testing.
14 And given the relatively late stage in the game 15 in which the State acquired knowledge of the 16 blood vial evidence, I believe it's fair to give 17 them a chance to do so and that's what I'm going 18 to do. Mr. Strang.

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, the motion for 20 continuance reluctantly is offered because, in fact, 21 the Court is being asked to do more than give the 22 State an opportunity for testing. Tacitly, but 23 unavoidably, when the question is EDTA testing, the 24 Court also is being asked to deny the defense an 25 opportunity to do independent EDTA testing.

1 It is true, I suppose, that we could go 2 now, if we had -- didn't have a trial to start on 3 Monday, we could go and find experts who would 4 testify in general about the reliability of EDTA 5 testing. We could, in theory, do that, if we 6 weren't starting a trial on Monday.

7 But the Court well knows, and counsel
8 has acknowledged in the hearing in Chilton, to 9 the Court, that there are two labs, and two labs
10 only, in this country, that have ever done EDTA 11 testing. One of them thoroughly discredited in 12 North Carolina, the other the FBI, which 13 apparently is recalibrating and is willing to 14 undertake that now.

15 The only way, as we have discussed
16 before, and as I think this Court's decision 17 recognized, the only way that we could do 18 independent testing, as opposed to bringing in a 19 cat bird to criticize the FBI testing, would be 20 to obtain from the FBI, if it will yield its 21 protocols, obtain the FBI protocols and then try 22 to find a university lab with an analytic chemist
23 who is willing to try to follow the FBI protocol 24 and undertake independent testing, assuming that 25 that university was equipped with the same gas

1 chromatograph or infrared spectrometry machine, 2 or whatever the FBI uses.

3 I have no idea what the protocol is.
4 And, indeed, we were given to understand that the 5 FBI is recertifying and reexamining its own
6 protocol. So there is no way to do defense 7 testing here at a reputable lab, or with 8 reputable scientists, other than sequentially, 9 none.

10 And it is, therefore, a motion to deny
11 the defense a chance to meet, with independent 12 testing, the State's rebuttal offering. And I 13 understand the Court's ruling and the impulse to 14 say, eventually this is going to get tested, so 15 let's have it out, let's thrash it out, it's 16 admissible or it's not, it helps the defense or 17 it helps the State. I understand that.

18 And as I have said from the beginning, 19 if I didn't have a client in custody, I would 20 have joined the motion for adjournment. I'm 21 curious too, and I realize that as a practical 22 matter, some day the blood vial is going to be 23 tested for EDTA. Partitioning the sample is not 24 in itself prejudicial, we have acknowledged that.
25 The testing is going to be done some day.

1 But when it's done during trial, with 2 nothing more than a promise, heard today for the 3 first time that, no, it's not three to four 4 months, we can get the results from the FBI 5 before the end of trial, the necessity here on 6 this test, for sequential testing, means 7 necessarily that we are being denied the 8 opportunity to do independent testing.

9 That's a due process right and a fair 10 trial right that Mr. Avery has. And forced to 11 choose between sitting in jail for another six 12 months, or whatever it is, and a fair trial, 13 forced to that choice, I guess you will take the 14 fair trial and due process. And that's the 15 specific problem here.

16 I'm not worried about fingerprints or 17 viscosity. Once EDTA is the rebuttal point, then 18 the surrebuttal point also is EDTA, and that may 19 require independent testing. And independent 20 testing on these circumstances cannot be done
21 until we have the FBI protocol and an opportunity 22 to find somebody willing to get into that 23 business, who hasn't been discredited as a 24 charlatan and a fraud, as have the people in 25 North Carolina. So, yes, it is a reluctant

1 motion for a continuance, but we don't have a 2 realistic choice.

3 THE COURT: Anyone from the State wish to 4 be heard?

5 ATTORNEY GAHN: This would have been a
6 wonderful conversation to have last August. That's 7 all I have to say.

8 THE COURT: Well, the Court denied the 9 State's motion for a continuance in part because I
10 ruled that if the State had wanted to do EDTA 11 testing on the blood found in the victim's vehicle, 12 it could have been done so earlier. I think the 13 defense is somewhat in the same boat here. If they 14 wanted to do EDTA testing on the blood in the vial, 15 efforts for that could have been started earlier.

16 If it's possible, and I understand the 17 defense may be telling me that there is no other 18 lab, other than the FBI, that does such testing 19 now. And maybe there will be one that does some 20 some day. Maybe it will be one year, maybe it 21 will be two years, maybe it will be five years 22 from now. But I don't think the Court can simply 23 postpone the trial to some point indefinitely in 24 the hopes that some day there may be another lab
25 that can do EDTA testing to double check whatever

1 results the FBI comes up with, if the FBI comes 2 up with any results.

3 So, as I indicated, I'm not going to 4 preclude the State from taking a chance at 5 attempting to test the blood in the vial, simply 6 because of possibilities that may or may never 7 come about.

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: Your Honor, again, I
9 don't have access to the FBI lab. I couldn't get 10 going on EDTA testing earlier, couldn't if I wanted 11 to. The defense has no access to the FBI lab. And 12 the FBI is the only organization in this country -- 13 and I don't think Mr. Gahn will disagree with 14 that -- that has a protocol for doing the testing he 15 wants to do.

16 And, you know, the insinuation that we 17 were late overlooks the fact we beat by nine days 18 our deadline for disclosing exactly this type of 19 information. And also overlooks the fact that 20 this was in a public record that anybody in the 21 world and apparently a bunch of different media 22 organizations walked in and looked at from 2003 23 on.

24 So, you know, we really are in a
25 position where we are being denied a fair trial

1 and due process opportunity to do independent
2 testing on the facts that this Court has in front 3 of it here. I don't have a choice but to ask for 4 a continuance and to object throughout here that 5 we haven't had a chance to meet the State's 6 proposed rebuttal.

7 THE COURT: I don't know if the State has 8 weighed in yet on the request for a continuance.
9 Let's do this, I'm going take a 10 minute break, 10 since I don't think that request was known to 11 anybody until now. And then I will hear from the 12 State, if the State wishes to be heard after coming 13 back.

14 ATTORNEY GAHN: Thank you, Judge.

15 (Recess taken.)

16 THE COURT: Does the State wish to be heard 17 on the defense motion for a continuance of the 18 trial?

19 ATTORNEY GAHN: Your Honor, I understand
20 what the defense is saying that, you know, at one 21 point we did ask for a continuance, and we did. But 22 at that time, we were under the impression that the 23 testing that we want done could not be completed in 24 time. And that is why we asked it, and now, with 25 the assistance of the United States Attorney, we are

1 able to get that testing done in sufficient time.

2 I truly believe, and if I felt that 3 there were anything unfair about this I would 4 tell the Court and be candid, but I feel 5 comfortable enough stating that I think they can 6 prepare for this, for this EDTA testing. They 7 know who the experts are. They know who, around 8 the country, where they can go to. I just think 9 that they can adequately prepare for these test 10 results.

11 I will tell the Court I will do
12 everything I can to get whatever materials I can 13 to them early on. I will start making my calls, 14 if not today on Monday. And I will try to get as 15 much material about the FBI and their protocol 16 and their operation and get it to them as soon as 17 I possibly can.

18 But we believe that we are ready for 19 trial. I believe that we owe it to the Halbach 20 family to get this trial going, under way, and 21 complete this trial. So we do not join in any 22 request for any continuance of this matter.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: Perhaps the Court would 25 be kind enough to put one very direct question to

1 Mr. Gahn, who's the acknowledged expert on 2 scientific testing, and EDTA testing in specific 3 here. And that question is this, is Mr. Gahn aware 4 of one credible laboratory that presently, today, 5 can do EDTA testing of the exact sort he proposes to 6 do, other than the FBI.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Gahn.

8 ATTORNEY GAHN: No, your Honor, but I will 9 say this much, they are making it sound like this is 10 something that is so unusual. The FBI doesn't 11 routinely and normally do this, nor does -- first of 12 all, because it's rarely asked for by the State.
13 Also, I suspect private laboratories do not engage 14 in it because there's probably no money in it, 15 because it is so rarely asked for on any occasion.

16 But that doesn't mean that a university 17 research facility, or any other laboratory that 18 has the machinery and instruments or gas 19 chromatograph and all the instruments wanted,
20 cannot ramp up for this test and tool -- retool
21 their equipment. That's my understanding.
22 Someone can. You can analyze any elemental 23 substance. Any chemical, basically, can be 24 analyzed with the instruments at any lab or 25 research facility that a university has. That's 1 my understanding.

2 You know, your Honor, you see cases in 3 the newspaper about someone suspects that someone 4 was poisoned by some unique poison, this one 5 recently in Britain or something. I'm sure that 6 some laboratory had to ramp up and retool or 7 something to test for this specific chemical.
8 This isn't something that's so bizarre or 9 unusual. This is normal, normal chemical 10 substance analysis by any laboratory.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: So this is where the 12 Court finds itself on a continuance, as I understand 13 it. Until an hour ago, all of us were under the 14 understanding, that is the Court and the defense 15 table, were under the understanding, that even the 16 FBI, which has done EDTA quantitation testing in the 17 past, would need three or four months to do it.

18 Now, we're told that before the end of 19 this trial, so presumably sometime between now
20 and the middle of March, through the fortuitous 21 intervention of the United States Attorney in 22 Milwaukee, the FBI can speed up the earlier
23 timeline that all of us were given. I have no 24 statutory right to call on the FBI. Neither can 25 I expect the United States Attorney, or anyone

1 else, to help me find a new lab that has never 2 done this sort of testing, to do it in six weeks, 3 or five weeks, let alone the three to four months
4 that even the FBI initially was saying it needed.

5 There are exactly two lawyers
6 representing Mr. Avery. Both of them will be in 7 Chilton five days a week, beginning on Monday.
8 And the Court also will have to entertain, before 9 we can do any testing, a motion under Ake, A-k-e, 10 vs. Oklahoma, because I expect that it is likely,
11 it seems to me and I have not checked this, I 12 haven't gotten quotes, but where you are asking 13 somebody to spool up, from the start, to do
14 independent testing that they have not done
15 before, once they get FBI protocols, I suspect 16 that the cost of that will be well beyond the 17 cost that my firm can bear. Because this isn't 18 coming out of Mr. Avery's pocket, long ago were 19 his resources exhausted.

20 And so the Court will have that due 21 process consideration under Ake vs. Oklahoma to 22 consider as well. Although, the process of 23 getting quotations and casting about North 24 America for universities that might be willing to 25 get into this business, in theory, could begin,

1 were we not in trial.

2 So that that's where the Court finds 3 itself functionally. We are being denied here to 4 do independent testing on EDTA or its 5 quantitation. I object to that on constitutional
6 grounds, fair trial, and due process. A 7 continuance of some months would remedy that.

8 There's the issue of Mr. Avery's right
9 to a speedy trial and his custodial status.
10 Perhaps that could and should be revisited
11 because it was, after all, the Court's reliance
12 on the new charges in the Amended Information
13 that caused this Court, in large part, as I 14 recall, to raise the bail by $250,000, last 15 spring.

16 And now, of course, the most serious of 17 those three new charges in the Amended
18 Information are no longer. And perhaps what goes 19 around comes around on that, but that's not for 20 today.

21 What is for today is a reluctant request 22 on due process and fair trial grounds, on the 23 record we have made, for a continuance and an 24 opportunity, realistic opportunity, to assess the 25 FBI results, to meet them, to have an evidentiary

1 hearing under Walstad on the admissibility of 2 those results, whether they are favorable or 3 unfavorable to the defense. And to do 4 independent testing as by our best lights, in the 5 defense of Mr. Avery, and in presenting his case, 6 as the Court has allowed it with the contours of 7 its rulings, to a jury, so that he will have a 8 fair trial the first time. And those are the 9 bases for my motion for continuance.

10 THE COURT: Anything else from the State?

11 ATTORNEY GAHN: No, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Well, as I indicated earlier,
13 the Court feels it's getting conflicting messages 14 here about the extent to which anyone, other than 15 the FBI, can do the testing. If it can be done 16 within a matter of a few months, it seems to me the 17 State -- or the defense has known of the existence
18 of the blood vial since last July, and I'm not sure 19 I fully understand at this point why the testing 20 could not be done.

21 It appears that the defense is asking to 22 do the testing in response to whatever results 23 the FBI might come up with, but in any event, the 24 defense did not disclose to the State the 25 existence of the blood vial until early December.

1 With that timeline, the Court finds it unlikely 2 that the results of the FBI testing would have 3 come before today, or at least much before today, 4 soon enough before today to give the defendant an 5 opportunity to do other testing, if it's even 6 possible. And if it is possible, and if the 7 Court splits the samples today, each party would 8 have the same opportunity to have the same amount 9 of time to get test results in.

10 So I am not going to adjourn the trial.
11 I am going to grant the State's motion for access 12 to the blood vial. The one item that I did not 13 address originally, I indicated that the defense 14 could have a split sample of the blood in the 15 vial, that the vial would have to be tested for 16 fingerprints before any analysis of the blood was 17 done. I do not know if the defense at this point 18 has enough photos of the vial to -- for whatever 19 the defense may want to show with respect to the 20 vial as part of its case here.

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: We could use more photos 22 because, of course, the vial, when it's shown to the 23 jury, physically, will be missing, presumably, about 24 half the blood that's in it now. You know, the 25 State, in a cocaine delivery case, doesn't go

1 forward to a jury on photos, it brings in the 2 cocaine. And a felon in possession of a firearm
3 case, the State brings in the gun.

4 We're functionally allowed to bring in 5 only the altered vial to show this jury. We have 6 argued that in the motion -- or in the response 7 that Mr. Buting filed, which again goes to 8 fairness of the trial. The next best alternative 9 is to take good photos showing the current 10 quantity of the blood and video footage, or 11 moving footage, showing that the blood is in a 12 liquid form today.

13 So that would be our alternate request,
14 without abandoning any of the arguments that I 15 have just made, of course. And then there's also 16 the matter of the blood spot cards that the Court 17 has not yet addressed.

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, I just want to 19 clear up the record at one point, because you said 20 you have been getting conflicting messages. What I 21 want to make clear is, whenever we discovered that 22 there may have been a blood vial in the court file, 23 there were no labs, anywhere, that we could find 24 that would test this. So it's not like we made a 25 decision not to test it. Mr. Gahn will concur with

1 that.

2 Because other than this one Ballard Lab, 3 there was no -- which has been totally -- which 4 was considered disreputable by all the reported 5 courts, there were no other labs doing this test, 6 including the FBI. The FBI is only doing this 7 test now because of this case. So I just want to 8 make it clear that this wasn't some strategic 9 decision we made not to do the test, there was 10 nobody we could go to.

11 THE COURT: All right. How can the 12 photographing of the exhibit suggested by the 13 defense be accomplished and still allow the vial to 14 be made available for testing?

15 ATTORNEY GAHN: Well, I do know that they 16 took plenty of photos when we were all together down 17 in the Clerk's Office. Also had a film camera and 18 took moving pictures, also, of the vial and still 19 photographs.

20 Let me just back up a moment and make 21 this suggestion. I would ask the Court to rule 22 that the fingerprinting of the vial, and the 23 styrofoam box, and cardboard box be accomplished.
24 But I would ask the Court to leave that to the 25 discretion, of what order it would be done, with

1 the FBI analyst.

2 The reason is this, I don't want any 3 type of superglue, any type of fuming used that 4 perhaps may interfere with the chemical testing
5 that will be done. It may be prudent and the FBI 6 say, look, we would rather get the blood out of 7 the vial first and would do it all gloved and 8 then to do the fingerprinting, so as not to 9 interfere with the chemical analysis. I don't 10 know the answer to that, but I would ask that 11 your ruling be that fingerprinting be 12 accomplished and the order of it be left to the 13 scientists.

14 THE COURT: The FBI is going to do the 15 fingerprinting?

16 ATTORNEY GAHN: What I was thinking of 17 doing was that the FBI is going to be doing the 18 packaging of the vial for us. I was going to have 19 one of our officers involved in this to be present 20 and take custody, immediately, of the cardboard box 21 and the styrofoam box. And then the actual 22 fingerprinting of the vial, I would ask the FBI to 23 accomplish, you know, when they think it is the 24 better time to do that. And that's how I would like 25 to see the order be.

1 THE COURT: If the defense is allowed on 2 Monday to take whatever photos or video of the vial 3 it wants, you can have it on Monday; would that 4 work?

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: How do we do that?

6 ATTORNEY GAHN: Judge, we'll make it work.
7 We would prefer to take it -- I will tell you this,
8 I will ask the FBI, and I would hope and, I mean, 9 they have never denied other requests before, would 10 they have their photography unit make very, very 11 good still photographs of it for us, that I'm sure 12 would be better than any of us could do. I would 13 ask that be accomplished beforehand, once they get 14 the vial. I will ask that, I don't think they will 15 deny that. If they do, then we'll make other 16 arrangements.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: If I may have a moment 19 with counsel?

20 THE COURT: Go ahead.

21 ATTORNEY GAHN: I have just been informed 22 that we have available video camera that we could 23 make available to them this afternoon and they could 24 take all the pictures they want of the blood vial, 25 this afternoon.

1 THE COURT: I know the defense has some 2 photos already.

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes.

4 THE COURT: I'm not sure what else is --

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: We do have some photos
6 already, not intended at the time to be a 7 replacement for having the physical evidence at 8 trial. This is an exhibit in the custody of the 9 Court and it's now being handed over to a party and 10 the jury won't have it. So that's been the Court's 11 ruling and the next best alternative is to allow us 12 to photograph, with the idea of alternate evidence 13 being offered to the jury, video and still.

14 I object to fingerprint testing being 15 done after this vial has been handled for testing 16 and there's an obvious spoliation problem with 17 destroying or smudging fingerprints that 18 otherwise may be identifiable. But, again, a 19 Court exhibit is being turned over, over our 20 objection, to the other side. And now a course 21 of action is being proposed that presents the 22 real risk of spoliation of fingerprint evidence.

23 THE COURT: Well, what opportunity to 24 photograph or video the exhibit is the defense 25 requesting?

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: Before it goes, we need a
2 chance to photograph it still and videotape it. I'm 3 not sure what video equipment the State has. I'm 4 not opposed to using their video equipment. I know 5 we're in court this afternoon and we're starting a 6 trial on Monday morning so.

7 ATTORNEY GAHN: Is there access to this 8 building on Saturday or Sunday, that they could do
9 it?

10 THE COURT: I'm sure there could be.

11 ATTORNEY GAHN: Could we work that out?

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: Your Honor, look I'm 13 moving from Madison up to trial tomorrow and I'm 14 starting trial on Monday. I'm not anticipating, nor 15 do I have time, resources, or personnel to be 16 arranging for trips to Manitowoc the weekend before 17 a trial.

18 ATTORNEY GAHN: Your Honor, may I just have 19 another suggestion. How about this, how about 20 release it to our representatives here from Calumet
21 County Sheriff's Department and DCI will take it 22 back to Calumet County where they have an office set 23 up and where they will be this weekend and they can 24 do their photographing at the Sheriff's Office in 25 Calumet County this weekend.

1 We won't open it. We'll wait until they 2 are present and they can photograph it from 3 taking it out of the cardboard box and then 4 opening up the styrofoam box and photograph
5 there.

6 THE COURT: Who is going to be doing the 7 photography work for the defense?

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: I have no idea, probably 9 one of the two people here, unless we can get our 10 defense investigator, and I don't know his 11 availability for this tomorrow. I didn't expect 12 this.

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, we would note 14 that there was a extensive video shot on 15 December 14th, so this would be an adjunct or a 16 supplement to previous video and photographs.

17 THE COURT: Well, everybody is going to be 18 back here on Monday, it's perhaps unfair to the 19 defense, if they weren't planning on doing 20 photography today, which they may well not have been 21 doing, so I will give them until the end of Monday 22 to make arrangements to do whatever photographing or 23 videoing of the exhibit they wish and then I will 24 release it -- order it released to the State.

25 ATTORNEY GAHN: Your Honor, would you just,

1 to conform your decision with the written order, 2 that this also includes the spot cards that are in 3 North Carolina?

4 THE COURT: Actually, I haven't heard
5 anything about the spot cards. I don't know if 6 there's an objection to those. I, frankly, don't 7 know what they are because until your motion, I 8 didn't really hear them referred to.

9 ATTORNEY GAHN: When -- If the original 10 testing was done in 1996, my understanding is the 11 blood was drawn from Steven Avery on January 2nd.
12 And on January 4th of 1996, Laboratory Corporation
13 of America received the blood vial in question.
14 They did the initial Innocence Project DNA testing 15 and came up with inconclusive results.

16 As part of their testing protocol, upon 17 receipt of a vial of blood, they open up the 18 vial, and they put it on what are called spot 19 cards. Spot cards preserve the blood sample, as 20 best they can. And that is what they do their 21 testing from, these spot cards. My 22 understanding, there's a number of them.

23 When I talked to the FBI, they thought
24 those would be helpful in interpreting the EDTA
25 data, because here you have samples of that blood

1 vial, which were taken two days afterwards.
2 Presumably Laboratory Corporation of America has 3 maintained them, better than a liquid blood vial 4 sitting in the Clerk of Court's Office. These 5 were maintained in a different setting, and one 6 could see if there's any type of degradation to 7 them and they would be important.

8 THE COURT: So the blood from the cards
9 came from the vial that's downstairs in the Clerk's 10 Office?

11 ATTORNEY GAHN: Yes.

12 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, maybe, I'm 13 misunderstanding the theory here, but if the blood 14 that was in the vial is what was used to plant -- or 15 was planted in the vehicle, then the relevance will 16 be what was the -- what's the EDTA in the vial, not 17 what it was 11 years ago. I don't see how -- how 18 that's going to have any relevance to this test.

19 THE COURT: Well, at this point, given the 20 fact the Court is not an EDTA expert, frankly, I 21 don't know what relevance it has, but I'm not being 22 asked to rule on it's admissibility today, the Court 23 is just being asked to allow the defense to test it.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, no, the State.

25 THE COURT: Or the State, to test it. And

1 I can't think of a reason not to allow that.

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, if you want the 3 defense to be heard, Laboratory Corporation of 4 America was a defense hired consultant in 1996.
5 This was defense testing, done at the defense 6 request, not jointly with the State. So, what we're 7 being asked now is for the Court to order, on the 8 1985 file, that defense expert in North Carolina be 9 required to yield to the State of Wisconsin work 10 product that was done at the defense request and at 11 the defense expense at the time. So that the State 12 and the State alone can do EDTA testing here to the 13 exclusion of the defense.

14 It's probably not relevant given what's 15 been ordered so far. You know, I'm -- I'm not 16 inclined to stand in the way of the march of 17 knowledge but, again, this is -- this is just 18 sort of a power play and a grab for a chance to 19 do testing that we won't be able to repeat, or 20 meet, or consider doing independently. I think 21 the record, including on January 4, 2007 really 22 is very clear about the fact that there is 23 presently, today, no one in the business of doing 24 EDTA testing that the State apparently is 25 prevailing upon the FBI to do for it and it only.

1 To preserve, you know, our options,
2 whatever they may be, long after this trial is 3 over, I suppose, if the Court is going to order 4 the defense to give up work product of a defense 5 expert then -- and, you know, also order that 6 half of those spot cards be preserved inviolate, 7 in the hope that some day there will be money, 8 and time, and another lab to do defense testing, 9 and prove that the State's tests shouldn't have 10 been considered in isolation at this trial.

11 THE COURT: How many spot cards are there?

12 ATTORNEY GAHN: I don't know, your Honor.
13 I believe there are more than one. And I -- When I 14 read the laboratory notes -- and although the -- 15 Mr. Strang is portraying this as a work product, 16 this was by order and by stipulation of the parties.
17 And as my understanding when I read it was --

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, the testing was not, 19 the withdrawal of the blood for the purpose of 20 defense testing was by court order of Judge 21 Hazlewood and by stipulation of the State of 22 Wisconsin, the testing was not joined. That's 23 simply the fact, as I understand it.

24 ATTORNEY GAHN: But, again, that case is 25 over with now, it's a public record. And I do

1 believe that we did prepare an order for Judge Fox
2 to ask him to relinquish whatever jurisdictional
3 control he may have over it. We're prepared to go
4 to that Court and ask him to sign that and that you 5 be given the authority to make decisions on the 6 blood evidence.

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: And to that, we don't 8 object, but the blood spot cards are not a public 9 record, never have been, it's defense work product.
10 We object to the whole road on which the State and 11 the Court have embarked today, this included.

12 THE COURT: Well, I would agree that the 13 spot cards, as they have been characterized for the 14 Court today, are different from the blood vial in 15 the sense that it's not part of the court record.
16 I'm not -- What I don't understand and what I'm not 17 sure the parties have addressed is the significance 18 of that. And when I say that, I say that I have not 19 ever been requested before to issue an order that 20 the contractor of the defense, if you will, turn 21 information over to the State. It's not the same as 22 simply ordering that something in a court file be 23 released.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: But, you know, the 25 position we're in here, of course, is that if we

1 don't agree to it, and the State eventually 2 convinces this Court to allow the FBI's results, 3 with no opportunity for us to rebut them, then we 4 will also hear testimony that we tried to prevent 5 the FBI from having access to something that might 6 have been relevant to its testing, so --

7 THE COURT: I don't think the Court would 8 allow that if I didn't order the information 9 disclosed. I'm not sure -- I don't believe that 10 would be proper for a jury.

11 ATTORNEY GAHN: I guess I would quote,
12 again, from the Migliorino case that I cited before, 13 this is every man's evidence. And the State and 14 defense is entitled to it. This is going to be 15 important evidence.

16 THE COURT: I think, though, that the 17 defense is entitled -- and this is difficult without 18 knowing how many cards there are -- the defense 19 would be entitled to retain some, for their own 20 purposes, either at this point or some point in the 21 future. That doesn't seem an unreasonable request 22 to the Court.

23 ATTORNEY GAHN: I suspect that if there's 24 one spot card, I would request the -- her name is 25 Meghan Clement, who is in charge of the forensic

1 unit there, cut it in half. We'll preserve one 2 half. If there are two spot cards, we'll take one,
3 and save one for the defense.

4 THE COURT: I'm going to want to know more 5 information about the spot cards before I rule on 6 that part of the request. So I'm not going to rule 7 on that part today.

8 ATTORNEY GAHN: Okay.

9 THE COURT: I will just rule on the blood 10 vial.

11 ATTORNEY GAHN: So, are we waiting till 12 Monday that we can take the blood vial --

13 THE COURT: Yes.

14 ATTORNEY GAHN: -- Monday afternoon, or 15 upon their completion of whatever.

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 ATTORNEY GAHN: Okay. Thank you, Judge, we 18 will prepare another order.

19 THE COURT: All right. The next item is 20 the defense motion to exclude computer generated 21 animations.

22 ATTORNEY STRANG: I'm sorry, before we go
23 to that, I think we need a ruling from the Court on 24 whether it's reconsidering its earlier order that 25 fingerprint testing had to be completed before the 1 State removes the blood vial for EDTA testing.

2 THE COURT: I'm going to allow the FBI to 3 make that decision for the reasons that I don't have 4 the scientific knowledge to know the significance of 5 one being done before the other. If the FBI acts in 6 some way that either the fingerprint evidence or the 7 blood evidence results are compromised, I assume 8 that the defense expert can address that.

9 We do have notice of defense experts 10 that will be testifying and criticizing, in some 11 respects, the methods that were used by the State 12 to produce test results. So I'm not going to 13 specify the order -- the order in which the tests 14 are conducted.

15 ATTORNEY GAHN: Your Honor, I must get back 16 to Milwaukee, may I have leave of the Court to go.

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 ATTORNEY GAHN: Thank you, Judge.

19 THE COURT: All right. We'll move on,
20 then, to the defense motion to exclude computer 21 generated animations.

22 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Judge, from a timing
23 standpoint, I do recognize that we have six or seven 24 different matters to hear. We have witnesses -- or 25 a witness that is standing by from the State Patrol.

1 He's also been kind enough to prepare for the 2 defense and for the Court documents which sets forth 3 his methodology in the creation of demonstrative
4 evidence.

5 Those include the scene models that we 6 talked about, include the -- both interior models 7 of the defendant's trailer and garage, as well as 8 the exterior overviews of the Avery property. He 9 also deals in a second set of explanations for 10 the Court, some information regarding skeletal 11 models, and is prepared to provide testimony as 12 to animations.

13 I believe that Mr. Strang had expressed
14 at least the most serious objection -- and I'm 15 sure he will correct me if I'm wrong, but the 16 most serious objection to actual moving images.
17 But having made those prefatory comments, Judge, 18 since Mr. Austin's testimony is not only likely 19 to mirror that that I provided the Court now in 20 writing, although there maybe some additional 21 information, Mr. Strang and I, in correspondence 22 before this hearing, recognize that final 23 decisions on admissibility will need to come 24 closer in time to -- to the trial or during the 25 trial.

1 I'm wondering if the Court wishes to 2 review the written submissions. I can make for 3 the Court and Mr. Strang, copies of the DVD's, 4 that is the animations themselves. That will 5 give the Court a fair understanding of what we're 6 talking about. And perhaps in the interest of 7 getting through some of these other issues that, 8 frankly, need to be decided before Monday, it's 9 my recommendation that we do that.

10 Because this -- even with Mr. Strang's 11 opinion and, please, Mr. Strang, correct me if 12 you think I'm wrong, but this is something that 13 probably can wait until we get into trial or 14 closer to trial. And necessarily, in some 15 instances must, must wait for that. I will do it 16 now, Judge, and I'm happy to present this.

17 In all candor, this may take the better 18 part of an hour to present the offer of proof and 19 our explanation of these demonstrative exhibits.
20 And I'm, certainly, as I mentioned, happy to 21 proceed. But I do note on our agenda there are 22 things that, quite frankly, have to be decided 23 today before we move into the balance of jury 24 selection on Monday.

25 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Strang.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: In the main, Mr. Kratz is 2 right, we can't conclude this issue today, even if 3 we start it, because the Court will need to take 4 some testimony from Trooper Austin while he is 5 physically here, present, and able to show things to 6 me, at least, and to the Court, at least the two of 7 us. He's probably shown these things to counsel for 8 the State before, so we could get started by 9 telephone, but couldn't finish.

10 I also note that in the three new 11 memoranda that Mr. Kratz just gave us, and I 12 think I gave the Court, dated -- each of the 13 three, dated January 29, 2007. The thinnest of 14 those memoranda is entitled new model renderings.
15 And this includes things that are altogether new, 16 that I haven't seen before, and didn't know were 17 coming.

18 The most -- Probably the most 19 significant being No. 3 on Page 1 of the 20 January 29, 2007 memorandum entitled new model 21 renderings. So, you know, if it would take an 22 hour of testimony for the State to do its direct 23 examination and its proffer, we're probably 24 talking about an hour of cross-examination, and 25 wouldn't finish the issue today, in any event.

1 So, I think I land where Mr. Kratz does, just 2 probably the better thing to do is to move to 3 other issues today and address this, I guess, 4 during trial or --

5 ATTORNEY KRATZ: What I could also do -- 6 I'm sorry to interrupt Mr. Strang. What I could 7 also do, Judge, is perhaps show the Court and 8 counsel the animation that's been performed. That 9 is something that you don't have, and that's the 10 moving part, so that at least you can get an idea of 11 what we're going to be talking about.

12 I will be happy to make both the Court 13 and counsel copies of those finished products, 14 and would have anyway, before we seek to admit 15 them. That will only take probably five minutes, 16 or even less. And then my suggestion is to move 17 on to the next item on the agenda. I will call 18 Trooper Austin and apologize since he's been 19 waiting since 1:00, but that just seems practical 20 to me.

21 THE COURT: So you have a five minute
22 presentation?

23 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Even less, yeah.

24 THE COURT: All right. Well, it will -- I 25 have already looked at the looseleaf you gave me

1 before, on the computer screen, which I assume 2 duplicate the information in the looseleaf. I will 3 take a look at this now, and then we'll move on to 4 the next item.

5 ATTORNEY KRATZ: While the projector is 6 warming up, Judge, I will tell the Court that the 7 animation, as I told the Court previously, was 8 prepared by Trooper Austin. This animation, there's 9 two of them, the first is the scene model, that is, 10 a view of the Avery salvage property, and what the 11 State believes are important landmarks and items of 12 evidence. It also includes a skeletal animation for 13 which Mr. Strang expressed at least less objection, 14 but something that he may -- he may talk about.

15 The animation that I'm going to be 16 showing the Court here contains -- it's a 17 composite, if you will, of 4,000 or so individual 18 images, all computer generated, but put together 19 to create the animation. And Mr. Austin will 20 eventually talk about that. This animation is a 21 15 frame per second animation. The final version 22 would be, I believe it's 30 frames per second, 23 but would most likely look very much the same.

24 So the record should reflect then that 25 I'm showing the Court something called a scene

1 overview animation, which again is that -- the 2 composite of the computer generated animations.
3 Is there any way to turn down the lights at all,
4 or would you like not to do that? As we watch 5 this, Judge, if I may, Trooper Austin indicated 6 the 15 frame per second rather than the 30 frames
7 per second will have the most impact on things
8 like the gravel road, it won't be as sparkly. It 9 will be a smoother -- a smoother version.

10 Trooper Austin also indicated any of the 11 text that he's placed into this animation can 12 obviously be deleted, should that be necessary.
13 And as I mentioned to the Court, this was brought 14 in lieu of any jury view or scenes.

15 (Watching the animation).

16 ATTORNEY KRATZ: The record should then 17 reflect, your Honor, that the scene overview has 18 concluded. The Court has been instructed that the 19 anthropologist in this case will be testifying as 20 to -- excuse me -- as to some cranial defects which 21 she and the pathologist describe to the jury as 22 entrance wounds.

23 The location of those will be obviously 24 of interest from this animation that I'm showing, 25 although created by Mr. Austin, was under the

1 immediate direction of Anthropologist Leslie
2 Eisenberg. It's about 30 seconds long, Judge.
3 And, again, the theory of its admissibility and 4 underlying modeling technique will be described 5 for the Court, as mentioned, before beginning 6 this part of our presentation. I will be 7 providing the Court with copies therefrom, as 8 well as additional testimony from Mr. Austin at 9 the time of the submission of these trial
10 exhibits. With that, Judge, the State is happy 11 to move on to our next matter on the agenda.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Strang, is there anything 13 you wanted to add before we move on?

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: Only that I note two 15 things for the Court's consideration. One, as to 16 neither of these, apparently, do we still have the 17 final version, the version the State proposes to use 18 at trial. And two, as to the cranial defects 19 animation at least, this would also be true of the 20 other skeletal representations when one reads
21 Trooper Austin's report closely, these are, in fact,
22 reports of Leslie Eisenberg. And they are well past 23 untimely under the Court's October 19, 2006
24 scheduling order for disclosure of expert witness 25 reports.

1 THE COURT: All right. Anything else on 2 that today?

3 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Not for today, thank you,
4 Judge.

5 THE COURT: Next, we'll move on then to the 6 defendant's motion to preclude expert witness 7 testimony and compel disclosure of potentially 8 exculpatory evidence. Mr. Buting, is that yours?

9 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes, Judge. Did the 10 Court get a copy of that one?

11 THE COURT: I do.

12 ATTORNEY BUTING: Unfortunately, I can't 13 find mine. Did I take it back?

14 THE COURT: You gave it to me earlier, but 15 I think I gave it back to you.

16 ATTORNEY BUTING: I have a copy.

17 THE COURT: Well, I take it back, I have 18 got the original here. I don't know if this is the 19 one that's supposed to go to the Clerk of Court's.
20 Do you have one?

21 THE CLERK: No.

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, I attached two 23 exhibits to it. The State has complained that 24 defense wasn't specific enough with their reports, 25 and I attached these two reports to show you, at 1 least with regard to these two FBI reports, these 2 are incredibly sketchy. There's two different ones.

3 The first one, Exhibit 1, is very 4 recent, dated January 12th. Actually, we just 5 received it, I believe, on the 29th of January.
6 Again, way past the expert witness disclosure 7 deadline, so two days ago we get this report.
8 And it talks about three different shipments of 9 specimens received. Are you at the right -- Are 10 you on Exhibit 1?

11 THE COURT: Yes.

12 ATTORNEY BUTING: November 8, 14th and 13 December 27th. It labels them as just -- gives them 14 two identification numbers, but there's nothing to 15 tell us what they are, other than bone fragments.
16 There's bone fragments -- there's 1, 2, 3, 4, and 17 then 31 in another shipment. They identify these as 18 Q-11, Q-12, and so on up to Q-45. But these reports 19 tell us nothing about what they are, where they came 20 from, whether they came from the burn pit, whether 21 they came from one or more burn barrels, whether 22 they came from a completely different location, a 23 quarry, or what, or whether even they are human.

24 So this report tells us nothing, really, 25 other than to say that we can't do any

1 mitochondrial DNA from it. So that's the first 2 concern.

3 Second concern is, the very last
4 paragraph says, if you turn to that second page, 5 it says that, the processed DNA generated from 6 these samples is being returned to the Crime Lab.
7 Well, if they processed these items for DNA, they 8 must have some results, and these results are not 9 being turned over. So we don't know whether they 10 are exculpatory or not at this point. But 11 obviously some testing was done, if it wasn't 12 mitochondrial, what was it, and where are those 13 results? Okay.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: All right. So those are 16 the two concerns with regard to that particular one.
17 And I also noted that attached is Exhibit 2, is 18 actually the earlier report from this particular DNA 19 Unit of the FBI. And you will see that it lists 20 item Q-1 as charred remains, but that's it. That's 21 all we received from this unit.

22 So there is a gap missing between items 23 Q-2 and Q-10, apparently another nine items have 24 been tested by the FBI, this unit, and we have 25 never received any results. Are they

1 exculpatory? Are they inconclusive? We don't 2 know, except it's obvious that they are done and 3 we haven't been -- those reports weren't turned 4 over along with the other reports of the experts.
5 So if this expert is going to testify then, 6 obviously, we would need to know the results of 7 all of his tests, not just selected ones.

8 So, again, if they have done tests on 9 the 35, whatever it is, bone fragments, most 10 recently, and gotten something that's not 11 exculpatory, then it's -- I'm sorry -- that's not 12 inculpatory, then it is exculpatory, by 13 definition, to us.

14 Same thing here, if those items Q-2 to 15 Q-10 were tested and nothing inculpatory was 16 found then, again, in this case, by definition, 17 they are exculpatory and should have been turned 18 over. And then, finally, on that particular 19 report, Exhibit 2, the only finding that's given 20 is that Teresa Halbach cannot be excluded -- this 21 is on the second page -- cannot be excluded as 22 the source of the Q-1 charred remains.

23 But then it goes on and it lists some 24 data base, but there is no opinion provided about 25 what that data base is, what the relevance is,

1 whether it matters. There's no further opinions,
2 or conclusions, or findings drawn from that. So 3 again, I mean both of these reports are very 4 cryptic, far more cryptic than anything we have 5 turned over that the Court found was not 6 sufficient compliance with the statutory 7 obligation of turning over findings, summary of 8 testimony, and what not of experts. So for that 9 reason, these should either be excluded or the 10 State should file amended ones that do satisfy 11 the statute and, further, they should turn over 12 immediately the potential exculpatory results.
13 Thank you.

14 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Fallon, are 15 you --

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: -- handling this?

18 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes. Well, once again, 19 I'm here arguing to the Court that just because 20 counsel chooses to label something exculpatory, 21 doesn't make it so. I wish the world were as simple 22 as counsel would suggest, that if it's not 23 inculpatory it must be exculpatory, or vice versa.

24 With respect to the reports, let's take 25 Exhibit No. 1 first. Exhibit No. 1, I find

1 rather interesting because it is a report
2 prepared by FBI Analyst Douglas Hares or -- 3 excuse me -- I'm taking them in reverse order, 4 Exhibit No. 2, a report by Douglas Hares.

5 The report is dated January 17th, 2006.
6 And only now is there apparently a question 7 regarding the sufficiency of that report. In 8 answer to that, I would offer this information to 9 the Court, and counsel is certainly aware of it.
10 Quite some time ago the entire protocol of the 11 FBI, with respect to this analysis, was provided 12 to the defense. A CD with the data generated, 13 during the course of the analysis, has been 14 provided, much like the genotype or geno scan 15 information which was turned over pursuant to the 16 Wisconsin Crime Laboratory's DNA analytical 17 procedures and protocols and data generated.

18 Finally, we have the report itself of 19 Mr. Hares. And I think, simply answered, it is 20 what it is, that Teresa Halbach cannot be 21 excluded. It uses the counting method, which is 22 pretty much accepted in all laboratories. And 23 it's rather interesting to hear a concern about 24 the counting method, which is usually offered by 25 the defense as a means to supposedly undermine,

1 for whatever reason in their minds, the 2 significance of the results or the findings
3 there.

4 The report has been provided. All of 5 the underlying data has been provided. And the 6 opinions that will be rendered by Mr. Hares are 7 contained in the exhibit. That's it. There -- 8 As I say, there ain't no more. It is what it is.
9 Those are the only opinions, if in fact we even 10 have an opinion, offered by Mr. Hares with 11 respect to the statistical counting.

12 THE COURT: Let me stop you there. There's 13 a sentence in Mr. Buting's brief, on Page 4, that 14 says, Mr. Avery, this moves the Court to prevent any 15 testimony from the DNA analyst and Exhibit 2, 16 Douglas Hares, other than his opinion that Teresa 17 Halbach cannot be excluded as a source of the 18 charred remains. I take it that at least to the 19 extent Mr. Hares would testify about this report, 20 you are telling me that's exactly right.

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: His report is what it is.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 ATTORNEY BUTING: And that's all -- that's 24 the only opinion that would be rendered from this 25 report? See that's what's not clear. If that's all

1 this Douglas Hares is going to say, fine.

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: In my discussions with 3 co-counsel, Mr. Gahn, that's my understanding. I 4 mean, if that should somehow change in the next 24
5 hours, I would be happy to let Court and counsel
6 know. But as Mr. Gahn advised me, the opinions 7 expressed in the report are the opinions which are 8 going to be offered.

9 THE COURT: All right.

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: And as I said, they have 11 all the data. And here it is a year and two weeks 12 after the report was generated and it's probably 10 13 months since provided in discovery.

14 With respect to the other exhibit, this 15 one I can speak to with even greater detail and 16 surety. I have had discussions with the analyst 17 here, Mr. Les McCurdy, and I guess I would 18 preface my remarks here by indicating that 19 Mr. McCurdy's findings are already reflected in 20 Dr. Leslie Eisenberg's report, which has been 21 provided to the defense.

22 For whatever reason, the FBI was late in 23 providing their written report of the oral 24 findings that they already provided to 25 Dr. Eisenberg. But, nonetheless, I did ask

1 Mr. McCurdy about the language that counsel finds 2 so troubling. And I learned that the last 3 paragraph, which begins on Page two, the 4 submitted items will be returned under separate 5 cover etcetera, is language that is apparently 6 standard language in all FBI reports, regardless 7 of whether DNA is generated or not.

8 I would direct the Court's attention to 9 the preceding paragraph. It says, due to the 10 condition of the submitted bone fragments, no
11 mitochondrial DNA examinations were conducted. I 12 verified that with Mr. McCurdy on the phone, both 13 yesterday and this morning.

14 Knowing that counsel has had problems
15 and has been doubtful of representations that the 16 State made in the past, I asked him, would you 17 provide an amended report further explaining that 18 no DNA extractions were occurred. And he did, in 19 fact, provide us with an amended report, taking 20 care of that, and I provided two copies to the 21 defense.

22 No DNA was extracted from those bones,
23 because it wasn't possible. Their condition had 24 deteriorated as a result of the fire, to such a 25 degree that DNA could not be extracted.

1 And, finally, I'm troubled by, again,
2 the insinuation and representations that we must 3 be hiding things. So, for counsel's benefit, 4 because we don't have to do this, but in the 5 interest of providing the information and getting 6 this trial going, I will offer this information 7 to counsel.

8 The FBI uses the letter Q, capital Q, 9 designation for items submitted, and we have 10 items 1 through 45. Items 1 and 2, were Calumet 11 Sheriff's tag numbers 7926 and 7927. Q-3, which 12 counsel finds mysterious, and I would only 13 suggest that he review previous discovery, was 14 the Sure Shot Camera. Q designation 4 through 10 15 were the cell phone parts. Q-11 and 12 was Item 16 No. 9597, cranial pieces from the burn pit behind 17 the defendant's garage. And I believe -- and I'm 18 not sure of the circumstances, but it was 19 originally tagged 8318.

20 ATTORNEY BUTING: Which one was that, I'm 21 sorry?

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: Q-11 and 12. Q-13
23 through 38 were items in 7964, from Burn Barrel 2.
24 Items Q-39 through 45 were designated Items 8675.
25 And we believe that's referred to in many places in

1 the discovery as the Radandt debris pile. So I 2 think that clears up the information which is -- all 3 has been provided, and examined, and discussed at 4 length.

5 So I'm at a loss, quite frankly, to 6 explain further the purpose of this motion. I 7 think we have resolved, I think to all
8 satisfaction, what the circumstances here. So 9 without any further comment I will rest.

10 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, one last matter is 11 still not clear. On Page 3 of my motion, I point 12 out, it is not clear whether any of these items that 13 were sent to the FBI have been determined to be 14 human or not. Because there's many, many non-human 15 bones that were in these barrels, pits, and 16 everything else. So I don't know if counsel knows 17 that, but this report, one of my concerns is the 18 report doesn't say that. We don't know whether 19 these are human or not human, in fact, until he told 20 me today what these were, the report wouldn't tell 21 you that. So that's still an additional concern.

22 THE COURT: You are referring now to the --

23 ATTORNEY BUTING: Exhibit 1 that has items
24 Q-11 through Q-45.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon, is that information

1 provided anywhere in submittals?

2 ATTORNEY FALLON: Can't be identified,
3 that's the whole idea. There was an attempt at 4 mitochondrial DNA, or any DNA for that matter. They 5 are still suspected possible.

6 THE COURT: Q-11, 12, 13, 14, through 7 Q-14.8 and Q-15 through 45, none of those were able 8 to be identified.

9 ATTORNEY FALLON: That wasn't the question
10 counsel asked. Counsel asked on items I believe 13 11 through 45. I believe the other items have been 12 identified.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, the simple question 15 is, Q-11 and Q-12, if those have been identified as 16 the cranial; is that what you are saying?

17 ATTORNEY FALLON: Those are cranial pieces.

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay. So those have been 19 identified as human. But as to the others, for 20 instance, Q-39 through 45, labeled as Radandt debris 21 pile, simple question is, were those human or were 22 they not?

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: You know what we know?

24 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, what opinion will 25 be expressed by an expert?

1 ATTORNEY FALLON: Well, the opinions are 2 set forth in the laboratory reports from the FBI 3 analyst that mitochondrial DNA was not possible to 4 determine that. And Dr. Eisenberg has already 5 indicated in her reports, suspected or possible, and 6 the question is, is that even admissible. But 7 that's for another day.

8 ATTORNEY BUTING: That's fine. So these 9 experts will not render any opinion on that; is that
10 right?

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: As I understand it. I'm 12 confirming that with Dr. Eisenberg.

13 THE COURT: There was a reference on Page 5 14 of Mr. Buting's brief to other experts for whom he 15 indicates the defense has not received reports, Carl 16 Adrian, Eric Smith and Robin Cotton. Are those -- 17 As I understand it, those are witnesses that the 18 State named, but no reports were provided?

19 ATTORNEY BUTING: Correct. Judge, I -- the 20 Carl Adrian one I believe is -- he is the one who 21 did a similar kind of recreate laser measurements of 22 the RAV 4, if I stand corrected. Am I right, 23 counsel?

24 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

25 ATTORNEY BUTING: And as to that, we have

1 still not seen any reports. Eric Smith, I'm not 2 sure who he is, what his report is. Robin Cotton, I
3 know who she is and I have definitely not received
4 any report from her. She's in Boston, a former DNA 5 expert at Cellmark. So if they have gotten -- if 6 they are intending to put in another DNA expert, 7 there have been zero reports from her.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

9 ATTORNEY FALLON: With respect to Robin
10 Cotton, I guess counsel should consider himself
11 fortunate that he has one potential rebuttal 12 witness. Mr. Gahn has not advised me as to whether 13 or not she will be appearing and/or whether she's 14 even written a report relative to this particular 15 case.

16 THE COURT: And Mr. Adrian and Mr. Smith?

17 ATTORNEY FALLON: Mr. Adrian is, as 18 represented, he's an analyst who put together a 19 computer generated animation of the SUV. I will let 20 Mr. Kratz speak to that. He's more familiar with 21 Mr. Adrian.

22 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I'm sorry, Judge, Mr.
23 Adrian -- the Court has already received the SUV
24 animation in anticipation of that. Defense counsel 25 received a disc of all the measurements that were

1 created from Mr. Adrian's work product. There is no 2 report, other than the item itself, that is, the 3 computer animation itself.

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: I would have to check,
5 that was the one thing that I ran out of time trying 6 to run down, but I believe the last gentleman, may 7 very well be simply one of the many agents from the 8 FBI who may have had a hand in the chain of 9 evidence.

10 Counsel has reminded me that Mr. Smith 11 is the tool mark analyst at the FBI. We're not 12 planning on calling him.

13 ATTORNEY BUTING: Are not?

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: Are not.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: Well, as to Mr. Adrian
16 then, if he has no report, and I guess the summary 17 of his testimony would be the animation that is 18 being offered to -- as a substitute. Certainly, 19 there's nothing like that for Robin Cotton. So, 20 we're way past the deadline and I would move the 21 Court to exclude any testimony from Robin Cotton.

22 THE COURT: I understood the State to be 23 saying they would not be offering any testimony from 24 her in their case-in-chief.

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's my understanding.

1 THE COURT: I also understand the State to 2 be reserving the right to introduce her in rebuttal 3 under Konkol.

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: Correct.

5 ATTORNEY BUTING: So she will not be 6 allowed to testify in the State's case-in-chief.

7 THE COURT: In the case-in-chief, right.
8 Mr. Buting, does that address the concerns that you 9 have raised in that motion?

10 ATTORNEY BUTING: I believe so.

11 THE COURT: I'm not sure if you require an 12 order, but if you wish an order to -- reduced to 13 writing, the indications that the State made, you 14 may do so and submit it to Mr. Fallon for his 15 approval, and you can submit it to the Court for 16 signature.

17 All right. The next item is from the 18 defendant's motion to dismiss of last week. The 19 Court addressed the three counts. The State 20 moved to dismiss two of them. The Court denied 21 the defense motion to dismiss the third. But, 22 Mr. Strang, I believe there was another portion 23 of that motion which you wish to bring up again.

24 ATTORNEY STRANG: Right. This is -- This 25 is an issue that I have raised in several different

1 forms or settings since the spring of 2006. And at 2 its core, or germ, are the March 1 and March 2, 2006
3 news conferences that the State conducted laying out 4 on March 1 the purported statements of, at that 5 point, an unnamed relative of Steven Avery in a live 6 televised news conference format. The Court has the 7 DVD of that news conference and I think has viewed
8 it.

9 And then the following day, March 2, and 10 this is the news conference that was preceded by 11 the warning of its graphic content and urging 12 that young people under a certain age, and 13 friends and relatives of Ms Halbach not watch, 14 because of the graphic content. And in that news
15 conference the State identified Brendan Dassey 16 and gave a very gripping narrative, chilling and 17 horrifying narrative, of what the State imagined 18 to have occurred at the Avery property, based on 19 what was then Brendan Dassey's purported version 20 of events.

21 The March 10 Amended Information
22 followed directly from Mr. Dassey's version at 23 the time, and the version laid out on March 1 and 24 March 2, 2006. Mr. Dassey himself disavowed that 25 version in large part not later than May 13,

1 2006. The physical evidence disproved most of 2 the gory details that the State presented on 3 March 1 and March 2, in particular.

4 But in the public mind, we have had 10
5 months of seepage of those details. Ten months 6 of the public believing that Steven Avery is an 7 alleged rapist in this case, and alleged to have 8 kidnapped Teresa Halbach in addition to murdering 9 her.

10 And the fruit that that 10 months and 11 that those two press conferences have born, is 12 there for all to see in the 144, something fewer 13 than that, jury questionnaires, where time and 14 again jurors are telling us that their opinions, 15 many of them unalterable, according to the jurors 16 -- prospective jurors reports, are traceable, not 17 just to publicity, but many of these prospective
18 jurors say -- cite in particular Brendan Dassey's 19 supposed confession, and the power of it, 20 although inadmissible, the power of it in the lay 21 mind, as to Mr. Avery.

22 The questionnaires now are, of course, 23 are a part of the court record. Court, I assume,
24 has reviewed those, as have I. At least one
25 prospective juror specifically cites Mr. Kratz's

1 statements about Brendan Dassey's confession, as 2 the source of her opinions.

3 And, you know, I don't remember now what 4 language the juror used in response to question 5 43, or question 69, question 74, and just how 6 unalterable that opinion was. But that, again, 7 is now a matter in the Court's record that could 8 be reviewed if necessary.

9 There may have been more than one juror.
10 I read these questionnaires very quickly because 11 of the work that all of us have confronted this 12 week as we prepare for trial on Monday. The 13 presumption of innocence has been lost here. And 14 it happened -- that -- that dissipation happened, 15 I think, about March 1, March 2, or as a result 16 of those comments.

17 And now 10 months later, of course,
18 Mr. Avery is not facing a rape charge at all, not 19 facing a kidnapping charge, the State has elected 20 to go forward on a false imprisonment charge that 21 I think cannot make it to a jury, unless there's 22 evidence that the State has, of which I'm unaware 23 through the discovery process, and I have posed 24 that problem in my motion to dismiss the false 25 imprisonment count and the other two counts.

1 And I have expressed it here in court,
2 the risk we will run if the State, in fact, has 3 insufficient evidence of false imprisonment here, 4 in the context of the highly inflammatory, highly 5 prejudicial news conferences, together, running 6 on March 1 and March 2 alone, setting aside the 7 other six televised news conferences, just those 8 two together running to 56 minutes or more, 9 followed by the 10 months of the drumbeat in the 10 media on this case, reiterating the State's 11 allegations.

12 So dismissing those two counts isn't
13 enough. Dismissing the third, false imprisonment 14 count, isn't enough here to restore the 15 presumption of innocence to which Mr. Avery 16 constitutionally is entitled. The Court needs to 17 do something more. And the jury questionnaires 18 that we have now reviewed bear that out.

19 I will make a further record, I'm sure,
20 on Monday, in moving to strike for cause a number 21 of additional jurors -- I'm sorry -- prospective 22 jurors, people who filled out jury questionnaires, 23 on which the State and the defense did not agree 24 that there was cause to strike. I will move to 25 strike a number of additional jurors as having

1 unalterable opinions and, therefore, not being 2 fit for service as a juror in this case.

3 But I would like to see this Court take 4 some firm action to try to save at least 30 5 members of this panel, if they can be saved, as 6 appropriate, open-minded, potential jurors who 7 are willing to follow the Court's instructions 8 and, indeed, the constitutional rules of criminal 9 procedure in this country.

10 The Court is going to have to do 11 something to restore that presumption of 12 innocence. I suggested a curative instruction.
13 I laid it out. There is no particular magic to 14 my language, but it would have to be a strong 15 instruction, and more than once repeated, just as 16 the message about Brendan Dassey's accusation
17 against Steven Avery has been more than once 18 repeated. And the message about the first degree 19 sexual assault charge and the kidnapping charge 20 have been more than once repeated.

21 The Court faces -- I realize the Court 22 can't give a counteracting instruction as many 23 times or as powerfully as the initial message was 24 heard. But the Court has got to try, here, to 25 erase that prejudicial effect of the last 10

1 months, now confirmed in its unfairness by the 2 fact that the State did not commit to calling
3 Brendan Dassey by the deadline that we had agreed
4 and the Court had set, may not and is not going 5 forward on two of the charges that are brought, 6 on March 10, 2006.

7 Lest there be any question at all about 8 the power of those accusations, now dismissed, 9 and at their time, resting only on the 10 inadmissible claims of Brendan Dassey, lest there 11 be any question about the power of those at all, 12 this Court, an experienced judge, a skilled 13 lawyer for many years before that, this Court was 14 moved by those allegations to say that $500,000 15 bail for this man is not enough, and that there 16 is a stronger case against him now, greater 17 incentive to flee, or to fear conviction, and 18 increased the bail, as I recall, by $250,000 to 19 $750,000 citing the new charges in the Amended 20 Information, that at the time I believed rested
21 only on the inadmissible claims of Brendan
22 Dassey, and the time now has confirmed the State 23 cannot corroborate and cannot advance to a jury 24 even in opening statement, unless it commits to 25 call Brendan Dassey. And that's why at least two

1 of those counts have been dismissed.

2 When those kinds of accusations and 3 those new charges, move a Court to raise by 4 50 percent an accused's bail, I have a pretty 5 good sense of what they do in the lay mind, among 6 this jury pool, in terms of persuading that jury 7 pool that the case looks much stronger against 8 Mr. Avery than, in fact, it turned out to be.

9 But that's what we're up against. And 10 I'm asking this Court to take strong curative 11 action, whether it's my instruction, or one of 12 the Court's own writing, or some other curative 13 step designed to restore to Mr. Avery the 14 presumption of innocence that due process and a 15 fair trial require.

16 THE COURT: Who will be addressing this 17 matter for the State?

18 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I will, Judge.

19 THE COURT: Mr. Kratz.

20 ATTORNEY KRATZ: I am quite certain that 21 Mr. Strang does not want to enter into a debate at 22 this time as to the relative strength of the State's 23 case. I would argue with Mr. Strang and his 24 conclusion that the State does not have as strong a 25 case now as it did on March 1st. Obviously, the 1 State believes it has a much stronger case now than 2 it did on March 1st, given the physical evidence 3 that's been detailed.

4 And we have become familiar with, that 5 not withstanding, Judge, that the jurors who have 6 been unable, for whatever reason, to presume 7 Mr. Avery innocent, or the jurors who have 8 indicated to this Court an unwillingness to 9 follow instructions, have already been stricken.
10 We'll be making a record of that on Monday.

11 But as far as the risk of jurors who 12 cannot follow instructions, or who have some 13 preconceived notion, that's already taken into 14 account in the jury process. And that's not 15 unique to the Avery case, that is a process that 16 this Court engages in each and every time we try 17 to pick a fair and impartial jury.

18 Mr. Strang's suggestion of some curative 19 instruction necessarily requires this Court to 20 place some blame upon the State; that is, that 21 there was some unfair publicity in this case. I 22 will remind the Court that that very motion was 23 brought by Mr. Strang many, many months ago.

24 This court made specific findings that 25 the State did not engage in any behavior that

1 violated Supreme Court Rule 20:3.6, that the 2 State, through its comments, that this Court, I
3 believe made findings, included invited response 4 and other reasons for those comments, did not 5 preclude, and do not preclude, the defendant of a 6 fair trial. And so, to suggest at this point, 7 that even after making those findings months and 8 months ago, that the defense is now somehow 9 entitled to some damning instruction, some 10 instruction that suggests that the State's 11 behavior, or the State's comments in this case 12 were improper, is just not warranted.

13 This Court has cautioned counsel, that 14 is, counsel for the State and counsel for the 15 defense, as to extra judicial comments. And to 16 my knowledge one party has abided by that; that 17 is the State, that since March 2nd, no extra 18 judicial statements of any significance have been 19 made in this case. I can't say that for 20 Mr. Buting or for the defense, but the State has 21 certainly abided by this Court's admonition.

22 Let me also suggest, Judge, that to 23 engage, or to go down this road of curative
24 instructions, would necessitate the Court 25 explaining the nuance of use immunity and the

1 reasons why a prosecutor may decide what charges
2 to go forward with, or what charges to not go
3 forward with. Mr. Dassey's inconsistent
4 statements, again, are hardly unique to a 5 criminal defendant like Mr. Dassey, but certainly 6 are not of the substance that some curative 7 instruction is made of.

8 Let me close, Judge, in saying that, as 9 I argued earlier this week, the State could have 10 proceeded on the rape and kidnapping charges.
11 The fact that we have chosen not to, the fact 12 that we have chosen to either save Mr. Dassey 13 for, if not case-in-chief, a rebuttal witness, 14 and the conference of use immunity is solely 15 within the province of the State, not something 16 that the Court or the defense has any say so in.
17 And with that having been said, any curative 18 instruction is improper, would prejudice the 19 State, would ask the Court reject that 20 possibility. Thank you, Judge.

21 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Strang?

22 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, the notion that the 23 State ending its extra judicial comments after 24 March 2nd solves the problem is a little bit like 25 the away team in a baseball game saying, well, I had

1 my at bats in the top of the first, I hit a home
2 run, and now the remedy is not to allow the home 3 team to come to the plate in the bottom of the first 4 and not to play the rest of the innings.

5 We, in fact, haven't given a single news 6 conference, or called people to our office, or 7 set of up a bank of microphones, or given a 8 warning about graphic content, let alone given 9 eight news conferences. And, functionally, we 10 have been unable to reclaim the presumption of 11 innocence here. And the Court need only look at 12 the jury questionnaires we have to see just 13 exactly which side here has had its impact on 14 public opinion before this case gets tried.

15 THE COURT: All right. The parties will 16 have an opportunity in individual voir dire to 17 further explore what opinions the jurors have, what 18 they may have seen or heard, what they come into 19 this case with. The Court will listen to the 20 comments of the jurors during voir dire.

21 And if I feel a need to address anything 22 in the form of an instruction to the jury, the 23 Court generally at the start of the trial gives 24 the jurors some preliminary instructions,
25 including information on the substantive charges.

1 And I will make my ruling on the motion 2 explicitly, or implicitly, at that time, with the 3 instructions to the jurors.

4 The next item is a motion from the 5 defense regarding courtroom security. Mr.
6 Strang.

7 ATTORNEY STRANG: I think we were also 8 going to address the second motion in limine.

9 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry, you're right, I
10 passed over that one, that was the next one.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: But that turns out, I
12 think, to be fairly easy. After some conversations 13 with Mr. Kratz, I'm satisfied that I now can 14 reconstruct the information I was seeking as to the 15 first part of that motion in limine.

16 And as the second part, concerning some 17 converted telephone calls, I will simply make a 18 record of what I think we discussed in chambers, 19 or my recollection of what we discussed in 20 chambers is that the State is working on some 21 conversions. I know what it means by conversion
22 now.

23 When it has those done, it will offer to 24 the defense the opportunity to see the closed 25 captioning, so to speak, for the realtime

1 transcription that it proposes to offer as to 2 some recordings. We'll have a chance, I assume,
3 to assure ourselves that the recordings
4 themselves were not altered or redacted in a way 5 that would make them less than complete, and that 6 the transcription is accurate.

7 And I also understand from our 8 discussion in chambers that I should not expect 9 any objection from the State, or any resistance
10 from the Court, to giving an appropriate jury 11 instruction on transcripts being aids to 12 understanding evidence, but not evidence in 13 themselves, that the recordings themselves are 14 the evidence.

15 So, if I understood our conversation
16 about part two of my second motion in limine 17 correctly, then at this point the Court simply 18 can hold the issue in abeyance.

19 THE COURT: All right. Maybe I missed it,
20 the *67 issue. Do I understand --

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: That's part one. And I 22 think we're squared away on that.

23 THE COURT: Okay. All right. At this time
24 the Court will move on then to the defendant's 25 motion concerning courtroom security. Mr. Strang.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes, your Honor, the 2 State hasn't responded, but I have been provided by 3 the Court, and I think counsel for the State have as 4 well, the January 28, 2007 letter from Sheriff Jerry 5 Pagel of Calumet County. And I guess the inference 6 I draw from Sheriff Pagel's letter is that he 7 believes that security measures at trial ought 8 include what I have called a stun belt. I guess 9 Sheriff Pagel uses the same term in his letter.

10 So, as I understand it here, it falls to 11 the Court to decide whether there's manifest 12 necessity for such a security measure. And the 13 case law is pretty thin in Wisconsin, although 14 there is some, not on this particular restraint, 15 there's a good deal of case law both in other 16 states and in federal courts around the country.

17 And I have provided the Court a 18 smattering of it, not -- I couldn't possibly 19 provide all of it. I have relied in particular 20 here on the neighboring state of Illinois, both 21 because of the recency of the Illinois Supreme 22 Court's decision on this type of restraint and 23 because its detail and usefulness of the factors 24 it suggests trial courts take into consideration.

25 But the burden either rests on the

1 Court, or on the State, to justify such a 2 restraint as necessary and consistent with the 3 defendant's Sixth and Fourteenth Amendment rights
4 to a fair trial, the assistance of counsel,
5 confrontation, and to testify in his own defense, 6 if he chooses. The burden, I'm sure, does not 7 rest on the defense here, and that's between the 8 Court and the State. I'm not sure exactly where 9 it does rest. But there would have to be an 10 evidentiary providing, I think, and some findings 11 by the Court, on necessity, if the Court is 12 considering deferring to Sheriff Pagel's apparent 13 wishes.

14 THE COURT: Anything further, Mr. Strang?

15 ATTORNEY STRANG: Not at the moment, I
16 guess.

17 THE COURT: Okay. This, as Mr. Strang
18 indicated, it's -- this issue is not necessarily a 19 prosecution versus defense type motion. It's a 20 matter for the Court to determine, based on 21 considerations for courtroom security, but does the 22 State wish to be heard?

23 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Yes, very briefly, Judge.
24 The State echos the Court's feeling that this is not 25 a prosecution issue. I do have a personal opinion

1 as the person who would be seated 5 feet from 2 Mr. Avery during this trial, as to whether some 3 security is necessary.

4 But from the prosecution's standpoint,
5 the only comment we have as to Mr. Strang's 6 suggestions that this raises to a due process
7 right, is how does the defendant wearing a stun 8 belt a fact -- affect, excuse me, his ability to 9 participate, how does it affect his ability to 10 speak with his attorney, or in any other way to 11 participate in the proceedings?

12 This is a security issue. I don't tell 13 the sheriff how to run his jail, or how to do 14 courtroom security, and we have got a deal that 15 he doesn't tell me how to run my office, at least 16 not very often. So, with that having been said, 17 Judge, we'll leave it to the Court and to Sheriff 18 Pagel as to a decision on the courtroom security 19 issues. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: All right. I have the letter
21 from Sheriff Pagel in front of me. I'm not sure, 22 Mr. Strang, if the defense is in agreement with the 23 Court making its decision based on the reasons given 24 by Sheriff Pagel for his request, or whether you 25 wish to question Sheriff Pagel.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: I am not in agreement 2 with that. Because at a minimum some of these 3 issues would need elaboration. The letter's a
4 helpful starting point and, indeed, in my motion I 5 have conceded that these are serious crimes.
6 There's no gainsaying that. It is the most serious 7 crime with which one can be charged in the State of 8 Wisconsin, so that -- that -- you know, that factor 9 weighs in favor of restraint, standing by itself.
10 Some of these others, as I say, at a minimum would 11 need evidentiary development.

12 THE COURT: Do you wish to question Sheriff
13 Pagel?

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes, by doing so I'm not 15 taking on a burden, I gather?

16 THE COURT: No, you are providing 17 information to the Court to assist the Court in 18 making its decision.

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: Very well, I'm happy to 20 do that.

21 THE COURT: All right. Sheriff Pagel.

22 SHERIFF GERALD PAGEL, called as a
23 witness herein, having been first duly sworn, was 24 examined and testified as follows:

25 THE CLERK: Please be seated. Please state

1 your name and spell your last name for the record.

2 THE WITNESS: Gerald Pagel, P-a-g-e-l.

3 DIRECT EXAMINATION

4 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

5 Q. Just as a matter of background here, we all know 6 the answers to the questions I'm going to ask, 7 preliminarily, but someone else reading the 8 transcript later may not. Quickly, you have been 9 the Calumet County Sheriff for some time, and at 10 all times since November 5, 2005 through today?

11 A. That is correct.

12 Q. You are responsible both practically and 13 statutorily for administration of the Calumet 14 County Jail?

15 A. That's correct.

16 Q. Mr. Avery has been detained in the Calumet County 17 Jail since November 9, 2005?

18 A. That is correct.

19 Q. Continuously?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. So you have been his keeper, in effect, here as a 22 pre-trial detainee?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. He hasn't been serving any sentence or on any 25 probation or parole hold, during that time, to 1 your knowledge?

2 A. That is correct.

3 Q. You have overall operational responsibility for 4 the Calumet County Jail?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. But as a practical matter you get information 7 from officers whose immediate job
8 responsibilities are the jail and the jail only?

9 A. That would be correct.

10 Q. And the person we might describe as most directly 11 or most immediately in charge of the jail over in 12 Chilton is -- Is it Captain or Lieutenant Byrnes?

13 A. Lieutenant Byrnes.

14 Q. Am I right about his direct responsibility?

15 A. That would be correct.

16 Q. Okay. And then there is a Sergeant Hemauer who 17 reports to Lieutenant Byrnes?

18 A. That is correct.

19 Q. Who has also got a good deal of direct 20 responsibility for the jail?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Does most of your information come through either 23 Lieutenant Byrnes or Sergeant Hemauer?

24 A. Would come from Lieutenant Byrnes as well as 25 other individuals working within the jail.

1 Q. Okay. This, as I understand the rules of 2 evidence, Sheriff Pagel, and for the Court's 3 benefit, I think this is one of these proceedings
4 to which the rules of evidence don't apply. So
5 what I'm telling you is that I'm going to ask you 6 for hearsay. I'm going to accept hearsay. We 7 don't have a problem with hearsay here as long as 8 it's reliable. It would be helpful if you could 9 tell me when you know something personally and 10 when you are relying on word from Lieutenant 11 Byrnes or someone else.

12 A. That will be done, yes.

13 Q. Okay. Did you have the good sense to bring your 14 January 28 letter with you?

15 A. Yes, I did.

16 Q. All right. We should probably mark that as an 17 exhibit. Is that an extra copy?

18 A. Yes, it's not signed, but it's a copy.

19 Q. That's fine.

20 (Exhibit 1 marked for identification.)

21 Q. All right. And we have marked this as Exhibit 1.
22 It is now stapled. But is that your January 28, 23 2007 letter to Judge Willis?

24 A. Yes, it is.

25 Q. I understand that's an unsigned copy, but the 1 substance of the letter is what you wrote?

2 A. That is correct.

3 Q. Let's go to Paragraph 1, if you would. To whom 4 has Mr. Avery made the statements that you
5 ascribe to him in Paragraph 1?

6 A. Those were statements that were heard being 7 discussed in phone conversations that Mr. Avery
8 had and was relayed to me by the investigators 9 working this case.

10 Q. Do you remember when those statements were made?

11 A. No, I do not know when they were made.

12 Q. Do you remember how many times Mr. Avery made 13 such statements?

14 A. No, I would have to defer that to the 15 investigators.

16 Q. Mark Wiegert or Tom Fassbender?

17 A. That would be correct.

18 Q. Okay. And did you -- You haven't set out here 19 the verbatim statements that you are describing 20 being told about, have you?

21 A. No, these were -- this was information that was 22 provided to me by the investigators who indicated 23 that they heard these conversations or heard 24 words mentioned by Mr. Avery during these 25 conversations.

1 Q. To this effect?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Okay. Do you remember about -- about when one or 4 the other of these investigators told you about 5 these conversations?

6 A. They had mentioned it to me prior; however, when 7 I was informed that there had been a motion
8 filed, I specifically went and spoke with them 9 and they, again, furnished me with the 10 information that is contained within this letter.

11 Q. Okay. When you say they told you about it prior, 12 can you give me a time frame how --

13 A. No, I cannot. It was just generally spoken to me
14 and comments were made to insure that I was made 15 aware of these comments, to ensure, again, that 16 action, or specific information, would be 17 provided to the staff running the jail, to ensure 18 their safety, and to ensure that he, meaning 19 Mr. Avery, would not do anything to try to 20 jeopardize their safety, or to escape from jail.

21 Q. Can you put a year on when you first heard about 22 this?

23 A. I would imagine it would have been last year.

24 Q. 2006?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Okay. Early in the year, late in the year?

2 A. I can't tell you. I don't know.

3 Q. Did you take any specific action in the jail?

4 A. I know -- I know that the jail staff was 5 informed. Lieutenant Byrnes was informed, just 6 to be made aware of.

7 Q. All right. And one way to take these is that 8 Mr. Avery might harm himself, correct?

9 A. Could be. Yeah, they could be taken that way.

10 Q. And, in fact, you are aware that Lieutenant 11 Byrnes has gently inquired of Mr. Avery, on a 12 number of occasions, whether he is inclined to 13 harm himself?

14 A. Yes, that's correct.

15 Q. And you have been assured that he is not inclined 16 to harm himself?

17 A. That is what I have been informed by Mr. Byrnes.

18 Q. Okay. Indeed, other than one brief period in 19 which I know Mr. Avery has not been confined in a 20 segregation cell or a cell you can watch someone 21 24 hours a day, correct, he's been in a regular 22 pod or cell?

23 A. Yeah, he's been in his cell block.

24 Q. Okay. As to comments that he needs to get out of 25 here, is that kind of thing all that uncommon for

1 people who are locked in a jail?

2 A. Well, you have to look at the seriousness of them 3 and you have to -- also you have to take them as 4 a general comment, but you have to be also 5 concerned about those type of comments.

6 Q. Sure. And I understand that. And if -- When you 7 think someone really may be planning a jail 8 break, an escape, there are some measures you can 9 take, correct, within the jail?

10 A. Yes, there would be.

11 Q. You could cut off all visitation, correct?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You have never done that with Mr. Avery?

14 A. No.

15 Q. You could frisk contact visitors, defense 16 lawyers, or probation agents, police officers for 17 that matter, just to make sure that they are not 18 passing anything, physically, to Mr. Avery, 19 correct?

20 A. That would be.

21 Q. You have never seen a need to do that?

22 A. No.

23 Q. You could put someone in segregation if you 24 suspected an escape attempt?

25 A. You could, but it might not always be the best

1 thing to do for that type of situation either.

2 Q. Okay. Have you had an experience, as sheriff, 3 when you were aware of an actual escape attempt 4 by any inmate of the jail, convicted, or 5 pretrial, anybody at all?

6 A. Prior to discovery of something, is that what you 7 are referring to?

8 Q. Right. Right.

9 A. Not that I'm aware of.

10 Q. Awareness of a plan to try to escape?

11 A. No, I can't say that since I have been sheriff I 12 have, no.

13 Q. Do you have contingency plans for that if it were 14 to happen?

15 A. There would be some plan put in place, yes.

16 Q. Okay. But no such plan has been implemented as 17 to Mr. Avery at any time?

18 A. No, there has not.

19 Q. As a routine matter, in the jail, even though he 20 is not convicted of anything, administratively 21 you folks, I don't want to say regularly, as if 22 it's a fixed cycle, but with some frequency 23 jailers come in and examine the entire cell 24 without the inmate in it?

25 A. Yes, they would do searches.

1 Q. And that's been done in Mr. Avery's case,
2 correct?

3 A. I would hope so.

4 Q. Okay. Do you know so or?

5 A. It's a general practice for them to do that and I 6 would assume that they have done that, yes.

7 Q. Right. You have no reason to think that the 8 habit of occasional cell checks hasn't been 9 followed with Mr. Avery?

10 A. That's correct.

11 Q. Has anybody told you that they, you know, found a 12 cake with a nail file in it or, you know, bed 13 sheets tied together, or anything that suggested 14 an escape?

15 A. No, I have not been told.

16 Q. And I don't mean to be cute about that, but 17 whatever it is that inmates might do suggesting 18 escape?

19 A. That has not been given to me, no. That has not 20 been provided to me.

21 (Attorney and witness talking over each other.)

22 Q. Nothing's been found in Mr. Avery's cell?

23 A. No, I'm not aware of anything like that, yes.

24 Q. Any homemade weapons been found in his cell at 25 any time?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Something that might be used to hurt a guard?

3 A. Nothing was found.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. While he was in our custody.

6 Q. All right. Has he acted out violently at any 7 time while he's been in your jail?

8 A. Not that I'm aware of. I have not been told that 9 he has.

10 Q. Do you think you probably would have been told if 11 it had happened?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. So he hasn't -- he hasn't been segregated for 14 behavior problems at any time?

15 A. No he has not.

16 Q. He has been kept alone, if you will, or without 17 cellmates or even pod mates for most of the time

18 there, correct?

19 A. Per your request, yes.

20 Q. And that's where I was going. I mean, part of 21 that was driven by my request, correct?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. And you have been kind enough to honor that with 24 a proviso that if you got real full, you might 25 have to move people in, correct?

1 A. That is correct, that was the agreement.

2 Q. Okay. So that wasn't -- that wasn't a measure 3 that was implemented because you were afraid
4 Mr. Avery might hurt a fellow inmate?

5 A. No.

6 Q. You did have some concern, as I recall, at some 7 point, that because of his notoriety and the 8 publicity attending his case, that another -- not 9 a specific inmate -- but some other inmate 10 conceivably might try to take a poke at him or 11 hurt him at some point?

12 A. That would be a correct statement, yes.

13 Q. Okay. Steven Avery is about 5 foot 6?

14 A. I would say 5 foot 5, 5 foot 6, yes.

15 Q. And he's put on a little weight, I think, 16 since -- sorry about that -- but -- but, I don't 17 know, 200 pounds or something, roughly, probably?

18 A. Yeah, I would say so.

19 Q. Okay. He doesn't have access to free weights or 20 exercise equipment in the jail, does he?

21 A. No, he does not.

22 Q. Could we go to Paragraph 2 in your letter.

23 A. Sure.

24 Q. You refer to several individuals who have been 25 interviewed; are you relying here, again, on

1 information from Mr. Wiegert, or Mr. Fassbender, 2 or other investigators?

3 A. That would be correct.

4 Q. Do you have any -- any -- I guess the specifics 5 are that these were all things included in 6 Mr. Kratz's other acts motion?

7 A. Part of it, yes, part of his motion.

8 Q. Okay. So the Court -- the Court already has 9 before it some more details about the information
10 you are describing in general in Paragraph 2?

11 A. That would be correct.

12 Q. Okay. Paragraph 3, in general, you are saying, 13 look, we have got information that witnesses are 14 concerned about testifying and have indicated 15 that they are fearful?

16 A. Yes, this has been given, again, to the lead 17 investigators, that they are fearful, concerned 18 for their safety, having to testify against 19 Mr. Avery in court.

20 Q. Okay. And what you have done is reassure those 21 people that their safety is an important 22 consideration to you?

23 A. Yes, that was done by, again, the lead 24 investigators when they spoke with them, that 25 their safety would be of utmost concern.

1 Q. Sure. And that's -- This was not the first time 2 that you, or people in your department, have had 3 citizens or potential witnesses express concern 4 about testifying in a criminal case?

5 A. That would be a correct statement, yes.

6 Q. In fact, it's not uncommon for that sort of 7 concern to be raised with you?

8 A. That would be true, yes.

9 Q. This is in the general nature of that experience 10 of yours as an officer?

11 A. Well, these individuals have expressed a sincere 12 concern to have to testify. It's not like, well, 13 I don't want to, or I wish I didn't have to.
14 They are concerned. They have expressed their 15 concern to be in court and to have to testify and 16 to be in the same courtroom with him. So they 17 have expressed a deep concern for their safety.

18 Q. Are these people who you know or have been told 19 have -- have an aversion, or a revulsion for 20 Mr. Avery, just as sort of a global matter, they 21 just don't like him?

22 A. I don't know if it's that, or the fact that they 23 know of his demeanor. I don't know how far you 24 want me to go with that but. They, you know, 25 again, it's a concern that they have expressed.

1 And that's why I placed that in the letter.

2 Q. Sure. And some of them may know him, or have had 3 some past experience with him?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. You are not aware of any threat that he's 6 made to any witness, or potential witness?

7 A. Not that I'm aware of, no.

8 Q. Every -- every non-contact visit that Mr. Avery 9 has in the Calumet County Jail is tape recorded?

10 A. Every non?

11 Q. Non-contact visit?

12 A. Yes, as it is with other inmates.

13 Q. With everybody else?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Right. This isn't a special measure for 16 Mr. Avery?

17 A. No, it is not.

18 Q. Every telephone call that he makes out of the 19 jail is recorded just as every telephone call 20 that every inmate in the jail is recorded?

21 A. That is correct.

22 Q. In this case, if there's any difference at all,
23 the investigators on the case assiduously listen 24 to Mr. Avery's tapes, correct?

25 A. That is correct.

1 Q. So you would expect that if he had made threats 2 to specific witnesses, those would have been 3 reported to you in your capacity as sheriff?

4 A. They probably would have been. I would have been 5 informed of them, yes.

6 Q. Number -- Paragraph 4 --

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. -- refers to a specific conversation or 9 conversations, a telephone dialogue between 10 Mr. Avery and his father?

11 A. That is correct.

12 Q. All right. When did that happen?

13 A. Again, I can't give you a specific date; I know 14 it was, again, I believe in 2006.

15 Q. But whether it was the beginning of the year, the 16 middle, or the end, you don't know?

17 A. I would have to refer that to Investigator
18 Wiegert.

19 Q. All right. Do you know the nature of the 20 comments as to Mr. Fassbender and Mr. Wiegert?

21 A. Yes, I do.

22 Q. What is that?

23 THE WITNESS: You want me to elaborate,
24 your Honor?

25 THE COURT: Yes.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

A. There was a conversation between Mr. Avery and his father in which they -- Special Agent Fassbender and Wiegert -- comment was made that they wanted to cut off his testicles or cut off their testicles and drag them behind, or Investigator Wiegert behind a pickup truck.

Q. Just Mr. Wiegert?

A. I believe it was Mr. Wiegert, yes.

Q. And was it Allen Avery who made that comment or Steven Avery?

A. I believe it was Al towards -- I believe, Mr. Allen Avery was making the comment, to which Steven laughed, heartily.

Q. Okay. So this was a statement not made by Steven Avery, but he laughed in response to his father's statement?

A. That is correct. That's the way I have been told.

Q. All right. Both Mr. Wiegert and Mr. Fassbender are law enforcement agents, obviously?

A. Yes, that's correct.

Q. Both of them would be armed, ordinarily?

A. Yes.

Q. While on duty?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Are law -- Are sworn law enforcement officers 3 allowed to carry their sidearm weapons in court 4 in Calumet County, if you know?

5 A. Yes, they are.

6 Q. Both of these men are in the prime of life, for 7 want of a better word?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. I mean, they are young. I mean, they are in 10 their 30's, 40's, whatever it is they are?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. And they, in fact, were also the two 13 officers who arrested Mr. Avery on November 9, 14 2005, weren't they?

15 A. Yes, they would have been involved, I'm sure, in 16 the arrest.

17 Q. It's probably been awhile, so I'm going to offer 18 you an exhibit, just to help refresh your 19 recollection.

20 (Exhibit No. 2 marked for identification.)

21 Q. I have marked this as Exhibit 2. And what it is 22 is a DCI report, looks like Special Agent
23 Fassbender is the author of this one. And it 24 details a meeting with Mr. Avery on November 9 25 2005, and his arrest pursuant to an arrest

1 warrant?

2 A. Okay.

3 Q. Yeah, and then, you know, continues from there.

4 My -- The copy I have given you sort of helpfully 5 has what we call a Bates Stamp Number on the 6 bottom right corner, begins State?

7 A. Okay.

8 Q. And the first page is State 0536?

9 A. Yes, okay.

10 Q. If you go to State 0546?

11 A. Okay.

12 Q. At the top, what we have is -- and I think this 13 is Mr. Fassbender authoring the report, yes.

14 Yeah, the reporting law enforcement officer on 15 the front is Thomas Fassbender. And what he is 16 doing starts at the bottom of the preceding page.
17 He is describing here Investigator Wiegert and 18 himself informing Steven Avery about 12:47 in the 19 afternoon that they had an arrest warrant for 20 him.

21 A. Okay.

22 Q. And they are out at Earl Avery's house, which is 23 where they found Mr. Avery that -- Steven Avery
24 that day. And as I read it, what Investigator 25 Wiegert told Steven, that in arresting him he

1 would not place him in handcuffs if Steven was 2 cooperative and did not cause any problems. And 3 Steven advised that he would not cause any 4 problems. Do you see that at the top of 5 Page 0546?

6 A. Okay. Yes. I see that, yes.

7 Q. Now, people like me wish that law enforcement 8 officers would show that sort of humanity and 9 judgment more often, but in point of fact, this 10 is unusual to take someone into custody and not 11 handcuff them, isn't it?

12 A. They are given discretion of whether or not they 13 wish to handcuff individuals.

14 Q. Right. And in your experience, more often than 15 not that discretion is exercised in favor of 16 handcuffing someone who's just being arrested 17 pursuant to an arrest warrant, correct?

18 A. Well, again, it's done for several different 19 reasons; if they feel that individual needs to be 20 handcuffed, they will.

21 Q. Right.

22 A. If they wish to possibly gain that individual's 23 cooperation or gain rapport with that individual, 24 they may not.

25 Q. Sure. And that's where the discretion comes in?

1 A. That is correct.

2 Q. Or maybe someone is very aged, or has bad 3 arthritis, or whatever it is?

4 A. Yes, there's a number of things that would be 5 taken into consideration --

6 Q. Sure.

7 A. -- or could be.

8 Q. Someone, an arrestee, might be well known to the 9 officer and, you know, the officer figures he 10 knows this person's character well enough to make 11 that judgment call, correct?

12 A. Yes, that would be something that they could, but 13 again, the whole situation has to be weighed.

14 Q. Right. And -- And whatever the considerations
15 were, what we know here is that Investigator 16 Wiegert and Mr. Fassbender felt comfortable
17 coming down on the side of not handcuffing Steven 18 Avery when they arrested him on this case?

19 A. According to this report, yes.

20 Q. Transporting him in a car, correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. That was a DCI car, right?

23 A. I don't know.

24 Q. I think it says that. I'm sorry, and it's 25 further down that page, the middle paragraph that

1 says at 12:50 p.m.?

2 A. Okay.

3 Q. So they're -- They are driving Mr. Avery off to 4 get his DNA taken?

5 A. Okay. Well, yes, okay, would have been 6 Mr. Fassbender's vehicle, yes.

7 Q. You are familiar with that car, aren't you?

8 A. Yes, I am.

9 Q. It's not a cage car?

10 A. No, it's not.

11 Q. You haven't heard anything about Mr. Avery taking 12 that opportunity, when freshly put under arrest, 13 to try to hurt Mr. Wiegert, or try to hurt 14 Mr. Fassbender, have you?

15 A. No, I have not.

16 Q. Do you think you would have heard that?

17 A. I'm sure I would have.

18 Q. Finally, Paragraph 5, I think I have heard about 19 this person, but I want to make sure that I'm 20 thinking of the same one you are.

21 A. Okay.

22 Q. There's a woman who holds herself out as a 23 pastor, or a minister, who comes to visit 24 Mr. Avery, correct?

25 A. That is correct.

1 Q. All right. And she has a pastoral assistant, or 2 an assistant minister, or someone with her often,
3 correct?

4 A. That is correct.

5 Q. Also a woman?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Have you met both these women?

8 A. Yes, I have.

9 Q. These two ministers?

10 A. Mm-hmm.

11 Q. Without insulting anyone, are these two women 12 both at least 70 years old if they are a day?

13 A. They would be elderly, yes.

14 Q. Okay. And I'm not suggesting you know exactly 15 how old they are?

16 A. That is correct, I do not.

17 Q. Elderly women who are apparently ministers by 18 vocation?

19 A. Yes, that's what I have been informed.

20 Q. And they also minister to, or have played some 21 pastoral role, apparently, with Jodi Stachowski?

22 A. Okay. I'm not aware if --

23 Q. Oh, okay. Maybe -- Then let me go at it this 24 way.

25 A. Okay.

1 Q. Was Jodi Stachowski the first -- the third person 2 in the car on this incident?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. All right. So there's these two elderly female 5 ministers and Jodi Stachowski in the car?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. And as I understand, the car comes up alongside, 8 or stops at the same red light or something as a 9 Sheriff's Department van or car in which 10 Mr. Avery was being taken to court?

11 A. Yes, in Manitowoc. But they had noticed that 12 this vehicle had been following them from the 13 City of Chilton.

14 Q. Probably going to the same court appearance 15 Mr. Avery was going to, right?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. And the best way from Chilton to Manitowoc 18 is Highway 151?

19 A. That would be correct.

20 Q. And I'm not going to get into your routes of 21 travel, but in any event, Mr. Avery was going to 22 Manitowoc, from Chilton, for a court appearance?

23 A. That is correct.

24 Q. Okay. Did these three women wave to Mr. Avery, 25 or what exactly did they do when their car was 1 nearby?

2 A. I know they made contact, but again, I know that 3 the officers felt uncomfortable with this vehicle
4 following them and also felt very uncomfortable 5 when the vehicle pulled up beside them and they 6 realized who it was.

7 Q. All right. When you say contact, there was no 8 physical contact made?

9 A. No. Visual.

10 Q. Visual contact. Okay. So Mr. Avery is in the 11 Sheriff's car and the three women are in one of 12 their cars?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. All right. You are not aware of Mr. Avery saying 15 anything at all in your custody to try to arrange 16 this encounter, are you?

17 A. We haven't been able to determine how the 18 arrangement was made. All we were informed of is 19 that they waited for the vehicle to pass while 20 they were parked at the Kwik Trip in Chilton and 21 then proceeded to follow the vehicle from that 22 location to Manitowoc.

23 Q. All right. If there were arrangements, and if 24 Mr. Avery had been a party to them, you would 25 have a recording of that, wouldn't you?

1 A. I would hope so, yes.

2 Q. All right. And those have been listened to and 3 there's been no evidence that Mr. Avery was part 4 of any arrangements there may have been, right?

5 A. That I'm aware of, yes.

6 Q. Okay. Did Mr. Avery try to escape when he saw 7 these two elderly women and Jodi Stachowski in 8 the car?

9 A. No, he did not.

10 Q. Did he do anything inappropriate at all?

11 A. Not that I'm aware of.

12 Q. Do you think someone would have told you if he 13 had?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Did the two elderly ministers brandish weapons, 16 or try to run the car off the road, or do 17 anything overt?

18 A. No. No.

19 Q. Okay. Was just --

20 A. But we -- they were --

21 Q. A feeling of discomfort.

22 A. Yes. They were informed that we did not look 23 favorably upon that, and that it would not happen 24 again or action would be taken.

25 Q. And they were informed of that later, but not

1 much later, correct?

2 A. Not much later, no.

3 Q. Right.

4 A. It was within a day or so.

5 Q. Somebody spoke to the minister or the minister's 6 assistant, said huh-uh, that -- you are not going 7 to be coming up and waving at Mr. Avery, right?

8 A. Yes. Lieutenant Byrnes took care of that, yes.

9 Q. Okay. That didn't result in an arrest or 10 anything like that, just a warning?

11 A. A warning, yes.

12 Q. All right. Mr. Avery didn't have to be warned 13 about the incident because he didn't do anything,
14 right?

15 A. He was in custody and he was not warned, no. I 16 can't say that he wasn't told that we didn't 17 appreciate that. He may have, and I'm not aware 18 if he was.

19 Q. Oh, sure, I understand, but I mean, he didn't 20 take any action that required any sort of 21 discipline or warning of him?

22 A. That is correct.

23 Q. Um, do you understand -- Just so that we're on 24 the same page, you understand that nothing in my 25 motion is intended to have any impact at all on 1 your jail, correct?

2 A. That is correct.

3 Q. Or on transport of Mr. Avery anywhere?

4 A. That is correct.

5 Q. Okay. You understand that my motion is talking 6 only about things that happened in the courtroom?

7 A. Yeah, I understand that.

8 Q. Okay. Thank you.

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: That's all I have, your 10 Honor.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Kratz, do you have any 12 questions?

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Just two points of 14 clarification.

15 CROSS-EXAMINATION

16 BY ATTORNEY KRATZ:

17 Q. As I understand, Sheriff, you have brought 18 somebody with you here today who can describe in 19 better terms than you the use of the stun belt, 20 and if there's any questions of the Court as to 21 how that might, not only in theory but in 22 practice, work in this case?

23 A. That is correct. The deputy that I have brought 24 with me has been trained by the company in the 25 use of the stun belt. And he in turn is a

1 trainer of other -- other jailers at the Calumet
2 County Sheriff's Department.

3 Q. Lastly, for point of clarification, since I'm not 4 really asking questions to make a record, the 5 arrest on the 9th of November of Mr. Avery, was 6 that for what's called a status offense; that is,
7 having been a convicted felon who had possessed a 8 firearm, not an arrest for homicide or any 9 related charges; is that right?

10 A. That is accurate.

11 ATTORNEY KRATZ: That's all I've got,
12 Judge, thank you.

13 THE COURT: You may be seated.

14 THE WITNESS: Okay.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Strang, are there any other 16 witnesses you wish to question?

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: I don't need to question
18 anybody else. I will be happy to argue the point, 19 and I would move the admission of Exhibits 1 and 2.

20 THE COURT: Any objection to the exhibits?
21 Very well, they are admitted. Mr. Strang.

22 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, first of all,
23 within the broad limits that the constitution or 24 state law may require, I'm fully in agreement with 25 the proposition that sheriffs should run jails and

1 sheriffs should have a good deal of latitude in 2 being responsible in deciding how to handle prisoner 3 or detainee movement.

4 The motion really goes no further than 5 proceedings in a court and, indeed, it's a little 6 bit narrower than that, proceedings in a 7 courtroom when the jury is present, or potential 8 jurors may be present. So I'm not asking this 9 Court to superintend security arrangements or the 10 handling of Mr. Avery or anyone else in custody, 11 beyond proceedings for which the Court itself, 12 not the sheriff, is directly responsible.

13 And I -- I have come to know a little 14 casually, a little bit, Sheriff Pagel, in the 15 last year, and have been impressed with his 16 thoughtfulness, and his candor, and the way he's 17 treated defense counsel.

18 That said, I don't think that the record 19 here rises anywhere near the level that would be 20 necessary to justify a stun belt or any similar 21 restraint being used, in this case, in a
22 courtroom in which jurors, or potential jurors, 23 are present. The Illinois Supreme Court's list 24 of considerations, I'm sure not intended to be 25 exhaustive, and not adopted at all by any

1 Wisconsin court so far as I know, nevertheless, 2 are pretty useful and cover a lot of things that 3 a court reasonably might consider here.

4 The seriousness of the present charge is 5 given. It's a serious charge. The defendant's 6 temperament and character, we have heard some 7 general stuff about, nothing that suggests any 8 specific risk in this case, or to any person in 9 this case. And the Court itself has had an 10 opportunity to observe Mr. Avery directly when he 11 is in court.

12 Now, since November, 2005, and we have 13 been here a number of times, and I'm certainly 14 aware of nothing menacing, or inappropriate, or 15 ill-behaved, that he's ever done in court. So I 16 think that's a positive factor here on balance, 17 or at very worst a neutral. The defendant's age 18 and physical characteristics, he is not 19 particularly young. He is not highly muscular, 20 or sculpted, or physically huge, someone who's a 21 great deal larger than the average law 22 enforcement officer, or the average human being 23 for that matter.

24 His past record, he has a past record.
25 It's less lengthy than many people the Court sees

1 parade through here, or sit at counsel table,
2 including many who are not restrained in a stun 3 belt. There's no record of past escapes or 4 attempted escapes by Mr. Avery. And, indeed, 5 Sheriff Pagel was candid enough to tell us that 6 since November 9, 2005, there doesn't seem to 7 have been any planning, or any effort by him
8 suggesting an intention to escape.

9 Any threats by the defendant to harm
10 others or create a disturbance, there's nothing 11 as to creating a disturbance. And the only 12 threats we have, it turns out now, I guess, were 13 made by the defendant's father, not by Steven 14 Avery, and his response was to laugh.

15 That's hard to gauge as between father
16 and son. We have all been -- or at least the men 17 in the room have been in the position of being a 18 son at some point in their lives. And for 19 myself, I know I have -- during his lifetime I 20 laughed at some of the things my father said 21 rather than get into an argument or a 22 confrontation.

23 So it's hard to put much weight on that 24 conversation, particularly where the threat, if 25 it, you know, if the threat it was meant to be,

1 as opposed to venting, or hyperbole, or just 2 inappropriate show of support and anger on behalf
3 of one's son. It's hard to put any real weight 4 on that, particularly where the question is not 5 whether Allen Avery should be in a stun belt, but 6 whether Steven Avery ought be in a stun belt.

7 We don't have any evidence of 8 self-destructive tendencies of the defendant.
9 There doesn't seem to be any risk of mob violence
10 or attempted revenge by others. And it's worth 11 noting here that the Halbach family and their 12 friends and supporters have been, at all times, 13 while I've been around, entirely well-mannered, 14 dignified.

15 Absolutely nothing coming from the 16 Halbach family that would suggest that they have 17 any intention, other than respecting the dignity 18 of the Court, respecting the human dignity of the 19 people in the courtroom, Mr. Avery included, and 20 conducting themselves honorably as they have 21 every minute they have been here, in these 22 proceedings. And I would extend that to anybody 23 I have seen sitting on their side of the 24 courtroom, so to speak, whether those are 25 friends, or friends of Teresa's, more distant

1 relatives.

2 I don't know who they are, but I haven't 3 seen anybody in this courtroom, on either side, 4 honestly, who has caused any problem, or behaved
5 inappropriately in any way that I know. And I 6 have been in past murder prosecutions and I'm, as 7 this Court probably is aware, when that kind of 8 tension is in the air, it just hasn't been here
9 in this case.

10 There's nothing to suggest a possibility 11 of rescue attempts by other offenders still at 12 large. The only person the State contends to be 13 another offender is himself in custody. The 14 State has been pretty clear that at least as to 15 third party actors, there's one and one only that 16 they think there even would be appropriate 17 evidence about, and as I say, he is in -- he is 18 in custody.

19 I understand, I'm putting myself in the 20 shoes of a law enforcement officer, I can 21 understand why one might be uncomfortable about a 22 car appearing to follow on the way to court. And 23 in pulling alongside at the red light, or 24 whatever it was.

25 But, you know, the reality is here, this

1 turns out to be the right Reverend Granny 2 Clampett, and her septuagenarian sidekick, and 3 Mr. Avery's girlfriend. And nobody does 4 anything, apparently, other than wave or look at 5 Mr. Avery, and he does nothing at all.

6 So, again, even if this were a showing
7 sufficient to put Granny Clampett in the stun 8 belt, it doesn't warrant putting Steven Avery in 9 one. And it's worth noting there that, you know, 10 Mr. Avery's every word is listened to. And as 11 the Court knows from a prior motion, he is not 12 having contact visits with either of these two 13 ministers. These are through the glass and they 14 are tape recorded. So the Calumet County 15 Sheriff's Department or some investigator on this 16 case would know if Mr. Avery had participated in 17 some planning for this, you know, car incident on 18 the way to court.

19 Size and mood of the audience, again, I 20 already covered. It doesn't suggest restraining 21 Mr. Avery. The nature and physical security of 22 the courtroom is actually very good in Calumet
23 County. The jail is right down the secured 24 hallway. I expect there will be deputies in the 25 courtroom. Spectators are going through a

1 magnetometer, so no one is going to pass a weapon
2 to Mr. Avery, or use a weapon against him, not 3 that a stun belt on him would help allay that 4 concern in any event.

5 So I think, in the end, the adequacy and 6 availability of the usual alternate remedies,
7 which is to have bailiffs, and we have two case
8 agents here rather than just one, both of whom I 9 expect may well be armed during this trial, 10 really more than suffices here.

11 And without going into the gruesome
12 details of the cases, I include enough in my 13 motion to make clear, I think, that what we're 14 talking about with an 8 second, 50,000-volt jolt 15 to the kidneys is electrocuting someone. It's 16 not intended to be lethal, but similar devices 17 have been.

18 The law review I cited collects some of 19 that information. And it is almost common sense 20 to understand that cardiac arrhythmia or other 21 problems could be caused by this. People 22 defecate involuntarily, not infrequently, when 23 these things are activated. They urinate on 24 themselves involuntarily. And they are 25 incapacitated, not just for the time of the jolt,

1 but for a long time after.

2 You have a mistrial is what happens, I
3 think, when these things go off, or at least you
4 have a serious mistrial issue, which the Ohio 5 Supreme Court had to deal with, and ultimately 6 affirmed the trial court's decision not to grant 7 a mistrial, but it was -- it was a serious issue.

8 And the manufacturer of the react device 9 at least advertises it as something that gives 10 law enforcement total psychological control over 11 the person wearing the belt. Well, when he is on 12 trial, facing life in prison, and trying to 13 decide whether to testify, trying to assist 14 counsel, trying to confront, in the 15 constitutional sense, the witnesses against him, 16 an accused has the right not to be under the 17 total psychological control of his adversaries,
18 and sitting their fearing that if he says
19 something wrong, or does something that a 20 sheriff's deputy doesn't like, or just by 21 accident, since accidental activation of these 22 devices are well reported in the cases, that this 23 device will go off and incapacitate him.

24 So we're talking about a very serious 25 device here and something that is intended and

1 only can be expected to have a very strong
2 psychological impact on the person wearing them.
3 Has a psychological impact on me wondering
4 whether, if I happen to have my arm around him 5 when this thing goes off whether I, too, will be 6 knocked to the floor and lose control of my 7 bowels.

8 I just don't think there's a record here
9 that warrants it in a courtroom. And a courtroom 10 is the only thing we're talking about.

11 THE COURT: All right. Anything from the 12 State?

13 ATTORNEY KRATZ: Very briefly, Judge,
14 Mr. Pagel reminds me that the kind of belt that 15 Mr. Strang is alluding to is not the kind used by 16 the Calumet County Sheriff's Department and can be 17 inquired further should the Court need to do that.

18 I would ask the Court take judicial 19 notice not only of Mr. Avery's criminal history, 20 but the pleadings in this case, including our 21 other acts motion, would note that not all 22 factors that Mr. Strang has alluded to are of 23 equal importance when considering this security 24 issue. Obviously, the seriousness of the 25 offense, the facts alleged in the Complaint, his

1 history of violence, all, the State believes, are 2 more important than whether a 70 year old woman
3 waved at Mr. Avery at some point in the past.

4 And, finally, would point the Court to 5 the appellate decision of State vs. Russ, 6 R-u-s-s, decided in 2005. And I know that's a 7 shackle case not a stun belt case, but does, when 8 at least complaining about some due process
9 violations, place upon the defense a burden -- a 10 burden of proof that there be some actual 11 prevention of communicating with their clients in 12 order to establish that there's been some 13 deprivation on a constitutional or due process
14 level. That's all the comments I have. And once 15 again, Judge, we'll defer to the Court as to the 16 court security issue. Thank you.

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: And I certainly have no
18 objection to the Court taking judicial notice of the 19 files in this case, or for that matter, of 20 Mr. Avery's prior record.

21 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to take a
22 minute -- I'm not going to take it today -- but I'm 23 going to go back and look at the other acts motion.
24 It's been a while since I looked at that, and I will 25 give the parties a decision next week.

1 I think that wraps up our agenda for 2 today, does it not, counsel?

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: If it does, I did want to 4 clarify one point. I'm sitting here thinking, and I 5 don't remember how the final answer came out in our 6 discussion with Mr. Buting on the bones. And I 7 don't know if he's going to prepare an order or not, 8 but just so it's clear that any opinions regarding 9 what's human or what's not human, or whatever, the 10 only opinion on that is going to come from 11 Dr. Eisenberg. And that the only thing that the FBI 12 mitochondrial report says, that we weren't able to 13 determine any mitochondrial identification as that 14 may pertain to the issue of human or non-human, or 15 animal, or what have you.

16 So, I mean, those are the only two 17 entities that could offer any evidence,
18 vis-a-vis, that particular question or issue.
19 And so it's whatever the reports say. I mean -- 20 So I just wanted to be sure. I can't remember 21 how we left it, but I didn't want to leave 22 anybody with a misunderstanding of what may or 23 may not come down the road, it's all in 24 Dr. Eisenberg's report.

25 THE COURT: That's my understanding or my

ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes.

THE COURT: All right. We're adjourned for today. Mr. Kratz.

ATTORNEY KRATZ: What time did you want us here on Monday, I had forgotten?

THE COURT: We're going to start at 8:30. So try and get here around 8:20. We'll start with bringing a juror in at 8:30.

ATTORNEY STRANG: Where is here?

THE COURT: Here is going to be this courtroom. We're adjourned for today.

ATTORNEY KRATZ: Thank you, your Honor.

1 THE COURT: At this time the Court calls
2 State of Wisconsin vs. Steven Avery. It's Case No.
3 05 CF 381. This proceeding is scheduled this 4 morning for the beginning of individual voir dire of 5 the jury panel members. Will the parties state
6 their appearances for the record, please.

7 ATTORNEY KRATZ: State appears by Calumet
8 County District Attorney Ken Kratz and Assistant 9 Attorney General Tom Fallon, both appearing as 10 Special Prosecutors.

11 ATTORNEY BUTING: Buting and Williams by 12 Attorney Jerome Buting appearing on behalf of 13 Mr. Avery, who's present. Also Dean Strang.

14 THE COURT: Very well, I will note at the 15 outset that no members of the jury panel are present 16 in the courtroom at this time. The jurors are 17 present -- or the jurors who will be questioned this 18 morning are present and assembled in the jury room.

19 They will be brought into the courtroom 20 one by one for individual voir dire. I would 21 also note, before we commence individual voir
22 dire, that the parties in this case have agreed 23 to a jury selection process in which the 24 questions normally asked by the Court on general 25 voir dire have been, in large part, replaced by a

1 lengthy jury questionnaire completed by the 2 members of the jury panel last week.

3 The Court in that questionnaire
4 incorporated many, though not all, of the 5 questions proposed by the parties for inclusion
6 in the questionnaire. To assure that adequate 7 instructions concerning the questions on the 8 questionnaire were given to the jurors and that 9 all questionnaires were completed, the 10 administration of the questionnaires took place 11 in the courtroom last week.

12 The Court was not actually in session 13 while the questionnaires themselves were being 14 completed. However, the Court was in session to 15 give the jurors instructions before the 16 questionnaires were completed. At this time I 17 wish to confirm on the record that that process 18 is acceptable to both of the parties in this 19 case. Mr. Fallon.

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, your Honor, that is 21 acceptable. I don't know if this is the point but 22 we did have some questions regarding the time 23 limits, but other than that that process seems fine.

24 THE COURT: Very well. Mr. Buting or 25 Mr. Strang.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: As I recall the part of 2 this process that was acceptable to the defense is 3 the special jury questionnaire substituting for the 4 Court's general voir dire questions. We were not 5 happy with the lawyer's part of general voir dire 6 being eliminated entirely by the questionnaire
7 process.

8 But we have no objection to the manner 9 in which the administration of the questionnaire 10 was handled, the distribution of it and the 11 jurors filling it out, outside of Mr. Avery's 12 presence or counsel's presence. And we too will 13 have the same objections to the Court's proposed 14 limit on individual voir dire.

15 THE COURT: I understand you may have been 16 unhappy, but I didn't understand that there was an 17 objection made to the process as it's gone thus far.

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: I don't know that we have 19 ever been on the record about this, have we? And I 20 don't mean to be saying anything different.

21 THE COURT: I don't know if we have been on 22 the record of it, I know it's been discussed. I was 23 not under the impression that either party was going 24 to make an objection to the procedure as it's gone 25 this far. Although, I did understand that the

1 parties both were concerned about any time limits
2 that the Court placed on individual voir dire
3 questions.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: Okay.

5 THE COURT: And I also understand that the 6 party -- each of the parties, as I mentioned 7 earlier, submitted questions that the Court did not 8 include on the questionnaire, which I assume the 9 parties, if they wish, will follow up on in 10 individual voir dire.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: Right. And again, I 12 don't mean to be saying anything different than we 13 have discussed off the record. I don't have any 14 objection to the procedure as the Court just 15 described it. I do think I recall saying, and I 16 thought Mr. Fallon was of the same mind, we were 17 concerned about the lawyers not having any 18 general -- or maybe it was Mr. Gahn who joined in on 19 this -- any opportunity to address the panel as a 20 whole. And that's all I meant to be saying just a 21 moment ago.

22 But I have no objection, again, to the 23 Court's portion of general voir dire having been 24 committed to the questionnaire and I understand 25 that the Court used some of our questions and not

1 others of our questions and I'm not objecting to 2 that. So, if there's been some miscommunication, 3 I don't mean to be saying anything different than 4 I have said off the record.

5 THE COURT: Well, I think it's important to 6 know for the record whether or not there's any 7 objections to the jury selection procedures that's 8 taken place thus far. I thought, actually, the 9 parties submitted written correspondence agreeing to 10 this, but I don't have it committed to memory.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: And I don't, you know, so 12 much of this has been done off the record, I don't 13 have all of it committed to memory either. As a 14 practical matter, provided we get adequate time for 15 individual voir dire of jurors, there's not going to 16 be any great harm to Mr. Avery in not having had an 17 opportunity to talk to the panel as a whole.

18 And I understand that voir dire is a 19 process committed largely to the Court's 20 discretion. So, I mean, I'm just trying to make 21 a record of what I thought some months of 22 conversations were. And I will stand corrected 23 if it's my memory that has failed or I have not 24 understood clearly.

25 THE COURT: All right. Well, the Court has

1 been on the record, at least before the 2 administration of the questionnaires, with the 3 explanation of the procedure at that time. I'm not 4 sure if the defendant is making an objection at this 5 time to the use of the questionnaires to replace 6 general voir dire or not, but at least I certainly, 7 until this time, did not understand that there was 8 an objection to any portion of the jury selection 9 procedures to this point. Though I do understand 10 that the -- both parties wish to be heard today on 11 the limit that the Court has set for individual voir
12 dire; that is, I wanted to limit each party to 15 13 minutes of individual voir dire with respect to each 14 individual juror.

15 As I have indicated to the parties
16 earlier, the parties can request additional time 17 if they feel it's necessary, depending on the 18 answers given by any of the individual jurors to 19 questions that are asked on individual voir dire.
20 However, I would note that the information on the 21 questionnaires themselves is far in excess of the 22 information which is normally gleaned from 23 general voir dire proceedings.

24 Because of the size of the panel in this 25 case, I question the efficacy of the normal

1 process of general voir dire where you ask jurors
2 to raise their hands. Not only that, in many 3 cases, when jurors don't raise their hands, the 4 Court doesn't know if they are just thinking 5 about an answer or, because of social pressure, 6 don't want to be the only ones to raise their 7 hands, whereas when we give them a jury 8 questionnaire, they have to answer every 9 question.

10 So I did feel in this case that the use 11 of an extensive questionnaire was the most 12 effective way to glean the information that the 13 Court would normally glean in the course of 14 general voir dire. And at least to this point, I 15 haven't understood that either party objected to 16 that procedure.

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: Why don't I take a moment 18 with counsel for the State, off the record, just to 19 see whether I'm the outlier in terms of, you know, 20 my recollection.

21 THE COURT: All right. We'll take a short 22 break, go off the record.

23 (Brief recess taken.)

24 THE COURT: All right. We're back on the 25 record.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: That was helpful, thank 2 you for the indulgence, your Honor. With 3 Mr. Fallon's help, I remember now two conversations 4 bearing on this, one of which I can place as 5 happening in the jury room, off the record, and the 6 other I can't place at all; although, Mr. Fallon
7 specifically recalls it being one of our Friday 8 afternoon off the record telephonic conferences in 9 which he raised a concern about normally a 10 supplemental jury questionnaire is exactly that, it 11 supplements general voir dire, and I joined that 12 concern.

13 And then in the jury room, I think it
14 was Mr. Gahn who inquired of the Court, oh, does 15 this mean we are not going to have a chance to 16 talk to the panel as a group and to get some 17 interaction how one reacts to another's answer or 18 experience. And I chimed in on that or I may -- 19 I don't know if I started that conversation or 20 Mr. Gahn chimed in, but he and I, I think, both 21 spoke.

22 And that led to a further discussion
23 apparently about individual voir dire perhaps 24 being a good solution to avoid losing a large 25 panel if there was an inadvertent answer by one

1 juror that would have presented a problem for the 2 whole panel. And I think at that point some 3 consensus developed that we could pursue the 4 individual voir dire route and maybe accomplish 5 most of what we need to. This was before the 6 Court had suggested a 10 or 15 minute time limit 7 per side on individual voir dire.

8 So I think the issues get linked. I
9 mean, we're in a discretionary area where, you 10 know, the Court has the discretion to deny the 11 lawyers questioning on general voir dire of the 12 whole panel, and to implement an individual voir 13 dire procedure. But that procedure will have to 14 be sufficient in the end to allow the parties two 15 opportunities, one, to ascertain if there is a 16 basis to move to strike a juror for cause; 17 objective bias, subjective bias, or some other
18 cause.

19 And two, to allow the parties to 20 exercise their peremptory strikes intelligently.
21 And certainly, as to the accused at least, that's 22 a right with constitutional footing under both 23 Wisconsin and the federal constitutions,
24 Article 1, Section 7 and 8 of the Wisconsin 25 Constitution and the Fourteenth Amendment of the 1 United States Constitution.

2 So the two issues do become linked.
3 There isn't any harm to Mr. Avery in the loss of 4 general voir dire by the lawyers, provided that 5 individual voir dire adequately makes up for the 6 loss of general and allows those two critical 7 purposes of voir dire to be accomplished in the 8 end.

9 THE COURT: So does -- Do I take that to 10 mean that the defendant has no objections to the 11 conduct of the voir dire procedure to this point, 12 but the defendant still is concerned about the 13 length of time the Court is allowing for individual 14 voir dire and may object if the defense doesn't feel 15 that time is enough?

16 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else from 18 either of the parties on the voir dire procedure as 19 it's been conducted to date?

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: Other than previously
21 discussed, no.

22 THE COURT: All right. Now, do any 23 party -- either of the parties wish to make comment
24 at this time about the Court's proposed procedure 25 from this point forward? And just to reiterate for

1 the record, as we discussed scheduling in this 2 matter in the past, I indicated that because of 3 the -- well, the need both to get sufficient 4 information on voir dire to allow the parties to 5 intelligently exercise their peremptory strikes and 6 evaluate the jury panel, on the one hand, and on the 7 other hand, to have voir dire conducted within a 8 reasonable period of time, I did indicate to the 9 parties previously that I thought that 15 minutes
10 per juror on voir dire, from each party, that 15 11 minutes worth of questions on individual voir dire 12 for each party should be sufficient to enable each 13 of the parties to consider the information gleaned 14 on individual voir dire, in addition to the 15 information on the jury questionnaires, to 16 intelligently evaluate the jurors for their 17 objectivity.

18 As counsel has indicated in their 19 comments, I believe both parties have concerns 20 they wish to place on the record with respect to 21 that ruling. Mr. Fallon, I will hear from you 22 first.

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you, your Honor.
24 The State would take issue with a 15 minute time
25 limit with respect to questioning the individual

1 jurors. We realize it's been the Court's 2 prerogative to determine the procedure and the 3 manner in which jury selection is conducted. But 4 when the State submitted it's proposed supplemental 5 jury questionnaire on December 1st, the State was 6 still, I believe, laboring under the impression 7 that, first of all, that it would be a supplement to 8 the general juror questionnaire which every juror 9 fills out and is in abbreviated form.

10 I think we were unsure as to how much 11 general voir dire, if any, would occur in the 12 case. I agree with counsel's rendition, we did 13 have a conference in chambers, I think it was in 14 November, where this issue was brought up. And 15 at that time there was a discussion regarding 16 general voir dire, as counsel represented. And I
17 think it might have been myself who said, well, 18 there are some advantages to an individual voir 19 dire to lessen the likelihood of any 20 contamination of the panel as a whole by 21 responses obtained from certain members,
22 especially on questions regarding subjective
23 bias.

24 And I think the parties at that time
25 were under the impression, and that I think

1 argument carried the day, but at that time there 2 was no time limit, we were not laboring under the 3 impression that there would be any time limit to 4 the individual voir dire.

5 My second comment is that when the State 6 submitted it's questionnaire on December 1st and 7 then did not hear any significant objection from 8 the defense or the Court, the State was under the 9 impression that just about all the questions in 10 its questionnaire would be asked or be part of 11 the general questionnaire here. And not having 12 any communications or any objections from the 13 Court, or even concerns expressed by the Court, 14 and no objections from the defense, we were under 15 the impression that those questions would be 16 asked.

17 And that, again, would I think have 18 expedited, at least from the State's perspective, 19 the follow-up time on individual voir dire.
20 After all, that's the purpose of voir dire after 21 the use of a supplemental juror questionnaire, is 22 to follow up on the answers. And since several 23 questions were omitted, I may very well have 10
24 to -- well, depending on the juror -- 5 to 12 25 minutes per juror just asking the questions that

1 were not included. And then I may have anywhere
2 from no questions to five or six or seven 3 questions to follow up on the answers which are 4 included.

5 So, from that perspective, I am 6 concerned that a time limit of 15 minutes per 7 juror would be inadequate for us to flush out the 8 potential of subjective or objective bias. I
9 would state for the record, in my review, that I 10 don't see any issues of statutory bias
11 confronting us.

12 But in terms of subjective bias and of 13 seven or eight possible objective bias cases, it 14 seems to me that the 15 minute time limit seems 15 unreasonable, in all fairness to the Court, and 16 doesn't provide an ample opportunity to explore 17 those two issues. So as a result of which, we 18 would ask leave of the Court to be relieved from 19 15 minutes.

20 Now, having said that, I fully 21 acknowledge that there are several jurors here
22 that I may have very few questions for, other 23 than the ones I originally submitted in the jury 24 questionnaire, which were not included. In which 25 case, 15 minutes may very well do the trick.

1 There may be others that will take longer.

2 So, from the State's perspective, we 3 would ask the Court be a little more patient with 4 the parties. It's not like I foresee an hour per 5 juror here like that. It's nothing -- I don't 6 see that happening in the case, but it just seems 7 to me that 15 minutes would not allow us adequate 8 time to explore these potential bias issues. So 9 we would ask the Court's indulgence to be more 10 patient with the parties and provide a little 11 more time to explore those issues. Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

13 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you, your Honor.
14 Perhaps for the first time in this case, and I hope 15 not for the last, I find myself entirely in 16 agreement with Mr. Fallon's comments. All of it, I 17 adopt it. And that's the defense position as well.
18 I will amplify, to this extent, that I expect too 19 that there may be some jurors as to which a 15 20 minute block of time would be adequate for the 21 defense table to conduct individual voir dire, just 22 as he is guessing that perhaps there are some for 23 which 15 minutes would suffice for the State's 24 questions.

25 But it won't come as any surprise to the

1 Court that it also seems to me probable that when 2 the State has fewer than 15 minutes of 3 questioning, we may well have more for any given 4 juror, and vice versa. So I think the time
5 limits are not sufficient to permit at least -- I 6 will speak only for Mr. Avery here -- both to 7 ascertain accurately any -- any reason to strike
8 the juror for cause and intelligently to exercise 9 his peremptory strikes, which you are limited to 10 seven.

11 They are not -- Wisconsin doesn't 12 sprinkle peremptory strikes generously, even in 13 the most serious felony cases. So these have to 14 be used wisely. And I don't think that the time 15 limits the Court proposes will allow that as to 16 either of those two essential aspects of voir 17 dire.

18 THE COURT: All right. I'm going to, at 19 this point, use the 15 minutes as a guide. I'm not 20 going to gong the attorneys if they get past that 21 point and I will monitor it. Obviously, since we 22 haven't had individual voir dire with any juror yet, 23 the Court cannot determine for certain whether or 24 not 15 minutes is sufficient for the parties.

25 I would like to confirm before we start,

1 for the record, that both of the parties were 2 given access to all the juror questionnaires that 3 were completed by the jury panel last week and 4 the parties have provided to the Court the 5 identification of a number of jurors that they 6 jointly are recommending be excused for cause.

7 The Court has not formally ruled on 8 those requests at this time but I have used the 9 parties recommendations in establishing the order 10 in which jurors are called in for individual 11 questioning this morning; that is, passing over 12 the jurors that the parties indicate they are 13 individually recommending be stricken for cause.
14 So that will affect the order in which the jurors 15 are called in today.

16 The Court will make further rulings on 17 the motions of the parties at a later time unless 18 either party has any objection.

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, and I certainly can 20 confirm that the juror questionnaires were copied 21 timely and completely by the Clerk's Office. And we 22 had those late Monday afternoon, January 29, just as 23 promised.

24 THE COURT: Anything else from the State?

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: Nothing else, your Honor.

1 ATTORNEY STRANG: Should we -- Should we 2 note the sequence numbers of the jurors who were 3 joint recommendation for excuse for cause.

4 THE COURT: I think that would be 5 appropriate on the record. Actually, I have the 6 email in front of me so I can read it at this time.
7 To save time I will just use the numbers rather than 8 the names. It's jurors numbered, 1, 2, 9, 15, 16, 9 22, 29, 31, 40, 42, 43, 46, 48, 58, 62, 64, 80, 83, 10 84, 85, 88, 92, 94, 95, 99, 104, 108, 112, 116, 117, 11 124, 130, 141, 142, and 143. And I think the 12 parties notified the Court before we began today 13 that they would indicate the general reasons for the 14 joint recommendations. Mr. Fallon, were you going 15 to address that?

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, your Honor. Counsel
17 and I, Mr. Strang and I, conversed by telephone late 18 Thursday afternoon, after our initial review of the 19 proposed panels. It basically comes down to this, 20 the vast majority of those excused are excused for 21 cause based on our assessment of subjective bias 22 under the statute.

23 There were other jurors excused for 24 economic hardship reasons, primarily they were 25 the sole breadwinners in their home and the

1 potential of six weeks without adequate income
2 would be an unfair hardship upon them.

3 And, finally, there was a smaller group 4 of individuals who were excused for cause based 5 on either physical or mental health reasons.

6 And a fourth group included those who 7 were a mix of subjective bias and either mental 8 health or economic hardship.

9 Those are the ones that we have agreed
10 to on Thursday evening. There probably will be a 11 few more during the course of the day as both 12 counsel have reviewed the case law regarding 13 objective and subjective bias. So there may be a 14 few more sprinkled throughout the day that we 15 would come to agreement upon, but that's the 16 status as of now.

17 THE COURT: Thank you. Mr. Strang.

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: The Court read the list
19 of sequence numbers of excused jurors correctly.
20 And, again, I agree with Mr. Fallon's comments. The 21 Court certainly is welcome to include the email, 22 from which it just read, in the record.

23 And the format of that was that 24 Mr. Fallon and I agreed, after our Thursday 25 afternoon telephone call, that I would draft the

1 proposed email to your Honor, but send it only to 2 Mr. Fallon. He would look at it to make sure 3 that I hadn't loused it up. And if he was 4 satisfied that I had done it correctly, he simply 5 would forward it to the Court. And that's what 6 he did the following morning, Friday, February 2.

7 THE COURT: All right. I will print a
8 clean copy of the email for the record since I 9 marked up the one I had. Is there anything else 10 either party wishes to address before we bring in 11 the first juror?

12 ATTORNEY STRANG: One thing that I wish to 13 address, came up in chambers just this morning.
14 Greg Conway of the Green Bay law firm of Liebmann, 15 Conway, Olejniczak, & Jerry wrote to the Court by 16 fax on Friday, copied me, but I haven't seen that 17 yet because I haven't been in my office, I moved up 18 to this neck of the woods, concerning two WFRV 19 reporters and a letter they each received from -- 20 bearing my signature stamp. And the short of it is 21 is that Mr. Conway is exactly right. When I had my 22 secretary send out a merged letter to all of the 23 people on the defense witness list, I didn't 24 distinguish those very few who, in fact, were 25 excepted from the exclusion order that the Court

1 entered.

2 And both Angenette Levy and Olga
3 Halaburda, and for that matter, every other 4 member of the media are excepted from,
5 e-x-c-e-p-t-e-d, the exclusion. And they are 6 free to sit in and watch the trial proceedings.
7 And the mistake was simply that I sent the same 8 letter to all defense witnesses in fact, you 9 know, again, it was just my signature stamp and 10 then it enclosed a copy of the Court's exclusion 11 order. So the mistake is mine. And members of 12 the media are not excluded or otherwise covered 13 by the sequestration order.

14 THE COURT: Very well. Anything else?

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: We would agree with that.
16 We don't have any problem with exempting them from 17 the order.

18 THE COURT: All right. At this time we'll 19 have the first juror brought in. That will be 20 Daniel Slaby, Juror No. 3. Mr. Slaby, before we 21 begin, the Clerk will administer an oath to you.

22 THE CLERK: If you would please stand and 23 raise your right hand.

24 (Juror sworn.)

25 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Slaby, like all the other
2 members of the jury panel, you have already 3 completed a jury questionnaire in this case. The 4 next step in voir dire proceedings is to give the 5 opportunities for the -- to give the opportunity to 6 the attorneys for the parties to ask you some 7 additional questions in order to make sure that you 8 can be a fair and impartial juror.

9 There are a couple of other pieces of 10 information I wanted to pass on to you. Although 11 I did not indicate it last week, while the trial 12 in this case is expected to last approximately 13 six weeks, the jurors will not be sequestered.
14 That means the jurors will be permitted to return 15 home after court proceedings every day.

16 This decision is made possible by an 17 assurance that the jurors will not read any news 18 media accounts of the trial or talk to anyone 19 else about it during the trial. So that will 20 remain very important should you be selected as a 21 juror.

22 I also wanted you to know that although 23 these proceedings are open, no cameras are 24 permitted in the courtroom during voir dire
25 proceedings. And the news media is not allowed

1 to identify individual jurors by name in news
2 reports. And in addition, jurors who are 3 selected to serve in the trial will not be on 4 camera during the trial itself.

5 If you are not stricken for cause 6 following the proceedings this morning, you will 7 receive further written instructions as to when 8 to return to court. With that background, 9 Mr. Fallon, you may begin your voir dire.

10 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

11 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

12 Q. Good morning, Mr. Slaby.

13 A. Good morning.

14 Q. I just have a few questions for you. Hopefully 15 they will be easy enough for you. We're not 16 looking to embarrass anyone. We're just looking 17 for some information to help us in selecting a 18 jury.

19 So, first of all, do you have any close
20 friends or relatives who work in the media
21 business; newspapers, television, radio internet?

22 A. No, I don't.

23 Q. You do not, okay. Are you an individual when you 24 see a news story or you find something 25 interesting in the news, do you use other sources

1 to investigate the information behind the story, 2 like for instance some people go to libraries and 3 check out books and read up on things, or 4 magazines. Today the most common item is the 5 internet. Do you have a tendency to search out 6 for the story behind the story as it were?

7 A. No, not usually.

8 Q. Okay. There's a possibility in this particular 9 case that there may be some testimony from a 10 co-defendant. Do you have any opinions as to the 11 appropriateness of someone who's accused of a 12 crime testifying against the other co-defendant 13 in a case?

14 A. No.

15 Q. In your day-to-day affairs, talking with people, 16 in your work, or even in your personal 17 relationships, if you find that someone has 18 not -- has not been correct in providing you some 19 information, in so far as it's inconsistent with 20 something they previously said to you or is 21 inconsistent with something that someone else 22 said, do you have a tendency to disregard that 23 opinion on its face or do you look further?

24 A. Probably just disregard.

25 Q. All right. And so, if you have a tendency to 1 disregard, would you disregard everything that 2 person told you or just that particular opinion 3 or viewpoint?

4 A. Probably depends on the person.

5 Q. All right. And what are some of the things that 6 you would look at in determining -- in making 7 that determination?

8 A. I don't really -- I don't know what you're 9 asking.

10 Q. Okay. Well, if -- What do you do for a living 11 again?

12 A. I'm a maintenance worker.

13 Q. All right. And if there's a snafu at the job, 14 say one of your workers didn't conduct or perform 15 a task up to appropriate standards, and they had 16 told you that they did, and someone else, or a 17 few from your own knowledge, realized that they 18 had not, do you have a tendency to disregard 19 everything that person tells you, or everything 20 they do, or do you look at other factors in 21 determining that person's credibility?

22 A. Probably just disregard.

23 Q. Okay. Have you or anyone close to you ever been 24 in charge of writing any safety guideline for 25 setting up or enforcing safety standards in your

1 work?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Okay. In your line of work or in any previous 4 job, have you ever been required to conduct any 5 internal investigations or follow up on any 6 behavior or activities of fellow employees?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Okay. How long have you been a resident of 9 Manitowoc County?

10 A. My whole life.

11 Q. All right. In general, how would you rate the 12 job that the Sheriff's Department is doing in 13 dealing with crime as well as the public at 14 large; would you say they are doing an excellent 15 job, a good job, a fair job, or a lousy job?

16 A. I would say fair, fair job.

17 Q. Okay. And what causes you to say they have been 18 doing a fair job?

19 A. I have nothing to suggest that they are doing a 20 poor job.

21 Q. All right. You are just a tough grader?

22 A. Just -- I don't really have a positive or a 23 negative opinion on it.

24 Q. Okay. In terms of your general impression, when 25 a police officer testifies in court, in your mind

1 how likely is it that he or she would lie under 2 oath; very likely, somewhat likely, not very 3 likely or not very likely at all?

4 A. Not very likely.

5 Q. Okay. And why would you say that?

6 A. Just that he is under oath and probably doing his 7 or her job.

8 Q. Okay. In your mind, how likely is it that a law 9 enforcement agency would conspire to convict an 10 innocent person; very likely, somewhat likely, 11 not very likely, not at all likely?

12 A. Not very likely.

13 Q. And why would you say that?

14 A. I really don't know what they would gain from it.

15 Q. Okay. In your mind, how likely is it that a law 16 enforcement agency would plant or tamper with 17 evidence to secure an arrest and/or a conviction; 18 very likely, somewhat likely, not very likely,
19 not at all likely.

20 A. Not very likely.

21 Q. Okay. Again, any particular reason why you have 22 that general opinion?

23 A. Same reason.

24 Q. All right. In your job as a maintenance 25 professional, do you use industrial solvents or

1 cleaning products such as bleach and things of 2 that sort to help you perform your job?

3 A. Very few. Very few chemicals.

4 Q. Okay. What kind of work, maintenance work, 5 exactly do you do?

6 A. Well, we -- building maintenance, plant
7 maintenance. We do some cleaning. Just a wide 8 variety. Something different every day.

9 Q. Okay. So you don't actually -- actually have to 10 do real cleaning or anything. You are kind of 11 the handy man fixer up?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. Okay. All right. I notice you brought a couple 14 of books in; do you like to read?

15 A. I usually don't have time to read.

16 Q. In your spare time, do you like to work on 17 puzzles or do you just hate doing puzzles?

18 A. I'm not a puzzle person. Not a puzzle person.

19 Q. Okay. Generally, what kind of books do you like 20 to read?

21 A. Outdoor adventure maybe.

22 Q. Okay. Have you ever seen the movie, "A Thin Blue 23 Line"?

24 A. No, I haven't.

25 Q. Okay. Would you consider yourself a -- more of a

1 detail oriented person, or are you a big picture 2 guy?

3 A. Probably a big picture person.

4 Q. Okay. Have you ever used a magazine publication 5 such as Auto Trader, or anything like that, to 6 sell a vehicle or purchase a vehicle or anything 7 like that?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Never used the internet to buy or sell, ever try
10 that?

11 A. I probably looked on the internet when I was 12 looking to buy a vehicle.

13 Q. Okay. All right. Have you ever read or heard 14 anything regarding Project Innocence here in 15 Wisconsin?

16 A. I probably never read anything about it.

17 Q. All right. Have you heard anything about it?

18 A. Probably with this story is the only time I have 19 ever heard of it.

20 Q. Okay. Any opinions on the project, or the idea 21 behind it, or anything like that? Good idea, bad 22 idea?

23 A. It's probably a good idea.

24 Q. Okay. Generally, do you think the criminal 25 justice system is either too lenient or too harsh

1 when it deals with those accused of a crime? Do 2 you have any opinion? Too harsh, too lenient, 3 just right?

4 A. I think it's fair.

5 Q. Okay. Now, I note from your questionnaire, on 6 one of the questions you were asked, have you 7 ever known anyone who was killed accidentally or 8 otherwise, you indicated your wife's cousin was 9 killed in a fire. Apparently relatively 10 recently.

11 A. Yes, it was in the fall.

12 Q. In the fall, okay. Can you tell us a little bit 13 about that. Was it an accidental fire or was the 14 fire intentionally set?

15 A. It was an accidental fire.

16 Q. Okay. So there hasn't been any litigation or any 17 investigation regarding that fire?

18 A. No. No.

19 Q. Okay. You also indicated in your questionnaire 20 that you have some prior jury experience.

21 Overall, was that a good experience?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Was there anything about that experience that 24 makes you wonder whether you could sit through 25 the process as a juror again and evaluate facts,

1 and deliberate, and anything about it?

2 A. I don't think it would be a problem.

3 Q. Okay. That's all I have.

4 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Strang.

5 ATTORNEY STRANG: Sure. Thanks.

6 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

7 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

8 Q. This is really an awkward way to talk to someone, 9 but try to let me feel awkward and you not. All 10 right. How do I pronounce your name?

11 A. Slaby.

12 Q. Okay. That's how you pronounce your name.

13 A. Right. I hear it different ways but.

14 Q. Okay. I'm going to try to do it the way you do.

15 A. We hear it different ways, but Slaby is how.

16 Q. Slaby.

17 A. Right.

18 Q. Mm-hmm. So how long have you worked at Manitowoc
19 Ice?

20 A. A little over four years.

21 Q. And at Red Arrow -- I have your questionnaire, at 22 Red Arrow and Mirro, were those longer periods of 23 time?

24 A. I -- Red Arrow was brief, but I worked at Mirro 25 for 12 years.

1 Q. Same kind of stuff?

2 A. Maintenance, yes.

3 Q. And so how does -- how does a big picture guy, 4 you know, who is not really a detailed guy, how 5 do you get drawn into maintenance?

6 A. Well, it was just something that always 7 interested me, fixing things, building things, 8 since I was a kid so.

9 Q. That makes sense. Cars too or?

10 A. I worked on cars when I was younger.

11 Q. Mm-hmm. See part of what -- part of what I'm 12 interested in is you are not a TV watcher, or not 13 much I'm gathering, so what do you do when you 14 have spare time?

15 A. I remodel my home. For the last three years 16 that's what I have been doing.

17 Q. You guys own your home?

18 A. Yes, I just -- The TV watchers -- I work second 19 shift, so I don't --

20 Q. So like four to midnight?

21 A. I don't -- Yeah, I work like 2:30 to midnight so.

22 Q. Yeah.

23 A. I don't.

24 Q. Yeah.

25 A. I'm busy all day so.

1 Q. Right. That sort of explains that.

2 A. Right.

3 Q. When do you see the daughters?

4 A. I see them in the morning before they go to 5 school.

6 Q. Mm-hmm. Sort of design your sleep schedule

7 around --

8 A. Right.

9 Q. -- being able to do that?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. Are you a Monday to Friday guy, or do you wind up 12 weekends too?

13 A. I work a lot of Saturdays too.

14 Q. Just 'cause that's the schedule at Manitowoc Ice?

15 A. I just -- It's overtime, voluntary overtime. I

16 work quite a bit of overtime too.

17 Q. It sounds like -- like your wife also has a

18 full-time job that's -- you didn't say that, but

19 that's what I read into your description of her

20 job.

21 A. Yes, she works full-time.

22 Q. So what you told us was that the radio maybe was 23 the most common way you have gotten some news

24 about this case?

25 A. I would think the radio, that's what -- I will

1 have the local radio on in the morning.

2 Q. To and from work, or while you guys are --

3 A. Usually --

4 Q. -- having breakfast?

5 A. -- on my way to take my daughters to school.

6 Q. So you pick up snatches of this because it's--

7 A. Right.

8 Q. -- local news? Do you read the paper?

9 A. No, I don't.

10 Q. Do you guys get the paper?

11 A. No, we don't get the paper.

12 Q. Yeah. Okay. So what do you know about Brendan

13 Dassey?

14 A. Well, I know that he's the nephew and he is also 15 charged in the case.

16 Q. Yeah. Actually, not right in this -- in front of 17 this judge --

18 A. Right.

19 Q. -- but he's charged here in the same county.

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Have you followed at all, you know, what's gone

22 on in his case?

23 A. Not recently.

24 Q. When -- sort of when did you last track that or 25 hear about it?

1 A. It's probably been two months, three months 2 maybe.

3 Q. What was it, I mean what do you --

4 A. I can't even recall the last time I heard a thing 5 about him.

6 Q. The nephew. Okay.

7 A. Right.

8 Q. Do you remember what it was you heard?

9 A. No, probably just the name came up.

10 Q. Mm-hmm. How many -- how many guys do you work 11 with, you know, like side by side at work or are 12 you off on your own for most of your time at 13 work?

14 A. It's myself and two other mechanics.

15 Q. And do you guys tend to be teamed up or --

16 A. We're usually on our own.

17 Q. Mm-hmm. Okay. So how much sort of, you know, 18 gas-bagging at work, or yakking about this case 19 have you overheard?

20 A. I don't know how to -- I couldn't really put a 21 time on it.

22 Q. Well, no, and I'm not really asking you to do 23 that, nobody could do that. But has this case 24 been a source of, or subject of some chitty chat 25 at work or, you know, do you guys -- are you guys

1 talking about ice fishing, or the Packers, or 2 something else?

3 A. Well, we talk about a lot of things, so I'm sure 4 the case has come up, we talked about it.

5 Q. What do you know about the statements that 6 Brendan Dassey supposedly made?

7 A. I think I did see the news conference when it 8 first came out. I did watch that.

9 Q. The one that Mr. Kratz --

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. I mean -- Okay.

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Do you remember one, two -- it's been a while, 14 but do you remember anything about that news 15 conference?

16 A. I can remember most of it probably. I couldn't 17 repeat it, but I remember the -- 18 Q. Sort of gist of it?

19 A. Yeah, if you want to call it that.

20 Q. Did it curl your hair? That news was pretty 21 shocking stuff.

22 A. It was pretty graphic, yes.

23 Q. So, how does somebody with a 17 year old daughter 24 react to that.

25 A. Well, it -- it -- like you said, it made my hair

1 curl. Disturbing is what it was.

2 Q. Yeah, so here I'm representing the guy who didn't 3 make all those statements, the guy the news
4 conference wasn't directly about but, you know,
5 did this get linked to Steve Avery in your head
6 or, I mean, did you see this -- that press
7 conference as being about more than Brendan 8 Dassey? Can you just tell me about that.

9 A. Sure, it did. Because I believe they were 10 talking about Steven Avery in the story too, both 11 names were mentioned.

12 Q. Mm-hmm. Okay. Of course, at that time, you are 13 not sitting there thinking, gee, I may be a 14 possible juror some day.

15 A. No.

16 Q. But, I mean, you have had college. I mean, you 17 not only graduated from high school, it looks 18 like you had --

19 A. Technical college, Yes.

20 Q. Yeah, I mean you have gone to school beyond high 21 school?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. So you know -- You know that in our country 24 someone is presumed innocent unless and until the 25 State can prove them guilty beyond a reasonable

1 doubt?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And that's stuff you have heard, I assume?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Do you buy into that? Do you take that to heart?

6 A. Yes, I do.

7 Q. So, how -- You know, if you were sitting in 8 Steven Avery's chair, knowing that you are 9 possibly going to be judging you, you know, if 10 you're sitting in this chair, you had seen this 11 news conference and it's about both Brendan and 12 Steven; would you -- would you want you as a 13 juror, would you view you as someone who can say, 14 yeah, I can put that aside, I assume they got the 15 wrong guy here?

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, I'm sorry, I 17 have to object to that. Asking the juror to put 18 themselves in the shoes of the defendant, I think is 19 improper question.

20 THE COURT: Why don't you try and rephrase
21 the question Mr. Strang.

22 Q. Do you think -- I mean, as you sit here today, do 23 you presume that they got the wrong guy?

24 A. I believe that --

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm going to have to

1 object, that's not the standard.

2 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the
3 objection.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: Okay. I mean, I think it
5 is. I'm trying to get at, do you presume him 6 innocent, which would mean he didn't do it.

7 ATTORNEY FALLON: No, I have to object.

8 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the 9 objection again.

10 Q. Does the news conference make you tend to think 11 that maybe he is guilty?

12 A. I -- I believe that he's innocent until proven 13 guilty in the court. That's what I believe.

14 Q. And, again, look, you are under oath, obviously 15 you are doing your best, there really are no 16 wrong answers here, I mean, there really aren't, 17 as long as they are truthful. I'm just trying to 18 get at, you know, whether this is something you 19 can do. And you have told me you believe he's 20 innocent, unless these folks can prove him
21 guilty.

22 A. Yes, that's what I believe.

23 Q. And I -- What I'm trying to get at, is that -- do 24 you believe that in your gut, or is that 25 something that you know, you know, that's the way

1 our system works, this is a great country, it's 2 one of the freedoms we have, or the protections
3 we have as citizens. Sort of at what level do 4 you believe that? In other words, is that a big 5 picture belief, or is that a detailed belief as 6 to this case?

7 A. I'm just going to say that I believe that he is 8 innocent until proven guilty.

9 Q. The two other cases on which you were a juror, 10 you actually sat on both those, you were one of 11 the 12?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. Have you been called for jury duty any 14 other times?

15 A. No, this is my third time --

16 Q. Third time.

17 A. -- being called as juror.

18 Q. And were the -- The other two cases, were they 19 both here in Manitowoc County, or was one of them 20 federal?

21 A. They were both here.

22 Q. In this courthouse?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. So, actually, you have never been kicked off, or 25 not selected as a juror?

1 A. One of the times I was kicked off on one of the 2 trials, but I sat -- I was called the two times
3 previous and I did sit on trials both times.

4 Q. Yeah. Okay. And kicked off is, you know what I 5 mean, I mean you were one of the big group, but 6 not one of the 12?

7 A. I did get, yes.

8 Q. One time. Okay. And you weren't -- You were not 9 the foreperson either time, right?

10 A. What do you mean?

11 Q. You weren't the foreman of the jury?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Either time?

14 A. No, I wasn't.

15 Q. Do you remember anything about the criminal case 16 you were on?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. What the guy was charged with?

19 A. He was charged with driving without a license.

20 Q. Okay. And you all found him guilty?

21 A. Yes, we did.

22 Q. Did you go into that one saying, hey, I presume 23 this guy is innocent and I'm going to wait and 24 see whether they can prove to me, beyond a 25 reasonable doubt, that he did it?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And was your experience pretty good with the rest 3 of the jurors doing that?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. You didn't have to say, hey, wait a minute, you 6 know, we've got some instructions here, you guys 7 ought to follow these?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Did the guy who was on trial that time for 10 operating; was it without a license or --

11 A. Right.

12 Q. -- after suspension or something? Did he 13 testify?

14 A. Yes, he did.

15 Q. Should somebody do that if they are on trial?

16 A. He was acting as his own lawyer.

17 Q. Therefore had a fool for a client.

18 A. Right.

19 Q. But, I mean, do you think someone ought to do 20 that whether they are representing themselves or 21 they have a lawyer, if they are accused of a 22 crime and you didn't do it? What's your view 23 about whether they should or shouldn't testify?

24 A. I would think that it would help the case if he 25 did testify.

1 Q. Tell me about that.

2 A. I believe that it gives you a chance to prove 3 your innocence.

4 Q. Because you have the right to testify?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. And you say it helps. Did it help you as a 7 jury -- a juror, to hear that?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. I mean, a lot of us, fair-minded people, often 10 say, I want to hear both sides of the story. I 11 don't want to make up my mind until I hear both 12 sides. Is that something --

13 A. Right.

14 Q. -- the way you approach the world too?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. So, what if I don't call Mr. Avery as a witness?
17 I don't know if I will or won't, but what if I 18 don't; how does that affect the way you look at 19 the case?

20 A. I -- I don't really know what that would do.

21 Q. You are going to hear in this case -- If you wind 22 up on the jury, you are going to hear that he was 23 convicted once before, in Manitowoc County, of a 24 crime it turned out he really didn't commit; have 25 you heard anything about that?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. The Innocence Project stuff?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. And, first of all, I mean, do you have any 5 questions about whether he did or didn't commit 6 that 198 -- it was in 1985 -- the 1985 charges?

7 A. No, I don't have any questions.

8 Q. That is, you know, when the State Crime Lab did 9 new DNA testing and said it wasn't him, it was 10 another guy, you haven't had any reservations 11 about that, or have you?

12 A. Well, I believe it was a shame that it happened.

13 Q. Right. But I mean, you haven't said, I bet he's 14 guilty anyway?

15 A. No.

16 Q. And, I mean, you find out that he did testify in 17 that case, in his own behalf, and got convicted 18 anyway. And I mean, do you understand why that 19 experience might make him, in particular, a 20 little bit reluctant about testifying in his own 21 behalf again?

22 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm going to -- Well, I 23 will let it go.

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Why else might someone who is not guilty decide

1 not to testify in his own behalf?

2 A. He might not want to speak in front of people, 3 like me.

4 Q. I was going to say, why does that one come to 5 mind first. Well, yeah, that's -- absolutely.
6 The guy you had on your prior criminal jury 7 didn't have a lawyer, would lawyers enter into 8 that, I mean our advise or our views?

9 A. Sure.

10 Q. As to what he might do?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. What other reasons might somebody just decide, 13 no, I'm going to rely on my presumption of 14 innocence. I'm not going to take the witness 15 stand?

16 A. That's also his right.

17 Q. That's true. And I take it you don't have any 18 beef with the law in that respect?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Okay. We have asked you, both of us have asked 21 you a little bit about -- Mr. Fallon called him
22 the co-defendant, I'm calling him by his name -- 23 Brendan Dassey, and his statements, or at least 24 the news conference that you heard. Have you 25 ever had an experience, or read about something,

1 had this touch you, where somebody admitted doing 2 something he actually did not do, or she actually 3 did not do? I mean, one of your kids ever done 4 that, for example, when they were little, fessed
5 up to something they hadn't done?

6 A. Usually the other way around.

7 Q. Yes, it is usually the other way around. But I'm 8 just, do you think it's possible that people can, 9 under the right or wrong circumstances, admit 10 doing something they really didn't do?

11 A. I guess it's possible.

12 Q. I know I can't give you names or anything, but 13 I'm aware of an occasional circumstance where 14 maybe there is a high publicity crime and 15 somebody who is "a couple bubbles off plumb" 16 comes forward to the police and says he did it, 17 for the attention, sort of an attention seeking, 18 weird motive; have you heard of that sort of 19 thing?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. But when you hear -- when you hear a prosecutor 22 or a witness, police officer, somebody saying 23 somebody confessed or admitted their involvement; 24 what's your -- what's your first reaction to the 25 power of that?

1 A. I guess I would want to believe it.

2 Q. Why?

3 A. Because of who it's coming from, meaning the 4 police officer, or whoever is telling us.

5 Q. Right, yeah. And they might well believe it. I 6 mean, you would assume that they believed it.
7 But what about the actual person who supposedly 8 made this statement himself; do you think -- What 9 I'm getting at is, are you saying, well, you 10 know, if he admitted it, game over, nobody would 11 admit killing someone if they hadn't really done 12 it? Or are you somebody who says, geez, does 13 that make sense, I wonder if he really did do 14 what he's claiming he did?

15 A. It didn't make sense at the time I heard it.

16 Q. Okay. You -- On your questionnaire, there was 17 this question that asks you -- I don't expect you 18 to remember this and I can't remember the exact 19 language of it either, but there's a question 20 that says, look, you are going to be told, in 21 deciding which witnesses to believe, that a law 22 enforcement officer is just like every other 23 witness, got to consider the same things in 24 deciding how much weight to give his or her 25 testimony just like you would any other witness

1 under the sun. And you answered, yes, you could 2 follow that sort of instruction.

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. You could live with that. And then, Mr. Fallon 5 followed up a little on that and asked you to 6 rank or rate how likely it was that a law 7 enforcement officer would not tell the truth on 8 the stand. And I want -- I want to pick up from 9 there with you. How likely is it that anyone, 10 any witness who's sworn under oath, would lie on 11 the witness stand?

12 A. Not very likely.

13 Q. In other -- I mean, and I don't want to put words 14 in your mouth, but the way you look at the world, 15 you say, you know for most people an oath means
16 something.

17 A. Yes, I believe that.

18 Q. And I, you know, I mean, do you agree that there 19 are probably some people out there who just don't 20 care about an oath and would lie in spite of 21 having sworn?

22 A. Yes, I'm sure that happens.

23 Q. But you are saying most people at least, the oath 24 matters to them?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Is there any reason that the oath should matter
2 more to a police officer as opposed to, you know,
3 a truck driver, a school bus driver, you know, a 4 homemaker, or anybody else?

5 A. It shouldn't matter.

6 Q. What the job is you mean?

7 A. Right.

8 Q. Going back now, I'm just sort of going through 9 the questionnaire a little bit, but going back to 10 the jury service, and you were asked after you 11 told us about what juries, and when, and what 12 kind of case, you were asked how you felt about 13 that service. And you wrote, I had no negative 14 feelings about serving as a juror.

15 I'm curious about that, about why
16 because, I mean, I know it's inconvenient at 17 best, and sometimes it costs people money, in 18 terms of lost income; how come you had no
19 negative feelings about serving as a juror?

20 A. I thought it was an interesting process and I
21 thought it was fair.

22 Q. Fair to whom?

23 A. Fair to the suspect.

24 Q. Yeah, but how about fair to you, I mean, is what 25 I'm wondering?

1 A. It was fair to me. I didn't have any objections 2 to serving.

3 Q. And I didn't ask you how long the civil case 4 went; do you remember about how long a trial that 5 was?

6 A. I think that was like a week, five days, 7 something like that.

8 Q. And the guy represented himself, and the 9 operating without a license case had to be one, 10 two days at the most?

11 A. That was a one day.

12 Q. So, if we -- if you wind up on this jury, and you 13 wind up having to come and go, come and go, you 14 know, to Chilton, for six weeks; how is that 15 going to affect you at work or -- I mean, I'm not 16 trying to pry into your home finances, but how is 17 that going to affect you with all the hats you 18 wear, dad, employee, husband, member of your 19 union, member of your church? How is that going 20 to affect you?

21 A. It won't affect me at work.

22 Q. They will be cool about it?

23 A. Well, I will be paid for jury service.

24 Q. Okay. And other stuff, I mean, can you fit this 25 into your life?

1 A. It's an inconvenience, but I can fit it in.

2 Q. Have I asked anything, or for that matter, did 3 Mr. Fallon ask anything that, you know, caused 4 you to think of some other issue you should bring 5 up with us, or something the Court, or both sides 6 should know about, you know, your getting into 7 this six week project, if you do?

8 A. No.

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: Okay. Thanks. I'm good.

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you,
11 Mr. Slaby. Linda will now escort you out from the 12 courtroom.

13 Counsel, does either party have any 14 motion with respect to this juror?

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: There's no motion from 16 the State.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Strang?

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: No, no motion here.

19 THE COURT: Very well. That juror will be 20 considered on the panel. At this time we're going 21 to take a -- let's make it a seven minute break.
22 We'll come back at 10:30 and resume with the next
23 juror.

24 (Brief recess taken.)

25 THE COURT: At this time we're back on the

1 record and juror, Diane Free, is in the courtroom;
2 is that correct?

3 MS FREE: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Ms Free, you have already 5 completed a jury questionnaire in this case. At 6 this point, we're moving on to the next step in the 7 voir dire proceedings which gives the attorneys for 8 each of the parties a chance to ask you some 9 questions in order to determine whether you can be a 10 fair and impartial juror in this case.

11 There's a few pieces of information I 12 didn't provide to you last week that I wish to 13 now, that is, to assure you that the jurors in 14 this case are not going to be sequestered, 15 meaning that you will be able to, during the time 16 of the trial, come home every evening before 17 reporting back the next day.

18 And we're doing that because of the 19 assurance from the jurors that the jurors will 20 not listen to any news media accounts of this 21 trial, or talk to anyone about it. As long as we 22 can be assured of that it won't be necessary to 23 sequester the jury.

24 I also want you to know that, although 25 the voir dire proceedings today are held in open

1 court, no cameras are permitted in the courtroom
2 during voir dire proceedings. The press is not 3 allowed to identify you by name as a juror in 4 this case. And should you be selected to serve 5 on the jury, television cameras are not permitted 6 to photograph the jury, nor are there any still 7 photos of the jury during the trial.

8 Finally, I will let you know that,
9 unless you are stricken for cause today, you will 10 be asked to come back to court in a few days for 11 final jury selection. And you will get 12 instructions by telephone further about that 13 later.

14 Very well. At this point, then, we'll 15 proceed to individual voir dire. Mr. Fallon.

16 THE CLERK: Judge, do you want her sworn.

17 THE COURT: Oh, I'm sorry, yes, we'll have 18 the Clerk swear you in at this time.

19 THE CLERK: Will you please stand and raise 20 your right hand.

21 (Juror sworn.)

22 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

24 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

25 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

1 Q. Good morning, Ms Free.

2 A. Good morning.

3 Q. I'm Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
4 General with the Wisconsin Department of Justice.
5 To my left is Mr. Ken Kratz. He is also a
6 Special Prosecutor. He's the District Attorney
7 in Calumet County. There will be one other 8 prosecutor assisting us, Mr. Norm Gahn, from 9 Milwaukee. But we wanted to welcome you and say 10 good morning.

11 We have reviewed your questionnaire and 12 just have a few questions about that, and some 13 general questions as well. If you could tell us 14 a little bit about what you do with the City of 15 Manitowoc Library.

16 A. When someone requests a book, I'm the one that 17 goes and pulls it off the shelf. I don't work 18 for the library, in effect. I work for the 19 library system. The library system has five -- 20 five employees. That means I work also for Two 21 Rivers, Brillion, Chilton, Kiel, New Holstein. I
22 deliver books. If you request a book in Chilton 23 from our library, I bring it out there.

24 Q. Would it be fair to say that you are a book 25 lover?

1 A. I love books, yes.

2 Q. What kind of books do you like to read?

3 A. Everything.

4 Q. Do you?

5 A. I like biographies, the most.

6 Q. Fiction, non-fiction, both?

7 A. Both.

8 Q. Yeah. All right. Do you like historical novels
9 as well?

10 A. I'm not much on romance.

11 Q. All right.

12 A. But anything else.

13 Q. How long have you worked with the library system?

14 A. Either 15 and a half or 16 and a half years; I'm 15 not quite sure.

16 Q. Okay. All right. I also noted from your 17 questionnaire, you are currently president of 18 your union?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. The AFSCME local chapter.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. How do you like that? How do you like to be the 23 prez?

24 A. It's okay. I'm doing it because no one else 25 will.

1 Q. All right. What kind of duties do you have as 2 the local union president?

3 A. I call the meeting to order. I make sure all the 4 agenda is followed, that if we have new members 5 they are sworn in. Mainly just following the 6 procedure, that we get reports from each 7 committee.

8 Q. How long have you held that position?

9 A. I think about four years.

10 Q. Okay. Do you enjoy it?

11 A. It depends on the weather.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. If it's cold out on that Tuesday night, no.

14 Other than that, it's a chance to get together 15 and talk to people.

16 Q. Do you involve yourself in any of the 17 negotiations, labor negotiations?

18 A. No, none at all.

19 Q. You are not on the bargaining team or anything 20 like that?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Okay. Would you say your local union is active?
23 Is there a lot of work, a lot of volunteer time 24 you have tied up in this?

25 A. I think the local itself is active. My 1 participation is that one night a month. I 2 don't --

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. -- hand out leaflets, or go pounding on doors, 5 or.

6 Q. So, if you were selected as a juror in this case, 7 that wouldn't interfere too much with your 8 responsibilities?

9 A. Oh, no. No.

10 Q. Okay. Where would you say you get most of your 11 information from the media, your news?

12 A. Mostly the radio. Like I said, I drive three 13 afternoons a week so I'm in the van. I don't 14 subscribe to the paper. Occasionally I will go 15 on line and look at the paper. I only listen to 16 the news until the obituaries are over, then I 17 turn to a music station.

18 Q. Okay. All right. As someone who's a book lover, 19 would I be correct in surmising that you are an 20 individual who likes to receive and process 21 information?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. If you see something of interest on the 24 news, or you hear something of interest on the 25 radio, are you the type of person who might stop

1 at the library, or better yet, use your computer
2 at home, to look for the story, or the story
3 behind the story, or any other information 4 associated with that?

5 A. I'm trying to recall if I have ever done that.
6 Occasionally, if I hear of an author, an author I 7 read, who has a new book, or I check up on the 8 authors, the author's websites to see if they are 9 coming out with a new book, like the new Harry 10 Potter book. I know when that's going to come 11 out. I check my author's list.

12 Q. My daughter would like to know the answer to 13 that; when is it coming out?

14 A. June 21st.

15 Q. All right. I will mention that to her. Have you 16 done any -- Well, let me ask this question first.
17 Have you paid much attention to any of the media 18 accounts of this particular case, Mr. Avery's 19 situation?

20 A. I have heard of it. You would have to live in a 21 cave not to. I don't think an undue amount, but 22 I am aware of it.

23 Q. Have you done any looking behind the scenes, as 24 it were, or followed up on anything of interest 25 in any of the stories?

1 A. No.

2 Q. Okay. And as I note from your report, you don't 3 really have any opinions regarding the 4 circumstances facing Mr. Avery, his guilt, or his 5 innocence, or any of that?

6 A. No, I believe the media has found him guilty.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. I believe they can make you believe whatever they 9 want.

10 Q. All right. But have you been swayed by them?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Okay. Any particular reason why you haven't been 13 swayed?

14 A. They are not going to tell me what to think.

15 Q. That's a good reason. All right. Speaking of 16 the media, do you have any friends or relatives, 17 family members, who actually work for the media?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Okay. Now, I note from the questionnaire, you 20 don't have any prior jury experience?

21 A. No.

22 Q. As you sit and think about the prospect of being 23 a possible juror in this case, is there any 24 particular philosophical belief, or religious 25 tenet that you adhere to that you think might

1 present a problem for you being a juror?

2 A. I don't believe so.

3 Q. All right. Do you think you would be able to 4 follow the instructions as provided on the law, 5 by Judge Willis, if he told you what the law is,
6 and this is your job, you would be able to follow 7 those?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Have you, or anyone ever close to you, ever been 10 in charge of writing any safety guidelines or 11 setting up or enforcing safety standards?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Okay. What did you do before you got into the 14 library business?

15 A. I was a homemaker.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. I was lucky to be a stay at home mom.

18 Q. How long have you been a resident of Manitowoc
19 County?

20 A. I was born here.

21 Q. You were born here. All right. In terms of your 22 familiarity with the Sheriff's Department, being 23 a lifelong resident; do you feel they are doing a 24 good job in dealing with crime and dealing with 25 the public, or a poor job, or how would you rate

1 their performance?

2 A. I don't really know that much about it. I have 3 never had to report a crime, so I have never --

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. -- had them knocking on my door for anything.

6 Q. In your -- Well, do you have any opinions as to 7 the situation when a police officer, or law 8 enforcement officer, is testifying in a court of 9 law, whether it's likely or unlikely that they 10 would lie under oath?

11 A. I don't think they would be more likely or 12 unlikely than anyone else, they are just --

13 Q. They are just people?

14 A. Yeah, they are no different than you or I.

15 Q. All right. How about in your thinking, are they 16 any more likely, or less likely than anyone else 17 to conspire to convict an innocent person?

18 A. I don't really know, I'm not --

19 Q. All right. Do you have any opinion, or how 20 likely it is a law enforcement agency would plant 21 or tamper with evidence to secure an arrest? I 22 mean, do you think they would be that concerned 23 about crime that they would go that far? Do you 24 think that's likely, or unlikely, or not likely 25 at all?

1 A. I think they would be more likely to want to get 2 the guilty party rather than anyone.

3 Q. And not convict anyone innocent?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. Are you a puzzle person?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Do you like to work on puzzles?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. What kind of puzzles do you like to work on?

10 A. Jigsaw, crossword puzzles.

11 Q. All right. Do you like word puzzles as well?

12 A. That's a crossword puzzle.

13 Q. Okay. Yeah. All right. Would you consider 14 yourself more of a detail oriented person, or are 15 you more of a big picture person?

16 A. Detail.

17 Q. Okay. Why would you say that?

18 A. I'm a list maker. I like to cross things off my 19 list, one thing at a time.

20 Q. Okay. So I would take it you would consider 21 yourself pretty organized?

22 A. Yes, very much so.

23 Q. Would that be how you got into the library
24 system?

25 A. No, that's because I liked books.

1 Q. Okay.

2 A. As I get older, I want things in a certain way, 3 my way.

4 Q. Right. I think we all do. Since you work in the 5 library system, I will ask, are you familiar with 6 a trade publication called Auto Trader, a 7 magazine to sell automobiles?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Have you heard, read, or seen anything regarding 10 the Project Innocence that is a program here in 11 Wisconsin?

12 A. I have heard of it. I believe it's students from 13 Madison. And the reason I actually paid
14 attention to it is one of my sons attended UW 15 Madison. So that's what caught my eye -- or my 16 ear about it.

17 Q. All right. The son who attended Madison, did he 18 go on to law school?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Or just on to graduate experience?

21 A. Just accounting.

22 Q. Now, the project has as its primary goal to free 23 those who were wrongfully convicted. Do you have 24 any particular problem with that, or do you think 25 that's a good idea, good program, bad program?

1 A. I think it's a very good program.

2 Q. Okay. Do you follow the media accounts of --

3 well, the day-to-day activities of the criminal

4 courts here in Manitowoc County? Do you know

5 what people have been accused of and who's being

6 convicted of what?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Do you follow much of that?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Do you have any opinion as to whether the court

11 system here in Manitowoc, for instance, is too

12 harsh or too lenient?

13 A. I have no opinion.

14 Q. No opinion. Okay. Would you like to serve on 15 this jury?

16 A. Actually, I would.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. I'm finding the whole process very interesting,

19 very enlightening.

20 Q. Tell us about that.

21 A. I have never had any contact with it before. I

22 mean, I have been through a divorce, that's about

23 my big --

24 Q. Right.

25 A. It's different than being in a divorce. It's 1 very precise, very organized.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. It's very interesting.

4 Q. All right. Have you ever been even called for 5 jury duty before?

6 A. No.

7 Q. This is your first call?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Is there any chance that if you were selected as 10 a jury -- as a juror in this case, that six weeks 11 of jury service would be -- is there any hardship 12 for you that would be associated with that?

13 A. No, I mean, outside of my days being tied up, but 14 financially or health wise, no.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all we have.

16 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Fallon. Mr.
17 Strang.

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

19 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

20 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

21 Q. I did not catch this at the beginning, but do you 22 prefer Mrs. Free, or Ms Free.

23 A. I prefer Diane.

24 Q. Okay. I'm probably -- I prefer Dean, but I'm 25 probably not allowed to do that.

1 A. Doesn't matter, I have earned both of them. It 2 doesn't matter.

3 Q. All right. I will be formal, to a certain 4 extent. Your husband, is he a union guy too?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Same one, AFSCME?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Same local?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And I'm curious, you -- it sounded to me, or read 11 to me, in reading your questionnaire, as if you 12 had picked up most of the information you have 13 about this case from the radio.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. What radio station do you listen to?

16 A. WOMT. WOMT.

17 Q. Okay. Which is?

18 A. It's the city.

19 Q. Right. It's local?

20 A. Local, yeah.

21 Q. Is that 1240?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. AM. Do you ever call in?

24 A. No.

25 Q. No.

1 A. No.

2 Q. Why not?

3 A. I would feel like they -- people would know who 4 it was. No, I prefer to be anonymous.

5 Q. While we're on anonymity, I'm curious whether in 6 your 15 and a half or 16 and a half years, 7 whatever it is, in the library system here, in 8 the last five years or so, have you gotten pulled 9 in at all to the issue about the federal 10 government coming and asking libraries to say 11 what people are looking at on the internet or 12 what books --

13 A. Right to privacy, I know about it because it 14 happens in the libraries. It is not my job, so 15 I'm not really -- I'm not the person that checks 16 out. I'm not the person that you would talk to 17 about what your child is reading. All I do is 18 pull the books off the shelf and deliver them to 19 the appropriate library. I don't deal with the 20 public at all.

21 Q. Okay. But as a union president have you been 22 pulled into a discussion about that --

23 A. No.

24 Q. -- sort of policy or a change in our world? Any 25 opinions about it?

1 A. I guess I have opinions both ways. I shouldn't 2 be entitled to know what my children are reading.
3 At the same time, there has to be a cut off for 4 that. If they are 15 and they are reading about 5 homosexuality, they are okay, that's -- you know, 6 there is a personal choice, there is a time for 7 that.

8 Q. Okay. So, back to the radio -- Okay. Do you 9 read the Herald Times Reporter?

10 A. Very, very seldom. I don't subscribe to it. If 11 I do, I usually look at the obituaries and the 12 births.

13 Q. Okay. I was going to repeat an old George Burns
14 line about looking at the obituaries, but I 15 won't. Do you have a newspaper you would prefer 16 to the Herald Times if it's a matter of, hey, I 17 have an hour to sit down with the newspaper?

18 A. No, I will read my book. I will read a book.

19 Q. So, on this case, what do you know about Brendan
20 Dassey?

21 A. I know that he's Steven Avery's nephew, that he 22 confessed and recanted his confession. That's 23 about it.

24 Q. How did you pick that up?

25 A. I believe it was on the radio. I think so.

1 Q. So, if someone confesses and then recants the 2 confession, I guess one of the two times he is 3 lying, right?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Do you know of any reason someone might confess 6 falsely to something they didn't do?

7 A. I can imagine, he's 16 years old, or what was at 8 the time. He's under pressure. He's -- I have 9 never been questioned by the police, but I think 10 at 16 he is very impressionable, he would want to 11 please whoever he is talking to.

12 Q. And in your mind, you know, whether the 13 confession is true or the recantation is true, 14 what, in your mind, does this have to do with 15 Steven Avery?

16 A. Nothing, actually. It's a he said, she said type 17 of thing, prove it.

18 Q. And on proving it, or the he said, she said, you 19 probably know enough civics to know that -- and 20 you actually got this from the questionnaire -- 21 that in this country a person accused of a crime 22 can -- he can testify on his own behalf.

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Gets to be treated just like any other witness?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Is that -- Is that acceptable to you? Is that,
2 you know, a good rule of law.

3 A. Yes, it's his right.

4 Q. And he also has the flip side, he also can 5 decline to testify and rely on --

6 A. He doesn't have to prove his innocence.

7 Q. Why not?

8 A. The prosecution has to prove his guilt. He's 9 presumed innocent. We all are.

10 Q. Right. But my question is, why are you happy to 11 live with a system, if you're happy to live with 12 a system, where the guy with the most at stake 13 doesn't have to say a word?

14 A. That's just -- I don't know. That's the way I 15 was brought up. You are presumed innocent. He 16 is. I am. It's my right.

17 Q. If you -- If you wind up on this jury, would -- 18 and I decide -- Jerry Buting and I decide not to 19 call Steven Avery as a witness, is there going to 20 be a voice in your head, back when you are 21 deliberating a verdict saying, I don't know, I 22 needed to hear from Mr. Avery himself?

23 A. I don't believe so. He also has the right not to 24 testify.

25 Q. And in the end, he will do one or the other.

1 A. But he does not have to prove that he's innocent.
2 He is innocent until -- until it's proven that he 3 is not.

4 Q. And I -- And that's -- that is good big picture 5 abstraction stuff but, you know, you are a 6 details person and --

7 A. He's already said he didn't do it.

8 Q. Okay. And nothing -- nothing that you have heard 9 on the radio, or seen in the paper, or caught a 10 glimpse of on TV, has that shaken you off that at 11 all; can you hang onto that?

12 A. I believe I can. They said he was guilty years 13 ago and he wasn't.

14 Q. He testified then, you will learn.

15 A. I did not know that.

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Your Honor, I'm going to 17 impose an objection to the phrasing of that 18 question. Are we not introducing facts or --

19 THE COURT: Your objection is sustained.

20 Q. What do you find in Star Magazine that tickles 21 your fancy?

22 A. The crossword puzzle. That's the first thing I 23 do. They actually have three little crossword 24 puzzles in there.

25 Q. Any of them acrostics or are they all straight

1 crossword puzzles?

2 A. One is a word search, one is like a celebrity, if 3 you know the celebrity's name, one is just a 4 regular crossword puzzle.

5 Q. Do you do them all?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Time yourself?

8 A. No, I don't even finish them all.

9 Q. Ever listen to NPR on the weekends, National 10 Public Radio.

11 A. No.

12 Q. Or Will Shorts, the puzzle master?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Okay. You know, as you are -- if you are on the 15 jury, and the time, you know, you will be told 16 you can't talk about the case or decide it until 17 the very end. And when the time comes to try to 18 reach a verdict with 11 other jurors, and you are 19 working through did the State prove these 20 charges, beyond a reasonable doubt; do you feel 21 well equipped or not? How well equipped do you 22 feel to get in and wrestle with scientific
23 evidence?

24 A. I'm not a professional, but I feel I am not 25 unintelligent. I'm of average. I feel equipped

1 to do it.

2 Q. Do you think that scientific evidence in and of 3 itself is entitled to more weight or less weight 4 than other types of evidence?

5 A. I'm not quite sure what you mean by scientific
6 evidence.

7 Q. Yeah. Well, here is where I'm going with that.
8 You like to make lists. You like the feeling of 9 checking things off your lists. You are oriented 10 toward detail. And that's, you know, if we get 11 into DNA evidence, for example, or collecting 12 minute pieces of things, looking for trace 13 evidence of things, preserving evidence, that can 14 get very detailed. And then when you hear people 15 from the Crime Lab, they will talk about 16 procedures or protocols they have. They are also 17 essentially lists that they go down on doing 18 things.

19 And that's where I'm going is, whether 20 that's likely to resonate with you more or less, 21 how it's likely to compare to, you know, maybe 22 just some fellow off the street who happened to 23 see something, or is testifying to something he 24 saw or heard?

25 A. I think you have to give it all equal weight. It

1 is a puzzle, put the pieces together.

2 Q. That works. I'm just asking for your answer.

3 And that's all I have got unless there's 4 something that has come out of this that has

5 caused you to say, boy, I probably should tell

6 these -- tell the Court about X or Y or Z.

7 A. No, I can't think of anything.

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thanks much.

9 THE COURT: All right. Ms Free, you can 10 stand up and Linda will escort you from the 11 courtroom.

12 Either party have a motion with respect
13 to Juror 3?

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: No.

15 ATTORNEY STRANG: No.

16 THE COURT: Very well. The Court will 17 consider her on the list. We'll bring in Jason 18 Rezash.

19 Mr. Rezash, please remain standing, the 20 Clerk will administer an oath.

21 THE CLERK: Raise your right hand.

22 (Juror sworn.)

23 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Rezash, you have already 25 completed a jury questionnaire in this case. This

1 morning we're moving on to the next phase of jury 2 selection which is the chance for the attorneys to 3 ask questions of you relating to your qualifications 4 as a juror.

5 Before we begin, I wanted to pass on a
6 few items of information that I did not mention 7 last week. First of all, the jurors who are 8 selected to hear this case will not be 9 sequestered. That means the jurors will be able 10 to come back and forth to their homes each day at 11 the conclusion of the trial. We're doing that 12 after receiving the assurance of the jurors that 13 they will not listen to any accounts of this 14 matter in the news media, or watch anything on 15 television, or discuss the case with anyone else.

16 Also, I want you to know that although 17 these proceedings are in open court, no cameras
18 are allowed in the courtroom during the voir dire 19 proceedings. And the press is not allowed to 20 identify individual jurors by names in any news
21 reporting of this matter. Finally, the jurors 22 who are selected to serve on the jury in this 23 case will not be on camera at any time during the 24 trial.

25 If you are not stricken for cause after

1 the proceedings today, you will get instructions 2 to return to court in the next few days for the 3 next step in the juror selection process.

4 Mr. Fallon, at this point you may begin.

5 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

6 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

7 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

8 Q. Good morning. And if you could help me out and 9 pronounce your last name for me.

10 A. Rezash.

11 Q. Rezash. Very good. My name is Tom Fallon, Mr.
12 Rezash. I'm an Assistant Attorney General
13 assisting in the prosecution of this case. Lead 14 counsel is to my left, Mr. Ken Kratz, District 15 Attorney for Calumet County. Thank you for 16 coming this morning.

17 I note from your questionnaire that you
18 work at the Point Beach Nuclear Plant as a 19 security officer?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. How long have you been there?

22 A. Almost five years.

23 Q. Have you always been in the security component at 24 the plant, or did you have other duties before
25 that?

1 A. No, always security.

2 Q. Tell me a little bit about the security duty that 3 you have at the plant.

4 A. It's kind of like regulating what comes in and 5 protecting the plant I guess. Making sure no
6 firearms, or explosives, or anything would enter 7 the plant to harm the employees and general
8 public.

9 Q. Okay. Do you work then at the gate, or are you 10 inside the building making rounds, or exactly how 11 do you perform that function?

12 A. It depends where you are scheduled for the day.
13 Sometimes you are inside, rotating through, and 14 other times you are at the gate for incoming 15 traffic, personnel and vehicles.

16 Q. As a security officer, are you licensed or 17 permitted to carry weapons with you?

18 A. Yes, I have two permits, permit for a firearm and 19 private security permit through the State of 20 Wisconsin.

21 Q. And how long have you held those permits?

22 A. Private security permit, probably, well, the 23 extent that I have been there, almost five years.
24 And the firearm permit, probably about four.

25 Q. Okay. In your capacity as security officer, have

1 you ever had to use a show of force, or use any 2 weapon that you have been trained to use?

3 A. No, not outside of training.

4 Q. And do you periodically receive update trainings?

5 A. Yes, throughout the year.

6 Q. I also note you put down formal education, you 7 said seven years, I'm assuming that's -- is that 8 high school and college, or is that college and 9 after college.

10 A. No, that's just college.

11 Q. Okay. Any particular specialty that you took at 12 the technical college?

13 A. I was started out in engineering and then kind of 14 got sick of math, so I switched to elementary 15 education.

16 Q. All right. Engineering, to elementary education, 17 to security; how did that come about?

18 A. I took a break from school and needed a full-time 19 job, so I got a job out at the plant. And I'm 20 capable of doing my homework at work, so I kind 21 of went back part time.

22 Q. All right. Do you enjoy the job that you have?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Okay. Any particular reason?

25 A. It's too boring. I need to keep busy.

1 THE COURT: Counsel, I'm going to interrupt
2 you briefly, could you approach the bench, please.

3 ATTORNEY FALLON: Sure.

4 (Side bar taken).

5 Q. Couple more questions, Mr. Rezash, really 6 quickly. You indicated you had some chemistry
7 and DNA training in Lakeland.

8 A. No, that wasn't through Lakeland, that was 9 through UW school system. I have had chemistry 10 classes, so. I don't know nothing pertaining to 11 DNA, just chemistry.

12 Q. Okay. Now, on one particular question on the 13 questionnaire has some concern for us, and it was 14 one question you left blank. So I would like to 15 talk to you a little bit about that. The 16 question was, based on the information from any 17 source that you have received, do you have an 18 opinion as to Mr. Avery's guilt or innocence.
19 And you answered yes, and then you said, from 20 seeing and reading the news, and discussing the 21 case with others, I believe he is guilty as 22 charged. But the reason he's going to trial is 23 because that's the law.

24 And the follow-up question which you 25 didn't answer was, should you be selected to

1 serve as a juror, could you set those opinions
2 aside and base your decision only on the evidence 3 presented in court and the instructions that 4 Judge Willis gives you. So I want to talk just a 5 little bit briefly about that.

6 You said, but the reason this is going 7 to trial is because that's the law; what did you 8 mean by that?

9 A. That's our -- Well, that's the law. That's the 10 way the ground work was set. I mean, you are 11 entitled to a trial. That's what I meant by it.

12 Q. All right. So, if you think that he is guilty 13 from the media accounts, is there any way that 14 you can set those opinions aside and decide this 15 case strictly on what the evidence is that's 16 presented in the courtroom, as opposed to what 17 you hear outside?

18 A. Honestly, probably not.

19 Q. Why is that?

20 A. That's just my belief. I don't know, based on 21 all accounts that I have read, I don't know.
22 That's kind of the opinion I have already formed.

23 Q. So even if the judge were to tell you that 24 Mr. Avery is presumed innocent unless and until 25 Mr. Kratz and I can prove him guilty, you would 1 not follow that instruction and listen to the

2 evidence?

3 A. Probably not.

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: I have no further
5 questions for this witness.

6 THE COURT: Any questions from the defense?

7 ATTORNEY BUTING: No, Judge, no questions
8 at all.

9 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Rezash, if you
10 follow the Clerk, she'll lead you to the next stop.
11 Does either party have a motion or do the parties 12 have a joint motion to make?

13 ATTORNEY FALLON: We'll move to strike the 14 juror.

15 ATTORNEY BUTING: We join.

16 THE COURT: All right. I believe based on 17 the answers given by the juror in court today and 18 the answers on the questionnaire, that Mr. Rezash 19 could not set his opinions aside and be a fair and 20 impartial juror here. So the Court will order that 21 he be stricken for cause. And we'll move on to the 22 next juror.

23 Ms Temme, I'm going to ask you to stand 24 for a minute, first, while the Clerk swears you 25 in.

THE CLERK: Raise your right hand.

(Juror sworn.)

THE CLERK: Please be seated.

THE COURT: Ms Temme, you have already filled out a questionnaire at court proceedings last week, today we're moving on to the next phase of jury selection which is individual voir dire. The attorneys for each of the parties have a chance to ask you some questions.

Before we begin those questions, I wanted to add some information to what I provided you last week, that is, to notify you that the jurors selected in this case will not be sequestered during the trial, meaning the jurors will be able to come home every evening after the proceedings and stay at home. We made that decision assuming the commitment of the jurors to not listen to any news media accounts about this case, or see anything on television or the internet, or discuss the case with anyone else.

I also want you to know that although these proceedings are in open court, no cameras are permitted in the courtroom during voir dire proceedings and the media is not allowed to identify any of the individual jurors by name.

1 In addition, should you be selected to serve in 2 this case, the jurors are not permitted to be 3 photographed during the trial or appear in any 4 television accounts of the trial.

5 I note that you did request in your 6 questionnaire permission to provide some answers 7 should the question be raised in private. I have 8 asked the attorneys to notify me before asking 9 you any such questions. And if you believe they 10 ask you any such questions before I get notified, 11 let me know and I will take your request up at 12 that time.

13 Finally, if you are not stricken for 14 cause after today's proceedings, you will receive 15 a telephone notice within the next few days as to 16 when to return for the next step.

17 Mr. Fallon, at this time you may begin.

18 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

19 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

20 Q. Good morning.

21 A. Good morning.

22 Q. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney 23 General with the Department of Justice here in 24 Wisconsin and I'm assisting in the prosecution of 25 this case. To my left is Ken Mr. Kratz, the 1 Special Prosecutor, and he's from Calumet County.

2 He's the District Attorney. Thanks for coming in 3 this morning. We have a few questions to help us 4 in selecting a jury.

5 I would like to begin with a little bit
6 about your work; you work at Manitowoc Ice?

7 A. Mm-hmm. Yes.

8 Q. And how long have you worked for them?

9 A. Ten years. It will be eleven in April.

10 Q. And what kind of work do you do, specifically,
11 for them?

12 A. Inside customer service for our international 13 market.

14 Q. Okay. And are you in marketing, sales, 15 distribution; how would you characterize what you 16 do?

17 A. Customer service.

18 Q. Customer service.

19 A. Order entry and just taking care of the 20 customer's --

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. -- requests, maintaining their orders, shipping.

23 Q. Any employment before your time with Manitowoc
24 Ice?

25 A. I worked for Kaysun Corporation.

1 Q. What did you do for them?

2 A. Also customer service.

3 Q. Okay. I'm not from the area, so forgive me; what 4 does Kaysun Corporation, what do they do?

5 A. Custom injection molding company.

6 Q. Okay. I also see from your questionnaire you 7 have an associate degree for a legal assistant.

8 A. Mm-hmm.

9 Q. All right. Did you pursue any employment in the 10 legal field?

11 A. I was an intern at a local law firm, but it 12 didn't last long, no.

13 Q. I have to ask, since I'm still in the legal 14 field; was there anything -- the pursuit of law 15 not interest you?

16 A. Pretty much the pay.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. And no benefits, yeah.

19 Q. Have you had any occasion at all to use any of 20 the legal training that you had?

21 A. No.

22 Q. No. Okay. Now, I also note from your 23 questionnaire, there were several individuals 24 that you indicated that you were at least 25 familiar with on some level. And one of them is

1 Mr. Curt Drumm, how do you know Mr. Drumm?

2 A. I think he was like a year older than me in high 3 school, so we kind of new each other just in 4 school.

5 Q. All right.

6 A. Not really that familiar, just he's kind of a 7 personality in town too. Does some fundraisers 8 so he is known for that.

9 Q. Okay. So he is kind of well known?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. All right. And you went to school with him, 12 that's four familiarity, okay. How about Ms
13 Debbie Knox?

14 A. She was the vice principal at Wilson Jr. High 15 School when my daughter was attending that 16 school.

17 Q. Do you know her well?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Would you -- I forgot to ask, would you say you 20 are friends, or acquaintance, or just know 21 Mr. Drumm?

22 A. I know him, but I guess if I would see him on the 23 street, we would probably say hi and maybe have a 24 short conversation.

25 Q. Okay. You also indicated that you were familiar

1 with the District Attorney here in Manitowoc, 2 Mark Rohrer; how do you know Mr. Rohrer?

3 A. He was a neighbor about a year ago. Not like a 4 neighbor in our neighborhood, I guess the 5 neighborhood I lived in about a year ago. And we 6 maybe in -- I might have known him from being in 7 some community theatre activities.

8 Q. Would you consider yourself close friends, or 9 close acquaintances, or just someone that you
10 know?

11 A. Someone I know that I would probably say hi to 12 and have a small conversation with.

13 Q. All right. A couple other questions from your 14 questionnaire -- Oh, by the way, you also know 15 the Clerk of Court's, Lynn Zigmunt?

16 A. She was an employee at the law office that I was 17 shortly employed at.

18 Q. Okay. Did you develop any friendship or strong 19 acquaintance from working with her at that time?

20 A. No.

21 Q. In other words, just someone that you worked with 22 very briefly at this point in the past?

23 A. Right. And if we would see each other, I would 24 probably say hi and have a short conversation, 25 just basic.

1 Q. You also expressed an opinion that Mr. Avery, 2 when asked if you had an opinion on his guilt or 3 innocence, you indicated you did. And you said, 4 he seems to be involved in the disappearance of 5 Teresa Halbach. Why do you say that?

6 A. Just because of what I have heard on the news and 7 the newspapers, prior.

8 Q. Okay. And where do you get most of your news 9 about this particular case that kind of led you 10 to that opinion; was that television, radio, 11 newspaper, internet?

12 A. I think it was mostly the radio.

13 Q. Mostly radio. Okay. Now, you followed that up 14 with an answer to the question, if you were 15 selected to serve as a juror, could you set those 16 opinions aside and base your decision only on the 17 evidence presented in court, and you answered 18 yes; are you confident in your ability to do 19 that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Any particular reason why you have that opinion?

22 A. I just think I could -- I would be able to listen 23 to both sides and give an honest answer.

24 Q. Okay. Now, you -- On one question you were 25 asked, if you served on a jury, how do you think

1 you would feel about that service. And you said 2 you would find it very interesting. Any 3 particular reason about that? Was that from 4 perhaps your legal training?

5 A. It's -- The legal system is very interesting, how 6 it works, so I think it would be real
7 interesting.

8 Q. Okay. And any particular reason why you find it
9 interesting?

10 A. Just that, you know, things need to be proven. I 11 mean, if you do something, it's not just cut and 12 dry as to what someone might say on one side or 13 the other, it has to be -- the whole thing has to 14 be presented and then decided by a jury, I guess, 15 so it's interesting.

16 Q. So you like the give and take, and the arguments, 17 and the evidence, and you find that interesting?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. You wouldn't find that tedious or boring?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Now, one of the other questions in your 22 questionnaire that might be of some concern to us
23 is you thought that it might be, perhaps, a 24 hardship if you are selected as a juror?

25 A. My employer asked me to say that it was a

1 hardship for him. I think they would manage.

2 Q. So it's more of a hardship for your employer than 3 it is for you?

4 A. I think they would manage.

5 Q. Okay. Well, is that -- But I think in fairness 6 to you, we should ask, are you concerned with 7 that, I mean, if you were selected as a jury 8 (sic) that this might have an adverse impact on 9 the job or anything?

10 A. No, I don't think it would.

11 Q. Okay. So they were just kind of teasing you, 12 half kidding, have serious, we would rather have 13 you here than there?

14 A. Yeah.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: I will defer my last set 16 of questions for the end.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Strang or Mr. Buting.

18 ATTORNEY BUTING: I will do this, Judge.

19 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

20 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

21 Q. Is it Temme, is that how you --

22 A. Terri Temme, yes.

23 Q. Okay. My name is Jerome Buting. This is Dean
24 Strang. And you understand that we represent 25 Steven Avery, right?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. I'm going to focus in a little bit on, there's 3 been a lot of publicity in this case, right, you 4 are aware of that?

5 A. Mm-hmm.

6 Q. You know, I would like to really get down to -- 7 to why you think he -- it seems he's involved and 8 what you have learned about the case over -- I 9 understand you read the newspaper, the Herald
10 Times, right?

11 A. Mm-hmm.

12 Q. Do you read that regularly?

13 A. I get it every day. Yeah, I get the paper.

14 Q. And have you followed the news articles about the 15 Steven Avery case?

16 A. To tell you the truth, after probably the last, 17 over the summer and up till now, not really, no.

18 Q. Kind of got tired of it after awhile, it was all 19 -- in the spring it seemed to be there all the 20 time?

21 A. I was busy traveling with work also, out of the 22 country and stuff, so it was, yeah, not important 23 to me.

24 Q. You had work out of the country?

25 A. Mm-hmm.

1 Q. Where did you go?

2 A. I went to Leon, France in July, and to Hangzhou, 3 China in October.

4 Q. Oh, okay. And that's to help service customers 5 over there?

6 A. Our sister companies are transferring over to 7 the -- we're all going on to the same computer 8 system, so I was a mentor for both areas.

9 Q. Okay. I see. That was probably pretty 10 interesting, I imagine, right?

11 A. It was very interesting.

12 Q. You also listen to the radio; what station would 13 that be?

14 A. Well --

15 Q. For news, I'm talking about.

16 A. I listen to public radio in the morning, before I 17 go to work. And I can't really get too many 18 radio stations at my job. I don't know why, it's 19 just because. So I think it's Cub radio that I 20 listen to.

21 Q. So do you listen to 1240 WMOT (sic) much, or 22 1360?

23 A. I can't get those stations.

24 Q. You don't listen to them?

25 A. I can't get them and, no, and I don't listen to

1 them.

2 Q. Driving to work or anything like that, you stick 3 with public radio?

4 A. Mm-hmm.

5 Q. You heard some publicity, I assume, about Brendan 6 Dassey?

7 A. Mm-hmm. Yes.

8 Q. Tell me what you have learned about that, about 9 him.

10 A. That he is also somehow involved in this, in the 11 disappearance of Teresa Halbach. Somehow he's 12 involved in that.

13 Q. Do you know the details of what he supposedly 14 said?

15 A. I don't really know the details of what he said.
16 I just know that it seems that he was in the 17 vicinity and was there at some time.

18 Q. Did you happen to hear on the radio, or see on 19 TV, any press conferences about Brendan Dassey?

20 A. I don't recall. I mean, I don't remember paying 21 much attention to that at all.

22 Q. Have you read anything about how he has -- 23 subsequently recanted his confession, that is, 24 taken it back?

25 A. No. It's my understanding that he confessed and 1 then he's been held ever since then.

2 Q. Okay. So you haven't heard anything about 3 whether or not he's later withdrawn that 4 confession?

5 A. No, I don't know.

6 Q. Or anything about that. Okay. Did the story, 7 did it bother you when you heard it?

8 A. Initially, when -- about Mr. Avery and -- yes, 9 mm-hmm.

10 Q. Which part are you talking about? Are you 11 talking about when Mr. Avery was first arrested 12 and they were looking for Teresa and all of that, 13 or later, the Brendan Dassey part of it.

14 A. Oh, um, the before part, when they were looking 15 for her.

16 Q. So, did you see on the news when she was still 17 missing and they were looking for her, and they 18 hadn't found her vehicle or anything like that?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Did you -- Did you volunteer to go help search 21 for her?

22 A. No.

23 Q. You have a daughter who is 21 and single, right?

24 A. Mm-hmm, yes.

25 Q. I mean, does that bother you, in particular did

1 you -- were you thinking about how this might 2 have happened to your own daughter and how 3 horrible something like that would be?

4 A. Actually no, I didn't.

5 Q. No. Why not?

6 A. Because it seems that I feel she's safe. I don't 7 know. I guess I didn't really think about that.

8 Q. So it's not something that you were ever 9 concerned could happen to your daughter?

10 A. Of course, I worry about her. As a mother I 11 worry about her, but I never imagined something, 12 you know, terrible happening or.

13 Q. Sure. Now, when you say that you -- It seems 14 from what you have read and heard on the radio, I 15 guess, it seems that he's -- Mr. Avery is 16 involved in some way. How do you think you can 17 set that aside now and -- if you were selected as 18 a juror?

19 A. I consider myself a very fair and honest person
20 and I think I would be able to objectively listen 21 to both sides of information and make an honest, 22 objective decision.

23 Q. Do you think that sometimes people in the media, 24 the way it's portrayed, they may seem guilty, or 25 that it's a cut and dried case, but in reality

1 things might be very different?

2 A. Right.

3 Q. And you think you could look at this case that 4 way?

5 A. I could look at it very objectively. Like, I 6 guess I have learned not to always believe what 7 the media says.

8 Q. You are familiar with the concept of the 9 presumption of innocence, I assume?

10 A. Maybe.

11 Q. Well, do you know that defendants are presumed 12 innocent?

13 A. Presumed innocent, mm-hmm.

14 Q. And in Mr. Avery's case, can you tell us today 15 that you presume him to be innocent, even with 16 everything you have heard or read? Be honest.

17 A. I'm going to say, yes, mm-hmm.

18 Q. You kind of struggled with that for a little bit, 19 you just really wanted to be sure; is that what 20 you're --

21 A. Yes, I wanted to be sure.

22 Q. Searching to make sure that you really believe
23 that, right?

24 THE WITNESS: Mm-hmm. Yes. Sorry.

25 Q. Now, there's another -- This is something that

1 defense attorneys always have to sort of struggle 2 with, is the whole idea of whether or not to call 3 the defendant as a witness at the trial. Some 4 people think that, you know, if a defendant
5 testifies, well, you know, why should we believe 6 him. He's got everything at stake here, right, 7 he's just trying to save his skin?

8 A. Mm-hmm.

9 Q. Some people think why didn't he take the stand, 10 he is hiding something; how do you come down on 11 that? Let me ask you it this way, do you think 12 that Mr. Avery should testify and tell his side 13 of the story? As a juror, is that what you want 14 to hear?

15 A. I don't think it would make any difference to me 16 if he did or did not take the stand, or it 17 wouldn't make me feel either way that because he 18 did take the stand, like, what you said, like 19 people think that some people who take the stand 20 will be --

21 Q. Can you think of any reasons why someone would 22 choose not to testify if they were accused of 23 some serious crime like this?

24 A. Because they have people like you, lawyers, to do 25 the speaking for them?

1 Q. Okay. Or maybe they are not good with public 2 speaking?

3 A. Mm-hmm.

4 Q. Things of that nature.

5 A. Mm-hmm.

6 Q. So, if -- But if Mr. Avery did testify, would you 7 be able to set aside those feelings you have had,
8 things you have read in the newspaper, or heard, 9 and really judge him like any other witness?

10 A. Yes, I think I could.

11 Q. You really think you could?

12 A. Mm-hmm.

13 Q. Okay. I appreciate that. There are some 14 questions about, you know, what kind of 15 television shows you watch, CSI, and all those 16 Law and Order kinds of things. And you said you 17 don't watch those shows at all?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Do you -- Have you ever watched any police movies 20 or stories, Law and Order crime kind of things?

21 A. I watch 48 hour Mystery, that's about the only 22 type of show like that I watch. Okay.

23 Q. Do you think that there's -- the police are more 24 or less likely to lie under oath than any other
25 witness?

1 A. I would think they are less likely to lie under 2 oath.

3 Q. Okay. And why is that?

4 A. Because they are part of the community. I don't 5 know. They are held up as an upstanding, you 6 know, citizen, protecting us. So I think they 7 would be honest in their answers.

8 Q. Okay. Do you think that they would be -- Can you 9 think of any circumstance where maybe officers 10 wouldn't tell the truth under oath?

11 A. No, I can't.

12 Q. So, if a police officer were to testify, there 13 would be no doubt in your mind that that officer 14 would always be telling the truth?

15 A. Yes, I would think that he was always telling the 16 truth.

17 Q. Now, if the judge instructed you that you are to 18 judge police officers just like any other 19 witness, determine their credibility, weigh what 20 they say against the other evidence, how they 21 act, their demeanor, all of that; would you be 22 able to do that, or do you think that you would 23 just listen to the police officers and say, boy, 24 if -- you know, if they are up there, they have 25 got to be telling the truth.

1 A. I think I could be objective. I think I could 2 listen to what they have to say and base what 3 they say objectively. I'm not sure how to say
4 that.

5 Q. Do you think that sometimes police officers can 6 get personally involved in their investigations, 7 really care about what they are doing?

8 A. Yes, I believe that.

9 Q. Do you think that they can -- maybe sometimes 10 that they become convinced of someone's guilt and 11 focus on that one person?

12 A. I guess that's possible, yes.

13 Q. Do you think that it's possible that they could 14 be wrong about that, though?

15 A. I do. Yup, yes.

16 Q. Do you think sometimes that if a police officer 17 is so involved, so convinced of his case that 18 sometimes they might be tempted to cross the line
19 a little bit?

20 A. Yes, I guess, you know, being a human being, 21 we're all tempted in some way. You know, could 22 be, yes.

23 Q. Maybe even cross the line to maybe shade their 24 report a little bit to make it look a little bit 25 different, or change a few words about what

1 someone says; is that possible?

2 A. I guess it's possible, yes, because human error 3 can happen, or.

4 Q. But then if they would come into court and 5 testify about that, perhaps they wouldn't really 6 be telling the truth then. How would you judge 7 whether they are telling the truth or not if you 8 have a situation like that?

9 A. Have to just listen to everything that's being 10 said, I guess.

11 Q. Now, do you understand that the -- You understand 12 that the State has the burden of proof, right?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. And that Mr. Avery, like any defendant, doesn't 15 have to prove his innocence, correct?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Do you think that's a good idea?

18 A. As far as having the burden of proof on the State 19 or?

20 Q. Yes.

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Do you think it's fair that they have this very 23 high burden of proof, beyond a reasonable doubt?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And that the defense can just sit here and do

1 nothing?

2 A. Well --

3 Q. We better not.

4 A. I would expect -- Yeah, I would expect that the 5 defense would do something. But that's part of 6 our judicial, I guess, because if an innocent -- 7 that's the way we, I guess, find, you know,
8 innocence and guilt, is through this process.

9 Q. Sure. But do you think that if the defense 10 decides to put on a defense, if we decide to put 11 on witnesses; are you going to make us prove that 12 Mr. Avery is not innocent -- I'm sorry, is 13 innocent, not guilty, just because we decide to 14 put on some witnesses and put on a case?

15 A. Can you say that --

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: I was going to object to 17 the phrasing of that question because I'm not sure 18 it accurately deals with the standard that's to be 19 expected of the juror.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Buting, why don't you try 21 rephrasing it.

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: Sure. I'll rephrase it.

23 Q. I guess what I'm trying to ask here is, are you 24 going to be able to really hold the State to the 25 burden of proof and not make Mr. Avery have to 1 prove he's innocent of this charge, even if he 2 decides to put on some witnesses -- or we decide 3 to put on some witnesses on his behalf?

4 A. Yes, that's how I understood it would be, that 5 the State has to prove innocence.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. I'm sorry. Whatever.

8 Q. That's fine.

9 A. I think I got mixed up, but I think -- do you 10 understand what I meant by that?

11 Q. I believe so, yeah. Okay. Do you not watch any 12 of the shows that have any kind of -- actually 48
13 Hours sometimes deals with forensic science
14 things of that nature, doesn't it?

15 A. I think so, I don't -- it probably does.

16 Q. Do you have any particular view on forensic 17 science, that it's -- do you think it's entitled 18 to greater weight, is more believable than 19 perhaps other types of evidence?

20 A. Yes, it seems to be -- has been helpful in the -- 21 recently for, you know, things that have happened 22 in the past for people that have been proven 23 innocent.

24 Q. Okay. So DNA in particular, right?

25 A. Mm-hmm.

1 Q. And that it can, in some instances actually prove 2 someone is innocent, right?

3 A. Mm-hmm.

4 Q. Like Mr. Avery, right?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. You are aware of what happened to him, right?
7 The 1985 conviction he was later exonerated from?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Did you have any questions or lingering doubt 10 about that and think, oh, maybe he just really is 11 guilty and got off somehow?

12 A. No.

13 Q. You are convinced he really was wrongly convicted 14 in that case?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Do you think, though, that not talking about DNA 17 here in particular here, but other types of 18 science, do you think that science is just 19 infallible and that people don't make mistakes, 20 or do you think that it's really a question of 21 are you going to look at what it's based on, and 22 what kind of research is behind it, and what sort 23 of tests are being done?

24 A. I think people can make mistakes in science. And 25 it's -- I'm not sure if I answered that

1 correctly, or the way you --

2 Q. Probably not well phrased. But are you going to 3 be -- There will be some scientific evidence in 4 this case and at times it may get sort of dry; 5 are you going to be interested in following that,
6 though?

7 A. Yes, of course.

8 Q. Looking at all of it, not just the end result, 9 but just what went into it as well?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. One thing, I thought was kind of interesting, you 12 are involved in community theatre you said?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. What do you do with that? Do you act?

15 A. Mm-hmm. I sing and act and dance. It's just a 16 hobby.

17 Q. How long have you been doing that?

18 A. Hmm, maybe 15 or 20 years.

19 Q. Okay. What's the group that you -- What's the 20 name of the community theatre?

21 A. I do a Heart-A-Rama fundraiser in the spring, 22 that's for the Heart Association. And then maybe 23 once or twice a year I do a show out at the UW
24 Center for a fundraiser for the theatre groups, 25 kids for theatre. So maybe now it's once every 1 other year.

2 Q. That's something you really enjoy though?

3 A. It's a hobby, yeah. People say I'm good, but I 4 should keep my day job.

5 Q. All right. And Mr. Rohrer is involved in that 6 too?

7 A. He used to be a long time ago. I don't recall 8 ever being in a same show with him. But he was 9 involved in Masquers, I believe, yeah.

10 ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay. That's all I have 11 for out here, Judge.

12 THE COURT: All right. Just a second.

13 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you very much.

14 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

15 BY THE COURT:

16 Q. Ms Temme, I have a few questions for you, just to 17 follow up on the questions about police officers, 18 that Mr. Buting was asking you about. There may 19 be, during the course of the trial, questions 20 raised about the credibility of some of the 21 police officers.

22 I understood from your answer that you 23 believed they should be more credible because of 24 the nature of their job. But I also believe you 25 indicated you understood that, as humans, they

1 are just like others and may not tell the truth
2 sometimes; is that correct?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Notwithstanding your belief about the fact that 5 by the virtue of their job they should always 6 tell the truth, if you're selected as a juror, 7 will you be able to assess their credibility just 8 like any other witness?

9 A. Yes.

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.
11 Counsel, do I take it from your comments that at 12 this point you wish to follow up with a couple 13 questions that, for which confidentiality was 14 requested.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

16 ATTORNEY BUTING: Yes.

17 THE COURT: I'm going to indicate at this 18 time, the law on this subject, first of all, 19 presumes that voir dire proceedings are open. But 20 in specific narrow situations, they can be closed to 21 address specific personal matters involving 22 sensitive questions.

23 I did have the jurors who filled out the 24 questionnaires indicate specifically if they felt 25 that their answers to any questions fell into

1 that category. And in this case, there was a yes
2 answer to that. I have reviewed this jurors 3 questionnaire and determined that the answers she 4 referred to and the nature of those answers, do 5 fall into the area of deeply personal matters 6 which are to be kept out of the public domain.
7 And that she made an affirmative request to have 8 such matters be kept confidential.

9 Therefore, at this time, the Court is 10 going to allow the counsel to address those 11 matters, and those matters alone, in camera.
12 That is, I will briefly clear the courtroom at 13 this time of all parties except court personnel.
14 If you wait just outside the door, we'll have the 15 bailiff notify you as soon as that portion of the 16 questioning has been completed and invite 17 everybody back into the courtroom.

18 I should also notice that I did receive 19 an inquiry from counsel for WFRV, their counsel 20 in New York, last week, asking if any further 21 court proceedings in this matter would be 22 conducted outside the presence of the public. I 23 notified that attorney and sent, by email, a copy 24 of that letter to all of the other news media on 25 the Court's emailing list, that with this narrow

1 exception that we're dealing with here, the Court 2 did not anticipate that further proceedings would 3 be closed in any fashion.

4 I also indicated that if that attorney
5 or any others wished to be present to be heard 6 before the proceedings were closed, to please let 7 me know ahead of time so I could recognize the 8 attorney and give the attorney a chance to be 9 heard. So before we close these proceedings, are 10 there any attorneys here representing any news
11 media that wish to be heard before we briefly 12 close these proceedings? I do not see any, so at 13 this time, then, we'll clear the courtroom for a 14 few minutes. If you wait nearby in the hall, I 15 will have the bailiff notify you immediately as 16 soon as you can come back in.

(Open court.)

THE COURT: All right. At this time the Court is back open. I will have the Clerk escort Ms Temme outside the courtroom. Counsel, does either party have a motion to make?

ATTORNEY FALLON: No motion from the State.

THE COURT: Mr. Buting?

ATTORNEY BUTING: No motion, Judge.

THE COURT: Very well. The Court will include Ms Temme in the panel. Counsel, I think to move along I'm just going to take a half hour for lunch. I don't know if you want to take it now or after the next juror. What's your feeling? All

1 right. Let's take a break now and let's report back 2 at 12:35.

3 I will also indicate that because of the 4 rate at which we're going, I told them this 5 afternoon to bring in eight jurors rather than 6 the 15 that we had discussed. But I also want to 7 let you know, we may go late this afternoon if we 8 need to make some headway. All right. I'll see 9 you in a half hour.

10 (Noon recess taken.)

11 THE COURT: At this time we're back on the 12 record. I believe it's Jacqueline Ungrodt, the next 13 juror, correct?

14 JURY BAILIFF: Yes.

15 THE COURT: All right. You can bring her
16 in at this time. Ms Ungrodt, if you will please 17 raise your right hand, we'll have the Clerk swear 18 you.

19 (Juror sworn.)

20 THE CLERK: Please be seated. Ms Ungrodt, 21 you have already filled out a juror questionnaire
22 last week. Today we're moving on to the next step 23 in the juror selection process, which is the chance 24 for the attorneys for each side to individually ask 25 questions to make sure that the juror meets the 1 qualifications.

2 I have a few pieces of information that 3 I didn't pass on last week. First of all, the 4 jurors selected to hear this case will not be 5 sequestered for the length of the trial. We're 6 doing that because of the fact the jurors are 7 being instructed not to view any news media
8 accounts of the case, or talk with anyone else 9 about it. If the jurors can do that, there will 10 not be a need to sequester the jury.

11 Also you should know, although these 12 proceedings today are open, no cameras are 13 permitted in the courtroom during the voir dire 14 process and the news media is not allowed to 15 identify individual jurors by name in news 16 reports. In addition, the jurors who are 17 selected to serve in this matter will not be on 18 camera, in any television proceedings or news 19 accounts during the course of the trial itself.

20 If after today's proceeding you are 21 still a member of the panel, you will receive 22 telephone instructions in a few days as to when 23 to report back to court. At this time then we'll 24 permit the attorneys to ask their questions.
25 Mr. Fallon, are you going to be taking things for

1 the State?

2 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

3 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

4 Q. Good afternoon.

5 A. Good afternoon.

6 Q. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
7 General working for the Wisconsin Department of 8 Justice. And I'm one of the prosecutors in this 9 case. Norm Gahn is the other, and to my left is 10 Mr. Kratz, who I understand you are at least 11 somewhat familiar with.

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. I guess we should probably start there.
14 Your husband is an attorney?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Forgive me, but I'm not from this area, so what 17 kind of law does your husband practice?

18 A. General practice, estate planning, just that kind 19 of thing.

20 Q. All right. Does he do any criminal defense work?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Has he done any municipal prosecution or special 23 prosecution work in his career?

24 A. Yes, he has.

25 Q. What can you tell us about that experience, that

1 you recall?

2 A. I know he was Corporation Counsel for Calumet 3 County for many years. I can't be more specific 4 than that.

5 Q. You also indicated that you are familiar with Tim
6 Halbach?

7 A. I met Attorney Halbach once. I have not had a 8 conversation with him. It was a social event.

9 Q. All right. Since that time you have not had any 10 contact or any encounters with Mr. Halbach?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. How long ago was it that you first met him at 13 this social occasion?

14 A. It was either August or September of last year.

15 Q. All right. So during the pendency of these 16 proceedings?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. All right. During that introduction as it were, 19 did the matter of his sister's case come to 20 light, or any --

21 A. No.

22 Q. -- part of your discussion?

23 A. No.

24 Q. You -- The fact that you have now met the brother 25 of the victim in this particular case, does that

1 cause any question in your mind as to whether you
2 could be fair and impartial if selected as a
3 juror in this case?

4 A. No.

5 Q. All right. You sound pretty comfortable with 6 that, so let me ask you a follow-up. How do you
7 know Mr. Kratz?

8 A. Socially, through the Calumet County Bar
9 Association dinners.

10 Q. All right. Would you consider yourself a friend, 11 acquaintance, or Mr. Kratz is someone that you 12 know from the bar encounters?

13 A. Acquaintance, we have had a couple of 14 conversations, I guess I could say that.

15 Q. When was the last time that you and Mr. Kratz had 16 any conversation?

17 A. That would have been the last dinner, which would 18 have been August or September of last year.

19 Q. During the course of your conversation, did that 20 involve any discussion of the case at all?

21 A. Specifically, I will try to remember. I know I 22 mentioned to him, we were sitting across from 23 each other at dinner, that I had been summoned 24 for jury duty. And I don't remember exactly what 25 I said. I probably made some smart remark about

1 being my luck I would get the big trial. And I
2 think I probably told him I thought from what I
3 had read at that point that Mr. Avery was guilty.

4 Q. All right. That's just based on the media 5 accounts?

6 A. Yes, it would have been.

7 Q. All right. Now, in the questionnaire, you 8 likewise used the phrase probably guilty. And 9 that's fine that you have that opinion. But let 10 me ask -- And that I assume is based strictly on 11 what you read in the media, not from any other 12 conversations with anyone else?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. Okay. You likewise indicated that you would be 15 able to set those opinions aside and base your 16 decision, if you are selected as a juror, solely 17 on the evidence presented in the court, and the 18 instructions you receive from Judge Willis; is 19 that correct?

20 A. Yes, it is.

21 Q. How is it, or why you feel that you could set 22 aside, you know, the probable guilt opinion 23 formed from the media coverage and decide this 24 case on what's presented in court?

25 A. Well -- excuse me. Media coverage is probably

1 not too reliable with factual things. Maybe so,
2 but I don't put much faith in that and I think 3 I'm able to hear evidence and make a decision on 4 that.

5 Q. All right. Now that the Court has advised you 6 that sequestration is not likely here, assuming 7 all the jurors are willing to abide by Judge
8 Willis' instructions; is there any other 9 particular impediment in your mind to the 10 possibility of serving as a juror?

11 A. No.

12 Q. You also indicated in your questionnaire, if I 13 change topics just a bit here, that you had some 14 prior jury experience, you were on a civil case 15 some years ago?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. How did you find that experience?

18 A. It was interesting. I was taking classes, legal 19 classes with the paralegal program at LTC at the 20 time.

21 Q. All right.

22 A. So it was very interesting.

23 Q. I'm going to digress since you have given me that 24 opportunity there. Did you pursue paralegal or 25 legal assistant training?

1 A. I completed the legal classes for the paralegal.

2 Q. Okay. Did you ever engage in that practice?

3 A. I was working for my husband at the time. If he 4 would let me, I would.

5 Q. Okay. That's fair enough. How long did you work 6 in that capacity?

7 A. It was around 10 years. Some of that part time.
8 Didn't work in the summers when our children were 9 home from school.

10 Q. All right. Okay. Well, returning again to my 11 original question about the prior jury
12 experience. I take it that was just a personal 13 injury case as you note here, a tavern owner was 14 found not negligent for some -- can you tell us a 15 little bit about the nature of the case?

16 A. If I remember correctly, it was a long time ago, 17 I think it was a gentleman was escorted out of 18 the tavern by the owner and there were steps 19 leading down and the gentleman fell and, of 20 course, sued the owner of the tavern.

21 Q. Do I read correctly between the lines that the 22 gentleman probably deserved to be escorted from 23 the tavern?

24 A. I would think so.

25 Q. Okay. Why did you find the experience

1 interesting?

2 A. I think the process itself is very interesting.

3 And with our legal system, it's -- to see that

4 part of it, you see how it works.

5 Q. All right. To see it from the other side.

6 A. The other side.

7 Q. All right. In that case that you were a juror,

8 were you a foreperson?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Anything about the deliberation process and 11 working with your fellow jurors that raises any

12 question in your mind about your ability to 13 fulfill that role again if you were selected?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Okay. Do you currently have any close friends or 16 relatives who are currently or have recently

17 worked in the news industry in any capacity?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Are you one of those individuals, if they find

20 something interesting in the news might very well

21 get on the internet and do a little background

22 homework to see if there's more information about

23 the story, or some more facts that might help you

24 form a more informed opinion?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Okay. Pretty much take the news coverage for 2 what it is?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Have you, or maybe even your husband, given the 5 nature of his work or at least as a former 6 Corporation Counsel, ever been in charge of 7 writing any kind of safety guidelines or setting 8 up any safety standards for any type of business 9 or industry, or anything like that?

10 A. I can't speak for him, because I don't know, but 11 I have not.

12 Q. You have not. Okay.

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. Are you a lifelong resident of this area?

15 A. No.

16 Q. How long have you been in Manitowoc County? How 17 long have you been here?

18 A. About 35 years.

19 Q. In that time frame, do you have any opinion as to 20 how the Manitowoc Sheriff's Department is doing 21 their job, in terms of dealing with crime and 22 representing the public; do you feel they are 23 doing a good job, bad job, excellent, poor, no 24 opinion?

25 A. As far as I know they are doing a good job.

1 Q. In your questionnaire, you indicated that you
2 would be able to weigh the testimony of a law 3 enforcement officer the same way you would any 4 other witness. In other words, you wouldn't give 5 their testimony anymore credibility than any 6 other witnesses. Why do you feel that way?

7 A. Sounds a lot different when you say that and then 8 what I wrote. I guess maybe I meant that I
9 wouldn't give necessarily more credibility 10 because -- I'm sorry. I didn't do a good job of 11 answering that one.

12 Q. Well, it's probably not you, it's probably me.
13 You know, we lawyers aren't always as artful with 14 our language as we should be.

15 A. That's misleading. I really don't know how to 16 correct what I was saying there. I would 17 certainly -- somebody in an official capacity in 18 their job and reporting things, I would give more 19 reliability to their testimony.

20 Q. Let me rephrase the question here or read the 21 question, excuse me, exactly as it's written and 22 then we'll talk about it and that way I will dig 23 myself out of the hole I just created.

24 The law requires jurors to evaluate 25 their credibility just as that of any other

1 witness; that is, jurors are prohibited from
2 giving more or less credibility to the testimony
3 of a law officer simply because the witness is a 4 law officer. And if selected as a juror, would 5 you be able to assess the credibility of law 6 officers on this basis, and you indicated yes; is 7 that accurate?

8 A. Yes, I guess I can't argue with that. I'm sorry.

9 Q. Well, we just want to make sure you are clear on 10 that. There is not any confusion in your mind, 11 you would be able to judge their credibility like 12 you would anyone else?

13 A. Yes. I did not remember the way the question 14 was.

15 Q. That's my fault for in the way the question was 16 asked. All right. Do you like to work on 17 puzzles? Are you a puzzle person?

18 A. Occasionally, it's not a passion.

19 Q. All right. what kind of puzzles would you work 20 on? Word puzzles, jigsaw puzzles?

21 A. Crossword puzzles.

22 Q. Crosswords. Okay. Would you consider yourself a 23 detail oriented person or are you kind of a big 24 picture type of approach to problem solving?

25 A. Probably more detailed.

1 Q. All right. And why did you think so, or what 2 tells you -- what suggests that answer to you?

3 A. I guess because that's what I usually take care 4 of in the things that I'm involved with, the 5 details.

6 Q. So you run the show at home, keep the family
7 business, as it goes, on task, I take it?

8 A. Well, partially, and plus other things that I'm 9 involved with.

10 Q. Okay. What are some of those other things you 11 are involved with, some hobbies or other outside 12 things?

13 A. Things I mentioned, boards I'm on and that.

14 Q. All right. I see that you serve on the County
15 Library Board?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Any chance that you are familiar with --

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: Diane Free.

19 Q. -- Diane Free? Do you know a Diane Free? She 20 works for the County Library System.

21 A. I don't know the employees, it's just the board.
22 I'm with the board.

23 Q. So you're just with the board. I see. Okay.

24 A. Right.

25 Q. All right. I see that you are also a secretary

1 of the board and you are also a president -- is 2 that the Kiel Board of Appeals?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Tell me about that Kiel Board of Appeals 5 chairperson; what's that's all about?

6 A. That's if someone disputes a building inspector's 7 granting a permit for building and wants to 8 dispute that, then they come to the Board of 9 Appeals to appeal that.

10 Q. All right. And you are the chairperson on that?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. In that capacity, do you then listen to the 13 presentation more or less of both sides and then 14 do you like cast a vote in -- in your capacity as 15 chairperson, or is that determined by others, or 16 how does that work?

17 A. We usually have the information before the 18 meeting.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. It has to be published and we do listen to anyone 21 that wants to speak. It's just our side and 22 their's, in essence. But, yes, we do make a 23 motion and vote on that part, the whole board 24 does.

25 Q. All right. So in that capacity, as a board

1 chairperson, you are working with the Village or 2 Town of Kiel?

3 A. City of Kiel, mm-hmm.

4 Q. City. Okay. Very good. All right. Do you 5 enjoy that?

6 A. Yes, I do.

7 Q. What is it about that job that you enjoy?

8 A. It's just interesting. I just enjoy it, that's 9 all.

10 Q. Fair enough.

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all I have, Judge.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

13 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

14 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

15 Q. Do you prefer Mrs. Ungrodt or Ms. Ungrodt or?

16 A. Whatever you wish is fine.

17 Q. First of all, am I pronouncing the last name
18 right?

19 A. Ungrodt, but you're close.

20 Q. I want to be better than close if I can. I'm 21 just going to pick up right where Mr. Fallon left 22 off for a couple minutes. The Kiel Board of 23 Appeals, how many folks sit on that board?

24 A. Right now, there are seven -- I'm sorry, five, 25 that sit on it.

1 Q. And the City Clerk is assigned to take minutes or 2 something?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. Correct.

6 Q. And this -- this would be variance disputes, 7 zoning disputes, that kind of thing?

8 A. Well, yes, variance. Generally it's a variance.

9 Q. Okay. And is it typically the kind of thing by 10 the time it gets to the board that you chair that 11 someone is going to go away happy and someone is 12 going to go away unhappy?

13 A. As in most things, probably so, yes.

14 Q. I'm not trying to be cute about that.

15 A. No. Right. They either are granted the variance 16 or they are not granted it.

17 Q. And are the disputes the kind that people tend to 18 invest a lot of emotion, or are they not?

19 A. Sometimes they are, yes.

20 Q. So there can be pitched feelings about these at 21 times at least?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. Not often, but sometimes.

25 Q. And the hearing process, of course, you get

1 written submissions before probably a night time 2 hearing or an evening hearing that you have 3 occasionally?

4 A. Yes, mm-hmm.

5 Q. But that's all published?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. The public is free to come and be heard?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Sort of municipal government?

10 A. Correct.

11 Q. And as a decision making style or process, are 12 you more comfortable about something where you 13 expect to hear from both sides?

14 A. I'm sorry, I don't understand.

15 Q. In a criminal case, you may not hear as much from 16 the defense as you do from the prosecution. Do 17 you know why?

18 A. No, I don't.

19 Q. Okay. Are you familiar with the presumption of 20 innocence?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Are you familiar with the concept in this country 23 that the prosecution, the state, the government, 24 whoever the sovereign is, bears the burden of 25 proof, beyond a reasonable doubt?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And that the defense has no burden of proof?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. So -- And that's where I'm going, Mrs. Ungrodt.

5 Would you -- You come into this telling us,
6 commendably, I mean with commendable candor, that 7 you think Steve Avery is probably guilty?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. I'm getting the sense that you are a person that 10 chooses your words carefully?

11 A. I have learned that over the years, yes.

12 Q. So probably was a considered choice when you said 13 probably?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And as you come into this thinking Steve Avery is 16 probably guilty, what am I going to have to do or 17 what is he going to have to do to persuade you 18 otherwise?

19 A. I think you just told me he doesn't have to do 20 anything.

21 Q. Yeah, but I'm interested in what you are going to 22 tell me about you as a decision maker. I'm not 23 so interested in the broad platitudes of the law
24 here.

25 A. Okay.

1 Q. I'm interested in learning a little bit about how 2 you will live with that, or whether you can live 3 with that, if you are selected to serve on this 4 jury?

5 A. Live with making a decision, is that what you are 6 asking?

7 Q. Right. Would you expect to hear from Mr. Avery 8 in this case if you sat?

9 A. I don't know if he would or not.

10 Q. All right. And I guess, you know, wouldn't an 11 innocent man testify?

12 A. Not necessarily.

13 Q. Why not?

14 A. As you said, he doesn't have to prove his own
15 innocence.

16 Q. Right. And that, I'm confident that Judge Willis 17 will instruct you in words close to that. But 18 again, let's get into the details as you say.
19 Why wouldn't an innocent man testify and say I 20 didn't do it?

21 A. Well, I don't know a reason that wouldn't happen.

22 Q. If Mr. Buting and I, with Mr. Avery, decide not 23 to call him as a witness; is that something that 24 will weigh on you particularly here, as you sit 25 here saying I think he's probably guilty?

1 A. I don't think so. I don't know for sure. I 2 would have to, you know, have that happen and see 3 how I felt. I can't always predict how I'm going 4 to feel about something.

5 Q. And I want you to expand on that a little bit.
6 It's a perfectly fair answer. In fact, it's a 7 terrific answer saying I don't know as you just 8 did. But what's the tug? What's the conflict 9 you feel?

10 A. I don't know if -- perhaps if it appeared that 11 the prosecution had -- or needed to affirm a 12 matter of innocence. I really don't know. I'm 13 sorry, I don't know how to answer that, other 14 than that.

15 Q. You know, one of the things that -- the way -- 16 sort of the delicate ways in which our system 17 works is that a judge turns over fact finding to 18 12 people from the community. I suppose even 19 though a judge might think he is just as good a 20 fact finder as anyone else. And at the same time 21 the 12 people on the jury turn over law finding 22 or instruction on the law to the judge, even 23 though we all come with ideas about what the law 24 is or should be.

25 And you strike me has a fairly strong

1 personality. Can you, and will you, take 2 instruction on the law from the Judge even if you 3 don't necessarily agree with it or wouldn't write 4 it the same way yourself?

5 A. Absolutely.

6 Q. Why?

7 A. Because I am a firm believer in our laws and 8 abiding by them and try to, I think.

9 Q. You came to this area of the state about 35 years 10 ago --

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. -- you said. Were the first years before that 13 spent in Madison, or in that area?

14 A. Was in Madison prior to that, yes. And then 15 Oshkosh after for three years before we moved 16 here.

17 Q. Was your husband from this area?

18 A. No, he is from northern Wisconsin.

19 Q. In any event, really, Manitowoc County, Kiel is I 20 think where you have done -- you raised your 21 children in the main and have lived your life for 22 35 years. But I also see a lot of connections to 23 Calumet County in your questionnaire; how did 24 that come about?

25 A. Well, part of Kiel lies in Calumet County.

1 Q. Oh, is that right?

2 A. Yes. So it's -- Yes.

3 Q. Okay. It's one of these cities that split?

4 A. A small part of the city is in Calumet County.

5 Q. Okay. And is the library board joint between 6 Calumet and Manitowoc County?

7 A. No. No, we're Manitowoc County.

8 Q. But you are also on the Calumet County Library

9 Board, if I understand?

10 A. Not -- Well, I'm on the Manitowoc County/Calumet

11 County. I'm on the system library board. They 12 have a library system which is two counties,

13 Calumet and Manitowoc.

14 Q. Is combined?

15 A. Right, as a system, yes.

16 Q. I'm sorry, we were going past each other.

17 A. Perhaps I misunderstood.

18 Q. That's what I was asking, so it's a two county

19 system?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And Mr. Ungrodt was, for a number of years, the 22 Corporation Counsel of Calumet County?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. You told us, and it's not a surprise, that you

25 don't remember exactly how many years, but this

1 was more than 10 or something probably?

2 A. Oh, yes, more than 10 years ago, yes. Or more 3 than 10 years --

4 Q. In total?

5 A. -- in Corporation Counsel.

6 Q. Yes.

7 A. I would say at least 10 years that he was.

8 Q. Sure.

9 A. I could be wrong.

10 Q. You anticipated my next question which is, you 11 know, do you know remember about how long ago he 12 stopped serving as the Corporation Counsel for 13 Calumet County?

14 A. It's been a long time. I would say perhaps 15 between 15, or 15 years or more.

16 Q. But he still enjoys the annual, I assume, bench
17 bar dinner, or something, in Chilton?

18 A. Yes, he does a lot of work in Calumet County 19 also, so, yes. Belongs to both county bar 20 associations.

21 Q. And there is an annual dinner in Calumet County, 22 bar association?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Which is a relatively small bar association I 25 think?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. I only say that because I have seen a picture on 3 the wall in the Calumet County Courthouse. So 4 these gatherings, if you include spouses, do 5 these tend to be 25 or 30 people?

6 A. I would say 30 at least, but perhaps more. It 7 depends.

8 Q. Something in that 30, 30 plus range?

9 A. Yes, I believe so.

10 Q. Okay. And Mr. Kratz has been a distinguished 11 member of that bar association for probably 20, 12 22 years. Is this an annual sort of thing where 13 you would bump into Ken Kratz yearly, about, at 14 the bar dinner?

15 A. Well, with a small number of people you do. See, 16 I don't know that we've -- Well, of course we 17 knew who we were, or each other was and --

18 Q. No.

19 A. And it was just as a social gathering.

20 Q. I understand that. And I'm sure, you know, with 21 even if there's 35 people, you talk to some 22 people one year and other people the next, I 23 assume. But, really, you have seen him annually, 24 at least, for a number of years?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And this past late summer, early fall, the two of 2 you were seated at the same table?

3 A. Correct.

4 Q. Was that by choice or was seating assigned?

5 A. Happenstance, just the way people sat down I
6 think.

7 Q. Okay. Just where they plopped down. And I'm not 8 -- It's clear you can't remember the details and 9 there's no reason you should. But you were 10 guessing that maybe you said, I have been 11 summoned for jury duty and with my luck, you 12 know, I'll wind up --

13 A. Oh, yes. I'm sure I said that, something like 14 that.

15 Q. And you think you probably made a comment to 16 Mr. Kratz that this guy was probably guilty?

17 A. I probably did, yes.

18 Q. That was certainly an opinion you held at the 19 time?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Now, I guess I'm curious about what, if any, 22 follow-up there was from Mr. Kratz to this bit of 23 conversation?

24 A. I don't -- excuse me -- I don't recall that he 25 specifically said anything. Probably just looked

1 at me like -- didn't say anything. I don't think 2 you offered any -- I don't remember if he did.

3 Q. Okay. Nothing that stands out, in any event?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. When did you -- if you could put your finger on 6 it approximately, when did you come to the 7 opinion that Mr. Avery is probably guilty?

8 A. I don't really know exactly when it was. It had 9 been almost a year by the time, last fall, and 10 against my better judgment, I guess I did make a 11 decision based on what I heard through the media.

12 Q. Mm-hmm. But you can't now tell me whether that 13 was back in November of 2005, or March of 2006, 14 or some other time?

15 A. No, I'm sorry, I can't.

16 Q. And your husband still is in the active practice 17 of law?

18 A. Yes, he is.

19 Q. You -- I think you said maybe it was 10 years 20 that you worked for him as his --

21 A. Off and on, yes.

22 Q. I guess that's right, when the kids were home for 23 the summer.

24 A. That's when we first moved to the area. So it's 25 been a long, long time ago?

1 Q. If you were to end up on this jury knowing, as 2 the Judge just told you, that you would not be 3 sequestered, or at least presumptively here, the 4 jury would not be sequestered during the trial; 5 how would you go six weeks with a husband who is 6 a lawyer in this area for a long time, and not 7 talk about the case with him?

8 A. He doesn't talk to me about anything that goes on 9 in his office. We have never done that with 10 that. And I'm sure that would not be a problem.
11 He knows I wouldn't do it, too.

12 Q. Of course. This isn't in his office so he 13 doesn't have that ethical responsibility. I mean 14 this is a matter of public comment, to put it 15 mildly.

16 A. He has as much respect for the system as I do and 17 I don't think he would ask me anything. He knows 18 I wouldn't say anything.

19 Q. You -- Mr. Fallon asked you a question or two 20 about working puzzles?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And you allowed as how they are not a passion of 23 yours, but you might occasionally do that?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. What is a passion of yours? How do you -- What

1 engages you as a way to spend your time?

2 A. As I probably put in my questionnaire I love to 3 read and I love to garden, I guess those, and my 4 family.

5 Q. What drew you to the library board? You are 6 really on two, because you are on the Kiel City
7 Library Board.

8 A. Correct. And the county one.

9 Q. What drew you to that work?

10 A. Well, it was I -- because I do read a lot and I 11 take a lot of library books out and was asked 12 many years ago by our local librarian if I would 13 consider being on the county board, which I was 14 first. And then after that, was on the -- was 15 appointed by the mayor at that time to be on the 16 city board.

17 Q. Mm-hmm. What do you read?

18 A. Just about everything except romance novels and 19 science fiction.

20 Q. Okay. You met Tim Halbach at the most recent bar 21 dinner that you described, the 2006.

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Did you know by name, immediately, who he was?

24 A. No, I think my husband told me who he was before 25 that time.

1 Q. That he was a brother of Teresa Halbach.

2 A. Yes, that's correct.

3 Q. And that rang a bell with you?

4 A. Well, I knew who he was when I met him. And I

5 was told who he was before I met him.

6 Q. Before you were introduced?

7 A. Because I did not know the family.

8 Q. Okay. So once you were introduced, you knew the 9 connection?

10 A. Yes, mm-hmm.

11 Q. Was this just a passing introduction?

12 A. Yes. Yes.

13 Q. Nothing more than that?

14 A. No conversation, just hello, nice to meet you

15 type thing, yes.

16 Q. He -- I mean, I have met him too and he's a nice

17 young lawyer; would you agree?

18 A. Yes, I guess so. He seemed a nice person.

19 Q. I mean, is there a degree of sympathy you feel 20 for him?

21 A. I think I would have sympathy for any family

22 member who has had a tragic thing happen within 23 their family.

24 Q. You mentioned, just sort of briefly in your

25 questionnaire, a minor sort of chronic health

1 problem. Is that something you are comfortable 2 talking about publicly?

3 A. Sure. It's just sinus -- sinus problems. You
4 can tell I'm so stuffy now, and it's just, yeah.
5 Just, yes.

6 Q. And I guess I'm here to tell you that a six week 7 trial is a bit of a grueling experience, or it 8 can be, for everyone involved. What -- If 9 there's anyway you can give us a sense, what's 10 the likelihood we lose you to an infection or you 11 really get seriously under the weather during a 12 six week stretch of the winter?

13 A. I can't answer that. I never know. It just 14 happens. I get up in the morning and it's there.

15 Q. It's not seasonal?

16 A. It's more in the winter time.

17 Q. Okay. And when it's there, is it incapacitating?

18 A. Pretty much so if I don't have antibiotics to 19 take right away. The first couple days are 20 always the worse, yeah, for that.

21 Q. Does getting run down, or being stressed, or 22 exceptionally busy, get tied to this chronic 23 problem?

24 A. Not that I'm aware of, but it's possible.

25 Q. But that's all I'm asking is you never noticed,

1 boy, I've been burning the candle at both ends
2 and now I have got myself a bad sinus infection?

3 A. I have not noticed any correlation between the 4 two.

5 Q. Okay. Let's say you sit on this jury, in the 6 end. And just -- Let's just suppose that you 7 come to the conclusion, after thinking very 8 carefully about all the evidence at the end, that 9 the State just hasn't proven one or more charges 10 against Mr. Avery and that you are duty bound to 11 vote not guilty on one or more charges, okay?

12 A. Mm-hmm.

13 Q. Let's just hypothetically assume that. How do 14 you think the community, in which you have lived 15 for 35 years, would take your not guilty verdict?

16 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection, relevance,
17 appropriate of that question.

18 THE COURT: As it's phrased, I'm going to 19 sustain the objection.

20 Q. What I'm trying to get at, Mrs. Ungrodt, is 21 jurors can get some unwanted attention no matter
22 what verdict they return. Some of them may want 23 attention but, you know, jurors in general can 24 get unwanted attention. And you know, it's no 25 secret, this case has been highly public, right?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Do you think you could handle the social stigma, 3 or the reaction of people in a relatively small 4 city, in which you have lived for 35 years?

5 A. Yes.

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: I still object. The 7 question is, can she follow the requirements of the 8 law, notwithstanding these other factors. Not 9 whether -- Not the question as phrased. I object to 10 the manner in which the question is posed.

11 THE COURT: Well, it's closer to an 12 acceptable question than the last form was and I 13 think the juror understood it and gave her answer.
14 So I'm going to allow it.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: All right.

16 Q. I'm sorry your answer was?

17 A. I answered yes to your question.

18 Q. Why? Why would you be able to follow the law and 19 your juror's duty in spite of all that?

20 A. Just the way I am. I would do it. If I feel I 21 have done something right, then I won't back down 22 from it.

23 Q. Thank you.

24 A. Yes.

25 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

1 BY THE COURT:

2 Q. I have a few follow-up questions. I think they 3 are largely clarification. In answer to a couple 4 of questions on the questionnaire you indicated, 5 I believe, as I read your answers, that based on 6 the news reports that you had heard, you thought 7 that the defendant was probably guilty --

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. -- is that correct?

10 A. Yes, your Honor.

11 Q. And you also answered yes to the question whether 12 you would be able to set aside those opinions and 13 base your decision only on the evidence presented 14 in court?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. So you understand that at trial, the defendant 17 starts off with a clean slate and, in fact, that 18 you couldn't find him guilty unless you concluded 19 the State proved it, beyond a reasonable doubt.

20 A. Yes, mm-hmm.

21 Q. So you believe you could set aside the opinion -- 22 The opinion that you had is just based on what 23 you have heard, but you would not let that affect 24 your judgment as a juror?

25 A. That's correct.

1 Q. And with respect to Mr. Kratz, do I understand 2 that your testimony was, or your answers were 3 that you see him approximately once a year at 4 this bar dinner?

5 A. I believe that is correct, your Honor, yes.

6 Q. And other than a casual hello plus the exchange 7 you described to us, that's the extent of your 8 communication with him?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. If -- To take off on one of Mr. Strang's 11 questions, if at the end of trial, based on the 12 evidence you thought that a not guilty plea -- or 13 not guilty verdict was warranted, and you voted 14 not guilty; would you have any problems facing 15 Mr. Kratz after that, based on whatever your 16 acquaintance is with him?

17 A. No.

18 THE COURT: All right.

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: I have just a brief
20 follow up, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Go ahead.

22 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

23 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

24 Q. What have you heard either from the media or your 25 husband about this case in the last week?

1 A. Nothing, I have avoided everything, just as I was 2 instructed to do so.

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: One question, just like I
4 said.

5 THE COURT: The Clerk will escort you out
6 of the courtroom at this time.

7 Counsel, any motion from either party?

8 ATTORNEY FALLON: No motion from the State.

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: I do. I'm going to move
10 to strike Ms Ungrodt for cause, your Honor, both 11 subject of an objective bias, I guess in the 12 framework that the Wisconsin Supreme Court lately 13 has given us in the last 10 years or so. I didn't 14 like -- Well, they were honest, but I thought the 15 answers to the questions about having an opinion as 16 she comes into this case were a problem.

17 She comes in thinking him probably 18 guilty, rather than presumably innocent. And 19 having learned a little bit more about her 20 contact with Mr. Kratz, which of course has been 21 perfectly appropriate, although it's a casual 22 acquaintance, it's one that's renewed annually, 23 or nearly, from the sound of it. And during the 24 pendency of this case involved sharing a dinner 25 table and raising the topic of this case, at 1 least briefly, coupled with now having been 2 introduced to Tim Halbach.

3 I think we're just, you know, we're at a 4 point here where discretion suggests excusing her 5 for cause, given the size of the panel we have 6 drawn and the compositive issues that her
7 questionnaire and this individual voir dire 8 process raised. You know, I don't know what to 9 make of the chronic sinus problem. But I had 10 some concern about that, too. And I will simply 11 leave that as it is. The Court heard the same 12 thing I did, but I would -- I think on balance 13 this is a juror better off excused.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon.

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you, Judge. While 16 I'm sensitive to counsel and the Supreme Court 17 suggestion regarding the bias issue, I just don't 18 really feel, based on the answers by Mrs. Ungrodt, 19 that we need to excuse here. Taking them I guess in 20 reverse order, starting with subjective bias, she 21 indicated that from the media accounts he is 22 probably guilty. I think that was the answer to 23 question No. 40.

24 Then with respect to question 42, she 25 repeated that same comment. But I think it's

1 significant to point out that from the media
2 coverage, two things. One, we did have a 3 judicial determination that he was probably 4 guilty, and that was clearly reported in the 5 media. And she, as counsel aptly noted, 6 carefully chose her words and didn't say he is 7 guilty, that he was probably guilty. Well, quite 8 frankly, that's an accurate action statement of 9 what the procedural posture of the case is.

10 Secondly, but more importantly, with 11 respect to question 43, and I did ask about it, 12 perhaps clumsily the first time, but did repeat 13 it and the Court did repeat it, that she does 14 strike me as a woman with great respect for the 15 law and the system, being married to someone who 16 has chosen this honorable profession for work to 17 be done. She did participate in the profession 18 herself, and she said, yes, I can set that 19 opinion aside and listen to the evidence. As it 20 were, it was only a probable opinion.

21 So, you know, given her very clear
22 answers and her respect for the system, I think 23 we should take the juror at her word when she 24 says, yeah, I can set that aside, and form my 25 opinion based on what I hear in court.

1 With respect to the objective bias
2 question, I likewise think there's been, you 3 know, an insufficient showing, even giving 4 deference, as it were, to the concerns of the 5 defense regarding the objective bias argument, 6 based on the fact that she, once a year, runs 7 into Mr. Kratz. As indicated -- As I listened to 8 her, she had no problem voicing her opinions as 9 to, well, if the case called for a not guilty 10 verdict, or a count called for not guilty
11 verdict, I could do it.

12 And in response the Court's question and 13 counsel's question, I don't think she strikes me 14 as a woman who's beholding to anyone, her 15 husband, or Mr. Kratz, or Mr. Halbach. Mr. Kratz 16 and Mr. Halbach are individuals that she 17 occasionally runs into once a year, twice a year 18 at best.

19 So I don't think the objective bias
20 argument is appropriate. The objective bias, I 21 believe the test is whether or not a reasonable 22 or prospective juror's state of mind, whether a 23 reasonable juror would be considered biased under 24 those circumstances, and based on what we know, 25 because the Court is entitled to look at all the 1 facts and circumstances surrounding the 2 encounter.

3 And I believe the recent objective bias
4 case out of Milwaukee County is certainly ample 5 proof of that fact. The case -- and if I can 6 find it in a moment -- in which an employee of 7 the Milwaukee County District Attorney's Office 8 who works out at juvenile court was -- she was an 9 administrative assistant, was called to serve on 10 a criminal jury downtown on a felony matter and 11 was found not to be objectively biased even 12 though she worked for the same person as the 13 prosecutor. And that's E. Michael McCann,
14 District Attorney for Milwaukee County. That's a 15 Supreme Court opinion in State vs. Dale Smith.

16 So when you consider all the facts and 17 circumstances, acknowledging that it is a mixed
18 question of law and fact, I don't think there's a 19 sufficient basis for a determination of objective 20 bias. Thank you.

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: I will add only to that,
22 that I think the objective bias question doesn't 23 stop where counsel has explained it. She worked in 24 her husband's law office during the time he was 25 Corporation Counsel for Calumet County. One of his

1 clients there, presumably then, as a matter of 2 statute in this state, would have been the Calumet
3 County Sheriff's Office so. And I'm not suggesting 4 that's a subjective bias issue in this instance, but 5 I think it, as well, has a bearing on objective 6 bias.

7 THE COURT: Well, there have been a number 8 of answers given by this juror, or a number of 9 subject matter areas that the defense has raised.
10 Referring to the last one first, I think she said it 11 was -- she thought it was more than 15 years ago
12 that her husband was Corporation Counsel for Calumet
13 County. And I'm not sure, given that long passage 14 of time, whether one could say that objectively a 15 person in her position couldn't put that aside and 16 be impartial.

17 I'm not sure that the defense is arguing
18 objective bias in that particular issue, but I 19 don't believe -- I believe, number one,
20 objectively, someone could and, subjectively, I
21 believe she indicated she could. And I see no 22 reason not to believe her on that point.

23 I asked a few follow-up questions of my 24 own with respect to her connection to Mr. Kratz.
25 It appears to be of the most casual nature;

1 namely, once a year at a bar gathering. She 2 indicated today that she passed on to Mr. Kratz, 3 some months ago, essentially, what she told us 4 today, which is that she had been summoned to 5 jury duty. She was worried it might be this 6 case. And she said she may well have told him 7 she thought that the defendant was probably 8 guilty, which is consistent with the answers
9 given on her plea questionnaire.

10 She indicated that either Mr. Kratz said
11 nothing in return, or if he did, she doesn't 12 remember what it is. I don't find that there was 13 any meaningful conversation with the two about 14 the case. I don't find that there was any 15 conversation between the two, other than what she 16 related. And I don't believe that very limited 17 contact would either make her subjectively or 18 objectively biased.

19 And she indicated specifically, in 20 answer to my question, that she would not feel 21 any inclination to be worried about facing 22 Mr. Kratz if she should find that the evidence 23 introduced by the State was insufficient to prove 24 guilt of Mr. Avery in this case; that is, she 25 could render a not guilty verdict and not feel

1 for any reason that she could not face Mr. Kratz.

2 Her encounter with Tim Halbach was even 3 briefer than that, apparently. I believe she 4 said she just met him once. There was no 5 discussion about this case or the facts involving 6 the disappearance of Mr. Halbach's sister.

7 Finally, with respect to the answers in 8 her questionnaire about believing at the time, 9 based on news reports, that she felt based on 10 those reports the defendant was probably guilty, 11 but she also indicated she could set aside that 12 belief if selected as a juror in this case.

13 I think probably the most helpful
14 discussion that I could find in Wisconsin case 15 law that applies here is in the case of Hammill
16 vs. State, reported at 89 Wis. 2d, 404. It's a 17 1979 case and understandably precedes the current 18 subject -- or statutory bias, subjective bias, 19 objective bias, differentiation used by the 20 courts now. But I think the rules as they apply 21 to the effect on pre-trial publicity and a 22 juror's ability to be impartial are the same.

23 In that case, the Court quoted from a 24 United States Supreme Court case in relevant part 25 as follows: It is not required, however, that

1 jurors be totally ignorant of the facts and 2 issues involved. To hold that the mere existence 3 of any preconceived notion as to the guilt or 4 innocence of an accused without more is 5 sufficient to rebut the presumption of a 6 prospective juror's impartiality, would be to 7 establish an impossible standard.

8 I think if a juror gives any inclination 9 that they have qualms, hesitations, or wouldn't 10 be able to set aside the effects of pre-trial 11 publicity, that would be one thing. But this is 12 a juror whose husband is an attorney. She 13 indicated in her answers that she clearly 14 understands the presumption of innocence, the 15 need to follow the Judge's instructions.

16 She indicates she takes that obligation
17 very seriously and would be able to follow it.
18 And I'm satisfied, based on all her answers, that 19 she is neither subjectively or objectively
20 biased. Therefore, the Court is going to deny 21 the request to excuse her for cause.

22 THE COURT: The next juror is I believe 23 Cherri Haskell, correct? Ms Haskell, if you will 24 remain standing, please, we'll have the Clerk
25 administer the oath.

1 THE CLERK: Please raise your right hand.

2 (Juror sworn.)

3 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

4 THE COURT: Ms Haskell, you have already
5 completed a jury questionnaire in this case. Today
6 we're going to proceed to the next step of jury 7 selection which is individual voir dire. Each of 8 the attorneys will be given an opportunity to ask 9 you some questions in order to determine whether you 10 are qualified to sit as a juror in this case.

11 I have a couple of pieces of information 12 to pass on to you which were not addressed last 13 week. First of all, I want to make sure the 14 jurors understand that the jury in this case is 15 not going to be sequestered, which means that 16 although the trial is expected to go on for six 17 weeks, you will be able to come home at the end 18 of the session each day and then come back the 19 following morning.

20 Our ability to not sequester the jurors 21 is based on the agreement of the jurors that they 22 will not listen to any news media accounts of 23 this case, not read anything, see anything on 24 television, or look up anything on the internet, 25 or discuss the case with anyone else either in

1 your family or otherwise.

2 I also want to assure you that although 3 the proceedings are open, we are not allowing 4 cameras in the courtroom during the voir dire 5 process. The members of the news media are not 6 allowed to identify individual jurors in this 7 case. And should you be selected to serve as a 8 juror, there will not be any cameras that are 9 allowed to show the members of the jury during 10 the course of the trial itself.

11 If you remain on the jury panel after 12 questioning today, you will get a telephone call 13 in the next couple of days letting you know when 14 you are to return to court again. At this point 15 then, we'll have the attorneys ask their 16 questions. Mr. Fallon.

17 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

18 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

19 Q. Good afternoon, Ms Haskell. My name is Tom 20 Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney General with 21 the Department of Justice, one of the prosecutors 22 in the case. To my immediate left is Mr. Ken 23 Kratz, the Calumet County District Attorney and 24 Special Prosecutor as well. Thank you for coming
25 this afternoon.

1 I have a few questions to follow up on 2 the information that you provided last week, so 3 bear with me. You indicate that you work for 4 your husband at Lakeshore Industrial. I'm not 5 from the area, so if you could tell me a little 6 bit about what Lakeshore Industrial is and what 7 your role as office manager, what kind of things 8 do you do?

9 A. It's just me and my husband. And we build 10 lifting cages.

11 Q. I'm sorry?

12 A. We build lifting cages that hang from cranes.

13 Q. Oh, sure. All right.

14 A. I run the office. I do the -- It's just me and 15 him so I do all the sales and everything and 16 bookkeeping and he builds the cages.

17 Q. All right. So it's clearly a family run business 18 and you are the only two employees?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. All right. Well, how long have you been 21 engaged in that business?

22 A. Seven years.

23 Q. Okay. And through the entire seven years, has it 24 just been you and your husband running the 25 business?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And sole employees of the business?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Okay. I note from the questionnaire that you did 5 not answer yes or no, and based on the 6 information that you have just given me, I'm 7 going to reask one of the questions. If this 8 case does in fact go six weeks, the question is, 9 is there any reason that has not previously been 10 ruled on by the Court or why you would suffer any 11 exceptional personal hardship if you are selected 12 to serve as a juror in this case?

13 In other words, if there are just the 14 two of you, is this going to be a problem for you 15 and your husband if you get selected as a juror 16 for six weeks?

17 A. It will be tough on him.

18 Q. Well, tell us a little bit about that. Because 19 if it's going to be a problem, we would probably 20 like to know that. So is there anyone else who 21 can pinch hit for you?

22 A. We may be able to find somebody to help out, 23 yeah.

24 Q. How much of a hardship on the business would it 25 be if you were selected as a juror?

1 A. Well, he would be taking all the sales calls 2 while he's trying to do the manufacturing. So he 3 has to stop what he's doing.

4 Q. So he would be doing the service as well as the 5 production?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. Have you contemplated plans for someone to pinch
8 hit for you, if in fact you are selected?

9 A. Yes, we have asked somebody.

10 Q. Do you have assurances that you will be covered 11 as best as --

12 A. Not yet.

13 Q. Oh, not yet.

14 A. We thought we would wait and see.

15 Q. All right. Good prospect?

16 A. Hopefully.

17 Q. All right. Thank you. One of the other things 18 that was somewhat noteworthy about the 19 information you provided is that you indicated 20 that you apparently have not been following this 21 case in the media?

22 A. At first I did and I just haven't lately.

23 Q. All right.

24 A. I'm not much of a news person.

25 Q. How much -- How long ago did you stop paying 1 attention, as it were; are we talking months?

2 A. Yeah.

3 Q. Last summer or even before that?

4 A. Probably at least six months.

5 Q. At least six months. All right. You indicated 6 you are not much of a news person. Where, or 7 primarily, do you get your news sources? Are you 8 radio, television, T.V., newspaper, if you do get 9 something?

10 A. I read Sunday's paper.

11 Q. Sunday paper. All right. Do you listen to the 12 radio at all in your car or at work?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Any media coverage of this case that you gleaned 15 from the radio, that stands out?

16 A. No.

17 Q. All right. In terms of law enforcement, you 18 answered one question, you have a brother-in-law 19 that is a sheriff?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And where is that?

22 A. In Georgia.

23 Q. Macon, Georgia?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Is he the sheriff or is he a deputy?

1 A. He actually does the training for -- for the 2 sheriffs. He does --

3 ATTORNEY STRANG: I'm having difficulty
4 hearing the juror with the noise in the back.

5 THE COURT: I'm having the bailiff quiet
6 the jurors down a bit.

7 A. I will speak up. He's in charge of the training.

8 Q. All right. He's a training officer for the Macon 9 County Sheriff's Department?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. All right. Do you consider yourself more of a 12 detail oriented person or a big picture type of 13 person?

14 A. Detail.

15 Q. You are a detail person. All right. Would you 16 consider yourself someone who enjoys working on 17 puzzles, or not?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Not a puzzle person. No word puzzles, no jigsaw, 20 no crossword, no nothing?

21 A. (Shakes head. No verbal response.)

22 Q. Okay. Fair enough. Next some, just general 23 questions. Are you familiar with a project
24 that's here in Wisconsin called Project
25 Innocence?

1 A. No.

2 Q. All right. Let me ask, how much of Mr. Avery's 3 background do you know?

4 A. None.

5 Q. None. You have not followed his --

6 A. Just from what I heard in the beginning.

7 Q. Okay. And do you recall what you may have heard 8 in the beginning?

9 A. That he was arrested before and then found 10 guilt -- innocent, I'm sorry.

11 Q. He was found guilty and then he was --

12 A. Yeah.

13 Q. -- exonerated.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. So you are familiar with that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. But you haven't really followed his situation or 18 his plight other than that?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Okay. Have either you or your husband ever used 21 a publication such as Auto Trader to sell a car, 22 or buy a car, or anything like that?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Do you like movies?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Have you ever seen the movie "The Thin Blue 2 Line"?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Okay. How long have you been a resident of 5 Manitowoc County?

6 A. Eight years.

7 Q. And where did you live before that?

8 A. Florida.

9 Q. Florida. In your eight years here in the 10 Manitowoc area, have you ever had any encounters 11 with the Sheriff's Department, either in your 12 business capacity or personal capacity, or 13 anything like that?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Do you have an opinion now as to whether you 16 think the Sheriff's Department is doing a good 17 job with dealing with crime and the public, or 18 just a fair job, or no opinion?

19 A. I think they do pretty good.

20 Q. Any particular reason that leads you to that 21 conclusion?

22 A. Compared to living in Florida, they do a real 23 good job.

24 Q. All right. Where in Florida did you live?

25 A. Orlando.

1 Q. Based on your previous answers, I suspect the 2 answer to this question is no, but I'll ask
3 anyways. Do you have any -- you or your husband 4 have any close friends or relatives who have 5 worked for or are currently working for the news 6 industry, working in the media at all?

7 A. No.

8 Q. Before the business -- Well, were you and your 9 husband engaged in this same business in Florida 10 or is this something you started once you came to 11 Manitowoc?

12 A. Just started it when we moved here.

13 Q. What did you do before that, when you were in 14 Florida?

15 A. He worked for a crane company, welding.

16 Q. And yourself?

17 A. I was in insurance.

18 Q. Insurance agent?

19 A. Not an agent, just clerical.

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all I have.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

22 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

23 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

24 Q. Thank you. Hi. I'm going to pick up on a couple 25 of questions that you have already been asked,

1 then we'll see where we go from there. You and 2 your husband have talked about finding somebody 3 to cover for you if you land on this jury. Would 4 you guys have to pay that person?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Okay. So, I'm not trying to pry into finances, 7 but is that going to turn out to be a significant 8 financial difference than the way things are now 9 for the household or no?

10 A. No.

11 Q. Something you can do without a huge problem?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You told us a little bit about Florida and,
14 specifically, that compared to the Sheriff's 15 Department around Orlando, the folks here do a 16 terrific job, or something close to that. What 17 was your beef, if you will, with law enforcement 18 down in the Orlando area?

19 A. I didn't have a problem with the law enforcement, 20 but there was a lot of crime.

21 Q. Oh, in the area in which you lived?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Is that part of the reason why you moved 24 back up here?

25 A. Yes. We had children, so we wanted to raise them

1 somewhere safe.

2 Q. Mm-hmm. Okay. You're originally from the U.P.; 3 is that --

4 A. Michigan. Not the U.P., but Michigan.

5 Q. Oh. Okay. I thought it was the Upper Peninsula.
6 I stand corrected. What do you -- sort of get 7 back to the publicity that you absorbed or saw 8 about this case back before you sort of unplugged 9 or tuned out; what do you remember about Brendan
10 Dassey?

11 A. I didn't hear much about that.

12 Q. The name ring a bell?

13 A. That he was arrested.

14 Q. Okay. Is he related to Steven Avery?

15 A. Yes, I know that.

16 Q. Do you know how?

17 A. Nephew.

18 Q. And when he got arrested, was that still while 19 you were sort of following this case a little 20 bit?

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. You stopped following it after that. A long time 23 after or right after or?

24 A. Probably a few months after.

25 Q. And what do you know about -- I mean, other than 1 that he was arrested? What you have you heard or 2 read about him?

3 A. Well, I just heard that he was involved with it.

4 Q. And how does that -- In your mind, does that have 5 a bearing on Steve Avery?

6 A. No, I have no opinion on it.

7 Q. Well, but I mean, I think you correctly
8 identified Brendan as Steve Avery's --

9 A. Yeah.

10 Q. -- nephew.

11 A. Yeah.

12 Q. So does the one case have a bearing on the other?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Why not?

15 A. Well, they are together, but I mean, I don't know 16 the facts about it.

17 Q. Okay. So do you remember being told Brendan -- 18 or hearing, reading, that Brendan made some 19 statements, you know, confessions, whatever you 20 want to call it?

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm going to object to 22 the phrasing of the question.

23 THE COURT: I will sustain the objection.

24 Q. What do you remember hearing about any statements 25 Brendan Dassey may have made?

1 A. He just said that he was -- that he did do it, 2 and he was involved in it, and that Steven 3 threatened him, I guess.

4 Q. And what does that make you think about Steven 5 Avery?

6 A. No comment on it. I don't have a comment. I 7 can't base my fact -- I don't know.

8 Q. When you say you don't have a comment, are you 9 thinking something but you don't want to tell me, 10 or you are not thinking?

11 A. I don't really know.

12 Q. Okay. The Judge will, I think, eventually 13 instruct whoever is on the jury here that in 14 America a person accused of a crime is presumed 15 innocent; is that something you have heard 16 before?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Okay. Does that make sense to you?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Do you agree with that?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. You know, given that you have heard at least, or 23 read something about this case, why would you 24 presume Mr. Avery innocent?

25 A. I'm not saying that he is.

1 Q. Okay. What do you think?

2 A. I really don't know.

3 Q. But if you were told you had to presume him 4 innocent, why would you do that?

5 A. I can't say if he's innocent or guilty, I really 6 don't know.

7 Q. Could you follow an instruction that told you to 8 presume him innocent?

9 A. I don't understand what you mean.

10 Q. An instruction, that's a lawyer word. If Judge 11 Willis eventually looks at the jury and says, I, 12 the Judge, am instructing you that Mr. Avery, 13 like any criminal defendant in this country, is 14 presumed to be innocent, is that an instruction 15 you think you could honor and follow?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. If the Judge further told you, here in our 18 country, the State bears the burden of proving 19 someone accused of a crime, guilty beyond a 20 reasonable doubt; is that a concept you have 21 heard before?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Is that a rule you could follow?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Not just in general, but in this case?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And when I say -- You know, you are a detailed 3 person, let me give you a specific setting. If 4 the Judge instructed you that Mr. Avery is 5 presumed innocent and the State bears the burden 6 of proving him guilty, beyond a reasonable doubt, 7 if it can and, you know, some juror said, on the 8 second day of the trial, boy, this guy is guilty 9 as the day is long; is that something you could 10 correct the juror, or bring that to the Judge's 11 attention?

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: Objection.

13 THE COURT: Sustained.

14 A. That I could --

15 Q. Could you honor that -- No --

16 THE COURT: Just a minute, I sustained the 17 objection.

18 ATTORNEY STRANG: Right.

19 Q. You can't answer that question, so I'm going to 20 move on.

21 A. I'm sorry.

22 Q. That's okay. It's my fault, not yours. What I'm 23 trying to get at is whether this is a rule that 24 you can take to heart, you personally?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Do you think that a person charged with a crime 2 should testify in his own behalf?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Why?

5 A. To get their side.

6 Q. Okay. And if the rules turn out to be that the 7 person can testify if he or she wants to, has a 8 perfect right to do that, but also does not have 9 to testify, and if the person chooses not to 10 testify, the jury is told they can't consider 11 that; is that a rule you can follow?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And I guess why, since we're starting with you 14 thinking, yeah, he should testify so I get to 15 hear that side of the story too?

16 A. I didn't understand the question.

17 Q. Why then could you follow a rule that says, nope, 18 if you only get to hear one side of the story,
19 the burden of proof still rests with the State 20 and you can't consider the fact that the 21 defendant did not testify?

22 A. Then I would have to follow that rule.

23 Q. But if I understood you, your first inclination 24 would be to want to hear both sides?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. Can you think of any reasons why an innocent 2 person might choose not to testify?

3 A. Their words might get twisted.

4 Q. Okay. Okay. How about lawyers, are lawyers 5 likely to have any affect on that?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. How so?

8 A. By changing their frame of wording.

9 Q. Okay. So, in other words, the lawyers on the 10 other side might do that?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. How about the lawyers on the defendant's side; do 13 we have any input in that, or affect on whether 14 somebody testifies or not?

15 A. I don't think so.

16 Q. Okay. And I guess the bottom line is -- Do you 17 like Mrs. Haskell, or Ms Haskell?

18 A. Mrs.

19 Q. Mrs. Okay. The bottom line is, if for whatever 20 reason Mr. Buting and I don't call Mr. Avery as a 21 witness, or he does not testify; can you still 22 presume him innocent and hold the State to a 23 burden of proof, beyond a reasonable doubt?

24 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's asked and 25 answered. She said she could follow the instruction

1 on presumption of innocence, burden of proof.

2 THE COURT: She did, but I will allow it.

3 It's a specific question.

4 A. Yes, I could.

5 Q. Let me turn it around. If he decided to testify, 6 could you consider his testimony just the same as 7 any other witness you would hear?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. You left unanswered one question in your 10 questionnaire. It was No. 43, not that you will 11 remember that. The question was, if you have 12 formed any opinions as to Mr. Avery's guilt or 13 innocence, based on information from any source, 14 would you be able, should you be selected to 15 serve as a juror, to set aside those opinions and 16 base your decision only on the evidence presented 17 in court and the instruction given you by the 18 Judge? So I will ask you.

19 A. I thought I answered that.

20 Q. Nope. But the answer is yes?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay.

23 THE COURT: Actually, in fairness to the 24 juror, I should note that the Court didn't artfully 25 word that because it starts out saying, if you

1 formed any opinions, so if the juror hasn't formed 2 any maybe they would feel they didn't have to answer 3 that one.

4 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you much. That's 5 all I've got.

6 THE COURT: All right. The Clerk will
7 escort you out of the courtroom at this time, Ms
8 Haskell.

9 Counsel, any motion from either party?

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: No motion from the State.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: I have no motion specific 12 as to that juror. But I do need to be heard before 13 we bring in the next juror.

14 THE COURT: All right. Ms Haskell will be 15 in then and we can wait a minute before bringing in 16 the next one.

17 ATTORNEY STRANG: I have encountered from 18 the State a number of objections to questions of 19 mine on individual voir dire that I regard not only 20 as proper and unexceptionable, but necessary here.
21 Probably not phrased in a sterile way, but there is 22 no requirement of which I'm aware of that sterility 23 control the process of individual voir dire or 24 general voir dire.

25 And I need to air out just exactly what

1 parameters the Court thinks I'm invading, or what 2 the objections are so that we can deal with that.
3 Because my voir dire here is being hampered 4 materially.

5 ATTORNEY FALLON: I understand where 6 counsel is coming from and it's not something that I 7 ordinarily object to. Here are my only two concerns 8 or complaints. One, I just don't think it's fair to 9 interject facts, for instance, regarding what the 10 juror should know about the past. The question is 11 what do they know about the past.

12 You know, constantly interjecting
13 opinions about, well, he testified in the first 14 case and he was found guilty and shouldn't have 15 been, and what if he doesn't testify in this 16 case; I mean, that's conditioning of the jury.
17 That's one set of questions that I do strongly 18 take exception to, the introduction of facts as 19 opposed to let's find out from them what they 20 think the facts are, or what they know the facts 21 to be.

22 The other questions regarding the 23 presumption of innocence and the burden of proof 24 and it -- I understand exactly where he's going 25 to and most of it I don't object to. My problem

1 is it is in the wording. Because the presumption 2 of innocence, the real essence is -- well, can 3 you take it to heart, or do you believe in it.
4 Well, that's nice, and it might be helpful, but 5 the real question is, can you accept it and will 6 you follow it. That's the essence of it.

7 And whether they are going to get warm
8 and fuzzy over it, is not the issue here. And so 9 I understand completely where counsel is going.
10 And I emphasize with that. I just object to the 11 phrasing on those issues. Because they are 12 important. They are certainly entitled to know 13 that information. My objection there is strictly 14 the way they are being approached and asked.

15 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, with all due 16 respect, the question whether a juror can or will 17 follow a legal rule satisfies the issue of cause to 18 excuse them. And the question of what a juror 19 believes, what a juror accepts, how a juror reacts 20 to propositions, is this something that sticks in 21 the craw, or something that makes the juror want to 22 stand up and wave an American flag, is exactly the 23 sort of thing that goes to the second purpose of 24 voir dire, which is the intelligent exercise of a 25 peremptory strike.

1 And it's also entirely appropriate in 2 this case or any other, to give some concrete 3 meaning to an abstraction like the presumption of 4 innocence. Because here that means they got the 5 wrong guy. That means he didn't do it. That's 6 what I'm presuming or I'm asking a juror to 7 presume and I have a right to have them presume.

8 So to get them talking and get some 9 sense of what it is these people really believe,
10 and what it is they will simply live with a 11 bridal on or not spit out the bit, is the essence 12 of what we're trying to do in deciding how to 13 exercise but seven peremptory strikes.

14 THE COURT: Well, I'm not sure how I can 15 respond precisely to comments that relate to a 16 variety of objections, some of which I have 17 sustained, some of which I have overruled. I recall 18 a couple of the questions related to something 19 involving the defendant testifying at the 1985 case.
20 It's not immediately apparent to me why that would 21 be relevant to this case. I don't think it's 22 something necessarily that the jury is going to 23 hear.

24 I have to confess it hasn't been the 25 subject of any pretrial motions and perhaps

1 there's an explanation I haven't heard yet, but 2 to the extent that the questions start getting 3 into specific evidence, especially evidence that 4 the jury may or may not hear, the Court is going 5 to be reluctant to allow those types of 6 questions.

7 In other cases, the Court sustained the 8 objection simply based on the phrasing of the 9 question. And I don't think I can give you any 10 advance indication as to whether or not I might 11 sustain or overrule any other objection, other 12 than to make those comments.

13 I agree that the -- both parties are 14 entitled to some flexibility in order to draw out 15 the juror and get an honest answer to questions 16 that are directly relevant to determining whether 17 or not the jury can be impartial. But once the 18 parties start getting into hypothetical
19 questions, or questions that might be somewhat 20 misleading, I will sustain objections.

21 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, of course, the fact 22 that he testified in 1985 and was convicted all the 23 same, is not at all hypothetical. And it's a 24 wonderful specific concrete example that may bring 25 home to a juror the importance of this rule that we

1 have, that one has a privilege not to testify in a 2 criminal case, if you're the accused. And innocent 3 people well might choose to do that for good 4 reasons.

5 THE COURT: Well, that's true, but it's not 6 necessary to ask the question in this case and it is 7 something that may well be determined to be 8 irrelevant evidence if it was attempted to be 9 introduced in trial. And I just don't see the 10 necessity or reason for it.

11 ATTORNEY STRANG: Well, the reason is that 12 we've got -- I don't know, I can't give the Court a 13 number right now. But we have several jurors who 14 wrote on their questionnaires, I need to hear the 15 defendant, or an innocent man would testify, words 16 to that effect. We have got jurors who have written 17 down that opinion, and jurors -- I should say 18 prospective jurors, panel members. And my guess, 19 knowing human nature, is that for everyone who has 20 written it down, there are three or four who believe 21 it and haven't written it down. And I clearly am in 22 a position, representing someone who may not testify
23 in this case.

24 THE COURT: Don't get me wrong, I'm not 25 saying that you can't ask questions that are meant

1 to ask the jury if they can accept our rule that the 2 defendant doesn't have to testify. But I don't 3 think it's necessary to tell the jurors, and 4 Mr. Avery did testify in his 1985 case in order to 5 drive home the point. That's what I'm saying.

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: And, you know, just an 7 example, then if counsel wants to ask the question, 8 well, can you think of any reasons why the person 9 wouldn't want to testify and, you know, we have the 10 advice of counsel, we have the inartful speaker, and 11 perhaps a few others things they would like to 12 suggest. Does that mean that I get to say, well, 13 what do you think of the fact that he has got six 14 inconsistent statements about what he did in the 15 first eight days of this investigation. What about 16 the fact that he has a felony record. I mean, I can 17 play that routine too, but I don't want to. I don't 18 think it's appropriate. I just think we're opening 19 a box here.

20 THE COURT: Well, I agree that if the 21 questions go too far in that regard, I would stop 22 them. If a juror says, no, I can't think of any 23 reason why the defendant wouldn't want to testify, 24 that doesn't necessarily make the juror unqualified.
25 It just may mean that the juror can't come up with a

1 specific reason.

2 But as long as the question is brief.
3 It probably -- There are a number of jurors, and 4 it's not just this trial, it's any criminal 5 trial, will get up and say, yeah, I think the 6 defendant should testify, so I can hear the 7 defendant's side of the story. The defense is 8 entitled to a brief education to explain to the 9 jury why our rules don't require that. And as 10 long as the time isn't abused, I'm going to allow 11 it.

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: I don't have any 13 objection to that.

14 THE COURT: Diane, can you do another one 15 before we take our break? How are you doing?

16 COURT REPORTER: I think we can take our 17 break.

18 THE COURT: All right. Let's take our 19 break. We'll resume in 15 minutes, 25 to 3.

20 (Recess taken.)

21 THE COURT: The next juror is John Carbon,
22 correct?

23 ATTORNEY FALLON: Correct.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Carbon, if you can remain
25 standing, the Clerk will administer the oath.

(Juror sworn.)

THE CLERK: Please be seated.

THE COURT: Mr. Carbon, you have already completed a questionnaire in this case. This afternoon we're moving on to the second step of jury selection which is individual voir dire. The attorneys will each have a chance to ask you some questions this afternoon.

Before we proceed, I wanted to tell you a few things that I didn't tell you last week. First of all, the jurors in this case are not going to be sequestered. That means if you are selected on the jury, you are going to be able to go home and sleep at home every day. And we're doing that because we received a commitment from the jurors not to listen to any news media accounts of this matter, watch any television, read any newspapers, or explore it on the internet, or discuss it in any way with anyone.

I also want you to know that although these proceedings are open to the public, we don't permit television cameras in the courtroom during the voir dire process and the press is not

1 allowed to identify individual jurors by their 2 names in news reports. And finally, for those 3 jurors who are selected to serve on the jury in 4 this case, the cameras are not permitted to show 5 the faces of the jurors at the trial.

6 If you are -- If you continue on the 7 jury after questioning today, you will receive 8 instructions by telephone when to return later
9 this week. With that background then, Mr.
10 Fallon, you may begin your questioning.

11 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

12 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

13 Q. Good afternoon, sir.

14 A. Good afternoon.

15 Q. Is it Carbon or Carbon.

16 A. Carbon.

17 Q. Carbon. Thanks for coming. I just have a few 18 questions to follow up on some of the information 19 you provided last week. My name is Tom Fallon.
20 I'm an Assistant Attorney General with the 21 Wisconsin Department of Justice and I'm assisting 22 the prosecutors in this case. All right.

23 Mr. Carbon, I noted from your 24 information here that -- I take it you were a 25 brake press operator?

1 A. Right.

2 Q. Are you currently retired?

3 A. Yes, I am.

4 Q. And how long have you been retired, sir?

5 A. 2002, May 31st.

6 Q. 2002.

7 A. Right.

8 Q. Okay. And where did you work when you --

9 A. Invincible.

10 Q. Invincible.

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. And how long did you work for them?

13 A. Thirty-five years.

14 Q. Were you a brake press operator all that time?

15 A. Yes, I was.

16 Q. Okay. One of the other things that you reported, 17 I take it that you are not much of a newshound?

18 A. No, I'm not.

19 Q. All right. And most of the news that you do get,

20 it seems to be you have a preference for 21 television news?

22 A. That's right.

23 Q. All right. You are not much of a newspaper or 24 magazine guy?

25 A. No.

1 Q. All right. Yet, you report that you have not 2 received much publicity in this case, or at least 3 much that you remember. Is it because you just 4 haven't followed this case?

5 A. Well, I have no interest in it so far.

6 Q. Okay. Fair enough. As a result, you don't have 7 any opinions as to the guilt or innocence of Mr.
8 Avery or anybody else?

9 A. No, I don't.

10 Q. All right. If you were selected as a juror in 11 this particular case, is there any hardship, 12 economic or health-wise that may --

13 A. None whatsoever.

14 Q. None whatsoever. So you are feeling pretty good?

15 A. Yes, I am.

16 Q. Very good. You indicated in your report that you 17 would be able to follow any instructions that 18 Judge Willis gave you and apply that?

19 A. Yes, I would.

20 Q. All right. And you would, if you were selected, 21 base your opinion as to the guilt or innocence of 22 Mr. Avery solely on what you hear in court; is 23 that right?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. In other words, whatever evidence

1 that the State may present, or the defense 2 presents, whatever occurs in the courtroom is 3 what you would base your opinion on and nothing 4 else?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. All right. And you would be able to accept the 7 Court telling you that Mr. Avery is presumed 8 innocent and unless or until the State can 9 convince you otherwise?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. All right. And you would be able to follow that?

12 A. I sure would.

13 Q. Okay. And you understand that Mr. Avery doesn't 14 have to take the stand or testify?

15 A. Right.

16 Q. All right. And you wouldn't hold that against 17 him if he did?

18 A. No, I would not.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. That's his privilege.

21 Q. All right. Similarly, if he did take the stand 22 and decide to provide some information to the 23 jury, you would evaluate his believability the 24 same way you would any other witness?

25 A. Yes, I would.

1 Q. All right. Now, do you have any close friends or 2 relatives who are working in the media or have 3 recently worked in the news industry?

4 A. No, I don't.

5 Q. No. All right. Do you have a computer at home, 6 sir?

7 A. No, I don't.

8 Q. All right. And as I recall, you do not have any 9 prior jury experience; is that right?

10 A. No, I don't.

11 Q. Okay. As you think about this particular case 12 and the possibility that you would be selected as 13 a juror, is there anything in your background, 14 any personal philosophes or religious beliefs, or 15 anything of that nature which might cause you 16 some concern in terms of being a juror?

17 A. No.

18 Q. All right. You would have no problem 19 deliberating in determining guilt or innocence?

20 A. Not one bit.

21 Q. Okay. In your capacity as a brake press operator
22 at Invincible, did you ever, or were you ever 23 involved in any security matters with the company 24 or the shop?

25 A. No, I was not.

1 Q. Not your area of expertise?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Okay. Excuse me. Since you didn't or haven't

4 followed this case very closely in the media, do

5 you have any strong recollections about anything

6 that you may have heard at this time?

7 A. No, I don't.

8 Q. Okay. How long have you been a resident or 9 member of Manitowoc County, sir?

10 A. 1960 I moved into Manitowoc.

11 Q. Okay. 1960.

12 A. I was born in Branch. I lived out there for 21

13 years and I'm 67 so.

14 Q. I'm sorry? You were born where?

15 A. Born in Branch. And I lived in Branch until I

16 was 21.

17 Q. Very good. All right. So you have a fair amount

18 of experience. Do you think the Sheriff's

19 Department is doing a good job, bad job, or fair

20 job, or no job at all, in terms of dealing with 21 crime?

22 A. I think they are doing okay.

23 Q. Doing all right?

24 A. Sure.

25 Q. Do you have any strong opinions regarding your 1 experience with law enforcement?

2 A. No, I don't.

3 Q. All right. Have you had any encounters with law 4 enforcement?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Okay. Any family members or any friends have any 7 bad experiences that they shared with you?

8 A. No, they haven't.

9 Q. Okay.

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all I have for 11 this witness.

12 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Buting.

13 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

14 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

15 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

16 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Carbon.

17 A. Good afternoon.

18 Q. My name is Jerome Buting, and Dean Strang and I 19 are defending Mr. Avery, I assume you understand 20 that.

21 A. Okay.

22 Q. Let me ask you, now you are retired for the last 23 three years, four years?

24 A. Four.

25 Q. Okay. And you stay here year round?

1 A. Yes, I do.

2 Q. What do you generally do with your day?

3 A. I go for walks and I watch the boob tube.

4 Q. Okay. Do you have friends you socialize with, 5 get together and --

6 A. Oh, we go to the bar once a week and play 7 cribbage.

8 Q. Okay. And are they friends you had for a long
9 time?

10 A. Oh, yes.

11 Q. Okay. Good friends?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Okay. And you say you watch a fair amount of TV?

14 A. Yes, I do.

15 Q. During the day and in the evening as well, 16 probably?

17 A. Basketball, football, stuff like that.

18 Q. So does this -- As you are socializing with your 19 friends, did this case ever come up in any 20 discussions, like, hey, did you hear about this 21 or that or what do you think about --

22 A. Not really.

23 Q. Do you remember when it was charged originally?

24 A. I think it was a couple years ago. I don't 25 remember.

1 Q. Okay. Can you tell me what it was you recall 2 hearing when it was first charged?

3 A. Just that he was accused of murdering Ms Halbach.

4 Q. And at some point did you later hear news reports 5 about another person who was also charged?

6 A. No, I haven't.

7 Q. Never heard about a nephew.

8 A. Oh, yes, yes, young Dassey.

9 Q. Brendan Dassey.

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. Brendan Dassey.

12 A. Yes, I'm sorry.

13 Q. Where did you hear about that; did you see that 14 on TV?

15 A. That was on TV also.

16 Q. Okay. Did you see the press conference that was 17 on TV for that?

18 A. No, I haven't.

19 Q. You know what I mean by press conference with -- 20 A. I haven't. That I haven't seen.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. I couldn't have had the TV on at the time. I
23 don't know.

24 Q. Okay. But you recall seeing something on TV
25 about it?

1 A. Yes, I did.

2 Q. What do you recall learning about it, the 3 details? What do you remember?

4 A. Just that they were supposed to have stabbed her,
5 mutilated her. That's about the only thing I
6 remember.

7 Q. And did you -- What did you think when you heard 8 that story; was it a pretty graphic detail?

9 A. Yes, it was.

10 Q. Did it bother you to hear those?

11 A. Yes, it did.

12 Q. Did you believe it to be true?

13 A. I don't know if it's true or not.

14 Q. But when you initially heard that, did you just 15 assume, well, it must be true?

16 A. Not really. Not really.

17 Q. Did you think otherwise? Did you think, well, 18 this is kind of a strange story, I'm not sure 19 this really makes sense?

20 A. I don't know if it makes sense or not, you know, 21 I really don't know.

22 Q. Okay. Did you -- Did it have any affect on the 23 way you thought, or do you think it had any 24 affect on whatever feeling or opinion you might 25 have had about Steven Avery as opposed to Brendan

1 Dassey?

2 A. Not really.

3 Q. Do you recall any details about him being 4 involved, that is, Steven Avery being involved,
5 according to Brendan Dassey's first statement?

6 A. Just through the news media and that was about 7 it.

8 Q. Right. So, in that news media though, you 9 learned a story of what this young man apparently 10 initially said, right?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. And through the news media, have you ever 13 heard any other versions of it since then, any 14 differences in that story?

15 A. No, I haven't.

16 Q. Have you ever heard whether or not the young man, 17 Brendan Dassey, has since tried to take back that 18 story, had to change the story, or anything of 19 that sort?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Just never heard any of that? What about through 22 talking with your friends?

23 A. We don't even bring it -- discuss it, my friends.

24 Q. Okay. After having heard all that you did hear, 25 though, pretty graphic details, as you see

1 Mr. Avery sitting here today, do you really think 2 you think you can give him the presumption of 3 innocence?

4 A. I really don't know, sir.

5 Q. Be kind of hard?

6 A. I don't know if he's innocent or guilty. I have 7 no idea.

8 Q. Well, if -- the Judge will instruct you that when 9 any defendant, including Mr. Avery, comes to 10 court here, at the beginning of his trial, he's 11 presumed innocent.

12 A. That's true.

13 Q. No matter what you may have heard in the news?

14 A. That's true.

15 Q. Do you think sometimes things you hear in the 16 news aren't true?

17 A. Oh, yeah, and I imagine some things in the paper 18 aren't true.

19 Q. Okay. Would that be true for television as well?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Because you primarily get your news from 22 television; is that right?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. Okay. And you understand that generally the 25 defense doesn't get to answer the charges that a

1 prosecutor brings until the trial? A lot of 2 times you don't hear the other side until a
3 trial?

4 A. Okay. I didn't know that.

5 Q. Okay. Did you think the defense should be 6 calling press conferences and responding to it?

7 A. Not really.

8 Q. The fact that you haven't heard any press
9 conference from the defense, or defense
10 attorneys, that, you know, publicly, not only 11 deny the charge but, you know, pick it apart 12 piece by piece; does that have any affect on you?

13 A. No, it doesn't.

14 Q. Do you think that the defense needs to 15 demonstrate here in court, prove to you why 16 Mr. Avery is not guilty of this charge?

17 A. I think so.

18 Q. Why do you think so?

19 A. Because he has got to prove his innocence.

20 Q. He does?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Why is that?

23 A. Right now he is charged with murder.

24 Q. Okay. So you think if somebody like Mr. Avery is 25 charged with murder, something so serious and all

1 the details that you did hear at one point, it's 2 really necessary for him to now prove that he is 3 not guilty; is that what you are saying?

4 A. I would think so.

5 Q. Well, do you feel pretty strongly about that?

6 A. Yes, I do.

7 Q. Why?

8 A. He's just got to prove his innocence.

9 Q. Do you also think that that means that he should 10 take the witness stand and testify and present 11 his side of it?

12 A. I think that's up to him if he wants to testify.

13 Q. So that's different, you feel differently about 14 that part of it?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. You don't feel that in order to prove that he is 17 innocent he would have to testify; is that right?

18 A. That's right.

19 Q. What if he did testify, would you think maybe he 20 is just up there trying to save his own skin, and 21 say whatever he wants, or whatever he needs to?

22 A. No, I don't think so.

23 Q. Why not?

24 A. Well, he's trying to prove that he's innocent, 25 that's why he took the stand.

1 Q. Okay. You know, either way it goes is a tough 2 decision, whether you take the witness stand or 3 not. And, you know, defense attorneys always 4 struggle with that decision, whether they should 5 advise their client to do it or not, take it one 6 way or the other. And can you promise me that if 7 you are on this jury, you are not going to hold 8 it against him either way, whether he does 9 testify or doesn't?

10 A. That's right, I will promise that.

11 Q. Okay. Where do you get together and play
12 cribbage?

13 A. Do I have to say the bar?

14 Q. Sure.

15 A. Saucy's.

16 Q. Saucy's.

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And that's where, in Manitowoc?

19 A. Yes, up on Washington Street.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. It's also a sports bar.

22 Q. Okay. Is that something you do pretty much every 23 day?

24 A. No, just on Wednesdays.

25 Q. Just Wednesdays. Okay. During the day, or

1 evening, or both?

2 A. 9:30 it starts. But now we haven't for the last 3 three weeks because there wasn't enough players.
4 You have to have at least four players.

5 Q. 9:30, in the evening?

6 A. Morning.

7 Q. Morning, I see.

8 A. 9:30, I'm in bed.

9 Q. Okay. I try to be, but it doesn't work out that 10 way. What television channels do you usually 11 watch?

12 A. Channel 11. And in the morning, I think 4:30, if 13 I get up early, I watch Channel 5 or 7. Very 14 seldom 2.

15 Q. Seldom 2, but the other 3?

16 A. Yeah, 11, 5 and 7.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. Or 26, I believe it is.

19 Q. And is it -- You mentioned getting up in the 20 morning and watching something, is it -- do you
21 often have -- Are you often home in the evenings
22 like 6:00, 5:00?

23 A. Sure am.

24 Q. Okay. Is the TV often on?

25 A. It's on, yes.

1 Q. And is it -- At that time of day, usually those 2 channels have local news or half our news 3 broadcast.

4 A. Not at 4:30 in the morning. It's usually world 5 news.

6 Q. Okay. But I mean in the evening, I'm talking 7 about?

8 A. Oh, yes.

9 Q. 5 or 6:00.

10 A. Local news, yes.

11 Q. So that's usually on in your house? The news is 12 on?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. But you don't pay much attention to it, or do
15 you?

16 A. No. Sometimes I'm in the kitchen making a 17 sandwich or something, or a bowl of soup.

18 Q. Okay. Do you think if Mr. Avery should try and 19 prove that he's innocent of this charge; do you 20 think that means that he would have to prove to 21 you who really did it? If he didn't do it, who 22 did?

23 A. Not really. But that's why he's taking the stand 24 on his own behalf, to see if he can prove his 25 innocence, I would think.

1 Q. Well, is there any way he could prove his 2 innocence if he didn't take the witness stand?

3 A. If he had more witnesses, yes.

4 Q. Okay. So if he had a case, or maybe through 5 questioning -- cross-examination of the State's 6 witnesses, bringing out information that way?

7 A. Sure.

8 Q. Okay. So you do think it would be possible for 9 him to convince you that he's innocent even 10 without him testifying?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. Do you think it would be possible to 13 convince you of that if he couldn't also tell you 14 who did do this horrible crime?

15 A. That would be hard.

16 Q. It would be hard to convince you unless you knew 17 that someone else -- unless he showed you who did
18 it?

19 A. Yes, or could prove it.

20 Q. Well, let me ask you this. If somebody is 21 innocent of a crime and they didn't do it, and 22 they don't have the police to go investigate; how 23 would somebody solve the crime? How could you 24 expect a defendant like Mr. Avery to solve the 25 crime and prove who did do it?

1 A. That would be hard to say.

2 Q. I mean, do you think that someone could do that?

3 Is that something you really think a defendant

4 would be able to do?

5 A. If it's -- Yeah, I think so. I think if he wants

6 to prove himself innocent, he would go looking

7 for somebody that -- or a possible killer.

8 That's my opinion.

9 Q. Okay. But do you believe that -- or would you

10 hold Mr. Avery to that burden and say, hey, you

11 know, I'm sorry, if you can't show me who else

12 did it, if it's not you, then I'm going to have 13 to say you did it, you are guilty?

14 A. Not really.

15 Q. No? I mean, do you think it's possible that you

16 could be convinced that Mr. Avery is not guilty,

17 beyond a reasonable doubt?

18 A. Sure.

19 Q. Without really knowing who is the guilty party?

20 A. I think so.

21 Q. You could?

22 A. Sure.

23 Q. Why? You seem to say something other than that a 24 few minutes ago?

25 A. Well, I don't want to contradict myself.

1 Q. Yeah, well, that's okay. We're just talking
2 here. You are just being honest. Why do you 3 think that now it is possible?

4 A. Will you repeat the question, please.

5 Q. Do you think that it would be possible for you to 6 come back and find Mr. Avery not guilty, if he 7 wasn't able to prove to your satisfaction, who 8 really is the murderer?

9 A. I think I could.

10 Q. Pardon me?

11 A. I think so. I don't know.

12 Q. Well, think about it. Do you really think that 13 he -- if I understand you, you are telling me 14 that you won't be able to find him not guilty 15 unless he can also prove to you -- solve the 16 crime, who else did it?

17 A. It's so darn hard to say.

18 Q. All right. Now, you have been in the area for 19 quite some time; do you know where the Avery 20 Salvage Yard is?

21 A. No, I don't.

22 Q. Have you ever been there?

23 A. No.

24 Q. Have you ever met any of the Avery's?

25 A. No, I haven't.

1 Q. Chuck Avery, for instance?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Don't know him from Adam?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Do you know, have you ever talked to anybody

6 about this case and told them that you thought

7 Steven Avery was guilty?

8 A. No, I haven't.

9 Q. Okay. Now, I think you said you have never had 10 any -- any encounters with the police at all; is 11 that right? In all your years, you have never 12 had a ticket even?

13 A. Oh, sure. I have got picked up for drunken

14 driving.

15 Q. Okay. One time?

16 A. Twice.

17 Q. Twice. Okay. What was your experience like with 18 the officers in that instance?

19 A. Very good.

20 Q. Fine, no problems with it?

21 A. Not a bit.

22 Q. Did you feel like you were treated fairly the 23 whole way?

24 A. Yes, I was.

25 Q. Did you plead guilty or go to trial?

1 A. I pleaded guilty.

2 Q. Okay. Because you felt you were guilty, right?

3 A. Yes, I did.

4 Q. If you thought you were not guilty, would you 5 have gone to trial?

6 A. Yes, I would have.

7 Q. Do you think police officers are -- when they 8 take the witness stand in a case and take an oath 9 to swear to tell the truth; do you think that 10 they are more or less likely than the ordinary 11 person to really honor that oath and tell the 12 truth?

13 A. I think so.

14 Q. Let me rephrase that. Do you think that the 15 police are more likely to be telling the truth 16 when they take the witness stand than the 17 ordinary witness, just because they are police?

18 A. Well, that's what they are hired for, to take the 19 oath, to tell the truth, isn't it?

20 Q. Well, they are hired to --

21 A. To protect the law.

22 Q. Sure. Okay. Can you -- Have you ever heard of 23 or can you conceive of any situations where maybe 24 police officers may not tell the truth under 25 oath?

1 A. No, I haven't. I never been to a trial, so I 2 wouldn't know.

3 Q. Okay. But do you think -- Can you consider the 4 possibility that that may occur?

5 A. That might hurt?

6 Q. That may occur. That sometimes police officers 7 may not follow the oath?

8 A. I don't think so.

9 Q. You don't think so.

10 A. No, because it could be perjury.

11 Q. Okay. What about ordinary people that come in, 12 ordinary persons, people like yourself, do you 13 think if they come in and -- into a trial, take 14 the oath to swear the truth; do you think that 15 they will always tell truth?

16 A. No, I think they could fib a little bit.

17 Q. They can fib?

18 A. Yes, I do.

19 Q. Okay. But wouldn't that be perjury too?

20 A. Yes, it would.

21 Q. So -- But you think an ordinary person might be 22 able to do that, actually perjure themselves, but 23 police officers would not?

24 A. I think so. Yes.

25 Q. Why is that?

1 A. I just feel strongly for that. Because a police 2 officer, he don't want to lose his job.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. A regular citizen doesn't care. That's my 5 opinion.

6 Q. Okay. Now, if the Judge instructed you, though, 7 that under the law you have to judge a police 8 officer's testimony exactly the same way as any 9 other witness, and you can't give any greater 10 weight to the fact that they are police officers 11 in determining whether or not they are telling 12 the truth; do you think you would be able to do 13 that?

14 A. I think so.

15 Q. Why? How could you put aside those feelings you 16 just said and judge them just like any other
17 witness?

18 A. I really don't know about that one.

19 Q. Would have a hard time doing that?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. That's because you feel very strongly that police 22 officers really wouldn't lie; is that it?

23 A. Well, they shouldn't.

24 Q. Okay. That's fine. I appreciate your honesty.
25 One last area I want to just ask you about,

1 briefly. Do you know anything about Mr. Avery's 2 background?

3 A. No, I do not. Not a bit.

4 Q. Do you know anything about the Innocence Project; 5 have you ever heard of that?

6 A. The what?

7 Q. The Innocence Project.

8 A. Innocence?

9 Q. Innocence Project. An outfit out of Madison that 10 helps free people who have been wrongly convicted 11 of crimes and are in prison?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. You have had heard of that?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. Have you heard of that organization and 16 its involvement with Mr. Avery?

17 A. Yes, that he spent 18 years that he wasn't 18 supposed to.

19 Q. Okay.

20 A. Or 17, whatever it was.

21 Q. So you do recall that?

22 A. Yes, I do.

23 Q. And do you have any concerns or doubts that maybe 24 he was or was not really innocent all that time?

25 A. No, I didn't. Never brought it up. Never 1 discussed it with anybody.

2 Q. I mean, as you sit here today, is there any doubt 3 in your mind that he was wrongly convicted?

4 A. Yes, I think he was wrongly convicted.

5 ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay. Thank you, very 6 much.

7 MR. CARBON: You're welcome.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Fallon, do you have some 9 follow-up?

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes.

11 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

12 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

13 Q. Mr. Carbon, if I could clarify a point or two.
14 Now, I want to revisit this presumption of 15 innocence so that we're not confused. If the 16 Court -- I should say, when the Court instructs 17 you that only the State has a burden of proof
18 here, that only I, as a member of the prosecution 19 team, have the burden of proof, beyond a 20 reasonable doubt, of his guilt, the Court tells 21 you that burden is on the State, I represent the 22 State, and tells you that Mr. Avery doesn't have 23 to prove anything; can you accept that?

24 A. Sure can.

25 Q. Will you be able to follow that if you were

1 selected, when you got to deliberate this case?

2 A. To the best of my knowledge.

3 Q. You would do your best?

4 A. Yes, I would.

5 Q. Okay. The only other area I had was for a 6 follow-up on police officer testimony. In your 7 questionnaire, which you may remember having 8 filled out last -- I think it was a week ago
9 Monday, you answered a question, this question:
10 Some of the witnesses in this case will be 11 members of law enforcement. The law 12 requires jurors -- The law requires jurors to 13 evaluate their credibility just as that of any 14 other witness.

15 That is, jurors are prohibited from
16 giving more or less credibility to the testimony
17 of a law officer simply because the witness is a 18 law officer. If selected as a juror, would you 19 be able to assess the credibility of law officers 20 on this basis? And you answered yes.

21 Now, counsel asked you a very good
22 question on that point. And although you feel 23 that law enforcement officers should be honest, 24 and should tell the truth, and it's part of their 25 job; if Judge Willis tells you that may well be,

1 but you are to evaluate their credibility, their 2 believability, their honesty the same way you 3 would any other witness, will you follow that 4 instruction?

5 A. I sure will.

6 Q. You will do your best?

7 A. Yes, I will.

8 Q. All right.

9 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all I have.

10 THE COURT: I have got a couple of 11 follow-up questions. Touch on things that actually 12 both defense counsel and Mr. Fallon did.

13 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

14 BY THE COURT:

15 Q. When Mr. Buting was questioning you -- Well, let 16 me step back. One of the disadvantages of voir 17 dire is we ask jurors questions before they have 18 gotten my instructions. You said you have never 19 been to a trial before; is that correct?

20 A. That's right.

21 Q. There are some rules that apply in trials. And 22 in a criminal trial perhaps the most important 23 rule is that the defendant does not have to prove 24 his innocence. As Mr. Avery sits here today, he 25 is not guilty. And he stays not guilty unless

1 the State can prove his guilt, beyond a 2 reasonable doubt; do you understand that?

3 A. Yes, I do.

4 Q. And he's not required to prove his innocence.

5 A. Okay.

6 Q. He doesn't have to say who did it, other than, 7 you know, someone else did it, he doesn't have to 8 tell you who the other person was. He doesn't 9 have to do anything. The State has to prove, 10 beyond a reasonable doubt, that he did it before 11 you, as a juror, could vote guilty; do you 12 understand that?

13 A. Yes, I do.

14 Q. And I know you said a few minutes ago you thought 15 he had to prove his innocence; do you know that 16 that's not true?

17 A. That's true.

18 Q. Now, let me ask you this. Regardless of what you 19 believe, if I instruct you that you can only vote 20 guilty if you can find that the State proved his 21 guilt, beyond a reasonable doubt; can you follow 22 that instruction?

23 A. To prove him guilty only and not innocent?

24 Q. That means -- You can't find him guilty unless 25 the State proves his guilt beyond a reasonable

1 doubt?

2 A. Is that up to the individual juror, to make up 3 his mind?

4 Q. That's what jurors do.

5 A. Right.

6 Q. But you, as a juror, can't require the defendant 7 to prove his innocence, you have to find that the 8 State proved his guilt; do you understand the 9 difference?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. What does the difference mean to you?

12 A. The State has got to prove him guilty and the 13 defense not guilty, right?

14 Q. Actually, the defendant doesn't have to prove 15 anything.

16 A. No, he doesn't. He doesn't have to testify, 17 that's his opinion.

18 Q. I think you understand that, that he doesn't have 19 to testify. But not only doesn't he have to 20 testify, he doesn't have an obligation to prove 21 anything. The State has to prove he's guilty.
22 Can you follow that instruction?

23 A. Sure can.

24 Q. And do you understand that the defendant doesn't 25 have to prove his innocence?

1 A. Right. He doesn't have to testify.

2 Q. Now, with respect to your comments about police
3 officers, do you agree -- I know you said police 4 officers are supposed tell the truth, and you are 5 right. That's when they get hired, one of the 6 things they do is they are supposed to tell the 7 truth. But do you understand that in the case of 8 a few police officers, sometimes they don't?

9 A. That is true.

10 Q. Have you ever heard of a dishonest police 11 officer?

12 A. I never had, no.

13 Q. Never met one?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Do you believe that an officer could be?

16 A. Yes, they could. I believe they could. Any 17 human being could. They are all human.

18 Q. Okay. If some police officers testify at this 19 trial, will you be able to evaluate their 20 testimony just like anybody else?

21 A. I think so, yes.

22 Q. If you listen to the testimony and you think 23 something a police officer tells you doesn't 24 sound like the truth, will you determine -- 25 accept that determination?

1 A. Yes, I will.

2 THE COURT: Anything else, counsel? I will 3 give you a chance for some follow-up, if you wish.

4 ATTORNEY BUTING: No, your Honor.

5 ATTORNEY FALLON: (Shakes head.)

6 THE COURT: All right. You can take 7 Mr. Carbon to the hallway.

8 MR. CARBON: Okay. Thank you.

9 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, sir.

10 JUROR: Thank you. Have a good
11 afternoon.

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thanks.

13 THE COURT: Any motion from the State?

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm going to say no. And 15 it's based on just my feeling or intuition. I think 16 he means well. I just think he had a hard time 17 grasping the concept. And I think once the Court 18 explained to him what the rules are, I didn't get an 19 indication from him that he could not follow them.
20 Admittedly, there was some concern, counsel did 21 raise and interesting question as to whether perhaps 22 there was a hearing issue.

23 I didn't get that. I just -- My 24 impression was we were dealing with a gentleman 25 who is not very sophisticated or knowledgeable in

1 the law, and had some ideas about what he thought 2 the rules were. And I think once they were 3 explained to him, I didn't see any reason why he 4 wouldn't necessarily follow them. I'm not going 5 to jump on him and strike for cause.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

7 ATTORNEY BUTING: Judge, I move to strike.
8 He was very nice gentleman. I think he was trying 9 to be honest, but I think he was confused. This is 10 a situation where, this is an example, I guess, 11 where it's not enough just to ask the jurors will 12 you follow this instruction and tell them what it is 13 and then they say, yes, yes, I will.

14 The Court very wisely asked -- and I
15 don't -- Actually I think counsel was talking 16 with my partner at the moment and didn't actually 17 hear the response, but the Court asked him to, 18 tell me what you think that means, and his 19 response I think was telling. Because even after 20 you told him that the defendant did not -- that 21 he enjoyed the presumption of innocence and 22 didn't have to prove his innocence, his response 23 was, yeah, the State has to prove he's guilty and 24 the defendant has to prove he is not guilty.
25 That's his right, to testify.

1 And then you went off on the issue of,
2 you know, you understand he doesn't have to prove 3 he's innocent and then he says, well, you're 4 right, that's his right not to testify. He 5 doesn't have to testify, I think was his words.
6 He's confused. You know he's -- maybe it is a 7 lack of sophistication. Maybe there's some 8 hearing issues as well; although, I don't think 9 that's it. I think he's just going to have 10 difficulty. This is going to be a problem that 11 we may have to deal with in the future. We have 12 enough jurors I think to deal with it.

13 THE COURT: There are reported cases where 14 sometimes the Courts of Appeal uphold a judge's 15 decision to leave a defendant -- or a juror on the 16 panel, based on observations of his demeanor to 17 explain answers that are questionable. This is a 18 case where when he was asked some leading questions, 19 including by me, he gave answers that on the 20 transcript may look correct, but I have got concerns 21 about whether he was really tracking, following 22 things, and most importantly, able to follow
23 instructions. So while he might be passable as a 24 juror, I have sufficient doubt that I'm going to 25 grant the defense motion to strike this juror.

1 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Ms Schmidt, please remain
3 standing for a minute. I will have the Clerk 4 administer the oath.

5 (Juror sworn.)

6 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

7 THE COURT: Ms Schmidt, you have already
8 completed a jury questionnaire in this case. This 9 afternoon we're moving on to the next stage of the 10 jury selection process which is individual voir 11 dire. That means the attorneys for the parties will 12 have an opportunity to ask you some questions.

13 Before that begins, there's a couple 14 other pieces of information I wish to pass on to 15 you. First of all, I want to make sure you know 16 that the jury in this case will not be 17 sequestered. That means that if you're selected 18 for the jury, during the estimated six weeks of 19 the trial you will be able to go home every night 20 and then come back for the jury trial the next 21 day.

22 We're doing that because of the 23 requirement that the members of the jury not 24 observe any news media accounts of the trial, 25 either in the newspaper, television, radio, the

1 internet, or anywhere else, and make sure that 2 you don't talk about the case with anyone else.

3 I also want you to know that although 4 these proceedings are open, that is, open to the 5 public, no cameras are permitted in the courtroom
6 during the voir dire process. The press is not 7 allowed to identify you as a potential juror in 8 this case. And the jurors that are selected to 9 serve in this case are not being permitted to be 10 shown on camera during the course of the trial.

11 If you remain on the jury panel after 12 today's proceedings you will be notified by 13 telephone in a few days when to return back to 14 court. At this time then I will permit
15 Mr. Fallon to begin questioning for the State.

16 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

17 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

18 Q. Good afternoon, Ms Schmidt.

19 A. Good afternoon.

20 Q. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant Attorney
21 General with the Wisconsin Department of Justice.
22 I'm one of the prosecutors in this case. And we 23 each have just a few questions to follow up on 24 some of the information you provided last Monday 25 in your questionnaire and a few other related

1 questions to help us in selecting the jury this 2 week.

3 In terms of the information provided, I
4 take it you are currently just working at home?

5 A. Yes, sir.

6 Q. Okay. And you have formally did some work at a 7 temporary service?

8 A. Yes, sir. Most of the time I stayed at home --

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. -- taking care of my family.

11 Q. I see, yes, and you have done well, you have 12 three sons and a daughter.

13 A. Four sons, there wasn't room on the paper for the 14 other one.

15 Q. When you did work outside of the home, what type 16 of work did you do?

17 A. Well, it varied. If I worked at the temporary 18 service it was like sorting bolts or packing. If 19 I worked at some place else it was probably like 20 K Catering Service type of thing, that's about 21 it.

22 Q. So you did a variety of things?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. How often did you work in the temporary 25 service?

1 A. Well, my youngest son is 14, so I just said I 2 started working about six years ago again.

3 Q. And what was the last thing you did when you 4 worked for the temporary service; what kind of 5 work was it?

6 A. Sorting and packing.

7 Q. And for whom did you do that work?

8 A. Kaysun. Well, it's through ABR, but I believe it 9 was Kaysun Corporation.

10 Q. Kaysun Corporation. You did answer one question, 11 and I don't mean to pry, but we did want to make 12 sure that it would be all right with you. But on 13 one question, in terms of health concerns, you 14 indicated high blood pressure.

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. Okay. Is it more or less under control or is 17 that something --

18 A. I take a pill every morning. And I usually do 19 that about 5:00 so.

20 Q. And if you were able to keep up that regimen, do 21 you think your blood pressure would be under 22 control such that you could sit as a juror?

23 A. I think so. I think so.

24 Q. Otherwise it shouldn't present a problem for you?

25 A. No, sir.

1 Q. Is that a recent condition you have been working 2 with or is it something --

3 A. Um, I would say it's about eight years that I 4 have been diagnosed with it --

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. -- and have been taking pills for it.

7 Q. All right. So you are pretty experienced then in 8 managing it and keeping it under control?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Thanks. Of the sources of news that you have, 11 where would you say you get most of your news 12 from?

13 A. The radio.

14 Q. From the radio?

15 A. Yes, sir.

16 Q. And what type of stations do you listen to.

17 A. WOMET, that's from morning until about 9:00. Then 18 it goes to a Sheboygan station I believe. I 19 don't know what it is, but they play gentle, easy 20 listening music.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. Then it's back to -- back to WOMET, and that's on 23 until about 6, 7 at night.

24 Q. Have you been following the coverage of this case 25 on the radio?

1 A. No, sir. Every time it came on I turned it off
2 or I walked out of the room.

3 Q. Is there any particular reason why you --

4 A. I wasn't interested in --

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. -- anything like that.

7 Q. So would it be fair to say you really haven't 8 followed the coverage of this case hardly at all?

9 A. Yes, sir, I guess you could say that.

10 Q. All right. You are aware that Mr. Avery is 11 accused of killing Teresa Halbach; I take it you 12 are aware of that?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Okay. But you haven't paid attention to any of 15 the details?

16 A. Not as far as what's going on, no.

17 Q. All right. Can you tell us a little bit about 18 what you actually do remember from what little 19 you have listened to or watched?

20 A. Mostly the names that have appeared. Mr. Avery, 21 Ms Halbach, that's all.

22 Q. All right. Do you recognize the name Dassey, 23 Brendan Dassey? Is that a name you are familiar 24 with?

25 A. I know the name, it appeared once in a while, but

1 I don't know what it's --

2 Q. You don't know the --

3 A. -- what it's concerning, no.

4 Q. You don't know the connection --

5 A. No, sir.

6 Q. -- of that name with the case?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. All right. You indicated in your questionnaire 9 that you did watch at least one type of 10 television crime show, that being CSI, crime 11 scene investigation.

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. How often do you watch that show?

14 A. Well, it depends on if we have other things going 15 on around the house like butchering or stuff.
16 It's not every week, I know that. And when I do 17 watch it, it's mostly for to see the people, not 18 what they are doing, but because the story line 19 once in a while is interesting.

20 Q. You like the characters?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. Okay. You indicated you found the show somewhat 23 realistic; any particular reason why that would 24 be?

25 A. Well, sometimes how they scrape the fingernails

1 and things like that.

2 (Changed microphone batteries.)

3 THE COURT: All right. I think we can 4 resume.

5 Q. Very good. I think -- Let's see, where were we?
6 We were talking about CSI and whether it was --

7 A. Realistic or not?

8 Q. Realistic or not.

9 A. The thing I watch when the story gets kind of 10 confusing is, well, like, that I know they take 11 fingernail scrapings. And the rest of the stuff 12 is kind of iffy because you don't know for sure.

13 Q. In terms of its reliability, or whether or not we 14 have the capability of doing it?

15 A. You probably have the capability, but they show 16 things, every week, or whatever, is supposed to 17 be a crime has been committed. And I know that 18 things don't happen that way, you know, it's got 19 to be usually a longer period of time. They 20 don't have them every day.

21 Q. Or at least they're not solved every day.

22 A. I certainly hope they're not solved every day.

23 Q. All right. I'm going to go back to one of the 24 first questions, you indicated farming and 25 butchering; what kind of farm does your family

1 run?

2 A. It's -- Well, it's a working farm, but we have 3 cattle, and we have pigs, and we have chickens,
4 and ducks, and geese. And my husband and my son 5 run -- we have 80 acres. And then woods, the 6 guys all go to the woods and make wood for the 7 winter that we can burn in the house.

8 Q. Not a dairy farm per se?

9 A. No, it's not a dairy farm. The cattle are beef.

10 Q. Okay. Is that the primary source of income for 11 the farm, the beef?

12 A. Yeah, and the chickens?

13 Q. The pork?

14 A. Well, the pork mostly is for ourselves.

15 Q. Okay. Very good. You did leave one question 16 unanswered that is of some importance. Two 17 questions actually, and I guess I will close with 18 those two. One question, you were asked if you 19 were served -- if you served on a jury, or you 20 were selected for this particular jury, how would 21 you feel about that service?

22 A. It wouldn't bother me.

23 Q. All right.

24 A. The only thing that would probably bother me 25 would be making up my mind at the end, if it

1 was -- if it happened the way that was presented 2 to me, or not.

3 Q. All right. So in other words to actually getting 4 down to making a decision might be kind of 5 difficult, weighing the evidence?

6 A. Yes.

7 Q. All right. But there's nothing else about the 8 process that --

9 A. No.

10 Q. -- you would find difficult?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Okay. And the last question we touched briefly 13 upon in the beginning with health and family, but 14 it's very possible this case will go six weeks.
15 As Judge Willis told you, you know, you would be 16 able to go home every night and things of that 17 sort. But is there any particular personal 18 hardship or, you know, would this be really hard 19 on the family business or anything like that if 20 you were here eight, nine hours a day as opposed 21 to being back managing the family business at 22 home?

23 A. No, sir. My husband is retired. He runs most of 24 the business around there if people stop for eggs
25 or whatever. And my older son is in -- he's a

1 senior this year. And the next one is an 8th
2 grader, the 12 year old, yeah. Not my oldest 3 son, he's away from the house, but the second 4 youngest.

5 Q. Okay. In all your years here in Manitowoc in 6 that business, have you ever had any encounters 7 with the Manitowoc Sheriff's Department?

8 A. Not that I know of. They might have, you know, 9 stopped for some reason or other, but I couldn't 10 tell you for sure.

11 Q. All right. Do you have any impressions at all as 12 to whether you think they are doing a good job 13 for you here in Manitowoc, bad job, a fair job in 14 terms of --

15 A. It must be fair because I haven't had any 16 complaints about anybody.

17 Q. Okay. Do you have any friends or family members 18 who work in the news business?

19 A. No, sir.

20 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all. Thank you.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

23 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

24 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

25 Q. Good afternoon ma'am. My name is Jerome Buting

1 and I, along with Dean Strang, are the attorneys
2 representing Mr. Avery here today; do you 3 understand that?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Okay. I want to follow up on a few of 6 Mr. Fallon's questions and maybe some of my own
7 as well. All right. First of all, I heard you 8 mention that most of the time you have worked in 9 the home, but occasionally you worked at a 10 temporary service, right?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. You mentioned Kaysun Corporation?

13 A. Yes, sir. That was through ABR. And they sent 14 me out there before Christmas, 2005.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. And it was just packing bolts -- not bolts. It 17 was like little -- little gear things. And they 18 had to inspect them as far as if the ringings 19 were tight or not?

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. And then the person inspected them and then they 22 were given to us and we had to pack them. And 23 that was all we had to do.

24 Q. Is that the only time you worked for Kaysun?

25 A. Yes, sir.

1 Q. Do you happen to know a woman who also worked 2 there, I'm not sure if it's the same time, by the 3 name of Terri Temme?

4 A. No, sir.

5 Q. Okay. Before today, did you know any of the 6 jurors that you've -- prospective jurors that you 7 have encountered?

8 A. No, sir.

9 Q. They are all strangers to you?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 Q. Okay. Let's talk about what you have heard, 12 maybe at the very beginning, about this case in 13 the media, okay?

14 A. Yes, sir. That's about all I heard, the very 15 beginning.

16 Q. Okay. Tell me what -- what you recall hearing 17 about this case in the media at the very 18 beginning.

19 A. What do I recall, gee, well, that someone was 20 murdered and they are assuming that Mr. Avery did 21 it. And they said -- I think they told me Ms
22 Halbach's name. But I can't remember anything 23 else on it, because like I said, I wasn't 24 interested in it at the time.

25 Q. And do you remember any information about why

1 they were assuming Mr. Avery was involved?

2 A. No, sir.

3 Q. Okay. Did you ever hear any details about anyone 4 who may have made any confessions?

5 A. No, sir. See, if we're not busy around the farm 6 at that time, which is about 6:00, and it's after 7 our meal time, and it's usually after our chore
8 time, and I have other things to do if we're 9 butchering, or if the kids need help with their 10 school work. Very seldom that we listen to the 11 news. And then when I go up at 6:00, I usually 12 have game shows on like Jeopardy.

13 Q. Sure. Well, I think at one point you said that 14 every time anything about this case came on you 15 would turn it off the radio, or you would walk 16 out of the room?

17 A. I would.

18 Q. Why?

19 A. Well, I wasn't interested in that.

20 Q. Well, okay. But --

21 A. Mostly the radio is on for music.

22 Q. Sure.

23 A. And we hear, once in a while, bits and pieces of 24 news, but mostly it's for the weather.

25 Q. But if the radio is just sort of on in the 1 background, sounds like for hours and hours a 2 day, right?

3 A. All day, yes.

4 Q. Okay. What is it about any kind of reports about 5 this case, though, that would make you want to 6 turn it off?

7 A. I don't know, sir. I just didn't -- wasn't 8 interested in it.

9 Q. Was there something about it that you just said I 10 have heard enough of this, I have heard too much 11 of this, I'm sick of this?

12 A. Could be in the beginning. I don't know what it 13 is, I just turn it off.

14 Q. Is there anything you heard that made you sick to 15 your stomach, or disgusted, or --

16 A. Well, I didn't hear the whole report, I couldn't 17 tell you. I just didn't hear it.

18 Q. Okay. When other news would come on, would you 19 turn off the radio, or walk out of the room, 20 other reports of other --

21 A. Most of the time I listen, but not always. It's 22 like -- it's like background effect stuff. It 23 goes in one ear and out of other.

24 Q. Sure.

25 A. And doesn't stop in between to register.

1 Q. Sure, I understand. But other news reports in 2 other cases perhaps, other crimes even, or other 3 things that are going on, you would just kind of 4 let the radio play.

5 A. Yeah, that's about it.

6 Q. You wouldn't turn it off or walk out of the room?

7 A. Well, I don't turn it off even when it was on 8 about Mr. Avery, I just kind of ignored it, you 9 know.

10 Q. Okay. So it wasn't --

11 A. You don't listen totally to it, you just kind of.

12 Q. So you are not saying that you really turned it 13 off because you were -- because this case would 14 come on the radio?

15 A. I turned it off because that was me turning it 16 off, I just turned it off.

17 Q. And the fact that Mr. Avery's case might have 18 been being reported on the radio at that moment 19 you're saying it had no connection --

20 A. No, sir.

21 Q. -- to your decision to turn it off?

22 A. No, sir.

23 Q. Okay. So when you listen to the radio, is it -- 24 WOMET, has -- they have got news in the early 25 morning, correct, and don't they then change over

1 to a music format at some point?

2 A. I'm trying to think. At 5:00, when the radio
3 goes on, I'm usually making lunch for my son.

4 And then they have a little -- a little 5 chatter --

6 Q. A little call in?

7 A. -- in between them.

8 Q. Yeah, okay.

9 A. In between them.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. And then they have like Be My Guest or something 12 on that order, and music in between.

13 Q. Okay. And is it -- But is it mainly talk and 14 news all day long, or do they convert over to 15 music --

16 A. Mostly it's music all day long. There's a couple 17 shows I know, like Be My Guest, or something like 18 that. Those I don't listen to because I'm 19 usually doing something else.

20 Q. Okay. All right. Now, when you were talking 21 about the CSI, that you said was the only one; 22 you do try and watch that one pretty regularly?

23 A. Yeah. But I'm more interested in the story line 24 as far as like the people. This girl was going 25 out with that guy --

1 Q. I see.

2 A. -- or this one got married, or stuff like that.

3 Q. You're more interested in that than the story

4 about the crimes that they happen to be

5 investigating?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. Okay. I see. And do you -- do you think that 8 the scientific tests that they do, or they claim 9 to do on the show, are all tests that in fact

10 really can be done, or are done?

11 A. I would say -- I would say most of the tests

12 could be done.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. I don't know for a fact that they are positively

15 done, but I would say that they could be done.

16 Q. Okay. And they are usually pretty good at 17 finding evidence when a crime happened, they are

18 pretty quick at finding evidence right there that 19 proves it, right?

20 A. Yes. But how long does it take, only an hour to 21 show all this interesting stuff, but I'm sure it

22 takes longer than that to run it through a

23 regular lab.

24 Q. Sure, but as a result of that you think that it's 25 pretty likely that real police are able to do

1 that too, that if there's -- if a real crime took 2 place, they are able to get there on the scene
3 and find the evidence that will prove it, right?

4 A. I would think so.

5 Q. Okay. And if they were not able to find any -- 6 or significant evidence, or evidence that you 7 might expect they would find at the crime scene, 8 if that was missing in a real case like this,
9 would that -- would that trouble you.

10 A. If the evidence that the person says is there 11 isn't?

12 Q. No, if the evidence that you would think should 13 be there is not.

14 A. No, I don't think so, they have to show me 15 exactly what was there.

16 Q. I appreciate that. Thank you. Now, you have -- 17 I'm sorry did you say you have four children, 18 four sons?

19 A. Yeah, four sons and a daughter. But there wasn't 20 room enough on the paper for the last one.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. So I kind of dropped him off.

23 Q. One got the short straw there?

24 A. I guess so.

25 Q. Is that son still at home?

1 A. Yes, he is. He's only 14.

2 Q. Three sons at home, 35 year old still there.

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Does the 35 year old work on the farm with your 5 father -- your husband?

6 A. He does most of the work because my husband has a 7 sciatic nerve.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. And then he can't run around with the tractors
10 and stuff. But the older son does quite a bit.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. But he also works for EVM. He's a foreman.

13 Q. Okay. Do any of your sons, or your husband for 14 that matter, do they ever talk about this case, 15 what they heard about the Steven Avery case?

16 A. They might talk to themselves about it, they 17 haven't mentioned it around the table.

18 Q. That's not something they talk to you about?

19 A. Not at the meal time.

20 Q. Okay. Well, what about after they heard that you 21 were selected as a prospective juror for this 22 case, did they talk to you about it at all?

23 A. No. No.

24 Q. Did they talk to you about it in the last week at 25 all?

1 A. No.

2 Q. And have you heard of any opinions that they have 3 about whether he, Mr. Avery, is guilty or not 4 guilty?

5 A. They might have opinions, but I don't listen to 6 them?

7 Q. Well, how would you know they would have them if 8 you don't listen to them?

9 A. Well, because they go out to the greenhouse, or 10 wherever, out to the barn, and I usually stay in 11 the house so I don't know what they were 12 discussing?

13 Q. So you are just guessing that maybe they have 14 opinions?

15 A. That's right.

16 Q. I see. Okay. Now, the Judge is going to tell 17 you about -- he's going to give you a number of 18 instructions, sort of rules of the game that you 19 will have to follow. And one of those is the 20 presumption of innocence. Have you heard of 21 that?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. What is that -- Well, strike that. Do you 24 think that Mr. Avery is presumed innocent right 25 now?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Do you think that he must have done something or 3 he wouldn't be here, we wouldn't have gotten this 4 far in the proceeding so that we're coming up on 5 the trial?

6 A. Yes, sir. I would put it that way exactly.

7 Q. Pardon me?

8 A. I would put it that way exactly.

9 Q. You think he must have done something?

10 A. Well, yes.

11 Q. Why do you think that?

12 A. Well, because otherwise he wouldn't be in a 13 courtroom.

14 Q. Okay. Do you think sometimes people who are 15 completely innocent of any crime whatsoever find 16 themselves in the position Mr. Avery is in here?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. So why do you think that that couldn't apply to 19 Mr. Avery now?

20 A. That he's innocent? That he is innocent until 21 proven guilty.

22 Q. Okay. What I'm asking, though, is a moment ago
23 you said that you think that he must have done 24 something in order to get himself in the position 25 he is at right now?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. Why?

3 A. Well, evidently he is in jail. And other people 4 that are in jail also, but they have different 5 trials set up for them. Gosh, I don't know how 6 to put it.

7 Q. Well, just try, you are doing fine.

8 A. Um, well, first of all, all of you people are in 9 line ready to get even with him or whatever. And 10 we don't know until the facts are shown if he is 11 guilty or not guilty. And right now he's 12 innocent.

13 Q. Okay. Well, then why do you think he must have 14 done something wrong if he is here today?

15 A. Because evidently all you people gave evidence to 16 the cops, and police, excuse me, and -- and they 17 arrested him for it.

18 Q. Okay. That's fair. Do you think, though, that 19 sometimes the evidence that the police get may -- 20 Strike that. I'm not going to get hypothetical 21 here. Let me put it this way, do you know
22 anything about Mr. Avery's background or past?

23 A. I know he was in jail before. I have no idea 24 why. I know that he was -- he got out, because 25 something proved him wrong, different.

1 Q. Okay. Something proved that he was innocent?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And do you have any doubts about whether he was 4 really innocent?

5 A. At that time?

6 Q. Yeah.

7 A. I don't know anything about the case at that 8 time.

9 Q. Okay. Well, do you assume that since he was 10 released from prison, he must -- everybody must 11 agree he really was innocent?

12 A. Yes, sir.

13 Q. Okay. Do you think then that it's possible -- I 14 mean there's an example right here, where 15 sometimes someone gets this far and they get to 16 the position of Mr. Avery, in fact, they get much 17 farther, they are actually convicted wrongly. So 18 can you consider that Mr. Avery, just because 19 he's here today, for this trial, may be entirely 20 innocent of this crime?

21 A. Yes, sir, I believe he is.

22 Q. Okay. Do you think that -- By the way, do you 23 know any police officers at all, personally?

24 A. Not personally. I know Dicky France (phonetic) 25 is constable in Town of Two Rivers, but that's as 1 far as I know.

2 Q. Okay. Do you think that if a police officer 3 comes to court and testifies, takes the oath, 4 swears to tell the truth, that necessarily a 5 police officer will always tell the truth under 6 oath?

7 A. No, sir.

8 Q. Why not?

9 A. Well, everybody has a tendency to fib once in a 10 while, and just because they are a police officer 11 doesn't mean that they don't have that tendency.

12 Q. Sure. So you would judge a police officer on the 13 witness stand the same as any other witness?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Just because they have a uniform or badge doesn't 16 make them any more truthful than the ordinary 17 witness; is that right?

18 A. That's right.

19 Q. Okay. Thank you. Do you think that police 20 officers can -- when you say fib, if you're 21 fibbing under oath, that's really perjury, is it 22 not?

23 A. I believe so.

24 Q. Do you think police could actually go that far?

25 A. Yes.

1 ATTORNEY BUTING: I think that's enough.
2 Thank you, very much, ma'am.

3 THE COURT: All right. We'll have the 4 Clerk escort the juror out of the room.

5 Counsel, any motion from either party?

6 ATTORNEY FALLON: None from the State.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

8 ATTORNEY BUTING: No, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. That juror is in.
10 I have received a request. There's a Julie Dorn, 11 she's No. 18, she has to go to work at 11 tonight.
12 Maybe she's going to go home to sleep after this.
13 But we'll take her out of order and take her next.

14 Ms Dorn, could you raise your right
15 hand, we'll have the Clerk administer the oath.

16 (Juror sworn.)

17 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

18 THE COURT: Ms Dorn, you have already
19 completed a jury questionnaire in this case. Today
20 we're moving on to the next step of the jury 21 selection process which is individual voir dire.
22 The attorneys for each of the parties have a chance 23 to ask you some follow-up questions.

24 Before we begin that process, I want to 25 pass on a few bits of information to you. First

1 of all, I want you to know that the jurors
2 selected in this case will not be sequestered.
3 That means you will be able to go home each night
4 after each day of trial. We made that decision 5 because of the instruction to the jurors that 6 they not listen to any news media accounts of 7 this case either on radio, television, newspaper, 8 the internet, or anywhere else, and also that you
9 not discuss the case with anyone else.

10 Although these proceedings today are 11 open, no cameras are permitted in the courtroom
12 during the voir dire process and the news media 13 is not allowed to identify individual jurors by 14 name in news reports. In addition, once the 15 trial starts, the cameras are prohibited from 16 showing any of the jurors such that any of them 17 could be identified.

18 If you remain on the jury after today's 19 proceedings, you will receive a telephone call in 20 a day or two letting you know when to report 21 back. With that background then, Mr. Fallon, you 22 may begin.

23 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

24 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

25 Q. Good afternoon, Ms Dorn. My name is Tom Fallon.

1 I'm an Assistant Attorney General for the 2 Wisconsin Department of Justice. And I'm one of 3 the prosecutors in the case. And I wanted to 4 follow up with a few questions about the 5 information you provided in your jury
6 questionnaire and a few other related matters.
7 Thanks for coming this afternoon. I know you are 8 a third shifter so.

9 A. Mm-hmm.

10 Q. That wreaks havoc with your schedule. And in 11 that regard, if we could just start there. You 12 indicate you are a line operator; what is that?

13 A. Just run a press and you assemble the parts, pack 14 them, different job every night.

15 Q. Oh, okay. So you are on like an assembly line?

16 A. Nope, not necessarily. Just the press that you 17 are working out of and sometimes you are working 18 off a line.

19 Q. I see.

20 A. It's a different job every night.

21 Q. And how long have you been working at the Bemis 22 Manufacturing?

23 A. Bemis Manufacturing, total about eight years, two 24 years full-time.

25 Q. Two years full-time. And before that, what were 1 you doing?

2 A. Before that I was unemployed. I stayed home with 3 the kids. And before that was 15 years at 4 Richardson Brothers in Falls.

5 Q. Richardson Brothers Furniture?

6 A. Furniture, in Sheboygan Falls.

7 Q. All right. Was that sales, marketing, office?

8 A. Factory, assembler.

9 Q. Assembly. Very good. How long have you been 10 working the third shift?

11 A. Third shift, about seven years.

12 Q. As shifts go, do you like third shift?

13 A. Mm-hmm. Mm-hmm.

14 Q. If you were selected as a juror in this 15 particular case, I take it that wouldn't present 16 any particular health or financial hardship for 17 you?

18 A. No.

19 Q. If you were selected as a jury, would that be all 20 right; do you think you would enjoy the 21 experience, or tolerate it, or how would you feel 22 about it?

23 A. I wouldn't mind it.

24 Q. And as I see from the note here, if I remember 25 correctly, I don't think you have had jury

1 experience before; is that right?

2 A. No. No.

3 Q. There were a couple of questions regarding your 4 knowledge of the facts in this case. Presumably 5 that would have come from media coverage. Am I 6 correct in assuming that because of the fact you 7 work the third shift your exposure to the TV 8 coverage is limited?

9 A. I don't really see -- I mean, I seen some of it,
10 but I don't really have to watch it. I mean, I 11 go to work at -- I start at 11:00 at night, work 12 until 7 in the morning, get home at 7:30, do a 13 load of wash, go to bed.

14 Q. Right.

15 A. Get up, start supper, so it's like there's no 16 time really.

17 Q. Okay. So, even if time permitted, you wouldn't 18 say that this was a case of interest to you.

19 A. Not a necessity. I had other stuff to do.

20 Q. Right. The press of day-to-day living takes it's 21 toll?

22 A. Mm-hmm. Mm-hmm.

23 Q. All right. Okay. Let me ask, then, a couple of 24 related questions. In terms of the media 25 exposure that you have had in this case, would

1 you say most of it comes from radio, television, 2 newspaper, magazine, what?

3 A. It would have been television.

4 Q. Television. All right. And have you followed 5 any of the recent coverage at all in the case?

6 A. No.

7 Q. No. Specifically, what do you recall about the 8 case from information provided by the media, 9 particularly the television?

10 A. From what I have seen, from what I watched on 11 television?

12 Q. Yeah.

13 A. That she was missing, and then the arrest, and I 14 think that was -- it wasn't too much. It was 15 just -- Those are the two things that caught my 16 attention.

17 Q. All right.

18 A. I don't remember. I mean, I don't really follow
19 it.

20 Q. Okay. And when asked whether you had formed any 21 personal opinions about the case, based on that 22 information, you said no?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. Do you have any opinions today?

25 A. No.

1 Q. As to guilt, or innocence, or anything about the 2 case?

3 A. No, we were told not to watch anything, or read 4 anything, not listen to anybody.

5 Q. And you followed those instructions?

6 A. Yup.

7 Q. Very good. How long have you been a resident of 8 Manitowoc County?

9 A. Manitowoc County, since 1987.

10 Q. During that time, have you had any encounters or 11 any experiences with the Manitowoc Police 12 Department, or the Manitowoc Sheriff's 13 Department?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Do you have any opinions as to whether you think 16 the Sheriff's Department is doing a good job, a 17 bad job, a fair job, in terms of fighting crime 18 and serving the public?

19 A. I --

20 Q. Don't have an opinion one way or the other?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Okay. That's all right. Now, in your 23 questionnaire there were a number of questions 24 that were designed to see if you would follow the 25 instructions of the judge and the law, if you

1 were selected as a jury -- as a juror, excuse me.
2 One of those questions dealt with the fact that 3 Mr. Avery is presumed to be innocent, unless and 4 until the State can prove him guilty, beyond a 5 reasonable doubt; do you accept that?

6 A. Right.

7 Q. Do you have any problem understanding that?

8 A. No.

9 Q. And do you think you would be able to follow on 10 Judge Willis' instructions on that?

11 A. Mm-hmm.

12 Q. Is that a yes?

13 A. Yes. Okay.

14 Q. She's trying to type it all down so.

15 A. Sorry.

16 Q. Very good. Similarly, Mr. Avery has the right to 17 testify in this case and he also has a right not 18 to testify in this case. And if he does not 19 testify in this case, you won't hold that against 20 him?

21 A. No.

22 Q. All right. In other words, you understand that 23 he has a right not to testify?

24 A. Right.

25 Q. Okay. And you wouldn't consider that adversely

1 against him if he doesn't testify, in terms of 2 deciding, in the end, whether he's guilty or 3 innocent?

4 A. Right.

5 Q. It would be on other evidence that was presented?

6 A. The other evidence provided.

7 Q. Okay. And you have no problem with that?

8 A. No.

9 Q. And you can follow that instruction?

10 A. Right.

11 Q. Okay. Are you a movie watcher?

12 A. Am I a movie watcher, yeah.

13 Q. Have you ever seen a movie called the Thin Blue 14 Line.

15 A. No.

16 Q. In terms of your approach to, oh, forming an 17 opinion or solving a problem; do you consider 18 yourself a detail oriented type of person or are 19 you a big picture person?

20 A. Could you repeat?

21 Q. Well, in terms of going about trying to 22 understand a particular point, or trying to 23 evaluate or solve a particular problem; are you 24 kind of a bottom line, big picture, or do you 25 want to know all the details?

1 A. Detail.

2 Q. You are a detail person. Okay. All right. As a 3 detail person, are you one who likes to solve 4 puzzles, or riddles, or things of that sort?

5 A. Sometimes.

6 Q. In terms of the puzzles you work on, are those 7 jigsaw puzzles, or word puzzles, crosswords, what 8 kind of --

9 A. Word puzzles.

10 Q. Word puzzles.

11 A. Jigsaw once in a while, not puzzles, but mostly 12 words.

13 Q. Okay. Have you ever used a publication such as 14 Auto Trader to buy or sell a car?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Okay. Are you familiar with the publication at 17 all?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Since you have had -- not had any prior jury 20 experience, let me ask this question. Do you 21 have any particular religious, moral, or 22 philosophical beliefs that you think might make 23 it difficult for you to sit and deliberate on the 24 guilt or innocence of a person?

25 A. No.

1 Q. All right. Do you think you would be able to 2 comfortably handle that task?

3 A. Right.

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all I have for the
5 witness.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

7 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

8 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

9 Q. Hi.

10 A. Hi.

11 Q. I'm Dean Strang. This is Jerome Buting. And 12 we're defending Steve Avery. Back to the 13 beginning, you were born in Chilton.

14 A. Mm-hmm.

15 Q. How long did you stay in Chilton?

16 A. I was born in Chilton but we lived in New 17 Holstein.

18 Q. Oh, okay, New Holstein. So you grew up in New 19 Holstein?

20 A. No, grew up in Kiel.

21 Q. And hence, Kiel High School.

22 A. Mm-hmm.

23 Q. Kiel High School doesn't pull kids in from New 24 Holstein?

25 A. No, it's about three -- three, four mile

1 difference.

2 Q. Okay. And then you gave me the -- or gave us the 3 street address where you and your family live 4 now, but I don't know what town that is in. I'm 5 sorry.

6 A. It would still be Kiel. It's a Kiel School
7 District, yup.

8 Q. Today?

9 A. Mm-hmm.

10 Q. Okay. And you have been there, gosh, in that 11 house, for the last 20 years or so?

12 A. Right.

13 Q. The cheerleading volunteering, is that for your 14 daughter?

15 A. Pardon?

16 Q. The cheerleading volunteering that you do; is 17 that for your daughter?

18 A. Right. Yeah.

19 Q. Could be your son.

20 A. My daughter.

21 Q. Okay. They are twins, the younger?

22 A. Right, they are twins.

23 Q. And how involved are you guys at the church.

24 A. Church twice a month. One of the boys, Cody's 25 basketball games, he plays for St. Peter and 1 Paul. That's about it.

2 Q. Okay. That answered my other question, Sts.

3 Peter and Paul?

4 A. Mm-hmm.

5 Q. Bemis, this is what -- this is -- well, you have 6 got sort of a habit of working down in the Falls,

7 I guess, right?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. When you are working. Do these guys run a full 10 third shift?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Just same as the other two?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. And the -- this sort of swing operation where you

15 may be doing a different job every night; is that 16 true of the other two shifts as well?

17 A. Mm-hmm. Right.

18 Q. Now, does that mean you are working with 19 different people every night as well?

20 A. Right. Mm-hmm.

21 Q. Okay. So you really do get --

22 A. Or you are by yourself. Depends if it's a one or 23 two person job.

24 Q. Right. Depending on the job you get, so you get 25 a foreman or someone who assigns you --

1 A. Right.

2 Q. -- this or that?

3 A. Different schedule every night when you come in.

4 Q. Okay. Maybe since it's a full shift I can guess

5 the answer to this, but I will ask you. Is -- is 6 there a radio, you know, sort of playing all the

7 time?

8 A. We can bring our own radios in.

9 Q. And do you do that to help pass the time?

10 A. Yup. Yup.

11 Q. What's on the radio between 11 at night and 7 in 12 the morning?

13 A. Classic rock, the Buzz out of Milwaukee.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. That's about all we listen to. I don't listen to 16 104.5. I don't care for it, too much talking.

17 I'd rather listen to music.

18 Q. Listening to music.

19 A. Be a long night if you don't have it.

20 Q. Right. And the talk shows get real weird at 21 night. So you are a music -- you are listening

22 to music?

23 A. Right.

24 Q. No TV at work?

25 A. No.

1 Q. I'm assuming. Tell me -- Tell me what you know
2 about Brendan Dassey.

3 A. I saw the arrest of Brendan. Kind of like was 4 Steven's arrest. That was it.

5 Q. Okay. When you say you saw the arrest of it, 6 like a news conference?

7 A. That he was supposedly -- supposedly involved.
8 That's it.

9 Q. Was that news conference sort of thing with 10 microphones?

11 A. Right. Yup. Kind of bringing him in the 12 courtroom. Had the orange -- I believe orange.
13 I don't know.

14 Q. Okay. So you actually saw footage of the court?

15 A. Right. I saw him.

16 Q. Of the court stuff.

17 A. Right. Heard that he was arrested.

18 Q. Okay. And did you watch -- One of the 19 prosecutors and a sheriff gave a news conference 20 two days in a row; did you see that?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Okay.

23 A. Didn't see no conferences at all.

24 Q. Got it. And what -- when -- so back to -- back 25 to Brendan Dassey, what else do you know about

1 him, or have you heard?

2 A. A nephew. The nephew was arrested. Brendan 3 Dassey, the name, a nephew, and relation of 4 the --

5 Q. Other than being Steven Avery's nephew, did you
6 connect up, you know, the charges against Brendan 7 with the charges against Steven in any way?

8 A. What do you mean connect?

9 Q. Do you see them as linked together, tied together 10 in any way, one affecting the other?

11 A. I don't know. Just heard about an arrest. I 12 didn't really hear the details on it. If I would 13 have seen the conference or whatever, I would 14 have heard more about it. But I really can't say 15 because I didn't hear a lot about it.

16 Q. I'm trying to sort of explore that. Have you 17 heard anything that Brendan supposedly said?

18 A. No. No.

19 Q. So -- So let's talk about this trial since this 20 is just Steven Avery's trial. What do you think 21 about innocence or guilt as you sit here now?

22 A. You have to have the evidence, innocent until 23 proven guilty.

24 Q. Okay. So you sort of -- Are you just sort of 25 starting with, hey, I don't know anything and I

1 assume he's innocent, let's hear the evidence?

2 A. Whatever is set out in front of a person, that's 3 how you -- I mean, to me that's how you figure 4 out if they are guilty or innocent. I don't know 5 enough about -- to say if he is or not.

6 Q. All right. As the case gets started, if you are 7 on the jury, and you start hearing the evidence, 8 are you somebody who's going to want to hear both 9 sides?

10 A. Yup.

11 Q. Does that mean that you think he really better 12 testify? I mean, seriously, I just need to know.

13 A. I would like to hear -- Yeah, I would like to 14 hear, but if he decides not to, there still 15 should be evidence.

16 Q. Okay. And in fact, I think the Judge will -- I 17 shouldn't -- I'm not trying to do his job, I can 18 barely do mine. But I think the Judge will tell 19 you that a defendant, you know, somebody charged 20 with a crime --

21 A. Right.

22 Q. -- can decide to testify. And if he does, then 23 you treat him like any other witness.

24 A. Right. Right.

25 Q. Decide what you believe or what you don't.

1 A. Right.

2 Q. Or he can decide not to testify. I mean, is this 3 familiar to you?

4 A. Right. I think it was mentioned when he spoke 5 before, when we did our questionnaire.

6 Q. Right.

7 A. I remember him telling us that.

8 Q. Right. And so, you know, that's a tough call, I 9 guess. Can you think of reasons why someone who 10 really didn't do it might not testify --

11 A. No. No.

12 Q. -- all the same?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Like if he really didn't do it he would testify?

15 A. No.

16 Q. No. Why not testify?

17 A. Because evidence, you have to look at the 18 evidence.

19 Q. So in other words, he could just say, hey, I 20 didn't do it, but they can't prove I did, so I'm 21 just going to rely on the fact they can't prove 22 it, and I'm innocent; is that something you could 23 accept?

24 A. Right. Mm-hmm.

25 Q. And do you know that Mr. Buting and I, as his

1 lawyers, might have something to say about, you 2 know, advising him whether he should or shouldn't 3 testify?

4 A. Right. Yeah. Mm-hmm.

5 Q. Can you live with that role of the lawyers kind 6 of butting in?

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. When I say can you live with it, can you
9 accept --

10 A. Deal with it, yeah.

11 Q. -- it?

12 A. Accept it, yeah. Mm-hmm.

13 Q. These are the rules --

14 A. Yup. Mm-hmm.

15 Q. -- and that's how it works.

16 A. Mm-hmm.

17 Q. You were asked a question on the questionnaire to 18 the effect of, you know, when you hear a police 19 officer testify, can you weigh their testimony 20 just like any other witness?

21 A. Right.

22 Q. And you said yes.

23 A. Mm-hmm.

24 Q. Do you think that there's anything about being a 25 police officer that makes you less likely to lie

1 under oath than any other person who is under 2 oath?

3 A. No, they are just like you or I. I mean, I would 4 see them as that.

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. They just wear the uniform for their shift and 7 that's it.

8 Q. Yeah, okay. UPS guys have a uniform?

9 A. Yup.

10 Q. Police officers?

11 A. Mm-hmm.

12 Q. Okay. If you're allowed to serve on this jury, 13 are you willing to let the police officers just 14 be human like everybody else?

15 A. Yeah.

16 Q. Not going to hold them to a higher standard?

17 A. No. No.

18 Q. Okay. By the way, have you been sitting back 19 there all day?

20 A. Yup.

21 Q. And you would normally be sleeping from about 8 22 to 4 or something?

23 A. I get home at 7:30. I lay down from about 8:30
24 to about 1:30. And on the weekend I sleep like a 25 normal person. So it works out pretty good for

1 me. Some people it don't.

2 Q. Okay. So have you bumped into anybody you know?

3 A. Here?

4 Q. Yeah.

5 A. No.

6 Q. Okay. And it gets pretty loud.

7 A. There's a joke teller in there.

8 Q. Okay. All right. Are people talking about this 9 case at all, or they just --

10 A. No, they were talking about jokes, how long it's 11 taking. We're timing it, about 45, 50 minutes a

12 person.

13 Q. All right.

14 A. You know. About where everybody works they were 15 just asking.

16 Q. Yeah.

17 A. Trying to get to know each other.

18 Q. Will you take a hit financially if you get stuck

19 on this jury for six weeks?

20 A. No.

21 Q. It will be all right with work?

22 A. Yup, uh-huh.

23 Q. And any concerns about -- I mean, your kids

24 aren't real young, but do you have any concerns

25 about being away from them?

1 A. No. No, they are 13 and 16.

2 Q. They may be at that age where they want you away 3 for awhile.

4 A. Yeah, there's another one to run them to 5 basketball or whatever.

6 Q. Okay. Did you grow up on a farm?

7 A. No, in the city.

8 ATTORNEY STRANG: I think that's -- I think 9 that's -- Just a minute. I'm good, thank you for 10 being patient.

11 THE COURT: All set. Ms Dorn, the Clerk
12 will take you out of the room.

13 Any motion from either party?

14 ATTORNEY FALLON: No.

15 ATTORNEY STRANG: No.

16 THE COURT: Very well. This juror is in.
17 Counsel, before we proceed further, let me take a 18 little inventory here. It's my understanding that, 19 referring to the sheets, 14, 17, and 20 are now -- 20 are now being jointly requested to be excused?

21 ATTORNEY BUTING: Oh, that was this 22 morning, wasn't it?

23 ATTORNEY STRANG: Yeah, 14, 17, 20, 23, and 24 27.

25 THE COURT: Okay. I have got 14, 17, 20,

1 23, 27 and 36.

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: I don't know about 36. I
3 know I'm going to move to strike him.

4 ATTORNEY FALLON: Just give me a minute, I 5 might be able to join you in that. If I could have 6 a moment, Judge, to check my numbers.

7 THE COURT: All right. Let's go off the 8 record for a second.

9 ATTORNEY STRANG: Sure.

10 (Off record discussion.)

11 THE COURT: Just for the record, counsel, 12 and to confirm again, it's my understanding that the 13 parties are jointly recommending that the following 14 jurors be excused: 14, Anthony Kabat; 17, Brad 15 Erdman; 20, Thomas Kubichka; 23, Audrey Gagnon; 27, 16 Mark Groth; and 36, Jerome Reszczyski. There may be 17 others tomorrow, but at least through 36, those are 18 the ones that are jointly recommended?

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, Judge.

20 ATTORNEY STRANG: That's correct.

21 THE COURT: Very well. The Court will 22 excuse those jurors. And I don't know if you folks 23 have the information yet. Number 34, Ryan Manley, 24 it turns out is now a Milwaukee resident.

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: Yes, I think we got

1 information last Monday, or afternoon, or something.
2 At least I was advised that he had moved to 3 Milwaukee, I guess.

4 THE COURT: All right. So we're going to 5 do two more jurors. The next one will be Sharon 6 Thorne.

7 All right. Ms Thorne, before we begin 8 the Clerk will administer the juror's oath to 9 you.

10 THE CLERK: Raise your right hand, please.

11 (Juror sworn.)

12 THE CLERK: Please be seated.

13 THE COURT: Ms Thorne, you have already 14 completed a questionnaire in this case, today we're 15 going on to the next step of jury selection which is 16 individual voir dire by the attorneys for both 17 parties. In a minute they will ask you a few 18 questions.

19 Before we begin, I want to pass on a few 20 additional notes for your information. The jury 21 that is selected in this case will not be 22 sequestered. That means for the duration of the 23 trial, which may go six weeks, the jurors will be 24 permitted to go home every evening after the 25 trial is over for the day. We're doing that with

1 the understanding that the jurors will not 2 observe any reports involving this matter on any 3 news media, either newspaper, radio, or 4 television, the internet, or discuss the matter 5 with anybody else.

6 You should also know that although these 7 voir dire proceedings are open to the public, no 8 cameras are allowed in the courtroom during voir 9 dire proceedings. And the news media is not 10 allowed to identify individual jurors by name in 11 any news reports. In addition, the jurors 12 selected to serve in this case will not be on 13 camera during any portion of the trial. The news 14 media is not allowed to show the juror's faces 15 during the trial.

16 In the event you are selected to stay on 17 the jury panel after today's's questioning, you 18 will receive a notification by telephone as to 19 when to report back to court. It will probably 20 be in the next two or three days.

21 With that background information,
22 Mr. Fallon, you may begin.

23 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

24 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

25 Q. Good afternoon.

1 A. Good afternoon.

2 Q. Thank you for your patience with us. I 3 understand you have been having some fun at our 4 expense, so I suppose that's deserved. Just 5 wanted to follow up with some questions based on 6 the information that you gave us last Monday in 7 the questionnaire.

8 My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an Assistant 9 Attorney General with the Wisconsin Department of 10 Justice. I'm one of the prosecutors in this 11 case. And I guess I would like to begin with a 12 couple of questions about your work situation.
13 So tell me, where it is you work again, Kroll's; 14 what is that?

15 A. Kroll's East, Green Bay, as a waitress.

16 Q. Okay. So that's a restaurant then?

17 A. Mm-hmm.

18 Q. All right. And how long have you worked there?

19 A. Just since October.

20 Q. Okay. And prior to that you worked in a -- for a 21 couple of temporary services?

22 A. Mm-hmm.

23 Q. Is that a yes? She has got to type down yes or 24 no so.

25 A. Okay.

1 Q. The others don't work out to well. What kind of 2 work did you do when you were subbing out, as it 3 were, for the temp service?
4 A. Factory assembly work.
5 Q. Okay. And how long did you work for those 6 temporary services? ABR, how long did you work
7 for them?
8 A. About 10 months.
9 Q. Okay. And the Flex Staff Service?
10 A. About a year.
11 Q. About a year, okay. And then you worked for 12 Mirro Company?
13 A. Mm-hmm.
14 Q. And how long did you work for them?
15 A. 11 years.
16 Q. And what kind of work did you do for Mirro?
17 A. Paragon Electric in Two Rivers.
18 Q. Okay.
19 A. Assembling timers.
20 Q. So a fair amount of factory work?
21 A. Right.
22 Q. Piece work, assembly production?
23 A. Right.
24 Q. Okay. Very good. The reason I asked those 25 questions is that, as you have no doubt learned

1 through the process, this case may very well take 2 six weeks to try, when it's all said and done.
3 And if you are selected for the jury, that means 4 you will be here 8, 9 hours a day. So our 5 concern is you indicated you didn't think there
6 would be any hardship for you. Having thought 7 all that through and a week to think about it, 8 are you still confident that you will be able to 9 financially make it through that six week period?

10 A. Yes.

11 Q. All right. Now, in terms of hobbies and 12 interesting things, you indicated you like to 13 fill in puzzles. Are those crossword puzzles or 14 other types of puzzles?

15 A. Fill ins, they look like a crossword puzzle.
16 They give you the word, and you just have to fit 17 them in the puzzle, what I was doing all day
18 today.

19 Q. All right. And do you like to do that because 20 you find it challenging, or relaxing, or any 21 particular reason?

22 A. Relaxing.

23 Q. Okay. Any other kind of puzzle work that you 24 like to do?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Okay. So you lived in Manitowoc County all your 2 life?

3 A. Right.

4 Q. All right. During that time, have you had an 5 opportunity to form any opinions as to the local 6 Sheriff's Department? Do you think they do a 7 good job in fighting crime, a fair job, a lousy 8 job; do you have any opinion on that?

9 A. No problem. I have no -- They do their job all 10 right I figure.

11 Q. In other words, you don't hear any complaints to 12 your --

13 A. No.

14 Q. Okay.

15 A. No.

16 Q. Now, the other couple questions I have for you, 17 you indicate you get your news, I guess,
18 primarily from television, not from newspapers.
19 How often do you watch news telecasts?

20 A. I don't watch much TV at all.

21 Q. You don't?

22 A. No, I'm not.

23 Q. If you don't get your news from the TV, do you 24 get your news from any other source?

25 A. No, I don't get a newspaper.

1 Q. Are you a computer person at all?

2 A. No, I don't have a computer.

3 Q. Okay. Now, in response to one question here, if 4 you were aware of the publicity, you didn't

5 answer yes, but you answered further with a brief

6 explanation. And you said, just some news

7 coverage, local Green Bay channels, very little.

8 As a result of that information, you went on to 9 say you haven't really formed any opinions in 10 this case?

11 A. No.

12 Q. From time to time, do you ever talk about the 13 case, or any of the news with any friends or 14 family members, or anything like that?

15 A. No.

16 Q. Okay. If you are not a TV person, what do you do

17 with your -- with your spare time? You say --

18 A. When it's nice outside, I'm outside a lot.

19 Q. I'm sorry?

20 A. When it's nice outside, I'm outside a lot,

21 camping. I like going in the woods walking my

22 dog. Just hang out with the girls, I mean, you

23 know, having our little coffee klatsch.

24 Q. Oh, do you. Okay.

25 A. Stuff like that, go out for lunch.

1 Q. All right. And I take it, then, with some of the 2 women that you hang out with you don't really 3 talk about news that much, just talk about 4 cooking gardening, and --

5 A. Girl stuff.

6 Q. Girl stuff. All right. That's fair. All right.
7 And how often do you get together with the girls 8 and just kick things around?

9 A. At least a couple times a month.

10 Q. Okay. Do you ever discuss the major events of 11 the day in your coffee klatsch?

12 A. Well, like when it happened that -- in the 13 blowing up the building --

14 Q. The World Trade Center.

15 A. Well, yeah, that was big talk.

16 Q. Sure.

17 A. Stuff like that, but, no, not really.

18 Q. Generally, it's not usually a newsworthy 19 discussion like this?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Okay. Very good. Do you know anyone in the 22 media that you are friends with, or any family 23 members that work in the media that you might 24 talk with from time to time?

25 A. Nope, none.

1 Q. All right. In terms of the little bit of media
2 coverage that you ever experienced in this case,
3 can you tell us what you do recall about the news 4 that you did see in terms of the information, or 5 what facts you think you may have as a result of 6 the media coverage?

7 A. I don't really watch it, the news. Mainly just 8 the weather. I put it on for the weather and 9 that's it.

10 Q. Okay. Very well. So you don't have any 11 particular impressions or what's going on with 12 respect to this case at all?

13 A. None.

14 Q. Okay. In your work with the temporary services, 15 working with producing and manufacturing 16 products, and working on the assembly line, and 17 piece work, and things of that sort; were you 18 ever -- ever in charge of anyone, or supervising 19 anyone in that capacity?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Okay. Did you ever write any safety guidelines, 22 or suggest any safety guidelines, or setting up 23 of any when you are working with the equipment or 24 other people in producing?

25 A. On a Safety Committee, yes.

1 Q. Oh, you did. Okay. Tell us about that.

2 A. Just mark down the dangers on the job that we 3 could see that workers were doing.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. And how they were performing and the problems 6 that it could cause.

7 Q. All right. And how did you -- Did you like that 8 experience, having some input like that?

9 A. Mm-hmm, yeah.

10 Q. Did you find it valuable?

11 A. Yeah.

12 Q. In terms of coming up with some ideas and 13 guidelines, was that kind of a group process?

14 A. Mm-hmm.

15 Q. Is that a yes?

16 A. Yes, monthly group.

17 Q. All right. And so you would periodically revisit 18 the guidelines and safety concerns?

19 A. Right.

20 Q. Okay. Do you consider yourself, you know, in 21 terms of evaluating opinions, or trying to solve 22 problems, or just generally in looking at things 23 in this world, do you consider yourself a detail 24 oriented person, or a big picture type of person, 25 bottom line approach?

1 A. Well, I'm not sure.

2 Q. Okay. Have you ever used any magazine or 3 publication, such as Auto Trader, to buy or sell 4 a vehicle?

5 A. No.

6 Q. Okay. All right. Have you ever read, or heard, 7 or seen anything in the news or in your 8 discussions with the girls, anything about this 9 Project Innocence in Wisconsin?

10 A. Nope.

11 Q. All right. Or do you know what it is?

12 A. No.

13 Q. It's a group of professionals, based in Madison, 14 that seek to exonerate people who were wrongfully 15 accused; does that ring a bell to you at all?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Okay. Do you know anything about Mr. Avery's 18 background or his past?

19 A. None.

20 Q. Not a thing.

21 A. Uh-uh.

22 Q. All right. In terms of your employment situation 23 and particularly the safety guidelines and 24 concerns and producing these products; would you 25 consider yourself one who follows those rules and 1 guidelines?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And that they are there for a particular reason, 4 for instance safety, or to enhance production?

5 A. Right. Yes.

6 Q. All right. You don't have any problem following 7 those rules or anything?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Now, in this particular case, Judge Willis here, 10 if you are selected, will advise you of some of 11 the rules and principles which will guide us 12 during the course of the trial; would you be able 13 to follow those rules?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Now, you indicated in your questionnaire you 16 would accept the fact that Mr. Avery is presumed 17 innocent until the State, that's our team here, 18 unless or until we prove him guilty, beyond a 19 reasonable doubt. You can follow that 20 instruction?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And do you accept that as a important principle?

23 A. Mm-hmm. I do.

24 Q. Okay. Now, you have never served on any jury 25 before; is that correct?

1 A. No, I haven't.

2 Q. All right. Is there any philosophical reason, 3 any moral reason, or religious reason, as you 4 think about your own experiences in life, which 5 gives you a reason to doubt whether you could 6 serve as a juror in this case?

7 A. No. Uh-uh.

8 Q. If you were selected as a juror in this case, 9 would that be all right with you?

10 A. Fine.

11 ATTORNEY FALLON: All right. That's all I 12 have.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Strang.

14 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

15 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

16 BY ATTORNEY STRANG:

17 Q. Hi, I'm Dean Strang. This is Jerome Buting, 18 Steven Avery. And he's prosecuting, and we're 19 defending, Mr. Avery.

20 A. All right.

21 Q. And I will tell you right now, I'm not from 22 around here. And I thought I had a pretty good 23 sense of Manitowoc County, but I don't know where 24 Greenleaf is. I know vaguely where County NN is.

25 A. Out in the country.

1 Q. So where is it?

2 A. 15 miles west of Denmark.

3 Q. 15 miles west of Denmark.

4 A. By Wrightstown and --

5 Q. So you are near Brown County?

6 A. Just a little bird out there.

7 Q. You are near Brown County sort of.

8 A. Mm-hmm. Actually across the street is Brown

9 County line. Mm-hmm.

10 Q. And then how far --

11 A. Between K and Z is where I live. Between 12 Kellnersville and Maribel, there's a little

13 country road between there?

14 Q. Got it.

15 A. I'm right on the borderline of it all. I have a 16 Greenleaf address. I'm Manitowoc County.

17 Township of Cooperstown. It goes on and on.

18 Q. And do you have family around?

19 A. Mm-hmm. A brother in Appleton. A brother in 20 Appleton.

21 Q. Your folks still around?

22 A. No, they are both gone.

23 Q. So there's just the one brother, but he's over in 24 Appleton?

25 A. Mm-hmm.

1 Q. I understand Mrs. Kroll died this weekend.

2 A. Yes, she did. Mm-hmm. 94.

3 Q. 94 years old.

4 A. Yup.

5 Q. How did you wind up waitressing after doing

6 factory work?

7 A. My girlfriend, we worked together at Paragon in 8 1983. And she's been working there for about

9 five years. So she got me into the restaurant.

10 She knew I always wanted to leave factory. And I

11 always talked I wanted to get out of factory. So

12 she said there was openings, she said why don't 13 you try it. So I did.

14 Q. And how is it?

15 A. I like it.

16 Q. Kroll's is a place where everybody is a regular,

17 basically?

18 A. Right.

19 Q. So what do you -- as you are warming up people's 20 coffee, what do you chitty chat with them about?

21 A. All kind of things, the weather?

22 Q. Whatever is on their mind?

23 A. Green Bay Packers, of course, because you are in 24 Green Bay.

25 Q. How else.

1 A. Yes. Is Favre coming back, that's another thing.

2 Q. All right. So, I mean, so this sort of suits
3 you; I mean, are you social that way, it sounds 4 like?

5 A. Oh, yeah.

6 Q. I'm sitting here saying now that I finally have a 7 woman under oath, I could ask what girl talk is, 8 since I have always wondered all my life.

9 A. Something besides not underneath looking at an 10 engine, changing oil and stuff like that.

11 Q. All right. So look, you know, what do you know 12 about Brendan Dassey? If you don't know anything 13 about Steven Avery, what do you know about 14 Brendan Dassey.

15 A. I don't know.

16 Q. Have you ever heard of the name?

17 A. I went, way back, to school with a Dassey?

18 Q. Which one?

19 A. Peter Dassey. And I know a Paul Dassey. I just 20 know because they live in Two Rivers, the name.
21 But I have no idea, you know, for any personal 22 thing about them or anything.

23 Q. Or any connection --

24 A. No.

25 Q. -- to this --

1 A. No.

2 Q. -- case?

3 A. Right. Just lived in Two Rivers all my life and 4 they lived there too. And the name.

5 Q. Was Peter in your class?

6 A. No. Uh-uh.

7 Q. But you knew him through school?

8 A. Right.

9 Q. And, you know, this is all -- this is all pretty 10 new to you if you haven't been on a jury before.

11 A. Mm-hmm.

12 Q. And I don't think you have ever been in trouble, 13 have you?

14 A. No.

15 Q. And so if you wind on this jury, which could be 16 six weeks --

17 A. Right.

18 Q. -- are you going to want to hear from both sides
19 in this case?

20 A. Well, yeah. you can't make a decision until you 21 know what it's all about totally.

22 Q. Yeah. And there's -- there's some things that 23 could interfere with that. And I want to talk 24 you to about those and get your take on them.
25 The State -- I think as you have been told a

1 couple times now, the State has the burden of 2 proof in this case. They have to prove Steve 3 Avery guilty, beyond a reasonable doubt, if they 4 can. So flip that around, what does that mean 5 that we have to prove?

6 A. That he's innocent.

7 Q. Actually, nothing. We don't have to prove 8 anything, because they have to prove he's guilty.
9 I don't have to prove he's innocent.

10 A. Okay.

11 Q. If the Judge tells you those are the rules, can 12 you grab on to that and follow those rules?

13 A. Mm-hmm.

14 Q. Is that yes?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. I'm sorry. The court reporter will throw a 17 pencil at me or something if I don't get a yes or 18 no out of the you.

19 I think it's a natural human thing to 20 want to hear both sides if you are going to be 21 fair and all that. And I'm sure we'll do stuff 22 in this trial, but do you understand we don't 23 have to prove him innocent? We really don't, in 24 the end. Can you follow that rule --

25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. -- if you wind up on the jury?

2 A. Sure.

3 Q. And it's the same thing with him testifying. I

4 don't know, do you figure that, well, if a guy

5 didn't do it he would get up on the stand and 6 testify that he didn't do it?

7 A. It's not that easy.

8 Q. It's not that easy? Why not?

9 A. It's just not.

10 Q. Actually, it's not that easy.

11 A. It's not.

12 Q. But I'm wondering why you say so?

13 A. Just from like the past, of what my mom and dad

14 used to say about the legal system and that.

15 Q. Who were they?

16 A. That's my mom and dad.

17 Q. Yeah, I know what but --

18 A. The way they would talk and that. I mean, just 19 said don't get into trouble because it ain't that 20 easy to get out of it.

21 Q. Okay. It is true. And the Judge has also told

22 you, and he will tell you a bunch of times again

23 I think, that in America, someone who's accused

24 of a crime is presumed innocent. They start the 25 trial that way. They go through the trial

1 presumed innocent. And only if the jury
2 eventually decides at the end that the State 3 proved it, beyond a reasonable doubt, is the 4 person no longer presumed innocent. He gets 5 found guilty in that case.

6 A. Mm-hmm.

7 Q. And that idea, that someone is presumed innocent, 8 bumps up against -- I think in the real world 9 bumps up against a tendency of people to say, 10 well, he's here, he is sitting in the defendant's 11 table, wouldn't be here if he hadn't done
12 something. And is that, you know, is there a 13 voice in your head saying that too?

14 A. Just have to wait and see what's all summed up, 15 you know.

16 Q. Do you think he must have done something, though, 17 to be charged and to be here?

18 A. Apparently.

19 Q. I don't know.

20 A. Somebody must know something.

21 Q. Somebody has alleged something?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. But that's the point, somebody has made a claim.
24 And that's the point is, he is presumed innocent.

25 A. I guess that's what we're here to find out.

1 Q. That's -- That's why you are here. That's why we 2 have a jury, in the end. So, you know, as you
3 say, it's not that easy on whether he testifies 4 or doesn't testify. And I guess what I need to 5 know is, when the Judge gives you the rules to 6 follow, are you going to follow them?

7 A. Of course.

8 Q. And, you know, some things we do because we have 9 to, some things we do because we believe in it 10 and we want to. Where do you fall on that, on 11 things like being presumed innocent and the State 12 having the burden or proof?

13 A. Just have to wait and see what I hear and sum it 14 up that way.

15 Q. But are you following those rules because you are 16 told to and that, you know, they are rules you 17 have to follow, or do you say to yourself those 18 rules make sense to me, and if I were charged 19 with a crime, that's what I would want?

20 A. Basically, I will have to just see how it turns 21 out, see what's said, and see how the evidence 22 all goes, and how it all falls in place. You 23 know, that's all I can really say. Can't say he 24 is guilty, can't say he is not guilty. I don't 25 know.

1 Q. But can you presume that he is not guilty?

2 A. Apparently. Maybe. I don't know.

3 Q. This is perfect, you are being very straight with 4 me, which is what I need, you know, to help me 5 make decisions about whether we want you or not.
6 And if you are going to be on the jury, you have 7 got to get past, apparently, or maybe. And it's 8 okay to tell me if you are not going to get past 9 apparently or maybe.

10 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm going to object to 11 that. That's a mischaracterization of the law, at 12 least in terms of -- Well, I don't want to argue in 13 front of her.

14 THE COURT: There is some ambiguity in the 15 question. Let's move on to the next question.

16 Q. You will be asked to take an oath if you are on 17 the jury, that you are going to follow the 18 Judge's instructions.

19 A. I will be able to, yes.

20 Q. Presuming him innocent is one of those.

21 A. Right.

22 Q. There's a bunch of other instructions too.

23 A. Mm-hmm.

24 Q. Okay. Do you think you will be able to do that?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. So let me just come out and ask you, do you want 2 to be on this jury?

3 A. Sure.

4 Q. Why?

5 A. I find it interesting. I never done it before.
6 Just find it interesting.

7 Q. What if this trial goes six weeks and takes you 8 away from your life for six weeks?

9 A. I'm aware of that already.

10 Q. And you still want to do it?

11 A. Sure.

12 Q. Just for the new experience? Just because it's 13 interesting? Or is there any other reason?

14 A. It's a lifetime experience. I may never be able 15 to do it again.

16 Q. Do what?

17 A. To be in court, to make the decision?

18 Q. Okay.

19 ATTORNEY STRANG: Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Fallon?

21 ATTORNEY FALLON: Nothing, thank you.

22 THE COURT: Very well. The Clerk will 23 escort you out of the courtroom at this time, Ms
24 Thorne.

25 Any motion from either party?

1 ATTORNEY FALLON: None from the State.

2 ATTORNEY STRANG: None here.

3 THE COURT: All right. Ms Thorne will be 4 in the jury pool -- or panel.

5 Ms Whalen, please raise your right hand.
6 The Clerk will administer the oath.

7 (Juror sworn.)

8 THE COURT: Ms Whalen, first let me
9 apologize in our delay of getting to you today. You 10 have the honor of being the last juror we are going 11 to be voir diring today. You have already completed 12 a questionnaire in this case and today we're 13 proceeding on to the next phase of jury selection 14 which is individual voir dire. Each of the 15 attorneys, in a few minutes, will have an 16 opportunity to ask you some follow-up questions to 17 the information requested in your questionnaire.

18 I can tell you that the jurors who are 19 selected in this case will not be sequestered.
20 That means that after each day of the trial you 21 will be able to go back home. We're doing that 22 because the jurors will be required not to listen 23 to any news media accounts on the radio, not to 24 watch anything on TV, or read anything in the 25 newspaper, or on the internet. And jurors will

1 also have to agree not to discuss the case with 2 anyone during the course of trial.

3 Although the proceedings today are open,
4 during the voir dire process cameras are not 5 permitted in the courtroom. And you should know 6 that the press is not allowed to identify the 7 names of the jurors in any news accounts of the 8 case. You should also know that if you are 9 selected to serve as a juror, during the course 10 of the trial, cameras are not permitted to show 11 the identity of the jurors; that is, show their 12 faces or any part that's recognizable.

13 After the questioning today, if you 14 remain on the jury panel, you will be asked to 15 come back in a couple days. The Clerk's Office 16 will notify you by telephone of exactly when and 17 where. With that background, then, Mr. Fallon, 18 you may proceed with your questions.

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: Thank you.

20 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

21 BY ATTORNEY FALLON:

22 Q. Good afternoon. My name is Tom Fallon. I'm an 23 Assistant Attorney General with the Wisconsin 24 Department of Justice. I'm one of the 25 prosecutors in the case. Thank you for your

1 patience. I would like to follow up with some 2 questions on some of the information you provided 3 last week in the questionnaire and a few other 4 related questions.

5 First and foremost, I see that you are 6 currently employed at the -- I can't quite read 7 your writing, a plating company here in 8 Manitowoc?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. All right. And you're a quality control person?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Tell us a little bit about what that involves.

13 A. That's where I check the finished products as 14 they come off the line, making sure they are more 15 or less perfect for the consumer.

16 Q. All right. How long have you been working there?

17 A. It will be 21 years in March.

18 Q. All right. And have you always worked in the 19 quality control division, as it were?

20 A. Um, I -- I have done it for three and a half 21 years previously, and I just wanted to get back 22 on the assembly line. And I did that for a 23 while, and they needed somebody to go back in 24 quality control and I volunteered. And I really 25 like it.

1 Q. All right. And how long is this tour of duty, as 2 it were, on quality control? When did you go 3 back and resume that duty?

4 A. How long have I been on it?

5 Q. Yeah, just recently, last 3 or 4 years or longer?

6 A. Just that I came back on it was like April of 7 this last year.

8 Q. April. Okay. All right. How long had you been 9 away from it?

10 A. Five years.

11 Q. Okay. Now, there is a question regarding your 12 employment that we wanted to explore with you.
13 And in answer to the last question on the 14 questionnaire, you were asked, is there any 15 reason that has not previously been ruled on by 16 the Court, why you should -- or you would suffer 17 exceptional personal hardship if selected to 18 serve as a juror, you answered, yes, you thought 19 so because of a large house payment, and that you 20 might need it to continue working to ensure that 21 you could meet your financial obligations with 22 your home.

23 A. Mm-hmm.

24 Q. Is that still the case?

25 A. Well, yeah. We do have a large house payment,

1 but I think we can make do.

2 Q. All right. So are you suggesting to us then that 3 you are in a situation where you would not be 4 paid if you were selected as a juror?

5 A. I don't know.

6 Q. Okay.

7 A. If the company pays me, I have no idea.

8 Q. All right.

9 A. I already said that I would take vacation.

10 Q. All right. Six weeks vacation?

11 A. No, I only have four weeks.

12 Q. So you would suffer a couple weeks without pay 13 then, possibly, potentially, you just don't know?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. All right. Are you comfortable with that? I 16 mean, is that really going to put your family in 17 a financial bind?

18 A. No, I guess, you know, there's always a will, 19 there's always a way?

20 Q. Okay. All right. I want to talk a little bit 21 about some of the publicity which has attended to 22 this case. As a lead in to that, do you watch 23 the news fairly regularly?

24 A. Um, like I said, we just built a new home, and 25 we're still tinkering with it, so the news isn't

1 really always on. It is now and then, if I just 2 happen to be in the room or -- but it's not 3 always on. I used to get the paper, but I only 4 get it on the weekends.

5 Q. All right. Have you followed the -- we'll start 6 with the television, have you followed the 7 television coverage with respect to this case?

8 A. In the beginning I did, but then after a while it 9 was getting overwhelming so now I don't watch it.

10 Q. All right. When do you think was the last time 11 you watched any television coverage of the status 12 of the case, or the proceedings, or what have 13 you; how long ago did you stop watching?

14 A. About a week ago when you told me not to, for 15 one.

16 Q. All right.

17 A. But before that was months. Because it just 18 became always on there.

19 Q. Okay. So you really stopped watching months ago 20 and you have been earnest about it after 21 receiving the directive from the Court.

22 A. Mm-hmm.

23 Q. That's a yes?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. She has to hear the word.

1 A. Sorry.

2 Q. All right. How about the newspaper coverage, 3 have you stopped reading the paper, the news
4 articles as well?

5 A. I saw on Sunday's paper, Steve's picture, and 6 right away I turned it over.

7 Q. All right. You didn't read any of the article at 8 all?

9 A. No.

10 Q. All right. Prior to receiving the directive from 11 the Court, when was the last time you read any 12 newspaper accounts of the case and the status and 13 things of that sort.

14 A. Probably when that Dassey boy, whatever, when 15 that happened.

16 Q. Okay.

17 A. That's probably the last time.

18 Q. All right. So that might have been last March.

19 A. Yeah, because it was just so much every day.

20 Q. Well, what do you recall reading or hearing about 21 the case involving Mr. Dassey?

22 A. That he got picked up, that he was going to jail, 23 that he was from Mishicot High School, that he 24 was more or less involved in it, you know. To 25 me, again, it was just another constant reminder

1 of, you know, what happened.

2 Q. All right. Do you recall any of the details 3 regarding his arrest or any of the statements 4 he's alleged to have made?

5 A. Yeah, he was saying that he was involved with it.

6 Q. Okay. That's the extent of what you recall?

7 A. Yeah, to me that's just gibberish, you know, you 8 hear it and you hear it, and after awhile you 9 don't want to hear it.

10 Q. Okay. Now, as a result of that initial media 11 splurge of coverage, did you form any long 12 lasting, solid opinions about the guilt or 13 innocence of Mr. Avery?

14 A. No.

15 Q. All right. As you sit here today, do you have an 16 opinion as to his guilt or innocence?

17 A. Actually, no, I don't. Because -- you could -- 18 it could go either way.

19 Q. All right.

20 A. Maybe she was in love with him and maybe she was 21 trying to break it off, or maybe he, you know, I 22 just -- I don't --

23 Q. There's too much you don't know.

24 A. Yeah, just too much.

25 Q. All right.

1 A. That's why I didn't want to listen or read it any 2 more.

3 Q. You didn't want to what?

4 A. Listen or read.

5 Q. Oh, listen or read about. I got you. All right.
6 In your responses here, you said, well, yes and 7 no. On the one hand, I think he did it. On the 8 other hand, I don't think he did it. Could you 9 kind of elaborate on your --

10 A. Well, that's just what I mean. You know, you 11 hear people at work say, well, yeah, he did it, 12 he did it, he did it. But then it's like what 13 evidence do you have.

14 Q. Right. And the fact that -- In terms of one 15 question, on the one hand, I believe he did it, 16 and on the other hand, then again, I believe he 17 was framed; where does that come from? What 18 opinion is that based on?

19 A. Um, that's probably what I read.

20 Q. Okay.

21 A. Yeah.

22 Q. All right. So in other words, you are willing to 23 give either side a fair shake, as it were, as the 24 evidence is presented.

25 A. Yeah, because I have no evidence.

1 Q. Right. Okay.

2 A. What I hear is what people say.

3 Q. Now, importantly, do you think that whatever

4 opinions you have you can set those aside, and if

5 you were selected as a juror, you could decide

6 this case solely on what you hear in the 7 courtroom, and not so much what your husband

8 might say, or any of your friends and colleagues

9 at work, you can decide this case just on what

10 the evidence in the room is?

11 A. Actually, nobody at our house talks about it, or 12 even at work.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. It's pretty much an old thing now.

15 Q. All right.

16 A. Yes, I think I could.

17 Q. All right. Excuse me. Just so I'm clear, I

18 thought you said that -- okay -- that there was 19 apparently a time where people did talk about the 20 case quite a bit at work, but you are telling us

21 that that's pretty well subsided now?

22 A. Mm-hmm.

23 Q. That's a yes?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. So there's not a great deal of discussion

1 about it at the current time?

2 A. I work with a lot of Mexicans.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. So, it's just maybe two of us --

5 Q. All right.

6 A. Caucasians.

7 Q. All right.

8 A. Nobody talks about it.

9 Q. Okay. Is that all right with you, that no one is 10 talking about it?

11 A. Yes, that's fine.

12 Q. Okay. In terms of being able to set aside your 13 opinion -- I will get to that in a minute. I'm 14 going to follow up with something else here. On 15 one question you indicated that you, yourself, or 16 your family, were victims of a crime; is that

17 correct?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. I think you said you were robbed in 1993?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. And the people were arrested?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. Okay. Were they prosecuted to your knowledge?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Were they convicted?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Did the case actually proceed to court, or were 3 you ever a witness, or was it resolved before a 4 formal trial?

5 A. That was so far -- or such a long time ago. Yes, 6 we did go to court.

7 Q. Okay. Did you actually give some testimony at 8 one point, in a preliminary hearing maybe, or a
9 trial.

10 A. My husband sat upfront and I was like in the back 11 a little bit.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. And we just had to point him out, if that was the 14 right person.

15 Q. Okay. Was that in front of a jury or just a 16 judge?

17 A. Just a judge.

18 Q. Okay. What did you think of that process?

19 A. It was cool.

20 Q. All right. Well, as a victim of a crime, do you 21 think you were dealt with appropriately, 22 respected, and --

23 A. Yes, I do.

24 Q. Okay. And as far as law enforcement's 25 involvement, was that a good experience, bad

1 experience for you?

2 A. It was good, they were very good to us.

3 Q. All right. Is that your only personal experience
4 with law enforcement here in Manitowoc?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. Was that the Sheriff's Department, or Police 7 Department, or who would have been involved in 8 that?

9 A. County maybe.

10 Q. County sheriff?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. All right. You also indicated you have a friend, 13 or family member, who is a law enforcement
14 officer?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Is that with the city police, or the county 17 sheriff, or one of the surrounding 18 municipalities?

19 A. The city.

20 Q. City police officer. Okay. Is that a son, 21 nephew?

22 A. It's a son.

23 Q. Okay. And how long has he been a member of the 24 Manitowoc Police Department.

25 A. I'm going to say about 10 years, maybe.

1 Q. All right. Well, let me ask you this question, 2 then, since you have had a good experience with 3 the sheriff, and your son is a police officer, I 4 want to ask you about a question that you filled 5 out on the questionnaire.

6 And it says the law requires jurors to 7 evaluate the credibility of police officers just 8 as that of any other witness; that is, jurors are 9 prohibited from giving more or less credibility
10 to the testimony of a law enforcement officer 11 simply because the witness is a law officer. If 12 selected as a juror, would you be able to assess 13 the credibility of law officers on this basis, 14 and you answered yes. Is that still your answer
15 today?

16 A. On the credibility of the law officer?

17 Q. Yes.

18 A. Yes, I think so.

19 Q. All right. Then the tougher question is, well, 20 given your positive experience with the Manitowoc
21 Sheriff, and your son being a police officer, 22 would you have a tendency -- it seems to me you 23 might have a tendency to weigh their testimony 24 more favorably than you would somebody else;
25 would that be the case?

1 A. Toward the Manitowoc police officer?

2 Q. Well, any officer?

3 A. Well, the evidence has got to be there, you know.

4 You have to not be prejudiced either way, you

5 have to be just focused.

6 Q. All right. So is that what you mean when you say

7 you would evaluate their believability, their

8 credibility, the same as any other witness?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. Okay. Now, you also had a prior jury experience, 11 I see; is that correct?

12 A. That's right.

13 Q. What kind of case was it, you said it was a 14 criminal case? Do you recall what the issue was?

15 A. I'm not sure what criminal and the other thing

16 is, but I think it's criminal. The lady said

17 that her purse was stolen.

18 Q. Right.

19 A. And whoever stole it wrote checks at various 20 different stores. And as we went through the 21 case, we checked her checks that were written

22 from that day, back a year, to two years, to five

23 years, and the handwriting was all the same.

24 Q. All right.

25 A. So it was like only a day.

1 Q. A day long. So it was kind of like a forging a 2 check or --

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Or uttering or something of that nature?

5 A. Right.

6 Q. And was that a good experience, bad experience, 7 for you?

8 A. It was good.

9 Q. Yeah. What was good about it? Why did you find 10 it a good experience?

11 A. Well, I was never involved in anything like that 12 and it was interesting.

13 Q. Okay. Was there anything about that experience 14 that raises a question in your mind today as to 15 whether you could be a juror and deliberate with 16 your peers and reach a verdict in a case such as 17 this?

18 A. I just think I'm an honest person and I ain't 19 going to lie about something. I think I could do 20 a good job.

21 Q. All right. Did you enjoy the deliberation 22 process with your colleagues, the give and take 23 in the jury room?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. One moment. In that case, do you

1 recall if -- whether or not the defendant
2 testified in that case?

3 A. She did.

4 Q. She did. And would it have mattered to you, in 5 retrospect, if the defendant -- if she did not 6 testify, if she invoked her right not to testify?

7 A. Well, she had a real good case going until we saw 8 her checks.

9 Q. Well, if -- In this case, if the Court instructed 10 you that the defendant, Mr. Avery, doesn't have 11 to testify, that he has a constitutional right 12 not to testify, would you accept that and not 13 hold that against him?

14 A. No.

15 Q. You would not accept it or you would accept it?

16 A. I would accept it, and I wouldn't hold it against 17 him.

18 Q. You would not?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Okay. So you feel pretty comfortable you could 21 decide this case based on the evidence which is 22 presented and not on any other outside factor?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay.

25 ATTORNEY FALLON: That's all I have for the

1 witness.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Buting.

3 ATTORNEY BUTING: Thank you, Judge.

4 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION

5 BY ATTORNEY BUTING:

6 Q. Good afternoon. Actually, it's evening now, I 7 guess. My name is Jerome Buting. This is 8 Attorney Dean Strang and Steven Avery. I want to 9 follow up on a few questions, mostly follow up, 10 and I have just a few of my own as well. Let me 11 kind of go in reverse order.

12 This -- The trial that you were a juror
13 on the last time, it was some sort of a forgery
14 type case. Was there a handwriting comparison 15 expert that was presented to the Court?

16 A. I can't remember that far back, but I think so.

17 Q. Okay. When you said that she had a good case 18 going until you looked at the handwriting on the 19 checks --

20 A. All the checks were put on the table.

21 Q. In the jury room or in the courtroom?

22 A. Jury room.

23 Q. Okay. But I'm wondering was this something that 24 the jurors came up with on their own and said, 25 well, let's look at these, see if we can see if

1 the handwriting matches or --

2 A. I think it was put out on the table and they 3 showed it to us, but then they gave it to us to 4 look at closer in our room.

5 Q. Okay. So you think there was actually someone in 6 court who was an expert, talking about 7 handwriting?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. There's a curve here and that sort of thing? You 10 have to say yes or no.

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Okay. That was convincing evidence for you?

13 A. Yes.

14 Q. Now, Mr. Fallon asked you about police officers 15 testifying and whether you could -- would hold 16 them to a different standard or whether you could 17 treat them the same as any other witness?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Do you think that police officers, if they would 20 take the witness stand, swear to tell the truth, 21 the whole truth, nothing but the truth, that they 22 could still lie under oath?

23 A. Police officer?

24 Q. Yes, law enforcement officers.

25 A. I don't see why they --

1 Q. I'm sorry?

2 A. No, I don't think they should be able to. I 3 think if they are taking an oath, they should not 4 lie.

5 Q. Well, do you think that anyone who takes the oath 6 is always going to be telling the truth from the 7 witness stand?

8 A. Well, they should.

9 Q. Yes, I understand they should, but do you think 10 everyone will?

11 A. I'm not sure.

12 Q. Well, I'm going -- Let me ask it a different way.
13 When I say will, I don't mean predicting in this 14 trial. What I mean is, do you think that people 15 sometimes do get on the witness stand, swear to 16 tell the truth, but yet still lie?

17 A. Yes, I do.

18 Q. Okay. Ordinary people, right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. And do you think that police officers may also do 21 that, or do you think that because they are 22 police officers, law enforcement, they are 23 incapable of doing that?

24 A. They shouldn't, but you're right, they can.

25 Q. Sometimes there's just bad cops?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Sometimes police officers feel pressure to do 3 something?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Sometimes they think they have got the guilty 6 guy, but they want to make sure of it, so they do 7 what it takes to get him?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay. Sometimes police officers may cross the 10 line in order to get what they believe is the 11 proper ends to justify the means?

12 A. Well, you know, cops go to school to learn not to 13 do that. And you would think that they wouldn't, 14 but you are right, there are the bad ones.

15 Q. Okay. Now, you talked about how at the beginning 16 the publicity that you heard in this case was 17 just overwhelming at some point, right?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And I'm not sure if you said it was mainly from 20 television, or television and news coverage -- 21 television and newspaper coverage?

22 A. It was both.

23 Q. Okay. So did you read all of the details when 24 the case was first charged back in November, and 25 when she was reported missing, and there was an

1 arrest, and all that?

2 A. Yes, I did.

3 Q. Did you ever read the Criminal Complaint
4 yourself, the actual Criminal Complaint?

5 A. That was in the paper?

6 Q. Well, I think it was -- Let me ask it this way, 7 did you ever go on line on the internet?

8 A. No, we never go on the computer. My son plays 9 with it once in a while. And I'm so computer 10 illiterate that. But I do use the computer at 11 work, but it's only work stuff.

12 Q. There's been quite a few proceedings that have 13 actually been televised live, or at least large 14 sections of it.

15 A. Yeah.

16 Q. Have you seen some of those?

17 A. Well, like I said, I see it on and I turn the 18 channel.

19 Q. I understand that's how it is now, but let's go 20 back to when you were first learning about it.

21 A. Oh, when I was first learning about it?

22 Q. Yes.

23 A. It was interesting because I kind of like my son 24 being in the law enforcement. I kind of think it 25 was interesting. Maybe I should have been a law

1 officer or something. But I think it's very 2 interesting. But you read about it, or it's 3 mostly the TV that draws you. But after awhile, 4 it's just like -- it's like it goes on, and on.
5 It's like boring, an old story.

6 Q. Sure. But, for instance, the preliminary hearing
7 in this case; do you recall that? Did you watch 8 any of that, or where you actually saw witnesses 9 in court testifying?

10 A. I don't recall that.

11 Q. Okay. In the Brendan Dassey story, you mentioned 12 some of the things that he -- he made some 13 alleged statements that he was involved, I think 14 is the way you put it, right?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Do you remember any of the details of what his 17 story was?

18 A. Yes, I do.

19 Q. And -- Well, why don't you tell me what you 20 actually recall of that.

21 A. He was involved with Steve, sexually assaulting 22 her, and possibly choking her, or stabbing her.
23 I'm not sure. I guess it was done in the 24 bedroom, you know. But then you read that and 25 it's like, you know, not this again. I just

1 don't like -- It's like a story, you know.

2 Q. So, did you find those details pretty gruesome 3 when you first heard them? I mean, did they 4 really --

5 A. Upset me?

6 Q. Upset you, or make you sick.

7 A. No. No.

8 Q. Having heard all of that, do you think you can 9 actually look at Mr. Avery sitting here and 10 actually presume him innocent?

11 A. Sure.

12 Q. And why is that?

13 A. Because I -- I have got to see all the evidence.
14 I have to see why he did it. And I just -- I got 15 to, you know, like -- everybody is innocent until 16 proven guilty.

17 Q. Or whether he did it, not just why?

18 A. Or whether he did it.

19 Q. So you really want to hear evidence. You don't 20 want to rely on --

21 A. No, I mean?

22 Q. -- things you have heard in the media, or 23 anything like that?

24 A. Newspapers aren't always right, neither is the 25 media.

1 Q. Now, in your questionnaire, you say that -- one 2 of the questions is asked, if you discussed the 3 case at length with any other person. And you 4 mentioned your husband?

5 A. Yeah, we talk about everything.

6 Q. Okay. That's good, but in this particular 7 instance; did you have disputes? Did you guys 8 disagree?

9 A. I think he thinks the same as I, you know. They 10 have got to prove that he did it, if he did it at 11 all.

12 Q. Okay. You mentioned, though, that a number of 13 people -- I don't know if it's friends or 14 neighbors -- that all were saying they just think 15 he is guilty, and you said -- you sort of 16 disagreed with that, wait a minute, let's wait 17 and see what the evidence is?

18 A. Yeah. Yes.

19 Q. But your husband is not one of those people?

20 A. Yes, he is.

21 Q. He's one that thinks he may be guilty, or 22 probably is guilty?

23 A. Well, he's just like me, he would like to see all 24 the evidence put out on the table, if he did it.

25 Q. What about your son, that's the police officer;

1 have you talked to him about this?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Not at all?

4 A. No, not really.

5 Q. Pardon me?

6 A. Not really.

7 Q. Well, let's get past the not really. How about

8 at all?

9 A. Not at all.

10 Q. Never once, you have never talked to him about 11 this?

12 A. No.

13 Q. Do you know -- I'm sorry, what is your son's

14 name?

15 A. Jason Koenig.

16 Q. Could you spell the last name.

17 A. K-o-e-n-i-g.

18 Q. Do you know if he had any involvement in the 19 investigation of this case, the search, or any of 20 that stuff?

21 A. I don't believe so, he works second shift.

22 Q. Okay. He's never told you that he's had any 23 involvement at all?

24 A. No. I think he keeps his work to himself.

25 Q. Okay. You also said in your questionnaire that,

1 you know, as to whether you had formed any 2 opinion, you said, well, on the one hand 3 sometimes -- it's sort of like you are kind of 4 torn. Sometimes I believe he did it. Other 5 times I think, well, wait a minute, I believe he 6 was framed. Is that what you are trying to say?

7 A. Yeah, you get a group of people at the bar, for 8 instance, they are just going to on, and on, and 9 on. It's like, you know. If you get in the 10 right group of people, they are going to sit 11 there and drag him down. But then you get in 12 another group of people and they say the same as 13 I, you know. You've got to put the facts on the 14 table. You don't just convict somebody because 15 he lives there or because you saw him drive past 16 the house.

17 Q. So -- But when you say that maybe he was framed; 18 are you thinking framed by whom?

19 A. It's a possibility it could be anybody. It could 20 be his brother. It could be a police officer.
21 It could be the man down the street. It could be 22 anybody. I'm not saying they did or they didn't.
23 I just.

24 Q. You are just open to that possibility?

25 A. I don't know what happened.

1 Q. But what I would like to know, if you're open to 2 that possibility, I would like to know, because 3 your son is police officer, I would think that 4 you would be the last person who would be open to 5 that possibility.

6 A. Well, like I said, he keeps his work to himself.
7 He don't talk about nothing, who he stopped, or 8 who he's involved arresting, or nothing like
9 that.

10 Q. So, has he ever said anything to you that would 11 give you any reason to think that maybe sometimes 12 police officers might not be all on the up and 13 up?

14 A. No. He is real happy with his job. No, he 15 doesn't say nothing.

16 Q. I don't mean his particular department, I mean 17 just in general.

18 A. He doesn't talk about none of his work.

19 Q. And if you were on this jury, if you were 20 selected for this jury and you came back with a 21 not guilty verdict; would that be a problem with 22 you and your son, do you think?

23 A. No, I don't think so.

24 Q. I mean, think about that, because you have to -- 25 you would have to take an oath to do your duty,

1 and follow your conscience, and what the evidence 2 says. And I would like to be sure that you are 3 not going to be thinking, oh, my gosh, I can't -- 4 I can't do this and then face my son.

5 A. And to make my son mad at me?

6 Q. Well, or --

7 A. He's got to understand what I'm doing.

8 Q. So that wouldn't be a problem is what you are 9 saying?

10 A. No.

11 Q. And that goes for your friends and your husband 12 as well?

13 A. Right.

14 Q. Okay. Do you know Chuck Avery?

15 A. Not personally, but when we were in high school,
16 or I was in high school. There was like a 17 bonfire there. And we would go and say -- 18 somebody said, oh, that that's him, the person 19 that owns the place. Oh. So I don't really 20 think I talked to him ever, I just know of him.

21 Q. So that would be like how many years ago you're 22 talking?

23 A. Oh, my God, I don't know, the '70's maybe.

24 Q. Oh, okay.

25 A. I'm old.

1 Q. Not as old as I am.

2 A. Probably passed you up.

3 Q. Now, given what you have heard from the alleged 4 statement of Brendan Dassey, the nephew, and all 5 of those details; did you believe them at the 6 time you heard them? Did you think, hey, this is 7 the truth, this is it, this is what happened?

8 A. I did in the beginning -- or maybe I even still 9 do, because why would anybody volunteer that?

10 Q. Well, that's a good question. Do you think that 11 people might sometimes admit or confess to things 12 they didn't do? Have you heard of that?

13 A. No, I never -- Well, maybe to take the burden off 14 another person a little bit.

15 Q. Okay. Have you ever read of people who, you 16 know, for all kinds of reasons, either because 17 they are pressured by the police, or because of 18 their mental condition, or whatever it might be, 19 that they might, in fact, admit to something 20 that's really not true, that they didn't do?

21 A. Yeah, it is a possibility. He -- I don't know, 22 for some reason he may have just said it. I 23 don't know. I don't know how to answer that 24 question, or why he said it, or if it happened.

25 Q. Or if he did it, or if he said it, or whatever.

1 What if -- What would you do, or how would you go 2 about evaluating, if you heard any evidence of 3 that in this case, and I'm not saying you are 4 going to, but just how would you go about 5 evaluating whether or not it was a true 6 confession or not?

7 A. I would really have to look at the facts. He 8 doesn't seem to be talking right now, so the 9 facts at the time.

10 Q. When you say he doesn't seem to be talking right 11 now; what do you mean?

12 ATTORNEY FALLON: I'm going to object to 13 this line of inquiry. I think this is beyond the 14 scope of what we need to accomplish here.

15 THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the 16 objection. It goes into too much speculation about 17 what the evidence may or may not be.

18 Q. Are you referring to some news reports you've 19 heard about the boy, Brendan Dassey?

20 A. Like when he was first arrested, all the gossip 21 that went around and what was in the paper. Is 22 that -- that doesn't seem to be in the paper
23 anymore.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. You don't hear of.

1 Q. Did you read or hear that he had since retracted 2 the confession and said that it's --

3 A. I think somebody at work told me that.

4 Q. Okay. So you would look to see whether there was 5 any underlying evidence that would support the 6 statement before you would determine if it was 7 true or not?

8 A. Well, you would have to.

9 ATTORNEY BUTING: All right. Thank you,
10 very much, ma'am.

11 THE COURT: All right. The Clerk will 12 escort you from the courtroom.

13 Will there be a motion from either
14 party?

15 ATTORNEY FALLON: None from the State.

16 ATTORNEY BUTING: No.

17 THE COURT: All right. Anything else
18 today, before we adjourn?

19 ATTORNEY FALLON: What time tomorrow, 8:30?

20 THE COURT: 8:30. Very well. We'll see 21 you at 8:30.

22 ATTORNEY BUTING: One last thing, it
23 occurred to me when we could hear the jurors in the 24 back; are they in that jury room?

25 THE COURT: They are.

ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay. I'm just wondering, since we can hear them, and they're not microphoned, and we are miked, are we sure that they are not, in that location -- I thought they were going to be across the hall in that area.

THE COURT: That's a very good question. First of all today, one of the disadvantages of them making a lot of noise is that they disturbed us a bit, but it also assures that they could not hear us. Actually, before we started using the courtroom a few days ago, I had somebody come out and speak on the -- over the PA system. And I went inside, there is a fan that's on pretty consistently in there, that tends to drum out the noise here. Especially where nobody was raising their voice. So I'm confident that they -- even had they been quiet, which they weren't, I don't think they would have been able to hear the proceedings.

ATTORNEY BUTING: Okay.

THE COURT: All right. We're adjourned for today.
