JULIUS DARIUS JONES,

Appellant,

vs.

THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA

Appellee.

Case No. D-2002-534

THIRD SUPPLEMENT TO OBJECTION TO NOTICE PURSUANT TO 22 O.S. 2021, § 1001.1(D) REGARDING EXECUTION DATE

JULIUS DARIUS JONES, through undersigned counsel, herein provides a third supplement to his Objection to the Notice Pursuant to 22 O.S. 2021, §1001.1(D) Regarding Execution Date which he filed in this Court on August 27, 2021.¹

Mr. Jones’s Objection informed this Court that scheduling his execution date is inappropriate because “the Oklahoma Pardon and Parole Board has scheduled a hearing on Mr. Jones’s request—originally filed on October 15, 2019—for commutation of his death sentence” which is “scheduled to occur on September 13, 2021.”² (Objection at 2, 4.)

² Mr. Jones’s second supplement informed this Court that he has requested relief under Fed. R. Civ. P. 59(e) to vacate the judgment of dismissal, to vacate the Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b) entry of partial final judgment and, alternatively, to stay entry of the judgment under Fed. R. App. P. 8 in Glossip v. Chandler, No. CIV-14-665 (W.D. Okla. Aug. 11, 2021). That request remains pending.

On September 13, 2021, the Oklahoma Pardon and Parole Board voted to recommend that the Oklahoma Governor commute Mr. Jones's death sentence to life with the possibility of parole.

In light of this development, Mr. Jones brings this new information to the Court's attention asks that the Court refrain from scheduling an execution date until the Oklahoma Governor has decided whether to accept or reject the Board's recommendation.
