PLAINTIFF JANNIE LIGONS’S RESPONSES TO DEFENDANT OKLAHOMA CITY, CITY, AND GREGORY’S INTERROGATORIES, REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS, AND REQUEST FOR ADMISSIONS

Plaintiff Jannie Ligons (“Plaintiff” or “Ms. Ligons), through her attorneys of record Benjamin L. Crump, Melvin C. Hall, and Damario Solomon-Simmons herein submits her responses to Defendants Oklahoma City, (“OKC”), Bill City (“City”), and Rocky Gregory’s (“Gregory”) interrogatories, request for production of documents request for admissions, and, and submits her objections, as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS AND LIMITATIONS TO RESPONSES

The following objections and conditions qualify each and every response of Plaintiff to Defendant's requests for admissions, interrogatories and requests for production (collectively, "discovery requests"), and are incorporated by this reference into each and every response of Plaintiff to Defendant's discovery requests, as if fully set forth therein:

1. Plaintiff objects to the definitions and instructions contained in Defendant's discovery requests to the extent that they attempt to impose obligations or requirements upon Plaintiff beyond those posed by the applicable statutes and rules of procedure.

Plaintiff will respond to Defendant's discovery requests in accordance with the applicable statute and rules of procedure.

2. Each of the following responses are made subject to and without waiving any objections. Plaintiff may have with respect to the subsequent use of these responses or the documents identified pursuant thereto, and Plaintiff specifically reserves: (a) all questions as to the privilege, relevancy, materiality, and admissibility of said responses or documents; (b) the right to object to the uses of said responses or the documents identified pursuant thereto in any lawsuit or proceeding on any or all of the foregoing grounds or on any other proper ground; (c) the right to object on any and all proper grounds, at any time, to other discovery procedures involving or related to said responses or documents; and (d) the right, at any time, upon proper showing, to revise, correct or clarify any of the following Responses.

3. Plaintiff objects to each of Defendant's discovery requests to the extent they call for the disclosure of information which is protected from discovery and privileged for the reason that: (a) is subject to the attorney/client privilege; (b) is covered by the "work product" doctrine; (c) was generated for and in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for Plaintiff or its representatives, including its attorneys, consultants or agents; and (d) is otherwise privileged or beyond the scope of discovery under the applicable rules and laws.

4. Plaintiff objects to each and every discovery request to the extent it seeks information or the identification of documents concerning any claims or occurrences other than the claims and occurrences set forth in Plaintiff's Complaint for which Plaintiff requests relief.

5. Where the response to an interrogatory propounded by Defendant may be derived or ascertained from the documents which will be produced by Plaintiff and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the response is substantially the same as for Plaintiff, Plaintiff reserves the right to refer Defendant to such documents and records.

6. By responding to the discovery requests of the Defendant, Plaintiff concedes neither the relevancy nor the admissibility of any information or document in response to a specific discovery request and such response does not constitute an admission that such information is probative of any particular issue in this case.

7. Plaintiff reserves the right, as additional information is discovered, analyzed or made available during discovery and during the course of these proceedings, to supplement or revise these Responses to Defendant's discovery requests.

8. Plaintiff objects to the extent the Defendant's discovery requests seek information and documents generated or formulated by persons or entities independent of Plaintiff over whom Plaintiff has no control.

The foregoing objections apply to each and every response herein. By specifically incorporating individual General Objections in any response, Plaintiff expressly does not waive the application of the remainder of the General Objections and Limitations to Responses to such response. Subject to these objections and subject to any additional objections set forth, hereinafter, Plaintiff responds to Defendant's discovery requests as follows:
