NARRATIVE

Case # 14-41539

Interviewee: Terri Morris
Interviewer: Detective Rocky Gregory
Lieutenant Tim Muzny
Location: Oklahoma County Jail
Date/Time: July 10, 2014

(Conversation already in progress when recording begins)

TERRI MORRIS: "2014 and he gave me my crack pipe back."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "This, this is Detective Gregory with, uh, Lieutenant Muzny. We're here with Terri Morris, uh, here at the County jail. She had been"

TERRI MORRIS: "I just want to recount the location, that's all."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "She had been, uh, placed under arrest. Uh, she advised that she did want to talk to us a little bit more. Is that correct Terri?"

TERRI MORRIS: "That's it. That's all I wanted."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay, Terri, tell"

TERRI MORRIS: "I was thinking about that last night(unintelligible)."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay, you said you had some more information."

TERRI MORRIS: "That's all."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Tell me, tell me again so I can take some notes."

TERRI MORRIS: "That the loc - uh, just that, uh, we can - that the location I gave you was wrong."

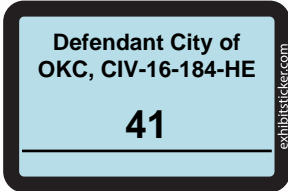

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Why, why did you give us the wrong location?"

TERRI MORRIS: "Because I don't want my boyfriend to know - uh, be wondering why I was over there by Liberty."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Why was you over there by Liberty?"

TERRI MORRIS: "Because I was getting high. Well, I had been done getting high, but I was leaving on my way home though. When I got out the gate - soon as I stepped out of the gate he was like - he called me by my nickname like he already knew me or something. He says"

LT. TIM MUZNY: "Who, who, who said this?"

TERRI MORRIS: "The police. He said T - he said, 'TT.' He called me TT. That's what people on the streets call me."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Right. I know."

TERRI MORRIS: "And he said, uh, 'Is there anything in your purse sharp' or something he said. You know what y'all say. Is it sharp - something I could cut myself on? And I said, 'No.' I said, 'I have a crack pipe' that - you know, trying to be honest, because I thought he was an honest cop."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Right."

TERRI MORRIS: "And so he told me to get in the car and then he pulled - Liberty is, like, on 26th if you go - come down the one street. It's on 26th."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Right."

TERRI MORRIS: "And then he went up Lindsey to 24th, because Liberty is on 26th and Lindsey. He went up, he went up, uh, to 24th and Lindsey and there's some more apartments right, right down the street from the welfare office - in back of the welfare. Not, not the new apartments. They got a big gate around them. I forget the name of them."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "There, there at Liberty?"

TERRI MORRIS: "No, two blocks past Liberty. You know, there's a bunch of apartments. Like, this is Liberty and then it's another apartment, and then it's some more apartments, and then it's some more apartments with a gate around it - a iron black gate."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay. What did he do? Okay, so he stops you there at Liberty?"

TERRI MORRIS: "Yeah, and pulls me around there and he don't pull directly in front of the apartments but he pulled, like, right before you get in front of them. Like, but you in, you in front of the apartments but you not directly in front of them where, uh - he pulled where nobody could see us. Nobody could see who he has in the car. They could probably see his car, but they can't see who he have in the car - see what he's doing. And, I was sitting there in the back. He got - he said, uh, he said he was running a check on me, but I said, 'Well, I don't got no warrants or nothing' and I guess he must - I don't know if he ran the check or for real ran the check or not. But then he just kept twirling my pipe around looking at it when he was playing with it, like, twiddling it around, looking at it. Then, he said, um - he got out the car, opened the door. I was sitting just like this in the backseat and he opened the door and he said, 'Unzip your pants.'

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "And, now, the way you have your position - you were just sitting there like in a normal, normal way?"

TERRI MORRIS: "Yeah, in the normal sitting position."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay, keep going."

TERRI MORRIS: "And he, he, he - like this the door - he was standing up while I'm sitting there and I - then I thought he was going to, you know, let me get out but he says, 'Open your pants.' I said, 'Open my pants?' He said, 'Unzip your, your pants.' I said, 'Unzip my pants?' And then he told me raise up my shirt. He asked me did I have panties on and everything. And then he said, uh, he said, uh, you - he, he - I said - he said - he asked me to give him some oral sex. He didn't say that, though. I want to say he said a 'blow job.' And I was like, 'What?' He was like, 'Oh, come on just for two minutes' and I was like - I really felt like I had no choice. And then I was like, 'Man.' I was like, 'I, I don't want to do this' and he said, 'Oh, come on.' But I was trying to figure out - been trying to figure out how he knew my name all along - like somebody told him - like that's TT."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay. I'm, I'm going to back you up just a little bit, okay? Before, you told me about you was headed down to the mission. So, that's not true?"

TERRI MORRIS: "No, just"

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "And you didn't leave a rehab center?"

TERRI MORRIS: "Yeah, I was at the rehab. I did relapse on the rehab."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Where was you walking from?"

TERRI MORRIS: "When I seen him? Out of Liberty."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Out of Liberty."

TERRI MORRIS: "But he had just pulled out of Liberty too, messing with me, but he had seen me standing on the porch and he had never even messed with me. It's like soon as I left out of Liberty he left out of Liberty."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "On what day was this?"

TERRI MORRIS: "Oh, I don't remember."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Now, you"

TERRI MORRIS: "Mr. Williams, I don't remember all that now."

TERRI MORRIS: "It's got - probably around - but, yeah, probably then I probably remembered. I don't remember now. You know what I mean?"

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay, so you don't know, but it was - do you know if it was a few days before you told your boyfriend and the police about the rape?"

TERRI MORRIS: "Yeah, it was some days before then. It was"

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "But, you don't know how many days?"

TERRI MORRIS: "I want to say it was about, probably, uh, four - about eight days."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "But you had been getting high during that time?"

TERRI MORRIS: "Yeah, well, I relapsed even worse when he did that."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay, okay. Now, tell me what time of day was this?"

TERRI MORRIS: "It was, uh, evening. It was, it was, uh, dark outside. It wasn't late though. It was like early evening but it was, you know, just getting dark."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay, now"

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "No, no. Hey, hey, you're doing fine. You're doing fine, okay?"

TERRI MORRIS: "Because I can't think of all that stuff no more."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Have another drink of pop."

TERRI MORRIS: "I can't remember all that stuff. It's, like, jumbled up in my head anymore."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Now, I didn't know if you liked Dr. Pepper or Coke. I thought that would be okay. You like Coke?"

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "So then what?"

TERRI MORRIS: "And, and then - because he already kind of threatened me about the crack pipe - so I put my mouth on him."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Did he unzip his pants or did he take it up over the top of his pants?"

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "And, tell me again why you gave a different location?"

TERRI MORRIS: "Because I didn't want my boyfriend knowing I had relapsed."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay. Now, going back to this. After, after the zip up - or after the blow job - what happens?"

TERRI MORRIS: "Then he lets me out the car. Then he said, 'Well, you know, I can't give this back to you' - my pipe. He gives my purse back. Then I said to him - I said, 'Well, shoot, you might as well let me have that back.' You know, because I'm thinking to myself you done violated me. And, so, he hands it back to me, and then he says - but first he says, 'Well, you really don't need it.' You - he said, 'You might go to jail for it.' And then he says, uh, 'Well, where are you walking to?' I said, 'I'm just going straight up the street.' I was going to the townhouses behind the welfare office - them town - them townhouses right there on Kelley."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay, yes, yes, yes."

TERRI MORRIS: "I was going over, uh, Uncle Terry Wayne's house, and uh - that was just right up the street - and he says, um, 'No, I think I should take you.' I said, 'No, I can walk.' He said, 'I wouldn't want nothing bad to happen to you out here.' Then, I said, 'No, I can walk. Please let me walk.' And, uh, I wanted to tell him I wasn't going to take - to say nothing - just please let me go - but I didn't get to say all that. I asked him let me go and he, uh, said, 'No, I think I better take you.' And I'll tell you where he took me. He put me in the car. He said, 'I better take you.' He put me in the car but he drove past the street. He turned and I said, 'Where are you going?' He said, 'I'm just taking a different route.' He passed the whole street. He - my grandmother lives on Hill Street. That's where I grew up - on 812 East Hill

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "So, he takes you off of Kelley, behind the welfare office?"

TERRI MORRIS: "At the townhouses. I want to go to Terry Wayne's house and I tell Terry that's what happened. I - well, I didn't even tell my Uncle Terry Wayne. I just wanted to go and lay down."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Where's this field at that he drove you to?"

TERRI MORRIS: "On Hill - on 812 East Hill. Right off of, uh - it's right on - let me see."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Where your mom lives?"

TERRI MORRIS: "Where my grandmother - yeah. It's a field down the street from her house."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "He was going to take you home?"

TERRI MORRIS: "He was going to take me in that field. Her house is on this end - one end of the block - and then there's a field that separate the

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Why would he take you to there? Because I"

TERRI MORRIS: "In the field?"

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Um hum. No, no. Why would he take you over by your grandma's house?"

TERRI MORRIS: "Probably because he seen that field. I don't think he knew that's where I, where I grew up."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Oh, he didn't?"

TERRI MORRIS: "I don't think he knew I grew up right there."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Do you remember him running you on the radio or computer?"

TERRI MORRIS: "He said he did. I don't know. He said he did."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay."

TERRI MORRIS: "All, all I heard him saying something on - but I don't know if he was doing it for real or just - but I don't think he was doing it for real because he would have known - that I - because he seen I didn't have no

he first"

TERRI MORRIS: "See, I don't think he knew I grew up down the street from that field."

LT. TIM MUZNY: "Okay, was there any kind of - did he pull into any kind of driveway or anything like that?"

TERRI MORRIS: "No, no. He got - I know he was getting ready to pull into that field because I could tell by the way he was"

LT. TIM MUZNY: "No, no, no, no."

TERRI MORRIS: "getting ready to turn"

LT. TIM MUZNY: "Not the field. Where, where he first"

TERRI MORRIS: "No, it was on the street."

LT. TIM MUZNY: "On the street?"

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "There you go. Now, maybe that might be easier. Okay."

TERRI MORRIS: "And then there wasn't no other police when I need them."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay. Hey, one more question. Was that an - now you said before it was the older style car, not the new."

TERRI MORRIS: "Yeah, it was the black and white one - the old square ones."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay, and it wasn't the new black straight car?"

TERRI MORRIS: "No."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay."

TERRI MORRIS: "You think after I show you everything that I might can make one call to my boyfriend and let him know what's going on - my ex? Because he called me and said he seen something about it on the news. Was it on the news?"

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "It - yours is not on the news."

TERRI MORRIS: "Yeah, he said the girl and he said he thought about me and he said, 'I am so sorry for thinking you were lying.'"

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Well"

TERRI MORRIS: "I know they going to let me out anyway. They said that."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Well, as far as your charges, I can't do anything about your charges."

TERRI MORRIS: "I know, but they said - I already know the people said that I was going to go home. They just said they backed up, though."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Okay."

TERRI MORRIS: "I ain't got nothing but trespassing and crack pipe."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "Well, I just found out that you were over here and, and then I knew you wanted to, to talk to us."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "No, he's not an officer right now. No, we've taken his gun and all that."

TERRI MORRIS: "So, he can't just come in this place, huh?"

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "No."

TERRI MORRIS: "This is, like, the safest place I feel."

DET. ROCKY GREGORY: "It's very safe."

TERRI MORRIS: "But then I was thinking what if, you know, he got some friends in this place that'll come get me also. Do you think that after I show you locations that I might can make a call to my ex and tell him what's going on?"
