Members of the Jury, I find that the verdicts as read reflect the will of the Jury and will be filed accordingly. I have to thank you on behalf of the people of the State of Minnesota for not only jury service, but heavy-duty jury service. What I'm going to ask you to do now is to follow the deputy back into your usual room and I will join you in a few minutes to answer questions and to advise you further. So, all rise for the Jury.

All right. Be seated. With the guilty verdicts returned we're going to have a Blakely, you may file a written argument as to Blakely factors within one week.

The court will issue findings on the Blakely factors, the factual findings, one week after that. We'll order a PSI immediately, returnable in four weeks. And we will also have a briefing on, after you get the PSI, six weeks from now, and then eight weeks from now we will have sentencing. We'll get you the exact dates in a scheduling order. Is there a motion on behalf of the State?

State:

Your Honor, the State would move to have the court revoke the defendant's bail and remanded under custody, pending sentencing.

Judge Peter Cahill:

Bail is revoked, bond is discharged, and the defendant is remanded to the custody of the Hennepin County Sheriff. Anything further? All right. Thank you. [inaudible]
We're adjourned.
