1 it is.

2 Q Well, sometimes supervisors do them if 3 they get the information and are able to determine 4 the person is not exactly telling the truth?

5 A Well, initially the supervisor in the 6 field will take the initial complaint or reports.
7 If they can do an investigation and determine that 8 it's -- it's not valid, and they can -- we can 9 have them do investigations in the field. If 10 it's -- if it's an investigation where you can't 11 make those kind of determinations, then we'll 12 investigate it, we'll bring it inside, but there
13 are times where supervisors -- they always end up
14 doing the initial call, the initial investigation,
15 at least on the allegation on the complaint, so.
16 And sometimes they can determine that and 17 sometimes that may be a person, you know, easily, 18 it easily be determined that it couldn't have 19 happened during -- when they said it happened.

20 Q And you were asked about the difference
21 between the Ligons complaint of a sexual assault
22 and the Terri Morris complaint of a sexual 23 assault, isn't it true that Ms. Ligons complained 24 immediately?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Isn't it true --

2 A Fairly immediately, yeah.

3 Q Okay. Within an hour?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Isn't it true that you could have some 6 evidence that substantiated what she said?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Isn't it true that the moment she said she 9 was sexually assaulted, the two -- the patrol 10 lieutenant called the sex crimes lieutenant who 11 sent out his investigator who took her to the 12 hospital where she had a SANE exam and she was 13 interviewed by the detective immediately?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Isn't that the proper policy and procedure
16 of the City of Oklahoma City when a -- at least 17 credible sex complaint against a police officer is 18 made?

19 A Yeah, I mean, it would be -- you would 20 really consider them all credible under those -- 21 and I don't care who the individual is, that that 22 process would take place.

23 Q And if you would have sent a SANE -- sent 24 Ms. Morris to a SANE nurse complaining about a
25 sexual assault by anybody three or four days
